New Record Set in Sustained Flight By Plane Today

JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla., March 30.—(P)—George Haldeman and Eddie Stinson set a new world's record airplane endurance flight today of 53 hours and 35 minutes.

Favored by good weather, except for a chopiness in the air which they reported throughout yesterday, the two pilots of the Stinson-Detroit plane had steadily reported themselves optimistic about the outcome of their venture.

Stinson and Haldeman took off on their race against time Wednesday morning at 7:37. It was necessary that they beat the Germans' time by a full hour before a new record would be internationally recognized.

LINEMAN TAKES 13,000 VOLTS AND YET STILL LIVES

With both thumbs nearly burned off and his feet swivelled as the result of his receiving a 13,000-volt shock of electricity early today, Ross Lawrence, 29, is in a Berger hospital.

Lawrence, an employe of the Panhandle Power and Light company, was measuring contact points on the Berger-Roxana high voltage line when the current jumped four inches, boring a small hole through his right finger and burning him badly. Amputation of his feet and severing fingers may be necessary.

Bombings Follow Funeral of "Diamond Joe"

Thousands pushed, jostled, crowded their way into Holy Family church in Chicago the other day for the last rites for "Diamond Joe" Esposito, West Side political power who fell victim to gangland's guns. United States Senator S. Deneen went to the funeral and that night his house and that of Circuit Judge John A. Swanson were bombed. This picture shows part of the throng outside the church as the casket of "Diamond Joe" was borne forth.

KIMES' CAPTURER VISITS HERE

Sheriff J. O. Parsons of Flagstaff, Arizona, Tells of Encounter With Bandit—Trapped by Canyons

A visitor in Pampa yesterday was Sheriff J. O. Parsons of Flagstaff, Coconino county, Ariz., the man who captured Mathew Kimes in the Grand Canyon of Arizona.

Sheriff Parsons was here after Geo. Renard, wanted in Flagstaff on charges of stealing company checks and cashing them, Renard waived extradition and left with the Arizona sheriff yesterday afternoon.

Renard was apprehended by city officers here Sunday afternoon and held pending the arrival of sheriff Parsons.

In talking with a News reporter yesterday before leaving for home Sheriff Parsons, who is 60 years old and has been a peace officer for eighteen years, told of the exciting and surprising capture of Mathew Kimes. He said:

"I had no idea that the notorious Mat Kimes was in my territory until one afternoon I was in the canyons where a payroll was to pass through and saw a man sitting in a car. I drove up and was talking to him when he jumped out of the car pulling a six-gun. We grappled and following a short tussle on the ground both became winded, I because of advanced years and he apparently from the high altitude."

Kimes, seeing he was almost over-

That Lindbergh May Try Pacific Hop Is Denied

ST. LOUIS, March 30.—(P)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's home town speculated today on reports that he might essay a flight across the Pacific ocean to Tokyo. Although he announced no plans when he arrived yesterday from Lexington, Ky., the rumor spread that he would try the trans-Pacific hop. His close friends, however, doubted the reports.

HOUSTON, March 30.—(P)—Tucked away among the mall sacks in the fuselage of the air mail plane which roared away from the Houston airport late Thursday was a crate of strawberries, the gift of children of the Pasadena school to Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, mother of the famous aviator.

The crate bore $39 in air mail stamps. The gift will be delivered to Mrs. Lindbergh late Friday at her home in Detroit.

Pasadena, a strawberry growing center, is near Houston.

RED GRANGE MOVES

WHEATON, Ill., March 30.—(P)—Wheaton has lost its most distinguished citizen—Harold "Red" Grange, legislator and football player.

The beautiful home that toughedowns built is for sale and "Red" has migrated to California to be nearer his summer business—the movies. His father will join his son as soon as the house is sold.

Ochiltree Men Enthusiastic Over Plans for Bridge

Judge J. M. Grigsby, County Clerk D. Shanks, and Commissioners E. A. Fuller and H. C. Brillhart of Ochiltree county, accompanied by George C. Corlett, in charge of the erection of the Ochiltree county courthouse at Perryton, were visitors here yesterday.

They visited Judge T. M. Wolfe, Gray county commissioners, and Charles H. Sharp, local building contractor. They are enthusiastic over the proposed bridge across the Canadian river as contemplated by Charles H. Sharp, J. H. Lavender, and E. D. Read.

"It would open up many miles of territory for agricultural purposes and would connect with good roads in Ochiltree county," Mr. Fuller said.

McLean Will Not Enter Meet Here; Alanreed Arrives

McLean schools will not take part in the Gray county Interscholastic League meet this year.

This became definitely known today when McLean school officials said they had decided not to enter the League contests. Through failure to pay League fees for the grade division, McLean forfeited the right to participate in that portion of the meet. A ruling on the matter was made by Roy Bedichek, director general, of Austin.

Tentative arrangements had been made for McLean to enter the music memory and art contest despite the ruling, but nothing more in the grade division. Today, however, it was definitely learned that McLean would not enter any contest.

Alanreed contestants are here and the Junior events in track and many literary events as the school cares to enter will be held. Prof. C. W. Bachelder, C. A. Murray, and J. D. Gamble, Jr., of Canyon Teachers college are the Judges.

Sportswoman Held Following Shooting of Her Husband

NEW YORK, March 30.—(P)—Esther Wilson, arctic explorer and big game hunter, was held today on a charge of felonious assault after shooting and seriously wounding her estranged husband, Dallett Wilson, New York attorney.

Mrs. Wilson, immediately after the shooting, told police she had called at her husband's office to demand a settlement of their marital difficulties.

"I wanted either to live together or be divorced," she said. "I offered to let him get the divorce, but he refused."

Twelve Veterans Are Initiated by Pampa 40 and 8

Members of the local venture of the 40 and 8 owned the city last night when one of the most successful promenade in the Panhandle was put on by the local organization. Twelve new members were initiated, ten from Pampa and two from Amarillo.

An honored guest at the promenade was Grand Chief De Train J. W. Coras, of the state 40 and 8, stationed at Austin, who is making a tour of the state in the interest of the organization. He gave an interesting reading during the initiation period and spoke to the members and guests on the duties and service of a 40 and 8 member. He also told of the trip to the National convention in San Antonio this year.

Readings given by George Shuffely and H. Otto Studer were well received and applauded, as it was not known before the such talented persons were members of the organization.

The street work previous to the initiation ceremonies in the basement of the Brunow building was of the military order, the new members being made to sell certain articles of age and usefulness. Chief of Police John V. Andrews joined in the fun and at the request of the local members arrested some of the applicants and took them to the hoose-gow for vagrancy because of their dress.

They were liberated after a short period in the cells by the pleadings of the Rev. W. L. Evans, chaplain of the post, who stood good for them.

Visitors present from Amarillo, Miami and Wheeler were loud in their praise at the size of the local post and the accommodations for its members.

Those taking the initiation were John L. Bradley, Clarence de Cordova W. E. Smith, G. W. Sutton, F. E. Horner, George Shuffely, G. C. Walters W. T. Fox, J. G. Bunnell and P. E. Boyd all of Pampa, and W. L. Sims and W. B. Williams of Amarillo.

Ed Stinson's Team Winner in Shrine Club's Campaign

The completion of the Shrine club membership drive was announced at the club meeting last night in the Schnieder hotel when the team captained by Ed Stinson defeated the team captained by A. A. Gordon by a margin of one membership.

As a result of the drive, the club has a membership of 108 at the present time and a club room has been authorized and will be completed for the next meeting of the club.

Honored guests at the meeting last evening were Dr. R. P. Parcels and George Stapleton, known as the father of Masonry in the Panhandle, both of Amarillo. They were delighted at the interest taken here and said the Amarillo club would co-operate with the local organization.

Next Friday evening a cabaret dinner and dance will be held in the Pla-Mor auditorium for members of the club, their wives, and friends. Reservation may be made with A. A. Gordon, at the Gordon store, or Blain Roberts at Murfee's store, up until 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Guests of honor at the dinner and dance will be eight members of the Klhiva Chanlers and their wives and the Potentate and Chief Rabbon of the Klhiv chapter, all of Amarillo.

Railroad Officials Are Making Investigation Today

AMARILLO, March 30.—(P)—Six unidentified bodies were in morgues here today. Two, found late yesterday in the Fort Worth and Denver roundhouse washing vat were of men believed to have met with foul play. The other four were of men killed by shifting of railroad ties in a car in which they were riding at Tascosa Wednesday night.

The bodies of the two in the roundhouse vat were discovered by J. W. Mode, railroad division superintendent who was making an inspection with Division Foreman C. J. White and Charles Hoge, water service superintendent.

Two blood stained caps were found under the high wire fence which surrounds the vat. The alkali and oil in the hot water which ~~was used~~ ~~to~~ ~~wash~~ ~~the~~ ~~caps~~ ~~so~~ ~~that~~ ~~identification~~ ~~will~~ ~~be~~ ~~difficult~~ ~~if~~ ~~at~~ ~~all~~ ~~possible~~. Railroad officials advance the theory that the men were killed and their bodies tossed over the fence into the pool. The men's clothing indicated they were workmen but not railroad employes. No Fort Worth and Denver railroad men are missing.

Scout Leaders To Convene Here Next Thursday

A new Boy Scout council to include Pampa, Panhandle, White Deer, Miami, Canadian, Berger, Phillips, and perhaps other towns may be former here at a meeting of Scout adult leaders next Thursday evening, said the Rev. Tom W. Brabham in speaking at the Lions luncheon this week.

A meeting attended in Amarillo recently by Mr. Brabham and J. Sid O'Keefe of Panhandle resulted in a spirited discussion of Panhandle-Boy Scout affairs, and a complete study of the financial status of the present council. Leaders urging the creation of a new council have offered to assume $900 of the $3,600 indebtedness jointly incurred last year, and have asked for a permit to perfect organization of a separate council. A reply to this proposition is expected soon.

The new council would retain its equity in Camp Warner, near Claude. Four councils are proposed for the Panhandle-Plains region. Of these, one has been formed by Claude, Amarillo, and Canyon. It is agreed that the Panhandle is too large to be adequately administered by the council headquarters.

Several Lions were called upon for short talks on current local events. Roy Harris and John L. Peaks were visitors.

CHARGE IS DELAYED

ABILENE, March 30.—(P)—Delayed for several hours because of the illness of the trial judge, the charge to the jury which has heard evidence in the trial of Marshall Ratliff on a charge of murder in the death of Police Chief G. E. Bedford of Cisco was read shortly before noon today by a substitute judge who had come from Eastland.

Spudders to Play Cubs in Texas' League Contest

DALLAS, March 30.—(AP)—Rumblings of impending internecine strife were heard at Wichita Falls and Waco today and Cubs prepared for a tilt at Wichita Falls tomorrow, the first of the year between Texas league clubs.

As a result of a longer period of conditioning and stiffer opposition in exhibition games, the Spudders probably are farther along in their training, but observers believe they will meet a match in the Cubs, who finished second in the race last season and are rated as strong this year.

The Cubs will not encounter the full strength of the Texas league and Dixie champions, however.

In preparation for the series, the Cubs ran into hard luck yesterday when beaten by the Minneapolis Millers, 8 to 2, despite that they led in hitting nine to five and were ahead in scoring for seven innings.

The San Antonio Bears and the Beaumont Exporter Yannigans were more fortunate. The former defeated the House of David nine, 7 to 3, in a game featured by hard hitting of the extra-base type, and the latter won from Beaumont high 6 to 2, as the result of a single big inning in which five runs were scored.

Fort Worth fans looked forward today to a contest between the Oats and the Detroit Tigers, expecting to see possibly five former panthers in the latter's lineup. To make the contest even more interesting, five former Tigers are with Fort Worth, and hoped to get into the game.

Oklahoman Holds Third Place in the Marathon Event

Moriarty, N. M., March 30.—Maintaining his spectacular running, Arne Suominen, Detroit, continued to lead in elapsed time in the cross country marathon. From Seven Springs to Moriarty, a distance of 29.5 miles, Suominen averaged better than seven miles an hour. The Finn's elapsed time for the 21.5 miles traveled so far is 15:32:05.

Suominen now has a lead of hours, 48 minutes and 31 seconds over Peter Gavuzzi, Southampton, still holding second best elapsed time of 15:20:36.

Payne, Claremore, Okla., was third yesterday.

Today the runners expected eastward across the rolling New prairie toward Palma, their seventh control, 35 miles away.

Cissell's Coach Hurts Self While Helping Pup.

SHREVEPORT, La., March 30.—(AP)—Coach "Big Ed" Walsh of the Chicago White Sox has taught Bill Cissell how to repay the Sox for the $123,000 they paid for him, the effort was so strenuous that Walsh pulled a tendon and had to go to bed.

In the first few exhibition games with the White Sox, the Pacific coast league star was nervous, hitting a wide ones and dropping easy rollers. Walsh took Cissell aside, pitched to him and showed his most glaring faults. Tossing one of his famous twists, Walsh pulled a tendon and was forced to bed for two days. Now he is hobbling about with a cane and Cissell is improving rapidly, getting a triple, two doubles and two singles in his nine times at bat. His fielding has also improved.

Infielder Told To Play National Game

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 30.—(AP)—Jack Rothrock is back at short for the Red Sox. After being derrickered from his usual post for one game, the hard working infielder was sent back by Manager Bill Carrigan with the advice, "Go out and play your 'natural' game."

Jack had been benched because he couldn't handle bounding balls. He worried until his hitting became affected.

PHILLIES AT HOME

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Nationals awoke in their home town today. The city series with the Athletics opens tomorrow. Manager Shotton is pleased with the showing of the Phils in the south.

KEEP PITCHERS WARM

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 30.—(AP)—John McGraw and his New York Giants have arrived here on their trip northward, but Virgil Barnes, Fred Fitzsimmons, and Ben Cantwell of the pitching staff were sent to the second team so that they could continue training in warmer climates.

Both Pleased With 1928 Giants

Here are John McGraw, left, and Travis Jackson, manager and captain, respectively, of the New York Giants and they look quite happy. You'd think that McGraw would be worried, not having Rogers Hornsby on his team this year, but he expects to get along very well with Infielder Andy Cohen and Catcher Frank Hogan. Both McGraw and Jackson look for the Giants to be in the pennant fight this season.

Sekyra, who has fought himself into prominence during a ring career of little more than a year, meets the rugged, hard hitting Lomski over the ten-round route at Madison Square Garden tonight. Tommy Loughran, king of the light heavyweights, has agreed to defend his crown against the winner.

BIG MAN STINGY

MIAMI, Fla., March 30.—(AP)—Nary an earned run and only four hits have been made off Jumbo Jim Elliott, massive Brooklyn pitcher, in his last ten innings on the mound.

American Horses Not Favorites in Steeplechase Today

AINTREE, England, March 30.—(AP)—Wintry weather prevailed here this morning for the running of the grand national steeplechase, the turf's severest test of horses.

Rain and hail fell at intervals but failed to lessen the crowds or dampen American hopes based on two American-Bred entrants and other American owned steeplechasers.

By the time the race was run at 3 p. m., it was estimated, the crowd would reach 300,000.

Fur coats were everywhere in evidence, girls were in high boots or gal-ters. Wearing colored macintoshes of red, green, blue and brown they thronged the paddock. In addition nearly every spectator carried an umbrella.

Forty-eight horses were entered, making the value of the race to the winner nearly $50,000.

Billy Barton, owned by Howard Bruce of Baltimore, appealed most to the Americans, more than 300 of whom came for the race. Odds against him were 20 to 1. The other American-bred horse entered was Burgoright, owned by Benjamin L. Behr of Chicago.

The bookmakers were quite frankly disappointed by the Americans, who they said were not betting at all like the millionaires which the newspapers claimed them to be.

The famous cocktail bar at Shanghai known for its length has been out-done—Aintree had one today which extended nearly a block. When the bar opened for business for the first hour there were twice as many bartenders as customers.

All told, there are sixty bars here some for stout and ale, some for soft drinks and one for champagne only.

Two thousand waiters have been employed in a series of cafes and restaurants to serve 200,000 meals.

Detroit Tigers Are Called Stronger Than Were Last Year

SAN ANTONIO, March 30.—(AP)—Stronger than last season in all departments was the way Manager Moriarty analyzed the Detroit Tigers as the team broke camp here for the northland trek.

Not a day of the six weeks training period was lost through inclement weather, Moriarty said and as a result the men are in excellent condition.

Legion Drive

Abilene Grows

Helping Farmers

Newspaper Plants

BY DAVE WARREN

The Texas department of the American Legion deserves success in its campaign to enlarge the membership to 40,000. The 20,000 mark was passed a few days ago. The next national convention will be held in San Antonio and leaders desire a representative membership in Texas. Legionnaires will value their membership more 15 or 20 years from now than they do today.

Abilene had a population of 10,000 in 1920. The city directory gives an estimate of 32,000 for 1928. Abilene has had a rapid growth the last eight years. Pampa's population has increased at least ten times since 1920. Berger, with its 20,000 people, is the growth of only two years. Dimmitt, Silvertown, Quitaque, White Deer, Skellytown, Roxana, and Stinnett have grown substantially the last year. The latter two named cities are only a year and one-half old.

A Memphis, Texas, banker says that that banks should not lend money to make crops. He advocated lending money to buy cows, sows, and hens as they help the farmer to help himself. This opinion is spreading in the banking industry, with the expectation that in the long run the farmer will benefit.

By the time most readers of Nunn-Warren newspapers have an opportunity to see this article, the Pampa Daily News will be housed in its new home. The end of March should see The News in one of the best newspaper buildings in the Panhandle-Plain. Pampa is to be congratulated on developing to the extent that it will have a newspaper plant excelled in the Panhandle only by Amarillo papers.

Long experience has convinced this writer that a community may be judged largely by its newspaper. If a newspaper makes a sincere effort for leadership and development of advertising and does not build up a poor business, there is something radically wrong. If your newspaper is not successful, it cannot take the lead in community affairs that is should.

The foregoing paragraph is occasioned by the report that the Vernon Daily Record is installing a rotary press. A rotary press is a sure indication that a city is passing out of the small city class and is becoming a moderate sized metropolis. For the benefit of those not familiar with newspaper phraseology, it may be easier to say that The Record has grown to the extent that a paper of eight pages a day will not take care of the business and handle the large press run.

FROM THE SPOTLIGHT

Lamar School Notes

Mrs. Meek's fifth grade arithmetic classes have been studying thrift and several ways in which we might save and invest our money wisely. While studying this question, one of our boys Lawrence Stalcup, who sells newspapers on the street, became interested enough in a savings account that he investigated a certain loan company. With his parent's advice and consent he and his little brother decided to take out a loan, in which they have at present paid out $99.00 and are to pay $3.25 each per month. With this money they plan to go the college when they have finished high school. Lawrence has already saved about $300.00 with which they are thinking of buying a lot here in Pampa.

We feel that these boys are to be highly commended for their practice of thrift, and we feel sure that if they continue to save and invest their money wisely they will be worthy citizens when they go out into the business world.

The first four grades enjoyed chapel exercises Tuesday morning. The health play given by Mrs. Strickland's little folks was splendid as well as instructive. Rev. Brabham gave the children a most interesting talk. Mrs. Downs gave a health talk which gave the children new things to think about and Mrs. Hicks gave her usual treat, a fairy story. Mr. Campbell closed the program with a good talk and the children gave close attention and splendid conduct throughout the entire period.

Mrs. Hicks promises a health picture Friday week. We hear these remarks every Monday, "Oh, will we get to chapel, tomorrow?" "When do we get a picture show?" and so on. We are very proud of all these folks. Ott Rice won first place in sub-junior spelling and will try for honors at the County meet Friday. He represents Central ward school. Velma won second place and will represent Lamar ward school. The children are working hard and several teachers are lending a hand in helping. We even had Mr. Campbell giving out spelling for one period on Tuesday.

Dorothy Ann York will substitute for Central ward and Richard Clausen will substitute for Lamar ward.

"Hurrah, for the sub-juniors" third and fourth grades are to give a free program on May 11. Time—One hour and 20 minutes.

WELCOME PUPILS—Pampa welcomes today the finest representatives of the childhood of Gray county. It is a real privilege to see so many pupils gathered in one place to display their growing knowledge and to strive for superiority in literary and athletic activities.

The striving for excellence promoted by the Interscholastic League is one of the biggest excuses for its existence, and aside from the impetus given by diffusion of knowledge of what other schools are doing, it is perhaps the most important.

May the best individuals win, not only here, but in Canyon and Austin. Pampa honors the children of Gray county.

Nothing is too good for the child that will contribute to his well being. The Indiana State Board of Health has adopted a child health creed that is being widely reprinted. Here it is:

"Every child has the inalienable right to be born free from disease, free from deformities and with pure blood in its veins and arteries.

Every child has the inalienable right to be loved; to have its individuality respected; to be trained wisely in mind, body and soul; to be protected from disease, from evil influences and evil persons; and to have a fair chance in life. In a word, to be brought up in the fear and admonition of the Lord.

"That state is delinquent which does not ceaselessly strive to secure these inalienable rights to its children."

TWO PICTURES

An old farmhouse with meadows wide
And sweet with clover on each side;
A bright-eyed boy, who looks from out
The door with woodbine wreathed about.
And wishes his one thought all day;
"O, if I could but fly away
From this dull spot, the world to see.
How happy, happy, happy,
How happy I should be."
Amid the city's constant din,
A man who around the world has been,
Who, 'mid the tumult and the throng
Is thinking, thinking all day long;
"O, could I only tread once more
The field-path to the farmhouse door
The old green meadows could I see
How happy, happy, happy,

Femality Decried For Women's Costumes By Garment Makers

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—A return to femality in women's clothes with larger hats, longer skirts and elaborate ornamentation is the dictum of the garment retailers of America. The new turn in women's clothes was made evident at the summer fashion show of the organization in the Hotel Astor, where the audience looked in vain for the boyish simplicity of late years. Sport frocks of exotic colors and printed silks were outstanding. Many of the models exploited the scarf theme. Even the bathing costumes have succumbed to the new mode, the models being featured by deep décolletage both in front and in back, with ruffles, ties, pleats and the bolero bodice. Long stockings, too, were considered essential adjuncts of the beach costume. The skirts for daytime wear were only slightly longer than those shown at the spring fashion show, but the evening gowns were quite Victorian frequently reaching to the ankle. Three new shades were introduced. They were "serenade," a sunny yellow; "Rhapsody," a lake blue; and "Minuet," an orchid tint.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Jesus the Suffering Messiah.
 Scripture lesson: Mark 27-37.
 27. And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am?
 28. And they told him, saying, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but others, one of the prophets.
 29. And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.
 30. And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.
 31. And he began to teach him, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.
 32. And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.
 33. But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan; for thou mindest not the things of God but the things of men.
 34. And he called unto him the multitude with his disciples, and said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
 35. For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it.
 36. For what doth it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?
 37. For what should a man give in exchange for his life?
 Time—Summer, A. D. 29, in the third year of Christ's ministry.
 Place: Near Caesarea Philippi.
 Golden Text—If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross, and follow me.—Mark 8:34.

were the three classes from which representatives were chosen to make up the Sanhedrin, the ruling body among the Jews. There were seventy members not counting the high priest, who presided. The elders were heads of the families or clans; the chief priests were heads of the "course" of priests who served in turn in the temple, together with all who had served as high priests; the scribes were recorders and teachers of the Jewish law. It was this body which must condemn Jesus, though only the Romans could actually put him to death.
Death and Resurrection Foretold, v. 31
 "And he killed." Christ knew that he would not be stoned to death, which was the Jewish mode of execution, but he would be killed in the even more barbaric and torturing Roman fashion, the slow and horribly painful death of crucifixion. "And after three days rise again."
 "The cross made the resurrection a necessity. If Christ did not rise, his death was defeat, and our preaching vain. Calvary was not an atonement, but an execution. But if Christ arose then Christ died as a sacrifice and not as a victim, and every soul that trusts in him is saved."
"Get Thee Behind Me Satan," v. 32
 "And saith, Get thee behind me, Satan." Thus Christ had spoken to the devil when he tempted him in the wilderness, Matt. 4:10. Peter, indeed, was using the devil's argument, and was seeking to get Christ to adopt the easy ways of worldly compliance rather than the heroic and fearfully difficult ways of divine truth, of otherworldliness. "For thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men." Peter's mind was still worldly. It was still bent upon popularity with men more than on doing the will of God. And as the mind goes, so goes the life.
Worldly and Heavenly Viewpoints
 "When I look around this old world I see it is just the world for me, and about the first thing I'm going to look into is: What sort of title can I get to it? Do you know that a man may count down his soul for the world and in fifteen hours after he has made the trade Death will come along with a writ of ejectment an say: 'Off these premises! Get off forever!' And the poor fellow will pull out his deed, but Death is blind and can't see to read it, and the poor fellow will say: 'I have counted down all for this piece of property, but Death can't hear a word you say!'
Life Lost—Life Saved, v. 35
 "For whosoever would save his life shall lose it." It is recorded that Christ uttered this saying four times; here (and see also Matt. 16:25 and Luke 29:24), also in Matt. 10:39; Luke 17:33; John 12:25. A truth which he taught with so much emphasis must not be neglected by his followers. "Life" is here used in two different senses: "Whosoever seeks to preserve life in the lower sense, physical gratification temporal ambitions, shall lose life in the higher sense, eternal life." "And whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it." Here again "life" is used in the same two senses: "Whosoever shall lose his lower, physical, worldly life, in whole or in part, for the sake of Christ and the good news of salvation which Christ came to bring to men, shall save his higher, lasting, glorious life." Most of the disciples then listening to the Master proved in their experience the full truth of this saying.
"What Doth It Profit?" v. 36
 "For what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?" "The whole world" is the same as the lower life; it is transient, unsatisfying, empty; if to gain that bubble one gives up the higher life, the only permanent thing he has, the source of the only abiding joy, what gain has one made? rather, what untimely loss.

 "For what should a man give in exchange for his life?" His higher life, his eternal life, his only real life. When all gold has crumbled to dust, when all worlds have vanished, that life will be still youthful, still happy and beautiful, and growing ever stronger in wisdom, love, and service. Who can set a price upon that priceless thing? What infinite folly to bargain it away!
"Ashamed of Jesus," v. 32.
 Jesus closed his discourse with a warning against being "ashamed" of him and his words, even though they were to be associated forever with the disgrace of the cross. Would they be ashamed of him when he should come back from heaven in clouds of glory attended by the hosts of angels? Rather would he be ashamed of them in that day, to their endless confusion and despair.
"Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far"
 May evening blush to own a star.
 Ashamed of Jesus! just as soon
 Might midnight blush to think o' noon—
 'Twas midnight with my soul till He,
 Bright Morning Star, bade darkness flee."

LLOYD WANER FLEET
 LOS ANGELES, March 30.—(AP)—Pessimists who have held that the Pittsburgh Pirates could not expect as much from Lloyd Waner this year as during the 1927 season, have something to think about after the fleet one's showing yesterday. GIRL ALONE by ANNE AUSTIN AUTHOR OF 'SAINT AND SINNER'

THIS HAS HAPPENED Sally Ford is left at the state orphanage when she is four by a woman who says she is the child's mother but who never returns.

Now Go on with the story CHAPTER X David and Sally had been sitting at the end of the corn field, in plain sight of anyone who cared to spy upon them.

"We're not in the corn, Mr. Carson," David called, his voice vibrating with indignation. "I'll have to ask you to apologize for what you said, sir."

"There's no harm in two young people watching the moon rise at 10 o'clock," Carson came striding out of the corn. David, feet planted rather far apart, looked as if he were braced for attack.

"I'm taking Sally to the house Mr. Carson," David said grimly. On the walk back to the house there was no opportunity for David to reassure the frightened, trembling girl.

Ten of 15 minutes later, while she was sitting on the edge of her cot-bed, she heard David's firm step on the back stairs, and knew that he had tucked short the farmer's "little talk" with him.

had left ajar, and crept along the dark hall to David's door.

He did not see her at first, for she was only a faint blur in the dark, but at her whispered "David!" he paused his hands groping for hers.

"I've got enough work laid out for Sally to keep her busy every minute today," Mrs. Carson rebuked Pearl sharply. "Why can't you do your own cleaning, Pearl?"

"Because I've got a luncheon date and a matinee in town today, and I need these things for tonight. I'm going to a party at the Mullins' Goodby, Mom. Two dozen jars enough?"

"I know, Ma," Mrs. Carson answered in so kind a voice that fresh tears swam in Sally's eyes. "Pearl's been spoiled. But I'm too busy now to take it out of her. I wonder, Ma, if you couldn't rip up them other two dresses that Pearl give Sally? The child really ain't got a thing to wear."

"No offense, no offense," Carson protested hastily, with a chuckle that he meant to sound conciliatory. "I'm a man that likes his joke, and it does strike me as funny that a fine, upstanding college man like you, due to come into property some day, should cotton to a sacred little rabbit of an orphan like Sally here."

"That'll do, Clem!" Mrs. Carson interrupted sharply. "Get ahead with your breakfast and clear out, all of you! Sally and me have got a big day's work ahead of us, Pearl. I want you to drive to Capital City for some more Mason jars for me. I'm all out."

"When Sally was washing dishes, Pearl hurried to the kitchen dressed for her trip to the city, her arms full of soiled white shoes, stockings and silk underwear."

"When Sally was again bent over the dishpan she heard the little old grandmother's uncertain, quivering voice: 'It ain't fair, Debbie, the way you let Pearl run over Sally. She's a nice, polite-spoken little girl, the best work I ever see.'"

Although Mrs. Carson made no comment on Sally's shy caress, the girl felt that from that moment the farmer's wife was her friend, un-declared but staunch.

Knowing that any day might prove to be her last on the farm, for Carson never let slip an opportunity to threaten her by innuendo with the disgrace of being sent back to the Home, Sally found a ray of comfort in the fact that Grandma Carson, probably because she felt sorry for Sally, constantly hectored her as she was by the jealous, vicious-tongued Pearl, was slowly but surely completing the necessary alterations upon the other two dresses that Pearl had given her.

The vague-eyed, kindly little old woman finished the alterations on Saturday morning, and Sally sped to her garret room with them, there to try them on and gloat over them. Then, her eyes darting now and then to the closed door, she hastily made a bundle of the three new dresses and hid it under the cornstuck mattress of her bed.

Early Saturday afternoon Mrs. Carson announced that she had to go into the city to do some shopping.

"And you might as well take 'em with you," Mrs. Carson said. "They haven't seen a picture show for a month." Carson suggested.

"I don't see why not," Mrs. Carson answered. "I got a lot of trotting around to do and it's mighty hot."

"Pearl, Pearl, I'm afraid you're spoiled rotten!" Mrs. Carson shook her head sadly. "I'll bring you a pair of them fiber silk stockings, Sally, to wear to church tomorrow night with your flowered taffeta," she offered brusquely, by way of consolation.

When the car had swept down the lane and Sally was left alone in the house, she busied herself furiously in an effort to dissipate her loneliness and disappointment, and a fear that grew upon her with the realization that Carson had not accompanied his family to town.

Youths Executed For Murder of Colorado Recluse

CANON CITY, Colo., March 30.—(AP)—Arthur Osborne and Ray Noakes were executed at the state penitentiary here today for the murder of Fred W. Selak, aged recluse of Grand Lake, Colo.

Noakes, 23 years old, was hanged at 12:40 o'clock this morning and pronounced dead 13 minutes after. Osborne, 24 years old, then mounted the gallows and the trap dropped at 1:15. He lived 15 minutes. The identity of the executioner was kept secret. The state paid him $50 for springing the trap.

Warden F. E. Crawford said that neither boy made a statement on the gallows. Mrs. Pearl Reece of Kansas City, Mo., sister of Osborne, said farewell to her brother and Noakes early Thursday night.

Gale Postpones Start of Bremen for New York

DUBLIN, March 30.—(AP)—A gale sweeping Western Ireland and the Atlantic today caused Baron Ehrenfried Gunther von Huenefeld, flight sponsor, again to postpone the start of the plane Bremen for New York.

Sudden ground at Baldonnel airfield after the rain of yesterday was regarded as making it impossible for the five-ton machine to rise from its lengthy runway.

With no hope of immediate improvement in weather conditions foreseen it was probable that the Bremen would be delayed here several days.

While Baron von Huenefeld and his pilots, Captain Herman Koehl and Arthur Spindler, waited for a chance of weather, mechanics used every minute of spare time to groom the plane. Its silvered duralumin allmetal body was coated with a secret anti-freeze preparation, which it was hoped would prevent sleet from forming and weighting the machine down.

While members of the Irish Free State air force regard Captain Koehl as a pilot who will succeed, this view is not shared by all. A member of the Free State cabinet said he felt the men were doomed and took his small son to see them so that he could offer prayers in their behalf.

CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The pre-Easter evangelistic meeting will begin Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. The minister will be the preaching, and special music will be arranged for each service by Mrs. W. A. Bratton, who is in charge of the choir. With the fine interest and good attendance during the regular services of the church, it is expected that this special evangelistic effort of just one week, beginning Sunday morning and closing Easter Sunday night, will prove to be all that has been anticipated. No sensationalism or high powered methods will be resorted to, and every one attending each and every service throughout the meeting will be respectfully considered.

The final sermon to the congregation in preparation for the meeting will be preached at the morning hour and the evening subject will be "The Kindled Fire." The service begins at 7:45, which will be the hour for the service each evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all who do not attend elsewhere to begin the first day of the meeting by being in Bible school at 10 o'clock. Departments are organized for all ages of the family. The three young people's meetings at 6:45 afford a splendid opportunity for the young folk to become better acquainted with each other, and the work of the church.

Come and bring a friend with you Sunday, and during the entire meeting you will find a hearty welcome awaiting you.

JAMES TODD, Jr., Minister.

Railroad Commission Must Take Final Action in Winkler

AUSTIN, March 30.—(AP)—The next move in efforts to eliminate over-production and waste in the Winkler county oil fields lies with the railroad commission. R. D. Parker, chief of its oil and gas division and chairman of a committee assigned to make Winkler investigations, said here Friday.

The commission will act, Mr. Parker explained, on recommendations made by the committee in a session at Fort Worth Thursday. The plan would authorize the creation of a general committee of control, each operator in the field to have one representative. That committee, with approval of the railroad commission, would appoint a secretary and "umpire" to administer the rules it would make.

Provision of production, Parker continued, would be worked out in this manner.

Receivers and purchasers of crude from the area would make regular reports as to the amount they could use. The total thus obtained would be divided by the number of 40 acre units in the field and each unit would be allowed to produce up to the quotient obtained, except in cases where existing contracts call for production greater than would be allowed under the unit method. In such cases, contractors would be allowed to take out whatever was needed with the understanding that any neighboring driller whose contract might be "drained" would have the privilege of producing more than his prorated share until the contract of the former expired and production went back to the unit basis.

The commission, Parker said, will call a hearing before deciding to adopt or reject the proposals.
