

WILCOX 13 IN FOR 2500 BARRELS CITY HOSPITAL HAS BECOME PRACTICAL NECESSITY

RAILROAD CROSSING AT GILLISPIE AVENUE TO BE CLOSED PROVIDING ORDINANCE MEETS WITH APPROVAL

A proposition was presented to the city council here Monday night whereby Pampa may have a hospital in the near future. Doctors A. Cole and W. Purviance propose to open a hospital of not less than twenty-eight rooms here, providing the city and county will pay for the care of keeping the city and county patients. A sum of five dollars a day is asked for the care of such patients.

Hospital fees, medical attention and operations will all be covered by five dollars a day, providing the city and county and county officials will make other investigations as to the ability of the patient or relatives to pay the sum. The council is investigating the proposition and will make a report in the near future.

F. J. Mackie, district superintendent of the Santa Fe Railway Co., met with the council and discussed the probability of closing Gillispie Ave. The council voted to close the street, providing the ordinance drawn up to do so meets with the approval of the council.

The Santa Fe Co. intends to extend the brick platform far enough so that the passenger trains may not stop so as to block Cuyler St. They also intend to build a new freight depot here if the growth of the town and business will permit.

Andy Crocker, superintendent of the water department, met with the council and explained the need of a truck for transporting equipment. He says that he has furnished his own car for the past three years and has only received $50 towards its upkeep. He also said that his workmen were resenting their present salary of $100 per month, inasmuch as they cannot live on that income in Pampa.

Councilmen McCullough and Bradford were appointed to investigate purchasing a truck and raising the salaries of the workmen in the water department.

The council voted to raise the present deposit of $3 required on meter boxes to $5. The fee of $3 was shown to be less than the actual cost of installing the meters in most cases. An ordinance will have to be drawn up and approved before the deposit fee can be raised.

A representative of the state fire department was here Monday and made a survey of the city. He reported that the present fire-fighting equipment and the water supply was inadequate to maintain the present key rate.

A list of the fines collected during the month of September showed that $475.20 was collected. Of this amount the city received $12. A committee was appointed some time ago to investigate the possibility of putting all officers on a straight salary, and probably allowing the city a larger per cent of the money collected from fines.

A petition was presented by some of the property owners on Foster Avenue between the 5th and second streets on Foster, to have this block included in the present paving program. The council voted to extend the paving program to include this block if there is enough money after bills are received to do so, or in event there is not sufficient funds left, warrants are to be issued as soon as possible so as to include the block.

A. N. Doucette, city engineer, was ordered to prepare bills to be advertised on the present paving program which includes nine and one-half blocks. Work will begin on the paving as soon as a bid is accepted and necessary preparations are made.

Someone has reported that one of the councilmen was seen entering the city hall Monday night with his trunk in a sack. It is presumed that he expected another meeting to last until the wee small hours.

Shamrock Wins From Pampa 14 to 0 Friday

The Pampa high school team was defeated by the Shamrock team last Friday 14 to 0. Shamrock scored 14 points in the first quarter, the remainder of the game being a 0 to 0 battle.

Pampa substituted its ends at the end of the first quarter and closed the only gap that the Shamrock boys could find. Pampa had the ball on Shamrock's three-yard line in the first quarter but fumbled. They were penalized three times and returned to Shamrock's twenty-yard line.

Pampa's ends proved to be weak and Shamrock succeeded in making the winning points in the early part of the game.

The Panhandle high school team will play here Friday. Coach Dickey and his assistant, Oscar Dial, expect to have the Pampa team in fighting trim for the home game.

GRAND JURY POINTS OUT THE SALE OF EXCESSIVE QUANTITY OF "JAKE"; SIXTEEN INDICTMENTS RETURNED

The grand jury returned sixteen indictments in the September term of the district court of this county. They reported that considerable quantities of pear extracts were being sold and used for beverage purposes.

The following is the report of the grand jury to Judge W. R. Ewing: "To the Honorable W. R. Ewing, judge of the 31st judicial district.

We, your grand jury for the September Term 1926 of the district court of Gray County, Texas, having finished our labors, herewith submit this our final report:

We have diligently investigated all alleged violations of the law which have been brought to our attention, having returned indictments in all cases wherein the evidence in our opinion warranted such action. Sixteen indictments have been returned, all of which are felony cases.

We find that considerable quantities of so-called "Jake" Pear Extracts and other concoctions that produce intoxication are being sold and used for beverage purposes. We have called the attention of various merchants who deal in these concoctions to the quantity that is being sold, and have asked their cooperation in holding these sales down to a minimum.

We want to heartily commend our officers for the efficient manner in which they are performing their duties in trying to keep our county free from crime.

We find that the county property is in good condition, excepting the jail building and the roof of the court house building.

We have investigated the removal of the jail cells from the court house yard at LeFors, to Pampa, and we find that the cells were removed by majority agreement of the county commissioners and leased to the city of Pampa, for a period of five years. The jail house was badly damaged by the removal of said cells and we recommend that the commissioners court insist upon the reconstruction of said jail house by the parties responsible for the damage.

We also recommend that the Sunday closing law be observed in Gray County, Texas, and ask our officers to see that this law is enforced.

We desire to thank the court and officers for courtesies shown us, and respectfully ask to be discharged.

C. S. BARRETT,
"Foreman of the grand jury".

Members of the grand jury were: C. S. Barrett, foreman, W. R. Campbell, W. E. Ginn, Tom Clayton, Howard, C. P. Beckler, M. B. Davis, Ike Davis, G. Pinnell, Lee Fortenberry and C. Gills.

GULF McCONNEL WELL TAPS PAY AT 3140 FEET, BUT IS SHUT DOWN WHEN CERTAIN SHOWING IS MADE

The Wilcox Worley-Reynolds number 13 came in Monday night for a 2500 barrel well. Oil authorities here say that it promises to make one of the best of wells. It is located in the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of section 62, block 3, Gray county.

The Magnolia company's Mert number 4 was given a 210 quart shot Sunday and is making 500 barrels at present. This well is in the northeast corner of the southwest quarter of section 82, block 3, Gray county.

The Young and Osborn Holmes number 1 three miles south is swabbing 250 barrels a day.

The Gulf-McConnel well struck the pay at 3140 feet in the northwest quarter of section 175, block 3. Work has shut down pending further orders. More than 3000 feet of oil was standing in the hole Wednesday morning.

The Empire Gas and Fuel Co. is preparing to shoot its Worley number 1. The well has been showing with a fair amount of oil in the hole and should be blasted in for a good producer. This well is in section 63, block 3, of Gray county.

Empire's Burnett No. 1 is still making 50 barrels a day. It is expected to be drilled in this week. It is located in section 127, block 5, Carson county. The well is flowing. Storage tanks are now being erected near it.

The well owned by the Sunrise Oil Co. is being watched with great interest, for it extends the field 3 miles both east and south in the north river area. It was shot with 350 quarts of nitroglycerine Tuesday but bridged so that its results could not be determined.

The McGee and Blackwell Bowers No. 1 in section 92, block B-2, Gray county, is drilling at 625 feet.

The White Deer Oil Co. has pulled the twelve and one-half inch casing from its number 1 Garner. As soon as storage is completed the well will be drilled in. The well is showing a good amount of oil according to officials of the company. Sufficient storage is being prepared to take care of a good output as is expected to come in.

The Marland Pipeline Co. has completed plans for building one of the largest tank farms in the Panhandle field, according to officials of the company. Twenty eighty-thousand barrel storage tanks are said to be enroute to be erected immediately. At present this company is transporting through its lines about 31,500 barrels a day and has line capacity of 50,000 barrels. The storage will be built to enable the company more oil through the winter months than they can now take care of.

When the tanks are completed, it will permit the purchase and storage of several thousands of barrels of crude a day more than is now being taken from operators and companies. The farm will be located on the Burnett Ranch in the northwest quarter of section 28, block 5, Carson county.

The officials of the Republic Production Co., of Houston were inspecting their well in section 103, block 4, Carson County this week. The well is spraying from 30 to 100 barrels a day at 3055 feet. It is on the Jodah and Brown ranch.

C. C. Peppers of the Champlin Wellbore Co., of Enid, Okla., has purchased acreage in section 92, block 4 of Carson county. He expects to drill several wells on this land. His company contemplates running a pipe line either to White Deer or Kingsmill from the field.

The Delmar Oil Co., and the Texas Oil Co., are reported to have such made locations on the Lon Noel land near White Deer. The Herndon Co., has made a location in section 145, northwest quarter, block 3. A new derrick has just been completed on the Leopold land.

J. T. Parks is building the rig for his Bryan No. 1, and expects to be going down soon. He holds a fifty acre lease in the north half of the northwest quarter of section 92, block 4, Carson county. This land is but a short distance from Roxana's Bryan No. 1 which is a good producer.

In section 60, block B-2, Parks is down 2320 and has set eight and one-half inch casing. This rig is being standardized. This well is known as the Parks No. 1 Jackson. The roads have permitted the transportation of materials for the past few days, and unless more rain falls, work in the oil field is expected to progress without delay. New locations are being made both west and south of here, rigs are springing up, and rapid developments are expected to materialize here in the near future.

All former efforts of the preceding expositions will be overshadowed by the show this year in accordance with the plans of the committees. Applications for entries indicate that the Forum buildings extending a full city block will be inadequate to handle the exhibits. Premium lists for the exhibit this fall indicate that more than $36,000 will be offered as prizes for beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, sheep, horses and mules, dogs and cats.

Prizes aggregating $1,000.00 are offered the boys and girls clubs including a high school stock judging contest, baby beef contest, pig club and sheep club contest. The entries are open to boys and girls of Missouri, Nebraska, Colorado, Oklahoma, Texas New Mexico and Kansas.

A horse show open to the world with $10,000 cash prizes will form the chief entertainment during the evening of the six days of the exposition. The greatest program of its kind ever offered by the Kansas National will be presented this year.

Kansas National Offers Varied Entertainment

Measured in terms of consistent growth and achievement attained, the Kansas National Livestock Show in presenting the tenth anniversary program November 1-6, will offer one of the most diversified and educational expositions in its history.

In addition to the Night Horse Show, the feature entertainment of the six day presentation, the Sunflower Cat Club and the Wichita Kennel Club will hold their annual exhibitions. Entries in the Sunflower Cat Club division will be on exhibit November 1-3 under the rules of the American Cat Association of which the club is a member. Mrs. H. L. Ream of Wichita is manager of this division. The Wichita Kennel Club is a member of the American Kennel Club and as such will exhibit its entries November 4-6 under the rules of that organization.

Consistent with the policy which has developed the Kansas National from a small beginning to one of the most complete expositions of its kind, the management has provided added attractions for the patrons including stage productions, dancing, Pretty Baby contest, Red Hair Queen contest, Doll pageant, Tom-Boy Skirt revue, Amateur Saxophone contest, Fish and Game, and Manufacturers exhibits, Fraternal parade, Industrial parade, and old fashioned dances and fiddlers contests. Aided by groups of strolling musicians, bands and orchestras will entertain the merry makers. $1,000 in Prizes For Boys And Girls Clubs

The Kansas National Livestock Show which will open November 1-6 is again showing its belief in and appreciation of the 4-H Club work by increasing the prizes offered in this department to more than $1,000.00. Of this amount $405 is offered in the calf club division which includes Short horns, Herefords and Angus steers or heifers, purebreds, grades or cross-breds.

In the pig club section there is a total of $400 in prizes offered. Two hundred dollars is offered on Jersey gilts, Poland China gilts, junior fat barrows of any cross or breed, and the remainder is offered on ton litters. The ton litter show is expected to be especially good this year as there are some exceptionally good litters scattered over this section of the state. The prizes in this section include several trips to Manhattan and one to the American Royal at Kansas City.

In the Sheep Club section $85 is offered on Shropshire and Hampshire sheep. H. M. Coe, state club leader will have charge of all the club exhibits and will also superintend the 4-H Club Stock Judging Contest. A beautiful silver loving cup will be awarded the winning team and ribbons will be awarded the five highest ranking teams. Cash prizes will be awarded the four highest ranking individuals.

H. L. Hildwin will have charge of the High School Stock Judging Contest and he expresses an opinion that the entries this year will exceed those of any previous year. Any bona-fide 4-H Club member is eligible to compete in any section of the club department. According to Mr. Coe, the club exhibits this year will be the best the Kansas National has ever had in its history.

1st for 9 consecutive Years

For the ninth consecutive year Buick has won first choice of space at the National Automobile Shows.

This is Leadership! For this honor goes annually to the member of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce with the year's largest volume of business. For any other car to equal this would mean retaining continuous leadership until 1936—almost another decade.

The industrial history of America records no more brilliant achievement than these nine successive years of Buick dominance.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

Editor Pampa News:

Since writing my last letter we have had as visitors Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCullough, well known citizens of your town. They were congenial neighbors of ours for many years while we lived in Pampa and it was a great pleasure to have them visit us.

They left home the last day of August and made their first stop at Manaton, Colo., where they visited with relatives for a week and then journeyed to Denver where they had a delightful time taking in the many things of interest in that fine city, and at Golden, twelve miles away, where they spent a few days with relatives.

They halted a few days in Salt Lake City, whose many objects of interest have a peculiar charm for most visitors. They looked through the capitol buildings, visited the famous Mormon Temple, saw the grave of Brigham Young, and many other places that tourists are supposed to see.

They spent a week at San Francisco, stopping at the well known Astoria hotel. While there they visited the aquarium, the museum, the zoological gardens, the golden gate and many other places of interest. They went over to Berkeley and visited a day with Mrs. Proctor, widow of the late W. H. Proctor, who used to live at Pampa and is still remembered by a great many of your citizens.

They spent ten days in San Jose and were very much pleased with what they saw of our city and the people they met. They left here for Ocean Park, 25 miles from Los Angeles, where they intend spending the winter.

Mrs. Harry Tinsley, mother of Ray Tinsley of Pampa and of Alford Tinsley of Roswell, N. M., has recently returned home after an absence of two or three months. Her trip included visits with friends at Los Angeles, Glendale and Long Beach, a stop at Roswell where she visited her son Alford and family, and at Pampa where she spent two weeks with her son Ray and family. In Wichita she visited at the home of Chas. Teague, a former citizen of Pampa. Other places where she visited friends and relatives were Winfield, Mentor, Salina, Abilene, and Detroit, Kansas. She returned via Denver, Salt Lake City and San Francisco at which places she paused long enough to see many objects of interest.

Mrs. Tinsley owns a beautiful home here which she says she appreciates more than ever since her return.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Beydler who were known to many of your readers while they lived at Pampa, have built them a very beautiful home here in San Jose which they like the best of any place they have ever lived in. Mr. Beydler has a position with the P. E. & G. (Pacific Electric & Gas Co.) which he likes much better than the lumber business with which he has so long been identified.

The Presbyterian people are nearing the completion of a $60,000 church building about three blocks from where we live. The money is all paid in and when the building is finished it will be out of debt, so there will be no collections at the dedication.

Just across the great boulevard, known as The Alameda and in plain view from this new edifice stands a huge brick structure of four stories covering almost a block. It was built and used for several years as a brewery, but when prohibition came its owners quit the business and sold the plant. It is now used for storage by one of San Jose great packing companies.

This building was known as Fredericksburg and until recently its name was emblazoned in huge letters across its front. There was a similar building down town known as The Eagle, but it was erased not very long ago and a million dollar hotel, just opened, now occupies the site. When in their palmyest days, the output of these two breweries each exceeded the best oil well in the Pampa field. Gone is their glory, but a few old toppers still lament their passing.

I walked around the old brewery this morning, which stands across from the church. While looking at the massive structure, and meditating on the strange fluctuations of time I heard two men engaged in earnest conversation. I drew nearer and listened in on what was said. They were discussing prohibition, each from his own view point. One of the men was saying that there is more liquor drunk today than before prohibition was forced upon us. There is more far more drinking among the young people who are being corrupted and converted into law breakers who disregard all authority and have nothing but contempt for the rules and regulations of society.

When he had talked in this view for sometimes the other man broke in with a line of argument like this: There is no ground for any such a belief. It is a bold fallacy with no foundations in fact. It has not been your observation, nor mine. The Literary Digest poll recently taken, with which you are no doubt acquainted, utterly refutes this argument and proves it to be mere propaganda. I was on the police force in Seattle for 2 years before prohibition came in and for 2 years afterwards. Before prohibition, every night at 1 o'clock we would send out the patrol wagons to gather up the drunks who had been kicked out of the saloons at closing time, to keep them from freezing to death. And the wagons were almost always loaded. That was all changed after we had prohibition, and again you know we don't see the drunk men down town we used to see, nor in the railway trains when you travel. You know very well that you met a dozen or twenty drunk men then where you now meet one. Another thing, the saloon keepers were careful to hide their drunks for they wanted to maintain at least the semblance of decency while the bootlegger snuck away as soon as he has made a sale caring nothing for the fate of his victim.

There was much more said but the above is the gist of it all. Aimee is, at this time, in deep and serious trouble with no silver lining to the lowering clouds, but before this reaches the situation may have cleared up.

With rumors of prominent business men acting as butterflies and other dainty creatures in the coming Follies, we think we had better consult our dictionaries on the meaning of these terms.

HUMILITY

Flattery is a powerful lure that leads many people into a serious trouble. Comendation is a driving force that stimulates many persons on to bigger and finer service. Distinguishing between the two is a delicate task. Vanity weighed by common sense is the only process by which flattery can be justly discounted and made useful.

Vanity shows weakness of character. The man or woman who cannot see what the small part they play in the making of the great universe is narrow minded. Pride is essential. Arrogance is a curse. Humility is the common medium of common sense.

THINK OF THIS

We have all read of the horrible conditions that exist in some of the foreign countries when a deadly plague breaks out and people die from lack of proper care. We have heard weird stories of human beings dying like so many flies in a trap.

Now could Pampa fight a disease? Where could we send our people who might contract a contagious disease? If such a disease were to break out here now it would invariably spread to a large per cent of the homes here.

We need a hospital. In fact we have got to have a hospital. The law prohibits sending patients with contagious diseases from town to town, or from one county to another. We, the citizens of Pampa, must provide for their care in Pampa.

Two of our doctors have agreed to open a hospital here and care for the city and county, as well as the private cases. The charge that they ask is minimum, and the proposition that they offer is no doubt a good method to introduce the first hospital in Pampa.

Lets get behind this vital question and see that Pampa has a hospital. Why should any one die in Pampa without a fighting chance at least?

GAS DOPES WORTHLESS

For several years extravagant claims have been made by various concerns engaged in the manufacture and sale of "fuel dopes," which are said to greatly increase the power and mileage obtainable from a given quantity of gasoline.

Owners of automobiles and other motor vehicles have bought these widely advertised compounds in an effort to economize. Some may have believed that beneficial results were obtained, but in the majority of cases disappointment was experienced.

As a matter of fact, leading authorities on the subject declare that from a practical standpoint all such dopes are worthless. In response to many inquiries, the United States Bureau of Standards has recently issued an announcement on the subject, containing the statement that "none of the more than 100 tests made at the Bureau thus far has shown that the use of these dopes produced any appreciable improvement in power or fuel consumption."

But, in spite of this official pronouncement by the highest government authority, people will no doubt continue to dope their gasoline in the futile hope of reducing their fuel expense. It is safe to say that if, and when, a compound shall be made capable of producing the results sought, the large oil companies will immediately adopt it and treat their product at the refineries, before the gasoline is sold to the consumer.

Approximately two and a half million dollars are to be spent to improve the Santa Fe service into and through Amarillo. Twenty-two miles of double trackage will be constructed, according to railway officials.

Orville Wright recently declared that many people who have no reason to fly except the desire for a thrill are afflicted with a disease, according to a Canadian newspaper. Some call it by such names as "typhoid fever," "influenza", and "aerospelas." Mr. Wright suggests "sky-atica."

First 24 Hours of Life Baby's Hardest Time

By MARIE K. JOHNSON

Undernourishment is one of the most common of the causes of infant mortality, according to a survey recently undertaken in Chicago. Statistics show that of 4,522 babies under one year of age that died in 12 months, 888 died in the first 24 hours.

Marie K. Johnson

Eight hundred and seventy-six died in the first six days, exclusive of the first 24 hours, and 1,708 died from the seventh day to the sixth month. Eight hundred and sixty died in the last six months of the year. The survey indicated that a surprisingly large number of infants are artificially fed, which condition, doctors agree, had a marked bearing on their undernourished conditions. Naturally, no one food may prove satisfactory in every case, although the survey showed that evaporated milk in many cases had proved an excellent substitute for mother's milk. This may be explained by reason of the fact that evaporated milk is simply pure, concentrated cow's milk from which 60 per cent of the water has been removed. It contains practically every element necessary for good health and is consequently an excellent builder of bone and tissue.

Although authorities on health recommend evaporated milk as a baby food, like other substitutes for the natural supply, it should not be considered as a food complete in itself. Addition of orange or tomato juice, barley water or lime water is important in providing adequate diet for the infant.

For babies, milk of dependable purity is essential. Market milk will not

Eat Less and Live Longer, Says Lawyer

By W. W. O'BRIEN

(Noted Criminal Lawyer of Chicago.)

Business and professional men working under high nervous pressure do not live as long as men whose pursuits keep them out of doors and active. Examine the records of longevity and you will find that on the average the longest-lived men are soldiers, sailors and farmers, all avocations which tend to keep a man at his physical best.

Man, in general, rolls down the hill of life fastest when his figure is rotund. "Leanness and longevity" is a good axiom. Business men to remember. If office workers would eat a little less, they would add years to their lives.

Overfeeding is as dangerous to adults as underfeeding is to children. Foods difficult to digest, or which overstimulate, should be avoided by persons whose work does not require any particular amount of physical exercise. Yet thousands of business men eat as much as or more than men who do manual labor. And, inevitably, nature rebels and sickness results.

Many of the country's foremost executives eat but two meals a day, breakfast and dinner in the evening. They seek to keep the organs of the body from becoming clogged. Thousands of other business men confine themselves at noontime to custards, puddings, soups and other sustaining dishes made with milk, or evaporated milk, which is milk in its most sterile

SCHOOL DAYS

There are thirty cities of more than ten thousand population in Texas.

Correct this sentence: The easiest way to get to a woman's heart is to get her goat.

UNFAIR TO THE SOUTH

An unfortunate note of sectional discord was struck recently in a pamphlet circulated in New England, which warned that section of the efforts of the South to secure industries now operating in the East.

Strange to say, the pamphlet was issued by the Tennessee River Improvement Association, favoring the bid of the American Cyanamid Company for Muscle Shoals, in support of the claim that acceptance of that proposal by Congress would be of great benefit to New England.

At the same time it was pointed out that the acceptance of the bid of the Alabama Power Company and associates, which was approved by a joint committee of Congress, would result in a further loss of New England's industries to the South. Along with the pamphlet were copies of advertisements of several southern power companies which are endeavoring to secure new industries for the section which they serve, these being circulated to emphasize the warning contained in the pamphlet.

Urging support for the Cyanamid bid, the pamphlet gave several points to show how the New England states would benefit by its acceptance, from which the following are quoted:

"A larger production of raw cotton at lower cost. Better competitive conditions for New England's mills in the world market. Use of large Southern water powers for benefit and advantage of New England, instead of competing with her manufacturers."

That such arguments should be put forth by an organization which is supposed to be working for the benefit of the South is strange. Its object appears to be to insure that the South shall continue to raise enormous crops of cotton at a low price, instead of bringing mills to the South to manufacture cotton goods near the source of raw materials.

If that would be the real result of acceptance of the Cyanamid Company's bid, it might appeal to the people of New England, but it would hardly appeal to the farmers of the cotton belt, or to those who desire to see the industrial upbuilding of the South continue.

On the other hand, if it is true that acceptance of the bid of the Alabama Power Company and associates would mean the securing of many more industrial plants for the South, as the pamphlet suggests, that bid is more likely to be favored by the cotton states.

The effort to raise a sectional issue over Muscle Shoals is unfortunate, but inasmuch as Muscle Shoals is located in the South, the South should have its share of the benefits to be derived from the great project. It is unfair to expect the South to stand in the way of its own legitimate industrial development.

ANNOUNCEMENT--

We wish to call your attention gentle hunters and sportsmen to the fact that Saturday, October 16th is one of our largest Nationally declared holidays—otherwise known in private life as opening of "DUCK SEASON." Now as you understand we want it to be known that we carry a complete line of Guns and Ammunition with which to shoot these "Ducks," and would like for you to make this your headquarters before and after each hunt, also between hunts. We will do our utmost to give you our advise on how to approach these ducks and also how to counter attack and retrace in case they approach you. Just because our advise fell a little short on the Dempsey-Tunney fight and also the World Series, is not any reason why you should misjudge us on an important matter as this. Understand the holiday lasts until January 31, how long after that depends on you and the game warden.

Now folks don't forget the place. We also sell hunting license, but that's no concern of ours' as the State gets the money for them.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Men's Bible Class which was inaugurated last Sunday morning in the Crescent Theatre will be fully organized Sunday morning. All officers will be elected and such committees appointed as present needs require. As many men as can be recruited for Sunday morning will be enrolled as charter members.

At 9:45 the sacred organ concert begins on the Seeburg Celesta De Luxe organ recently installed in the theatre. In the selection of rolls for this wonderful instrument Mr. Gilliland did not overlook the roll of old church hymns which have been sung for generations. During the organ concert will be the fellowship hour when all of the men are urged to come and become better acquainted. The class will assemble promptly at 10:00 o'clock, and following the election of officers Mayor F. P. Reid will address the class relative to some tasks in the civic life of the city and community in which the class should be interested. The lesson will be taught by the minister on the open forum plan, which will enable a general discussion of the lesson on the part of all present. The class will be adjourned at 10:45 in order that the men will have ample time to attend the 11:00 o'clock service of the church of their choice.

In the Bible School annex of the church building the departments for all ages of the family begin their opening exercises at 10:00 o'clock. All families who are not members of some church or attend other Bible Schools are urged to come and enroll the entire family in the Bible School of this church.

The ministers of the city met in the study of Rev. J. B. Osborn last Monday afternoon to arrange for the Thanksgiving Day service and outline plans for the religious life of the community.

The Thanksgiving Day service will be held in the Christian Church auditorium and Rev. Tippen minister of the Baptist Church will preach the sermon. The service will begin at 10:30 o'clock. The ladies of the Methodist Church will serve dinner in the Methodist Church building at the close of the service.

Plans were also discussed relative to the taking of a religious census the first of November.

Teams from all three of the local churches will go together in the taking of the census. A meeting of these teams will be arranged within the next few days.

Plans are now under consideration for the conducting of a Simultaneous Pre-Easter Evangelistic Campaign with all of the ministers of the city in their respective pulpits for two weeks preceding Easter. A meeting of the ministers will be held again on Tuesday, November 5th, at which time definite decision will be made concerning the practicality of the campaign.

The evening service begins at 7:15, instead of 7:30, and beginning the first of November and continuing through the winter months at 7:00 o'clock. The subject Sunday evening will be "The Night Jesus Kept Thirty Thousand Angels in Heaven." The service last Sunday evening was largely attended and good interest. A new piano was recently purchased and Mrs. Lewis Meers is at the piano during the song service. Come and bring your friends and unite in the song service promptly at 7:15.

JAMES TODD, Jr., Minister.

You can make two small rooms that are adjacent to each other seem a little larger by using special designs between them instead of doors, or even instead of narrower cased openings. One room will seem to borrow size from the other.

Giraffe Can Fight

The giraffe is an inoffensive animal and generally seeks safety in immediate flight, although it is capable of making a stout resistance, and fights by kicking with its hind legs, discharging a storm of kicks with extraordinary rapidity.

World's Largest Windmill

The world's largest windmill is in Golden Gate park, San Francisco, and is employed in pumping water into large reservoirs for use all over the pleasure grounds of the park, which covers about 1,000 acres.

Special services were held at the high school auditorium last Friday, Saturday and Sunday under the auspices of the Presbyterian church. Services were conducted by the Rev. W. M. Baker, Presbyterian field man, assisted by the Rev. George W. Fender, synodical executive.

Cherry Fritters.

Make a batter of a cupful and a half of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a half teaspoonful of salt, one-half cupful of milk and an egg; beat until smooth, adding more milk if needed; lastly add a cupful of pitted cherries which have been covered with sugar for an hour, then drained from the syrup. Drop by spoonfuls into hot fat and fry a golden brown. Serve with the sauce made from the juice of the cherries.

GUARANTEED

It was the third time the hawk had descended the area steps, and Matilda, the kitchen maid, had half consented to buy a watch. "But," she said, "my young man says I ought to have a guarantee with it." Not a whit dismayed, he wrote out a guarantee to keep the watch in repair for one year. "Sign it," he commanded. She did so!—London Tit-Bits.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

PSYCHOLOGY

ONE of the most eminent American professors of psychology discussed with his class the other day the home-run record of Babe Ruth.

"His performance is not a question of athletic skill," said the professor, "but of the psychology of confidence." Napoleon said: "Tout soldat français porte dans sa gibecière le bâton de maréchal de France."—"Every French soldier carries in his knapsack the baton of a marshal of France."

Babe Ruth is a great ball player. He is a wonderful batter and a player who uses his brain all the time he is on the field.

But it is thinking more than psychology that is responsible for his wonderful record and the great amount of money that he is making out of his work.

If you could look inside of Ruth's head when he steps up to the plate you would very likely, if you could read his thoughts, see his mind analyzing all the conditions surrounding the pitcher and drawing conclusion as to what sort of a ball he will pitch.

No-doubt he says to himself: "I can hit this fellow, and he knows it." That is what the professor means by psychology of confidence.

But Ruth could stand at the plate all day and not make one hit in a hundred tries if he had not learned how to bat.

If you take all the great contests of history and pick out the ones won by psychology you could count them on the fingers of one hand.

Victories are won by effort, by intelligence, by persistence, by applied ability.

Try to win with anything less and your batting average will not be very high.

The Declaration of Independence says that all men are created equal. They were wise men who set down that great truth. To an astounding degree all men are equal.

The blind can hear and feel more keenly than those who have their sight. That evens things up.

The cripple is generally more brilliantly minded than the man with the whole body. That puts him on an equality.

Epictetus was a slave, beaten so cruelly as to be useless for labor, but his "Sayings" have lived for centuries. Do you think the psychology of confidence had anything to do with Epictetus?

Demosthenes could not talk plainly, but he became the greatest orator of all time. Psychology? Not much.

Dante was a dyspeptic. Aesop was a hunchback. Milton and Beethoven were both blind. Caesar was an epileptic. Mozart nearly starved and Schubert sold his songs for 20 cents apiece. But you and the rest of the world know the names and recognize the work of all these men.

Psychology? No, indeed. Hard work. Persistence. Sticking to a thing through adverse circumstance. That is what makes home runs.

A man who never heard of psychology, who does not even know the meaning of the word, can by everlasting keeping at it get to the top of any hill that faces him. And the view from the hill top amply pays him for all the struggle.

Many baseball fans gathered at the Radio News Stand during the world series each afternoon to receive the reports of the games by radio. A loud speaker was placed outside the building as well as inside so that the crowds that gathered could be accommodated.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

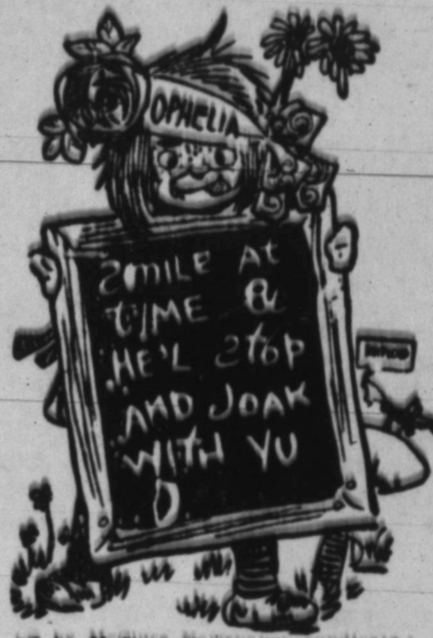

CALLING IT A "FUNERAL"

IN ALL modern languages there are certain words whose meaning is indicated by their sound. This principle, which is rhetorical parlance we call onomatopoeia, is exemplified in words like buzz, hiss, snap, boom; also in the words funeral, funereal, where sound so agrees with their sentiment that we naturally assume that their etymology is in accordance with the meaning they convey.

But we find the last have a curious derivation that takes a story to bring out its relation to their use today.

The Romans, pagans that they were, buried their dead at night—by the light of the moon when they could. But as there was moonlight for only a short period in the year, they used torches, which were the lighting system of the day. The Latin word for torch is funis, from which they had funerals, a torchlight procession. And not from "corpse" or "death" or "mourn" comes the word funeral, but from "torchlight procession."

RESEMBLANCES

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

At suddenly I sometimes come upon a face that seems like some I used to know—within the press of crowds, before I think, or guess, a face appears, and disappears, and for an instant, all the years are all forgotten: "There is Jim!" Or "There is Gertrude!" Then, from dim

Old days, old grief reminds me, "No; I'm sorry, but it is not so. Your friends are gone beyond recall—There are resemblances, is all."

But, you who look so much like Jim, do you, in truth, resemble him? And you who look so much like her—Why, even choose the self-same fur to wear, and like the self-same things—

When such a moment memory brings, I wonder if you walk the way With her glad laughter every day, And work so well, and play so well? Ah, yes, if truth the truth could tell, I wonder are you worthy of The faces that we used to love?

Yes, when the motley crowd passes on, And when your faces, too, are gone, I pray that you, who wear her look, Take up each task as once she took Her own, as sweetly, patiently. And you, in whom old Jim I see, I hope a bit like Jim you live, And smile, and toll, and give, and give. And sometimes, too, I stand apart And ask myself, ask my own heart, "Are you as kind, as clean, as true, As some one else that some one one knew?"

WHEN I WAS TWENTY-ONE

By JOSEPH RAYE

At Twenty-one: Rupert Hughes Took a Flyer into Comic Opera.

AT THE age of twenty-one I made a libretto for a comic opera which a canny manager refused to produce unless the composer and I raised $5,000. I telegraphed my father and he put up my share by wire. The opera lasted one night.

"Next I telegraphed him that I had a chance to buy into a very promising magazine for $500. I got in—and it cost him $2,000 to get me out when it died under my skillful editorship.

"Before this, I had expected for a time to be a lawyer, but decided finally that I must be a professor of English literature. Then I gave up the idea of teaching English and decided to butcher it. I left Yale, and in a flare of romance told my father that I wanted to marry a girl I had met a few months before. He telegraphed me $500 and his blessing; and he made us an allowance for years—Rupert Hughes."

TODAY: Rupert Hughes is a celebrated novelist and motion-picture producer. But this does not represent his early ambitions. When he took that flyer into comic opera he struck his stride for the time being. For many years after Hughes began his career, he was devoted to music. Himself a good pianist, he compiled an encyclopedia of music which is still in use and wrote many other works, even original musical compositions. He also edited a volume of piano-forte for music publishers.

It is a little known fact that Hughes' brother is a well-known vocal teacher in New York city, and his sister, before her death, achieved a notable success in Europe as a singer.

Bye-Bye, Playtime

Because of its fine and close-grained texture, its homogeneity and adhesive hardness, its lack of brittleness, its excellent wearing qualities and its absence of any tendency to chip easily, ivory is an excellent substance to engrave. Its smooth, even grain and the coherence of its particles lend a fine surface for the engraver's art, and the material lasts a long time.

Wins the Brown Derby

Our free verse prize for realism goes to the catch-as-catch-can bard who penned these immortal lines: "There once was a guy who saved his rocks, even as you and I; but they got him to open his old strong box and purchase some pretty wildcat stocks, and they trimmed this bimbo down to his sox, even as you and I."—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

English Alphabet Puzzles

It wasn't the big things—the realization of the nearness of death and suffering and the like—that bothered the first American aviators to go across; it was the little things. The young flyer whose war diary is published in Liberty, complained of the cut of his uniform or the cut of a commanding officer's job. The English worried him with their traffic keeping to the left. And their alphabet drove him to despair. About the latter, he wrote:

"What confuses us is this English alphabet. Instead of saying: A, Bee, Cee, Dee, they have a different way of designating the letters. They say: Ah, Beer, Cee, Don, E, F, G, Hatches, I, J, K, Ella, Emma, N, O, Pip, Q, R, Eases, Toe, U, Vic, W, X, Y, Zed. And as they call everything by initials, it's very confusing."

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WAIKER

DEFENSE AND OFFENSE

THEY took an old battleship out to sea and bombed her to the bottom from flying ships.

When it was all over a naval officer engaged on the test was asked what had been proved.

Being a cautious man he said that it had been shown that the ship could be sunk, for she had been sent to the bottom.

Perhaps the old problem of how nations are to defend themselves is no nearer solution than it ever was.

There is a general feeling all over the world just now that less should be spent on armaments than formerly.

That makes it all the more important to find out whether an attack is to be expected in the future on the sea, under the sea, or in the air.

GRASSHOPPER CIRCUS

THEY showed pictures of members of our family the other night," said Mr. Grasshopper. "Yes, there was a meeting of naturalists. Naturalists are creatures who study creatures such as us!"

"And, of course, they study other animals and insects and birds and so forth and so on."

"So on?" asked George Grasshopper.

"Just an expression, George, meaning that they study others along the very same lines."

"But grasshoppers haven't the same lines as lions," said George Grasshopper.

"Oh, I don't mean such lines," said Mr. Grasshopper. "I mean along the ing nature creatures and trying to be learned.

"They showed pictures of the naughty Praying Mantis. You know, or at least you have heard, how she looks as though she were praying to hide from people the fact that she is really a very naughty creature. She's a humbug, though her name is Praying Mantle."

"And they showed pictures of the compound eyes of the fly, and how the fly sees the same thing so many times over—at the same time, too."

"That may sound curious, but you know what I mean. A fly has so many eyes one would say, or at least can see so many times over with the eyes he has because of their being compound eyes. And then they showed pictures of us as I have told you."

"They were splendid pictures, I heard, and the people laughed with delight over the wonderful circus stunts we could do."

"Now, that makes me think I'd like to get up a circus now," said George Grasshopper.

"The same thought that just went through my grasshopper mind," said Mr. Grasshopper.

"Let us tell the other grasshoppers about it," said George.

So Mr. Grasshopper and George Grasshopper went about and told the other grasshoppers that they were going to give a circus.

And all the grasshoppers joined in the preparations.

Some formed a band, others decided they would do tricks on twigs—pulling themselves up and over the twigs and doing really nothing short of the trapeze stunts.

Then others began thinking of all the funny things they could say and do so they could take the parts of clowns.

Still others decided they would ride each other and have races and super-or exhibitions. And still others said they would have famous grasshopper hopping races.

They all practiced and practiced and Mr. Grasshopper was chosen as the ring master.

They invited the mothers and fathers in the grasshopper families to come, and they invited the very young grasshoppers, too.

And when they all arrived and then saw the circus—well, there was such applause and such excitement.

They, too, hopped about with excitement and cried:

"Bravo, grasshoppers, bravo!"

And Mr. Grasshopper and George Grasshopper were delighted at the success of the Grasshopper circus.

same branches of life—of the animal kingdom and so forth."

"Oh, well, I suppose I understand," said George Grasshopper. "Maybe if I hop a few times I will see it clearly. Sometimes when I am tired and I'm not feeling smart and bright, if I hop a few times it seems to brace me all up."

"Oh, hopping is as good as a tonic to a grasshopper any day," said Mr. Grasshopper.

"Well," he continued, "I was going to tell you about these pictures they showed before learned people of our ways."

"Are naturalists learned people?" asked George.

"Learned about nature," said Mr. Grasshopper. "Or, at least, if they're not so learned they're always study-

SIDELIGHTS

By Marcy B. Darnall
Comptroller General McCarl maintains his reputation for vigilance in guarding the public treasury. He approved a bill of a prohibition agent for $27.75 worth of liquors purchased, but turned down an item of $25 as expenses of a lady who accompanied the officer to a road house to secure evidence.

Cleanliness may be next to godliness, but it didn't keep two University of Pennsylvania students out of jail. They were arrested when found taking a bath in the home of Civic zeal has seldom been shown in a greater degree than was recently exhibited by the chamber of commerce of New Brunswick, N. J. That live organization of go-getters asked the governor to call off further investigation of the murder of Rev. Hall and his choir singer, on the ground that the notoriety resulting therefrom was hurting the town.

LETS BE PREPARED

One tree will make a million matches; one match will destroy a million trees—and one little fire at the back door of one of our stores can destroy Pampa.

No one could be surprised if a fire were to destroy our buildings if the present conditions continue. A survey of some of our alleys reveals an ignitable fuse of paper and trash, waiting for a tiny spark to come along and give the word to burn, the word to destroy, the word to gut the town.

Some of the merchants have taken great care to keep the trash away from the back door, others have apparently "let it pile" to the limit. If some few persist in letting the paper and trash accumulate at the back door, the efforts of the rest have been wasted.

A representative of the state fire department was in town this week and his report of the existing conditions was by no means favorable. He hinted strongly of raising the key rate here. He will raise it if the city as a whole does not act and act together. A few persons cannot keep the city rid of fire traps. It takes all the citizens to eliminate the collection of ignitable material and reduce the chance for fire to a minimum.

Lets clean up the town and keep it clean. Don't be guilty of burning your home town.

One can stand at almost any street corner in Pampa and hear the nearby tapping of a carpenter's hammer. Pampa is certainly growing.

Diversified farming has been found advantageous by a man in Dallas county, Texas, who this season de- creased his cotton acreage and planted a nice patch of sorghum. While cutting his sorghum the other day he discovered hidden in the field 560 bottles of real beer.

A five-room bungalow being built by C. P. Buckler in the Buckler addition will be completed within a week, according to Buckler. J. M. Dodson, vice-president of the Gray County State Bank, and family will occupy the bungalow as soon as it is completed.

THERE are no cut prices to health. The best is none too good. So, when you buy cheap plumbing fixtures, and think you are saving money, you are not. You are losing money. And, what's worse, you are making your home a breeder of disease.

The only kind of plumbing worth having is the best. Anything else is dead loss.

When you buy "Seconds," "Damaged," "Defective" plumbing goods, you buy trouble, sickness, death.

A crack is a home for disease germs. A leaky pipe leaks away health.

Buy only quality plumbing—quality fixtures, quality materials, quality workmanship—the kind that is guaranteed.

SANTA FE RY.

PAMPA

A GREAT NEW OIL TOWN

Eight miles straight north of White Deer in the heart of the marvelous New Roxana Field and on the connecting highway Borger and Pampa.

Fourteen rigs are already up around the famous Roxana discovery well located in Section 92, in Block 4—just 2 1-2 miles north of Skelly Townsite! To the East the Gulf McConnel well in Section 175, Block 3 is showing for a good well that will prove up the structure between the Gray and Hutchinson County pools and cause additional intensive development; and two other wells to the west—the Republic in Section 103 and the White Deer in Section 14, Block 4, have both just struck oil and are destined to make wonderful wells.

Skelly Townsite is right in the center of this marvelous new field and is also at the crossroads where Borger-Pampa traffic crosses the main highway between White Deer and the Roxana Field district. By actual count more than 600 vehicles pass this point every 24 hours—and the traffic is increasing by leaps and bounds!

This new town is located on the great Henry Schafer Ranch comprising 20 1-2 sections between the Roxana Well and the Pampa Field.

Skelly is being developed by Mr. Henry Schafer with the object of establishing one good town at a logical location, and then seeing that it has every opportunity to become a successful, thriving community. The town site includes portions of Sections 63 and 70; Block 4, I. & G. N. Survey.

Street grading is going forward rapidly; contracts have already been made for gas; and a water well rig is now under construction with water to be piped throughout the new town. Building sites are high and dry with natural drainage slope from the gravel streets.

Yet building site prices are most reasonable—$145 up for 50 foot residence lots and $295 up for 25 feet business lots. And a warranty deed that gives perpetual possession with every lot, only the mineral rights being reserved. Terms, too, are most reasonable—25 per cent down with balance in five equal monthly payments.

Business men and investors are urged to investigate early to assure an opportunity to secure desirable building sites—for Skelly is destined to be one of the best oil towns in the Panhandle within the next few weeks!

First Choice of Building Sites.

SATURDAY--SUNDAY Oct. 16-17

To go to Skelly from the main line of the Santa Fe, turn North for eight miles at White Deer. From Pampa take Borger road straight west for fifteen miles; and from Borger take the Pampa road east for eighteen miles. Skelly is the crossing point for these main highways.

THE OTHER SIDE

All of the boom so far in Pampa has been in business. Any city must develop the social side of life with the business side to develop as the normal cities throughout the world have.

Although the places for the "tired business men" are not expected to be found, there are numerous places for the people who are developing Pampa to rightly look for. Any lawful resort for the purpose of pleasure would no doubt meet the approval of the majority of the citizens, both old and new.

Some persons find recreation in dancing, some in golf, some in swimming, and others in what not, but the point is that every person looks toward some sort of recreation to end the day. It is the duty of the citizens of Pampa to provide some such place where the younger generation as well as the old can find it pleasant to pass the evening hours.

There is probably no great amount of contradiction when the writer says that much crime can be avoided if the persons concerned have a pleasant hour or two of recreation to look forward to. What would you do if you were in a strange city and had nothing to do? Would you not resort to most anything to while away the hours? Let's create some kind of social amusement that will care for the masses that rightly look forward to a pleasant evening after the working hours.

WHEN I WAS TWENTY-ONE
BY JOSEPH RAYE

AT 21—The Writer of "The End of a Perfect Day" Gave Up Music for Marriage.

"AT TWENTY-ONE I had been married three years and was experiencing a break in my music studies, which began when I was four.

"At that tender age I often slipped away to the piano in the front room of our house. I used to pick out the tunes I had heard, and what I couldn't remember I improvised. When I was nine I could play Liszt's Rhapsody correctly enough for it to be recognizable. But if I heard a piece once I knew it by heart. Later I had a music teacher for several years.

"But when, at twenty-five, I married again, my music received a stimulus. Dr. Frank Lewis Bond, my second husband, took a deep and sympathetic interest in my career and, under his encouragement and enthusiasm, I wrote the words and music of some little songs that were continually running through my mind.

"I took a few of these to a Chicago publisher who looked them over and said 'no,' but he added that he wanted some children's songs and asked me if I could do them.

"I could, and I would. By noon the next day I had composed the words and music for a little song which I called, 'Is My Dolly Dead?' The publisher accepted it, and in another ten days it was being sung by Teresa Vaughn in the comic opera called '1492.—Carrie Jacobs Bond.'

TODAY—Carrie Jacobs Bond, even if she does not write anything else will go down in musical history as the writer of "The End of a Perfect Day," a song which has sold five million copies, and is still selling. The only song which can compare with it in popularity, in its own field, is "Silver Threads Among the Gold." But there was many a bitter struggle before Mrs. Bond achieved her present fame. Her second husband died when she was thirty and left her to support herself and her boy. In the years that followed she did everything to make a living, even to renting out rooms to boarders. At last her songs began to be noticed, and then she established a publishing house with the help of her son, which issued all her songs. This business-like move doubled Mrs. Bond's profits, when her songs really became popular.

Girl Shot To Death In Berger Tuesday; Five Bullets Fired

Mildred Pootham, high school girl, was shot to death late Tuesday night at Berger. According to reports, she was out riding with her sister and a boy friend when their car was stopped by two gunmen. The young man and her sister were ordered from the car, and while one of the bandits held them at bay, the other fired several shots into the body of the girl.

A posse of Berger citizens was hastily organized after the shooting, but no trace of the slayers had been found Wednesday. One of the men took a watch from the young man, but nothing else was taken.

The dead girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pootham.

Tom Horne, president of the First National Bank of White Deer, was visiting in Pampa Monday. He is a former resident here.
