W. R. ELY STARTS BRIDGE COLLAPSE PROBE

Mobeetie, First Panhandle Town, May Become Newest in Area

TOWNSITE TO BE 1 1/2 MILES TO THE NORTH

Fifteen Miles of Rails Laid From Pampa Eastward

BRIDGE WORK UNDER WAY

Railroad Will Traverse Interesting Route and Country

BY HARRY E. HOARE

The oldest town in the Panhandle is making to become the newest town. Citizens of Mobeetie will ask the Panhandle and Santa Fe railway to name the new townsite on the line from Pampa to Cheyenne, Okla., which will pass the present site of Mobeetie a mile and a half to the north. Mobeetie also. The present routing of the line is three miles closer to the old townsite than the original survey.

Under the personal supervision of W. E. Hochstetler, chief engineer of construction, the new C. and O. W. line, which upon completion will be known as the P. and S. F. railway, is being rapidly pushed forward toward the Oklahoma state line. Fifteen miles of rails has been laid and only bridge work is holding up the continued laying of steel.

Are Many Camps

In all, 42 per cent of the grade for the entire line has been completed and at least twenty camps along the right-of-way are established to finish the work. Large cuts have been made and more are under construction, while almost unbelievably large fills are being made.

The line when completed will be the scenic route of the Panhandle. The line passes through a section of country abundant in agricultural wealth and beauty. The land is rolling from Pampa to the east, when it passes through hills and valleys of beauty. At one place the line is level with the prairie, but within a few miles it either dips into small canyon or goes over a bluff where many miles of scenery are to be seen.

Consolidating Bridge

At the present time, rail laying is being held up while a bridge is being constructed across a draw fifteen miles east of here. A large pile driver, steam driven, is crashing 40-foot concrete caissons into the earth as the base for the first bridge along the line, while steel piles farther east another large caisson is sinking 70-foot piles for another caisson. Both of these caissons are under the highway 23-A to Mobeetie and points east and will do away with dangerous level crossings.

The large piles are being sunk from twenty to 35 feet in the earth.

Distributed from Pampa to the Oklahoma line, the 350 men are at work on the line, grading, laying rails, filling in, driving piles and the hundred other jobs. More than 300 teams are at work along the line throwing up grade. Two night gangs are at work, using carbide lights.

Many Engineers

The engineering department, the first on the job and last to leave, has four camps along the line with a head office in Pampa under W. H. Rochester, composed of 64 men whose work it is to choose the right-of-way, keep the grade even, survey cuts and fill-ins, and do a myriad of other jobs.

Besides the two large pile driving machines, three steam and gas shovels are in operation, while the large rail laying machine is a revelation to watch. It is capable of laying one mile of rails a day.

Cuts through small hills, fill-ins through small lakes, and innumerable curves in the line changes the monotony usually found along the Panhandle railway. Steel is arriving for the bridges along the line. The first is to be eighteen miles east of here.

ATHLETICS WIN, 4 TO 3

Mrs. J. M. Daugherty Pioneer Woman, Is Claimed by Death

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Methodist church for Mrs. J. M. Daugherty, wife of J. M. Daugherty of Hoover, who died at her home late Monday afternoon following a lingering illness. Had she lived three days longer she would have been 81 years old. The Rev. Tom Strohman and Joe Strother conducted the services at the church and as the grave.

She was married to John Daugherty in 1872 and to this union was born five children, four of whom survive: W. M. Daugherty, Dumas, F. A. Daugherty, Agatha, Idaho; Marvin Daugherty, Hoover; Mrs. M. E. Blackburn, Junction. Also she has two brothers, William and M. Crutchfield, a sister, Mrs. C. A. Borden, and twenty grandchildren living.

Mrs. Daugherty has been a lifelong member of the Methodist church. She with her husband moved to Hoover in 1916 and resided there with their son, who has a store and elevator in that town.

The pallbearers were W. R. Campbell, Horace McBee, S. D. Park, William Allen, W. A. Scales, and W. M. Craven.

Cats From Fort Worth to Play Grays on Sunday

The Fort Worth Cats, first division team in the Texas league, will be seen here Sunday afternoon when they play an exhibition game with the Pampa Grays. The game will be called at 3:15 p. m. at the Grays park on the Miami road.

The original team will represent the Cats who are on a tour meeting the best teams in the state.

Whom Guber will use in the box is not yet known, but it will probably be Gur Ketchum or Lefty Ward. Tom Clayton will be unable to be behind the bat, but Guber is trying to secure the veteran Sled Allen to do the receiving for the local line.

The Cats' line-up will be received tomorrow, when Guber will be ready to announce his line-up for the big game.

REGULAR FAIR WILL NOT BE HELD THIS YEAR

At a meeting of the Pampa Fair board this morning at the Chamber of Commerce rooms it was decided to purchase the land, recently agreed upon, from the White Deer Land company. A fall fair will not be attempted this year, but a fall carnival featuring, chickens, fruit and livestock will be held later in the season.

With the school board, the fair association tentatively purchased 30 acres of land now being used as the Grays' baseball park. The location is on the Miami road a mile north of the center of the city.

Reports will be received from the committees collecting funds, and the necessary papers will be signed in the immediate future in order to get the football field in condition for the coming season. It is the intention of the school board to play all the football games of the season at the new location.

The opening game Saturday afternoon will be played on Ayres field, east of the Channing addition.

Two More Blocks of Paving Opened on West Francis

Two additional blocks of paving on West Francis avenue were opened to traffic yesterday to make nine blocks of the new program being in use at the present time. Two blocks on West Francis street remain to be opened.

In order to serve North Pampa, a crossing will be maintained across Freet street, next to be paved, at Browning avenue, as well as keeping the entire length of West street open last evening before the crossing or Browning was made. Residents of the part of the city tried as many as fly-streets to get to their homes, finally having to return to town and enter by way of Providence street in the west part of town.

Several motorists removed the barricade on Francis avenue and used the block not yet opened to traffic according to the watchman who sets the lanterns.

Paving operations are in progress on South Cuyler street, where three blocks have been completed. The completed paving is 25 feet wide. The remaining block will be 41 feet in width.

Chicago Woman Shoots Father of Her Children

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—(P)—Mrs. Ada Johnson, 36, widow with nine children; and an expectant mother today shot and killed Dominick Finn, 32, a former constable whom she accused of being the father of two of her children and of the expected baby.

Mrs. Johnson, who surrendered at a police station, said that Finn, when a constable, extorted money from her when he found she was selling liquor and forced his attentions on her when she was unable to pay more. Following a quarrel last night she said she went to Finn's home and shot him through the head as he slept.

Finn's wife is in a hospital, where she gave birth to a child two days ago, and has not been notified of his death.

FIVE MORE LOCATIONS ARE MADE BY LEFORS PETROLEUM

The LeFors Petroleum company announces the making of five new locations on the LeFors townsite. Two of these locations will be drilled immediately, according to information from the company headquarters.

The location for the company's No. 5 LeFors townsite will be 280 feet south of the north line of the survey and will be 198 feet west of the same company's gas well. This location will be a south offset to the Gulf Production company's test now drilling near Pampa.

The company's No. 6 in the same section will be 270 feet west of the east line and 290 feet south of the north line of the townsite boundary. This will be a direct south offset to the Prairie Oil and Gas company's producer in the Thut pre-emption survey.

Locations have been made for Nos. 7, 8, and 9, but these wells will not be drilled at the present time.

The company has one gas well making 60,000,000 feet and two oil wells, one making 2,000 barrels a day and the other flowing about 400 barrels a day natural.

TEXAS CROPS ARE BETTER THIS YEAR THAN WERE LAST

AUSTIN, Sept. 12.—(P)—Major field crops, with the exception of corn and oats are greater in Texas this year than in 1927, says a crop summary issued here today by the United States department of Agriculture.

Cotton is considerably above the average in production, with the yield per acre somewhat greater than last year and the ten-year average. August weather was mainly unfavorable over most of the state. Cotton picking made fair progress, as did the harvesting of hay and matured corn.

The corn crop is irregular the report says, some counties having excellent yields while others will not harvest enough for a year's supply.

Sowing of fall wheat has started in the northwest district and it is expected that the 2,229,000 acres sown last year will be exceeded.

ROAD FOREMAN IS KILLED BY HEAVY SPAN

70 Tons of Concrete Buries Body for Four Hours

NINE WORKMEN ESCAPE INJURY

Highway Commissioner to Learn Cause of Disaster

ABILENE, Sept. 12.—(P)—Four hours after the collapse of a 45-foot concrete span on a bridge near here yesterday, the body of Sebe Riles, foreman, was found buried under 70 tons of wet concrete.

Riles, who resided in Waco, was standing beneath the center section on a scaffold when the structure collapsed.

Nine other workmen, including Fred J. Hutchins of Abilene, inspector, were on top of the span when it gave way, but escaped with minor injuries.

An investigation was started today by W. R. Ely, state highway commissioner, and W. H. Van London, resident highway engineer of Mitchell county, who was supervising construction of the bridge.

Of Schooling

Pampa welcomes more than 70 teachers. They are an addition of fine humanity to local life which can hardly be underestimated in ultimate influence; it is a privilege of which any city may be proud to have them.

The teachers live here during the year and should be welcomed into community life. Teaching and learning are not abstract things, but are exercises—experience—in living. The aim of the school is to mold good citizens in the fullest sense. This means not merely preparation that enables students to earn a living. There is a fuller duty to find a logical place in society and render a measure of public service.

Students cannot but in small measure realize the opportunities that are theirs. If they could know the completeness of their privileges in contrast to the limitations of students in other lands, they would be more appreciative. There is a public education, free to all alike, with merit as the basis for scholastic awards. It is not so in many lands.

Modern pupils are uniformly quick-witted and capable, needing only proper guidance to become capable citizens. Teachers likewise are highly trained in a profession needing the same type of skill as the bar or medicine to insure best results. Nor are the parents without duties. Their interest, their ability to understand the problems of the teacher and the basic natures of their children, largely determine the morals of a school.

Grant the teachers the same respect and consideration accorded other civic leaders, pleads Supt. S. M. N. Marrs. It is a timely and logical request. Welcome the teachers.

Something Human

There is something extraordinarily human in a well-governed hospital. There is optimism even above the sickness and sorrow that abounds, for sympathy and skill so handily provided engender a healthy spirit even in those who know they have few chances for recovery.

Sickness is a great leveler of social distinctions, and many friendships are formed about a hospital that otherwise would be impossible. Around a hospital folk for "miles around" will be found. Baylor hospital, for example, during the last year had admissions from 21 states, distributed as follows in part: Texas 10,159, Oklahoma 116, Arkansas 13, Louisiana 10, New Mexico 9, Missouri 7, Connecticut 5, Nevada 5, Washington 4, Hawaiian Islands 1, England 1.

TWINKLES

"Show Me the Way to Go Home" is the official song in North Pampa. Paving is mighty fine when completed, but a lot of residents need blue-prints of the present detours to show them how to get home without using airplanes.

And house numbering will be wonderful, except that it will enable a lot of bothersome visitors to find us more easily. Our modest obscurity will be all ruined. Progress has its woes, folks.

The Harvesters are losing bits of skin in the crimmages, but if the scars do not add to their social prestige there is something wrong with the girls at Central high.

We read that Gotham crowds tossed their straws in the air when Babe hit a homer and decide to make our lid last a while longer. There's sentiment in an old straw—it fits.

Hear! A Pampa man laments he can't desert Democracy without being classed with the other bolters. Truly, men blush often on seeing who have beliefs similar to their own.

Fun-for nothin': Watching fond mother pile groceries in one side of car and tiny baby throw them into the street on other side.

BARBS

Mrs. Knapp, former secretary of state of New York, was sentenced to 30 days for the theft of $3,000 state funds. Too much, rather, that is, we mean, too much.

Medical students at Johns Hopkins are taught cooking during their final year. Well, isn't a doctor's wife entitled to good meals, too?

The headline, "Robinson Hits Whisperers" reminds us that whisper and speaky sound alike but are two different things.

George Bernard Shaw says he is going to rent an island with one house on it where steamers do not stop. "A little publicity", he might have added, "doesn't hurt a bit."

What this country needs is more automobiles for the pupils to drive to school and more gymnasiums for them to exercise in.

The theory of a picnicker seems to be that every little bit helps.

WASHINGTON — Nearly everyone has a watch, wrist or pocket, so the Smithsonian Institution has added an exhibit to its great museum which shows how that happened.

The collection was donated by a New Haven company and includes many old specimens of clocks and watches which show the development of timepieces. The water clock that Archimedes constructed isn't among it, but there are more than enough old time instruments to demonstrate the evolution.

King Alfred of England is credited with inventing the timekeeping candle, as well as the first horn lamp shade, and the Smithsonian has such a candle—not King Alfred's—which was marked off in numbered spaces and intended to burn equal lengths in a given time.

Somewhat similar is an old oil lamp which has the hours marked off in similar spaces on the glass oil container which rests above the wick. As the oil burns slowly it fell and drained off the hours.

Various types of hour glasses, of course, including one set of fourteenth century glasses found in Nuremberg in which the dropping sands not only indicated the passing of hours, but also of quarter hours and the half hours.

Spain contributed a sundial used by shepherds and carried in the pocket. Perhaps this was the first watch. It's a tiny ivory cylinder with queer curves on which the shadows traced the passage of time.

The Germans were experts in early watchmaking and clockmaking and the exhibit contains beautiful ivory pocket sundials. One is a seventeenth century specimen from Nuremberg, hinged and folded together. These watches contained magnetic compasses, elaborate astronomical charts and lists of the latitudes of the principal European cities. They had string gnomons. There are sixteenth century specimens from China and Japan.

There's a model of the primitive sundial used by the Montagnais Indians, who merely set up a staff in the snow and noted the angle between shadows from time to time.

And an iron clock dial, sixteenth century French, on which the figures run backward because the dial revolved instead of the hands.

The water clock was apparently the original timepiece and good examples of those are also shown, though not from the earliest period of their existence.

One of these shows a hollow drum suspended between parallel shafts on which the hours are marked. The drum is divided into seven compartments by partitions which do not quite reach the center and each compartment has a tiny hole through which the water dripped. As the water dripped out, it appears, the drum rose or fell.

Azar Sunday School Class Gives Luncheon in Wells Smith Home

Mrs. L. Wells Smith's attractive home was decorated with a profusion of ferns and fragrant garden flowers when members and honorary members of the Azar class of the Baptist Sunday school held their monthly social meeting there yesterday. Yellow and white blossoms predominated in the bouquets, indicating the color scheme that was followed in all appointments for a luncheon which was served at 1 o'clock. Bowls of nasturtiums centered the eight small tables. Place cards and nut cups were decorated in the yellow, green and white theme, while green and white candles in yellow rose-bud holders burned at each table. A delightful program was given in the afternoon. Miss Blanche Anderson and Miss Virginia Ross sang two numbers, to staccato accompaniment by Miss Rose. Mrs. Marvyn Lewis played a number of beautiful piano selections. Mrs. T. F. Morton and Miss Bonnie Lee Rose gave readings that added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

PLAINS SPECIALS

SILVERTON—The Briscoe County Fair association will award a gold medal to the farmer who wins the most ribbons in the poultry, dairy and general farm crop division at the county fair. This award will be presented by the President of the County Fair association at the Harvest banquet. It will be a very handsome medal and will have the necessary engraving placed thereon.

This award is given mainly to bring out the importance of a program of diversification on the farm. The farmer who has good chickens, good dairy cows, hogs, along with his good crops will surely be more successful, will make a more substantial citizen in the community, and will have a more contented family.

Any farmer in the county can compete. To win it will be necessary for him to enter exhibits in livestock, poultry and general farm exhibits, and to show the highest possible quality he has in these divisions on his farm. For further information, see W. M. Gourley, secretary, Fair association.

This will be a big feature of the fair and of the harvest banquet. His picture will be sent to some of the leading papers, providing he is willing to have this done.

Silvertown poultry comes high in the opinion of D. L. Gentry, employe of the carnival company which spent a part of last week in Silvertown. Gentry reached that opinion after paying $47.40 for one hen, and then losing the hen.

While the carnival festivities were at their height last Saturday night Carlisle Harris apprehended Gentry in his hen yard, about to make way with one of its inhabitants. Coloring the marriage, Mr. Harris forced him to release the hen, and then turned him over to the law.

The law proceeded to take its course on Monday morning before Judge O. R. Tipps, with County Attorney C. W. Norrd representing the state. Gentry drew down a fine of $25.00 and costs amounting in all to $47.40 and 3 days in jail.—Briscoe County News.

DIANA OF RIO GRANDE OUT FOR OFFICE OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Hunting is the hobby of Mrs. Lena More, republican nominee for lieutenant governor of Texas. With her are her three daughters, Dorothy, Elizabeth and Gay.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas.—(AP)—A woman whose hobby in hunting is out to bag the office of lieutenant governor.

She is Mrs. Lena More, the republican nominee for that office living in Brownsville, which is on the Rio Grande, she shoots game in Mexico as well as Texas.

With the election several weeks away, she yearns more right now for the thrill of firing a rifle at a ferocious mountain lion than hammering a gavel to call the Texas senate to order. But when the state campaign gets fully under way, Mrs. More says, she will be as enthusiastic as she is during the open season on deer, quail and wild turkey.

"I shall do all I can toward bringing victory for the republican ticket, both state and national," she declares. Mrs. More is the mother of three daughters. If she is elected, she will join two of the girls, Gay and Elizabeth, in Austin, where they attend the University of Texas. Dorothy, the youngest daughter, is a student at a school in Dallas.

Mrs. More's husband, C. H. More, died ten years ago. He was an intimate friend and political ally of R. B. Creager of Brownsville, the republican national committeeman for Texas. Her father, D. F. Gay, Sr. was a

Broken Neck Is Believed Healing in Louisiana Case

George Shuffield, proprietor of Quaker drug store has just returned from a trip to points in Texas and Louisiana. Planned as an all-air trip from Wichita Falls, the itinerary was into after San Antonio was reached by news of a near-fatal accident to George Craig, a brother-in-law of Mr. Shuffield, at Mansfield, La. Mr. Craig, a driller in the Mansfield area, was letting 3600 feet of pipe into the well when the braking apparatus gave way allowing the brake to strike him in the chest and jer the chin, knocking him high into the air. Falling headlong to the ground he sustained a fractured skull, broken neck, and a dislocated right shoulder. Little hope was held for his recovery until Dr. Guy Caldwell, in charge of the Masonic Hospital in New Orleans, arrived by airplane. Dr. Caldwell holds the unique record of having treated four patients with broken necks, recently, all of whom were recovered. Mr. Craig is now doing nicely and his recovery is expected.

D. 1928, same being the 8th day of Oct., A. D. 1928 then and there to answer the petition of George N. Powell, plaintiff, filed in said Court on the 5th day of Sept. A. D. 1928 against John C. L. Ward, Harry H. Helms, C. B. Redmon, W. L. Martin, J. C. Osburn, L. C. Sheppard, M. S. Matheson, Sam S. Gill, Helen K. Beck, Albert Beck, J. A. Barnett, F. J. Burge, said suit being numbered 1756 on the docket of said Court and nature of plaintiff's demand is as follows, to-wit:

Plaintiff alleges that on May 1, 1923 he was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described lands and premises situated in Gray County, Texas, to-wit:

Survey No. Twenty-eight (28) Block B-2, Certificate 15-3165 H. & G. N. Ry. Co. original grantee.

Owning and holding the same as fee simple owner thereof; that on said date, said defendants and each of them unlawfully entered into possession of said lands and ejected plaintiff therefrom and that they and each of them now unlawfully withhold same from plaintiff to his great damage; plaintiff further avers that he was the owner of an undivided 7-8th interest in and all of the oil, gas and other minerals in and under said land with the right to develop and produce same; and plaintiff further specifically sets up various conveyances through which he derived title to said land and alleges that the defendants and each of them are asserting some pretended interest in and to such lands adverse to the plaintiff, which pretended claims constitute a cloud upon his title.

Plaintiff further alleges that on or about the 15th day of February 1928, he entered into a certain contract with the defendant, Okey Oil and Gas Company, for the drilling of a well on a portion of said above described land, that in said contract it was agreed that said Company should, on or before May 1, 1928, commence the actual drilling of an oil and gas well on some part of said land and thereafter continue the drilling of same with diligence until a depth of 3200 feet had been reached, unless oil or gas should be found at lesser depth, and failing in which said Okey Oil and Gas Company should forfeit all rights, under said contract, in and to said land; that thereafter, Okey Oil and Gas Company executed various assignments of said contract, but that by reason of failing to comply with the terms of said contract and by reason of failure to drill a well as provided under said contract, same is wholly forfeited and all rights of any of said defendants thereunder have long since ceased and terminated, notwithstanding which, said defendants are asserting some manner of claim of right or interest in and to said property which casts a cloud on plaintiff's title and that in truth and in fact in law, said defendants nor either of them have any right, title or interest in or to said lands.

Plaintiff prays for title and possession of said lands; that his title be quieted and that any title or proof of title in any of the defendants be divested out of them and invested in the plaintiff and for all costs of suit and for all relief legal and equitable, general and special to which he may be entitled.

Herein said not, but have you then said there before said Court this writ with your return therein showing how you have executed same.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, this 5th day of Sept. A. D. 1928. CHARLIE THUT, Clerk of the District Court, Gray County, Texas. 5-12-19-28

WHIRLWIND BY ELEANOR EARLY

THIS HAS HAPPENED SYBIL THORNE, Boston society girl, is preparing on shipboard for a mad marriage with RICHARD EUSTIS, whom she has known exactly five days. To make matters worse, Sybil is really engaged (in a rather indefinite fashion) to CRAIG NEWHALL, a wealthy young bachelor who loves her devotedly. It was to reach a sane decision regarding marriage with Craig that Sybil, accompanied by MABEL BLAKE, a social wrecker, had left Boston for a "peaceful" trip to Havana. On the boat she meets Eustis, who begins immediately to make love to her and finally—through the delectable marriage—has begged her to marry him. Swept off her feet by his impassioned ardor, Sybil seems to forget Craig and consents—on the spur of an insane moment—to be married by the ship's captain. Mabel is to be maid of honor. The first mate will be best man. And all the passengers are to witness the ceremony. In tears Mabel dresses for the mad event and helps Sybil into her gray georgette—her improvised little wedding gown.

Rich, shattering the ecstasy of the sensuous night, bent to whisper in her hair. . . She drew away as though he had hurt her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XVII THERE never was a wedding like it. "You know the old fable, Miss Thorne," cried Mrs. Parkins. "Something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue." I hope you remembered. It would be dreadful luck if you didn't. "Goodness, everything I have on is old. Oh, my ear-rings—they're new. Rich gave them to me for a wedding present. Has anybody anything blue?" The professor from Wellesley looked embarrassed. "My garters are blue," she admitted. "Gret! May I borrow them?" "Why, surely, Miss Thorne. Just a moment." And the modest lady repaired to the privacy of her stateroom. She was back in a moment. "And here's a little handkerchief. I wish I had a nicer present." "Bless your heart! It's sweet." Unconcerned Sybil slipped on the garters. "There—that's blue and borrowed all at once. Where's my bridegroom?" In a moment Richard was there. A rose in his buttonhole. Lighted cigarettes came from another, nervously. "We tossed up to see who'd be the best man—John or the first mate. Mr. Hawkins is it." Hawkins smiled and shook hands with Sybil. "I've been congratulating this lucky devil," he said, indicating Rich with a nod. "He's a most fortunate man." Sybil was breathless. "You all say such nice things!" she exclaimed. Then the captain came up. "Two of the boys," he offered, "could furnish a little music if you'd like. Here comes the Bride, rendered with violin and harmonica." Mrs. Parkins, when the musical sailors appeared, became mistress of ceremonies. "You boys come over here," she directed. "Miss Thorne and Miss Blake next the further rail. The orchestra up there, and Captain Hanna stand here, please." Now, when the music begins, Mr. Eustis and Mr. Hawkins walk up this way to the captain. And Miss Thorne and Miss Blake round that way. The groom and his best man will reach the altar first. This deck chair here is the altar. Wait right in front of it, you two, for the bride. Will we have a rehearsal first? "No, no," protested Sybil. "Rehearsals are ghastly things. Let us be natural."

"Cocktails in my cabin afterward," announced the captain. "Everybody invited. Ginger ale for the ladies who prefer it. Are we ready? Let's go!" "I pronounce you man and wife." It was over. Rich was kissing her. Rich, and everybody else. The captain and the best man, and John Arnold and the minister. Even Father Finn, and all the ladies. Such excitement! Breakfast in the saloon. And cocktails in the captain's cabin. And Rich with his arm around her every minute. "We'll cable your folks, darling," he had suggested. "Oh, not yet," she protested. PRIVATELY Sybil was thinking of Craig. By and by, she could think of some way of letting him know. Some way that would not hurt him too much. Not now, anyhow. She couldn't have a happy minute if Craig was being miserable. "All right," conceded Rich. "You're the doctor, Mrs. Eustis." Then there were goodbys. "So glad to have known you." "Hans! It been wonderful!" "Perfectly wonderful!" "Who'd have dreamed of such a thing!" "Goodby . . . Goodby . . . I'll look us up, won't you?" "Bye . . . Goodby . . ."

You lucky fellow, Eustis! Goodby, Mrs. Eustis." "Mabel's in our stateroom, Rich. I'll have to run down for a minute. You're getting your bags ready, dear." The captain said he'd have a car for us. In the stateroom Sybil found poor Mab cramming things in bags, and shedding futile tears. "Don't know what I'm blubbering for," she announced defiantly. "Weddings always get my goat. AWFUL sentimental for an old gal." She dried her eyes. "Well, Missa, when do we meet again?" "Mab, I want to ask you a favor. Please don't write home a single word about Rich and me. I don't want a soul to know, till I tell them myself." "Aren't you going to tell your mother, Sib?" "No—not yet." "Not Rich going to tell his people?" "Not for a while." "Well, I guess you've the right idea." Mabel was thinking about Craig, too. "You needn't worry about me, honer. On a regular mission when it comes to keeping a secret. Where are you and Rich going?" "The Seville—and we want you to have dinner with us tonight." "My little friend, John going to be there?"

"Not unless you'd like to have us ask him." "I should say NOT! All right. I'll be there. Lord knows what I'll do till dinner-time." "I suppose you'll go to the Plaza, as we planned?" "Yes. I've persuaded Mrs. Jones and Alice to go there, too. They say the hotel employes don't speak any English. I'd feel so stranded all alone. Probably the Joneses are better than nobody." "I feel awfully guilty, Mab—leaving you like this." "Oh, that's all right. Every girl for herself." "Well, we'll see you every day, anyhow, dear. And, if you're lonesome, you can move over to the Seville." NIGHTS in Havana are soft and warm, and of a swooning sweetness full of glorious, fascinating odors. Strolling along the Prado, Sybil clung to Richard's arm, and lifting her face, felt the heavy exhilaration of stars and moon and tropical fragrance. Until Rich, shattering the ecstasy of the sensuous night, bent to whisper in her hair. Then she drew away as though he had hurt her. (To Be Continued)

Pythian Work Is Taken by Large Pampa Group

First and second ranks in the Knights of Pythias organization were conferred upon 25 pages and esquires at the installation of the lodge here last night in the Odd Fellows hall. The work was given by L. A. Freeman, past grand chancellor of the state of Texas, assisted by James Bowen of Amarillo, former grand chancellor of Oklahoma, T. C. Morrison of Amarillo, district deputy grand chancellor, and local men. More than 30 knights will transfer their cards to the Pampa lodge, which will meet each Tuesday night in the Odd Fellows hall. At the next meeting of the lodge, the degree of knight will be conferred upon the members. Prospects are that a lodge 200 strong will be working here by the first of the year. Mr. Freeman was well pleased with the interest shown by the young men and the older men of the city. He stated that a larger membership has already been received than at the Amarillo lodge, which is two years old. Short addresses were enjoyed, given by James Bowen, L. A. Freeman, R. C. Campbell, Judge Ben S. Baldwin, the Rev. Tom Brabham, Judge C. S. Wortman, and T. C. Morrison. Short talks by Candidates C. L. Still and J. O. Gillham were much enjoyed by the membership.

Pastor of White Deer Is Speaker at Rotary Today

F. V. E. Gaston Foote of White Deer was the principal speaker at today's meeting of the Rotary Club. Rev. Foote, who is pastor of the Methodist church in White Deer, has just returned from a leave of absence for further theological study. The speaker made a very inspiring address on the subject, "Reach Your Objective." Paul Shelby, chairman of the Boy's Work committee, reported on the active promotion of the "Back to School" movement by the club. President Lynn Boyd announced that the committee would inform each member by the next meeting as to his part in the movement. M. K. Brown made a very interesting talk on his attendance at Rotary Clubs while on his recent visit to Europe. Mr. Brown gave some amusing sidelights as well as inspirational features of Rotary meetings in London and Kensington, England, Paris, Rome and Brussels. Visiting Rotarians were: C. L. Still, Electra; C. H. McClellan, Wichita Falls; C. R. McAfee, Amarillo; and Henry Hunter, Elk City, Oklahoma. Besides Rev. Foote, Justin J. Levine and Bob McCoy were present from White Deer, also Joe Strother of Pampa and F. J. MacKie, Santa Fe division superintendent, of Amarillo.

Democrats Win Arizona Offices

PHOENIX Ariz., Sept. 12.—(P)—United States Senator Henry F. Ashurst and Governor W. W. P. Hunt, Democratic incumbents held commanding leads for renomination to their respective offices in yesterday's statewide primary, as vote tabulations continued today. Senator Ashurst, who has served his state continuously in the senate since admission to statehood held a three to one lead over C. W. Rutherford. Governor Hunt, only Democratic gubernatorial candidate the state has ever had, and successful in six of the seven campaigns since statehood, was well ahead of J. H. Kerby and his rivals claimed his renomination.

Hoover on Hand to Meet Coolidge

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(P)—Anxious to be among the first to welcome President Coolidge back to Washington after his summer in Wisconsin, Herbert Hoover was at Union station today for the arrival of the chief executive's special train. With Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican national committee, who also served in Mr. Coolidge's cabinet, the nominee was prepared to supply the president with information as to the general political situation. In addition he looked to the president for reports on conditions in Wisconsin and Minnesota, which Mr. Coolidge has had opportunity to study at first hand.

Smith Looks Fit For Western Trip

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 12.—(P)—Working day and night in an attempt to catch up on an ever crowding pile of material dealing with state business, Gov. Smith is finding little time for recreation in the short interval before his departure for the West. He has even had to forego golf on several occasions because of the vast amount of work demanding his attention at the state capitol and executive mansion. That this steady devotion to state affairs is having no ill effect on the physical condition of the Democratic presidential nominee, however, is plainly evident. In fact, some of his closest friends have expressed the opinion that he is in the best of condition and ready for the greatest test of his long political career.

LUCKIES ON AIR

Lucky Strike, having appeared in all other kinds of advertising, is going on the air. A hook-up of 39 stations from coast to coast is being arranged for each Saturday night at 10 o'clock, New York time. The largest of dance orchestras, playing Broadway hits, will be featured.

Markets

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 12.—(P)—The highest price since 1919 for light yearling steers was reached on the Kansas City market today when a string of 21 Herefords averaging 839 pounds each sold at $18.00 a hundred pounds. They were sold by Dan Casement of Manhattan, Kas.

Tire Clinics Now Available in City

With sparkling autumn motorine days at hand and the gruelling winter-motoring months in the offing, word comes from Jack Mason of the Biggs Horn company, distributors here of Seiberling All-Tread tires, that over 5,000 free "tire clinics" in every part of the country are now at the disposal of the Pampa motorist. Backed by 5,000 Seiberling dealers from Maine to the Golden Gate, a nation-wide service network is ready to take all the worry out of Fall and Winter motoring. "Under the Seiberling Tire Protection Plan," Mr. Mason declared, "millions of car owners will be able to forget all tire troubles during the bracing motoring days of Fall and the gruelling days of winter, not far off. The Seiberling user has 5,000 'tire clinics' at his disposal. Every form of wear that tires are heir to will be repaired free of charge and at once for a full year after he buys his Seiberling All-Tread. "Even in the winter-time, when long distance motoring is comparatively infrequent, the protection means nothing at all if it doesn't mean service wherever you go. There's no comfort in a certificate of protection when the mercury hovers around zero and you're a hundred miles from your local dealer with a cut or puncture. With-out a national service network behind it, a promise of protection is as empty as that Grand Canyon and not half so beautiful.

CHOKES ON GASOLINE

BEAUMONT, Sept. 12.—(P)—His lungs paralyzed from inhaling gasoline, Tommie Joe Colburn, age six years, choked to death yesterday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Colburn at Okadale, La. He was attempting to siphon gasoline from an automobile tank and sucked the fluid into his windpipe. Artificial respiration proved futile.

DEY FOR HOOVER

DENVER, Sept. 12.—(P)—Former Governor William E. Sweet, Democratic "dry" has announced he will support Herbert Hoover for president. He will back the rest of the Democratic ticket with the exception of Governor Smith, he asserted.
