TODAY'S SAFETY TOPIC

Beating the other fellow to the crossing has increased the under-taking business.
Because we predicted yesterday that there would be a bank robbery in Dallas next Friday, a man comes to inquire of us about his "take" on the next wheat crop. He wished we would look deep into the crystal and tell him about the price per bushel and the yield per acre.

The crystal, with the aid of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, has nothing but optimistic reports to hold forth for this inquirer. The yield should be better—much better. Fact of the matter is one is almost safe in that prediction, judging from the crop disappointments of 1936.

Speaking of wheat, it is a good cause for getting out of jury duty in Gray county. A prospective juror was dismissed from service when he begged off to get into his fields to plant wheat.

The juror made his plea after Judge W. R. Ewing had warned all those summoned for jury service that the criminal business this week was important and that they could not be excused for purely business reasons. The man did not judge that unless he was excused he could not get his wheat planted this week.

Judge Ewing glanced out of the window and agreed with the farmer that it was splendid wheat planting weather and told him he could leave at once. The wheat farmer was the only one among 40 persons, summoned for jury duty, to be excused.

One of our secret operatives reports that it took G. C. Hubbard, of Pampa, two days to find out the real score of the football game between T. C. U. and Arkansas last Saturday. And then he had to pay for the information.

Hubbard was still insisting on Monday that Arkansas won and he was so sure of it that it cost him cash of the realm to learn that T. C. U. won by 14. Up until the official records were dragged out, Hubbard was positive it was the other way around.

FLASH: More than 1,500,000 hamburgers have been consumed by visitors at the Dallas Centennial since the exposition opened 120 days ago. And now, let's hear from some of the boys and girls who scoff at our publicity claims for the lowly spring of the country's meat grinders.

Yessir, guests at the Texas Centennial exposition have been doing some high-powered eating since the Lone Star World Fair opened four months ago.

Setting a dinner table daily over a period of 120 days for 38,000 invited guests has been the unusual chore of Dallas caterers having concessions at the Centennial. These continuous dinner parties have driven the food handlers' purchasing agents over the state to buy up the best of foods Texas has to offer.

A careful survey of the food concessions of the Exposition reveal that 1,600 pounds of ground coffee are used daily to make 41,000 cups of the delicious brew served over the counter and table on the grounds.

During the period of 120 days an average of 10,000 pints of beer have been guzzled; 1,200 loaves of bread, 2,000 pounds of fish, 7,000 pounds of meat, 6,000 pounds of vegetables, 2,000 pints of milk, 400 pints, 14,400 buns, 400 pounds of hot dogs and 1,200 pounds of hamburger meat have been consumed.

This gives a grand total for the period of 1,200,000 pints of beer, 260,000 loaves of bread, 48,000 pounds of coffee, 240,000 pounds of fish, 840,000 pounds of meat, 720,000 pounds of vegetables, 1,680,000 pints of milk, 48,000 pints, 1,728,000 buns, 576,000 hot dogs and 1,152,000 hamburgers.

Checking some of these items back to the producer it is found that the Texas cattleman has received $100,000 for the beef upon the hoof for the 2,302 head of beefs. A similar sum has been traced back to the vegetable producers and these items do not account for the butter, eggs, and poultry that have proven to be a sizeable bill.

No effort has been made to check up the tonnage of soft drinks, doughnuts, tea, candy and confections, cake and pastries and other than pies, ice cream, sandwiches, hard liquors, prepared packing house meats, items that run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Exposition visitors have spent millions for rooms and hotel accommodations, not only in Dallas, but over the state, and their gasoline bill has been tremendous.

So, you will gather from the See COLUMN, Page 8

I Heard . . .

That Walter Fraser, kid brother of W. T. "Bill" Fraser, shot a large hawk on the wing with a rifle the other day near his home at Boydston. The hawk was about 250 yards away when the "kid" made the shot. Bill said he was practicing up to go deer hunting.

BCD SETS 200 AS ATTENDANCE GOAL FOR TRIP

McLean to Celebrate Jericho Gap Opening

Pampa has been invited to send a large delegation to a Will Rogers commemoration-Jericho "gap" opening celebration in McLean Friday afternoon and directors of the Board of City Development in session last night set 200 as their attendance goal.

The trippers will leave from the red school hall promptly at 12:30 noon Plans call for the taking of the High school band to McLean. Because the return will not be made until after school hours, it will be impossible to use school buses. Pampans planning to attend, and who can take band members in their cars, are asked to call the Board of City Development headquarters, 384, leaving word as to the number they can accommodate.

Only cost to trippers will be 50 cents admission to a big barbecue at the football field at 5 o'clock and to the football game at night. Tickets to the barbecue are now on sale at BCD headquarters. Those intending to make the trip are urged to get their tickets immediately.

Towns and cities between Amarillo and Oklahoma City will have delegations at the celebration, which See NO. 1, Page 8

593 GALLONS OF GAS STOLEN FROM STATION

Thieves last night broke a valve chain on a tank at the Sinclair wholesale storage station along the Santa Fe tracks here and stole 593 gallons of gasoline.

Deputy sheriffs who investigated the theft today reported that indications were that the gasoline burglars had hauled their loot away in a truck.

Robbers broke into the John Martell filling station in McLean last night and obtained six automobile tires, four cases of lubricating oil and a combination cash register and adding machine, according to Deputy Sheriff S. Tinnin, of McLean. Sheriff's office also were investigating reports of a filling station robbery at Almarred.

FOREIGN WAR VETS TO NAME OFFICERS TONIGHT

Nomination and election of officers for the coming year will be held tonight at 8 o'clock when members of the Pampa chapter, Veterans of Foreign Wars, meet in the American Legion hall on East Foster, avenue. President D. A. Bartlett has issued a call for every member to be present. A Dutch lunch will be served at the close of the business session.

Reported by O. K. Gavler and Jim I. Braley, delegates to the National Veterans of Foreign Wars Encampment in Denver, Colo. last month will also be made at tonight's meeting. Other important business will also come before the general meeting.

ARREST IDEA REJECTED

PARIS, Oct. 6 (AP)—Nervous French officials, harassed by political rioting, rejected today a proposal to prosecute Fascist leaders alleged to have organized street disorders.

Lockhart Resigns; Jail Visiting Hours Changed

Changes in the Gray county sheriff's department personnel and establishing of regular visiting days at the county jail were announced today by Sheriff Earl Talley. Changes in the sheriff's department include the resignation of Deputy Ben Lockhart, appointment of Deputy Buford Reed as jailer and deputy transfer of Deputy George Inman to outside duty with Deputy O. T. Lindsey, and the dropping of John Come as deputy at LeFors.

Applications of 309 Persons Still Pending

A total of 202 residents of Gray county are being paid $3,578 monthly in old age pensions, according to information obtained through Rep. Eugene Worley from the Texas Old Age Assistance commission as a result of the investigation which the house of Representatives is now conducting.

Of that number only one person is receiving $30 per month; seven are getting between $25 and $30; 73 are receiving between $20 and $25 per month; 81 persons, including two negroes are receiving between $15 and $20 per month; 31 residents are drawing between $10 and $15 and nine pensioners are being paid less than $10 per month.

The average payment for the 202 recipients per month is $17.86 for the 200 whites and $15 per month for the two blacks. The total monthly payments for the whites is $3,578, and $30 for the two negroes.

Age analysis of persons being paid follows: Age 65 to 70, 75; 70 to 75, 68; including 2 negroes; 80 to 85, 19; over 85, 3; total 202.

A total of 533 residents of Gray county have filed applications for old age pensions. Of that number, 22 were denied, and the applications of 309 are still pending.

Analysis of denials follows: Under age, 1; residence, 2; excess income, 5; excess marketable securities, 2; no need reflected, 12; total, 22.

Mr. Worley in sending the summary of applications filed by Gray county citizens, wrote: "Because I know the hundreds of your readers are vitally interested in the set-up and fashion in which the Texas Old Age Assistance commission has been functioning since its creation by the legislature, I am enclosing information which has been obtained from the commission as a result of the investigation which the House of Representatives is now conducting."

'SKEET' JOHNSON IS SANTA DAY CHAIRMAN

A J. "Skeet" Johnson was named general chairman of the Junior chamber of commerce Santa Day committee at the noon luncheon of the club today. Johnson will immediately set up an organization for the big pre-Christmas celebration, date of which will be decided soon.

Bert Curry urged members to attend the highway celebration at McLean Friday afternoon. Many of the Javces purchased tickets for the barbecue at 5 o'clock.

An interesting talk on fire prevention was made by Lewis Curry who urged members to cooperate by starting at home to find fault. A radio in the basement of the Schneider hotel brought members the World series baseball game.

Directors of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce last night voted to recommend to the membership that one Tuesday luncheon date each month be set aside for the membership luncheon of the chamber of commerce and Board of City Development. If adopted, the first luncheon session will be next Tuesday.

Plans for a grant community Christmas tree for the children of the city who would otherwise be "forgotten" were discussed and Harry E. Hoare was named general chairman of the committee to work out plans for the tree, which will embrace every club and individual in the city. Committee members will be named immediately.

YANKS TAKE WORLD SERIES

BOTH STARTING PITCHERS ARE KNOCKED OUT

FITZSIMMONS, GOMEZ UNABLE TO STEM BASE HITS

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (AP)—The Yankees won the first all-Manhattan world series in thirteen years by four games to two today, crushing the Giants again in a record-breaking sixth game (final, 13 to 5, before a crowd of 38,427, the smallest of the series).

The Yankees hammered Freddy Fitzsimmons out of the box in the third inning, taking a 5 to 2 lead in their drive to the final victory they need in the 1936 world series. Clyde Castelman, young right hander, took up the Giants' pitching burden against the errant Yankee left hander, Vernon Gomez.

Jake Powell's long home run into the left field stands after George Selkirk's booming triple pulled the Yankees up to a 2 and 2 tie with the Giants in the second inning.

A two-run burst off Lefty Gomez in the first inning evaded suddenly in the Yankees' half of the second.

Selkirk smashed a tremendous triple into the Giant bullpen in right center. Powell nailed a fast ball on the nose, driving it high and far into the left field stands for the ninth home run of the series, the seventh for the Yankees.

FIRST INNING. YANKEES—Crossetti popped to Whitehead. Rolfe grounded out to Terry. DiMaggio flied to Leiber. No runs, no hits, no errors.

GIANTS—Mooch singled to left. Bartell walked. Terry sacrificed. Rolfe to Gehrig, both runners advancing. Leiber walked. Ott doubled down the right field line, scoring Moore and Bartell and sending Leiber to the plate. Rolfe grounded out. Whitehead grounded out, Lazzari to Gehrig. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING. YANKEES—Gehrig flied to Leiber. Dickson flied to Selkirk. Moore, a triple to right. Powell smashed a home run into the upper left field stands. Lazzari singled. Gomez out. Fitzsimmons to Terry. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

GIANTS—Jackson singled. Fitzsimmons flied to Selkirk. Moore flied to Powell. Bartell walked. Terry flied to DiMaggio. No runs, one hit, no errors.

THIRD INNING. YANKEES—Crossetti fanned. Rolfe singled. DiMaggio singled. Rolfe See NO. 4, Page 8

LEGION POST TO MEET ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The regular meeting of Kerley-Crossman Post 334 American Legion will be held at the Legion hut Wednesday night, Oct. 7, at 8 o'clock.

Officers for the year 1937 will be installed and the committee of the eighteenth district, Lou Roberts of Berger, will be the installing officer.

All members are urged to attend this meeting and those who do not attend are making it hard on themselves as every member will have something to do this coming year.

Let us turn out in large numbers to welcome the new post commander.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM You never can tell what people will do so (it would seem that this space is becoming a clearing house for the needy) here is the case of a young man that may interest you. Great confidence in his future has Mrs. Frances Alexander, local high school teacher. The youth is now at the University of Texas which he attends last year. He is making the best grades ever made at a college by a graduate of Pampa high school. More than that, he is a good athlete, and more than that he is an optimist, and his good natured nature. Mrs. Alexander says he has a bright future ahead of him in science. People are almost wondering how he manages to stay in school, knowing that he has no money. But the time has come when he must have a small loan. If you have a small loan, if you can afford to lend this boy some money see Mrs. Alexander who did not ask that this be written. It's likely you'll never regret it if you help this boy, and he has not asked for help.

Steel Cable Snaps And Elevator Drops

When certain witnesses in the Slaughter case failed to answer when their names were called to court this forenoon, Judge Ewing ordered attachments issued and instructed the sheriff to bring them into court.

Jurors selected to sit on the Slaughter case are: J. W. Angel, Groom; J. A. Darnell, Almarred; J. T. Hughes, McLean; J. B. Austin, C. E. Humphries, R. L. Ringham, all of Pampa; and W. I. Gilbert, H. A. Smith, Otto Pate, C. W. Stoneschiffer, W. E. Wilson.

Chief Slaughter, of Berger, indicted for receiving stolen property, appeared before the court this forenoon and trial of his case was set for Thursday morning.

When it developed that the jury commission's original venire for the week was about to be exhausted, the court ordered the sheriff to bring in 15 additional men as prospective jurors to finish out the week.

The child, a student in the sixth grade at Baker school, was rushed to Worley hospital in a G. C. Malone ambulance. Hospital physicians have not definitely determined whether the boy received a skull fracture. He was in a semi-conscious condition today.

SWEDISH FLIER HOPS OFF FOR ATLANTIC TRIP

Leaves Gotham For Stockholm Via Ireland

BY WILLIAM O. VARN, Associated Press Staff Writer. NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (AP)—Facing hazardous weather in a 300-mile stretch off the Newfoundland coast, Kurt Bjorkvall, 31-year-old Swedish flier, pointed the nose of his red and green monoplane, Pacemaker, eastward today in a projected non-stop flight to Stockholm.

Bjorkvall lifted his plane from the runways of Floyd Bennett field at 7:35 a. m. EST, climbed steadily as the ship gathered speed, and 40 minutes later was off the Long Island coast cruising at about 100 miles an hour.

On the ground he left a dejected Baroness Eva von Blixenfinecke, who has expected until the last minute to accompany him.

Bjorkvall, who purchased the Bellanca monoplane outright a few days ago, rejected pleas of the baroness to make the flight in a dramatic conference in a tiny office near where his plane waited.

A Swedish newspaper (Stockholms-Tidningen) was the original backer of the flight for the Swede. Dug criticism of the risk to be encountered by the baroness on the trip this late in the season, Bjorkvall's friends

WELFARE DRIVE HERE URGED BY MINISTERS

Strong sentiment for a drive for funds to finance welfare work among needy cases of the city was expressed by members of the local ministerial alliance at their regular meeting yesterday.

The group appointed a committee comprising the Revs. Burney Shell, W. C. House and C. E. Lancaster to meet with the city commission for the purpose of urging and discussing a welfare campaign.

The ministers of the city leaned to the idea that care of needy children and families, including general welfare work, should be placed in charge of the Red Cross or directed by the Red Cross committee.

A cold north wind, which sent the mercury here below 50 degrees this morning, was followed by a light but steady shower which was still falling at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The forecast for tomorrow was cloudy and cool.

SLAUGHTER IS ON TRIAL HERE FOR GAMBLING

Trial of Dave Slaughter, of the Y. Tavern, on charges of permitting gambling on his premises and of keeping a gambling house, was begun in district court here this afternoon. Testimony was due to start at 1:30 today.

Slaughter, indicted by the grand jury jointly with Bryan Combs on the above counts, is being tried separately. Most of this forenoon was spent in selecting a jury after Judge W. R. Ewing overruled a defense motion for continuance.

Witnesses called to testify in the case of Sara Dunn, charged similarly with the case of Slaughter, when the case was put over for trial until 10 a. m. next Monday. Continuance also was made in the case of I. G. Deuran, indicted with Dunn on the same charge.

When certain witnesses in the Slaughter case failed to answer when their names were called to court this forenoon, Judge Ewing ordered attachments issued and instructed the sheriff to bring them into court.

Jurors selected to sit on the Slaughter case are: J. W. Angel, Groom; J. A. Darnell, Almarred; J. T. Hughes, McLean; J. B. Austin, C. E. Humphries, R. L. Ringham, all of Pampa; and W. I. Gilbert, H. A. Smith, Otto Pate, C. W. Stoneschiffer, W. E. Wilson.

BOY SERIOUSLY HURT AS TRUCK, WHEEL COLLIDE

Fracture of Skull Is Feared; Child Is Semi-Conscious

Gene Wesley Pierce, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pierce, 115 West Brown street, received serious head injuries yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock when his bicycle collided with a truck on South Cuyler street. City police officers are investigating the accident but up to this morning they had failed to locate any eye-witnesses.

The child, a student in the sixth grade at Baker school, was rushed to Worley hospital in a G. C. Malone ambulance. Hospital physicians have not definitely determined whether the boy received a skull fracture. He was in a semi-conscious condition today.

NEEDY CANCER VICTIM NEEDS BED ARTICLES

Another call for help from kind-hearted Pampans was sent out this morning by the relief office. Residents, who have never failed to respond to a call, are asked to provide sheets, pillow cases, bedding and bed clothes for a man living within the city limits who is in a critical condition because of a cancer on his face. The family is poverty-stricken.

Persons who will donate the necessary articles are asked to bring them to the room next to the district clerk's office on the third floor of the courthouse.

Tiff Over Pump Repair Bill Ends Satisfactorily

A California pump company is satisfied; the City of Pampa is satisfied. Which won the argument over a pump repair bill is a matter of opinion; anyway—

The pump company will collect a bill in the amount of $1,394.40 from the city, as it set out to do, minus $180.32 allowed in credits equivalent to discount on pump parts that didn't hold up, and in addition the pump company will ship a brand new pump, valued at $523.25, to the City as a solace for collecting the $1,394.40 bill.

But that new pump is what the city wanted all the time. If and when one of the present pumps goes on the blink, there will be the new pump sitting over there in the corner, and a possible water shortage will be averted.

The score: the city got what it wanted; the pump company isn't kicking. At first the company didn't say anything about shipping the new pump or allowing the credits, but a series of letters and a telephone conversation resulted in a complete understanding.

There were no hard feelings at any time.

200 BUSINESS MEN HERE TO BE AFFECTED

BCD URGES WPA HELP IN PAVING TWO BLOCKS

The accent was on the city zoning law last night as the city commission took action on or discussed such matters as paint, paving, WPA labor, the planning of a new fire hose, the city budget, insurance, new water pumps and a variety of other subjects.

The commission meeting was visited by two rather large delegations. One came to protest enforcement of the city zoning ordinance, and the other comprising members of the BCD directors asked assistance in compiling estimates and figures as a preliminary move to secure paving on one block on Gray street and one block on West street. Earl O'Keefe, former city commissioner, and John R. Roby, were spokesmen for the BCD group.

Injunction Planned. Possibility that the zoning ordinance question may soon find itself in district court loomed when it was mentioned at the meeting that an injunction to restrain the city from enforcing the zoning law may be asked in district court. Meanwhile, the city is preparing to try two cases, alleging violations, in city court.

That the city stirred up a tempest when it decided to enforce the five-year-old zoning ordinance was evident when a group of merchants showed up for the meeting. City Attorney John Sturgeon said he understood enforcement of the law would affect about 200 business places. A woman who has a store at the Horace Mann school was told that the ordinance would not affect her because her place of business

HENSHAW ACQUITTED IN DRUNK DRIVING TRIAL

G. C. Henshaw of Skellytown, was found not guilty of driving an automobile on the public highway by a jury in district court here last night.

The jury brought in the acquittal verdict about 10 p. m. after a one-day trial in which the defense brought a number of character witnesses to the stand and testimony from the defendant, his wife and daughter. Arresting officers testified for the state.

At the time of his arrest, Henshaw was not actually driving the car but was riding with another man who is awaiting trial on a similar charge, the testimony showed.

Henshaw told the court his arrest several weeks ago on the drunk driving charge marked his first experience with the law. Character witnesses testified that they had never had cause to doubt the defendant's reputation for being a peaceful and law abiding citizen.

Members of the jury were J. B. Austin, J. T. Hughes, W. I. Gilbert, C. E. Humphries, O. L. Ringham, Lester Day, H. A. Smith, H. W. Dixer, Otto Pate, J. W. Atkins, E. J. Anderson, and Ralph . . .

Community Club in Bell District Has Party at School

By JESSIE LEE DAVIS BELL, Oct. 6—The Bell Community club entertained last Saturday night with a forty-two party. Games were enjoyed, and pie and coffee were served.

A Citizenship club was organized by pupils of Bell school last week under direction of the teachers, Misses Branch and Davis. It grew out of the English classes of several grades. Topics discussed during the week were good manners, safety, thrift, and character study.

Primary grades in Bell school have finished a study on farms, and started a unit on homes.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

By NEA Service As soon as the weather gets cooler we begin to plan our meals with a first course in mind.

In hot weather, when appetites lag, we are likely to simplify meals and get along with a main dish, salad and dessert.

But there's little or no excuse for doing without a good homemade soup today after escaping from the heat of the days are cold. If you think soup is too much trouble or haven't the time to prepare it, you might serve such a simple first course as boneless, skinless sardines on lettuce with French dressing, or canned salmon with capers and vinegar.

Shrimps on lettuce, with a sharp horseradish chili sauce, are another appetizing combination.

Most people — men especially — enjoy a home-made vegetable soup that has a morsel of vegetable in it. Here is a tried-and-true recipe. The housewife who serves this soup will find it well worth the effort of preparation.

Country Vegetable Soup for Six One-half cup olive oil, 6 to 8 onions, pepper, paprika, salt, 3 carrots, 1 cup shredded cabbage, 2 cups tomato juice, 2 or 3 left-over cooked potatoes.

This is the simplest method of making a good soup if you don't happen to have any meat stock in the house.

Cook the chopped onions very slowly, until browned, in the olive oil in a large kettle.

Meanwhile cook the cabbage and sliced or diced carrots in just enough water to cover.

When the onions are tender, add the carrots and cabbage and the water in which they were cooked.

Add the 2 cups of tomato juice, salt, pepper, and paprika to taste. Left-over cooked meat may be ground and added also. Add the potatoes, dice fine.

Do not let soup boil after adding the tomato juice; simply let it simmer for ten or fifteen minutes.

If you are having vegetable cutlets for dinner, don't throw away the scraps of veal that you trim from the cutlets. Put them in a kettle, cover with water, add an onion, a carrot sliced, salt, pepper and paprika and let this boil for two hours. Strain and you have a delicious meat broth with all the fine flavor of the meat.

Serve very hot in bouillon cups with chopped parsley and croutons.

S. S. TEACHERS ARE CHRISTIAN CHURCH GUESTS

Supper and Program Are Given for Large Group

Teachers in the First Christian Sunday school were entertained with a supper at the church last evening, sponsored by workers in the children's department and served by Mmes. Don Hurst, Weldon Wilson, C. L. Austin, and C. L. Shearer of the Loyal Women's class.

Songs, jokes, and stunts including a spelling match of Biblical names were led by Mrs. C. W. Stowell, toastmaster. On the entertainment committee were Mmes. Enory Noblitt, Billy Taylor, and Stowell.

Those present were Messrs. and Mmes. P. D. Ferguson, John S. Mullen, Stowell; Messrs. Paul Hill, A. C. Jones, C. L. Austin, C. F. Bassion, Howard House; Misses Ruby Ezeem, Annabi Holloway, and Viola Jenkins.

Mmes. George DeZern, Bessie Martin, Burl Graham, Tom Eckerd, Lee Ledrick, B. O. Leslie, Sherman Fritchard, Noblitt, O. P. Hawthorne, E. M. Hopp, Harold Trenary, Bruce Cobb, W. F. Taylor, Carl Moot, Theresa Humphries, and Fred Whipple.

Baptist Women Give Study Hour To Aid Revival

Time scheduled for regular mission study by First Baptist Missionary union was given yesterday to work for the revival in progress at the church. After a brief business session, the union heard a message from the Rev. Hyman Appelman, evangelist.

After his talk the members left for an afternoon visiting prospective church members.

Those present were Mmes. C. H. Schulke, N. E. Ellis, T. F. Morton, C. E. Lancaster, E. Sidham, Garnet Reeves, W. B. Henry, Wagon, H. L. Watt, Dee Campbell, E. L. Anderson, Floyd Yeager, Tom Duval, D. Kitchings, W. D. Benton, J. W. Young, C. L. Stephens.

Horrible Killing of Young Woman Probed

BOSTON, Oct. 6 (AP)—What appeared to be the horrible killing of a young woman baffled police here today.

Two legs were found a quarter of a mile apart in Boston harbor yesterday. Each was wrapped in a bur-lap bag. Sergeant A. H. Dunham announced later human viscera wrapped in newspaper and encased in a small white bag, were found nearby.

Medical Examiner William J. Bricklely said the legs apparently had been hacked from the body to obscure identity.

Bricklely said the legs were those of a young brunette woman, probably in her early 20's.

There were no scars on the legs, Bricklely asserted. The feet were well cared for and took a size three shoe.

The medical examiner reported the limbs had been in the water from one to three weeks.

Calvary Baptist S. S. Is Growing

The largest attendance in several months was recorded at Calvary Baptist Sunday school Sunday, when 90 were present. The school has lately been graded, and those not attending another Sunday school are invited to join one of the classes.

The Rev. E. M. Dunsworth is the new pastor of Calvary church, and is in charge of regular services now.

Food Pills Can Never Suffice, Says Doctor

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 6 (AP)—Alack and alas, the hard working housewife must give up her dream of dispensing with a four course meal by simply feeding hubby a concentrated food pill—it can't be done, an authority said today.

The calvary factor will necessitate continued operation of America's kitchens, explained Dr. Milton A. Bridges, assistant clinical professor of medicine at Columbia university and dietetics authority.

"Human beings never are going to eat pills for meals," said Dr. Bridges, emphatically. "Pills never can be made to contain sufficient caloric volume."

Charged in Deaths Sweetwater

SWEETWATER, Oct. 6 (AP)—E. R. Ocker, janitor of the Fisher county courthouse at Roby, was under two charges of murder today in the deaths Sunday night of Mrs. Earl Perry, 43, and Frank Kerns, 41. Sitting on the running board of an automobile, they were killed instantly when the machine was sideswiped by another car.

Thrift Room Will Be Opened Soon

Building Is Secured; Leaders Confer Today

A thrift room will be opened soon to supply clothing for needy pupils. It was announced at the school of instruction sponsored by the City Parent-Teacher council Saturday.

This afternoon, presidents and welfare committee members from the various units are meeting at the room to make definite plans.

The building recently vacated by the Pampa Office Supply Co. on N. First will be used this year. Clothing will be donated by Pampans.

Woodrow Wilson school won the attendance award at the school of instruction, with 21 of the 75 members present. Mrs. Roy Holt was in charge of the program. Mrs. M. Turner of business, A. L. Patrick of recreation, and Mrs. A. E. Shackleton of refreshments.

The program was composed of talks on various Parent-Teacher functions, Mrs. A. L. Burge discussed duties of officers, Mrs. F. M. Culbertson the function of the council. Mrs. L. D. McCallum the duties of the executive committee, Mrs. F. W. Shotwell the points in standardization, Mrs. R. B. Fisher study groups, Miss Josephine Thomas parliamentary procedure.

Committee duties were outlined as follows: Program, Mrs. C. E. Vincent; membership, Mrs. Burl Graham; publicity, Mrs. Allen Hodges and Mrs. A. L. Patrick; hospitalities, Mrs. John Hessey; finance, Mrs. Earl Eaton; welfare, Mrs. W. A. Brinkley; room representatives, Mrs. L. J. McCarty. Supt. R. B. Fisher conducted the closing symposium.

Circle Study in M. E. Homes Has Guests Present

Mrs. F. L. Stallings was hostess in the home of Mrs. H. L. Wilder yesterday to circle one of the First Methodist Missionary society. After the devotional and prayer by Mrs. John Hodge, Mrs. W. Purviance led the discussion from chapters four and five of "Women and Home Missions."

Topics were: Mining Districts and Oil Fields, discussed by Mrs. John Platt; Agricultural Centers, by Mrs. George Walsad; Toward a Better Understanding, by Mrs. Luther Pierce; Bethel Centers Begun, by Mrs. H. H. Boynton.

Refreshments were served to 16 members and a visitor, Mrs. Langham.

Circle three had 13 members and two visitors present at the home of Mrs. W. D. Waters, Mrs. aHrd Wright conducted the devotional and business session. Mrs. J. E. Kirschman was lesson leader.

Mrs. W. H. Peters discussed Health in Our Homes, and Mrs. Waters' topic was Home Missions Taught. After his study hour, refreshments were enjoyed.

Twenty-one members of circle four and two guests, Mrs. E. L. Keck and Mrs. J. L. Mann, attended a meeting in Mrs. A. Kelly's home.

The opening devotional included sentence prayers, a song, and talk on "The Commandments by Mrs. A. W. Babblon.

Mrs. R. B. Fisher directed the study in round-table fashion. The topic was Industrial and Rural Sections, a chapter from the book, Women and Home Missions. The closing prayer was by Mrs. Mary Purvis.

JOE MOORE IS EX-AGGIE OF GAUSE, TEXAS GIANTS HITTING HERO SPENT ONE YEAR IN TEXAS LEAGUE

BY FELIX R. MCKNIGHT, DALLAS, Oct. 6 (AP)—Note to Texas Aggies: Joe Moore, hitting hero of the New York Giants yesterday, attended your school—but not long enough to get his degree. . . . Moore, who winters down at Gause, Texas, where he was born on a Christmas day 28 years ago, spent one year in the Texas league. . . . He did considerable out-fielding for San Antonio in 1930.

Warning to regular customers of Joe Kanipe's Corpus Christi barber shop: Brace yourselves for more conversation than usual in the next few days. . . . Joe made a neat catch of Selkirk's home run smash into the upper right field stands on opening day of the world series. . . . It was the first run of the series. . . . Joe pocketed the ball.

If this season's Texas Christian team isn't enough to worry Coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer, he can always look forward to 1937. . . . He opens his schedule against Ohio State and then plays, without a deep breath, Arkansas, Tulsa, Texas Aggies, Fordham in New York, Baylor, Centenary, Texas, Rice and Southern Methodist.

Suggestion for the Southwest conference's best "touchdown twin" combination of 1937: Dick Todd, current sophomore sensation, and Walter (Red) Cecil, the Freeport, Texas, career-top speedster, now starring with the Aggie "fish."

Vic Cook, Corpus Christi sports writer, says reports that Charlie Haas, great halfback now at the University of Texas, may never play again, are a trifle exaggerated. . . . Vic reports that Haas is working out with the Texas frosh. . . . Coach Clyde Littlefield says he isn't, and talks gloomily of his future.

Jud Achison, Texas halfback, took his turn in the LSU game despite a head injury suffered when he slipped on a shower room floor and fell. . . . Considerable stitching was needed to close the wound.

San Francisco papers went wild over the colorful St. Mary's university team of San Antonio. Four pages were given over to their university of San Francisco game, in one of the leading papers. . . . Sports scribes tossed orchids to Doug Locke, halfback; Clayton Holcomb and Paul Buchanan, ends, and Guy Todd, along with all the rest.

Harvesters Will Face More Speed And Beef On Friday

LONGHORNS TO PLAY SOONERS ON SATURDAY

BAUGH TO LEAD FROGS INTO TULSA FOR GAME

(By The Associated Press)

Coach Jack Chevigny prescribed hard work for his University of Texas gridder today in an effort to prevent over confidence as a result of the Longhorns' unexpected tie with the strong Louisiana State squad Saturday.

The Steers emerged from the game without serious injuries and began practice for this week's encounter at Dallas with the University of Oklahoma.

The Texas Christian Frogs, victors over Arkansas, resumed scrimmage sessions in preparation for their invasion of Tulsa to play Tulsa University Saturday. "Slingin' Sam Baugh, who hurled the Frogs to their win over the Porkers, was expected to recover from a shoulder injury by game time.

With two consecutive defeats on their record, the Rice Owls sought means to land in the win column in their conference opener against the Texas Aggies.

At College Station the Aggies nursed bruises as they looked back on last week's narrow escape against Hardin-Simmons. The Aggies checked scouts' notes on previous Rice games and concentrated on blocking.

Blaming overconfidence for the Razorbacks' defeat, Coach Fred Thompson put his University of Arkansas team through a strenuous workout in preparation for their conference tilt with Baylor Saturday.

The Baylor Bears came out of the Centenary game with a defeat but no serious injuries and promised to throw their full strength against the Porkers.

At Southern Methodist Coach Matty Bell worried because the Fordham Rams ran up almost as large a score against Franklin and Marshall as his Mustangs did against Arkansas A. and I. The Ponies leave tomorrow for New York where they battle the Rams Saturday.

Passing Attack Due To Be Stressed For Game

Realizing that they will have to overcome a terrific weight handicap with speed and tricks when they invade Capitol Hill of Oklahoma City on Friday night, the Harvesters went through a long and helpful practice session yesterday afternoon.

The boys worked with a doggedness not seen so far this season. They were smarting from their second 26 to 0 reverse at the hands of an Oklahoma team last Friday night. The Little Harvesters opened the season losing 26 to 0 to Central of Oklahoma City. Then they defeated Childers 26 to 6. On Friday night they took another 26 to 0 trouncing, that time from Norman.

In defeat, though, the Harvesters of 1936 made more friends than some of the victorious teams of years gone by. The little fellows showed such gameness and fight that it got under the skin of even the hardest fan, who always likes to see victory for the home team.

Some fans are saying, "What's wrong with the Harvesters?" The answer is that "nothing" is wrong with the Harvesters. They are green, they are light and they are still a little jittery. However, experience and confidence is being inculcated into them in every game they play, win or lose, and by the time the conference season gets underway, watch out for the Harvesters, is the opinion of close observers.

In Oklahoma City Friday night the Harvesters will face so much "beef" that they might be tempted to run off the field. But they won't. They'll be fighting at the end of 90 minutes with the same determination as at the opening whistle.

Coaches and the team will leave here Friday morning, returning Saturday.

CANZONERI IS GIVEN BELTING BY McLARNIN

TEN-ROUND DECISION IS CARRIED OFF BY JIMMY

NEW YORK, Oct. 6. —Jimmy McLarnin, the clouting Celt who was ready to hang up his gloves and quit the ring little more than a year ago, found himself very much in the fight picture again today after giving a shelling to pug-nosed little Tony Canzoneri, former lightweight king.

McLarnin turned the tables on Canzoneri last night at Madison Square Garden before a crowd of 11,423 cash customers who took time off from the world series arguments to see the two former title-holders go ten slashing rounds. Last May Tony gave Jimmy a ten-round licking.

McLarnin carried off the unanimous decision after left-handing Canzoneri into bloody submission. Tony survived a three-second knockdown in the second round, when he was flattened by a straight right to the chin. He finished gamely despite gashes around both eyes, his nose and mouth. McLarnin out-pointed his rival in every round except the first and tenth, which Tony won, and the fourth, which was even.

Ringside critics were unanimous in rating McLarnin's performance his best here in the last two years, despite the fact his victim lacked anything like the speedy aggressiveness of his best days.

The Garden's energetic promoter, Jimmy Johnston, lost no time starting negotiations for a fourth McLarnin-Ross fight to be held this winter. They waged three outdoor battles for the welterweight crown, splitting two decisions in 1934 and fighting the rubber match in 1935, with Ross the victor.

'PRINCE HAL' FANS TEN IN WEIRD BATTLE

SCHUMACHER DISPLAYS GREAT COURAGE IN WINNING

BY SID FEDER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (AP)—The Giants were in a considerably improved position today as they returned to their own ball yard for the world series finish, with Pat Freddy Fitzsimmons and the great Carl Hubbell ready for pitching duty.

Although still on the brink of elimination, with the Yankees out in front three games to two and needing only the clincher to grab the big end of the payoff, the National leaguers undoubtedly have a pitching edge from here on, in addition to holding whatever advantage playing in their own Polo Grounds may have.

However, there were baseball men who expected them to rally their forces sufficiently. The Yankees were 1 to 3 in the latest betting quotations.

They're throwing Fitzsimmons against the Yanks in today's sixth game in the hope it can follow up in victory the weird drama Hal Schumacher put on yesterday to take a courageous 5-4 ten-inning decision. Pat Freddy was the victim of the series' biggest heartbreak, when he stopped Murderer's Row with four hits Saturday, only to come out on the short end of a 3-1 count.

Opposing is Lefty (Goofy) Gomez, the erratic fireballer, already holder of one decision over the National leaguers, the Yankees' record breaking 18-4 execution of the Giant pitcher staff.

Schumacher, knee deep in base hits, errors and bases on balls, contributed the greatest show of courage in the series to date as he pulled out of tight spots after another yesterday.

Although clubbed solidly for ten hits, including George Selkirk's second homer of the series, and giving six bases on balls, he atoned for the tremendous beating the American league ball killers handed him in the second game by fanning ten, including Howard Ehmke's series high of 12.

Meantime, the Giants collected only eight hits off the combined hurling of Red Ruffing and Pat (Old Blubber) Malone. The only hit off Malone, who relieved Ruffing after he was removed for a pinch hitter in the sixth, was Jojo Moore's second double of the day, in the tenth frame. A few moments later, Moore came in with the winning run on Terry's towering fly.

Schumacher won his game the hardest way of all.

In the third, he got himself into what one scribe called the "all time, all-America" hole by walking Tony Lazzeri and Ruffing, first two up, and then advancing both on a wild pitch. Frank Crosetti was safe on Bartelli's wild throw to Terry, which scored Lazzeri and Roife beat out a punt to fill the bases.

But "Prince Hal" then proceeded to spike the three biggest guns. He fanned Joe DiMaggio and Gehrig with his fast breaking sinker ball, and retired Bill Dickey on a short fly to right.

SCHOOL GOLFERS LOSE MATCHES IN AMARILLO

The Pampa high school golf team played its first match of the season in Amarillo Saturday, losing 6½ to 5½ points. The team this year has for its sponsor Principal L. L. Sone. Elmer Watkins is captain.

Despite a three out of four loss, the Pampa boys lacked only one point of tying the score. The matches were scored on a three-point basis, one point for each nine holes and a point on the 18 holes.

The Harvesters got away to an early lead but lost out in the final round, one match going 19 holes.

Watkins lost to Cantwell, 1 down. Kenneth Brown lost to Sherman Gray, 1 down on 19 holes.

Richard Kilgore won from Charles Gwinn, 1 up on 19 holes.

Zade Watkins lost to Donald Goaddus, 3 and 2.

ACT UPHELD. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6 (AP)—Constitutionality of the 1933 federal securities act was upheld in a ruling by Federal Judge William F. James which was on record today. It was the first court test ever made of the act's criminal section, so far as he knows, he said. Judge James overruled a demurrer filed by six men indicted on charges of making false representations to sell $1,500,000 of trade acceptances.

LUBBOCK QUARTERBACK IS FOUND INELIGIBLE

Earl Ince, ace quarterback and passer of the Lubbock Westerners, has been found ineligible to compete in high school football this year, according to the Lubbock Avalanche yesterday. Amarillo high school records are the proof, according to the Lubbock paper.

The little speedster, it appears, attended high school in Amarillo in 1934 before moving to Lubbock. He also had too much time in 1933 which would rule him ineligible, according to the information from Amarillo.

A clipping from the Lubbock Avalanche reads: Lubbock High is sorry right now, sorry that Earl Ince, the ace quarterback, passer of the Westerners, has been found ineligible by the Amarillo High record books. Ince entered Amarillo High school before his family moved to Lubbock in 1934, but the Inces say, and credit transcripts and report cards from Amarillo High bear the Inces out, that Earl didn't attend Amarillo High long enough to be called out in Lubbock.

JIM RIPPLE CALLED GREATER ROOKIE THAN JOE DI MAGGIO

NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (AP)—Joe Di Maggio won acclaim as the greatest major league rookie of 1936 but the thousands who have watched the melodramatic world series battles aren't so sure he has anything over Jim Ripple, star Giant freshman, at least for the time being.

With a team that has been stumbling along, Ripple actually has surpassed the World Series exploits of the young Italian from the Golden Gate, today's figures reveal. At bat, he has smashed out four hits in 12 chances and driven in three runs. Di Maggio has hit safely six times out of 20 and batted in two runs.

More than that, Ripple has come through almost every time in a pinch, whereas Di Maggio has failed, twice hitting into double plays when one run meant a ball game.

STANFORD GRID ELEVEN WILL NOT STRIKE AGAINST REFEREE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6 (AP)—Stanford university's football team will play its schedule, graduate manager Al Masters declared today, despite resentment of players against Referee Bobby Morris.

Masters, termed "ridiculous" a reported threat by the team to "strike" as a protest against Morris' officiating in Washington State's 14 to 13 victory over Stanford Saturday.

Morris, who is scheduled to officiate in the University of Southern California-Stanford game at Palo Alto October 24, was charged by the Cardinal players with irregularities in the game at Pullman, Wash.

"The players may feel strongly against Morris," Masters said, "but

OILERS TAKE SECOND DIXIE SERIES GAME

THIRD TILT TO BE IN TULSA WEDNESDAY NIGHT

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 6 (AP)—The jubilant Tulsa Texas League Oilers and the somewhat crestfallen Birmingham Barons of the Southern association traveled toward Tulsa today for the third game of the Dixie series, which will be played here tomorrow night.

The Oilers won their second consecutive game at Birmingham last night, 4 to 1, but it took them fourteen long innings to turn the trick.

As the game went into the ninth inning, Tulsa's 4-2 lead looked safe, but Riggs Fitzsimmons, Barons manager, singled in the tying runners.

Ivan Crawford, Tulsa second baseman, hit a single in Tulsa's half of the fourth, and Howard Ehmke, Tulsa pitcher, pitched a double steal. Tulsa was called out, but the umpires ruled Overman had balked, so both were called safe.

Bernie Cobb, Oiler first-sacker, sent them home with a lusty double.

The Oilers' lead was held by the Oilers at Amarillo show, however, that Ince attended more high school and passed more courses than the 1933 and 1935 records showed.

We're not entering the controversy until we've talked with Coach Weldon Chapman, who continued on to Oklahoma City after hearing the bad news at Amarillo Friday. Something, however, is in the air, and we'd like to know what it is.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (AP)—Burlieigh Grimes, the old pitcher, is the leading favorite to land Casey Stengel's job in Brooklyn. Burlieigh's Louisville club finished seventh in the American association this year, so he should feel right at home in Flatbush. It is also more than a possibility that Larry MacPhail, late of the Reds, will step into John Gorman's shoes as general manager of the Daffiness boys.

Some days ago, when it was rumored MacPhail had his eyes on the St. Louis Browns, this corner wondered how he and Rogers Hornsby would hit it off. Well, it turns out the pair have a healthy respect for each other. MacPhail often calls Hornsby to ask his opinion of certain players. When Rogers answers the phone he always says, "Hello, MacPhailure."

What do the baseball money players do when the chips are up? DiMaggio and Gehrig fanned yesterday when a hit might have meant the ball game. . . . In the same inning, Hal Schumacher pitched him-self out of the all-time, all-American hole. . . . With one run in, the bases loaded and none out, he whiffed DiMaggio and Gehrig and forced Bill Dickey to fly out. . . . Mebbe some of you can beat that.

Tom Yawkey and Eddie Collins left the series flat to fly to Wyoming for a big game hunting expedition with Mickey Cochran and Tris Speaker. . . . Lou Gehrig has been playing the series all doped up with aspirin to ease lumbago pains in his back.

Capitol Hill Game Tickets Received

Reserve seat, general admission and student tickets to the Pampa Harvester-Capitol Hill football game to be played at Capitol Hill stadium in Oklahoma City Friday night at 8 o'clock were received here this morning by Roy McMillen who has them for sale at his office in the city.

Adult general admission tickets to the game will be 50 cents. Five hundred of the ducats were received along with 250 student general admission tickets at 35 cents. More than 200 reserve seat tickets, at 25 cents, were also in the packages. They are located around the 45-yard line.

Fans planning to attend the game are urged to secure their tickets immediately because those not sold will have to be returned before the game.

LARGEST REGISTRATION

CHICAGO, Oct. 6 (AP)—The largest registration of voters in the history of Chicago was predicted today by A. J. McKay, chairman of the election commission, as citizens flocked to polling places to make themselves eligible for the presidential election. Today was the final day for qualifying under the state's new permanent registration law, designed by the legislature in part to bring back "honest elections" to Chicago. Already 1,354,000 had registered, compared with the record 1,643,839 for the April, 1932 primary.

NEW VIEWS ON RACE

In these times when so many human beings find advantage to be gained in use of the term "race superiority," the views of men who have made life studies in related subjects are of especial significance.

Recent observations by two such men are worth repeating. Sir Cyril Fox, director of the National Museum of Wales, has this to say: "There is abundant evidence to show that differences between peoples are due entirely to their history, tradition and culture, and no scientific evidence what ever that they are due to different hereditaries."

Along the same line, Prof. H. J. Fluere, distinguished anthropologist, points out difficulties in studying whole populations as units. "Nordic supremacy" draws Prof. Fluere's fire. He reminds us that in Germany, where idealization of the tall, long-headed, blond type has been most widespread, the people are preponderantly broad-shouldered, broad-headed, and inclined to stoutness.

Acceptance of these beliefs of recognized scientists would explode several modern political conceptions of race.

MAKE A DATE FOR YOURSELF

Do you think you can spare an hour or two this week in the interest of saving your property from destruction—and perhaps saving your loved ones and yourself from horrible deaths?

If you can, make a date with yourself now to take advantage of Fire Prevention Week, which is being observed now.

Read the material that is being published during the week—in pamphlets, magazines, and newspapers—and learn of the common fire hazards and how to eliminate them.

If you want further information, go to your local fire chief—he will be more than glad to help you with any fire prevention problem.

Thoroughly inspect your property for hazards, from cellar to roof-top. And when you find the hazards, correct them at once—don't wait for a tomorrow that may never come.

Remember that repairs to electrical apparatus, heating plants, etc., require special knowledge and should be made by a qualified expert. Amateur work of this kind may create new hazards instead of correcting old ones.

You can spare the few hours that will serve to make your home safe from fire—and you'll sleep better nights when the job is done.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

NEW YORK—President Roosevelt's campaign speeches may not be changing any votes, but they certainly do make the colonels, captains, and corporals in his ranks feel mighty good.

The president's big push was what the boys and the girls had been waiting for. After his first admittedly political blast at Syracuse, they thought he was just so grand that they ran around with wide grins and happy laughter.

Most of them cherish the theory that their man is showing himself to outtower Landon by such a distance that there'll hardly be any point counting the ballots.

G. O. P. leaders feel their best hope of offsetting the impact of a campaigning Roosevelt is to convince the country that he is a political slicker, a man of glittering words, a scheming trickster with few scruples and one whose radio speeches must be heavily discounted.

Republican effort to undermine Roosevelt's effectiveness by increasing popular distrust of him is taking the form, according to indications from G. O. P. sources, of stressing various alleged "slippery" episodes of the campaign.

Just before the Republican convention obviously was to go on record with a strong civil service plank, the president ordered thousands of additional postmasters under civil service.

Anticipating Republican attack on high taxes and national debt, he summoned Senator Pat Harrison from his Mississippi campaign to assure the nation that there would be no need of new taxes at the next session.

After Landon had been billed for a speech at Chattanooga, N. Y., Roosevelt suddenly went on at the same place some days in advance with a fighting speech for world peace which many considered carefully planned to flatten the Landon effect.

When Father Coughlin was holding the stage in Cleveland, Roosevelt suddenly showed up there and stole a large part of the show.

The White House issued a blast at Hearst just before that publisher was to launch a new journalistic "Red" attack on the administration.

Then there was the crop insurance incident, when Republicans felt that Roosevelt had obtained advance knowledge of Landon's Des Moines speech and consequently uttered some kind words about crop insurance in time to beat Landon to it.

Al Smith hired radio time for his first speech, Republicans say, only to learn subsequently that Roosevelt would have the same period on another hookup—as if in an effort to take Al's customers away.

Finally, there was Secretary Morgenthau's effort to make it appear that he had blocked a Russian raid against the new Franco-British-American currency stabilization agreement—which many others besides Republicans tend to regard as absurd—to combat the "Red" charges.

All these things, according to some Republican strategists, will tend to convince the voters that Roosevelt is just a little too slick, as compared with "that honest, simple exponent of old-fashioned Americanism, Alf Landon."

After an absence of several weeks, an eastern girl returned home. The Robert Taylor film had probably left town.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER NEW YORK—There is this situation whereby Harry Salter's apartment has become a "gambling hell."

Phillips Lord has a collection of dime novels that might well be the envy of minors everywhere. Lord has over 400 of these "blood and thunder" stories and picks up the paper backed "literature" at book stores that feature second-hand departments.

He has almost the entire "Frank Merrill" output, and the adventures of Frank's brother, Dick Merrill, which are "dime-outs" or dime with which he is possible to make a point, others which contain all seven or eleven. Coins with two "heads" or low "tails," playing cards from various parts of the world, and "cold" decks with which the old-time river gamblers used to cheat the innocent, comprise the remainder of Salter's interesting selection.

Morton Bowe now has a collection of miniature ships that numbers 58 mbats of varying size. Morton's hobby has always run to things marine, and in addition to the boat collection he possesses 30 plaques and bronze pieces depicting scenes of the sea.

Then, too, his apartment is decorated with sketches, water colors and black and whites, all studies of ships or the ocean. Mr. Bowe has

Frank Black's hobby is one that the musical executive has been interested in for 20 years. He has collected hundreds of phonograph records which range in type from classical music to "swing."

Among them are many of the old style Edison records, garnered when Black was with a recording company, and a lot of piano rolls made as far back as 1910. Black himself used to make these piano rolls, and gets a big kick out of listening to his early efforts, which still reproduce quite clearly.

It used to be that when a band or dance team went on the road, they were billed "Direct from sensation, all run on Broadway." But it's in reverse now. Ray Noble's orchestra, for instance, is now in the ritzy Rainbow Room, and it's billed, "Direct from their triumphs at the Texas Centennial Exposition." It works both ways, even on Broadway.

HOW'S your HEALTH

BIRTHMARKS are congenital imperfections of the skin which are not due to shocking or any other experience suffered by the mother during pregnancy.

The cause of birthmarks is unknown. Some believe that if the embryo is injured, or is subjected to undue pressure, it will develop an excessive number of blood vessels at the affected site and that birthmarks result therefrom. This explanation, however, is entirely conjectural.

There are many types of birthmarks, medically called nevi. The three most common are the pigmented, or colored, the hairy and the vascular. The first two are known as moles. The third form is commonly called a "port-wine" birthmark, from its color, usually some shade of red.

The port-wine marks are simply masses of blood vessels. About 75 per cent of them are found involving some portion of the head and face. They may vary in size from pinpoint to huge dimensions. They may be flat or elevated, and at times bulge forth.

In general, the port-wine marks are painless and without danger. Occasionally they may bleed profusely when injured, but a severe hemorrhage seldom results.

The port-wine stain is, therefore, essentially a problem in cosmetics, for quite frequently they are disfiguring. When a port-wine birthmark tends to increase in size, or is much of a trial to the individual, its removal is advisable.

With pigmented and hairy moles, any change in character, especially in a mole which has been exposed to repeated injury or irritation, is an imperative indication for its removal. Moles may undergo malignant changes and give rise to a destructive type of cancer.

The treatment of port-wine marks varies according to size, location and structure. One effective, though costly, means of treatment is radium. Another form of treatment employs what is termed the "carbon dioxide pencil." Ultra violet radiation from so-called "cold quartz lamps" applied with pressure against the birthmark, electro-desiccation and surgical removal followed by skin grafting, are methods of treatment employed in suitable cases.

The competent treatment of birthmarks calls for knowledge, skill and experience. The patient who places himself in the hands of the irregular practitioner runs the risk of added disfigurement. Caustics should never be used in the attempt to remove birthmarks and moles.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

By Frederic J. Haskin

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. How is the space measured which a plane needs for a take-off? A. S. B.

A. The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics says that the distance which an airplane needs for clearance in order to take off is measured from a starting point until the plane clears a 50-foot obstacle or fence. This distance is approximately 1,000 feet.

Q. How much time is taken for the ball leaving the pitcher's hand to reach the batter? J. J. H.

A. Mark Koening went to West Point, New York, May 23, 1930, and, in making a speed test with a base ball before army officers, threw it at a rate of 150 feet per second. Based on this, a pitcher can throw a ball from the mound to the plate (60 feet 6 inches) in about two-fifths of a second.

Q. When will the New York world's fair open? W. C.

A. The plan is for the opening on April 30, 1939.

Q. Where did chimney swifts nest before human habitations were built? S. A.

A. The chimney swift, Chaetura pelagica, is a bird which has acquired a new method of nesting with the advance of civilization. Before chimneys were common the chimney swift used to nest in dead trees. It has the unusual power of flying straight up and down, which makes it possible for it to get in and out of vertical apertures.

Q. How many people are there at the federal reformatory for women at Alderson, W. Va.? E. D.

A. The resident population of the institution, including members of the staff who live on the grounds, is around 600 persons all the time. The institution was built to accommodate 50 inmates. Of course, the inmate population fluctuates slightly above and below that number.

Q. What is the per capita consumption of liquor in the United States? T. A.

A. In 1935 the per capita consumption of wines and spirits (based on wet territory population only) was approximately one and one-tenth gallons.

Q. What is the name of Julius Rosenwald's son who is connected with Sears Roebuck? H. J.

A. Lessing Julius Rosenwald of Philadelphia is chairman of the board of directors of the company.

Q. How many negroes are listed in White Who in America? J. G.

A. The names of over 100 negroes are found in the volume.

Q. Where is Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson buried? S. K.

A. In 1915, her ashes were taken to Samoa, and placed in her husband's tomb.

Q. What is platinite? E. J.

A. This is a trade name for an alloy of iron, containing 46 per cent nickel. This base metal alloy is used as leads for electric light bulbs.

Q. How many negroes are listed in Who's Who in America? E. B.

A. The governor is 6 feet 1 inch in height.

Q. What is the insect which attacks antique furniture? H. N.

A. The insect which attacks antique furniture as well as other types of seasoned hardwood is the lyctus powder-post beetle.

What Are American Rights

Under the American form of government the citizen has certain rights never enjoyed by the people of any other country. These privileges are written into the Constitution.

They guarantee such individual rights as free speech, religious freedom, property rights, trials by jury, and sanctity of the home.

The newer ideals of government that are sweeping Europe eliminate most of our rights, and in all authority in a dictator.

Every American citizen should have a copy of the Constitution and study it as carefully as he does his Bible.

privacy, he will take to hiding his belongings more carefully than before, or he will try to hide his assets to hide his inmost thoughts and the confidences which he would have given to his mother he keeps to himself.

That a child is at the mercy of his parents does not make him their property. He is a separate individual with a right of his own thoughts and point of view. Necessarily these will diverge from his parents, and the more if his parents try to force his confidence.

His correspondence and his diaries are just as exclusively his as if he were an adult, and to pry into them is an unpardonable breach of faith. No child can be expected to confide in or trust a father, or mother who would be guilty of such dishonorable conduct.

PACIFIC FLIGHT

By DECK MORGAN

Chapter XIV Kay retained, neatly and precisely pigeon-holed in her mind, unforgettable highlights of her three weeks' honeymoon trip on the trans-Pacific flight. Long after she had returned to the home port, Ship Harbor, she recalled vividly the time at Manila when the Chinese jirikicha, drawn by a coolie, had overturned in the street. She had been slightly injured. She would always remember the expression on Ted's face as they examined her at the hospital to see how serious were the injuries. She felt his strength and protection.

But there had also been that incident when a strikingly beautiful woman, obviously an Eurasian, had made a scene in an American cabaret where Ted had taken Kay. He was alone at the bar when the woman entered, swathed in white from turban to dancing pumps. Kay had come out of the dressing room to find Ted engaged in conversation with the newcomer.

As Kay approached the woman turned, staring coldly, and said something in a threatening tone, which Kay did not understand. Ted had passed it off by saying that Illah was a woman he had met in dancing places here and there in the ports on the trans-Pacific route. She was a dancer of some fame.

Kay decided, then and there, never to permit herself to become a silly, jealous woman. But she could never really forget the look Illah had given her when Ted had introduced her as his wife.

Another indelible memory of the trip was the excellent discipline at the Trans-Pacific Airways bases on the tiny islands strung across the ocean. Kay thought the colonizers had done well. Where formerly the minutiae had ruled the islands, miniature airports had sprung up, complete to the last detail. Power plants produced electricity for lights, machine shops and refrigeration. The houses were neat and comfortable.

It was all part of the scientific planning of which Ted was so proud. Kay treasured these memories because, almost as soon as the honeymoon was over, Ted had been away, this time for a longer stay in the Orient. She was very lonely in the little house on the beach at Ship Harbor. The first night he was gone, winging his way back across the Pacific, she cried herself to sleep.

But Dickie was with her now, highly pleased to be at home. Dickie was going to day school, and aside from school hours, was usually with Kay. He came to adore her and, when the flying colony saw what an attractive home she was making for Ted at Ship Harbor, it took her to its collective heart. She was an outsider no longer; she was one of them.

Dickie was the pride of the entire group. In his little aviation suit and white helmet, he was undeniably cut. But even Dickie was away from the house part of the day. And there were times when he turned to Jerry, Ted's pal. Kay couldn't help him build his airplanes.

As days passed Kay missed the excitement of flying. Her job on the Overland Airways had never been a grind. Each day had brought new faces and new experiences. She missed the spirit of gay camaraderie she had enjoyed. Now she was Ted Graham's wife, and there was a certain dignity that she felt she owed to the title.

One of the prosps in the colony had said, with small malice, "My dear Kay—the wife of Caesar!" Kay had only laughed. The colony, she knew, was full of gossip, for the simple reason that everybody in the service knew everybody else.

Doris had taken over Kay's post as stewardess, flying between Reno and Oakland, and there were nights when the two got together for little chats. Kay was always eager for news from the Overland Airways.

Alice Miller was expecting a child and Chuck, her pilot-husband, had received a raise.

"Kay, darling," Doris commented dryly, "sometimes I think girls who take these jobs as stepping-stones to marriage. But not for me! I love my job and my freedom."

Kay laughed. And when Ted's life with her vengeance.

Dickie rose up from the floor to say, "But I stay with you every night. You're not lonely with a big man like me in the house, are you?" They both laughed, and Dickie turned to his model airplane.

"You'll step off with Ralph Bangs yet!" Kay warned.

Doris frowned. "That was a mean trick you played on me, sending Ralph over to dine with me that night at your apartment. The very next day I was walking along the beach with a parasol behind my head. I heard a whistle, and when I turned around—it was Ralph! And was his face red! He thought I was somebody else. I brought the parasol down on his head."

At this moment the telephone rang, and Kay got up to answer it. "The next time I meet that guy I'll break his head!" Doris continued.

The voice on the phone was Ralph Bangs. "It's for you, Doris," Kay said.

Doris picked up the phone. She said, "Listen, you— But then she stopped to listen to what Ralph was saying. After a minute or so she forgot her indignation, turned to Kay and her voice was eager, even gay.

"There's a party going on over at Ralph's apartment. A whole mob from the flying colony. They want us to come over right away."

"Up!" Kay said, laughing. "I'm afraid you'll have to go alone, Doris. I've got to help Dickie with his lessons. Arithmetic has got me down! And I'm writing a letter to Ted, to go off on the next plane to Manila."

Doris frowned, but turned back to the telephone, and listened again. Ralph had heard what Kay had said. "Monte Blaine's on the wire now," Doris added. "He thinks he can persuade you to come."

Kay came to the phone, and said indignantly, "Hello, Monte. Sorry. No can do. I'm such a dutiful wife and home-maker that I'm not any more fun. I'd put a crimp in the party. But please have a good time, and invite me some other time—when Ted's here. We'd both love to come."

Doris put on her clack again. "Six weeks is a long time when the cat's away!" she said. "But you know your mind. She added, in a low voice, so that Dickie couldn't hear, "Sato is a competent n-u-r-s-e, if you get what I mean."

Dickie stood up, to say indignantly, "I don't need a nurse! I even fly my own plane now. Yesterday Jerry and I sneaked off behind the hangars, and he let me pilot a transport plane all by myself."

"Dickie!" Kay said. "They don't let little boys fly big planes. And Jerry was in San Francisco yesterday."

Chapter XIV Kay retained, neatly and precisely pigeon-holed in her mind, unforgettable highlights of her three weeks' honeymoon trip on the trans-Pacific flight. Long after she had returned to the home port, Ship Harbor, she recalled vividly the time at Manila when the Chinese jirikicha, drawn by a coolie, had overturned in the street. She had been slightly injured. She would always remember the expression on Ted's face as they examined her at the hospital to see how serious were the injuries. She felt his strength and protection.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD—Time was when the movies depended on themselves for unartificial talent. They inducted new people through the "back door" of Hollywood, which is another way of saying they tried them out in two-reel comedies or "shorts."

From that training school came many of the screen's biggest names—"Chaplin, of course, Harold Lloyd, Gloria Swanson, more recently Dolores and Helene Costello, Joan Blondell, and Bing Crosby among many others.

That time—and that training school—is returning, and in the opinion of some film men the "short" may take the place of the theater as a source of new talent. People who got their first opportunities in short subjects are big names on the screen today, and there are others getting second chances at new fame through the same medium.

Jack Chertok, who produces the featurettes at Metro, has come to be an ex-official talent tester, with a variety of subjects on schedule to try talents ranging from comic and musical to straight dramatic.

George Murphy, a singing juvenile who has been in feature pictures and was on the lot under contract but mostly idle, is leading man in the new short subject, "Violets in Spring." Because of this, Chertok doubts that he will be "available" for further feature work—he'll be too busy in features.

Ann Rutherford, who has been featured in several longer films, but it was Director Joseph Sberman, a writer and himself a "discovery" of the short subjects, who saw new possibilities in her and signed her for the title role in his "Annie Laurie." In the same picture is Shirley Morner, who holds a contract but has held the bag as far as large opportunities in feature films went. And in another, "No Place Like Rome," the leading lady is Suzanne Kaaren, who once had a Fox contract but was released.

The biggest recent "discovery" of the shorts undoubtedly is Robert Taylor. From the studio stock school to a dramatic short to feature roles and stardom was his quick climb. But others have followed the same course. Jean Harlow and Paulette Goddard began their screen careers with Hal Roach, also the first studio home of Jackie Cooper.

Andy Devine was a life guard at Venice when he decided to be a screen actor. He went into the "College" two-reelers, subsequently became a heavy, and finally made the grade as a comedian in "The Spirit of Notre Dame."

And even the newswires can produce featured players, as the case of David Oliver proves. For 18 years Oliver was a newswire cameraman. Last year, when they were photographing sweethearts winners, Oliver thought it would be good idea to show a loser. He couldn't find one, so he impersonated a loser himself. That was comic enough to lead to other impersonations—and the upshot was an acting contract.

LOCAL DOCTORS WILL APPEAR ON PROGRAM

Three Pampa doctors will appear on the program, the joint meeting of the second and third districts of the State Medical Association to be held in Lubbock on Oct. 13 and 14.

Dr. M. C. Overton will lead a discussion on "Medicine and Obstetrics" at an afternoon session on the opening day of the conference. Drs. R. M. Bellamy and H. L. Wilder will lead discussions on the same subjects the following day. Dr. L. C. Hansen, of Borger, is scheduled to open a Wednesday afternoon discussion on "The Ideal Management of Ocular Conditions."

The two district societies cover a territory of 63 counties in West Texas, and the joint meeting is the first of its kind to be held in the state.

Discussions and conferences will occupy the daytime sessions and there will be special entertainment for doctors and their wives in the evening.

A number of Pampa doctors, in addition to those on the program, will attend the two-day conference.

Dietrich Called Most Beautiful Picture Actress

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Oct. 6 (AP)—Scoring 84 points out of a possible 100 in a complicated "beauty analysis" test, Marlene Dietrich was adjudged the most beautiful motion picture actress in Hollywood.

The test has been conducted by Duncan Gleason, young portrait artist.

"It was divided into five sections," he said, "considering the face figure, eyes, hands and legs of motion picture players."

Miss Dietrich won top-ratings for her legs, figure and hands. She was the only one of the major stars to score in three divisions of the test.

Two others won perfect scores in two divisions—Ruby Keeler for her eyes and Olivia de Havilland for her face and eyes.

Norma Shearer with 79 and Ginger Rogers with 70, followed Miss Dietrich.

Another Question About CARDUI

MOTHERS RECOMMEND IT "Why do so many MOTHERS recommend Cardui to their daughters?" Isn't it but natural that any good mother should tell her daughters about Cardui if the mother herself felt that she had been benefited by this medicine?

It is impressive that so many women report having taken Cardui on the advice of their mothers.

Cardui has been found to benefit women when weakened by malnutrition (poor nourishment); and it helps to relieve much discomfort at monthly periods.

Thousands of women testify Cardui helped them. Of course if it does not help you, consult a physician.

PAULINE GREGORY LEADS IN HARVESTER QUEEN CONTEST; BERNICE BARRETT IS SECOND

Students Demonstrate Excitement Over Election

With everyone excited and wondering what the outcome will be, the Harvester queen contest is still in progress. Pampa high school students examine the billboards every day, sometimes two and three times, to see if their favorite is in the lead.

Friday night at the ball game girls and boys were campaigning for their candidates. Programs were sold for a dime as usual, each program sold counting ten votes for the favorite candidate of the salesman.

All of the candidates have been eliminated with the exception of four. Pauline Gregory, a senior, is leading with 4,035 votes. Bernice Barrett, also a senior, follows with 2,445 votes. Leona Hurst, a junior, has 1,235 votes and last but not least, La Maria Courson, a junior, has 1,065 votes.

The winning girl will be crowned at the Pampa-Plainview game, and she will be given a full page picture in the annual.

Pep Squad Gives Rousing Cheers

"H-Har-V-Ves, T-Ter, Harvester, Harvester, Hurrah!"

Once, twice, or just how many times did those pretty pep squad girls yell that last Friday? Another spirit rouser was a mere song by the name of "Hall! Hall!"

All of this took place the morning of the Pampa Harvesters and Norman Tiger game at the high school gymnasium at 11:30 o'clock.

On one side of the gymnasium stood the green and gold clad Harvester boosters. Opposite them the men and boys demonstrated their pep. In the center of the room, the Harvester band played and raised "Hall Columbia" in general.

Director Winston Savage, master of ceremonies, introduced the Tiggers, for whom the pep squad led a rousing cheer. Then the snappy drum major, Robert Kilgore, led his band at the head of the parade of yelling and shouting high school students.

Officers Chosen For Latin Club

Students of the first-hour Latin class elected their club officers Friday morning as follows: Consul, Madge Lawrence; censor, Helen Purdy; praetor, Billie Richey; tribune, Dickie Kennedy; quaestor, Mildred Martin; aedile, John Edwin McConnell; nuntius, Shirley Johnson.

Excellent grades are required of the higher officers and at any time the officers do not make the required grades, new students will be selected to take their place.

Gorillas to Meet Hedley Here Friday

Anxious to make up for their defeat last week the Gorillas this week face Hedley.

This team, larger and stronger than the Gorillas, is favored, but the Ape-men expect to overcome these odds and win. The game will be played Friday night at Harvester park. Students are urged to attend, as admission is free.

In last Friday's game at Mobeetie the Gorillas were defeated 13-0. However, they are improving steadily and the encounter with Hedley promises to be an exciting one.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH.

Rest, fresh air, and no smoking! These are the most important steps in the prevention of tuberculosis, according to the Rev. James Todd Jr., assembly speaker last week. They do not cost anything, but they are worth more to a person than any other three things in the world. In fact, one's pocketbook would be faster if cigaret money did not have to come out of it. Many young people do not realize the value of these rules, however.

In their misguided desire to "keep up with the crowd," they sometimes neglect the common laws of health. They begin to stay out later and later; they take up smoking, in fact, they completely ignore the dictates of their own conscience, which surely tell them that these things are hindering them in school or their work.

Fresh air is the health requirement which is neglected most often. People do not seem to think that it is necessary. Therefore, they breathe the same air for hours at a time and too many times they never open a window at night. Why neglect these rules when it takes so little time and cost to obey them?

A. E. Frazier III With Severe Cold

To the regret of all agriculture boys, A. E. Frazier, head of dairy judging team, is ill with a severe cold. It is not known just when he will be able to resume his teaching.

Because of this, the judging team is somewhat hindered in its progress. Last year Pampa's team ranked high in district meets and it hopes to do even better this year, according to officials of the department.

CLASS ELECTIONS

The outcome of the class elections in senior high will be announced in next week's edition of the paper. Complete information could not be obtained for today's issue.

Nuttiest of All Fads Is Now In Prime

Do you know that the nuttiest fad that has ever been in P. H. S. is now in its prime? "Oh-ow." That's it, "Oh-ow."

How did it start? Who knows? However, here is one of the many explanations that may be given. "Oh" (from the way it's said) sounds painful. The "ow" part seems to have a hesitatingly submissive note in it. Put them together and you have a "painful yes."

Just what that "yes" refers to would be hard to tell but it happens to be used whether the person in mind is glad, mad, or bad. So someone else will have to find explanations for these other "moods." Well, who ever tackles it, more power to 'im.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK OBSERVED BY PAMPA HIGH

Senior, Sophomore Classes Write Themes

Pampa high school is observing the National Fire Prevention week, which is from Oct. 4 to 10. The senior and sophomore classes are writing themes on the prevention of costly fires.

The general subject for the sophomores papers is fire prevention by proper construction, while the seniors' topics center around the principles of fire insurance, economic wastes of fires, and of fire and its with reference to the individual and to the group.

It is necessary for these themes to be written in order for the high school to aid in keeping local fire insurance requirements for the year.

Diagnostic Tests Given in English

All senior high school students took a diagnostic test in English today.

The state department of Education requires that English students take two of these standard tests in grammar, one in the fall and the other in the spring.

In the past students have paid for the tests but this year they were furnished by the local school board.

This Week's Queer News Quirk Given

This week's queer quirk in the news: The Little Harvester received recently a letter from the White Deer school paper, The Buck's Tale:

"Since we think your school has a satisfactory system by which to elect your staff," the letter read, "we should appreciate it if you would explain your plan to us."

The Little Harvester has not elected its own staff yet and has no special way of choosing its editor and assistants.

As soon as election is held, information will be sent to White Deer as requested.

GOB SENDS LETTER

Leon Nobblitt, a gob in the Navy, sent his compliments to the Harvesters in a letter received this week. Leon attended Pampa high school three and one half years. He dropped school on Jan. 27, 1936.

The letter and a poem enclosed follow:

To the Harvesters,
I hope you win all games and "bring home the bacon," because you can do it if you listen to your coaches and forget what the curbstone coaches say. They will tell you that a little "drink" won't hurt you and even give you one, and then they turn right around and fuss at the coaches because they don't keep you in training.

Leave everything alone except your school and your football. If you study both, you will have a winning team. Get something out of school besides football, because you can, and being a good football player will buy you beans.

You can be good in your studies and be a good football player. That's what you should do. Take it from one who didn't get much out of school except football, and very little of that.

From an Ex-Harvester,
Leon Nobblitt.

The Prayer of a Sailor

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep,
Grant no other sailor take
My shoes and socks before I wake.
Dear Lord, grant me in my slumber,
Keep my hammock on its number,
May no clew or lashing break
And smash my dome before I wake.
Keep me safely in thy sight,
Grant no fire drill tonight;
And in the morning let me wake,
With haunting smells of sirlion steak.

Lord, protect me in my dreams.

Lord, protect me in my dreams,
Make things better than they seem,
Grant four years may quickly fly
And all hardships pass me by.
Take me back to solid land,
Where they scrub no decks
With sand me in my slumber,
Where no demon typhoon blows,
And where WOMEN wash the clothes.

HARVESTERS WILL FACE BURLY CAPITOL HILL GRIDSTERS AT OKLAHOMA CITY FRIDAY NIGHT

Some Announces Class Sponsors For School Year

Class sponsors were announced by L. L. Sone, principal, last Wednesday. Mrs. Hol Wagner and E. N. Dennard assisted him in making out the sponsorships. They are as follows:

Senior: Frank Monroe, head sponsor; Mrs. E. L. Norman, Misses Mary Idell Cox, Angela Strnad, Branom, Kathleen Milan; Messrs. B. R. Nuckols, Doyle Osborne.

Junior: Misses Anna Louise Jones, head sponsor; Alice Short, Latimer; Messrs. Winston Savage, Ernest Cabe, J. C. Prejan, A. E. Frazier.

Faculty, Board Have Steak Fry

The faculty, and the school board, together with their families enjoyed a steak fry at Hoover last Thursday evening.

Early in the afternoon, with the assistance of the school principals, Supt. R. B. Fisher began preparation for the fry. When the crowd arrived, the steak was almost ready to be served, but games such as softball and dollar pitching were engaged in for about an hour to work up an appetite. According to reports, the appetite was sufficient.

All school board members and their families and with a few exceptions, all faculty members, were present. It was probably the largest gathering of this kind ever to have been sponsored by the faculty.

Those attending reported such a good time that arrangements are being made to make such an outing an annual affair.

Foes Are Experienced And Heavier Than Pampans

Undaunted by last week's defeat, the plucky Harvesters will journey to Oklahoma City, where they will play Capitol Hill high Friday night.

The Redskins outweigh the Pampans several pounds to the man, and have had more experience than they.

Coach Odus Mitchell observed the Oklahoma team in action Saturday and reported that their offense was weak.

He said that they center on strong end runs which, with a 200-pound fullback to execute them, are usually successful. They also boast two very large halfbacks.

Last Friday night the Harvesters suffered a loss from Norman, Okla. However, they showed again that they have a wealth of fight, and proved for the first time their passing ability. In spite of the score, 26-0, the game was very interesting, even for Harvester backers.

The game at Oklahoma City will be played at 8 o'clock Friday night.

Amarillo Golfers Beat Pampa Team

The Pampa high school golf team was defeated last Saturday by the Amarillo squad.

Playing in perfect golfing weather the team, composed of Elmer Watkins, Kenneth Brown, Richard Kilgore, and Zade Watkins, showed marked efficiency and held the Amarillos to a 5 to 6 1/2 score in the match. Kilgore was most successful, defeating his opponent, and making 2 1/2 of the total points.

A return match will be played here Saturday morning.

MENU IS ANNOUNCED

Each Thursday the cafeteria presents a special menu. The bill of fare for this Thursday is as follows: Cream of tomato soup, chicken pie, creamed potatoes, buttered beefs, peas and carrots, spinach, combination or perfection salad, lemon pie, and fruit jello.

HUNDREDS OF IDENTICAL BIDS MAY BE PROBED BY GOVERNMENT

BAND'S SECOND FORMATION

The Harvester band presented its second formation performance last Friday night at the Harvester and Tiger ball game.

They used their first formation, which was a large square for the first part of the performance. After marching into the square, they unfolded the sides and formed a large cross. Next the ends of the cross rotated around in a circle once. Then the inside of the smaller cross rotated around once.

After coming out of their cross formation, they marched out of the square and to the north end of the field where they filed off, rank at a time.

The band also played their first overture in the public last Wednesday at assembly.

OUR PART

What part does Pampa high school play each year in lowering the fire toll of the nation? During the past ten years it has been reduced more than half, but the annual fire loss must be slashed still more.

This week's activities in observance of fire prevention are principally educational. Sophomore and senior classes are writing themes and reports in the city of Pampa.

By observance of fire regulations and the riddance of fire hazards Pampa citizens can do their part. With students and patrons working at the job, fire prevention week should again prove valuable.

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

P. H. S. calm on football day? Mrs. Roberts not busy? Theda Stone and Eldra Stark not together? Jean Gillespie and Inez Hawkins together without trying to harmonize? The P. H. S. campus on Wednesday and Friday during football season without the green of the pep squad suits? Rex Rose with blue eyes? Roy Lee Jones without red hair? The pep squad leaders keeping in unison? Pauline Stewart without her Mickey Mouse watch? The P. H. S. band without Arvo Goddard?

BUTTERMILK BATH

WINONA, Minn. (AP)—The resourcefulness of volunteer fire fighters had saved the old Witoka schoolhouse near here.

Lacking water they moved a large tank of buttermilk from a nearby farm to douse a roof blaze started by lightning.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6 (AP)—

Justice department officials said today they were investigating "hundreds and hundreds" of cases in which firms, seeking government contracts for supplying construction material, submitted identical bids.

How many of the bids could be termed "collusive," officials declined to say pending completion of investigation.

Responsibility for inquiring into bids which might be collusive rests with the justice department's anti-trust division, headed by Assistant Attorney General John Dickinson.

"Our investigations are simply fact finding. We are not doing detective work," a department spokesman said today some company books have been examined.

President Roosevelt suggested last June 20 that if federal agencies received identical bids they should be turned over to the department of justice for investigation. The suggestion, made to the 10 regular departments and to approximately 12 independent offices, brought a flood of reports to Dickinson's office.

Officials said today there were "great masses" of reports on identical bids for almost every type of construction material needed by the government.

The Inquiring Reporter

Question: What do you think of the new attendance system now being used in P. H. S.?

Chris Martin: "It is a good one, but it takes up too much of the student's time."

Miss Milan: "It is a 'doggone' good one if it thinks it will cooperate."

Mrs. Roberts: "I think it is the best system Pampa high has had since I have been here if the teachers cooperate as they have so far."

Mrs. Norman: "Having each student get his slip makes him realize how many times he has been absent."

ROYAL BIRTH IMMINENT

LONDON, Oct. 6 (AP)—An official announcement said today the Duchess of Kent had cancelled her engagements for the autumn season—a traditional method of announcing the expected birth of an heir who would be seventh in line for the throne. The duchess, the former Princess Marina of Greece, and King Edward's youngest brother were married Nov. 29, 1934. Prince Edward, their first child, was born a year ago.

Fisher Speaks at P. T. A. Meeting

Supt. R. B. Fisher made an interesting and instructive talk on Youth in the Modern World at the P. T. A. meeting held last Thursday in the school cafeteria. The faculty was introduced by Principal L. L. Sone and greeted by Mrs. R. W. Lane.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. N. F. Maddux, president. Mrs. W. E. Hutchinson took charge following the invocation.

Mrs. Maddux presided at the business session and read the officers and duties for the year.

After tea was served to those present, the meeting was adjourned.

Mrs. D. Ashworth Goes to Arkansas

Mrs. Delmer Ashworth left last Tuesday for Fort Smith, Ark. She plans to visit relatives in several places before going to Fort Smith, where her husband, a former P. H. S. teacher, is now teaching. She took Mr. Ashworth's classes until the new teacher, Miss Bernice Addison, arrived.

'STRONG MAN' GOEMBOES OF HUNGARY DIES

CABINET RESIGNS AFTER DEATH OF NATION'S PREMIER

MUNICH, Germany, Oct. 6 (AP)—Premier Julius Goemboes of Hungary died today in a sanitarium at Nymphenburg after a long illness. He was 50 years old.

Goemboes, who was suffering from kidney and gall bladder trouble, entered the sanitarium last month after resigning as minister of war in the Hungarian government.

Goemboes, recognized by Hungarian patriots as a leader who avoided extremes, rose to power in 1932 when he formed the first cabinet without a noble since 1867.

He declared his principal task was to build a new party for the Hungarian nation based on his theory the country had been denied independence for so long it was unable to develop a free spirit.

In 1934 he collaborated with Italian and Austrian representatives in the first "Rome pact," which was modernized and extended last March after new discussions in Rome, established the principal of cooperation between the three central European nations and revised political and economic agreements to improve Hungarian prosperity.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Oct. 6 (AP)—The Hungarian cabinet resigned today shortly after the death of Premier Julius Goemboes in Munich.

Members of the cabinet handed their resignations to Regent Nicholas Horthy after an hour's conference. The Hungarian official withheld, for the present, official announcement of the premier's death. Acting Premier Koloman Dranyi was reported in conference with cabinet officials and advisers.

Goemboes was incapacitated for a month by a kidney and gall bladder affliction but clung to his office while the national policy wavered uncertainly at Budapest.

Horthy hesitated to ask for the premier's resignation because he knew there was no strong man to succeed the uncompromising general who in 1921 prevented the return of Emperor Charles to the throne.

However, during Goemboes' illness, Horthy discovered new talent in the 56-year-old minister of agriculture, Koloman Dranyi, whom he named acting premier.

Legitimists who hope to see Archduke Otto or some other member of the Hapsburg family on the throne saw revival of their prospects in Goemboes' resignation.

It was generally believed there would be no great change in Hungary's foreign policy. The country is committed to support the economic and financial agreement between Italy, Austria and Hungary.

ARAB REBELS RALLY AROUND YOUNG SYRIAN

JERUSALEM, Oct. 6 (AP)—Out of the mountain fastnesses of Syria, a new leader, Fawzi Bey Kawakib, has arisen for Arab rebels in Palestine and his planted his standard in the Tulkarm hills as the rallying point against the British.

Fired by tales of the exploits of young Fawzi Bey, still another Syrian insurgent leader was reported today to have crossed the border into Palestine.

Reports filtering through from Arab headquarters said Fawzi Bey, accompanied by his own band of picked fighters, was hastening to the south to arouse fierce Bedouin tribes on the desert to revolt.

Fawzi Bey, smuggled across the border from Syria only a few weeks ago, is today the hero of the Arab nation in Palestine and with the title of commander-in-chief of the rebel Arabs consolidating his position in the hills.

For the first four months of the bloody riots, although there was a plan of sorts, there was no centralized command and with the title of commander-in-chief of the rebel Arabs consolidating his position in the hills.

That position Fawzi Bey has taken to the great rejoicing of the Arabs, for stories of his deeds of bravery and his skill in campaigning against the French in Syria have made of him a heroic figure in the east.

'TIGER' BOY IS TAKEN FROM PARENTS, CRIES

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Oct. 6 (AP)—A seven-year old "tiger boy" who police said "seemed pleased" with his attempt to kill a baby with an iron bar, cried when he learned he was to be taken from his parents today.

It was the first emotional breakdown of the second-grade school boy who has shown no remorse for his almost fatal assault upon 22-months old Roland Smith.

When the boy, whose name was withheld, learned juvenile authorities were taking him to the Washington state children's home at Seattle today for temporary observation, he cried and clung to his parents.

Physicians planned to operate today on the "tiger boy's" victim in an attempt to remove bone pressure on the brain. His skull was fractured in three places.

TIME SAVER GAFFNEY, S. C. (AP)—Attorney Ray Godshall agreed to try a case in a subordinate court before a two-man jury, to save the time needed to round up a complete panel.

The two jurors heard the case, deliberated three hours, then reported they were unable to agree.

THE FINANCIAL WHIRLIGIG

BY LOUS SCHNEIDER

WAR. Railroads have something new to worry about. First it was truck competition taking small freight accounts. Now it is air lines taking passengers.

The fight started with the TWA announcing lower rates on its New York-Chicago runs. It is expected to spread to its New York-Pacific Coast runs as well. Other air lines are considering acting accordingly.

TWA officials say that the lower rates are only temporary "winter rates." The trade can't see it as such. It is said that once the public is shown a small price, higher prices will not be tolerated.

And so railroads have a new problem on their hands. It may result in a passenger fare rate war.

DIVIDEND. According to informed sources the Wayne Pump shares are to be listed on the New York stock exchange. It is currently traded on the curb exchange. Insiders say that company's earnings will result in a $4 a share net for the current 12 months. It was also said that the shares would be placed on a $2 annual basis.

SELLING. The international currency upheaval is of major importance to investment underwriters. The inside dope is that quite a bit of the offerings over the past few months have gone—temporarily—into accounts of foreign interest. The money was placed in the United States pending devaluation. Now that that is being accomplished the funds are expected to be withdrawn. Underwriting houses say that being so, higher coupon rates may be forced in order to entice buying on the part of American investors. It accounts for recent selling of high grade listed issues.

EXPLANATION. Coffee is currently priced at the lowest levels in some fifty years. But there's a reason. Brazil owes money to France. The franc devaluation permits Brazil to purchase francs at a lower price. How is it possible? By Brazil dumping its holdings of coffee. With the funds thus obtained Brazil will be in a better position to service its debt to France.

SPECULATING. Speculative queries renewed activity in Johns Manville. The information is that the company will show close to $2 a share for the third quarter. A net of six cents was shown for the first three-month period and $1.56 a share for the second three months. Stock traders say that if the $2 is realized it means a first nine months net of $3.62 a share. At least $1 is expected for the fourth quarter. And so it is said that with a net of about $4.62 a share for the year a higher price should rule for the stock.

It is generally believed there would be no great change in Hungary's foreign policy. The country is committed to support the economic and financial agreement between Italy, Austria and Hungary.

For the first six months of the year electric equipment sales ran twenty-five per cent ahead of the corresponding period last year. The trade now reports that third quarter sales ran about twenty per cent ahead of last year like period. On bookings and inquiries it is expected that fourth quarter sales will run thirty per cent ahead of last year.

Probable. Coca-Cola's summer business volume ran at new sales peaks. Allowing for the normal decline for the balance of the year insiders estimate a 1936 net of about $4.50 a share. That would be new high record earnings. Based on the tax on undistributed corporate profits and the $2 annual dividend rate, a large extra dividend is regarded as a probability before the close of the year.

REPORTS ARE THAT. Utility company final quarter earnings expected to be best since last period of 1930. Consolidated Edison insiders regard annual dividend as secure—days $2. Lorillard bought for yield—priced at 15 times the indicated 1936 per share net. Pennroad liquidating value calculated at about $6.25 a share. Consolidated Aircraft's 1936 net estimated at better than $1 a share—may pay. Borden's being switched into National Dairy—later will show $2 for 1936. Phelps Dodge to increase dividend.

Industrial Rayon gets preference over Celanese in long-pull accounts. Canning shares in better demand due to increase in price of pack cans. Great Northern preferred 1936 net estimated at $3.50 a share. Foreign selling of International Nickel likely—Canada ready to take on dips. For fiscal quarter ended September 30 Crosley Radio will show better than that of first and second quarters—net for year estimated at $3.50 a share. Consolidated Cigar insiders see no dividend for common stockholders this year. Investment accounts like International Harvester. J. I. Case to run under new management. Replacement demand helps sales volume of Eaton Manufacturing. And that a Worthington Pump recapitalization plan is due at most any time—company officials now active on suggestions.

Utility Levy Provided in Tax Measure. STARTLED HOUSE GETS BILL TO ARGUE OVER. AUSTIN, Oct. 6 (AP)—The house of representatives had today what many members had been shouting for, a tax bill.

An omnibus measure by Reps. Jesse James of Cameron and Hollis Frazer of Franklin was fired out of the committee on revenue and taxation with a favorable report last night after a startling upset of scheduled procedure.

Friends of the measure, which would increase taxes on natural resources and utilities 37 1/2 per cent and make many additional levies, prepared for swift action to gain approval of the house floor and speed the bill to the senate.

The committee had announced a three-day schedule of hearings by subjects for more than 30 bills proposing to raise new revenue for old tax penalties.

Meeting with James as chairman, however, it quickly voted out the omnibus bill, 15 to 2, gave an unfavorable report to a sales tax proposition by Elmer Pope of Corpus Christi, recalled a single oil tax bill by R. L. Reader of San Antonio it previously had reported favorably and quit subject to call. Other bills were left high and dry with no prospect of committee attention.

3,000 KILLED BY LOYALISTS SAY REFUGEES. Victims Were Middle And Upper Class Citizens. (Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press) HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish border, Oct. 6 (AP)—Reliable advisers brought to the attention of Madrid, today stated the Spanish capital's extremist "execution squads" had killed well over 3,000 middle and upper class citizens.

The executions even have increased, the advisers said, since Francisco Largo Caballero became premier little more than a month ago. Bands of "bloodthirsty young murderers," the refugees said, are responsible for the executions. The travelers described the death squads as the Spanish counterpart of the French "sans-culottes" of 1793, who with bloodsoaked tumbrils, daily fed "madame guillotine" with aristocrats.

While the municipal morgue squad's figure for corpses collected on the outskirts of Madrid reached a one-day low of 15 early in September, it soared to 82 one day a fortnight later.

Caballero became premier on September 4. One explanation of the increase, the advisers said, might be found in new friction over political concessions between the revolutionary coalition government and the syndicalist national confederation of labor with its satellite, the federation of Iberian anarchists.

The role of free-lance executioners, the refugees added, is second nature to the avowed gunmen in these two organizations but the members of the popular front parties and unions regard it with loathing.

The "Cheka," people's tribunal, understood to be entirely dominated by the anarchists and syndicalists at its headquarters on Holy Trinity police and the government over the treatment of persons known to have fallen into its clutches, today's advisers said.

Many persons have been executed, they added, despite official efforts to save their lives and "Cheka" assistants to the authorities that harm would befall them.

Tragic evidence that the "executioners" aim at the extermination of the entire capitalist class is provided, the travelers continued, by the number of persons of liberal convictions found every day drawn on the capital's sandy outskirts, shot with a "savagely cruelty."

Day after day, they said, scenes at the execution area in the university city, at Cuatro Caminos and on San Isidro hill, with mothers and their children discussing shopping over bullet-riddled corpses, reveal Spain in the raw.

COURT TO DECIDE FATE OF PLAINVIEW'S PLANT. WASHINGTON, Oct. 6 (AP)—One of the major cases facing the new term of the Supreme Court opened this week is that involving the right of the government to provide $2,300,000 in public works funds for the Buzzard's Roost power project in Greenwood county, south Carolina.

An important test of the new deal's power policy, the case involves the constitutionality of government financing of publicly owned utilities.

The Duke Power company of Charlotte, N. C., has appealed from the decision of the circuit court of appeals which upheld the government and the court is expected to set the arguments for November 9—a date agreed upon by opposing counsel.

Before the hearing on the case, however, the high court is expected to decide whether other cases involving government loans and grants for publicly owned hydroelectric plants are to be heard simultaneously.

A number of such cases are pending. These include a suit by the Texas utilities company against financing of a city-owned plant at Plainview, Tex.

OIL TAX HIKE TO BE ARGUED ON THURSDAY

REVENUE COMMITTEE REPORTS LEVY ADVERSELY

AUSTIN, Oct. 6. (AP)—The Texas house responded today to appeals for early floor consideration of revenue-raising measures by setting the proposed oil tax increase as the special order of business for Thursday.

The bill originally called for the levy to be booted from two to ten cents a barrel but the revenue committee changed the figures to two and three-fourths cents.

Advocates said they wanted the house to determine the rate it considered fair and rush the bill to the senate so the latter body might have something on which to work. The constitution provides that the senate cannot consider a tax bill until it first has passed the house.

The legislature was called into special session for the primary purpose of garnishing revenue for old age pensions. The session must end by constitutional limitation three weeks from today.

The revenue committee reported the oil tax adversely, expressing preference instead for an omnibus tax bill. The house nevertheless voted, 92 to 26, to print it on a minority report.

Floor consideration of the omnibus proposal possibly will start late tomorrow. Proponents of the oil tax contended, however, the omnibus bill was so far-reaching it probably would not reach the senate until next week.

A bill by Representative Elmer Pope was killed when the house refused to print it on a minority report. Pope called the proposal a gross income tax but opponents termed it a general sales tax of one-half of one per cent. Governor Allred has said he would veto a general sales tax.

The senate passed a bill by Olan R. Van Zandt of Tioga to abolish the permanent old age pension fund and transfer $446,000 to the available pension fund. The proposal, if approved by the house and motor terms it a general sales tax of one-half of one per cent. Governor Allred has said he would veto a general sales tax.

Governor Allred conferred with a group of bankers on other possible ways of making pension payments through the next few months.

Opponents of a bill to transfer $3,000,000 of highway revenues to the pension fund expressed confidence the house highway and motor terms it a general sales tax of one-half of one per cent. Governor Allred has said he would veto a general sales tax.

OIL PRODUCTION DROPS

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 6. (AP)—Production of crude oil in the United States declined 32,268 barrels daily during the week ending Oct. 3 to a daily average of 2,992,055. The Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

In Oklahoma there was a decline of 33,050 barrels daily to 547,525 and East Texas increased 2,152 barrels daily to 444,036.

The total state of Texas recorded an increase of 19,421 barrels daily to a total of 1,176,354 while in Louisiana there was a decline of 2,960 barrels daily to 2,960.

California showed a decrease also, 4,000 barrels to 564,250. The decrease in Kansas was 12,375 to a total of 157,600 barrels daily.

Production in eastern fields including Michigan was 142,636 barrels daily, an increase of 1,531. The output of the Rocky Mountain section increased 520 barrels daily to 63,130 barrels daily.

is scheduled to begin at 1 o'clock in the theater on highway 66. Following an interesting program, a parade will be staged. A free polo game between the Pampa Rough Riders and the McLean Mounted Tigers will be called at 3 o'clock.

The football game will be a conference battle between McLean and Memphis, at 8 o'clock.

Directors authorized Manager Garnet Reeves to send telegrams to Governor James V. Allred, Senator Clint C. Small, Representative Eugene Worley and to the chairman of the committee on state affairs protesting the transfer of $3,000,000 from the highway department fund to pay old age pensions. The proposal was made last week.

Jim Collins, chairman of the highway committee, announced that Gray county men had been withdrawn from the Pampa-Borger highway project and sent to the south end of the oilfield road, south of the city. The change was made so that WPA employees in Carson and Hutchinson county could be put to work. Seventy men from Hutchinson county and 15 from Carson county are now at work west of Skellytown, Mr. Collins reported.

The mayor pointed out to the BCD delegation that the first step toward seeking WPA assistance on the street paving job would be to compile costs and man-years necessary for construction and then submit such estimates to the County Planning board which would consider it for approval. Then, Mr. Roby asked the commission to help prepare the paving estimates.

Budget Revised. The city let a contract to buy 600 feet of fire hose, and let a contract to supply red lead for painting the # Hornets Fail to Drag Tails for Johnny—Ouch!

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Oct. 6. (AP)—In the movies, Johnny "Tarzan" Weismuller makes elephants cringe and lions sneak away, with tails dragging. But it was no movie gesture yesterday when Weismuller banged his arm on a hornet's nest. And he was wearing the costume called for by the script of "Tarzan Escapes."

"Tarzan" wasn't working today.

said, the paper withdrew its support. "I bought the plane and that's all there is to it," Bjorkvall said. "I wanted to make the flight solo, and I'm sorry I cannot take the barness. The flight is my own."

The monoplane, a low-slung craft powered with a 450 horsepower engine, carried 795 gallons of gas and 35 gallons of oil.

Bjorkvall stocked plenty of food for the journey. The wings of the plane were stuffed with table tennis balls to afford buoyancy in event he should be forced down.

A life preserver will be his only safety equipment if he is forced down at sea, but he figured the plane would float six or seven days.

Weather bureau officials said his flight up the Maine coast to St. Johns, Newfoundland, would be thru excellent weather conditions, with mild crosswinds.

Off Cape Race, however, are cold westerly winds, with the temperature at the freezing point in the zone where he probably will fly. Rain also may be encountered, adding to the hazards over a stretch of about 300 miles.

The plane, called "The Pacemaker," carried only a wireless receiving set and no sending equipment. Weather reports are to be broadcast to him at regular intervals until he reaches a point near the Irish coast where he will adjust his equipment to hear from European stations along the route.

was opened before the law was passed. Another witness was told his store, opened a few months after the ordinance was passed, would come under the ban.

Board Never Functioned. Discussion among the commissioners brought out that a city planning board appointed in 1931 never acted in an official capacity. The board consisting of five members was required by the ordinance to meet once a month, but never held meetings. This city planning group, known as a board of adjustment, had power to make six exceptions to the provisions of the zoning law.

Prolonged discussion of the zoning statute revealed that although the city has in several instances warned builders that they were violating the ordinance, in general no specific attempt was made to prevent the construction of a building in a forbidden zone.

"We've got to crack down sometime," one city official said. "Or this thing will go too far. Some day we may find a filling station going up in a residential section. We've let this condition go for a long time now, but we've got to call a halt sometime."

Shortage in WPA Labor. Mayor W. A. Bratton in commenting on the BCD's request for assistance in obtaining WPA aid in paving the blocks on Gray and West streets announced that yesterday the telegram from the state highway department, asked whether or not Pampa wanted to pave the remaining 14 miles on highway 152, and a definite answer yesterday was requested.

If the county does not want that gap in the Wheeler road paved, it is understood, about $60,000 that has been set aside to construct it, would be transferred to some other job. Mayor Bratton stated that the county was confronted with a shortage in WPA labor. He said that a telegram was sent to the highway commission informing that body that this community wants the 152 gap paved.

The mayor pointed out to the BCD delegation that the first step toward seeking WPA assistance on the street paving job would be to compile costs and man-years necessary for construction and then submit such estimates to the County Planning board which would consider it for approval. Then, Mr. Roby asked the commission to help prepare the paving estimates.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Oct. 6. (AP)—Selected stocks drove home another spiky day in today's market. Oil, aluminum, farm implements and a wide assortment of industrial specialties recorded advances of fractions to 3 or more points, a number reaching new high ground for the past 5 or 6 years. Profit taking both early and late, however, held back many of the old line leaders. Transfers were around 2,850,000 shares, the largest turnover since April 34, last.

FIRE PREVENTION WILL BE DISCUSSED AT CITY SCHOOLS DURING WEEK

Fire prevention will be the subject of discussion when speakers visit the four ward schools this week, which is National Fire prevention week. Civic clubs will also be visited as part of the local program.

A schedule for the school program was released this morning by Fire Chief Ben White. Fireman George Christopher was to talk to pupils at Baker school at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. James Todd, Jr., will visit Sam Houston school at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and at Woodrow Wilson school at 2:30 o'clock Friday. Paul Hill will be the speaker at Horace Mann school at 3 o'clock Friday.

Lewis Curry discussed fire prevention at the regular luncheon of the Junior chamber of commerce at noon today. The Rotary club will hear about the program tomorrow noon. On Thursday the Lions club will set aside a portion of the program for fire prevention talks. The Kiwanis club will be visited on Friday.

Fire Chief White and his staff began their inspection of business houses yesterday.

When it comes to food our second love is caviar. . . Having a hamburger pocketbook, it is seldom we meet up with this second favorite. . . Filet mignon runs thin, with ham and eggs finishing a close fourth just ahead of roast beef. . . Chicken and noodles can foregoing that a few nickels and dimes have been spent on tank and tummy service at the Texas exposition. . . Of course, what interested us most were the figures that elevated our favorite hamburger to first rank in favor among things palatable.

And so we leave you today with appetites keyed up, we hope—and with the reminder that when in doubt, choose a hamburger.

TO FILE CHARGES
BORGER, Oct. 6.—City officers prepared today to file charges against a man held in the Borger jail, after his arrest yesterday evening when tires and tubes identified as those taken Saturday night from the Gump-Hinerman service station were found at his house.

The stolen goods were recovered by Police Chief Bill Bates and city officers.

GREATEST FINISH UNDER FIRE IN GOLFING HISTORY: Tony Manero came through with a spectacular 282 to win the 1936 National Open Golf Tournament. His digestion stands the strain. As Tony says: "I'll go on record as one who thanks Camels for stimulating digestion. I enjoy food more—and have a feeling of ease afterward when I enjoy Camels with my meals. Camels set me right."

WHETHER YOU ARE CATCHING A QUICK BITE OR DINING IN STATE—

"FOR DIGESTION'S SAKE SMOKE CAMELS!"

Camels increase digestive activity—encourage a sense of well-being!

WITH healthy nerves and good digestion, you feel on top of the world. When you smoke Camels with your meals and after, Camels help in two special ways: Tension is lessened and Camels promote digestive well-being.

So enjoy Camels between courses and after eating. Strain eases. The flow of digestive fluids, so vital to proper nutrition, is speeded up. Alkalinity is increased. Food tastes more delicious and you get more good from what you eat.

For good cheer—for invigorating "lift"—for matchless taste—and "for digestion's sake"—the answer is Camels. Camels set you right! And they don't get on your nerves.
