Rangers Raid San Antonio Gambling at Request of Legion Officers

INCIDENT NOT GIVEN SERIOUS HEED, HOWEVER

Move Is At Professional Gamblers, Adjutant General Says

PARADE ONE OF BRILLIANCE

Col. Buck, Famous Texas Hero, Is Dominant Figure

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 9.—(P)—Texas Rangers swooped down on a room in the St. Anthony hotel, headquarters of the American Legion convention here early this morning, closed a game of dice in progress there, required the assistant manager to sign for the professional equipment found, and locked the room.

As far as could be learned no arrests were made.

Adjutant General R. E. Robertson of Texas led three Rangers, including Captain Tom Hickman in the raid. Four dice tables, four "do and don't" layouts, a roulette wheel, and a church-a-luck cage were seized. Apparently the raid was directed against professional gamblers, only as the friendly "crap" game was stopped but no one arrested.

Tables Had Closed

The professional tables had closed sometime before the raiders arrived. Captain Bill Sterling and Private Ed Smith were the other rangers who took part in the raid.

Friendly dice games were not molested, and at 1 o'clock last night half a dozen were in progress on Houston street, circles of players dotting the pavement from the Alamo to the center of the business district.

Local police, however, were working on one gambling case. Ernest Walsh, a New York visitor to the convention, complained that he had been cheated out of $900 in a "framed" dice game in front of one of the principal hotels. Police were looking for participants in the game. Charlie Derrecko of Chicago reported he had been robbed of $161 at the point of a gun early this morning. He said a negro man and woman took the money.

To Judge Kedeo

The St. Anthony raid, Adjutant General Robertson explained later, was made at the request of "certain" Legion convention officials and legionnaires because a reward occurred there.

"The Rangers were not brought here for the purpose of closing up gambling, they came to act as rodeo judges," he said.

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 9.—(P)—Thousands of happy arrogant D'Artagnans celebrated their "ten years after" by swaggering through the streets of San Antonio today in the annual American Legion parade. The streets they traversed are the streets many of them skylarked upon ten years ago when they were preparing for the front line trenches. Before them the Conquistadors tramped the same streets and the reviewing stand was set up in front of the Alamo, where Texas' greatest heroes lost their lives.

Under Six Flags

Flags of six nations, whose soldiers have held those streets, decorated the course of the parade. In addition to the flag of the Conquistadores, the Jesuits and the Franciscans, who first planted a flag in this soil, there were Maximilian's French flag, the Mexican flag of Santa Anna, the Lone Star of the Texas Republic, the Star and Bars of the Confederacy and the Stars and Stripes.

Musicians from 58 Legion bands and drum and bugle corps, from a number Maximilian's French flag, the Mexican musical organizations set the

Hearing in Appeals Court Tomorrow on Gray County Seat Election Will Be Crucial Stage in This Litigation

Decision Likely Will Be Announced Following Week—Dismissal Would Dissolve Injunction on Warrants

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock Gray county's legal battle over the county seat will enter one of its final stages in a hearing before the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals. A decision likely will be announced October 17.

Judge S. D. Stennis will make the argument for official Gray county, while Clayton Heare and W. Sherman White will represent those who are seeking to reverse the decision of the lower court finding the county seat election of March 9, last, legal. Each side will be given one hour in which to present facts and arguments. Ordinarily the brief of the plaintiff would be available 30 days before the hearing, but owing to the fact that the hearing was advanced last Thursday to the next following appearance day—tomorrow—the usual requirements were waived. It is expected, however, that the brief will contain substantially the same charges and claims on which previous litigation has been based. These claims involve minor alleged irregularities in the Pampa election box, and in addition challenge the court decision allowing an election to be held in less than five years since the last previous election, which was in 1925. A purported ninth voting precinct, created by commissioners' court order in the Pampa precinct territory, is cited, although testimony at an injunction hearing here brought out that this order was never carried into effect, and the county claims, in such precinct did or does exist. An injunction asked to prevent removal of the county records to Pampa was denied, and in the election contest in district court Judge Willis was unable to find any reason for throwing out the election. If the appeal now pending is dismissed, together with application for a re-hearing an appeal to the State Supreme Court, or application for writ of error, would require several weeks. In some instances the Appeals court submits the issue directly to the Supreme Court, but this is not expected in this case. Meanwhile, the old courthouse at LeFors has been sold, the basement of the First Baptist church here is being used for county business, and a contract for a substantial brick courthouse has been let to the H. L. Case Construction company of Pampa. Actual work on the building is held up pending favorable outcome of the litigation with the determining factor being an injunction granted by Judge Newton P. Willis in 24th district court, restraining the county commissioners from issuing warrants to pay for construction. This injunction will be automatically dissolved by a sustaining decision in Amarillo Appeals court.

AUSTIN POLICE CHIEF SHOT FATALLY TODAY BY NEGRO

OIL PRODUCTION FOR WEEK SHOWS SLIGHT INCREASE

AUSTIN, Oct. 9.—(P)—Police Chief J. N. Littlepage, two negroes and a white carpenter, Joe Blum, were fatally shot today by a negro named Alexander, who later committed suicide while county and city authorities were scouring South Austin for him. The negro shot his wife and another negro man. Littlepage went after him and was shot three times with a shotgun, dying shortly afterward in a hospital. On his right, the negro shot Blum, who was said to have been working on a house nearby. Chief Littlepage was 67 years of age. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Etta H. Littlepage, two sons, Smith and Espie Littlepage of Austin, and a daughter, Mrs. Fred Russell of Houston. Police said the negro's name was Armand Alexander. They were about to close in on him in an outlying residential district when he managed to turn the long shotgun against himself and pull the trigger, the officer said. Cause of the shooting of the other two negroes was not learned. Alexander is believed to have been temporarily deranged, thus accounting for the unprovoked shooting of Blum, who was struck in the chin. Few details of the shootings could be learned immediately.

Vocational Man to Speak Here

C. L. Davis, state supervisor of vocational education in Texas, will speak at the First Methodist church at 8:45 o'clock Thursday morning at the regular chapel exercises of the high school. The public is invited to hear his address, which will be on some phase of vocational training. Mr. Davis is coming to Pampa to confer with J. L. Lester, teacher of vocational agriculture in Central high school, on vocational problems of the entire community and to inspect the work of the local department. He will probably be in the city two days.

Hickman Lawyers Give Up Hope of Supreme Court Aid

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—(P)—Efforts to obtain from a justice of the Supreme Court an appeal for William Edward Hickman, at Los Angeles, under sentence of death for the murder of Marian Parker were abandoned here today after counsel for Hickman had vainly urged justices Butler and Holmes to permit the case to be brought up.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bass of Clarendon visited friends and attended to business in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Anderson are the parents of a son born yesterday. They have named the baby Phillip Quay. His grandmother, Mrs. E. T. Fason, arrived last evening from Mulshoe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Corson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim White, and their guest, Wayne Winsett of Higgins, spent yesterday in Amarillo.

MASSACRE OF 200,000 TOLD IN MESSAGE

Chinese Moslems Burn and Kill Through Big Area

IT IS WORK OF FANATICS

Robber Bands Start Outbreak Which then Spreads

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—(P)—Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, chairman of the China Famine relief organization in New York City, received information today of the massacre of about 200,000 persons by fanatic Moslems in Kansu Province, China.

Dr. Cadman received a letter from Leighton P. Rand, China Inland Mission, at Lanchowfu, Kansuh, China depicting the horrors of the situation which he says have been intensified by an insurrection of the Moslems who form a third of the population of the province.

"Though starting in the appearance here and there of unorganized robber bands, it has spread like wild fire," the letter said, "and has now become just such a Mohammedan rebellion as has on several previous occasions in the past century laid waste the province and decimated its population."

"From reports already in from the country districts," the letter to Dr. Cadman continued, "the known massacred exceed two hundred thousand. A stream of reports is coming in to the committee telling of villages pillaged and burned and those inhabitants who escaped with their lives being without food or clothing."

Dog Bites Several Persons Before Chief Downs Kills It

Chief of Police J. I. Downs is sending the head of a pup, thought to have been mad, to Austin to be examined. The dog, part Collie and part Shepherd, was owned by William Feenberg, of the Feenberg Pipe and Thread company. It nipped Mr. Feenberg's two children, one of their playmates and the milkman before the police were called. The dog also bit three other dogs and killed several chickens in the neighborhood.

Because many people were trying to catch the dog, the chief was unable to use his gun, so, taking a chance or being bitten, he rushed to the dog with a club and killed it.

Mr. Feenberg stated that he did not believe the dog was mad, but that it was suffering from injuries to its head. He stated that the pup chased a truck last week and the one of the occupants stepped on, the running board and kicked the pup on the head.

Ten Girls Enter Festival Contest

The tickets for the three days sell at $1. The first day's sales were brisk and the committee in charge is optimistic.

Hesse and officials of the Phillips company. The school, a two-room modern building, was erected and equipped by the Phillips Petroleum company especially for the children of employes of the company in the Bowers-McGee field, at a cost of $7,000.

The school building is equipped with water, lights, steam heating system, office, cloak rooms, and other conveniences. The school will be known as Hopkins No. 2.

Miss Zola Blankenship and Miss Joe McDonald have been employed as teachers. They commenced their duties yesterday morning. All grades from the first to eighth inclusive will be taught at the new school. Fire, Fire, Fire

Most anyone can close his eyes and recall some picture of fire making as depicted by his old readers. Almost from primary days we are taught the value of fire and how the discovery of its use elevated the race.

We Americans, who have done so much with fire, lead the world in fire losses. We are the "black sheep" of the nations. It is commonly believed in this country that other nations are dirty, careless, and behind the times in sanitation and civic efficiency.

In European cities if a fire which through a landlord's or tenant's neglect damages a neighbor's property, full liability is chargeable to the guilty persons. Were this true in America, we would be more careful. We are careless. We trust first to luck, hoping we will be saved by the law of averages.

Sixty-five per cent of deaths by fire are in residences, and most of these highly inflammable dwellings were not equipped with any kind of fire extinguishers. A draft from an open door or broken window brings the house down almost before the fire department can arrive.

Firefighting is an exact science, machinery is highly efficient, and skilled men are kept for no other purpose, yet all of this is from the negative standpoint—the idea of Fire Prevention week is to give firemen a permanent rest.

missions. The pathetic thing is that it is too late to start after the smoke begins to roll. There is a home fire every four minutes. Each day, on the average, five schools, five churches, fifteen hotels, one hospital, four warehouses, 96 farm buildings, six department stores, two theatres, eight commercial garages, three printing plants, and three dry goods stores are destroyed by fire.

Fire Prevention Week often sets the poorest example in the world. This one began with the Ohio prison dormitory fire which took a dozen or more lives. The government ranks among the most criminally negligent offenders. Wooden prison buildings should be prohibited. To lock a man in a fire trap is criminal.

Here are ten pertinent rules for fire prevention:

- 1. Keep matches away from children. See that used matches are extinguished properly. Keep matches in metal containers.
2. Keep all gas lights and other open flames away from combustible material.
3. Disconnect electric irons, toasters, etc., from the light sockets when not in use. Use pilot lights.
4. Inspect and clean flues, stoves, and other equipment at regular intervals.
5. Do not dump hot ashes near combustible materials.
6. Collect and remove rubbish from attics, cellar, and other places where it collects.
7. Do not light fires with explosives, gasoline, benzine, or other explosives.
8. When cleaning with gasoline, work out of doors.
9. Study how you would turn in a fire alarm and what you would do in case of fire.
10. Inspect your property often and remove all hazards. Remember, a clean house rarely burns.

WASHINGTON—Senator J. Boomboom McWhorter, whose principal worry in life for several years has been the grave question whether his meat and potatoes would come out even, is now beset by trials and tribulations calculated to make most of his private speeches unfit for publication.

The senator's campaign for re-election is not going so well. The fact that McWhorter is himself no longer certain of victory was demonstrated the other day when, after his opponent had claimed the election by a majority of 80,000, the senator himself only claimed it by 75,000.

McWhorter's managers, of course, hastened to cover up his gesture of defeat by asserting that the senator hadn't seen his opponent's claim or he would have raised him 5,000 or 10,000.

When the national committee heard of Senator McWhorter's troubles they advised him that if he would avoid all national issues in his campaign and say nothing about the presidential candidates, he could have anyone he wanted to go on a stumping tour with him. Senator McWhorter agreed and wrote back suggesting Clara Bow, but has had no reply.

Of course, the McWhorter misfortunes aren't all his fault. Someone should have told him when he addressed an audience of Italian-Americans two weeks ago that the bulk of them were anti-Fascists. Then McWhorter wouldn't have launched into such fulsome praise of Mussolini and the meeting would have been concluded without the aid of the entire local police force.

It was McWhorter's campaign managers who suggested in advance of a great meeting a few days later that it would be a graceful tribute if everybody should bring a flower or two to cast at Senator McWhorter as he strode down the aisle to the rostrum. The idea proved quite popular; quite a few brought cauliflowers.

Perhaps the most painful feature of the campaign for McWhorter, however, has been the fact that he has been unable to attack his opponent's record. The man who aspires to his seat in the Senate happens to be the present state treasurer, who took that important job when Senator McWhorter left it to go to Washington.

Of course, McWhorter knows a great deal about the other candidate, but the treasurer knows even more about McWhorter. He has the books and McWhorter hasn't. Thus the senator has had to put in considerable valuable time heading off volunteers who want to ask his rival embarrassing questions, which is a sad position for any candidate.

TWINKLES

Well, after the streets are marked and the houses numbered, a lot of prominent landmarks "so many blocks from—" are going to lose much of their prestige.

Along with revival of old-time epithets and boyhood sins of politicians, we may have with us soon Old Man Flu, who is an unwelcome guest now down in Porto Rico.

The Indian, original inhabitant as far as modern history goes, in November will enjoy the full franchise for which the white fathers fought. Poor Lo is thus the last of us to attain the primal privilege.

"Speak-easy", for tomorrow you die, must be a Gotham slogan.

Many a family now politically divided against itself will have virtual neutrality at the polls, but, just the same, that is better than enforced unanimity and every vote makes our elective system look that much better.

A school teacher who went wrong got a life sentence for theft—and a woman she was, at that. Some teachers, however, do not quit their jobs before getting reckless.

Subtle hint by wee lad to his Pa: "Daddy, if I don't win that pony, I won't cry—Santa Claus will bring one to me anyway."

Live wires in community life are seldom fatal, but they give some people an awful shock.

BARBS By NEA Service

We heard Senator Curtis cussed in one of his speeches the other day when bothered by a heckler. He must be out after the golfer vote.

Paris says that skirts should be 40 centimeters from the ground. But it's a safe bet that some flapper in this country will wear hers at 41, just to be different.

One heartrending thing about this election—it will part those two wonderful friends, the Senate and Charley Dawes.

After all these years of trying, you'd think there'd be at least one city in America that would succeed in getting all its downtown streets torn up at once.

Famous last lines: "They told me it would cost $200 to alter that fur coat I bought last fall."

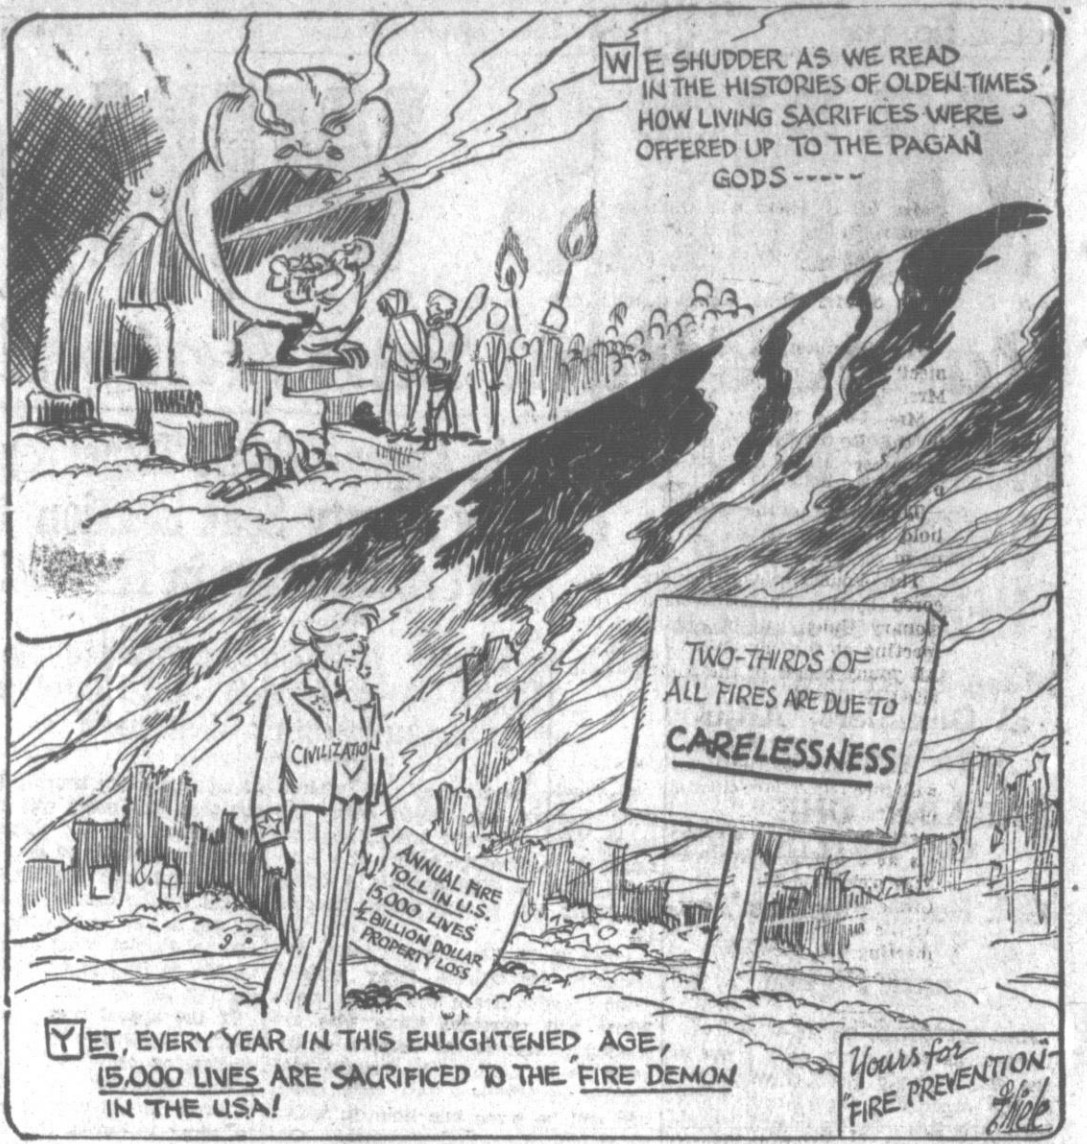

A chief of police in a New Jersey city the other day announced that "any policeman caught protecting saloons will be fired at once." Well, it doesn't hurt a policeman to know that, anyway.

"Fireworkers" Must Be Well Informed In Their Craft

Setting off fireworks is a profession. The American people have traveled a long way since the early days when each citizen, even each little boy with his own pyrotechnist, at the cost of times of injury or death. Experts now fire pyrotechnical displays—experts only—and that is why there are few casualties resulting from fireworks displays and explosions of fireworks.

In the professional fireworks circles, they don't call their operators pyrotechnists very often. They call them something more direct and Anglo-Saxon—fireworkers. It is obvious that a fireworker must be a level-headed chap. He has to think not only of himself but also of his audience and spectators, and safety first must be his motto. But he must do something beside maintaining his equilibrium, and he must be possessed of the soul of an artist, a poet, a humorist, a lover of beauty and even be somewhat of a historian.

It is he is all of these, the beauty of his revelations in the realms of fire overwhelms, overpowers, dazzles, the lightning flashes of his genius reveals a newly discovered heaven of art, as with the magic touch, he illumines the vault above and brings home the meaning of true grandeur of illimitable space, of the smallness of mankind and the remote glory of the changeless stars.

Artistry like this is to be observed at the fall festival, Thursday, October 18, when the stupendous and gigantic fireworks display of set pieces, shells, rockets, and mines are fired as the night features.

OFFICERS FEAR VIOLENCE IN DEATH OF ACTRESS

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The body of Elizabeth Chatterton Poole, 33, former actress, was held at the morgue today while authorities investigated a report that her death had resulted from violence.

Miss Poole, who shared a room at the hotel Dorset with Lillian Lorraine, former Ziegfeld Follies star, died last night at a private hospital where she was admitted Monday. Police were working on a report that she had been beaten in a night club room, although the attending physician gave myocarditis, inflammation of the heart tissues, as the cause of death.

Sherdel Will Try to Break P'll Luck Today

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—(AP)—With the original world series just again on the bill the New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals today welcomed an opportunity to resume their performance, postponed a day when rain prevented the fourth act yesterday.

For the game that may prove the most important of the series, manager Huggins and McKenchie selected the same athletes who started the series in New York last Thursday.

With three legs on the world championship cup, the New Yorkers were chagrined at the postponement of the fourth game. In the flood tide of success the American leaguers were convinced that they could not be stopped and they were dismayed when Commissioner K. M. Landis decided that the grounds would be too wet for play.

A warm sun and brisk wind appeared two hours after the "no game today" sign was posted and by game time much of the earlier havoc wrought by the rain had been repaired. It was the first postponement of a world series game since 1925.

A huge tarpaulin covering every inch of the infield remained down throughout the night and weather bureau officials could find no hint of rain in the vicinity of Sportsman's Park. The forecast was for good "baseball weather," warm and not too much wind.

The day of idleness made Manager McKenchie all the more determined to send Bill Sherdel, crafty but unlucky lefthander, in to pitch. Sherdel has had four full days of rest, his regular allotment, and while he has yet to win his first world series contest, he has turned in three well pitched games. He was stopped twice by Herb Pennock, now an inactive Yankee pitcher, in 1926 and Walter Hoyt won a close decision from him in the first game of this series. Hoyt will have a chance to shade him again today for he has been made the unanimous choice to do the pitching for the Yankees.

Today's game brought the right and left hand shift at the plate into the action in both games. George Harper who bats from the left side got the ball for outfield duty from St. Louis while Ben Paschal and Joe Dugan, orthodox right hand batsmen, returned to the Yankee array of talent.

St. Louis was entitled to three world series games if its representatives could enforce the city's right, so victory for the Cardinals today automatically would assure the Missouri metropolis another baseball battle tomorrow. If after that the Yankees still should find themselves short of four games won the battlefield would shift back to New York, for a contest Friday.

Varner May Have Trouble Defeating Oklahoma Welter

Ray Willis of Fort Sill, Okla., former welterweight champion of Oklahoma, will meet Walter Varner in a scheduled ten-round bout at the Pampa auditorium Thursday night. These two boxers met last Friday night in Plainview and after ten of the fastest rounds seen there this season a draw was declared.

The boy from Fort Sill is the first boxer to stand up to Walter Varner, the pride of Roxana and Pampa, since Freddie Whittington and he met the last time. Varner has been beating all comers, but found an equal in the Oklahoma slugger. Willis has met Babe Hunt twice, once for a win and the other time for a draw. He has met and defeated such boxers as Gus Beckwith, who has been seen here, Jack McCollough, Paul Parrish, and other good boys.

Walter Varner needs no introduction to a Pampa boxing fan. He has met the best, beaten the best, and will take on all comers in his class. He is a fighter first, and always. Clever, shifty, and a hitter, Varner fights from going to going.

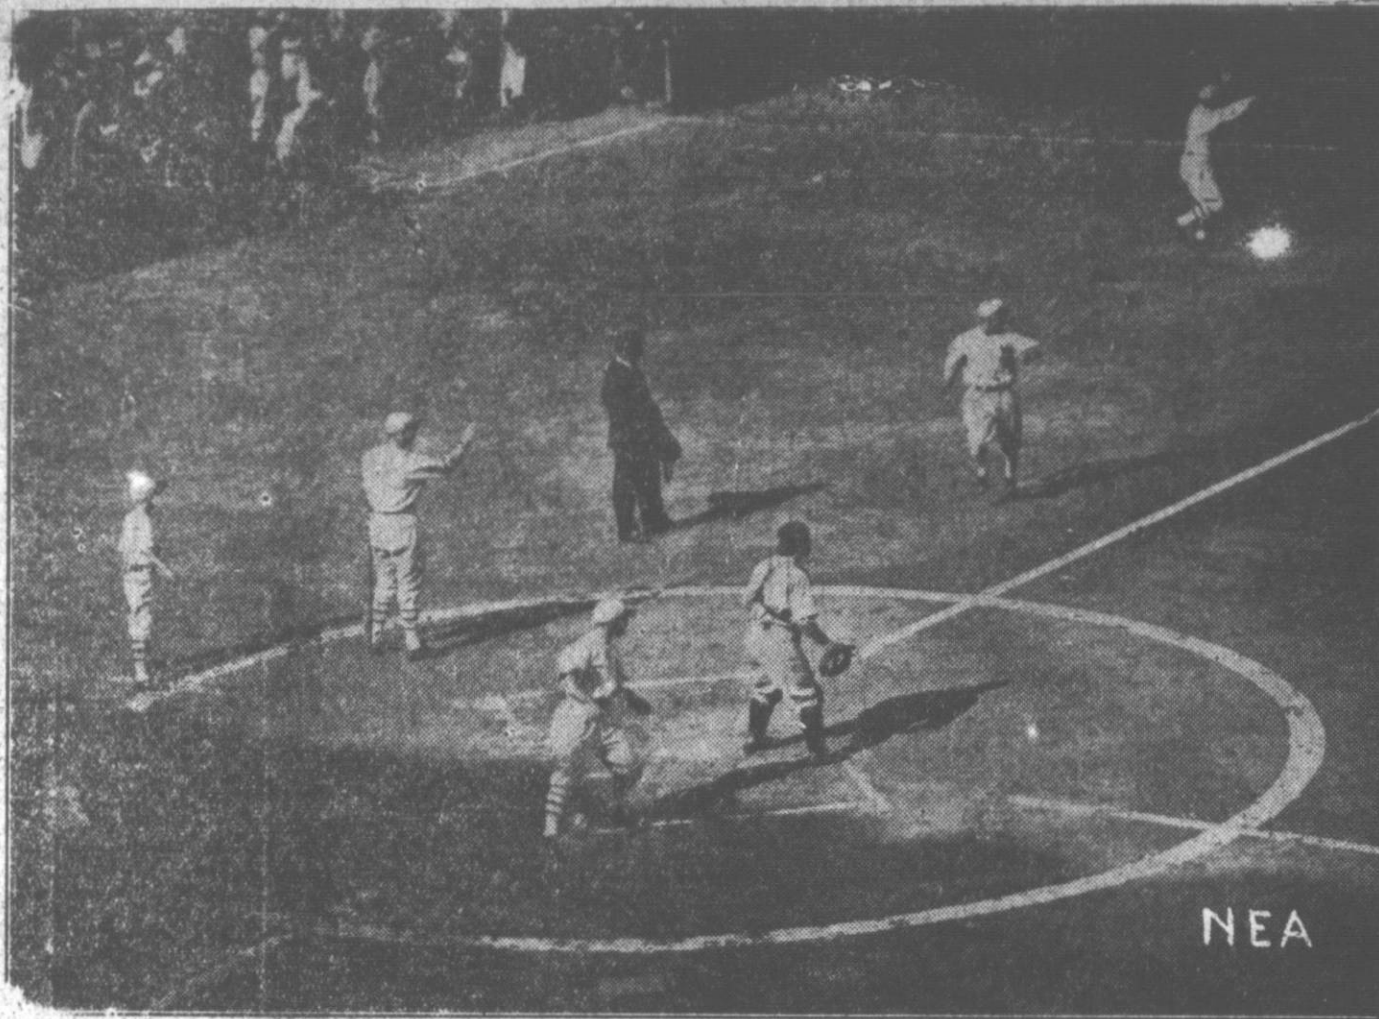

A second main event has been scheduled between Sammy Walker of Plainview and Rusty Cahill, the Pampa slugger. These two are evenly matched and should put up a real bout. Cahill has been working out to get into condition and says he is ready for the Plainview slugger, who has been winning all his battles this season.

Another bout that should show promise will be between O. D. the fighting newboy, and Neal Grubbs of Borger. Each youngster will enter the ring at 105 pounds, when O. D. is in the ring gloves fly and advance reports say the Borger youth is also a wizard with a pair of boxing gloves. These boys have been matched since last fall but have never met.

An oldtime battle royal will be an added feature on the big card.

Firpo Trains for Comeback; Will Fight in U. S. for Tex

Luis Angel Firpo actually means to return to the fight game. He already has lost 30 pounds in training. Tex Rickard has offered him $400,000 for bouts in the United States. Luis denies accepting the offer but says he will fight for Rickard.

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Success as the Buenos Aires agent for an American motor car manufacturer is not sufficient for Luis Angel Firpo. He craves to return to the fight game.

Although housed in a luxurious showroom on one of the principal business thoroughfares of the Argentine capital, Firpo, so he says, actually lingers for the action within the squared circle.

He apparently is to have his wishes gratified, for he has several offers, one from Tex Rickard said to amount to $400,000 for a few bouts in the United States.

While he has not accepted Rickard's offer, the Pampas pugilist has been in serious training for weeks, trying to remove the many pounds of fat accumulated during his two years of inaction.

"I am going to fight in the United States when and where Rickard says," declared Firpo, who showed a letter from the United States promoter so that visitors could see the Madison Square Garden letterhead, but not the contents of the missive.

Luis already has taken off 30 pounds, but says he does not expect to be ready for any engagements in the United States until next spring. He says he will fight several times here during his reducing program. The receipts, he says, will go to charity to show his only interest is to get back into the game for a chance at the world's heavyweight title.

Car Racing Called More Dangerous Than World War

"Daredevil" Dick Marmon, internationally known racing car driver and endurance record holder, is in Pampa today conferring with the Culberson-Smalling Chevrolet company, local Chevrolet dealers, regarding plans for making tests with a standard, factory equipped Chevrolet coach.

Marmon, a world war veteran, says flying an airplane under shell fire is less dangerous than testing automobiles at high speed. He emerged from the war with fewer scars than he has received in fifteen years of racing. He has suffered broken arms, wrenched while driving.

back, broken legs, burns and cuts. Mr. Marmon recently contracted to drive Chevrolets and will remain with that company another year. ### Miami to Battle Harvesters Friday in Important Game

Old football rivals will meet on the Pampa field Friday afternoon. Miami and Pampa have been battling on the gridiron for many years and Friday afternoon will see the teams on the field again.

The encounter will be the first conference game for each team, and both are anxious to win. The Harvesters have had more practice and more pre-conference games and will probably be in better condition.

Coach Mitchell had his team out for a light workout last night, following their losing battle in Electra Friday afternoon. Because of the hot weather the team cannot put forth its best efforts on the gridiron, but Friday's encounter should be the best of the season locally.

Local fans are anxiously waiting to see the game, as Miami always battles the Harvesters "over their heads" in an effort to win a game. The local will be in fighting trim Friday afternoon to wipe out the insult handed them in Electra by a team that the could beat, two touchdowns, on the Pampa gridiron.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock at Ayres field as the new location has not been cleared yet.

Small Well Is Indicated for Case Test by Edwards

Although being cleaned out 18 feet off bottom, more than 100 feet of oil is standing in the hole after five barrels full have been taken out of the Edwards et al's No. 2 Case in section 182, block B-2. The well was shot Friday afternoon with 400 quarts of nitro. The shot was placed from 3,180 to 3,250 feet.

Following the shot, the well was left alone for 48 hours and when the bailer was placed on the hole it came out full of high grade oil. The hole is being cleaned out and a small well is expected.

This location is five miles west of production in the Bowers-McGee pool. The well was shot a week before with 100 quarts, but did not respond. The Texas company's gusher in section 8, block 1, which came in Friday for 4,000 barrels, has dropped to 1,777 barrels. More than 8,000,000 feet of gas has broken in with the pay and is cutting production, it was announced this morning.

The Texas company's No. 3 Chapman in section 51, block 25, picked up a first show of oil this morning while drilling at 2,784 feet. This location is an offset to the Ray and Mussi gusher which came in last week for 75 barrels an hour. The Texas well is drilling ahead and expects to strike the big pay within the next 50 feet.

Tornado Damages Northeast Part of County Saturday

Coming out of a clear sky, a small tornado hit the northeast part of Gray county Saturday evening about 4 o'clock, doing considerable damage. The wind was followed by a heavy rain and considerable hail. The rail in the center of the tornado amounted to nearly three inches, and fell over an area of about 3 square miles. It was light towards the edge.

More than half the roof was torn off the farm homes of Cleve Springs, and N. A. Gray, south of Miami, and a small house across the road from Mr. Gray's residence was completely demolished. No one was living in the home at the time.

An airplane anchored near Mr. Gray's home was torn from its moorings and almost completely destroyed. The motor of the plane was badly smashed, as also was the fuselage and wings. The plane belonged to Jack Montgomery of Miami.

Mrs. Arthur Stilwell Commits Suicide

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Despondent because of the recent death of her husband, to whom she had been married for 48 years, Mrs. Arthur F. Stilwell, 68-year-old widow of a noted railroad builder who believed that he was guided in his operations from the spirit world, committed suicide today by jumping from the 12th story apartment where her husband died.

Mrs. Stilwell's brother, E. W. Robb, purchasing agent for the Jacob Dold Packing company of Buffalo, and Mrs. Robb had been staying with the widow since her bereavement on Sept. 26. They were all going to Buffalo today. Robb went to his sister's room this morning to wake her and found he had not been slept in. Looking out the window he saw the body on a four story extension far below. A note from Mrs. Stilwell directed to Robb was found, asking forgiveness and saying that she had no further reason to continue life now that her husband was dead.

Stilwell, who was the same age as Mrs. Stilwell, died after an apoplectic stroke which came after six years of illness.

Congressman Is Given Egg Shower in Anti-Smith Talk

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 9.—(AP)—Denied use of Poindexter park by Mayor Walter A. Scott, former Congressman William D. Upshaw of Georgia delivered one of a series of addresses in opposition to Governor Alfred E. Smith, on property of a Jackson church last night, and received an egg shower.

Upshaw was not struck by the missiles, but others near him were, including Mrs. T. E. Ward, whose husband has offered $100 reward for the name of the thrower. George Horroh, member of the Hinds county Democratic executive committee, challenged the guilty party to meet him face to face.

Frequently, during the address of Upshaw, persons in the audience shouted "hurrah for Al Smith."

Upshaw told his audience he is a Democrat of the South who "will not follow my party into the White House under the leadership of Tammany Hall." Upshaw added that Smith is not fitted "morally or spiritually" to lead the nation.

New York Will Poll Bigger Vote

Scabies eradication work in West Texas is particularly difficult at this time of year due to excessive movements of livestock. J. H. Masco, scabies specialist with headquarters in Fort Worth, declares.

For the tenth successive year, "dad" and "mother" W. F. Barnett have been elected to supervise the Methodists' orphans home at Waco. Their re-appointment overshadowed in importance that plans for the construction of a $20,000 cottage had been approved by the board of trustees.

With a view of pushing paving projects to complete the Texas trans-continental trail over the Fort Worth to Lubbock division, directors of the Association for that leg of the highway will meet in Aspermont, Oct. 9.

Mrs. Hassenflug's condition today was serious, but physicians think she will recover.

Twenty Prisoners Missing in Fire

JUNCTION CITY, O., Oct. 9.—(AP)—With a total of twenty prisoners missing, all of them believed dead, and twenty-seven injured, work of recovering charred bodies from the smoking ruins of the dormitory of the Ohio penitentiary brick plant continued today.

Identification of the mutilated remains was practically impossible, so completely had the flames done their work yesterday. Officials in charge, however, believed they had portions of fifteen bodies.

Meanwhile investigation of the blaze proceeded. It seemed fairly well established that defective electric wiring started the fire.

Hearst Reporter Is Asked to Leave France at Once

PARIS, Oct. 9.—(P)—Harold Horan, correspondent of the New York American, has been requested to leave France before Thursday because of his connection with the publication thru the Hearst news service of a memorandum covering the Anglo-French naval pact. The press bureau of the ministry of foreign affairs notified Horan that France considered him undesirable and warned him that he might be the object of a degree of expulsion.

The continental edition of the London Daily Mail today printed a statement furnished by the Paris bureau of the international news service saying that Horan had consented to accept a degree of expulsion.

The statement was issued after Norman Armour, who is in charge of the American embassy in the absence of Ambassador Herrick, had twice visited the foreign office in behalf of Horan.

Horan said he only had been detained by the police for seven hours yesterday and only released after he had signed a report of a cross-examination on how he obtained the memorandum.

Horan said that the memorandum in question, which contained private instructions to French diplomatic agents, was handed him by William Randolph Hearst in the course of a luncheon with the request that it be cabled to the United States. He added that Mr. Hearst had since telegraphed that he assumed entire responsibility for the document's publication.

Neither France nor Great Britain has yet authorized publication of the naval agreement or the correspondence which led to it.

The shock was so strong that it displaced needles of seismographs and stopped clocks in the national observatory.

Another Grass Fire Extinguished Today

The fire department received a call this morning to put out a grass fire south of the Alamo hotel on south Cuyler street. The fire had started near the gas company's warehouse and was quickly spreading over several vacant lots towards the Alamo hotel. The firemen made a fast run and with the use of coats soon had the fire out.

Citizens are asked to take every precaution when burning weeds and rubbish because of the dry conditions. Fire will quickly spread and cause serious damage to property if not closely watched.

This is Fire Prevention week all over America and citizens are urged to clean up fire traps and burn rubbish and weeds but to be careful not to spread the fires. Chief Ben White and Fire Marshall J. I. Downs plan to inspect the city and suggest plans for fire prevention.
