Watson and George Burgess, believed to be from Amarillo or Borger, were day and later identified as being the ones who robbed the First State bank of Truscott of approximately $2,700.

Practically all of the money taken from the bank was recovered.

GENERAL SUN IS VICTORIOUS

Chinese Nationalists

In Four Days

(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 28.—Shanghai dispatch to the exchange telegraph says the Chinese Nationalists admit suffering the heaviest reverse of the war at Suchowfium, northwestern Kiang Su province.

Attacked by General Sun and his Shantungese, the Nationalists evacuated the city after four days of fighting, in which they lost 30,000 men, mostly killed. They retreated 30 miles to Fengtu.

Steel For New Double Track Is Now to White Deer

Steel on the double line of track from Canyon to Pampa has been laid as far as White Deer and is rapidly nearing Pampa. It will take about two weeks to complete the grading to where the switches in Pampa are to be laid, but that will not delay the laying of the steel.

Crews are expected here next week to commence work on the switches, which should be completed sometime in August. The extra lines of switches will decrease congestion in the Pampa yards and will also do away with the blocking of the crossings for long intervals. The tracks will relieve wheat shipping problems.

Shipping of what has increased this week but is not as brisk as expected. The price has dropped to $1.17 a bushel and some farmers are holding the wheat until prices go up again. To this time, 120 cars loads of wheat have been shipped from Pampa.

INVITE MEN TO CLUB "SUITOR DAYS" ONLY

CHICAGO, June 28 (AP)—A country club to which men will be admitted as guests only twice a month has been given to women employees of the International Harvester company by Alexander Legge, president.

It is a memorial to Katherine Legge, late wife of the executive.
A spacious clubhouse in modern English style and 53 acres of rolling, partly wooded land constitute the project. Membership is open only to feminine workers of the harvester company. Its facilities include tennis courts, an outdoor swimming pool and a large ballroom.

Men are admitted to the club only on "suitor days".

The United States army is sending two of its aviators to Honolulu in a three-motored Fokker monoplane, but not as entrants in prize contests. May shows the proposed 2,360 mile route.

Moody Tells New Yorkers Klan Issue Has Been Dead Two Years

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 28.—An hour before the reception committee of prominent New Yorkers were scheduled to meet them, Governor Moody and the Goodwill delegation arrived at Pennsylvania station this morning.

Spurning the aid of porters, the governor and members of his party carried their own baggage and went to their hotel.

Violations Of Traffic Laws Arouse Sheriff

ing without lights and other violations, Sheriff E. S. Graves today declared his department is going to open war on these offenders.

Two More Days Of Bargain Rates

Just two more days.
Bargain-period rates to the Pampa Daily News and the Pampa News (weekly) will be withdrawn July 1. That leaves just two more days in which to take advantage of these wonderful rates: Daily News, year by mail, $3.
Daily News, year by local carrier, $4.
Weekly News, year by mail, $1.
You can't beat these rates anywhere. Think of it, the local news, oil news, world news, WHILE IT for $3. Scores of people have taken advantage of the mail rate, and nearly everyone in Pampa gets the

"LINDY" SHY AMONG FAIR LONDON GIRLS

(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 28.—Col. Charles Lindbergh was surrounded by the bluest blood in Great Britain at the Derby charity ball.

But a society writer said she "noticed that he seemed to have little to say to pretty girls."

BEAUTY AND PERSONALITY MAKE "ROSETIME" PLEASING; TALENT IS TAKEN FROM PAMPA ENTERTAINERS

Reviewer Sees F. C. Conwell In Role He Fits, And Barcus Really Gets Hard-Boiled—Pauline Davis Lends Charm and Vivacity

A pleasing musical comedy, done in old-fashioned home-town simplicity with enough amateurishness of execution and limitations of staging to give a realistic effect, sent home an amused and appreciative audience last night, when "Rosetime" was presented by local talent at the high school auditorium.

Minor crudities and character sup-pressions were overlooked by the audience, which took genuine pleasure in seeing home folks as entertainers.
Most of the players were well cast, some exceptionally so.

Pauline Davis as the vivacious, movie-struck but nevertheless sincerely sweet country girl, was the life of the evening, and her superb acting was an appreciated support to the entire cast. Opposite her was Harry Hoare, the country boy lover who had the difficult role of playing not too simple yet not much affected in the presence of Hollywood movie people, whose sneers were ill concealed, of course. His part was well sustained; indeed, almost colorless except for opportunities to sing and, at the last, reveal himself as an unchanged millionaire who saved a defunct movie company by buying controlling stock, firing the director, and hiring the entire remaining company.

The plot was well defined, although not always impressively interpreted.
The principals are about to quarrel over a marriage promise when a movie company appears for the purpose of filming a country play. Lack of a star suited to the part of a country girl leads the director—a hard boiled part well played by Scott Barcus—to employ the astounded but overjoyed girl as leading lady. A parting scene follows, with the choruses playing an important part.

Three years pass, and Rose Perkins, now little resembling in habits the home town girl, is a famous star.
But the production company has seen hard days, the director is unable to meet the payroll, and he tries to salvage from the collapse the person of Rose for his wife. They quarrel, and Jerry, the country lover appears. The audience is relieved as he fires the director, but the company does not then know of the transaction, nor that Jerry has struck oil and become a millionaire.

Rose quickly loses her new personality, decides to marry Jerry, and the couple leaves for the home town.
The reader who has not seen the play should not know more, but on seeing the performance this evening will be pleased with the finale.

Ma and Pa, played by Gene Oakley and Nathan Jones, were conventional types; Ma tearful and prayerful, Pa loving but a bit foxy. And F. C.
Conwell, upplish English scenario writer, must be seen to be appreciated.
His part had a finish and clearness which meant much in the performance. Likewise well done was the work of Props O'Reilly (Gordon Baine), vociferous property man, and all-round bad boy, and Babe Burn-ette (Grace Balthrope), an able complement who was just waiting for a chance to "knock the props out from under Mary Pitchfork." Helen Jones made a good Hollywood star, and W.
C. Upton a ready-to-go camera man.
Gene Oakley doubled as French maid.

Other well played parts, including the choruses, were numerous, and the costumes, frequently changed, were beautifully appropriate to the rosetime theme. They included hometown motifs, butterfly, vamp, sweetheart, and combination with drills.
The choruses were, considering the short time of the preparation, exceptionally well trained. The voices for the most part, were pleasing and the personnel well selected. Taken as a whole, the cast formed a pleasing pageant, with the beauty and children's choruses supporting an enthusiastic group of Pampa's own people.

Panhandle School District Will Be Greatly Enlarged

(Special to The News.)
PANHANDLE, June 28.—Under new school plans, the Panhandle independent school district would be enlarged to include the large oil fields in North Carson county.

A new statute empowers the county board of trustees to add territory taken from common school districts, where the best interests of the school children are involved.
The proposed merger would nearly double the size of the school district.

Trouble In Negro Section Reported

Local officers and members of the sheriff's department are looking for four white men who caused much excitement in the negro section last night between 9 and 11 o'clock.

Three white men are reported to have gotten into an argument with several negroes in on the south side last night and emptied a six shooter into the crowd. No one was injured.

Later a negro known as "Shorty" reported to the police that he had been stabbed by a white man. He had a knife wound in the shoulder, officers say, but his assailant has not been apprehended.

Campbell Well To Be Rushed—Looks Like The Saunders

The Pampa Oil and Refining company has taken over the drilling operations at their W. R. Campbell No. 1 in section 90, block 3, within the city limits in the Wilcox addition.

The well is drilling at a depth of 1,150 feet and a shut-off was expected this afternoon. The 10-inch pipe will be set immediately and drilling rushed forward. The well formation is logging with the Saunders well.

* Drilling has been delayed several times due to the slackness of the former drilling company but reports today state that the well will be rushed to completion and pay is expected by the middle of July.

The Pampa Petroleum company's No. 1 Mary Leopold, section 141, block 3, Gray county, is being watched with much interest.

The well is down to a total depth of 3,598 feet, which makes it one of the deepest tests in the Pampa oil field.

AIR CHIEF BIDS AVIATORS LUCK AT TAKE-OFF

Lester Maitland And Albert Hegenberger
Are Fliers

GO INTO AIR FROM OAKLAND

Golden Gate Is Left
At 7:20—Little Ceremony

(By The Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—After hopping off from Oakland's municipal air port at 7:09
a. m. without much effort or ceremony, the giant Fokker airplane piloted by Lieut. Lester Maitland, with Lieut. Albert Hegenberger as navigator, passed through the Golden Gate at 7:20 a. m. today and swung out over the Pacific toward its goal—Honolulu.

As the pair of climbed into the plane, they were approached by Major General Patrick, chief of the air service, who shook hands with them.

"God bless you my boys," the general said. "I know you are going to do your best."
The aviators waved to the crowds and climbed into the plane. Just as the motors started, Ernest Smith, pilot of a civilian plane which is expected to follow the army plane into the air within a few hours, ran in front of the army plane to wave good-bye to his friendly rivals.

They smiled and nodded and took off.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28 (AP)
—The naval radio reported at 10:25
a. m. today that it had communicated with the Fokker army plane on the flight to Honolulu, and that the plane was 300 miles off the coast at the time.

FORD IS CRANKY ABOUT NEW MACHINE

If you wish to get a rise out of Henry Ford, say something definite about his new car. For Henry claims not to know all about it himself, and he at least is anxious to keep anybody from forming a preconceived idea.

Several of the big city papers with the sensation complex recently printed stories of the new car—its standard shift, low gasoline consumption and cheap price. But Henry denies it; maybe like a movie star denies a new divorce, but very vehemently. It happens that much of Ford's publicity is handled by a big agency, N. W. Ayer and Son.

The advertising company sent out telegrams to every newspaper in this country and Canada, denying reports and asking newspapers not to print unauthorized stories. That was just a little matter of 22,190 telegrams and represented expenditure of $22,000. And Ford probably thought the publicity cheap at the price, even if its result was not seriously contemplated.

TWINKLES

Flappers have lost 3,500 tons of hair, but this doesn't seem to have made the sex any more light headed.

Some uppish savages wear squeaky shoes to impress bare-footed brethren, and the mode has its parallels in civilized society.

A German doctor has produced a softly humming machine whose monotony induces sleep. But we bet he never met a mosquito.

A Pampa man wants to become a notary public so he can swear.

A convict has started life over again with a new (lifted) face. Now that's an idea for lots of failures.

Kansas City threw off restraint when the Texans came to town; that is, it rained.

A nose dive of 4,000 feet in a plane cured a woman of deafness, and after that experience her powers of speech probably increased too.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Writer.

WASHINGTON. — The favorite old feature story of how the government crop reports are guarded up to the last second on the day they are made public is being dragged out again.

No Washington newspaperman is regarded as fully initiated until he writes this particular yarn, which was originally one of the most interesting stories to be found and apparently is still interesting to some reporters who write it about twice a year, on especially dull days.

"You oughta know about this," says the first informant. "Each government statistician mails his report special delivery to the secretary of agriculture a day or two in advance and then they lock it all up in a special mail box in the secretary's office. In the morning, before daylight, 4 a. m. or some such time, the chairman of the crop reporting board, one member and one cop go over and the secretary's secretary or somebody opens the box."

"Yeah," replies your correspondent, "but I've seen that story a dozen times. What I want is something new."

"Some of these crop reporters far off, wire in their dope in secret code," explains the next volunteer. "They put it all in the box and every three or four months they change the code."

"Yeah," says the weary correspondent, "maybe I'll write it some day." But they won't let you rest.

"Nobody knows what the whole crop totals or averages until a few minutes before announcement. That keeps the stock market gamblers from bribing somebody to give them the dope for a clean-up. As soon as the board prepares the report and has it approved by the secretary of agriculture, they take it into an anteroom, where they have a half dozen telegraph keys and telephones. They make the newspaper reporters stand back of a chalk line and give them copies of the report and then when someone yells 'Go!' just as the clock strikes they all rush to the instruments and send the crop report out over the country on the wires."

Do you wonder that correspondents get sick and tired of hearing this same thing over and over?

PRESS FORUM

Nineteen state legislatures, a survey reveals, have passed measures this year designed to curb crime. The laws enacted range from habitual criminal acts, providing life sentences for persistent offenders to an Oregon law forbidding anyone to skin dead stock without the owners consent. There were many other minor measures, like this last one listed, but the most important progress was through imitations or variations of the Baumes law, of New York, which makes a life sentence mandatory upon the fourth conviction for a felony. Such laws, and the revision of the criminal code in California, with a view of hastening trial, probably are the important steps on the part of legislatures really interested in curbing crime.

North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Kansas and California are added to New York as states where the persistent offender may expect to finish his life in prison, even if his crimes are such as do not warrant such a severe sentence in most states. South Dakota makes the life sentence discretionary, for the fourth offenders, a softening of the original Baumes act, while Kansas adds to the severity of its measure by applying the life sentence to third offenders.

While most reports indicate favorable results from the operation of the Baumes law, it still is a little early to deter-ine the extent of its effect. It is reasonable to assume, however, that it will be more effective when more states adopt similar legislation, thus reducing the chance that the habitual criminal will cross the state lines and continue his criminal career. Oklahoma would do well to follow the example of Kansas, with the likelihood that Texas will join in this crusade against crime. It is true, of course, that there must be many other remedies and preventatives before we shall reduce our crime record to the proportions of Great Britain's, for example. Probably we must change our whole attitude toward criminals and revise our judicial system. But it is encouraging to note that the legislatures are doing something besides talk about it.—Daily Oklahoman.

Cahill and Bryant Both Touch Mat in Fast Match

"Rusty" Cahill, Pampa flash, and Dick Bryant of El Paso, put on the fastest ten rounds of boxing ever seen in Pampa last night at the Pampa Athletic club.

Cahill was nearly knocked out in the seventh, but was saved by the bell. He made a comeback in the eighth round and Bryant took a seven count.

The preliminaries were fast and furious and kept the large crowd in an uproar. There are some promising youngsters in the city and the management of the club is trying to develop a number of youngsters that will later become ring artists.

Duncan and Graham put up a fair three-round argument for a beginner, and Grims and Walker as semi-finalists started to rough it. The bout was stopped in the second round when the big fellow resorted to pushing tactics.

When Cahill and Bryant stepped into the ring, the fans set up and took notice. From the first bell it was a hard hitting, stand-up-and-slug affair, with honors about even.

Bryant, fresh from the coast where he was suspended for three months, was in the pink of condition and had a left hook that was dangerous, but he met an artist with the same style of punch in Cahill.

Then, with such a boxer as "Rusty" Cahill in the city, fans can look for plenty of action. And Shaw, Hust and Pone are no slouches at the game.

Links Win Over Texans In Eighth Inning Rally, 12-9

LINCOLN, June 28.—With 10 hurriers participating in the game, the Links defeated the Amarillo Texans here yesterday, 12 to 9. Six pitchers were used by Amarillo, and none was effective.

It was a see-saw affair and looked like Amarillo's game until the eighth when Lincoln rallied for six runs and the winning margin.

SPORT TALK

If the Grays get back into shape they will play a home game Sunday with the Oilers away.

There were some interesting bouts at the slugfest last night at the Pampa Athletic club. The club has been sponsoring some good fast bouts and the fight fans in Pampa are becoming interested in the cards being put on.

Amarillo Texans used six pitchers to stem the avalanche of hits yesterday, but without success. Achenback pitched to one man and got credit for a loss. Can't figure that out can you? Why was he pulled after pitching to one man?

The Cardinals are out stepping and moved into second place yesterday when they beat the Pirates. The Cubs got revenge when they slugged a 11 to 4 victory from Cincinnati. Gibson won a ball game yesterday. The Detroit boy has had hard luck this season but at last seems to have found himself.

Armed with a letter from Governor Ed Jackson of Indiana, Mrs. Nettie Stephenson Brehm of Oklahoma, former wife of D. C. Stephenson, visited the Indiana ex-klan dragon at Indiana state prison the other day and won the admission that Florence Catherine, 11, was his daughter. interspersed in the text, and there are take-offs on several prominent men.

Jack Stone contributed a solo between acts, and was heartily encored. Mrs. Frank Keehn was at the piano. The production, rushed into producible form within a little more than a week by Miss Mary B. Brent of the production company, is a tribute to her directing skill. Though not recognized perhaps by part of the audience she appeared in a few choruses and kept the entertainment moving throughout. Like the hard working property man, she is never enough appreciated, but perhaps, also like him, she "will get her reward in heaven." And "Props" declares the director will not be there to see him get it, but Arcus is really better than he posed!

A small audience was present, but a bigger one will attend this evening. For the production is going to be talked about, and the number of local people who will enjoy the play will easily pack the high school auditorium. Last night's crowd was greatly pleased, and the performance of this evening should be even better.

After the finale last night, those connected with "Rosetime" went to the new Schneider hotel and danced until past midnight.
