

THIRD NEW GUSHER BROUGHT IN SIX WHITE DEER PERSONS OVERCOME LAST NIGHT RATIFICATION OF KELLOGG ANTI-WAR TREATY PREDICTED

DEADLOCK MAY END ON BASIS OF NEW DRAFT

Report of Borah Is Accepted by Anti Pact Group

RESERVATION IS NOT INTENTION

Women Give Resolu- tions Urging Adop- tion of Plan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (P)—Early ratification of the Kellogg anti-war treaty was imminent today when the group demanding an interpretation accepted a report drafted by Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee. A poll of the committee developed a majority in favor of the report, which stipulates that it shall not be considered as a reservation to the pact.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (P)—A break in the deadlock over an interpretation of the Kellogg anti-war treaty seemed imminent today when Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee began a poll of the committee on an interpretative report prepared by him. Presentation of such a report has been holding up a vote on ratification. Senator Borah had as a preface to the report, however, a stipulation that it was not to be considered as a reservation to the treaty in any way.

The senate drove ahead with debate as a delegation of women from the conference on the cause and cure of war invaded the capitol to support the pact.

The women, under leadership of their chairman, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, presented to various senators copies of more than ten thousand approving resolutions adopted throughout the states. On the senate floor the discussion revolved about the Reed resolution to have the foreign relations committee submit a report embodying the views expressed by Chairman Borah that the treaty did not infringe upon the Monroe Doctrine nor upon America's right of self-defense. Secretary Kellogg has opposed the plan sponsored by Reed of Missouri.

Marshal Foch Is Slightly Better

PARIS, Jan. 15. (P)—Marshal Ferdinand Foch was somewhat better today after a fairly restful night but his condition justified anxiety.

Only two of the six physicians who visited the generalissimo of the Allies yesterday returned to his bedside this morning. They left a few minutes after issuing a bulletin to the effect that there had been a slight amelioration in their patient's condition.

From the start of the day, when the morning papers gave the French public its first knowledge that Marshal Foch was stricken with a heart attack, callers began to arrive at the marshal's simple but stately home in Rue de Grenelle, but a few yards from the Court of the Invalides.

—AND A SMILE
CHICAGO.—Glutted potato and rice markets, in the opinion of E. S. Briggs, are due to professional exploiters of feminine pulchritude, as he reasoned at the convention of the American Fruit & Vegetable Shippers' association. The exploiters caused the boyish figure idea to become popular and starchy foods were avoided.

EL PASO HERALD AND TIMES BOUGHT BY NUNN, RODERICK

LUBBOCK, Jan. 15. (P)—Purchase of the El Paso Herald and El Paso Times by Lindsey Nunn of Amarillo and Dorrance D. Roderick of Lubbock was announced here today. The two El Paso papers will be transferred to the new owners on February 1, and meanwhile a new corporation will be formed to operate them. Roderick, publisher of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, will also become publisher of the El Paso papers. Nunn is owner of several weekly and daily papers in the Texas Panhandle.

HIGHWAY BODY WILL MEET IN BORGER SOON

Members of the Oilfield Highway association 41 will meet in Borger Thursday. The association was organized last November with F. P. Reid of Pampa as president.

The road would leave Oklahoma City on highway 41 continuing through Sayre, Okla., to near Wheeler, where it would connect with highway 33-A to Pampa. From Pampa, the proposed route is to Borger, by way of Skellytown, and on to Colorado through Dumas, Dalhart and Hartley.

At the meeting in Borger, Mrs. Billie Dixon will be in attendance in the interest of erecting a monument near the old Fort Elliott site on highway 33-A. Mrs. Dixon is in charge of collections for the erection of the monument. Fort Elliott was established in 1875 and abandoned in 1894. The monument would be a road-marker, as well as a tribute to those who protected settlers in the Indian days.

Deeds and papers of the monument will be turned over to T. D. Hobart, president of the Panhandle Historical society.

Delegations from all towns through which the proposed highway would pass are expected to attend the meeting in Borger which will be presided over by the president, F. P. Reid.

Landowners Will Watch Legislation Affecting Titles

A delegation of Gray county landowners will journey to Austin to be there Thursday morning when bills relating to the recent oil litigations will be presented to the legislative committee.

Bills to be presented will include a request for change of venue on all cases where the state is claiming oil lands from Austin to the county where the land is located; A request that landowners be given prior rights to file and a request to validate the present patents issued by the state.

Pair of Games Here Tonight

Panhandle's Panthers and Pantherettes, basketball quintets, will be guests of the Harvesters here tonight. The girls' game will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will be followed by the boys' game.

The Panthers are smarting from a recent defeat in the hands of the Harvesters on their home floor and will be here full of fight. The local boys are still feeling the effects of their two-game victory over the Canyon Eagles and will be in fighting trim for tonight.

The Panhandle girls are an unknown quantity, but will know doubt give the locals a hard run. The Pampa girls have yet to break into the win column, and they say they are going to do so tonight.

ALL AFFECTED OUT OF DANGER AND IMPROVING

Lack of Ventilation Is Blamed for Incident

ALL WERE NEAR BURNING STOVE

Fresh Air Revives the Victims Last Night

WHITE DEER, Jan. 15. (Special)—Six persons are recovering today from effects of near-asphyxiation last night. Those affected were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Everly, Jack Henderson, E. F. Tubbs, H. W. Waters, and J. D. Perkins.

Mr. Everly fainted while sitting by a gas stove in the Everly-Tubbs furniture store. He was revived, but a few minutes later Mrs. Everly, sitting nearby, succumbed. Soon afterward, Mr. Everly again lost consciousness. By this time several persons had entered, and several of them were overcome. Henderson helped Mr. Tubbs out into the street before collapsing, and summoned help.

The gas was turned off, windows were opened, and the victims were revived. Lack of ventilation was believed to have caused the fainting. As far as could be determined, there was no carbon monoxide gas involved.

All those affected were recovering today, but were somewhat weak from their experience.

Mr. Everly fainted about 8 o'clock, and it was after midnight before the cause of the trouble was discovered. Dr. W. Purviance of Pampa was called into consultation about 1 o'clock, but he did not find the condition of any victim serious.

Mrs. C. W. Merrill was similarly overcome at her home Sunday night, and relatives who heard her coughing dragged her from the bath room in time to save her life.

SETTLEMENT OF ROMAN QUESTION IS COMPLETE

ROME, Jan. 15. (P)—Formal announcement of settlement of the Roman question appeared today to turn on a question of procedure—whether it should first be made public by Pope Pius XI or by Premier Mussolini.

Some persons thought it would be better in order to save appearances to allow the pope to announce it in his first encyclical of 1929 or in the allocation to be pronounced before the sprightly consistory. In some fascist circles it was believed the premier would take occasion to announce completion of a provisional accord at the council of ministers on Thursday.

Dennis Harvey of Skellytown visited Bob Rose and Frank Hill last night.

LOCAL MEN STUDY BOYS' ACTIVITIES IN SCOUT COURSE

Thirty-five local men gathered at the basement of the First Methodist church last night for the first session of the Scout leaders' training course being sponsored by the Adobe Walls council. The meeting was in charge of Scott Barcus, newly elected assistant executive of the council.

Three patrols were organized and a fourth started. Paul Shepherd is leader of the Cuckoo patrol; P. E. Boyd leader of the Bob White patrol, and Horace Park leader of the Fox patrol. Short patrol contests were held before an interesting address by Executive E. D. McIver on "The Boy." Knot tying was begun and the men became efficient in the simpler knots during the evening.

Sessions will be held in the basement on the Methodist church every Monday night at 7:30.

DOG CATCHER IS TO WAGE WAR ON STRAY ANIMALS

Chief of Police J. I. Downs announced this morning that a dog catcher would be hired February 1 to catch all dogs running at large without a license and a vaccination tag. The license tags are here, while Dr. T. J. Worrell has a large quantity of vaccine on hand.

"We are going to start early this year to protect the city against rabies," the chief said this morning. "Dogs will be caught and placed in the pound and it will cost the owners $1 to get them out besides the price of a tag and vaccination. If they are not taken from the pound within a time to be set they will be killed," he said.

Tax for male dogs is $2 this year and for female dogs the price is $5. Last year the price was $1. It will cost $2 to have a dog vaccinated.

At least 25 local citizens were bitten by mad dogs last year and Chief Downs says he is going to take every precaution to see that the disease does not break out again this year. There were 253 dog licenses issued in 1928, the chief says.

IT'S PRETTY COLD

With the thermometer down to 18 degrees above the zero mark at 5 o'clock this morning, according to the Santa Fe reading, Pampa witnessed its second coldest snap of the winter. At 8 o'clock the thermometer wavered around 21 degrees. The cold wave was accompanied by a northwest wind that later switched to the south.

POLITICS NOT MENTIONED IN MOODY'S TALK

Texas Expects Much of Administration, He Asserts

ROBISON WILL CONTINUE FIGHT

Legislature Rests Short Time for Inaugural Today

AUSTIN, Jan. 15. (P)—In his inaugural address today Gov. Dan Moody said:

"By the consent of the generous and proud citizenship of Texas, I again assume the obligations of the governorship of this great state, and I shall faithfully endeavor to discharge its duties. The occasion is appropriate for an acknowledgement of my appreciation of the confidence which the people of Texas have reposed in me by continuing me in this honorable and dignified office. In return for their confidence and trust it is my purpose and desire to give unselfish service to the public interest.

AUSTIN, Jan. 15. (P)—Senators favoring no consideration of regular appropriation bills until a special session received a blow today when the senate, 19 to 9, voted down a motion to postpone indefinitely consideration of the judiciary appropriations measure.

"I have no ambitions, so far as the office is concerned, except to honorably, courageously, and efficiently meet the responsibilities, and respond to its duties. I want to embrace every opportunity which circumstances afford for upholding and promoting the happiness and material welfare of the people into whose service I enter for another term. I hope that you who constitute the legislative department of this government and I may join hands in a united effort so to serve the interests of our citizenship.

"The people of Texas expect much of this administration. They are conscious of new necessities created by the ever-changing conditions of this fast developing age. Our time is 1929. We have been chosen as their officers and entrusted with power to act for them in the present matters which concern their welfare. Therefore it is our duty to attune our thinking amid our doing to their existing needs. Our attitude toward public problems should not be reactionary, but progressive and in keeping with the times of which our lives form a part.

"From the legislative halls of this state and the executive office we should send forth measures of law that are written by hands and minds which are devoted to mankind's material and spiritual betterment and advancement. The opportunity is great and this beautiful country which thought and toil have transformed from wooded wilderness and arid plains into the home of five million happy people demands the best of which we are capable. The people appreciate the difficulties and intricacies of the issues before us, and they will patiently but interestedly wait for our actions. Unselfish devotion upon our part to their service will earn their approval.

"Throughout my life I have been the beneficiary of this state and her citizens. The people of Texas have placed me in honorable positions of trust and power, and in your presence I acknowledge my indebtedness to them, and I again dedicate my thought and whatever talents I may have to the furtherance of their welfare and happiness."

AUSTIN, Jan. 15. (P)—Land Commissioner J. T. Robison today was preparing to resist the effort to make permanent the injunction of January 1, restraining him from selling university land oil and gas rights advertised for January 2.

No. 4 Saunders Does 200 Barrels An Hour Today

Given three sensational gushers in two days, Gray county promises to overtake Hutchinson's oil production total and attain supremacy in the Panhandle oil territory for the first time. About 6,000 barrels daily production now separates the two counties.

Good for 5,000 barrels, the Plains Drilling company's No. 4 Saunders in the southeast corner of the east half of the southeast quarter of section 4, block 1, A. C. H. & B. survey, hit the pay this morning and made 200 barrels the first hour. The test is bottomed at 2,560 feet in the new shallow pay found in the LeFors field. The well is being flowed by about 8,000,000 feet of gas.

Since being drilled in, the well has filled three 500-barrel tanks and on last report was flowing wild. Pay was unexpected at the depth where the flow began, and as a result pipe line connections had not been made.

In the same section, the Texas company's No. 7 Saunders came in yesterday morning for about 1,200 barrels, but late in the afternoon increased to 237 barrels an hour. All available tanks were filled and pipe lines could not carry the flow. The well was pinched in, but this morning was continuing to make 122 barrels an hour.

The hole is bottomed in granite wash formation at 2,661 feet. The flow is being assisted by 10,000,000 feet of gas.

When drilled deeper Sunday, the Ray and Plains Drilling company's No. 1 Chapman, along the south line of the southwest quarter of section 50, block A-9, H. & G. N. survey, came in for a 600 barrel producer. This morning the well is reported to have increased its flow to 199 barrels an hour and to be overflowing storage, the hole is bottomed at 2,825 feet.

The Skelly Oil company announces that two wells are ready to drill in to day.

The Gulf Production company's No. A-6 Bowers in the northwest corner of the west half of section 89, block B-2, in the Bowers-McGee pool, after coming in for 800 barrels last week increased yesterday making 1,410 barrels of high gravity oil. The hole is bottomed below the granite wash formation at 2,980 feet.

Skelly Oil company is drilling in an offset today.

Father of Captain Eaker in Hospital

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 15. (P)—Plans for the Question Mark, army endurance plane, to make a non-stop refueling flight from here to Washington, D. C., hinged today upon the time when Capt. Ira C. Eaker, its chief pilot during the record-breaking flight recently, can return here for duty.

Captain Eaker was called to his parents home, near San Angelo, Texas, Sunday by the illness of his mother and yesterday his father was taken to a San Angelo hospital for an operation. Major Carl Spatz, commander of the Question Mark, said that a final decision on details of the flight would be withheld until Captain Eaker returned from Texas.

Mrs. J. B. Pafford of Claude, formerly of Pampa, is a business visitor in the city today.

Ed Stenson is in Amarillo today to attend ceremonies of Khiva Shrine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dodson and children visited in Claude Sunday afternoon.

C. L. Hasie and D. A. Askew are transacting business in McLean today.

Snyder to Have One of Finest Airports in Texas

SNYDER, Jan. 15. (P)—Snyder will soon become owner of a 200-acre airport ultimately designed to be the equal of any in the country, D. P. Yoder, who has been a leader in the airport movement, has announced. When completed, the field is expected to receive a rating of A1A, the highest bestowed by the government, it was said.

More than 3,000 feet of land area will be provided, with clear approaches in all directions. Plans for the air center were drawn up after visits to many fields, and consultation with government experts.

Work on the port will be started within a few days. Among features to be provided are a model filling station, restaurant and camp grounds, where rooms will be available at low cost. Gas, electricity, water and sewerage lines will be installed, together with latest meteorological instruments.

Streets of Cities Blocked by Snow

CHICAGO, Jan. 15. (P)—Zero weather, wearing a shawl of snow, continued her unwelcome visit to middle America today, with little likelihood of her leaving for another day at least.

Snow covered most of the Midwest, following yesterday's heavy fall, making icy pavements in the cities and blocking railroads and highways in the open country.

There were half a dozen deaths attributable to the cold, and innumerable accidents.

The six-inch snowfall in Chicago offered a serious traffic problem, clogging streets and drives. Tons of snow was removed from the downtown streets during the day and last night, and dumped into Lake Michigan.

BEBE TO MARRY

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 15. (P)—The Examiner said in a copyright story today that Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon, screen stars, are to be married in the near future, and that the engagement will be announced early next week by Mrs. Phillips Daniels, mother of the motion picture actress. Neither Miss Daniels nor Lyon ever have been married.

PROHIBITION is under local option, in one sense, as much as it was in old days.

By this we mean that enforcement is largely in the hands of county officers, and prosecution is based on state laws.

This condition will exist as long as the present system of law by states prevails. Therefore, who shall say that prohibition is no longer an issue?

PHYSICAL TRAINING that reaches only athletic individuals who do not need it is inconsistent. But we have the system in all our schools.

With a new gymnasium, Pampa can get away from this narrow definition of athletics and carry the benefits to all boys and girls.

Slaton, not nearly so large as Pampa, is doing this under a program just adopted. Men of the school who have had gymnasium training in college have charge of gymnastics, and women teachers supervise the girls.

It is unfortunate that the reaction of the public toward such activity makes development of a logical course of study sluggish where it should be most brilliant.

Along Hoover's Trail SOUTH AMERICA

WASHINGTON—Copiapo, Chile, is surrounded by inland mountains. The city has been unheard of in North America since its last big earthquake. It was reached by your correspondent only through accident. It is capital of a whole Chilean province and populated by no more than 8000 souls.

There's a Rotary Club in Copiapo and it lunches once a week. Unable to count them, your correspondent was told that there were also some 200 automobiles. It costs $1000 to get a new Ford here, so it was no surprise to see a couple of local families driving in a Chevrolet with a uniformed chauffeur.

Two Detroit boys stole an automobile and started for Texas to become cowboys. Couldn't someone have told them that all the cowboys are in Hollywood?

TWINKLES

Science is wonderful, but has yet to perfect a thermostat to keep our bodies adjusted to our temperature changes. They are going to censor radio broadcast. The wild waves are saying some naughty things, if reports to the radio commission are true. However, the stuff can always be tuned out—which isn't rot. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is taking farmers out to California to see where our grain goes and where our eggs come from. But you can go down to most any train and see the eggs come in.

Boys will be boys, but being like some men they meet is worse. And it takes a mighty good man to teach a boy much about such things as Scouting. Pampa's leaders of boys are studying their jobs. It will be interesting to note the outcome of destruction of a Kansas courthouse by fire. If any criminals escape by reason thereof, courthouse burning may be more popular than burning of schoolhouses. Wonder what Al has been listening to since November 6? Whether with an ear to the ground or to New York politicians will be revealed in his radio talk tomorrow night at 7:30.

'Light a Lucky and you'll never miss sweets that make you fat'

Constance Talmadge

INSTEAD of eating between meals... instead of fattening sweets... beautiful women keep youthful slenderness these days by smoking Luckies. The smartest and loveliest women of the modern stage take this means of keeping slender... when others nibble fattening sweets, they light a Lucky!

Lucky Strike is a delightful blend of the world's finest tobaccos. These tobaccos are toasted—a costly extra process which develops and improves the flavor. That's why Luckies are a delightful alternative for fattening sweets. That's why there's real health in Lucky Strike. That's why folks say: "It's good to smoke Luckies."

For years this has been no secret to those men who keep fit and trim. They know that Luckies steady their nerves and do not harm their physical condition. They know that Lucky Strike is the favorite cigarette of many prominent athletes, who must keep in good shape. They respect the opinions of 20,679 physicians who maintain that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

A reasonable proportion of sugar in the diet is recommended, but the authorities are overwhelming that too many fattening sweets are harmful and that too many such are eaten by the American people. So, for moderation's sake we say:—

'REACH FOR A LUCKY INSTEAD OF A SWEET.'

'It's toasted' No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

THEY sat in silence. And the only sound that broke the stillness of the night was the mournful cooling of a lonely little mountain dove.

"No, I don't think so," she said.

"Anyhow, she doesn't talk about it, if she does." "Does she still believe in reincarnation?" he asked.

HOLLIS broke in upon her thoughts.

"Would you tell me about your father?" he asked. "Or had you rather not talk about him, Orchid?"

"I've always hated it myself until lately," she confessed.

"I know a lovely name for you. Shall I tell you?" "A name you made up yourself?" she cried. "Just for me?"

"No, I don't think so," she said.

"What is it?" she demanded excitedly. "Orchid," he told her softly. "You know, my dear, there isn't a flower in all the world quite so much like you. So chaste. And remote. Such a cool, exquisite thing."

"Oh, yes," admitted Ashtoreth.

"But mother thought she was sort of an old fogy, and she didn't pay any attention. She loved him like everything, Holly. She'd simply have died for him. But—well, mother and father weren't a bit alike. They never really understood each other, I think."

HE spoke very quietly, and raised her fingers to his lips and kissed them gently.

"That's a beautiful name," she said. "I love it." "Then I shall call you Orchid," he told her. "It will be my little tender name for you. My small, secret name. Shall you like that?"

"Oh, yes," admitted Ashtoreth.

"But mother thought she was sort of an old fogy, and she didn't pay any attention. She loved him like everything, Holly. She'd simply have died for him. But—well, mother and father weren't a bit alike. They never really understood each other, I think."

"I know," he said.

"Then tell me, Orchid. And I shall appreciate your confidence with all my heart." "You're not sleepy?" she asked. "Sleepy?" he cried. "When I can talk with you? I should say not! I think, though, since we are going to sit up so long, I will speak to Hester, if you will excuse me for a moment."

HOLLIS HART smiled in the darkness.

"An artistic triumph," he conceded. "But not much of a fling, emotionally speaking. I suppose, though, that when a girl's weeping for effect it's not an emotional de-

THEY were silent again for a little while.

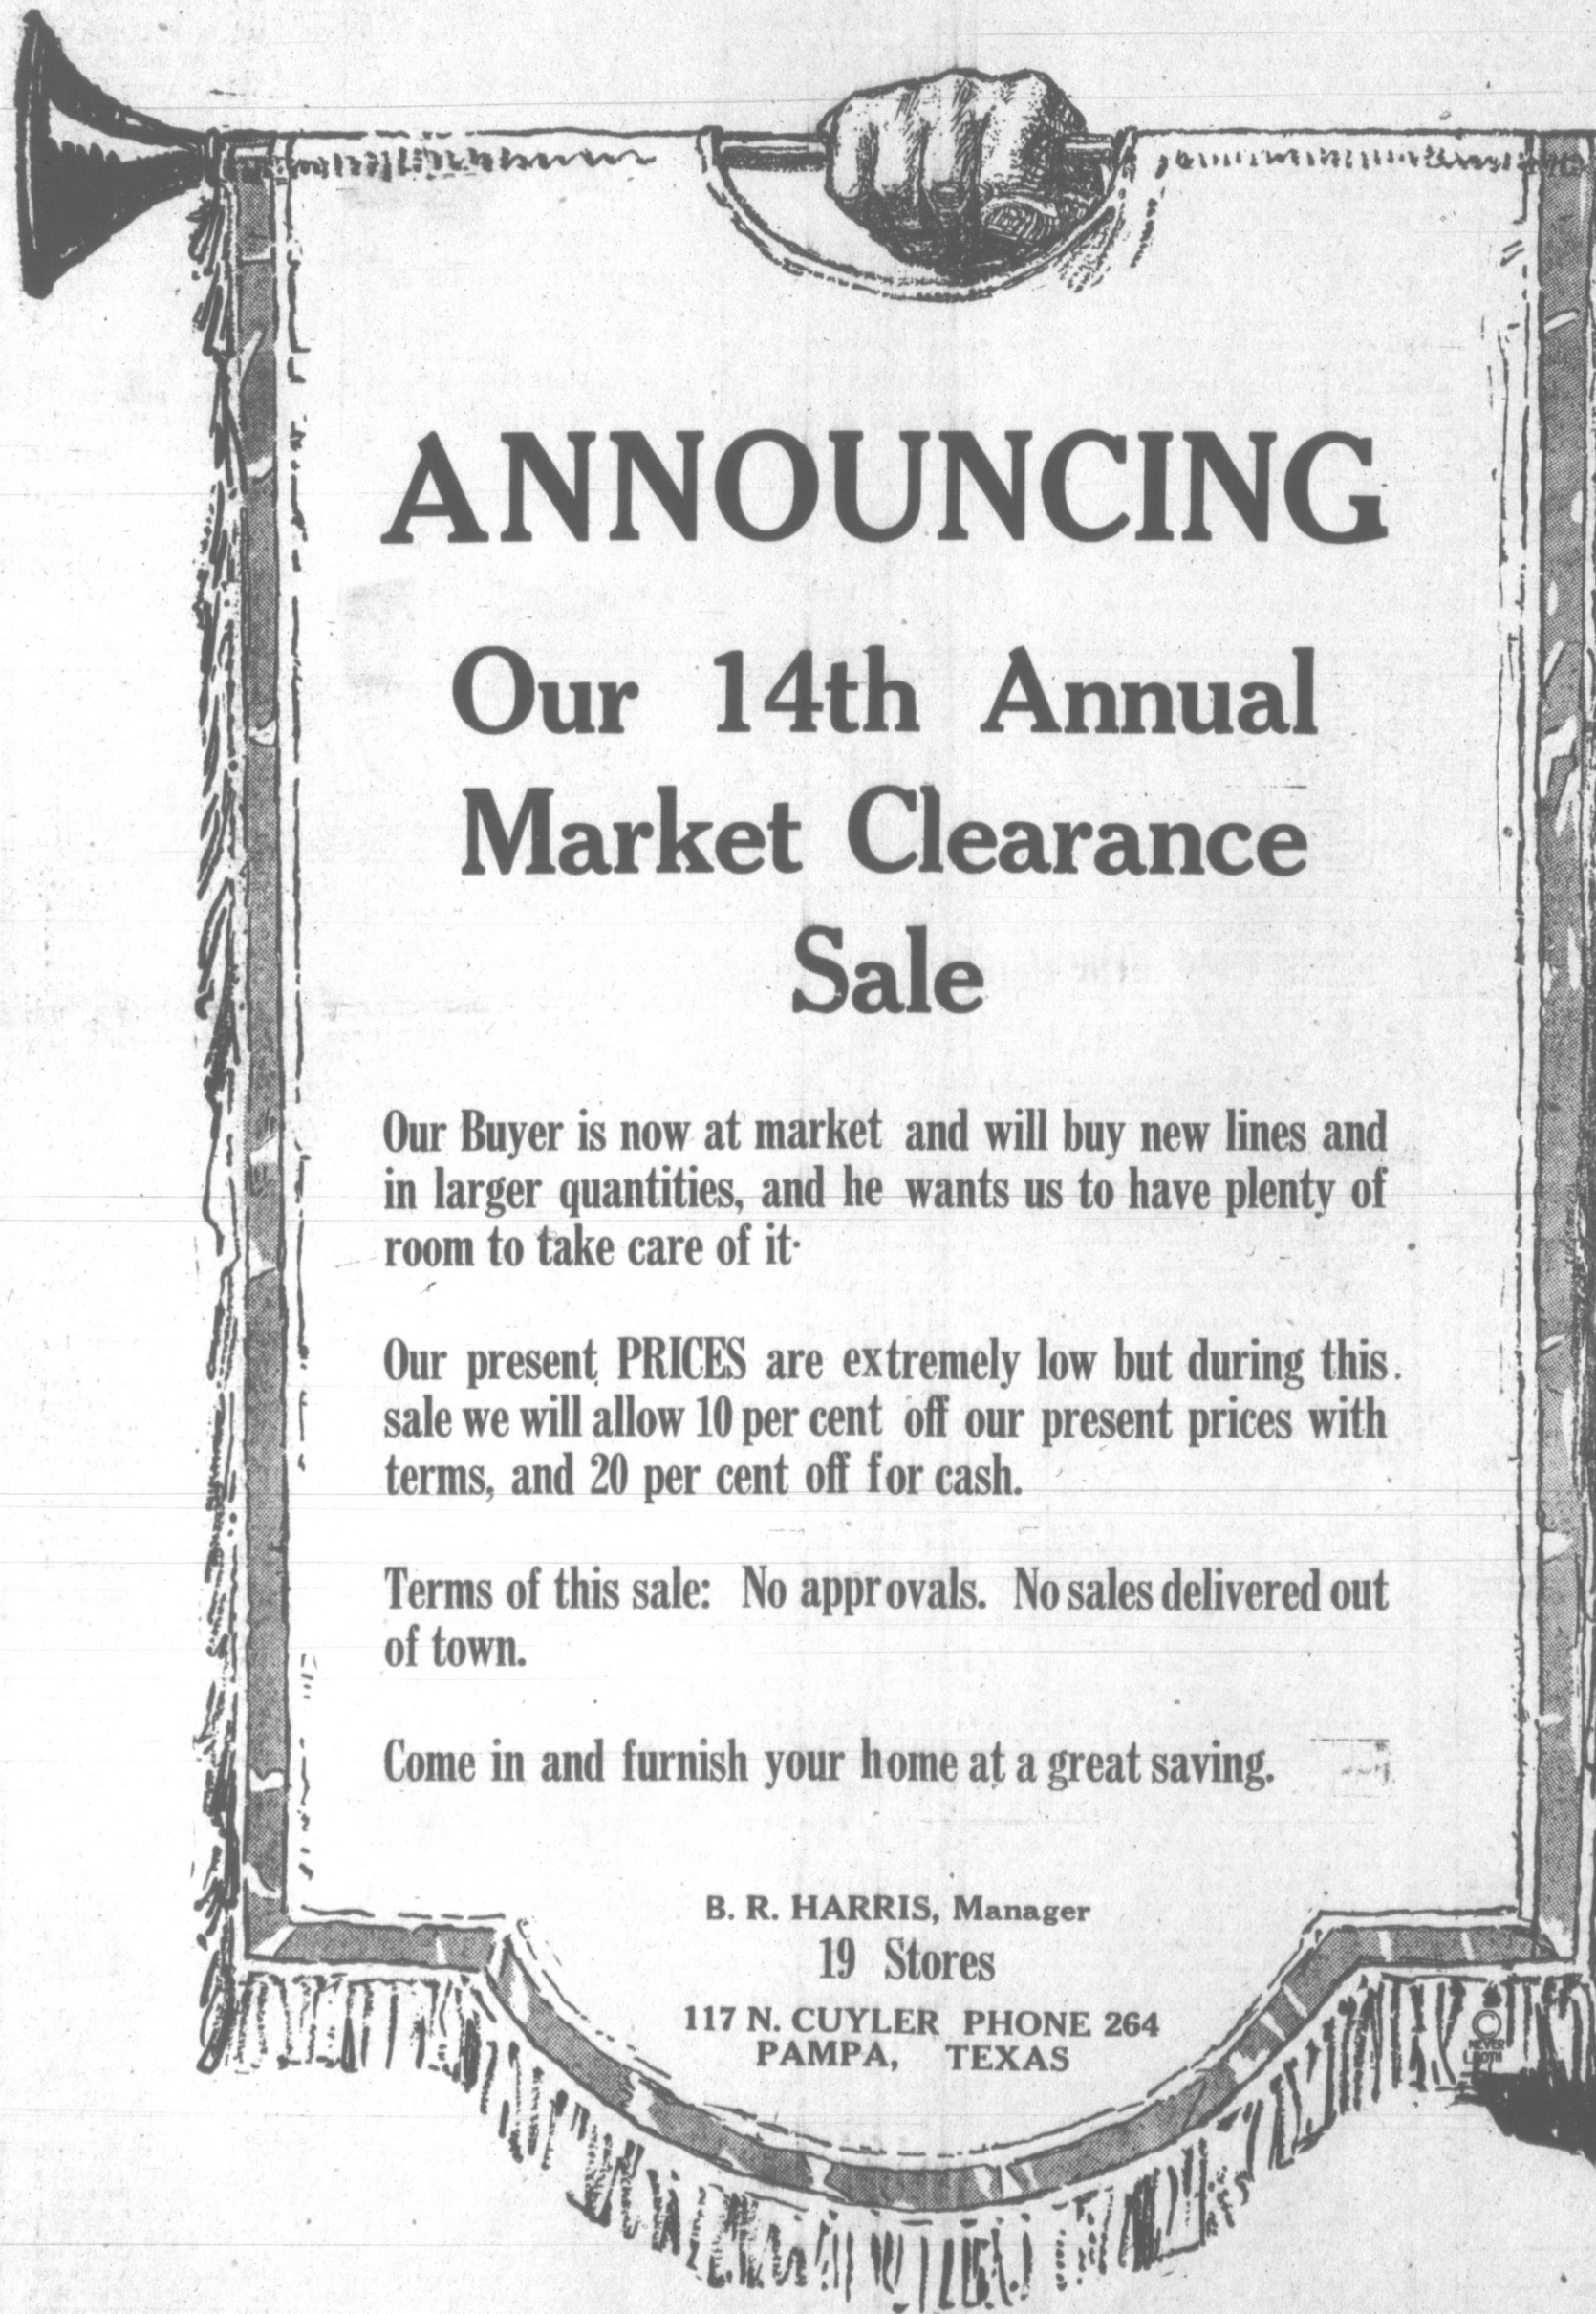

And Ashtoreth wondered if Hollis was reviving her mother in his mind. What sort of a picture had she conveyed now of Maizie? And what would he think of her if he should ever meet her? Painted and garish, in her purple velvet suit. Why couldn't she tell him the truth? She might say something like this:

"You're not sleepy?" she asked.

"Sleepy?" he cried. "When I can talk with you? I should say not! I think, though, since we are going to sit up so long, I will speak to Hester, if you will excuse me for a moment." He went, she noticed, across the garden and down a little ravine. "Hester!" he called. "Hester!" The servants then did not sleep in the house. She was to be all alone with Hollis Hart! . . . What would Maizie say? And Monty? And Sadie? Ashtoreth put her arms about her shoulders and hugged herself. Fanny—the feeling it gave a girl, sleeping in the same house with a man. Just she and he. Pittsburgh Has New Material of Great Promise

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 15. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates will open the 1929 season with an experimental team. Yet, Donie Bush, diminutive manager of the National league batting leaders, figures the pennant race as being Chicago or Pittsburgh.

The addition of two minor leaguers, the trading of Glenn Wright and recall of Adam Comorosky, an outfielder, make experimenting necessary.

Jim Stroner, Wichita recruit, seems to be the key man of the proposed 1929 Pirate edition. Stroner replaces Traynor at third, the Corsair captain moving over to the short field, vacated by Wright, sent to Brooklyn for Jess Petty and Harry Riconda. Earl Sheely, late of Sacramento, replaces Grantham on first, while "Sparky" Adams completes the infield at second.

The Warner brothers are outfield fixtures, but left field is open. Comorosky, Grantham and Brickell battle it out for the sun field, Comorosky having the edge.

The team has high-class moundsmen. Two good southpaws are signed in Petty and Fussell, and great things are expected of Larry French, Portland, Ore., rookie. Orthodox hurlers include Burleigh Grimes, 1928 Iron man of the league, who acquired 25 victories and pitched more innings than any other hurler. Kremer, Hill and Meadows are back, each claiming to be in excellent condition. They were not so good last year. Brame, who showed plenty of stuff last season, also is back. Two recruits who showed enough form to be retained are Blankenship and Taucher. Dawson, a flanker when not pitching; Swetonic, just purchased from Indianapolis, and Maine of Kansas City round out the staff.

Catchers are plentiful. Charley Hargraves will have to hustle to retain first-string position with Hemsley and Spencer doing the pushing. Spencer was repurchased from Indianapolis last year. Hemsley is rated one of the best backstops to break into major league baseball in several years. Each has a fine throwing arm and both are fair batsmen.

"Pepper Pot" Bartell, reserve second baseman, may see plenty of action.

The club admittedly lost tremendous punch in Wright's passing. He was considered one of the best pinch hitters in the league and was unusually dependable with men on the bases.

Should Comorosky cinch left field, Grantham and Riconda may figure in a deal with the possibility also that Grantham will be retained as utility

Well Known Sports Writer Dies When His Home Burns

CHICAGO, Jan. 15. (AP)—Fred A. Hayner, nationally known sporting writer, was burned to death last night in a mysterious fire that destroyed his home in Lake Forest, North Shore suburb.

Hayner, on the staff of the Daily News of which he once was sporting editor, went to the basement of his home to adjust the oil-burning heater.

He was trapped by a sudden flare of fire that a moment later swept up through the first floor.

Mrs. Hayner and their sons, Francis, 14, and James, 12, escaped, the children being taken from their smoke-filled room after Mrs. Hayner had run out.

Hayner's body, badly burned, was found face upward in the debris in the laundry.

Jack Dempsey Has Worries of Average Promoter

NEW YORK, Jan. 15. (AP)—Jack Dempsey, has nothing to worry about for the present, at least, so far as his fighting career is concerned but William H. Dempsey, the promoter, may have several headaches before he is through with handling the forthcoming Stribling-Sharkey match in Miami Beach.

Promoter Dempsey, perhaps, can recall with some vividness a few of the difficulties Tex Rickard experienced at various moments in the big ventures. Tex has chased from California to Nevada with the Jeffries-Johnson fight and once had to put up $50,000 bond to get Louis Firpo out of the hands of the law and into the ring. At Philadelphia, if it wasn't a lawsuit against Dempsey to arouse alarm, it was the final worry of having Gene Tunney eke an airplane ride on the day of the $2,000,000 spectacle.

Dempsey probably is hoping nothing untoward happens to either Sharkey or Stribling in their forthcoming preliminary engagements. The Boston affair is booked to fight K. O. Christner at Madison Square Garden next week and if that doesn't mean anything to the average observer, it may be recalled that K. O. lived up to his name by flattening Knute Hansen not long ago. Stribling has three or four bouts in scattered spots by way of keeping in fighting trim. His opponents are somewhat obscure but so was Christner before he knocked out Janzen and so was Jack League, who had the one-time Georgia schoolboy in the floor recently.

It was definitely learned yesterday that Mlle. Lenglen and her mother had registered at a Los Angeles hotel and that they were there earlier in the day. Later, however, after denying there had been a rift between her and Mrs. Baldwin, the tennis player checked Baldwin, Mlle. Lenglen's former tennis partner from the hotel.

It was also learned that Baldwin M. Baldwin, Mlle. Lenglen's former tennis manager, has left his mother's home, and moved to a downtown hotel.

Mlle. Lenglen's visit to California began in December, when she arrived at Truckee, accompanied by her mother and Baldwin Baldwin. Mrs. Baldwin met them there, and the party stopped for a few days at the Baldwin estate in the mountains near Truckee.

Reports that Mlle. Lenglen was to marry Baldwin were met with statements that the son of her hostess already had a wife living in Los Angeles, and that no divorce proceedings had been instituted.

Carl Taylor returned yesterday from Oklahoma City, where he had spent several days at the bedside of his father, who is seriously ill.

Suzanne Lenglen Leaves Home of Her Host Abruptly

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15. (AP)—The whereabouts of Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis player, today remained a mystery to newspapermen trailing reports she had abruptly left the home of her hostess, Mrs. Anita Baldwin, wealthy society woman, and had arranged to board an east-bound train.

Mrs. Baldwin was reported to be in a state of collapse and under the care of a physician. She is the daughter of E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin, who made a fortune mining.

It was definitely learned yesterday that Mlle. Lenglen and her mother had registered at a Los Angeles hotel and that they were there earlier in the day. Later, however, after denying there had been a rift between her and Mrs. Baldwin, the tennis player checked Baldwin, Mlle. Lenglen's former tennis partner from the hotel.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—A plan to select an actual national football champion each year has been suggested by John W. Heisman, former Georgia Tech and Pennsylvania coach in a letter to H. C. (Curly) Byrd, football mentor at the University of Maryland.

Heisman proposed dividing the country into four sections and from each choosing the best team to meet teams of other sections in elimination contests that would end two Saturdays after the end of the regular playing season.

His first division would be composed of states east of Ohio and north of the Mason-Dixon line. In the second division would fall teams below the Mason-Dixon line and east of the Mississippi river. The third division would include the Midwest states west from Pennsylvania to the Rocky mountains and the southern states lying west of the Mississippi river. In his final group would be the far western teams west of the Rocky mountains.

New Record in Oil Production Is Set by Country

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 15. (AP)—Boosted by continual rises in production in the Santa Fe, Calif., and Hendricks, Texas, fields, the estimated daily average production of light and heavy oil in the United States again set a new record during the week ending Jan. 12, when it totaled 2,604,862 barrels. The highest previous mark was during the week ending Jan. 5, a total of 2,559,791 barrels daily.

According to the Oil and Gas Journal here, last week's production exceeded the daily average for the week ending Jan. 5, by 5,071 barrels.

Deep drilling in the Santa Fe field has brought on a recent increase in production which has steadily advanced. During the past week an increase of approximately 12,000 barrels in daily production was reported. In the Hendricks field the increase was approximately 6,000 barrels. Santa Fe field increased approximately 10,000 barrels week before last.

Oklahoma fields dropped 1,000 barrels in daily production although Seminole ceased a downward trend and registered a 2,000 barrels increase. West Texas increase was approximately 5,500 barrels. The Mid-Continent increase was 2,000 barrels in daily production and California increase approximately 7,000 barrels. Heavy oil production throughout the country remained virtually constant with only about 2,000 barrels increase. Light oil increase for the total fields was 3,390 barrels.

Mel Davis and Edd Dunigan will leave tonight for Austin.

Mrs. Ella Hartell of Shamrock was the guest of Mrs. Carl Taylor Sunday.

Mrs. R. G. Hughes is visiting relatives in Clarendon.

Oil Briefs

DALLAS, Jan. 15. (AP)—Encouraging reports have been received from the Geter well being drilled by the Magnolia Petroleum company 18 miles southeast of Lamesa in West Texas. The well is being drilled at a depth of 3,856 feet, and the bit is in oil bearing sand.

The Hucony Gas company's No. 1 Frank Marberry, an eastern Fisher county wildcat well 11 miles from production, had 550 feet of oil and 150 feet of water in the hole after topping an oil bearing lime at 2,965 feet. The test is about midway between the Stephens pool in eastern Fisher county and the high gravity producing area of southwest Jones county.

The Plymouth Oil company's No. 1 Kioh Runsey and Abrams in Howard county had 1,900 feet of 33.5 gravity oil in the hole at 2,294 feet. Location is 330 feet out of the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 5, block 32, township 2, south of T. & P. survey. This is about a mile west of the pool opened last August by the Henshaw Oil corporation.

TULSA, Jan. 15. (AP)—Indefinite postponement of the general meeting of Kansas Oil Producers at Independence for January 18, and a similar meeting of Oklahoma producers at Tulsa Jan. 22 to consider proposed legislative bills relating to conservation, was announced today by J. C. Denton, president of the Kansas-Oklahoma division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association. New dates will be set later.

Superior Oil corporation's important wildcat near Macomb in western Pottawatomie county, is on top of the cap rock at 4,926 feet and preparing to drill ahead. The big pay is expected just underneath this stratum of hard rock, which is believed to be about 12 feet thick.

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 15. (AP)—The Empire Oil & Refining company today reports a new producer estimated good for 150 barrels at its Brandenberg No. 4-A in the SE NW NE of 22-27-5 in the north end of the Haverhill district of South Butler county. Oklahoma House Delves Into Pardon Given to Slayer

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 15. (AP)—Deep in its investigation of executive affairs, the investigating committee of the Oklahoma House of Representatives today was prepared to proceed further with an inquiry into testimony to the effect that Governor Henry S. Johnston had granted a full pardon to a convicted murderer and fugitive from justice, without inquiring into the case. Members of the committee yesterday heard four witnesses testify to details of the pardoning of R. D. Crosthwaite last December. Crosthwaite, who was convicted in 1918 of killing Thelma Lovejoy young Oklahoma City school teacher, had been at liberty since 1923, when he failed to return to the state penitentiary at the expiration of leave of absence granted by J. C. Walton.

R. G. Lovejoy, brother of the slain girl and her father, W. Lovejoy, testified before the committee to protesting against the pardon while J. W. Mansell, appointed by Governor Johnston as pardon and parole clerk, and Mrs. Ernestine Hunt, Mansell's stenographer and clerk, testified to preparing the pardon and transmitting it to the chief executive.

In hearing his protest against the Crosthwaite pardon, R. G. Lovejoy told the committee members, Governor

Johnston had admitted the clemency act was "the greatest mistake of my life." The governor promised, Lovejoy continued, that steps would be taken to revoke the pardon, but no action has been started toward this end.

The slain girl's brother told the committee he had asked Governor Johnston, if Louis Fischl, representative from Carter county, was one of the attorneys interested in securing the Crosthwaite pardon, but that the chief executive had evaded his question.
