BIG RALLY TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Hoarse and Weary Candidates Have One More Day for Campaigning

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY BY O.E.H.

One of the standing gags around this office is to "wonder," in our presence, how the Pampan stands in the gubernatorial race.

Well, for one thing he has been standing for several months where Lynch Davidson has finally perched himself—on the Clint Small handwagon. Lynch tried to do the circus act of riding two political horses at the same time, and he found it didn't work. Here is what he says: "I believe the time has come when we must center on one man if we hope to clear the state of Ferguson, of Mayfield, Love, Sterling, and his highway bond issue. I think this man is Clint Small."

In predicting that Mr. Small will be in the run-off, Davidson assumes that West Texas will give the Wellington man 100,000 or more votes. The assumption should be correct. Just as Mr. Davidson cannot elect both Young and Small, so must West Texas center her vote on one name if her strength is to be felt. Individuals may have personal reasons for favoring some other candidate, but Small is the one who must be elected if this section is to amount to anything in state circles.

The Pampan approves the city planning survey. Inspection of the surveys of other cities shows the tremendous amount of work to be done by planning engineers. This writer has watched similar programs in other cities, and he believes that if the firm of Montgomery and Ward (not the Sears-Roebuck variety) does all that it says it will, lookback has a slogan, "Cities Do Not Happen; They Are Built." Before building, it is wise to have good plans. Pampa has already grown some industries, but the city is fortunate in that it can plan while in its growing period.

Under city planning ordinances it is possible to exercise a degree of control within a zone surrounding the city. It is possible to dictate the terms of annexation of adjacent, and to set aside parks and school grounds in such additions.

Erick, Okla., citizens have learned that the federal government intends to protect its citizens, white or black. The constitution of the United States is supposed to guarantee certain inalienable rights to all men. . . . While there is no doubt that many Erick citizens desire to be without the negro population, there is no reason for depriving negro farmers of their livestock, their crops, and their household goods. Many of the negroes were innocent of any intention to break the law, and the spirit of fairness should overpower the blinding passion which was aroused by the heinous crime at Shamrock.

F. P. Reid, writing from Pontiac, Mich., as he goes to Canada for a vacation, says that many persons ask him if the main highways in Texas are paved. Transcontinental traffic is becoming common in the tourist months, and planning of travel naturally is based on miles of paving. "Pave the Gray county roads; vote for the bonds," Mr. Reid urges. He doesn't like the idea of highway maps showing Gray county breaking the concrete connection on No. 33. Nor do we.

MOST ON WAY HOME TO REST AND TO WAIT

Small Will Speak In Ranger And Abilene

MILLER CIRCLES TOWARD DALLAS

Love Discourses On Vindication Of Stand

By The Associated Press
One more day of campaigning remained after Thursday for the eleven candidates for the Democratic nomination for the Texas governorship, at least seven of whom were drifting homeward today, somewhat husky-voiced, after weeks of intensive campaigning.

Clint Small was back in his home territory of West Texas, to speak in the afternoon at Ranger and at Abilene tonight. Ross Sterling, fresh from a homecoming celebration at Houston last night, planned speeches today at Orange and Beaumont and tonight at Fort Arthur. James E. Ferguson, speaking for his wife's candidacy, was booked for an address at Eastland at 8 p. m. Thomas B. Love, hovering nearer Dallas and a hometown engagement tomorrow night, planned to speak this afternoon at Bonham and tonight at Greenville. Earle B. Mayfield was to appear at Gatesville in the afternoon and at Temple tonight. Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller, also circling back toward his home at Dallas, was due here tonight at Greenville in the afternoon and at McKinney. Jim Young was listed to speak at Vernon this afternoon and tonight at Seymour.

Frank Putnam, C. E. Walker, Paul Lyven, and C. C. Moody, the other four candidates, had no speeches scheduled.

Vindication of the "anti-Tammany demonstration in the Democratic party in Texas," abolition through a constitutional amendment of the ad valorem tax and equalization of educational opportunities in each county, were put forward by Senator Love on platform planks justifying his election, in a speech last night at Texarkana.

Prediction that he would "get more than 100,000 votes in West Texas" was made by Small in a speech at Cisco, where he appealed to the people of West Texas to stand behind him in the election Saturday. He said he would get his share of support in other sections.

At Houston, Frank Putnam, prohibition repeal candidate, issued a statement asserting that Sterling also of Houston and a dry, had coun- tenanced the spending of excessive sums in his campaign. His statement called upon Governor Moody and Attorney General Bobbitt to enforce the election laws.

The annual picnic of the Texas Retail Grocers' association at Dallas, provided a veritable Utopia for candidates. The crowd heard speeches by Mayfield and Miller, candidates for governor; James V. Alford, for attorney general; Walter Reid and J. Hayden Moore, for congress; and numerous legislative and local candidates.

Speaking at night at Sherman, Miller declared "It is no vain boast for me to tell you that I have had more experience in conducting the affairs of your state than any other man in the governor's race." He pledged himself to more equitable

Ah Ha! There's Law To Prevent Tree Sitting

CHICAGO, July 24. (AP)—The old reliable statutes, which may be depended upon to provide a "don't" for almost everything, that anyone might want to do, have finally provided a cure for tree-sitting.

Careful search of the law has uncovered no specific ruling against tree sitters, but it has found a rule striking at fathers and mothers of tree sitters, which amounts to the same thing.

Carl J. Appell, assistant corporation counsel, had discovered that parents may be fined $100 and sent to jail for three months for allowing their children to endanger their life and limbs. The law is dusty with age, but that doesn't make any difference.

Police today were to be given orders to get the boys out of the branches by nightfall. This may provide some tense moments, with portly policemen pursuing nimble youths from limb to limb, leaping and frisking like—well, monkeys or squirrels. However, with the parents themselves in danger of arrest, the problem may be found to have simplified itself.

VOTING BOXES CHANGED FOR THIS PRIMARY

New Districting Of County Now In Effect

TAX RECEIPTS GUIDE VOTERS

Names Of Judges In 11 Precincts Are Given

A glance at the new voting map of Gray county which was completed last August reveals that voters will not cast their ballots where they did in 1928. Voters will be strictly required to vote in the voting precincts in which they live. When the county was re-districted by the commissioners court, boundaries of most of the precincts were altered.

The Pampa precincts are Nos. 9, 10 and 12. No. 9 includes all the area north of the railroad tracks and east of Cuyler to the end of that street, then over one block and east of the Miami road to the Roberts county line. No. 10 comprises the area north of the tracks and west of Cuyler street and Miami road to the northwest corner of section 145 block 3, thence south along the west section line to the intersection of the railroad with section 152. No. 2 includes all the area south of the tracks.

Voting place for No. 9 will be the office of Lee Banks at the rear of the First National bank; for No. 10, the Gray county courthouse. Voting place for No. 12 has not yet been selected but it will be on South Cuyler.

T. H. Lane will be election judge of No. 2; K. M. Patterson of No. 9, and L. C. McMurtry of No. 10. Roger McConnell will be judge at Kingsmill where the election will be held in one of the McConnell elevators. No. 11 precinct, in which Kingsmill voters live, extends two and one-third miles east of the county line north and south of road precinct No. 2.

If voters are in doubt as to where they should cast ballots, they are asked to vote at the precinct which is written on their poll-tax receipts.

It is understood that mistakes were made on some of the receipts, but correct information can be obtained from the election judges. It was pointed out that all voters in the oil field south of Pampa will vote at the polling place on South Cuyler. The east line of precinct No. 2, extends to the west-city limits of Le Fors and the northeast corner of section 1, block 3, to the southeast corner of section 3, block B-2.

Employees of all the gasoline plants west of LeFors should vote in Pampa at the polling place on South Cuyler.

Other voting precincts and presiding officers are as follows:
No. 3, LeFors, George Thut, No. 3, Knorrp, W. S. Willis; No. 4, Alan, read, W. J. Ball; No. 5, McLean, T. J. Coffey; No. 6, Laketon, W. S. Paris; No. 7, Farrington, Harry A. Nelson; No. 8, Hopkins, W. V. Formwalt; No. 9, Pampa, K. M. Patterson; No. 10, Pampa, L. C. McMurtry, and No. 11, Kingsmill, Roger S. McConnell.

Honored on 59th Anniversary

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mullen (above) honored them last night at a reception at the First Presbyterian church. The occasion was on their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary.

CURTAILMENT AND PIPELINE REGULATION TO BE SUBJECTS OF MEETING HERE JULY 28

A meeting of oil operators in the Panhandle district will be held at 10 o'clock, July 28, at the Schneider hotel for the purpose of considering ways and means of curtailing crude oil production in the district under the provisions of such act as the pipeline law recently enacted.

The meeting was called at the suggestion of a joint committee representing the Independent Petroleum association, Texas division of the Mid-continent Oil and Gas association, and the purchasers of crude oil in the State of Texas, by H. M. Stalcup, vice-president in charge of production of the Skelly oil company. All operating companies and individuals interested should arrange to have authorized representatives present at the meeting, Mr. Stalcup said.

The joint committee was recently appointed at the suggestion of the state railroad commission to make a statewide survey and submit recommendations for curtailing crude oil production in the state to the Panhandle operators. The committee desires to cooperate with and assist fullest extent in working out the problems and have volunteered in this connection the services of Mr. David Donohue, technical advisor of the joint committee, who will attend the meeting. All purchasers and producers of crude oil in the Panhandle district are urged to attend the meeting.

Waco Fire Costly

WACO, July 24.—Firemen early today extinguished the embers of a blaze which wrecked the manufacturing plant of the Crawford-Austin Tent and Awning company in the downtown district here.

Pampa Couple, Married 59 Years, Are Honored By Friends in Reception at Presbyterian Church

More than one hundred persons were present at the Presbyterian church last night when members of the church and friends honored Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mullen on their 59th anniversary. The event was in charge of the Auxiliary, but was open to all members of the church and their friends.

TAG DAY TO BE BENEFIT FOR LIBRARY

Saturday, which is election day, also has been designated as Pampa Library tag day.

Library workers will be stationed at various places in the city, and it is urged that citizens not pass them by, but give as generously as possible to the library fund. Those who will serve as solicitors are asked to go to the library and secure their portion of tags.

The public library has been open for one and one-half years, with its support coming from citizens. The study clubs and individual donors have been largely responsible for its maintenance. Pampa women have given many hours of their time to the institution in order that the large number of patrons might not be disappointed.

The library is short of funds, and must be closed unless the response Saturday is generous. It is hoped that a large sum may be obtained, and that the library may be free of debt when it occupies the quarters to be provided for it in the new city hall.

Four Robbers Hold Up Bank At Edna, Kansas

EDNA, Kan., July 24.—Four armed men held up the First National bank of Edna today, and after forcing employees and customers to lie on the floor escaped with cash estimated at $2,000.

The roughly dressed quartet entered at 9:30 o'clock when five employees and one customer were in the bank. Three other customers who came in while the holdup was in progress also were forced to lie on the floor while cashier C. E. Kallender obeyed the robbers' orders to show them the cash in the vault. The men fled south in an automobile.

WALFORD, Ia., July 24. (AP)—Three men today held up the Walford Savings bank and escaped with cash estimated at between $1,900 and $1,800.

TAXI DRIVER IS HELD AFTER WIFE MURDERED

HARTFORD, Conn., July 24.—Mrs. Ida Diamond, 27, was hacked to death in her home early today while her three small children slept in an adjoining room.

Her husband, Nathan Diamond, 28, a taxi driver who told police he had found his wife's body in a bathroom, was held after several hours questioning.

STORMY FOR FLIERS

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—(AP)—Storm clouds threatened today as Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine began their fourth day of sustained flight in an attempt to recapture the refueling endurance record; so they took on an extra supply of gasoline in anticipation of "a bad day."

KILLS HIS SWEETHEART

BUTTE, Mont., July 24.—(AP)—The body of Sylvia Hill, 17, was found by Butte authorities today after they had been directed to it by Roy Hendrickson, 22, who confessed he shot and killed her.

BODY IS IDENTIFIED

AKRON, Ohio, July 24.—(AP)—The body of a woman, found in a blackberry patch near Hudson, O., yesterday, was identified today by Marshall Clyde Smith of North Randall, Ohio, as that of his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Smith, who had been missing from home since June 16.

INTEREST OF CANDIDATES IS VERY STRONG

Many Wish To Tell Voters Of Their Planks

WILLIS TO BE THE CHAIRMAN

James O. Cade Will Make Short Address

Political developments in Gray county, warning to the bolting point as election time nears, will be aired this evening at a grand rally at the county courthouse.

The speaking is scheduled by mutual consent, to begin at 8 o'clock and it was stated today that Judge Newton P. Willis had been asked to preside. All candidates will be given an opportunity to speak, although, in order to give all who desire a chance to be heard, it may be necessary to place a time limit on speeches.

James O. Cade, candidate for congressional representative, will be here to make a short address, he said yesterday. He is opposing Marvin Jones, incumbent.

Although it was rumored yesterday and today that Clem Calhoun, district attorney of the 84 district, would speak here, the report could not be confirmed. Mr. Calhoun has been speaking at other places and has endorsed several candidates while opposing others. Voters at Canadian, Perryton, and other places recently heard him.

The American Legion band will play a concert preceding the speaking tonight.

GUNS ACCEPT 'TOURNEY PRIZE

After lodging a protest with the managers of the Amarillo baseball tournament against the manner in which the receipts were distributed, Keith Edelen, manager of the Pampa Guls Guns, accepted a check for $936.34, the amount which officials said was due the winner of the 12-day tournament.

The Gun manager told representatives of the News-Globe which sponsored the games, that he would accept the check only because it was apparent that the officials had decided not to make it any larger, and because the Guls needed the money to pay expenses to the Denver tournament.

Mr. Edelen suggested that an audit of the receipts and disbursements be made, listing all expenses and showing in exact figures just how many paid admissions to the game.

The Gun manager, in claiming that the receipts had not been fairly distributed, said that although the crowds this year were larger by far than last year's, the 1930 winners received even less than the 1929 winners.

The Tactics Texans, winner of second money, received $561.79 and the Memphis Owls, $377.53 for third prize.

DANCING JUDITH

By CORALIE STANTON and HEATH HOSKEN
COPYRIGHT 1930 BY CHELSEA HOUSE

CHAPTER XIV

Judy was there a quarter of an hour before the time. She had a purpose, and in her dramatic way, she dressed for it. She put on her oldest clothes. She paid no attention to her face, which was, as usual, violently made up, like a caricature.

She was wrought up to such a pitch of excitement that when she was shown into Gideon's great salon she did not recognize it as perhaps the most beautiful room in New York.

It did the millionaire credit that he showed not the slightest surprise at her appearance. He asked her to sit down, and she did so, on an old English day bed, with cushions of dull gold. She was pulling off her gloves and then putting them on again. She was frightfully nervous as she looked into his pale, heavy face.

"I wanted to see you first, Mr. Gideon," she said hurriedly. "I am willing to take this game up, but only if you'll let me keep myself while I'm learning to dance. I can manage all right. I can't live on you, I expect, if this gentleman really thinks I am good, he'll be willing to wait for his fees until I'm ready; so that wouldn't cost anything. I can't take anything from you while I'm learning. I'd rather give the idea up altogether."

"Why, of course, Miss Judy," Gideon answered suavely. "I've been thinking that over myself. I quite understand. You are a most independent young lady; but if you go on with your work, won't you be too tired?"

"Lord, no! I can do anything, I'm as strong as a horse."

"As to Guarventus, I'm sure he'll jump at you. He is an artist, and would not think of money, anyhow. Believe me, I admire your independence. Leave me out of it all together. Fix it up with Guarventus yourself; but allow me the privilege when you are ready, of helping you in whatever way I can."

Judy was delighted. She was beginning to warm to the idea. There was adventure in it. This man, who knew so much of the world, was ready to allow her to succeed on her own merits. He did not want to lay her under any obligations. How ridiculous Bastien had been! It was a perfectly genuine business proposition. He knew she was a dancer, and she knew it, too. Guarventus arrived.

He was a small, dapper man, with a delicate, artistic face, slightly feminine and yet strong. He had gray hair, growing back in a shock from his forehead, a small, high-bridged nose, deep-set, luminous, gray eyes, and a really beautiful mouth, spoiled by a set of discolored teeth—accounted for, no doubt, by the never-absent cigaret.

Judy was never at a loss with any man, and the two got on famously. Guarventus spoke perfect English in a voice with a sad, sympathetic cadence.

The lunch was served in a small, severe, dark-paneled room. It was very frugal. There were more flowers on the table than there was food. There was only water to drink. It was a strictly business-like function but for the flowers everywhere, all over the great apartment—heavy-scented flowers that sent fumes up into Judy's brain such as no wine could ever do.

"Now, Miss Judy, you must dance," said Gideon, when they had finished coffee. "I will show you the other room—they will have it ready. A friend is coming to play. What would you like him to play?"

He led Judy into another great room, with three tall windows overlooking a garden. It was quite bare, with a polished floor. At one end was a raised platform with a full-sized grand piano on it. There was no other furniture. The walls were pale yellow, hung with tapestries.

Judy looked around her. She felt suddenly as if she had never danced in her life. It was a huddled little bundle of misery that looked up at Gideon.

"Oh!" she breathed. "Please leave me here for a little while alone, before anyone comes!"

When Gideon had gone out, acceding sympathetically to her request, Judy stood by one of the tall windows. She took her coat off, but kept her hat on. She looked out on the garden below, but she did not see it. Somehow she seemed to see a picture of a place among gray-green mountains, which she sure must be Alan Steyne's little house in Maine. There were fir trees and there was rushing water, and it was all very bleak and wild. A pale sun was shining through a mist. Looking back into the room, the yellow-washed walls, hung with grayish-green tapestries, made her think of that sun.

The door opened, and a tall young man, a foreigner, came in. He bowed very punctiliously. He was dark and thin and quiet-looking.

"I have come to play for you, mademoiselle," he said in broken English. "Is there anything you would like—any ballet suite you are especially fond of?"

Judy shook her head helplessly. Her voice was panic-stricken.

"I don't know anything about music. I know I'm going to be a failure. I don't think I can dance, after all."

"Oh, but, mademoiselle, of course you can dance!" said the young man. "You must not be nervous. M. Guarventus is so kind. Perhaps you would rather improvise? Some dancers prefer it. I can follow you better. Will you tell me the theme—shall it be Spanish, Egyptian, Greek, Russian, or—"

"Could you do something Scotch?" Judy asked, trembling with excitement. And then she laughed, because it sounded like whisky. "All gray and green, like this room."

She swept her arm around. She hardly knew herself.

"Ah, that is cold and bleak and dark!" he exclaimed. "I was playing in Glasgow recently, and I went for a tour in the Highlands. Wait!"

He went to the piano and struck out a tune, note by note. It was a Highland fling. After that he suggested the skirl of the bagpipes in a few simple notes, and then broke into a lament.

"That will be lovely," said Judy all atremble. "And could you put some water in, please?"

He nodded. His long, thin hands, hovering a moment over the keys, descended, and there burst upon her strained ears music which, had she been less wretched, she would have known to be drawn from a master brain and played by a master hand.

After a few moments he stopped. The door opened, and Guarventus and Bruce Gideon came in. They seated themselves on a couple of chairs at the far end of the room.

Judy could not speak or move. She was sure that her feet were made of lead.

The music began. She tried to put one foot out, but could not. She closed her eyes and saw Alan's house again, as she imagined it. The music began to tingle through her. There was nothing for it. She would never do anything by degrees. She clenched her hands and took a wild leap across the room.

She did not know how long she danced. The music got into her blood, into her head, into her feet. She found herself finishing breathlessly in a wild whirl of sheer physical delight.

The music ceased as she stopped dead, her arms flung above her head.

There was no sound in the room. She tottered to one of the windows and held on to the curtains, swaying to and fro. The young musician hurried to her side. She took his arm, and he led her toward the two figures, still seated. She felt him trembling a little.

The two other men rose from their seats at the same time. Guarventus' and voice sounded in her ears.

"Some northern country—Scotland, I think—and a girl of the hills waiting for her lover and dancing the time away. Mountains and water and fir trees—and at last the sound of the pipes coming over the hills tells her that he is near. Was that it, Miss Judy?"

Judy was transfixed with amazement. Had she really conveyed all that?

Gideon was severely noncommittal as he turned to the great man. "I think you are not displeased," he said. "Miss Grant has talent, has she not?"

Guarventus was not a man to express more than a quarter of what he felt.

"Miss Grant certainly has talent," he said. "She ought to do well in the picture school."

"I could see everything you said just now," Gideon went on. "Yes, she conveyed exactly the same thing to me, though I couldn't have put it into words. Have you ever been in Scotland, Miss Judy?"

Judy shook her head. She was still dazed.

Guarventus took her hand and patted it kindly.

"My dear," he said, "if you work hard, you will be a dancer."

She did not know that this was the highest praise he had ever given in his life.

"The music!" she whispered. "It was the music that did it!"

"Oh, no, mademoiselle!" smiled the young musician.

She felt a little chilled. She feared that she had failed, after all. They were very subdued, these two men.

But when Gideon and the musician had gone out of the room and left her alone with Guarventus, she found that she had not failed.

Who Shall Name Your District Attorney? The People! vs. Newton P. Willis!

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

AUSTIN TEXAS
May 19, 1928.

DAN MOODY, Governor:

Mr. James Spiller, Attorney,
Panhandle, Texas.

Dear Mr. Spiller:—

Your letter enclosing the clipping from the Denver paper has been received. I suppose I received at last a half dozen copies of that clipping.

As you know, I called upon Mr. Douglass for his resignation, and he declined to give it. He has been a BITTER DISAPPOINTMENT to me. He was recommended to me by citizens of the Panhandle section and especially by some of my friends in Waco who knew him when he lived there. When he declined to resign I asked the Attorney General to institute ouster proceedings against him, and while I have repeatedly taken this matter up with the Attorney General, so far nothing has been done. If the Attorney General does not oust him I hope that the people will elect someone else district attorney at the next election and correct the mistake I made in appointing him.

With regards I am,

Very truly yours,
DAN MOODY.

(The people complied with the wish of the Governor and elected J. A. Holmes, who was assassinated at Berger, September 13th, last, BY A MAJORITY OVER DOUGLASS in 8 of the 9 counties in the district).

June 17th, 1930.

Mr. Frank Breeding,
Wheeler, Texas.

My Dear Friend:—

I am writing you in behalf of the candidacy of my friend, Curtis Douglass, who is a candidate for the office of District Attorney of the 31st district. I know Mr. Douglass well and can say that he is qualified, capable and dependable. He will make us a good and trustworthy district attorney.

I surely hope you can support him and say a good word in his behalf and I know that you will not regret it.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,
NEWTON P. WILLIS.

NW—1

Dear Judge Willis:

Is this the same Curtis Douglass who was appointed District Attorney of the 84th District by the Governor and who was later requested to resign by a Hutchinson County grand jury for drunkenness in office?

Is this the same Curtis Douglass who the Governor asked to resign for misconduct in office and who later instructed the Attorney General to remove him from office for drunkenness?

Is this the same Curtis Douglass who, after he married and "reformed," as he says, spent the night of November 18th in the jail at Canadian, Texas, for drunkenness?

Is this the same Curtis Douglass who, as district attorney of your court, failed to even try a single one of 27 murder cases in Hutchinson County?

Is this the same Douglass who was defeated by Johnny Holmes in everyone of the 9 counties 2 years ago? No, Judge Willis, Douglass had his opportunity two years ago and failed miserably as a district attorney.

Yours truly,
FRANK BREEDING.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF HEMPHILL:

On this the 20th day of June, A. D. 1930, personally appeared before me P. V. Bryant, who deposes and says:

My name is P. V. Bryant; I am justice of the peace of Precinct No. 1, Hemphill County, Texas, and reside at Canadian, Texas. I held such official position during the month of November, 1929.

I know Curtis Douglass. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine for the offense of drunkenness in my court on the 19th day of November, 1929, after having been incarcerated in the Hemphill County jail the night before. This case was numbered 771 on the criminal docket of my court. Today, June 20, 1930, in looking up this case I find the docket sheet has been cut out of my docket, and that entire sheet is missing. In other words, page 197-198 is entirely removed from my docket at this time. This was done without my consent or knowledge and I do not know who did it.

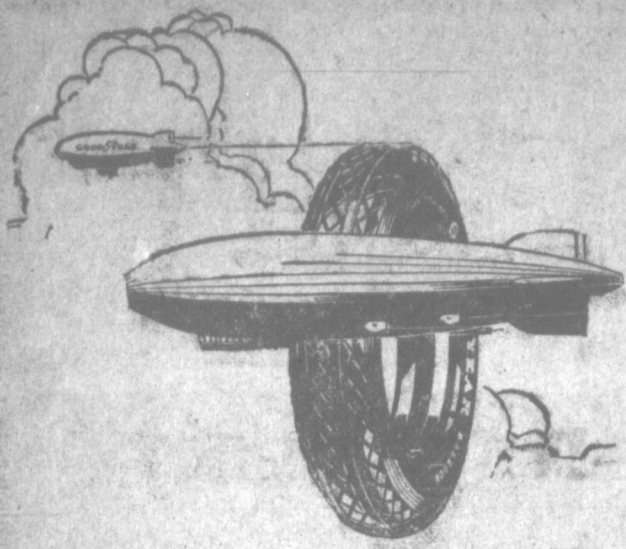

My docket is a public instrument and anyone may see it at anytime.

P. V. BRYANT,
Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1,
Hemphill County, Texas.

Subscribed and sworn to this 20th day of June, A. D., 1930.

R. C. Jackson,
County Clerk, Hemphill County, Texas.

This is paid for by citizens of Pampa and is done with out the knowledge or consent of Douglass' opponent the way in which the outer rows of All-Weather blocks

Goodyear builds this stunning new Heavy Duty for those who want to drive fast and far without worry, and who want extra immunity against punctures, blowouts, or tire troubles of any kind.

Because crude rubber is cheap this year, you can buy this special Goodyear in the size illustrated for only about a dollar more than you had to pay last year for an ordinary tire in the same size—and other sizes are priced in proportion.

This is a real opportunity to make your tire money stretch its farthest, and keen buyers everywhere are cashing it in by changing over to Goodyear
Heavy Duty Balloons.

Just look at the tire and you'll heed the suggestion: Now is the time to get yours!

Now is the time to get YOURS

"I know all about this great new Heavy Duty, and I indorse every word Goodyear says about it. It's the best looking tire you ever saw, and my customers who have bought it tell me it's even better than it looks. Drop in the next time you're down this way. I have your size in stock. The way prices are now you'll never get a better chance to let your tire dollars do double duty." JACK BAKER

A LESSON FOR AMERICA

Now that John McDonald has been found, it is probable that the last chapter in the sensational Mooney case will soon be written.

Tom Mooney and Warren Billings, as you of course know, were sent to prison for life in 1917 after they were convicted of planting the bomb, which exploded during San Francisco's preparedness day parade, killing six people and injuring many more.

They were convicted chiefly on the testimony of two men. One was McDonald, who swore he saw them deposit a suitcase containing the bomb at a downtown street corner. The other was a man named Oxman, who also testified he had seen them in that neighborhood on that day.

Since then Oxman has been proved to be a perjurer. He was not in San Francisco at all on the day of the bombing. And now McDonald confesses that he never saw Mooney and Billings in his life until long after the bombing. He intimates—and it is a thing that ought to be looked into pretty thoroughly—that the prosecuting officials of San Francisco willfully connived at his prejudice in order to put Mooney and Billings in prison.

Mooney and Billings were extremely unpopular in San Francisco in those days. They were labor agitators, they did not use kid glove methods, and they had many enemies. Since they were imprisoned their friends have maintained that they were "railroaded" because of these enmities and not because anyone in authority really believed that they were guilty of the bombing. Now it seems as if that charge might have been justified.

The whole tragic story illustrates the dangers that arise when a whole community becomes infected with an intense emotion. Mooney and Billings paid for running counter to this hectic emotion of wartime by spending upwards of a dozen years in prison. It is impossible to give them back those last 12 years; but the least we can do is to take a warning from their case and remind ourselves that it is precisely the unpopular, much-hated prisoner who needs to be given the most scrupulously fair, unprejudiced treatment when he comes into court. In no other way can we avoid repeating this tragic mistake some time in the future.—NEA.

Smith Is Favored In Canada, With Jones Absent

ANCASTER, Ont., July 24—(AP)—With Bobby Jones away from the golfing wars for the time being, Macdonald Smith, runner-up to the Atlantan in both the British and American open, is figured to be the best bet for the Canadian open golf championship opening at the Hamilton country club today.

practically all of the leading golfers of the North American continent are seeking the title won the past four years by Leo Diegel. The Agua Caliente professional is back to defend his crown and has been burning up the course in practice rounds. A glance over the field shows such great stars as Horton Smith, Tommy Armour, Johnny Farrell and Walter Hagen, counted more or less as a dark horse. All have been showing good work in trial rounds. Eighteen holes will be played today and tomorrow with all of those within 20 strokes of the leader entering the final round of 36 holes Saturday.

Memphis Has Ability to Score When Necessary

ATLANTA, Ga., July 24—(AP)—The Memphis Chickasaws again had demonstrated their ability to score when runs are needed. This efficiency with keen defensive play, has put the Chicks far ahead in the Southern Association pennant chase.

over Atlanta yesterday by piling up three runs in the eighth inning, to win, 4 to 3. While the Chicks were benefited by three walks, they were able to take full advantage of the situation by getting two hits.

In their third arc-light encounter the Birmingham Barons won from Little Rock, their hosts, 9 to 8. The Barons went on a rampage in the seventh inning, scoring eight runs. Pitcher Touchstone started things off in the seventh by getting a homer.

The Lookouts and Bears planned a double-header yesterday but the second game was called on account of darkness. Chattanooga had won the first contest, 3 to 1.

Pass Two Millions NEW ORLEANS, July 24. (AP)—Louisiana and Mississippi have both passed the 2,000,000 mark in population on the basis of figures unofficially compiled by the Associated Press, and both have shown substantial increase since the 1920 census count.

Louisiana 1930 census, the compilation reveals, is 2,098,876, and Mississippi's 2,011,388. The former increase in the past decade was 300,367, or 16.7 per cent, and the latter's 220,770, or 12.3 per cent.

Nashville and New Orleans had another of their close contests, New Orleans winning by a score of 7 to 6.

In Answer to Raymond Allred's Political Advertisement in the Daily News of July 20 and Charges Made by Allred and His Friends

1. In Raymond Allred's advertisement of July 20th., it is shown that he had to obtain an affidavit to prove that he is a lawyer. Curtis Douglass' record and experience are known without having to prove it by an affidavit.

2. In this affidavit it was stated that Allred had been connected with the District Attorney's office in Gray county. This is not true.

3. Allred has charged in his statement of July 20th., that he, as County Attorney of Wheeler county, convicted a client of Douglass' and insinuated that the case was an important one out of which he derived a great deal of experience. What are the facts?

Wade Duncan, local merchant and one whose honesty and integrity are unquestioned in this community, was charged in Wheeler county with using the wrong kind of fish hook while fishing in a lake in Wheeler county. Curtis Douglass and Otto Studer represented Duncan and the judge assessed him a small fine. Allred never even argued the case. His only connection in it would have been to receive a fee as County Attorney of Wheeler county. The case was appealed and ultimately thrown out, and Duncan has never until this day had to pay a fine. This great and important case concerning fishing with the wrong kind of fish hook is the experience Allred refers to and such as he would have the voters of this district believe qualifies him to prosecute murders, bank robbers, thieves, bootleggers, etc.

4. Allred has charged in his advertisement of July 20th., that his "experience as a court reporter has prepared him more for a prosecutor than most lawyers would benefit out of the actual trial of cases." Voters, we leave this simple proposition to you.

5. Allred has left the impression in his statement of July 20th., that he was an Assistant District Attorney in Wichita County during 1925 and 1926. This could not have been true for his brother was the district attorney of such county at that time and it would have been a violation of the nepotism laws of Texas for Raymond Allred to have held office under his brother.

6. Allred moved to Pampa when he announced for the office of District Attorney in order to appear as a home man to the voters of Gray county. Does he live here? His family still resides in the town of Wheeler. And when the ballots were printed they showed:

FOR GRAY COUNTY

CURTIS DOUGLASS OF GRAY COUNTY.
RAYMOND ALLRED OF GRAY COUNTY.

FOR WHEELER COUNTY

"RAYMOND ALLRED OF WHEELER COUNTY.
CURTIS DOUGLASS OF GRAY COUNTY

Where does he live? Can he hoodwink the people by posing as a resident of both counties? In Wheeler county he lives there and in Gray County he lives here. The Judges of the election in Wheeler county found the discrepancy and had to throw out all of the 5000 ballots which were printed for Wheeler county and print new ones.

CURTIS DOUGLASS FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

7. Allred was elected County Attorney of Wheeler county in 1928 without opposition. He resigned and went back to court reporting.

The following are answers to charges made by Allred and his friends in this campaign:

1. Allred has said that he has never been asked to resign from any office by the governor. Curtis Douglass' friends are glad to say that he had the moral stamina, courage and nerve to refuse to be dominated by Gov. Dan Moody and let him choke the same character of stuff down his throat that he, Dan Moody, tried to choke down the throats of the citizens of West Texas, as he did in his opposition to the Small Land bill. Douglass called Dan Moody's bluff and Moody never carried out one uncalled and unwarranted threat that he made because every accusation made against Douglass by Moody was wholly unfounded in truth and in fact.

2. Allred says that he is sober and does not drink and is not the tool of any special interests. We say that Douglass is as sober as Allred and does not drink and is not the tool of any special interests but is merely the choice of the foremost business and professional men of the town of Pampa for district attorney.

3. Allred tells of trying and convicting two lawyers. Who was one of these lawyers? He was a poor, down-trodden lawyer about 55 years of age who had lost his mind and whom it was necessary to try for insanity.

4. Allred has told the voters that no one is putting up money for his campaign. Can it be wrong for the professional and business men of Pampa to pay for an ad like this in order that the public may know the truth concerning this race?

5. Allred states that he is not indulging in a dirty campaign like his opponent. Curtis Douglass has never mentioned Raymond Allred's name and has made several speeches over the district in behalf of his candidacy, never at any time referring to his opponent in any manner. Every statement made herein is made in answer to accusations made by Raymond Allred.

6. Raymond Allred has not made a speech in behalf of his candidacy during this whole campaign and he has not been at any political meetings or rallies held.

Therefore, we feel that in order that the public may be better able to judge of the qualifications and abilities of these two candidates that they should meet in a joint debate Friday night at the courthouse lawn. Douglass has accepted this challenge. Now, Mr. Allred, will you answer "yes" or "no?"

Douglass has not and will not have to have anybody come into this district to make political speeches in behalf of his candidacy and he will not have to have anybody argue his cases for him when he is elected district attorney of this district.

7. The friends of Curtis Douglass refer you to Judge W. R. Ewing, the District Judge of this district, as to Curtis Douglass' qualifications and abilities.

Here are the men who petitioned and drafted Curtis Douglass to make this race for district attorney. They realize the seriousness of the matter and the need of the district for a competent and efficient man to fill the office.

Mother Tells How Konjola Relieved Son

New Medicine Earns Lasting Gratitude of Ft. Worth Mother, Makes Real Record

VERDILL COWAN

What fine news this is for those mothers who are worrying over the ill health of a beloved son or daughter. Read what Konjola did for Verdill Cowan, 7, of 614 West Second street, Fort Worth, Texas. His mother, Mrs. B. M. Cowan, says: "Konjola restored my health, and I want to tell what this splendid medicine did for my son. He was always tired and under weight. His appetite was so poor that sometimes he went all day with no nourishment other than a glass of milk. I was greatly worried over his condition. But Konjola proved to be the very medicine and tonic he needed. In three weeks a remarkable change came over him. He is not tired; eats three meals a day and is gaining weight and strength. He looks better than he ever did. I surely recommend Konjola to every mother who has an ailing child."

Konjola contains no alcohol, no nerve deadening drugs, no heart-depressing chemicals. It needs no such ingredients as its seeming wonders to perform.

Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Find 1778 Dead In Italian Quake

ROME, July 24—(AP)—Government agents today counted the dead in 85 cities and hamlets in the earthquake area and announced the known death list was 1,778 with 4,264 known injured. That more victims would be taken from the ruins as rescue work progressed was most probable.

The Province of Avellino contained 1,392 killed and 2,072 injured, and led the losses by more than a thousand. In Potenza, 232 were dead and 535 injured. In Foggia, 1,537 were maimed and 120 killed; Benevento had 24 dead and many injured. Naples reported eight killed and thirteen injured in two towns of that province. In Salerno two were killed and none injured. Bari province reported serious damage in the town of Canosa but apparently no persons injured. Campo Basso experienced heavy damage with none killed or injured in the three towns affected.

Old Fire Chief Killed

FORT WORTH, July 24. (AP)—Fire Captain John H. Buckland, fire chief of North Fort Worth before its annexation in 1903, was killed instantly last night and Mrs. P. C. Lanham, 28, of Aledo, died of a fractured skull suffered in an automobile accident near Weatherford. The automobile bearing five persons overturned on a sandy curve. The party was en route to a political rally at Springtown.

Santa Fe Veteran Dies

CLEBURNE, July 24. (AP)—E. S. Newton, 67, Santa Fe railway purchasing agent, died here at his home last night of a heart attack.

Pampa Guns Will Play Ponca City In Their First Game in Denver's Tournament—Fenberg Manages

The Pampa Guns, champion baseball team of the Farhandle, will play the Ponca City, Okla., Oilers at one o'clock Saturday afternoon in their first game in the Denver tournament. This announcement was received last night by Keith Edelen, manager of the Guns, from the Denver Post which is holding the tourney.

Rain prevented the Pampa club from leaving yesterday afternoon, according to schedule, and 17 Guns left in automobiles for Denver early this morning. Finally yielding to insistent pleas of the Guns, Sam Fenberg, accepted the team's invitation to become business manager. He headed the caravan of cars that left for Denver this morning. Mr. Fenberg has been a strong supporter of the Guns throughout this season.

Last night, Mr. Fenberg secured definite assurance that Vic Fraser would pitch for the Guns during the tournament. Lefty Purvis of Breckenridge was also obtained last night before the complete Gun roster was telegraphed to tournament officials. Last midnight was the deadline for filing entries. The complete pitching staff now includes, Fraser, Purvis, Horn, Lefty Coop and Haddock. Lefty Dillon, Skelly Hurier, was unable to make the trip.

The strength of the Ponca City team is not known, and Manager Edelen and Fenberg were unable to say last night who would occupy the Gun mound during the game. If the team looks dangerous, Fraser may be sent to the mound. Fraser was the ace of the Dallas Steers' pitching staff last year. After much dickering he was finally sold to the Chicago White Sox. The Chicago club negotiated for several months before it was able to buy him, and it was not long before he came back to Texas. Despite handsome offers and much persuasion he has consistently refused to go back to Chicago. Barred from big league games, he has been pitching a little this summer for semi-pro clubs.

The new line-up of the Guns follows: Cox 1b, Speck Roberts 2b, Phillips ss, Al Williamson 3b, Weathered lf, Skeet Gibson of Joe Marcum rf, Tank Horton c. It will be noted that Phillips will have further opportunities to distinguish himself at short-stop. Yesterday, it was believed that Phillips would not be able to play any more with the team. Tuesday he was called to his home at St. Jo, Tex., by the death of his father. He telegraphed last night that he would meet the Guns in Denver.

Purvis and Fraser are enroute to Denver by train. Utility members of the club are Jackson of the Amarillo-Texas, Hickory and Morgan Tank Horton will replace George Sullivan as catcher. Sullivan will be field manager. The only other new member of the team is Skeet Gibson, who was given the award for being the most valuable man to his team in the Amarillo tournament. He alternated at short-stop, center, left and second base for the Tacks.

Manager Fenberg believes that the addition of Gibson and Horton will not disrupt the almost perfect team-play which the Guns developed in the Amarillo tournament. Horton was 1929 catcher for the Pampa Grays, of which half of the Guns were members.

Business men of Pampa made an admirable response to the financial drive conducted by Mr. Fenberg, "Rusty" Cahill, and several of the Guns. When they left this morning the Guns had $810 for expense money. Sam said the money would be used as economically as possible, and that every penny would be accounted for. "If we run out of cash, we'll give those citizens and business men who did not contribute to the fund yesterday a chance to subscribe," he said. The tournament began today and will continue for 18 days.

Contributors whose names were not published yesterday follows: Pampa Ice company, $5; Adkinson and Gunn Tire shop, $5; Bob Hickory of the Parkersburg B'n and Reel $5; Dr. H. H. Hicks, $5; Home Bakery, $2.50; Gordon's store, $10; Helpp-Selby, $10; Fish and Oyster market, $2.50; Pampa Waffle House, $2.50; Old Mill, $5; Scott Rheu-dahl, $5; Shaffer hotel, $5; Davis Hotel, $15; Gibson's cafe, $5; Six Cyren's Courthouse cafe, $10; Ma. Jone Furniture company, $25; Mr. Swatford, superintendent of the Gulf Production company, $25; C. C. Sloan, Gulf Refining company agent, $25.

Guns Favorites In Denver Meet—Post Pleased

Heralding the Pampa Guns as "one of the best teams ever to journey from the Southwest," the Denver Post said today, "With Pampa enrolled in the competition, the tournament is MADE." Many Texas clubs have participated in the meet before. Lubbock captured the championship in 1926.

College Golfer Great Threat to Western Champ

CHICAGO, July 24.—(AP)—Johnny Lehman, one of the prize products of college golf, blocked the march of Don Mooe, the youthful champion from Portland, Oregon, toward another western amateur title as the struggle for the crown went into the quarter-final round over the rugged Beverly country club course today.

The methodical shotmaker, medalist, former Big Ten champion and one of the best golfers in the Chicago district, faced the king of amateurs in a long stretch of 36 holes and while Mooe ranked as a slight favorite, the match generally was ranked as a toss-up battle. Of the two, Lehman was far more impressive in the early flights. He defeated two very capable golfers, Lloyd Nordstrom, of Davenport, Iowa, and George Dawson, Chicago star, with almost perfect golf yesterday, while Mooe, off his game since his return from an invasion of England with the Walker Cup team, weathered the first two tests with poorer golf against more experienced foemen—Vincent Huntington, Chicago, and Johnny Howard of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

As the quarter-final round opened today all the favorites with two glaring exceptions remained in the fight. The two, who were upset were Cyril Tolley of Great Britain and Charles "Chick" Evans. Tolley fell before Bob McCrary, trans-Mississippi champion from Des Moines, Iowa, one-up, while Evans was eliminated by the youthful Charlie Fish of Rockford, Ill., by the same margin on the nineteenth green where his rival holed a 35 foot putt for a birdie three to clinch his triumph.

Texas copped first place in 1928, but it is safe to say that Pampa is one of the best teams to ever journey here from the southwest. The entry of the Guns in the tournament was proclaimed in the sport with a "streamer" across the post page.

It will be recalled that Texas lost the Amarillo tournament to Pampa in 1928. Sports writers have declared that the 1930 Pampa team is the greatest team that ever played in the Amarillo tournament. "It looks like the Pampans are the favorites," Sam Fenberg, business manager of the Guns said before he left.

The Post continued: "The Guns after losing one of their early games at Amarillo, played superb ball to take the crown by defeating Amarillo 7 to 6 in the championship game Monday."

MARY FORD, GRADUATED TO SENIORS, WILL TRY FOR WESTERN GOLF TITLE

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Mary Elizabeth Ford of Kansas City was graduated from high school and simultaneously entered the ranks of senior women championship contenders.

The 16-year-old girl hopes to go far in golf before she enters college next fall, and now is stroking in the low eighties at the Milburn club here in preparation for the 1930 women's western title play at the Hillcrest Country club in Kansas City, August 25-30.

Following the plan of Mary Greef, Kansas City's yellow mistress of the tennis courts, Miss Ford will spend her college days in California so she may play the year around. While her classmates at Paseo were getting their diplomas in June, Miss Ford was in Tulsa, Okla., pondering her qualifying score in the Women's Trans-Mississippi tournament, her first major play.

The commencement absentee surrendered to the tourney medalist in the third round after a hard battle at the eighteenth hole where her par five wasn't good enough. Before her senior year in high school, Miss Ford attained note on the links by reaching the finals of the Western Junior championships at Chicago in 1929. Through a misunderstanding of the local rules she lifted her ball on a green to clean off a bit of mud and was defeated in the title play.

Miss Ford comes from a family well known in Kansas City golfing circles. The group includes Roland E. Ford, former city amateur champion now a professional at Salina, Kans., and Claiborn Ford, erstwhile member of the University of Missouri golf team.

Mary Greef, Kansas City girl tennis star, has a rival for athletic fame in the home town. Mary Elizabeth Ford, 16-years-old, is stroking in the low eighties waiting for the women's western title play here, August 25-30.

Ends Piles Quickly

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel. Cutting and external remedies can't do this—an internal medicine must be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, a specialist, succeeds, because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere, and has such a wonderful record of success right in this city that Fatheree Drug Store says to every Pile sufferer, try HEM-ROID at my risk. It must end all Pile agony or you get your money back.—Adv.—4.

AGE SERVES WELL, HURLING GREAT BALL

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Whoever it was that said "youth must prevail" probably would be inclined to retract that statement if he should look at the major league box scores these days. Ancients of the pitching brigade have done just about as much prevailing as the youngsters and often in a more convincing manner.

Five moundsmen whose combined ages total approximately 200 years were sent out to toil yesterday and while only one pitched a complete game, nearly all of them turned in good pitching performances. Adolfo Luque, Cuba's leading baseball hero, age 39, did a great job as he made first place in the National League safe for the Brooklyn Robins. Luque held the St. Louis Cardinals to five hits while his mates gathered enough momentum to win, 4 to 1. Most of the time, Luque had only a one-run lead and it was not until the Cards had tied the count in the seventh that the Robins started hitting.

The Robins' gain was made possible by their neighbors, the New York Giants, who downed the Chicago Cubs, 3 to 0, to put Brooklyn a full game plus a few odd points in the lead. The pitching in this contest was a matter of numbers rather than skill. Chicago using five hurlers and New York four, and the witness of the Cub throwers was the principal reason for the Giants' four run rally in the fifth which decided the game. Along with Luque, Quinn, of the Philadelphia Athletics, whose years number somewhere near 45, above or below, gave the younger pitchers a lesson. Quinn had a little trouble in the ninth inning and George Earbshaw finished the game for him as the A's downed Detroit but in his eight innings on the mound which gave him his ninth victory, Quinn allowed only five hits.

Pampa Child Is Accident Victim

News has been received here of the accidental death Monday in Elk City, Okla., of little Wilbur Franklin McLemore, Jr., 2 years old.

The boy was struck by a car driven by Jack Rains, and died soon afterward in an Elk City hospital. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of Pampa, had taken him to Elk City to visit his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McLemore. He was the son of W. F. McLemore of Borger.

The accident occurred when the child retraced his steps quickly after crossing a street, and was held unavoidable.

C. C. Boles and H. M. Hatcher made a business trip to Borger Wednesday.

Brabham Speaks In Baptist Meeting This Morning

A redhot Methodist sermon in a Baptist revival meeting was the early morning "bill of fare" served at the high school gymnasium this morning from 8 to 9 o'clock.

The preacher of that sermon was the Rev. Tom Brabham, pastor of the First Methodist church. His subject was "Knowing Christ," based on the text, "That I May Know Him," from the 3rd chapter of Philippians. Among other things that Brabham said: "You cannot know Christ by reading books about Him; you cannot know Christ by looking at his picture; you cannot know Christ by outwardly keeping His commandments for joining the church, or being baptised; you can only know Christ through the miracle of a new heart that leads you to live a new life for Him."

"The nearer we live to Christ," declared the speaker, "the more beautiful the Bible and its sacred teachings stand out before us."

"The love of money is blinding the eyes and souls of men and women in Pampa, O, that these sinning, dying, men and women could be awakened to their condition and know Christ, whom to know is life eternal."

Despite the rain storm Tuesday night a large crowd heard congressman-evangelist Upshaw on "Business and Religion." He announced he would speak Friday night on "Who Will Be Elected Saturday."—Contributed.

readjustment of taxation. Jim Young of Kautman warned an audience at Hillsboro that "a flood of display, advertising and biased news stories will appear in the Sterling-controlled press during the last few days of the campaign, to lure votes to the highway commission chairman."

He asserted Small's campaign had collapsed and predicted that he himself would be in the second primary "with Ferguson" and would "beat her like I would beat any other candidate."

Sirens were sounded, giant firecrackers were set off at the back of the hall, and newspaper flashlight cameras sent up smoke last night as Jesse Jones introduced Ross Sterling to an uproarious hometown audience in the Democratic national convention hall in Houston.

Sterling, in his address, denied that the proposed highway bond plan would take away the portion of the gasoline tax assigned to schools, saying the bill voted on in the last legislature proposing the bond issue especially reserved one cent out of the four-cent gasoline tax for schools.

"It is demagoguery of the worst sort and cheap politics for any candidate for governor to pretend otherwise," he declared.

That's My Man
He's Mine, Too
I Am Going to Vote For

RAYMOND ALLRED

For

District Attorney 31st District

For These Reasons:

He is making the race on his own merits and is not making false statements against his opponent.

He has never been requested by the governor to resign from any public office.

He has never been aligned with any law violating clique, nor accused of malfeasance in office.

Contrary to a statement of his opponent he has had experience in prosecuting criminals and has won a verdict in each criminal case where his opponent was the defense attorney.

Contrary to reports, he is not related to Beulah Allred, militant prohibition enforcer, and is not so much as acquainted with her.

He is one of five brothers, all lawyers, and all of whom have been elected prosecutors in their respective districts within the past five years, and all of whom have represented their districts in a credible manner.

We believe he has the support of every sober lawyer in his district, and has never as much as been accused of drunkenness NOR CONVICTED THEREFOR.

He has never represented bootleggers, therefore will not be obligated to this class of people if elected.

He will not prosecute the poor and defenseless and permit the "privileged few" to go unprosecuted. Last year, as county attorney of Wheeler County, he prosecuted and CONVICTED two lawyers.

He has not accepted one dollar in campaign contributions, and will be obligated to no one if elected District Attorney.

Mexico Fears Rio Grande May Change Course

HARLINGEN, July 24—(AP)—A tendency of the Rio Grande, boundary of the United States and Mexico, to gradually change its course to the south is causing Mexican officials some concern in that such a change is taking territory belonging to Mexico and adding it to that of the United States.

The stream has been playing pranks for centuries, steadily moving southward. Deeply cut channels, one of which enters the Gulf of Mexico 30 or 40 miles north of the river's present mouth, once were its courses and stand as proof of its steady trek southward.

The pranks of the Rio Grande recently were brought to the attention of engineers when the International Boundary Commission, consisting of representatives of the United States and Mexico, made a report of its survey, the first since 1911. In that time, according to Armando Santacruz, Jr., engineer of Mexico, the United States gained 5,000 acres.

This resulted by formation of bancos (horseshoe shaped cutoffs), caused by the river changing its course from a U-shape to a straight line, the engineer explained.

Since the 1911 survey the stream has turned 75 per cent of these bancos to the United States and only 25 per cent has gone to Mexico.

When the land becomes a part of this nation its value increases to $250 or more per acre. When it goes to Mexico it depreciates to $25 or less—merely because Mexico has not taken advantage of irrigation opportunities.

In an 80-mile stretch along the river in the Lower Rio Grandé Valley 28 bancos were added to the United States in 19 years, the report showed. In the same time 12 bancos went to Mexico. These changes added 1,267 acres to the United States.

As long as the river is considered there isn't anything that can be done about it. By agreement, any land up to 100 hectares (247 acres) transferred from one nation to the other becomes a part of the latter. Not often has the acreage exceeded that.

The Rio Grande was in an exceptionally playful mood early in July—and Uncle Sam almost gained a city. The river broke over its south bank at Matamoros, seeking a channel below that city. However, quick work on the part of Mexican officials saved the situation.

The river's prank then set the Mexican officials to thinking. The survey showed that the present mouth of the Rio Grande was filling up. Not so many years ago the stream was navigable to Brownsville, 35 miles from its mouth. Today, however, a delta has been built up, and Mexican engineers are certain that someday it will successfully change its course—moving further south because the levee system in the United States prevents it from moving northward. Addition of 100 acres of rich soil is a valuable annexation—but it can be extremely costly, as was a case recently. When the stream attempted to swing around Matamoros it did succeed in cutting off a horseshoe curve, but in doing so it moved the water supply of Brownsville, a quarter of a mile away from its pumping plant. The source had been used for years. The resulting situation caused Brownsville officials to call a $150,000 bond election so as to extend its system to the supply.

Nautical School Will Be Asked

AUSTIN, July 24—(AP)—Requests for appropriation to provide for the establishment of a Texas Nautical Academy will be made of the state legislature at its next session, it was learned here. At the last session, a bill appropriating money for this project was approved by the senate but died in the house.

The academy, its sponsors pointed 200 Texas youths to learn maritime life each year. Capt. G. W. Williams, head of the Neptune Association of Galveston, is one of the leaders of the movement.

Cooperation of the federal government already has been obtained. A ship and necessary equipment will be furnished by the federal government if the state will provide funds to carry on the work. The government also has indicated a willingness to give $25,000 annually for maintenance of the ship and equipment.

The state's share of the cost would be between $50,000 and $70,000 annually.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hatcher of Cushing, Okla., are visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. Hatcher is manager of the L. T. Hill company store at Cushing. Mrs. Hatcher is the former Miss Ruth Hill.

C. E. "TINY" PIPES For Sheriff of Gray County

This Is Why We Know He Will Make A Good SHERIFF

FIRST: He is an experienced peace Officer, having served the people of this State in this capacity for a period of 25 years.

SECOND: He is perfectly willing for any group of citizens to investigate his record as an officer, having served as Deputy and Constable in Coleman County for a period of 17 years and Chief Deputy for a period of 4 years in Gray County.

THIRD: He believes in the enforcement of all laws, and if elected Sheriff, he promises the people of this County that he will enforce all laws to the best of his ability in fairness to all and favors to none.

FOURTH: Gray County has within her territory enough good men to select deputies from and if elected Sheriff, all of his deputies will be picked from the taxpayers of this County, if at all possible.

FIFTH: All Deputies must believe in the enforcement of all laws and no deputy will be allowed to remain on the force, so long as he is sheriff, who drinks, or violates the laws in any way.

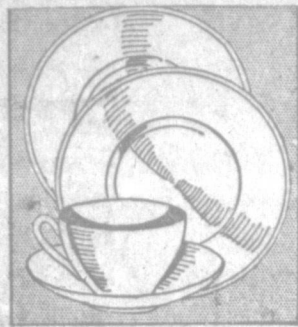

SIXTH: He promises, if elected not to be partial to any group of individuals or to any particular locality of the County, believing that it is the duty of the sheriff to serve every part of the County just alike.

PAMPA, TEXAS

THE IMPORTANCE OF THESE DOLLAR DAYS BARGAINS!

Dates Of Institute Are Announced By Teachers College

CANYON, July 24—(Special)—The Consolidated Teachers Institute and Association of the North Panhandle Plains section will hold its annual meeting Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 1, 2, and 3, in Canyon at the West Texas State Teachers college under the direction of F. E. Savage who has been conductor of the Institute for the past four years.

According to Mr. Savage there are already enough cities and counties signed up and pledged to attend the meet here to make 600 or 800 teachers present. More letters of acceptance are being received daily.

The organization of the Institute will emphasize three types of school work. The group sections will be for specialized work in teaching. There will be lectures by prominent people from the educational world and other platform speakers. Entertainment for those attending will be planned and directed.

The management has secured the services of six supervisors from the State Department of Education. These include A. M. Blackman chief supervisor of the high schools; Miss Lundel, supervisor of English work; Miss Henderson, supervisor of social science; R. N. Sandlin, specialist in physical education and health. Practically all of the time of these supervisors will be taken up with conferences with those teachers who desire help with their problems. In addition to this there are to be people for lectures in sections and general assembly of national reputation.

Mr. Savage states that all counties and cities of the region are invited to participate in the Inst.

College Golfers Are Enthusiastic

CANYON, July 24—(Special)—Provided with almost ideal golfing weather other than the intense heat the W. T. S. T. C. golfers successfully repelled the challenging Canyon players Sunday on the College club links.

Thirty-six players took part in the match, the Collegians taking ten of their flights to eight for the city team.

Driving off promptly at 2.30 from all parts of the course, the tournament got underway without confusion. Fairways were soon dotted with players, giving the club an air of cosmopolitanism very gratifying to those responsible for the success and popularity of the grounds.

Foursomes were counted off without competition or drawing of lots and pairings were decided according to similarity of scores.

By winning the tournament the college team has shown the results obtainable through practice and a study of the game. They were not doped to win since several of the Collegians had scarcely more than touched a golf club up until a month ago.

Gamewell, the promising youngster who recently moved to Canyon from Dallas, shot the low score of the day, a 79.

Dean Of Women Goes To England

CANYON, July 24—(Special)—Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women of the West Texas State Teachers college, sailed on the "George Washington" July 23 for England. She was joined in New York by Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, student secretary for the Canyon Methodist church. Miss Swisher is also president of the Panhandle Music Teachers Association.

The two will land at Plymouth and motor from there to Oxford by way of Winchester. They will spend one day in the Shakespeare country and go from there to London. From London they will go to the continent, first to Holland, then to Brussels, Cologne, Coblenz, Nuremberg, and Oberammergau. One of the most beautiful parts of the tour will be the Alpine Passes. They will motor to Interlaken via the Crimel and Furka Passes. In Italy they will visit Milan, Venice, Florence, Naples, Pompeii, Sorrento, the Isle of Capri, and Rome. They will arrive in Paris September 1, go from there to Cherbourg and sail for Quebec, Sept. 5. They will arrive in Montreal Sept. 13th.

Following the tour Mrs. Green will go to New York where she will study all next year in the University of Columbia. After completing the work for her Ph. D. degree, she will resume her duties as Dean of Women here in June, 1931.

Miss Swisher will return to her

SECOND TERM OPENS
CANYON, Texas, July 24—(Special)—Enrollments for the second term of the summer session at the West Texas State Teachers College is now complete, with 110 new students enrolled for the last six week's of work. This makes a total of some 1,230 students for the last term.

All new students enrolled are in the college department, as there were no entries for the second term in the demonstration school.

McKnight Asks Collector's Job

As a candidate for tax collector of Gray County, C. McKnight is asking for the opportunity to collect the taxes from a county which he has seen grow from a sparsely-settled prairie to a populous, wealthy farming and oil territory. He has been a resident of Collingsworth and Gray counties for twenty-eight years, thirteen of which have been spent in Gray county. Mr. McKnight is familiar with the conditions of this county, having dealt in real estate in Pampa for several years. He feels that his general business experiences gained here has well prepared him for the office of tax collector. Mr. McKnight invites all who are not acquainted with him and his business record to investigate them so that they may satisfy themselves as to his honesty and ability.

Sheppard Gives New Gas Ruling

AUSTIN, July 24. (AP)—Answering a large number of queries which followed announcement of an opinion by the attorney general in regard to the time limit for refund under gas tax law, Comptroller George H. Sheppard has mailed a circular letter to explain the purpose of the opinion. The attorney general held that a claimant for refund has six months, instead of two, in which to use his gasoline and make a claim for refund. Under a previous rule, it had proved difficult for farmers and others to use their supply of gasoline within the two months, and necessitated buying in smaller quantities.

"From the language of the opinion," Sheppard said in the circular, which went to all claimants on the department's books, "I understand it may be retro-active and we will be glad to reopen any claim files that may have been rejected on account of having been filed after two months from the date of purchase."

"On all such claims that have been rejected, however, claimants cannot be refunded the tax unless they reported purchases within the time limit prescribed by law, by not later than the 25th of the succeeding month of purchase. The six months limit for filing does not effect the law requiring claimants to first make their monthly report."

A large number of claims have already been reopened, according to the comptroller, and hundreds of queries have been made to the

Doucette Knows Texas Land Laws

Some of the biggest boundary disputes which have occurred in the Panhandle have required the services of A. H. Doucette, candidate for county surveyor, in his twenty years he has surveyed Gray county. Many of these disputes have been very difficult due to the peculiarities of Texas land laws, which are different to those of any other state, and the increase in land valuation in the last decade.

Mr. Doucette is familiar with the work of county surveyor and acquainted with land in Gray county as a candidate for tax collector of the county land records since 1910. He has been a licensed state land surveyor for more than ten years and his work has taken him all over the Panhandle. He has done most of the survey work for the city of Pampa, including the paving sewer lines and water works.

Mr. Doucette has been a Democrat all his life and has always run on the Democratic ticket. He is an interested worker in civic activities in Pampa.

Leech Grateful To His Many Friends

While he is unopposed for reelection to the office of county tax assessor, F. E. Leech wishes to take this opportunity of thanking his friends for the confidence they have always placed in him. He states that he will continue to give the office the best of his ability, and that he will be ready at all times to assist anyone having business with him.

Mr. Leech is known as a public-spirited citizen who takes an active part in local and Gray county affairs.

Study By Bus
COLLEGE STATION, July 24. (AP)—As "traveling" students in a rather unique course, 23 industrial teachers of Texas will make a 4,900-mile journey by bus during the next four weeks to study industries and industrial schools in the North Central States.

Offered by the department of industrial education of A. & M. College, the course is known as "A Practical Study in the Relation of Industry to Industrial Education." E. L. Williams, head of the department of industrial education of the college, proposed and worked up interest in this educational pilgrimage and will lead the party of teachers.

Itinerary of the trip includes the following cities: Nashville, Tenn.; Mammoth Cave and Louisville, Ky.; Cincinnati, Dayton and Toledo, Ohio; Detroit, Grand Rapids and Muskegon, Mich.; South Bend and Gary, Ind.; Chicago and Peoria, Ill.; St. Louis, Mo.

Realism Deluxe
MIDLAND, July 24. (AP)—Stump speaking took a realistic turn during a recent political rally here. A sweet gum stump weighing 570 pounds was expressed from Tyler to the Midland Chamber of Commerce for the rally. All candidates, including several for state office, climbed the East Texas stump to do their West Texas orating.

Has Working Plan
AUSTIN, July 24. (AP)—Constitution, by-laws and a working plan for a Junior Academy of Science in Texas have been compiled by C. T. Reed, president of the Texas Academy of Science. Organization work for the junior society was expected to be started this fall. R. H. Cuyler, geology instructor in the University of Texas and a member of the Academy, said.

The project of establishing academies is being sponsored by the American Association of Academies of Science with which the Texas organization is affiliated.

Tulia Friends Of Jordan Are Strong for Him

In behalf of his candidacy for Place No. 2, of precinct No. 2, Justice Peace office at Pampa, Henry L. Jordan has been favored with a letter of recommendation from his friends at Tulla, Swisher county, Texas, where he formerly practiced law. Among other matters the letter of recommendation recites briefly:

"Having noticed the announcement of our friend, H. L. Jordan, for the office of justice of the peace in Pampa, desiring to say a good word for him,—to those probably interested in knowing something of him.

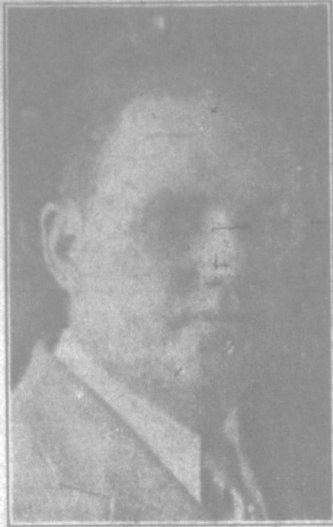

"Having known him from his boyhood and his good family for many years we gladly recommend him as an honest, worthy and capable young man and as being wholly trustworthy and dependable. He served Swisher county as county attorney for several years, and is capable and sound. We think you will make no mistake in helping him.

"He does not know this is being written and no one for him has asked it."

Signed: J. H. O'Neal, county attorney; Dennis Zimmerman, attorney; L. G. McDonald, deputy sheriff; J. C. Moseley, sheriff; Jno. W. Grigg, county clerk; W. A. Graham, county judge; J. W. McClain, assessor.

Pays His Way

—By Fred's Studio.

A. J. (Jake) Erwin, born in Cisco, Eastland county, Texas, June 21, 1902, is a strong candidate for sheriff of Gray county. He has been a resident of this county for seven years and is thoroughly familiar with conditions throughout the Panhandle. Mr. Erwin is a carpenter by trade and has been doing general contracting in this vicinity for some time.

His friends say that he has always led an exemplary life and that nothing can be said against his character. He is a staunch member of the Baptist church and his principal backers are among those who stand for the enforcement of all the laws.

Mr. Erwin has assured all who have interested themselves in his campaign that if elected he will select his deputies from among the best men in the county, and in no case will he select any man who is not well known to be in harmony with his ideals.

If you want a man as sheriff of Gray county who is not tied to any clique, who has personally born the expense of his campaign, and who will go into office free to enforce the law according to its true interpretation; Mr. Erwin asks you to cast your vote for him to be your next sheriff in Saturday's primary.

Interesting Relics Given To Society

CANYON, Texas, July 24.—(Special)—L. F. Sheffy, field secretary of the Panhandle Plains Historical Society has returned from a meeting of the pioneers of Childress county with several additional relics to be added to the Society's collection. Some 500 people were present at this meeting, representing that entire section of the country.

Mr. Sheffy spoke to the group on the historical society museum's program.

H. E. Sherwood of Childress gave a bow and eight Indian arrow heads mounted on a shaft ready to shoot, to the society. Also in this collection is a cowhide Indian scabbard and an old belt and knife scabbard. All of these were used by Kiowa Bill and old Indian who formerly hunted buffaloes on the Palo Duro and Yellow House canyons. He now lives near Hobart, Okla.

A collection of arrow heads and a pestle, the Indian implement for grinding corn, were given to the society by Dr. Snyder. Of especial interest in this collection were a crocodile egg, and an alligator tusk.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Haskett, also of Childress, presented the society with an old stone jar which has a most interesting history.

According to Mr. Sheffy many other interesting relics have been promised by the Childress people.

Mr. Sheffy will spend this week working in Canyon and Anrillo in the interests of the society.

W. L. Craig of Miami was in Pampa yesterday.

Mrs. Carl Brashers and daughter Dorothy were visitors in Subinet yesterday.

Elected Once, He Is Running Again

R. B. "Rufe" Thompson, candidate for district clerk, will have the experience of being elected to an office twice and serving but one term if he is nominated at the primary Saturday. He was nominated and elected in 1928, but the office was not separated from that of county clerk.

Mr. Thompson served as district clerk from 1920 to 1924 and is familiar with the duties of the office. He is asking for the nomination this time because he is experienced and qualified and it will give him an opportunity to serve the term to which he was elected in 1928.

interest in the celebration. Mayes is appearing before luncheon and women's clubs and other civic organizations in the effort to give momentum to the movement. He recently reported that a plan to hold the centennial's capital was slowly but surely gaining headway. He also is sponsoring a public campaign on a small scale to educate the citizenry on the needs and value of the centennial.

New Cement Record
AUSTIN, July 24. (AP)—A new high record for production of cement in Texas was established during the first six months of 1930, according to a recent survey. During the first half of the year, 3,442,000 barrels were produced as compared to 3,223,000 barrels during the same period in 1929.

Shipments also established a new high record, totalling 3,556,000 barrels as compared to 3,236,000 barrels. The increase in the shipments over the production materially reduced the stocks on hand, the survey showed.

Congressman Marvin Jones

In the coming primary, the Democrats of the Eighteenth Congressional district, composed of 53 Northwest counties, will no doubt show their appreciation of a conscientious, wise and capable public servant by voting for Marvin Jones for Congress.

Mr. Jones was first elected in 1917 and has served continuously since that time. By native ability and through industry and experience he has become one of the most effective and highly respected men in the House.

If the entire House of Representatives were composed of men like Marvin Jones the standing of the National Congress would be a source of general pride. Mr. Jones does not seek the limelight. He does not speak merely to get into the record, but when he does speak he has something to say, and the members of the House always listen to him.

Mr. Jones has had very little opposition, and in the few instances when it has developed his opponent has accepted defeat with little surprise, and everybody seemed to have a good time. His merit is recognized, and each added year finds Mr. Jones more strongly entrenched in the confidence and esteem of his constituents. Even those who disagree with him occasionally on national questions are proud of the manner in which he serves all of the people of the district, and of the record he has made.

The people of the Plains are always glad to support Marvin Jones.

Hardin's Training Fits Him to Handle Collector's Office

Walter D. Hardin, member of one of Gray county's oldest families, is among those asking for office in the primary of Saturday. He is a candidate for tax collector. Mr. Hardin worked his way through Clarendon college, Canyon Teachers college, Tyler Commercial college, and the University of Texas. He studied typewriting, shorthand, commercial law, commercial arithmetic, business administration, office management, credits and collections, bookkeeping, and higher accounting. Since then he has had years of experience, including some tax work. He taught commercial subjects for several years, and among his former pupils are many successful men and women, including the head of a department of the Dallas Federal Reserve bank. He was supervisor of commercial training with the U. S. Veterans bureau at Dallas. Mr. Hardin believes that this experience, taken to the office of tax collector, would enable him to render exceptional service to Gray county, and he promises to give the office his entire time if elected. James O. Cade, Amarillo, candidate for Congress, was a visitor in Pampa yesterday.

Mrs. Mouty Hudson and Mrs. J. D. Smith left Wednesday on a trip to Rawls where they will visit relatives and friends.

Diplomats Must Pay For Liquors Served Abroad

WASHINGTON, July 24—(AP)—Bubbling champagnes and choice wines at governmental expense are forbidden luxuries in American embassies and consulates abroad under an executive order just signed by President Hoover.

The order cites in detail regulations governing the disbursement by nearly 100 American diplomatic and consular missions abroad of allowances recently voted by congress for official entertaining.

After a six year fight for such funds, congress recently allotted $92,000 to this purpose in its appropriation for the state department.

Congress authorized the allowances in 1924, but failed to make the necessary appropriation in any bill since that time until the present budget.

The order states that "express provisions of the law," prevented governmental funds being used for these purposes.

Among the items permitted under the appropriation are receptions at the missions on American national holidays, flowers and wreaths for weddings and funerals, tips and gratuities, dinners, formal and informal functions and special entertainments.

The ruling came as a considerable surprise to state department officials and particularly those in the foreign service who will benefit by the funds.

The item of serving liquors is generally considered by foreign service officers stationed abroad to be about the heaviest of any for which they have been forced to pay out of their own pockets.

Many of the foreign service officers who do extensive entertaining have found that liquors frequently run to a considerable bill.

Department officials said, today they had no information as to the number of missions abroad whose heads maintained "ard territories" in compliance with prohibition laws of their country at home.

Ambassador Dawes in London caused considerable comment last year by announcing that no liquors would be served at the embassy in London during his term of office.

At the homes of many foreign service officers, however, liquors are served, but under the present ruling these must continue to be paid for by the host no matter what the occasion.

TO THE VOTERS OF GRAY COUNTY

As a home boy, reared in Gray County, who worked every kind of office work, from a one-man office to one with 1,200 employees, from office clerk to accountant, including every kind of machine used in an office, who has filed systems, bookkeeping trained hundreds of office clerks, stenographers and accounts, I ask your earnest consideration for Tax Collector in the Democratic primary next Saturday.

Our tax valuation was three and one half million dollars in 1925. Today it is approximately thirty million dollars. The duties of the Tax Collector's office have increased accordingly. And beginning January 1, 1931, the office will be operated under the schedule for counties of more than ten thousand population instead of the old schedule.

This office demands a man who is honest and dependable; that is capable and competent to do the work efficiently, and one that will do it. Upon my past record I ask that you vote for me on July 26th.

I have tried to see every voter but have missed many of you, still I want every citizen to know that I will appreciate your vote. I want the office, I need it and when elected I will give the best service I can according to my training and ability.

Parnell Looks To West Texas For Many Votes

AUSTIN, July 24.—The strong fight that my West Texas friends have made for me is certain to put me in the run-off," declared J. D. Parnell, Wichita Falls, the only West Texas candidate for lieutenant-governor. The former senator is rallying his state organization for the final drive.

"I have devoted most of my time in campaigning through other sections of the State, believing that my neighbors in West Texas will sustain me in the fight and give me an overwhelming majority next Saturday," said Parnell.

He attributes the large following that he has gained in other sections of the state to the plank of his platform opposing more legislation. His fight against the proposals for a state income tax has also met with popular approval, he said.

Senator Parnell's career has developed with that great section of which he is such a proud citizen.

"West Texans know of the fight that I have made in the interest of oil development," said the senator. "When their interests were at stake, I responded to their requests and defended them. Because of this I have the opposition of the major oil companies, most of whom are supporting some one of my opponents," he charged.

In his campaign speeches, Parnell has charged the major oil companies with plotting the repeal of the anti-trust laws.

"At the instance of land owners, royalty holders and independent oil producers, I was successful in opposing the pro-rating of West Texas oil when the major companies refused to pro-rate their own wells in the Gulf coast area," declared Parnell.

"If we will quit regulating and legislating so much and try to formulate some plan whereby we can develop the state and keep the 'saw and hammer brigade' going, we will have done a real service to the people in giving employment to the unemployed and bringing in more consumers for our products," said the veteran legislator.

Salute! Here Come the Colonels

At least two Kentucky colonels don't have to reprimand anyone for not coming to attention when they pass by on parade. They are Iola Sibbrel of Lexington, "Miss Kentucky," and Cleo Snyder, "Miss Louisville," who are shown here receiving their commissions from Governor Flen D. Sampson. The two new colonels will represent Kentucky in the International Pageant of Pulchritude at Galveston, Texas, in August.

Proosals for a state income tax have his strongest opposition. "The people would be unable to bear the extra burden of an income tax, which would be more inequitable in administration than the ad valorem tax is now. Moreover, the cost of administration of the tax would be very excessive. It's the pet of the corporations under the guise of relief for the farmer," he charged. E. E. Witt was the proponent of an income tax measure in the legislature, he accused.

Mrs. Roy McMillen and daughters, Blanche and Janet, have gone to Duke City to visit for several weeks with Mrs. McMillen's parents.

SPORT SLANTS

About as rare as the well known day in June are big league pitchers with ten victories to their credit by the end of the month of roses, brides, regattas and home runs.

Wes Ferrell, the sensational Cleveland right-hander, was the first to register his tenth pitching conquest, followed by the eminent Robert Moses Grove of the Athletics and another capable southpaw, Bill Walker of the New York Giants. Ted Lyons of the White Sox has had to wait quite a spell for his tenth victory, after registering No. 9 early in the season. Socks Selbold of the Braves has been up among these big winners in spite of being attached to a second-division outfit.

Two of the twirling titans at this stage of the proceedings a year ago was Burleigh Grimes of the Pirates and George Uhle of the Tigers but both have had to hustle to get as much as an even break so far this year.

The same folks who pay $28.50 for their ringside seats at the box-fights already have bought up the choicest reservations for the International Polo matches at Meadow Brook in September at something like $25 to $50 per seat. They will get more action in one good chukker of international polo, with Hitchcock, Guest, Lacey and Roark at large than they have witnessed in all the heavyweight bouts put together.

Speaking of heavyweights, as we seem to be doing these days in spite of ourselves, it is worth noting that among all the big flops and fouls, the one-round knockout scored by Willie Stribling over Otto Von Porat was conspicuous and indeed refreshing.

Stribling figured to have had his main chance and passed on, but he is now back in the picture again, in a position where he may go on to dispute the title claims of Jack Sharkey or Max Schmeling. Willie is no longer a schoolboy and Pa Stribling is now a "Grandpa" but the family combination is still effective, whenever "the boy" starts throwing his punches earnestly.

Many Coaches In Teachers College

CANYON, July 24.—Fifty four coaches and prospective coaches are taking the coaching courses offered at West Texas State Teachers college this summer, under the direction of Coaches Burton and Reeds.

The courses as given at West Texas is unique in that the courses run for six weeks and full college credit is given. The first six weeks courses were given in the Theory and practice of coaching basketball and track. Also, a course in Athletic Training and the Treatment of Athletic Injuries. The second six weeks is devoted to Football and Organization.

The courses at West Texas have become very popular and if one is to judge by the opinions as expressed by members of the classes, the courses are very profitable. One fellow, who took the course in basketball two or three years ago, took a team from a two teacher school to the final match in his district. Another said, "I consider the course worth several years of experience, and I have been coaching about ten years, and this course has been worth more to me than the experience, that I have had."

Soft Hard CORNS

Gone In 4 Days
Roots and All

Callouses Too

Out to stay out—selling like hot cakes in Great Britain and now in America—the pleasant, easy way to get rid of corns—a joyous, refreshing, invigorating foot bath for 3 or 4 nights, and then lift out the corn—roots and all. They call this miracle worker Rador and since it has been working wonders with the bad feet of the tight little Isles—plasters and acids, cutting and skin destroying liquid belong to the dark ages.

It's the modern way—the sensible way to take out corns—to abolish callouses—to dissolve the hard skin from heels and toes and to put your feet in good vigorous condition so that you can walk and run and jump and dance with ease and pleasure.

Just ask for a box of Rador at Fatheree Drug Stores or any modern drugstore—you'll be delighted. Adv. 14

If elected to the office of Tax Collector of Gray County will devote all his time to the duties of the office. In saying this he asks your earnest consideration for he knows that it will take the vote of each and every one of you to put him in the office of Tax Collector of Gray County.

THINK BEFORE YOU VOTE SATURDAY, JULY 26TH.

This being my last appeal to the voters of Gray County, I am asking your support when you go to the polls Saturday, July 26th.

I have tried to see each and every one of you personally, but to those of you whom I have not been able to see, please remember it was not that I did not want your support because I know it will require the support of each and every one of you to put me in office. I thank each person who has given me encouragement during this campaign, and assure you that your support is appreciated.

In closing my campaign for the office of Tax Collector of Gray County permit me to say that I will conduct the affairs of this important office that no one will have occasion to regret having supported me.

I thank you.
