Light Vote Tomorrow Forecast

AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON IN STATE

An unusually light vote is expected to be cast throughout Gray county Monday when local voters, in common with electors over the entire state, go to the polls to vote for or against six proposed amendments to the state constitution.

While there are between 5,000 and 6,000 eligible voters in Gray county, County Clerk Charlie Thut estimated last night that only between 500 and 1,000 of them would take part in tomorrow's election.

Sixteen voting precincts in the county, seven of them within the Pampa city limits, will be open tomorrow between 8 a. m. and 7 p. m.

County Clerk Thut stated that the result should be known locally within an hour after the polls close at 7 o'clock tomorrow night. All election judges have been requested by the county clerk to phone his office as soon as the count is completed so that the returns may be wired at once to the state election board headquarters in Austin.

The following election judges will be in charge of the election in Gray county precincts tomorrow:

- No. 1—E. Bacchus, at LeFors;
- No. 2—L. C. McMurtry, Baker school in Pampa; No. 3—Morris Knorp, Grandview school; No. —W.

Saunders Ranch Will Be Site of Community Picnic on Labor Day

PANHANDLE OIL FLOW REDUCED 3,000 BARRELS

AUSTIN, Aug. 21 (AP)—The railroad commission today set the allowable oil production on Sept. 1 at 1,441,734 barrels a day, a reduction of 110,000 barrels a day from the allowable of Aug. 18 but 28,134 more than the recommendation of the United States Bureau of Mines.

The basic allowable this month, highest in recent years, was 1,495,491.

C. V. Terrell, chairman, said the cut was made uniform and was due to seasonal decline in consumption.

The vacation season ends pretty generally on Labor Day, school starts in September, and the family automobile comes home from the highways to more restricted use," Terrell said.

He pointed out that 84 per cent of Texas crude was consumed in northern and eastern markets and climatic conditions in those areas really controlled Texas market demand.

Contrary to expectations in some quarters the commission left unchanged the factor upon which is based the allowable for the vast East Texas field, 2.32 per cent of hourly potential.

To make sure that there will be plenty of fun and entertainment at the community picnic sponsored by the American Legion for every person in the eastern Panhandle, Ralph Thomas, chairman, and members of the entertainment committee, planned a full day's program of worthwhile events. The picnic is to be held Labor Day, Monday, September 6, on the Saunders ranch three miles east of LeFors.

The meeting was held Friday night in the court house and the program was outlined as follows:

Bicycle races for boys and girls under 12 years of age for boys and girls under 18 years, boys and girls 16 to 50, and boys and girls 50 years old and up; tire rolling contest open for all ages; J. B. Cox was appointed chairman for these two events. John Crout will be in charge of the grape-pole-climbing contest. Frank Lard will handle the hog-calling contest, and the husband-calling contest.

Race Starters Named

Frank Yates and J. W. Crisler will be the starters and stoppers of the sack race, fat and lean men's races, and fat and lean women's races, potato races, three-legged races, peanut-pushing race and relay race. Matt Seiders and James Washington will oversee the horseshoe-pitching contest for the day. Ben Robinson town ball or softball games, G. C. Malone the pie-eating and cracker-eating contests.

Champion Innan will conduct the champion pistol-shooting contest at a regular pistol range. And last but not least, the old fiddle contest will be in charge of Jesse Wynne, Roy Sewell, T. O. Thompson, and Noah Millikan. It is hoped that sufficient ground will be had for croquet

FOUR COUNTY SCHOOLS WILL OPEN EARLY

Arrangements had been completed Saturday by W. B. Weathered, Gray county school superintendent, and other school officials for the opening of county schools within the next two weeks.

First of the ten schools to open will be Albrecht where pupils will return to classes on Thursday, Aug. 25. Hopkins No. 1, Hopkins No. 2, and Webb schools will resume studies on Monday, Aug. 30.

Laketon, Back, Schaffer, Bell, Farrington, and Grandview schools are scheduled for opening on Labor Day, Sept. 6.

Superintendent Weathered said last night that enrollment in county schools is expected to show a slight decrease this year, due to a thinning out of farm population in some districts.

Following is a revised list of teachers and trustees for the various school districts for the 1937-38 term:

Laketon—Teachers: E. H. Tooley, principal, and Miss Olive Brown. Trustees: Ransom Carter, Ben Lockhart, and Ray Jones.

7,000 IN JAIL NEAR SHANGHAI MAY BE FREED

By MORRIS J. HARRIS

SHANGHAI, Aug. 22 (Sunday) (AP)—Shanghai's battle ebbed and flowed today beneath the sullen smoke of miles of blackened ruins while high above the Yangtze toward Nanking a Chinese fleet of airplanes fought and won the biggest aerial battle of the tragic war.

So complete was disorganization of this great international community, caught in the vortex of the undeclared Chinese-Japanese war, that its governing council decided it could no longer be responsible for its own ward road jail, the biggest in the world.

It prepared to turn the 7,000 inmates loose outside the boundaries of the international settlement. Murderers, and narcotics traffickers were included.

Japanese naval guns and Chinese batteries in Pootung early today resumed the terrific artillery duel across the Whangpoo river, Shanghai's outlet to the sea.

It was in such duelling that one American seaman was killed and 17 wounded aboard the American flagship Augusta Friday night.

Until the battleship guns began roaring Shanghai had enjoyed the quietest evening of its ten days of war.

Great fires which raged unchecked in northern and Eastern districts of the city drove out even the contending armies, virtually erasing the front in those areas. Soldiers and marines, regardless of the uniforms they wore, had to flee before the flames. In some

RAINFALL FOR YEAR REACHES 15.62 INCHES

With the 3.15 inches of rainfall Pampa received Friday forenoon the year's total precipitation reached 15.62 inches, only 32 of an inch short of the total for the entire year of 1936.

It was first reported that 2.2 inches of rain had fallen here Friday, but a re-check of the overflow compartment of the Daily NEWS government gauge showed that the day's total precipitation was 3.15 inches, one of the heaviest downpours recorded here in several years.

Of the 15.62 inches precipitation here so far this year, 1.75 inches was snowfall in March, leaving total rainfall for 1937 to date at 13.87 inches.

The precipitation record by months so far this year is as follows: January, .14 inch; February, .09 inch; March, 2.75 inches (1.75 inches snowfall); April, .54 inch; May, 3.61 inches; June, 2.38 inches; July, 1.3 inches, and August to date, 3.36 inches.

NUNN WILL REMAIN IN KENTUCKY RADIO WORK

Gilmore Nunn, formerly general manager of the Pampa Daily News, plans to remain in the radio business in Lexington, Ky., according to a letter received here today by the editor of The NEWS.

Mr. Nunn and his father, Lindsay Nunn, last week sold their Lexington Herald newspaper property to the Lexington Leader company. The Nunn's, former owners of the Pampa Daily News, disposed of their property here and bought the Lexington paper a year ago last June.

It is understood that Olin E. Hinkle, former editor of the Pampa News, is to remain with the combined Lexington papers in an editorial capacity.

Construction Begun On Oil Well Cellar On J. E. Yoder Farm

The cellar is being dug for a well on the J. E. Yoder farm a half-mile northwest of the Talley addition and a quarter-mile north of the Smith Brothers Refineries test on the Castleberry land which was being put on test Friday when the derrick burned. The Yoder well will be drilled by the Sausbury Oil Company and will be a quarter-mile extension east.

The Panhandle field registered 21 new locations with Gray county in the van with nine, followed by Hutchinson with five, Carson and Moore with three each, and Stone-well with one.

The Stonewall county location caused considerable interest since it is about four miles southeast of where the same company is drilling a wildcat test. No log of the drill-log well has been available here but filing of the intention to drill the second test may mean that pay has been found in the first well. The new location is on the B. F. Harrison land in section 18, D. Harrison survey, 10 miles southeast of Aspermont.

Intentions to drill:

RAIN BRINGS COOL WEEK-END TO PAMPA

Pampa enjoyed a comparative cool week-end after Friday's heavy rainfall, and the maximum temperature here was 75 degrees under a cloudy sky at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The mercury did not advance into the 70's until Saturday until 1 p. m. The minimum reading for the day was 64 degrees.

Last midnight the reading had fallen back to 62 degrees, and the weatherman had predicted continued cool weather for today.

Congress Ends With 4 Senators Hurling Contempt at Guffey

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Congress adjourned tonight, embroiled to the last in a spectacular warfare between fighting factions of the Democratic party.

After eight months of furious wrangling, the worried legislators turned homeward, wondering if the party's once solid majorities had been split beyond repair.

They wondered, too, whether they would be summoned back into special session this fall to deal with problems left unsettled, and if so, pessimistically predicted that the intra-party row would go on, from where it stopped today.

For it ended on a vote of wrathful defiance. Four of the democrats who opposed the Roosevelt court bill arose, one after the other, and challenged the administration to unseat them because of that opposition.

Upon Senator Guffey (D-Pa.) who had suggested such a course the four, Wheeler, Burke, O'Mahoney and Holt, poured waves of contempt and denunciation, while he sat grimly looking straight before him and said nothing.

PILOT SIGHS WRECKED SHIP

BARROW, Alaska, Aug. 21 (AP)—Dense fog brought landings today to one plane pressed into the search for the lost Soviet trans-polar airmen, and kept other rescue planes grounded.

Jimmie Mattren's refueling plane, piloted by Garland Lincoln, was forced down after thick clouds had kept it from landing at Fairbanks. It tore into the tundra on the bank of the Tanana River, and overturned.

Lincoln and his two companions, co-pilot Frank Tomick and photographer Charles A. Marshall, escaped unharmed. Joe Grosson, noted Fairbanks pilot, flew a pontoon-equipped plane to the scene and brought the trio to Fairbanks.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Aug. 21 (AP)—Pilot Bill Lavery reported today that he had sighted the refueling plane, piloted by Garland Lincoln on a flight here from Klunene Lake, Y. T., overturned in a meadow a mile from Fairbanks. He said he saw men walking around it, apparently unhurt.

Lincoln was accompanied by co-pilot Frank Tomick and Charles A. Marshall.

SWIMMERS READY FOR GALVESTON MARATHON

GALVESTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Some fifty swimmers, barked in their efforts by heavy seas last Sunday, tomorrow will go after $1,000 in cash prizes offered the first eight finishers in a five-mile swim off Galveston beach.

The postponed event has drawn a total of 48 entries and officials anticipate that several additional starters will sign before the race starts at 1 p. m.

First prize in the race is $500, second $250, third $100, fourth $50, and the next four $25 each.

SUNRAY OIL COMPANY MAY BUY AGREEMENT

TULSA Okla., Aug. 21 (AP)—R. E. Holcomb, assistant to the president of the Sunray Oil company here, confirmed today a report that Sunray is considering purchase of the Rotan field discovery well, Fisher county, Texas, and 1,000 acres around it from the Southern Oil corporation.

Holcomb, who did not disclose the consideration involved, said neither the deal for the well nor for the acreage had been closed.

Southern Oil completed the discovery well last May after scratching the dolomite at 3,502 feet and immediately shut it in for tankage, estimating it would produce 1000 to 3000 barrels of oil daily. The well is in the middle of the east line of a 160-acre tract. There are no pipeline connections at the well, Holcomb said.

The Tide Water Oil Co., drilled an east offset and got a 4,000-barrel producer of 41.6 gravity oil. Lewis production company of Tulsa put down a south offset to the discovery tract and made 8,800 barrels.

SLEEPING BABE KILLED BY GIRL BEACH DRIVER

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 21 (AP)—A verdict of accidental death was returned today in connection with the fatal injury early this morning of Juanita Jones, 20-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Jones, who was killed instantly when a car drove off a rough beach road and cut across the pallet where she lay sleeping.

Miss Minna Lee, employee of a local cafe, told authorities she was the driver of the car and that she did not see the family crumpled near the water until she had struck them. Parents of the dead child are recovering from their injuries in a local hospital. They are cotton pickers who came here from Rannels county.

CROP CONTROL PROMISED FOR

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Congress completed a momentous bargain with President Roosevelt today, pledging to make crop control its first order of business next session and clearing the way for the president in turn to bolster sagging cotton prices at once.

The promise to hasten crop control—which the chief executive had required as security for loans on this year's cotton—went to the White House when the senate completed congressional action on it.

Both houses quickly approved additional legislation enabling Mr. Roosevelt to carry out his end of the bargain, which senators said was to assure cotton growers a return of 12 cents a pound on their 1937 yield.

The administration already had authority to make cotton loans, but officials did not want to lend the full 12 cents because, they said, that would raise prices above the world level and prevent American cotton from being sold abroad. Also, that would prevent them of a lever to encourage compliance with the proposed production control program next year.

So congress authorized the administration to use $65,000,000 of tariff receipts for cotton subsidies, payable next year to producers who cooperate with the proposed program.

The authorized subsidies may be as much as three cents a pound—as much of that maximum as is necessary to provide a total return of 12 cents. They will be in addition to loans, which Secretary Wallace wants to see made at the rate of nine cents a pound. Officials said the rate and terms of the loans probably will be announced early next week.

TRUCK DRIVER CHARGED IN DEATH OF TEXAN

TAHOMA, Aug. 21 (AP)—A charge of negligent homicide was filed against E. C. Krizan, 41, tonight, growing out of the fatal injury of J. D. Webb, 44, West Texas Gas company official, of Midland, in a traffic collision 12 miles north of here at 1:10 o'clock this afternoon.

Krizan, truck driver of Amarillo, was released on his own recognizance, said County Attorney Rollie McCord, who prepared the complaint to post bond of $1,000 set by County Judge P. W. Good.

Webb's light pickup coupe and Krizan's truck hit with crushing impact and Webb, thrown from his car and under it, gasped only a few times before dying, witnesses said. The two machines met head on, said witnesses, and the car was skidded more than fifty feet. Webb left his widow and four children.

DERRICK DESTROYED BY FIRE NEAR HERE

Fire destroyed the derrick of the Smith Brothers Refining company's Castleberry Well number one Friday afternoon. The well is located about one-quarter mile north of Talley addition.

Workers were preparing to put the well on the pump when the blaze started. It was thought a piece of hot bavit was dropped into a puddle of water, which held gas or oil, and began the fire. The derrick was completely demolished and fell to the ground. No one was injured.

No Parking!

A request to Pampa motorists to refrain from parking in the restricted area in front of the east entrance to the courthouse has been issued by Police Chief Art Hurst who points out that a section has been reserved for Sheriff Earl Talley and his deputies. Even other courthouse "residents" are not allowed to use the zone.

Chief Hurst issued the warning before he orders his officers to "tag" cars parked in the area, which is painted a bright orange color.

Sheriff Talley, his deputies, and the constable need the full space set aside for them and it is hoped that motorists will cooperate.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 (AP)—Mild buying demand, attributed largely to short covering, succeeded in putting prices under today's stock market and many recently depressed leaders stepped up fractions to 2 or more points.

Several of the week's sellers apparently decided to cash in profits on the theory the market might put an end to the demonstration following congress adjournment. Some, though, thought possibility of a special influence.

It was the smallest day's dealings since July 17, transfers totaling 260,589, compared with 467,030 last Saturday. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks moved up 4 of a point at 67.9.

Modest rebounds were scored by U. S. government securities when federal reserve discount rate were reduced in two districts as a means of maintaining the easy money trend and halting liquidation of federal loans by member banks desirous of getting better returns from industrial and commercial lending.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 21 (AP)—Cotton prices sagged once more today to new season lows, clinching a week of uncertainty induced mainly by indecision over the government's proposed loan plan. Today's short session closed with a net decline of 7 1/2 points.

Oct. closed at 9.76177. Dec. at 9.86-87. Jan. at 9.90. March at 9.97. May at 10.07 and July at 10.17. The close was unchanged to 6 points above the day's low.

The weather was again regarded as favorable.

The Dallas News, in its condition report today, said, however, that continued high temperatures, hot winds and lack of sufficient moisture caused rapid decline in Texas cotton with more than average shedding of squares and small bolls and rather widespread premature opening.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Aug. 21 (AP)—Wheat prices rose about a cent a bushel today in a quiet rally from the lowest level of the season.

Cables indicating Russia is not dumping her wheat on the world market and export sales of approximately 700,000 bushels of North American grain were factors influencing buying, some of which was attributed to removal of helms by the government and profit taking by previous sellers. However, uncertainty of Russia's 1937 wheat surplus and estimate that the Soviet government may have approximately 32,000,000 bushels for export were unsettling features.

Wheat closed 1/2 cent higher compared with Friday's finish, September 1.05 1/2-1/2, December 1.07 1/2, May 1.09 1/2-3/4, corn, 1/2 down to 1/2 up, September 93 1/2-3/4, December 65 1/2, May 66 1/2, oats unchanged to 1/2 off, September 20 1/2, off to 1/2 up, September 20 1/2, off to 1/2 up, September 20 1/2, off to 1/2 up.

The six constitutional amendments to be submitted to voters tomorrow include the controversial question over the fee system for paying local officers.

Repealed two years ago, the fee system will be returned if the amendment is adopted by voters at Monday's election.

Another amendment of much importance to the state is the proposal to set up a discount system for the payment of state and local property taxes.

The amendment provides for a 3 per cent discount if taxes are paid by the end of October, 2 per cent saving if paid by the end of November and 1 per cent for payment by the end of December.

Another amendment affects the banking laws of the state, making them conform to federal banking laws and repealing the law which

HELIUM SALES BILL VOTED BY CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Congress sent to the White House today a bill to permit the sale of American helium abroad.

The senate concurred in house amendments to motion of Senator Thomas (D-Utah). Thomas said, however, he made the motion with great reluctance because of an amendment limiting sale of helium for lighter-than-air craft to ships floating to and from the United States.

He said this was "contrary to the spirit" of the bill which was designed to improve lighter-than-air development throughout the world.

The United States has a virtual monopoly of helium. Demands that it permit sales abroad arose after the hydrogen-filled dirigible Hindenburg burned at Lakehurst, N. J.

CROCKETT, Aug. 21 (AP)—A grand jury here today voted no-bill after considering charges Mrs. Pete Traxler had smuggled a rifle to her husband the morning of his escape from Eastham prison farm July 8. Traxler was later captured in Oklahoma.

Deputy Sheriff M. B. Etheridge, then a guard at Eastham said the rifle was brought into the farm on a waterwagon.

OILERS AND BLACKFACES TO CLASH THIS AFTERNOON AT LOCAL PARK

FRIDAY NIGHT GAME DELAYED BY WET FIELD

"Rain, no game." Believe it or not, rain caused postponement of a baseball game Friday night in Borger, when the Pampa Oilers and Huber Blackfaces were scheduled to play the fourth game of their Panhandle championship series. This afternoon the teams will meet at Road Runner park at 3 o'clock. Admission will be 25 and 40 cents.

Little "Boogie" Nash will likely be on second for the Oilers. The former Harvester football star played his first game with the team last Tuesday and turned in a nice performance both in the field and at the plate. Sam Hale is scheduled to be on hand to hold down the hot corner.

Manager Fred Brickell may change his mind by game time and use Sam Scalling on second, or at third if Hale is unable to be present. Again, McLarry may be used at either position.

IN THE NATIONAL

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21 (P)—Scoring three runs in the ninth, the top-flight Chicago Cubs defeated the Cincinnati Reds 7 to 6 today to even the series and take a three-game advantage over the second-place New York Giants.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 21 (P)—The Dodgers clubbed Lou Fette out in less than three innings today and breezed in with an 8 to 4 victory over the Boston Bees, to even the current series.

PHILLIES STOP GIANTS. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21 (P)—The Phillies saved seventh place for themselves, and halted the Giants' chase after the National league lead today by banging out an 11 to 3 victory over the New York Giants.

'SHORTY' HORNBUCKLE BEATS 'SPEC' STEWART

ROSSELL, N. M., Aug. 21 (P)—It's a long road that has no turning, and the corner came today for H. T. "Shorty" Hornbuckle of Clovis to pop him into the semi-final round of the New Mexico State Amateur golf championship.

In the other quarter final matches, Carl Jones of Roswell, the defending champion continued his unruffled way by taking the measure of J. B. Morris of Carlsbad, 2 and 1; Skip Schreiber of Albuquerque took a 3 and 2 victory at the expense of Ed Amonett of Roswell, and Red Keahane of Roswell defeated Hugh Huff, Jr., Roswell, 5 and 4.

Cities Service And King Will Battle For Title

An Industrial Softball league champion will be crowned Tuesday night at Recreational park when King Oil and Cities Service meet in the deciding game of their series. Game time will be 8:15 o'clock with admission 10 and 15 cents. A second game, an exhibition affair, will probably be matched.

TIGERS STAGE RALLY. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21 (P)—Doubles by Ricky York and Marvin Owen in the seventh inning gave the Detroit Tigers the necessary run for a 6 to 5 victory over the St. Louis Browns today.

YANKEE DRIVE STOPPED. NEW YORK, Aug. 21 (P)—The troublesome Philadelphia Athletics topped the Yankees 5 to 2 today in game cut to eight innings by rain.

Beaumont and San Angelo in Finals Of Softball Meet

BEAUMONT, Aug. 21 (P)—The Mobilizers of Beaumont and San Angelo battled their way to the finals in the Texas amateur athletic federation state softball tournament held here this afternoon, and will meet for the state championship tonight at 9:30 o'clock.

Belt for Belting Bomber

Joe Louis stoically accepts the belt emblematic of the heavyweight championship from Nat Fleischer, boxing magazine editor, during a breathing spell in his training at Pompton Lakes, N. J. This belt, along with another brought over from England by Capt. John Harding of the National Sporting Club of London, will be at stake when Louis meets Tommy Farr in a 15-rounder Aug. 26 at Yankee Stadium.

LOUIS 5 TO 1 SHOT TO WHIP TOMMY FARR

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 (P)—It may be the heat wave, it may be the obvious absence of evidence or belief that British Tommy Farr can long remain upright under punishment administered by the chocolate champion, Joe Louis. Or both.

At any rate, New York's fistic faithful is taking very much in stride the big town's first heavyweight title match in more than two years and the negro's first defense of the crown he knocked from the Irish thatch of James J. Braddock just two months ago in Chicago.

Promoter Mike Jacobs figures the bout will draw around $350,000 in gross receipts. Under the circumstances and in the absence of anything hotter to stimulate the cash customers than the weather, this is probably fair enough. It will mean a tidy profit for all concerned and mark another year, the third in a row, in which the fights featuring Joe Louis have grossed an aggregate of $1,000,000 or more.

DONAHUE WILL BE SCIENTIFIC SAYS SPONSOR

Like your wrestling scientific? Well, you'll get that kind at the Pampa Athletic arena tomorrow night. Like your wrestling rough? Well, you'll also get that type at the same place on the same night.

The main events are reported to be clean, scientific grapplers. Fans know that Johnson likes the going clean but they wonder why the Irishman has been termed the Michigan Wildcat if he is also a scientific grappler. No one down here knows, because he will be making his first appearance. Advertisers, however, reveal that Donahue is one of the best wrestlers in the nation today.

Budge Beats Most Dangerous Rival

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 21 (P)—Smashing out a four set victory over Bobby Riggs, ranked as perhaps his most dangerous American rival, lanky, red-haired Don Budge of California today won the 57th Casino singles title and served notice he was ready for national singles championship play.

Later Budge joined Gene Mako, his Los Angeles Davis cup partner, and they stamped themselves as hot shots for the successful defense of their national team titles at Longwood next week by coming from behind against G. Patrick Hughes and Charles F. Hare, the slam-banging Britishers, for a 3-6, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 triumph in the doubles finals.

WHITE DEER BUCKS TO TRAIN IN GETA CANYON

WHITE DEER, Aug. 21 (P)—Coach Eugene McCollum and 24 members of the White Deer Bucks football squad will leave Monday for a 10-day camp in Geta canyon.

33 Harvesters Will Go To Lake Camp Tuesday

Thirty-three Harvester football prospects will accompany Coach Odu Mitchell and his staff to Monument Lake, Colorado, Tuesday for a 10-day training camp.

Coach Mitchell recommends that boys pack at least four quilts in their bed roll along with a tin plate, cup, knife, fork and spoon. Personal belongings will be taken on the bus which will leave early Tuesday morning. Final details will be explained at the meeting tomorrow morning.

Coach Mitchell will be assisted by Coaches J. C. Prejean, Bob Curry, and Tom Herod. Business managers this year will be C. W. Smith and Woody Clements.

Although all boys eligible for the Harvester squad are invited to attend the meeting tomorrow morning, only the following 33 boys will make the trip: Capt. J. W. Graham, Topsy Reynolds, Melvin Turner, Carl Brown, Oliver Coshov, Bill Stiles, Truman Rumble, Welby Parish, Jack Ware, Don Smith, Beecher Freeman, Jack Leavitt, Albert Kemp, J. P. AMERICAN TENNIS CUP TEAM DEFEATS BRITISH FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 21 (P)—Completing the rout it started on the opening day, the United States Wightman Cup team today swept on to a 6-1 triumph over Great Britain's girl tennis players.

After turning back Mary Hardwick in today's first match, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2, to run the U. S. lead to 4 matches to none, Miss Jacobs withdrew from the doubles that closed the program.

PAMPA'S COMMUNITY PICNIC

Practically all of the details have been completed for Pampa's free community picnic to be held all day Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 6, on the Saunders' Ranch, three miles east of LeFors.

This Panhandle-wide outing is an affair being arranged for Pampans and their neighbors in the entire surrounding Panhandle area. While it is being sponsored by the Pampa post of the American Legion, it is in no way an outing designed only for Legionnaires.

Everybody is invited to come, bring the family, a basket lunch, and make a day of it. Plenty of fun and entertainment is being arranged to keep young and old busy all day.

It is designed as a general get-together for everyone. It is a picnic where the president of the company and the rank and file of his men may spend a day together in good fellowship.

The Pampa community picnic, which will be conducted as an annual affair, is to be the kind of a holiday where those high and low in the Panhandle's industrial and business world can mingle on common ground.

One of the chief aims of the outing is to restore the neighborly spirit between various communities in our area—something which has been slipping into the background in recent years.

Indications are that the Pampa community picnic will grow to be one of the finest institutions of its kind in the Panhandle. Scores of committeemen of the Legion are working hard to make this first outing a success.

There will be speeches, games, contests, amusements of all kinds and a number of visiting dignitaries from high officialdom in Texas.

The Legion is to be commended for sponsoring the affair, and the cooperation of everyone in Pampa and in the surrounding towns and communities is urged to make the outing an enjoyable affair.

Thousands of persons will be there—and if you are among them, you're going to have one of the best times arranged for Panhandle residents in many years.

Remember the date—Labor Day, Sept. 6, and pack a picnic basket, bring the family, and the rest will take care of itself.

Washington Letter

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—Many a New Dealer has boasted that a major accomplishment of the Roosevelt regime has been the moving "of the real capital of the United States" from New York back to Washington.

Roosevelt partisans have declared that before "the New Deal returned the plain people to authority." New York's financial barons exercised a more or less invisible control of national governmental policies which they described as amounting to a "dictatorship for a privileged few."

With the Roosevelt "revolution," the less opulent South and West were said to have leaped into the political saddle—riding a strangely-hybrid Democratic donkey with unwonted disdain of the once proud and politically powerful financial East.

In the 1936 race for the Presidency, with its sharply divergent polls and prognostications of voter preference, the political sharps as usual—excepting Mr. Farley, of course—re-penned New York state with its large electoral vote as a very possible determinant of who would be the winner.

But when the Roosevelt juggernaut rumbled to a new record in opposition-crushing, even the Empire State's prestige as a political factor was eclipsed by a sweep that fastened the Democratic label on every state except Maine and Vermont.

But now New York has moved back into the very center of the political picture, with the prognosticators predicting that the future of the New Deal may depend in large measure upon the outcome of the mayoralty fight in New York City.

They figure that if anti-Roosevelt Alfred E. Smith and Tammany Leader Christopher Sullivan win the mayoralty nomination for Senator Royal Copeland over Justice Jeremiah Mahoney, backed by New Deal Democrats, they might gain control of the entire party organization in New York City.

Even if Mayor LaGuardia, sympathetic to the New Deal, defeated Copeland in the finals, Smith and Sullivan might be able to retain control of the party organization in the city and take an anti-Roosevelt delegation to the 1940 Democratic convention.

Combined with conservative Democrats from the South, the Tammany delegation might make the going tough for any New Deal candidate for the Presidential nomination.

Such appraisal of the possible power of anti-Roosevelt forces at the next convention is predicated upon a sizeable contingent from the South being hostile to Mr. Roosevelt or any candidate he favored for the nomination.

Veteran politicians, however, believe it is a bit premature to begin counting on formidable southern opposition to the President, particu-

An old friend from the East dropped in on us out of a clear sky late Friday afternoon to say "hello." . . . He was Dr. C. J. Love, of Lorain, Ohio, going through with his family en route to Santa Ana, Calif., where he will vacation for a couple of weeks. . . . Love was non-plussed with the muddy streets and wouldn't believe that there are no storm sewers in Pampa. . . . Where he comes from it rains every other day or so and sometimes twice a day.

To Art Teed goes the day's congratulations for his recent appointment as district deputy governor in District 2-T Lions. . . . It is his reward for faithful service to his civic club. . . . If you are interested in turtle soup, it was served up in fine style Friday evening in the home of Judge B. S. Via. . . . You heard the popular song's reference to the home on the range where the deer and the antelope play. . . . Well, we were out there the other evening, and sure enough the deer and the antelope were there, skipping about like greased lightning.

It was the occasion of a little jaunt over onto the Hay Hook ranch along White Deer Creek, as pretty a spot as you'll see in these parts. . . . It wouldn't be a bad place for a state park, come to think of it. . . . Getting back to that turtle soup supper, with all the trimmings, prepared by Mrs. B. S. Via, a cook than whom there is none better. . . . Lucky fellows around the table included Mayor W. A. Bratton, Judge Newton P. Willis, Paul Jensen, W. R. Frazee, Judge W. R. Ewing, C. H. Walker, Judge Via, and the skipper of this space.

Judge Willis was telling about his recent trip to New York and how he got all befuddled by sidewalk traffic which moves in lanes (coming and going) in the metropolis. . . . Mrs. Willis relates one on the judge that he got into the wrong lane and was having plenty of dodging difficulties when a man behind him finally tapped him on the shoulder and said, "Mister, I wish you'd please put out your hand before you make a turn" . . . Judge Willis had more country boy trouble when he went aboard the palatial French liner, Normandie, for a bit of inspection. . . . He was going up and down stairways until he finally got lost from his party, and couldn't ferret his way out. . . . Trouble was, that he asked directions from ship's attendants who spoke only French, all of which left Judge Willis at sea. . . . Finally he ran across one who could handle a smattering of English, and then was able to get out of the trap.

Judge Willis had the pleasure of being in Washington with Ralph Young, ex-Panhandle resident, and now head of the triumvirate which recently acquired the holdings of the vast Van Sweringen railroad empire. . . . Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, headed a committee which was asking Mr. Young questions about his plans. . . . The committee finally switched from the subject and got to talking about Mr. Young's purchase of $15,000 worth of Democratic national committee campaign books. . . . Mr. Young told Judge Willis that he bought 60 of the books at $250 per copy.

Judge Willis, who spent a great deal of time in Wall Street, says the Street is very unhappy over the administration's tactics in connection with finance. . . . Creator of the comic strip, "Alley Oop," which appears daily in the Pampa NEWS, is reported to be considering a lawsuit alleging slander of one of his characters, "Poogy," the slander originating somewhere within the ranks of the Pampa Lions club. . . . If he gets the chance, he'll edge in a second helping of dessert, under the guise that he was overlooked the first time.

Edwin S. Vicars, brings Kiwanis birthday party praise Friday, for being one who is practically perfect in attendance down thru the years. . . . Bill Jarratt doesn't look as dapper as he used to. . . . That's because his moustache has gone with the wind. . . . Maybe he'll put it back, now. . . . Paul Hill is so accommodating he will get his car and drive you across water puddles in the street during a heavy downpour. . . . Then, he will even wait for you to come back and help you out of distress again. . . . Jess Hatcher's hens are "laying" down on the job by not laying.

More than 80 Boy Scouts of the Adobe Walls Council left Pampa, Wheeler, Berger, Panhandle, Pollett, and Whittenburg for the annual encampment at Cima del Mundo, 18 miles from Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Early at a time when he may be preparing to give the go ahead signal on millions of dollars in loans to Dixie's cotton farmers.

Some old-line Democrats, who have no particular liking for the Copeland-Smith objectives, are fearful nevertheless that a second victory for Fiorello "Little Flower" LaGuardia might turn out to be a sprig of poison ivy for the Democratic party from a national standpoint.

The building up of a strong LaGuardia organization, combined with a continued split in the Democratic forces of New York City, might deprive the Democratic party of a long-time bulwark of strength in Presidential contests.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Idling through 14th street after dark, nose buried in the hits, runs and errors column of an early street edition I was weeping softly over the lachrymose details for the N. Y. Giants, when a pink handbill was thrust rudely into my face.

"Read dis, pal . . . Well, you know how it is. . . . When you're preoccupied you shake those things off without half noticing. . . . I never even looked up until some anthropoid-like figure planted himself squarely in front . . . 'So yer sidin' wid de Japs!' he snarled.

He was a throw-back to the primordial days of knotted clubs and ape-like creatures squatting in front of caves. . . . His voice was a sinister guttural.

"Well; y'are, ain't'cha?" "What?" I ejaculated. "Yer sidin' wid de Japs!" "Who? Me? Goodness gracious, No!"

"Den read dis," he growled. I took it and thanked him for it and told him I was very anxious to read it. "What?" "It sez—it sez . . . well yer better not side wid de Japs, dat's all!"

"I haven't the remotest idea of siding with the Japs," I told him. But even then his features didn't relax. . . . He sort of backed off to one side and I passed on, but I could feel his eyes following.

I opened the polemic. . . . It was a coral shade hand-out, with a glowing oriental war-lord in front, armed to the teeth. . . . Across the top, in bold, rugged type, ran the scare-head: 'HANDS OFF CHINA!'

People You Know

From W. B. Airey, Mobile, Ala., brother of Mrs. W. H. Davis, comes this letter telling of a fishing exploit of Mr. Davis. . . . Hans to this one, "You no doubt know that Hans attended the Alabama Deep Sea rodeo, but I am sure that due to his inherent modesty you have not heard of the fame that might be his for the asking. . . . Last Sunday, Hans is seated aft on a fast launch trolling with a heavy duty rod and reel; 75 feet of line trails behind him, his lure a nickle-eled spinner and squid. A light sea is running and the breeze offshore, a favorable sign. Tarpon are striking and several have been brought to gaff. . . . We are rounding Sausalito and the Coast Guard cutter are suspended two devil fish weighing 800 and 2500 pounds respectively, a 109-pound tarpon. . . . At the insistence of the judge, two husky deckhands are sent to carry Hans' catch to the scales. . . . The specimen cannot be accommodated. A hurry call is sent to the Coast Guard cutter lying near Hans' catch is weighed on the pharmacists' scales and later on the blackboard on which is recorded the day's catch appears the notation: "W. H. Davis Pampa, Tex., Amberjack, 10 ounces." (Hans, any revenge you may take wouldn't be enough.)

"What has he hooked? A tarpon?" "No, a tarpon leaps from the water directly he feels the hook. A shark? No, the line did not play out rapidly enough. No red fish, no black fish. . . . Hans reels in furiously. . . . A squall is making up rapidly. . . . An hour's run puts us alongside the Judges' pier. From the pier are suspended two devil fish weighing 800 and 2500 pounds respectively, a 109-pound tarpon. . . . Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Unreal parade: James Cagney started out on the stage as a chorus boy and a hooper, but in pictures he made his fame as a tough guy—first as public enemy No. 1 and then, reformed, as a G-man.

Now he's back where he started, hoofing in "Something to Sing About." Edward Arnold's stand-in, William Hoover, looks so much like the star that he can double for him in fight and stunt scenes, even fairly close up. . . . For Arnold's stairway tumble three times and wasn't scratched, but went home and tripped on a stone and was laid up for a week. . . . Says Arnold: "No, Bill isn't especially athletic but he's just a little more so than I am!"

Louise Hickock (some say the girl who used to be Gypsy Rose Lee was the best undressed girl on Broadway) is now being touted for "best-dressed" honors by Twentieth Century. . . . For a publicity squib Louise selects a composite of Eddie Cantor and Roland Young as her "ideal man" and says: "I want my men friends to be rugged individualists with a certain amount of stamina and determination about them. . . ."

The Screen Actors Guild has no trouble collecting dues. . . . The studios are scared silly that they'll unwittingly hire an actor not in good standing; so they check up on the dues and membership before putting any actor to work. . . . Shirley Ross is getting better photographic treatment in "Blossoms on Broadway" than she did in "Walkie Wedding." . . . In that Crosby feature she looked at least 10 years older than she actually does off-screen.

Saw Marian Nixon at a party . . . Said she was through with pictures, and preferred housewifery of which she said: "It's nice work if you can get it. . . ." She's Mrs. William Selter. . . . Gale Sondergaard at the same affair. . . . Looking like a tall-order Gypsy.

Jane Withers is getting to be a big girl now. 12 next April. . . . And while she still ranks high at the box office—lith the last time they took a vote—she's preparing for the days when and if. . . . Studying piano, and switched from French to Spanish. . . . The Spanish-speaking audience is second only to the English over the world, and the Withers plan a tour when picture days are done. . . . Conversation on a set: Actor: "Mine is a big role, isn't it? I mean it runs all through the picture?" Producer: "It certainly does—you're in the first and last scenes."

Since these cases are also believed to be related to disturbance of the glands, glandular preparations are given with a view to improving the condition. Nevertheless, the effects of such trials have been moderate as to the results, and there is no definite promise that the use of glandular materials will quite certainly improve any such case of infantilism. It is conceivable that there may be several factors involved in this condition. It is of particular importance to realize that the mind also remains child-like. These people are absorbed in play long after the age when they should be grown up. They are usually open to suggestion and like to imitate what they see in grown-ups. The exact stage of the condition depends on the particular time at which the necessary factors for growth began to fail in their operation. Since it is possible that the thyroid gland as well as the pituitary may be involved, it is customary to try the effects of both of these glandular substances in bringing about improvement.

Book A Day

By BRUCE CATTON

Men are apt to turn a bleak eye on any novel whose title includes the word "love," but Mateel Howe Farnham's new work, "Ex-Love," touches in interesting style a subject that interests many men in this "divorce era."

For Miss Farnham takes the part of the exploited husband, and explores the more unsavory aspects of the alimony problem in her eminently readable book, published by Dodd, Mead & Company ($2.00).

Carlotta Brandt, a calculating, self-centered woman, abruptly divorces her husband, John, ostensibly because they "were hampering each other's individualities." A sincere, sensitive fellow whom readers will like, John also was tricked into signing a promise to pay her alimony amounting to half his salary.

Not content even with that, Carlotta tried to keep her ex-husband on a leash, but he rebelled and proposed to a lovely little hotel floor clerk. Distraught, Carlotta threw herself at his feet to avert his marriage, but to no avail.

A woman scorned, she turns to the law for her revenge. How she almost succeeds makes a really enjoyable novel, not as banal as its title would suggest.

Miss Farnham goes a bit far afield to take a whack at the alimony "raconteur," and her theme is hardly a fair commentary on the problem, but it does supply a peg on which she has hung an intriguing tale.—G. P.

OPIUM USERS GET TOURIST LICENSES SHANGHAI, China (P)—Tourist licenses will be issued for traveling opium smokers in Greater Shanghai. They are being put out to help officials keep track of addicts.

The city government has a plan that calls for the extermination of the narcotic evil by 1940. Smokers have been required to register and pay a fee. Each year the license must be renewed and the addict's allotment of drugs is diminished.

DEATH AWAITS NATIVES WHO SELL CHINA SHORT TIENTSIN, China (P)—Death will be the fate of the Chinese in Tientsin who sell their property surreptitiously to foreigners, according to an order issued by General Sung Chieh-Yuan, chairman of the Hopedi Chahar Political Affairs committee.

Although the edict specifies foreigners in general, the general Chinese opinion is that its purpose is to prevent the Japanese buying up the land.

TURKEYS GROW FAT ON BUGS

CUERO, Aug. 21 (AP)—It may be a little early to be thinking about it, but a bountiful big crop in Texas gives promise you may be able to eat more and cheaper turkey Thanksgiving.

Gloomy government bulletins predicting lower prices have left Texas growers knowingly nonchalant. Grasshoppers the scourge of the midwest, descended like manna to fatten a bumper crop of gobblers at practically no expense.

That should make you doubtfully that while you are chewing cheap drumsticks, no farmers are suffering from the effects of a price slump.

Furthermore, turkey growers discovered this year that corn in the crop is more profitable than corn on the cob. A big early harvest feeding the birds at night good business, supplementing the free bugs with cheap corn and adding pounds to turkeys already wallowing in fat.

Fred Hansen, poultry expert of the Cuero chamber of commerce, said turkey farmers are less worried about the possibility of low prices than they are about the inroads of root rustlers. The modern turkey snatcher snares the birds with looped wire and hustles them bootleg fashion to quick but distant markets by fast truck.

Hansen predicted one of the greatest turkey crops in history for this year. Reports from other centers were equally optimistic both as to price and quality. Poultry experts were predicting an average price of around 16 cents wholesale. At any rate, they figure production costs have been so negligible this year as to make turkey farming good business at almost any price.

Texas annually ships about 1,600 cars of turkeys to northern and eastern markets.

engineers testified the drop in bottomhole pressure in East Texas had been excessive and the output should be limited to between 425,000 and 450,000 barrels daily.

The new allowable was 475,308, a slight increase over the basic production for this month, caused by new wells.

By districts, basic August and September allowable respectively, were: East Texas, 470,734 and 475,308; Panhandle, 79,215 and 76,230; Moore county, 1,550 and 1,400; Osborne area, 635 and 600; North Texas, 63,765 and 63,000; Foard county, 675 and 650; West Central Texas, 71,202 and 71,269; West Texas, 213,498 and 193,469; East Central Texas, 87,124 and 78,317; Rodessa, 37,718 and 32,617; Southwest Texas, 246,826 and 245,534; Gulf Coast, 229,449 and 202,749.

Because of the continued firm demand for oil in the Panhandle, the field allowable was cut only 3,000 barrels at the regular monthly meeting of the Texas Railroad Commission. Considering that the state allowable was reduced 110,000 barrels, the Panhandle reduction was considered extremely favorable.

The smaller allowable will become effective on September 1. A new summary will be issued soon by the local office of the Texas Railroad Commission.

New allowable for the field will be 76,215 barrels.

Carnival Spirit Promised

The concession committee has assured the sponsors of the picnic that there will be a hilarious carnival spirit predominating at the picnic. Frank Hunt, chairman, is developing plans to insure at least 15 carnival concessions, and Neal Sparks, chairman of the refreshment committee, stated that there would be enough red lemonade, hot dogs, and ice cream cones, to take care of 15,000 people. A picnic of this type is not a success unless everyone gets their fill of the old-time, old-fashioned red lemonade.

The oil companies in this area have been contacted to allow their men a holiday on Labor day. This group alone should swell the attendance at this picnic by 6,000 persons.

Bands to Play

School bands have indicated that they would attend and play during the day, and the dance committee, headed by Mark Long, is negotiating to install a dance floor to hold all the dancers at the picnic ground. It is hoped that the merchants of Pampa will cooperate with the committee to close the town completely for this first annual get together between capital and labor. Every one of the 169 members of the local Legion post is working to build up the good neighbor spirit between Pampa and the other communities with this outing. Quite a few other towns in the eastern Panhandle have signified that they will close shops and attend this gigantic good will gesture of which Col. Ernest Thompson of the State Railroad Commission will be one of the main speakers.

Then Holt:

"I want to say that since the junior senator from the state of Pennsylvania has become a senator from Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, I hope he will handle the job in better fashion than he handled the job as alien property custodian. We still need 96 seats in this body."

"I hope when I do become a candidate," Wheeler went on, "that the senator from Pennsylvania will come out to Montana with his contributions and that he will take the other side and support my opponent, whoever he may be. When he runs for governor of Pennsylvania, I shall make a point to visit the state of Pennsylvania."

Wheeler turned to the defense of O'Mahoney and Burke, but O'Mahoney interrupted.

"I know perfectly well," he said, "that nothing said on the radio last night will in the slightest degree injure me or in the slightest degree hinder me from doing my duty as I see it."

"I say here in the presence of the gentleman who spoke on the radio last night and in the presence of those Democrats who are likely to be candidates for office in 1938 that I am not a point to visit the state of Pennsylvania."

While Guffey still sat, expressionless, Wheeler resumed with a denunciation of "so-called liberals and New Dealers."

"On the one hand," he said, "some of these people denounce economic royalists and on the other hand they go out and try to shake them down when they are coming down to testify before a committee, asking them for campaign contributions on the one hand and denouncing them upon the other."

The points on which the House conferees asked new instructions included $65,000,000 for cotton subsidies, $2,005,000 for enlarging Yosemite National park in California and authorization for a congressional delegation to attend an interparliamentary union conference in Europe next month.

The cotton provision developed a battle-royal which was not settled until Speaker Bankhead and Majority Leader Rayburn had intervened with pleas for approval of the item, which already had the Senate's OK.

They were opposed by members from the corn and wheat sections, who charged the measure discriminated against their states. Senate approval had been obtained by a coalition of cotton and grain state senators, with the former promising later assistance to the latter.

attempt today to land army reinforcements, said to total 50,000 of Japans and men, newly arrived from Japan.

Japanese officers refused to comment. In the air the Japanese air fleets carried their forays far into the heart of the great Yangtze valley behind Shanghai, seeking to destroy the Chinese airforce.

But the Chinese command at Nanking claimed for its planes a series of successes as the raiding bombers from the coast were turned back at many points. It asserted at least eight Japanese planes had been brought down along the Yangtze valley, while the Chinese lost only three.

The great air battle of the war raged above the Yangtze until the Japanese were beaten off with loss of three planes. The Chinese admitted one of their planes was shot down and another damaged but managed to return to its base.

Japanese airmen, however, bombed Kiukiang, Yangtze port in Kiangsi province and retreated to Kuling, China's summer capital. Kiukiang is 350 miles from the coast in a direct line.

The Italian government ordered wives and children of Italian officers serving as aviation instructors to the Chinese at Nanchang to leave China for Italy.

Heavy fighting continued thru Shanghai's eastern district, surging around the ward road jail, but no important changes of position were reported.

Independent authorities estimated the military casualties in the ten days of Shanghai conflict at about 5,000 Chinese killed to 600 Japanese. Civilian deaths could be estimated only roughly in the thousands.

Chinese military authorities in the Shanghai district and retreated to the city, including areas in the international settlement.

It is on the south side of Guitlar production in section 45-15-T&P and had been treated with 2,000 gallons of acid from 1,980 to 2,000 feet.

It was estimated transport planes will take nearly two months to fly all the sheep to the collective farms, the lanes making the trip in about three hours.

A difficulty was faced Friday night when rains drowned out baseball games, but the racket-wielders seemed not to mind in the least. Games proceeded as usual, with only one trouble—balls that went outside the fence fell into the raging waters of Red Deer creek and were washed away. However, that difficulty will seldom be met with, weathermen believe.

No Shadows

The lights were recently installed by the city of Pampa, and brighten the courts to a near-sunlight effect. The huge reflectors, each carrying a 1500 watt bulb, are focused so that there are no shadows on the court. Plans are to charge players for the use of the lights, but as yet, all expense is borne by the city.

An unwritten rule in the tennis court etiquette regards how long each pair may play. The law is strictly obeyed and allows one set, or six games, for each group in action. It is as one player said, "a set and a sit and a set and a sit." But with as many playing as have during the past week, the "sits" may be longer than the "sets." Nevertheless, the newest civic improvement remains one of the most practical, needed, and popular achievements of the city of Pampa, many believe.

TO PURCHASE 'UNFIT' LAND

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Congress, in one of its last acts, voted $20,000,000 today to start an experimental attack, recommended by President Roosevelt, on the nation's tenancy problem.

The third deficiency appropriation bill, which the senate sent to the White House, carried two $10,000,000 items to be used for the following purposes:

1. Loans to selected tenants for the purchase of farm land.

2. Government purchase of "unfit" farm land in the southwestern "dust bowl" for retirement from production. Those now living on such land are to be assisted in finding better farms.

Agriculture department officials have estimated that farm loans would be available to 3,000 tenants in 500 rural counties.

They also estimated that between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 acres of arid and semi-arid land could be purchased in the "dust bowl." This, they said, would be turned into grazing land.

Makeup Must Be Based on Autumn Tint in Costume

Lovely blonde Mary Carlisle advises every beauty-minded woman to analyze her skin texture and tone before buying new cosmetics. She thinks, too, that brighter shades of power often can be used to dramatize a particularly good feature and that darker ones, applied skillfully, will subdue a less interesting point of the face.

Martha Sleeper, who has warm, yellow brown eyes and golden hair, loves dark rich costume colors. With these, she chooses powder to match her skin tones and rouge and lipstick which make her coloring natural looking and healthy in spite of reflected light from the color of her dress.

Modern Menus

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

If you are wondering why your corn on the cob hasn't been up to snuff, try these methods of preparing it. Experts insist that there are just two ways to boil corn.

First Method
Plunge corn into boiling water. The water will stop boiling. Bring it back to boil then reduce heat so that water merely simmers. Leave corn in simmering water for from 10 to 15 minutes. Local corn will require only 10 minutes; corn shipped needs 15 minutes.

Second Method
Boil corn in husks. Remove all silk from husks and outer leaves. Still wrapped in its own green leaves, plunge corn into boiling water. Cook as above, only give local corn 15 minutes and distant corn 20 minutes. Add a little sugar to water if extra sweetness is wanted.

Sweet corn combines amiably with green peppers. Try this for proof. Serve it with broiled steak.

Green Peppers and Fresh Corn

(4 to 6 servings)
One tablespoon butter, 1 green pepper sliced thin, 2 cups fresh corn, cooked and sliced from cob, 1-2 cup heavy cream, salt and pepper, and dash of paprika.
Melt butter in frying pan. Add green pepper. Saute in butter 3 minutes. Add corn, saute 1 minute, then turn in cream. Simmer gently for 5 minutes and serve piping hot. Corn fritters are necessary in houses of hungry men.

Corn Fritters

(4 to 6 servings)
Two eggs, 1 cup cooked corn, cut from cob and mashed, 5 1-2 tablespoons flour, 1-2 teaspoon baking powder, 1-16 teaspoon nutmeg, 2 tablespoons butter for frying.

Beat eggs well. Add mashed fresh corn. Sift flour, baking powder and nutmeg together. Add egg and corn mixture. Combine well. In frying pan melt 2 tablespoons butter. When very hot, drop in fritter batter by tablespoons. When brown on one side, turn and brown on other. Serve in small stacks with either a sweet syrup or a light meat sauce.

FORMER JEWELL SHAW IS SHOWER HONOREE FRIDAY

Miss Lois Hinton, Mrs. Caroline Ragdale, and Mrs. Clayton Heare of Shamrock were hostess Friday evening at a shower honoring Mrs. Lester Aldrich, the former Jewel Shaw, at the home of Mrs. Ragdale.

The honoree was led into a room which was decorated in pink and white. White wedding bells were hung in the archway and in the doorway leading to the guest room where a large assortment of gifts was displayed. A five-tiered wedding cake, decorated with a complete bridal party, centered the table which was laid with a lace cloth over pink. The cake was encircled by a garland of pink glass, nose-gays, and fever few which was reflected in a large round mirror. Pink and white candles and flowers decorated the buffet.

Refreshments of wedding cake and pink ice cream roses were served to Mmes. Duke Shaw, D. C. Hartman, L. Nicholson, A. M. Teed, R. B. Thompson, Roy L. Kay, Mark Fahle, J. S. Skelly, Miles Weston, Frank Foster, C. H. Byrd, Lloyd Roberts, H. A. Wright, C. E. Powell, F. L. Stallings, Walter Foster, L. N. McCullough, L. D. Shaw of McLean, Mrs. Jenkins Shaw of Alameda, Mrs. Harry Gordon of New Mexico, Mrs. F. W. Crosson Jr. of Miami.

Misses Dee Polson, Willie Mae Lane, Charlie Jackson, Clotilde McCallister, Frances Stark, Lorene Nicholson, Minnie Olive Montgomery, Thelma Gatlin, Louise Smith, Mary Douglass, Martha Elbert, and Inez Shaw of Amarillo.

Gifts were sent by Mmes. Frank Hill, Charlie Thut, W. R. Ewing, P. O. Sanders, C. T. Hunkapiller, Chester Lander, W. L. Hinton, Ed Vaught; Misses Betty Wanclock, Iva Wilson, Della Dean, Leora Kinard, and Faye Gillispie.

TROUBLE LOOMS FOR BLACK IN HIGH COURT--BALANCE OF POWER TO BE HELD BY HUGHES

By RODNEY DUTCHER, Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Friends and foes of Senator Hugo Black agree alike that the brief disturbance in the Senate over his confirmation is likely to prove more pop-gun stuff as compared with what may happen after he gets on the Supreme Court.

It is not necessary to impugn the "judicial temperament" of Senator Black, if any, in order to demonstrate the indubitable fact that Hugo has taken violent issue with the judicial attitudes of some of the sitting justices in the past or to arouse the horrid thought that he may introduce some of the rough-and-tumble practices of the Senate floor to the Supreme Court's sacred cloisters.

One does not suggest that the distinguished whisks of Chief Justice Hughes are in the slightest danger of being pulled by the aggressive Senator from Alabama. Figuratively, mayhap, but never literally.

The gentleman who will soon be Justice Black has publicly charged that a bare court majority for "years has been assuming the right on their part to determine the reasonableness of state and federal law. The Constitution never gave that majority any such power." Since the Senator was never mealy-mouthed, the chances are that he will tempt to bawl out his conservative brethren of the court, both in conference and in his opinions, more bitterly than they have been slammed in years. Black, his friends and enemies figure, simply has to let off steam.

The conferences at which the justices air their views to each other in complete secrecy may never be the same again. One prominent lawyer, friendly to Black, suggests that the Senator's opinions are as likely as not to contain references to things the chief justice said in conference. On the other hand, of course, Black may turn out to be at least as dignified and judicial as the average justice and perhaps more so.

May Attack Appointment. Another kind of trouble-making is in prospect through the likelihood that a 5 to 4 decision with Black on the majority side will sooner or later bring a legal test of the validity of Black's presence on the bench. You can't be sure, but it is considered a fair bet that some litigation will come out of the short end of such a decision will claim that Black isn't a justice and will then refuse to obey the law.

The prospect of fighting the validity of Black's appointment up thru to the Supreme Court, where Justice McReynolds and others, possibly even a majority—might hold that Black had no business there is so bizarre yet far from impossible that the court's dignity might be seriously endangered.

That is why some lawyers predict that Chief Justice Hughes, whose great aim is to preserve the court's prestige, may make some public gesture to make Black's position appear solidified.

Arguments have been made that no vacancy existed in the court—a contention which made no great dent in view of Justice Van Devanter's retirement—and that Black was disqualified because he voted for the retirement act, carrying retirement emoluments, under which Van Devanter resigned. That's a question for lawyers, however, and the Senate—75 per cent composed of lawyers—has voted overwhelmingly to confirm the Senator from Alabama.

Hughes Holds Scales. If Justice Hughes and Mr. Roberts keep voting for New Deal laws as they did this year, Roosevelt will have a "liberal majority" of 6 to 3 now that Black is to be a justice. But there is no assurance of that and if those twins return to the narrow interpretations they made the 6 to 3 decision against AAA the conservative justices will outnumber the liberals by 5 to 4.

The one thing certain is that Black's appointment passes the scales of justice to Chief Justice Hughes, who will now be the man in the middle. Heretofore the question often has been whether Hughes could persuade Roberts to vote with him and the three liberals. Now, if Roberts rejoins the conservatives both groups will be pressuring Hughes to join the liberals. Whether Hughes or Black will out-pressure the other is also an interesting topic for speculation.

Clark Gable, Myrna Loy Star In Irish Film, "Parnell"

LANORA BRINGS SAGA OF LOVE AND POLITICS

The tensely human story of a love that affected nations is drawn vividly in "Parnell," showing today at the LaNora theater. With Clark Gable and Myrna Loy as its stars, this saga of Ireland's political king and his love for beautiful Katie O'Shea comes as one of the greatest pictures of the year.

Besides the leading stars, an impressive array of supporting talent includes Edna Mae Oliver, Billie Burke, Alan Marshall, Donald Meek, and Donald Crisp.

Today at the Rex, Henry Fonda, Pat O'Brien, and Margaret Lindsay star in "Slim," exciting melodrama of the lives of high-tension linemen who string wires across the nation for electrical power.

At the Crown, "Meet the Boy Friend" features David Carlyle, Carol Hughes, Warren Hymer and Pert Kelton. The film is a highly diverting comedy concerning a radio crooner who is forbidden to marry.

Picturesque in its scenic background, powerful in its dramatic theme and nerve-tugging in its thrilling action, "Park Avenue Logger," George O'Brien's second G. A. Hillman Production for RKO Radio release, comes to the State theater Sunday as one of the state's most interesting outdoor picture vehicles in years.

David Howard was director of the current thriller, which is reported to be their best joint effort since becoming established several years ago as the foremost star-director team in the screen's outdoor picture field.

Adapted from the Saturday Evening Post story by Bruce Mitchell, "Park Avenue Logger" concerns the exciting adventures of a wealthy scion of a lumber millionaire, who convinces his father that he is an intellectual giant more interested in pursuing scientific phenomena than exercising his physical attributes. The deception works according to his highest expectations and he is shipped off to a logging camp where the father hopes he will make use of his brawn. The young man's daring exploits in the big tree country, where he satisfies his elemental passion for physical labor and battling, supply the thrilling events leading to a whirlwind finish.

"SLIM" IS FILMED.

A class of American workers whose trade has never before been touched by the movies—those adventurous and hardy lads who string electrical power wires across the remote waste places—are depicted for your entertainment in the Warner Bros. melodrama, "Slim," which is scheduled to open at the Rex theater today.

The popular Henry Fonda, borrowed from another studio for this one picture, carries the title role of "Slim," a young farm lad who, fascinated by the work of a wire-gang crossing his father's land, becomes one of them, with the aid of "Red," a jovial and gallant wire-stringer who is portrayed by that perpetual favorite, Pat O'Brien.

'PARNELL' ARRIVES.

Hailed as the most powerful motion picture attraction in years, "Parnell," the tremendously moving fictional drama of Charles Stewart Parnell, "Uncrowned King of Ireland," opens at the LaNora theater today with Clark Gable and Myrna Loy co-starring at the head of a cast of big names.

Making their first co-starring success since "Men in White" and "Manhattan Melodrama," the new picture presents Gable as the dynamic Irish patriot who sacrificed a glorious career because of another man's wife, and Miss Loy as that woman, the lovely Katie O'Shea, wedded to a man she despised.

The picture was directed and produced by John Stahl, who gave the screen such successes as "Back Street," "Imitation of Life" and "Magnificent Obsession." It is based on the recent Broadway stage hit, written by Elsie T. Schaeffer, with the screen version of the work of John Van Druten.

In the impressive supporting cast are Edna Mae Oliver in her first role since "Romeo and Juliet," this time seen as the testy, lovable Aunt Ben; Billie Burke, as the giggling giddy Clara; and Alan Marshall as the ambitious Capt. Willie O'Shea.

Director Stahl personally selected every member of the remaining 75 players with speaking roles. Of these the most prominently cast include Edmund Gwenn, Donald Crisp, Berton Churchill, Donald Meek, Neil Fitzgerald, Halliwell Hobbes, J. Farrell MacDonald, Montagu Love, Pat Moriarty, Byron Russell, Brandon Tynan, Phyllis Coghlan, George Zucco and Murray Kinell. Adding a spectacular touch to the picture are more than a thousand Irish men, women and children who give the background a true flavor of Old Erin.

John Van Druten, the scenarist, worked for six months to produce a script that would do justice to the magnitude of his subject, the inspired devotion of Parnell and Katie, and the motivating force behind their romance, the thrilling fight waged by Parnell for Ireland's freedom.

SLEUTH IN FILM.

Captain Hugh Drummond, better known to the world as "Bulldog Drummond," master sleuth and soldier-of-fortune, arrived at the State theater yesterday in the latest and by far the breeziest of the famous series, "Bulldog Drummond Escapes."

Drummond, played by Ray Milland, drops into London out of the fog of his latest opus, and immediately finds himself chin deep in mystery. He solves it, sees that the miscreants get their just desserts and wins the girl—all in eight action-packed hours.

His old pal, "Algy," is portrayed by Reginald Denny, and Inspector Nielson of Scotland Yard, his friendly enemy, is excellently enacted by Sir Guy Standing. The girl in the case is charming Heather Angel, and the villain is that most villainous of screen villains, Porter Hall—this time with a beard!

BIG MOUTH COMING.

Foreshadowing a day when squadrons of airplanes, loaded with explosives but without a human hand at their controls, may be launched against an enemy fleet or advancing army, Joe E. Brown's latest picture, "Riding On Air," introduces a radio-controlled plane for some of its most exciting scenes.

As developed in the screen offering, the plane is guided by a radio beam from the ground, and can be flown anywhere within a large radius, using a "repeater" device to send back information as to its position, altitude and direction. The invention comes in handy for the star character in the film when, in pursuing a group of aerial smugglers, he crawls out on the wing to repair the ship while his associate files it "blind" from the airport miles distant.

Despite the fact that the ingenious device is employed for laughing purposes only in the picture, such planes are being experimented with by almost every nation in the world today, and some remarkable ground-controlled flights are said to have been made. At least one European country is reported to have used such planes extensively in tests of anti-aircraft guns, allowing the guns crews to fire directly at the pilotless "ships" flying high above them, and the possible use of these planes for bomb attack in the next war is a subject of great interest to military experts.

HALEY STARRS.

The "Phantom Troubadour" who panicked audiences with his frantic antics in "Wake Up and Live" wakes up to the thrill of love when he meets a girl with a permanent hunger (for thrills) in "She Had to Eat," Twentieth Century-Fox laugh-off featuring Jack Haley, which opens at the Rex theater Thursday, with Rochelle Hudson, Arthur Treacher and Eugene Palette in the cast.

Happy-go-lucky Haley, who high-jacked many of the laughs in the Winchell-Bernie musical hit, is a country innocent in the new film, believing that two can starve as cheaply as one, until he finds that "She Had to Eat."

It all begins when Palette and Treacher, obsessed with a mighty-hunter complex, leave their train to go gunning for Jack's pet rabbit, "Cactus." The comic performance nets Jack a ride in millionaire Palette's private club car, from which he is ejected when Palette sobers up.

AT THE CROWN.

Music that transcends the limitations of conventional musical instruments is the specialty of the "Beverly Hill Billies," who are featured in "Meet the Boy Friend," Republic picture currently showing at the Crown theater with Carol Hughes and David Carlyle in the romantic leads.

The boys grind out their most taking tunes on such primitive instruments as tin cans, soda pop bottles, tin accordions, alarm clocks, penny pipes and Jew's harps, which Smiley Burnette, who is cast as the ringleader of the Beverly Hill Billies, came to screen face as the partner of Gene Autry, filmdom's number one cowboy. Christened "Lester" Burnette, he discarded this moniker at an early age in favor of the more typical one, "Smiley." Smiley was born at Sumnum, Ill., 26 years ago, and was brought up in a musical atmosphere. He earned his first dollar playing a musical saw at a banquet, and was highly in demand thereafter. All told, he can play 26 musical instruments, and frequently has played seven at one time.

BANG! BANG!

"Empty Holsters," a rip-roaring Western movie dealing with outlaws and gun-fights, has been scheduled to open next Friday at the Rex theater, with big, red-headed Dick Foran, the Singing Cowboy, as its husky and melodious hero.

It is a tale of the West in its lawless days when bad men took what they could get by whatever means they found at hand. Then, if they could, they blamed their thefts upon others.

That's what happens to Foran, as Clay Brent, a cowboy. The boss of the town, one Ace Cain, is a road agent, and after holding up a stage coach and stealing its gold cargo, manages to place the guilt upon Dick and send him on perjured testimony to jail.

During two years of imprisonment he builds up an iron determination to prove his innocence and bring the malicious Ace Cain to justice. He is then paroled and gets a chance to carry out his revenge.

With the aid of a faithful pal, played by Glen Strange, he gets evidence against Ace.

MEANIE WITHERS BACK.

Man the lifeboats! Run up the storm signals! "Ginger" Jane is in the Navy now, as the rollicking star of "The Holy Terror," the Twentieth Century-Fox riot of fun opening Wednesday at the State theater.

Laughable, prankish, riotous—a whirlwind of mischief, excitement and joy—that's Jane Withers, in the starring role which makes her the joy of the midshipmen, and the despair of the Admirals.

Aided and abetted in the gayest fun-fest of her madcap career by Anthony Martin, Leah Ray, Joan Davis, El Brendel and Joe Lewis, the angel-faced imp sings her way into trouble, and dances her base right out again.

As the pet of the Navy Air Base, Jane Withers gets into such mischief that Anthony Martin, a sailor, is assigned to look after her. This is all right with Jane, because Anthony, in love with Leah Ray, the owner of "The Golden Anchor," a sailor's hangout, spends most of his time at the inn.

STARRING CORTEZ.

"Her Husband Lies," a drama of a lie that had to be told, brings Gail Patrick and Ricardo Cortez to the Rex theater on Tuesday next.

The story concerns Cortez, a big-time gambler whose wife, Miss Patrick, gives him the alternative of giving up gambling or losing her. He gives her his word that he is through with cards, and the climax arrives when he is forced to go back on his word in order to save his younger brother and square himself with his erstwhile associates.

"Her Husband Lies" is the first picture in which Miss Patrick appears in a straight dramatic role. During the five years in which she has appeared in pictures her beauty has been utilized mainly by directors to "decoration" pictures. It wasn't until she was given the important role of "the other woman" in "John Meade's Woman" that Hollywood realized that she was an accomplished actress ready to step into the foreground of important pictures.

JUDGE WILLIS GIVES HISTORY OF KIWANIANIS

Review of the history of the Pampa Kiwanis club was given Friday afternoon by Judge Newton P. Willis, of Pampa, as the civic group observed its seventh birthday anniversary.

The Pampa Kiwanis club was organized on Aug. 22, 1930, by Franklin Kean, representative of Kiwanis International from Washington, D. C.

Seven of the original charter members were in attendance at yesterday's meeting. There were John F. Stude, first president; Paul Hill, first vice president and first full-time president; Tom Smalling, Alex Schneider, Lee Waggoner, Edwin Vicars, and Judge Willis.

Judge Willis outlined various steps of the club's growth under eight presidents including Mr. Stude, Mr. Hill, A. G. Post, Dan McGrew, Fred Thompson, Guy McTaggart, W. V. Jarratt, and Chris Martin, now head of the civic group.

Charter members were seated at a special table, which was centered with a huge birthday cake bearing seven candles. The cake was cut by Mrs. H. E. McCarley. Group singing was led by Dr. Calvin Jones.

A special guest at Friday's luncheon was E. C. Pennington, who will be coordinator and instructor of diversified occupation, a new course added to the Pampa High school curriculum this semester. Mr. Pennington outlined the purpose of the course as being one for boys and girls who do not plan on entering college.

It is designed to equip them in pre-apprentice training on diversified jobs which will fit them to enter some line of work when they are through high school.

"It is our plan to assist local industry in training help that will remain with it," Mr. Pennington said.

Chapter IX

Threading his way recklessly thru the traffic of the city streets, Bob hurried to Police Headquarters, where he looked up his friend, Steve Carahan. Moore than once Steve had given him the lead for a good plot in exchange for a cigar and a few minutes' adroit questioning. Steve was one of the men who actually read his yarns. When he found out why Bob hung about so persistently and whenever things slowed up, he was quite willing to discuss his own exploits in detail. None of the thrilling captures he had made, or the hair-raising escapes he had had, lost anything in his account of them. But Bob was satisfied to sit through many minutes of boastful meditations for the sake of a few scattered ideas which he could use. Besides, in Steve's opinion, Bob was the greatest living author. This was due perhaps to the fact that the detective's knowledge of anything pertaining to literature was scanty, to say the least.

Now Steve removed his feet from the battered chair in front of him and looked up with interest as Bob pushed open the door.

"Hi!" he greeted him. "What's on your chest so early in the day? Another deadline to make? Or is the beautiful heroine about to be fed poison?"

Bob grinned, handed over the cigar and perched himself on a corner of the desk. "They're sure handing her something that may prove to be poison," he answered. "That's why I came down to talk to you."

Steve pushed his hat over one ear and screwed his face into what he considered a literary frown. "Shoot," he ordered in his best official tone.

"That yarn you were telling me about the guy who came over from London with that Egyptian piece for the Museum, remember?" Bob began. "You know, the one who brought in some stuff of his own duty-free. Hidden in the old statue, wasn't it?"

"It was, and how!" Steve puffed out his chest and settled back in his chair. "That's what comes of spending the public's money on some old wreck of a thing that ain't got as much real value as that cigar."

Bob lighted a cigaret. "Culture and art man. A lot of folks would be out of jobs, if they didn't have such things to rave about. I know. I went to an artists' party recently and heard 'em go on about composition, line and color, until it'd make your head swim just to listen. But about this statue for the Museum, now? Did you find out the shipment had been tampered with and catch the fellow who did it?"

"Yes and no," answered Steve. "You see this fool thing was bought from a reliable firm in London that gets such things for museums and collectors, and a man came along with it to be sure that it got here okay. That's where the smuggling part comes in. The statue was of some silly-looking Egyptian god, Osiris."

"Osiris?"

"That's the boy. It wasn't very big and was carved out of some kind of soft stone, awfully dingy and streaked-looking. Why anyone want it, is beyond me."

"There's where the art part of it comes in," Bob suggested.

Steve nodded. "I guess so. Well, it seems this guy who came along with it, had a little racket of his own on the side, buying up or stealing jewels on the other side and sneaking 'em in here past our customs. That's why he got a job with this outfit that shipped things from London. No one would ever suspect the representative of such a reliable house. Because of this set-up his scheme had worked fine. But he finally stubbed his toe on this statue thing."

"How come?" prompted Bob to hurry the story to the end before Steve might be called out.

"He hollowed out a hole in the bottom of the thing, put the uncut stones in there, and plastered it over so slick you'd never suspect. If one of the men hadn't knocked it against something when he was putting it in place and knocked off a hunk of the plaster, they never would have caught on."

"Did you snag the man?" asked Bob.

"That's no part of it," answered Steve. "Of course, if I'd been on the job, he'd not have slipped thru my fingers like he did theirs. But somehow he got wind of what had happened, and just blew without anybody ever finding a confounded trace of him. You can see the fool statue down there in the Museum now. It's still got that hole in the soles of its feet."

"What did the fellow look like?" Bob leaned forward eagerly. "Was he tall and dark?"

"Sure, but so are plenty of people. That fellow who came with the statue had a scar across one side of his face in front of the ear. You'd think he'd be easy enough to pick up on account of it, but nobody's got him yet."

"A good facial surgeon could fix that so it wouldn't show," Bob suggested.

"Maybe, but he'd have to be really good. The scar was a bad one. We've checked on this guy as far as we could, and find he's an Italian with a police record in his own country. Not an Indian Rajar or a Russian nobleman or any of the other things he's supposed to be."

"Supposing he had the scar removed, do you think you'd know him if you saw him in the shadow box, for instance?" asked Bob.

Steve took off his cap and ran his fingers through his thin hair. "Not sure, of course, but I believe I identify like I can. I've proved that. Even if the guy hasn't been mugged yet." Which boast Bob happened to know was true.

Immediately the image of Professor Bracey rose before his mind's eye, the thin-lipped cruel mouth, and mysterious half-closed eyes with their beetling black brows. If there were any mark of surgery on his face, the long sideburns which he effected would cover it. Very clearly now Bob remembered the day he and Steve had been sitting on a park bench discussing some police procedure, and the man he was afterward to meet as Professor Bracey, had strolled past them. He had noticed at the time the piercing look the stranger gave them.

Just then Schmatz had sniffed inquiringly at his heels. With an oath the man had kicked viciously at the dog but had missed his mark. The terrier had not forgotten, even if Bob had. Could it be?

"You say his speciality is jewels, Steve?"

"I'll say it is. He knows all about 'em. It's the big ones or nothing. If someone should swipe one of those big babies out of the King of England's new crown, I'd think this guy was at the bottom of it. He's likely over there now; probably has cleaned up on the coronation crowns."

Bob did not answer for a minute, then he asked casually, "If you should be able to pick him up there would be a sizeable reward probably?"

"Enough to keep me in cigars for a week or two," Steve grinned.

"Why? Know where you can lay your hands on him? Might put some of your story detectives on him. They can do such a lot of things the real force would never think of. But let me in on it, if you do."

"Maybe I will, Steve," Bob told him solemnly.

BODY FOUND IN SOUND MAY BE MRS. PARSONS

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 21 (AP)—The decomposed body of a woman which Capt. William Babcock said "could possibly be that of Mrs. Alice McDonnell Parsons," missing Long Island heiress, was found today in Long Island Sound.

Mrs. Parsons, socially prominent member of a wealthy New York family, disappeared from her home at Steiny Brook, Long Island, last June 9 under circumstances which even the country's most noted investigators failed to explain.

A supposed ransom note demanding $25,000 for her safe return head swim just to listen. But about this statue for the Museum, now? Did you find out the shipment had been tampered with and catch the fellow who did it?"

"Yes and no," answered Steve. "You see this fool thing was bought from a reliable firm in London that gets such things for museums and collectors, and a man came along with it to be sure that it got here okay. HUNDREDS OF RUSSIANS EXECUTED BY MISTAKE

MOSCOW, Aug. 21 (AP)—Andrej Vishinsky, chief Soviet Union prosecutor, has just discovered that many Russian peasants were executed five years ago because of a mistake by "Trotskyist enemies of the people."

The prosecutor condemned wholesale execution of peasants under a decree of Aug. 7, 1932 for stealing grain from state farms. (Trotskyist enemies) in the department of justice at the time, he said, applied the larceny of state property law "against the people" instead of against the kulaks, or rich peasants, for whom it was intended.

Figures on the number of persons convicted and shot under the law never have been published, but they were believed to run into the hundreds.

STAIN REMOVER

To remove candy or cake stains from upholstered furniture, apply warm water and soap suds on a sponge. Rub the stained section quickly and then dry it with a soft cloth. If the stain is large rinse it with clear warm water after the soapy mixture has been applied.

THE close of the World War left 2,000,000 confused citizens in the tiny corridor, Upper Silesia, sandwiched between Germany and Poland, and a very sore spot on the map of Europe. The towns, highly industrialized, were dominantly German, the rural areas were strongly Polish.

Later the league partitioned the area and Germany and Poland entered into an agreement to accept rule of Upper Silesia by an independent commission for 15 years. Recently that period ended and Germany formally took over German Upper Silesia while Poland claimed Polish Upper Silesia.

This another sore spot may be removed from the map of Europe. Upper Silesian stamps were issued under the league covenant in 1920 and 1921.

The election showed 717,122 votes for Germany and 483,514 for Poland. And immediately disorder swept the territory, a force of Polish insurgents going even so far as to attempt setting up a dictatorship. The result was military intervention by the league.

Building in Pampa has run into a mid-summer slump with but two or three residences under construction. No large permits were issued by Inspector Sam Thomas last week but small ones sent the amount for the year to $200,550. Permits last week totaled $2,350.

21 New Locations, 12 Completions Reported In Week

GRAY COUNTY AGAIN MOST ACTIVE SPOT

Twenty-one new locations, 12 oil well completions and three new gas wells told the story of activity in the Panhandle field last week. The new oil wells were given a total potential of 4,487 barrels with the gasers good for 99,135,000 cubic feet.

Gray county was again the most active spot in operations with nine of the new locations, followed by five in Hutchinson, three each in Carson and Moore, and one in Stenwall. Gray county also led in completions with five wells having a total open flow of 2,211 barrels. Carson and Hutchinson counties reported three each with the other in Wheeler county.

Best producer of the week was in Carson county where the Skelly Oil Company's No. 83 Schaffer ranch was given a potential of 861 barrels on Railroad Commission test.

With the exception of two locations, all were in proven territory. The chief exception was the General Crude Oil Company's No. 1 B. F. Harpison in section 18, D. Hardcrow survey in Stenwall county about 10 miles southeast of Aspermont. Staking of the new location has caused considerable excitement since the same company has a test drilling on the Bryan land in section 10, William Vandeman survey No. 347, Stenwall county, about six miles south of Aspermont. No log of the drilling well is available here but staking of the new location southeast suggests that the drilling well has struck oil or has a favorable drilling report.

The other interesting location is the Saulsbury Oil Company's No. 1 J. E. Yoder, section 116, block 3, I&GN survey, Gray county. The test is a half mile north of the Smith Bros. Refining Company's No. 1 Castleberry in section 115, block 5, which is cleaning out after 1,500 feet of oil had risen in the hole and a shot of nitroglycerine used. The new test is a half mile northwest of the Pampa city limits and a quarter mile extension east of production.

Completions by counties follow: Gray County. Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 17, Fee Land 227, section 15, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 590 barrels with lime pay from 2,780 to 2,850 feet.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 7 Crow, section 137, block 3, I&GN survey, was the best well in the county. It was given a potential of 709 barrels. Lime pay was between 3,090 and 3,220 feet. The hole was drilled to a total depth of 3,275 feet.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 5 Jackson, section 138, block 3, I&GN survey, was tested at 301 barrels with pay from 3,205 to 3,330 feet in lime and followed a shot of 720 quarts of nitroglycerine placed between 3,205 and 3,319 feet.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 7 Culler, section 173, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 366 barrels with lime pay from 3,180 to 3,303 feet. Sinclair-Prairie Oil & Gas Company No. 3 Cary, section 114, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 245 barrels. Lime pay was from 3,206 to 3,285 feet.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 5 D. Jordan, section 123, block 4, I&GN survey, tested 103 barrels with pay between 2,950 and 3,045 feet. Skelly Oil Company No. 83 Schaffer, section 197, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 861 barrels. Lime pay was from 3,015 to 2,900 feet.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 28 Fee Land 244, section 109, block 4, I&GN survey, gauged 114 barrels with lime pay between 2,952 and 3,000 feet. A shot of 250 quarts of nitro was used between 2,952 and 3,030 feet.

Hutchinson County. Gulf Oil Corp. No. 72, Dial, section 36, block M-23, TCRR survey, was given a potential of 324 barrels with pay in the lime between 2,945 and 3,042 barrels.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Corp. No. 6 Hale B, section 5, block M-21, TCRR survey, gauged 476 barrels. Pay was from 3,048 to 3,087 feet in lime.

Seaboard Oil Co. No. 1 Whittenburg, section 17, block 47, H&TC survey, gauged 313 barrels with lime pay from 2,661 to 2,745 feet. A shot of 700 quarts of nitro was used between 2,61 and 2,760 feet.

Wheeler County. Elbar Oil Corp. No. 11 Noel, section 54, block 24, H&GN survey, tested 65 barrels. Pay was between 2,350 and 2,390 feet in lime. The hole was drilled to a total depth of 2,454 feet and plugged back. Gas wells tested:

Carson County. Texoma Natural Gas Company No. 1 Smith, section 27, block 4, I&GN survey, gauged 31,434,000 cubic feet.

Moore County. Shell-Sinclair No. 1 A. L. Miller, section 146, block 3-T, T&NO survey, gauged 30,930,000 feet.

casualties on the trip, outside of minor hand cuts. The scoutmaster fell and gashed his eye and two stitches were necessary to close the wound and Jimmy Shofner had to go to the doctor with badly sunburned legs, caused by fishing two days straight in shorts.

The boys had plenty of food and didn't buy anything in Colorado except bread. They brought back almost one-fourth of the food they took them. Bill Coons operated the pressure cooker, having had experience in Arkansas. The boys did their own cooking. One boy served as head cook for each meal, and he planned the menu and chose his assistants.

A. B. Lockhart and family, including his wife, two children and mother accompanied the troop as far as the South St. Vrain camp and then left on a tour of Southwestern Colorado. Mr. Lockhart drove the truck which he owns to Grand Lake. The troop wishes to thank Mr. Lockhart for use of the truck, and to the various grocery stores for sale of the food at wholesale prices.

The troop was unable to meet at the Methodist church Thursday night and met unofficially and informally at the home of the scoutmaster where Mickey Ledrick and Roy Lee Jones made fudge for the boys. Those present were Junior Foster, Bill Coons, Omer Harrell, Ed Terrell, Keeton Rhoades, Junior Green, Jimmy Shofner, Billy Mounds,

Antelope In Comeback

AUSTIN, Aug. 21 (AP)—The speedy antelope, once abundant on the Texas plains, might be on its way back as a game animal.

Dr. Walter P. Taylor, senior biologist of the Texas cooperative wildlife service, believes events of the past 10 years demonstrated practicability of saving the animal
