Pampa Rotarians Are Hosts To Visiting Delegations

PANHANDLE IS GIVEN A GONG AT BANQUET

Neighbors Club Won Recent Attendance Contest

MUCH MUSIC AND SPEAKING

Many Enjoy Occasion at New Schneider Hotel

Rotarians and Rotary Anns from Canadian, Panhandle, and Dalhart, and many other guests joined the local Rotary group at the New Schneider hotel dining room last night in one of the largest and most enthusiastic gatherings ever held here.

The occasion grew out of an attendance contest in which the Pampa club came out lowest, and therefore had to entertain the Canadian, Panhandle, and Dalhart clubs. Panhandle won with an attendance record of 96.7 per cent. Other standings were: Dalhart 91.7 per cent; Canadian 91.2 per cent; and Pampa 90.7 per cent.

The Rotary groups filled the lobby of the hotel and music by Pat Williams' all-girl band, which now is playing with the Southern Musical revue at the Rex theatre.

Cook Presides

After enjoying the dinner, those present turned to joke and story, and there was much gaiety until a late hour. President Charles C. Cook of the Pampa club welcomed the guests and presented the Panhandle club with the fine gong and gravel, a trophy honoring the winning club. President Callaghan of the Panhandle club responded, speaking humorously of his friends.

He declared that personal contact enables people to overlook each other's faults, and that civic ideas travel rapidly as citizens of various communities mingle. He attributed the avalanche of public improvements in Panhandle towns to this influence.

Roy Arnold of the Panhandle club led his group in a number of Rotary songs.

Mrs. James Todd, Jr., caused much amusement with a pleasing reading, "Buying Husband a Christmas Present."

Pointed Remarks

E. J. Pickens of Canadian entertained the crowd with much humor and irony, especially pointed at various persons present.

Vocal solos by Mrs. A. H. Doucette, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Dodson, were much enjoyed.

Cliff Brally of Dalhart, who received many jibes during the evening, made an able reply. He recalled inspiring events of the Denver convention of Rotarians.

Mrs. Tom Rose gave pleasing piano solos.

H. S. Wilbur of Canadian made an earnest talk on "The Other Fellow" urging the clubs to remember the misfortunes of their communities as Thanksgiving and Christmas. He invited all Rotarians to attend the next inter-city meeting at Canadian on the evening of December 13.

M. K. Brown led the singing of Rotary and other songs, in which all present heartily joined.

Todd Speaks

The Rev. James Todd, Jr., of the Pampa club spoke on the international spirit of Rotary.

"One cannot become a Rotarian and think only of America," said Mr. Todd. "I like nothing better than to extol patriotism, but I am not so narrow as to think we in America are it." The same Rotary emblem is found in the homes of 38 nations. If one wishes to travel, he will find that

500 Carloads of Turkeys Net Texas Farmers $3,500,000

FORT WORTH, Nov. 15—A total of 500 cars of turkeys representing ten million pounds of Thanksgiving meat, passed out of Texas during the past two weeks consigned to points north, east, and west. It was announced today by J. B. Collier, president of the Fort Worth Poultry and Egg company.

The Thanksgiving crop netted the farmers of Texas more than $3,500,000, according to figures compiled by Collier.

Red Cross Drive To Start Monday

Members of the different committees on the Red Cross annual roll call will meet at luncheon at the Schneider hotel tomorrow at 12 o'clock to discuss plans for the roll call activities. The Rev. Tom Brabham is director of the campaign for membership in the Red Cross.

Sunday is the services of the Pampa churches special mention will be made by the pastors in charge of the common Red Cross campaign. The actual work will commence Monday morning by the different committees under the leadership of the Rev. Tom Brabham.

Fifty cents of each membership is sent to the headquarters of the Red Cross, while the balance remains in the city for Red Cross work. A life membership costs $1.00 and of that amount $99.50 remains in Pampa for local work. A sustaining membership costs $25, and of that amount $24.50 is for local use. Thus practically all the funds remain for home use.

It is the purpose of the local committee to finish their drive in a short period and enable the employing of a full time Red Cross nurse in Pampa. The committee in charge will look after the charity in the city and is sure the citizens of Pampa will respond nobly to assist in this work.

"When a committeeman calls on you, greet him with a smile, as he is leaving his time to a great work," is a message the Rev. Tom Brabham gives the good people of Pampa.

Extra Space Needed by Post Office in Christmas Period

Postmaster Bill Crawford has received instruction from the postmaster-general to secure additional space for the receiving of Christmas mail going from Pampa. Since the local office has grown to second class the present building is not large enough to accommodate the extra demand, and more space is necessary.

It is planned to secure a building to receive the outgoing parcels during the Christmas rush which will be between December 10 and 24. The postoffice slogan is "mail your parcels early and avoid the last minute rush."

A letter of instructions for the wrapping and mailing of parcels has been posted in the office, where it can be read by the residents of the city. It explains the rates, weights, wrappings and other necessary information for the sending of Christmas parcels.

Jersey Cows Bring Large Price Here

Twenty-five head of Jersey milk cows brought Joe Adair $1,513.25 this week at public auction. I. S. Jameson and son had charge of the sale. The price is probably the largest ever paid for milk cows in this territory.

Another large price was paid for shocks of cane. Mr. Adair sold 475 bundles, which had made about 600 bundles to the acre, for 85 cents a bundle.

Phillips Announces Gasoline Plant for Bowers Pool—Material Ordered for Immediate Erection in Gray

As predicted in the Daily News, the Phillips Petroleum company Wednesday announced that it will place immediately a large casing head gasoline plant on section 88, Block B-2, in the Bowers pool of the Pampa field.

This plant, for which material is enroute by dozens of carloads, will be located on the big lease recently purchased from Clark, Sherrin, & Baldrige of Wichita Falls, and will be erected to handle a big supply of residue gas. Its expansion as the field grows is anticipated, and the construction will be with this probability in mind.

Explosion Victims Expected to Live

Walter Simmons and Frank Van Buren, the two oil workers who were seriously burned when an explosion occurred at the Roxana Petroleum company's No. 3 Jordan-Brown in section 106, block 4, Carson county, yesterday morning, are under the care of Dr. J. C. McKem in his private hospital in the White Deer Land company building.

Although seriously burned about the head, arms and feet, it is not thought that the injuries will prove fatal. Simmons is the more seriously burned but is expected to recover.

The men were pulling rods when the explosion occurred. It is thought that gas was escaping from the hole and that it ignited from a gasoline engine back-firing.

Block Systems on Santa Fe Are Put in Effect Here

The block signal system on the Santa Fe line from Canyon to the east end of the Pampa yard went into effect at 12:01 Tuesday afternoon. The new system practically does away with accidents from collisions.

This system makes it impossible for trains to run closer than one mile apart. The rails are wired and if two trains happen to be in the same block or within one mile of each other a semaphore is electrically thrown, which warns the driver of the second engine that he is within one mile of the other train.

In case a switch is left open or is only partially closed, the signal warning is given and trainmen ordered to investigate ahead, and flag the train through.

This system is used in practically all the larger railroads in the United States. Many accidents have been prevented on the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads since the block signal system was put into effect; officials of the companies state.

The block system is being installed toward Canadian at the present time and will be completed in the near future officials say.

Ranger and Mrs. Jack DeGraffenreid have moved to Breckenridge, where they will make their home. Ranger DeGraffenreid is stationed at Odessa at the present time.

Amarillo Man Loses Arm as Rifle in Car Is Accidentally Discharged

C. B. Thorpe of Amarillo is in the Pampa hospital in a serious condition as the result of a bullet wound which necessitated the amputation of his right arm below the elbow.

Mr. Thorpe and a companion were motoring on the Mobeetic road about 7 miles east of Pampa when the accident occurred. Apparently Mr. Thorpe was resting his arm on the .30-30 rifle when it was accidentally discharged, almost blowing his arm off.

The injured man was rushed to the Pampa hospital, but it was found impossible to save the arm. He is weak and suffering from loss of blood, but physicians hope for his recovery.

NEW EXCHANGE ANNOUNCED TO COST $200,000

Flash System Will Be Installed in Pampa

WORK WILL BE STARTED SOON

Material Arrives for Line to McLean and LeFors

Plans for the erection of a one-story, modern brick telephone exchange in Pampa have practically been completed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company. The proposed exchange will be located on the northwest corner of the intersection of Ballard street and Francis avenue, and will face southeast.

The erection of the $200,000 plant will commence in the near future, according to officials of the company, and should be completed by July of next year. The building will be 36 feet wide and 70 feet long, with a floor space more than four times the size of the present exchange. It will be modern and equipped with the latest equipment.

A feature of the new exchange will be a flash system of phone calls. Instead of the "drop" system now in effect in the local office the flash system will be installed, doing away with ringing.

The Pampa office has recently been remodeled and new lines installed to make it one of the most important in this section. There are five direct lines to Amarillo, and two to Berger. One to McLean and LeFors is ready for construction.

A car load of material for the new Southwestern Bell Telephone company line to McLean and LeFors has arrived, and work on this line will commence soon.

The new line will go south on the Clarendon road for some distance before being turned east to McLean. A tap will be made in the line and a direct branch will go to LeFors.

Miss Ruby Lewter has returned to her home where she will be until after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Examinations For Postal Clerks To Be Held in City

Receipt of applications for the position of postal clerk will close November 30 at the local post office.

Examinations will be given in Texas at Pampa, Alice, Donna, Fort Stockton, Midland, Tulla, and Yorktown. Competitors will be requested to assemble at the above place in about ten days after the application is closed. The opportunities for employment are open to both men and women.

Further information may be obtained from the local postmaster.

Sportsmen Get Fine Deer on Hunting Trip

C. H. Sharpe local contractor returned Wednesday from an eight day hunting trip with a 5-point buck bagged in New Mexico. Mr. Sharpe made the kill with a .30-30 rifle at 150 yards with the buck on the run.

M. C. Parker architect of Amarillo, and well known in Pampa shot a 4-point buck at 100 yards while Frank Wright the other member of the party got a 5-point buck at 80 yards.

The party went to Springerville, Ariz., and then rode east into New Mexico where the kill was made. Mr. Sharpe reports deer plentiful this year with the does tame. The party also succeeded in shooting several turkeys which were fat.

Hunting this year is difficult, Mr. Sharpe says, because of the dryness. There has been no rains or snow in that territory and everything is so dry that the deer can hear a person approaching through the dead leaves and branches to get away before the hunter can get a shot.

Mr. Sharpe is giving a venison dinner to his friends at the Schneider hotel tonight.

Otto Studer Shoots 4 Under Par To Win Golf Trophy

H. Otto Studer, local golfer extraordinary, won the club match played on the local course last Sunday, while J. D. Suggs and L. N. Williams tied for second honors. The tie was played Monday. Suggs winning in the play-off to take second place.

Dr. R. A. Webb made the longest drive of the day and probably one of the longest of the season in spite of a heavy wind. The drive went 260 yards.

A trophy was presented to the winner of the match. It is a beautiful silver statue of a golfer ready to tee-off. Much interest was taken in the match, and although the weather was unsuitable for golf, 18 members of the club made the eighteen holes.

The winner of the contest made the 18 holes in 71, or four under par. The second place was tied at 74.

Pampa Report Is Best of Conference of Methodists

Pampa led the Methodist conference both in increase and per capita finances, according to the Rev. Tom W. Brabham, who has returned from the conference at Big Spring.

The local report is said to have made a fine impression. Dr. J. T. Griswold, former presiding elder of this district, was sent to Childress as pastor, and the Childress pastor, W. M. Murrell, has become presiding elder.

The conference went on record in favor of the eighteenth amendment, to the extent of opposing any wet presidential candidate.

TWO-THIRDS IS GIVEN ON 33 BY THE STATE

Paving Will Be of Concrete—Cost Is $35,000 a Mile

McLEAN ALSO GETS GRANT

Drainage Structures To Be Started in January

Gray county road representatives who went before the state highway commission obtained a very favorable hearing, and were given two-thirds state and federal aid on Highway No. 33, from the Carson to the Roberts county line by way of Pampa.

This will be a concrete highway costing approximately $75,000 a mile, and the special road district will pay one-third of this cost for the 14 miles. The representatives, who were W. A. Taylor and M. M. Newman, commissioners, and A. H. Doucette and C. L. Hasie, engineers, were told to come back in January, when the contracts for bridging and drainage likely will be authorized for advertising for bids.

The McLean district also was given two-thirds state and federal aid on 17 1-2 miles of paving along Highway 66, as it is best known, and bids on drainage structures likely will be asked soon.

The Gray county delegation needed but ten minutes to get their wishes, and the commission heartily approved the voting of bonds before asking state and federal aid. The road district will pay for the drainage structures now, and will be reimbursed by the state as soon as money is available next year. It will require several months to grade and drain Highway No. 33, which will then be used several months before actual paving begins.

Plans are nearly ready on Highway 33, and others for Highway 33-A will be presented to the state commission in January.

Surveys on the Berger and LeFors roads, for which state aid will not be available unless state designations can be obtained, will start at once, according to Mr. Doucette.

Telephone Exchange Plans Rushed By Seven Months

Word was received this morning at the local office of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company stating that the equipment for the new Pampa telephone exchange is being made to order at the Western Electric plant at Hawthorne, N. Y.

All the parts are being hand-made from plans sent by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company and will be especially for the Pampa exchange. The parts will be made to suit the climate and altitude and are of the latest design. The local office when completed will be the best equipped telephone exchange in the Panhandle.

From the time the plans for equipment is sent to the factory, eighteen months are ordinarily required to complete the job, but it is planned by the company to have the Pampa exchange erected, equipped and in use by July 1 of next year, which will be seven months earlier than formerly expected.

Frank Haines of Gage, Oklahoma, has been the guest of his cousin, Mrs. George Woodhouse. Mr. Haines recently was graduated from the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, and is on his way to Chicago where he has secured employment.

BILLY EVANS Says

What Will Lou Get?

On the return of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig to New York, after a tour that started at the close of the world series and carried them as far as the Pacific coast, some one asked Gehrig how much money he expected to get next season.

There is no need to recall that for almost the entire season of 1926, Gehrig pressed Ruth to the limit in the battle for home run honors. Not until after both had passed the 40 mark did Ruth begin to draw away.

Ruth received $70,000 last season for playing right field and making 50 home runs to break his former record of 59, aside from doing innumerable other things that contributed to the winning of the pennant by the Yankees.

Gehrig, I understand, drew $10,000 for playing first base, making 47 home runs, battling 374 and contributing many fielding feats to put the Yanks over for a pennant. Ruth hit .356.

Naturally a lot of folks are interested in what Lou Gehrig will draw down next season after the greatest year of his career.

Due for Big Raise

"I hope to get a raise, of course," was Gehrig's answer to the query as to what his salary would be. "However, I am not worrying about that, for I am sure Colonel Jack Ruppert will pay me what I deserve."

That was a mighty smart reply on the part of Gehrig and shows that he is something of a diplomat aside from Ruth's greatest rival as a slugger. Colonel Ruppert, who pays the Yankees' salaries, is always eminently fair.

Ruth's salary will be the same as last year. Prior to the opening of the 1926 season he signed for three years for the sum of $210,000, making his yearly stipend a measly $70,000. Not hard to take.

While it is a cinch that Gehrig's increase won't bring him even close to the Babe in money matters, it is certain to make him one of the highest priced players in the game.

There is only one Babe Ruth. He has more color than a paint shop and is the only player who dally packs them in at the gate. He is not only a great player but the game's greatest drawing card.

How the Babe Acts
It is strange how a home run by Babe Ruth sets the fans wild, while an even longer hit by some other player gets no more than passing attention.

In this connection I recall a game of a few years ago in which Bob Meusel hit a terrific drive far up into the left field bleachers at the Yankee stadium. The fans applauded but Meusel didn't even recognize the greeting. That is a way the Boy has.

Ruth followed with a towering fly that almost passed from view, yet just did fall into the short right field stands. It was an ovation for Ruth from the moment the ball cleared the Yankee bench.

Ruth smiled, bowed, shook hands with himself to let the crowd know

Silver Football Is Given Otto Studer By Football Men

A large silver football on a walnut base was presented to Otto Studer this morning during chapel at the high school. The trophy was presented by Coach Verde Dickey on behalf of the members of the football team in appreciation of Mr. Studer's loyalty to and support of the team.

In a few well chosen words, Mr. Studer thanked the boys and gave a plain talk to the members of the team on what they will be up against next Friday in the game with Shamrock.

He stated that it is up to every man on the team to play his best and that one shirker on the team might mean the loss of the game. He said that it was punch that the team needed and that he and the people of Pampa are behind the team and expect great things of them.

"In winning this game Friday you may go to greater laurels and bring honor to yourselves and to your school and I know that every member of the team will be fighting his best to win," Mr. Studer said in closing.

A feature of the chapel program was a piano solo by Dwight Price, a student of the high school, who played two numbers of his own composition.

NEW FORDS ARRIVE

Considerable interest was aroused here by the arrival of two new cars. The new models are a real improvement on the old and their arrival has caused a great deal of interest among the motorists of this city.

That is what is known as color Ruth has it as has no other player. Another reason why he is the highest salaried star in baseball.

Grinnell Eleven Has Hard Luck Season

GRINNELL, Iowa—Grinnell College of the Missouri Valley conference schools, is making a strong bid for the hard luck honors in the present football campaign. In five times out the Pioneers have yet to win a game.

Grinnell's team has put the goal line behind it but twice this year, while its opponents have heaped up 140 points. Grinnell's best effort was in its opening game with Penn College of Oskaloosa, Iowa. The game ended a 6-6 tie.

Scores of the other games; Kansas 19, Grinnell 0; Nebraska 58, Grinnell 0; Drake 26, Grinnell 6; Marquette 31, Grinnell 0.

Fords. While not ready for exhibition purposes, the Fords, have been observed by several and much approval of their fitness and finish have been noticed.

Their bodies are finely lined and graced with pleasing curves. Their color job is of a quality that shows richness and well being, and their lines not without reason the design follows that of former models, but there are individual differences. They are generally quiet, but there is considerable sound when under heavy stress or exertion. Their consumption, at least at the present time, is surprisingly low. Methods of caring for the radiator overflow is the same. While formed on the same general principles, there is much difference between the two models received here, which is not surprising when it is considered that one is a boy and the other a girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ford. The babies and their mother are reported to be doing well—Prairie du Chien Courier.

Child Study Club Meets Friday With Mrs. W. E. Coffee

The Child Study club will meet Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. E. Coffee. Mrs. H. D. Lewis will be leader of the subject of study, "The Value of Great Literature to Parents in Training Children." The following program will be given by various members of the club:

"Story Telling," Mrs. A. Cole
 "Stories with Children," Mrs. S. A. Harst
 "Culture in Youth," Mrs. B. E. Finley
 "The Talking Animal," Mrs. W. Purcell
 "Why to Read," Mrs. T. H. Barnard
 "Memory Training Through Important Names," Mrs. W. E. Coffee.

Ladies Auxiliary Hold Entertainment Meeting Wednesday

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church was well attended Wednesday afternoon when it met at the church with Mrs. John Andrews, president, presiding over the business session. The president also led the Mission Study after which an enjoyable program was given in which Mrs. A. H. Doucette sang "Love is the Theme" in a very lovely manner.

Mrs. Chester Carr played a beautiful violin solo accompanied by Mrs. Forrest McSkimming at the piano. Those who gave special topics were Mrs. J. E. Corson, Mrs. T. D. Hobart, and Mrs. Tom Clayton. These proving very interesting and beneficial to those present. Following the presentation of the topics, Mrs. Carr again favored the members with another violin selection.

Mrs. O. G. Smith Is Hostess To Coterie Club

The Coterie club was delightfully entertained with an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. O. G. Smith Thursday November 10.

The morning was spent working on a quilt that had been donated by Mrs. Archer. The quilt is to be given to some worthy institution.

After a delicious chicken dinner was served, the business meeting was held. The following officers for the year 1928 were elected: President, Mrs. Tom Eller, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Roger McConnell; reporter, Mrs. Jess Beard.

In addition to the ten members present were the following visitors: Mrs. George Major, Mrs. Homer Kees, and Mrs. Emmet Cecil.

The club adjourned to meet again December 8, at the home of Mrs. Walter McConnell. An interesting program will be rendered and all members are urged to attend.

Ladies Aid Society Meets Wednesday With Mrs. Woodward

Mrs. C. P. Woodward, assisted by Mrs. Alta Standard, was hostess to the Ladies Aid of the Christian church Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was opened with a song, Mrs. James Todd then led in prayer, while Mrs. Harry Marbough was leader of the scripture lesson, that followed. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Hugh Iabell.

During this session plans were made for the Christmas bazaar to be held Saturday, December 3. Attendance of the meeting was composed of 18 members and three visitors.

Announcements will be made later as to the location of the bazaar.

At the first of the coming year, the members of the Ladies Aid will start on a Calendar year program.

It is hoped that this work will be very profitable to the church in financial ways. The Ladies Aid wishes to announce that various members have Christmas cards for sale, and will appreciate orders.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments to the twenty-nine members present.

Methodist Ladies Hold Successful Membership Party

The beautiful home of Mrs. I. B. Hughey was the scene Wednesday afternoon of a most successful membership party given by the women of the Methodist church. The spacious receiving rooms made a perfect setting for the many games and contests held under the direction of Mrs. H. G. Twiford.

Upon arriving, each guest was given a number with instructions to learn the name of the person to whom the number belonged. This caused much merriment and left no strangers among the crowd, Mrs. G. C. Walstad being the winner in learning all the names. A musical romance, with Mrs. Tom Brabham at the piano, was then enjoyed, after which an automobile contest was held in which Mrs. Lester Childs was awarded a miniature automobile as prize.

The membership contest was the most important held, in which each member brought as many as possible to the reception. Mrs. Edwin Viars was winner, having secured the largest number of guests. Following the contest a short program was given, in which Mrs. Bob Chaffin played a beautiful piano solo.

The remainder of the program is as follows: Reading, Byron Dodson; vocal solo, Miss June Rose Hodges; accordion solo, Mrs. J. D. Jacques; reading, Harriet Hankapiller; duet, Janice Purviance and Josephine Lane; solo, Mrs. Bob Chaffin; read-

Hospital Notes

Mrs. Guay Daily was taken to the Pampa hospital yesterday.

Mrs. S. A. McDaniel returned to her home yesterday from the Pampa hospital.

Mrs. F. S. Culberson, who has been ill in the Pampa hospital, is doing nicely.

Judge John W. Hill was admitted to the Pampa hospital yesterday.

W. H. Stallings, driller, was admitted to the local hospital yesterday with injuries on his leg and foot sustained when some pipe fell on him at work on a well.

Little C. M. Gallia of Mebeete, is ill in the Pampa hospital.

Mrs. Frank Keehn Jr., who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks is slowly recovering at her home.

H. C. Roberts, who was seriously burned two weeks ago, left the hospital yesterday.

Mrs. W. Beardmore, nurse at the local hospital who was injured last Friday, is recovering at her home in Amarillo.

ing, Frances Campbell; quartet, Louise Walstad, Ruth Reynolds, Dorothy Dodd, and Helen Murphy; violin solo, LaVerne Twiford; piano solo, Mrs. T. Brabham; and vocal solo, Mrs. Bob Chaffin.

Mrs. W. Purviance gave a very interesting talk explaining the purpose and work of the Missionary Society, while Mrs. J. D. Jacques favored the guest with several beautiful accordion selections.

Following the program a delicious plate luncheon on which were Thanksgiving favors was served to the guests. Mrs. C. E. Kingsbery is due the credit for this lovely luncheon. Those on the various committees were delighted with the high attendance of approximately 60 guests.

Menus for the Family

BREAKFAST—Stewed prunes with lemon, cereal, cream, soft cooked eggs, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of spinach soup, croutons, cottage cheese sandwiches, apple topical pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Noodle soup, broiled ham, stuffed onions, head lettuce with Russian dressing, pumpkin pie, milk, coffee.

The luncheon menu is ideal for young children. Too many mothers think that after a child is three or four years old he can "eat anything." However, constant care if his diet is necessary just as long as he is growing and making bone and muscle.

Stuffed Onions

Four medium sized Spanish onions, 1 cup mashed potatoes, 2 tablespoons rich milk or cream, 1 cup sausage meat, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1 egg, 1 cup beef broth.

Peel onions and cut a slice from "top" end of each. Drop into 4 cups of boiling water containing 1 tablespoon salt, boil 15 minutes. Drain and drop into cold water for one minute. Drain and scoop out inside of each. Season mashed potatoes with salt and pepper and beat in cream. Mix thoroughly with sausage

Social Calendar

A general meeting of the Baptist W. M. U. will be held Wednesday afternoon at the church.

A membership social will be held at the home of Mrs. I. B. Hughey for the ladies of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Auxiliary will meet Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. E. W. McJunkin as leader.

The Lone Star Bridge club holds its meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Dunbar.

The Child Study club will meet Friday afternoon at 1:30 instead of 3:30 o'clock as was planned, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Coffee.

and add egg well beaten. Beat well and fill cavities of onions with mixture. Place in a pan just large enough to hold the onions without touching each other, add beef broth and simmer until tender, about 40 minutes. Serve surrounding ham.

Modes of the Moment

The cut of this example of the "blues" reflects several tendencies of the winter. The fullness at the top side, which hangs longer than the rest of the dress and the raised waistlines and diagonal arrangement of the blouse. The buckles, which are the only trimming on the dress, are of white strass. Lucian Lelong calls the blue of this dress LL.

Christian Ladies Aid Hold Brick Sale Wednesday

The members of the Ladies Aid of the Christian held a novel sale Wednesday afternoon on the corner of Foster and Caylor. Cleverly decorated bricks were offered to the public to be used as door stops.

A large sale was reported, the Ladies Aid taking in $45.12, the bricks being a Trade Day Special at 4¢.

Spotlight Staff Prepare Candies For Carnival Tonight

The members of the staff of the Spotlight met Thursday night at the Schaffer Hotel to make candy for the Carnival tonight. The group was very busy during the entire evening popping corn, and preparing candies of all kinds.

Those present were the Staff Adviser, Miss Bernice Whiteley, and Miss Bird Whiteley, Jewel Cope, Opal Johns, La Veda Fendrick, Cora Murray, Catherine Vincent, Vernon Culverhouse, Mary Maness, Mary Hill, Cleora Stanard, Dorothy Fundell, Mary Hughey, and Lottie Schaffer.

Mrs. A. L. Mahan Is Hostess to Miss Blue's Class Social

The Ladies of Miss Blue's Sunday school Call Class enjoyed a social Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Mahan. The time was spent in sewing, and a general get-together meeting.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. C. S. Boston, Mrs. Vickers, and Mrs. F. A. Carey, served dainty refreshments to the following guests, Mrs. C. S. Boston, Mrs. Dewey Phillips, Mrs. J. D. Sackett, Mrs. E. F. Jaques, Mrs. Wade H. Taylor, Mrs. Edwin Vickers, Mrs. C. C. Edmiston, Mrs. F. A. Carey, Mrs. C. N. Melton, Mrs. Patty Morris, Mrs. T. K. Underwood, Mrs. S. A. Hurst, Mrs. Roy Tinsley, Mrs. D. F. Bartlett, Mrs. Isabel, and Mrs. Joe Hodge.

Methodist Society Hold Candle Service For Foreign Workers

The Woman's Missionary Society met Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at the church, in observance of the week of Prayer and self denial.

Beneficial programs were given at both meetings. The Bible lessons studied, "Pray Ye Therefore," and "Youth's Search for God and Our Responsibility," were taken from the texts, Luke, 10:12 and Isa 1:5. Mrs. Erwin Vickers, Mrs. Lee Harrah, and Mrs. Purviance gave interesting talks to those present. The attendance both days was very good as there were 21 present Wednesday and 20 present Thursday.

A very impressive candle lighting service was held in honor of the new missionaries who have recently gone out on foreign fields. A number of those present were given the names of two young missionaries and as these were called, a candle was lighted for each from flame of the large candle in the center of the table representing the Light of Christ. After all the candles had been lighted, prayers were offered for these noble people who are doing so much for salvation.

Miss Daphne Shultz and E. D. Morris Marry Here Sunday

Miss Daphne Shultz and E. D. Morris were united in marriage Monday evening at the Christian church parsonage. The Rev. James Todd performed the ceremony. Only immediate friends were present.

Both the young people are residents of Pampa and have lived here for some time. Mrs. Morris was an employee of Bonnie's Cafe, while Mr. Morris at the present time is employed in the Canadian-Higgins oil area.

ROBERTS BEST OF HARVESTERS

Local Star's Fumble, However, Costs a Touchdown

Only one fumble by Roberts, who despite this hobble outclassed his teammates, allowed the Panhandle Panthers to cross the Harvester line on Armistice Day. The final score was Pampa 38, Panhandle 6.

In a game made colorful by the large holiday crowd and highly enthusiastic pep squads of girls from both schools, the inspired Pampa team passed and plunged its way to an impressive victory over the scrapping visitors.

Captain Herliacher decided to defend the east goal, with the wind at his back. Davis kicked to Roberts, who from his 14-yard line, and assisted by nice interference, carried the ball to his 40-yard line. Walstad proceeded to take the ball around left end for 22 yards, followed by Hardin around the same place for 15 yards more. Walstad then decided to make it a touchdown by going 23 yards around right end. The extra point was added when Walstad carried the ball over the line.

Successive Gains
Walstad made 10 yards on the kickoff. Maness hit the line for 14 yards, followed by Hardin, Walstad, and Roberts for 11 yards more. Walstad then threw a forward pass to Clayton for a 15-yard gain. Tschirhart replaced Holston at quarter for Panhandle. Hardin failed to gain and Walstad booted, but was blocked. Davis, Tarynor and Davidson made 7 yards on line plunges and Davis kicked out of bounds on Pampa's 22 yard line.

Walstad punted 50 yards and the ball rolled out of bounds behind the Panhandle goal line. Traynor made 11 yards around left end, but two criss-cross plays failed to gain and Davis booted to the 50-yard line.

Roberts Breaks Through
Roberts split tackle for 20 yards on the first play and then followed through guard for 18 yards more. The ball was on Panhandle's 12-yard line at the end of the quarter.

Walstad failed to gain, but Roberts on two line plunges made 9 yards. The head-linesman made a mistake on his downs and gave the ball to Panhandle on the 6-yard line when Pampa was all set for a touchdown. An exchange of punts left the ball on Panhandle's 8 yard line when Maness broke through and made the prettiest tackle of the day.

Sam Carlton replaced Hardin in the Pampa backfield, and Chenoweth replaced Traynor in the Panhandle backfield. Panhandle failed to gain and Davis punted to Carlton. Roberts made the Panhandle team look bad by an open field run off tackle for 28 yards.

More Substitutes
Seitz and Kennedy replaced Bishop and Mason in the Pampa line. On three line plunges, Roberts made 11 yards and another touchdown. Clayton placed one over the bar for the extra point.

Maness took the kickoff and by hard running made 26 yards before being downed. Walstad made 4 yards through the line but Maness lost 3 yards when his interference missed, and Walstad punted. Chenoweth went around right end for 14 yards. Three line plunges failed to gain and Davis punted to the Pampa 5 yard line. Walstad punted out of danger.

Panhandle tried a forward pass which Walstad intercepted on his 13-yard line. Roberts made another spectacular dash off tackle for 30 yards followed by Walstad with 5 yards, which placed the ball on Panhandle's 47-yard line at half time.

Second Half
Walstad took the kickoff on his 9-yard line. Carlton went off tackle for 25 yards before being downed. Roberts and Walstad then carried the ball 12 yards, followed by Carlton for 14 yards. Maness and Walstad made 5 yards, but Pampa was penalized 5 yards for offside. Walstad punted and Maness recovered on the Panhandle 11-yard line.

Davis' kick was blocked by Kahl, but Mitchell recovered. Davis booted again, but Roberts blocked the kick and Stalls by heady running recovered on Panhandle's 5-yard line. Walstad made 3 yards and Roberts carried the ball over for a touchdown. A place kick for the extra point missed.

Fumble Disastrous
Roberts made 18 yards on the kickoff to place the ball on Pampa's 25-yard line. Roberts fumbled and Mitchell, the Panhandle right half, recovered making 33 yards for a touchdown.

A placekick was blocked. Walstad carried the ball to his 34-yard line on the kickoff by nice broken field running. Roberts went through his favorite hole on a fake kick and made 40 yards through a broken field, eluding five tacklers before being downed. Walstad made 8 yards. Roberts took 5 more, followed by Maness, then Walstad, who went over for a touchdown, but failed to make the extra point.

Pampa kicked off to Chenoweth, who carried the ball to his 35-yard line before being downed. Green replaced Carlton in the Pampa backfield. Panhandle failed to make a first down and the ball was on her 42-yard line at the quarter.

Hob Kahl came into the limelight at the first play by intercepting a forward pass and carrying the ball 22 yards for a touchdown. Kahl went through five tacklers before crossing the line.

Roberts carried the ball 22 yards on the kickoff. Bishop replaced Stalls. Walstad then made another kick out of bounds. A Davidson-to-Chenoweth criss-cross gained 5 yards. Line plunges by Davidson, Chenoweth, and Tschirhart gained Panhandle 31 yards. The Pampa line then held and three line plunges lost Panhandle 1 yard. Davis punted to the Pampa 30-yard line.

Penalty for Roughing
Walstad made 12 yards on an end run, and Panhandle was penalized 25 yards for roughing. Panhandle was using rough tactics in an attempt to stop the Pampa drive. An exchange of punts placed the ball on the Panhandle 44-yard line.

Walstad made 11 yards followed by a forward pass. Hardin to Walstad for a gain of 32 yards. Green then carried the ball over for his first touchdown of the season.

Coach Dickey then sent in Jones, J. Ayres, and Mullen. Clayton kicked to the Panhandle 32-yard line. Two line plunges netted Panhandle 6 yards and Pampa was penalized 10 yards for offside. The substitutes seemed overanxious. Three more line plunges netted Panhandle 3 yards and left the ball on Pampa's 49-yard line as the whistle blew.

Roberts Best Game
Skeet Roberts was the big man in the Pampa victory, making long gains through the line. As Walstad called for fake kicks, Roberts would go through the line repeatedly. He was making the gains by heady running, often without interference. Carlton and Walstad played their usual sensational games, while Maness continued to hit the line low and hard.

Kahl, Stalls and Herliacher kept the Pampa line like a stone wall, very few plays being successful through the line. Stalls and Bishop were making the holes for Roberts to go through.

Davidson was the heavy man on the Panhandle team. He hit the line low and hard and up against a weaker line would be a consistent ground gainer. Chenoweth and Davis showed up nicely at times while Skeggs and Billingsby were holding their own in the line.

Vocational Work in Agriculture Is Much Commended

Executives of the state board for vocational agriculture have written to Supt. R. C. Campbell commending the work of Prof. R. L. Lester and his vocational agriculture classes.

Commenting on the report of the department's inspector, the letter noted the obtaining of new equipment and expressed approval of the assurance of local co-operation between the agriculture department, the Chamber of Commerce, and other agencies.

A fourth credit in vocational agriculture will be granted as soon as a milk fever instrument is purchased, which will be immediate.

Supt. Campbell also has a letter from the state committee on All-Southern affiliation, stating that the Pampa independent school system has been approved for entrance and the application has been forwarded to headquarters.

Mrs. Georgia McKenzie has returned from Oklahoma City.

Harvesters Primed For District Title Clash on Friday

This afternoon the Pampa Harvesters will step out for district honors when they meet the undefeated Shamrock Irishmen on the home grounds. The local squad has been practicing hard this week.

The Harvesters first string backfield will go into action, while the line will be the same that held the fast traveling Panhandle team last Friday.

Shamrock has the best team in the history of the school and has not been defeated this season. The backfield is fast and heavy for a high school team, and has a reputation of gaining through a line, but Captain Herliacher and company expect to hold the Irishmen and send them home with their first defeat of the season.

Archie Walstad, the snappy Pampa quarter, is without a doubt the best brokenfield runner in the Panhandle and is closely followed by Sam Carlton.

When it comes to going through the line for gains, Troy Maness and Skeet Roberts are in a class by themselves. Elmer Hardin is usually reliable for a gain either through the line or around the end, while Green, the other backfield substitute, is light and fast.

The two Pampa ends, Saulsbury and Kennedy, are fast on the offensive and reliable on defensive plays. Stalls and Herliacher are stone walls on the defensive and make holes at will on offensive plays. They are the two heaviest men on the team, and are reliable.

Bishop and Mason at guard are reliable and fast, while Bob Kahl at center is a master at his position. He handles the ball nicely on offensive plays and is through on all kicks and passes.

The first string substitutes, Seitz, Ayres, Mullen, Clayton, and Jones are reliable and play heady football.

Judge N. P. Willis Cites Reasons for Legal Inefficiency

That the indifference of the public and the limitations imposed by the state legislature and constitution are largely responsible for the inefficiency of law enforcement in Texas was declared by the Hon. Newton P. Willis, judge of the 84th district, in his charge to the grand jury now in session.

Excerpts from his charge follow: Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: Gray County has now reached a stage of development wherein your action is of supreme importance to the affairs of the people. Your county has many reasons for being proud of its history. In April 1819, there was born in Fredericksburg, Virginia, a man who was destined to play a prominent part in the history of Texas. His family settled at Houston, Texas, where he was reared and educated; and in 1846 he was a member of the first legislature of Texas, and for many years was District Judge in the southern part of our State. After serving in the civil war in 1847, he was appointed one of the justices of our Supreme Court, but soon thereafter taking ill; he died in Houston in October, 1874. Two years later there was created this splendid county which was named after this scholarly cultured gentleman, Peter W. Gray, who gave much financial aid and contributed to Mr. Yoakum's excellent history of Texas.

"Justice is Sovereign"

And so now today the development of oil and gas, together with your wonderful agricultural wealth, has brought your county into prominence among all the many great counties of Texas, and you are empaneled today as ministers of justice is the rightful sovereign of the world," so said the Grecian poet Pindar four centuries before the birth of Christ, and it is equally true today. You gentlemen, therefore, are appointed as ministers of justice in Gray County, and your people are stretching forth their hands to this court and to this grand jury asking that this justice be done for the interests of the people. The best protection you have is the law of this country. It is the touch stone and the measuring stick by which we try the actions of men; you gentlemen are ministers of this law. There never was a time when there was as crying a need for the enforcement of the law as today. It is not necessary for me to elaborate upon all the features of our criminal code since you will have legal advice before you for such purpose, but it is only necessary for me to emphasize before you the importance of cleansing and purifying your county at this time before the new conditions with which you are confronted impede the proper forces that are constituted for the conquest of crime.

Public Sentiment Law

Our people are as moral and honest as any in the world. There is no reason why our crime record should be greater than other countries other than our faulty criminal procedure and the general laxity of public sentiment towards violators of the law.

The lawyers are not to blame for the administration of the law. It is the duty of a lawyer to get for his client every right that the law will give him. The lawyers realize that we have a defective administration of the law but they cannot help it. It is the fault of our legislature and our constitution. The lawyers only take the law as they find it and so also do the judges.

In 1925 there were 11,000 homicides or intentional killings that were brought to light in the United States. At this rate in ten years we would have more than 100,000 homicides, more men by 30,000 than Robert E. Lee had engaged in the battle of Gettysburg. This condition has not always been. In 1850 we were the most law abiding people in the world. Our population was then 23,000,000 and we have 7,000 of them in prison. Today we have 130,000 men and women in steel cages and behind prison walls and no telling how many more ought to be there. It cannot be said that our crime is due entirely to the immigrant, because our crime record is higher than in countries from which the foreigners come. In 1925 there were 42 murders in London; the same year there were 238 in New York, 368 in Chicago. All of England only had 151 that year; in the United States there were 11,000. Why? In England if a man, actuated by anger or avarice considers killing another he is conscious that 76 times out of 100 he would be arrested, convicted and forfeit his life. In this country he stands a good chance never to be arrested, 15 to one that will never be tried or convicted, 100 to 1 that he will not get the death penalty. In Germany 90 per cent of those who kill are punished; in this country much less than 10 per cent.

Crime is Organized

Cold, cruel, calculating crime has been organized and commercialized. It is bold and insolent; it lifts its blatant head above the broken bulwarks of the law; it is indeed a challenging day to the forces of righteousness. We have minimized punishment for crime until the law has been stripped of its power. A traditional and parasitic growth of technicalities has sucked the lifeblood out of our criminal procedure. We must revivify and rehabilitate and reform the laws of our State.

The law is a science evolved from the vast and varied vicissitudes of life. It has grown out of the sad and tragic fortunes and misfortunes of mankind. The criminal refuses to obey the laws enacted by the majority for the greatest good to the most of the people. He is an anarchist who revolts against the rules of organized society. Reverence to and obedience for the law is the highest attribute and obligation of the citizen. He may not agree as to the wisdom of the law, but it is his duty to obey it. By the united efforts of all right-thinking people we can subdue the enemies of good government and maintain in Gray county one of the safest and sanest places in which a man can live.

State Inspector Approves Pampa Milk Ordinance

Approval of Pampa's new milk ordinance was expressed to the News last week by H. O. von Rosenberg, first assistant state veterinarian, whose office is in Fort Worth.

Mr. Rosenberg's work is in connection with the Livestock Sanitary commission, which without charge inspects and tests dairies and dairy herds where local co-operation can be obtained. Careful tests for T. B. are made, and connection with federal work the infected animals when found are appraised and the owners are given indemnity for animals killed. Tests are made at regular intervals.

After these tests by veterinarians are completed, the State Board of Health will send out inspectors to examine milk, milk handlers, and survey general sanitary conditions. These inspectors also instruct dairymen and help them in their work. The health department men probably will make two trips each year to this community.

The city's part in this work concerns the enforcement of the provisions of the milk ordinance. A sanitary inspector employed for this purpose, probably on a part-time basis, is recommended by the state department.

It is his purpose, said Mr. Rosenberg, to help the dairymen in every way possible. He is anxious to increase the consumption of milk, to make dairying more profitable, and to make possible the conditions of production of milk and milk products which will make the public desirous of using more milk.

Following the change in the form of city government, Mr. Rosenberg will take up with the officials the service offered by the state. Adoption of the milk ordinance had been urged by the State Department of Health for several months.

MARITAL FACTS—It is rather generally agreed now that the element of uncertainty in marriage has increased in the last decade. This is not only shown in the statistics of divorce, but in the conditions obtaining. Greater independence for women has helped to make fewer those marriages which were endured, rather than enjoyed. Compatibility as a condition of marital fidelity is much more evenly divided with respect to the contracting parties than formerly. While this leveling of inequalities has resulted in some lack of stability, its ultimate result is not alarming.

The United States department of commerce has just released Texas statistics concerning marriage and divorce, and from them the above observations are taken. There were 69,902 marriages performed in Texas during 1926, as compared with 69,738 in 1925, representing an increase of 164, or .2 of one per cent. And during 1926 there were 15,471 divorces granted, as compared with 15,120 in 1925—an increase of 2.3 per cent.

We do not regard this increase in divorce in the serious light that many do, particularly since it has been obvious that many divorces were justified. On the other hand, however, mounting lists of divorces reveal a sordid array of character faults of which the age seems productive. Someone is blameworthy for every divorce, often two or more persons, and there is a highly regrettable dearth of "square-shooting" as between man and wife in many instances. Moreover, the 1926 figures record for the first time the number of annulments, which for 1926 were 103. Grounds for annulment probably could be found in many of the divorces, since mental ages do not correspond to physical ages.

And figures and percentages are not conclusive unless all factors are considered. Texas increased much in population last year, a fact that must be included in drawing conclusions. In proportion to population, divorces in 1925 were 2.9 per 1,000, while in 1926 they were 2.91. The actual increase in divorce, in other words, was so negligible as to be disregarded in Texas for last year. This increase might be explained by the usual fluctuations. Some counties have "bad" years followed by "good" years in marital behavior.

An interesting thing about statistics, however, is the even average which usually obtains from year to year where the figures are fairly large. Take Tarrant county, with 1,069 divorces in 1925 and 1,070 in 1926; Harris with 1,829 divorces in 1925 and 1,753 in 1926; and Jefferson with 746 and 788, respectively. Divorces in Gray county have been few, and not in proportion to marriages did they increase last year. There were 34 marriages in 1925 and 96 in 1926, while divorces were but 4 in 1925 and 6 last year.

Some counties reflected sharp increases. Hidalgo had 27 in 1925, but 58 last year. Fannin had a reversal, with 124 divorces in 1925 and only 88 last year. Lamar likewise dropped, from 240 to 151. Sparsely settled Panhandle counties found home life less irksome, and Lipscomb, with 49 and 59 marriages for the two years, had only two divorces in 1925 and one last year.

Increases in population helped the averages of a number of cities. Potter county marriages increased from 372 to 782, while divorces mounted from 78 to 105. Scurry county showed up badly, with divorces increasing from 7 to 21, and marriages falling from 157 to 110. Texas has a higher ranking than many other states in regard to divorce. It would be interesting if it were possible to further analyze the dry tables of statistics, and determine, if possible, the relation between agricultural and small community life as compared with denser population and more "modern" luxury distribution.

It would be comforting if we could extol the homing virtues of Texas people and claim that our civilization is purer and more wholesome than the East can show. The South has prided itself upon these points, and press and pulpit have stressed them. But withal we have not wished to be different, at least not too different, and many of our small towns have boasted of their virtues only to help them become cities.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Armistice Day found numerous speakers dilating on the glories of war, but few bothered to mention the expense.

The merest glance at the federal government's expenditures reveals that war is far and away our most costly luxury. Obviously, the greatest loss of the World War was to be compiled from the casualty lists, but it has been over nine years and the American people are still paying out more than 75 per cent of all the money that comes in and goes out of the treasury to defray the direct cost of that war and of preparedness for the next.

The treasury collected more than four billion dollars in the fiscal year of 1927 and paid out more than three billions for war bills and the national defense. The figures for 1928 will show no great difference. Receipts were $4,129,394,000. The surplus was $35,000,000 and that was applied to debt reduction, making a total direct war and defense outlay of $3,165,000,000.

The money was split up as follows:
Debt retirement $1,156,000,000
Interest on debt 787,000,000
Army and navy 680,000,000
Veterans' Bureau 391,000,000
Pensions 221,000,000

Seventy million dollars should be deducted from the army appropriation in figuring the total war burden, to approximate the amount spent on rivers and harbors.

For various reasons, the burden will not soon be lightened appreciably. These reasons include the likelihood that European nations will eventually pay no more than a fraction of their debts to us and the fact that disarmament conferences have failed and that even now large appropriations for new cruisers are being demanded in Congress. There may never be any more huge surpluses like those of 1927 and 1928, which means that while a few hundred millions less in future years will be taken from the taxpayers and applied to the war debt, neither the war debt itself or the enormous interest charge can be radically reduced.

Another big war in the next few years probably would force us to pay large sums on debts and other martial obligations until well after the year 2000.

In his report for 1925, Mellon went out of his way to point out the enormous cost of war.

"While it is not possible to segregate entirely expenditures which might fall in this category," he said, "if we add to the disbursements for public debt retirements interest on the debt, War, Navy, Veterans' Bureau, and pensions, other extraordinary expenditures, such as adjusted compensation and the increased outlays by the treasury, the expenditures which are directly or indirectly attributable to war and the national defense compose over 80 per cent of total federal expenditures."

The amounts spent by this government in aid of agriculture and business, for science, education, better roads and other constructive efforts are insignificant when compared with outlays due to war and national defense.

"This will be the inevitable situation as long as war is the method of settling international disputes. These facts should be faced squarely by those who clamor for reduced government expenditures and at the same time oppose the world's efforts to devise rational methods for dealing with international questions."

PRESS FORUM

THE TURKEY INDUSTRY.

The turkey market jumped Friday morning and these birds are now selling for a fancy price. It is said that there are more turkeys in Childress county today than any time since the days of the wild turkeys.

Turkey raising can be made profitable every year, and especially in Childress county. Not long ago the editor was talking to an old-timer of this section and he stated that there are more wild turkeys in Childress county than any section of Northwest Texas. This was due to the many water courses in the county and the amount of feed that nature provided.

This old pioneer said he has seen big cottonwood trees literally alive with the birds in evening time. During the day droves of turkeys could be seen feeding across the prairie and there would be hundreds of them in the drove.

The domestic turkey is an offspring of the wild turkey. The turkey is native to North America, and in the southwest they thrived best.

Childress county farmers should continue to increase the number of birds. A hundred turkeys will bring in a nice sum, and little money, if any, is spent to bring these birds to a market condition. Turkeys can more than supply the cash requirements of the average farmer.

Chickens, turkeys and hogs should be on every farm. When the day comes that Childress county farmers can place upon the local markets a million dollars worth of table meat then they will not think much about cotton.—Childress Index.

THE SPOTLIGHT

Harvesters Are Preparing for Shamrock Irish

Program Given For Institute To Be Held Dec. 3

The program for the local institute to be held here December 3, from 9 to 12 o'clock has been announced by Supt. R. C. Campbell. The program follows:

General Session. Two songs—Miss Gladys Carter. Violin solo—Prof. R. B. Fisher with accompaniment by Mrs. Anna Daul.

Piano solo—Miss Cariker. Announcements, etc.—Supt. R. C. Campbell.

Piano solo—Rev. Joe Strother. Examination questions—Miss Bernice Whiteley.

High School Section. Aims and Purposes in Teaching Geography—Mrs. L. K. Stout. Project Methods in Teaching: when and how to use them—Prof. J. L. Lester and Prof. Fisher.

Project Method in Teaching: Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Grades—Mrs. A. Meek.

Primary Section. Importance of Games in School—Mrs. Charles Stowell and Mrs. Morris.

Number Work—Miss Barnhart and Miss Mattie Ruth Stalls.

JUNIOR NOTES.

Elise Coolbough from Illinois is a member of the junior class.

The juniors are having their pictures taken for the annual this week.

Jewel Cope visited her sister, Mrs. H. J. Arnett, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, this week-end.

Miss Margaret Noel visited friends in Amarillo Monday.

SENIOR NOTES.

We are making out the order for our cards and invitations.

The seniors are working hard on the annual. If all the classes have as much enthusiasm for the annual as the seniors have it will be a big success.

Erma Lanford, a senior, has moved away. She is being missed by many.

Nearly all of the seniors have had their pictures made for the annual.

The most thorough compilations of its kind. There should be a number of books sufficiently large enough to furnish supplemental reading on all subjects of general or of special interest.

Magazines and periodicals that furnish both information and entertainment should not be missing. Fiction books by standard authors should also have their places on the shelves. For not only will works of this kind kindle the imagination, but they will also impart moral lessons of value.

When selecting books, it may be well to think of biography, of which St. Walter Scott said that it was the most interesting of every species of composition. The company of the good and the great will not be without salutary influence upon the young.

In a word, the books for the library, like friends, should be well chosen. How important, therefore, to impress upon our young people a sense of personal responsibility and to realize that the mind and soul no less than the body must be fed on wholesome food to secure healthy growth.

May we not hope and trust that every civic organization and club in Pampa will join hands and hearts to bring this desirable condition to reality and not let it remain the dream of one interested citizen and willing helper.—By J. L. Lester.

the sophomore class, has recently left Pampa. The sophomores miss her but hope that she will be happy in her new home.

Trophy Given Otto Studer by Football Eleven

The chapel program Wednesday morning opened with two piano solos rendered by Dwight Price. Dwight is an amateur composer. The selections rendered were of his own composition.

Coach Dickey presented a beautiful silver football to Otto Studer as a token of appreciation from the Harvesters. Mr. Studer has been very loyal to the Pampa team the past two years. He has refereed all the games played on Ayres field.

Supt. R. C. Campbell made some interesting announcements regarding favorable reports from the state department of education. Supt. Campbell is a real booster for every organization that stands for clean school spirit.

Rev. W. L. Evans was a visitor in chapel. Rev. Evans boosted the Pampa Harvesters. He announced that a Boy Scout organization would be formed at the Presbyterian church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Evans stressed that this Scout organization is not sectarian. All boys of Scout age are welcome.

Hope Realized

There was a star in the window of a little white cottage, a little blue star in a field of white. The day was cold and the wind was sighing a cheerless wail into the heart of the little gray-haired mother who busily looted a cake. As Mrs. O'Mallory stood at the cabinet, she could not help but brush a tear from one white, withered cheek. She was icing a cake for her Jimmy's birthday, but he was not there to compliment it or reward her with a kiss. No, Jimmy was far, far away from his mother, and the blue star was left in his left in his place.

The cake leed, the daily tasks all finished, Mrs. Mallory sank into a chair by the open fire place and picked up her knitting. Then as many a waiting mother consoled herself in that long period of war, Mrs. O'Mallory began to knit and dream. She remembered Jimmy as a little blue eyed baby, a mischievous school boy and lastly a tall soldier. Oh, but youth seemed only a step into age and life only a step into eternity.

Tomorrow was Jimmy's birthday and he was not here to see his birthday cake. She could see him now as he bravely walked from his home in the uniform of his country. She could see him as he paused to call back to her, "Don't you worry, mother, I'll come back."

How she was waiting all alone for God to end the struggle and send back her boy. She was waiting just as thousands of others waited, and may God bless them! But for every battle fought on the battle field, these little mothers fought ten in their hearts.

Mrs. O'Mallory did not go to bed that night until well past midnight and even then she found it difficult to sleep.

Then on the morning of November 11! Bells were ringing, bands were playing, guns were fired, people were shouting, for the world was at last at peace.

Mrs. O'Mallory stood in a crowd of other waiting mothers and whispered, as she clutched the little blue star to her heart. "Tis his birthday gift. Thank God! My Jimmy's coming home."—Catherine Vincent, (Junior).

MISS CARTER SHOWERED. Miss Gladys Carter was given a fruit shower Thursday by her sixth period History students, honoring her on her birthday. The students who helped to celebrate her birthday were: Louis Kirkald, Vivian DeGraffenreid, Edith Dunn, Helen McKinney, George Ingram, Alice Ingram, Gay Fager, Sam Kieth, Howard Lane, Edward Faulk, Howard Hank, Louise Smith, Dorothy Simmons, Dale Wearse, Lenora Ellington, Louise Showers, Juanita Stevenson, Clyde Carter, Paul Camp, Marie McGee, Hazel Godwin, Lowell Feardick and the honoree, Miss Carter.

Wit and Humor

Vernon Culverhouse, Editor Harvey Anderson, making a speech before the Forensic Club:

..... and furthermore I am heartily in favor of a student body. No school can be a first class school without one.

Don't Worry. Don't worry if your job is small. And your rewards are few; Remember that the mighty oak Was once a nut like you.

Perry M.: I wish I were like the rivers. Albert D.: What for? Perry M.: So that I could follow my course without leaving my bed.

A Freshie was wandering the streets the other day with a pair of baggy-kneed trousers under his arm. When asked where he was going he said he was looking for the "free press" that he heard about.

Henry A: Why are you looking in the mirror so long? Kenneth B: I am counting my beard.

Excelsior (To the Seniors) The shades of night were falling fast. The Senior stepped on them and rushed past; Crash, he died without a sound. They opened up his head and found excelsior.

It won't be long now. Axes are being ground and the turkeys are becoming anxious about their personal safety.

Drunk: When is tomorrow? Drunker: Wednesday. Drunk: That's funny, I asked a fellow that yesterday and he told me it was Tuesday.

Miss Carter—in history class: And now Homer, tell me what B. C. means. Homer K: Before Cars.

Mr. Taylor: When was Rome built? Dorothy M: At night. Mr. Taylor: What? Dorothy: Well, Rome wasn't built in a day.

Good Progress Shown by Frensic Club on Tuesday

The Forensic Club met Tuesday evening and fifteen members and three visitors were present. The program showed the good work that Mr. Taylor has been doing with this club. The following numbers were presented by members of the club:

Life of Thomas Jefferson—Louis Fogleman.

The Carnival—Donald Zimmerman.

Readings: "Like Father, Like Son" and "Three in the Morning"—Catherine Vincent.

Critics Report—Nora Murray.

Lamar School Notes

Each of Mrs. Daniel's pupils is earning one dime for Thanksgiving. They plan to help some family who is in need. Their Friday afternoon "Good Sort Club" will entertain the mother's soon.

Health day was especially interesting to the children in Miss Herlacher's room. A staff of doctors and nurses was selected to act as room inspectors. The Keep Clean slogan was adopted. More attention to personal appearance has been the result of this movement.

The third grade is spending its construction and drawing periods this week in making Thanksgiving pamphlets and posters. They are making a detailed study of Indian life, along with the study of the pilgrims.

The pupils in Miss Beatty's room are studying citizenship in the school room.

The pupils in Miss Chapman's room are planning a short Thanksgiving program. All mothers are cordially invited to attend. Mothers having children in the morning section are invited to come on Wednesday, November 23 at 10:30 a. m. Mothers of the children in the afternoon section are invited to come on Wednesday, November 23 at 3:30 p. m.

Pupils of the second grade are making health posters of the Pilgrims and Thanksgiving decorations. They are very interested in their spelling chart. There are twelve in the morning and afternoon sections who have not missed a word since school began.

Mrs. Lester's pupils are planning a little Thanksgiving program for Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 23. All parents are invited.

Miss Baker and Mrs. Strickland took their pupils on a picnic Friday. waffles, buns and marshmallows were enjoyed by all.

Much interest is being shown in basketball. The girls are practicing faithfully and expect to play the grades soon.

The Lamar essay contest will close November 19. There are several students entering this contest.

Supt. R. C. Campbell and Principal R. B. Fisher have new office desks. They seem glad to invite visitors into their offices now. There are teachers who would appreciate such gifts from the school board.

Second Grade. Miss Laura V. Brown; White Apartments.

Miss Julla Mae Barnhart; N. Frost St.

First Grade. Mrs. J. L. Lester; Grace Street.

Miss Wilma Chapman; W. Foster avenue.

Miss Mary Nell; at Mrs. Bedenbender's residence, Houston street.

Victory Would Enable Team To Play Canyon

The crucial time has come for the Harvesters, who are to play Shamrock high school on Ayres field Friday for the opportunity of meeting Canyon for the district championship.

If the Pampa eleven loses, the boys likely will meet Children's on Thanksgiving. The Harvesters are working hard for the coming battle. All of the team will be able to play, as no one was hurt in the game last Friday.

Shamrock has not lost a game this season, and has been scored on but twice. It will be as strong an opponent as the local boys will have to meet, in all probability.

Harvesters Defeat Panhandle Here

The Harvesters went over the top in a battle with the Panhandle Panthers here Armistice Day, winning by a score of 38-6. There are only two more games to be played this season.

Achie Lee Walstead started the score by making the first touchdown. Bob Kahl made the best play of the game by intercepting a pass for a touchdown. None of the Harvesters was hurt.

The day was chilly, but the football fans and boosters proved to be very loyal and yelled their team to victory. Lucille Mooney, sponsor for the Harvesters, presented the captain of Panhandle's team with a bouquet of carnations just before the game started.

VERY FINE!

Mr. Finley: Flora Deen, what do you learn in English? Flora Deen: The kinds of sentences: assertive, interrogative, and exclamatory.

Warren: You learn something else too! Flora Deen: What is it? Warren: To be NEAT.

PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR PAMPA: WHAT IT SHOULD BE

We feel that we are safe in asserting that many a noble mind has been lost to itself, to friends, and to the public, through the influence of light and immoral reading. Precious time has been frittered away, bright talents have been prostituted and perverted, health has been impaired, property wasted, and the happiness of whole families and neighborhoods destroyed, by the perusal of bad literary productions. We need not name particular books. It is, therefore, incumbent upon both parent and citizen to see that children read only such books as will tend to make them wiser and better.

In order to induce our people to spend a part of their time profitably by reading suitable books in a proper manner, the friends of education have advocated the establishment and support of public libraries.

Every town and city should have its public library for the purpose of giving every person, both young and old, ready access to books and of thus training him to love to read that which is worth while. We all know that the press is teeming with publications, not of questionable utility merely, but of a character truly immoral and licentious. They are printed in an attractive and cheap form and scattered broadcast throughout the community, contaminating and ruining the susceptible mind of the young. Perusal of library books is apt to create a dislike for trashy literature, an end especially desirable on account of the formative periods through which high school students are passing.

In the second place public libraries are desirable on account of the opportunity they offer for collateral reading. High school students should not be confined too closely to textbooks or to the views of only one person but should always be made to see a given question from different angles. It is in this way that students may supplement their home study and reading by the use of a greater number and variety of books. Since the public libraries may contain books on practically all subjects, this opportunity is afforded to them.

In addition to these facts, it may be said that in towns having public libraries better opportunity is offered the people to inform themselves not only on a wider range of investigation, but to a more thorough knowledge of the subject under investigation.

As to the exact contents of a public library, it is impossible to lay down fixed rules that will work satisfactorily in all cases. The needs of the community should be studied from every possible angle. But while we cannot lay down fixed and inflexible rules, some general suggestions may be advisable.

Fortunately, there are a number of firms that readily extend reliable help to any person or community intending to establish a library. Practically all of them advertise in the better class of periodicals devoted to educational interests. Likewise the national or state government, the University, or State Teachers colleges and the state superintendent will be glad to help in this matter.

Every library should have a reliable dictionary, such as the "Standard" published by Funk and Wagnalls; several up-to-date encyclopedias, care being taken that only such works are selected as discuss matter chiefly from the American point of view. For statistical reports, the World Almanac, published annually by the Press Publishing Co., New York, is perhaps one of

HOLIDAY SPIRIT NOTICEABLE AS SERVICES BEGIN

Flags and Uniforms Features of Pampa Streets

PARADE HELD THIS MORNING

Harvesters Will Play Panhandle High at 3 p. m.

Armistice Day dawned bright and cool Nov. 11, with a strong northeast wind blowing to add zest to the holiday spirit which was noticeable very early.

Dozens of American flags were placed in the business district, where most of the stores were closed in observance of the day. Former soldiers, wearing the uniforms their divisions were prominent on the streets.

At 11 o'clock a parade headed by Post Commander Lewis O. Cox of the American Legion, and composed of Legion members, Legion drum corps, the colors, and patriotic organizations of the city got under way. The groups moved to the Legion hall, where services were held with the Rev. W. L. Evans and Mayor F. P. Reid as the principal speakers.

The high school orchestra and a number of upper classmen took part in the program.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Harvesters and Panhandle high school will clash on Ayres field.

In the evening there will be the Carnival at the high school building and a banquet and dance at the Schneider hotel, where a special orchestra will play.

Four Men Held on Charges of Stealing Pipe

Four men were arrested Sunday night by officers of the sheriff's department and are being held in the county jail on a charge of theft.

The men, officers say, were caught in the act of loading pipe on a truck from cars on the H. F. Wilcox Oil and Gas company's siding.

The men were arraigned before the justice of the peace this morning and waived an examining trial. They will be taken before the grand jury now in session at LeFors.

ROTARIANS---

Rotary has gone ahead. Rotary unites and energizes, and gives an equal opportunity for all men.

Mrs. J. M. Douison rendered much enjoyed vocal solos. She was accompanied by Mrs. Tom Rose.

That the four clubs should send at least 50 per cent of their membership to the district conference in Lubbock April 19 was declared by Harry Coleman, president of the Dalhart club. He introduced T. E. Holcomb secretary of the Dalhart Chamber of Commerce, who spoke on ideas of service, declaring that real accomplishment in the face of criticism causes critics to disappear.

H. Otto Studer, president of the local Lions club, expressed his pleasure at being with the Rotarians, and congratulated them on their enterprise.

OUT OUR WAY

"Like Pampa Best" Declare Many of Group

ITINERARY IS ALONG PIPELINE

Trip Is Sponsored by Cities Service Company

High officials of the Cities Service Gas company, a subsidiary of the Empire Gas and Fuel company, and representatives of more than a dozen leading newspapers of the Middle West and Southwest Monday afternoon found much to interest them in Pampa and vicinity.

Arriving here at 1:30 p. m., the party enjoyed a luncheon at the New Schneider hotel. The guests of the company included E. G. Garnett, Kansas City Star; W. G. Secrist, Kansas City Journal-Post; Cliff H. Stratton, Topeka Capital; Charles J. L. May, St. Joseph News-Press; Fred Carey, Omaha News-Bea; Arch Jarrell, Wichita Beacon; John Reed, Wichita Eagle; C. H. Scott, Hutchinson News-Herald; Burns Hegler, Augusta Gazette; Oscar Shaufler, Arkansas City Traveler; Walter Hurbes, Emporia Gazette; Hugh J. Powell, Coffeyville Journal; Rolla Clymer, El Dorado Times; Earl Thompson, Amarillo News-Globe; and Olin E. Hinkle, Pampa Daily News.

Many Visiting Officials

Visiting officials of the Cities Service Gas company included A. J. Foster, Henry L. Doherty & company, New York; T. J. Strickland, vice-president and general manager, Kansas City Gas company; M. J. Barry, secretary Kansas City Gas company; W. R. Phipps, general manager Wichita Gas company; J. W. Finley, general counsel, Empire companies, Bartlesville, Okla.; Keith Cleveland, director public relations, Empire companies, Bartlesville; N. D. Holman, engineer, Cities Service Gas company, Bartlesville; Ross Stuntz, superintendent gas production, Empire companies, Bartlesville; Hugh Smith, engineer of construction, Empire pipeline, Bartlesville.

These groups were joined by the following Panhandle field men of the Empire company; L. W. Lowe, land department; C. D. Hughes, geologist; Roscoe Hoskinson, field department; C. S. Warren, superintendent of production department; and G. R. Nicholson, scout.

The big party left Kansas City by train Sunday morning and arrived in Amarillo early yesterday morning. After breakfasting there, they took automobiles for a tour of the Borger and Pampa oil and gas fields. It had been planned to stay here last night, but the itinerary was shortened at the request of several members who were anxious to get back to their work.

After seeing Borger, the group came to Pampa where, officials explained, the Empire company's chief Panhandle properties of interest are located. Expressing their satisfaction with the comforts and assets of Pampa as compared with other points visited, the gas and newspaper men also found the big booster station near here of great interest. The big plant, covering several acres dotted with sheds and huge machines and with the ground torn with big ditches for the pipeline connections, interested the visitors greatly. It is this station which will gather the big gas supply and give it the first boost into the $20,000,000 gas distributing lines. At Moreland, Ok., another station will help dispatch the fuel, and a third station is located at Wichita.

Following Pipeline The automobile trip from here will carry the party along the Pampa-Kansas City pipeline, and among the things that will be seen are the construction camps, particularly the one on the Canadian river, the other booster stations, the Empire refinery at Ponca City, and the Empire headquarters offices at Bartlesville.

While at the local booster plant, the party was photographed. Arrangements for the picture were made by Scott Barenus, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, with Fred's studio.

Much publicity will come to Pampa and community by reason of the visit of the newspaper men. Several of the newspapers represented by their executives will send new men here to gather further stories on this section.

This was another of the processions of prominent men who recently have been inspecting the great oil and gas and agricultural resources of the Pampa area.

COUNTY SEAT RULING MADE

Writ Indicates That Gray Could Have Election

In granting a writ of error in the Hansford county contest over county seat removal, the State Supreme Court has indicated that under the new statute Gray county could hold an election at any time for the same purpose.

In counties having a county seat located more than 5 miles from a railroad acting as a common carrier, the statute provides that if one election fails another may be held "within two years." While the legislators are believed to have meant "immediately after two years" have passed—as the Supreme Court held in granting the writ of error—the district court and the court of civil appeals at Amarillo ruled that "within" means "under two years." The latter ruling would prohibit Gray county from holding an election, but the opinion of the Supreme Court that "we think the courts below have misinterpreted the controlling statute" favors a Gray county election if one should be desired.

While the Supreme Court writ is not final or conclusive in its nature, it shows the probable ruling

NEGRO PORTER OVERPOWERS MAD PATIENT

Nurse and M. A. Turner Injured Before Man Is Subdued

An oil worker who ran amuck in Pampa hospital late Friday, injured three persons, and who was with difficulty brought under control, was adjudged insane yesterday afternoon and will be sent to an asylum.

A powerfully built man, he was a patient in the local hospital, to which he had not long been admitted. Suddenly going insane, he attacked his nurse, Mrs. Beardsmore, and inflicted serious bruises before the hospital secretary, M. A. Turner, could answer her cries. Mr. Turner was struck by a steel chair in the hands of the man, and received a severe cut on the head. The timely arrival of the negro porter, Sullivan, a local boxer and wrestler, probably prevented further injuries. The porter, after a hard fight, gained control.

Soon afterward, the unruly patient broke loose again, and had to be tied to his bed. He was treated, and appeared more quiet, but before long jerked out and leaped from a closed window. Outside, he sprang upon an automobile top, then ran about four blocks with officers and attendants in pursuit.

After being captured, he was hastily provided with clothing he had lost in the course of the evening, and was taken to the county jail. He continued irrational, and a jury yesterday afternoon decided he was a subject for a state institution.

Insane Man Dies Here Sunday Night

B. L. Brown, who Friday afternoon suddenly became insane and for a time terrorized Pampa hospital and vicinity, died Sunday night at 7 o'clock.

The body is at the Malone funeral parlor, awaiting the arrival of relatives from Kansas.

The man, about 25 years old, became steadily lower in strength and died despite the efforts of a physician. Hotel attendants are recovering from injuries received when they were attacked. R. C. Ogden, a visitor at the hospital at the time rendered valuable assistance in stopping and overcoming the patient as he tried to escape.

that the court would make if an election such as Gray county could hold should be contested.

"It now appears, therefore, that an election could be held in Gray county now, and that a two-thirds majority vote would result in removal of the county seat to a point on a railroad serving the county. An immediate election here is not considered probable, however, for the reason that the Supreme Court likely will make a more definite ruling soon, which will further help to clarify the situation.

T. D. HOBART IS URGED FOR LOCAL MAYOR

W. R. Campbell and Lynn Boyd Named For Offices

PETITION TO BE PRESENTED

Change in Government Makes Election Necessary

A petition is in circulation urging three prominent citizens to announce for the commission which will serve under the newly adapted commission-manager form of government. Late yesterday it had more than 50 signers, and was still going the rounds.

The proposed commission is: For mayor, T. D. Hobart; for commissioner No. 1, W. R. Campbell; for commissioner No. 2, Lynn Boyd.

The petition, which, it is said, will be presented to the above named men, is worded as follows: "We, the undersigned voters of Pampa, believing in the commission-manager form of government, and believing that the first essential for success is the election of men of vision, judgment, and unquestioned character as members of the city commission; and further believing that the men whose names are listed below for the various places are recognized by all the people of Pampa as having the qualifications named, we do hereby place them in nomination."

Mr. Hobart, who is being urged for mayor by scores of his friends, is reticent and declares he has no desire to seek the office. If he should become a candidate, he told the News Saturday, it would be only for the short term lasting until April of 1928, and on condition that the entire citizenship felt that he should do so.

"While I am desirous of serving my city the best I can, I am not of my own accord a candidate for mayor," said Mr. Hobart. "I appreciate the confidence that many of my friends have shown in urging me to let my name be entered in nomination, but I am not willing to become a candidate unless the citizenship indicates that I should do so. And then I should not desire to serve after the election in April, by which time the new government should be functioning well."

SENTENCE OF 2 YEARS GIVEN

Three Men Convicted of Attempted Burglary

After spending the entire week in almost continuous work, the grand jury last week adjourned until this Thursday. Half a dozen true bills were returned this week.

Two days of the week were consumed in the involved civil suit, W. C. Montgomery vs. J. R. Back, involving abstract work and records. Judgment was for Mr. Montgomery. Yesterday the trial of John Stanfield, charged with illegally possessing intoxicating liquor, was dismissed on allegations of the use of a defective search warrant.

Late yesterday a jury brought in a verdict of two years imprisonment for F. A. Boone, A. L. Ballou, and S. W. Ballou, charged with an attempt to burglarize a store at Honover a few months ago.

Another liquor case probably will be tried Monday, followed by minor civil cases. The damage suit of J. F. Shelton vs. Joe Bowers is set for Wednesday, and it is expected to consume several days.

Petit jurors called for duty during the last week of the term include the following:

- J. O. Wilkins, H. M. Hill, A. T. Wilson, Vester Smith, J. M. Ayres, John Ray, W. E. Ginn, S. Farris, C. C. Dodd, Tom Gatlin, O. J. Stockley, E. F. Vanderberg, J. W. Graham, Andy Boyd, O. H. Ollstrap, M. Heflin, John Haggard, H. W. Johns, R. W. Harrah, R. E. Kinzer, O. H. Ingram, Barney Fulbright, J. W. Ages, Luther Willis, C. W. Lawrence, DeLea Vlears, C. M. Jones, J. D. Shaw, J. L. Howard, W. J. Brown, Harry Nelson, H. G. Twiford, E. E. Reynolds, John Roby, Jack Bailey, M. D. Bentley, Jack Broyles, J. E. Howard, Les Paris, E. S. Brown, C. C. Gills, W. E. Coffee, G. Pannell.

BODY IS FOUND ON HIGHWAY IN PARKED AUTO

A. E. Hoyt Apparently Succumbed to Heart Disease

FORMERLY WAS AT CORSICANA

Wife and Son Are on Way Here From Dallas

A. E. Hoyt, proprietor of the Hoyt Drug store here, died about 4 o'clock November 10 while enroute to Amarillo in his car. It is believed that death was due to heart disease.

Details of his death are meager, but it is said the body was found by a passing motorist who saw the car parked by the side of the road about 20 miles south of here on the Clarendon road. Mr. Hoyt apparently had felt a heart attack coming on, and had parked his car just before succumbing.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

THE PLEASANT WAY

IF YOU are given to serious reflections, seeking through them to get at the basic principles which have so much to do with the shaping of our destinies, the making of our joys and sorrows, you will find when you delve deeply into these things that the power of choosing is all your own.

It is your privilege to do as you may please, to select your own course and follow without interference from others the best of your inclinations.

It is for you to assume the responsibilities and accept the reward or punishment which is sure to follow. The very indifference and abandonment with which most of us go about this sober work is often pathetic. We seem unconscious of the gravity of our position, giving it but a fleeting thought which we are apt to forget in moments of impulsive emotion, and thus make our most serious troubles.

Instead of moving in the natural pleasant way, we make deliberate detours through fields of thorns and rocks, where we are scratched and bruised, and come up scowling on the side where the road is frowning and furching.

As we view the prospect, there rushes into our hearts an uncontrollable sense of bitterness, a sort of hatred against all mankind, including our dearest and most intimate friends, but seldom a thought do we have of condemning ourselves.

We elect at such time to antagonize, rather than to conciliate, not caring a whit whether we make friends or enemies. And in this obstinate attitude of mind, we beat around the bush like mad beasts, instead of souls invested with the divine spark and power to think and reason.

It is this obdurate spirit which is regarding the world in progress, enslaving men in selfishness, putting the torch of war to inflammable passions and robbing us of faith, without which neither nation nor individual can long endure in peace.

By an overt act or two, goodly fellowships can be broken forever, yet how many of us think of this until we are left destitute and in our destitution we comprehend the result of a folly which, alas, was of our own making, beginning at the moment when we stubbornly turned our back upon the pleasant way and blindly chose the opposite.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"CARRYING COALS TO NEW CASTLE"

TO GIVE a hat to a milliner, to carry flowers to a garden or salt to the sea, to give anyone something of which he already has a goodly supply, is described as "carrying coals to Newcastle."

This phrase, so popularly used in common parlance today, goes to England for its origin. The reference is to the city of Newcastle-Upon-Tyne, the great coal center of the Northumberland and Durham regions. It received its name in the eleventh century from the fact that Robert, eldest son of William the Conqueror, began, in 1067 or 1080, to build a castle there. And located in the center of a district rich in coal it became famous early in its history as a great coal-distributing center. Hence, "Carrying coals to Newcastle!"
