Ouch! Surrealism Bites Cameramen

LEFT: In the dark days of the depression, they called this sort of thing boondoggling. But to the Atlanta, Ga., cameramen, who made the pictures, it's surrealism photography. This masterpiece is titled "Surrealism." Anyhow, the false teeth are biting off a lot more than they can chew.

RIGHT: Here we have "Monday Morning," an expression of that bewildered feeling the morning after a hectic week-end. The dark glasses symbolize a dark outlook, the empty glass a hangover, the upside down alarm clock that it's never too late to be sorry.

Modern Menus

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Service Staff Writer. Some cakes must be eaten at once, others can wait amiably on the pantry shelf, hoping that some friends will drop in by and bye. One such expansive type is Molly Saunders' Upper Shelf Cake. It's made with:

Molly's Pound Cake (3 loaves) One cup butter, 1 cup granulated sugar, 2 cups flour, 1-4 teaspoon mace, 5 eggs, 1 tablespoon brandy and 1 more tablespoon brandy to pour over the cake after baking.

Sift flour before measuring. Then sift flour and mace together 3 times. Cream butter well, add sugar a little at a time, and cream together until fluffy. Add eggs by beating into mixture one at a time. When half of the eggs have been added, add a scant cup flour, beat, add more eggs, one at a time until all have been added. Again add flour and beat until mixture is light and fluffy. Add flavoring and remaining flour. Blend thoroughly. Line loaf pans with greased paper. Pour in batter.

Bake in very slow oven (200 degrees F.) for 3-4 hour, then begin gradually to increase heat until it reaches moderately slow (325 degrees F.). The baking time will vary, taking from 2 to 4 hours, depending on your oven, the altitude and general weather conditions. Test it yourself for finished baking. When cool, pour brandy over to increase heat and put away on the "upper shelf" to wait for that sociable call.

Butterless, Eggless cake One cup brown sugar, 1 cup water, 1-2 cup lard or clarified grease, 2 cups seedless raisins, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1-4 teaspoon ground cloves, 1 teaspoon salt. Then, 1 cup broken nut meats, 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 1 1-4 teaspoon baking powder. Boil sugar, water, lard, raisins, cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves and salt together for 3 minutes. Then sift in flour, soda and baking powder. Mix well, add nut meats. Bake in 2 small greased pans in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 45 minutes, or until done.

Both these friendship cakes are rather old-fashioned. Which may explain both their satisfying qualities and their willingness to wait patiently for the friendly tap of the brass knocker on the door.

Clubs Have Parties In Irish Motif

A breakfast at the Schneider hotel yesterday morning, with Mrs. John Studer as hostess, entertained London Bridge club and guests. A St. Patrick's day note was introduced with green and white tallies.

Mrs. A. B. Goldston, a club guest, made high score in the bridge games, and Mrs. J. M. Lybrand second high. The other club guests were Mrs. Howard Buckingham and Mrs. Ray Lawrence. The games followed a delicious breakfast.

Mrs. Jim White entertained four tables of players at her home yesterday afternoon, when she was hostess to Tuesday bridge club. She appointed tables in Irish motif, wrapped prize packages in green and white, and served shamrock ice with angel food cake.

Mrs. Albert Brannon made high score for guests, Mrs. Felix Stalls high for club members, and Mrs. Tommy Chesser held the traveling prize. Mmes. Lloyd Bennett, Doc Kitchens, Ted White, F. P. Reid, Chesser and Brannon, were the half dozen special guests included for the party.

PRISCILLA CLUB. Each member of Priscilla Home demonstration club is to bring an article for an emergency food shelf when the club meets Friday at 2 in Mrs. J. M. Daugherty's home. A display will be made of the foods, and members will take part in a round table discussion.

WHEN WE STOP GREASY INDIGESTION WE FEEL JUST FINE

Our stomach can't digest grass. Neither can our bowels. Only our pancreatic juice, working with our bile juice, can digest grease. When we get bad taste, headache and that nasty greasy feeling which comes from greasy indigestion, take 1 Carter's Little Liver Pill before each meal and 1 after. Carter's Little Liver Pills bring a large flow of our pancreatic juice and bile juice into our bowels. The large flow of these juices digests the grease we have eaten. Then we burst into life and into our work like a joyous skyrocket. But if you want this glorious relief from greasy indigestion, ask your druggist for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and stubbornly refuse to buy anything else. 25c.

ITALY THROWS ARMS DARE AT GREAT BRITAIN

MUSSOLINI DECIDES TO COMPETE AGAINST ENGLISH

NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—Mussolini is the first of the masters of men to give Britain a concrete answer to her colossal armaments program—advised as designed to insure peace—and the reply is far from reassuring, for Il Duce has squared his famous jaw and slammed down his gavel.

Italy has decided to compete against England.

Specifically, the fascists have decreed what amounts to lifetime military service, for all citizens between the ages of 18 and 55, and have inaugurated a five point plan to increase war forces and armaments.

What is perhaps even more impressive, Italy has started a fresh drive to raise the birth rate. They need more boys to rear as soldiers.

How Mussolini will be able to compete against England's $7,500,000,000 program is problematical, but economic experts say he cannot go all the way, or anything like it. He would bankrupt Italy.

This was what England had in mind in providing for a program with which nobody could compete except the United States, and Britain doesn't regard America as a competitor, but as a friend, in matters of arms.

British statesmen have charged that Germany and Italy are mainly responsible for the necessity of rearmaments.

France and Russia both have been rearming on a big scale for a long time, and have pretentious plans under way.

One of the most ambitious of the major powers is Japan. Her armaments program is so big it has plunged the country into economic difficulties and precipitated a political crisis.

Nippon's main worries are caused by Russia and the United States, and she is building against both.

Father Appeals To Higher Court

ANGLETON, March 3 (AP)—L. D. Shinn carried to a higher court today his fight to force Brazoria's public schools to open their doors to his non-flag-saluting children.

Flora Mae, 8, and Billy Lee, 6, were suspended when they persisted in their refusal to salute the American flag at daily patriotic exercises.

Shinn is a member of a religious sect which holds saluting the flag violates the Biblical injunction: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me."

Yesterday Judge M. S. Munson ruled the school could not be forced to admit the children. He held saluting the flag could not be construed as worship of government. Shinn appealed to the civil appeals court at Galveston.

OIL WORKERS TO VOTE ON SIT-DOWN STRIKE

SEMINOLE, Okla., March 3 (AP) Union employes in Oklahoma of the Mid-Continent Petroleum company planned three meetings tonight to vote whether to empower a negotiations committee to call a sit-down strike to enforce demands for recognition.

The firm employes 1,300 workers. Union employes, member of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America, were to meet in Tulsa, Drumright and Wewoka.

The union is an affiliate of John L. Lewis' committee for industrial organization, and international officials recently announced a drive to unionize the 1,000,000 workers in the oil industry.

TO RENOUNCE HITLER

BERLIN, March 3 (AP)—The Roman Catholic church will renounce its concordat with Adolf Hitler's government, it was asserted today in church circles, if the Nazi regime carries out its threat to expropriate church lands for resettlement. The office of Hans Karl, minister for church affairs, meanwhile remained close-mouthed with regard to more complete details of the resettlement plan, except to say it was "nothing new."

HERO OF SENIOR PLAY WAS SUCH PRETTY BABY—BUT IS NOT NOW

"The Whole Town's Talking," senior play to be given March 11 in the high school auditorium, has been progressing nicely, Kenneth Carman, director, said today.

The play is a farce in three acts and there are 12 characters in the cast.

Chester Benny, the hero, is having trouble with his fiancée's mother. She says that when he walks into the room you feel as if someone had just walked out! Chester can't understand why women don't take to him, because he was such a pretty baby. But before the play is over he wishes that he was still a baby.

The average male star is 5 feet 10 1/2 inches tall and tips the scale at 169, while the average movie heroine is 8 inches less over all and scales 111.

Better Be Safe

(Editor's Note: The following article written by a member of the high school journalism class for the Kiwanis safety committee is one of a series being published in the interest of safety in the NEWS.)

By COLLEEN McMAHAN High School Journalism Student

Even tho' the injuries and deaths caused by reckless drivers have been talked about, written about and preached about, the drivers of these death ridden automobiles go on their way, unhesitatingly. They don't care who they hurt, they just want to "get there."

A judge every now and then sentences reckless drivers to visit local mortuaries to view the mangled bodies of men, women and children who are victims of such reckless drivers as themselves. But even this scene can't depict the horrible accident itself.

When citizens take every precaution that can be taken to prevent accidents to themselves and others they can't understand when at the very moment they think they are safe, everything goes black and when they wake up, if they do wake up, they find themselves in a hospital minus an arm or leg.

"I didn't see him" is the commonest excuse coming from these useless people of humanity. Well, what if they didn't? They probably weren't trying to see anyone. This modern passion for going places in a hurry (bar nothing!) is getting plenty of people in trouble and it's about time.

All the horrible statistics told about in articles and stories are exaggerated to some extent but shouldn't they be exaggerated? How else can we pound safe driving into these cowardly maniacs? For they are cowardly. They all have the nerve to drive fast and take chances but how many of them have the nerve to take the appropriate cure?

In the present every town of any size at all has safety conveniences such as stop and go signals, stop signs and police to help reduce the accident total. But even with all this, there are six automobile drivers out of every ten who would take a chance if he thought he could get away with it!

Why can't people understand that every time they take chances such as passing another car at night on a blind curve that they are endangering their lives and the lives of others.

Perhaps if they could live through the agonies of death and live to think about it, they might realize just how serious this reckless driving is. Perhaps then they would take it easy.

Among the things the Temples were asked to buy—"at any price"—was a colored glass window with a likeness of Shirley. The maker asked $550, but would be glad to have whatever the Temples cared to give.

Heir to Wealth, Title, Trouble

FDR PUTS WAGE AND HOUR LAWS ON 'OUGHT' LIST

Asks That Reporters Discard 'Must' Term

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Some supporters of President Roosevelt viewed today his expressed desire for new wage and hour legislation as closely related to his efforts to reorganize the Supreme Court, which invalidated the National Recovery Act.

The President said late yesterday at a press conference he hoped such labor standards would be set up at this session of Congress.

Wage and hour legislation, he declared, "ought" to be enacted. He added, however, he has placed no legislation of any type in the "must" classification, and asked reporters to discard that term.

Mr. Roosevelt's statement followed by a few hours his transmission to Congress of a report by a presidential committee which reviewed NRA's successes and failures.

Many, however, speculated on the effect of the call for labor legislation on the proposed judicial reorganization. Several organized labor groups have been working in behalf of both.

Friends recalled Mr. Roosevelt's comments of last June 2 on the Supreme Court's invalidation of the New York minimum wage law for women by a 5-4 decision.

Under such decisions, he said, neither the state nor the federal government could control wages in industry.

The report of his NRA committee outlined legal roads toward NRA objectives which "still remain open," notably a revision of anti-trust laws to authorize industrial trade agreements reviewed by a government body.

TOM CONNALLY HITS SUPREME COURT PLANS

SENATOR STILL SAYS HE'S FRIEND OF PRESIDENT

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)—Members of the Texas legislature today discussed the argument of United States Senator Tom Connally of Marlin in an attack upon President Roosevelt's proposal to increase membership of the Supreme Court.

Connally addressed a joint session last night and brought repeated bursts of applause. He said "a brave, impartial United States Supreme Court is the very cradle of our liberties, the strongest fortress to maintain our constitution and our constitutional system."

Connally stressed what he said was the need for an independent Supreme Court to protect citizens in their constitutional rights of trial by jury, freedom from unreasonable searches and seizures, freedom of peaceable assembly, freedom of speech, the press and religious worship.

He reaffirmed his friendship with President Roosevelt but asserted the plan violated the Democratic party's platform which, he said "in effect, pledged to the people that if the measures advocated by the party

START STOP RACE CLIMB AND DON'T WORRY

WITH YOUR ENGINE OIL-PLATED

OIL-PLATING differs widely from other forms of lubrication in this plain, understandable way: It remains lastingly fastened to the pistons, bearings and other engine parts, even when they are not in motion. This is made possible by the Germ Process—patented—which gives Conoco Germ Processed oil its strong attraction for metals, so that every working part becomes durably Oil-Plated.

Oil-Plating is not like any lubrication that merely goes on-and-off. Once Germ Processed oil covers the parts it never leaves them bare of Oil-Plating... Never when the pistons are racing thousands of strokes a minute... Never on any hills, despite any load... Never while you park at a dozen different stores.

So it's nothing to you, when engineers blame more than half of all engine wear on so-called "dry starting." Nor need you worry over all the rest of the annual Spring oil scare. Whether your car is new or old, you can make your longer runs... hit your higher speeds... enjoy your hotter sunshine. Oil-Plating can take it like the longest-lasting part of your engine. For Oil-Plating really becomes a long-lasting part of your engine, as you change to long-lasting Conoco Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

11 SOFTBALL TEAMS ARE REPRESENTED AS ASSOCIATION IS FORMED HERE

LEAGUE WILL BE ORGANIZED AFTER MAY 1

CLASS A AND CLASS B LOOPS MAY BE FORMED

A Pampa Softball association was formed last night with E. W. Voss, temporary chairman, E. M. Dean, temporary vice-chairman, and Harry E. Hoare, temporary secretary. Managers of teams in the association make up the board.

Eleven teams were represented at last night's meeting and several others sent word that they wanted to join a league. Because of the increased interest, it was decided not to organize a league or leagues until after May 1. Preceding that date, teams will play each other to decide strength and if all teams do not finish the "training" period and do not come up to Class A standards, a Class B league will be formed.

The association officers and team managers of all teams of Class A caliber will meet in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall next Tuesday night to outline plans for the period of testing strength of proposed league members. They will also discuss a plan of dividing the league into two groups, one south-east, and the other northwest of Pampa with a playoff for league title.

Any team in or around Pampa strong enough to compete in fast company and desiring to join the association should get in touch immediately with one of the association officers.

Plans for using Road Runner park for night softball was discussed at length and it was believed plans could be worked out with park officials to play on nights.

Formation of a "club" or Class C league will be discussed at a called meeting later in the month. Only two city teams were formally entered in the league last night. Other teams were from oil companies in and near Pampa.

Represented at the meeting were: Voss Cleaners, Humble Oil & Refining company, Gulf Production company, Phillips Petroleum company, Sun Oil company, Champion Refining company, Cities Service Gas company, Stanolind Oil & Gas company, Danziger Refiners, Inc., King Oil company and one team not yet named.

TERRY NOT LIKELY TO QUIT FIRST BASE YET

BY PAUL MICKELSON. HAVANA, March 3 (AP)—Probably the first man who really wanted to quit playing major league baseball still seems to be going beyond a lost horizon.

Bill Terry, barring a fast breaking baseball miracle, can't quit yet and take a rocking chair for sideline master minding.

His long search for a hard hitting, good fielding first baseman seems as far away as ever, and it's a better than even money bet that the 1937 campaign will find Terry, bed knee and all, back at his old stand.

Bill has two likely looking first basemen in his Havana camp, but neither of them—Sambo Leslie nor young Johnny McCarthy—seem to have what it takes to let their dog-tired boss quit as an active player.

McCarthy, 24-year-old ex-sandlotter from Chicago, still seems a year or so away.

As painful as his crippled knee is, Terry still is far and away the best first baseman in his own camp.

SUSPENDED SUSPENSE

Ben Kramer, Long Island University forward, passes while suspended in the air as the Blackbirds repelled Manhattan College, 41-20, at Madison Square Garden in the scrap for the New York City basketball championship. A fight between players and rooters covered the floor with belligerents as the Brooklyn squad led, 32-16, three minutes before the final whistle. It was broken up by police.

SPORT SLANTS

by Pap

It strikes me that all those stories of how Don Lash helped Teammate Tommy Decker win the special 2-mile event in the Millrose games are unfair to Decker. Decker did cover 22 laps on the Madison Square Garden track under his own steam. His time, 9:07.6, marking the second fastest two miles ever run by an American indoors, was good enough to make his performance stand on its own merit. Lash himself never has equalled that indoors.

There is little doubt that, under ordinary circumstances, Lash could master his trail-looking pal and roommate. But the Millrose 2-mile was no ordinary occasion. Lash had competed in the Wanamaker mile, finishing fourth behind Cunningham, Venzke and San Romani, in better than 4:16. That must have taken something out of him.

Too, Don was intent on evening a score with the Rideout twins, Wayne and Blaine. The twins took Don into camp in the Sugar Bowl meet at New Orleans New Year's day. Blaine set a fast pace that took all the sprint out of Lash and left him a victim of Wayne's stretch drive.

One of the main reasons Lash went to the post in the Millrose 2-mile was for revenge. He got it in no uncertain way. Lash just about broke Blaine's heart by constantly settling down in front of him and slowing him down every time. B. Rideout made a bid to overtake the pace-setting Decker. When Lash was convinced the Rideouts were no longer a threat, he took out after Decker, who was leading by half a lap. Even Lash's furious sprint couldn't close the cap. Lash expressed himself highly pleased with the results. He was glad to see Decker win—and he had taught the Rideouts a trick or two about the business of jockeying.

Lash came to Decker's assistance on one other occasion. It was during the 5,000-meter in the final Olympic event in the Millrose games. Lash purposely slowed his own pace to stay beside Decker where he coached and encouraged him. Satisfied Decker was in, he set out after the leader, Lou Zamperini, California schoolboy, and managed to catch him at the tape for a tie. Decker finished third and made the boat for Berlin. All during the trip aboard Lash looked after his protegee. Evidently, he still is acting the part of a godfather to his teammate.

CLEARWATER, Fla.—Gordon (Babe) Phelps is hoping to do big things for the Brooklyn Dodgers and that doesn't refer to his size. The catcher has been chopping wood all winter, Phelps explained, and is down to 216 pounds as compared to the 240 he brought to camp last year.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Although only the batterymen are officially in training yet, the New York Yankees have good news from their out-of-field department. Meryl Hoag, who was badly hurt last July and had to remain out of action the remainder of the season, arrived from California yesterday and reported he was in perfect condition.

PASADENA—Today was reunion day for Manager Jimmy Dykes and his Chicago White Sox pitchers and catchers. The party which left Chicago Monday night was due and Dykes planned to hustle all hands to the training site for the first workout of the season.

NEW ORLEANS—Pitcher Bill Zuber, tall, knock-kneed German, drew attention today from Manager Steve O'Neill of the Cleveland Indians. "If he didn't have anything else I'd have to give him a chance on account of those legs," said O'Neill. "I wouldn't say you have to be knock-kneed to be a good pitcher but Mitty, Alexander, Ray Caldwell and Wes Ferrell couldn't walk without wearing callouses on the insides of their knees."

MEXICO CITY—Because Connie Mack, dean of major league baseball managers, believes in practice games to get his men in condition, the Philadelphia Athletics will start tomorrow on a schedule of a game a day until March 28 when they leave their training base.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—The "Gas House gang" has moved into the heavyweight class. Chunky, almost corpulent are the Cardinals Manager Frankie Frisch has been putting through rigorous opening training schedules. Only "Big" Martin, recovering from an attack of appendicitis, and Lon Warneke remain the thin men of the club.

MAX EXPECTS TO BOX CHAMP

BRADDOCK LAYS PLANS TO FIGHT LOUIS—NOT SCHEMLING

BY BOB CAVAGNARO. NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—Leaving the art of legendarily to magicians, here's the way the heavyweight boxing situation looked today:

A healthy-looking, diplomatic Max Schmeling, who believed he can beat Joe Louis every day in the week was in the big town poo-pooing suggestions that Jim Braddock will run out of his title date with the German on June 3 in Madison Square Garden's bowl to meet Louis on June 22 in Chicago.

Titleholder Braddock, apparently oblivious and unconcerned over Schmeling's presence, announced in Miami he would pitch camp in Sandy Lake, Wis., for his bout with Louis—not Schmeling.

If Braddock "isn't" fighting Schmeling on June 3, then Max doesn't know what he'll do. Some fellows, recalling how Schmeling won the title from Jack Sharkey, sitting down, suggested he would claim the crown if Jimmy takes a powder.

"No," said Max. "Titles are won and lost in the ring."

Regarding the anti-Nazi league's boycott, Max said "there wouldn't be a boycott if they thought Braddock could beat me in two or three rounds." Furthermore, he can't sympathize with Braddock's yen for money.

"What about when Max Baer had to fight Braddock for the title?" asked Max. "There wasn't much money in it for Baer, but he went through with it."

Meantime, the Garden isn't going to try to stop Max Baer and his manager, Arnie Hoffman, from sailing on the S. S. Berengaria today for England, but the California clouter probably will think twice before he fights in London on April 25.

The Garden contends Baer has broken his contract to meet Bob Pastor on March 19 to accept an offer for two fights in London.

Fifty thousand dollar suits have been filed jointly against Baer and Hoffman charging violation of the Garden's contract with the Dodgers. Alfred G. Critchley and Syd Huls, London promoters, for "interfering with the same."

These are the consensus selections of America's leading sports editors who gazed into the crystal ball at the request of the Associated Press, crossed their fingers, and put themselves on record for the campaign of 1937 on all major fronts. It's Broadway Jack Doyle's opinion this week.

You should see old Eddie Roush, former Giant and Red outfielder, cutting up like a colt as he works out with the Boston Bees just for the "L" of it. Bill McKechnie said: "It is the first time in his life the guy ever showed up on time and he ain't getting anything for it."

Roush was tops as a holdout in his prime. . . . Once he stayed on the farm an entire season.

Reports from the east coast say Daytona Beach has fixed up a swell arena for the Cards to do their stuff in. . . . Casey is taking a easy in Glendale, Calif., and getting into a job with one of the two biggest organizations in baseball the minute he settles with the Dodgers for his 1937 salary.

You can laugh at the Dodgers, but Crimes means business. . . . his managerial record reads like a success story. . . . In two seasons he stepped from Bloomington, Ill., to the majors, via Louisville, a class AA town.

Odds and ends—Eddie Roush was telling it around St. Pete yesterday there were two gambling mobs operating against each other in the world's series of 1919. . . . one was trying to bribe the White Sox and the other the Reds. . . . Roush said he got wind of the plot, called a meeting on the morning of the eighth game in which Hod Eller, who pitched admitted he had been offered $5,000 to toss that game, but turned it down. . . . Pat Moran sent Eller to the hill anyway and kept the Reds in the series. . . . the yarn went over great with the Yankee rookies huddled about the stove in the clubhouse.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 2 (AP)—The big hold-out round-up is next week's headline attraction here. . . . Col. Jake Ruppert is due with his money bags and his fountain pen, ostensibly for a couple of days of sunshine, but confidentially, to see what he can do about herding the rebels back into the fold.

Col. Ruppert doesn't propose to see the boys personally, but will conduct negotiations with trusty Joe McCarthy as go-between. . . . Herr Lou Gehrig, Joe Di Maggio and Charlie

SPORTS WRITERS FORECAST OUTCOME OF 1937 CONTESTS

(Note: This is the first of two stories showing how a group of leading sports editors forecast the outcome of the 1937 major sports events. It covers the professional side of the picture. Tomorrow, a forecast of amateur events.)

NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—If you care to parlay expert opinion on the outcome of this year's major offerings in professional sports competition, for or against, here's the forecast:

Joe Louis to whip Jim Braddock for the world heavyweight title in Chicago. Pompoon to capture the Kentucky derby, Harry Cooper to wear the United States Open golf crown, and the New York Yankees to play the St. Louis Cardinals in the next world series.

These are the consensus selections of America's leading sports editors who gazed into the crystal ball at the request of the Associated Press, crossed their fingers, and put themselves on record for the campaign of 1937 on all major fronts. It's Broadway Jack Doyle's opinion this week.

Ruffing are on the tough lists. . . . Bill Dickey and the temperamental Lefty Gomez are likely to be signed this week.

You should see old Eddie Roush, former Giant and Red outfielder, cutting up like a colt as he works out with the Boston Bees just for the "L" of it. . . . Bill McKechnie said: "It is the first time in his life the guy ever showed up on time and he ain't getting anything for it."

Roush was tops as a holdout in his prime. . . . Once he stayed on the farm an entire season.

Reports from the east coast say Daytona Beach has fixed up a swell arena for the Cards to do their stuff in. . . . Casey is taking a easy in Glendale, Calif., and getting into a job with one of the two biggest organizations in baseball the minute he settles with the Dodgers for his 1937 salary.

You can laugh at the Dodgers, but Crimes means business. . . . his managerial record reads like a success story. . . . In two seasons he stepped from Bloomington, Ill., to the majors, via Louisville, a class AA town.

Odds and ends—Eddie Roush was telling it around St. Pete yesterday there were two gambling mobs operating against each other in the world's series of 1919. . . . one was trying to bribe the White Sox and the other the Reds. . . . Roush said he got wind of the plot, called a meeting on the morning of the eighth game in which Hod Eller, who pitched admitted he had been offered $5,000 to toss that game, but turned it down. . . . Pat Moran sent Eller to the hill anyway and kept the Reds in the series. . . . the yarn went over great with the Yankee rookies huddled about the stove in the clubhouse.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 2 (AP)—The big hold-out round-up is next week's headline attraction here. . . . Col. Jake Ruppert is due with his money bags and his fountain pen, ostensibly for a couple of days of sunshine, but confidentially, to see what he can do about herding the rebels back into the fold.

Col. Ruppert doesn't propose to see the boys personally, but will conduct negotiations with trusty Joe McCarthy as go-between. . . . Herr Lou Gehrig, Joe Di Maggio and Charlie

Braddock Says He Will Knock Out Joe Louis

Sport Sparks

DALLAS, March 2 (AP)—Big time racing at San Antonio's Alamo Downs track seems doomed, sports Editor Harold Scherwitz of the San Antonio Light, writes. . . . sentiment gathered from owners, track officials and others after close of a disastrous season, made it apparent the track probably would not reopen for class racing. . . . bad weather and poor mutual play plagued the track during its recent two months meet.

Veteran tennis enthusiast Dr. D. A. Penick of the University of Texas, maker of champions, has named Lindsay Franklin, another of his proteges, as Texas No. 1 netter. . . . Rankings of his first ten, submitted to the U. S. L. T. A., include Franklin, Gordon Pease, Edgar Weller, Bobby Kamrath, all of the University of Texas; Doc Barr, Dallas; Carl Smalley, Paschal Wallhall, Billy Byrd, University of Texas; Tommy Glenn, Harold Fickett.

Topping the doubles ranking are Franklin and Weller, followed by Barr and J. B. Adoue, Jimmie Quick and Launey and Smalley and Pease. . . . Harold Fickett of Galveston gets the call as No. 1 junior player.

Back to Texas as a permanent resident comes Jack Tinnin, former University of Texas student and current Arkansas State golf champion. . . . He'll fight par on Dallas courses. . . . Charlie Haas, the former Corpus Christi high school athlete, is eligible for varsity baseball and track at the University of Texas as now and may make his varsity bow ere long.

McMURRY OUT
ABILENE, March 3 (AP)—Abilene Christian College defeated McMurry college by one point to slip into the Texas conference basketball championship finals Friday with Daniel Baker. The Christians 31 to 30 victory last night over McMurry dropped the Indians from the championship play.

Recent high tides swept so much sand from the beach at Santa Cruz, Calif., that seekers for coins around the amusement pier played a good harvest.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 3 (AP)—Jimmy Braddock began a two weeks' vacation today by calmly stating he would knock out Joe Louis in the sixth round.

"Sure," he answered when asked if he would retain his heavyweight championship next June. "In the sixth round."

"I won't be like the Bob Pastor fight. I want to get in there and throw some punches myself. Besides, the fans are going to pay big money to see this fight, and I feel they're entitled to get something for their money."

Braddock said he had read the magazine articles in which Max Schmeling detailed how to beat the Brown Bomber but he's not mapping out any special campaign for his fight. He'll just fight as he goes along.

He thinks Louis is a sucker, not only for a right, as Schmeling found, but for any punch. "All he knows is how to hit," Braddock observed. "He doesn't protect himself."

The champion will spend a couple of weeks swimming and soaking up the sunshine and then go up to the Wisconsin woods for six weeks of hard training.

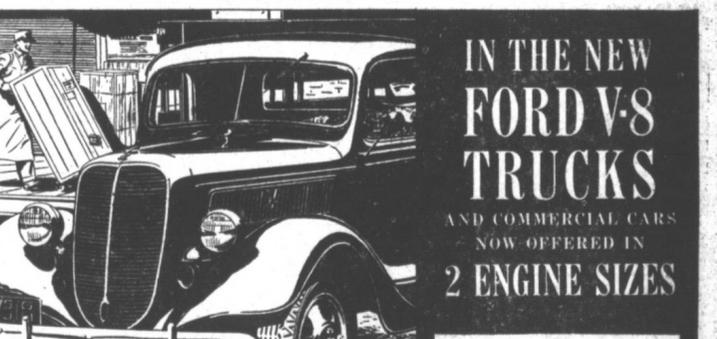

He said he had little to do to get into fighting trim, and he looked it.

"Madstones"—hard, smooth objects supposedly found only in the stomachs of white deer or white cows—were reputed to cure rabies. Placed on wounds, they were said to draw out the infection.

THE FINANCIAL WHIRLIGIG

By LOUIS SCHNEIDER

CONFIRMED
On February 23 your correspondent disclosed that the Securities Exchange commission was not pleased with the Stock Exchange "free ride" margin rulings because it didn't touch members and partners of member firms. It also stated that the S. E. C. would order rulings of its own to curb members and partners of member firms.

Request for such rulings was announced on the following day. Adoption of the commission's order is almost certain, since these regulations are regarded as workable and practical.

Floor-trading members fear, however, that the new margin restrictions will reduce the trading volume of active interests—except in the low priced equities. The unusually large turnover in these issues is attributed to the public's speculative interest.

Old Staff
James M. Landis—high priest of the E. C.—literally hates readers, chart students, boardroom sitters and professional traders. He would sweep them out of the brokerage business—if he could.

Conservative interests say that can't happen until the Commission does something vitriolic and drastic. As matters stand, professional traders don't give a hoot for Landis or the S. E. C., so long as nothing is said or done about the "Mike" Meehan affair which is in its second year.

Your correspondent asked an S. E. C. investigator what was happening regarding the Meehan manipulation charges. This was the answer: "Must the men of the press always dig up old stuff? You fellows are as bad as the nine old men of the Supreme Court. Why don't you change your tactics?"

Campaign
Bul Durham's sales are the largest in history. This American Tobacco subsidiary manufactures tobacco for "roll-your-own" brands. Trade insiders estimate that 100,000,000 pounds of tobacco goes into such cigarettes. Allowing for waste, etc., it could produce about 35,000,000 machine-made cigarettes. That would be nearly one-fourth of the 135,000,000 cigarettes sold last year. Because of the figure, cigarette manufacturers plan to start an educational campaign to "tell the roll-your-own smoker the reason why a machine-made cigarette is better."

Sugar
For the current sugar season production and consumption will reach new heights. Estimates expect a world output of 30,770,000 long tons. It will run 1,670,000 tons over the 1930-31 record. World consumption is estimated at 30,900,000 tons—an increase of 1,125,000 tons over the previous year's consumption.

Based on these estimates another dip in world stock is certain. That will make the sixth consecutive season of reduction in the carry-over. The supply at the close of the season will amount to about four months' needs. On these inside figures sugar traders believe that current prices quoted fail to discount prospects.

Packing
Meat packers are now in the best position in over ten years. Insiders say that over the past two months packing company earnings have jumped at a rate which suggests 1937 income at three times that of 1936.

Based on consumption and low supplies in retail circles the prices of pork and beef are headed for new highs this spring. Packers prepared for this contingency. Their inventory positions are the largest in over five years. The constructive outlook accounts for interests close to packing company managements quietly accumulating this class of equities.

Correction
On February 19 Financial Whirligig stated that Southern Pacific's common shares would receive a dividend until the holders of the five per cent non-cumulative preferred had been considered. Southern Pacific has no preferred shares outstanding. The item should have referred to Southern Railway.

Peoria Manager May Not Allow Dizzy to Hurl

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 3 (AP)—A tip for Mr. Dizzy Dean: You'd better sign with the St. Louis Cardinals and forget about Peoria.

Ben Tinsup, who announced here he would manage the Peoria, Ill., club in the Three-Eye league next season (that's the team you said you would pitch for—if you played at all this year—remember?), says he doesn't know "whether I'll let him"—meaning you, Mr. Dean.

The veteran Indian, who in his younger days could fling 'em with the best of the slab artists, when asked about you, Dizzy, was quoted as saying:

"We I ain't so sure about Dizzy pitching for Peoria this year. I don't know whether I'll let him. He'll have to be pretty good to pitch there this year, for I'm boss now, and I'm going to be a bit careful."

MRS. KITE DIES
HOLLIS, Okla., March 2 (AP)—Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Margaret W. Kite, 95, who died at the home of a son, Willis Kite, eight miles southwest of here Monday.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. A. A. Thompson of Denison, Tex., and two sons, J. M. Kite of Clayton, N. M., and J. D. Kite of McLean, Tex.

FIVE SECOND GIRLS
NEW YORK (AP)—A man is using the telephone company for refund of what he insists were overcharges on some long distance calls, and the testimony brought out: The "hello girls" throughout the country regularly deduct five seconds from their calculations of the time consumed in calls to protect the patron from error. The sum at issue in the suit is—$3.85.

HER NAME IN LIGHTS

Chapter VII. Larry Smith wasn't married! He lived at Brett Hall with his mother and his aunt.

Daphne said, "Let's have frog's legs for dinner and something gala for a sweet."

"Not for me. My figure means too much," Jennifer answered promptly and stretched her lithe form full-length on the lounge.

Daphne couldn't tell her that she was suddenly light and gay inside her—lighter and gayer than she had been these last two months.

She must have, she reasoned, because he didn't know Jennifer. But now he had seen Jennifer.

She dismissed the thought instantly as being ridiculous. And admitted that he was the first man in her life that she had wanted to know.

Let Jennifer take what was hers and fight for what was not. Daphne didn't mind a little competition.

"That must be Tuck now," she said when an imperious rap sounded at the door.

"Hello, kids. What's this? The denon worker Daphne in pajamas at this time of day?"

"Don't scold, Tuck. I'm feeling lazy and fuzzy and dreading going to a smoky party with a lot of fogies."

Jennifer gave her a sharp glance. "Then why not?" Tuck said at once as Daphne intended he should.

"Where are you going?" she asked innocently. "Thought you knew. No place special. Jen wanted to drive up to Brett Hall to see the fogies."

"Well," Daphne answered over her shoulder as she disappeared into her bedroom, "since you're going to place special, I'd like to see the fogies myself. I'll be ready in a jiffy."

Jennifer's angry eyes missed hers. (To Be Continued)

Daphne suppressed a smile. Was this the subtle way?

"Sunday? Let me see—oh, yes, the Franciscans are having a supper party for Kim Preston and his bride."

"Oh, heavens! Another of those dreary supper-parties? How Jennifer had angled for an invitation to the last one. "I think I'll cut it. I never get a chance to get outdoors and on my one day away from the office I have to stand around a smoky living room with a lot of old fogies."

Daphne digested the disclosures in Jennifer's speech.

Daphne buried her face in the Sunday newspaper and pretended not to see Jennifer's disfigurement.

"What are you going to do?" Daphne asked lazily.

"Tuck is coming around in his roadster. We thought we'd drive in the country."

"That must be Tuck now," she said when an imperious rap sounded at the door.
