PLAINS PRESS NOTES—Snyder will celebrate the coming of natural gas June 29 in an elaborate program. All Scurry county will join in the occasion, having been extended an invitation by both the citizens of Snyder and the gas company.

How strongly Plainview believes in her schools is illustrated in the recent passing of a $100,000 bond issue by a vote of 227 for and 4 against.

The Memphis Gold Medal band is a famous Texas institution. It is somewhat difficult to see, therefore, why a proposed band tax for its support was defeated, 307 against and 111 for.

Says the Slaton Slatonite: "Prior to 1911, the land upon which this townsite is now located was an undisturbed pasture for the cattle of the 0-6 ranch. Springing to life from the prairie where cattle roamed 17 years ago, Slaton has developed during the period since that time to a small city which is rapidly taking its place among the leading towns of the yet unexploited area of the great South Plains region."

HOUSTON—The possibility that Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana will go on the Democratic ticket as Governor Alfred E. Smith's running mate against the Hoover-Curtis team is one of the most unusual that has appeared in a political campaign for many years.

It certainly is a distinct tribute to Wheeler that he is being seriously considered for a place on the party ticket despite the fact that he bolted it four years ago to run for vice president with the late La Follette.

On the other hand, it would be far from a dumb political stroke to nominate Wheeler. The Democrats, if they are to win, must round up a great wad of independent votes.

The 5,000,000 La Follette-Wheeler votes of 1924 are an important stake. If the Democrats can't get most of them, they're probably licked.

Efforts have been made to paint both Hoover and Smith as progressives, with most independent voters doubtless inclined to maintain open minds pending campaign developments. But the nomination of Wheeler would be an emphatic bid for progressive support for the Democratic ticket.

Despite the obviously good politics of Wheeler's nomination, he is at this time only one of several possibilities. Some of the Smith people went to Wheeler in Washington to sound him out on the idea. Whatever Wheeler replied, it is certain that he assured the visitors that he wasn't going to fight for the nomination.

Wheeler has built himself a reputation in Washington as a two-fisted fighter and a square-shooter. He has had many opportunities in his lifetime to fight against odds and has accepted them all.

In his re-election campaign he has, as usual, the opposition of the Anaconda Copper Company, industrial giant of Montana. The Anaconda apparently feels that, being about the biggest thing in the state, it should be represented in the United States Senate.

BUILDERS OF PAMPA

The progress and development of any city is the result of the energy and effort of the business men and firms who make it up. The businesses listed on this page are permanent institutions and have contributed in many ways to the upbuilding of Pampa.

This page will appear in the Daily News once each week and will contain something new and interesting each day. A study of its stories will give a new knowledge of the reasons for the individual successes.

Chevrolet Company Made a Rapid Growth

F. M. CULBERSON AND T. F. SMALLING OPERATE ONE OF THE BEST EQUIPPED GARAGES IN THE PANHANDLE

APPROXIMATELY 1235 NEW AND USED AUTOMOBILES SOLD SINCE THE COMPANY WAS ESTABLISHED

The Culberson-Smalling Chevrolet Co. was incorporated in Pampa, April 18, 1927 and has since taken a leading part in the automobile business of the city.

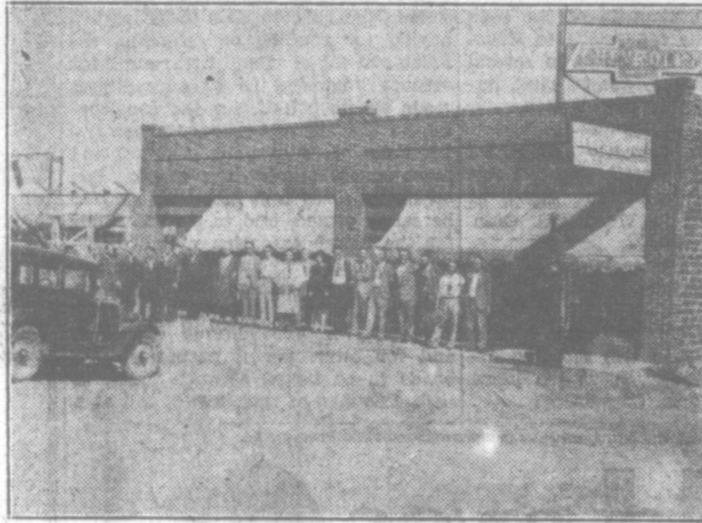

F. M. Culberson and T. F. Smalling, owners of the company, have taken an active part in the civic affairs of the city and are known to all as genuine Pampa workers.

The headquarters of the company is located on West Kingsmill avenue and is equipped 100 per cent for Chevrolet service. The building has been enlarged and redecorated in order to keep pace with the rapid business growth.

A first class battery shop, authorized duco service station, used car department and repair department are operated in connection with the sales department.

The used car department is in charge of Chas. Wylie who has had 14 years experience in used car sales. Approx-

mately 725 used cars have been sold by this department since April 1927. The cars which are taken in as part payment on new Chevrolet cars and trucks are reconditioned before they are offered for resale.

The repair shop is under the supervision of W. M. Watkins. Mr. Watkins was formerly instructor of the Chevrolet school at Denver, Colo. Expert mechanics employed by the company are able to recondition the used cars so that they will give thousands of miles of pleasant service. The service shop is recognized as one of the best in the entire Panhandle.

Approximately 510 new Chevrolets have been sold since the company was incorporated. Nineteen persons are employed to operate the business, which in volume is a leader in Pampa.

The company also has the agency for Dunlop tires and tubes, Dayton Thorobred tires and tubes, Hercules and Martin-Parry bodies. A complete stock of genuine Chevrolet parts are kept at all times. A large display of auto accessories are also kept in stock.

Mr. Culberson and Mr. Smalling believe that Pampa has a great future, and their efforts in the growth so far readily prove that they are determined to keep the city growing.

A visit to the garage on West Kingsmill Avenue will convince anyone that the Culberson-Smalling Chevrolet Co., is an appreciable asset to the city of Pampa.

Social Part of Houston Meeting Is Not Small Item

BY MARTHA DALRYMPLE (Associated Press Staff Writer) HOUSTON, June 25.—(P)—Plans for the inevitable social events attendant upon the arrival of many distinguished feminine guests for the Democratic national convention superseded the more business-like political discussions today in women's circles.

Battle lines have been pretty well laid by early male arrivals and the women feel they can now devote themselves partially to the entertainment devices that must of necessity fall upon their shoulders.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who arrived in Houston yesterday, just in time to be the guest of honor at the dedication ceremonies at the new convention hall and to be the first to sign the register at the hospitality house, will be given breakfast tomorrow morning by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Smith Coming Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, whose arrival at noon today was awaited eagerly by both supporters of her husband's candidacy and those opposed to him, will accept only one of the many invitations extended her, and that also will be a breakfast affair, tendered by the local committee on entertainment, under the direction of Mrs. J. O. Ross of Houston.

Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, national committee-woman from Missouri and outgoing vice-chairman of the national committee, will be guest of honor with Mrs. Wilson at a breakfast Wednesday morning given by the national Democratic women's club, of which she is president. Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham of Texas, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate, was to arrive this noon to take active charge of the club's program during the convention week, relieving Mrs. Blair of the details.

Mrs. Richard Coke Burleson, wife of the military attaché at Paris, and Mrs. Cordell Hull, wife of the Tennessee candidate for the presidential nomination, have already taken their stand at the club headquarters on the mezzanine floor of the Rice hotel and are busy dispensing courtesy to visiting members.

Want Equal Rights Miss Florence Sterling, district delegate from Houston and a member of the National Woman's party, is entertaining those of the party's delegation who have arrived in the interest of the equal rights for women plank. Miss Mabel Vernon, executive secretary; Miss Sue White, of Tennessee, and Mrs. William Ritter of Wisconsin, have been her guests thus far.

An early convention arrival was Miss Belle Sherwin, president of the National League of Women voters. She has already begun to muster her forces to storm the platform committee in the interest of the five-point plank the league advocates.

Feminine genius is seen in the success of the hospitality house, headquarters for all delegates and home folks who want a place to sit down to meet their friends. Mrs. Ethel B. Brosius, a real estate woman of Houston, is executive secretary of the local organization that has made the house possible.

Mrs. Jesse Jones, wife of the man who brought the convention to Houston, has opened her home to several noteworthy feminine guests, most important of which is Mrs. Wilson.

Jack Brunker, formerly connected with the Schneider hotel here, left this morning to commence his duties at the Baker hotel in Woodward, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cross of Chicago are visitors here this week.

Harry Hoare of the Pampa Daily News staff returned this morning after a month's vacation at his home in Guelph, Ontario, Canada.

When A Girl Loves © 1928 by NEA Service by RUTH DEWEY GROVES The girl was not easily revived, though Miss Evans worked frantically over her limp body. Did I let him dictate to me how I should treat you? I really wanted to help you but I was too cowardly. "There wasn't any reason why you should have risked anything for my sake," Virginia said, giving her hand a sympathetic little pat, but you are risking your job now, I know," she added as a reminder that Miss Evans had brought serious charge against her employer. "I've made up my mind to leave it," the secretary stated grimly, but can't you think of some reason why he might have deceived me?" "Yes, I think I can," Virginia smiled in a small, tight voice. She was thinking of the night when she had first arisen. But so well he played his cards since then holding his trump—that she had lulled into perfect confidence him. "But I'm not altogether sure," she went on, more to herself than to her listener. "I will not be long, though. Will you get me a glass of water, please, Miss Evans?" Miss Evans brought water in a paper cup and Virginia slipped it slowly. "I don't suppose you could give me a check for $300 and take his one," she said suddenly. "That would be impossible for me to do," Miss Evans replied. "Never mind, I'll get it from him." Virginia walked firmly back to Oliver's office and right to his desk without faltering. She was fighting mad now, and he at once saw that something had happened to turn her against him. "I want to know why you've been lying to me," she demanded as he got up and faced her. Her words clipped off like bits of ice. Oliver made a shivering gesture to pretend fear, but Virginia did not thaw in the least. "Oh, you mean about the difference between your money and that?" he said, observing the check in her hand. "Just a little trick to give you a lift, Virginia. How did you find it out?" His voice was light but he could not conceal an expression of uneasiness in his eyes. "Give me another check at once," she ordered him, quickly deciding to play his game until the matter of her account was properly settled, and throwing the slip of paper on his desk. Oliver drew out his check book and wrote a second check. When Virginia had it in her bag she raised her eyes to his and gave him a look he was to remember, with a sheepish feeling for a long time to come. "Now I want to know why you have been pretending you were making money for me," she said with dangerous quietness.

Young Irishman Surveying Kingdom as Golf Champion

CHICAGO, June 25.—(P)—Johnny Farrell, newly crowned open golf champion of the United States at the age of 27, steps today to survey his kingdom, reap the $50,000 reward that goes with it and take his place as the third figure in the greatest triumvirate of shotmakers America has ever had.

The slim young Irishman with the contagious smile and the fancy sweaters beat the master marksman of this trio yesterday, Bobby Jones, king of the amateurs, in a spectacular 36 hole play off for the championship, 143 to 144. He outstroked the other, debonair Walter Hagen the day before in the final half of the 72-hole competition that left him and Jones deadlocked at 294 strokes each with Hagen in a tie for fourth at 296.

Thus, out of the battle over the rugged No. 4 links of the famous Olympia fields layout, Farrell, from what seemed a hopeless chase after his first 36 holes, came back to gain a tie as Bobby slipped and skidded on his final round. With the big chance before him in the play off, Farrell met the final test of championship calibre.

Jones, on the last two holes, shot two successive birdies, but could not break down Farrell's morale or gain a single stroke.

Foremost Stars of Tennis World Are Now in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—(P)—Many of America's foremost college tennis stars were entered in the intercollegiate championship tournament starting today at the Merion cricket club.

Wilder Allison, University of Texas, winner of the 1927 intercollegiate championship, will not defend his title. He has been declared ineligible on account of having withdrawn from school six weeks prior to the completion of the semester. He left college to participate in the Olympic tryouts.

Texas, however, had a worthy representative in Berkeley Bell, who defeated Allison for the Maryland championship two weeks ago.

Cardinals Racing Along, But Chase Is Thrilling One

BY HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) The National league pennant race is fast becoming a chase with seven clubs vainly trying to match strides with Bill McKechnie's rampaging St. Louis Cardinals.

Old Pete Alexander took his ancient right arm to the mound of Cincinnati Sunday and pitched the Cards to a 7 to 4 victory over the Reds. It was Alex's third triumph over Jack Hendrick's men in eight days. The veteran was hit hard in the early innings but some heavy artillery work by his teammates later saved the day and enabled the Cards to lengthen their advantage over the field to five and a half games. The Reds dropped into fourth place.

Getting to Remy Kremer for six runs in the third inning, the Cubs halted the onrushing Pittsburgh Pirates at Chicago, 4 to 1. For the second day in succession Hack Wilson and Garby Hartnett hit home runs.

The Giants lost further ground by taking a two to nothing beating from Jess Petty and the Brooklyn Robins. Backed by superlative fielding, Petty kept the Giants in subjection from start to finish, allowing only six hits.

The New York Yankees stretched their margin over the American league field to eight and a half games by taking the measure of the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 0, George Pipgras turning in a three-hit performance for his 13th victory in 15 starts. Babe Ruth hit his 28th homer of the season to become 15 days, 19 games and four circuit drives up on his 1927 schedule when he eventually established a new high-water mark of 60.

Hadley outpitched George Earnshaw by a wide margin as the Senators took the Philadelphia Athletics into camp at Washington, 6 to 3. George Grant was in rare form and the Cleveland Indians evened the series with the Browns at St. Louis, 4 to 2.

Detroit moved out of the cellar as Owen Carroll blanked the Chicago White Sox with seven hits, 6 to 0.

Tilden Impressive in Opening Tennis

WIMBLEDON, England, June 25.—(P)—Bib Bill Tilden opened his comeback on the tennis courts of Wimbledon today with a smashing victory in the first round of the Wimbledon championships over M. V. Summerston, youthful English player, 6-0, 6-1, 6-0.

John Hennessey, young American Davis cup star, also swept through to an easy victory defeating the English player, E. Mather, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2.

Heavyweight

Pat Keener, the 192-pound slugger of Tulsa, is here to meet Kid Cable, the sensational 19-year-old k. o. king of Kansas, tonight in the climatic event of the big heavyweight card at the Pampa Athletic arena. Keener has met such fellows as Babe Hunt, Leo Kivan, and Rosall, the heavyweight champion of Old Mexico. He has fought two exhibition fights with Dempsey.

Texas Leaguers Anxious for New Season to Open

(By The Associated Press.) Since it is impossible to catch the fast traveling Houston Buffs before the close of the first half of the Texas league season, the other seven clubs are looking forward to Saturday, when all will start with clean slates on the second half flag chase.

Pancho Snyder's Bayou City clinched the championship of the first part of the season by outplaying the second-place Cats in both ends of a doubleheader Sunday, 3 to 1, and 2 to 1.

Guests at the Democratic National convention, who helped swell the crowd to 12,000, were out to get a glimpse of the brand of baseball served in the Lone Star loop and the Buffs performed like champions all the time. Beaumont knocked off the Wichita Falls Dixie champs, 19 to 4, and 3 to 2, staging a rally in the seventh to win the nightcap.

This was the first doubleheader Beaumont had captured this year. San Antonio won from Dallas, 4 to 3, and 6 to 3. The Steers appeared to have the first game in the bag but the Bears got to Geary's offerings in the eighth and came through with a three-run rally.

Plenty of thrills were offered in the Waco-Shreveport double-header the only one of the bargain bills that was split. Ziggy Sears, Sport outfielder, hit safely his first seven times at bat, once for a double and again for a home run. His five hits in the first game won that contest for Shreveport although the winning runs were not pushed across until the tenth frame. In that inning Shreveport made four scores and Waco retaliated with only one, making the final count 8 to 5.

The Cubs won 6 to 5 in the seventh inning nightcap. J. H. Lavender and L. L. Lavender are transacting business in Shamrock this week.

British Star Is Seen as Threat at Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, June 25.—(P)—The International threat, which failed to materialize in the national open at Olympia Fields, has come to life with a bang in the mid-American open here with Archie Compston, British star, occupying a strategic position with a par 72 in the initial 18 hole round.

Paired with Walter Hagen for the first time since his sensational victory over "The Hag" in England two months ago, Compston stalked the Lakewood course like the club pro yesterday to meet 2 strokes up. Hagen seemed unable to shake off the British mental handicap.

Medalist honors went to Ole E. Clark, 21-year-old Springfield, Mo., pro who stroked the 1,330-yard course in 71, bettering par for the first time over the remodeled greens.

Aubrey Boomer, the French ace, and Rufus Stewart, Australia, strengthened the international aspect with 75. Johnny Farrell, New York, new national open champion by virtue of his sensational victory yesterday over Bobby Jones in the playoff, and Gene Sarazen, runner-up to Hagen in the British open, entered late today and were scheduled to play 36 holes to catch up with the field.

Their arrival made today's round of the $6,500 event look like a continuation of the national open, lacking only the presence of Bobby Jones, golfing barometer of Atlanta. THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS (Ill Dec. 1st, $2.25.
