121 Known Dead In Ship Fire; 84 Are Missing

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 19 (P)—The known dead pulled from the flame-swept S. S. Noronic stood at 121 today as divers probed below the charred cruise ship in search of 84 passengers still reported missing.

Red Cross officials expressed the belief that many of those unaccounted for after the panic-spreading blaze Saturday had gone to their homes without reporting their survival. Canadian authorities had feared the death toll might reach 205.

Hope that first death estimate might have been high rose when divers reported yesterday they had not found the "50 or 60" bodies firemen said they believed were trapped in the burned-out cabins. The ship settled to the bottom of her dock slip after the early morning blaze.

Three charred forms were taken out of the submerged cabins last night, bringing the known dead in an emergency morgue to 121.

Dr. W. S. Stanbury, national commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross, expressed his personal belief that 90 per cent of the 84 passengers still unaccounted for would be found "safe at home in the United States." Most of the ship's 311 passengers were Americans.

Long lines of grief-stricken relatives sought, meanwhile, to make identifications among the blackened corpses laid out in an improvised morgue, formerly used as an exhibition building.

By early today only 36 bodies had been identified.

Russia Willing To Resume Talks On Treaty With Austria

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (P)—The State Department announced today Soviet Russia has agreed to resume four-power negotiations on a treaty with Austria.

The negotiations, interrupted at London on Sept. 1, will be renewed Thursday in New York.

The State Department said that Andrei Gromyko, acting Soviet foreign minister, consented to the new talks at a conference yesterday in Moscow with the American, French and British ambassadors.

Bradley May Be Key Figure In Atlantic Defense Setup

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (P)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the American joint chiefs of staff, appears certain to become the key figure in the Atlantic Pact military organization.

The military organization consisting of a series of defense planning committees, is to be created here Oct. 5. It is expected to come up with a set of unified defense plans for the whole western European-North American Atlantic Ocean area in about six months.

Speed in laying out at least the general plans of a unified strategy is considered essential now by the State and Defense Departments. One reason is Congress may make full-scale American arms aid to Europe at least partly dependent on the existence of such plans. That is one of the major new points in the bill now before the Senate.

While the American member of the 12-nation military organization has yet to be designated by the President, defense and diplomatic officials said there seemed to be no doubt that he would be Bradley.

ESCAPE WITHOUT CLOTHING—Two passengers flee the burning Noronic down aerial ladders as the ship burns at its pier in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. These unidentified men escaped without clothing. The death toll was put at 121, with 84 missing. The ship carried approximately 500 passengers and 173 crew members. (AP Wirephoto)

VICTIM IN HOSPITAL

Five Held In Rape Of Young Girl Here

A 17-year-old Oklahoma girl, who claimed she had been repeatedly criminally assaulted by a group of boys here Saturday night, was recovering in a local hospital today.

She told authorities the acts took place in and around Big Spring while she was being held a virtual prisoner in an automobile.

In custody were five teen-age youths, including Tom Norman, 17; Foster King, 18, specifically charged with rape. Charges against the others, ranging in age from 17 to 19 years, will not be made. County Attorney Elton Gilliland stated, until he has a chance to talk to the victim.

The girl, who met the boys at Third and Main streets Saturday night, said she pleaded with the boys to leave her alone after they had driven her out of town but was restrained from leaving. She added one of the group twisted her neck, hurting it, before the series of rapes took place.

Doctors stated the victim was suffering from shock but was not in serious condition. King, denied bond, has been arrested twice on similar accusations within the past several months. He would not comment while he was being questioned. The other youths made written statements, however.

King resides some two miles north of Sand Springs. He joined the other four Saturday night after asking to be taken home. The girl appeared on the scene shortly thereafter.

King was arrested at his home over the protests of his mother Sunday afternoon. The other four had been taken into custody about 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning. One of the quartet has been in the state reform school on three different occasions.

Fort Worth Man's Car Is Stolen Here

E. H. Bairdridge, 1034 Orange Fort Worth, Sunday reported the theft of an automobile here last Thursday. The car, a Buick coupe, was taken from the 200 block of Gregg street, police said.

Officers also reported a tire and wheel, hydraulic jack, and lug wrench stolen from a car parked in the 300 block of Main street last night.

Coal Miners Of U. S. Walk Out On Their Own

'No Pension No Work' Is Cry Of Enraged Diggers

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19 (P)—Coal mines shut down across the nation today as John L. Lewis' diggers struck again on their own—this time, crying "no pension, no work."

Production of anthracite (hard coal) and bituminous (soft coal) is being choked off by anger of the United Mine Workers over President Lewis' suspension of pension and welfare fund payments.

Most of the UMW's 480,000 members in 20 states are expected to be idle by nightfall.

Lewis said the welfare pay stop is due to the fund running low on cash. But it's all part of the UMW fight for a new contract. He's deadlocked with operators after prolonged talks.

Walkouts started last midnight and gained headway over the coal fields today as comm-to-work whistles blew in vain. UMW leaders insisted the union's rank and file is acting on its own initiative, that Lewis has issued no strike call. He never does.

West Virginia, biggest soft coal producing state reported its 120,000 miners joining the stoppage. Pennsylvania, No. 2 on the producing parade, saw miners refusing to show up at pits across the state.

Only a few of eastern Pennsylvania's 80,000 hard coal miners showed up for work. They sat around and talked for a while and then went home. The great majority never reached the mines. Many industry leaders had expected the hard coal mines to continue working since the operators have continued royalty payments. The anthracite pension fund is administered separately from the bituminous fund.

The United States Steel Corp. said all its coal mining operations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky were closed with 9,000 men idle. The steel corporation's mines have a daily production of 90,000 tons.

Colorado City Woman Dies Of Wreck Injuries

Mrs. Mary Dora Lawson, 57, Colorado City, died in a hospital here this morning of injuries resulting from a highway mishap.

State Highway Patrolman Jack Taylor said that Mrs. Lawson's car, a 1949 model, overturned several times approximately a mile east of Coahoma about 9:15 p. m. Sunday during a rain storm. Taylor said the machine had just passed another car, also pointed toward Big Spring, when it went out of control and started rolling.

The car was demolished; its driver was alone. Mrs. Lawson was rushed in a Nalley ambulance to a hospital, but she died at 2:30 a. m. today. The body was at Nalley chapel. Arrangements are pending but burial is due to be in Shilo cemetery near Midlothian beside the grave of her husband, J. L. Lawson, and a son.

Mrs. Lawson had been operating a cafe at Colorado City for several years. Survivors include two sons, William G. Lawson, Andrews, Willie D. Lawson, Houston, one daughter, Mrs. Thelma Jewel Martin, Andrews. She leaves three brothers, Elmer Randall, Big Spring, Thomas Randall and Frank Randall, Dallas, one sister, Mrs. Hattie Long, Dallas; five grandchildren.

China War Headed For United Nations

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (P)—The Chinese war today appeared headed for the United Nations in the near future.

The Chinese delegation to the UN maintained silence on reports from Canton that the Nationalist Government is considering putting its struggle against Communism up to the UN, either the General Assembly which meets tomorrow or the Security Council.

But key UN delegates arriving for the assembly speculated privately that it is only a question of time before the Chinese war will bob up in the UN.

If the Canton government does lodge charges these sources speculated, they may involve Russia. This would receive the quick and personal attention of Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, fiery Soviet diplomat leading the Russian delegation again.

The United States delegation also kept silence on the Chinese situation. But UN circles pointed directly to a speech yesterday by Ambassador Philip C. Jessup as an indication of the U. S. course if a case is made by China. Jessup spoke at a meeting of the American Assn. for the United Nations slating the annual observance of the founding of the UN.

Steel Firms Given Murray Ultimatum

POUND DEVALUATION HITS BRITAIN HARD

LONDON, Sept. 19 (P)—A 30.5 per cent cut in the dollar value of the pound sterling hit the British public today like a blow in the face. There was financial turmoil held world over.

The labor government, in a desperate gamble to save the nation from threatened bankruptcy, hunger and misery, slashed the worth of the pound last night from $4.03 to $2.80.

Banks were closed. The London Stock Exchange and those in France, Holland, Greece, South Africa and many other countries were shut down. Foreign exchange trading was forbidden in much of Europe and the sterling area in London, hurried brokers traded stocks and bonds on the side-walk.

Business was at a virtual standstill in this great city which once was the financial and economic heart of the world.

Eleven nations of Europe and Asia quickly cheapened their money to match the British move. Cabinets in other world capitals held emergency sessions to decide what to do.

It was the biggest financial turmoil the world has seen since Britain went off the gold standard on another September Sunday night almost 13 years ago to the day.

Devaluation of the pound was intended to solve Britain's grave financial crisis by selling more and cheaper goods to America.

To Americans, devaluation of the pound can mean cheaper Scotch whisky, English tweeds, Staffordshire China and scores of other British-made products.

Economic Boss Sir Stafford Cripps said last night in a nation-wide radio address, they are banking on a big boost in dollar earnings—enough for Britain to become self-supporting by the time the European recovery program ends in 1952.

"That is the only permanent solution for our difficulties—earn more dollars," Cripps declared.

He warned that if Britain's gold reserves continue to drain away as fast as they have in recent months, Britons will suffer "lower standards (of living) and widespread unemployment."

Within a few hours after Britain's announcement, similar cuts in the value of their currency were announced by Australia, South Africa, India, New Zealand, Ireland, Israel, Norway, Denmark, Burma, Malaya and Egypt.

Strike Certain Unless Pension Dispute Settled

Union Head Says Board Proposals Must Be Accepted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (P)—Philip Murray declared today that "the only hope of averting a strike" of 1 million CIO-steelworkers is through settlement of their pensions dispute at government-arranged conciliation sessions.

Murray, president of the CIO, made his statement to Cyrus S. Ching, conciliation director, and 70 steel industry representatives summoned to peace talks by Ching.

Murray said the only chance of sidestepping a strike scheduled for next Sunday "is to conclude a settlement here and now on the basis of the board's recommendations."

He referred to the recommendations of a presidential fact-finding board. The board recommended no fourth round wage increase but proposed a "package" of company-financed pensions and social insurance to cost up to 10 cents per hour per worker.

Murray said: "We are ready and we will proceed now to negotiate with any and all companies and to conclude a prompt settlement on the basis of the board's recommendations."

"It is in the national interest that all parties do so if the strike in the steel industry is to be averted."

The union has declared it is willing to accept the board's recommendations. The industry's attitude is that it is willing to negotiate over the board's proposals. But some major companies have taken a stand that any pension system ought to call for contributions from the workers as well as from the industry.

McGrath Denies He Wants To Be Veep

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 19 (P)—Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath was boomed for vice president yesterday but he promptly disclaimed any such ambition.

Gov. John O. Pastore told a gathering of 1,500 Rhode Island Democrats that McGrath is his candidate to be the next vice president of the United States.

McGrath had addressed the group earlier so had no chance to comment at the gathering but later he told a newsmen: "To allay the fears of the genial 'Veep' (Vice President Barkley), let me assure him I am not a challenger."

Deathless Days In Big Spring Traffic 639

Both factors—more exports to America and less imports from America—should help England balance her dollar accounts, which are lopsided in America's favor and are cutting into Britain's reserve of dollars and gold at a fearful rate.

He predicted the chief issue will be an amendment by Sen. George (D-Ga.) to cut the arms aid for western Europe from $1 billion down to $300 million. Then he said he was sure the Senate will turn down this proposal.

As committee chairman, Connally engineered Senate approval of the foreign economic recovery program and the North Atlantic Pact—leading the floor fight on both of them.

He thinks four days of debate will be enough on the arms bill and he will fight any amendments that are offered.

One group of senators led by Sparkman of Alabama wants 10 to 25 per cent of the European money to be used in building up a North Atlantic police force. This force would be the forerunner of an international police force operating under the United Nations.

"We can't take off all by ourselves on these things," Connally told a reporter. "Whatever is done must be done in co-operation with the 11 other nations in the North Atlantic Pact."

Connally Will Spearhead Fight For Arms Bill

By DON WHITEHEAD AP Staff

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (P)—The administration turned once again today to white-haired Tom Connally of Texas to lead a Senate fight on foreign policy—this time the $1,314,010,000 foreign arms program.

The veteran chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was the lead-off man in the debate. He said he was confident of victory.

"We'll win this one by a very substantial majority," Connally said.

He predicted the chief issue will be an amendment by Sen. George (D-Ga.) to cut the arms aid for western Europe from $1 billion down to $300 million. Then he said he was sure the Senate will turn down this proposal.

Vishinsky Says UN Is Workable

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (P)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky arrived today with optimistic words about the United Nations—but with a big if.

He told reporters: "The Soviet delegation is fully confident that the United Nations is, as the head of the Soviet government bluntly said, a serious instrument for the maintenance of peace and international security."

President Truman's nomination of Judge Sherman Minton of Indiana to succeed the late Associate Justice Wiley Rutledge on the Supreme Court bench crossed up the dopesters somewhat. Judge Minton had not figured prominently in the pre-nomination speculation.

GOP Conference Theme To Be Wants Of American Farmer

WASHINGTON — THE REPUBLICAN farm conference at Sioux City Sept. 23-24 will be an ardent wooing of the farmer but necessarily somewhat prudent.

The unpopular Aiken bill for sliding 60-90 per cent price supports is still on the books, and it is hoped that no spoilsport will recall the famous Taft-Stassen campaign remarks about parity being too high.

Constant Control Given By Units

Chrysler Airtemp heating and air conditioning units, installed in conjunction by Williams Sheet Metal Works, provide year-round temperature control for any type of building, business or residential.

The Airtemp units, properly installed, make possible the desired room conditions when outside temperatures are below zero or above 100 degrees. Williams workmen can install the units in any type of construction, new or old.

Heating equipment is thermostatically controlled, maintaining room temperatures at any desired level. Air conditioners control temperature, humidity, and circulation.

Both units are tied in to the same sheet metal ducts when installed by the Williams concern. Outlets for hot or cold air are damper controlled. Individual room may be heated or cooled to different temperatures.

In addition to the installation of heating and air conditioning equipment, Williams Sheet Metal Works will do any type of sheet metal construction, repair, or replacement.

Water tanks, gutters, ventilators, and containers of all kinds are built to order in the shops at 201 Benton. Any type of custom sheet metal work can be handled in Williams' well equipped plant.

Free estimates will be made on any type of construction or repair. No job is too large or too small for Williams Sheet Metal Works.

Replacements On Water Heaters Can Yield Dividends

Last summer Brooks Appliance, 112 W. 2nd, was invited to replace an old 75-gallon water heater. This was done with an improved 45-gallon unit. Not only did the unit provide adequate hot water (something the other unit had not done), but it showed savings which will pay for itself in three years.

Brooks stocks the famous Ruud Model "monel" is a metal to which no sediment can cling. Serve (with its copper tank) and Rex (with a copper alloy tank).

Smith Butane Co. Adds Delivery Trucks To Fleet

The S. M. Smith Butane Co., located on the Lamesa highway in Big Spring is making plans to provide prompt service for its Butane gas consumers during the winter months.

The local firm has recently purchased three new delivery trucks for the purpose of improving its service.

Persons who plan to install Butane systems for use this winter are being advised to make arrangements now. The S. M. Smith Butane Co. can furnish all of the necessary supplies and take care of installation projects.

The S. M. Smith Butane Co. also stocks appliances for its consumers. Among other preparations for winter they are advising consumers to check their space heaters and arrange for any replacements in advance of cold weather. The Butane distributor has virtually all sizes of Thompson, Humphrey and Dearborn heaters in a wide range of prices. Special automatic controls, similar to those that operate regular floor furnaces, are available for space heaters.

Other appliances include A. O. Smith water heaters in all sizes, in either Permaglas or Duraclad types. Gibson refrigerators and deep freeze units. The deep freezers are available in either upright or cabinet types.

The S. M. Smith Butane Co. is distributor here for Tappan ranges, both for Butane and natural gas.

PRECISION FEED MAKING—Quality home grown grains are used extensively in manufacture of especially compounded feeds by the Tucker & McKinley Grain company here. All products are turned to rigid specifications registered with the state under the trade name of Tucker's Best. Although in production only about a year, the volume of demand for these products is mounting steadily. The company takes pride in putting out sweet or dry mix feeds, utilizing automatic equipment above, that not only support market for local grains but makes satisfied customers as well.

Winter Foretaste Calls For Heating

Big Springers got a preview of winter last week.

It was a downright uncomfortable situation for some, but not for those who had good heating installations. A flip of the dial made homes and offices comfortable.

The unseasonable snap did serve to show what the picture may be like three months hence. Brooks Appliance store, 112 W. 2nd, is anticipating the need with a large supply of heating equipment.

Included are Payne and Coleman floor furnaces, all thermostatically controlled. Also available are two-way wall and one or two-way panel furnaces. For miscellaneous use, Brooks Appliance has a rigid assortment of space heaters of every need. Among the makes are Humphrey radiant fire, Brilliant fire, Radaire and Thompson, all radiant type units putting out a maximum of heat on a minimum of gas. Adaptations on all equipment make them convertible to butane.

The floor furnaces come in with BTU thousands ratings of 25, 33, 45, 50, 65 and 75. This means that units may be selected for a particular area and job.

That is exactly the way L. M. Brooks, who has been installing floor furnaces since 1936, does business. Brooks makes an inspection of the design and construction of and other factors. Years of experience in blueprinting and precise computing of heat loss have provided a know-how on the proper size and location of unit or units. In short, Brooks installations are engineered for particular needs.

The cost is reasonable for a permanent improvement. Only 10 per cent is required down, and the balance can be handled as a FHA payment with as much as 36 month to retire. Economy helps pay for them, and comfort makes them worth twice as much.

Insurance For Contents Urged

Persons who subscribe for fire insurance for their homes are getting only partial protection unless they cover their belongings within the house, as well.

So says Roy Reeder, owner and manager of the Reeder Insurance and Loan company, with main offices at 304 Scurry street in Big Spring.

Reeder points out that furniture and personal belongings of the individual are often as valuable as the structure itself. His concern writes policies for all the old, established stock companies, including Gulf, Republic and others.

The danger of fire increases during the winter months, when more fuel is burned, says Reeder.

Furniture within a residence should be inventoried regularly. Blankets for such inventories will be furnished by the Reeder establishment upon request.

The Reeder company also writes automobile insurance policies, also with other types of protection. "Bodily injury and property damage" automobile insurance is among the most popular type of such coverage handled by the establishment. Medical payments for self and other injury results from a wreck, are met under terms of the policies proffered by the Reeder concern.

Such damages can often run more than the loss of the vehicle itself, records show.

The Reeder concern is also in a position to proffer loans on new and used automobiles.

UNDERWRITER—A counselor on insurance matters, with years of experience, is Roy B. Reeder, head of the Reeder Agency, 304 Scurry. With winter only a few months removed, Reeder reminded residents that the ratio of fires rises substantially during this season. He warned also against only partial coverage through neglect of household furnishings.

Ed Noreiga 'Hurls B' Spring To Third Win Over Colts

Gomez Clouts Round Tripper

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 19.—The Big Spring Broncs are now one game away from clinching a spot in the finals of the Shaughnessy playoffs for the Longhorn baseball league championship.

They reached that enviable position by belting the San Angelo Colts for the third straight time here Sunday afternoon, winning a 6-2 decision behind the effective elbowing of Eddie Noreiga.

Noreiga scattered eight Angelo hits and pitched shutout ball until the ninth inning when the home club put together a walk a triple and a single to get their two tallies.

The Broncs made merry with Durwood Cox's pitching, getting 11 hits, including a two-run homer by Felix Gomez in the seventh inning.

Gomez also pulled Noreiga out of a tough spot in the sixth when he turned his back on a drive hit by Don Schneegold, caught it with a one-handed stab and wheeled to double Sam Harshaney off second base. The hit would probably have registered two runs.

Carlos Pascual eased Noreiga out of another hole in the seventh when he glommed a blue darter off the bat of Red Conley and forced Tom Tiernan at second base.

Three hits, a walk and a brace of Angelo errors gave the Hosas four tallies in the third fra. Pascual, Pat Stacey and Ray Vasquez drove in the markers.

Jorge Lopez paced the Big Spring offensive with three one-basers. Every man in the Broncs lineup with the exception of Bert Banz and Noreiga hit safely at least once.

Louis Gonzales will probably hurl for Big Spring in what could be the clincher tonight. For San Angelo, it will be either Lefty Shelton or Julio Moreno.

The contest gets underway at 8 p. m. Tonight's crowd, which exceeded Sunday's, which amounted to around 2,500.

Howard Payne and Texas A&M blast open Texas Conference play this week in the feature game of a sparse, three tilt schedule.

It will be the first game of the season for A&M, starting its first year as a member of the conference.

Howard Payne has won one and lost one winning over Louisiana Tech, 25-19, last week.

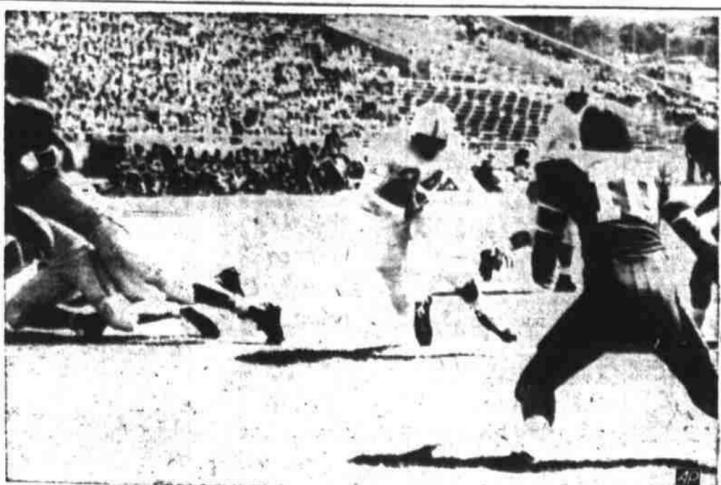

McMurry, which lost a wild 26-7 decision to Tulsa last week, tackled West Texas State Saturday night while Southwestern, which battled Southwest Texas State to a scoreless draw, meets Sam Houston State.

Abilene Christian easily dominated Oklahoma Tech, 34-7, and takes a week off.

Austin College lost its first game under new Coach Ray Morrison, 0-30, to Southwestern Louisiana Institute and is also idle this week.

Alton Green of Abilene Christian grabbed early scoring leadership with three touchdowns. Brad Rowland of McMurry and Gene McCannless of Howard Payne have each scored two.

Leading scorers:

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Most of the Big Spring high school footballers seem to think the Cisco Lobos, who fell before the Herd last weekend by a 20-6 count, are a better aggregation than the team which beat the Steers two weekends ago, Plainview.

Needless to relate, the Bovines would like to get another crack at the Plainview club, and on a dry field.

The Steers' downfield blocking was a bit weak against Cisco. It's going to take work and lots of it to get the boys to hitting when the club is on the move. However, they're showing improvement, confidently expect to swallow Brownfield here this weekend.

All the papers had Floyd Martin scoring the first Big Spring touchdown. In reality, Martin was blocking when Amos Jones faded back and spotted Aubrey Armistead in the end zone and let fly with a strike.

The 1948 Steers won just two ball games. The 1949 edition of the club expects to tie that record this week and beat it as early as Sept. 30, at which time they play Lamesa here.

Oddly enough, the others, like Hardy, are tailbacks. They are Robert Adair, Breckenridge; Dewey Mack Baker, Winters; and Carl Wright, Jr., Spur.

The Texas Interscholastic league is threatening to look into the All-Star football games featuring high school griders every year.

The Interscholastic Leaguer, official voice of the league, asks, of school administrators:

"Can you justify such activities from the educational viewpoint?"

The league, of course, sanctions the annual game staged by the Texas High School Football Coaches' association and, no doubt, would not in approval at the Six-Man classic, which has been staged at Foran the past two years.

League officials question the motives of promoters of similar games, however.

Quotes from athletic personalities:
SAM HARSHANEY, manager of the San Angelo baseball Colts: "Some of the fans may wonder why I didn't call for a sacrifice and squeeze play when we had runners on first and second in the seventh inning of the first game between Big Spring and San Angelo. The truth of the matter is, Hal Jackson, who was next up, is a lousy bunter and stood a chance of popping out. So I let him hit away. Following Jackson was Ted Squillante, who hasn't been able to lay the ball down."
"By the way, tell all the Big Spring fans we enjoyed playing here. We've got a lot of friends up this way."

PAT STACEY, Big Spring Broncs' manager: "Why didn't I lay the ball down when Ace Mendez had a chance to score from third base in that first game with San Angelo? Well, you change your mind several times from the time you climb out of the dugout and when you get to the box. I finally decided to take a chance on a good pitch. The first one that came in fast, I hit it, right to Red Cowley at short stop. Had I fouled off or missed it, I'd have bunted the next one after signaling Mendez to be on the move."
"We won the game, however, because Carlos missed a signal in the 11th inning. He was supposed to sacrifice me to second but dug in and drove me to third with a hit into right."
BERT BAEZ, Broncs' first sacker: "Bert Garcia pitched a great game but he wasn't as fast as he usually is. The long layoff hurt but he got stronger in the late innings."
JOHNNY DIBRELL, HCJC football coach, whose team lost to Odessa Junior college Saturday night: "They (Odessa) just had a bit too much speed for us. We've still got a long way to go but the boys looked good. Dewey Stevenson showed up well. Sam Thurman looked good until he got hurt. Arless Davis looked very good at times. Give us time, and we'll be alright."

Three Mermen Swim Channel

DOVER, England, Sept. 19 (AP)—Two Egyptians and a Greek made swimming history yesterday, conquering the English Channel within the same 24 hours.

The feat never had been accomplished twice in a day before—let alone three times.

A fourth swimmer, 58-year-old Dr. Basil Brewster of Britain, failed yesterday on his 13th try.

The successful trio was Greek Army Major Zassou A. Ziganos, 40, and Egyptians Hassan Abdel Rehman, 41, an army lieutenant, and Sgt. Marie Hassan Hamad, 30.

Ziganos and Hamad made the swim from France to England. Rehman crossed the channel both ways. He swam from France to England last year.

Top Clubs Have Rugged Games On Saturday

By WILL GRIMSLEY AP Staff

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The college football season, just born, grows up in a hurry this week with four of the country's five top-ranked teams facing snafus.

The South and Southwest particularly cut loose just as if it were the middle of November.

Michigan runs against a Michigan State rival that finished strong last year.

Notre Dame plays Indiana and North Carolina engages North Carolina State.

California is the only member of the upper bracket ticketed for a mild afternoon, the Rose Bowlers tackling St. Mary's of California.

The Golden Bears won their opener Saturday from Santa Clara, 21-7, while St. Mary's was bowing to Oregon, 24-7.

Oklahoma has a neat job cut out for it in Boston College at Boston Friday.

The south gets right down to the business of separating the men from the boys.

Tulane, regarded by many Dixie observers as the class of the South-eastern Conference, plays Alabama. Vanderbilt meets formidable Georgia Tech. Kentucky opposes Louisiana State and Tennessee takes on Mississippi State.

The Southern Conference, meanwhile, elects to test its muscles against the Southwest, with league champion Clemson invading Rice.

Wake Forest clashes with Southern Methodist and South Carolina meets Baylor.

The Pacific Coast offers an inter-sectional jewel in the meeting of the year's big upsets—Navy and Southern California—at Los Angeles. Navy tied Army, 21-21, and Southern Cal tied Notre Dame, 14-14, in late season shockers.

Junior Colleges Play For Keeps

B. The Associated Press

The boys start playing for keeps in the Southwest Junior College Conference this week.

Two games counting in the championship race are scheduled Thursday night.

Lamar of Beaumont, a title favorite, plays Schriener at Kerrville. Last week Lamar stripped Wharton of the title by winning the Texas Junior College Conference, 33-15.

While Schriener was losing to Wharton of the South Texas Junior College Conference 21-13.

Everybody Gets In Act In SW Loop This Week

By WILBUR MARTIN AP STAFF

Everybody gets into the act this week in Southwest Conference football and for four of the seven teams its opening night.

Texas and Texas Christian rate raves for a first performance, but the critics had a unanimous opinion of Texas A&M. It flopped.

Blair Cherry's Longhorns of Texas valloped Texas Tech, 43-0, but meet a tougher foe in Temple this week at Philadelphia.

Texas Christian came through with a 28-0 victory over Kansas and the size of the score was the only surprise. The Frogs play Oklahoma A&M at Fort Worth this week.

Texas A&M hoped to end its long string of defeats, ended in taking one of the worst in the school's history, a 35-0 affair at the hands of Villanova. The Aggies meet Texas Tech Saturday at San Antonio.

Southern Methodist, Rice, Baylor and Arkansas open play Saturday and some of the opposition is pretty tough.

Defending Champion Southern Methodist meets Wake Forest at Dallas and the word from North Carolina is the Deacons are determined and extremely capable.

Baylor a real darkhorse in the Southwest circuit, entertains South Carolina at Waco. Rice is host to Clemson at Houston and Arkansas meets North Texas State at Little Rock.

Only "breather" on this schedule.

All of the games with the exception of Texas Tech are at night.

Texas flashed speed and what looks like a fine passing attack in smothering Texas Tech. But the victory didn't answer one important question:

Will Paul Campbell or Bobby Coy Lee call the signals in conference competition?

Both played about the same amount, and both looked good.

Texas' crop of sophomores, including Byron Townsend of Odessa, showed lots of promise.

Lindy Berry, as usual, sparked the Texas Christian attack, but he may get a little help this year.

John Morton, big junior college transfer, played a fine game at fullback.

Kansas was bewildered by Dutch Meyer's triple wing and his single and double wing "fuzz" left the Jayhawks just as blank.

Villanova beat Texas A&M period. Aggie mistakes, especially fumbles, aided no end.

BAUER THIS TIME

Stengel's Subs Respond Brilliantly In Victory

By RALPH RODEN AP STAFF

The outstanding feature of the New York Yankee pennant drive, aside from Joe Page's sterling relief exploits, is the uncanny way that Manager Casey Stengel's substitutes have come through for the injured front-liners.

Although plagued with over 60 injuries, the Yanks have paced the American League since opening day. Many times the outlook was bleak but the Yanks huffed and puffed their way to calmer seas.

The Yankee man of the hour is Hank Bauer, speedy strong-armed outfielder.

Joe DiMaggio, who missed the first 65 games of the season, reported at game time yesterday with a high fever. The Clipper, only regular hitting over 300, was scratched from the lineup and Bauer installed.

Bauer brought a hot bat into action and powered the Yanks to a 7-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians. The triumph preserved the Yanks' two and one-half game lead over the Boston Red Sox, who mauled the Chicago White Sox, 11-5.

Bauer, in sick bay the past two weeks with a torn muscle, drove home three runs. He doubled Charley Keller home in the third to snap a 3-2 tie and then clinched the game with a two-run triple in the seventh.

Vic Raschi started for the Yanks and was the victim of one of the wildest first innings in the memory of Yankee Stadium patrons.

With one out, Lou Houdrenau singled and scored on a double by Mickey Vernon. Vernon galloped to third on a wild pitch and scored when Raschi committed a balk.

Larry Doby walked and stole second. Yogi Berra's throw sailed into center field and the umpire allowed Doby to go in third, rolling the second sacker Gerry Cooney had obstructed Doby by sitting on him.

Doby promptly stole home on Raschi's first pitch to Bob Kennedy for Cleveland's third and last run of the game.

Ralph Buxton, Hugh Casey and Page followed 19-game winner Raschi. Casey gained credit for his first American League triumph but Page, Casey's 1947 World Series foe, was needed to save the game.

The Red Sox met no resistance from Chicago. The Boston wrecking crew, led by Ted Williams rammed nine runs across the plate in the first two innings.

Williams blasted two homers, his 39th and 40th of the season, and drove home six runs to boost his pace-setting runs batted in total to 153.

Vern Stephens chipped in with his 39th four-bagger. The heavy hitting allowed Ellis Kinder to coast to his 11th straight victory.

Solid hitting also sparked the National League's front-running St. Louis Cardinals to a 15-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. Home runs by Ron Northey, Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter featured an 18-hit onslaught.

The massacre of the Phils protected the Cards' two and one half game edge over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Dodgers, tamed by the Chicago Cubs, 7-1, but it was a squeaker until the eighth when the Dodgers tallied four runs.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants divided a doubleheader. The Giants taking the opener, 13-4, and the Pirates the nightcap, 7-2. Ralph Kiner of the Pirates failed to hit in either game.

ROTARY, KIWANIS TANGLE TONIGHT

The Rotarians and the Kiwanis have at it in their second annual baseball game at Steer park around 8 o'clock tonight, with all proceeds from the imbroglio going into the Fund for Underprivileged Children.

The Kiwanis are gunning for revenge. Last year's tussle was halted before the nine innings were played. The Rotary out in front. The Kiwis howled to high heaven, however, that they were saving the best for the last and would have copped the duke.

Out of that verbal fireworks, a written contract was inspired, wherein it was stated that tonight's debate would go the regulation distance, barring rain. One side or the other might eventually want to call it on account of daylight, but it will be played to the finish.

W. D. Berry is manager of the Kiwanis while Ira Thurman captains the Rotarians. Dr. E. O. Ellington, last year's performer in last year's game, will be among those in action.

The masterminds of the competing teams are keeping their line-ups secret. As far as is known, they're not importing Bobby Feller or Teddy Williams to fill in, however.

Admission prices have been pegged at 50 cents a copy.

Tulsa continues at Oklahoma City and Fort Worth at Shreveport tonight.

Tulsa used five pitchers in holding Oklahoma City to six hits, Frank Smith getting credit for the win.

Robbie and Russ Burns bailed in all of the Oilers' runs.

Jack Kraus won his own ball game with a three-run homer in the last of the ninth inning. He was the third Shreveport hurler used against the Cats.

More Centennial Wooden Nickels To Be Released

The second issue of wooden nickels will be released by the Centennial association Wednesday. Paul Haagen, promotional director for the October celebration, said Saturday.

Five thousand of the nickels valued at $250, will be distributed to retail stores, Haagen said. They will be different in color and design from the initial issue of wooden money.

Practically all the first $900 of the wood tokens have disappeared as souvenirs, Haagen said. Orders have been received from a number of out-of-town coin collectors for sets of the money.

Information On Reservist Point System Issued

Announcements affecting the point system of reservists have been issued by the Texas military district.

Organized reservists, who were in the active reserves during the one-year period ending June 28, 1949, will receive 50 points for reserve duty training regardless of number of points earned.

This is a result of H. T. Law 5925, signed into law recently by President Truman.

The new law changes the "year" for computation of the 50 retirement points required for a year of satisfactory service so as to coincide with the fiscal year, July 1 through June 30. The same period will be used as the year in which prescribed minimum training requirements must be met in order to remain in the active reserve.

All reserve members who earned more than 50 retirement points for training during the one-year period ending last June 28 will lose all points in excess of the 50 under the new law. Such losses will be slight since the maximum number allowed for inactive duty training is 60.

New Treatment For Diabetes Is Announced

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 19 (AP)—Daily shots of insulin are no longer necessary for nearly all people with diabetes.

This good news for diabetes sufferers was announced last night in a report released by the American Chemical Society and signed by Dr. Michal Somogyi, biochemist of the Jewish Hospital of St. Louis.

Dr. Somogyi said 90 per cent of adults can live normal healthy lives with a new treatment based on diet.

The society opens its 118th national meeting here today.

The one per cent of diabetics who still need insulin may require only a small amount daily, he said.

Describing the freedom from insulin program found during a 14-year study of 4,000 diabetics, Dr. Somogyi said the main basis is a diet that keeps body weight at the ideal level for a person's age and build.

The diet allows enough starches, sugars and proteins, but cuts down on fats.

Diet alone can solve the problem if the disease hasn't progressed too far, he said. If it has, small injections of insulin still may be needed for awhile.

Almost all diabetic children still must be treated with insulin, Dr. Somogyi added, but now most will require less than 20 units daily.

During the St. Louis program, he said, scores of patients who have been getting 100 to 150 units of insulin every day have been treated until most were able to get along with only a small amount daily.

Fifth Body Found In Lake Worth

FORT WORTH, Sept. 19 (AP)—The body of the fifth airman killed in a B-36 bomber crash has been located in wreckage at the bottom of Lake Worth.

Five airmen were killed and eight injured Thursday night when the bomber shot off the runway at 100 miles an hour caused the crash.

The body of Master Sgt. John G. Stanko, relief flight engineer was found early yesterday. It was floating near the shore.

Later yesterday, the body of Capt. Harold Kernode, relief pilot, was recovered from the wreckage.

Diver M. R. Best said he had found another body in the wreckage. This would be Lt. Herman B. Styles Jr., radarman-navigator-bombardier.

Technical Sgt. William G. Seymour of Fort Worth died in the base hospital shortly after the crash. The body of Maj. Joseph H. Lemming, Jr., Dayton, O., was recovered Friday.

1949 County Fair Preparations Are Taking Shape Fast

Preparations for the 1949 Howard County Fair are taking shape rapidly, a report session of the executive committee showed Monday morning.

Most of the exhibits are in sight, although the institutional space can still stand a few more entries. These exhibits, which are of an educational and non-commercial nature, are provided space as a public service by the fair. Organizations and institutions desiring such space should contact Mary Cantrell (phone 732) as soon as possible.

Gate charge for the fair this year will be 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children (and students), the executive committee voted.

Exhibits of all classes are to be in place by the evening of Oct. 3, the evening of the fair opening, and final arrangements must be made by 10 a. m. on Oct. 6, when judging begins. Exhibits remain in place until 10 p. m. on Oct. 8, the closing day of the fair.

Problems dealing with concessions, firm banners, admissions will be directed by M. C. Grigsby (C. R. Anthony Co.), Commercial exhibits are in charge of Ray Griffin (Griffin Nash); buildings and grounds under J. W. Pursler; agriculture and livestock under Durward Lewter, county agent.

General arrangements are in charge of Harvey P. Wooten (Wooten Produce), superintendent for the 1949 fair.

Trial Of Hanks May Be Delayed

AUSTIN, Sept. 19 (AP)—Hearing of a motion for continuance in the trial of Raymond N. Hanks, was set for 9 a. m. tomorrow in 126th District Court today.

Hanks, former chief of the state comptroller's field office at Corpus Christi, is charged on four counts with "making false statements in a claim for refund of motor fuel tax, a felony; and forgery, a felony."

Trial was scheduled to begin today but when the case was called Hanks' attorneys presented a doctor's statement certifying that Hanks is confined at a Corpus Christi hospital.

A continuance was asked until Hanks was able to appear in court. Judge Jack Roberts said he would hear arguments for the continuance at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

Defense Atty. Paul Holt said Hanks had suffered a re-injury to his back while changing a tire on his way back to Corpus Christi last week after he appeared in court for a setting of his trial. Holt said Hanks had suffered an initial back injury several years ago and that had left his back weak.

Hanks was arrested here last spring after an investigation by the comptroller's office here into signatures on a series of gasoline tax refund claims filed by the Corpus Christi office in the name of a Corpus Christi resident. Four indictments were later returned by the Travis County grand jury against Hanks. He has been under $1,000 bond on each count.

Friends Of Library Will Meet Tuesday

Austin May Be Top Prep Club In Hi Circles

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Sp5 editor

The Texas schoolboy football race rolls through its third week with only one-third of the original field boasting undefeated, untied records.

Just 36 schools remain without blemishes, eight of them in the City Conference and 28 in Class AA.

There will be further trimming this week, probably to well under 30.

Austin's Maroons loom largest on the horizon today. They showed conclusively they are the top-runners of Class AA last week by beating defending champion Waco 21-7. It was the first loss Waco had suffered since 1947.

Amarillo's Golden Sardies started the campaign like a whirlwind, smashing Denton 56-13, and Wichita Falls indicated it would be a power to be reckoned with through a 32-6 victory over highly-regarded Demson.

The twin terrors of the West—Breckenridge and Abilene—dealt stinging blows to the City Conference. Breck kicked Paschal (Fort Worth) 27-0 and Abilene whipped Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) 27-12. But Class AA took a blow itself when Texarkana, which had been mentioned prominently as a contender for the state title, went down 6-0 before Lamar of Houston. Lamar is not even regarded as the top team in its City Conference district.

Fort Arthur beat the strong Fortier team of New Orleans to remain among the top-considered teams.

Baytown was another team that flashed to the fore. The Ganders massacred Comroe 4-6.

Conference play starts this week in one district of the City Conference. It is District 4 where Alamo Heights (San Antonio) plays Lamar (San Antonio) in a game counting in the title standings.

Feature games of this week, however, will be Abilene at Amarillo and Breckenridge at Wichita Falls.

Undefeated, untied teams meet in five instances.

Crosier Tech (Dallas plays Lamar (Houston) in an intra-city conference struggle. Milby (Houston) tackles Fort Arthur and Jeff Davis (Houston) plays Freepoint in inter-division scraps in which the teams boast perfect records.

Unbeaten, untied Class AA teams playing each other are Pampa and El Paso High and Waxahachie and Corpus Christi.

Teams with perfect records that date are:

City Conference—Crosier Tech and Sunset of Dallas. Poly of Fort Worth and Milby, Jeff Davis, John Reagan, Lamar and San Jacinto of Houston.

Class AA—Amarillo, Pampa, Wichita Falls, Lamesa, Lubbock, El Paso, Ysleta, Paris, Sherman, Grand Prairie, Highland Park, Dallas, Henderson, Marshall, Fort Amur, Freepoint, Galena Park, Galveston, Baytown, Corsicana, Hillaboro, Waxahachie, Austin, Corpus Christi, Kerrville, Brownsville, Edinburg, Harlingen, San Benito.

Tickets for the big labor-industry barbecue, a climaxing feature of the Centennial Week on Oct. 8, are now on sale.

The tickets may be obtained from members of the various labor organizations, or from the industrial committee. Tickets are only $1.25.

Plans call for the affair to be held at 5 p. m. in the City Park. There will be a program in which leaders of both labor and industry will share. Committeemen urged early purchases as a means of aiding in preparing for the affair.

Hornbostel Story Has Happy Ending

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Hans Hornbostel and the husband who stayed with her while she was treated for leprosy were headed today for New York and a new life.

Three years ago Mrs. Hornbostel, a 35-year-old grandmother, went to Carville, La. to the U. S. Marine Hospital, the national leprosyarium. Her 66-year-old husband, Maj. Hornbostel, bought a cottage on the hospital grounds to be with her. He said his wife has shown remarkable improvement.

Mrs. Hornbostel probably contracted the disease during three years imprisonment by the Japs.

Many Injured As Train Jumps Track

NEWTON, N. C., Sept. 19 (AP)—Six cars and the locomotive of a Southern Railway passenger train jumped the track and spilled down an embankment here today injuring about 50 persons, some seriously.

Railroad sources said two Negro cooks were trapped in their dining car and probably were dead. An emergency call for steel cutting equipment was sent out by police in efforts to rescue the trapped and others possibly trapped in the mass of wreckage.

Newton is a town of 6,000 about 40 miles northwest of Charlotte.

Screaming ambulances raced the injured to the Catawba General Hospital where Dr. Frank Jones said "about 50" patients had been admitted.

Angelo Visitors

Going to San Angelo Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Eason, Sam Eason, Charlene Kay, Mr. G. C. Graves and Mrs. Hubert E. Lee. Wyatt Eason and his father Sam Eason attended the Big Spring San Angelo ball game and Mrs. Lee visited her brother Mark Chumley, who is ill in a San Angelo hospital.

The ladies attended the opening of the new center in San Angelo. Exhibits were shown of the late Helen King Kendall and of Otha Dozier of Dallas. Mrs. Shaw of Midland gave a review of the life of Helen King Kendall, who died in 1947. The group attended the tea that followed the exhibit.

Career Husbands Get Blame For Divorces

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Staff writer
NEW YORK, Sept. 19 — Sometimes when a marriage breaks up, someone ought to blame the man — career man, to be exact, says movie star Barbara Hale.

What is a career man? Barbara defines him as the husband who you know... Or the man who carries his grindstone home and doesn't have time to talk to his wife... Children annoy him... His clothes are dropped where he takes them off... Week ends are spent entertaining visiting listmen... He treats his home like a way station. He doesn't even bother to keep his figure trim. But he's the first to criticize his wife when she gains a pound.

They were Johnny Berry, Eddie Murphy, John Johnson, Louis Stipp, Billy Bob Watson, Pat McKinney, Martha Ann Johnson, W. C. Marie McDonald, 1004 11th Place had as her week end guest, Mrs. Cleo Haynes of Lubbock.

Barbara, who has been married to Bill Williams, Hollywood actor, for three years, claims it is easy to make marriage work when there is companionship. She says "Billy and I are real friends. He is the first friend I ever had. Like all married couples are friends we have spots. But we try to understand each other and make a game of it."

Understanding is particularly needed when the wife works. Barbara adds. Men often become sensitive about it, and when possible the wife should perform as many household duties as she can.

That's one reason why Barbara does her own housework in their seven-room home, cooks and takes care of their 3-year-old, Jody.

"You don't have to do all the chores. I send out the washing and I'm not the best cook in the world, but I try. You'll find if you try, that's all an understanding man asks. Pretty soon, he'll recognize it's a 50-50 venture and when he gets home before you, he'll chop, prepare the dinner and get a kick out of surprising you."

Barbara suggests if you're married to a potential career man, you get him interested in hobbies you both can share, or that will at least keep him interested in the home.

Barbara, who has just finished work in Columbia's "Jolson Sings Again," says surprises help a lot. There's a sample of one way she and her husband have kept two careers going.

One night Barbara was partly tired after a heavy day's work at the studio. She called Bill to warn him of her mood, saying "Please don't say anything to me when I get home tonight. I've had a terrible day."

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

It seems that some people think that success can be as trying as failure. At least that's the opinion taken by Charles Jackson, author of "The Lost Weekend." Jackson told a fiction writers' conference that "the worst thing that ever happened to me was the success of 'The Lost Weekend.'"

He went on to say that "The writer knows his own worth, and to be over-evaluated can confuse and destroy him as an artist. What happens is that the writer becomes a celebrity rather than a continuing artist."

The trouble with the literary market, Jackson said, is that the writer must make each new novel bigger, popular and financial success than his last.

The writer must not be forced to "top his last book," Jackson said. He must be let alone simply to write his next book.

"Success is much harder to take than failure."

We're of the opinion that Jackson's words not only apply to writing but to any other field. All people have periods of apparent success and failure. Most of us can do an outstanding piece of work once in awhile, but there is probably no one in existence who does all the good all the time. We're too inclined to expect other people to constantly stay at their best. That's not a very fair practice. It puts them in an impossible position. People will always take advantage of real slumps, and use them as an excuse for plain laziness, but this does not give us any reason to expect the best all the time. We're not giving it ourselves.
