Wonder what a turkey thinks about two days before Thanksgiving? We often wonder why things like that should bother us, when it doesn't even bother the turkey.

Gosh, was it a relief to get that word from Pa Pampa and to learn that he already is on his way to the North Land to interview Santa Claus. . . . Pa gave us the jitters a bit, upset the plans of the local Santa Day committee, and all that—but it was good to know that he's safe (we hope) and that everything is going ahead as planned.

Pa Pampa is a strange fellow, that way. . . . Nothing pleases him more than to do unusual things. . . . Likewise he has a penchant for creating a mystery of some sort. . . . For instance, that business of the mysterious pilot of the rocket ship.

Any way, he's off—and everybody here at the newspaper anxiously is awaiting that first radio dispatch from the land of ice and snow.

"This year's turkey will be streamlined." How about one with a non-skid tread for the amateur carver?

Masked Pilot Of Mystery Rocket Ship Whizzes Pa Pampa Off To Interview Santa In North Land

Carries Invitation for St. Nick to Come Dec. 5

The mystery is cleared up. Pa Pampa, that genial old fellow who serves as Sunday columnist for the Pampa NEWS, staged a ruse yesterday and today is rocketing on his way to the icy regions of the far North where he expects to present, in person, the City of Pampa's official invitation to Santa Claus to be the guest of honor here on Santa Day, Saturday, Dec. 5.

Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce members and city officials have been planning for a week that there would be a big farewell party Wednesday for Pa Pampa at the City Airport, from where it had been planned he would leave for Santa Claus land in an airplane.

Pa Pampa threw a wrench into these plans and left the committee a bit surprised, although well-pleased at the plans he has in mind. Police searched for the missing Santa Day emissary until this morning when the editor of the NEWS received a night letter from Pa Pampa. It was sent from the little town of Hutton in Hamilton county, Kansas. The wire reads: "Tex De Weese, Editor, 'The Pampa Daily News,' 'Pampa, Texas. 'Had opportunity to make flight to North Land by rocket-ship instead of airplane. Masked pilot, who still is mystery to me, made offer long distance phone. I accepted and we picked spot three miles off Hutton to start this strange flight. Tell people of Pampa first time this ever attempted. My pilot me here after my secret auto trip from Pampa, and have inspected queer-looking ship which looks okay to me. Pilot wears mask all time and is very excited about our adventure. So am I. He tells me we will make trip in short order, although he is planning to make one stop on North Devon Island in Baffin Bay, preparatory to final dash inside Arctic Circle and lands into icy regions where we expect to find Santa Claus. Sorry to have disappointed Skeet Johnson, Garnet Reeves and the other Jaycee boys at Pampa, but this looked like too good a bet to turn down. Airplane seemed bit slow for what I had to do in such short time. All other plans outlined for me will be carried out on schedule, providing Santa Claus not too busy.

"We leave here at sunrise tomorow and pilot says we should land on North Devon island by late afternoon. Get Dave Ballou at KPDN to complete all short wave arrangements so can radio my daily news letters from the News from our rocket-ship sending apparatus. (Signed) PA PAMPA.

All of which means that Pa Pampa, as you read this, must be somewhere near Devon Island. A glance at the map shows Devon to be way up there inside the Arctic Circle and practically nine-tenths of the trip will be completed if they land there safely this evening.

Can you imagine that? It's a bit like Pa Pampa, though. And who do you suppose this masked pilot could be? That's another puzzler. Ostensibly, although he has changed the plans some, Pa Pampa was to fly to the North Land to meet Santa Claus, invite him to come to Pampa for Santa Day Dec. 5, spend a few days around the place, talk with the Jolly Old fellow and sign him up for a few short-wave remote control broadcasts before the party leaves for Pampa.

Pa Pampa took along this official invitation from Pampa, written by Mayor W. A. Bratton: "To Santa Claus: 'This will serve to introduce to you Pa Pampa, official delegate from the City of Pampa, who comes to invite you to be in Pampa for our official Santa Day celebration on Saturday, Dec. 5, 1936.

"On this day we expect to have a great host of visiting boys and girls in our city from miles and miles around. We want you to be here to meet them, and to be the honored guest, in a great street pageant which will be staged in your honor. Official guides will be here to show you around our city and it will be a celebration which I know you will en-

Any courtesies shown to our Pa Pampa while he is in the North will be greatly appreciated. Cordially yours, (Signed) W. A. Bratton, Mayor of Pampa.

Pa Pampa has been assigned to write a daily story of his trip into Santa Claus Land. He has promised to tell of his experiences in the icy wastes of the North and will send back Santa Claus' messages to the

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED TO MAKE REPORT

REPRESENTATIVE GROUP DECIDES NEED IS URGENT

A meeting to discuss a drive for relief funds and the re-organization of the Pampa welfare board will be held next Monday noon at a luncheon at the Schneider hotel. Representative citizens, including business and professional men, wage earners, and all interested residents are urged to attend.

The meeting for next week was called yesterday at a noon luncheon after more than 30 citizens had expressed the need for an immediate welfare drive. That the need for a drive exists at the present time was denied by two speakers. Attending the meeting were members of the ministerial alliance who called the session, members of civic clubs, relief agencies, county and city officials, school heads; members of veterans' groups, the Salvation Army and others.

Committee Appointed
A committee comprising Mrs. W. H. Davis, Arthur Teed, Miss L. Shelby, school nurse, and the Rev. E. L. Lancaster was appointed to make an intensive investigation of the local relief situation and to report their findings to the assembled citizens next Monday. Mr. Teed offered a motion for the presiding officer, City Commissioner Marvin Shell, to appoint the committee after Rev. Lancaster had declared that Pampa citizens, because of their ignorance of the situation, were treating hungry and needy residents as if they were "untouchables."

Suffering Exists Now
Urgent need for funds to alleviate the suffering at the present time was expressed by the Rev. John Mullen, Mrs. Davis, Allen Hodges, Rev. Lancaster, Mr. Teed, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Willie Bains of the county relief office, Mrs. J. J. Jarras, and others. City Commissioner Marvin Shell, and Farris Oden suggested that the need for a drive and a fund disbursing agency was not apparent.

Various speakers declared that Pampa was ripe for a relief drive. "Most residents know that want in numerous, distressing forms exists here and they want to give; in fact they are going out of their way to help the needy," was a typical statement.

"There ought to be $6,000 here in conscience money," Rev. Lancaster said in discussing the possible drive. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Bains said that there should be a fund to help residents in dire need. Mrs. Davis said that if conditions that existed in past winters obtained this year, a fund would be needed to pay gas bills, freeze up doors, and other necessities.

In discussing the WPA situation, Mrs. Bains pointed out that there are about 150 families now on WPA, and that no family could earn more than $1.50 a month, regardless of whom they support. She said that many WPA workers were in dire need of the necessities of life and that their need would grow as winter advanced.

30 Families In Need
She reported that most people applied for WPA job as a last resort, and that as a minimum of three weeks must elapse before the application could be granted, those persons often suffered for lack of the necessities of life for a month.

Mrs. Davis said that at least 30 families would need the winter, that 30 families would be chronic cases but that there would be a turnover each month. She reported that there are now many requests from many adults are in need now. "We've got to have some money and we need it now," she declared. She

INSURANCE IS TAXED IN ACT VIRTUALLY EVERY TYPE FORCED TO BEAR PENSION SHARE

AUSTIN, Nov. 24 (AP)—Virtually every type of insurance company except local mutual aids and probably foreign life concerns will be forced to bear a share of the increased taxes necessitated by the old age program.

The rate on foreign life companies was boosted but the insurance department believes the legislature's action may result in a reduction because for the first time they are permitted to tax credit for policy loans to Texans.

Domestic life companies, foreign and domestic fraternal and reciprocal were taxed for the first time.

The levy on home life concerns, including fraternal, is one-half of one per cent gross premium. The new tax on fire and casualty companies, reciprocals and Loyds is graduated from 3.25 per cent down to five-eighths of one per cent, dependent on the companies' investments in Texas. The old levy was from 2.6 to 5 per cent. The tax on foreign life companies, including fraternal, is graduated from 3-3/4 to 2.5 per cent, compared to the former graduation of 3 to 2 per cent.

The state auditor estimated additional revenue from the insurance tax increases at $50,000 a year. The attorney general's de-

Officers' Strike Keenly Felt On Coast Of Texas; Ships Are Left Stranded

HOUSTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—The effect of the national strike of masters, mates and pilots and the marine engineers beneficial association was keenly felt by American shipping on the Texas Gulf coast today.

Foreign shipping was not interrupted.

Twenty mates and engineers, strike sources said, had left ships in the Houston channel, and the strike was seriously interfering with shipping at Galveston, best sources there said.

The striking mates and engineers here had gone to Galveston, headquarters for the two unions. Even at headquarters, the exact extent of the new strike was not learned and it was generally agreed in shipping circles its effectiveness could not be judged for several days.

Santa Parade Prizes To Be Given Schools

Parade Will Be Held On Morning of December 5

Details of Pampa's Santa Day parade were released today by Charles E. Kennedy, chairman of the Jaycee parade committee for the big observance in downtown Pampa on Saturday, Dec. 5.

The parade will form at the Merrick & Boyd Lumber Co. on S. Cuyler-st at 10 a. m. Schools from Pampa and over the district will be given places in the parade in the order of their acceptance of the Junior Chamber of Commerce invitation to enter.

There will be prizes for three divisions—Pampa schools, other independent schools and rural schools. They will be awarded as follows: School groups—(1) best unit using a pet or pets; (2) best unit using a hobby or hobbies.

Individuals—Best showing of a pet or a hobby, or any Christmas theme.

Bicycles—Best Christmas decorated bicycle. (Note: All bicycles riders will parade and compete in one group.)

Expensive ribbons that will be appreciated by the winners, who may keep them, will be awarded to first, second and third place. The awards will be presented at one of the Jaycee luncheon meetings.

Tentative plans call for ending the parade at the High School gymnasium where paraders will file through the gym to receive their portion of the free Christmas candies, and the remainder of the candy will be distributed at the end of the procession. It will be optional for teachers to march in the parade, although they are urged to enter with their classes if possible.

Pets must be confined to small animals—no cows, horses, or any unruly animal which may prove a safety hazard will be permitted to enter the parade.

Hobbies are to include any show or display of the result or activity of youngsters' hobby, such as airplane construction, wagons, doll buggies, etc.

The committee sets forth the following possible entries for the pet division: Dogs, cats, rabbits, pigs (please castrate well, and don't give them to children), calves (very small and tame), etc.

Individual entries can be either a pet or a hobby, or any Christmas theme that an individual student may wish to enter. It is the hope of the committee that each school room will have a large number of individual entries.

In the school room groups all students are given an opportunity to make a group entry, giving them a chance to get in the parade with a clown suit or some inexpensive costume.

"The time is growing short," Mr. Kennedy said today, "and we urge all schools groups to discuss the plans and begin at once their preparations to enter the big Santa Claus parade in Pampa on Dec. 5."

RANGERS SEEK TWO HUNTERS

IRATE CITIZENS WAIT REPORT BEFORE INVASION

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 24 (AP)—Rangers are expected to reveal the results of their three-day investigation into the disappearance of two hunters near Raymondville there tonight—the deadline of a three-day period granted them by irate citizens.

If results have not been obtained tonight, friends of Luther Blanton and his son, John, missing since Wednesday, threaten to invade a vast Willacy county ranch, armed.

Ill feeling has existed between citizens of eastern Willacy county and the ranching interests for years, principally over efforts to obtain a direct highway to Corpus Christi through the ranchlands, and because hunters have been barred from the brushlands abounding with game since the tract was declared a state preserve.

Much of the ill feeling is directed against armed fence riders. Unverified reports of beatings administered to hunters caught within the ranch are told—together with stories of other hunters who have entered the tract never to return.

A sub-foreman of a ranch was arrested by Ranger Captain William McMurray Sunday night and whisked away to Hebbronville for questioning.

Feeling remains intense at San Oerita and Raymondville today where groups of men gather about the streets discussing the disappearance of the two and awaiting results of tonight's deadline.

Louis Behrends and daughter, Mrs. Harry E. Behrends, and son, Robert, and Mrs. E. W. Voss were Amarillo visitors today.

First of Nine Duels Will Be Fought Today

BUDAPEST, Nov. 24 (AP)—Dr. Franz Sarga, Budapest's tiny but ambitious duelist, fought two of his nine scheduled encounters with 14-inch pistols today and wounded one opponent.

Sarga was unhurt and triumphant. The duels were fought in almost complete darkness, one immediately following the other, in a stubby wheat field ten miles from Budapest.

Alexander Kovacs, a bank employee and the second opponent, got a ball in the arm from Sarga's rented muzzle-loader.

A moment before, the rolyoly Sarga had exchanged erratic fire with Aladar Hozmat, a bank manager. The bullets whistled harmlessly by.

Then Hozmat and Sarga, reconciled all of a sudden, embraced each other.

Just as the second encounter ended the Hungarian warning corresponding to "cheese it, the cops!" caused the opponents and their seconds to scatter.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE AWARDED PERSECUTED FOE OF HITLER

FAMOUS ARGENTINIAN WILL SHARE 1936 AWARD

OSLO, Norway, Nov. 24 (AP)—Carl von Ossietzky, German pacifist, and Carlos Saavedra Lamas, Argentine foreign minister, were announced officially today as the winners of the Nobel peace prize.

The prize for 1935 was awarded to von Ossietzky, pacifist who was freed recently from a German prison and who had been mentioned frequently as a probable winner.

Saavedra Lamas, prominent in the League of Nations and recent president of the league assembly, received the award for 1936.

German Minister Salm declared a regret for the award to von Ossietzky and asserted it "will create the embitterment of Germany."

"All leading circles," Dr. Salm said, "will consider it a demonstration against the third Reich."

A committee of the Storting, Norwegian parliament, selected the prize-winners.

Eugene O'Neill, American dramatist, was awarded the prize for literature Nov. 12, when Prof. Carl Advind Anderson of the California Institute of Technology, shared the physics prize with Prof. V. F. Hess of Innsbruck University, Austria. Prof. Peter Joseph Wilhelm Debye, of the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for physics in Berlin, won the chemistry prize.

Von Ossietzky and Saavedra Lamas, both world-known champions of peace, came into prominence through opposite avenues.

Von Ossietzky, outspoken editor and leader of peace movements, fell

SPECIAL TRAIN DUCATS MUST BE SOLD QUICKLY

The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce is offering Pampa football fans an opportunity to ride a special train to the Pampa-Amarillo football game in Amarillo Thursday afternoon. The round trip fare would be 85 cents with the train leaving about 1 o'clock and returning about 6 o'clock.

If as many as 250 Pampans desire to ride the train, it will be run. In order to guarantee that number of passengers, the Jaycees have named a number of places where money can be deposited for tickets. If the required number has been ordered by noon tomorrow, the receipts can be exchanged for tickets. If not enough interest has been shown, the money will be refunded.

Here is the set-up:

Anyone wanting tickets on the special train can go to the following places, leaving the money for the number of tickets they desire and securing a receipt:

Pampa Daily NEWS on West Foster.

Chamber of commerce headquarters in the city hall.

G. C. Malone Funeral home, West Kingsmill avenue.

Harvester Drug store, corner Kingsmill and Russell.

Father's Drug store No. 4 in East Pampa, Kingsmill avenue.

Charlie Matel Service Station, corner of Kingsmill and Frost.

Frank Hill Insurance across street west of courthouse on Frost.

Post-Mosley store in Combs-Worley building.

Pampa Press on Ballard.

Perkins Drug Store, corner Cuyler and Foster.

Tomorrow THE NEWS will announce whether the train has been assured. Then fans can go back to the place where they left their deposit and exchange their receipt for tickets, which will be available.

EMBASSY SHUT DOWN.
MADRID, Nov. 24 (AP)—Eric C. Wendelin, the United States charge d'affaires, today formally announced the approaching shutdown of the American embassy as an official residence, and notified persons remaining there they will do so at their own risk.

BOLES ENTHRALLS HUGE CROWD IN SCOUT TALK

"The greatest speech I ever heard on Scouting" was the verdict of 200 persons who heard the Rev. J. H. Boles of Tulsa speak on "The Scout Organization and How It Functions" after a sumptuous covered dish luncheon was served in the Red building on the high school campus.

The "mass meeting" to be held in the interest of boys turned out to be a mastery plea to parents to encourage their sons to become Boy Scouts and to support Scouting. Rev. Boles, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Tulsa, was introduced by the Rev. L. Burney Shell, local Presbyterian pastor. Suppl. R. B. Fisher as chairman of the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council training committee, presided.

Rev. Boles who was a scoutmaster four years, preceding last September, when his many duties forced him to give up his job, gave graphic and touching descriptions of Scouting and its effect upon the boy.

The crowd was the largest that ever attended a training school in Pampa.

REBEL ATTACK REPULSED

Foreign Warships Are Charged With Offensive

MADRID, Nov. 24 (AP)—International volunteers repulsed a fresh fascist attack on northwestern University city today as the Spanish socialist government formally charged "foreign warships" with attacks on its fleet.

The accusations were made after an investigation conducted by Indalecio Prieto, minister of air and the navy.

Prieto's findings, after a trip to Cartagena where two government cruisers allegedly were attacked Sunday were disclosed in a communique.

The official declaration described in broad terms the "interesting activities of German and Italian warships along the Spanish coast almost since the outbreak of the civil war."

The cruisers Miguel de Cervantes and Mendez Munez were attacked by "at least two submarines," the report said.

The Cervantes was damaged in the assault, the communique said, a torpedo hitting its bow across the starboard side. The Bendez Munez was not struck.

"These submarines necessarily belonged to a foreign fleet," the government asserted. "The fascists never had a submarine inasmuch as all Spanish submarines remained loyal to the government."

WITH THE FASCIST FORCES OUTSIDE MADRID, Nov. 23 (Delayed in transmission) (AP)—Insurgent infantrymen captured two Russian tanks today when socialist defenders attempted an attack on the fascist-dominated Casa del Campo park.

The tanks lumbered across the Manzanares river into the heavily wooded area which was formerly a royal estate. Fascist sentries only gave them a passing glance, assuming they were insurgent machines.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLENGIM
 Hoyt Boles of Tulsa held an audience of adults spell-bound while he talked on a subject that bores some but fascinates 200 last night. One of the stories he told:

"One day a man walked up to me on the street and said: 'Well, how are you? Bro. Boles? What do you know?' 'Oh, nothing much,' I replied. 'What do you know?' 'Oh, yes you do,' he answered. 'You know everything! There's nothing you don't know. My boy's in your Scout troop, and we have you for breakfast, dinner and supper! Morning, noon and night! Oh, yes, you do know something! You know everything! We can't cross that boy. We have to give in to him! Why, he even tries to talk like you, walk like you. He's trying to be like you. You are his model! He's right behind you in your footsteps! 'Don't say that!' I answered him. 'That's a terrible thing! 'But, it's true,' he answered. 'Every word! And then what do you suppose I did. I went home and I knew I had to be good! The terrible weight of that boy's trust and confidence bore down upon me. It was one of the greatest things that ever happened to me.'

CLUB'S ANNUAL

MEN PRESENT ALL PROGRAM FOR BANQUET

Child Study Club Is Hostess Monday Evening

Husbands of Child Study club members were guests at the annual Thanksgiving banquet of the club last evening at Schneider hotel, and Cal Farley of Amarillo was the guest speaker.

The hospitable spirit of the holiday was expressed in table decorations of white and yellow chrysanthemums, yellow tapers, and yellow place cards, and in the delicious dinner.

Mrs. John Hessey, toastmistress, made all introductions in clever rhyme. After the invocation by Mrs. Horace McBee, she introduced Mrs. N. F. Madoux, president, then other members of the club. Each member presented her husband, who was asked to respond by telling his method of remembering the date of his wife's birthday.

Lester Aldrich sang two solos, "Home on the Range" and "On the Road to Mandalay." Music by the Little Orchestra from the high school continued during the meal.

Mr. Farley told of his summer trip to Europe where he revisited the World War battlefields for the first time since 1918, attended the Olympic games in Berlin, and traveled through France, Holland, and England. He told something of the political situation of European countries, but dwelt more on the humorous incidents of his trip, the friendliness of the people to Americans, and the contrast between wartimes and the present.

He presented a friend who accompanied him from Amarillo, J. S. Pittman, who played a piano arrangement of "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Mrs. Herman Jones of the fine art committee was in charge of arrangements for the banquet.

Present were Messrs. and Mrs. McBee, Harry Nelson, W. J. Foster, Bob McCoy, Jones, W. A. Breining, Madoux, Lee Harrah, Travis Lively, Luther Peterson, Roy Tinsley, Sherman White, Tom Darby, S. C. Evans, Mrs. Hessey, the program guests, and R. I. Nicholson of Amarillo.

Question About CARDUI

PERIODICAL PAINS

"Why do so many women take Cardui for functional pains of menstruation?"

Each does of Cardui contains a purely vegetable sedative and antispasmodic—that is, a pain-relieving and cramp-relieving medicine that is especially effective at monthly periods.

This fact about Cardui (that it helps to relieve many of the ordinary functional pains of menstruation with a beneficial plant extract, not habit-forming, not objectionable to take) is greatly appreciated by thousands of women. They recommend it to others.

Cardui is purely vegetable, liquid in form, and comes in a handy bottle, with full directions for use. Try it, of course, if it does not benefit you, it costs no physician.

EVERY TABLE NEEDS TURKEY FOR HOLIDAY

Apple Stuffing May Give New Taste To The Bird

By NEA Service The turkey is the big news. Fixin', yes, of course, but the great American family feast should be built around the royal American bird. And this year there will be five million more turkeys on the Thanksgiving market than last year.

Poultry raisers have been studying the feeding and raising of infants, you see. Tender birds, with smooth black legs, pliable breast bones and fat well distributed under the skin—these await you at the market. Fresh turkey never a cold storage bird for Thanksgiving, remember. No need for that, despite what anyone may tell you. Those birds shipped in ice or partially frozen, are not cold storage; they are fresh, freshly killed but frozen slightly merely to keep them fresh in transit to your oven.

There are as many ways to roast a turkey as there are ways to bring up a child to honor his parents in their old age. The basic principle is about the same in all good American families, however. First comes the matter of stuffing. Oysters, chestnuts, sausage and what not pass in delectable review. We'll appoint an apple stuffing to honor this year's feast.

Apple Stuffing (For 12 Pound Turkey) Ingredients: 1-2 cup diced salt pork, 1-4 cup chopped celery, 3-4 cup chopped onion, 2 cups fine, dry bread crumbs, 1-3 cup chopped parsley, 10 sour apples cut in cubes, 1 cup sugar, 1-2 teaspoon poultry seasoning, salt and pepper.

In a large pan fry the pork, then remove and add the apples, onion, parsley for 2 minutes, then remove and add the apples which have been sprinkled with sugar. Cover, simmer until tender.

Thanksgiving Menu BREAKFAST: Orange and lime juice, buckwheat cakes, sausages, maple syrup, coffee, milk.

DINNER: Pan-broiled oysters in bacon, celery, olives, roast turkey, apple stuffing, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, mashed yellow turnips and sweet potatoes, buttered white onions, brussels sprouts, endive and grapefruit salad, French dressing, pumpkin pie, mince pie, cheese, nuts, raisins, coffee.

SUPPER: Cold sliced turkey, cranberry sauce, bowl of mixed green salad, hot biscuits, pie, tea, milk.

Remove cover and simmer a few minutes more and then add crumbs, cooked pork and vegetables. Season.

There's a farm tradition that the turkey should be stuffed the night before using and that some of the stuffing should be rubbed on the surface. Farm traditions deserve Thanksgiving respect.

WMU PLANS FOR PRAYER WEEK

Donations Brought For Orphans Home

The annual week of prayer for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering was planned in Central Baptist Missionary union yesterday. All churches met together at the church. Daily meetings are scheduled at the church next week.

Study of the book, Palestine Tapestries, was concluded yesterday. Mrs. J. L. Barnard and Mrs. S. L. Anderson were in charge, and the devotionals were by Mrs. A. B. Cecil.

A banquet which the Missionary union will serve to the Young Women's Auxiliary, first scheduled for last evening, has been postponed to Friday evening because of a conflict in meeting dates, it was announced.

Gifts for Buckner orphans were brought to the meeting yesterday by some members, and others are still making their contributions.

Spinster Dinner" Irene Godwin was elected to serve as judge of the students' court next week; Homer Ratliff was again chosen to act as chief of police.

It has been decided to dismiss school both Thursday and Friday of this week in order to fittingly observe the Thanksgiving holiday.

P-TA COUNCIL POSTPONED Because the regular meeting date falls on Thanksgiving, the meeting of the city Parent-Teacher council this month will be postponed to Dec.

'WE DON'T WANT TO BE PAMPERED!' FIGHTING HARVESTERS TELL SANDIES

PAMPANS WILL NOT GIVE NOR ASK QUARTER

WOOLDRIDGE, JONES ARE LAID UP WITH INJURIES

"We won't pamper Pampa," cried the Amarillo News in a statement from Coach Blair Cherry and the Sandies regarding the Thanksgiving Day game in Amarillo. "Well, who's asking you to pamper Pampa," queried Coach Odus Mitchell, J. C. Prejean and the Harvesters this morning. "We don't want to be pampered."

No Harvester football team has ever hollered for help from a grid-iron foe and the little Harvesters of 1936 are not the type either, was the opinion from a fan point of view. In fact, Pampa has never had a scrappier football team than that thin green lineup this year.

"The Harvesters have never asked for or given Amarillo any quarter, and never expects to; furthermore, Pampa expects Amarillo to do the same," it was said. "The very idea of being 'pampered' by the Sandies is not only repulsive but infuriating. It is insulting to infer that the Harvesters need pampering. Let the Sandies pamper themselves," the angry Harvesters said almost in one breath. "We can take care of ourselves and we expect Amarillo to do their best or nothing—if they don't do their best they might score nothing!"

Although gloom should have pervaded Harvester field yesterday afternoon, there was nothing but fight in the air. Grim determination marked every play as the little Harvesters doggedly prepared for their invasion of Butler field at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The practice became stiffer and rougher when it was learned that 900 reserve seat tickets had been sold here already.

When the Harvesters reported for practice, Woody Wooldridge, midget quarterback, and Lewis Jones, tackle and biggest player on the squad, were missing. Wooldridge was under a physician's care for a badly bruised knee received last Friday when he was hurled into a chair when tackled on the sideline. Jones was in bed with an infected knee. Both might be able to play Thursday.

In the absence of Wooldridge, little J. W. Graham took over the signal barking job although he continued to limp slightly from a hip injury which kept him out of the Plainview game. Other members of the squad reported in excellent condition and the team will be ready to enter the Thursday tussle in good shape, it is predicted.

Although offense was stressed in yesterday's workout, considerable attention was given to a defense which is hoped will stop the bull-like charges of giant Bob Clesson and the toe-dances of Wildhorse Mayse. It is Clesson that is causing the Harvesters to think along defensive lines. They will be watching Clesson closely.

Weight, which has been "on the other side" all season, will be with the Sandies to the tune of about 25 pounds per man. Eldon Ricketts, all state tackle, Miller, Kilman and a few more Amarillo linemen tickle the 200-pound mark or even pass it. Clesson doesn't come far from the same figure. The two ace ball toters, Mayes and Davis, are not so heavy, about 155 or 160 pounds. Quarterback Gill does no ball carrying. He is the blocking back. "Wherever Gill goes, so goes the play," has been the remark often heard in the Amarillo stands.

To prove that fans are behind their fighting Harvesters even though they aren't given a chance to cope with the state-championship bound Sandies, a special train was being gotten up this morning. With more than 500 game tickets sold, it was felt certain that a special train would be run.

The Harvesters, getting tired of taking drubbings, took Berger and Plainview into camp in a row. That helped their spirit. Then they got to thinking about Amarillo and wondering if fans would support them. When it was learned that tickets were going like hot cakes and that 10,000 fans might witness the attraction, a sparkle could be seen in the eyes of the Mitchellmen as they dug into practice. "They're behind us, even though

we can't win many ball games," was the thought in every mind.

CLUB'S ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DINNER ENTERTAINS HUSBANDS

MEN PRESENT ALL PROGRAM FOR BANQUET

Child Study Club Is Hostess Monday Evening

Husbands of Child Study Club members were guests at the annual Thanksgiving banquet at the club last evening at Schneider hotel, and Cal Farley of Amarillo was the guest speaker.

The hospitable spirit of the holiday was expressed in table decorations of white and yellow chrysanthemums, yellow tapers, and yellow place cards, and in the delicious dinner.

Mrs. John Hessey, toastmistress, made all introductions in clever rhyme. After the invocation by Mrs. Horace McBee, she introduced Mrs. N. F. Maddux, president, then other members of the club. Each member presented her husband, who was asked to respond by telling his method of remembering the date of his wife's birthday.

Lester Aldrich sang two solos, Home on the Range, and On the Road to Mandalay. Music by the Little Orchestra from the high school continued during the meal.

Mr. Farley told of his summer trip to Europe where he revisited the World War battlefields for the first time since 1918, attended the Olympic games in Berlin, and traveled through France, Holland, and England. He told something of the political situation of European countries, but dwelt more on the friendliness of the people to Americans, and the contrast between war times and the present.

He presented a friend who accompanied him from Amarillo, J. S. Pittman, who played a piano arrangement of Stars and Stripes Forever.

Mrs. Herman Jones of the fine art committee was in charge of arrangements for the banquet. Present were Messrs. and Mrs. McBee, Harry Nelson, W. J. Foster, Bob McCoy, Jones, W. A. Brething, Maddux, Lee Harrah, Travis Lively, Luther Pierson, Roy Tinsley, Sherman White, Tom Darby, S. C. Evans, Mrs. Hessey, the program guests, and R. I. Nicholson of Amarillo.

Question About CARDUI

"Why do so many women take Cardui for functional pains of menstruation?" Each dose of Cardui contains a purely vegetable sedative and antispasmodic—that is, a pain-relieving and cramp-relieving medicine that is especially effective at monthly periods. This fact about Cardui (that it helps to relieve many of the ordinary functional pains of menstruation with a beneficial plant extract, not habit-forming, and not objectionable to take) is greatly appreciated by thousands of women. They recommend it to others. Cardui is purely vegetable, liquid in form, and comes in 50-cent bottles, with full directions for use. Try it of course, if it does not benefit you, consult a physician.

Faculty Will Go From Kellerville To Teachers Meet

KELLERVILLE, Nov. 24—School will be dismissed here Tuesday afternoon, so faculty members may attend the state teachers' meeting in Fort Worth. Reports of the trip will be made afterward to study groups and those interested in educational work.

Teachers planning to go are Principal W. W. Bristler, Lavern Gregg, Maxine Robinson, Winnifred Rice, and Christine Legg.

Pupils Entertain

Pupils of Kellerville school presented the program at a meeting of Wheeler county teachers Saturday. County Supt. B. T. Rucker presided for the business session, when it was decided to have departmental meetings of the county association at each meeting.

The program included a duet by Jimmie Cope and Billie Marie Muldrew, reading by Izella Rogers, and quartet by Jimmie Cope, Billie Marie, Emma Lee and Velma Muldrew. Vocational teachers from Bethel school reported on their work.

School Group Visits

The volunteer band from Wayland College, Plainview, were guests of the Kellerville and Magic City Baptist churches Saturday night and Sunday. About 15 young preachers and special workers made short talks. Much interest was shown by residents here, and plans are being made to have the group return next term.

Irving Crossland was chairman of the lodging committee, and Forest Ceil of the finance committee in charge of entertaining the visitors.

At the Sunday evening church service, Junior Crossland, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Crossland, announced his plan to become a preacher. The boy has planned this work for some time, has studied Bible history and memorized many Bible passages, and already has prepared several sermon outlines.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gossett of Richmond, Calif. are here to spend Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. O. L. Derrick. They will also visit his parents at Heald.

Band Parents Session

Mrs. R. O. James and Mrs. Cecil Reavis gave a report on the Amarillo meeting of band parents and directors at the regular business meeting of the local organization Friday afternoon. Announcement of the resignation of their president, Mrs. T. C. Davis, was made. Mrs. P. T. Boston was elected to succeed Mrs. Davis. Arrangements have been completed to exchange Christmas concerts with the Wheeler band, with small admission charges. The proceeds will be split 50-50 between the two organizations.

Baker Teachers Are Entertained In Barrett Home

A series of informal dinners, with Principal J. A. Meek as host in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Barrett, has been given for teachers at B. M. Baker school. The last of the Monday-evening dinners was given yesterday.

Guests then were Mrs. B. G. Gordon, Misses Cleo Snodgrass, Wilma Perkins, Evelyn Shanklin, Beatrice Drew, Julia Shackelford, and Bernice Lark.

Last week, the dinner guests were Mesdames J. P. Arrington, A. J. Johnson, W. B. Bounds; Misses Florence Jackson, Mary McKamey, Lella Clifford, and Minnie Allen. At the first dinner, men of the faculty were guests. They were Herman Jones, W. Postma, Ira Pearson, and O. F. Shewmaker.

Adult Group Has Party at Church

A social meeting of the adult training union in First Baptist church was enjoyed Friday evening. E. F. Gathin, director of the department, and union officers acted as hosts.

Mrs. H. M. Cone directed amusing games and stunts. Guitar music by Lloyd Fanning and bird and barnyard imitations by Earl Phillips entertained the group later.

Refreshments were served to about 35 members.

EVERY TABLE NEEDS TURKEY FOR HOLIDAY

Apple Stuffing May Give New Taste To The Bird

By NEA Service
The turkey is the big news. Fixin's, yes, of course, but the great American family feast should be built around the royal American bird. And this year there will be five million more turkeys on the Thanksgiving market than last year. Poultry raisers have been studying the feeding and raising of infants, you see. Tender birds, with smooth black legs, pliable breast bones and fat well distributed under the skin—these await you at the market. Fresh turkeys—never a cold storage bird for Thanksgiving, remember that—because for that, despite what anyone may tell you. Those birds shipped in ice or partially frozen are not cold-storage; they have been freshly killed but frozen slightly merely to keep them fresh in transit to your oven.

There are as many ways to roast a turkey as there are ways to bring up a child to honor his parents in their old age. The basic principle is about the same in all good American families, however. First comes the matter of stuffing. Oysters, chestnuts, sausage and what not pass in delectable review. We'll appoint an apple stuffing to honor this year's feast.

Apple Stuffing
(For 12 Pound Turkey)
Ingredients: 1-2 cup diced salt pork, 1-4 cup chopped celery, 3-4 cup chopped onion, 2 cups fine, dry bread crumbs, 1-3 cup chopped parsley, 10 sour apples cut in cubes, 1 cup sugar, 1-16 teaspoon poultry seasoning, salt and pepper.

In a large pan fry the pork, then remove and add the apples, onion, parsley for 2 minutes, then remove and add the apples which have been sprinkled with sugar. Cover, simmer until tender.

Castoffs Wanted At Rummage Sale For Charity Fund

"White elephants" from Pampa homes are wanted for the rummage sale which Beta Sigma Phi chapter will sponsor Saturday. Anyone who will contribute salable clothes, articles of household furnishings, or bric-a-brac is asked to notify Mrs. C. L. Wooley, who will call for the donations.

Funds raised in the rummage sale will be given to charity. The sale will be conducted all day Saturday in the building on West Foster recently vacated by Cooper's cafe.

Back School Will Close Wednesday For Thanksgiving

BACK Nov. 24—School will be dismissed here Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving holidays.

A Thanksgiving program at Denworth church Sunday evening was attended by many from this community, and several residents here took part on program.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pearson and family and Neville Back attended the Perryton-Panhandle football game in Pampa Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Back recently moved from this community to Pampa.

Miss Gertrude Anderson has returned from Mexico and has taken up her school work here again.

Food for Sale and Gifts Is Asked of O. E. S. Tomorrow

Members of the Order of Eastern Star are reminded that food for the sale which the chapter will sponsor tomorrow must be sent to the Standard food market by 9 a. m. Mrs. Madge Murphy is in charge of the sale, which will feature food for the Thanksgiving dinner. Patronage of the public is invited.

Eastern Star members will fill Thanksgiving baskets for needy families of the city, and are to send their contributions of staple foods to the Southwestern Public Service Co. office by noon tomorrow.

Dinner Entertains Friends of Couple At Canadian

By LELA CALLAWAY
CANADIAN, Nov. 24—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Callaway were hosts with a fish dinner Sunday evening at the White House Country club. Following the delicious dinner, games of pitch, forty-two, and bridge were played.

Guests were Messrs. and Mrs. J. M. Noble, L. A. McAdams, B. P. Tepe, F. D. Moss; Mrs. C. W. Seed, Mrs. Tom Carver, Herbert Jones, Buel Callaway of Amarillo, Mary Ellen Moss, Jiggs Caldwell, Quentin Isaacs.

St. Matthew's Church Announces Service Thursday

A Thanksgiving day service in St. Matthew's Episcopal church is announced by the Rev. R. J. Snell, minister in charge. The service of holy communion is to begin at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

The public is invited for this hour of holiday worship.

ORDER PENDING.
AUSTIN, Nov. 24 (AP)—Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Railroad Commission, said today an order setting the December allowable production for Texas oil and gas fields would be issued probably Saturday.

WMU PLANS FOR PRAYER WEEK

Donations Brought For Orphans Home

The annual week of prayer for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering was planned in Central Baptist Missionary union yesterday. All cities met together at the church. Daily meetings are scheduled at the church next week.

Study of the book, Palestine Tapestries, was concluded yesterday. Mrs. J. L. Barnard and Mrs. S. L. Anderson were in charge, and the devotional was by Mrs. A. B. Cecil.

A banquet which the Missionary union will serve to the Young Women's Auxiliary, first scheduled for last evening, has been postponed to Friday evening because of a conflict in meeting dates, it was announced.

Gifts for Buckner orphans were brought to the meeting yesterday by some members, and others are still making their contributions.

Laketon News

LAKETON, Nov. 24—Mrs. Floyd McLaughlin entertained the Get-Together club at her home Wednesday afternoon. The major part of the time was spent in talking a quilt. Refreshments of angel food cake, pears, and coffee were served to the guests: Mesdames T. E. Keeney, Jay Evans, Wheeler Paris, B. Roy Looper, and Sam Arnett.

The serious illness of Mrs. Clara Bates, sister of Mrs. Ernest Colwell, necessitated the Colwell family's staying in Hereford the past week.

Erne Godwin was elected to serve as judge of the students' court next week; Homer Ratliff was again chosen to act as chief of police.

It has been decided to dismiss school here Thursday and Friday of this week in order to fittingly observe the Thanksgiving holiday.

P-TA COUNCIL POSTPONED
Because the regular meeting date falls on Thanksgiving, the meeting of the city Parent-Teacher council this month will be postponed to Dec.

Remove cover and simmer a few minutes more and then add crumbs, cooked pork and vegetables. Season.

There's a farm tradition that the turkey should be stuffed the night before using, and that some of the stuffing should be rubbed on the surface. Farm traditions deserve Thanksgiving respect.

'WE DON'T WANT TO BE PAMPERED!' FIGHTING HARVESTERS TELL SANDIES

PAMPANS WILL NOT GIVE NOR ASK QUARTER

WOOLDRIDGE, JONES ARE LAID UP WITH INJURIES

"We won't pamper Pampa," cried the Amarillo News in a statement from Coach Blair Cherry and the Sandies regarding the Thanksgiving Day game in Amarillo. "Well, who's asking you to pamper Pampa," queried Coach Odus Mitchell. J. C. Frejcan and the Harvesters this morning. "We don't want to be pampered."

No Harvester football team has ever holed for help from a grid-iron foe and the little Harvesters of 1936 are not the type either, was the opinion from a fan point of view. In fact, Pampa has never had a scrapper football than that thin green lineup this year.

"The Harvesters have never asked for or given Amarillo any quarter, and never expects to," furthermore, Pampa expects Amarillo to do the same," it was said. "The very idea of being 'pampered' by the Sandies is not only repulsive but infuriating. It is insulting to infer that the Harvesters need pampering. Let the Sandies pamper themselves," the angry Harvesters said almost in one breath. "We can take care of ourselves and we expect Amarillo to do their best or nothing—if they don't do their best they might score nothing!"

Although gloom should have pervaded Harvester field yesterday afternoon, there was nothing but fight in the air. Grim determination marked every play as the little Harvesters doggedly prepared for their invasion of Butler field at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The practice became stiffer and rougher when it was learned that 500 reserve seat tickets had been sold here already.

When the Harvesters reported for practice, Woody Wooldridge, midge quarterback, and Lewis Jones, tackle and biggest player on the squad, were missing. Wooldridge was under a physician's care for a badly bruised knee received last Friday when he was hurled into a chair when tackled on the sideline. Jones was in bed with an infected knee. Both might be able to play Thursday.

In the absence of Wooldridge, little J. W. Graham took over the signal barking job although he continued to limp slightly from a hip injury which kept him out of the Plainview game. Other members of the squad reported in excellent condition and the team will be ready to enter the Thursday tussle in good shape, it is predicted.

Although offense was stressed in yesterday's workout, considerable attention was given to a defense which is hoped will stop the bull-like charges of giant Bob Clesson and the toe-dances of Wildhorse Mayes. It is Clesson that is causing the Harvesters to think along defensive lines. They will be watching Clesson closely.

Weight, which has been "on the other side" all season, will be with the Sandies to the tune of about 25 pounds per man. Eldon Ricketts, all state tackle, Miller, Kilman and a few more Amarillo linemen tickle the 200-pound mark or even pass it. Clesson doesn't come far from the same figure. The two ace ball toters, Mayes and Davis, are not so heavy, about 155 or 160 pounds. Quarterback Gill does no ball carrying. He is the blocking back. "Wherever Gill goes, so goes the play," has been the remark often heard in the Amarillo stands.

To prove that fans are behind their fighting Harvesters even though they aren't given a chance to cope with the state-championship bound Sandies, a special train was being gotten up this morning. With more than 500 game tickets sold, it was felt certain that a special train would be run.

The Harvesters, getting tired of taking drubbings, took Borger and Plainview into camp in a row. That helped their spirit. Then they got to thinking about Amarillo and wondering if fans would support them.

When it was learned that tickets were going like hot cakes and that 10,000 fans might witness the attraction, a sparkle could be seen in the eyes of the Mitchellmen as they dug into practice. "They're behind us, even though

we can't win many ball games," was the thought in every mind.

YOU CAN'T REALLY GET AWAY FROM IT ALL

The New York stock-broking gentleman who was going to sell his quail farm and move to Canada if the nation didn't vote right seems to have changed his mind, but his place has been taken by a well-to-do New Englander.

This man is not heading for Canada, but for some island in the Bahamas. He sailed from New York the other day announcing that the presidential election displeased him, and that, in company with a few wealthy Englishmen, who feel much the same way about their own fatherland, he is going to establish a safe retreat in the Caribbean Sea.

He and his British friends plan to buy an island outright. They are all pretty well heeled, so their retreat will lack few comforts. There will be room for other wealthy Americans and Englishmen who can't stand the pressure at home.

Now the first fact that leaps to the mind about this little venture is that the retreat from civilization will be a sham rather than a reality. The owners of this island Eden will need money to keep it going; and the money, inevitably, will come from American and British industry and finance in the form of dividend and interest checks and so on.

Furthermore, these latter-day Adams will need furniture, foodstuffs, gadgets such as radios and iceboxes and siphons, clothing, books, and all manner of incidentals; and these products of the civilization they are trying to escape will be bought with the money which that civilization produces.

If they are tired of civilization, of President Roosevelt and Premier Baldwin, of New Deal and war scares, they can get away from it all only by landing naked on some lonely shore and heaving out their living with their bare hands.

Their present scheme no more cuts them off from civilization than does a trip to the top floor of the Empire State building. The folks back home will still be supporting them.

And if war, depression, or revolution hits America and England, of course, these island refugees will be the very first to sink beneath the waves.

It all adds up, of course, to the simple fact that there can be no real escape from the modern world. We may think it's a fine world or we may think it's the worst world possible—but, hot or cold, we have to take it and like it.

Since we can't get away—since all of us are going to sink or swim together—isn't it a man's part to stay on the job and make the best of it, rather than to hunt up a remote burrow where he can stick his ostrich-head in the palm-fringed sands of some balmy tropic shore?

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON—Out of President Roosevelt's thoughtful deliberations during his "vacation" on the high seas may come the first plan for a permanent program which will treat unemployment and relief as a long-time problem.

His most intimate advisers have urged such a plan upon him and believe it is in the cards now that the worst of the depression is passed and the president faces four more years in office. Intimations dropped by Roosevelt indicate he is thinking in that direction.

Officials have told Roosevelt they will need around $750,000,000 to carry the federal works program through the fiscal year ending June 30, 1937. WPA chiefs privately expect to run out of funds by February, which means Congress must act soon after it convenes in January.

For the next fiscal year, estimates run up to $2,500,000,000, but Roosevelt's budget estimates are likely to be well below that.

It should be realized that although the congressional relief appropriation for 1936-37 was only $1,425,000,000, the full works program for this fiscal year will cost more than $3,000,000,000 when you count use of unexpended balances and anticipate deficiency appropriations.

Men close to the president point out that if he can cut that by a billion he will have made a real showing.

Convinced that the unemployment and relief problems are constant, however, high New Dealers are even more concerned with formulating an integrated program which will eliminate as much unemployment in as many ways as possible and at the same time get federal relief activity on a permanent, co-ordinated, and efficient basis.

The present Social Security Act, subject to certain changes, is considered a cornerstone.

If Roosevelt accepts recommendations of WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins, he will push for legislation to shorten working hours in industry, for an unemployment census, for rigid child labor laws, for minimum wages, for a lower minimum age limit on old age pensions and insurance, and for a permanent WPA to tide over workers who can't find jobs at periods when they're not covered by unemployment insurance.

Hopkins is understood to believe that boys and girls should be kept in school until they are 18 years old. He has said that there are 3,000,000 persons over 65 years of age in industry. An 18-year-old law would take some where between two and three millions out of industry.

Although the relief burden has been decreasing and Hopkins estimates there will be a million fewer cases on WPA and local relief this winter the problems of unemployment and relief remain huge.

Half the unemployed have never received aid. It is from that half that the increased ranks of labor in industry, the WPA, and the local relief rolls receive most of their recruits, which is the reason why business and employment can pick up without corresponding decreases on relief and works rolls.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER.

NEW YORK—There's one New York hotel that has surprised New Yorkers, and that is the Ritz-Carlton. . . . Flipping off 25 years of tradition, it declared itself in on a New Entertainment Deal and announced a floor show that utterly confounds those moderns who hold that the Ritz is a relic of an outmoded world of fashion. . . . But, what is more amazing is that the audience that flocks nightly to the new Crystal garden, where the show is held, is largely made up of Mayfairites who are themselves a part of the Ritz tradition. . . . Now the schedule calls for a new revue every eight weeks. . . . verily, Broadway has moved in on Madison avenue to stay.

There's a Swedish delicatessen off Second avenue that features a rack of Scandinavian papers. . . . All the other shops in that Yorkville neighborhood do a brisk trade in Irish newspapers. Oscar of the Waldorf, who epitomizes the art of fine cooking in New York, graduates no apprentices until they have served at least 12 months. . . . then they progress from the blue kitchen uniform to the more advanced white coat and cap.

'Napoleon' Rebels. Maurice Evans, who portrays Napoleon in that drama about the declining days of the Little Corporal, rebelled when they wanted him to appear in a bathtub. . . . Various biographers insist that Napoleon acted a part of his memories from the tub, but Evans lost no time in vetoing the idea: "That," he says, "is carrying realism too far."

'Tobacco Road' . . . Still. Among major envoys who have succeeded in literary pursuits is Paul Morand, who has devoted a career to the study of the world's great cities. . . . He is one of France's most popular authors as well as a diplomat. . . . Harold Nicolson's career as a British diplomat has also been as brilliant as his record as a novelist. . . . Brand Whitlock, now dead, was another whose writings equalled in fineness his work in the diplomatic field. Whitlock's last foreign post was Belgium. . . . Recent two-volume collection of his writings was brought out.

Slowly but surely "Tobacco Road" is catching up with "Able's Irish Rose." . . . This turbulent backwater of American illiteracy will shortly round into its fourth season on Broadway. . . . And the night it opened Jack Kirkland who wrote it, sat brooding in a 45th street bar, telling his friends that he had a failure on his hands.

HOW'S YOUR HEALTH

EAR COMPLICATIONS AND THROAT INFECTIONS

Infection of the throat always threatens a number of serious complications. Among them are involvement of the middle ear and the head sinuses. Also, the case which may begin as a simple sore throat may later turn out to be what is known as an acute streptococcal infection of the throat, with numerous threatened complications, involving the immediate structures of the throat, as well as the heart and kidneys.

We frequently find preceding an involvement of the middle ear such illness as the common cold, influenza, tonsillitis or sinusitis. In summer time bathing in polluted waters may contribute to the development of the condition. Occasionally exposure to cold and damp may be the precipitating cause of middle ear disease.

In ear disease following respiratory infection, it is usual for the infection to extend along the Eustachian tube. This is the tube that runs from the back of the throat to the middle ear. The function of the tube is to allow air to enter the internal ear structure, so that the pressure against the ear drum from the inside will be equal to that of the outside air pressure.

Those suffering from enlarged adenoids and diseased tonsils, as well as those who have what are called septal feet in the nose and sinuses also, are more likely to suffer middle ear infection.

In acute streptococcal infection of the throat (streptococcal because the streptococcus germ is the most common organism responsible) we may find an inflammation of the tonsils and more or less of the surrounding tissue. In the more serious form, the involved tissues may become gangrenous, that is, they succumb (are killed) by the germs and their toxins.

In the second form, we often also

Talks to parents

By Brooke Peters Church

There are numerous homes and institutions for the deaf, the blind, the crippled, the dumb, the feeble-minded and the orphaned. These extreme cases are easily seen and cared for.

But the world is full of the partially deaf, the half blind, people with impediments in their speech, high-grade morons and children inadequately tended, for whom nothing is done and whose deficiencies are often not recognized.

It was only when he failed to make junior high school that Tommy was found to be partially deaf. Susy lived in a dim world of shadows until she was in her teens. Then she went to the oculist of her own volition and found that she had only quarter vision. Alice Brown was always late for school, her clothes were untidy, she looked half fed. She had a home and a mother, but it took the visiting nurse to find out that her mother was the sole support of the family, and a very inadequate support at that.

It is hard to spot these halfway cases, but they are far more frequent than the extremes. Only constant vigilance on the part of the parents, teachers, health boards and visiting officials can save a vast amount of human material from being warped on account of childhood neglect.

If a child is backward in his work, unadjusted socially, nervous or in any other way abnormal, he should be taken at once to a competent physician or to the nearest good clinic. It is useless to argue that he will outgrow his peculiarities. He may or he may not, but he should have the benefit that medicine and psychology can do for him as soon as possible.

Visiting nurses and teachers can often help parents in such cases. They see the child in school as well as at home, and from this dual vantage point can give valuable advice and suggestions.

The Wrong Murderer

By HUGH CLEVELY

Chapter 31. AMBUSH. With that Bassett turned away and made for the stairs that led down to the basement, he huddled for a moment. If anything was going to happen, she wanted to see it, so that she could tell Mahony all about it before he rang Bassett up. She slipped quietly into the room in which Bassett had given directions to his men, and hid behind a curtain.

Barrett descended the stairs which led to the basement and crossed the kitchen to the back door of the kitchen. As he was crossing the kitchen the three knocks, pause, and another knock, sounded again.

"Orl right, orl right, don't be impatient," he called out, and he opened the back door.

Immediately the barrel of an automatic pistol was thrust into his stomach, and a stern voice said: "Stand back from this door and stick your hands up."

"Wot the . . ." exclaimed Bassett in a tone of utter astonishment; but he stepped back from the door, and his hands went up above his head.

Three men quietly entered the kitchen closing the door after them. They were tough, hard-bitten, evil-looking ruffians and in their hands they carried small automatic pistols fitted with silencers. Their leader, the man who had already spoken, prodded Bassett roughly with his automatic.

"We've come for Lake," he stated harshly. "You know who sent us." Bassett's hands, held up above his head, were trembling visibly; his expression was one of shivering terror.

"Lake," he stammered. "I ain't seen Mr. Lake. You can search the place, mister; you won't find 'im 'ere."

"I know damned well I can search the place and I shan't find him," returned the other man curtly. "If I thought I could find him by simply searching the house I'd have plugged you straight off."

Things were going exactly as Bassett had planned. "Lead on," went on the other man. "And if you do so much as squawk you'll get shot where it will hurt like hell, but won't kill you."

There was apparently no fight left in Fatty Bassett.

"If . . . if I take you to Mr. Lake, you won't shoot me afterwards," he whimpered.

"If you don't take us to him I'll shoot you right away, through the knee to start with," replied the leader of the invaders contemptuously. "Get on with it."

Shivering, Bassett led the way up the stairs. The three men followed close on his heels, their guns ready for instant action.

None of Fatty's friends appeared; the house seemed quite silent and empty. Fatty led the way through the hall and up a flight of stairs. There he paused for a moment on a small landing, and then flung open the door of a room.

It was a long, narrow room, with a large, built-in cupboard stretching the entire length of one wall. Seated in a chair placed against the wall opposite to the cupboard was Lake. His hands and ankles were tied securely to the chair, and he was gagged.

The leader of the invading party gave an exclamation of satisfaction and hurried forward. His two men followed him. For one moment they were off their guard; their backs were toward the cupboard as they clustered round the chair, untying Lake. Fatty Bassett coughed.

Then everything happened with incredible swiftness. The door of the cupboard suddenly flew open, and Fatty's three men sprang out, their pistols in their hands. They did not shoot, since their pistols were not fitted with silencers, but in the same movement with which they left the cupboard they hurled themselves at the three invaders.

The invading party, taken utterly by surprise, had hardly time to offer any real resistance. Before they

You see the Wilken Family Whiskey is really something pretty special. For we've been a family of whiskey making folks ever since anybody can remember. I still mind the time when I used to watch Grandpa Wilken buying himself over one of those old-fashioned looking stills. VOL. 6 FACTS AND FANCIES OF P. H. S.

PAMPA, TEXAS, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1936

EDITED BY STUDENTS OF JOURNALISM NO. 11

"COME ONE, COME ALL", IS YELL OF BARKERS FOR HIGH SCHOOL CARNIVAL DEC. 4

Proceeds Are to Aid Publication of Year Book

"Come one, come all" cries Arvo Goddard, speaker for one of the organizations to have a booth at the high school carnival to be held Dec. 4.

Some of the entertainments and their sponsors are listed below. Seniors have charge of bingo, bean jar, and cat-rack. Juniors are sponsoring the guessing at an alarm clock and at weights, and the sale of popcorn, hamburgers and pop. The fish pond and puppet show will be taken care of by the sophomores.

The pep squad is sponsoring a night club, baby show, baby pictures and a turkey raffle. The band is having the Foibles. P-T-A has charge of the picture show and cake walk, and the National Honor Society is reading fortunes in four different ways. The Girls' Sports association will have charge of a crazy house and penny pitching.

The archaeology group will have a cobweb. F. F. A. is putting on a freak livestock show and has charge of the water jar. The dramatics group is going to have a play and a bowling alley.

The Little Harvester staff will have a roulette wheel and pitching rings. The Hi-Y will be in a position to allow customers to chuck negroes if they wish, and the office force will have a doll wheel and nail driving. In the language group, the Spanish students will follow up with a Spanish joint and the Latin students with a turtle race. The boys' tennis club is going to sponsor the archery booth.

The Creative Writers' club and the Lady Lits' Society will sell homemade candy.

Carnival booths will be found in the gymnasium, the red brick building, and the basement of the main building.

Notable Nothings of P. H. S.

By The Nimble Nit-Wits

Borden March didn't seem to mind holding hands in front of Mr. Fisher's office, but Dorothy Nell Dean did, so they stopped.

Rettler Pearl has been receiving so many love letters here lately that she does not know what to do with them. They are addressed in brown ink!

Did you know that Earl Rice is planning to get married? He seems to be having a hard time finding a best man.

Many of the seniors are being flattered in their pictures. If things go on as they have, we should have a very pretty annual.

Did you notice Betty Jo blush very prettily when Mr. Cabe mentioned that she was once in a kid band?

Fred Vandeburg was grumbling disgustedly in the manual training room Thursday, as someone had nailed together his lumber with which he was to build a bench. Although he could not prove his suspicions, he kept an eagle-eye on Paul Nelson.

Snooper saw Edwina and Albert fussing again. Is that what love does to you?

Paul Nelson wonders what cosmetic counter down town recently got in a new shipment of lipstick, as he saw Colleen McMahon painting her lips.

Most of the football boys looked sick Thursday morning! Where did that 80 pounds of turkey go that disappeared Wednesday night?

J. W. Graham may be small but he had more empty space per inch than any boy in high school at the Harvester. Monday Banquet, the other night, he ate more than Ivan Noblitt and that's a record up to date.

Snooper wonders who Adolph's new girl is. It must be a secret.

Snooper heard that Mr. Gordon is telling lies in class again. Norman Cox: "After this I'm going to be careful about politeness at the movies." Elizabeth Barnes: "Why?" Norman: "I stood up to let a girl pass me, and she slipped into my seat."

Fred Vandeburg: "Dorothy Jane can I hold your hand?" Dorothy Jane Day: "I don't know. Can you?"

Can you imagine Mr. Cabe's trying to keep Bessie Belle out of the sun, so she won't freckle?

Wonder why Audrey Bray makes a wish every time she goes under the underpass? Ask her.

Who were the two girls who called Ivan Noblitt Sunday night and had a nice long conversation? Bette! Look into this, Frances!

Bessie Belle says that the colored boys and girls learned much quicker than she ever did.

Ed Scott: "You know, Mr. Sone, I've been in high school for seven years now. I think it's about time I got a diploma." Mr. Sone: "I thought you were going to ask for a pension."

There seems to be a corn cob pipe club in school. It is composed of the following students: officers, Jim Brown, president; Billy Richey, vice president, and Charles Hickman, bouncer. These members have also paid their tobacco dues: Bill Kelly, Dick Kennedy, and Jack Brown.

Colleen McMahon was seen playing with her hula-hula doll last Friday.

MISS GREGORY IS QUEEN OF GRID CONTEST

CORONATION IS HELD AT FOOTBALL GAME

As a climax to the football queen contest Pauline Gregory was crowned at Harvester park Friday between halves of the Pampa-Harvesters and Plainview-Bulldogs game.

She was attended by the football captains, Roy Showers and Roy Lee Jones and by two of her opponents, Leona Hurst and La Maria Courson. The other candidate, Bernice Barrett, was out of town.

The band and pep squad marched out on the field and while the band formed the letters H-E-L-L-O, the pep squad made an aisle from the south to the north goal post.

As the pep squad knelt, the queen and her attendants walked up the aisle to a throne. Here the queen was given a large bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums by two of the pep squad leaders, Frances Coffee and Dorothy Jo Moore.

Everyone stood while the band played "Dear Old Pampa High School" and then the pep squad marched off the field.

Pauline was dressed in her leader's suit with a green and gold cape over it. The cape, which had a large gold collar to frame her face, was furnished by Levine's. The Harvester queen is invited to be the guest of the Sandy queen at Amarillo on Thanksgiving Day.

Sophs to Donate Fish Pond Articles

During home room period yesterday in room 309, the sophomores discussed plans for their booths for the High School Carnival.

Each sophomore is asked to bring at least one article for the fish pond. Richard and Dudley West are going to make placards to advertise the booth.

In the following home room sophomores are asked to give their articles to these students: 203, Jack Hessey; 105, Dorothy Jane Day; 207, George Saunders; 313, Madeline Lawrence; 106B, Isla Mae Hassell; 106A, Tommie Close; 210, Carrie Ann Elkins; 306, Bill Stiles.

A. A. U. W. GIVES TEA

Senior girls were guests of the A. A. U. W. in a tea and vocational guidance program this afternoon at 1 o'clock in the city club room. Mrs. Howard Mann, leader of the vocational group, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Ewing Leech, who spoke on Opportunities for Women. Piano solos were given by Miss Marjorie Simonet.

Mrs. Hol Wagner and Miss Arlean Pattison are also on the A. A. U. W. committee arranging the program. Miss Anne Louise Jones represents the High School P. T. A., which is cooperating in the vocational guidance work.

The A. A. U. W. is planning to have a vocational guidance tea for the senior girls each month.

THESE EARLY BIRDS.

Here they are, folks! These are the tea and vocational birds who planked down their annual money first on Wednesday of last week:

Allen Wise, Miss Angela Strnad, Corch Odus Mitchell, E. N. Dennard, Miss Alice Short, Ralph Hamilton, J. P. Matthews, D. F. Osborne, Miss Clarine Branom, Jim Brown.

CORRECTION.

The name of Virginia Nelson was unintentionally omitted from the list of Texas Tech students which was printed in a recent edition of The Little Harvester. Virginia was graduated from Pampa high school in 1933 and attended St. Joseph's junior college in Missouri. She is now a junior at Texas Technological college in Lubbock.

For what are you most thankful? Mr. Carey, F. H. interest which is being taken in the school carnival, the proceeds of which go for the annual.

Dorothy Jo Moore: I am most thankful for my true friends. Ivan Noblitt: I am most thankful because my big brother is going to China.

Albert Ayers: I am thankful for all of my girl friends. W. L. Davis: I am thankful for my slim, girlish figure.

Betty Blythe: I am always thankful until I start writing editorials. Howard Buckingham: I am thankful for my superior intelligence.

John King: I am thankful for my talent at playing a French horn.

BE THANKFUL FOR SCHOOL, TOO PROCLAMATION

It is hereby proclaimed to the students and teachers of the Pampa school system that they should be thankful for the benefits the school has given them.

Whereas, the Pampa Independent School District has provided buildings used in the service of education and put in charge of them capable instructors.

Whereas, the state of Texas has supplied us with textbooks without cost. For this reason alone, many children are able to continue their studies in school.

Whereas, the teachers are paid regularly and sufficiently. They are being given cashable checks and are not having to take warrants as is the case in other parts of the country.

Whereas, students are offered a complete curriculum of study in almost any course they wish to select. Material is presented in such a way that it is a pleasure rather than a drudgery. Athletics has a definite part in almost every student's activities.

Therefore, it is now in order for all concerned to express their gratitude for this splendid school system.

Signed, Betty Blythe, editor.

"LADY LITS," IS NAME CHOSEN BY GIRLS' CLUB

Program Is Based on Gymnasium Is Much Too Small for Show

At a meeting of the Girls' Literary club at 8:30 Monday, Nov. 16, the name "Lady Lits" was chosen by the members. The club voted to buy pins and black-and-white was unanimously decided upon for colors. Plans for the carnival were also discussed.

Due to the absence of the president, Dorothy Jane Day, Alta Marie Terrell, vice president, presided. The meeting was held in the home of Alta Marie.

The program was based on a study of Willa Cather, famous American novelist. Elaine Crout discussed Miss Cather's life, and reviews of two of her books, "My Antonia" and "Death Comes for the Archbishop" were given by Bessie Belle Davis and Alta Marie Terrell. Mrs. Hol Wagner, sponsor, read a short story, "Paul's Case," by Miss Cather. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and cocoa were served.

Members present were Retha Spencer, Elaine Crout, Bessie Belle Davis, Annabelle Holloway, Edith Melton, Wilma Willis, Rether Paul Bowerman, Mildred Binion, Hazel Martin, Mrs. Wagner, and Alta Marie Terrell.

The group will study Christopher Morley at the next regular meeting on Dec. 7. A call business session will be held in room 235 on Nov. 30 at 4 o'clock.

INDOOR CIRCUS IS CALLED OFF BY SADLER'S

Gymnasium Is Much Too Small for Show

Because of lack of room in the gymnasium there will be no indoor circus as planned.

Harley Sadler and some of his employees were here Wednesday to look over the location. They found that the gymnasium was entirely too small to put on a show as large as Mr. Sadler had planned to bring.

The proceeds that were to have come from the circus would have gone to help finance the annual.

Muscles Tense, Body Leans Forward on Torn Football Turf

Suddenly he crouched, a beast of prey ready to spring. His disheveled hair blew wildly in the wind. With teeth clenched and jaw outthrust, he leaned slowly forward. The knuckles of the hand of one sinewy arm rested on the torn turf.

His muscles tensed and with eyes wildly glaring, his whole countenance became one of deadly menace. Then gnashing his teeth he grimly muttered, "Now!"

Then "click" and—"O. K." says the photographer. "It'll be on the sports page Sunday."

"Save me about 50 copies, willya?" asked Glen Maxey as he turned back to scrimmage.

PAMPA SCORES OFTEN AGAINST BULLDOG TEAM

Expert Passing Nets 32-0 Score For Harvesters

In a game chock full of thrills and excitement for Pampa fans, the Harvesters trounced the Plainview Bulldogs 32-0 last Friday.

Although Plainview's team was equal to the Pampa squad in size, they did not prove strong enough in technique and scoring ability.

With every play clicking, the Harvesters marched time and again to the Bulldogs' goal line, usually with the aid of an expert passing play. Featured in these were Roy Showers and his aides, Maxey, Enloe, Ayers and Cox. The work of Maxey and Noblitt in the line showed up particularly well.

Many fans were surprised at the outstanding ability of Albert Ayer, substitute for J. W. Graham. Lewis Jones, suffering from an infected knee, made good use of his time until he was taken out because of injury. Morgan and Matthews held their positions in the line throughout the time they were in the game, as did Roy Jones, former end. Jones' work as tackle has proved much better than his capable playing of the end, now operated by Cox.

Many substitutes were admitted throughout the game by Pampa because of the score amassed early in the battle. These reserves were very good, and they held the Plainviewers well.

Librarian to Give Speech at State Teachers' Meet

Miss G. F. Latimer, librarian, will give a talk at the Texas State Teachers' Convention, an annual convention which will be held at Fort Worth next week. She will discuss "Education in books for the high school students," at the library section Friday morning.

The teachers going to Fort Worth from Pampa are: Supt. R. B. Fisher, Miss Latimer, Miss C. E. Branom, E. N. Dennard, Frank Monroe, and Miss Mary Idelle Cox.

In former years a national convention has been held with teachers from all over the United States in attendance.

In former years a national convention has been held with teachers from all over the United States in attendance. This year there is a state convention, and only teachers from this state will go.

BUTLER FIELD TO BE SITE OF PERFORMANCE

BANDS, PEP SQUADS TO DO STUNTS AT HALF

Girls in green, girls in black, girls and more girls will completely fill the floor of Butler stadium in Amarillo Thanksgiving when the Harvesters clash with the Sandies.

The two pep squads and bands from Pampa and Amarillo will combine to give one gigantic performance at the half.

Thursday afternoon Miss U. Angell, Amarillo pep squad sponsor, and Jean Florey and Dorothy Morgan, pep leaders, made a special trip to Pampa to complete final arrangements for the stunt. They met with Winston Savage, band director, and Miss Angela Strnad and Mrs. E. L. Norman, pep squad sponsors.

Amarillo's pep squad consists of 125 girls. Their band has 75 members. The girls in Pampa's cheering organization is 200 and the band consists of 45 musicians.

The pep squad and band have arranged to leave at 8 o'clock Thursday morning in order to practice the stunts.

BUY AN ANNUAL.

Are you a proud possessor of a little card with a "Have You" on it? If you buy an annual you know you will enjoy it all through life for it will be a pleasant reminder of all your activities during high school days.

Not very many schools the size of Pampa have attempted a year book and the staff is glad to sell you a $3 book for $2. That, my friend, is a bargain.

Sale of the annual determines its quality. When you buy a book you naturally want to keep it and if it is not of the best it won't be able to stand the "rough spots" which it will have to endure in the course of its existence.

The back will be made of leather, and the rest of the book is made of lasting material. Therefore, you are getting something special for your money.

Won't you please buy an annual now?

LYCEUM TICKETS ARE SOLD

Tickets were sold in the home rooms by the home room teachers for the Lyceum program this morning. The admission was 10c. Those who did not attend the performance went to study hall in 309.

PAMPA-AMARILLO TEAMS ARE TO RENEW FEUD TURKEY DAY

Harvesters Primed For Another Victory

By DOYLE ENLOE, Harvester Halfback

The gridiron feud of Pampa and Amarillo will be renewed on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock and then settled by 5 o'clock. Of course, as usual, the Sandies are favored to win but just remember that Northwestern was the underdog when they played Minnesota. What happened? Northwestern defeated Minnesota 6-0 in the biggest upset of the year, so far.

But look out, Sandies! Pampa, it is true, has the smallest team in history. With two straight wins to their credit, however, the boys are primed for another victory. The Harvesters have several cripples and won't be at full strength, but they aren't offering that as an excuse.

J. W. Graham will probably be ready to start, but if he isn't Albert Ayers will be ready to go.

Woodie Woodriddle will call signals if his knee injury is recovered sufficiently. When Woodriddle left the game Friday the Harvester offense died. So it seems that he is the spark-plug of the Harvester offense.

Roy Showers will be slinging that pigskin all over Butler field Thanksgiving. On the receiving end will be the two half-backs, Doyle Enloe and J. W. Graham, and the ends, Glen Maxey and Norman Cox. Norman will be ready providing his finger will allow him to handle the "pill." If he isn't in the starting lineup Topy Reynolds will get the call.

The Sandies will turn on the steam in an effort to swamp the little Harvesters but is believed by the coaches that the thin green Harvester line can hold them. Sherman Morgan, J. P. Matthews, Lewis Jones and Roy Lee Jones will be in there battling against it, seems, hopeless odds.

Fans, it will be worth the trip to Amarillo to see J. W. Graham and "Wild Horse" Mays compete in carrying the "mail." Mays weighs about 170 pounds, and J. W. weighs 137 pounds, but size isn't everything. Then there's Robert Clesson and Roy Showers. They can both plow through the line, run the ends, pass, and kick. You will see an all-state fullback up against an "underdog" fullback.

The Harvesters aren't at all overconfident. They think they can beat Amarillo and it isn't at all impossible. So watch out for the Harvesters!

Tuesday Is Last Day Seniors Have To Make Photos

Seniors are urged to have their pictures taken now for the annual. According to Mrs. Hol Wagner, only 63 students have made appointments. The other 90 must complete sittings by next Tuesday, if students wish to have the pictures made free of charge.

The photographer requests that only one or two come at a time, because it will be easier to get a better picture. If a group of students come at once, he also asks that they refrain from making remarks to the sitters, as it is impossible to get a good proof while carrying on conversation.

Writers To Meet Tomorrow Night

The Creative Writers' club will meet at the home of Ruth Sullins, 603 N. West street, tomorrow evening at 7:30.

Members are to bring some contribution they have written to be read and criticized by the club. Because their regular meeting would have been on Thanksgiving, the date was changed to Wednesday.

Thanksgiving Dinner

...and then the peaceful feeling that comes from good digestion and smoking Camels!

OFF TO A GOOD START—with hot, spiced tomato soup—delicious in itself and an exciting prelude to the delights to come!

THE MAIN EVENT—the time-honored turkey of our forefathers—done to a crisp and golden brown—flanked by a mountain of ruby cranberry jelly. And you enjoy it even more when you smoke Camels. For Camels speed up the flow of digestive fluids. Increase alkalinity. Help digestion run smoothly.

DOUBLE PAUSE—First for the crisp refreshment of Waldorf Salad—then for the sheer pleasure of Camel's costlier tobaccos. This double pause clears the palate—sets the stage for dessert.

SO TO A HAPPY ENDING—over coffee and after-dinner Camels. Enjoy Camels—every mealtime—between courses and after eating—and you can feel on top of the world.

WHAT WILL YOU HAVE? Reading in a circle, there's a piping-hot Plum Pudding...luscious Pumpkin Pie...Mince Pie à la mode...and layer cake with inch-deep icing. Thanksgiving dinner just wouldn't be complete without one of the traditional desserts shown here to add their characteristic touch of holiday cheer.

FOOD EDITOR—Miss Dorothy Malone says: "I'm interested in good digestion. Camels build up a sense of digestive well-being."

"THE BEST MEAL I ever ate would be a disappointment if I couldn't enjoy Camels," says William H. Ferguson, salesman.

Good food and good tobacco go together naturally!

CAMELS set you right! They help to ease tension. And to increase the flow of digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids—so important to your digestive well-being. You enjoy food more and have a feeling of greater ease after eating when you smoke Camels between courses and after meals.

Enjoy Camels all you wish—all through the day. Camels don't get on the nerves. And when you're tired, get a "lift" with a Camel.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS... Turkish and Domestic... than any other popular brand.
