FDR; Britain Stress "Reverse Lend Lease" Nazi Fortified Line Is Threatened By Allied Successes

Officials Of Both Nations Vow Mutual Aid

Many Commodities Now Coming To U. S. From England

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—President Roosevelt and the British government, in separate reports, today laid heavy stress upon the material aid which this country has received from the British empire under "reverse lend-lease."

The reports followed, but made no specific reference to, charges in congress that U. S. lend-lease constituted "the most colossal dole of all time," and implications on Capitol Hill that this government was bearing a disproportionate share of war costs, in money and supplies.

The senate appropriations committee and the Truman war investigating committee are now jointly inquiring into lend-lease operations.

Apparently in recognition of these discussions in Washington, Sir John Anderson, Britain's chancellor of the exchequer, gave the house of commons a white paper on the subject of reverse lend-lease (which the British call mutual aid), stating that the lend-lease system "has ceased to flow in one direction only."

The white paper said that up to June 30 mutual aid to the United States from the United Kingdom (not including Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India) amounted to $871,000,000, and a British information service bulletin added the estimate that such aid, in cash, now amounted to "well over a billion dollars."

Biggest British material assistance, it was disclosed, has been in supplying base facilities and supplies for American forces based in the British Isles, but it was announced the contribution is being broadened to include raw materials and bulk food stuffs from both the United Kingdom and the colonies.

President Roosevelt's concurrent report to congress was read there several hours after commons had received the white paper. It dealt entirely with reverse lend-lease from the British commonwealth, stating that the empire has contributed $1,174,900,000 "to the defense of the United States" through last June.

This was in reciprocity for upwards of $5,500,000,000 in lend-lease supplies from the United States, and covered such varied items as corn-on-the-cob and boxing gloves.

Most of it came from the British Isles, whose total was $871,000,000. Airports, barracks, hospitals and similar facilities for American air and land forces accounted for $371,000,000 of Britain's share, goods and services for $331,000,000 and shipping for $169,000,000.

Australia helped out to a total of $196,000,000, New Zealand provided $51,000,000 in reverse lend-lease and India $59,900,000. Canada never has received lend-lease assistance from this country, paying cash for all war supplies obtained here.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—Waxing wrath over inability to obtain final action on legislation to put pre-war fathers at the bottom of the draft list, chairman May (D-Ky.) of the house military committee today accused the senate of "running out on us."

May is head of the house conferees named two weeks ago to attempt to work out a compromise with a senate committee.

The conferees met early this week but broke up in disagreement over how much authority should be given to Major General Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director.

Army Troops Fight By Marines' Side On Bougainville

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Nov. 11 (AP)—Powerful reinforcements of regular U. S. army troops, landed without loss from warship-guarded transports, fought today alongside the spearhead of Marines on Bougainville against badly decimated Japanese.

The tide of jungle battle—a welter of tanks, mortars and camouflaged men contending in the roughest type of terrain—swung definitely toward the invaders of that last big Solomon Island protecting the Nipponese fortress of Rabaul.

"Our Bougainville operations were successful beyond our fondest expectations," said Rear Adm. Robert B. Carney after watching the soldiers swarm ashore and after seeing an enemy raiding airforce lose 26 out of 60 divebombers and fighters without sinking one of the ships in the convoy.

Bombs damaged one transport but Admiral Carney emphasized that "no boat was laid up and all the ships got back to base."

"This naval operation, in waters only 26 miles southeast of Japanese warships at Rabaul, afforded a striking contrast to Tokyo broadcasts that 96 Allied vessels have been sunk recently, that it was Nippon's biggest triumph since Pearl Harbor" and that Admiral Mineichi Koga had been congratulated for his "overwhelming sea and air victories."

(In New York last night, Navy Secretary Frank Knox said "our fleet in the Pacific is so powerful that the Jap hasn't got the nerve to come out in the open.")

The army reinforcements landed Monday at Empress Augusta Bay. At that time, Japanese troops which went ashore the day before from 21 barges north of that beachhead to join with forces on the south in a pincers operation, had begun to infiltrate American lines.

Germany, Japs Have Strength

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—Germany's war strength is greater today than in 1939 and Japan still has a mighty wallop poised over Asia, a high-ranking U. S. army chieflain was quoted as saying today.

The statement was made by Rep. Outland (D-Calif.) who said he was quoting Major General George V. Strong, chief of the army's intelligence division, with the general's permission.

Outland, avowedly anxious to prick any bubbles of U. S. optimism over the war task ahead, declared that Strong told a secret congressional session several weeks ago that:

"The German army has approximately three times as many combat divisions in the field today as it had when the attack on Poland began four years ago."

"The Germans now have 300 well-trained divisions. This year alone they reformed or re-equipped or raised more than 60 new divisions, each of which has approximately 600 machine guns and 300 heavier weapons."

The Reich raised and equipped armored, motorized and infantry divisions to replace each of the 29 lost at Stalingrad last winter.

Eden Surveys Moscow Meet To Commons

By E. C. DANIEL LONDON, Nov. 11 (AP)—In his first public report on the Moscow conference Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden gave commons today the most optimistic official outlook ever presented—Britain for full and frank post-war cooperation among Great Britain, the United States and Russia.

Indicating that the results at Moscow had exceeded even his high hopes, Eden asserted the major success of the parity was not in its radically new consultative machinery, but in "the basis of goodwill and confidence" which it established among the three powers for dealing with future problems.

While not pretending that agreement had been reached on all the problems discussed, the foreign secretary said reasonable hope could be held "for even the most stubborn among them."

Some of his listeners presumed this a reference to the question of Russia's post-war boundaries.

He also disclosed that economic questions had been discussed and an agreement reached "on a program for handling these vast problems, on many of which work already has begun."

The absence of any economic agreement had been mentioned by some commentators as the principal gap left in the Moscow conference program.

He explained that only the three big Allied powers had been included on the European advisory commission because its function was to make recommendations, instead of being an executive body, and revealed that occasionally "a sort of ad hoc (special purpose) conference of a foreign secretary and two ambassadors could be set up to consider problems x x x something of a novelty in diplomatic procedure."

He said a large measure of credit for success of the meetings must go to the Foreign Commission because of the long and complicated agenda and added that secretary of State Cordell Hull must have felt the results justified "his very gallant venture in making this long flight" from the United States.

NEW DELHI, India, Nov. 11 (AP) RAF medium bombers raided the Hcho airfield in Burma for the second night in succession, sprinkling bombs on hangars, barracks and runways and leaving numerous fires, a British joint air and ground communique announced today.

AIR-WAC Celebration Many Civilians Attend Army Show

An enthusiastic and large group of civilians heard a fast moving and fun-filled Military Revue, where they sang their song, "The WAC Is in Back of You," accompanied by the 315th band.

Cpl. Sylvia Pederson was featured in two songs, "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," and "Coming In on a Wing and a Prayer." Lieut. Nickolai, WAC recruiting officer from Sweetwater, gave two comic readings about the WACs.

By NOLAND NORGARD ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS, Nov. 11 (AP) Skilled American mountain fighters of the Fifth army stormed up the heights and drove the enemy from two mountains, including Mount Rotondo northwest of Mignano where the main inland road to Rome passes through the heavily fortified line that Nazi soldiers have been ordered to hold until New Year's, Allied headquarters announced today.

The Americans smashed forward against German counterthrusts to the peak of Mount Rotondo overlooking the broad valley leading to Cassino, eight miles north of Mignano.

Meanwhile, an air force statement disclosed that the Germans already were blasting and wrecking ships and port facilities at both the west and east coast ports of Leghorn and Pescara, either in preparation for evacuation of those places or in fear of their seizure by Allied amphibious forces.

Simultaneously, the Eighth army of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, fighting through snowstorms in the Apennines, advanced five miles and captured Rionero, 10 miles northeast of Isernia and five miles south of Castel Di Sangro on an important trans-peninsular highway.

The Germans had burned and destroyed Rionero. Meeting only light resistance, the Eighth army also swept up to the south bank of the Sangro river which empties into the Adriatic and captured most of the territory on the south side of that stream along which the Germans had formed the eastern end of their "winter defense line."

Casalanguida, 15 miles inland from the Adriatic, and Rocasica were taken in the advance.

The Brenner Pass railroad bottleneck between Germany and her southern front, was believed to have been sealed for the time being as the result of a powerful blow by 15th air force Flying Fortresses which flew to the Alps yesterday and smashed railway yards, buildings, locomotive sheds and bridges in and near Bolzano.

This line to Innsbruck was broken at Bolzano once before by heavy bombers from this area, but the Germans had got the service going again. This time it was believed the damage was more serious.

A coordinated strike by the RAF's four-engine raiders from Britain was made last night against Modane, the French end of the Mt. Cenis Alpine tunnel. Thus, two of the four main rail routes into Italy, exclusive of those through Switzerland, were hit.

At the same time American Liberators from the 15th air force made a repeat raid on the Villa Perosa ball bearing works southwest of Turin, hitting that objective for the second time in two days in an effort to knock out most of Germany's resources for producing bearings for her war machines.

The American units of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth army, in addition to seizing the two hills northwest of Mignano, attacked and drove the Germans from the southeast slopes of another mountain barrier one mile southwest of that town.

Mount Rotondo, only a mile and a half northwest of Mignano, overlooks the valley leading to Cassino, 73 miles southeast of Rome, and was taken after the Americans had broken up preparations for another large German counter-attack west of Venafro. A concentration of mortar and artillery fire falling among the Germans made them disperse.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP) Secretary of War Stimson reported today that army casualties in Italy since the landings at Salerno Sept. 9 total 8,556, with 1,295 killed, 4,764 wounded and 2,497 missing.

The losses of British forces in Italy during the same period, Stimson said at a press conference, but the exact British figures were not available.

County's Military Roll Dedicated To Courage, Devotion

The simple white board that stands on the west side of Howard county's courthouse square was symbolically draped today in patriotism, courage, sacrifice and devotion.

That board bears the names of the flower of the county's young manhood, those hundreds and hundreds of young men who have answered the wartime call of their country.

Today, as the people remembered the end of another war just 25 years ago, the board became truly an Honor Roll, dedicated to the men whose names are inscribed thereon, and to the fathers and mothers and other loved ones who remain at home.

Simple but impressive ceremonies marked the presentation of the Honor Roll to the people of the county, by the county commissioners court. Said Judge James T. Brooks in the formal presentation address: "We here our heads to the men in the armed forces, realizing that they are doing for us what we cannot do ourselves; and realizing that we must carry on here at home, to instill in them the fervor of Victory. And in dedicating this roster, we hereby dedicate ourselves in courage and

Ally Planes Bomb Railways

LONDON, Nov. 11 (AP)—Powerful Allied air forces in Britain and the Mediterranean theater struck with their combined weights at Germany's vulnerable rail routes funneling into northern Italy through both the Brenner Pass from Austria and the Mt. Cenis tunnel from France.

Four-engine raiders last night struck a concentrated blow at Modane, France, at the northern end of the Mt. Cenis Alpine tunnel, one of the world's longest. Good weather favored the operation.

American Flying Fortresses from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's command rained explosives yesterday on the freight yards, locomotive sheds and numerous other installations at Bolzano in the Alps on the route through Brenner Pass.

All the RAF's planes returned safely from Modane at the end of the seven and a half mile long tunnel. This was the second attack in eight weeks on Modane by British-based air forces.

It also was the second recent attack on Bolzano. Simultaneously Mosquito bombers attacked targets in western Germany and mines were laid in enemy waters, the bulletin added.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—Eight army dogs, trained to attack all but their masters, now are patrolling lonely areas of La Guardia Field, working a nine-hour night tour of duty.

Senate Threat Of Filibuster Arouses Action

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—The threat of a filibuster sent administration lieutenants scurrying today for a possible compromise which again would delay senate consideration of a measure to outlaw the collection of state poll taxes in federal elections.

With 16 southern democrats expressing determination to block senate action, the judiciary committee will vote tomorrow on a house-approved bill endorsed by the CIO and AFL.

Senator Mead (D - N. Y.) said recently the measure also is backed by President Roosevelt and party leaders.

Expected committee approval will place the bill on the senate calendar but there is ample evidence that if any member then seeks to take it up he will be met by a barrage of southern oratory on extraneous matters. This talk could be limited only by invoking the cloture rule, which requires a favorable two-thirds vote.

The senate went through an experience of this kind a year ago when democratic leader Barkley (D-Ky.) sought to force action on a similar bill and ran into a filibuster. The fight was so bitter that Barkley's leadership was challenged at a democratic conference and peace was restored only after the bill was pigeonholed.

Major Bowman Will Address Post Grads

Major Sam. W. Bowman of the Childress Flying Field will be main speaker at graduation exercises for Class 43-16 Saturday at 9:30 a. m. at the Big Spring Bombardier School post theatre.

Major Bowman was formerly commandant of cadets at the Big Spring post.

After leaving here he spent some time in Australia, New Guinea, and the Solomons where he was bombardier in the lead ship on seven or eight combat missions. Returning to the states he was stationed at Childress where he is now director of ground training.

Chaplain James L. Patterson will give the invocation and Sgt. Joe Kling will sing, "Over There," and "Calm as the Night." Administration of the oath of office will be by first Lieutenant Pierre W. Currie, and Col. R. W. Warren, commanding officer of the field, will award the silver wings.

Response from the class will be by J. K. Burke of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The program will close with the national anthem and benediction by Chaplain Patterson.

Class 43-16 is one of the largest of the classes to graduate from the local field and 41 states are represented by its members.

Class officers include Burns, wing commander; W. R. Burns, wing adjutant; W. R. Allamatt, wing supply officer; R. B. Marsden, squadron commander; W. C. O'Neal, squadron adjutant; and F. Beccetti, first sergeant.

United Council Of Church Women Meet At Local Church For Armistice Observance

Mrs. Bernard Fisher
Chairman, Presides
Over The Program

World Community Day, the beginning of an annual observance in commemoration of Armistice, was held at the First Baptist church Wednesday by the United Council of Church Women.

Women of all faiths joined in the day's worship and total registration was 46 persons. "The Price of An Enduring Peace" was the theme of the meeting which was held in the church auditorium.

The altar was banked with greenery forming a background for the word 'Peace' which was printed in white flowers. Beneath the arrangement were miniature birds holding sprays of white flowers, and on one side was placed an illuminated American flag, which was waving.

Mrs. Bernard Fisher, chairman of the council, presided over the program which opened with a worship service conducted by Mrs. S. C. Cooper, leader, Mrs. R. D. Ulrey, Mrs. C. T. Clay and Mrs. Pat Wilkinson.

"The Price of War and Peace" was discussed by Mrs. Carl S. Blomshild, Mrs. R. B. G. Cowper, Mrs. J. B. Young and Mrs. William Tate, Mrs. A. B. Brown sang "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way" accompanied by Mrs. Pat Kenney.

Concluding address of the morning was given by Chaplain James L. Patterson of the Big Spring Bombardier School who spoke on "World Brotherhood." Luncheon

A sacrificial luncheon was served at noon in the church basement, and the invocation given by Mrs. J. B. Pickett, Mrs. Garner McAdams spoke on "A Hand - A Heart - A Responsibility."

Opening address of the afternoon session was given by Mrs. Bernard Levin who spoke on "Organizing for Peace," and Mrs. D. A. Koons discussed "Building World Trade."

Mrs. Ruth Olsen and Mrs. Lena Greer sang "Did You Think To Pray," accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Kenney.

Concluding the program, the Rev. J. E. McCoy, pastor of the First Christian church, spoke on "World Order" and Mrs. S. T. Lovelace was in charge of a responsive reading for a World Government Day.

Unanimously the group voted to send to national headquarters, their statement concerning conditions in the post war world.

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Bernard Fisher and Mrs. Bernard Lanuna spoke over KBST on "The Meaning of World Community Day" in connection with the observance of the day.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. V. Van Gieson, Mrs. J. B. Young, Mrs. H. C. Read, Mrs. I. D. Eddins, Mrs. C. T. Clay, Mrs. E. E. Bryant, Mrs. D. A. Koons, Mrs. Chester'Brien, Mrs. A. C. Notes

MARY WHALEY

If we were to say a prayer today for Armistice day, it would be hard to know what to pray for. But first that magic five letter word, peace, would be what we would ask for.

We would pray for peace in torn and troubled lands and peace in grief-stricken hearts. We would ask that a giant hand could pour oil on churning waters and a cool hand be laid on fevered heads.

We would think of all those who know who stopped living lives of their own, to become a solid group of determined men fighting, hurting, and dying, not for any one reason but for a lot of little reasons they don't have time to think about now. We would think of them and pray that they might come home soon and pick up their lives that were broken in two.

And when these prayers are said we would add an even more important one. We would ask that the world not forget the lesson it learned at Pearl Harbor on December 7th. We would ask that the world not forget that it can happen here.

And last, we would pray that there is such a peace to come that in the future when some little boy asks what war is, happy adults will have trouble remembering what their grandparents told them.

That would be our Armistice day prayer.

From 'Joisey' To 'Texez'—

All Army Musical Cast Is Packed With Variety Of Talent, Personalities

By HELEN WILSON There's a variety of personalities and interesting peculiarities in the WACs and soldiers who make up the cast for the all-army musical which will be presented here soon for soldier and civilian entertainment.

Every accent from 'Joisey' to 'Texez' can be recognized during rehearsals of the two hour show which are held daily in the post theatre at the Big Spring Bombardier School.

Along with the catchy titles and intriguing songs which were written especially for the musical, are some intriguing members of the army's fairer sex such as Pfc. Bernice Sciorra, who will be featured in the number, "Catch A Falling Star."

she felt it was the least she could do during the present emergency.

Cpl. Alice Starrs, five foot two cutie from Chicago, Ill., appears in the number, "Khaki Is More Than A Color." She worked for a radio advertising agency prior to her enlistment, but then she became interested in the women's army and joined. She loves her work at camp and particularly show rehearsals.

Cpl. Rose Fineberg (O'Toole to the fellows and girls at camp) gives out with the blues in the coming show. She has been featured on programs and dance intermission entertainments both at camp and here in town. According to Rose, who worked in a store before she enlisted in the WACs, "I figured selling electric lamps wasn't helping win the war, so I joined the army."

Pvt. George Jay, who serves as the trainer instructor at the post, is featured in the comic number "Pin-up Girl," and admits he "became interested in singing when he took part in high school operettas (not too long ago) George likes rehearsals because they break the monotony of the daily routine.

Sgt. Larry Principle, former resident of Newark, N. J., was a band leader in civilian life, but for the past 20 months he's been playing with Uncle Sam's band. He will appear in the dance routine "Pain in the Ballet."

Pvt. Earl Sise, who is featured in the chorus and opening scene, has a very appropriate name for he stands six foot three inches tall. He's a mechanic at the local post, and has been in the service for the past 11 months.

Pvt. Don Vavro of Detroit, Mich., was a professional dancer in civilian life, and is now a physical instructor at AAFBS. He has a brother who's a lieutenant in England and one at Fort Riley, Kans.

Since Pfc. Allen Mabuca was a truck driver in civilian life, the army promptly placed him in the mess company and now he serves KP whether he's good or bad. He's from Fredricktown, Mo., and appears in the chorus.

Sgt. King Koenig came to the army fresh from the dude ranch in Colorado, and has been in service since December 9, 1940. "I don't think I'll go back to punching cattle when the war's over, but continue in the photographic field which I've learned since I've been in the army," he says.

He appears in the chorus, and developed a liking for music when he sang in the church choir. Newest discovery in talent for the army musical is Pfc. George Baur, who has been chosen to play the role of an Irish top kick. He's featured in the opening scene where Tyrone Taylor (Cpl. Phil Tucker) learns a thing or two of the army, and of an Irishman's temper.

October Arrests Announced At 119

Total arrests by the city police department during October was announced at 119 in the round up of departmental reports by the City of Big Spring as presented to the commissioners Tuesday evening.

Of the number 42, paid fines for drunkenness, 19 for gaming, and 17 for unlawful train riding. Seven vagrants were treated at the general disease clinic and five AWOL soldiers were turned over to the military police. Eight cases were transferred to the sheriff.

Fifteen traffic tickets were issued in October, 16 active cases were on the docket at the end of the month. Only one active speeding ticket was on file, two having paid in October. Policemen gave assistance in 245 instances, made around 100 investigations. The radio dispatchers handled 1,066 local messages and received and sent 387 others.

The case load at the general disease clinic rose to a total of 98 for syphilis during October. In addition to these, there were 329 treatments for gonorrhea. A breakdown on syphilis cases showed six new negro female cases and one each for white and colored males. Active cases include 15 white males, 22 white females, 23 colored males and 35 colored females, besides three other types such as congenital cases, etc.

In his narrative report to the commission, V. A. Cross, sanitarian for the Big Spring-Howard county division of the Midland-Ector-Howard County Health Unit, told of visits to dairies (who are steadily improving quality of milk supplies) checking samples of effluent from the sewer disposal plant, of checking city water samples, and of gradual progress by cafes in improving kitchen conditions.

Army's "Dream" Weapon Is Doing A Good Job

SUMMIT, N. J., Nov. 11 (AP)—The U. S. Army's "dream" weapon—a new electrical anti-aircraft gun director—is doing a good job in helping to blast the enemy out of the skies in far-flung theatres of war, its developers claim.

The device originated in a dream that Dr. David P. Parkinson, physicist of the Bell Telephone laboratories staff, had one night back in 1940 when the low countries were invaded by Hitler's hordes. He dreamed he was a member of a Dutch anti-aircraft gun crew bringing down Nazi planes in bunches with an electrical gun control mechanism.

The M9, which grew from that dream, was exhibited yesterday by army ordnance men at the Bell Telephone laboratories at Murray Hill near here, and was pronounced by Maj. Gen. L. H. Campbell, Jr., chief of the army ordnance department, to be "one of the greatest advances ever made in the art of gun fire control."

"Today," Gen. Campbell stated, "our men are knocking down an average of one plane to every 90 shots of 90 millimeter ammunition. In the last war we used to hit a plane on the average of every 17,000 shots, and then rarely knocked them down."

At the unveiling yesterday, an eastern defense command anti-aircraft battery spotted planes with electrically controlled range finders and tracks, positions were measured instantly by the electrical device and four 90-millimeter guns blazed on the target simultaneously. Built-in ballistic tables make it possible for the director in a second or two to compute direction and distance of the target, muzzle velocity of the shell which changes as a gun becomes older, direction and velocity of the wind, air density and other factors which vary. The gun is given an almost instantaneous direction and angle of fire and an automatic fuse setting.

HELPFUL HOUSEHOLD HINTS HOW TO CURE A STICKY WAFFLE IRON A waffle generally sticks because of improper preheating or insufficient shortening in the batter. When this happens, remove particles left on grid with wire brush. Then cover the grids with a thin film of salad oil or melted unsalted fat. Let grids heat until they smoke, pour batter and discard first waffle.

SOME OTHER HINTS ON WAFFLE IRON CARE 1 Heat iron to right temperature before pouring batter. 2 Wipe grids lightly with soft cloth or paper towel after each use. Don't wash grids. 3 Cool iron with lid up—cover while closed or grids will discolor.

How to conserve eyesight and light! Eyesight and light are both vital to the winning of the war. Conserve both by following these six easy suggestions: 1. Clean lamp bulbs and reflectors regularly with a damp cloth. Dry thoroughly before using. 2. Use shades with white linings to reflect light instead of absorbing it. 3. Keep all lights properly shaded to avoid glare. 4. Arrange furniture so one lamp serves two or more people if necessary. 5. Always turn off lights in unoccupied rooms. 6. Have eyes examined regularly by a competent eyesight specialist. Don't waste Electricity just because it isn't rationed—use what you need, but need what you use. TEXAS ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY C. S. City Shows Cash Balance $86,358

The City of Big Spring ended up with a cash balance of $86,358 as of Oct. 31 under the impetus of current tax payments in the amount of $78,872. Total receipts for the month, including $1,355 in delinquent taxes and water and sewer service collections of $14,242, amounted to $100,806. Disbursements for the month aggregated $37,024.

According to the financial statement submitted to the city commission and which carries only through Sept. 30, the city had received $126,092 (with $3,860 going to the interest and sinking fund) while expenditures were pegged at $98,525. This left an excess of receipts over disbursements of $27,706.

High on the list of receipts was the $88,275 for water service, about 75 per cent of the amount usually collected in an entire year. Delinquent tax collections stood at $4,573, the gas franchise receipts at $7,289, sewer service at $5,762, fines and court costs at $3,818, paving payments at $2,973, and $2,360 from the electric franchise.

General fund costs for the first half of the fiscal year stood at $90,333, including $32,164 in salaries and $32,241 in job costs. Capital outlay items boosted total general fund expenditures to $98,525.

Bonds retired during the period stood at $19,000 while interest accounted for another $18,586 out of the interest and sinking fund, which was left with a $33,506 balance. Cemetery fund revenues were up to $2,197 and disbursements from the fund to $1,382. Swimming pool and park system funds reached $7,535 and expenses $6,875 (including $1,340 transferred to the bond fund.)

As of the end of the first half of the fiscal year, balance of all funds was $130,188. A summary on the water department during September, the last month covered in the report, showed 46,546,000 gallons metered to customers. This was 6,000,000 gallons down from August but up by 18,350,000 gallons over September a year ago.

Buddy Agnell Home On Visit

Capt. P. W. (Buddy) Agnell, stationed in Washington, D. C. by the Air Transport Command, is visiting here a few days with his mother, Mrs. Della K. Agnell. He plans also to visit in Austin briefly before returning to his post. Capt. Agnell entered the army 17 months ago as a private and has risen rapidly to his present rank. After a brief stay in Brazil, he was brought back to the states and assigned to Washington. Recently he completed an audit inspection tour of ATC bases in countries in the Middle East, North African and European theatres which required 40 days of travel and work. Mrs. Agnell has another son, Lieut. Alvin Agnell, who is stationed in the Aleutians by the navy.

Schoolboy Leaders To Be Established In Tilts This Week

By The Associated Press
Championships of mathematical certainty could be determined in few districts of Texas schoolboy football this week but a number will be decided "virtually"—that is, leaders will be established that will not be dislodged with anything outside of startling upsets.

For all purposes the titles of districts 1, 7, 6, 13 and 14 are on the line.
Amarillo's only strong challenger—Lubbock—goes to Amarillo to play today. The winner of this game will be a "virtual certainty" to take the championship.

In District 7, North Side has only to hurdle Amon Carter-Riverside to be acclaimed pennant winner of Fort Worth.

In District 9 Breckenridge's mighty Buckaroos play Brownwood, the only other team undefeated in conference warfare.

District 13 has Jeff Davis meeting weak San Jacinto needing only a victory in this game to clinch Houston honors.

District 14 has Galveston and Goose Creek, the only undefeated teams in conference play, battling it out.

There are strong prospects of at least two of the state's nine undefeated, untied eleven taking the crown. These perfect record outfits are Amarillo, San Angelo, Sweetwater, Ysleta, Highland Park (Dallas), Longview, Lufkin, Goose Creek and McAllen. Sweetwater plays rugged Odessa and Goose Creek, of course, tangles with the fast-moving Galveston outfit. But the others do not appear in any great danger of falling. All have games except Ysleta.

Here is the state's schedule:
Thursday—Lubbock at Amarillo, Pampa at Plainview, Graham at Vernon, Abilene at Lamesa, Odessa at Sweetwater, Big Spring at San Angelo, El Paso High vs. Cathedral (El Paso), Gainesville at Denison, Poly (Fort Worth) vs. Arlington Heights (Fort Worth), Breckenridge at Brownwood, Ranger at Cisco, Corsicana at Cle-

Steers Trek To Angelo For Annual Melee

Big Spring high school footballers left early today to renew one of the keenest football rivalries in district 3-AA in a 2:30 p. m. game on the San Angelo Bobcat field.

The Steers do not rank even an outside chance of whipping the Bobcats, who boast their best balanced team in a decade, according to sports observers. However, the last statement made by John Dibrell, Big Spring coach, was to this effect:
"My boys are so green they aren't the least bit afraid of or impressed by San Angelo. We may get beat, but the Steers are determined to make those Bobcats know they have had a game."

If they do press the San Angelo lads, it won't be the first time that a Big Spring team has risen to the heights against San Angelo. Last year Big Spring was ousted by Angelo here by a 20-0 count, the largest margin score between the two teams since 1932. Angelo has practically the same team back (the backfield is identical) while Big Spring has only three lettermen in its squad.

Perhaps the fate of the Steers in this traditionally tough game hinges upon end play and the ability of backs to cover up against a passing attack.
With Milton Rathbone as a running threat around ends, San Angelo has a potent threat in its passing department. Rathbone can start as if to sweep the end and then suddenly drop back and chuck after he has sucked the defending half in to cover the run.

Dibrell has drilled his youngsters against this sort of attack for two weeks now and has brushed up on some of the local offensive tricks. Should the Steer offense start clicking, San Angelo might find a ball game on its hands.

Starters for the Steers will be Gene Smith and Pete Cook at ends, I. B. Bryan and Lee Christian at tackles, Ray Thomas and Harlan Morgan at guards, Barkley Wood at center, Leo Rusk at quarterback, Bobby Barron and Hugh Cochran at halves, and Dewie Stevenson at fullback.

Ends for San Angelo will be Horner and Blackwood; tackles, Doyle and Callan; guards, Hughes and Miller; center, Williams; Rathbone, Taff Graham and Carley in the back field.

The Big Spring Yearlings and the San Angelo Kittens were to tangle at 10:30 a. m. in a prelude to the big game. In the first encounter between the juniors, the Yearlings won a 19-6 victory here. Wayne Matthews, Yearling coach, planned to start his usual lineup.

BRYAN, Nov. 11 (AP)—Bryan Air Field winds up its 1943 football season Sunday, when it meets the Hearne Internment Camp at Hearne.

Despite a record of six defeats and no wins, Bryan Field is rated a slight favorite by virtue of its performance last Saturday night against Southwestern at Georgetown. Southwestern was forced to come from behind in the third quarter to win 20-6.

The Camp Hearne team has been defeated in recent encounters with the Word Island Marines and Camp Fannin.

No Liquor For Mer In Service Is Old Colorado Statute
DENVER, (AP)—A Colorado liquor law passed in 1931 was retained in the statutes published in 1936—and it forbids liquor sales to anyone in the armed services, Goddard Shackelford, state veterans service officer, discovered yesterday.

The perplexed state liquor director's office described the situation as "interesting."
Today, though, Attorney General Gall Ireland announced happily that the ban had been voided years ago by a constitutional amendment.

War Fund Total Up To $11,170, Final Push Is Mapped

As more dollars poured into the column, the Howard county National War Fund thermometer climbed up to $11,170 Wednesday evening.

This did not include what has come in from the rural districts nor did it take into consideration the funds received from civilian workers at the Big Spring Bombardier school. Both of these are being held back to be reported at one time as a final figure, said Pat Kenney, general chairman.

Kenney announced that organization of the T. & P. Railway company forces had been completed with T. E. Martin in charge of the car department, C. B. Camp in charge of the roundhouse, Mr. Sparks of the motor transport, and G. W. Dabney of the clerks.

Contributions were increased by $250 when Maj. Harry Wheeler delivered a check covering gifts from enlisted men, officers and cadets through the special services section at the Big Spring Bombardier school. Beta Sigma Phi came through with $25 and the compress company with $50.

Records were being studied by Kenney as the basis for regrouping for a final assault on the county's quota of $17,900. The Lions club membership has volunteered to help by additional solicitation, and Kenney thought that they would be sent out possibly Monday.

As of last Saturday, Howard county was tied for second from the bottom in the percentage of quotas raised by counties in region 15. Kenney said that since that time the percentage had increased from 52 to 62 per cent and that he felt that "Howard county is on its way to do something about it."

Mounting moans—
Coach Bob Higgins of Penn State puts in a claim for the season's hard-luck prize on this basis: (1) Eight V-12 players declared ineligible before the season started; (2) a good marine tackle was shipped out just for poking a fellow marine; (3) 17 more marines sent to boot camp in mid-season; (4) his veteran fullback joined the air force and left the same day; (5) his best freshman back was lost because of injuries after two minutes of play, two good frosh prospects flunked out and three regulars were declared ineligible on the eve of the Cornell game and (6) to cap the climax, a promising frosh tackle borrowed a bicycle without brakes and ran smack into a delivery truck, ripping his leg open.

3-AA Race Hinges On Sweetwater Tilt

By JOE PICKLE
Only one game in district 3-AA today has any bearing on the outcome of the district 3-AA race, barring super upsets.

Big Spring goes to San Angelo for a resumption of their old rivalry, but odds are all in favor of San Angelo. The Steers may be expected to scrap their hearts out on this one, but it likely will be a case of just not having the experience and power to turn the trick. It will be a moral victory if the Steers hold the veteran Bobcats to four touchdowns.

Abilene goes to Lamesa this afternoon for a conference game, but the outcome here is strictly moot although it's all in favor of the Abilene Eagles. Both teams have been plastered all over the league and neither has a 3-AA win to its credit. However, Abilene will—and by at least three touchdowns—after today.

Odessa goes to Sweetwater in what was until Odessa played San Angelo and then protested her this year the hottest annual contest in 3-AA. There has been considerable bitterness between the two schools in the past and that evens things up when it comes to the game. Sweetwater has the power and material to turn in a win but Odessa has more fight and tenacity.

Odessa has had a long rest and Sweetwater didn't look too good against Abilene last week. Frankly, this one looks like a toss up. We wouldn't give a point either way.

Texas League Dads Hope To Resume Play For Circuit

DALLAS, Nov. 11 (AP)—The Texas league fathers will meet here Saturday to see what can be done about resuming operations and President J. Alvin Gardner, confident their action will be in the affirmative, says:

"I would be derelict in my duty if I didn't urge that we have baseball next year."
Gardner said he had found conditions favorable—that he had checked with hotels and was told they would take care of the players, not in the manner of the past, but "in some way"; that there would be sufficient players from among the youngsters, 4-F's and men too old for the armed service; that the fans wanted baseball and should have it.

The league is in a healthy financial condition with plenty of money in the bank and with all franchises in good shape, the president asserted.

"While some clubs may not want to operate, others represent life savings of the men who own them," he added. "I think their investments should be considered."

"Now that we can see the end of the war, with our country settled into the routine of making the tools of war and with the workers entitled to the recreation baseball brings, I favor wholeheartedly the resumption of operations."

Gardner said one of the major reasons for suspending last year was because of the situation of Texas and southwest in the war. "You know, there were distinct signs that Texas might be a point of invasion from the enemy and we didn't have time for baseball while building against attack," he declared. "We were right in the middle of the war then. The danger is now past."

All clubs will be represented, including those with major league interests. James Gallagher, general manager of the Chicago Cubs who owns a half-interest at Tulsa; Jack Zeller, general manager of Detroit, owner of Beaumont; Eddie Dyer, general manager of the St. Louis Cardinal farm system, owners of Houston's franchise, and William O. Dewitt, vice-president of the St. Louis Browns, owners of the San Antonio club, will be in attendance.

Others coming to the meeting are: Oklahoma City—President

H. O. Pope, Vice-president E. J. Humphries; Tulsa—President Don Stewart; Fort Worth—President Stanley Thompson, Secretary-Treasurer John Reeves, General Manager Rogers Hornsby; Dallas—President George Schepps, Treasurer Julius Schepps; Shreveport—President Bonneau Peters, Vice-president J. I. Roberts; Beaumont—President Ernest Lorbeer.

Drinking Citizens Face Acute Liquor Shortage

By The Associated Press
America's drinking citizens were face to face today with an acute liquor shortage which appeared to be fast enveloping the entire country as the demand for whiskey in some places reached four times that of last year while supplies were down as much as 60 per cent.

More than half the nation's states reported that liquor was scarce and the situation progressively getting worse. Rationing, either by state control or voluntarily, now is in effect in some 30 states. Rations range from one bottle a day per customer to one a month.

Officials looked to a bleak new year as far as easing of present shortages is concerned and there seemed little likelihood there would be enough whiskey to quench holiday thirsts.

Scotch importers were said to be getting only 10 per cent of their normal supply while nationally advertised brands of rye and bourbon were reported hard to find. Rum, brandy and gin appeared the most in package store windows.

Grumbling on the part of east-towners was prevalent in many sections, most complaints being that stores had ample supplies but were doing it out only to established patrons and friends.

In Nebraska, where liquor was plentiful a few months ago but now is on the hard-to-find list because, retailers say, residents of neighboring states drained the state dry, one storekeeper said bluntly:

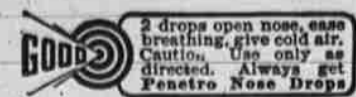

"To people we don't know, we have no whiskey."

Another customer complaint had to do with prices. In Texas whiskey was selling at $8 and $9 a pint in dry counties. In Oregon, where a new coupon rationing program was instituted last month allowing one quart of whiskey per person a month, bootleg liquors were said to be selling at $10 a quart.

In Kentucky, home of some of the country's largest distilleries, bottled in bond whiskeys were nearly extinct.

Distillers, however, said they have enough stocks on hand to last until the end of the war provided discretion is used in releasing it.

Practically all western, south-western and southern states reported a dearth of Scotch, bourbon and rye. Alabama, however, was hopeful of declaring a "Christmas ration bonus."

U-Boats Sunk Faster Than Made

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP) — The allies apparently are sinking U-boats faster than Germany's bomb-battered submarine factories can turn them out.

This sharp decline of the reich's undersea fortunes was brought out by figures on U-boat warfare released by the joint British-American governments last month.

The allies announced that at least 60 German submarines were destroyed during the last three months, five a week. Over a six-month period, 150 subs were destroyed certainly.

Authorities have estimated that the German war machine was able to turn out from 25 to 30 subs a month when operating at peak production and unmoisted by air attack. Since the U. S. Eighth Air Force and the RAF have pounded U-boat centers mercilessly, it is believed here that the reich's best efforts are 20 a month, far below the rate of destruction.

Exceptions Made In Meal, Cake Sale

By O. F. GRIFFIN

In the new Restrictions on Sale of Cotton Seed Meal and Cake or Soybean Meal and Cake, some important exceptions are made in the case of regular feeders and ranchmen. The regulation provides that only a 30-day supply may be owned at one time, except in the case of regular feeders and ranchmen, who may purchase a truck load at one time to prevent waste in transportation, and "to provide a readily available supply of oilseed meal for ranch feeding purposes."

The regulations are intended to prevent hoarding of meal and cake at the same time prevent undue difficulty on the part of feeders and ranchmen in transporting and maintaining an adequate supply for normal feeding. Here is a quotation from the Food Production Order No. 9, (f) Inventory limitation. (1) No person other than a feeder shall place any purchase order for any oilseed meal if, on the estimated delivery date, the tonnage to be delivered under such order plus the delivery date inventory of such person would exceed a 15 days' supply; and no feeder shall place any such purchase order if, on the estimated delivery date, the tonnage, to be delivered under such order plus the delivery date inventory of such feeder would exceed thirty days' supply. No person other than a feeder shall accept delivery of any oilseed meal which, together with such person's inventory of oilseed meal, would exceed a 15 days' supply; and no feeder shall accept delivery of any oilseed meal which, together with such feeder's inventory, would exceed a 30 days' supply.

(2) The limitations of paragraph (f) (1) hereof shall not apply to the following purchases of oilseed meal:

(i) Purchases by any person in minimum carload lots, as determined pursuant to Office of Transportation regulations, if such purchases are made in quantities and at intervals which are in accordance with purchases regularly made by such person.

(ii) Purchases by any person in quantities of 2,000 pounds or less, if such purchases are made in quantities and at intervals which are in accordance with purchases regularly made by such person.

(iii) Purchases by any ranchman if such purchases are made in quantities and at intervals which are in accordance with purchases regularly made by such ranchman, and such purchases are necessary for economical use of transportation facilities under Office of Defense Transportation regulations and to provide a readily available supply of oilseed meal for ranch feeding purposes.

(g) Limitation on deliveries. No person shall deliver oilseed meal to any person unless the person to whom such oilseed meal is to be delivered tenders at or before the time of delivery a certificate in substantially the following form: The undersigned certifies to his vendor and the United States Department of Agriculture that he is familiar with the provisions of Food Production Order No. 9 as revised by the War Food Administrator, and all amendments thereto (if any) and that the purchase or acceptance of the quantity of oilseed meal ordered from said vendor will not cause his inventory of oilseed meal to exceed the quantity permitted by Food Production Order No. 9, as amended, or that such purchase or delivery falls under one of the exceptions specified in such order.

In order to prevent hoarding by the oil mills the regulations provide that the Director of the Food Administration may order mills to sell their stocks of cake and meal. The order No. 9 is quoted here:

(h) Processors' inventories. If the director shall so order, no processor shall at any time after 30 days from the issuance of such order acquire an unsold inventory of oilseed meal exceeding either (1) the quantity produced by him during the 15 days on which he last produced oilseed meal, or (2) his inventory of oilseed meal on the corresponding day of the crop year 1941-42, whichever quantity is greater.

(i) Existing contracts. The restrictions imposed by this order shall be effective without regard to the rights of creditors, existing contracts or payments made.

Orderly Marketing Of Hogs Necessary

Farmers are warned to sell all market hogs of 200 lb. weight before December 1st or as early as possible.

Orderly marketing of hogs is imperative if we are to avoid a collapse of our marketing, processing and distribution machinery. It is entirely probable that during December and January the number of hogs offered for sale will exceed the capacity of plants to handle them. It is also probable that transportation facilities may be inadequate to move all hogs to market when they are offered for sale. As a means of preventing a waste of materials and manpower which would result from excess marketing during December and January, every farmer who plans to market hogs within the next four months should know that:

(1) The 1943 pig crop of 127,000,000 head is by far the largest on record. This year's crop is about 21 per cent larger than the record pig crop of 1942 and about 6 per cent more than the recommended goal for 1943. Hogs are also being marketed at weights which are somewhat above the average slaughter weight recommended as goal for 1943.

(2) Hog slaughter during the last three months of 1943 will probably be 25 to 30 per cent above the last quarter of 1942. At that time we were marketing record runs of hogs.

(3) Hog farrowings need to be leveled off in line with feed supplies and to meet the increased feed needs of the dairy and poultry industry. Farmers should be urged to feed hogs to no more than average weights as a means of making more efficient use of available feed supplies.

(4) Transportation facilities for marketing hogs are limited. It is urged that every farmer who expects to market hogs make marketing arrangements, in advance of shipment, with the market agency through which he customarily sells his hogs on a terminal market or the packing plant to which he customarily sells if he sells direct. Such precaution will return many times its cost by preventing market congestion and enabling the producer to secure the full benefit of the market support program by getting his hogs in when they can be handled properly.

(5) There is a manpower shortage particularly of packing house labor which in simple terms can be stated as the job of handling 20 per cent more hogs with from 10 to 15 per cent less labor.

(6) Storage facilities will be taxed to the utmost and the present marketing of hogs must be spread out over wider than normal periods.

The help of farmers will be needed in maintaining the government support price for hogs. The support price is $13.75 for good and choice hogs weighing from 200-270 pounds, Chicago basis. If hogs are marketed faster than packing plants can process them, it would be useless for the government to purchase live hogs in an attempt to hold the price because the only place government could turn to have them processed would be to the already over-taxed packing plants.

It is therefore in part the responsibility of farmers to help maintain the support price for hogs by helping to regulate the flow of hogs to market. Government licenses commit packers to pay not less than the support price for hogs but packers cannot be required to buy hogs faster than they can handle them.

The government will buy adequate quantities of pork products meeting federal specifications at prices sufficiently high to reflect the support price or higher. If hogs arrive at the markets faster than they can be processed it will be necessary for farmers to withhold hogs until the glut is cleared. The best way for farmers to proceed in marketing is to be absolutely sure that they have an outlet for their hogs before they send them to market.

When facilities are over-taxed and packers have to hold hogs for indefinite periods, it is only natural that they must deduct carrying charges from the price they pay for the hogs.

While farmers have demonstrated their ability to rally to the war needs of the nation by exceeding all previous production records, unless more of these hogs are moved to market early, some of this effort may have been to no avail. More are needed now to meet the war needs. This may mean marketing many hogs at lighter than normal weights.

Minelaying was originated during World War I.

New Directive Fits War Board Program

Little change has been effected in the US Department of Agriculture War Board activities here under a new directive received by the board.

Under the new plan all educational matters and applications for deferment of agricultural workers will be handled through the county agent's office while all others, such as those concerned with farm machinery, tractors, gas and tires, etc., will be handled through the AAA office.

Board members here had been handling the program on this basis in the past, and laughingly observed that the new directive fit so well that "Howard county might well have been used as a model."

Community Christmas Tree To Be Lighted Again This Season

Lights will go on this Yuletide for the city's Christmas tree.

After a one-year blackout during the Christmas shopping season, the tree will be decorated as usual, chamber of commerce directors have voted. In the absence of a suitable evergreen, each year the bare branches of a big Chinese elm tree at the northeast corner of the courthouse square have been decorated with colored lights.

Since there is no power shortage in this territory and the chamber has on hand several hundred lights, directors voted to have the tree decorated as usual.

The little blue heron is two feet long.

Flavor?

PERHAPS you're one who prizes flavor more highly than any other quality. To be satisfying, it must be rich, full-bodied, distinctive and winey. It must come on the wings of a delightful, fragrant aroma, elusively fresh and lingering. Then such a flavor indeed as Admiration's you must know! For it was blended to give you precisely what you want. One sip of this truly superior blend will make an enthusiast of you, one cup a confirmed and permanent user.

To preserve to the utmost every last, delicious quality of Admiration—its richness, strength, aroma and freshness—we developed a special scientific container. It's called the Triplex Lamofilm Package. No moisture can seep in (the gremlin of rancidity); no aroma can leak out (the gremlin of deterioration); no loss whatever can possibly occur. Our Task Is To Make The 1918 Armistice Effective

In view of the current life-and-death struggle of democracy versus totalitarianism, the Armistice Day of November 11 may appear to have lost some of its luster in recent years.

It is pretty generally admitted that we didn't finish the job in 1918, hence the conclusion that the termination of warfare 25 years ago was but a mockery.

It is fitting and proper that we commemorate the Armistice of 1918. And it is imperative that, in commemorating this day, we re-dedicate our country to the cause of making it effective, forever.

State's Safety Department Is Given High Recognition

By WILLIAM E. KEYS AUSTIN, Nov. 11 (AP) - Signal recognition has come to the state public safety department in the five years Homer Garrison has headed that multiple divisioned department. The National Safety Congress has declared the safety department's driver's license division the best of its kind in the nation and will send a man to Austin to study new training methods devised by the division.

The Post interviewed touring Lieut.-Gov. John Lee Smith and wrote this description of the Texan: "Lieutenant Governor Smith is a typical American with face wider than long, blue eyes, a square chin and scraggly brown hair."

Washington

International Minded Group Wins Victory

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON - The feeling here is that regardless of the final vote on the congressional post-war participation resolutions, the so-called "internationalists" won a signal victory.

Canada through its Monoton Broadcasting Company is interested in the Texas School of the Air and wants to know more about how it functions. The school of the Air, an educational radio program, operates through the state education department's division of radio and visual education with the sponsorship of the Texas Congress of Parents, the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, the Association for Childhood Education, the Texas Junior League, the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Texas State Teacher's Association and the Department of Texas, American Legion.

Last year in competition with the national networks it was cited for outstanding work by the Institute for Education by Radio of Ohio State University.

Key to that conclusion came in the Senate debate on the Foreign Relations Committee resolution, when Chairman Tom Connally, father of the compromise resolution, charged the opposition boys were merely "heckling."

The fugitive who says he is hunting the shortest and quickest route out of Texas; the automobile driver who comes to attention at the sight of a black and white patrol car; the stranded motorist who utters a cry of relief at the sight of that same patrol car; and the child who looks upon us all as friends and protectors rather than boogey men who will get him if he doesn't be a good boy."

More Than Enough Locker Rentals On Deposit For Plant Word has been forwarded to Washington that the Big Spring Locker plant has sufficient rental deposits on hand to meet requirements for priorities.

Some congressional observers here, however, think that the post-war resolution was one of the best examples of democracy at work. It came out of a sub-committee composed of five democrats, two republicans and one progressive. On the floor it had the staunch support of such geographical and political opposites as Senator W. H. White, Jr., republican of Maine; and Senator Hattie Caraway, democrat, of Arkansas, who made one of her very rare floor speeches in favor of it. Party lines broke down with the ordinarily vigorous administration backer, Senator Claude Pepper, democrat of Florida, exchanging heated words with Senator Connally and Majority Leader Alben Barkley.

Pecan gathering time is here again but passersby can't garner any of the nuts which fall from numerous trees on the capitol grounds.

At the latest count, around 450 annual rental fees were being held in escrow. The revised figure required for priority application was 414. Marvin Sewel, who is putting in the plant, said that contractors supposed to be making arrangements for material, dependent of course, upon priorities. The plant, with a 650 locker capacity, is to be located at E. 1st and Gollard.

Those who sought to strengthen the resolution never numbered more than 15. They were the so-called "B-2, H-2ers"—those who favored the original Burton-Ball-Hatch-Hill resolution introduced last spring.

By order of the board of control the nuts are reserved for state institutions and boys and girls from various institutions are doing the picking. Last year the board decided that the nuts should accrue to the state and NOT to anyone who chanced to pick them up.

The sub-committee had before it: 13 resolutions and it spent so long over its task of bringing out the Connally compromise resolution that even vigorous anti-New Dealer Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Michigan republican, was moved to say: "I've never known any committee that more conscientiously or more constantly kept to its critical tasks."

The sub-committee also worked closely with the State Department and it may be assumed that the resolution had its approval.

For once, a president has the "advice" of the senate in advance of entering into post-war treaty parleys. Had President Wilson had as much before he went to Versailles, the world story of the last 25 years might have been different.

Helen Broderick Decides Retirement Was Mistake

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD - Sign of the times: Helen Broderick, the droll character star who retired two years ago, is back on the sets. She has done one picture, is now featured in "Her Primitive Man," and aims to do a third before the year is out.

Ella Raines' wedding, almost a year ago, to Capt. Kenneth Trout, army air force pilot, was so generally unknown in Hollywood that it has been called a "secret marriage." If it was, it is a new way to keep a secret in this gossip center: she was married in a church at Palm Beach, Fla., and her parents sent out more than 150 announcements!

"I thought I'd finished with the business," she says, "but the way things are going, with taxes and all, I thought I'd better come back—just to keep what I have. With Brod in the service (that's Broderick Crawford, her son) I'd like to keep things together—for him to come home to when he makes a fresh start after the war."

TERRORISTS PUNISHED BARCELONA, Nov. 11 (AP)—A Toulouse newspaper asserts that 195 "terrorists" have been arrested, executed, killed or wounded throughout France in the last two months. The "terrorist" label is used by the Vichy press to describe anyone who attacks representatives of the Vichy government.

Movie-acting, incidentally, is not Miss Broderick's favorite sport. "Did you ever hear the story about the lion and the monkey in the zoo?" she asks. "Their cages were right next to each other, and the monkey fell terribly in love with the great big lion. One day the lion said, 'Monkey, you're the ugliest monkey I ever saw!' And the poor little monkey sobbed and said, 'I know—but I've been sick!'"

It is estimated that an acre of meadowland contains some 15,000,000 insects.

Well, that's how I feel when I get up in front of a camera. All the people standing around looking at me, and the camera looking at me, and I feel like saying to them, 'I know—but I've been sick!'"

Fifty-eight Liberty ships have been named for women.

Is Errol Flynn's studio deliberately giving Flynn's headlined troubles the light, playful treatment in his pictures? The tag scene of his "Northern Pursuit" looks to have been contrived with no other purpose. . . . But there'll be plenty of people who won't think it's funny. . . .

Some of the War Commission girls with whom Sally had traveled up to the Laurel clubhouse recognized soldiers from previous dances. At once they were rushed Domestic notes: Gregory Peck and bride considered themselves lucky to find a motor court bungalow to rent when they arrived from New York. . . . Walter Slezak and bride, Johanna van Rijn, found a small house in Beverly Hills—because they knew the previous tenants and had a tip they were moving. Cookless, like most of Hollywood, Johanna cooks six days a week, and Walter, equally expert at a range, cooks on Sundays. . . .

By now the orchestra had swung into a rumba and the jitterbugs were coming off the floor in disgust. Sally could rumba. Larry had taught her, and they once almost won a rumba contest at the country club.

G-GIRL By LYDIA GRAY SHAW

Chapter 16 From the look of the dance floor when Sally walked up to the door on Saturday night, every soldier stationed at Fort Meade was having a night out. Men in uniform were ranged in a ring that ran three deep all the way around the room up to the orchestra platform. Sally at first couldn't even see the dance floor.

off to the dance floor. Here at least the usual Washington statistics were reversed. From the solidity of the stag line, Sally guessed there were three times as many men as girls. Right now the stag line wasn't doing much more than watching. Near her, Sally heard a USO hostess ask an extremely tall lad if he wanted to meet some girls. "No, thank you, mam," he drawled. "I don't want to meet any. I just want to look them over."

In the low-ceilinged lounge behind Sally, soldiers and their dates played bridge and checkers, or just sat in a corner and talked. Two women with red, white and blue USO armbands stood in the main entrance, welcoming a group of girls. Every girl, Sally had noticed, had to be sponsored. If you didn't belong to the Girl's Service Organization, a soldier or an organized group like the War Commission had to vouch for you.

He kept giving Sally a sidelong look, but he didn't come over. And after a few minutes she began to feel conspicuous, though that was silly when there were such crowds around her. She was standing with two other War Commission girls, but for a moment she felt as though she were back at her first school dance. She hadn't known how to dance very well, and all the way to the school gym she was worried for fear no one would ask her to dance. For an agonizing ten minutes, which seemed like a century to the scared little thirteen-year-old girl, she sat stiffly on the sidelines with the chaperones while her friends were whirled gaily by. When Harold White finally came up and asked her to dance, she was so grateful she could have kissed him.

It is estimated that an acre of meadowland contains some 15,000,000 insects.

By now the orchestra had swung into a rumba and the jitterbugs were coming off the floor in disgust. Sally could rumba. Larry had taught her, and they once almost won a rumba contest at the country club.

Behind her a voice inquired, "Want to dance?" Her rescuer was a short, stocky lad with his hair parted in the middle. "Here," he said, "let me get in front of you and I'll get us out to the dance floor." They pushed their way through the mob and on the dance floor. "Name, please?" asked the boy as they began dancing. Sally told him. "Just the Sally will do. Now if I'm lucky. . . ." He steered her into the center of the room, "nobody will cut for a couple of seconds. Though Red has been cutting in on every girl I've discovered. Where have you been? I haven't seen you before." "I just arrived." Shorty was no thrill, but he was nice. The dependable type, Sally decided. "Are you coming up tomorrow?"

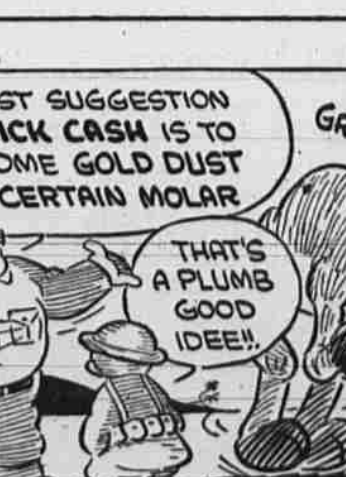

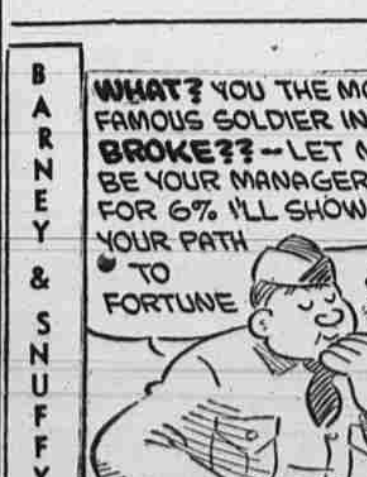

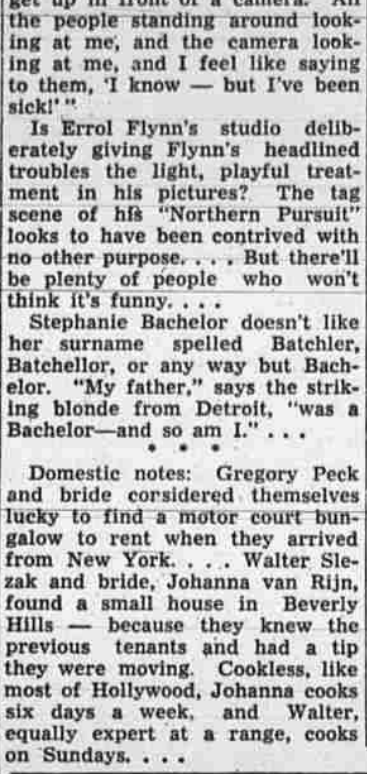

By now the orchestra had swung into a rumba and the jitterbugs were coming off the floor in disgust. Sally could rumba. Larry had taught her, and they once almost won a rumba contest at the country club.

"Tomorrow! I don't believe so. I'm here with an office group." "Oh! A working girl, ed? That's fine. Working girls are always in the money. How about taking me to the movies some night?" "Sally had to laugh at him. "Oh—oh. Here it comes." An attractive, tanned man with sergeant's stripes tapped him on the shoulder.

"Trying to get away, were you? Back with the crowd, boy." He put his arm around Sally, laid his cheek against her hair, and murmured, "Marvelous. You're just a dream walking." Before Sally could find out if he talked like that habitually, there was another cut and he was gone.

"Sally. That's a nice name," said the newcomer. "I have a girl named Sally back home. Had a girl. She's probably forgotten me by now. Do you have a special date with anyone? If not, I've got my eye on you. How about coming up next Saturday night?" There was no time to answer. She had changed partners again. This time it was an exuberant little fellow who hailed from the Bronx, and was an expert rug-cutter. He began flinging Sally about carelessly. After 60 seconds of this unaccustomed pace, she was out of breath.

"Here, here. Don't kill the girl!" There came another uniform, and Sally came back from a fancy spin to find another soldier claiming her. "Sedate, that's me. It will be a nice change for you." Sedate, me eye, thought Sally. The man had evidently been in some of Laurel's best bars—there was one on nearly every street corner—for he put his feet row as though he felt the floor slipping away from under him. But someone would cut soon. At the pace she'd been going, she'd have danced with an entire regiment by 11. They circled the floor once, her partner weaving unsteadily. Someone stepped hard on her foot. Sally winced. An elbow caught her squarely on the shoulder blades. Sally prayed for deliverance. She even summoned courage enough to look the stag line square in the eye. The stag line this time had its eyes elsewhere. The orchestra was an all-sol-

Local Cotton Mill . . . Speeds Seed Crush

Crush of the supply of cottonseed on hand is being accelerated at the Big Spring Cotton Oil Company plant here with the muster-in of a night shift. With two exceptions, the extra shift has operated now for the last two weeks. Importance of the additional speed lies in part in the promise of 5,000 tons of soybeans for processing at the local mill if and when the supply of cottonseed is crushed. Since most of the cottonseed meal output is pledged against certificates held by farmers, the protein output from the

Swartz Bowlers Down Cosden

Taking three games from Cosden the Swartz women bowlers totaled 1946 pins to 1899 for the losing team.

Hester's totaling 1844 pins emerged victorious twice over the Club cafe squad who totaled 1803.

The Settles group with 1760 pins downed Texas Electric twice. The losers piled up 1793 pins.

Schultz with 1951 took three from J. & L. who totaled 1824.

Swartz was high team in games with a 695, followed by the Cosden crew at 669 and Schultz with a 666.

Olive Cauble rolled the highest individual game with a 189. Nora Richards ran second with 171 closely followed by Marie Shaw who brused the timbers for a 168.

The high individual series also went to Olive Cauble with a 478. Nora Richards was second with 452 and Fern Wells polished off a 409.

Here 'n There

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Butler, Coahoma, report that their son, S/Sgt. Roy L. Butler, reported in Wednesday's Herald as missing, is now a prisoner of war in Stalag (7-A), Germany. He was reported missing for a time after the Aug. 17 mission from which his plane failed to return. On that date Flying Fortresses bombed airfields at Marseille, France, and two were lost. S/Sgt. Butler was graduated from Forsan high school in 1942 and enlisted in the air corps on July 22, 1942. He trained at Sheppard Field, Douglas Aircraft at Long Beach, Calif., and had gunnery at Las Vegas, Nev., and Boise, Idaho, before going to Casper, Wyo., for Flying Fortress training as a waist gunner. His last station before going to England on July 5, 1943, was Kearney, Neb.

Dr. C. W. Deas will speak on behalf of the local VFW post at 7:30 p. m. today over radio station KBST in a special Armistice Day program. Announcing the program, Post Commander Joe Jacobs said "we hope the impact of this special nationwide broadcast on November 11 will help crystallize public thinking on the subject of keeping future Tojos and Hitlers in permanent straight jackets. "Dr. Deas talk will suggest international cooperation to put down any threat by an "out-law nation."

"Big Boy" Williams, the movie star, arrived here Wednesday night via American Airlines. His parents reside near San Angelo.

Capt. Fritz W. H. Wehner, who is attached to the 607th signal AW company, regional at Boston, Mass. has written Rotary friends to express thanks for being placed on the local club publication's mailing list. "It's surprising how often I think about goings on in Big Spring," he said, "... and San Francisco is the closest I've been stationed to Big Spring." He will have been in th service three years in February. Capt. Wehner formerly was associated with Texas Electric Service here.

Betty Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Collins, is listed on the honor roll at Abilene Christian College for the first six weeks of the second semester. This honor roll is compiled by the registrar and is composed of students in the upper ten percent of the class in two or more courses.

Bricker Is GOP Candidate

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP) — The 1944 presidential race had its first public entry today — the name of Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio for the republican nomination—and political observers looked for the recent elections to encourage others so to declare themselves.

Bricker's announcement in Chicago yesterday that he would enter Ohio's presidential primary May 9 was the first such declaration to come from a dozen possible candidates mentioned in both parties and the first from among the three most prominently discussed republican possibilities. The other two republicans are Wendell L. Willkie and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Bricker's friends here declared he was "really out" for the presidential banner and not merely the first "favorite son" in a stop-Willkie movement.

Willkie, who has been pictured as confident of winning another nomination in 1944, would not comment on the Bricker move, but his supporters here did not appear to be worried. They said he even had strength in Bricker's own balliwiek. Dewey men contended that the New York governor is still the leading man for the nomination.

Others who have been discussed for the republican nomination are former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, now a lieutenant commander in the navy, whose name will be entered in the Nebraska and possibly other western state primaries; Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Gov. Earl Warren of California, Rep. James W. Wadsworth of New York, and Eric Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Canadian Legation Is Now Embassy

OTTAWA, Nov. 11 (AP) — The Canadian legation in Washington and the United States legation here, were raised today to the status of embassies, with the ministers of the two countries elevated to the rank of ambassadors.

Canada thus becomes the first of the British Dominions to establish an office of the highest diplomatic status in a foreign country while the United States becomes the first nation to establish an office of similar status in a British dominion.

Leighton McCarthy, at Washington steps up from the status of Canadian minister plenipotentiary and envoy extraordinary to that of ambassador and Ray Atherton, United States minister in Ottawa, makes the same jump in rank.

McCarthy now will rank with Lord Halifax, the British ambassador, and other representatives of the larger powers at Washington while Atherton will be in a class by himself as the first ambassador in Ottawa.

Bombardier Heads In Session Here

A conference of the commanding officers of four Texas Bombardier schools was held at AAFBS Thursday afternoon.

Those attending were Col. John W. White of Childress; Col. George M. Palmer of San Angelo; Col. John P. Kenny of Midland; Maj. Adams of the Central Training Flying Command of Randolph Field, and Col. Robert W. Warren, commanding officer of the Big Spring Bombardier school.

Brakeman Injured By Negro Porter

L. R. (Jack) Terry, T&P brakeman, suffered severe cuts Wednesday when attacked by a negro porter while on a west run, according to reports reaching here.

Although he suffered slashes across the head and lost considerable blood, Terry was able to return here Thursday. It was reported the cutting arose after Terry had told the porter to dispose of some train trash. An argument followed and the negro allegedly wielded a razor.

Texas State Guard Alerted Thursday

Members of the local unit (company E, 34th battalion) of the Texas State Guard were alerted at 9:30 a. m. as a part of the statewide program Thursday.

After the officers and men of the company here reported in at the county warehouse, Capt. H. L. Bohannon telephoned the company's strength to Maj. Joe Pyron, Odessa, battalion commander, who in turn reported the battalion's strength to Texas Adjutant General A. R. Knickerbocker, who ordered the statewide alert for guardsmen. The order was in keeping with observance of Texas State Guard week.

Reds Push

ter, and reeling under the blows of the Russian forces, the nazis were abandoning huge stores of food and war material in their flight, a Soviet communique declared. The bulletin said that the Russians, fanning out on a 70-mile arc from Kiev, had overrun more than 60 towns—two of them district centers—and captured Komarova, 40 miles northeast of Zhitomir and 48 miles southeast of Korosten, another rail center indispensable to German north-south communications.

The Red army thus was more than 42 miles west of Kiev, in its possession since last Saturday.

South of Kiev, Red army columns were beyond Vasilev, captured yesterday, and were less than 20 miles northeast of the rail city of Byelaya Tserkov, Moscow declared. These units, formed part of a pincer drive apparently aimed at entrapment of German remnants in the bend west of the Dnieper river.

Meanwhile, Moscow advices said, Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukrainian army was massing at the top of the Crimea for an all-out assault on the peninsula over the Perokop land bridge and the C'vash sea casse-way.

The Soviet communique also said that Russian marines supported by fighter planes had smashed German tank attacks against Red army beachheads on the Kerch peninsula on the eastern tip of the Crimea. Thousands of nazi soldiers died in the unsuccessful counter-attacks, Moscow said and Red army planes sank two of a fleet of small German torpedo boats attempting to halt Russian landings.

Honor Roll

last war," said this war mother. "And America's youth has answered the call again. They have met the test, and hereon is the word for every one of them." Mrs. Fiewellen called for high morale on the home front, stressing that letters to men in service be cheerful.

A former county judge who resigned office a year ago to don uniform—Lt. Walton Morrison—spoke as a representative of the military men. Said he:

"We'll do our best to be good soldiers... we want to finish the job and come back to our loved ones as soon as possible... we are looking forward to another Armistice and a return of peace and sanity to the world.

"We in uniform pay tribute to the people on the home front, who must continue to face hardships, who must bear up in the face of growing casualty lists. You people are fighters, too. And together, God grant, we will quickly establish a peace under the freedoms without which we cannot exist."

Sgt. Joe Kling of the Bombardier school sang "When the Lights Go On Again," and the ceremony was concluded with an intercession to God to direct a just Victory and to send soldiers back to their homes, voiced by Rev. P. D. O'Brien.

Palestine Severs Lufkin Relations

PALESTINE, Tex. Nov. 11 (AP) —The Palestine school board has severed athletic relations with Lufkin high school for an indefinite period, Superintendent Bonner Frizzell said today.

The board gave no reason for its action, which followed Jacksonville high school's cancellation of a football game with Lufkin.

Palestine and Lufkin have played their scheduled football game this season, Lufkin winning 50 to 0.

On Oct. 16, day after the game, Frizzell issued a widely printed statement charging that a majority of Lufkin's first string players had been in high school more than the normal time required for graduation and that some of them had been in high school as long as seven years.

He said most Lufkin regulars were in their fifth and sixth years in high school and that courses had been manipulated so as to keep football players in school the maximum possible time.
