Mexico Threatens to Remove Consulate at Laredo to Eagle Pass

ALIEN ATTACHE ARRESTED BY U. S. OFFICIALS

Threatened Speaker Talking on Calles' Succession

FOR LAW AND ORDER, CLAIM

American Citizens Are Eager to Retain Commerce

LAREDO, July 26.—(P)—Threats by the Mexican government to remove the Mexican consulate from here to Eagle Pass, Texas, took a definite turn today when orders were received at the consulate from the secretary of foreign relations to be prepared to move as soon as orders were received from Mexico City.

The controversy which threatens to cause removal of the consulate arose when Mancha Macias, an attaché of the Mexican consul, was arrested by Laredo officers after he had been accused of making threatening remarks about Enriquez Bordes Mangel, president of the Anti-Reselection party in Mexico, while the latter was addressing an audience at a church.

Two women telephoned the Laredo police station that two men were saying "that man will not speak again." Mancha Macias was pointed out to city detectives, who arrested him without warrant and took him before District Attorney John A. Valls. Macias alleges that Judge Valls threatened him with a whip and cursed him in Spanish.

Laredo citizens were stirred over the threatened removal of the consulate. Its removal would halt all freight traffic into and from Mexico at this point, as every shipment must be passed by the consulate.

LAREDO, July 26.—(P)—District Attorney John Valls declared today that the recent arrest of an attaché of the Mexican consulate here was made in the interests of law and order in a statement reply to threats that the Mexican consulate would be moved from this city.

Allied Unions Event Enjoyed by Many Wednesday Evening

More than 300 persons attended the Allied Unions benefit dance and luncheon at the Pla-Mor auditorium last night. A special attraction was the boxing exhibitions put on by local boys.

Following two fast bouts by the mid-geets and featherweights, Rusty Cahill and Frankie Farrell entered the ring and for four furious rounds worked for a K. O., but neither succeeded. Cahill got the best of the argument, but couldn't land the sleep punch to the fast stepping Farrell, who showed nice footwork to keep away.

Following the boxing card a luncheon was served, prepared by the local cooks and waiters' union. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing.

O. P. "Whitey" Erwin, secretary of the Cooks and waiters' union, won a pair of Nunn-Busch shoes, donated by the Gordon Stores company, for selling the most tickets.

PAVING RAPID NOW

More than 1200 yards of vibro-bit paving was laid on North Ballard street yesterday by the Stuck Construction company. The work on the street will be finished by tomorrow night, when the machinery will be transferred to Kingsmill avenue between Froot and Somerville streets.

Work on the Somerville street boulevard has almost been completed.

A Safe Ticket

By DAVID M. WARREN

Voters will go to the polls Saturday, July 28, and make their choice for the various state and local officers. We believe that the voters will be especially interested in electing a safe ticket. The following resume is offered in regard to competitive offices from United States senator to representative from the 18th congressional district:

United States Senator—Earle B. Mayfield is asking for re-election, based on his record. Even papers like the Houston Chronicle, which fought him bitterly six years ago, admit that Mayfield has made a creditable senator. Seniority is of importance, and if Texas wants to have efficient representation at Washington it should elect Mayfield. His knowledge of railroad affairs alone should make him more valuable than any of the other candidates that are running for this office.

Governor—Dan Moody deserves re-election for what he has done to straighten out the highway commission of Texas during the past two years. He has made some mistakes but we believe that his ability and integrity in office warrant him holding a second term. Texas usually re-elects governors that are successful in their first term, as Moody has been.

Lieutenant Governor—J. D. Parnell, former legislator from Wichita Falls, is pleading for the support of West Texas for this office. He will be friendly to this section of the state if he is elected and we believe that he should be honored with the office. Barry Miller, present lieutenant governor, has held this office, largely honorary, for two terms and little could be gained by re-electing him.

State Comptroller—S. H. Terrell, incumbent, has generally been considered a success in this office. It is expensive to train men for administrative jobs and we feel that Mr. Terrell should have another term.

Treasurer—W. Gregory Hatcher is a candidate for re-election. This office pays such a limited salary that a candidate can not spend much money for a campaign. As the incumbent has a thorough knowledge of the work, it would be a good investment to re-elect him.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—S. M. N. Mays is becoming a veteran in this office with a long record as a successful superintendent and a practical school man, and we feel that he should again be returned to that office.

Commissioner General Land Office—West Texas is especially interested in the sum that holds this office, as there is so much oil land and state school land in West Texas. J. T. Robinson has always treated West Texas squarely and it is encouraging to note that the region is lining up behind him there.

Railroad Commissioner—Lon A. Smith is again asking for re-election as railroad commissioner. With his long experience in public affairs, there is little reason why he should not be re-elected.

Judge of Court of Criminal Appeals—W. C. Morrow is asking for re-election to this office. When attorneys throughout the state generally endorse a candidate for a judicial office, it is an indication that he is considered a fair jurist. Based on the endorsement by the bar from all over the state, we feel that there would be no mistake in re-electing Judge Morrow.

18th Congressional District—Marvin Jones is the senior Democrat on the house agricultural committee. He has made a thorough study of farm problems and is deemed one of the leaders in Congress. His efforts in behalf of the 18th congressional district have been unceasing and we feel that he should be given another term in preference to the nomination of J. Ross Bell, his opponent.

Heaney Weighs 11½ Pounds More Than Tunney for Fight

NEW YORK, July 26.—(P)—Tom Heaney will have an advantage of 11½ pounds over Gene Tunney, the champion, in their heavy-weight championship fight tonight.

Weighing in this afternoon at the Yankee stadium, scene of the battle, Tunney weighed 192 and Heaney 203 1/2.

The champion, bronzed and smiling, was first to step on the scales in one of the dressing rooms of the stadium. He smiled pleasantly and waved to friends in the room as the camera flashlights boomed.

Heaney followed and his weight was quickly taken and pictures snapped. As Tunney hurried back to his dressing room they passed each other in a friendly way. Both smiled and nodded.

"Hello Tom," said Tunney, and the challenger came back with a cheery "Hello Gene."

FITZGERALD STILL LOW

Although slightly improved, the condition of J. M. Fitzgerald, who received six stabs and slashes from a knife in the hands of John K. Sweet, pioneer Pampa resident, Tuesday night, is still critical, attending physicians report today. The most serious cuts are in the abdomen.

DOUGLASS RALLY TONIGHT

Tonight after the Daily News, fight party ends supporters of Curtis Douglass, candidate to succeed himself as district attorney of the 84th district, will gather at the Pla-Mor auditorium for a rally.

Mr. Douglass will speak, as well as a number of his friends, and Pampa band will give a concert.

Blind, But His Aim Kills

W. C. Hill, 67-year-old farmer of near Popular Bluff, Mo., is blind but is held for shooting to death Clyde Wilson, his son-in-law. He told police Wilson came home intoxicated and threatened to kill him and that he fired in the direction of Wilson's voice.

WOULD DRILL WITHIN LEFORS

Special Drilling Permits Asked by Amarillo Companies

Three applications for special permission to drill oil wells in lots in the LeFors townsite were heard in Amarillo by R. D. Parker, Austin, chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission. Requests to drill were made by officials of the Get Oil company and the Mauplin Oil company, both operating out of Amarillo.

These companies own several lots in the townsite and wish to drill wells, but according to the regulations of the oil and gas division, the locations would be too close together and too near drilling wells.

The law reads: "No well for oil or gas shall be drilled nearer than 300 feet to any other completed or drilling wells on the same or adjoining tract or farm; and no well shall be drilled nearer than 150 feet to any property line, unless under special permission granted by the railway commission."

Before extensive drilling commenced in the Panhandle, a gentleman's agreement was reached between oil companies that no well should be drilled closer than 300 feet to a property line and not closer than 600 feet to another well. This would, and does, mean that one well is drilled to each ten acres of land. According to law, one well may be drilled to each five acres.

No decisions were rendered yesterday by Mr. Parker on the LeFors townsite question. He is deferring action until he reaches Austin.

Few New Cases in District Court

No important cases have been filed recently with the county clerk for hearing at the next term of district court. In all 27 appear on the civil docket, the majority of which are divorces. Other cases are for damages, debt, and trespassing.

It is thought the next term of court will be taken up with continued cases of which there are enough for two terms.

WORTMAN WILL SPEAK

Judge C. S. Wortman, candidate for district attorney of the 31st district, will close his campaign here Friday night by speaking from in front of the courthouse. The audience may use the steps of the Baptist church as seats. Mr. Wortman will speak at 8 o'clock.

MEXICO STILL UNCERTAIN OF FUTURE TREND

Bitterness Toward Morones Is Dangerous Factor

PEACEFUL END IS HOPED FOR

Booms for Candidates Spring Up Over Nation

MEXICO CITY, July 26.—(P)—The situation into which Mexico was plunged by the assassination of President-elect Alvaro Obregon continued charged with uncertainty today. Obregonists tenders were endeavoring to determine whether their support in the question of presidential succession would be thrown.

They are undoubtedly in full control of the situation and if they remain united can dominate events of the immediate future. Some ill-considered act might, however, upset all calculations.

The most dangerous element perhaps is the bitter feeling against Luis Morones, resigned secretary of labor, by some of the Obregon group. There have been promiscuous charges that Morones and his laborite side assisted a "psychological" background by their opposition to Obregon, which made his assassination possible.

Well informed observers, however, saw prospects that Mexico would emerge peacefully from the present turbulent political situation.

Those who conferred on the presidential question included Aurelio Manrique and Antonio Soto Gama, Agrarian leaders, and Ricardo Topete, leader of the Obregon bloc which controls Congress.

It seemed probable that either President Calles would be asked to succeed himself as provisional president under certain constitutional arrangements which might be made or that Aaron Saenz, governor of Nuevo Leon, would be favored.

Numerous booms for local and national figures have sprung up in various parts of the republic. Most of these, however, have remained in a formative stage instead of gathering strength.

Health Officer Finds Dairy Herd Stock Is Healthy

Seven dairy herds, totaling 102 Jersey and Hereford cows, have been inspected by Dr. T. J. Worrell, city health officer, and not a trace of tuberculosis was found. The cows were in excellent condition and the milk sheds and surroundings favorable, the doctor reported.

The herds inspected and given a clean bill of health belonged to John Lewis, 14 cows; D. C. Davis, 9 cows; W. S. Paris, 26 cows; Ben Lockhart, 6 cows; Lloyd McLaughlin, 21 cows; W. C. Christopher, 14 cows; and J. W. Condo, 13 cows.

Dr. Worrell has more than 200 more dairy cows to examine, which will bring the number of milk cows in the territory to more than 300. He estimates that more than 1,000 gallons of milk is delivered to Pampa creameries, houses, cafes and drug stores each day from Pampa herds. Two years ago there were not 25 milk cows in the entire territory.

Investigations have been made into the conditions existing in the 30 hotels and restaurants in the city as well as the butcher shops, soda fountains and on vacant lots. Hints as to the proper method of sterilization has been given by the health officer in all cases.

Dr. Worrell is a graduate of the Arkansas Veterinary college, class of 1917, and since that time has been in public health work.

Prof. Lester Has Extensive Plans for Coming Year

J. L. Lester, teacher of vocational agriculture in Pampa high school, has just returned from the summer school of A. and M. college, with his plans for the year's work fully outlined.

He has stated that he plans to place emphasis on soil conservation, summer fallow, plant and animal diseases, and the development phase of swine, poultry, and dairy husbandry. In discussing his program of work, Mr. Lester made the following statement: "As I see it, one of our greatest needs right now is uniformity and purity of our dairy cattle, hogs, and poultry breeding stock. I shall be pleased to assist any person who is contemplating the purchase of pure-bred stock for Pampa."

In connection with class work in animal husbandry this year, Mr. Lester hopes to be able to arrange with the Pampa Fair association for an invitation stock judging contest to be held during the October fair. Students in his classes will co-operate with the association and the Chamber of Commerce in collecting and arranging exhibits for the fair, engaging in this work as one of their regular projects. Most students are now saving samples of wheat, oats, barley, alfalfa, and grain sorghums, Mr. Lester says.

While at A. and M. college this summer, Mr. Lester specialized in courses on farm mechanics and agricultural education. The last week he was away he spent in attending the state conference for vocational education teachers of Texas. Three hundred teachers from all parts of Texas were present.

"At this conference," said Mr. Lester, "the great need of more money to carry on the vocational educational program in Texas was very vividly brought to our attention by both the state and Federal directors of vocational education who were in attendance. It was brought out that their work is now being hindered by lack of money with which to carry it on, and the people are urged to get behind the bill now in the United States Congress for an appropriation of $3,000,000 to supplement the existing fund."

Danciger Gets 250-Barrel Well Northwest of City

The Danciger Oil and Refining company's No. 1 R. Smith in the southwest corner of section 149, block 3, four miles northwest of Pampa, reported making about 250 barrels of high grade crude a day. Pay is from granite wash, but the exact depth of the test is not known.

This well is an offset to the Emory Gas and Fuel company's No. 1 Bender in section 164, block 3, which came in for about 200 barrels following a shot, and the Magnoli Petroleum company's No. 1 Harrah in section 150 block 3.

The L. R. Travis' No. 1 J. Morse in the northeast corner of the north half of the southwest corner of section 3, block 26, H. and G. N. Survey has beer plugged back from 2,632 feet to 2,300 feet and completed as a 10,000,000-foot gasser.

The cellar has been dug for the same company's No. 2 Morse in the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of the same section.

Application has been made by Travis and Smith to plug their No. 1 Chapman in section 50, block 26. The well was drilled to a total depth of 917 feet but was a dry hole.

GRAY COUNTY IS FAVORED BY MARKET TURN

Five-Cent Raise Per Gravity on Higher Grades

44 PRODUCT IS SET AT $1.56

Same in Hutchinson or Carson to Bring Only $1.36

HOUSTON, July 26.—(P)—A general advance in the prices of Texas crude oils, with the exception of coastal grades, became effective today when the Humble Oil and Refining company posted a new schedule. Gulf Coast crudes remained unchanged.

A few North Texas crudes were cut 2 to 16 cents, but the majority of these grades were advanced 2 to 24 cents; Carson and Hutchinson six to 30 cents; Crane, Upton, Crookitt, Winkler and Pecos all grades were set at 65 cents, a five-cent increase.

Following are the new prices:

Ranger, North Texas, Mexia, Powell, Richland, Wortham, Lytton Springs, Currie, Moran and Nacoma crudes; below 25 gravity, 65 cents; up to 25.9, 67 cents; beginning with 26 gravity to 27 cents seven cents per grade increase up to 28.2 including 32.9; 33 at $1.16; beginning with 33 at $1.21, five cents per grade increase up to and including 44 and above at $1.76.

Gray county: Below 29 gravity, 68; below 30, 75 with 7 cents per grade increase up to and including 32.9; below 34, $1.01 with five-cent per grade increase up to and including 44 and above at $1.56.

Wheeler county: Below 30 gravity, 65; within a 7-cent per grade increase up to and including 32; below 34, $1.01, a five-cent per grade increase up to and including 44 and above at $1.44.

Carson and Hutchinson: Below 32 gravity 66, with a 7 cent grade increase up to and including 32.9; 33 at 81 with a five-cent per grade increase up to and including 44 and above at $1.36.

TULSA, Okla., July 26.—(P)—Oil men of the mid-continent field today were jubilant at the first increase in the price of oil posted in months. The Carter oil company revised its schedule for mid-continent crude, advancing the price on the highest grade 24 cents and reducing the price on the lowest grade 14 cents the new advance on high gravity is an increase of six cents a barrel on each degree of gravity increase.

The Carter announcement follows: "Posted market price for Oklahoma and Kansas crude oil at the wells will be $1.16 a barrel for 32 gravity, with a five-cent increase for each degree above 32, the maximum being $1.76 for 44 gravity and 14 cents decrease for each degree below 32, making minimum prices 67 cents for 25 gravity."

MOOSE PLATFORM ADOPTED

OMAHA, July 26.—(P)—The 1928 platform of the National Progressive (Bull Moose) party has been drawn up and adopted by a standing vote of a convention audience of 13.

Dr. Henry Hoffman, Omaha, founder of the "rejuvenated" party, keynote of the convention of three delegates, and author of the platform said his platform was "the best one ever written in the United States."

Fifteen persons, including two reporters, attended the sessions.

TWINKLES

It's immaterial, of course, but we'd like to know the ratio of radios to cows on Panhandle farms.

Amarillo's milk war at least called attention to the fact that dairies are meeting a growing demand in this section.

Where life is cheap, living is apt to be the same way.

Modern styles show that ladies in society means a lot more than it used to.

Today's simile: As full of talk as a Boy Scout just home from camp.

Heat, Hoover, Heenev make up a trio of interest getters. As a relay team, however, they wouldn't get very far.

It must be as satisfying as a cool shower to let fly good, strong adjectives at one's opponents on the night before election—after use of facts becomes tiresome.

In talking politics, make the crescendo out of "Are you going to vote?" and then soft pedal the "Who're you gonna vote for?"

When Shakespeare on one hand and a foreign invasion on the other, can be brought into the limelight of a world's heavyweight champions hip fight, interest should not be lacking.

Heenev isn't rated very high. But somewhere it happens to be Palmerston Wealth is powerful in its potentialities. Where is a rich New York woman who will pay handsomely for a chance to cross the Atlantic in a dirigible?

Over at Ponca City, Okla., are two men who illustrate means for employment of ichtes. E. W. Marland gave his time and ability to developing a strong company which would be generous to its employees and to the city in which it is located.

Wealth is its own justification in the hands of men who know how best to employ it. How unworthy, on the other hand, is mere accumulation of wealth for personal enjoyment only.

Horace are with us still—more than seventeen millions of them in this country. Laugh at hair pins and buggy whips, if you must, but spare Old Dobbin's race.

So it is with many things that seem passing. One time necessities are not so easily replaced but that the growing general demands of the present help to sustain them.

President Angell of Yale says a political platform is nothing but hot air. He forgets, however, that many politicians can blow both hot and cold.

CAPITOL News

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON — Herbert Hoover, by his very nature, may be expected to "be himself" in this presidential campaign.

He has always been a quiet, efficient, hard worker and it would not be his nature to step out of character and become one of the ballyhoo boys.

He will have very little to say during the campaign. He plans not to waste any words at all, which is exactly the course he has always pursued in the past.

Not that Hoover isn't going to make himself plain on any issue where plain-speaking seems to be demanded by political expediency. Not that he isn't going to work hard on his job as a candidate.

But times are changing and there is a question whether people any longer expect a candidate for the nation's highest and most important office to run around kissing babies and attending county fairs.

Furthermore, Hoover, though he may not be an expert politician, has acquired a great deal of political horse sense. Speaking tours have distinct dangers, as many campaigners have learned.

The contrast between the Hoover method of campaigning and the Smith method is already obvious. Each method happens to fit the man and his position in the campaign.

In remaining silent from the time of his nomination to the date of his acceptance speech August 11, Hoover seems to feel that he would have nothing to gain by rushing precipitately into the campaign with statements of an important nature. After nomination he called off his semiweekly press conferences. Smith, by comparison, has been voluble. He cracked out immediately a reiteration of his opinions on prohibition laws, made a speech lauding Tammany, and has since spoken up as often as he felt it might do any good.

Benefit Lawn Festival Large Social Affair

The benefit lawn festival given by the Altar Society of Holy Souls children on the grass court of the Schneider hotel Wednesday evening, contributed an event of interest to the week's social activities and at the same time added a satisfactory sum to the church fund. More than three hundred people attended the affair, enjoying a delightful musical program furnished by the Odessa Music company and the various kinds of refreshments. The lawn was lighted by gay Chinese lanterns that hung from the trees.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Billy Howell, Virginia's 16-year-old amateur golf champion, has never taken a golfing lesson.

After serving three years as a caddy, Billy became the possessor of a bag of clubs at the age of 10 and "just picked up the game." He watched the club champions at the Hermitage club and kept the form of his favorites in mind. When he tried the strokes himself, the ball sailed straight and true.

THIS HAPPENED
LILA LOU WARD married RIVER, who had previously engaged to LILA HARRIS, the only thing on the minds of the girls was to get away from the place in Lila's persistence in "conducting" to their friends, that she was Rod's first love.

Now go on with the story CHAPTER XXI
LILA sat before her dressing table removing the jewels she had worn that evening. She lifted the long string of pinkish pearls from round her neck and tossed it carelessly into a velvet-lined jewel box.

Jewels were not in her mind, however. Something more important to her than jewels occupied her thoughts. She was smiling over a campaign she had launched when she had extended the olive branch to Bertie Lou.

At the moment Rod was thinking of her as a surprisingly good fellow, the smile slid off her face like a mask. Cyrus had opened her door and come in without knocking. Lila quickly took up a hairbrush and began stroking her hair over her face. "Some day," she feared, Cyrus would see the telltale change in her features for which his approach was responsible.

CYRUS was a little fat, and more than partially bald. But his eyes were kind in spite of the hard lines that business competition had set round them and his wide, firm mouth.

He adored Lila. To him she was a kitten—a greedy little kitten who would lap the cream he gave her and then scratch. Not a soft kitten, but an amusing one.

"Don't you think they're both faking sort of . . . sort of done in?"

"Well, Rod wasn't pulling any Samson stuff. The roof stayed on." "He's sick with worry. And so's Bertie Lou. I feel awfully bad about it because if they were compelled to quit the fight and go back to Wayville I'd lose a good girl friend."

"What's the trouble?" Cyrus most obligingly asked.

"Oh, money," Lila replied with a gesture that implied the situation was a usual one.

Cyrus frowned. "Well, you know," he began doubtfully, "I rather think they must be spending more than they make."

INDEED he did something about it. He sent the auditor of his company out to take charge of a western branch and put Rod in his place. He invited Rod to lunch with him when he reached this decision and put it up to him. For a moment Rod was nonplussed. Lila certainly had worked fast. But he wanted no undeserved favors.

"All right, Cy," he said; "you've knocked me off my feet, but there's one thing I want to know. How much of this is due to friendship? You're offering me a lot more money than I've ever earned and I don't want to take it unless you think I can make good."

Cyrus smiled. "Young fellow, I'm able to offer you a reasonable salary because I never made it a practice to overpay any man, no matter how valuable he was to me."

Rod grinned.

"But I don't mind giving a leg up to a real hustler," Cyrus went on. "And I guess that little wife of yours won't weep over having more bacon in the house."

How literal that was only Rod knew.

The rest of the conference was occupied with details. Rod returned to the office treading on air. And Bertie Lou was so thrilled at the news when Rod told her at dinner that evening that she was rendered thoroughly incapable of further household duties. It was great news!

Then when, finally, the first flush of enthusiasm had dissipated, Bertie Lou began to wonder what had won Rod over so completely from his recent stand that he would accept no favors from Cyrus.

Unwittingly Rod supplied the answer. "Cy's a generous old buck, but the old-placed loving sympathy Lila for this work," he said.

Bertie Lou understood. He had

To the Citizens of Pampa and Community

The time has come for the citizens of this community to definitely make up their minds as to who they are going to elect for their next county judge, and I feel it is my privilege to make a statement concerning myself and my activities affecting this community so that you might know whom and for what you are voting in the event I should be your choice.

Have grown from boyhood to manhood in Pampa, having resided here for the past twenty-two years. Am a graduate of the Pampa high school, and attended the literary department of Baylor University at Waco, Texas. Am also a graduate of the law department of Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tennessee, and have practiced law in Pampa since 1917.

Pampa is my home and my endeavors of community building has been to make Pampa and its community a better place in which to live. And to do this I have contributed to the building fund of the several churches here, and to the building fund for the American Legion Home as well as having rendered free legal service in procuring it's present site. Am a member, director and vice president of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, and gave freely both in time and money to help bring the new railroad to Pampa. I was chairman of the committee to represent Pampa in the county seat contest, and have helped organize and finance other organizations such as the Boy Scout Council for Pampa, the branch of the Red Cross functioning here, and the community welfare association. Have been a booster for more paving for Pampa and also took an active part in helping put over the highway from Pampa to LeFors to McLean with bridge at LeFors.

Have not made a personal campaign for the reason that if I am elected I want to enter upon my duties with no sense of obligation to any individual, but be able to discharge by duties fairly and impartially, without fear or favor to either of the party litigants or members of the bar practicing before my court.

The citizens of Pampa and community have demonstrated their ability to work with me and vote as a unit, as was illustrated in the recent county seat election. I THINK I AM ENTITLED TO THE SAME SUPPORT AND CO-OPERATION IN THIS CONTEST AS WAS MANIFESTED IN THE COUNTY SEAT CONTEST. I did not enter this race altogether on my own account, but after a petition signed by citizens requesting me to make the race for county judge of Gray county, had been presented to me. And whether your name appears on that petition or not, I think it is reasonable to expect your vote and influence as a citizens of Pampa and Pampa community on next Saturday, July 28th.

SMALL GATE LOOKS LIKELY

Tunney Seems Favorite at Odds of About 3 to 1

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP)—Last night and with little outward show of interest, New York turned today to the first heavyweight championship match within its boundaries in five years.

In Madison Square Garden an anxious promoter, already perturbed at the possibility of a financial loss, shivered at the thought that an airplane might not arrive.

For it was through the air that Gene Tunney of Greenwich Village first heavyweight champion ever bred by the sidewalks of New York, chose to return to his native city for his fifteen-round bout with Tom Heenev, the gentle New Zealand blacksmith, in the Yankee stadium tonight. It was a manner of approach from Speculator, N. Y., befitting a champion who was defied every other tradition of the ring.

Tex Rickard, the promoter, knew just where he could find the challenger. The finest heavyweight Great Britain has produced since Ruby Robert Fitzsimmons, the spindly shanked Cornishman, slew giants with his gloved hands awaited the call to battle on board the yacht of a friend. There was no flying for him from Fair Haven, his training camp on the Jersey coast.

Around the city, greatest of the country's fight centers, there was little excitement over the impending struggle for the most prized of fistiana's crowns. The match seemed to have crept unawares upon the citizens without their even realizing what was happening.

So few were the wagers recorded on the match itself that it was difficult to determine the exact odds. Bets of 3 to 1 that Tunney would retain his title were mentioned but no one seemed to have seen any money change hands. Greater, by far, was wagering on the size of the gate and the probable amount of money Tex Rickard seemed destined to lose.

Persons close to Madison Square Garden finances saw little hope that the match would draw over $700,000 worth of customers into the stadium tonight. At the close of business yesterday the advance sale had picked up considerably but not enough to boost the treasury much above $500,000. Rickard, banking on a tremendous sale today continuing right up to fight time, stood firm on his prediction that the "bottle" would draw $1,000,000.

With expenses running close to $700,000 including a guarantee of $525,000 to Tunney and another of $100,000 to Heenev, a gate of $1,200,000 inclusive of taxes appeared necessary to pull Rickard out of the "red." Out of every dollar, pushed through the window of his box office, the promoter must turn over to the federal government 25 cents in taxes, the state government five cents, and the Yankee stadium ten cents for rental. All taxes are included in the ticket prices.

Influenced, probably, by the stolidity of his usually avid customers, Rickard today called for assistance from Jack Dempsey, the never-falling box office lure and the man who drew the first—and possibly the last—million dollar gates. Although it was probably just the final bias of the ballyhoo, the former champion, twice whipped by Tunney, decided to apply for a second's license before the New York state athletic commission today so he might coach Heenev on to victory tonight.

The main bout is scheduled to go on at 8 p. m. Texas Time, but may be advanced a few minutes if there is threat of rain.

Most of the apathy shown the contest is attributed by critics to the fact that Tunney, in performance and on paper, appears to outclass the determined but muscle-bound New Zealander. Heenev, they believe, is "made" for the slashing left hand of the champion and the joining right crosses for which the Anzac appears to have no defense but his chin.

Only once during his American invasion has Heenev, the plodder, displayed a knockout punch. That was the night he disposed of the brittle chinned Irishman from Boston, Jim Maloney, in 77 seconds of the first round. In ten and fifteen-round battles with Jack Sharkey, Jack Delaney, Johnny Risko, and Paulino Uzcundun, he failed to score a single knockdown and none of his opponents ever were in distress. In all these matches, just as in this, Tom was the underdog in the betting. He has never gone into an American ring a favorite.

Tom will be at a distinct disadvantage in height and reach to add to the difficulties of a defense that consists chiefly of plugging steadily forward, head and body unprotected, but with both arms swinging. Against a fighter of that type, Tunney, a perfect sharpshooter and the finest counter puncher the heavyweight division ever has seen, is in his element. In addition the champion can cast aside his boxing occasionally to punch with a freedom he never exhibits in two bouts with Jack Dempsey. A missed shot against the challenger is hardly likely to cause the champion fourteen seconds of trouble on the floor as it did in Gene's Chicago battle with the former titleholder.

THE CHAMPION!

Tunney's Career in Brief

James Joseph Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, was born in old Greenwich Village in New York City on May 25, 1896. He is the son of a longshoreman from County Mayo, Ireland.

As a boy, Tunney attended a parochial school, and like other members of his family, was and is today intensely religious. And like Heenev, his challenger, he quit school at the age of 14 and went to work with his father on the docks.

Gene attracted some attention as a boxer when he started to work. He was employed as a shipping clerk for a steamship clerk for a steamship company when he fought his first bout for which he received $50.

Tunney enlisted as soon as possible at the outbreak of the World War. He was in the marine corps. He served in the A. E. F. in France and attracted attention of the boxing world when he won the light heavyweight championship of the American Expeditionary Forces.

Returning to America, Tunney took up fighting as a profession and knocked out Bob Pierce in the second round of their bout. During that year, he fought four other bouts winning all except one, which was a no-decision affair.

In 1920, Tunney was more active but suffered from weak hands. A trip to the Maine woods fixed that. He won eight fights by knockouts that year and also took part in three no-decision fights.

The year before he won the heavy-

Tigers Cruelly Beat Yankees in Two Close Games

BY WILLIAM CHIFFMAN (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Detroit Tigers seem to have solved the problem. Save only Jacob Ruppert, vainly seeking ways and means to halt the Yankee outrage, the humble Tigers stepped to the plate with their own version, and made it the more convincing by rolling the champions of the world in the dust of Navin field twice in the same afternoon.

The slogan of the Tigers henceforth will be "make the Yankees travel and the league will take care of itself." The champions escaped from Boston at something like 3 o'clock Tuesday evening after submitting the Red Sox of that city to cruel and inhuman indignities, and apparently intended to continue their misconduct in Detroit. Suspecting that some twenty hours on the Pullmans had affected the champions, the Tigers innocently enough won the first game of a double-header Wednesday by 3 to 2. With this task accomplished so neatly, the home boys became bolder in the second engagement, which they snatched from weight championship from Dempsey. Tunney knocked out Tom Gibbons Italian Jack Herman and Bartley Madden. He fought no-decision bouts with Greb and Risko.

In all these years, to sum up his career, Tunney engaged in 60 fights, won 30 by knockouts, 14 by decisions, lost one, fought one which was ruled no-contest (with Jack Renault in 1923) and fought 14 no-decision bouts.

Then he beat Dempsey at Philadelphia in 1926 and successfully defended his crown against Dempsey in a return bout in Chicago in 1927.

Tunney is expected to retain his crown in his coming fight with Heenev on July 26 at the Polo Grounds. He is too fast, too smart and too good a boxer for Heenev in the eyes of most experts.

the leaders by 10 to 7.

The first decision was won by an impertinent rally against George Pipgras for three runs in the eighth inning. Henry Johnson, Myles Thomas and "Archie" Campbell were treated impartially in the second brawl.

While these unbelievable events were taking place in Detroit, the Athletics were winning two from the White Sox, and by this act cutting two games from the lead of the Yankees. As the Macmen have only four more chances to lose to the Yankees in hand-to-hand warfare this season, it may be that Mr. McCillicuddy still has a chance. By cold figures he has nine games behind the champions.

The A's took the opener by the disgraceful score of 16 to 0, but appeared themselves more politely by 8 to 7 in the second clash. Old Bullet Joseph Bush was the winning pitcher in the nightcap.

The Indians won two games from the Red Sox, 10 to 2 and 15 to 5. An investigation probably will be held here today. One of the immediate effects was that Douglas Traub, Boston outfielder mistook himself for a pitcher, and behaved more like one than anybody else who tossed them up for the Red Sox in the two games.

The Browns, noble third-placers, won two contests from the Senators, one by 12 to 8 and another by 6 to 5 in twelve innings.

Still unconvinced that the Giants are going to land anywhere but on top John J. McGraw once more put down the Pirates, 6 to 5. Home runs by Fred Lindstrom and "Shanty" Hogan accounted for four New York runs, and more than offset the worth of a similar drive by George Grantham with one on base.

The Cardinals knew they would have trouble losing to the Robins by any ordinary method, so they kicked a pile of eight unearned runs into the ample lap of big Jim Elliott in the fourth round. Jim showed his appreciation by winning, 8 to 1. The Cardinal generosity was committed by Mr. Andy High in the form of a spectacular wild throw and an artistic fumble.

The leading St. Louisians lost no ground to the runner-up Cubs, who succeeded in dropping one to the Braves in spite of Hack Wilson's twenty-third home run.

Cincinnati dashed off with the first game in Philadelphia, 16 to 5, only to see the furious Phils rise from their graves long enough to take the second, 7 to 5. Donald Hunt hit two home runs for the Quakers, bringing his season's total to fifteen.

BUILDERS OF PAMPA

The progress and development of any city is the result of the energy and effort of the business men and firms who make it up. The businesses listed on this page are permanent institutions and have contributed in many ways to the upbuilding of Pampa.

This page will appear in the Daily News once each week and will contain something new and interesting each day. A study of its stories will give a new knowledge of the reasons for the individual successes.

GRAY COUNTY CREAMERY IS MODERN AND SANITARY

AFFORDS A MARKET FOR LOCAL PRODUCTS AND KEEPS THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IN CIRCULATION

H. GERHARD, PROPRIETOR, HAS HAD YEARS OF EXPERIENCE AND IS CONSIDERED AN EXPERT IN HIS BUSINESS

The Gray County Creamery which was established in Pampa March 7, 1927, has grown to be one of Pampa's leading industries. Thousands of dollars are circulated within this community every month due to the fact that the creamery affords a local market for dairy products.

New equipment is added at the creamery as it is needed, and today it is one of the best equipped in this section of the state. Thirteen people are regularly employed to operate the creamery. Six trucks are running at all hours of the day delivering the products of the creamery.

The present daily capacity is 1500 gallons of ice cream, 1500 pounds of butter and 1000 gallons of sweet milk. A new pressure bottle washer will be installed in the near future which will wash 3500 bottles and 360 cans per hour.

H. Gerhard, proprietor, formerly operated creameries in Kansas before coming to Pampa. He has had years of experience in all phases of creamery work and is considered an expert in his business.

The Gray County Creamery is the only place in this community where fresh dairy products can be properly cared for. Persons who realize the great protection of pasteurized products can best appreciate having a first class creamery located in Pampa.

The policy of the creamery is to grow a little ahead of the other industries of the city so that it will always be ready to give the best of service on quality products. Mr. Gerhard states that he will continue to add new machinery and replace old and expand the plant as the needs of the city are increased.

Mr. Gerhard says, "We extend to every person in this community a standing invitation to visit and inspect our plant. We want to show you how and why pasteurized products safeguard your health."

UNIQUE COMPARISON OF HOOVER AND AL SMITH

BOTH LIKE BASEBALL AND RADIO, STARCHED COLLARS, BLACK CIGARS AND WHITE SHIRTS

umber of things in common. Each is 54 years old. Both were born in poor and humble surroundings, both lost their fathers during boyhood, both have blue eyes, both are family men with children, both are loved by their professional associates. Hoover's intimates call him "Chief"; Smith's know him as "Al".

Both are radio and baseball fans. Each wears a large collar and comparatively low shoes. Each—despite the legend of Smith's brown derby and the fact that neither would ever be taken for Beau Brummel—is particular about his personal appearance. Their clothes are always pressed, and someone sees to it that their hats, suits, shirts and ties match in harmonious colors.

Both wear starched white collars, except in the case of Smith for sport dress. Hoover's collars are notoriously high; Smith's are always low. Both wear plain white soft shirts. Smith likes striped ties, bow or four-in-hand, and Hoover wears rather quiet four-in-hands of gray, brown or blue.

Hoover worked his way through Leland Stanford. Smith worked while attending parochial school. Each is of a religious faith never before represented in the White House. For further particulars read these tables:

HERBERT HOOVER	ALFRED E. SMITH

Open Air Opera Going Strong Now At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, July 26.—(P)—Municipal open air opera was established upon a firm basis in San Antonio by the initial production of the Civic opera company, this month and plans are being made to make the organization permanent.

More than $1,000 was realized on the first production, "The Pirates of Penzance," and favorable criticisms were given the production by all critics who saw it. The opera was given in an old stone quarry which has been transformed into a sunken garden. The space at the bottom of the quarry is sufficient to allow an immense crowd to be seated, without disturbing the landscaping or arrangement of the gardens.

Eventually the city hopes to improve the quarry until it can be used as an open air amphitheatre.

Demand for Cement Strong in Texas

AUSTIN, July 26.—(P)—A large amount of building and road work in Texas is reflected in the increased production and demand for cement.

Operating at almost capacity rate, cement plants produced 540,000 barrels in June, bringing the total for the first half of the year to 3,103,000 barrels. Production for the corresponding period of last year was 2,644,000.

Shipments for the first six months of 1928 amounted to 3,124,000 barrels, as compared to 2,757,000 barrels for last year's period, leaving the stock on hand only 25,000 barrels this year.

The figures are supplied by the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas.

UNIQUE COMPARISON OF HOOVER AND AL SMITH

umber of things in common. Each is 54 years old. Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith have a n years old. Both were born in poor and humble surroundings, both lost their fathers during boyhood, both have blue eyes, both are family men with children, both are loved by their professional associates. Hoover's intimates call him "Chief"; Smith's know him as "Al".

Both are radio and baseball fans. Each wears a large collar and comparatively low shoes. Each—despite the legend of Smith's brown derby and the fact that neither would ever be taken for Beau-Brummel—is particular about his personal appearance. Their clothes are always pressed, and someone sees to it that their hats, suits, shirts and ties match in harmonious colors.

Both wear starched white collars, except in the case of Smith for sport dress. Hoover's collars are notoriously high; Smith's are always low. Both wear plain white soft shirts. Smith likes striped ties, bow or four-in-hand, and Hoover wears rather quiet four-in-hands of gray, brown or blue.

Hoover worked his way through Leland Stanford. Smith worked while attending parochial school. Each is of a religious faith never before represented in the White House. For further particulars read these tables:

HERBERT HOOVER	ALFRED E. SMITH

Better Safe Than Sorry

"Tutt" Practices Political Graces

Here is Republican dogdom's nominee for the highest political honor these United States have to offer to dogs—occupancy of the White House kennels. Of course Tutt's attainment of that distinction depends on the election of his master, Herbert Hoover. But the big police dog seems not to be worried about the result, for here he is shown practicing upon his etiquette in order to be a fit successor to the gentlemanly Rob Roy, President Coolidge's collie.

How to Have Healthy Vacation Told by Doctor

DALLAS, July 26.—(AP)—The toll of death, injuries and sickness blamed to vacation-time yearly is increasing to alarming proportions, writes Dr. Man-ton M. Carriek, director of public health of Dallas, in a treatise on "Vacation Time."

"This condition has become so grave within a few years that newspapers and organizations who were wont to exhort people to go away and take a rest are now directing their energies in warning masses to carry on sanely while away," said the health officer. He set down these rules as a guarantee for a healthy vacation:

Bathers should not go in swimming while fatigued or go beyond their depth.

Exertions should not be very strenuous if the physical condition is poor. Campers. Boil all questionable water. Eat only pure foods and live under sanitary conditions.

Autolists. Obey all traffic laws, drive with unusual caution over strange roads when approaching railroads.

Resorts are very popular, caution should be used that the diet is simple. Overeating causes heat-prostration.

Environment must be closely inspected when sleeping outdoors. Mosquitoes and other insects thrive in damp places.

Fishing in deep streams should not be attempted when the weather is threatening.

Uphold the common ethics of the woods. Destroy and guard against forest fires.

Lastly. Moderation is bound to bring a healthy and happy vacation.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE PANHANDLE AND SANTA FE RAILWAY COMPANY.

You are hereby notified that the Board of Directors of Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Company, have called a meeting of the Stockholders of the Company to convene at the principal office of the Company in the City of Amarillo, County of Potter, in the State of Texas, the 30th day of August, 1928, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. to consider and act upon a proposition to authorize the execution by the Company of a Mortgage or Deed of Trust to be called a General Mortgage or Deed of Trust or by such other name as may be determined, on all of its railroads and properties now or hereafter owned, to secure bonds to be issued in series from time to time to be used in paying for funding or refunding the indebtedness of the Company for moneys advanced to or expenditures made on its behalf, for the construction of its railroads and properties and additions or betterments thereto, and indebtedness constituting a prior lien on its railroads and properties now or hereafter owned and to provide funds for the future extension of and additions and betterments to its properties, for the purchase of equipment therefor, for the reimbursement of its Treasury for expenditures so made, and for other lawful purposes; such bonds to be issued at such times, in such amounts of such series, and at a lawful rate of interest payable at stated periods, and maturing on such date or dates, subject or not subject to redemption, tax-free or not tax-free convertible or not convertible into shares of capital stock of the company, for the acquisition, construction, or extension of railroads and railroad property and for additions and betterments to such railroads and properties now or hereafter owned by the Company; such mortgage or deed of pany, subject or not subject to sinking fund provisions, and containing such other terms and conditions as may be determined or prescribed by the Board of Directors; so limited in amount that bonds at any time outstanding, together with all the then outstanding prior debt of this Company and the par value of its then outstanding shares of capital stock shall not exceed the sum of Fifteen Million Dollars ($15,000,000) plus the amount expended after December 31, 1927, $500,000 or such sum not exceeding said amount as may be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, said bond to be dated July 1, 1928, and to mature July 1, 1933. trust to contain also such terms and conditions as may be prescribed or authorized by the Stockholders at said meeting; and to authorize the immediate issuance under said mortgage or one bond for Nine Million Dollars ($9,000,000).

J. N. Freeman, Secretary.

VOTE FOR J. T. ROBISON

FOR Land Commissioner

J. T. Robison is a Friend to the Panhandle

The decision of the Supreme Court June 25th upholding Land Commissioner, J. T. Robison, in the numerous cases involving the University and Public Free School Lands and the rights of land owners accentuates the importance of the position he holds and the necessity of having in that place an experienced business man as well as a trained lawyer. No prudent man and no association composed of prudent men would intrust a business of such magnitude to an individual without experience in the line of business involved. The State Land Office has become a great business institution through which come to the State millions of dollars every year, due largely if not wholly, to the business judgment of the present incumbent, J. T. Robison. It would be extremely hazardous for the people of Texas to place the Land Office in the hands of an inexperienced man of unknown business ability. Mr. Robison has demonstrated his fitness for the place, his honesty and his courage to stand for what is right regardless of consequences and the Supreme Court has recently sustained him in what is said to be the most important land case ever before that Court.

We are asking you to consider the matter from a business stand point as you would view your own private affairs, and if you reach the conclusion that Mr. Robison should be retained, as we think he should, we trust that you will call the matter to the attention of others to the end that a public business involving many millions and one's ownership of land will not be disturbed or possibly destroyed.

Voters of the 84th Judicial District

Read the following letter from Governor Dan Moody regarding Curtis Douglass, and note what he has to say in regard to the voters electing "someone else district attorney to correct the mistake he made."

J. D. Holmes
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
AUSTIN, TEXAS

May 19, 1928

Dan Moody, Governor.

Mr. James Spiller, Attorney,
Panhandle, Texas

Dear Mr. Spiller:—

Your letter enclosing the clipping from the Denver paper has been received. I suppose I received at least a half dozen copies of that clipping.

As you know, I called upon Mr. Douglass for his resignation, and he declined to give it. He has been a bitter disappointment to me. He was recommended to me by citizens of the Panhandle section, and especially by some of my friends in Waco who knew him when he lived there. When he declined to resign I asked the Attorney General to institute ouster proceedings against him, and while I have repeatedly taken this matter up with the Attorney General, so far nothing has been done. If the Attorney General does not oust him I hope that the people will elect someone else district attorney at the next election and correct the mistake I made in appointing him.

With regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
DAN MOODY.

Tunney Takes Off For New York in Big Sikorsky Plane

SPECULATOR, N. Y. July 26.—(AP)—Gene Tunney took off from Lake Pleasant in a dual-motored Sikorsky amphibian at 10:12 a. m. this morning for New York, where he will defend his world's heavyweight title against Tim Heeney, of New Zealand, tonight in the Yankee stadium.

The champion was accompanied by Wm. O. McGehean, New York sports writer, and Charles V. Bob of New York.

Heeney Plans His Fight After the Seventh Round

FAIRHAVEN, N. J., July 26.—(AP)—"Never felt better in my life," said Tom Heeney today.

The challenger was clear eyed and good humored, after a restful night's sleep. His handlers said he dropped off into a sound slumber a few minutes after he crawled between the sheets. He went to bed at ten o'clock, as has been his custom, but slept later than usual.

He ate heartily at breakfast, with Jimmy Hennessy, his trainer. The meal consisted of two hard boiled eggs, fruit, toast, and coffee. He intends to eat lightly about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and nap until time to go to Yankee stadium.

Tilden Is First on Tennis Card Starting Friday

PARIS, July 26.—(AP)—William T. Tilden will open the challenge round battle for the Davis cup with Rene Lacoste of France tomorrow at 2 p. m.

With Tilden's reinstatement, France is looking for one of the most brilliant displays of tennis ever seen in this country.

In accomplishing the reinstatement of Tilden where all others had failed, Ambassador Herrick succeeded in scoring one of his greatest diplomatic triumphs. In his first venture into the diplomacy of the world of sport he endeared himself still more to the French people.

Wichita Falls Takes Lead as Houston Loses

(By The Associated Press) Wichita Falls took the lead in the Texas league Wednesday by defeating San Antonio, 10 to 3, while the Houston Buffs, with whom the Spudders were deadlocked, were idle on account of rain.

Dallas Gained Ground in Fight for First Place by Defeating Beaumont

Features of the contest were the Steers' slugging, that netted 15 safeties, and Bartholomew's hurling which was excellent in the early rounds and was good enough to win even in the last three frames when the Exporters got all their runs.

"Lon" A. Smith for Railroad Commissioner

Efficiency
Economy

Re-election
Second Term

Having been elected four years ago by a large majority over three opponents to fill the unexpired term of the late Allison Mayfield as Railroad Commissioner of Texas, and it being a well established principle of democracy to re-elect an honest and efficient servant for a second term, the Democrats of Texas are rallying to the support of "LON" A. SMITH and asking their friends one and all to go to the polls on July 28th and re-elect him for his second term by a large majority.

"LON" A. SMITH, who is seeking election to the full term as a member of the State Railroad Commission, was born in Henderson, Rusk County, Texas, and reared on a farm. He obtained his education while working on the farm, and taught school for thirteen years in his native county. His first entry in political life as an office holder was when he was elected County Clerk of Rusk County, a position to which he was twice re-elected. After six years in this office he was elected from his senatorial district as State Senator. Following six years of service as State Senator, he was elected and re-elected as State Comptroller, serving four years in this office. He then successfully sought election to the State Railroad Commission to fill the unexpired term of the lamented Allison Mayfield.

In fraternal circles "LON" A. SMITH is a Knight of Pythias, a Dokey member of the Maccabees, Degree of Honor, Woodmen of the World, Fraternal Aid Union, Praetorians and is past president of the Texas Fraternal Congress.

He served for six years as State Commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans; is a honorary member of John B. Hood Camp, U. C. V. Austin; Albert Sidney Johnston Camp, U. C. V., Houston; Jefferson Davis Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Houston; and also of the national organization of U. D. C.

In religion "LON" A. SMITH is a Baptist, being a deacon of the First Baptist Church, Austin; past vice-president Baptist General Convention of Texas, and he now teaches a men's Bible Class in the Confederate Home in Austin.

"LON" A. SMITH is an ardent friend of education and as State Senator supported all measures for the benefit of education. He is also a supporter of the organized labor program.

The two candidates for Railroad Commissioner are "SMITHS," but there should be no confusion in the names. "LON" A. SMITH has been holding public office for a number of years, and he bases his candidacy for re-election on his faithful and efficient record of four years as Railroad Commissioner. This experience has fitted him to render valuable service in this office.

"LON" A. SMITH has made the people of Texas a most faithful and efficient officer during his first term as Railroad Commissioner and in our judgment should be re-elected for a second term.

York to Attend Rotary Meeting in Mineral Wells

J. P. York was delegated to attend a district meeting of the presidents and secretaries of Rotary clubs in this district, to be held August 20 and 21 at Mineral Wells, at the regular noon luncheon yesterday. Notification of the meeting was received from Rue Parcells of Amarillo, district governor of Rotary.

An invitation from the Lions club was read asking the members of the club and Rotary Anns to be the guests of the Lions club at a dinner the evening of August 2, at the Schneider hotel. The invitation was accepted.

Dick Hughes and W. C. Mitchell were admitted to the membership of the club. The new members were presented with a copy of the Rotary code of ethics by President Lynn Boyd.

Short talks made by the Rev. James Todd, Jr., on the honor of being a Rotarian; Joe Smith on fellowship; Lynn Boyd on square dealings, and Scott Barcus on distinctive service.

The Rev. James Todd, Jr., completed his report on the National convention at Minneapolis.

Guests at the luncheon were: Clifford Braly of Dalhart, Wm. Hale of Childress and John Cummings, Amarillo.

Seaman 36 Years, He Hears Call of the Land at Last

By CLARENCE M. WRIGHT HOUSTON, July 26.—(AP)—Once a lad of 16 answered the call of the sea. For 36 years he followed Neptune's sirens on the seven seas of the globe. He visited the centers of civilization and saw the terrors of modern Babylons.

And then he would return to his sea for a breath of that cleansing breeze. He would rejoice that he, unlike Odysseus' crew, did not have to stuff his ears with cotton to resist the call of the land sirens.

But now, this same lad, who has grown to a stalwart, grey-haired, handsome ship captain of 52, and who has become a "family man," is anxious to desert the rolling waves for a pace of security on the land. The call of the land has proved stronger than the call of the sea.

Captain A. H. Brown, master of the British steamer Planter, will not be satisfied with the comforts offered in any of the centers of civilization. There's too much talk of the sea; there's too little chance for a man to forget the ocean.

So now the lad who left Liverpool on a windjammer 36 years ago is looking for a place to rest. He wants to think of his experience in Bombay; of his encounters with savages in the South Pacific; of the welcome and satisfying shore leaves at the end of long voyages. He wants to forget the sea, for any man who will follow the sea is a fool. That is his conclusion after 36 years before the mast.

But before he will become a landsman with his wife and children the captain must be assured that he will be free from any ties which might recall him to the sea.

He wants to find a town where he can walk down the street with an anchor on his shoulder and be asked what it is. In that kind of a town, he says, it's a pretty safe bet that there won't be any ships around.

"I'm fed up. Thirty-six years of it is enough for any man. When I can retire, eight years from now, I'm going to find a place where people don't know what an anchor is and settle down with my family to live for a while," the dignified sailor says.

His philosophy is summed up in a parody, which he knows by heart, of Rudyard Kipling's Vampire.

"A fool there was and he went to sea, He chose a life of misery;

"But the poets called him brave and free;

"A fool he was, and a fool he'll be, "For only a fool will follow the sea."
