

Pampa Daily News

"The Newspaper of
The New Pampa"

Associated Press
Full Automatic
Leased Wire

VOL. 2, NO. 214

(P)—Means Associated Press

PAMPA, GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 15, 1928

PRICE FIVE CENTS

POSSES SEEK THEATRE BANDITS

DRILLING RUSH STARTS AS SEMINOLE POOLS OPENED

EIGHTY TESTS ARE BEGUN IN GREATER AREA

Two Wells Permitted on Each 40-Acre Tract

AGREEMENT IS PARTLY KILLED

Thousands of Workers on Duty for New Activity

SHAWNEE, Okla., Nov. 15.—(P)—The clang and screech of machinery broke the stillness that long has hung over the little river bottom today, as drilling, long halted in the Maud and Mission pools of the greater Seminole oil field, was resumed at the termination of a drastic drilling restriction agreement.

Tools, held in readiness for weeks in some instances, bit deep into the earth as the midnight hour of termination arrived, and though it is impossible to tell exactly, this morning, how many wells were "spudded in," oil men who had toured the field estimated that probably eighty new tests greeted the sun at dawn today.

Scattered over a ten-mile "front" that straggles along the Little River bottoms, upwards of a hundred locations had been staked out and officially listed, ready for a scramble after "the pay," but rig timbers were not available for some, machinery was missing on other locations, and there were some drillers who proposed to withhold their activities at this time.

No "Sooners" Now
Starting was put on a "gentleman's agreement" basis, and oil men throughout the two pools were unanimous in declaring that no one intentionally "jumped the gun"—that there were no "sooners" as in the famous run to the "strip" in 1893.

Despite the rush and bustle of preparation, there was no confusion attending the reopening of the pools. Approximately 10,000 oil field workers and their families had filtered into the territory. Shacks popped up, like mushroom villages, overnight. Trucks, loaded with machinery worth thousands of dollars, thundered into the area almost unnoticed and preparation for the lifting of the restrictions went on almost unheeded by many of the people living in the district.

The restriction agreement, lifted today, was put into effect two years ago in the Maud and Mission pools, when the other fields of the greater Seminole area were running at their peak.

A few wells were drilled, but were shut down by agreement before production was reached, and the territory has been virtually at a standstill until a few weeks ago.

Two months ago eight or ten wells were drilled, in scattered locations, under special permits from the Seminole field umpire, and prediction found in these has led oil men to make highly optimistic estimates of the possible production of the two pools.

The area still is restricted, to a certain extent, as only two wells are to be permitted to each 40-acre tract.

The territory from which the drilling restriction was lifted extends from the northeast corner of the Mission area, in section 5-8-6, south and west to within about three miles of Maud, where the majority of the new wells are located.

ATHEIST IS SENTENCED

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 15.—(P)—The maximum sentence—a fine of $100 and ninety days on the county farm—was given Charles Smith, president of the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism, when he was convicted in municipal court today of a charge of violating an old English law against blasphemy. Smith appealed and was released under $1,000 bond.

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS—Tonight: partly cloudy, colder in north portion; Friday: partly cloudy, colder.

FEDERAL PROBE OF SEA TRAGEDY HELD

Pride of Steamship Line Which Went Down in Mid-Ocean

Here is a picture of the ill-fated Lampport & Holt liner Vestris, which after weathering a storm listed badly and finally went down before its passengers and crew could take to lifeboats. Early today 92 persons were reported missing and the tragedy enters the list of major marine disasters.

Spearman Is Host to Many at Her C. of C. Banquet

(BY STAFF WRITER)
SPEARMAN, Nov. 15.—The local Chamber of Commerce banqueted more than 100 guests and members last night at the high school, the occasion being the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. Almost half of the attendance was made up of out-of-town guests.

Besides members of the local Chamber, representatives were present from Perryton, Dalhart, Guymon, Okla., Pampa, Panhandle, Borger, and Amarillo.

A. T. Holcomb of Dalhart was toastmaster of the occasion. The chief speakers of the evening were J. E. Biggs of Amarillo assistant manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; A. H. Wilcox and the Rev. O. M. Addison Spearman; and the toastmaster. Representatives of each town represented made short talks during the evening.

Entertainment was featured by the Mawhawk's band of Borger.

Officials of the Chamber of Commerce had charge of the arrangements for the banquet, which was served by the home economics department of the high school. Roast turkey and all the trimmings, followed by pumpkin pie with whipped cream, are included in the menu.

Those attending from Pampa were George W. Briggs, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Harry E. Hoare of the Pampa Daily News.

More Mad Dogs Killed by Officers

The mad dog question is still worrying the police department and Dr. T. J. Worrell, sanitary officer. During the last three days, members of the police department have had to kill thirteen dogs, some of them valuable pets. Others were of the ordinary stray variety.

Two or three more children have been nipping by dogs, whether mad or not has not yet been determined. The heads of three dogs have been sent to Austin for examination.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL TO BE HELD HERE NEXT WEEK

Sub-committee chairmen for the American Red Cross annual roll call campaign were named yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Pampa chapter committee.

Although the annual roll call really begins on Armistice Day and lasts through Thanksgiving the intensive portion of the local campaign will be on November 22, 23, and 24—Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of next week. The goal, which last year was 560 members, will be 600 members this year. Membership nominally cost $1, although other types of membership are designated for greater subscriptions.

The committeemen named: On oil field industries, Alex Schneider, Jr.; Women's division, Mrs. Joe Smith; publicity, Olin E. Hinkle.

Badges and placards and other supplies have been received and final preparations are being made for the short membership drive. At $1 per membership, it is believed the campaign will be a short, successful one.

Contestants Racing With Time in Building Up Subscription Clubs

The long-drawn-out legal battle over the location of the Gray county seat opened another chapter today when an application for a re-hearing of the recent appeal in the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals.

This application likely will be acted upon next Wednesday, and if denied the next and probably last step would be an application to the State Supreme Court for a writ of error.

REPORT DEER SCARCE

Dr. T. J. Worrell, city health officer, and Traffic officer W. J. Turpin, returned yesterday from a hunting trip in New Mexico. They report "failure." Both men are said to be excellent shots. They say deer is scarce in the section through which they hunted. Not to be balked, the two hunters plan to make another trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barrett left yesterday to make their home in Altus, Okla. Mr. Barrett, who has been with the K. C. Store for the past several months, has been transferred to the Levine brothers store in Altus.

Mrs. A. L. Dodd is spending a few weeks with relatives in Oklahoma City.

Warn-Notice

The 100,000 extra vote offer is positively the biggest and best that will ever be made! Don't hold your subscriptions after 9 o'clock Saturday night, in anticipation of a bigger offer to come later. Never, after 9 Saturday night will subscriptions count as much as they do now. The seal will be slashed. See all your friends and collect on all these promises and turn them in before the clock strikes 9 Saturday night.

My, but they're busy!

Those men and women who are candidates in the Daily News big $5,000 automobile and prize, campaign. Everything is votes, votes, votes, in the grand scamper to see everybody and obtain every subscription possible before 9 o'clock Saturday night.

Only tomorrow and Saturday remain to make tremendous gains in the great prize campaign. Just a little more counts just 100,000 extra bonus votes. Until 9 o'clock Saturday night, every $20 worth of subscriptions turned in counts just 100,000 extra bonus votes, over and above all regular votes. Many contestants have voiced the intention to have a remarkable number of clubs by the time, the offer closes. Wise candidates are leaving no stone unturned in their rush to accomplish everything possible before the final hour. Realizing that this is the very LAST of the big votes they were today working.

Ernest Eilick of Amarillo attended to business in this city yesterday.

(See, CONTEST, Page 6)

Ideals of Rotary Stressed by Parcels at Banquet Here

To invoke in the individual the idea of service" was stressed as the outstanding object of Rotary by Governor Rue P. Parcels of the 41st district of Rotary International at the Club banquet held at the Methodist Church last night.

"It is not so much what the Club as a whole does as how its influence causes the individual to live," said Mr. Parcels.

"Rotary is growing into the small towns and is meant for the average man. It welcomes the man who needs the association of others and who will, by that contact, live better in his social and business relations. Through Rotary and similar clubs, the world is continually being made better."

In answer to the question of "Does it Pay?" Mr. Parcels cited instances of good work that had been done and was being done by Rotary clubs and Rotarians. "Hundreds of boys and girls have been given that final and so necessary help that gave them an education. Clubs everywhere are undertaking crippled children work, Boy Scout activities and other service enterprises."

This was Mr. Parcels' first visit to the Pampa club. He expressed himself highly pleased with the interest of the members in its work. He complimented the club on its 100 per cent attendance last month and on the fact that every officer and committee chairman who was in town last night attended the 7 o'clock meeting.

About thirty-five club guests were present and J. L. Long and Kenneth Hudson, Rotarians of Ardmore, were visitors.

Local club women presented a skit, "It's Pampa," which they used recently at Amarillo.

Denver Proposal for North Plains Road No Surprise

The statement of the Wall Street Journal that the Fort Worth & Denver contemplates extending its line from Childress northward, possibly to Spearman or Perryton, is received without excitement in Pampa.

ONE ROBBER IS WOUNDED AND DEPUTY SHOT

Officer Harvey Fields Given Only Fighting Chance

HUMBLE, Nov. 15.—(P)—Half a hundred men were beating the brush and guarding the highways near here today in search of a theatre bandit who escaped after his alleged companion and Harvey Fields, Harris county deputy sheriff, had been shot in a spectacular gun battle here last night.

Both wounded men were in a Houston hospital where Fields was given a fighting chance to recover and the other man, who gave his name as L. W. Rawlin, 27, formerly of Waco, was not expected to live.

The battle occurred when two bandits resisted arrest after they had held up the Star theatre and had been handed over a tin box which they thought contained cash but which in reality held only cancelled show tickets.

When Fields seized one of the men, the bandits cried out to his companion who fired twice, Fields releasing his clutch and sinking to the sidewalk. Deputy Sheriff Frank Neville leveled his gun at the man who he thought had shot Fields, fired once and the man fell to the ground. The man with whom Fields had grappled escaped in the darkness.

Sheriff T. A. Binford was leading one posse today, George Andrew, investigator for the district attorney's office, headed another, and Neville was in charge of a third.

Two strange men had been hanging around Humble all afternoon, Neville said. They asked questions that aroused suspicions and about 9 p. m. a drug store operator told officers he believed the men meant to hold up the Star theatre. The officers took up a position in an automobile directly across the street from the movie house.

Shortly before 9:30, closing time of the theatre, one of the strange men walked up to the cashier's window. "Have you ever been held up?" he asked Mrs. Elizabeth Blair, the cashier. "No," was the reply.

"Well, you are being held up now," the bandit said, pulling out a gun. "Hand over the money."

Mrs. Blair had placed $30 in a tin box a few minutes before the bandits came up. In a similar container she had the cancelled tickets she handed to the bandit, and he with his companion started running down the street.

The deputies started in hot pursuit and soon cornered the man. Fields leaped from the automobile and seized one of them. The first bullet fired by the other bandit hit Fields in the hand. He half spun around just as the second shot was fired, the bullet striking him in the back just below the right shoulder blade.

As Neville whipped out his gun to avenge his fallen comrade, he was forced to abandon his search temporarily for the man whom Fields had seized. While the unarmed deputy gave succor to his companion and the injured bandit, the other robber disappeared.

The name of the missing man has been furnished and his identity established, officers said. Rawlin is the other man worked at a dairy on the Houston-Humble road, officers were told.

Another Allen-A Bombing

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 15.—(P)—The bombing of Roger Kimball's summer home at Lake Geneva last night had added another chapter of violence to the Allen A mill labor difficulties.

The $15,000 home of Mrs. Kimball, of the company, was the twenty-first vice-president and general manager target of bombs which police attribute to the strike, or lockout, in force at the mills here.

CHARGES PILE UP AS SURVIVORS LAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(P)—Stirred by survivors' accounts of horror at sea and by charges ranging from blundering seamanship to plain murder, federal officers today undertook an investigation of the wreck of the steamship Vestris.

Federal Attorney Charles H. Tuttle issued summonses to all available officers and members of the crew ordering them to appear at the federal building today. The surviving passengers were asked to give their versions of the disaster.

The charges pile up soon after the arrival here yesterday of the steamship American Shipper and Berlin with a total of 148 passengers rescued from lifeboats after the British liner, bound from New York to South America, foundered 240 miles off the Virginia Capes Monday. Early today the French tanker Myriam docked in Brooklyn with 57 survivors, some of whom supported the charges while others denied them or remained silent.

(By The Associated Press)
Aboard were 328 persons, 122 passengers, 199 crew.
Rescued—60 passengers and 154 crew. Total 214.
Presumably dead—69 passengers, 45 crew, total 114.
Bodies recovered—22; four by the coast guard destroyer Tucker, four by the destroyer Acushnet, 13 by the destroyer Shaw, one by the Berlin.

Missing—92.
Among the dead and missing are 27 women, 13 children.
Saved by rescue ships:
American Shipper—41 passengers, 84 crew, total 125.
Berlin—5 passengers, 18 crew, total 23.
Myriam—3 passengers, 49 crew, total 52.
Wyoming—6 passengers, 3 crew, total 9.

All the survivors except the nine aboard the Wyoming, who are being taken to Norfolk, Va., were landed at New York. The bodies were all sent to New York.

Coal Hole Was Open

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(P)—Evans Hampden, negro fireman of the wrecked Vestris landed by the tanker Myriam today, voiced on behalf of the 23 firemen of the party the belief that an SOS should have been broadcast by the Vestris at 8 o'clock Sunday night, when he said the ship was listing at 15 degrees and water in the fire room was hip deep.

The disaster, Hampden believed, was due almost entirely to a coal hole on the port side, four inches above the water line, which he said was open six inches when the Vestris sailed from Hoboken, N. J., and which was so defective it could not be closed.

When Hampden went on duty in the fire room at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, he said, the chief engineer was warned that water was leaking through the hole into the coal bunkers, but two men were unable to force the door closed with heavy wooden hammers.

When he went off duty at 8 o'clock, he said, the water was ankle deep in the fire room, and when he returned at 4 in the afternoon it had already put out the fires under the starboard boiler and was coming in fast.

Chief engineer Avard Adams helped man the pumps, but the water entered so fast that a life line was rigged between the coal bunker and the furnace door to help the firemen keep their feet. Then it became so bad that two men supported the shovels to keep them from going down into hip deep water or lunging into the open fireboxes.

At last, before he went off duty at 8 Sunday night, a bucket brigade was passing coal from bunkers to furnace doors while bedroom stewards helped bail the boiler room.

Up to this time, Hampden said, no SOS had been sent out, although men had made the perilous journey from boiler room to bridge, after telephone communications went out, to keep Captain Carey informed of the situation.

Pampa Daily News

Published every evening (except Saturday) and on Sunday morning by the News-Warren Publishing Company, 1105 corner of West Foster and Boulevard.

The only newspaper adequately covering Pampa and Gray county events, and the Pampa, Oil Field.

PHILIP R. POND, Manager; OLIN E. HINKLE, Editor.

Entered as second-class matter March 25, 1927 at the post office at Pampa, Texas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches received by it or otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein.

All rights of reproduction of special dispatches herein are reserved.

SUBSCRIPTION RATE

Table with subscription rates for one year, six months, three months, and one month, including postage and handling charges.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing, or reputation of any individual, firm, concern, or corporation that may appear in the columns of the Pampa Daily News will be gladly corrected when called to the attention of the editor. It is not the intention of this newspaper to injure any individual, firm, or corporation, and corrections will be made when warranted, as promptly as was the wrongfully published reference or article.

Preparedness

What is preparedness for? if not for the worst?

The Vestris, ill-fated liner, was built in 1912. Probably she had been a most seaworthy craft. Her lifeboats had been like so many ornaments. The tackle which was provided to lower them rusted and caked over with disuse.

Came the day when real preparedness was vital and lack of it was tragic. The symbols of preparedness were there, but the boats were unseaworthy and the crew had forgotten the tactics in properly lowering them loaded. Criminal neglect showed up, because the captain had not prepared for the worst.

In speaking of preparedness, it is well to keep in mind what might happen should the worst appear suddenly on the horizon. As a nation, we must not merely keep the old symbols—army, navy, marines—of preparedness, in trim for battle, but also have the chemical and aviation units ready to the fullest degree.

This kind of national preparedness is not warlike. It is so closely allied to commercial pursuits that its relation to peace is equal to that of its relation to war. Preparedness must be for the worst to be adequate.

84th Still Needed

Although the 84th district court will automatically cease to exist soon after the January session of the legislature begins, it will be imperative that this judicial branch be continued, in some form. Well over a thousand important cases, from the standpoint of the plaintiffs, are on its docket. To permit the jurisdiction to lapse even for a few weeks would be detrimental and unjust.

The present concurrent jurisdiction of the 31st and 84th district courts is illogical. The growth of Pampa and Borgei places a heavy burden upon the district—a burden which must somehow be divided. Combination of Gray, Carson, Roberts, and Wheeler under one court and the other five counties, which include Hutchinson, in another district has been suggested. Whatever the plan, there should be some territorial division into two districts. And there is even talk of the creation of a third court for two years in order to clear the dockets. Justice is impossible under present conditions.

Proper action in the legislature will depend much upon the recommendations made to it. It is desirable, therefore, for barristers of this district to arrive at some recommendation before the legislature convenes. It should be possible to work out the solution without carrying conflicting bills to the floor of either house.

Speeding Debt Action

From the Indianapolis News. More than world war reparations is occupying the financial thought of Europe as a major problem. From various sources intimations are coming that a plan to speed the payment of debts owed the United States is receiving serious consideration. Funding accords, in effect with all the debtor countries, except France call for annuities extending over sixty-two years. It is no secret that the chancelleries are relying, in a considerable degree, on reparation receipts from Germany to offset their American requirements. The program concerned with reparations, as drafted by Charles G. Dawes and associates, contained a provision for the marketing of German railroad and industrial securities, if conditions permitted, the proceeds to be turned over to Germany's creditors.

In appraising both reparation and debt issues, the statesmen of the continent are hopeful that eventually, means will be found for consolidating all the war indebtedness and dealing with it in one giant operation. Judging from dispatches, however, there appears to be only slight expectancy that anything so comprehensive can be carried through to success now. What is described as an intermediary plan is contemplated first. The sale in the near future of possibly $1,000,000,000 of the total of $4,000,000,000 in German securities, authorized in the Dawes agreement, is suggested. This money would be used for discounting debt sums to be received by our treasury during the last twenty years of the sixty-two-year period. With the discount included, it is calculated that the action would remove twenty-five years from present annuity schedules. The German bonds, in the reparation arrangement, were to be redeemed over thirty-seven years. Thus the liquidation of debts owed the United States and the payment of reparations by Germany presumably would cover the same length of time. The total amount to be paid by Germany to her creditors, an item not yet settled, clearly will have to be fixed, probably within rather definite limits, as a prerequisite to the fulfillment of the intermediary plan, assuming that it is found to be practical. The latter is ingenious and worthy of study. Information that has become available hints at a willingness to figure on the assumption that the total of sums set in the funding pacts arranged with the United States are to be regarded as valid. Should this prove true in developments, our government will have won an important concession.

A Mississippi school house disappeared on the day before school opened. Any community that provides such a dinky school house for its young folks ought to have the thing carted to the nearest lake. If you start mailing your Christmas cards now, chances of overlooking someone will be relatively less.

TWINKLES

In the rearing and training of canaries, wonder why the smoke of a certain type of cigaret wouldn't be efficacious?

It is probably fortunate that the frowns of early manhood turn into the long-suffering expression of patience before the receding forehead increases its area several times.

The expenditures in this campaign indicate that we certainly shall never have another silent president—unless he wears his voice out.

Football is nearly over, but fancy neck twisting may also be seen at the cauliflower gardens.

Fred Howart of Canadian visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hobart, yesterday.

BARBS By NEA Service

Germany is to erect a monument to Baron Munchausen, her greatest liar. The honor has not been determined yet in this country; the campaign speakers have all been so good it's hard to decide.

Forty thousand dollars worth of brandy was found in a carload of horses' hooves, says a news item. A carload of Kicks.

A liberal was elected president in Nicaragua. All comments on the success of the election must be withheld until we find out whether the marines are coming home or more are going down.

The annual cost of crime in this country has mounted to $10,000,000,000. And nobody can say we aren't getting our money's worth.

Can She Ever Put "Humpty-Dumpty" Together Again?

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

COOKING SCHOOL NEWS Featherweight White CAKE. Includes ingredients list (Crisco, sugar, flour, baking powder, egg whites, milk, vanilla, salt) and instructions for preparation and frosting.

MOM POP Little Amy Solves a Weighty Problem By Cowan

FRECKLES and His FRIENDS Aw, Come On, Oscar! By Blosser

Saturday night 9 O'CLOCK

THE END OF A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY.

YOUR LAST CHANCE TO GET

100,000 Extra Votes

FOR EVERY $20 WORTH OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

WHAT TO DO FIRST

(1) Fill out the "Nomination Blank" and bring or mail it to the Contest Manager, Pampa Daily News Office. Then you will be given a contestant's receipt book and full instructions which will enable you to start right out after subscription votes. (2) Tell all your friends that you are out to win one of the big prize cars. Ask your friends to subscribe through you. Each subscription, either new or renewal counts thousands of votes. (3) Turn in your FIRST subscription, using First Subscription Coupon below and receive a start of more than 12,000 votes.

Rules and Regulations—How to Enter

Fill out the nomination blank opposite with your name or the name of the person to be nominated. Bring or mail this blank to the Campaign Manager and you will be credited with 2,000 votes as a starter. Any man or woman, either married or single, of good character may become a candidate in this campaign and is entitled to one nomination credit of 2,000 votes. The Campaign Manager reserves the right to reject objectionable nominations. There are no obligations attached to entering this campaign, and it costs absolutely nothing to try for a prize. No candidate will be permitted to transfer votes to another candidate after receiving them. No subscriptions for a period longer than three years will be accepted. In accepting nominations all contestants agree to abide by the conditions named. The Daily News reserves the right to place additional prizes on the list. All prizes will be delivered to winners at Pampa, Texas, just as soon as the winners are announced by the official judges. In case of a tie for any of the prizes, the candidates tying will receive prizes identical with the one tied for. This campaign closes Saturday, December 15 at 9 p. m. Subscriptions cannot be transferred. All subscriptions must be paid in cash before votes are issued. Every contestant who fails to win one of the regular prizes will receive 10 per cent of the total amount of money he or she has turned in.

THE DISTRICT PRIZES ONE OF EACH FOR EACH DISTRICT

FIRST

This Genuine Diamond ring, value

$225.00

5 GENUINE BULOVA WATCHES

Suitable for lady or gentleman

SECOND

This Bulova Watch value $60.00

PURCHASED FROM THE DIAMOND SHOP

THIRD

Bulova Watch Value $50.00

FIFTH

Bulova Watch Value $29.75

FOURTH

Bulova Watch Value $37.50

SIXTH

Bulova Watch Value $24.75

HOW PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED

The prizes will be given away absolutely free on December 15, 1928 in front of the Pampa Daily News office to the contestants polling highest number of votes by that time. Every car will be fully equipped with spare tire, bumpers, motorometer, rear view mirror, etc. THE CONTESTANT polling HIGHEST number of votes will receive the 1928 Model Silver Anniversary Buick costing $1,550.00. THEN the contestant in the OPPOSITE DISTRICT FROM WHICH THE BUICK IS WON may choose between the $778.00 Whippet Sedan and the $736.50 Chevrolet Coach. THEN the contestant in the opposite district from which the SECOND car is won, will receive the remaining car. After the winners of the automobiles have been decided the next highest contestant in each district will each receive one of the $225.00 genuine diamond rings. As one of the rings is a solitaire and the other contains three stones, the HIGHEST will have choice between the two. THEN the next highest contestant in each district will receive a $60 genuine Bulova Watch. THEN the next highest in each district will receive a $50 genuine Bulova watch. THEN the next highest in each district will receive a $37.50 genuine Bulova watch. THEN the next highest contestant in each district will receive a $29.75 genuine Bulova Watch, and the next highest in each district will receive a $24.75 genuine Bulova Watch.

VOTES BELOW WERE COUNTED AT 12 NOON TODAY

DISTRICT NO. 1		DISTRICT NO. 2
Mrs. Earl Blythe.....	65,580	Mrs. R. L. Kinzer.....	67,215
Miss Beth Blythe.....	63,560	Mrs. J. H. Kratzer.....	51,670
Mrs. F. G. Browne.....	66,040	Mrs. Nina McSkimming.....	63,560
Mrs. S. A. Burns.....	65,230	T. G. Nohers.....	65,708
Mrs. Lenora Ellington.....	55,020	Mrs. I. S. Reddick.....	67,420
Mrs. W. A. Gray.....	70,550	Henry Reynolds.....	65,000
Mrs. Maysel Harrod.....	68,150	Miss Ruth Rittenhouse.....	63,440
Mrs. Vera Jackson.....	69,710	Mrs. Willard E. Taylor.....	66,670
B. W. Kelley.....	68,420	Miss Catherine Vincent.....	70,650
Mrs. Clarence Kennedy.....	70,040	Mrs. J. M. Wright.....	57,730
		Mrs. J. Wynn.....	65,560
		Mrs. H. M. Anderson.....	68,630
		Mrs. W. D. Benton.....	69,380
		Mrs. Shirley Cox.....	42,000
		Mrs. P. M. Higgins.....	69,000
		Miss Anna Brown.....	65,620
		Mrs. Minnie McCollum.....	70,220
		Miss Arlyne Raser.....	68,000
		Andrew Stark.....	65,750
		Josephine Sparks.....	66,000
		Mrs. L. R. Taylor.....	62,380
		Mrs. E. L. Thomason.....	67,900

CAPITAL PRIZE

Silver Anniversary Buick . . . $1,550
Purchased from and on Display at Pampa Buick Motor Co., Inc.

GRAND PRIZE

Whippet Sedan, 1928 Model . . $778
Purchased from and on Display at McGarrity Motor Company

GRAND PRIZE

Chevrolet Coach, 1928 . . $736.50
Purchased From Culberson-Smalling Chevrolet Motor Company

NOMINATION BLANK

Good for 2,000 votes

Am a candidate in The Pampa Daily News $5000 Automobile Prize Campaign

Name of Candidate: _____

Address of Candidate: _____

Name of Contestant: _____

Address of Contestant: _____

Amount of Subscription: $ _____

Return this coupon to the Campaign Manager, with your first subscription and you will receive 10,000 extra votes in addition to regular votes as shown in the regular schedule.

FIRST SUBSCRIPTION COUPON

Good for 10,000 EXTRA VOTES

This coupon accompanied by the Nomination Blank and your first subscription will give you 10,000 extra votes, only one of these coupons will be credited to each candidate.

Name of Subscriber: _____

Address of Subscriber: _____

Candidate's Name: _____

Amount of Subscription: $ _____

Return this coupon to the Campaign Manager, with your first subscription and you will receive 10,000 extra votes in addition to regular votes as shown in the regular schedule.

Nurmi to Turn Coach to Assist Finland's Sports

By ALVAN J. GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(P)—The skeptical gentlemen who see the dollar sign in most athletic moves and counter-moves these days may be in for a shock when the celebrated phantom of Finland, Paavo Nurmi, returns to the United States in a few weeks for an indefinite visit.

The supposition that Paavo is coming over with the definite intention of turning professional, thereby capitalizing one of the greatest running careers of all time, is scouted by Hugo Quist. And Hugo ought to know. He is perhaps closer to Nurmi than anyone in this country. He managed the peerless one's famous tour here in 1925.

"Nurmi, so far as I know and I feel pretty sure of my ground, has not the slightest intention of turning pro. He probably will run in this country, a few races indoors, but his main idea is to make a concerted attack on outdoor distance records up to 25 kilometers next spring before ending his career as an amateur and as a runner."

"Nurmi is much interested in continuing the development of track athletics in Finland and considers he has reached a point where he can do more good by coaching than competing."

"Nurmi, I think, will spend a good deal of time here visiting colleges and schools to add to his knowledge of athletic training and development."

Coach Bell Has Three Teams Trying Out for Owls

FORT WORTH, Nov. 15.—With three teams vying from offense to defense, Coach Matty Bell was giving his squad heavy scrimmage this week, in preparation for the game with the Iowa Owls Saturday. Indications from the Houston school that the Wise Braves will be fighting with all the fury of an inspired team are making Bell uneasy for his team's safety. Fearing the natural let-down that might be anticipated after the disheartening one-point defeat at the hands of Baylor last Saturday, the Purple mentor is driving his charges at utmost speed.

Despite their first loss of the year, the Frogs are still contenders for the title and Purple followers are pointing out that they have just as good a chance as before. In order to earn a tie, the Frogs will have to defeat Rice, Texas and S. M. U. in order. Dopesters point out that the Frogs would have had to win these games anyhow to clinch the flag so that the loss to the Bruins does not affect their chances to a great degree.

Bell's squad came through the terrific battle with the Bears without injury, with Iver Reid, guard, who was forced from the game with an injured shoulder, having completely recovered.

Les Swafford, 200-pound reserve tackle, suffered a wrenched ankle in scrimmage the first part of the week and probably will not make the trip to Houston. Other than this injury, the entire Frog squad is ready for action.

It is rumored that Noble Atkins star 200-pound center for the Frogs, who has carried the brunt of the pivot work for the Purple this year, may get a rest Saturday. Clifton Bruce, a "find" at center, may open the fray. Jiroos, who has been playing tackle, became a pivot man over night. While on the practice field one day, the big Stamford lineman, ventured to the fact to Ed Kubale, Frog line mentor, that he might be able to throw the ball. And Bruce turned out to be a "natural." His stance over the ball the first time he tried to pass one proved that he had the knack, and ever since has been running at pivot on the second string.

Bruce is 21 years old and weighs in at 185, so now the Frogs have two centers who weigh close to 200 pounds. Bruce has been mastering the fine points of playing the pivot position and may get to start against the Owls. His rise to the position of second string pivot man in two weeks has been little less than phenomenal.

From indications, Ralph Walker, Cleburne, and Othol Martin, Jacksboro, will probably get the call at the wings, Saturday.

Fight Results

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK—George Courtney, Oklahoma, knocked out Paul Erski, Syracuse, N. Y., (8); George Hoffman, New York, outpointed Larry Benson, New York, (6).

DETROIT—Billy Shaw, Detroit, won on foul over Archie Bell, New York, (6); Jim O'Brien, Bridgeport, Conn., outpointed Chuck Minnella, Linton, Ind., (8).

BOSTON—Jack Britton, New York, outpointed Larry Brignola, Cambridge, Mass., (10); Tony Schmuco, Boston, outpointed Johnny Casper, Lansing, Mich., (8) Joe Cabana, Falmouth, Mass., knocked out Dan Zabul, Milwaukee, (4).

Mrs. R. W. Mitchell returned yesterday from a short visit with her brother, J. D. Coe, of Amarillo.

Big Star of Georgetown Eleven

RALPH DUPLIN

One of the strong teams of the east this fall is Lou Little's Georgetown eleven, and one of the strongest players of his outfit is Quarterback Ralph Duplin, shown here. Duplin's running and passing featured preliminary Georgetown victories this season. In one of the early games he returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown, a run of 92 yards.

Big Ten Honors May Not End in Saturday Games

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—(P)—The race for Big Ten championship honors won't be ended by the Iowa-Wisconsin game Saturday if Minnesota and Michigan succeed in their ambitions to scramble the conference standings.

Only a victory Saturday and another November 24 can insure either Iowa or Wisconsin a clear claim to the championship. A defeat for either or both would allow Ohio and Illinois a chance to tie for the title.

Whether Iowa or Wisconsin wins, they face later stumbling blocks. In Michigan and Minnesota, Iowa must meet Michigan's up and coming eleven, November 24, while Wisconsin faces a final game with its traditional rival, Minnesota, the same day.

With non-conference opponents carded for this week, Minnesota and Michigan have forgotten everything but the two championship contenders—Iowa and Wisconsin—and are working overtime for next week's games. Minnesota, especially, looks dangerous for its game against Wisconsin.

Mrs. M. A. Graham, Mrs. N. A. Heiland, and the latter's mother, Mrs. C. E. Housen of Denver, spent Tuesday in Amarillo.

Notre Dame May Humble Unbeaten Carnegie Tech

Fans throughout the country are awaiting with interest the result of the Carnegie Tech-Notre Dame clash at South Bend this Saturday. Although Knute Rockne's Irishmen took the short end of the score with Wisconsin and Georgia Tech, his squad then tightened up and beat the hitherto unbeaten Army by a touchdown.

Carnegie Tech, although unbeaten to date, has played only two games with Pitt and Georgetown, that rank among the major teams. Whether the Irishmen are weakened by their struggle with the Cadets last week remains to be seen. The two teams will probably line up as follows:

CARNEGIE TECH	NOTRE DAME
Rosenweig	E. Collins
Schmidt	LT
Lovewell	LT
Mielziner	LG
Dreshar	C
Highberger	RG
Sweet	RT
Harpeter	RE
Moorehead	QB
Flannagan	LH
Karcis	RH
	FE
	Towney
	Law
	Moyntian
	Leppig
	Miller
	Vezie
	Brady
	Chevigny
	Niemic
	F. Collins

GOLF HEAD NOMINATED
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(P)—The nominating committee of the United States Golf association has selected Findlay S. Douglas of New York to succeed Melvin Traylor of Chicago as president of the association.

Daily News' Want Ads bring results.

Harvesters to Leave Tomorrow for Game on Shamrock Field

The Pampa Harvesters will leave tomorrow morning for Shamrock, where they will play the first Irish football tomorrow afternoon. Shamrock was eliminated from the race by Memphis in a fluke game in which Shamrock outplayed the boys from Memphis. Coaches Mitchell and Fox will take their entire squad with them. It will be a hard battle, but the Harvesters will be smarting from their recent defeat at the hands of the Ferryton Rangers.

A number of local football fans plan to attend the game in Shamrock tomorrow.

A week from Friday, Coach Mitchell has arranged a game with the Canyon Eagles here. The Eagles were eliminated from the race two weeks ago by the fast Hereford White Faces.

The Eagles were without the services of Wiggins, their star pass receiver, who has been out of the game with a broken arm.

Thanksgiving will see the end of the football season here when Panhandle will play the Harvesters on the local field. Hereford eliminated Panhandle from the conference race last Friday afternoon by a one-touchdown margin.

MT. VESUVIUS ACTIVE

NAPLES, Nov. 15.—(P)—As the outpouring of molten lava from Mount Elms continued to diminish today, Mount Vesuvius became active. Incandescent matter was thrown out from an orifice at the base of the central cone from which it stopped last Aug. The eruptive activity was on the northwest side almost under the station of the cable railway running toward the summit.

Mrs. W. T. Fraser, Mrs. W. C. Upton, Mrs. Frank Catterton, and Mrs. P. O. Saunders attended a party in Wheeler yesterday afternoon.

Tradition Favored By Dope Doctors in Coming Games

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(P)—The games backed by age and tradition will have the call over those with nothing but the records of the present season behind them in the minds of Eastern football fans this week.

The Yale-Princeton encounter holds the center of the spotlight as the oldest of the traditional games. The series started in 1873 and Saturday's game will be the 52nd meeting. Yale has won 27 games against 15 for Princeton.

Princeton has a somewhat better record with four victories and two ties. Yale has been beaten by Army and Maryland. The season's record can be tossed aside when these two fight it out as they never count anything but what happens on the field in their own game.

Another series with dates back into the early days of football will be re-staged at Philadelphia between Pennsylvania and Columbia. They first met in 1870, playing a scoreless tie. Penn. after its smashing triumph over Har-

Tornadoes Strike Iowa Communities

VINTON, Iowa, Nov. 15.—(P)—Tornadoes dropped out of black skies in three separate localities of Northern Iowa yesterday causing damage that will run into many thousands of dollars.

Two twisters struck, one sweeping down about five miles south of Vinton, in Benton county, cutting a path 40 rods wide for 11 miles, then bounding, to drop on the farming community called Silver Creek, 20 miles northeast.

The other tornado, at about the same hour, struck at Chester, 90 miles northwest of Silver Creek.

When the first twister took its dive at Silver Creek, it caused the death of Mrs. Alpha Hawinson, 30, when it crushed the barn in which she was milking. That was the only casualty reported there, but two farmsteads were completely demolished, and about a score others damaged, much livestock was killed and trees and telephone poles were laid flat. Damage in that vicinity was estimated at $75,000 or more.

Ralph Dodd of Amarillo, scout for the Gulf Production company, spent yesterday in this city.

A DOLLAR'S WORTH

Clip this coupon and mail it with $1 for a six weeks' trial subscription to

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

Published by THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PUBLISHING SOCIETY
Boston, Massachusetts, U. S. A.

If it will add the daily good news of the world from its 750 special writers, as well as departments devoted to women's and children's interests, sports, music, education, radio, etc. You will be glad to welcome into your home so fearless an advocate of peace and prohibition. And don't miss Stouls our dog and the Sunday and other features.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR, Back Bay Station, Boston, Mass.
Please send me a six weeks' trial subscription. I enclose one dollar ($1).

(Name, please print)

(Address)

(City)

(State)

...because it gives the best results...

the World's Greatest Baking Powder was used in the demonstrations at the

DAILY NEWS FREE COOKING SCHOOL

Famous chefs and domestic science experts always strive for the best in bakings. They never guess. Every ingredient selected and used for their bakings must measure up to the highest known standard.

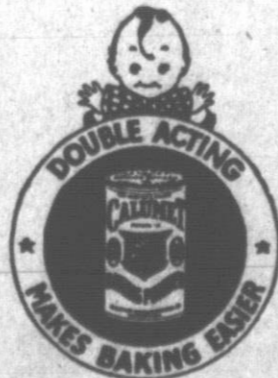

That's why

CALUMET
THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

is the preference of millions today—it makes good in every baking test—produces the purest foods at the most economical cost.

LESS THAN 1¢ PER BAKING

Calumet possesses two leavening units: one begins to work when the dough is mixed; the other waits for the heat of the oven—then both units work together. This double action provides double protection and leavens food thoroughly. Makes bakings more palatable and easier to digest.

The whites of more than 6,500,000 eggs are used in the manufacture of Calumet Baking Powder each year.

SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

36
Phone for the Repair Man

AUTOMOBILE General Repairing, cylinders honed, batteries charged, generator and starter work, vulcanizing and tube work. We service all makes. Located two blocks south of Schenelder hotel on Craven Avenue. Craven Avenue Motor Co. FRANK DITTMAYER, Prop. Phone 559	BROKEN GLASS replaced by 650 PAMPA GLASS WORKS Glass for every purpose PHONE 142 Residence Phone 656	650 LEATHER GOODS Anything in leather repaired—Suitcase and Bag work, Oil Field Harness, Novelty Goods, Saddles Repaired. Auto Curtains Repaired. A-No. 1 Isen Glass used. FRANK CHANCE HARNESS SHOP First Block South Cuyler
AUTOMOBILE Wrecker service, general repairing, automotive electrical work, batteries repaired and charged. G. H. McALISTER REPAIR SHOP Just West of American Legion Hall. Phone 515	650 BOILERS For boiler repair work and welding call Economy Boiler &amp; Welding Works Phone 225 West Foster Ave., opposite Schafer Hotel	650 PAINTING Automobile tops and bodies repaired and painted. Curtains, seat covers and upholstery. Pampa Top and Body Works 590 West Foster Phone 686
650 GENERAL AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING On all makes of automobiles. Repairing, Reconditioning, Re-boring cylinders of all makes. Reasonable Prices THUT-SAUNDERS MOTOR CO. Phone 511	650 FURNITURE REPAIRING, Refinishing Upholstering Old Furniture made new by expert workmen. Phone 181 G. C. Malone Furniture Co.	650 PIPE THREADING General Machine Work 24-hour Service when You Need It. PHONE 343 JONES-EVERETT MACHINE CO.
650 Kirk's BATTERY &amp; ELECTRIC SHOP Prestolite Batteries 11 Plate.....$8.75 13 Plate $10 and.....$12.50 Auto Electric Repairing 11-2 Blocks West and 1-3 Block South of Post Office Phone 218	650 GENERATORS, Starter and ignition work, Armatures re-wound, batteries repaired and charged. Keahn Electric Shop West Foster Avenue Phone 346	650 RADIO REPAIRING ACCESSORIES EXCLUSIVE KOLSTER Dealer RADIO NEWS STAND Magazines : : : : Papers Cigars : : : : Candy
650 LONG BATTERY AND AUTO ELECTRIC We specialize on batteries, starters, generators, magnetos. Authorized Willard Service Phone 182 East Kingsmill Ave.	650 GREASING, Pampa's most modern High Pressure Greasing Service. Puts the grease where it should be. Federal Tires Guaranteed Tire Repairing Pampa Lubrication (Opposite Corner Pampa Daily News Building)	650 RADIATORS Also fenders and bodies repaired—built to order. Radiators cleaned, doors adjusted. Eagle Radiator Shop 556 W. Foster Phone 547

Pampa Daily News CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Rates and Information Please Your Want Ad to

All Want Ads are cash in advance. They must be paid before they will be inserted. Want Ads may be 10¢ per line for insertion and a collector will call.

Rates: Two cents per word per insertion; three insertions for five cents; minimum, twenty-five cents per insertion.

Out of town advertising cash with order.

The Daily News reserves the right to classify all Want Ads under appropriate headings and to refuse or withhold from publication any copy deemed objectionable or misleading. Notice of any error must be given in time for correction before second insertion.

For Rent

FOR RENT—Two-room cottages with garage, 2 blocks west from end of S. Cuyler St. paving. Latham Co'tages. 7-122p

FOR RENT—Bedroom, outside entrance next to bath, close in. See Ed W. Jones, Oil Belt Grocery. 14-31

FOR RENT—Bedroom, private entrance, connecting bath. Call phone 178. 14-3p

FOR RENT—12x24 home, new, furnished or unfurnished. P. B. Moonry, Phone 312, Maynard Hotel. 14-1p

FOR RENT—Duplex. One block North of school house. Ivy, E. Duncan. 13-1c

FOR RENT—Modern two-room furnished apartment. Phone 135. 14-2th

FOR RENT—Extra nice, large bedroom, adjoining bath in private home 708 North Frost. 97-4

PAMPA BUNGALETTE COURT—Electric washer, showers, convenient prices reasonable. 10-50t

FOR RENT—Brick store room 19x68. Inquire at Jitney Junction, 375 South Cuyler, Phone 470. 10-1t

FOR RENT—Four or five room apartment furnished, close in, or would consider renting whole house (eight rooms). J. L. Leary, North Grace st. or Pampa High school. 10-6p

FOR RENT—Furnished light housekeeping rooms. All modern with sink in kitchen. Phone 728-W. 13-2c

FOR RENT—Two light house-keeping rooms. Modern, adjoining bath. Mrs. J. E. Corson, 515 East Francis. 13-3c

FOR RENT—Three room Duplex and garage 628 N. Grace. Also Truck for trade. 12-3p

FOR RENT—Small three room house. Sheetrock inside. $30.00 per month. Geo. E. May, Davis Hotel. 12-3p

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment over the Coca-Cola Bottling Works. Phone 278. 12-3c

FOR RENT—Furnished two-room house. Modern, close in. 418 North Houston. Mrs. Thom. 12-3p

FOR RENT—Two-room apartment, everything furnished. Go to end of Starkweather, North and turn to right, house No. 509. 12-3p

FOR RENT—Small two-room cottage in Talley Addition on Highway. Water and Gas. See Mrs. Parsons across street from Foxworth Lumber Co. 12-3p

For Sale

FOR SALE—1927 Master Buick. Readers, good condition worth the money. Pampa Buick Co. Inc. 14-2c

FOR SALE—1928 Buick Standards Coupe. Bargain that we do not have often. Pampa Buick Co. Inc. 14-2c

FOR SALE—Small lunch room, doing good business. Inquire Kumbak Lunch LeFors, Texas. 13-3p

FOR SALE—1927 Dodge Coupe, a real bargain. Pampa Buick Co. Inc. 14-2c

FOR SALE—1926 Buick Master Coupe, an unusual good purchase. Pampa Buick Co. Inc. 14-2c

FOR SALE—1928 model Chevrolet Coupe. Been run 8,400 miles. In A-1 condition. Good rubber. See Pirtle a Pampa Daily News. 3-4t

FOR SALE—1927 Oakland Sedan, unusual good purchase. Pampa Buick Co. Inc. 14-2c

For Sale

FOR SALE—1928 Buick Standard Coupe, new car guarantee, nice discount, new car taken in on larger Buick. Pampa Buick Co. Inc. 14-2c

FOR SALE—Best bunch of used cars that you very seldom get to select a real good used car from, at prices you will find unusually low. A good used car is better than a new cheap one. We have all kinds priced right. Pampa Buick Co. Inc. 14-2c

Wanted

WANTED—Work as housekeeper and Cook. Prefer place on ranch. Call at La Fonda Cottage Court, room 24. 14-3p

WORK WANTED—By married man, 25; anything considered; best references. Notify Clarence Simmons, Jones-Everett Machine Shop. 14-3p

WANTED—Thirty-five men. Skelly Oil company. Apply at plant site, 1 mile north and 5 west. 13-3p

HELP WANTED—Carpenter work in exchange for first payment on automobile. Phone 666. Jones. 14-3p

CONTRACT your building, turn key job. Big or little estimate and plans. You must be satisfied. Box XY Pampa News. 10-6p

WANTED—Office work, experienced bookkeeper. Some typing. Address C. E. Care Pampa News. 12-6p

Miscellaneous

PERSONAL—Mr. Hall/Volts will find Mrs. Jesse Volts at Tulsa Rooms, Pampa, Texas. 13-3p

ASK DELAY IN PROBE

McAllen, Nov. 15—(AP)—Several thousand members of the Citizens-Republican party in a mass meeting here last night adopted a resolution urging the election committee at Washington to postpone its hearing on alleged election irregularities in Hidalgo county until those who had asked for the investigation had had time to collect evidence and sent a representative to Washington to present their side of the case.

Look Soda 20 Years For Gas—Stops Now

"For 20 years I took soda for indigestion and stomach gas. One bottle of Adlerika brought me complete relief."—J. B. Hardy.

Adlerika relieves stomach gas and scurries in TEN minutes. Acting on POCKET upper and lower bowel, it removes old waste matter you never thought was in your system. Let Adlerika give your stomach and bowels a REAL cleansing and see how much better you feel. It will surprise you! Pampa Drug Store

For More Eggs

Merit Egg Mash

Stark & McMillen

"A Complete Feed Store"

Phone 205

FOR SALE

4-room and bath, modern. Kitchen cabinet, linen closet, ironing board, etc. Just completed in April. $2500. $500 will handle.

4 rooms and bath, modern, 3 blocks from H. S. Small rental house at rear. $3,600. $500 down.

4-rooms and bath in North Add. East front. $2700. $250 cash.

1-room house furnished. 50 ft. lot. $500. $100 down.

Living-room, furnished, and garage. $800. $100 down.

3 room duplex, 8 blocks west of H. S. Garage. $3200. $250 will handle.

3 room strictly modern house. Oak floors. Double garage. Small house on rear. One block from H. S. $4800. Terms.

6 room modern. Corner lot. Fireplace, built-in kitchen. A really beautiful home. $5500.

Beautiful home on Somerville. 5 rooms, garage and servants quarters. 3 blocks from H. S. Attractive grounds. $4800. Terms.

Duplex, 2 rooms each side. Bath. Garage. $2900. Terms.

Duplex with 2 Murphy beds on each side. Present and back porches. Well built. Double garage, close in. Income $100 per mo. $3500.

Duplex, 3 rooms and bath each side. Small house in rear. Income, $100 per mo. Can be bought for $4500. Terms.

Close in 4 room house, modern except bath fixtures. Also 3 houses on an east front lot. Income about $100 per mo. A splendid buy at $3500.

BUSINESS PROPERTY FOR SALE

Hotel 18 rooms, good income. Entire property can be bought for $5500.

Brick building with $550 income per mo. can be bought on terms. $26000. This is one of Pampa's best business properties.

Store room, 24x80 on South Cuyler. $3600.

Billing Station, tire shop and garage. North side on pavement. Can be bought for $2500.

Filling Station in country, on main road, doing good business. Can be bought for $400.

One of Pampa's good hotels, with income of around $1000 per mo. can be bought for $21,000.

LOTS

Lots in restricted districts, $250 and up.

Lots in unrestricted districts, $25 and up.

RENTALS

4 rooms, bath and garage. Entirely modern. Furnished. $60.

5 rooms strictly modern, unfurnished. Garage. $65.

Garage and garage apartment of 3 rooms and shower bath. $45.

One room, furnished, $25. 2 room house, unfurnished, $20.

F. C. WORKMAN

Morris Drug Store

Phone 371

Amarillo Convict Shot by Guard

HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 15—(AP)—An attempt by two convicts to escape from guards at Goree prison farm near here yesterday resulted in the death of W. C. Folsom, under five-year sentence from Amarillo for a filling station robbery.

Folsom died almost instantly when shot twice by Arthur Thomas, guard.

Thomas fired after he had ordered Folsom to halt and the man shouted: "I don't have to stop. Go ahead and shoot."

When shot Folsom was walking toward Gus Grey, dog sergeant at the Goree farm. He was carrying tobacco, which, guards said, he probably had intended to throw in Grey's eyes.

NOTICE

TO ALL OWNING OR CLAIMING ANY PROPERTY ABUTTING UPON THE HEREINAFTER MENTIONED PORTIONS OF ALLEYS IN THE CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS AND TO ALL OWNING OR CLAIMING ANY INTEREST IN ANY SUCH PROPERTY:

The Governing Body of the City of Pampa, has ordered that the hereinbelow mentioned alleys be improved by raising, grading and filling and paving with six inch plain concrete pavement, together with incidentals and appurtenances, and contract has been made and entered into with Stuckey Construction Company for the making and construction of such improvements. Estimate of the cost of such improvements for each such portion of alley of highway has been prepared.

The portions of alleys or highways to be improved, together with the estimated cost of the improvements for each such portion of alley or highway, and the amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against the abutting property and the owners thereof, on each such portion of alleys, are as follows:

Alley in block 4 from its intersection with the North property line of Atchison Avenue to its intersection with the South property line of Foster Avenue, known and designated as Unit or District No. 44, estimated cost of improvements is $1849.33 total estimated amount per front foot to be assessed against abutting property and owners thereof is $2.774. There is no assessment for curb as curbs are not to be constructed in this unit.

Alley in Block 15 from its intersection with the North property line of Foster Avenue to its intersection with the South property line of Kingsmill Avenue, known and designated as Unit or District No. 45, estimated cost of the improvements is $1769.33 total estimated amount per front foot to be assessed against abutting property and owners thereof is $2.65023. There is no assessment for curb as curbs are not to be constructed in this unit.

Alley in Block 16 from its intersection with the North property line of Foster Avenue to its intersection with the South property line of Kingsmill Avenue, known and designated as Unit or District No. 46, estimated cost of the improvements is $1780.33 total estimated amount per front foot to be assessed against abutting property and owners thereof is $2.6705. There is no assessment for curb as curbs are not to be constructed in this unit.

The paving on alleys above set forth shall be six inch plain concrete pavement.

Said alleys are to be improved by raising, grading, and filling and paving with six inch plain concrete pavement, together with incidentals and appurtenances, as provided in the plans and specifications prepared by the Engineer for said City and now on file with the City.

A hearing will be given and held by and before the Governing Body of the City of Pampa, Texas, on the 26th day of Nov. A. D. 1928, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. in the City Hall in the City of Pampa, Texas, to all owning or claiming any property abutting upon said portions of alleys and highways, and to all owning or claiming any interest in any such property. At said time and place all owning or claiming any such abutting property, or any interest therein shall be and appear and will be fully heard concerning said improvements the cost thereof, the amounts to be assessed therefor, the benefits to the respective parcels of abutting property by means of the improvements on the portion of alley highway upon which the property abuts, and concerning the regularity, validity and sufficiency of the contract for, and all proceedings relating to such improvements, and proposed assessment therefor, and concerning any matter as to which they are entitled to hearing under the law in force in the city and under the proceedings of the City with reference to

ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale. Evelyn gave her hand a squeeze. The encouraging clasp helped Jerry to hold back the words of anger that were on the tip of her tongue.

She walked over to the place where a number of girls were forming in line and joined them without even a glance at her tormentor. But she did look quickly down at the seats beyond the footlights. All were empty as far back as she could see. She was thankful that Alester hadn't witnessed the scene that had just taken place. She hoped he'd stay away altogether on this occasion.

MR. HULE snapped out a few words. The music struck up and the stage director came over to stand before the line.

"Watch me," he ordered, and began to execute a few simple dance steps. Jerry kept her eyes on his feet.

"Now altogether, begin," he shouted, and the girls attempted to imitate his dancing.

As Jerry said to Myrtle that night: "Then the fun began—only it wasn't fun."

It was work. Hard work. It had to be done over and over again, and then again, long after Jerry believed she couldn't lift a foot another time even to spite Mr. Hule.

She thought of the night she and Myrtle had stood at their window and watched across the back yard while girls at other windows practiced dance steps. Jerry knew they must belong to a show. She could see others behind them in ing or claiming any interest in any such property. At said time and place all owning or claiming any such abutting property, or any interest therein shall be and appear and will be fully heard concerning said improvements the cost thereof, the amounts to be assessed therefor, the benefits to the respective parcels of abutting property by means of the improvements on the portion of alley highway upon which the property abuts, and concerning the regularity, validity and sufficiency of the contract for, and all proceedings relating to such improvements, and proposed assessment therefor, and concerning any matter as to which they are entitled to hearing under the law in force in the city and under the proceedings of the City with reference to

ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale. Evelyn gave her hand a squeeze. The encouraging clasp helped Jerry to hold back the words of anger that were on the tip of her tongue.

She walked over to the place where a number of girls were forming in line and joined them without even a glance at her tormentor. But she did look quickly down at the seats beyond the footlights. All were empty as far back as she could see. She was thankful that Alester hadn't witnessed the scene that had just taken place. She hoped he'd stay away altogether on this occasion.

MR. HULE snapped out a few words. The music struck up and the stage director came over to stand before the line.

"Watch me," he ordered, and began to execute a few simple dance steps. Jerry kept her eyes on his feet.

"Now altogether, begin," he shouted, and the girls attempted to imitate his dancing.

As Jerry said to Myrtle that night: "Then the fun began—only it wasn't fun."

It was work. Hard work. It had to be done over and over again, and then again, long after Jerry believed she couldn't lift a foot another time even to spite Mr. Hule.

She thought of the night she and Myrtle had stood at their window and watched across the back yard while girls at other windows practiced dance steps. Jerry knew they must belong to a show. She could see others behind them in ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale. Evelyn gave her hand a squeeze. The encouraging clasp helped Jerry to hold back the words of anger that were on the tip of her tongue.

She walked over to the place where a number of girls were forming in line and joined them without even a glance at her tormentor. But she did look quickly down at the seats beyond the footlights. All were empty as far back as she could see. She was thankful that Alester hadn't witnessed the scene that had just taken place. She hoped he'd stay away altogether on this occasion.

MR. HULE snapped out a few words. The music struck up and the stage director came over to stand before the line.

"Watch me," he ordered, and began to execute a few simple dance steps. Jerry kept her eyes on his feet.

"Now altogether, begin," he shouted, and the girls attempted to imitate his dancing.

As Jerry said to Myrtle that night: "Then the fun began—only it wasn't fun."

It was work. Hard work. It had to be done over and over again, and then again, long after Jerry believed she couldn't lift a foot another time even to spite Mr. Hule.

She thought of the night she and Myrtle had stood at their window and watched across the back yard while girls at other windows practiced dance steps. Jerry knew they must belong to a show. She could see others behind them in ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale. Evelyn gave her hand a squeeze. The encouraging clasp helped Jerry to hold back the words of anger that were on the tip of her tongue.

She walked over to the place where a number of girls were forming in line and joined them without even a glance at her tormentor. But she did look quickly down at the seats beyond the footlights. All were empty as far back as she could see. She was thankful that Alester hadn't witnessed the scene that had just taken place. She hoped he'd stay away altogether on this occasion.

MR. HULE snapped out a few words. The music struck up and the stage director came over to stand before the line.

"Watch me," he ordered, and began to execute a few simple dance steps. Jerry kept her eyes on his feet.

"Now altogether, begin," he shouted, and the girls attempted to imitate his dancing.

As Jerry said to Myrtle that night: "Then the fun began—only it wasn't fun."

It was work. Hard work. It had to be done over and over again, and then again, long after Jerry believed she couldn't lift a foot another time even to spite Mr. Hule.

She thought of the night she and Myrtle had stood at their window and watched across the back yard while girls at other windows practiced dance steps. Jerry knew they must belong to a show. She could see others behind them in ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale. Evelyn gave her hand a squeeze. The encouraging clasp helped Jerry to hold back the words of anger that were on the tip of her tongue.

She walked over to the place where a number of girls were forming in line and joined them without even a glance at her tormentor. But she did look quickly down at the seats beyond the footlights. All were empty as far back as she could see. She was thankful that Alester hadn't witnessed the scene that had just taken place. She hoped he'd stay away altogether on this occasion.

MR. HULE snapped out a few words. The music struck up and the stage director came over to stand before the line.

"Watch me," he ordered, and began to execute a few simple dance steps. Jerry kept her eyes on his feet.

"Now altogether, begin," he shouted, and the girls attempted to imitate his dancing.

As Jerry said to Myrtle that night: "Then the fun began—only it wasn't fun."

It was work. Hard work. It had to be done over and over again, and then again, long after Jerry believed she couldn't lift a foot another time even to spite Mr. Hule.

She thought of the night she and Myrtle had stood at their window and watched across the back yard while girls at other windows practiced dance steps. Jerry knew they must belong to a show. She could see others behind them in ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale. Evelyn gave her hand a squeeze. The encouraging clasp helped Jerry to hold back the words of anger that were on the tip of her tongue.

She walked over to the place where a number of girls were forming in line and joined them without even a glance at her tormentor. But she did look quickly down at the seats beyond the footlights. All were empty as far back as she could see. She was thankful that Alester hadn't witnessed the scene that had just taken place. She hoped he'd stay away altogether on this occasion.

MR. HULE snapped out a few words. The music struck up and the stage director came over to stand before the line.

"Watch me," he ordered, and began to execute a few simple dance steps. Jerry kept her eyes on his feet.

"Now altogether, begin," he shouted, and the girls attempted to imitate his dancing.

As Jerry said to Myrtle that night: "Then the fun began—only it wasn't fun."

It was work. Hard work. It had to be done over and over again, and then again, long after Jerry believed she couldn't lift a foot another time even to spite Mr. Hule.

She thought of the night she and Myrtle had stood at their window and watched across the back yard while girls at other windows practiced dance steps. Jerry knew they must belong to a show. She could see others behind them in ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale. Evelyn gave her hand a squeeze. The encouraging clasp helped Jerry to hold back the words of anger that were on the tip of her tongue.

She walked over to the place where a number of girls were forming in line and joined them without even a glance at her tormentor. But she did look quickly down at the seats beyond the footlights. All were empty as far back as she could see. She was thankful that Alester hadn't witnessed the scene that had just taken place. She hoped he'd stay away altogether on this occasion.

MR. HULE snapped out a few words. The music struck up and the stage director came over to stand before the line.

"Watch me," he ordered, and began to execute a few simple dance steps. Jerry kept her eyes on his feet.

"Now altogether, begin," he shouted, and the girls attempted to imitate his dancing.

As Jerry said to Myrtle that night: "Then the fun began—only it wasn't fun."

It was work. Hard work. It had to be done over and over again, and then again, long after Jerry believed she couldn't lift a foot another time even to spite Mr. Hule.

She thought of the night she and Myrtle had stood at their window and watched across the back yard while girls at other windows practiced dance steps. Jerry knew they must belong to a show. She could see others behind them in ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

ing her of his temper. Of course he was said to direct their thoughts against girls who came under his authority through influence rather than talent, but Jerry was glad, nevertheless, that Evelyn hadn't been idle late on her account.

She wondered what she would have done if she'd had to fight her way alone—and obviously you had to stand up to your rights here.

Evelyn led her over to a group of girls who were standing near a tall, thin, stooped man in rolled-up sleeves, his collar open on a hairy chest.

"Is that Mr. Hule?" Jerry whispered.

"Oh, haven't you met him?" Evelyn turned to regard her curiously. "Who engaged you?" she asked as Jerry shook her head negatively.

"Mr. Weinertz."

Evelyn's face became shadowed.

"Then you must be prepared for Mr. Hule to be disagreeable to you," she said quickly. "But don't let him see that you mind. Do just as he tells you. The girls he picks out are ahead of the others, if they can keep their tempers," she added, dropping her voice.

The stage director turned upon them. He had heard of Jerry—had been looking for her among the other girls.

"Well, you didn't have the nerve to let me see the first morning, did you?" he said with a sneer. "I see you've dressed in a hurry. Pull those shorts up so you won't look like a clown and get over there at the end of that line."

Jerry faced about, even her lips gone pale

CRESCENT
"Pampa's Leading Playhouse"
The Home of Paramount Pictures

Today—Last Time
"DRIFTWOOD"
with Don Alvarado

TOMORROW
Adolphe Menjou in
"HIS PRIVATE LIFE"
(A Paramount Picture)

COMING
CLARA BOW

Gray County's Best

TODAY
Norma Talmadge in
"Woman Disputed"

Tomorrow
"BUCK PRIVATES"
Also
3 ACTS BIG TIME
VAUDEVILLE

CONTEST—
(Continued From Page 1)

ing with frenzied enthusiasm, determined to roll up as big a score as possible by the time the offer expires.

Keenly alert to the tremendous possibilities of the great offer, contestants in the country division (District No. 2) are beginning to make those in Pampa sit up and take notice. In fact, developments of the past week indicate that Pampa contestants are going to have to go some if they intend to keep the Buick in town.

There is, of course, no limit to the number of times any contestant can earn the 100,000 extra vote bonus. It comes with every $20 turned in, and on Saturday, the campaign manager will total the amounts turned in by each contestant from the beginning, and issue all extra votes at one time.

Changes in the vote standing are beginning to come with lightning like rapidity as first one contestant and then another takes the lead in the great race for reward and honor. There are no more dull moments in this campaign, and everyone is now on their toes, fully resolved to get his or her share of the good things to come. Votes are coming from everywhere, and since the free vote coupon was discontinued, contestants in both districts have turned their attention wholly to subscriptions which count so much more.

The big offer will close promptly at 9 o'clock Saturday night. All subscriptions to be applied on it MUST be in the campaign office at the News Building by that hour. The doors of the office will close and be locked and no one will be admitted with subscriptions to count on the offer after that. All those inside at that time however, will be walked upon.

Pampa Social News
BY MISS WILLETTE COLE
PHONE 666

Social Calendar
Thursday

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the Legion home.

The Methodist Women's Missionary society will meet at the church at 1 o'clock, the meeting having been postponed from Wednesday because of the banquet to be served by the class Wednesday evening.

The Ace High bridge club meets at 2:15 o'clock in the home of Mrs. F. A. Hollenbeck.

Mrs. Porter Malone will entertain the London Bridge club and has announced the game to begin at 2:30 o'clock.

The Friendship class of the Methodist Sunday school will hold a social meeting in the class room at 3 o'clock. All members of the class are invited to attend.

Friday

There will be a regular meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star at 7 p. m. Mrs. Don Wakeman will be hostess to the Just We bridge club. The game opens at 3 o'clock.

The Just We bridge club will meet in the home of Mrs. J. H. Lutz, instead of in the home Mrs. Don Wakeman, as it was previously announced.

Saturday

The Junior Girls' Auxiliary of the Baptist church will hold its second meeting and complete its organization at the home of Mrs. D. H. Truhitte. All girls from nine to twelve years of age are invited to attend the meeting, which opens at 2:30 o'clock.

Baptist W. M. U. Circles Meet in Homes of Members

The Baptist Women's Missionary Society met yesterday in circles, with mission study leaders in charge of the programs at the four meetings. All members who attended the meetings took part in general discussions of the lesson topics. The gatherings were held in homes of members, and he study hour was followed, in each case, by a pleasant social period.

Circle No. 1 met in the home of Mrs. Ernest Medkief. Mrs. T. B. Solomon and conducted an interesting lesson from "Today's Supreme Challenge to America," a book on missions.

Mrs. Roy McMillen was hostess to Circle No. 2, at a meeting in the home of Mrs. G. C. Stark. Thirteen members were present. Mrs. Robert Mitchell, circle chairman, presided during a short business session. A lesson from "Stewardship and Missions" was led by Mrs. E. G. Barrett.

Mrs. S. L. Anderson was in charge of the program at the meeting of Circle No. 3. Nineteen members took part in the discussion on a chapter of "The Life of Jesus." The meeting was held in Mrs. T. D. Moulder's home.

The work of the field missionary was studied by members of Circle No. 4, who met in the home of Mrs. D. H. Truhitte. Mrs. Truhitte conducted the lesson in "Only a Missionary." Seven members attended the business meeting and shared in the discussion of the program topic.

Mrs. Tom Perkins left Tuesday afternoon for an extended visit with relatives in Augusta, Kan.

New Presbyterian Pastor to Arrive for Sunday Sermons

It is expected that the Rev. A. A. Hyde of Deport, will be here Sunday to take over the pulpit at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Hyde was recently called by the local congregation after preaching here. Mrs. Hyde and family will move to Pampa next week according to a letter received from Mr. Hyde.

There will be choir practice at the church tonight at 7:30 o'clock and a full attendance is urged. George W. Briggs will be in charge of the choir. New music has been secured and good music will be featured at the local church in the future.

White Eagle Oil Test Looks Good

Following a shot of 265 quarts placed Tuesday afternoon the White Eagle Oil company's No. 1 Shaw in the southwest corner of the northwest quarter of section 5, block 1, A. C. H. and B. survey, has the appearance of a good producer. Although 35 feet of bottom clearing out, the well is making 100 barrels a day. Before the shot the well was only producing 5 barrels a day.

The shot was placed from 2,695 to 2,845 feet.

Pay was encountered in the Midwest Exploration company's No. 2

Holmes in section 86, block 3, four miles south of here, yesterday afternoon. Although pay has just been touched the well is making 11 barrels an hour, on the swab.

The Magnolia Oil company's No. 2 Harrah in section 160, block 3, west of here, encountered a pay yesterday at 3,228 feet. Latest reports received here stated that there was 1,700 feet of oil in the hole.

Needed Equipment Is Pointed Out by School Inspector

In an official report to the state department of education, following her recent inspection of the schools in the Pampa independent school district, Miss Katherine Henderson, supervisor, commended the citizens and school authorities for keeping pace with the rapid growth of the city in providing adequate buildings and other physical equipment, and praised teachers and students for the high grade of work that is being done in all departments.

Copies of the official report to the department were received this week by Supt. R. C. Campbell and C. T. Hunkpiller, president of the local board of trustees.

Markets

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Wheat: No. 2 hard 1.19 1-4& 1-2; 3 hard 1.17. Corn: No. 4 mixed 82; No. 4 yellow 82@84

Legion to Collect Clothing for Needy

The American Legion post No. 334 Pampa will have a part in making Christmas comfortable for some people who will be unable to properly clothe themselves. At a called meeting Tuesday night the post went on record as endorsing the plan of collecting clothing and distributing it before Christmas.

Collection will not be for children only, but for adults as well. There are many families in the city who are in need of clothing and members of the local post feel that they will be doing their bit with the other clubs of the city in making the holidays pleasant for some of the needy in the city.

The post also planned to organize a Boy Scout troop or troops in the near future. P. E. Boyd and Warren T. Fox were appointed by Commander F. M. Culbertson to attend the training school to be organized here in the near future to train leaders and Scout masters.

Disturbed Sleep is Nature's Signal of Danger Ahead

Mrs. J. W. Bushong, Bloomington, Ill. says, "Come or write to 1012 S. East St. and I will tell you my full experience with Lithiated Buchu. (Keller Formula). Often was disturbed 20 times a night." It acts on bladder as epsom salts do on bowels. Drives out foreign deposits and lessens excessive acidity. This relieves the irritation that causes getting up nights. The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores, Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio or locally at Fatheree Drug Co.—Adv.

NOTICE

We will not be responsible for any bills unless accompanied by Requisition signed by Dan McNaughton or delivery slips signed by Earl Stuckey, C. A. Stuckey, W. A. Stuckey or Grace Higgins.

STUCKEY CONSTRUCTION Co. 13-61

Let Us Bond and Insure You

BONDS INSURANCE AGENCY LOANS

Office in Brunow Building
Phone 531

60 2160

CLEARANCE

of Furniture Remnants

In moving we have found hundreds of furniture remnants—odds and ends—things of real value—lamps, tables, chairs, rugs, suites, smokers, pillows, magazine racks, etc. Every piece is a part of our standard stock, but we have already made a complete purchase for our new store so we are going to dispose of these extra pieces right now!

Drastic Reductions

Half Price! Less Than Half Price! They're Give-Away Prices to Our Customers!!!

If there's an odd piece of furniture that you've wanted you can well afford to get it now! When Malone says "SALE" or "CLEARANCE" you can rely that prices have been forgotten—Our sole purpose of this sale is to clear the floor for new shipments!!!

Included in this Remnant Sale are a few used pieces of furniture, but most of it is brand new merchandise that we have received within the last few weeks. Everything included in the sale will be displayed so that you can examine it thoroughly.

SALE OPENS FRIDAY NOV. 16!

ALL REMNANTS WILL BE ON DISPLAY AND SOLD AT THE OLD STORE BUILDING ON CUYLER ST.

G. C. MALONE

Furniture Company

"YES! YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD"

What makes CONOCO-ETHYL BETTER

IN the first place, Conoco Ethyl Gasoline is a better motor fuel because its base is Conoco, the triple-test gasoline—and Conoco has set the standard of gasoline quality for over 40 years.

Then, to make Conoco Ethyl, Conoco Gasoline is expertly blended with Ethyl Brand of Anti-Knock Compound, the remarkable fluid developed by General Motors after more than seven years of exhaustive research.

The combination of Conoco and Ethyl produces a motor fuel unsurpassed for easy starting, rapid pick-up, extra power, and smooth, knockless driving. Thousands of motorists know this to be a fact.

Get a tankful wherever you see the Conoco Ethyl sign.

CONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY
Producers, Refiners and Marketers of high-grade petroleum products in Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wyoming

CONOCO ETHYL GASOLINE

Quick Starting—Knockless Miles