

HARVESTERS WIN TODAY, 20-12

Biggest Raids in History of City Net 136 Gallons of Whiskey

THREE HAULS LEAD TO FOUR ARRESTS HERE

Local Men Are Bound
Over for Grand Jury

MUCH WINE IS FOUND ALSO

Single Place Has Over
Thousand Bottles of Beer

In the biggest liquor raids in the history of Pampa, county and city officers obtained 136 gallons of whiskey, more than 1,000 bottles of beer, and 35 gallons of wine during the week-end.

Two of the raids were in West Pampa and one in South Pampa. Sixty-six gallons of whiskey represented the officers' find in one residence, and 73 gallons was found in another haul. The wine and beer came from third location.

On arraignment, four men were charged with illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, and $750 bonds were fixed pending action of the grand jury.

Strength of the charges and the indictments probably will depend, it is being pointed out, upon the steps taken to present the evidence as required by law. The county now has no county sheriff, and many indictments have broken down for lack of proper, certified analysis of the evidence held for this consideration of the juries.

Water Situation Is Eased—Well 6 on Test Today

Well No. 6, out of repair for a week is running on a test this morning, having been in operation since about 9 o'clock.

New bowls and impellers were installed yesterday. The old ones, which whipped out near the center of the turbine pump shaft, will be sent to the California manufacturer for study.

A slight change in installation, suggested by the manufacturer, is being tried. The well will be in operation continuously unless it is necessary to draw the pump for adjustments.

Paving Is Resumed Today—Some Opened to Traffic Saturday

The last two blocks on West Francis street were opened to traffic Saturday afternoon, leaving only South Cuyler street and one block on Frost street to be opened. Visiting motorists observe that Pampa has wonderful paving, with prospects for much more.

With the water supply back to normal this morning, the Stuckey construction company began paving operations on North Frost street at the old country club grounds. The entire length of the street will be paved. When Frost street is completed, only two blocks on North Sumerville street will remain to be paved.

Two Aces in One Suit—Man Killed

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Both LeMont Copping and William Porter had aces in the hole in the stud game they were playing yesterday.

The trouble was that both aces were of the same suit—spades.

Copping was shot dead. Porter was arrested.

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS—Tonight and Tuesday generally fair; warmer in southwest portion tonight.

Kidnaped Boy Is Back Home

Kidnaped for 13 days, 10-year-old Billy Ranieri of Chicago is shown after being returned to his mother and father. Billy was seized by two men while returning from school and, according to his story, kept in a farmhouse. His captors tried to collect $60,000 from his father, a sewer contractor. He finally was set free and wandered to a gasoline filling station, from where his parents were notified.

NEGRO SLAYER OF OFFICER IS GIVEN SENTENCE OF 99 YEARS

NACOGDOCHES, Sept. 24.—(AP)—After deliberating more than 35 hours a jury in district court today found Will Thorn, negro, guilty of the slaying of Deputy Sheriff John Hargie and assessed his punishment at 99 years in the state penitentiary.

Notice of appeal was given by defense attorneys.

The officer was killed Aug. 23 in a raid on Thorn's home near Nacogdoches while attempting to uncover evidence of liquor law violation.

Flu Epidemic Is Scourge in Wake of Big Hurricane

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 24.—(AP)—With 15,000 cases reported by health authorities and the Red Cross, an epidemic of influenza caused grave concern in Porto Rico today. Five thousand cases of malaria, measles, and other diseases have also followed the tropical hurricane.

Physicians said they were frankly alarmed at the situation. Red Cross officials announced no town was without an increasing number of influenza cases and that pneumonia was gaining.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Rehabilitation needs crowded the picture of emergency relief today in the hurricane stricken area of Florida.

While caring for the immediate needs of the thousands of homeless, officials looked forward to measures for re-establishing the refugees and furnishing them a new start until they can pick up their own burdens.

Count of the dead went on, but relief workers said there was no assurance of the actual death toll ever would be known. Unable to get bodies outside of the flooded area for burial, they are cremating many of them. Official estimates variously placed the death list at 1,200 to 1,500. Additional bodies constantly are being found.

Senator Robinson Is Taking Rest

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Somewhere in the Ozark mountains near here, Senator Joe T. Robinson, Democratic vice-presidential nominee, was a recluse today. If he succeeds in carrying out his desires, he will be lost for three days to the political world.

"I want to rest, I want to fish, I want to prepare for some speeches," was the substance of the language used by the Senator in announcing his intention of a voluntary retirement from the political stage.

BIG GAS LINE INTO NEBRASKA IS ANNOUNCED

Texas Company Purchases 500 Miles of 24-inch Pipe

WORK TO START EARLY IN 1929

Huge System to Serve
More Than Million People

Confirmation of plans for a 24-inch gas line from Central Gray county 500 miles to Omaha, Nebr., is seen in the announcement by the Wall Street Journal that the Texas company has let a contract for pipe for the enterprise. It is understood that actual work will begin early in 1929.

Cost of the line will be more than $8,000,000, it is estimated. The huge line will carry 125,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily to more than a million consumers in Nebraska and intermediate points. The enterprise will take rank with the Pampa-Kansas City line of the Cities Service corporation and the Prairie's Panhandle line to Denver.

It is reported that the Skelly Oil company and the Columbia Carbon Black company are associated in the project. The order for the pipe has been placed with the A. C. Smith corporation of Milwaukee, which will employ 6,000 men in its manufacture.

Among the cities to be served are Lincoln, Council Bluffs, Beatrice, and Omaha, Nebraska.

The Texas company owns thousands of acres of leases in Central Gray county.

Rocketeers Shoot Each Other Over Gambling Debt

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Two men "shot it out" in a pistol duel to the death early today in a room in a small hotel during an argument over a gambling debt.

Frank Peggio, also known as "Lefty White," 34, was shot four times. He died in a hospital. Harry W. Stein, 35, sometimes known as "W. Brooks," who lived in the room where the shooting occurred, was dead when found with two bullet wounds in the abdomen. Both were known to the police who characterized them as "small time racketeers."

BIG ROBBERY DISCOVERED

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Two suspects were held by the police today in connection with the theft of securities valued at $800,000 to $1,000,000 from the office of Howard Clark Davis, Boston financier and mining engineer.

The robbery was disclosed as a result of the recovery of $25,000 worth of bonds when the two men were captured by police after a chase.

Airlanes Used to Fight Forest Fires

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—(AP)—With a fleet of airplanes and thousands of men combatting California's season of forest fires, officials believed today most of the conflagrations which have cost four lives and swept nearly 200,000 acres in the past few days had been checked.

A force of 2,500 men, including 500 marines and sailors was employed in Southern California. Airplanes scouted the forest for strategic points to establish fire lines.

Three men were killed when the gasoline tank on a truck in which they were riding exploded after being overheated from the flames which they had planned to fight. A rancher died from exhaustion.

The battle of straw votes is on. Every mail is bringing ballots to the Straw Vote Editor of the Pampa Daily News. The "polls" will be open all this week, and every reader of The News is urged to indicate his choice for president.

Al Smith took an early lead in the mail vote, but anything can happen between now and Sunday, when the final results will be announced. One of the first votes to be registered came from a prominent business man, and several oldtimers—pioneers who used to ride miles to the polls—came in to indicate their choice.

Here is a ballot for your convenience:

A Byrd Dog and His Master

Net upon airplanes alone will the Byrd Antarctic expedition depend for motive power. Commander Byrd well knows that a team of faithful huskies can get a lot of mileage out of a few dried fish. Here's Byrd and his favorite dog, Chante, one of a pair of carefully chosen and trained huskies. They were waiting at Hampton Roads, Va., for the ship that is to carry them to the polar lands.

OPERATORS' JACKSON WELL DRILLING ITSELF IN TODAY

New Winkler Oil Well Proves Pay Six Miles South

FORT WORTH, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Gradually increasing its oil production, until it is now flowing at the rate of roughly 500 barrels per day, the Number 1 O'Brien of S. W. Richardson and Frank Kelsey, Fort Worth operators and their associates, has rendered it probable that a new producing area has been discovered in Winkler county, 6 miles south of the Hendrick pool in the opinion of oil men here.

Total depth is now 2,954 feet and top of pay was 2,805 feet. The tests in the northeast corner of Section 50, Gunter and Munson and Maddox brothers and Anderson survey and offsets the large O'Brien block of the Gulf Production company which is the principal gainer by the strike. White Eagle Oil and Refining company, which is a fractional owner in the well and the Texas company, Sun and Barnsdall have close-in acreage.

Smith Group to Convene Tonight

Smith-Robinson supporters will meet tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium to organize a club.

The meeting is said to be "for all loyal Democrats who will support the party nominees from president down to constable."

Among those sponsoring formation of the club are John Henry, Judge C. S. Wortman, C. N. Haley, and L. C. McMurry.

Giants Win

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The Giants held their place a game behind the Cardinals in the National League pennant race today by defeating Cincinnati, 7 to 4. Four homers accounted for all of the New York runs. The Reds got 11 hits off Larry Benton, while the Giants were getting 9 off Kolp.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Towner and son Vernon, and Miss Edna Zuehlke of New City are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ward.

Rotary Drilling May Be Regulated in LeFors Area

AUSTIN, Sept. 24.—(AP)—R. D. Parker, chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the State Railroad Commission, left today for Amarillo to open a hearing there Tuesday on means of controlling gas now being wasted in drilling and on possible restriction of the rotary system of drilling.

He was accompanied by Leslie McKay, chief deputy supervisor. The hearing will bear chiefly on operations in the LeFors oil section hearing on the gas problem will extend to the general phases of conservation.

Rotary drilling in the LeFors section is causing a "loss of circulation," Parker has been informed. The operators are being contaminated by water forced into wells and falling to come out.

Gas is being wasted in wells drilled through gas strata farther down for oil.

TEXHOMA HAS GREAT PAIR IN HER BACKFIELD

Lucas Brothers Score
Twice in Last Quarter

FIRST DOWNS ARE 15 TO 9

Pampa's Second String
Backs Are Used by Mitchell

BY HARRY E. HOARE
AMARILLO, Sept. 24.—Pampa high's fighting Harvesters outplayed a Texhoma (Okla.) high school eleven at Tri-State fair park here today, winning 20 to 12.

Pampa scored first in the initial quarter when Walstad tackled a Texhoma player behind the latter's goal for a safety. After about 4 minutes of play, following three first downs by the Harvesters, Roberts bucked over a touchdown. The try for goal failed. Troy Stalls' heavy tackling was a feature of this quarter. The quarter's score: Pampa 6, Texhoma 0.

Early in the second quarter a pass, Tracy to Salsbury, netted a Harvester touchdown. The pass for 20 yards, and followed a determined march down the field. With five minutes left to play, Coach Odus Mitchell sent his second string Pampa backfield in. Chastain played a wonderful game while he was on the gridiron. The half ended with the ball on Texhoma's 35-yard line, with the score: Pampa 14, Texhoma 0.

The second string Harvester line was sent in at the beginning of the second half, and the ball went up and down the field. Pampa's next score came when Chastain went over after 15 yards of clever field running. The score at the end of the third quarter was 20 for Pampa and 0 for Texhoma.

The first team backfield went in at the beginning of the fourth quarter. The Harvester line began to weaken at this juncture, and J. Lucas for the Sooners went over the line. He had just made a long run, to be dropped near the line by Kahl, who was doing half the tackling second Texhoma score after long gains through the line. Toward the end of the game, Walstad reeled off a 44-yard run, but his team lost the ball on an attempted pass.

Lard thrilled the 200 Pampans among the onlookers earlier in the contest by returning a kick-off 34 yards.

The Harvesters made fifteen first downs and Texhoma made nine. The Lucas brothers did great work for the Oklahomans, giving the Pampa line more trouble than it has experienced so far this season.

The work of the Pampa backfield also stood out. Maness was a threat and Chastain, a new man, showed that he will be used often.

Compromise on Roads

Further progress on the road policy of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is reported from Abilene, where a joint session of the highways and oil and gas division committees was held Saturday.

The proposed statewide bond issue was approved, with a number of "strings" attached. The exceptions in a resolution include: 1. If bonds are issued and provisions made to refund to counties money spent by them on designated highways, no bonds should be assumed by the State; 2. No money to be returned to counties and road districts except where money has been expended under supervision of the state highway engineer.

The proposed statewide bond issue was approved, with a number of "strings" attached. The exceptions in a resolution include: 1. If bonds are issued and provisions made to refund to counties money spent by them on designated highways, no bonds should be assumed by the State; 2. No money to be returned to counties and road districts except where money has been expended under supervision of the state highway engineer.

Briefly, these provisions of the resolution are intended to safeguard the interests of West Texas and the oil industry. As such they are real contributions toward Texas' future highway policy. They apply to the problem of making primary and secondary highways purely State projects.

The question of the statewide bond issue is still up in the air. All of the $350,000,000 suggested could not be used in one year, or a dozen years, to the best advantage. Perhaps the suggested taxes would be enough money to take over the county portion of state roads. Or at least these taxes should make possible a much smaller statewide bond issue than the one contemplated.

That County Agent

One of Gray county's greatest needs is that of a county agricultural agent. The News has made this observation many times, but it has never been more convinced of its correctness.

In searching for good grain samples for the Gray county fair exhibit, those in charge had great difficulty in finding even fair materials. Several different varieties of kafir would be found in one field, and the crossing ruined the samples for exhibit purposes. Grain which looked good standing in the field would not stand close inspection. The same condition was reported to The News from other counties.

The fault lies in the poor selection of grain to a large extent. Those counties which have county agents are putting emphasis upon good seed, with the agent doing most of the selecting and buying. As a result, these counties are showing greater yields of better grains. This is but one example of the many which could be cited. Randall county, despite the fact that the Teachers college has a big agricultural department, also has a county agent and a big agricultural program. Her exhibit shows the results in the excellence of individual entries.

Gray county is paying every year toward an agricultural agent, but through failure to match the State's $1,500 aid—representing the return of what we pay anyway—there is no agent now. It is hard to see how, from an economical standpoint, it is anything else but wasteful NOT to obtain an agent.

But it must not be assumed that Gray county can secure an agent immediately on demand. The supervisory agent for this district, working as a member of the extension department staff of A. & M. college, says that agents are in constant demand and applying counties must wait their turn. He said that should Gray county apply now, an agent could not be sent here before next spring. The quicker action is taken, therefore, the better it will be.

He suggested that the county commissioners make application through the technical provision of appropriating the county's share of the program. This does not mean that the money will be tied up, since the State will not take any action until it is ready to send an agent. Moreover, when an agent is available and the State has the ready funds, the county will again be consulted to see whether the agent is still desired.

On the basis of these facts, The News suggests that an appropriation be made at once and that Gray's application be submitted to await its turn for State action.

WASHINGTON—The country is full of Hoover Democrats and "Smith Republicans."

This story presents the list of bolting Democrats. It is interesting to note that neither list includes any public office holder, but that each presents distinctly different types. Many of the bolting Democrats named have held federal or state offices in the past, or have held purely political posts or have run unsuccessfully for office. There are a number of Anti-Saloon League figures and former McAdoo enthusiasts. The Republican bolters, it will be later observed, include only one or two former office holders. But here's the list of Democratic bolters:

Henry Breckenridge, assistant secretary of war under Wilson.

Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture under Wilson.

J. C. Penny, head of the chain store syndicate.

George W. Lane of Chicago, brother of Franklin K. Lane. Judge William R. Pattangall, former candidate for governor of Maine.

A story tomorrow will present the list of prominent "Smith Republicans" as given by the Democrats.

Nearly everybody is going to the Tri-State fair this year. Not many will say, "No, I didn't" when the thing is over.

TWINKLES

Probably there could be no more of our Texas inmates esbad, he-man convict reduced to tears by the gas method, as seen at a Baltimore prison.

Speaking of prisoners, if any more of our Texas inmates escape, the rest of them will decide the best disguise is that of a prisoner.

Towns are getting so competitive they have municipal beauty contests. It must be hard on civic pride, for manifestly one contestant must lose, in order that one may win.

The campuses are taking on renewed life, or, to quote some of the students, the studees themselves are renewing life.

Nothing is more amusing and worn-out-looking than a delapidated old car, but some outworn ideas are just as absurd. And other ideas are always up to the minute.

Writing anonymous letters is like trying to heckle a speaker from the safety and obscurity of the edge of a crowd, but even worse is being unwilling to write any of the things one urges everyone else to write.

BARBS

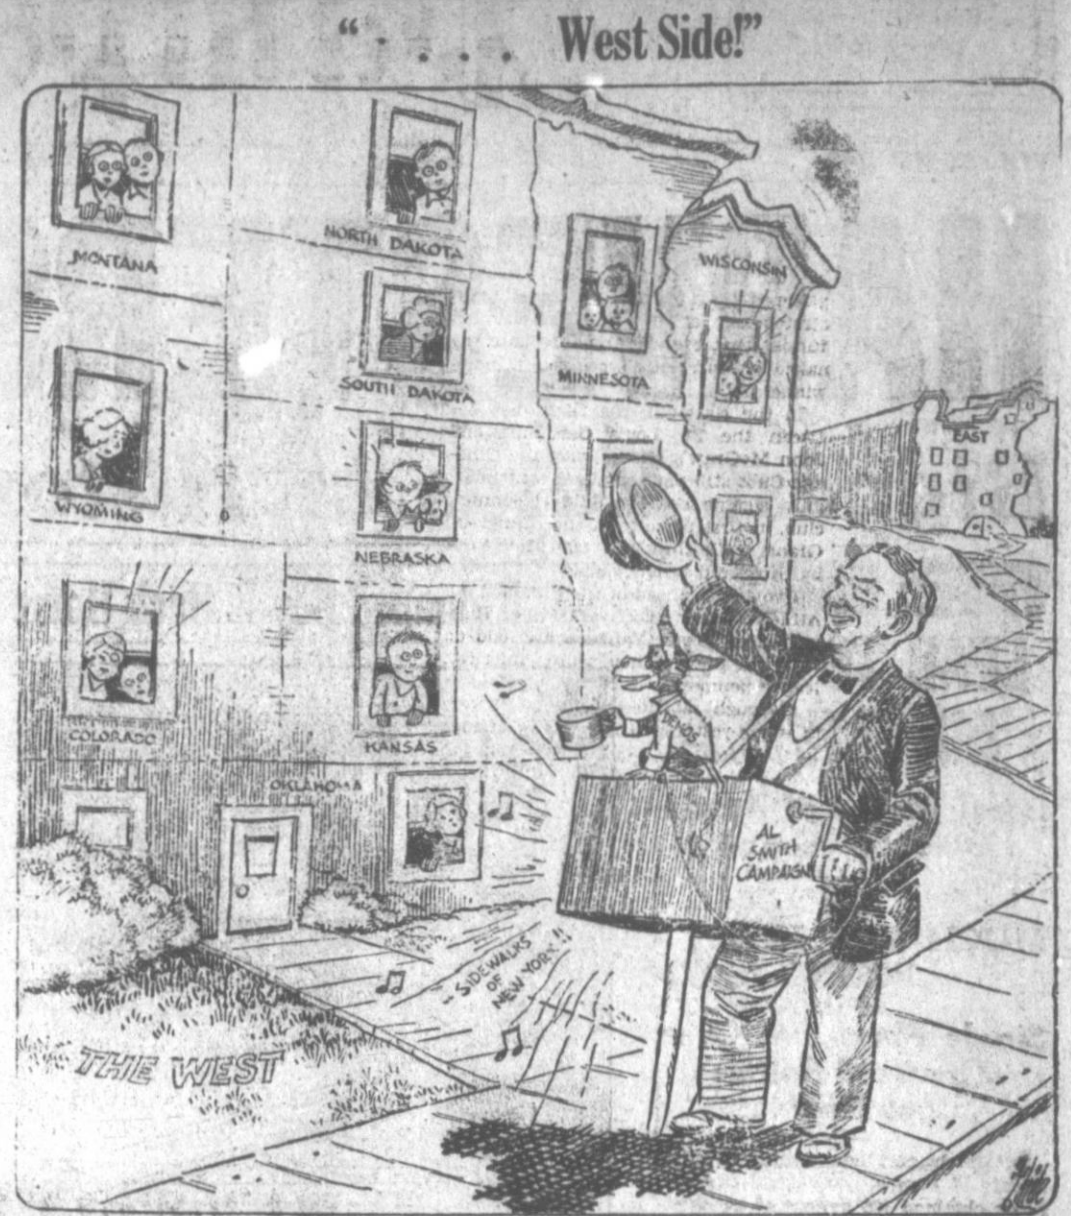

Message from Tampa, Fla., says the hurricane was only doing 35 miles an hour when it passed that city. Never mind, it'll be at least 90 by the time it gets to the California reactor's bulletins.

Lyle Womack, who is suing Ruth Elder for divorce, tried to join the Byrd expedition to the south pole. The pole, undoubtedly, would be as nothing after that cold reception he got at the New York pier a few months ago.

Philadelphia district attorney says he discovered that a police captain, drawing $250 a month, has banked $2500 in four months time. Just the man, obviously, to help Mr. Coolidge out with that $94,000,000 deficit.

A sobbing woman, according to dispatches, held up a poker game in New York the other night and got away with $2000. That's new; still, many and many a poker player has been relieved of all his winnings after the game by a sobbing woman—and she didn't need a pistol to do it, either.

Odd, isn't it, that neither of the presidential candidates has yet thought of the scheme of carrying Iowa by coralling all the Iowa voters out in southern California?

Leaders Tightly Hold Places in Last of Season

By HERBERT W. BARKER

With the wire and pennant victory in full view, baseball's thoroughbreds galloped down the major league home-stretch in a driving finish so hot and furious that even at this late date the naked eye can not discern the ultimate winners.

In the National, the flight lies between the St. Louis Cardinals and John McGraw's Giants with the Chicago Cubs still mathematical contenders. Only a game separates Bill McKechnie's club, in first place from the runner-up Giants while the Cubs trail New York by three and snuff games.

Two games ahead of the Philadelphia Athletics, their sole rivals, Miller Huggins' New York Yankees are odd-on favorites to win their third American league pennant in a row.

Although all these contenders were in action yesterday there was no change in their relative positions.

The Giants had the closest escape. They were carried to 14 innings before they could nose out the Cincinnati Reds, 2 to 1.

The Cardinals met this Giant victory with one of their own over Brooklyn, 7 to 1. Jess Haines held the Robins to three hits and the game really was decided as early as the third inning when Jim Bottomley sailed his 30th home run of the season over the right field wall with two men on base.

The Yanks and Athletics kept step in the American league, the champions defeating Cleveland, 5 to 0, while the A's were defeating Dan Howley's St. Louis Browns, 11 to 7.

The Chicago White Sox moved into a tie for fourth place with Washington by turning back the Senators in the first game of the series, 8 to 3. Ted Lyons pitched effectively while Marberry was being slashed for 11 hits that came in bunches.

At Detroit, Phil Page, Eastern league recruit, won his second major league victory in as many starts when the Tigers beat Boston, 4 to 1.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The world's series picture is being about even in the conflict of master minds, no matter how the hot and heavy pennant races finish.

Of the five clubs that still have any kind of a chance to get into baseball's big money classic, the manager of only one, Joe McCarthy of the Chicago Cubs, lacks experience in the series. The Cubs are a long shot, anyway, but if they should happen to perform the miracle and come through, McCarthy won't concede much in the battle of wits.

If it's the Yankees and the Cardinals again, Miller Huggins will have somewhat the edge on his St. Louis rival, Bill McKechnie, in experience, whether or not that has any decisive bearing. The diminutive Yankee pilot has been through five of the last seven of baseball's world wars but McKechnie had a good workout when he led the Pittsburgh Pirates to an uphill victory over Washington in the memorable 1925 series.

It's an outside possibility, but it would offer the most dramatic possibilities if John McGraw's Giants and Connie Mack's Athletics should be matched for the championship. They were big rivals back in the period of 1906 to 1913, clashing three times in the world's series.

Imagine what a world's series picture it would be, or, on the other hand, marvel at the master mind possibilities with McGraw matching with Mack, Eddie Collins, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker and Kid Gleason.

Here are the comparative world's series record of the pilots of contending clubs:

Manager	SW.	SL.	OW.	OL.
Connie Mack	3	0	13	13
Bill McKechnie	1	0	4	3
Miller	2	3	14	15
John McGraw	3	6	26	28

Heads Indians

This young man, who looks like he knows how to punt, has two names. At Oregon State, where he wants to play football, he is known as Cogueli Thompson, but at his home in Seletz he is Chief Hus-Heh. Yet, he's a real Indian chief and he is, says Coach Schelsler, a real football player.

Harder Games on Saturday List in Southwest Area

DALLAS, Sept. 24.—(AP)—With four practice games out of the way and seven other non-conference games scheduled before a battle that will have a bearing on the championship takes place, Southwestern conference coaches abandoned drill on fundamentals today and devoted attention to polishing their teams for the big football spectacles of the season.

Arkansas is expected to have the toughest assignment of Saturday against Mississippi university, but the other six conference teams are matched against smaller opponents.

Southern Methodist university and Baylor ran up the biggest scores Saturday, the Methodists defeating the Denton Teachers 33 to 0 and Baylor downing the Stephen F. Austin Teachers 31 to 0. S. M. U. meets Howard Payne next Saturday in a game that should be closer than the contest with Denton. Coach Morrison, however, will devote very little time this week to the Howard Payne clash as Saturday's game revealed many weaknesses which he must overcome before his game with Army.

Coach Dana Bible at Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college looked forward to his coming game with Southwestern university as a test of the encouraging conclusions which A. & M. rosters formed after seeing the Aggies in their 2 to 0 victory over Trinity Saturday.

Coach Matty Bell at Texas Christian university was encouraged by the punch which his team displayed Saturday in its 21 to 0 victory over East Texas Teachers' college. Daniel Baker of Brownwood meets the Christians next Saturday.

Baylor showed plenty of punch in the second half of the game after a listless start and should have little difficulty against the Denton Teachers Saturday.

In addition to Arkansas, two other conference teams, Rice and Texas, are due to make their first appearance of the season this week-end. The Longhorns, rated as one of the outstanding contenders for the championship this season, will take on St. Edwards at Austin while Rice meets the Sam Houston Teachers.

Arkansas expected a real battle from "Ole Miss" but was given an edge on the basis of past performances, having conquered the Mississippians for the last two years.

Great Battle Is Expected in Varner Match Tonight

When Walter Varner 156 pounds, of Pampa and Roxana and Eddie Gilmore, 154 pounds, of Chicago step into the squared circle tonight at the Pla-Mor auditorium, Pampa sportmen are expecting to see a real battle.

Fresh from several recent battles in Chicago, Gilmore will make his first appearance in the Southwest here tonight. According to reports he is a flash on his feet and carries a sleep punch in either fist.

The local boy is well known here and fans are behind him to beat the fighter from the north. Varner has been idle for several months, but has kept himself in excellent condition by rigid training to be ready for the fall season. He has beaten the best boys in this territory and is all set for 10-rounds tonight.

In the 8-round semi-final Frankie Farrell, 128 pounds, will mix with Jack Morrison, 126 pounds of Borger. These two boys are as fast as any in their weight in the Southwest and always put up a real scrap. They have met before and are bitter rivals in the ring. Farrell says he is in the best of condition and out for a win tonight. The Borger boy shaded him in their last encounter here.

Kid Roberts and Kid Nicholson, both weighing 122 pounds, will provide another interesting time when they step out six rounds. Both kids are tough and fast and are the type that stand toe to toe and slug.

Local midgets and bantams will open the fall card at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

TRI-STATE EXPOSITION AMARILLO, TEXAS SEPT. 22nd to 29th FREE GATE FREE ATTRACTIONS Shooley & Collins' Spectacular Winter Garden Revue Leonard Stroud's Breath-taking RODEO

WHIRLWIND BY ELEANOR EARLY THIS HAS HAPPENED SYBIL THORNE, from a chaste, dignified, living with her mother in Boston. Nobody knew Sybil's married name except MABEL, BLAKE and Mabel's mother, ACH EBBERTS. Sybil had been married for two weeks. Sybil, after tearing of her husband's unbelievable infidelity, returned to Boston with Mabel. CRAIG NEWHALL, her old sweetheart, meets her at the pier, but his manner is strangely distant, and Sybil wonders if he could know anything of her romance. She is wretchedly unhappy because of her tragic secret, and also because of the recent death of her father and the marriage of her mother to VALERIE WEST, a frivolous and selfish little debutante. MRS. THORNE who is also heartbroken, takes up psycho-analysis at her mother's suggestion and gets a new outlook on life. Valerie, in one of her tantrums, runs from the room because Sybil and Tad seem appreciative of her efforts on their mother's behalf. Mrs. Thorne, always so kind to Val, suggests that maybe she is going to have a baby. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXVII SYBIL laughed shortly. "Not a chance," she opined. "Valerie wasn't born yesterday." Mrs. Thorne blushed painfully. "You shouldn't say things like that," she reproved her daughter mildly. "Who started it?" demanded Tad, and catching her to him, kissed her roughly and laughed at her discomfort. "If Mother's not her heart set on a grandchild, I guess you'll have to get married, Sib." Across his mother's head he winked broadly. "A girl ought to be willing to do that much for her poor old mother." Mrs. Thorne rushed him gently from her. "Freshie!" she murmured in the fashion of her girlhood and slapped him with a pink rose. SEPTEMBER was hot in Boston that year. Quiet, with hardly a breath of air; and the heat rising in little puffs from the cobble stones. After school small boys swam in the Frog Pond and grownups patronized the swan boats. Firemen sprinkled down the streets. And the newspapers chronicled the temperature in screaming headlines, with lists of prostrations in red print. Mrs. Thorne felt the heat painfully. "If you'd had sense enough to stay at Wianno!" Sybil reproached Valerie. "That's right—blame it on me." "Well, you dragged Mother home." "Oh, of course—it's all my fault." The girls had stopped speaking, when Valerie decided to visit friends in New Haven. "You'll be glad enough to be rid of me," she remarked, which was so true that Sybil refrained from comment. Tad was to make a western trip on business. "And when I get back," he declared firmly, "Val and I are going to look around for a place of our own. It's an awful imposition—staying here. Val doesn't realize, of course—but Mother's not so young as she used to be." It was Sybil who packed his bags and saved his buttons on and drove him to the station when he went away. Valerie had an engagement that evening to play bridge. The next day she was leaving for Connecticut. IT WAS lonely for Sybil when she and her mother were alone, since Craig had more or less effaced himself, and Sybil was rather avoiding her old crowd. Craig had declared himself quite definitely. "I don't like being a footstool," he told her. "And I'm all through bothering you, Sybil. I guess maybe you've found my protestations annoying. You know I love you. I'd do anything for you. But I don't seem to know how to make you care for me. So I'm going to drop out of the picture for a while." "Absence makes the heart grow fonder," she parried lightly, half glad of the relief of promised solitude. "So I've noticed," he retorted, "tender of the other man." She wondered if there was any significance in the remark. "If there's ever anything I can do for you," he offered. "Oh, Craig!" she protested, "don't be silly!" "Well, I just wanted you to know," he insisted awkwardly. "Any time you want me, let me know." AFTER that she saw him infrequently, and missed him more than she had thought possible. Occasionally he sent flowers and a box of candied fruits to Mrs. Thorne, who was pleased that he remembered her preference. Munching a sugared pineapple or succulent pear she would contemplate Sybil gloomily over her sweet and remark, as usual, that she could go further and fare worse. Once after that Craig took Sybil to a road house. It was the first time she had done anything gay for weeks. She wore a dress of lilac chiffon and pinned a great bunch of silk violets on her shoulder. She wore a top coat of soft mauve and a little felt hat that matched. Almost all men, she reflected, liked orchid and purple and all the royal shades between. Craig had often told her violet was his favorite color. She slipped a long string of amethysts about her neck and fastened gleaming pearls, fashioned like grapes, in her ears.

China's Womanhood Wants Co-Education

SHANGHAI (AP)—China's womanhood has come out in favor of co-education. Nankai's national educational conference opposes it. The Amalgamated Committee for the Upholding of Women's Rights demands that in education, as in all other things, there should be a standard of equality between men and women. An announcement of the women's committee says: "Since the May movement there has been a general demand for equality between men and women, this being a subject which has been approved by all the people. At a meeting of the national educational conference, a resolution was passed opposing co-education in colleges and middle schools and recommending the stoppage of the co-educational movement in China in all institutions in which the system has been introduced. News of this was received by the people with considerable surprise and suspicion. Our women folk have been thrown into a state of alarm and anxiety. The purpose of introduction of co-educational facilities to women and to place their standard of education on a higher basis. The system has been in vogue several years and young men and young women have lived on terms of equality. "Although it has been difficult to avoid certain evils, the results attained, on the whole, have been most satisfactory. The system heretofore should not be ended now. "In certain provinces boys and girls have been taught in separate schools. This should not be the case. The girls should have a chance of being educated just as much as the boys. The girls are quite as capable as the boys and they can well look after themselves. "Telegrams have been sent throughout the country appealing for sympathy in this movement of 'fighting for a common principle.'"

Evening Styles Have Own Characteristics

BY HAZEL REAVIS
(Associated Press Fashion Editor)
PARIS (AP)—Evening dresses more or less make their own rules in the new fashions, rules which are not effective before dinner and apply only to the electrically lighted hours. Rule one calls for irregular lines. Necklines, waistlines, hemlines are equally affected by the idea of ups and downs. There are exceptions to the rule. Rule two suits material to the line. Or, as some dressmakers prefer to put it, the line to suit the material. Materials for evening are velvet, satin, taffeta, lame, lace and chiffon. The third rule is concerned with color, which may be black, white, pale pink, pale blue, pale green, bright red. Or, if preferred, any other color that is outstandingly becoming. On those generalities Paris has built some of the most interesting evening dresses of many seasons, critic agree. A word of advice, issued by one of the most earnest makers of fashion, "Don't be afraid to look different in your evening clothes." This designer says that evening clothes are different in effect and purpose. He urges women to study the fashion plates of the Eighties and Nineties in a search for the basic principles on which the light time chic of 1928 is built. Skirts which flare in black below the hips, and dresses draped at back and side are a reflection of the fashions of the past century used by nearly all dressmakers for autumn. More fitted bodices are another indication of old-new fashions.

Chicago Raids Solves Crimes of All Varieties

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—(AP)—A series of week-end raids that snared 25 men and two women was being pointed today as one of the greatest single blows at Chicago crime in recent months. More than 100 crimes have been solved as a result of the arrests, Deputy Commissioner Siegel said. There were three raids, personally conducted by the deputy commissioner. He announced after hours spent questioning his prisoners that confessions had been made clearing crimes ranging from robbery to murder. Among crimes in which the commissioner said he had confessions were the slaying of Maurice Younglove, private watchman, during a hold-up

PARIS (AP)—Cuffs of distinction are considered a recommendation for a winter coat. Worth has a crow blue serge coat with golden brown seal collar and cuffs which extend above the elbow. Despite the wide fur trimming, the effect of the foresleeves is slender. Sleeves and yoke, front and back, are pintucked.

Smith's Daughter Is Much Interested in His Movements

BY MARTHA DALEYMPLE Associated Press Staff Writer

GOVERNOR SMITH'S TRAIN EN ROUTE TO HELENA, Mont., Sept. 24.—(AP)—The business of running for the presidency of the United States has assumed for Mrs. John Warren, daughter of Governor Smith, and his companion on his first campaign trip, proportions far greater than the ordinary final interest in a father's fight. Her interest in the routine of the campaign in the political significance of each speech made by her father, and in the status of Democracy in all the western states through which the train has passed, has become noticeably keener during the first week. One of the newspaper men suggested yesterday that she attend the press conference held with her father on the train. "Oh, I'd love to," she agreed enthusiastically. "Wait, I'll ask father if it will be all right." The governor's ready "sure, come along," resulted in her occupying a seat next to the governor. She listened with earnest attention to each question and gazed expectantly at her father as he pondered upon his replies. On two occasions during the last week she has submitted for her late-rising father, making back platform speeches to the crowds that had collected to see the candidate.

Deal Marriage of Lila Lee on Matrimonial Rocks

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24.—(P)—Miss Lila Lee and James Kirkwood, players on the stage and screen, have come to a parting of the marital ways, and her desire to continue her film career has been given by Miss Lee as cause of the rift. After weeks of denying reports of domestic differences, the couple made a week-end announcement that a separation, which the Hollywood film colony had regarded as temporary, would be made permanent. Miss Lee declared it was the result of her conviction that no actress could be a success both in making a home and building a career. Since their marriage five years ago Kirkwood and Miss Lee were regarded as one of filmdom's ideal couples despite the difference in their ages. At the time of the wedding Miss Lee was 18, and Kirkwood more than twice that age.

Later, dispatches from Chicago said five pages of publicity containing a portion of Mrs. Willebrandt's speech had been recalled by western Republican headquarters after distribution to newspapers. No explanation was given beyond a statement that a "mistake had been made."

THREE CHILDREN DIE IN MIAMI, OKLA. FIRE

MIAMI, Okla., Sept. 24.—(P)—Two children were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a frame tenement here today. An open gas heater, left burning in the room in which the children had been left, the door locked, was believed the origin of the fire. The children, Juanita Hughes, four, and her brother, Leon, 2, had been left by the mother, Mrs. Charles Hughes, while she went to a neighbor's home on an errand. On the mother's return, ten minutes after her departure, the structure was a mass of flames. Firemen extinguished the flames and recovered the bodies.

More than 200, either burned in the rapid spread of the flames or trampled in the rush for exits, were treated in emergency dressing stations or hospitals. Some 20 of those taken to hospitals died. When the flames started on the stage during an intermission, the theatre, which held 3,000 was packed to capacity for a Sunday performance of "La Mejor del Puerto." There was a rush for the exits.
