1928 BUILDING PERMITS ALREADY PAST $1,000,000 MARK

FINE BUILDINGS ADD TO TOTAL CITY FIGURES

Residences Also Boost Record of Unusual Growth

CHURCHES ARE NOT INCLUDED

School Construction Is Large Item of Expansion

More than $1,000,000 in building permits were taken out this year in Pampa up to October 31. With two months yet to go the greatest building program in the history of the city is assured. Including the three new churches nearing completion and the school buildings for which permits have not been issued the total amount of permits is much greater.

With the exception of June, October was the third smallest month on building permits. Only $56,170 in permits was issued at the city hall. Of that amount Charles Symonds, local building contractor, took out $34,000 worth for residences he has under construction. Last month with only $29,600, was the smallest of the year.

Included in the record building program of the year are three churches with a total cost of more than $250,000. The Methodist and Catholic church buildings have been completed, while the Christian church Sunday school building and church, and the Baptist church are under construction.

A gymnasium-auditorium and two eight-room ward school buildings are nearing completion at a cost of $150,000. One of the ward school buildings is in the east part of the city and the other in the west section.

Large store buildings have accounted for much of the years activity. On North Cuyler street the McCullough-Murfee and the C. W. Bradford buildings are nearing completion. Other large buildings on the same street include the Wynn-Merten two-story building, the Clem building, the A. Gordon-Deneheim building and a large brick store on South Cuyler street.

Beautiful, large residences have also added to the activity. The Cook-Adams addition has been the scene of one of the greatest building programs in the city's history. Twelve new brick residences are under construction in the addition and the foundations are ready for two others. Other residential sections in the city have also seen great activity.

Take Choice of These Issues in National Politics

HOUSTON, Oct. 31.—(P)—Restoration of "virtue and efficiency of the public service," agricultural relief, white supremacy and religious freedom are the principal issues before the Texas electorate, John Henry Kirby, chairman of the Texas Democratic Finance committee, asserted in a statement here today.

DALLAS, Oct. 31.—(P)—Tammany Hall and prohibition are the issues before Texas voters, State Senator Thomas B. Love asserted in a statement here today. He said that aside from these issues, there are "a good many thousands Texas Democrats who have been waiting for a good many years to vote for Herbert Hoover because they admire him, believe in him, and think him the best equipped man alive for the presidency."

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS—Tonight and Thursday cloudy, occasional showers; warmer tonight in east section, colder Thursday except in southeast.

"Spirit Love" Causes Girl to Burn Herself Horribly

LAKE BLUFF, Ill., Oct. 31.—(P)—Self-torture by fire to prove her faith in a "spirit love" was advanced today to explain the strange case of Miss Elfrida Knaak, 30-year-old Sunday school teacher and book agent. It was a weird, uncanny explanation, full of holes and wide open to practical-minded police skepticism; but it came from the lips of Miss Knaak herself, lying near death from burns mysteriously inflicted in the basement of the Lake Bluff police station sometime Monday night.

Physicians were unimpressed. "To believe her story," said Dr. A. J. Resinger, attending her, "you would have to believe these facts: 'That she first placed one foot, then the other, in the furnace and kept them there for some little time; that she thrust head and arms and held them there under what certainly must have been terrific pain. The fire box is only 12 3-4 by 8 3-4 inches. 'It does not seem possible that a person, even in a trance, could do that. Muscular reaction alone would cause her to jump back from the flames.' 'The name of Charles W. Hitchcock, 45 years old, married and the father of four children, was brought into the case by Miss Knaak who during the night frequently cried out: 'Hitch, oh Hitch, why don't you come to me?' 'Who did this?' said the State's attorney, bending over the girl's cot. 'I did it myself, for faith, for purity,' was the response. At intervals, the officers obtained her story. She had known Hitchcock four years, she said having studied elocution and salesmanship in classes he conducted here. 'A few months ago I got to know him spiritually,' she was quoted as saying. 'This was no material love affair. Advanced psychology made me understand him. For weeks I have been hearing his voice saying, 'have faith; have faith.' 'I had an appointment with him Monday night. He did not keep it (Hitchcock, who besides being a teacher is night policeman of Lake Bluff, has been confined to his home with a broken leg for a week.) When he did not appear, I again heard his voice, urging me to have faith. 'To prove my faith, I thought of the fire. I removed my clothes and burned them. I burned myself. 'I survived. I proved my faith and I'll live. Be sure of this: I knew I would survive.' Hitchcock, his leg in a cast, was unable to clear up the girl's story. 'Poor girl if she had a crush on me, I certainly didn't know it,' he said.

Wedded Bliss Often Begins in Kitchen—Ihrig

News Cooking Expert Says Good Meals Economical

The home maker of today cannot be too well posted on the selection, combination and cooking of foods. The woman who would make her home a shrine of happiness, can very wisely start in the kitchen and leave nothing unturned to produce the best meals that modern knowledge can create. Most women realize this and that is the reason that there is great anticipation among the ladies of Pampa regarding the visit of Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, noted culinary artist and food expert who will conduct The News Free cooking school and food show at the Methodist church basement, for five days commencing Monday, Nov. 5 and continuing through Friday each afternoon at 2:30 to 4:30.

"Feed a man well to keep him happy" says Mrs. Ihrig. "And 'well' does not necessarily mean expensively. If one will make a reasonable effort to prepare many foods so as to acquire dietetics and cooking knowledge it really is surprising, to many, what wonderful meals may be prepared at small cost."

In the five free cooking school classes Mrs. Ihrig will demonstrate ways to prepare many goods so as to obtain the finest flavors as well as the greatest food values. She will discuss at length the correct selection of various foods for the creation of body-building health giving dishes that are as appetizing as they are beneficial.

She will tell how in her classes, Famous French Chefs utilize many common foods and spices to impart the marvelous flavor to their dishes.

Mrs. Ihrig will demonstrate the wonders of cooking tricks that can be done with left-overs which is often a problem for the home-maker, part of whose ambition it is to make the dollar do the greatest amount of work in the home.

Would you like to learn new ways to cook vegetables, meats—new ways to prepare salads—the latest tricks in baking bread, pies, cakes and biscuits? All of these things will be done before you in the model kitchen at the church in an informal home-like manner.

If the satisfaction derived, in other cities from coast to coast, by other women is any criterion, you will be glad you came.

The first class will be on Monday 5, at 2:30 p. m.

The Rev. Yell, pastor of the Presbyterian church of White Deer, was in this city this morning to attend the funeral services for Mrs. I. N. White.

HALLOWE'EN

It Begar With
The Pagan But
We Have Kept It
Going Strong

Halloween is tonight. 'Tis an evening based on the oldtime belief that the spirits of the departed were allowed to visit their old homes in many parts of the old countries. food was laid, hearths were carefully swept, and chairs were set in order before the inhabitants of the villages went to rest. Now, of course, this custom has passed away.

In place of the spirits, the spirited youths and maidens give way to frolics and prankfulness, according to their moods and the habits of their communities. Acting on the assumption that the supernatural is expected, the spirit of youth sometimes runs rampant to the discomfiture of officers of the law and the more stolid older folk.

Small buildings often are seen off their foundations as dawn breaks after Halloween. Gates, wagon wheels, milch cows, and other property find their way into strange places. The oldtime stunt of putting a cow in the belfry is somewhat passe, and injunctions against vandalism are being more obeyed every year.

The time has passed in most communities when it is necessary to guard property. The thrills of being shot by irate landlords are not so coveted. Halloween is merely the motif for social affairs of a very pleasing nature.

Halloween is just another relic of pagan times. The old Romans held it about November 1 in honor of Pomona, goddess of fruit trees. In Britain the Druids made it a harvest festival.

Many Friends Pay Tribute Today to Pioneer Woman

Mrs. I. N. White's Life Was Attuned to the Legion

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock this morning at the Presbyterian church for Mrs. I. N. White, one of the Panhandle's dearest and most beloved pioneers. A large crowd of the friends of Mrs. White and her family attended the last rites, and others paid tribute to her memory with beautiful floral offerings.

The Rev. James Todd, Jr., pastor of the First Christian church, conducted the service. He read the Twenty-third Psalm and said that the faith which the Scripture expresses had carried Mrs. White through a long life of peace, beauty, and service to a peaceful close. She lived a life attuned to the Infinite," he said.

The choir sang two hymns, "Does Jesus Care?" and "It is Well with My Soul." Mrs. A. H. Doucette sang "The City Four-Square." The funeral march, Greg's "Ass's Death," was played by Mrs. Forest McSkimming, and accompaniments were played by Mrs. Frank Elliott.

A second service was to have been held this afternoon at Canadian, where Mrs. White lived for many years before coming to Pampa, and the body will be buried in the cemetery there. The pall bearers were the six grandsons; Wayne Winnett, Earl Mead, Jim White, Tom White, Ted White, and Clyde Mead.

Mrs. White died at 1:10 Sunday morning at the home of her daughter Mrs. J. E. Corson, after an illness of a few days. She was 91 years old on last July 9.

Slow Rain of Great Benefit to Big Wheat Crop

Rainfall in Pampa today was intermittent and heavy enough to be of inestimable value to the wheat crop. Damp, cloudy weather will assure the maximum of penetration.

AMARILLO, Oct. 31.—(P)—Grain recently planted in the Panhandle wheat belt was aided by a slow, steady rain which fell today.

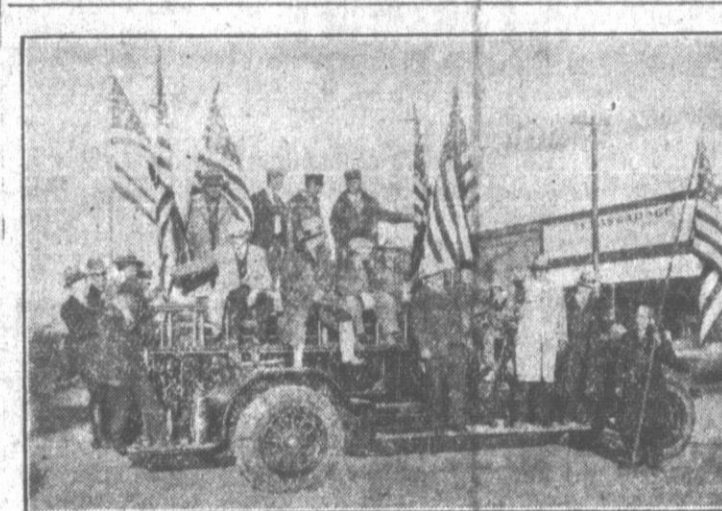

The precipitation, which totaled one-half of an inch, brought moisture since Sunday to almost two inches.

Bringing the County Seals to Pampa

Shortly before dusk on the afternoon of March 16, last, the big Pampa fire truck pictured above led a procession of trucks bringing the county seal to this city. In the picture, at the extreme right, is M. K. Brown holding an American flag. Next to him, on the running board, are Charles H. Sharp, and W. A. Taylor, holding up the official county seals, and Sheriff E. S. Graves. Reading from left to right, those pictured are M. P. Downs, J. H. Lavender, Scott Barcus, DeLea Vicars, Harry Hoare, R. J. Harmon, Ernest Medkief, J. R. Pafford, W. Melton, Younger Cockrell, U. D. Sackett, Sheriff E. S. Graves, W. P. Fussell (driver), Commissioner W. A. Taylor, Chas. H. Sharp, and M. K. Brown.

LEGION MAY BECOME FIRST POST TO FORM AN AVIATION SCHOOL AND CORPORATION

Supt. MacKie Will Go to Santa Fe Coast Division

Word was received here this morning of the transfer of F. J. MacKie for the last seven years superintendent of the Panhandle-Plains division of the Santa Fe Railway, to the Pacific coast lines. Mr. MacKie has been promoted to the office of Assistant general manager of the coast lines. His headquarters will be in Los Angeles.

Mr. MacKie was a well known figure in Pampa and vicinity and it was well regret that his many friends learned of his transfer. A banquet will be held in Amarillo Friday night at 8 o'clock. Many of his friends from here plan to attend the gathering. He will leave Pampa Saturday for his new home in California. Mr. MacKie's successor has not yet been named, according to information received here.

Mr. MacKie has been a valued member of the Santa Fe staff for the last 25 years, coming to that line from his home in Ontario, Canada, where he had started his railroad career. During the war Mr. MacKie was connected with the Topeka division of the Santa Fe. He was promoted to the superintendency of this division seven years ago.

He has always taken a keen interest in all the towns in his division, visiting each at regular intervals.

GRAF ZEPPELIN BREAKS RECORD ON RETURN TRIP

PARIS, Oct. 31.—(P)—The home-ward bound dirigible Graf Zeppelin reached the French coast from Lakehurst, N. J. late today flying over Nantes at 6:43 p. m. (1:43 p. m. Eastern Standard Time).

At that time the huge ship, which is completing the first round trip commercial trans-Atlantic air voyage had been in the air 59 hours and 49 minutes.

She still had about 300 miles to go before reaching Friedrichshafen, her home port where she was expected at the earliest at 3 o'clock tomorrow morning.

JUST MORE C-30AGO CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—(P)—Jewelry valued at more than $40,000 was seized by armed men in three robberies last night and three women were kidnaped for several hours in one of the hideups.

ELECTION OF LAST MARCH 9 IS AFFIRMED

District Court Is Upheld in Opinion on Appeal

DECISION LIKELY TO BE FINAL

Judges Find People Had Fair Chance to Vote

Pampa keeps the county seat! The decision of Judge Willis in 84th district court here upholding the county seat election of March 9, last, was affirmed today by the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals. The opinion had been expected for three weeks.

It is understood that the Appeals Court opinion automatically dissolves the injunction Judge Willis granted to restrain the county commissioners from issuing warrants for a courthouse, and that work may start in the near future under the contract let to the local H. L. Case Construction company.

Whether there will be further litigation in connection with an application for a writ of error in the State Supreme Court is not known, but this added step would not likely cause any delay. Local attorneys are of the opinion that the question of 30 years standing has at last been settled.

While the transcript of the Appeals Court decision has not yet been received here, it is known that nearly all of the allegations of the attorneys for complaining McLean men were held of no moment. With respect to the purported creation of a Precinct No. 9, which has not been considered in county elections, the court held that since the residents of that area had the right to vote, and did vote, at the Pampa polls, there was no miscarriage of justice.

Following the election, in which Pampa won the county seat by a county-wide vote of 3,572 votes to 1,386 for LeFors, Judge Willis denied an injunction to prevent removal of the county records to Pampa. The official documents were brought to the new county seat March 18, and lodged in a temporary courthouse in the basement of the First Baptist church.

The efforts of Attorneys Clayton Heare and W. Sherman White for McLean interests to have the election thrown out subsequently failed. Meanwhile, the commissioners purchased a site for the new courthouse immediately south of Central high school. Sale of $250,000 in warrants to build the structure was completed last week, when the Brown-Crummer company paid par and accrued interest at 1-1/2 per cent.

Previous county seat removal elections in 1908, 1919, and 1925, failed. Despite the litigation which has developed since Pampa won the county seat, there has been little in the way of bitterness, LeFors people expressing little regret and McLean and Amarillo citizens assuring local people that if the courts decided the election was entirely legal they would take the matter in good spirit.

Todd Suit Is Reversed Today

Judgment of $5,000 against the City of Pampa awarded Mr. and Mrs. F. Todd of Shamrock in a suit growing out of the death of their daughter, Mickle, in a car accident here was reversed by the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals today.

The specific reason for the reversal could not be learned this afternoon owing to the fact that dozens of exceptions were taken by Charlie Cook, attorney for the City.

Oliver Johnson of Miami is visiting his brothers, Webster and Owen.

Organized Begging

There is no reason in Pampa for most of the begging that is being done, but there are explanations. The Public Welfare association is doing all within its power to discourage begging and to make it unnecessary. It has no power to enforce any rule against the practice, and so far the city has not, officially, devised a way to prohibit it.

It is significant that practically all of the begging is being done by strangers—professional beggars who travel from town to town. The local people, insofar as they are known to be in want, are being helped in proportion to the resources of the Public Welfare association. They are not begging; indeed, it were better that they be more frank in making their direct needs known.

The itinerant beggar is the biggest puzzle. He comes into town on the plea of being "broke" and unable to proceed further. He may have plenty of money secreted about him, or he may be right. At any rate, to make a practice of giving a certain sum to every one that asks would encourage abuse of the system and quickly exhaust funds that should be used largely for Pampa's own needs.

The professional beggar does not ask for charity, however, at any official source of help. He prefers to sit on the street corner or parade the business district, knowing that his receipts are likely to be large enough to cause consternation in the ranks of his contributors, did they know. The professionals have common understandings and their knowledge of "conditions" would do credit to any banker.

Recently details of a professional begging circuit became known here. Faces became familiar, and the itinerant unfortunates seemed to be going in circles, for they always came back. On investigation, it was found that one astute business man has organized a begging circuit. He furnishes traveling expenses and collects his share of the receipts. It is a business proposition—just as much as any other kind of soliciting.

The best way to discourage begging is to quit giving and make it necessary for the beggars to seek aid from a bureau, such as the Public Welfare association, which will investigate them. Let the word that Pampa is a "hard" place go forth and there will be fewer professionals "making" the city.

We have organized charity, but against organized begging it has no corrective authority. That is where the public's gullibility comes in. The better plan is to give only through the Public Welfare association, which will not let any stranger suffer, but will make him give tangible reasons as to his worthiness and will compile records of his calls. The unworthy shrink from investigation.

There is no begging "problem" here, except that of discouraging contributions by those who have only themselves to blame.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON—Iowa has 13 electoral votes, Wisconsin 13, Minnesota 12, Kansas 10, Nebraska 8, North Dakota 5 and South Dakota 5.

Hoover undoubtedly will carry Iowa and Kansas. Wisconsin is very likely to vote for Smith. Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska has come out for Smith, and the result in Minnesota, Nebraska and the Dakotas will be difficult to forecast.

Farm relief, prohibition and religion have been made the most important issues in this great agricultural section. It is a nominally Republican region, but it is most irregularly Republican for it has sent to the Senate La Follette, Norris, Shipsteads, Fraziers, Howells, Brookharts—in fact, by far the greater portion of the Senate's progressive bloc.

In the five states called doubtful, Smith is running strong and the Democrats have claimed all of them at one time or another. Representatives of the farmers in these states led the "farm revolt" before, and at the Kansas City convention.

Some of those leaders, notably non-office holders, have bolted from Hoover. Now it is up to the farmers themselves. There has been some defection. Of course, but "farm revolts" are notoriously unreliable, as was proved in 1924, and the Republicans say they aren't worrying in 1928. They admit that Smith strengthened himself on his western invasion, but they are sure that he didn't change anywhere near as many votes as he needed.

It may be significant to point out that the combined Davis-LaFollette vote in 1924 was 25,000 more than the Coolidge vote in Nebraska, 9000 more in North Dakota, 210,000 more in Wisconsin, 25,000 less in Minnesota, and 1000 more in South Dakota. Figuring from a base of past performances, one is confronted with the puzzle of figuring just how many La Follette votes Smith can get, how many Republican votes he will lose.

Wisconsin has shown affection for Smith from the start. Senator Blaine's declaration for Smith was an encouraging boost. Senator La Follette's silence is regarded as tacit acquiescence with Blaine. Wisconsin is wet and insurgent. She has a Catholic population of about 25 per cent, considerably more than any other state in this group. On the other lines, she has been nominally Republican. Many of her La Follette voters of 1924 are sure to vote for Hoover. It is easy to see, however, why the Democrats have such high hopes there.

Nebraska is the state most likely to be affected by the announcement of Senator Norris. Democrats claim Smith has appealed to most of her German voters all along. The Lutheran Synod has declared against intolerance and the State Federation of Labor is out for Smith. Smith's Omaha farm relief speech sounded good to many Nebraska farmers. But Senator Howell and Governor McMullen have been campaigning for Hoover, and the Norris delay in declaring for Smith encouraged organizational leaders.

Smith's anti-prohibition attitude and his religion are serious handicaps to him in those regions where farm discontent might otherwise turn the tide for him. Only Norris could deliver Nebraska to Smith, and perhaps not even he.

The great handicap in the farm states from the Smith point of view is that in ordinary years there is no Democratic party to speak of. Minnesota, for instance. There the national organization has undertaken to create an emergency machine, sending Senators Wheeler of Montana and Wagner of New York to the scene.

Pioneer Virtues

The passing of Mrs. I. N. "Grandma" White calls attention to the sterling virtues of the queenly women who helped change a barren prairie into the Panhandle that is today.

Stout-hearted, untiring in their devotion to home, family, and friends, they have a place in our history comparable to that of any group of pioneer women whose experiences have become a part of American annals. The North had her log cabin mothers, the South the stately matrons of the plantations, the Colonial period the sturdy womanhood of the revolution—but the pioneer mothers of the Southwest served well their day and saw the sun, peeping first over a skyline against which perhaps a coyote stood in silhouette, later rise to spread its myriad hues over fields, cattle, and now the oil derricks.

Mrs. White was a leader among these good women. A character of warm impulses, she nevertheless had the strength of the crusader in those causes to which she gave the full measure of devotion. The church was next to her heart, and only the infirmities of advanced age conquered her desire to be always in her accustomed place.

She lived a long and full life, the passing of which seems more like a victory than death, and in which her family and friends have a cherished heritage. She dies, but lives.

With several new names appearing as contenders for the three big automobiles and other handsome prizes, the list of contestants in the Pampa Daily News' $5,000 automobile and prize voting campaign appears again today for the second time. Since the first list was published Sunday, quite a number of nominees have gotten busy and turned in the "First Subscription Coupon", together with a subscription or so. A few, as will be noted, have not yet obtained any subscriptions, and have been busy only with the free coupon votes. Today's count of votes was tabulated by the Contest Manager at 12 noon today. Additional vote and nominees will appear in the next list, which will be published Sunday.

Prospective entrants should look over the list, and see whom they have to work against and by consulting the vote schedule, figure out how long it would take them to obtain as many votes as any contestant has opposite his or her name in today's list. Consider that 10,000 are given alone when the first subscription is turned in! A couple of subscriptions is all that separates any new starter whose name may not even be in the list, and the very top one.

More entries are wanted and needed in both districts. But especially in District No. 2.

There are no candidates whatever in the towns mentioned, the others being divided between Pampa R. F. D.'s and Lefors and Neollette. There ought to be at least a half dozen in McLean, Miami and White Deer alone. Whether there will ever be any or not remains to be seen. However, all the prizes for that district will be given as advertised, and it is believed that by the time the next list appears, there will be quite a number of new entrants from both districts.

Contestants are now beginning to center their efforts on building $20 clubs of subscriptions, which, turned in before 9 p. m., Saturday, November 17, count a bonus of 100,000 extra votes, over and above all regular votes. Several contestants, it is reported, expected to complete a club this week. As there is NO LIMIT to the number of times any one contestant can earn the bonus, it coming with every $20 turned in, it is expected that some contestants will secure the bonus several times before the time expires.

Contestants are again advised that they do not have to stay in their own district to get their votes. A Pampa contestant can go to White Deer, and a Lefors contestant can come to Pampa. There are no restrictions whatever.

New entrants, who will turn in a year's subscription before 12 noon Saturday, can be included in the next list. The race is just beginning to warm up a little and now is the time to jump in and get started. Just SIX WEEKS from Saturday night all these prizes are to be given away.

The "Nomination Blank" in the lower right hand corner will bring you a receipt book and full particulars if you will take the trouble to send it in.

NOW is the time to act. Don't let others get ahead of you in this race. Get ahead YOURSELF!

Saturday, November 17

There is NO LIMIT. You can earn this bonus as many times as you like.

How Votes Are Secured

Votes cannot be purchased and they cannot be transferred. Once issued to the credit of a contestant they must stay issued. This rule is imperative. There are just two ways to obtain votes. One is by clipping the free vote coupons which will appear in each issue of the Pampa Daily News until further notice. The other is by securing new and renewal prepaid subscriptions to this newspaper. The coupons must be deposited in the ballot box in the campaign office before the expiration date printed on them. All subscriptions must be paid in advance before votes are issued on them.

High Heels by Ruth Dewey Groves. "I couldn't," Jerry replied; "it means too much to me." Myrtle remained silent, but she looked decidedly out of sympathy with Jerry's change of mind. THEY had dinner together at the nearest restaurant and hurried home where Myrtle took time only to change her dress and shoes before she went out again to meet George. Jerry was glad to know he wasn't coming to the house for her tonight. Myrtle's disapproving silence was getting on her nerves. She felt relieved when her friend left. Alester came for her at nine o'clock. Jerry had lingered long over her toilette. She had bathed and given herself a "facial" as best she could. Her hair shone bright as polished amber. Her dainty feet were encased in slippers she had bought at a basement sale. They were painted with silver. High-priced slippers originally, they were reduced because their white satin had become soiled. They made Jerry's feet look as exquisitely shod as ever she had seen Leonie's. Jerry was about to powder her neck and arms when she remembered having read of a smart fashion on the Riviera. Modish women were wearing white with ochre makeup. Her own skin was sunburned to a deep tan. The white, sleeveless tunic with its deep V in the back would show it off beautifully, she realized. Alester ought to approve of that. He was denied the opportunity, however, to admire her when she came down to him for Jerry was wearing a light summer coat that concealed her dress and all that it revealed. One glance at her slippers satisfied him that she was in evening clothes. He grasped her hands eagerly. Jerry's beauty always moved him. "But a shopgirl... his family simply wouldn't have it! Neither was he as keen on a messaline as himself... if only Jerry would be reasonable, or if only he could forget her..." "You need nothing more to make you lovelier," he said, "but I've brought you some flowers." WHEN Jerry was seated in the car—the black roadster—he handed her a ribbon-tied box. She opened it eagerly and for an instant it seemed to Jerry that she must be dreaming. Surely she was not merely a little shopgirl going to a party in a dress she did not own. Orchids were for first ladies, the wives of public men or favorites of the stage and screen. Women who were snatched for the rotogravure pages wore orchids on the Avenue—she had seen them. Jerry caught her breath in sheer ecstasy. It was the first time in her life that superlative beauty had been showered upon her. She could not help thrilling to it and to the thought that Alester wanted to make her happy. He was starting the car. She looked up at him with dewy eyes. "Thank you," they seemed to say. He looked around and caught the expression. Her lips uttered what her eyes had seemed to say. Alester smiled with deep satisfaction. "So she likes orchids," he thought. "That ought to make you feel good, Mr. Alester Carstairs." (To Be Continued)

Smith to Make Last Speech Out of Home State

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Governor Smith will carry his fight for the presidency outside the borders of his home state for the last time tonight when he motors into New Jersey for a speech at Newark, a city only recently evacuated by his Republican opponent.

Returning to his headquarters here immediately after the address, the Democratic presidential nominee will spend tomorrow in preparation for his twin effort to swing New York into line with speeches in Brooklyn and this city Friday and Saturday.

Fifty-five votes in the electoral college are at stake in New Jersey and its neighbor state of New York, and Governor Smith believes his chances are good for bagging them all, despite the fact that only once in the last eight quadrennial elections have they been found in the Democratic column. This was in the tri-cornered race of 1912 when Wilson carried both states.

PUBLIC FORUM

Miami, Texas

Editor, Pampa Daily News:

It is a great pleasure to read in the Pampa Daily News the forecast of the presidential election by J. N. Duncan, October 28th issue.

It will be a far greater pleasure to read that honest, able, fearless, 100 per cent American Al Smith and Joe T. Robinson have carried not only Pampa, but the United States.

The "press" and the "air" that come to my attention lead me to believe that Hoover is against the farmer, about 40 per cent American, and 60 per cent British. I further believe that his running mate, Senator Charles Curtis, is a half breed Indian boiled in "oil." In case the Republicans are successful and Hoover should die in office we would have a half breed Indian president of the United States. It appears to me that the Republicans in power are no better than their leaders, and for these and many other reasons too numerous to mention, my wife and I are proud to vote for Al Smith, and are confident we don't regret it, whether he is elected or defeated.

HARRI A. NELSON, a Dry Protest-ant.

Editor, Pampa Daily News:

On Thursday, October 25, you published a letter from me in which I corrected some false statements made previously in the weekly paper of the Baptist church. These statements were that our presidents, namely, McKinley, Lincoln, and Garfield, were all killed by Catholics. My motive was, and is yet, to get facts before the people of Pampa who, I am sure, are sincere but who are being misled by propaganda sent out in this political campaign. I understand their attitude since I am a Protestant of the Methodist faith and believe these various "floating" quotations myself until recently, when I began to investigate them.

I know that I am correct in this matter. I gave references for proof of my statements. Anyone who wishes to be fair will look them up. Could anything be more authentic than the court records of a trial?

I have been unable to find anything concerning the Washington Bureau of Statistics. It certainly is not an authorized government bureau. If such a thing exists at all, it is a false one conducted by some anti-Catholic person or organization. This is being quoted as proof of statements made in the Baptist Headlight.

The alleged quotation from Abraham Lincoln, given in a letter which was published in the Pampa Daily News Sunday, October 28, is a forgery. It cannot be found in any of his writings or letters. "The Sunday Visitor," a Catholic paper published at Huntington, Ind., offers $1,000 for proof of this statement. The offer has been standing a number of years.

I do not have sufficient knowledge of the Catholic church and its writers to give the correct quotation from Father Phelan. I can see at a glance that there is one mistake at least in regard to this quotation in the above-mentioned letter. No Catholic priest would anymore sign his name "Priest Phelan" than would a Protestant minister sign his "Prescher Phelan."

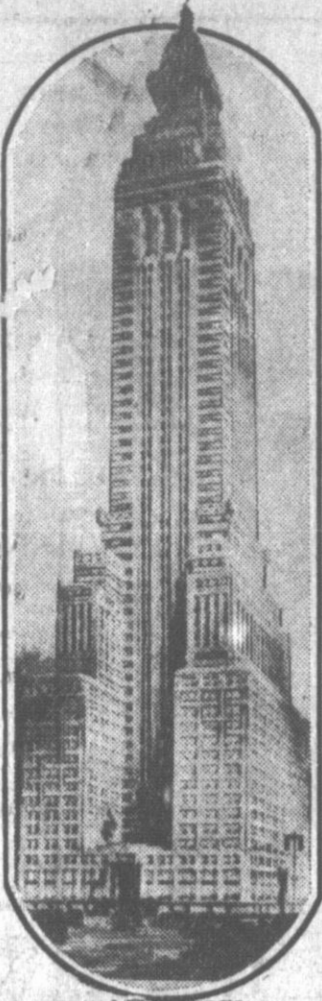

Respectfully yours,
MRS. M. F. ROCHE

VALUABLE OIL LANDS NOW IN LITIGATION

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 31.—(P)—Attorneys for W. H. Colquitt will contest the report of a master in chancery that Mrs. M. A. Monroe Smith, owner of valuable oil lands in the Yates pool, is sane and that leases which she has executed are valid.

Colquitt is receiver for the estate of Mrs. Smith and Brian Montague, one of his attorneys, announced here last night that a bill of exceptions to the report of master-in-chancery, U. S. Goetz, is being prepared for submission in federal court at El Paso.

Giants Started Trading Season in the Majors

By BRIAN BELL, Associated Press Sports Writer
 NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Trading lefty O'Doul to the Phillies for Fred Leach, the Giants started a trading season that probably will prove very brisk before the major league clubs assemble five months hence in the South and West for training.

The real trading comes by custom when snow has covered the diamonds and outfielders in the big time stadia, but the Giants and the Phillies started the ball rolling with a deal when the frost is just on the punkin.

That many others will follow seems a safe guess. Several teams are known to be dissatisfied with past performance of some of their highest priced players and the managers are prescribing a change of scenery.

Although the New York Yankees have won two world series in eight games, Manager Miller Huggins is believed to be spending his time between golf shots at St. Petersburg, Fla., in looking over railway time tables with a view to buying tickets for some of his athletics to cities other than New York.

The Yankees have several players of the decline who could take their places in the regular lineups of other clubs in the American league. An example is Big Ben Paschel, the well known sargeant of Charlotte, N. C. Paschel can hit run and throw, three essential assets for an outfielder, but he can not crowd out Babe Ruth, Earle Combs, or Bob Meusel.

If the mite manager of the world champions can find some club needing an outfielder and blessed with a fair pitcher as excess baggage a deal might be made. The Yankees infield may see some changes before another season starts; Joe Dugan's place at third base as a regular is not believed to be any too secure although he can remain a Yankee subject to emergency call. Only time will tell how good Tony Lazzeri's arm will be after a winter's rest and treatment. Dan Howley will trade if ten winds is in the right direction but after his success in his last year's transaction his brother manager are apt to give him a wide berth. Walter Johnson will have a chance to match wits with his new brother master-minds for the benefit of Washington and Stanley Harris certainly would like to do some juggling with the Tigers over whom he assumed command.

The trade winds are believed to be blowing over that part of St. Louis set aside for the Cardinals but president Sam Breadin must first say who is to conduct the negotiations. McKechnie has not yet been reelected for another term. At the same time he has not been defeated for the nomination.

Joie Ray Wins 16 Mile Race For New Indoor Mark

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Joie Ray, veteran American runner, was back at the head of the class today and with another record tucked away among his souvenirs.

Ray's time for 15 miles was one hour, 22 minutes and five seconds, which was announced as a new indoor record. El Oufi was four and one half laps behind Ray at the finish, approximately one third of a mile.

DALLAS, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Declaring that he intended to fight the bootleggers of 1928, while Governor Moody "is fighting the carpet-baggers of 1899," Dr. C. C. During the meeting telegrams were read from President S. P. Brooks of Baylor university, President J. D. Sandifer of Simmons university, President J. W. Hunt of McMurry college and President E. Godbold of Howard-Payne.

BIG TRAIN BACK IN MAJORS; HELPS HOT STOVE PROSPECTS

Here's the Big Train of twentieth century baseball as he appeared in a Newark uniform last season and as he now appears in civilian clothes signed to manage the Washington Senators for three years, Johnson returns to the club he served for 21 years.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Hot Stove League season is bound to be a success if for no other reason than that Walter Johnson is returning to the Washington ball club with which he played for 21 years.

Speculation over what the Big Train will do at his old home should help pacify fandom during the long period between seasons. The club itself has set a good example for the great (if) of all baseball so far as action is concerned. It lost one manager and picked up another within ten days time.

But few if any spectacular moves appear ahead for Washington. Most of the changes will be within the club. Clark Griffith, president of the Senators, already has gathered in a big collection of fresh material. Outside of the deal which some club or another is expected to make for Bucky Harris' services and a trade for or purchase of a pitcher or two there'll be little done between Washington and other teams.

Through the draft, purchases and recalls President Griffith has upwards of twenty new men coming to the 1929 Senators. He recalled five, drafted two and bought the rest. Eight of them are infielders, some of whom probably will be exchanged for pitchers.

Still another infielder may come to the Senators for good among baseball men has it that Harris will be traded to Detroit.

Two new outfielders were bought from Birmingham to help Goslin, West and Barnes, the 1928 Washington regulars. They are Elliott Bigelow and Melbourne Simons. Bigelow is one of the best hitters the Southern League ever produced.

Jackie Fields Appears to Be Leading Contender

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Jackie Fields, with a crushing two-round knockout over Sergeant Sammy Baker, New York's rock-fisted favorite clinched a long string of ring conquests, stood first in line at the door of King Joe Dundee's welterweight domain today.

To his home town folks, before 20,000 of whom he battered the hard punching Baker into insensibility in 10 minutes and 20 seconds last night, Fields theoretically was the champion of the welterweights. Fields recently whipped Jack Thompson, San Francisco negro, just a short time after the latter had scored a quick knockout over Dundee in a non-title fight in the East. His victory over Baker, whom New York boxing authorities ranked as the division's chief challenger, was regarded as conclusive proof here that he is the best of the welterweights.

HARLINGEN SELLS UTILITIES

HARLINGEN, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The Central Power and Light company will take over the entire bonded indebtedness of this city, about a million and a half dollars, as payment for the municipally owned waterworks and electric light plant. Voters yesterday voted 639 to 480 to sell to the utilities company. The ballot followed a brisk campaign over the matter.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 31.—(AP)—A firm of Toronto contractors has provided six-foot stilts for its workmen to eliminate the need of scaffolding in building operations.

The building trades council is investigating to discover whether the use of stilts would be a contravention of city or provincial statutes.

"Block That Kick!" Fans Yelled, and He Did

This remarkable action photograph shows Dick Abernathy, star-end of the Vanderbilt seven, following the orders of Vanderbilt supporters to "block that kick!" during the recent Tulane-Vanderbilt game at New Orleans. Billy Backer, Tulane halfback, got his kick away nicely—but Abernathy, with body high in the air and hands reaching upward, barely managed to stop the punting, as you can see here. Dan McGinn, Vanderbilt coach, says Abernathy is a better end than Lynn Bomar and Hek Wakefield, former All-American stars. He looks good on the play.

Big Games on Harvester Program in Near Future

The Harvesters this week are preparing for some of their most important games of the season. On Friday afternoon they meet the Wheeler eleven, on the home grounds and the following week the winner of the Perryton-Follett tangle in the first of the district play-offs.

Despite the weather conditions the boys were put through a stiff workout last night. They have several new formations that will be sprung against the Wheeler boys if needed. The team is out for this victory and the ones following, as they are desirous of meeting Canyon Eagles and wiping out the insult of last season.

Coach Mitchell's Harvesters know they will have no easy game when they tangle with the Wheeler boys. The team from the east has a win over Miami and Canadian. They held the fast Memphis crew, who defeated Shamrock by one point, to a one-point touchdown victory.

Walstad and Tracy are going around with bandaged hands the result of injuries received in last Friday's game against Hinton, Okla. They will be ready for the battle Friday afternoon, as also will Mullen, Barnard, Laird and Sciz.

While the Harvesters are playing Wheeler on the home field, the third string under "Little Joe" Kniff will be playing the White Deer eleven. The youngsters have been playing hard and practicing faithfully for this important game, their first away from home.

The midgets got into three of the big games this season and feel sure they can take the measure of the White Deer team.

Menus for the Family

BY SISTER MARY

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, cream, baked French toast, brown-sugar syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of onion soup, croquettes, tomato and cabbage salad, rice puddings, grape juice.

DINNER—Smothered chicken, twice baked sweet potatoes, French fried onions, apple, celery and nut salad, vanilla ice cream with caramel sauce, milk, coffee.

The following method of cooking chicken is quite novel and decidedly worth while when one chicken must serve many. The tomato sauce with mushrooms may be omitted, but really adds much to the savoriness of the dish. The chicken can be disjointed for serving before cooking if preferred.

Smothered Chicken

One chicken weighing about 5 pounds, 4 or 5 thin slices bacon, 1 onion, 1 carrot, 1 cup diced celery, 1 slice smoked ham, 3 tablespoons sifted tomato pulp, 4 tablespoons chopped mushrooms, 1-4 teaspoon pepper.

Truss chicken as for roasting or disjoint for serving, cover bottom of closely covered kettle or small roaster with slices of bacon and add chicken. Chop onion, carrot, celery and ham, adding the "giblets"—heart, gizzard and liver—of the chicken. Sprinkle this mixture over chicken and cover kettle.

Cook over a medium fire until liquid is brown. Add boiling water to half cover chicken, cover closely and cook in a slow oven for two hours. Remove chicken to hot platter, add tomato and mushroom sauce and bring to the boiling point. Serve the sauce in a gravy boat.

Obituary

Mrs. Elizabeth Daugherty White was born in Glasgow, Scotland, July 9, 1837, and came to Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1848, where she grew to womanhood.

She was united in marriage to Isaac Newton White on June 2, 1857, and to this union nine children were born: Elizabeth Fairly, who passed away when two years old; Joe, who passed away in August, 1918; Lillie, Mrs. R. M. Brown of Whittier, Calif.; Tom White, of Benedict, Kansas; Jessie, Mrs. A. L. Winsett, of Higgins; Mary Dave Pope, of Pampa; Cella, Mrs. J. A. Mead of Miami; Lizzie, Mrs. J. E. Corson, of Pampa; Fannie, Mrs. Claude Ledrick, of Pampa.

The family left Ohio and moved to Beloit, Kansas, in 1878, and a year later removed to Roberts county, Texas, where the home was established, and there began the long active life of service to all whom she came in contact throughout the Panhandle Texas. When Mrs. White came to the Panhandle she was the second white woman in these parts.

Mrs. White died in December, 1894, and Mrs. White made her home in Canadian until nine years ago, when she came to Pampa, where she has made her home with her daughters and won to herself many true and devoted friends.

Mrs. White became subject to intermittent attacks of asthma, and about twelve days suffered attack. No alarm was felt regarding her condition until last Saturday evening. As the night came on she gradually passed into a deep sleep from which she never awakened, passing away Sunday morning at 1:10 o'clock, at the age of 91 years, 3 months, and 30 days.

Mrs. White became a member of the Presbyterian church in early life before leaving Scotland, and was faithful and devoted member until her death.

The funeral service was conducted Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian church by the Rev. James Todd, Jr., minister of the First Christian church. Burial was in Canadian, preceded by a brief service in the Presbyterian church of that city. The pall bearers were the six grandsons: Wayne Winsett, Earl Mead, Clyde Mead, Jim White, Tom White, and Ted White.

American Legion Auxiliary Will Install Officers

ENDS HIGH PRESSURE

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31.—(AP)—A high pressure financial career was ended here today when David "Purity" Jones, laundry machinery manufacturer, pleaded guilty of using the mails to defraud creditors of $1,000,000 and was sentenced in federal court to serve three years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas.

Aldridge was elected president; Miss Helen Anderson, vice-president; and Miss Henry, secretary-treasurer.

Modes of the Moment

Went tea-dancing the other day and saw a lot of the latest models (going to the latest band. Germaine Leconte's black crepe satin dress with the circular skirt and bias encrustations of dull satin was one of the dresses noticed there. It was worn by a tall blond who added a crystal choker. Her hat was black silk velour with a feather brush which touched her right shoulder. Nearly all the women were in black and their hats were close fitting draped turbans.

While the woman-bandit watched over Mrs. Prentiss the men marched Prentiss to the bank where he told them he did not know the combination. Then they returned him, home where the five partook of an early morning breakfast prepared by the woman robber.

Boy Scout Drive Progressing Well

More than $900 was subscribed to the Boy Scout fund yesterday. The drive is continuing today and the committees from the Lions and Rotary clubs hope to "go over the top" tomorrow. The response yesterday was most gratifying, the committee men say.

The drive is on to raise funds to complete Pampa's council quota. A drive was instituted last spring but never completed. Fifteen hundred dollars is the goal of this drive.

Talk on School Amendments Made to Rotary Club

The two school amendments to the state constitution to be voted upon Tuesday were discussed by Joe Smith at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club at the Methodist church today. The importance of the amendments and the possibility that, through an error by the secretary of state, they would be invalid though passed was explained.

Frank Keim reported the work of the Rotary committee on the raising of funds for Boy Scout work was progressing rapidly. Tom Rose, secretary of the club, read several letters from other clubs congratulating the Pampa club on its perfect attendance in September. A. H. Doucette made a vocational talk on civil engineering.

O. H. McClellan, Rotarian of Wichita Falls, and L. C. Sowder of the Pampa Refining company were visitors. Philip Pond was introduced as a new member.

Texas Political Leaders' Estimates Varying Greatly

DALLAS, Oct. 31.—(AP)—With only six days left to launch their campaign spikes leaders of Texas three big political factions today became increasingly confident, or at least their official statements did, of success at the polls November 6.

Regular Democratic headquarters where a majority of 120,000 for Smith has been the stock prediction, raised the ante to 200,000. Alvin Moody, who heads the Hoover Democrats countered with a prediction that Hoover will run 120,000 ahead of Smith and R. B. Creager of Brownsville, Republican national committeeman claimed that Hoover is certain of 125 counties Smith of 50 and that the others are a toss-up.

Lansing's Death Removes Last of Cabinet Figures

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The last of three figures that bulked large in the enunciation of American foreign policy during the critical days of the world war and the period that immediately preceded the great conflict has gone.

Having claimed Woodrow Wilson and William Jennings Bryan, death yesterday overtook Bryan's successor as secretary of state, Robert Lansing, who held the portfolio during the entire time that America was one of the belligerent nations and resigned upon receiving a rebuke from President Wilson.

For several years Mr. Lansing had suffered from a heart ailment described by his physician as myocarditis.

Robert Lansing was a life-long student of government, diplomacy, and international law. Bryan's celebrated break with Wilson, arising from a disagreement as to what the official American attitude toward the tragedy of the Lusitania should be, found Mr. Lansing holding the post of counselor of the state department. With Bryan's resignation, he was promoted to the cabinet and was faced at once with the intricacies of what already was a tense international situation.

As with his predecessor, Mr. Lansing's tenure of office aided in disagreement with president Wilson. In Mr. Lansing's case the break was brought on, ostensibly, by his action in calling a meeting of the cabinet
