OVERPRODUCTION IN SOUTHWEST FEARED

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 5. (AP)—The southwestern oil industry, already burdened with over-production, today viewed with trepidation the flow of crude from three wells in as many adjoining states, two of which are gushers heralding the opening of new and perhaps extensive producing fields. Two wells were in the backyard of metropolitan cities while the third was the deepest oil well ever drilled in Texas.

The largest strike was the Marland Production company's wildcat well that came in yesterday on the Willard-Goodrich farm, nine miles north of Wichita, Kan. The gusher, rated at 7,000 barrels a day, was shut in after running wild for 12 hours with a loss of about 5,000 barrels of crude oil which formed a lake nearby. Oil men described it as the largest Kansas producer in the last decade.

Oil likewise gushed in Oklahoma City's back door yesterday, when the first large oil well in the immediate vicinity of the capital came in for an estimated flow up to 2,500 barrels a day. It was drilled in by the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil and Foster Petroleum companies at 6,402 feet.

SAVING IN CITY TO AMOUNT TO NEAR $30,000

Will Take Effect in January—Not in December

POWER PRICES NOT AFFECTED

Service Company Buys Plants at Vega and Groom

Pampa's electricity for residential and commercial use will be cheaper after January 1 under a rate schedule which reveals reductions of from 5 to 8 per cent, according to the amounts used.

The new rates were announced late yesterday by L. L. Ferree of Amarillo, general manager of the Southwestern Public Service company, and W. H. Curry, local manager. They will not go into effect in time to affect December bills for service.

The new schedule: First 50 kilowatt hours, 14 cents. Next 50 kilowatt hours, 10 cents. Next 100 kilowatt hours, 7 1/2 cents. All in excess of 200 kilowatt hours, 7 cents.

These rates will represent a reduction in gross revenue of about $30,000 in 1929, it is estimated. The power rate will remain unchanged. It is the same as Amarillo's rate, with the exception of that applying to low power motors, which is slightly higher, according to Mr. Ferree.

The reduction here grew out of a series of conferences between City Manager F. M. Gwin, the city commission, and utility company officials, and the schedule just announced was agreed upon.

The Southwestern Public Service company has 14 employees and include about 10 miles of highline in the oil fields. The power and light source is the superpower station in Amarillo. Since October 24, 1927, when the highline was off for eight minutes, there has been no suspension of service from that source, although local service lines have been down owing to various causes, one of which has been striking of the lines by houses being moved. In another instance, boys threw a wire across the lines.

To insure power for the city water wells in case of destruction of the power line by a storm or other mishap, an engine and generator at the local plant are connected with the city wells and may be used on short notice. The Amarillo power line carries 44,000 volts, and is stepped down as needed by various users. The company has just purchased franchises and plants at Groom and Vega, which may be placed on a highline soon.

"FARMING YOUTH" GET HONORS

Mere Slip of Boy Has Grand Champion Calf—His Pet

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Youth—not flaming, but farming—wore a broad, good-natured, old-fashioned grin today. It had had its hour; and such an hour!

A slip of a lad, only 12 years old, had come up from State Center, Iowa, to the international livestock exposition (the most important event of the entire exposition) with his pet yearling Hereford steer, "Dick." Gray-haired stockmen still were gasping over this demonstration of what farming youth can do when two other youngsters from the wide-open spaces picked the prizes in the "healthiest boy and girl" competition.

South Dakota appeared to be the healthiest place for girls, for it was from Brown county in that state that the blonde, clear-skinned Thelma Svarstad came to win the gold medal that goes with the title "healthiest girl in the United States." She made a remarkable score of 99.

William Tobias of Birch Run, Saginaw county, Michigan, had a rating of 97.4 to top the field on the masculine side. Tobias is 15 years old, an eighth grader in the Birch Run school. Thelma said she was "seventeen and a half" and a freshman at Aberdeen North State Teachers' college. Both said the copybook maxim of "early to bed and early to rise" was a factor in making them healthy.

Miss Svarstad weighs 122 pounds and is five feet and one-half inches tall. Milk is a principal item on her daily menu. She breakfasts on fruit, milk and toast, eats a heavy meal in the middle of the day, including meat and potatoes, vegetables and salads, and has a somewhat lighter meal in the evening.

Tobias said he had no special diet. He plays on the school athletic teams, favoring baseball and basketball. He likes boxing, too, and admires Jack Dempsey.

ELDORADO, Kan., Dec. 5. (AP)—Five men raided the town of Junction City, 20 miles south of here on the Arkansas-Louisiana line today, broke into two banks and a drug store after seizing the night-watchman, and escaped. They got little more than $300.

McKINNEY, Dec. 5. (AP)—While passing by the town of Junction City, Texas, a man looted a jewelry store of between $2,000 and $3,000 worth of stock last night. The owner carried no insurance.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 5. (AP)—Eighteen alleged gunmen and racketeers from Chicago, Buffalo and New York were seized in a raid on a downtown hotel today, led by Acting Chief of Detectives Potts.

Bigger Lubbock Federal Building Is Refused in House

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—A slum sum appropriation of $23,040,000 for work on public buildings, scarcely more than half of the amount made available for the same purpose in 1928, was carried in the treasury and post office appropriation bill which came to the house today from its appropriations committee.

The bill cut the budget recommendation for an increase in the cost at Lubbock, Texas, to $335,000 placing the figure instead at $220,000, providing that the building should be constructed in such a manner that facilities for the federal courts might be added later.

LAST NIGHT COLDEST

Today dawned clear and cold with indications of a "spell" of nice weather for the Panhandle. Last night was the coldest of the season the Santa Fe thermometer registering 21 above zero about 5 o'clock this morning. The cold spell was accompanied by a strong wind out of the north.

Eleanor Early Writes Another Newspaper Serial

"Orchid," the next Pampa Daily News serial, will begin about the middle of December.

Perhaps the fact that her first newspaper novel entitled "Whirlwind" had had something to do with Eleanor Early's "whirlwind" career as a writer of newspaper serial story hits, "Whirlwind" appeared in the Pampa Daily News and scores of other leading newspapers of the country a few months ago and was tremendously popular.

New Miss Early has written a story which promises to take its place beside "Whirlwind" as an outstanding serial of the year. It is entitled "Orchid." Its author has had a colorful career as a newspaper woman in this country and abroad. She is a native of New England and lives in Newton Lower Falls, Mass.

"IRISH PAL" AND 16 MORE FINE RACE HORSES BURNED

COLLINSVILLE, Ill., Dec. 5. (AP)—Seventeen race horses, including "Irish Pal," the popular favorite at the Fairmount jockey club during 1927 and a scratched entry in last May's Kentucky Derby, were killed today when fire destroyed barn "Q-1" one of the eighteen barns on the track. The loss was estimated at $82,500.

DENVER, Dec. 5. (AP)—The cold wave which has centered over the Rocky Mountain region for the past two days and which plunged Montana into arctic weather, with the temperature in one section of the state reaching 46 degrees below zero, apparently was broken today.

Chinook, Montana, which had reported an unofficial temperature of 46 below yesterday and have, with an official recording of 32 degrees under the zero mark, today welcomed relatively mild temperatures of around zero.

Montana, New Mexico, Nebraska, Kansas, Idaho, and Utah were promised warmer weather.

A Dark Horse?

As the Daily News big automobile voting contest nears the home stretch, Mrs. R. E. Kinzer of Pampa is beginning to loom up as one of the most likely contenders for first honors. Her standing, as published in today's paper is indicative of her potential voting strength. Those who expect to ride home in the Buick, had better be prepared to do it with Mrs. Kinzer at the wheel and with the bill of sale in her pocket, her friends declare.

"There's many a race won in the homestretch," she told the C. M., and she twinkle in her eye when she said 't might mean almost anything. Mrs. Kinzer is one of the most consistent workers in the race. Not spectacular but the kind that is always there when the showdown comes.

PEACE FOR ALL

"It's a new standard in the world"

Not So Strange

Simultaneously, President Coolidge has sent a message to Congress urging strengthening of our navy and has submitted for passage the Kellogg anti-war treaty.

To understand his recommendations for more light cruisers, aircraft carriers, and submarines, one must delve into European diplomacy and recent maneuvers of foreign governments.

The veritable race in modernizing and bettering navies should not be interpreted as necessarily threatening the peace of the world and thwarting attempts toward outlawing war.

A BETTER NAVY

"This building program is for necessary replacements."

France, for example, are largely intact. Britain, owing to her traditions about rule of the sea as the basis of safety for her vast empire, considers it imperative that she either have the balance of power or have alliances which will give her that commanding position in commerce and naval power.

In view of these facts, a reasonable expansion of our navy is not only logical, but as much calculated to bring ultimate disarmament as any other plan.

WASHINGTON—What and why is American prosperity, anyway? Probably the best answer to that question comes in the annual report of the Department of Commerce, just issued.

Since the United States has to buy many articles from foreign countries, the report says, it must export an equal or greater number of articles to those countries; otherwise it will be sending out more money than it takes in, and finance and industry will suffer.

"Without imports of such commodities as silk, jute, sisal, manila hemp, rubber, nickel, tin, coffee, cocoa, tropical fruits and nuts, wool, hides and skins, wood pulp and paper, the activity of American factories would be greater restricted and the standards of living of consumers greatly lowered," says the report.

"Approximately one-eighth of the output of our farms and one-eleventh of that of our factories is sold abroad. Two or three millions of our agricultural and industrial workers would be directly thrown out of employment were export trade cut off, and the displacement resulting indirectly from the shock to business would be much larger still.

"As a matter of fact, the task of finding foreign markets for American products has been met with a noteworthy measure of success. The total exports of the fiscal year just closed were two and one-fourth times as great in value as the average for the five years preceding the World War.

"Very naturally, the gain in American exports, as compared with pre-war years, and as compared with the low point of the postwar depression, has been most conspicuous in the case of manufactured goods. This fact is not due to any lack of efficiency or enterprise on the part of American farmers or of exporters of farm products, nor to any failure of the government to push sales of agricultural commodities abroad.

In addition, the report points out, the restoration of peace to Europe brought a revival of European agricultural output, with the result that the demand for American farm products tended to shrink still further.

"In the fiscal year 1927-28 exports of semi-finished manufactures, notwithstanding the fact that prices of some of the most important of these have advanced little or not at all as compared with pre-war years,

TWINKLES

So Congress had to send a committee to inform President Coolidge that it was in session. You would have thought he would have been reading the newspapers more closely.

Sometimes it looks like the weather forecaster down there in Dallas just remembered how cold it is supposed to be in Amarillo and guesses accordingly.

It's a queer turn of affairs that sends half a dozen planes down nose first just as we are getting our aviation schools started.

With high school football becoming a matter of litigation, little in this life is left free of interference on the basis of technicalities. Perhaps we should add a legal department to our curriculums.

Sportswriters who go through an entire season without seriously offending just will break out with all-star selections.

It's not how many shopping days are left till Christmas that is worrying most Pampans, but how many pay days there are not.

BARBS

Oil has been discovered in Brazil. There's another opportunity for the marines to carry on their educational campaign.

The Duke of Abruzzi has discovered the mysterious Nebi Scebell river in Africa. Here's hoping the song writers don't find out about that.

The sum of $675,000,000 in stocks and bonds was moved from one building to another in New York City in broad daylight. Rumors that it was only a night club changing its address were unfounded.

Bootleggers in Cleveland are reported to be taking up the study of techno-chemistry. Probably just trying to catch up with the undertakers who call themselves morticians.

Startling disclosures have been expected from the investigation of the Vestris disaster. It even may be proven that the ship sank because it leaked.

year 109 per cent greater than the average for 1910-1914", continues the report. More remarkable still, the export of finished manufactures, which must meet the vigorous competition of recovering European industrial countries, reached the huge total of $2,061,000,000, or more than three times greater than the pre-war average."

Basketball Club Formed—Patton Is Elected President

D. G. Patton last night was elected president of the town basketball club. Other officers are: Vice-president, Ray Wilson; secretary-treasurer, Jack Back; and publicity chairman, Harry Hoare. Practice will be held regularly at the new high school gymnasium, with playing nights Mondays and Saturdays.

Manager Harry E. Hoare is anxious that every basketball player in Pampa and surrounding territory be out for practice, as everyone will get a chance to make the team. It was decided at last night's meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, to organize two teams, one to play at home and the other away from home.

It was decided to call the teams the Pampa Steers. The Jerseys of the first team will be red and the trunks white, trimmed with red. The second team will have blue suits, trimmed with white. On the front of each sweater will be a white steer's head with long horns.

The first practice will be held in the new gymnasium Friday night at 8 o'clock and every basketball enthusiast in the city is urged to be out with the necessary equipment for practice. The following are urged to be out: Platter, Dillman, Herndon, Kennedy, Johnson, Hoch, Hughes, Mitchell, Hale, and others.

Local merchants are responding to an invitation to purchase uniforms and up to this morning 10 merchants had signified their intentions of assisting in outfitting the team.

Practice games will be arranged for early in the season before the team accepts out-of-town games. A meeting of representatives of all towns in this section of the Panhandle will be called to meet here in the near future in an effort to organize an inter-city league, the manager of the local club has announced.

A committee has been appointed to arrange the purchase of uniforms and outfits.

Baseball Reform Is Doomed as Chiefs of Game Assemble

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 5. (AP)—Every indication pointed to defeat today of proposed amendments to the laws governing the draft or selection of baseball players for promotion from the minors to the majors.

Delegates to the annual convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues had sundry speeches on the subject in mind, but but regarding the rout of partisans of unrestricted selection as assured presidents and managers of scores of minor league clubs to talk of trades.

One major league club reached out for a minor league prospect when Billy Evans, business manager of the Cleveland club, closed with Kansas City for the purchase of Jim Zinn, a pitcher who had a trial with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1927 but since then has been able to win more than 20 games each season.

Chicago Girls to Become Members of English Nobility

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—The door of English nobility has opened for two little Chicago girls, Marjorie and Isabelle Meuser, whose adoption by the Marchioness Huntly of Orton Hall, Peterborough, England, will make them heirs to an estate of several millions.

Until yesterday Marjorie and Isabelle, who are 8 and 10 years old, led the lives of thousands of other Chicago girls—minus wealth and social position. Their father, Floyd C. Meuser, an advertising salesman, had died in February. For 10 months they had lived with their stepmother, Mrs. Louise Meuser.

Today they left for the glamour of English society life because their great aunt, the marchioness, expressed a desire to adopt them. In her youth she had been a Chicagoan, and the girls had heard their father tell of his aunt who had married a marquis.

Arthur Campbell, Jr., a son of the marchioness by her first marriage, came to Chicago to arrange adoption proceedings. Probate Judge Henry Horner signed the necessary papers yesterday after the girls' stepmother had agreed to surrender them.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5. (AP)—Theodore "Kid" Snowden, young negro student, is attending Lincoln university and the "college of hard knocks" at the same time.

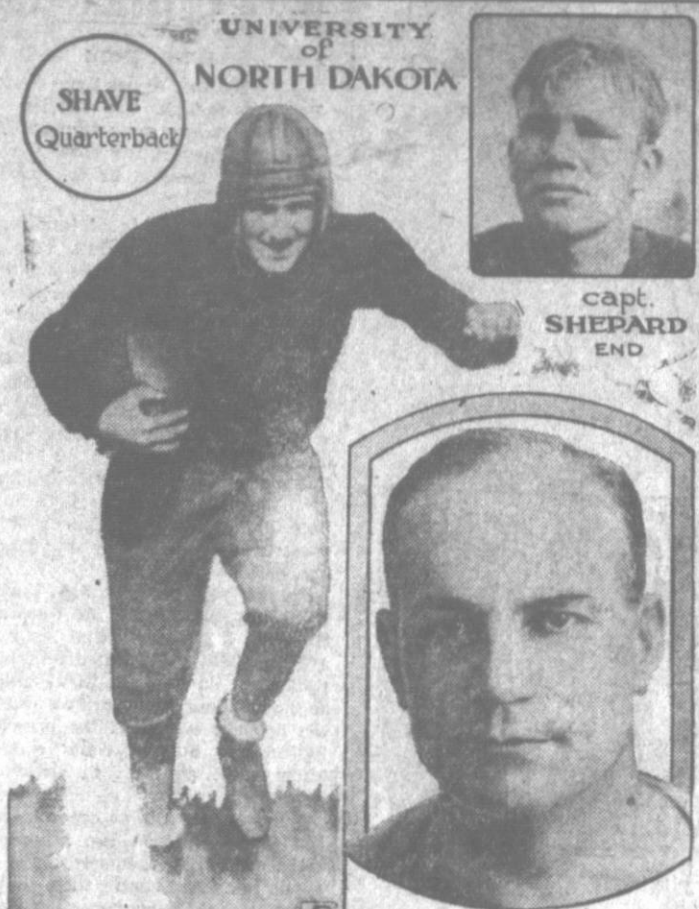

And his ability to deliver sundry hard knocks as well as take them enables him to earn his way through the university.

As a professional boxer in his spare time, "Kid" Snowden has a record of 23 successive knockout victories. Recently he advanced the cause of education by stopping Jimmy McDonough of North Penn, Pa., in the first minute of their scheduled eight-round bout here.

Mrs. W. A. Duerr is in Amarillo today.

Dick Hughes made a business trip to Amarillo yesterday.

They stick to their tasks out on the broad prairies of North Dakota. They stuck to the game of football at the University of North Dakota through 25 years of reverses. This reward came in a near-perfect record in 1928. Coach West and two of his stars are above.

Large Basketball Squad Comes Out at First Practice

Thirty-five basketball men turned out for the first practice at the high school gymnasium yesterday afternoon. Coaches Odus Mitchell and A. M. Fox believe they will have a real team this season. The boys went through shooting practice and limbered up.

The coaches plan to organize three separate teams with the first team entering the conference. They believe that with three teams, competition will be made keener and better practice result. Snappy uniforms of green and gold have been purchased as well as practice and sweat suits.

The girls also are planning to organize teams to play teams from schools in this territory. A good girls' team is expected as enthusiasm is noted among the girl athletes of the school. The girls will use the gymnasium at night for practice, and scheduled games.

"WILD BILL" WINS BY NARROW MARGIN

HONOLULU, Dec. 5. (AP)—An 18-hole playoff to decide the winner of Hawaii's first $5,000, open golf championship left the purse and the honors today in the possession of "Wild Bill" Meihorn of New York, but by a narrow margin. He defeated Fred Morrison of Alhambra, Calif., 73 to 75 at the eighteenth hole yesterday.

Meihorn and Morrison were tied with scores of 291 at the end of the 72-hole competition Sunday.

Escaped Prisoners Finally Caught

HUNTSVILLE, Dec. 5. (AP)—By a peculiar turn of fate, three convicts who escaped together from the state prison last September 19 were captured on the same day in different cities and locked in their cells again within a few hours of each other.

Styne Weathered, J. C. Parker and J. O. Gillespie escaped after overpowering a guard and marching through the prison gates with one of the trio impersonating the guard. After walking through Huntsville, they stole an automobile.

Nothing was heard of the three until four days ago, when authorities at South Bend, Ind., notified prison officials they had captured Gillespie. Within an hour of this telegram came one from St. Louis, advising the warden that Parker and Weathered were in custody.

Improper Conduct Alleged by Killer

LAMESA, Dec. 5. (AP)—Will Luman, 40, Garza county ranchman on trial here for murder, testified yesterday he shot Marvin Breeding, 23, in a theatre at Post, Texas, after the latter had made improper advances to Mrs. Luman. Breeding died two days after being shot.

Breeding was shot in a theatre, after he had been summoned to the door by Luman. The defendant declared Breeding made a motion as if to draw a pistol as he walked up the aisle toward him.

Miss Charlotte Clem will arrive this afternoon from Tulsa, where she spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother.

Chicago Fails to Place Single Man as All-Star

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—The hotly contested Western conference football race, in which nine well-matched elevens participated, has been reflected in the all-conference team selected by the Associated Press. Eight schools place players on the first eleven and only Chicago, which wound up its most disastrous season without a Big Ten victory, failed to land a player on either the first or second teams.

Harvard Coach Is Bridegroom—Tenure Is Still Uncertain

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Whether Arnold Horween will continue as head football coach at Harvard will be determined after the first of the year, when the former Crimmon player returns from his honeymoon. Horween was married Thanksgiving Day. A new contract was offered Horween after the Yale game and he is said to be seriously considering signing.

Football Injuries Are Blamed Upon Lack of Condition

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 5. (AP)—Poor physical condition and easing up are the causes of most serious football injuries according to Keene Fitzpatrick, veteran trainer of Princeton and Michigan football players.

Discussing the many football fatalities this season, Fitzpatrick said the greatest cause of accidents was due to starting scrimmage too early in the season before the players were ready for the battering. The other time when accidents are common, according to a theory he holds, is before big games when players try to save themselves as much as possible.

Basketball First Winter Sport Where Wheat and Cotton Meet

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 5. (AP)—The land where the corn belt meets the wheat belt and where wheat fields adjoin cotton fields, turns to basketball for its premier winter sport.

Varieties of the weather, peculiar educational conditions and adaptability of the sport to buildings available for indoor play combine to make basketball the supreme winter game of this section, particularly in Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma.

Basketball was invented by a Kansan, Dr. James T. Naismith, who still is a member of the University of Kansas faculty, and the game has a firmer grip on the sunflower state, perhaps, than on any other.

Practice begins in the midst of the football season and the final tournaments are never completed before early April.

Kansas and Missouri each have two score small colleges and universities, and Oklahoma nearly as many. All have teams and rivalry is intense.

Small enrollment is not a handicap, as in football, baseball and other sports that require many men backed by many reserves. There are always enough players for a basketball squad of eight, including three reserves. Women, too, have teams at many colleges, while high schools find so much enthusiasm among girls that they arrange special tournaments for them.

The game is economically possible because equipment is not costly, few expensive trips are taken and the admission price is low, since games are played almost nightly.

Expensive gymnasiums are not necessary, although desired at the larger colleges and universities. Basketball is played in town halls, on dance floors, in opera houses and auditoriums and in "cracker box" gyms. Every town, no matter how small, has from one to a dozen teams.

A high school squad is always the pride of the village, and in the larger town, there may be an independent team or two of old high school or college stars, while college towns literally swarm with teams. Sunday schools, too, have basketball leagues.

N. Y. Americans May Buy Club at Asheville, N. C.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Dec. 5. (AP)—Owners of the New York American League baseball club were reported today negotiating for the purchase of the Asheville club of the South Atlantic league. Guarantee that Asheville must have a professional baseball club for at least 10 years and that Ray Kennedy be retained as manager in 1929 are said to be among provisions of the reported negotiation.

Many of the stars at the universities of Kansas and Missouri were trained on high school teams in Kansas City or its suburbs.

HUNGARY LIKES POLO

BUDAPEST. (AP)—Polo is to Hungary what baseball is to the United States. For its size Hungary has polo grounds than any other country in Europe. Hungary's stars placed second at the 1928 Olympics.

Club Members and Husbands Entertained at Party

Members of the Amicus Bridge club and their husbands were guests last evening at a cleverly planned Christmas party given by Mrs. M. A. Finney, Mrs. D. T. Hankapillar and Mrs. J. M. Dodson, at the Dodson home. Baskets of pom-poms and lighted red-tapers gave a festive note to the room where the guests were entertained, and eight tables arranged for bridge had covers of green paper, decorated in the poinsettia motif.

Winners of high scores, Alex Schneider, Jr., and W. A. Bratton were granted the privilege of helping the hostesses serve refreshments. L. N. McCullough and C. M. Bryson, who scored low for the evening, were permitted to assist in clearing the tables. The menu for two dainty refreshment courses followed the red and green color scheme. The tables were covered with fringed green paper, and each was centered with a red candle, tied with red tulle.

A tiny lighted Christmas tree was the center of interest after refreshments were served. On the tree was a small gift for each of the men. The packages were not labeled with names, but on each was an amusing verse describing the man for whom it was intended. The gifts were presented only after the men had performed stunts for them.

The guest list for this delightful event was as follows:
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bratton, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Paulsen, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Waldstad, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schneider, Jr.

Young Girls' Circle Meets at Church

"Our Friends," a study in missionary interests in Mexico and the Central American neighbors of the United States, was the theme of an excellent program given last evening at the First Christian church. Mrs. James Todd conducted the program, and all members took part in the discussions. The universality of the Christmas spirit was particularly stressed in short talks.
Miss Helen Meers played a piano solo and Miss Ola Gregory sang accompanied by the piano by Miss Hazel Caspell. Two new members were received at this meeting. They were Miss Gladys Baker and Miss Bonnie Jo Pool.
The meeting was held in the church, with Mrs. Todd as hostess. Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

The Mooseheart Legion held an enjoyable benefit dance last night at the Moose hall, with the Moose orchestra furnishing music.

Nearly all the prints in the latest Patou styles are on black grounds. Even a fluffy chiffon evening dress has big bunches of pink and blue roses printed on a black ground. The merest suggestion of a bustle is given by the attachment of little squares of chiffon by one corner just across the top of the hips. The skirt has much fullness in back and slopes to a noticeable point. The necklines are a little higher in the advance styles.

Guiding Your Child

INNOCENCE
By Mrs. Agnes Lyne
Parents cherish the illusion that their children are quite "innocent." By "innocent" they mean that they are free of any interest in or knowledge of sex.
This apparent state of innocence is something in which parents take great pride. They are happy in the feeling that although they themselves are stained and scarred by life, their children are still as fresh and pure as the day they were born. They try to keep them so as long as possible.
As a matter of fact nothing could be more unwarranted than this assumption of innocence in children. The mass of scientific data accumulated in late years bears out the conclusion that all children, unless they are defective, are naturally interested in and curious about sex.
Parents who seriously state that their child has no interest in the subject, that "he has never asked a question" are only telling the intelligent listener that they have made their child feel so guilty about his sexual curiosity that his lips are sealed in the presence of his elders. Such parents can never know what goes on in their child's mind.
Why are parents so eager to assume that their children are innocent? It is because they themselves feel guilty about sex. Although they have become parents they have not lost the unhappy feelings of sin and shame instilled in them in their own early years. It is a vicious circle in which the sins of the fathers are indeed visited on the children even unto the third and fourth generation. The heritage of guilt is handed down from parent to child. It makes little difference whether this is done by direct prohibitions, or by the subtlest evasions. The sensitive child is injured by both. No amount of subsequent washing about the "beauty" and "secrecy" of love can wipe out an original strong impression in the life of a child.

If innocence is freedom from guilt then only those children can remain truly innocent whose parents help them to face the facts of sex in a simple and natural way.

Houston Street Car Hit by Engine—16 Persons Are Injured

HOUSTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Sixteen persons were injured, five seriously, when a Missouri Pacific switch engine struck a street car here today. Most of the injured were Mexicans or negroes.

More than 30 other occupants of the street car escaped serious injury. The car was demolished. The switch engine was backing around a blind curve.

A man who said he saw the accident asserted the car stopped before going upon the track, and then resumed its course. About the time it was on the track, the engine suddenly appeared from behind the building, he said, and the crash followed.

S. A. Zinn Dies at LeFors on Tuesday

S. A. Zinn died at his home in LeFors late yesterday afternoon. He had been in failing health for the last year, but had not taken seriously ill until last week. He was 40 years old. Mr. Zinn had been a driller in the LeFors field since moving from Borger six months ago.

He is survived by a wife and two children, Bill at home, and Ruth at Irwin; also one brother, John of Moundville, W. Va.

The body is at rest at the Malone funeral home. Funeral services will be held in Panhandle tomorrow afternoon.

NEGRO IS ARRESTED

Officers walked into a local hotel last evening in time to see the porter walking down the hall with two half-gallon jars of whiskey under his arm. They followed him into a room where a gallon container and several half-gallon containers of whiskey were confiscated. He was taken to jail. Charges will be placed. Sheriff E. S. Graves said

Protest Against Drilling Restrictions Sent by Chamber

A telegram and letter signed by the manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce was sent to the railroad commission yesterday protesting against the request of Attorney General Claude Pollard, on behalf of the state, that rule 37 be modified.

A petition asking that no company be allowed to drill a well within 1,000 feet of the cut bank of the north fork of the Red river has been filed with the railroad commission. The date of the hearing has been set for December 17. The state is suing for the recovery of the river bed.

In his letter, Mr. Briggs pointed out that such a ruling would, to a certain extent, kill drilling activities in that section of Gray county.

Nurses Say Man Confessed Slaying

CORPUS CHRISTI, Dec. 5. (AP)—Immediately after two men had gone into a hospital room where E. C. Young was killed while helpless from an appendicitis operation, three shots were fired and Robert Lothringer walked from the room, handed a pistol to a nurse and said: "Call the sheriff; I killed him," a nurse testified today at Lothringer's trial for murder.

The nurse, Mrs. Sophie Soschin, said Lothringer repeated this statement several times, and her testimony was corroborated by Miss Annie Sugarek, Gladys Houser and Mrs. Lynette Hayes, also nurses in the sanitarium where Young was killed on the night of September 5.

It was indicated in the questioning of Dr. H. R. Giles, state witness, that temporary insanity may be the defense plea.

CONTEST—

drawing upon every resource, contestants in both districts are working with frenzied excitement and enthusiasm, each intent upon outdoing the other while the opportunity lasts. The spirit of friendly rivalry is becoming more and more intense as the race nears its end. Realizing that only today, tomorrow, Friday, and Saturday, can extra votes be obtained by building 320 clubs or any other kind of clubs contestants are literally turning things topsy-turvy in their drives to accomplish everything possible before the time expires.

Will Smash Records

The coming three days are expected to be the biggest of all in point of subscriptions. Saturday of course, is expected to break all records. Next week there will be no club offer and the ballot box will be locked and sealed never to be opened until the key is turned over to the official judges on the night of December 15 when the final count which will determine the automobile winners and other prizes will be made. Just think of it folks—only ten days more altogether!

December 8, 9 p. m.
December 15, 9 p. m.

Those are the two dates and hours every contestant has uppermost in their minds. Reference to the calendar will show that both are not far distant—in fact the LAST club offer will be over and gone almost before it is realized.

Building Reserves

With the end coming in such a short period of time, many contestants are building reserves of votes in order to fortify themselves against being overtaken by some other contestant. This last club offer is a splendid opportunity to strengthen one's reserve. Subscriptions now count for thousands and thousands of votes, and it is only in the next three days that totals can be amassed which will withstand the surging battle of the final week.

It is quite evident that contestants mean business now. The spirit is shown in the determined lines in the faces of those who visit the campaign office, and in letters full of enthusiasm and the "never-say-die spirit."

Enter, Civic Pride

There has been a remarkable speeding up during the last few days. Out-of-town contestants are looking beyond their own home towns for extra votes, and contestants in Pampa are busy seeking new fields to conquer. The element of civic pride is going to play a large part in determining the winners, prominent citizens of several out-side towns having voiced the determination that the Bulk must come to their town. So it looks like a matter of votes—and lots of them!

John Gilbert Seen in Strange Makeup

In his new starring picture, "The Masks of the Devil," now playing at the Rex theatre, John Gilbert appears in the strangest makeup ever filmed. He will be seen with two separate faces at the same time, and will change from one to the other without apparent effort.

In the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture Gilbert plays the role of a Viennese aristocrat who, when he looks in a mirror, sees reflected in his face the likeness of the devil.

Oliver Marsh, M-G-M cameraman, solved the problem of achieving such an effect through a secret process suggested to him by a trick electric sign. All that is known is that Gilbert wears two complete, different colored makeups on his face.

WORKMAN'S HAND IS HURT IN MACHINERY

Paul Hamaker is in the McKean and Connor hospital suffering from injuries received yesterday afternoon near White Deer. Mr. Hamaker, an employe of Henry Lemons, contractor, was working a ditching machine when he slipped, his hand being crushed in gears on the ditching machine.

The injured man was rushed to the hospital here where it was necessary to remove the thumb and two fingers on his right hand.

Laredo-Kansas City Bus Line Protested

DALLAS, Dec. 5. (AP)—Four railroads today protested an application filed with the Texas Railroad Commission for a permit to operate and interstate motor bus service between Kansas City, Mo., and Laredo, Texas.

The application was filed for Charles Connor, Kansas City, and immediately after it had been filed a continuance of the hearing was requested because of illness of the applicant. The railroads, the Southern Pacific, Texas & Pacific, Missouri Pacific and Missouri-Kansas-Texas, registered protests against the application. The hearing was continued until Dec. 31, and will be held at Fort Worth.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—President W. B. Storey of the Atchinson, Topeka & Santa Fe railway has disclosed that engineers are surveying the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway to decide the feasibility of extending it to the west coast of Mexico. This would create a route to the Pacific Coast 400 miles shorter than any other for points in the Southwest. The Santa Fe recently purchased the Orient line.

Coming Soon

A musical event of more than ordinary interest will be the coming of Marion Talley to this section December 10. Miss Talley will sing in the Amarillo auditorium, under the auspices of the Amarillo College of Music. This 19-year-old Kansas City girl attracted attention with her voice from babyhood. At the age of 2 she sang "school days". She began the study of piano at 5 and of violin at 7. Her first recognition came when John R. Jones heard her rehearsing an anthem, "Peace on Earth" with a choir at the First Christian church of Kansas City. He predicted she would be in metropolitan opera before she was 20.

How this prediction came true when she made her official audition at the Metropolitan Opera house, New York City, November 8, 1922, and her metropolitan debut February 17, 1923, is one of the finest annals of American musical achievement. It is predicted that Miss Talley, in whom interest has not waned although she has sung more than one hundred concerts, will be welcomed by a very large Panhandle audience.

Old Frontier Capital, Dodge City, Regains Fame as Aviation Terminal

DODGE CITY, Kans., Dec. 5. (AP)—Transcontinental passengers leaving Dodge City, the wild and woolly cow capital of pioneer days, where the southwestern cattle and buffalo trails joined at the terminus of the meandering Santa Fe railway building west along the then better known trail, has been chosen to play an important part in blazing the way for a new means of trans-continental travel.

Announcement has been made that the city will be the middlewestern transfer station of the air-rail line to be established next spring by the Transcontinental Air Transport and the Santa Fe railroad. Other transfer points will be Columbus, O., and Las Vegas, N. M.

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, in his recent flight to Mexico, picked out a virgin prairie landing field adjacent to the city, and lying between the Santa Fe railroad and the famous old trail. That, however, will furnish the sole reminder to the fleeing passengers of this pioneer crucible of the West.

Mrs. P. R. Pond, is slowly recovering in Pampa hospital.

Fried OYSTERS

Select large oysters. Wash them, sprinkle with salt and pepper and dip first in bread crumbs, then in beaten egg and again in bread crumbs. Place in a wire basket and drop into deep Crisco heated until it browns a cube of bread in 40 seconds. Fry until nicely browned. Drain on paper. Serve hot with tomato sauce or catsup.

What a will-o'-the-wisp flavor the real sea tang of the oyster is! Oysters simply must be fried in a delicate fat to preserve their native flavor. And if you want to know how delicate a fat can be—just taste Crisco as it comes sweet and fresh from the can.

You taste your milk— You test your eggs—
