Promissory Note Plan of Party Financing Defended

WURZBACH HIT IN STATEMENT

G. O. P. Leader Told He Was Repudiated in Election

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. (P)—Chairman Brookhart of the senate patronage committee and R. B. Creager, republican national committeeman for Texas, engaged today at a committee hearing in a spirited argument over the merits of the latter's organization methods in Texas. Brookhart characterized the Creager organization as the "most autocratic" system he had ever heard of.

"No party," he said, "built on the wishes of the people can ever be built upon such a system as that. The one republican elected to congress in your state proves the people repudiated your organization."

Creager, who had been explaining a method of accepting contributions from party workers on a promissory note basis, declared that Brookhart was "prejudiced."

"It's not your part to pass on our organization," he shouted.

"It is," Brookhart retorted, "and it's just what I am going to do."

"You are not going to interfere in my state," Creager declared, and Brookhart replied, "You won't run any bluff on me."

"I'm not trying to run a bluff," Creager said.

At another point in Creager's reading of a prepared statement he paused, while attempting to refute testimony given by Representative Wurzbach, the only republican member of congress from Texas, to say "there are a number of men in congress who ought not to be there," and he placed Wurzbach in that category.

"There are many critics," Brookhart returned, "who are unfit to criticize." Creager began his statement by protesting against the "character of testimony which this committee has been admitting and which, because of its privileged nature has been broadcast by the press of the country."

"I refer particularly," he said, "to the testimony of Lloyd E. Hill of Fort Worth, Texas, a disappointed seeker after the Fort Worth post office, and who, under oath, admitted he had endeavored to purchase an office."

A. B. Zahn went to Elk City, Okla., yesterday to transact business. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Zahn, who has spent two weeks visiting friends there and in Oklahoma City.

CLEVER PLAY WILL BE GIVEN FRIDAY NIGHT

The dramatic class of Central high school will present its first three-act play of the year tomorrow evening at the Central auditorium. The play is "Tommy," the story of a youth who follows an unusual line of procedure in winning his lady love.

The result is that he wins the admiration of her parents, with natural and inevitable alienation of the girl's affections. After taking counsel with an uncle older and considerably wiser than he, Tommy pursues new tactics, fully as startling and amusing as the ones that led him into his trouble.

The story is enlivened by the rivalry of another young man who all but wins the hand of fair Marie.

Albert Doucette has the title role. Other characters are played by Melba Graham as Marie Thurber, Catherine Vincent as Mrs. Thurber, Vernon Lawrence as Mr. Thurber, Noel Thomas as Bernard, Vernon Culverhouse as David Tuttle, and Donald Zimmerman as Judge Wilson. Some surprisingly good new talent has been included in this cast. Miss Velora Reed of the high school faculty is director.

At the end of the play, the winners of the high school beauty contest will be announced. The contest has been carried on the past several weeks, with class rivalry running high. At the end of the preliminary, two girls and two boys remained in the race. These are: Maxine White, sophomore; Clara Brenner, junior; Bob Kahl, senior, and Albert Lard, sophomore. Classmates and friends of the candidates have put much money into buying votes. Ten votes will be given with each ticket to the play.

Funds derived from both the play and the contest will be used in paying expenses of publishing the 1929 Harvester, the school year-book.

Hemphill Judge Gives Old Relics to T. D. Hobart

Three remembrances of early days in the Panhandle were received by T. D. Hobart this morning to be presented to the Panhandle Plains Historical society, at Canyon, of which Mr. Hobart is president. The gifts were sent by O. R. McMordie, county judge of Hemphill county.

One of the donations was a photo of the first postoffice in the Panhandle, a frame building at Mobeetie, taken in 1878. Standing in front of the building were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Montgomery and a cowboy. Mr. Montgomery was the first postmaster in the Panhandle.

Accompanying the photo was Mr. Montgomery's postmaster's certificate dated 1879 and signed by D. M. Key, then postmaster-general. The other gift was a certificate showing that Geo. A. Montgomery was the first county commissioner of Wheeler county. The commission was dated 1880 and was signed by O. M. Roberts, governor of Texas.

Mr. Montgomery is a resident of Hot Springs, N. M., at present.

HARDY KNEW OF M'PHERSON TRUTH, CLAIM

He Accepted Check in Exchange for Services MISDEMEANORS ARE ALLEGED

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 28. (P)—Five articles of impeachment including a charge that he knew Almee Semple McPherson's kidnaping story was untrue when he attempted to have her vindicated by a grand jury, were filed against Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy of Los Angeles in the state senate here today.

The jurist's impeachment was ordered by the state assembly after a legislative committee had investigated his acceptance of a $2,500 check from the evangelist in 1926 while her kidnaping story was under investigation. He has maintained it was a "love offering."

Four of the articles detail the charge that Judge Hardy committed misdemeanors in office by acting as counsel for Mrs. McPherson's Angelus Temple and by his tactics in defending her kidnaping story. The fifth charges he issued cards of admission to the trial of William Edward Hickman for the murder of Marian Parker, seeking to deprive the defendant of his constitutional right to a public hearing.

It is charged that during the time Mrs. McPherson disappeared and reappeared with the kidnaping story, Judge Hardy acted as her attorney; that he counseled and directed "other" attorneys and detectives employed in behalf of the evangelist; that he interviewed persons having or alleging to have facts pertaining to the disappearance, and that he spoke of the matter to members of the grand jury, and reporters, and publicity men in an effort to create public opinion in favor of Mrs. McPherson.

School Census Will Begin Soon

The annual scholastic enumeration in Gray county will begin Friday morning, County Superintendent John B. Hessey announced this morning. He is anxious that no child of school age be missed in the registration, as it will mean a loss of $16 per child to the county.

Last year there were 3,077 scholastic registrations in Gray county, and this year there should be between 700 and 1,000 more, the county superintendent says. Gray county will receive $46,155 from the state for last year's registration. Of that amount, $8 for each registrant has been received, Mr. Hessey said this morning.

The scholastic census in the common school district last year showed a registration of 536. Pampa's registration was 1,854, McLean's 556, and Alanreed's 141.

Mrs. J. H. Blythe has been employed as enumerator in Pampa and she will begin work tomorrow morning.

General Booth Regaining Health

General Bramwell Booth has shunned the light of publicity since being displaced as world commander of the Salvation Army. This rare and recent picture shows the deposed leader reading official documents at his home at Hadley Wood, Middlesex, England, in the presence of his daughter, Catherine Booth. He is reported to be rapidly regaining his health after a prolonged illness.

Chinese Elms to Be Shipped Soon

The Chinese elm trees ordered from the Texas agricultural experiment station at Lubbock, through the Board of City development, will be shipped either Monday or Tuesday, a letter received by George W. Briggs stated. More than 300 of the elm trees were ordered by local citizens to beautify their lawns.

Mr. Briggs has asked D. L. Jones, superintendent of the experimental station, to notify him in advance of the date of shipment so that he may notify those who have ordered trees. Instructions as to planting the trees will be available at the B. C. D. rooms through experiments conducted at the farm at Lubbock, it has been found that Chinese elm trees will grow faster and more satisfactorily on the Panhandle plains than any other tree.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE BILL IS NOT REPORTED

AUSTIN, Feb. 28. (P)—The Graves house bill amending the Dean law to permit issuance of a search warrant on reasonable knowledge and belief today was reported unfavorably by the senate committee on criminal jurisprudence.

Senator Thomas B. Love of Dallas had been trying to get a report on the measure for some time. Senators W. E. Thomason of Nacogdoches, Julien C. Ryer, Fort Worth, and Hank L. Parrish signed a minority favorable report.

WELFARE BODY ASKS WORK FOR NEEDY OF PAMPA—CASES THAT ARE PITIFUL DEMAND ATTENTION

The Board of City Development and Pampa Welfare association executives are receiving scores of requests for work that they cannot fill. They request the public to telephone them when workers are desired.

Many of the requests are from persons in pitiful circumstances. The Welfare association is now without funds, pending completion of the annual finance campaign of March 8 and 9, and work for the needy is imperative.

The association has a request from an experienced painter. His wife and two children were without food when he applied to the welfare body for aid. He is anxious to do any kind of work, and would give conscientious service. Anyone who could give him even a few hours of employment is asked to call the Welfare association, phone 605.

A woman applied for work. She will do laundry work of all kinds. Her husband has been ill for a month, and they will lose their small home if the payments cannot be kept up. Two small children must be fed. Other misfortunes add to their difficulty and need for some way to earn their way.

Many examples like these might be given.

One family helped by the Welfare association during the past year was that of a man who was ill for nearly two months, requiring almost constant care. Besides the parents, there were five children in the family, their ages ranging from one to eight years. They had no relatives, with the exception of one aunt, who could give, then any assistance whatsoever. This aunt furnished a part of the girls' school clothing. Some clothes for all the family were provided from the Welfare association's store room.

Food and medicines prescribed for the sick man by the attending physician also were furnished by the association until the man was able to return to his work. During the time of his convalescence, while he was still too weak to work, temporary work was secured for the mother through efforts of Welfare officials.

Scott Barcus and Walter Hardin were business visitors in Panhandle yesterday.

Santa Fe Line East of Here Is Being Rebuilt

More than 100 Mexicans arrived here yesterday to begin reconstruction work on the Santa Fe line between Pampa and Canadian as soon as weather conditions are favorable. The main line between the two points will receive new ballast and new ties and rails.

The old 90-pound rails will be replaced by the new, heavier type 110-pound steel. New concrete ties will be laid. Other work to be done along the line will include overhauling of the block signal system to install new wires and cables.

Two work-trains are hauling material and dumping it along the line in preparation for the reconstruction program. One train is working out of Pampa and the other from Canadian.

PAMPA TO GET PROJECT WHEN MONEY READY

City Is in Additional List Given to Congress

ACTUAL WORK NOT CERTAIN

All Construction Now Urged to Be Done in 10 Years

Pampa is in line to receive a federal building.

The city has been included in a list of Texas cities which will receive buildings when necessary appropriations are made for the purpose. Secretary Mellon has recommended such an appropriation, but its passing is problematical at this time.

Federal construction usually is by five-year periods, and it is not known whether Pampa will be included in the present five-year program or the succeeding one. It is certain, however, that placing of the city in the list of recommendations now has hastened the time of local construction by several years.

First knowledge that Pampa had been included in the supplementary list came yesterday evening, when The News and other local agencies received messages from Washington officials.

The News received the following telegram from Senator Morris Sheppard and Representative Marvin Jones:

"Department today recommended that an additional general public building program be authorized and that a public building for Pampa be included in such program."

Thirty-one Texas cities are to get buildings out of funds already available and totalling $8,059,000.

Buildings for which appropriations have been made and work is already or soon to be under way are Beaumont, $165,000; Corsicana, $90,000; Dallas $1,250,000; El Paso immigration station $535,000; Fort Worth, $1,400,000; Greenville, $80,000; Paris, $84,000; Sabine, quarantine station, $375,000; Lubbock, $335,000; Mexia, $100,000; Galveston marine hospital, $740,000.

New projects out of the $248,000 fund already available include Brownsville, $90,000; Galveston post office, $470,000; Houston federal building, $500,000; San Angelo, $125,000; Wichita Falls, $500,000; Huntsville, $60,000; Sweetwater, $115,000; Taylor, $115,000; Breckenridge, $100,000; Cisco, $95,000; Harlingen, $85,000; Plainview, $100,000; Coleman, $65,000; Crockett, $50,000; Big Spring $85,000; Georgetown, $60,000; McAllen, $85,000; Memphis, $65,000; San Benito, $85,000; Seguin, $65,000.

The buildings to be erected in Texas if congress will appropriate additional funds are:

San Antonio, $1,190,000; Waco, $600,000, and the following costs which have

"It's Like This"

THE HIGHWAY situation has not yet been helped any by the present legislature. Only a few days remain in which to dispose of bills affecting the highways...

Governor Moody rightly asserts that continuation of the highway paving program depends upon some kind of action at once.

A bill evidently is favored in which vehicle licenses are slashed, reducing the revenue by several millions of dollars.

Much local interest attaches to a bill which would prohibit the state highway department from missing a town of 200 inhabitants or more without the consent of the county commissioners...

The bill would be subject to interpretation, of course. It might come to mean that the roads must touch the edge of the townsites.

LATE WILLS filed in this country have provided endowments of peculiar character. For instance, part of the estate of Chauncey Dewey will be used to encourage development of oratory...

a just cause—it is as tangible as a battleship. Orators may be born, but they are not born great. The art will improve only if interest is perpetuated.

Another will leaves $1,000 per year to a public school providing whipping in it is abolished. And here, too, is not a bad idea.

Violence in the schools belonged to a period, when personal contact was used to settle differences. Today it is being relegated to the homes, where it is too often ineffectual because it is hypocritical.

Nearly all of the punishment that is necessitated in the schools today comes from lack of discipline in the home. Moreover, strength of personality in the teacher will reduce to a minimum the punishment necessary.

"Little Deeds of Kindness"—FOLKS—you Memphis folks, how do you expect rural people to continue coming here to trade when you hog the best parking space?

Henry Farmer and family arrive about noon in the family flivver. They spend fifteen or twenty minutes searching diligently for a parking space that will not require them to walk more than five or six blocks back to the square.

"Applesauce!" you say, you birds at The Democrat have to fill your paper up with same-thing so you harp on parking occasionally." Not so. We can use the old shears and clip stuff to fill up the paper faster than we can write it.

Do you think it's courteous to force farmers and their families—our customers—to drive around town before they can stop and begin spending their hard earned dollars with us?

Want to know what can be done about it? Well, since we've always been long on advice, we'll just break down and tell you for the second time.

"The Newest Generation" According to Jesse Lynch Williams, writing in the new North American Review, a "newest generation" has come forward, determined to be different from the celebrated "younger generation".

Judging from the amount in general, the "newest generation" is a welcome variation, even if its only object is to be different from "the old things" of 27, particularly if it is quite true, as Mr. Williams says, that they are "going in" for "low voices and quiet manners of breeding."

average casual observer is not yet able to locate it with the naked eye.—Wellington Leader.

TWINKLES

Ancestry isn't everything but in politics Texans evidently will be required to keep their Democratic lineage clean. They will—when times are right.

We Democrats remember election days rather well, considering that we get so little of the spoils.

The term idle suggestion must have arisen because so few suggestions are acted upon.

Mr. Marvin Jones couldn't get free mail delivery for us, but if he can land a federal building we will just have to break down and admit that we didn't ask enough, and that we'll leave the asking to him in the future.

Boys will be boys, but those in a position to know say that the Welfare association ought to establish a hand-washing clinic.

But how can you expect the lads to stay clean when this is marble season? We still get more than ordinary satisfaction out of shooting a real agate.

A Cuyler street cynic says they make marriage laws harder, but not marriage.

Witnesses in Chicago murders can testify that free delivery of letters is not always the most desirable thing in the world. They shiver every time the gangster service favors them.

Baptist W. M. U. Circles Meet at Homes of Members

Four circles of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union met yesterday afternoon for lesson study, business sessions or combined business and social meetings. Members of Circle No. 1 convened at the home of Mrs. Clyde Garner, while members of circle No. 2 met in the home of Mrs. E. G. Barrett. Mrs. C. T. Hubert was hostess to circle No. 3. Members of circle No. 4 met in Mrs. W. B. Henry's home.

The devotional for circle No. 1 was led by Mrs. Floyd McConnell. A lesson from the Book of Ruth was followed by an interesting discussion. Plans for the Workers' Council to be held here next week were discussed, and arrangements were completed for this group's share in entertaining delegates. Ten members were present, including two new ones, Mrs. H. O. Grice and Mrs. Hoffman.

Seven members of circle No. 2 took part in the discussion on the first lesson from a new missionary course, "Cuba for Christ." Mrs. Wm. McAlister was leader and others who presented special topics were: Mrs. Ernest Fletcher, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. John McKamy, and Mrs. G. C. Stark. Mrs. McKamy, circle chairman, conducted the devotional, reading the fourth chapter of James.

The meeting of circle No. 3 was a pleasant social gathering. Two amusing contests were directed by Mrs. D. L. Lunsford, who was in charge of entertainment. In the first of these, a group of questions were to be answered by names of automobiles. Miss Kate Anderson was winner guessing the identity of advertisers on advertisements from which the names had been cut furnished entertainment, with the members divided in several teams.

Gifts were exchanged from a grab-bag, and a donation was made to the church building fund. The following members were present: Mrs. W. B. Barton, Mrs. G. D. Holmes, Mrs. D. L. Lunsford, Mrs. E. L. Anderson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. W. D. Champion, Mrs. L. H. Anderson, and Miss Kate Anderson. Two new members joined the circle at the meeting. They were Mrs. C. L. King and Mrs. E. O. Boker.

The first chapter of the missionary book, "Lottie Moon" was the lesson studied by members of circle No. 4. Mrs. D. H. Truhitte was the teacher and led in a sound-table discussion. Mrs. J. E. Chapman, circle chairman, led the devotional and conducted a brief business session. Six members were present.

Miss Roy Riley is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McConnell. She has been unable to teach school this week.

Holy Souls Altar Society Hears Talk on Joan of Arc

The story of Joan of Arc's heroic life, her trial and execution, and subsequent beautification and canonization, was told by the Rev. Joseph Wondrich, pastor of Holy Souls church, at a meeting of the Altar society yesterday afternoon.

More than twenty-five members heard the interesting and instructive talk. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. A. R. Sawyer, with Mrs. Micky Omy acting as hostess. A brief business meeting was held, and plans were made to assist the Parent-Teacher associations in holding the district convention.

Bridge Club Members Entertain Husbands at Voyles Home

Members of the Pla-Mor Bridge club, together with their husbands and a group of friends outside the membership, spent a delightful evening Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Voyles, South Cuyler street. Bridge was played at five attractively appointed tables.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. De Cordova, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward, Mrs. Tom Robinson, Mrs. Myers, William and Jack Robinson, special guests; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lard, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Etter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dyson, members and their husbands.

High score for ladies was made by Mrs. Browne. She was given a beautiful powder set in a gold brocade case. Mr. De Cordova took high score for men and received a tie. Mrs. Lard was engaged for low score with a pretentious puff in pastel shades. Mr. Lard, scoring low for men, was given a pipe.

Refreshments in two dainty courses were served at the end of the game. Dancing was then enjoyed until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Lang Give Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lang entertained at their home last evening with three tables of bridge. Their guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Heistand, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Charles Housen, Miss Sydney Smith, and M. W. Nealey.

Simple decorations for the card tables and accessories for the game developed a color scheme of yellow and white, which was repeated in the menu of a two-course luncheon. High score favors went to Mrs. Griffin and Mr. Perry.

Methodist W. M. S. Has General Meeting at the Church

A general business meeting of all circles of the Methodist Women's Missionary society was held yesterday afternoon, followed by a social gathering in the parlors of the church. An inspiration lesson on "Spiritual Cultivation" was led by Mrs. S. A. Hurst.

In the business meeting conducted by Mrs. W. Purviance, president, the roll was called and answered by circles, Circle No. 1 having the largest percentage of members present. Roll call was followed by a toast from circle No. 3 to other circles. It was cleverly given by little Miss Mary Lee Morris.

Reports from the four circle chairmen showed that 60 new members had been added to the Missionary society in the last month; that more than 200 calls had been made to the sick and to new residents of the city; and that each circle had sent a number of trays of food to the sick. Circle No. 2 reported that its slogan for the coming month will be, "Our Home, Our Ideal."

The social hour was in charge of members of Circle No. 3, who were defeated in a membership campaign. A short program, consisting of a vocal solo by Mrs. Earl Lewis, a piano solo by Josephine Lane, and readings by Evelyn Sackett and Edna Dunaway, was greatly enjoyed. A "getting-acquainted" game was played, after which refreshments were served.

Hostesses of the afternoon included: Mrs. H. L. Barnhart, chairman, Mrs. R. W. Latte, Mrs. John Lane, Mrs. J. D. Sackett, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Plank, Mrs. Robert Morris, Mrs. E. D. Zimmerman, and Mrs. Lee Harrah.

Their guests in the social meeting, who were members of other circles, were: Mrs. S. A. Hurst, Mrs. W. Mullinax, Mrs. R. C. Campbell, Mrs. John Hessey, Mrs. Caughey, Mrs. Fred Cary, Mrs. Roy Bourland, Mrs. Edwin Vickers, Mrs. Hartley, Mrs. J. C. Burgess, Mrs. Chris Baer, Mrs. Irwin Cole, Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. J. M. Dodson, Mrs. C. T. Nicholson, Mrs. Willis Price, Mrs. Earl Lewis, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Earl Studkey.

Mrs. F. M. Gwin, Mrs. George Appleby, Mrs. Horace McBee, Mrs. Joe Hodge, Mrs. C. C. Dodd, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, Mrs. Fred Mason, Mrs. J. E. Ward, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Buryley, Mrs. J. G. Noel, Mrs. T. E. Brabham, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Swain, and Mrs. Bryson.

Claim Massacre Solved as Machine Gunner Is Caught

CHICAGO, Feb. 28. (AP)—Jack McGurn, rated the ace of gangster machine-gunners, was identified last night as one of the St. Valentine's day gang assassins.

He was arrested at the hotel Stevens in a suite three floors above that which the state's attorney's investigators have headquarters. An attractive blonde who said she was Louise Wolfe, and who McGurn said was his wife occupied the suite with him.

In a "showup" at detective headquarters following the arrest, McGurn was picked from a line of 20 by two witnesses and identified as one of the killers.

David Stansbury, directing the slayer search for the state's attorney, said: "The crime has now been solved. There is no question about it. The prisoners have been viewed by witnesses who declare positively that he is one of the killers. I also know the motive—and have known it for two days."

"McGurn will set up an alibi, using as his witness the young woman with whom he was arrested. But the alibi will not stand. All we want now is five more men. We shall have them soon."

The prisoner denied having had any part in the crime.

LAW PROFESSOR DIES

AUSTIN, Feb. 28. (AP)—Judge W. S. Simkins, 86, credited with having fired the first shot in the Civil war at Fort Sumpter, S. C., and with the University of Texas law faculty for 30 years, who died yesterday, will be buried in Dallas tomorrow. Funeral services will be held here this afternoon and the body will then be sent to Dallas.

Rockefeller Again Claims Majority of Standard Votes

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. (AP)—Proxies representing more than 57 per cent of the stock of the Standard Oil company of Indiana were claimed today by the committee headed by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. This percentage, it was announced, represents 18,000 of the 30,000 stockholders.

The committee, which is seeking to prevent the re-election of Col. Robert W. Stewart to the chairmanship of the company, charged that many of the 18,000 employe stockholders desired to give their proxies to the Rockefeller faction, but were afraid of losing their jobs if they did so.

Iowa Park Man Killed in Brownwood

BROWNWOOD, Feb. 28. (P)—J. R. Wilson, 40, Iowa Park, was shot to death here last night and O. T. Leonard, Brownwood, was held pending filing charges today.

O. W. Hill received a broken leg and severe cuts and John Parrott was hurt when the two men wrestled a pistol from Leonard. The shooting occurred at a rooming house. Leonard was said to have objected to attentions Wilson was alleged to have paid Leonard's divorced wife.

No change could be noted today in the condition of Mrs. I. S. Reddick, who sustained severe injuries Monday night when she and her husband were run over by a car. She is at the McKeon & Connor hospital.

Blames Police

The theory that it was possible that police, and not gangsters disguised as officers, were the actual slayers of seven of the members of "Bugs" Moran's gang in Chicago, has been advanced by Major F. D. Silloway, above, deputy prohibition administrator in Chicago. Witnesses said they saw men in police uniform enter the garage where the slaying took place.

Old Coal Fire Is Menacing Town

NEW STRAITSVILLE, Ohio, Feb. 28. (P)—The smoldering peril of a 45-year-old fire in the coal lands of this vicinity today again menaced a section of New Straitsville as the flames, eating their way to the surface, burst out and spread a pall of deadly gas over the hillsides.

Miners from several companies in the vicinity were blasting around an exposed crater in an effort to shut off the flow of air and check the flames.

Started in the 80's by men who fired a mine during a strike, the blaze has smoldered since, eating its way along the veins of coal and occasionally cropping to the surface.

CAMEL OIL COMPANY READY TO DRILL TEST

The rig is on the ground for the Camel Oil company's No. 1-B Harrah, in the northwest corner of the northeast quarter of section 150, block 3. The cellar has been dug for several months, but no effort was made to drill until the Magnolia Petroleum corporation's No. 3 Harrah, in the same section came in last week for 150 barrels.

These tests are three miles west of Pampa in the small production territory.

Some way to better mail service in Pampa has been sought for some time. Free mail delivery was asked repeatedly last year, and the local post officials and Manager George Briggs of the Board of City Development placed much data in the hands of the postal department. The lack of sidewalks in portions of the proposed zones has blocked obtaining this service. Free mail delivery would relieve congestion in the post office. In lieu of granting this service under the present conditions however, the post office department has acted upon an older request for a federal building.

BREAD

Two Wonderful New Loaves Every Housewife will want to serve
Boys and Girls Whistles wrapped in every Big Dandy Loaf Saturday

Here's good news for every woman in this city. News about the most important food you give your family—BREAD.

Here are the new loaves that are going to give you and your family a new feeling toward bread.

Bread can be different—bread can have a richer taste—it can be more nourishing.

MORE MILK does it, and more sugar and more shortening. But the bread must be so made—in the development and in the baking—that it will retain ALL THE GOODNESS of the rich ingredients.

That's the secret. We put rich ingredients into these new loaves and keep their full nourishment RIGHT IN THE LOAF through the proper development of the dough.

For 15 years baking methods have been improving. Thousands of women who used to bake at home have found that they can buy better and better bread.

Now particular women are offered a new loaf—a loaf planned to meet still higher standards. These new loaves have been called BIG-DANDY and PAN-DANDY and have the quality that will consistently qualify to their names.

Big Dandy, the big 15c loaf

Pan-Dandy, the long 10c loaf of more slices

Put Big-Dandy and Pan-Dandy down on your shopping list. Be sure to get a loaf of this wonderful bread at your grocery. Baked by—

Lindbergh Has Most Serious of His Few Mishaps

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 28.—The world that loves a lover was thrilled today by the superb airmanship and gallantry of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh. He exhibited those traits in saving his fiancée, Miss Anne Morrow, and himself from serious injury, or worse, yesterday when their three-hour picnic jaunt ended in a crash.

Colonel Lindbergh today had the pain of a wrenched shoulder and a badly damaged airplane to remind him of the narrowness of their escape. Miss Morrow fared better.

After leaving Valbuena air field yesterday with a small bag packed with sandwiches Colonel Lindbergh and Miss Morrow flew to a nearby spot for a picnic lunch. In the take-off for the return trip the airplane lost its right wheel—probably, it is now believed, because a mechanic greasing it had failed to refasten the cotter key which held it to the axle.

Warns Miss Morrow

When he was flying back to Valbuena field Colonel Lindbergh's thoughts were on his predicament, and how best to emerge from it. Finally he reached over to Miss Morrow, seated at his side, and told her, above the roar of the motor, they probably would turn over when they landed.

He showed her how to take the cushions from the plane's seats and pack them around her body, with others about her head so that the shock of the crash would be lessened. Then, to guard against explosion of the gasoline when the plane turned over he maneuvered back and forth over the field until all but the dregs in the tank were exhausted.

He waved to army mechanics and officers below, pointing to his damaged landing gear, and then shot out of space onto the land, lighting gracefully on one wheel and the tail skid. It seemed for a moment the plane would come to rest without mishap, but the loose end of the axle struck the ground and it careened forward, turning over, first on its nose and then on its back.

Field attendants helped the aviator and Miss Morrow, obviously badly frightened, through it windows to the ground. His first words turning to her were, "are you all right?"

Lindy To Hospital

At the Morrow home Dr. Sidney Unfelder discovered the Colonel's shoulder was dislocated. An effort was made to administer an anesthetic at the Morrow home, but when this failed the aviator was taken to the Lindy Cowdry hospital for the operation.

Within two hours he emerged, his right arm and shoulder bandaged heavily and shrouded in a gray overcoat, and insisted on driving an automobile with Miss Morrow and her sister Elizabeth to Valbuena field to inspect his plane and the damage done to it.

The sight of the plane, propeller twisted, one wing smashed, and landing gear gone, brought a frown to his face. Then he smiled, gave some instructions looking to its repair, and brushing aside would-be questioners, went back to the embassy.

The plane which crashed was the four passenger Travelair monoplane City of Wichita, borrowed last week by the aviator for his flight here to visit his fiancée. At the field it was believed repairs could be made without too great difficulty.

CHURCHES

DAILY LENTEN THOUGHT

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D. Editor of The Congregationalist. An English writer recently quoted Dr. Barnes, the bishop of Birmingham, as having said that the three greatest living men in the world today are Gandhi of India, Grenfell of Labrador and Schweitzer, a missionary in the French Congo.

Possibly in the field of their sort of greatness comparison cannot be made, and each one of these—as the mark of his real greatness—would disclaim being anything but a very lowly child of God, seeking to know and to do his will.

If money is the standard we can compare the greatness of men according to how much they possess. If fame and power are the standards the comparison is not so easy, but it can still be made. But when it comes to a realm where men and women have given all that they have to God and to their fellowmen comparison fails; the lowliest is as the greatest.

This is probably what the poet Brown meant when he said: "All service is alike with God."

Whether, or not Bishop Barnes was correct in his judgment, he has judged according to the right standard. For did not Jesus say, "He that is greatest among you shall be your servant?" The world's supreme souls are those who minister the cup of cold water in the name of Christ.

TEACHERS CAN WEAR 'EM SHORTENED IN CLEVELAND

The Cleveland superintendent of schools wants his teachers to be modish, so Cecilia Sholle (right) and Jean Burroughs (left) show that they are.

CLEVELAND (AP)—R. G. Jones, superintendent of Cleveland schools, wants his teachers to be modish in thought and attire. Health and poise he lists as important, second only to training and education.

Pupils must be at ease to get the most out of their classroom, the superintendent believes, and the best way to bring that about is to give them an attractive, well-dressed, poised and capable teacher.

"We want our teachers to keep abreast of the times," Jones said. "If a teacher can wear short skirts becomingly, she should wear them. And nobody, least of all myself, will complain if there is rouge and lipstick in her purse."

Without good health, a teacher is likely to be ill-natured, unable to control herself and may keep the class room in a turmoil.

Miss Jean Burroughs, a student in the school of education, is Jones' idea of an ideal teacher. Cecilia Sholle was his choice for good health, and Aileen Manmerin as an ideal type because of her good nature and fair mindedness.

Citizens Camps Will Be Bigger

In the near future, orders will be issued from headquarters of the Eighth Corps area, Fort Sam Houston, prescribing the dates and quotas for the Citizens Military Training camps to be held during the summer of 1929, Frank J. Thomas, county chairman of Gray county, announced yesterday.

Places and dates will be approximately the same as last year, he says.

The latest information from the war department indicates that instead of 35,000 young men being trained, the number will be increased to 35,700 this year. Last year Pampa's quota of men was three, and according to Mr. Thomas it will probably be increased to five this year.

Those desiring to attend the C. M. T. C. can get the required information by writing to Chairman Thomas at box 712, Pampa.

Wayland Expects Another Increase in Spring Term

PLAINVIEW, Feb. 28.—The present enrollment of Wayland college is 259 students, the next to the largest in the history of the institution. A number of new students have enrolled for the spring term which opens Monday. The summer term will open June 3, and Dean L. T. Huff expects the enrollment to reach 300 before the close of the spring and summer terms. The graduating class this spring has 43 members, while the Junior class makes up nearly one-half the school with approximately 130 members.

The Wayland debating team members started a successful season Friday night when they met the Freshman team of West Texas State Teachers' college of Canyon and won the decision on the negative side of the question. Resolved, "That the Parliamentary System of Government is Superior to the Presidential System." The debate was held at Plainview with Reid DeWeese, Nial Clark, and Willis J. Ray representing Wayland college.

The Nunn library of Wayland college received 19 new volumes recently donated by S. W. Smith of Plainview. These books contain sermons of Charles Hutton Spurgeon, the greatest Baptist preacher that England ever knew. These bring the total of books donated by Rev. Smith to nearly 100. Rev. Smith spent several years in university work and seminary training and being a lover of good literature had selected his books with great care. He intimates that these will soon be followed by another gift which will comprise almost as many additional volumes.

For Bladder Relief Is Nature's Danger Signal. Columbus Minister's Wife Relates Experience

Rev. W. H. Mitchell, 824 No. Park St., Columbus, Ohio says: "My wife was troubled seriously with bladder irritation until we used lithiated buchu (Keller Formula.) She would have to get up 6 to 8 times each night. Will gladly answer any letter."

Lithiated buchu acts on the bladder as epsom salts on the bowels. Drives out foreign matter and decreases excessive acidity, thereby relieving irritation. The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Fatheree Drug Co.—Adv.

By DE WITT M'KENZIE (Copyright, 1929, Associated Press) This tale involves so many outstanding personalities that one scarcely knows how to begin.

There was Adolphe the Rat, and there was the adjutant captain, and there was Private Gubbins, who acted as squire to the captain, which is to say that Gubbins polished his knight's Sam Browne belt and performed other similar duties such as fall to a bat-man, or personal servant.

At first glance one is inclined to make Gubbins the hero. Gubbins was a remarkable character. His one great gift against humanity was his face which bore a striking resemblance to the melancholy visage of the Brother Higgins of Pickwickian fame.

But Gubbins possessed none of the traits of the reverend gentleman whom he resembled. If he had any weakness at all, it lay in a penchant for cast-off wearing apparel of his master. Daily he implored the adjutant captain with such suggestions as, "Beggin' pardon, sir, but you won't be needin' them boots any more, will you sir?"

Second-hand clothing was a fetish for Gubbins, but a man can have worse fancies than that. Undoubtedly Gubbins has claims to the position of hero. Still it was Adolphe, and had the adjutant captain not played his part there would have been no show. Oh, well, pick the hero for yourself. I'm going ahead with the story as best I can. It's a true account of an event that happened in 1917.

Adolphe and the adjutant captain and Gubbins all lived in the maze of dugouts under the British front-line trenches in the Lens sector in France. Gubbins cleaned the boots and belts and made himself generally useful, but he was the shadow of his master and never was far away from the one he served. The adjutant captain, being all-round man for the colonel, maintained an office in one of the dugouts, and here nightly Adolphe used to visit him.

Adolphe was a big trench rat, but he was not like others of his breed.

Adolphe was superior. Even his coat was not the ordinary brown, but was almost black and as sleek and shiny as Gubbins' nose. Every night as the adjutant sat at his "desk" of rough boards, working by the light of candles stuck in bottles, Adolphe the Rat used to come in for a friendly chat and the few bits of bread which represented the best the adjutant's hospitality could provide.

Always the program was the same. Adolphe would mount the table and shuffle along until he had attracted attention. Then his nose would quiver and his whiskers would gyrate in pure joy as the adjutant talked to him and petted him. It was the children's hour for Adolphe. Finally would come the offering of crumbs to seal the pact of friendship.

So for many weeks, until one night Adolphe found a lack of welcome. The adjutant was buried in work. The fighting had been heavy in his sector, and even then the great German shells were making the earth about him quake. Orders, dispatches and what not were stacked before him.

Adolphe snuggled up and tried his best to attract attention. No good. The adjutant didn't even see him. Adolphe's feelings were cruelly hurt, but he was a superior chap, as we have said, and he had brains. There was no need to sacrifice his supper, just for pride. So he started on a still hunt for his crumbs.

Adolphe nosed about the table, but he saw no bread. He poked his head into all the nooks and even took a look over the edge. Not much sustenance down below; nothing but the big boxes of Verey lights which were kept there for safety. Even a rat couldn't eat explosives.

There was only one place left to look and that was behind the bottle with the burning candle in it. Adolphe sighed and trotted over to the light. He must have stubbed his toe, for over went the bottle and the candle dropped squarely into an open box of Verey lights.

Great rockets of every description began to go off. The little room was filled with em—green ones, blue ones, red ones, every color under the sun. Some were intended to signal a retreat some were meant to order an attack, and some told of an imminent assault by the enemy. But big or little, green or red, the unhappy adjutant ultimately got them all on some portion of his anatomy. Adolphe the Rat, being superior and a thinker, disappeared.

The whole place was rocking with the explosions. The adjutant finally fought his way through the barrage

SUN SOON TO SET FOR OLDEST CANINE WAR VET

PALO ALTO, Calif., Feb. 27.—Every dog has his day, and Lupo had his long ago. He's just an old almost toothless police dog now lazing his way through the 16th year of his life in the home of his mistress, Mrs. Helen Getchell, here. His sun has about set.

Lupo, oldest canine veteran of the World War

But he had his day, once, and it was a great day. Lupo is the oldest surviving canine veteran of the World War.

Like many war heroes, he had never been heard of before he leaped into fame. His former master, an Italian count, took him to the war—and Lupo saw it all.

Lupo sat in his master's combat plane over the trenches. He went into No Man's Land to succor the wounded. He was hit by shrapnel, and once one of his legs was broken by an army truck. He has outlived the effects of these wounds, but he still remembers military discipline, and there isn't a better behaved dog in California.

But those brave days were long ago. Lupo takes it easy now; a walk with his mistress every morning, an idle stroll through neighboring back yards by his lonesome, and a long session on the living room rug in the afternoons and evenings. Lupo is about through.

Every dog has his day. And Lupo's day—three and a half years of fighting—ended a decade ago.

"I light a Lucky and stay slender -"

Lucky Strike Cigarettes advertisement featuring a portrait of Hope Hampton and a pack of cigarettes.

"Luckies have helped me win the laurel crown of my musical career—singing in opera. Stage presence demands a slim, youthful figure. Rich foods cannot tempt me. I light a Lucky and stay slender. The toasted flavor of a Lucky soothes the craving for goodies. Then, too, a Lucky never irritates my throat. Even, after smoking many, my voice is still clear."

The modern common sense way—reach for a Lucky instead of a fattening sweet. Everyone is doing it—men keep healthy and fit, women retain a trim figure. Lucky Strike, the finest tobaccos, skillfully blended, then toasted to develop a flavor which is a delightful alternative for that craving for fattening sweets.

Toasting frees Lucky Strike from impurities. 20,679 physicians recognize this when they say Luckies are less irritating than other cigarettes. That's why folks say: "It's good to smoke Luckies."

Note: Authorities attribute the enormous increase in Cigarette smoking to the improvement in the process of Cigarette manufacture by the application of heat. It is true that during 1928, Lucky Strike Cigarettes showed a greater increase than all other Cigarettes combined. This surely confirms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.

THE BLACK PIGEON © 1929 By NEA Service, Inc. BY ANNE AUSTIN

THIS HAS HAPPENED One Monday morning the body of "HANDSOME HARRY" BORDEN, promoter of dubious stock companies, is found by his secretary, RUTH LESTER, sprawled beneath the airshaft window of his private office.

offices from hold-up men and neglect your own safety—did you? "I own a .38 caliber Colt's automatic, exactly like the pistol I gave Miss Lester," Jack answered steadily.

WELL, Hayward, McMann opened the attack with his short bark of a laugh, "you've had plenty of time to figure out why I look you at least 10 minutes to find these theater tickets."

McMANN consulted his notes, checked an item or two, then demanded irritably: "Hasn't that office boy blown in yet? . . . No? What's the last address you have, Miss Lester? We've got to get him."

News photographers pressed forward, cameras were aimed, flash-light powder, already prepared, exploded, while the flattered detective posed in the doorway.

In the next chapter: The busy telephone line.

HOLLYWOOD—It was four or five years ago in San Francisco. A young man sauntered into the office of a leading daily newspaper and asked for a job. What could he do? Anything, he said so.

So the young man walked out, and in an incredibly short time returned with a written interview and photographs that made the dramatic editor quite enthusiastic. It was planned to use the story for a "Sunday spread."

And even though his identity was discovered before the Sunday editions appeared, Eddie Dowling had the satisfaction of seeing his interview with himself in print.

Dowling is another "singing screen personality" imported from the musical comedy stage to star in a musical-talking picture being made in Hollywood.

Patrons of that forthcoming production, "Broadway Bound," will hear in Dowling's a voice that failed—but came back stronger. It was his "boy soprano" which attracted the attention of Sir Oswald Stroll, English producer and theatrical manager, when Eddie was a 12-years-old cabin boy on an ocean liner.

Sir Oswald took him to London and put him in the lead of a chorus with 25 other boys from St. Paul's choir. While the group was touring Australia Eddie's soprano cracked with adolescent changing.

But he went back to London and joined a show which came to New York only to flop. Eddie, however, remained in the metropolis working in and out of the stage business until his singing voice returned, when he was nearly 18, as the healthy baritone it is today.

One man was arrested yesterday at Temple after officers had found a wrecked automobile south of there. Part of the $300 reported missing was found in the machine. Officers were on the trail of another man said to have been seen with the suspect arrested at Temple.

After listening to nearly 11 hours of the arguments of counsel, a tired jury took the case early today and in 45 minutes returned a verdict of acquittal, refusing the state's thesis that McCloskey so wanted the congressional title that as the then Bexar county (San Antonio) judge he had knowledge of asserted alteration of Bexar county returns to cut down a Wurzbach lead.

Jurors said they stayed "out" 40 minutes because they took time to read the judge's charge and look over some documentary evidence. Daily News' want-ads bring results.

Just say the murder of 'Handsome Harry' Borden promises to be one of the biggest crime sensations of the year, and that Detective Sergeant Thomas H. McMann, in charge of the investigation, expects to make an arrest before the day is over.

McMann consulted his notes, checked an item or two, then demanded irritably: "Hasn't that office boy blown in yet? ... No? What's the last address you have, Miss Lester? We've got to get him."

"I'll put Callahan on the job, sir," Birdwell volunteered wearily. "Anything else?" "No. Yes, wait! Hayward, you say you and Miss Lester lunched at the Chester Hotel? ... Which table?"

offices from hold-up men and neglect your own safety—did you?" "I own a .38 caliber Colt's automatic, exactly like the pistol I gave Miss Lester," Jack answered steadily. "You will find it in the bottom drawer of my desk, unfired. I have never used it."

As he spoke, Ruth stared at him in terror she was powerless to conceal, wanted to clap her hand over his mouth to hold back that damning admission.

"Why, he doesn't know the gun is gone!" she realized, with almost hysterical joy. "He doesn't know! How stupid I've been! Of course he'd have cleaned it and put it back if he had killed Borden! He had plenty of time—"

McMann rose. "As you say, Hayward, I'm open-minded! I'll have a look at that gun, and then, still open-minded, I'll wait for Pederson's report on whether it's been fired or not. Pederson's our firearms expert, and if he says it's never been fired, I'll take his word for it—but not yours. Pretty clever of you to admit possession of a gun, but you know damned well that the record would show when and where you purchased it."
