HOPE FOR MR. TAFT ABANDONED BY HIS PHYSICIANS GOVERNOR BEING URGED TO SUBMIT PIPELINE REGULATION

Natural Gas Problem Still Open for Debate

With one eye on Washington and the other on Austin, Panhandle independent oil and gas producers and lawmakers were looking to their lawmakers today for assistance in making what they term the fight for their existence.

Senator Tom Connally, feared to be favoring an oil tariff of only half the 10 per cent desired, was the center of attention in the national capital. Panhandle delegates have converged on Austin in fighting the proposed natural gas act and to advocate pipeline regulations such as Oklahoma and other states have. The natural gas tax plan was taken up under the revenue raising subject, but Governor Moody has not yet submitted the question of pipeline regulation. Local men interested in the pipeline plan are urged to telegraph the governor urging submission of the subject.

AUSTIN, Feb. 27. (AP)—A special train brought several hundred independent oil men and royalty owners from West and South Texas to Austin today for the purpose of petitioning Governor Dan Moody for legislation to protect their interests.

Tom E. Crainhill, president of the Independent Petroleum association, complained that the big fellows of the oil game were about to smother the little fellows.

One bill advocated would require independent oil to accept oil of the independent in proportion to the takings from the majors. Others would classify oil storage facilities as public utilities; give right of relief by court action for threatened violation of laws governing pipelines and storage; make orders and certificates for petroleum negotiable when issued by pipeline or storage operators; monthly statements and the credit balance system; require all owners of pipelines to purchase crude oil reliably from all producers, and confer power on the railroad commission to fix regulations and supervise equitable purchase and delivery of oil.

Body Lately Formed
The association was organized at Fort Worth last Saturday. It is advocating before the national congress a tariff that will protect American oil production from imports of foreign crude.

AUSTIN, Feb. 27. (AP)—Further consideration of the proposed tax on natural gas was today's program of the house committee on revenue and taxation after it had heard a number of opponents of the measure last night without taking any action. The committee decided at midnight to adjourn subject to the call of its chairman, with the understanding he would arrange

COMMISSION WILL STUDY WATER RATES

Lowering the water rates was discussed yesterday by the city commissioners in their regular session. The board decided to gather more data on the matter before making any changes in the existing rates.

For two years the commissioners have been planning to lower the rates as soon as the present water system was installed and as soon as the water department "got on its feet," it was stated at the meeting.

A proposed new rate schedule was submitted to the commission by City Manager F. M. Gwin but action on it was deferred until figures on operating costs under the schedule are available.

At a meeting, it was announced that the water rate will permit the city to supply water to the McIlroy and Cockerell oil company for drilling the oil test adjoining the Talley addition at a much cheaper rate than the usual cost of water in the oil fields. However, the statutes will not permit the city to furnish water, free to any individual or company outside the city limits. The drilling company has not yet made an application for water.

MacDonald Still Expects Pact to Be Worked Out

LONDON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Prime Minister MacDonald, questioned in the house of commons whether he expected to arrive at any international agreement for naval disarmament, today replied emphatically "certainly."

The prime minister told questioners the policy of the British government at the naval conference looked to the eventual disappearance of battleships.

The premier, in his reiteration of the British stand, added however, this aim would have to be attained by international agreement.

"We cannot go one pound of avoirdupois beyond what the other powers are prepared to do," he said.

"Good English" Contest Is Being Conducted Here

A Good English" contest, beginning February 24 and closing March 7, is being conducted throughout Central high school. The seniors and freshmen are contesting with the juniors and sophomores. If a junior or a sophomore hears a senior or a freshman make an error in English, he may write the error on a gold card and have the one making the error sign his name. If the senior or freshman hears a sophomore or a junior make an error, he may write the error on a green card and have the one making the error sign his name.

All cards must be placed in the ballot box on the green bench in the entrance hall of the school building. Students of every class are out to win honors for their groups.

Every pupil studying English in the high school is required to make a "Good English" poster before March 7, at four o'clock, at which time the contest closes. Each English teacher will select the best five posters out of each of her respective classes, then all English teachers will select the best five out of English IV, the best five out of English III, the best five out of English II, and the best five out of English I. A committee composed of three impartial judges will select the three best posters out of the twenty previously chosen by the faculty. Three valuable prizes will be awarded to the three students making the best posters.

Trying to Throw Cal's Hat in Ring?

Apparently seeking to speed up a "third term" campaign to induce Calvin Coolidge to run for president again, William Wrigley's prize cockatoo seized Coolidge's chapeau when the former chief executive and Mrs. Coolidge visited the Wrigley bird farm on Catalina Island, near Los Angeles. This amusing picture shows Coolidge retrieving his headgear, while Mrs. Coolidge gets a big laugh.

CITY HALL PLANS ACCEPTED BY COMMISSION—AUDITORIUM TO BE OF THOUSAND SEATING CAPACITY

Architect W. R. Kaufman's plans for the city hall were accepted and approved by the city commissioners at their regular meeting yesterday.

The revised plans differ very little from Mr. Kaufman's original sketches except that the convention hall, or auditorium on the second floor, has been enlarged to seat 1,000 persons. The building will be 75 feet wide and 100 feet long. It will contain two stories and a basement.

It was decided to build the structure of light grey brick. The general plan of the building resembles the courthouse except that windows in the city hall will not occupy as much space as in the courthouse. According to the sketch, the ledges of the roof will have ornaments similar to those on top of the courthouse.

Mr. Kaufman is rushing details of the plans to completion, and it is the purpose of the commissioners to have the contract let by April 1.

"Blackie" Albin Enters Race for Local Constable

Offering himself for public office for the first time, Roy (Blackie) Albin has entered the race for constable of this precinct.

Mr. Albin, a native Texan, has lived here four years and will campaign vigorously in the belief that he is qualified to fulfill the duties of the office.

He plans to see as many of the voters as possible before the July Democratic primary.

Candidates Slow in City Politics

Candidates for mayor and city commissioners have 22 days left in which to file their candidacies, according to state statutes.

The last day for filing is March 21. The election will be held April 1. Terms of commissioners Lynn Boyd, J. E. Murfee, and Mayor D. W. Osborne will expire at that time.

No candidates have yet filed for the office.

President Hoover Calls Off Reception of Tonight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—After a visit to former Chief Justice Taft, Dr. Francis Hagner said at 1:30 p. m. today that there had been no change in the critical condition of his patient.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Broken by weeks of illness, William Howard Taft had lost so much ground in his fight for life today that his physicians said there remained no hope for recovery.

Confirming for the first time the fears of the family and friends of the former president and chief justice, Dr. Francis R. Hagner said after a morning call at the Wyoming avenue home said that it now was a question of days and perhaps only of hours.

"Mr. Taft is in a critical condition," said the physician. "There is no hope for his recovery. Any improvement will only be temporary." A general breakdown followed upon the combined inroads of the several ailments which early in February forced Mr. Taft to resign as chief justice, and thereafter kept him in bed under the anxious eyes of family and physicians.

All along the battle was a losing one. He almost held his own for short periods; sometimes there were signs which gave his attendants some slight hope, although their official bulletins never reflected a confidence in his recovery.

His active life, the exertions of which kept him a national figure for a generation, levied heavily on his reserve strength, and left him with less than the normal fighting power of a man of his age. He was 72 last September.

News of his condition spread sadness throughout Washington. Immediately after Dr. Hagner's bulletin was received at the White House, the president and Mrs. Hoover cancelled a reception which was to have been held tonight for members of the house of representatives.

Jealousy Told in Amarillo Trial

AMARILLO, Feb. 27. (AP)—While counsel argued over admission of the testimony of John Dees, charged with slaying Finis Brown, that he tried to avoid trouble with man by sending someone else to Brown to reason with him, court recessed this morning until afternoon.

Dees testified his acquaintance with Mrs. Nettie Sorenson, divorced wife of Brown, who testified in a court of inquiry that her husband was "insanely jealous," had been only that of a landlord and tenant. He also related threats against his life.

Twelve horsemen at Victorville, Cal., were assigned to scour the foothills for trace of a plane reported to have been heard Sunday afternoon as far west as Lake Arrowhead.

Scott Outweighs Sharkey for Fight

MIAMI, Feb. 27. (AP)—Jack Sharkey, first of the principals in tonight's heavy weight fight carnival to weigh in, scaled 197 pounds at offices of the Miami boxing commission shortly after noon.

Scott tipped the beam at 205, eight pounds more than Sharkey. The Briton had nothing to say. He wore a heavy growth of beard.

To avoid possible clashes, the boxers were weighed at five and ten minute intervals, starting at 12:30 p. m.

Johnny Risko of Cleveland weighed 195 for his ten-round semi-final with Victoriano Campolo of the Argentine. Campolo weighed 226 for his battle with Risko.

Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia scaled 191 1-2, but his opponent in one of the ten rounds, Pierre Charles of Belgium, weighed 209, a difference of 17 1-2.

Jimmy Maloney of Boston, at 198, held an advantage of 13 pounds over his rival, Mose Bouquillon of France, who weighed 185. They also were matched for ten rounds.

RECENT FATAL ACCIDENT ON TRACKS CITED

Mrs. Bechtelheimer Is Bringing Action on Railroad

HUSBAND KILLED UPON CROSSING

Damages of $40,000 to Be Asked in the Trial

Alleging that the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway company was guilty of negligence contributing to cause the recent death of G. W. Bechtelheimer, Mrs. Bechtelheimer filed suit in the 31st district court today for damages of $40,000 or more.

Mr. Bechtelheimer was killed at the Frost street crossing Feb. 4 when his automobile was struck by the passenger train which arrives here at 2:58 o'clock in the afternoon.

The plaintiff, Mrs. Bechtelheimer, alleges that the Santa Fe was negligent in that it failed to have a watchman stationed at the crossing to warn persons, and also because the company failed to have automatic gates or drops on the crossing, adequate warning signals, such as a bell or signal arm.

Mrs. Bechtelheimer further contends that the Santa Fe kept and maintained oil and tank cars upon the side track, upon both sides of the crossing, in such a situation as to obstruct the view of persons using said crossing from the south, going in a northerly direction.

Claim Dangerous Speed
The petition states that the train which struck the plaintiff's car was running at a "high and dangerous speed; that is, in excess of 20 miles per hour." It further states that "in falling to blow the whistle upon the locomotive of the train at a sufficient distance from the crossing," the victim was not warned of the approach of the train in time to prevent the accident.

Mrs. Bechtelheimer alleges that for several hundred feet on the west side of the crossing the main line high speed tracks are surrounded on both sides by buildings and structures which have the effect of absorbing the sound of approaching trains and of preventing persons using the crossing from hearing and seeing the approach of trains.

Poor Visibility Cited
The petition states that at the time cars upon the extreme south track up of the accident, there was a string of to within a distance of approximately 35 feet of the west line of the crossing, "thereby preventing a person from seeing the approach of a train upon main line tracks until within ten to twelve feet of the tracks, and the grain elevators on the north side of the tracks prevented persons using the crossing from the north from seeing the approach of trains until on the tracks." The crossing is alleged to be a "blind crossing" by the plaintiff.

The petition states that at least three or four accidents occurred within a period of one year prior to the accident in which Mr. Bechtelheimer lost his life.

Lewright and Englewood are attorneys for Mrs. Bechtelheimer.

TWINKLES
Certain interests of this newspaper are very anxious that sidewalk signs be made higher, and they are joined by many other local 6-footers. Personally, it makes no difference to us, but we know that chasing hats is no fun and the low signs tend to dislocate the hats. "There ought to be a law . . . enforced."

The News predicted months ago that if the Federal Farm Board persisted in working only through cooperative marketing associations it would work havoc with independent grain men, who, too, might have to have aid . . . This prediction is amply borne out by late developments. Kansas' biggest farmer, who incidentally operates fifty elevators, sees ruin facing him if he has to sell in a current market ten or twelve cents below the prices the government will obtain for grain held cooperatively. Aid for the farmer as it is being interpreted in recent years smacks of state socialism, and toward the elimination of the middle man who has thus far borne the burden and taken the loss or profit of handling and marketing the crops. . . . It is true that the middle men, or independent grain men, must make a profit to exist. But it is also true that for the government to act as middle men, depriving the jobbers of their profits and in effect confiscating their property, is unfair. There should be some way devised for the independent grain dealers to participate in the government's program.

Well, we jailed a million dollars (Mr. Sinclair) in this country, and now it looks as if we are going to electrocute an aristocrat of brains (Mr. Snook).

The gangster movement toward Mexico offers possibilities. The "racket" is scarcely an implement of revolution. It thrives in an orderly, profitable community because it lays its heinous hands upon part of the daily or weekly profits. It might embarrass Mexico as it has Chicago, and should some of the gangsters get political ideas there might be more revolutions. The odds, however, appear otherwise. The gangsters probably will have few designs on the government, except to avoid punishment for their crimes. There are already Mexican gangs up and down the border, engaged chiefly in smuggling liquor, narcotics, and aliens.

Russia manages to get along without God, but uncensored reports indicate that her status is far from the Utopia her propagandists like to paint. She is turning churches into schools and warehouses. Her education is not free, but restricted to discourses upon her "system". Learning is, in the real sense, apart from her education. Her revolution achieved freedom from despotism, but replaced that hard gained with a despotism of ideas. Radicalism that has to use censorship and repression contradicts its own theory. Russia will some day restore her churches in reverence, just as she now tears them down "at the workers' demand".

This new forage crop known as the "hershey" is achieving considerable popularity in this section. F. I. Townsend of Snyder says that the plant "has demonstrated its quick maturing growth with only three days time between planting of seed and sprouting out of the ground. It matures in sixty days, providing a quick grain and forage crop of inestimable value in West Texas. Eighty-one local farmers have already signified their interest with orders for the seed. It is believed the crop will revolutionize conditions in this entire section". The importance of the new feed is shown by the fact that national farm magazines have been sending agents to Snyder to watch the experiment there. The Snyder National bank is financing the farmers who desire to try the crop. Any good grain which will mature quickly and surely will be of great value on the plains. Farmers would do well to test any new seed as an experiment, however, before relying upon it too strongly in their soils.

It was the expectation of the committee members that the collective earnings from the members would amount to $100. Mrs. McDonald told the club tentative plans of a committee upon the proposal that the club sponsor a merchants style show were announced by Mrs. Charles I. Hughes, but definite action was postponed until a called session, pending the decision of merchants concerned.

A club dance at the Schneider hotel, Saturday, March 15, was announced by Miss Jonnie Ruth Williams of the social committee, who said Bud Marshall and his Oklahoma Ramblers would play.

Luncheon Given for Methodist W. M. S. at Close of Business

The monthly business and social meeting of the Methodist Women's Missionary society was held yesterday at the church, attended by a large representation from each of the four circles. Mrs. C. T. Nicholson pronounced the invocation opening the worship period. Mrs. W. Purviance, president, conducted the devotional, the subject of which was "Sharing the Gift of Life." Discussing what members of the Missionary society accomplish in their daily Christian life, Mrs. Purviance told her audience that the aim of each should be idealistic living. The Scripture was the eighth chapter of Acts.

Mrs. Edwin Vicars presided at the business session. Reports were given by secretaries, superintendents, and Rotary club luncheon chairmen. The Rev. Tom W. Brabham spoke on church finances, giving a detailed report on the present indebtedness of the church and on past payments. Circle No. 2 having the largest group of members present, received extra points in an attendance contest now under way.

Fifty members were present. Circle No. 1 was hostess at the social gathering following the program and business discussions. A delicious plate luncheon was served in the basement dining room, where places were marked with clever rhymes thanking merchants for their contributions to the occasion.

Members attending were as follows: Mrs. H. P. Elliott, Mrs. N. A. Helstand, Mrs. C. G. Boles, Mrs. Robert Chafin, Mrs. Hal Peck, and the president, Mrs. Eli Willis.

Because of his brilliant work in rural schools, W. P. Keith, superintendent of schools in Jefferson County, Ark., was awarded a life membership in the Parent-Teacher association.

Aged Dog Fails to Save Aged Pal

FORT WORTH, Feb. 27. (AP)—Mourning in dog fashion for his master, Kelley, nine-year-old canine friend of Lee Taylor, 69, also mourned today for his own senility.

Taylor died yesterday, trampled and fatally injured by an infuriated bull, Kelley, when he saw his master's predicament, attempted to aid him. But the aged, almost toothless dog could not stop the bull's charge, although he tried valiantly to sink his few remaining teeth into the animal's tough hide.

POOR TURNOUT EXPECTED FOR FLORIDA FIGHT CARNIVAL AT MIAMI—SHARKEY ODDS GROW

BY ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—Today was fight day along the palm-fringed boulevards, with the crowds and chatter, the balmy breezes and the twittering of the ballyhoo birds that flock to the midwinter carnivals of Florida.

Behind all the gaiety and the glamour of tropical scenes, the boys associated with the second annual battle of the coconut palms were hoping for the best, but fearing the worst—hoping an eleventh hour rush for the turnstiles would materialize, but fearing a financial flop; hoping that Phil Scott, the London fire laddie, would make a gallant fight of it all, but fearing that the rough and rugged American, Jack Sharkey, would turn the main event tonight into a one-sided punching bee.

Thirty-six years ago in Jacksonville, gentlemen Jim Corbett, American holder of the world's heavyweight championship, knocked out the pride of England, fiery little Charley Mitchell, in three rounds, in a fugitive prize fight that resulted in the arrest of all concerned as law violators.

Tonight, in the Miami arena built by Madison Square Garden corporation of New York, Jack Sharkey enters the ring an overwhelming favorite to repeat Anglo-American boxing history by knocking out Phil Scott in the 15-round feature of an all-star heavyweight card of five bouts. Although there is no chance whatever of a sellout, the show appeared certain to attract a notable gathering of wealth and fashion, of talent and celebrities to the ringside.

No title was at stake, but the championship aspirations of the principals were involved, for the winner, whether Sharkey or Scott, will be within a stride of a decisive match for the world's heavyweight crown. Only Max Schmelling, German champion, stands in the path of the survivor, and Max is prepared to meet either Sharkey or Scott in June at New York.

The contrast in the setting of the nineties and that of today, the contrast, too, between this affair and the fantastic venture of a year ago that followed the death of Tex Richard, was no less marked than the difference between tonight's principals.

Scott, the pale and apprehensive looking Briton, holds the championship of his homeland, but has yet to demonstrate either that he has a punch or that he has much ring ability beyond that of a fair boxer. Quiet by nature and at times even morose, Scott has been well conditioned, but failed to thrive mentally on American methods or gain stimulation from the vocal outpourings and the combative spirit of his New York manager, Jimmy Johnston.

Sharkey, thoroughly at home, splendidly conditioned and equipped, has displayed every determination to remove the stigma of a somewhat erratic career and remove all obstacles in his path to the world's championship title. In speed, punch and resourcefulness, as well as confidence, the American has marked advantages over his British rival. Sharkey has been at his worst among rushing, ripping types of fighters like Dempsey, Risio and Heeney. He has been at his best against less aggressive, less powerful punching foes such as Wills, Maloney and Loughran. The experts regard Scott as "made to order" for Sharkey.

Under such circumstances, it has been small wonder that in spite of a supporting card of high calibre, headed by the Victorio Campolo-Johnny Risio semi final, masters of the old fashioned ballyhoo have been at their wits end to stimulate interest in the fight show and gain consequent results at the box office. There has been little or no debate over the final bout, with Sharkey a 5 to 1 favorite and picked to score a knockout inside four or five rounds.

Advance sale for the fight has been far below expectations. Forecasts depended upon factors of stimulation today, but it seemed reasonable to most observers to expect not many more than 25,000 customers, if that many, and a "gate" not much beyond $200,000. Garden officials stuck to a prediction of $300,000 or more.

The Campolo-Risio affair, regarded as more of a fighting magnet than the main event, promised the most exciting action of the evening, with the Argentine man slight favorite to whip his pudgy American opponent because of big advantages in weight and punch. A six rounder between Raul Bianchi of Argentine and Bill Daring, the heavyweight protegee of E. F. Hutton, New York and Palm Beach sportsman, opens the festivities at 8:15 p. m., to be followed by a ten-round preliminary between Jimmy Maloney of Boston and Moise Bouquillon of France. The semi-final was slated for around 9:15 and the main bout at 10, followed by a 10-round aftermath affair, involving Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia and Pierre Charles of Belgium.

Rookie Catcher of Last Year Is No. 1 for Browns

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—Dick Ferrell, rookie catcher last season, was told he is No. 1 backstop with the St. Louis Browns this year by Manager "Billy the Red" Killifer, as he stepped to the plate to dust the cobwebs from his batting eye on the second day of his spring training jaunt.

"I told you last spring you were the best young catcher I'd seen come up in years," Killifer told the lad. "That still goes."

Fifteen players were in uniform. Eight were absent, but that was explained by the fact that transportation had not reached some of the group.

Giant Rookies Beat Regulars

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Bill Powley, young Pittsburgh semi-pro, was well recommended to the New York Giants. It was Honus Wagner famous "Flying Dutchman," who told Manager John McGraw Powley had the makings of a major leaguer.

But Powley got only a small part of McGraw's attention in the first workout directed by the Giant manager. The team went through two long hard workouts yesterday with a five inning game in the morning and six in the afternoon. And, as usual in the early training contests, the Rookie team beat the regulars.

PANHANDLE TEACHERS DEFEAT PAMPA PROFESSORS HERE LAST EVENING, 33-19, SECOND TIME

Led by Coach Herm, the faculty team of Panhandle high school defeated a quintet of Pampa school teachers 33 to 19 at the local gym last night in what turned out to be a reunion of former basketball stars of W. T. S. T. C. Five of the ten players were once members of the Buffalo basketball squad.

Coach Odus Mitchell had the pleasure of jumping center against Bob Vaughn, principal of Panhandle high school, who played center for Simmons university when Mitchell held down the same position for the Canyon school.

Looping baskets from almost every position on the court, Coach Herm was high-point man with 15 points. In all, he shot seven field goals. Vernon of Panhandle and Mitchell and one of Pampa each shot three field goals to tie for second scoring honors.

Mitchell, who had been expected to score most of Pampa's points, was smothered by three guards from the beginning of the game. The Panhandle team had worked out a system of passing that the Pampa teachers was unable to follow. Herm was constantly fed the ball by his mates and he was without a guard most of the time. When Mitchell did get the ball he displayed signs of the speed that made him a college star.

The defeat last night was the second the Pampa teachers has taken from the Panhandle faculty. In a game played at Panhandle a week ago, Mitchell was not represented on the Pampa team.

Art Shires Not Important to His Chicago Mates

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 27. (AP)—The fact that all members of the first squad had reported was of more importance in the camp of the Chicago White Sox today than the information that Art (The Great) Shires had been in San Antonio without giving his mates a tumble.

Art stopped in San Antonio on his way to Harlingen, Tex., to attend a banquet, but even dodged newspapermen. Dutch Henry reported yesterday and participated in the drill.

Dazzy Vance Back in Robin Practice

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—Brooklyn's Robins aren't the Robins until Dazzy Vance is on the job, so real practice starts today. The Dazzyler turned up in camp last night ready to don his uniform and get down to work.

Vance's appearance helped the team a lot, but there are a few holdouts. Bill Clark's salary demands have been met, but disputes are going on with Babe Herman, Ray Moss, Jim Faulkner and Harvey Hendrick. Manager Robinson said yesterday he had telegraphed each a personal request to accept the latest terms offered by the Brooklyn management.

Throwing the contest open to the world, Wilbur C. Hawk, fair president, is encouraging entries in the fiddling event, especially from all sections of the country—as many as want to enter. Last year's contest, which was limited to county winners, drew 20 contestants, and 30 or 40 are expected this year. Entries must be in by March 1, and should be addressed to Mr. Hawk.

Winners of prizes this year will be presented with: First prize, $75.00; second prize, $50.00; third prize, $25.00; fourth prize, $10.00; fifth prize, $7.50; sixth prize, $5.00. Mr. Hawk said. Three cash prizes will be paid for the best amateur acts, which may be singing, dancing, yodeling, or what not. Hugh Roden, widely known old-time fiddler, and Roy Rodgers, versatile entertainer who plays 20 different instruments, will offer several vaudeville attractions, in addition to the contests. Both of these men are Brunswick and Okeh record artists.

The contests will be held in the city auditorium, and tickets will be 50 cents, 75 cents and $1. They are now on sale at the Globe-News office and may be reserved by mail.

Relief from Gas Stomach Pains Dizziness

The doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles. You can't be well if your digestion is bad; you are likely to get sick unless you relish food and digest it properly.

Tanlac has a wonderful record as a relief from digestive troubles, even those of years' standing.

Local people, many of whom you know, are highly endorsing Tanlac. For example, Mrs. Ellen White says: "For years I suffered from indigestion. I got no relief from anything until I took Tanlac. After my fourth bottle, I feel like a new person and have a fine appetite."

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation, or torpid liver; if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all run down, you need Tanlac. It is good, pure medicine, made of roots, herbs and barks. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you. Accept no substitute.

Third All-Wrestling Card Tonight to Present Local Performers and Very Capable Grappling Invaders

The third all-wrestling card presented by the Pla-Mor since Texas Rangers put the bay on boxing will begin tonight at 8:30 with Oscar Dotson of Pampa and Bill Knight of Skellytown in the semi-final event. This match will be a one-fall time limit affair, probably about 20 minutes duration.

The final match will be between Tiger Taylor of Fort Smith, Ark., and Otis Clingman of Pampa. They are scheduled to wrestle for three falls. Both Clingman and Taylor arrived in town today; Clingman from Chicago where he participated in a feature match.

The last two wrestling cards were almost sufficient to make wrestling fans out of most of the boxing addicts here, as the matches have contained all that the fights had and more.

Taylor is noted as a clean fast wrestler and his match with Clingman is slated to be a scientific wrestling exhibition. This is to be desired because Clingman has never been matched here with a wrestler who grappled as clean as the ex-navy champion. It would be interesting to see such a match.

Fans may look for their rough start tonight in the match between Knight and the Pampa Blacksmith. Knight has warned Dotson that he enters the ring assuming that everything is fair and that nothing is barred. "Anything to throw your man or if you can't throw him, to knock him out," he said.

School Boy Is Impressing Manager

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—There's a high school youngster from Hingham, Mass., with the Braves whose control and confidence have already greatly impressed Manager Bill McKechnie. Bob Brown pitched for his home town high school last spring and then moved to Westville, N. C., for the summer. He won 19 out of 20 games, several of them one hit affairs.

McKechnie thinks the boy has more chance of sticking with the Braves than many a rookie up from the minor leagues with a fine record.

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Corn Yield in Dallam Unusual

TEXLINE, Feb. 27.—Corn on J. B. Baker's 375 acres, 4 miles south of Texline, averaged 35 bushels to the acre for the 1929 crop. The last of the corn was marketed at Texline the past week and production figures carefully checked for accuracy. The corn was of the Yellow Dent and white varities and raised on sod land.

Bill Stewart, Reeves Odiorne, and Cecil Holt each had a small part of the land to farm, so that under three different types of management the soil yielded identical results. These three men owned farms, adjoining these 375 acres, which they had under cultivation. Corn production on the Bill Stewart farm, comprising 300 acres, exclusive of any part of the Baker place, was 35 bushels to the acre. The Odiorne and Holt farms extended west into New Mexico from the Baker place and yielded excellent crops.

It Is Folly To Stay Fat

The proof is everywhere. In every circle you can see that excess fat is disappearing fast. Modern science has found a major cause of excess fat in a weakened gland. In late years, physicians the world over have been fighting that cause. They do not rely on starvation.

This modern method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. Each box contains the formula, as prepared by famous experts. People have used these tablets for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now nearly all have friends who show the results in new beauty, health and vigor.

Go try Marmola. Test the right way to reduce. The results will amaze and delight you. All druggists supply Marmola at $1 a box.

Pierre Dupont Is for State Control of Intoxicants

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Pierre S. Dupont, leader in industrial and financial affairs, today opened the concluding session of the house judiciary committee's hearing on the dry law with the terse statement: "I am in favor of repeal of the Eighteenth amendment."

The chairman of the board of E. I. Du Pont de Nemours & company said one question of the use of alcohol must be solved because of its use to excess, and added that it was his opinion the excessive drinkers were few and could be accommodated for in hospitals.

House Members Tell About Fees

AUSTIN, Feb. 27. (AP)—Eighty members of the house of representatives had filed sworn questionnaires giving sources of their incomes, including fees and retainers, today in response to the resolution by Representative James W. Harper of Mount Pleasant.

Representative Harper, chairman of the committee to compile the questionnaires and submit a report to the legislature, said he knew of only Representative Charles McCombs of Dallas and probably Rep. Frank Patterson of Fort Worth, who had refused to fill in the questionnaires.

An effort of the house to rescind its former action in authorizing the reformer to fill in the questionnaires after a long debate, in which members declared the house should not invade its own self respect by inquiring into the members' fees and retainers as lawyers or business men from corporations.

Negro Hijacker Used Toy Pistol

FORT WORTH, Feb. 27. (AP)—Shot by his intended victim, under arrest and confined to a hospital for the next several days before he goes to trial, Louis King, Negro, daytime chauffeur and night-time hijacker, still had one consolation today.

He couldn't be charged with robbery by firearms.

King specialized in street cars. His last job was ill selected, for he chose a car piloted by C. A. Barnett, who had been held up four times recently and was tired of it.

Before the wounded negro was delivered to the hospital, officers searched his pockets for the weapon he used. They found it—a toy cap pistol, tied together with string.

The negro confessed to two other robberies.

Literary Digest Is Taking Pro Poll

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Special)—Twenty million voters of the United States are now being polled for their opinions on prohibition by The Literary Digest, which has accurately predicted the outcome of the last three presidential campaigns through "straw" votes, according to Dr. William Weaver Woods, editor-in-chief of the magazine.

Pampa's allotment of ballots has already been mailed from the polls headquarters in New York City, and will be distributed by the local post office there within a few days, according to advice received today.

The first tabulated returns of the nation-wide balloting will be published about the middle of March, it is stated.

Distribution of the postcard ballots which are used in this "straw" referendum have been mailed widely throughout the United States already. Each ballot is said to be strictly secret and requires no signature and entails no obligation on the part of the voter. The ballot has three questions, of which the voter is asked to choose the one policy he favors:

- 1. Do you favor the continuance and strict enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment and Volstead law?
- 2. Do you favor a modification of the Volstead law to permit light wines and beers?
- 3. Do you favor a repeal of the Prohibition amendment?

There has been consistent demand voiced from all sections of the country, magazine officials state, to have The Literary Digest conduct an impartial poll upon this much discussed moot subject.

The Literary Digest polls have been uncanny in their accuracy of prediction, I think we can modestly say," states Dr. Woods, under whose personal supervision the poll is being taken. "Every 'straw' referendum that we have made which was later substantiated by an official vote of the national electorate has been proved over 95 per cent correct."

Detroit Lawyer Gangster Victim

DETROIT, Feb. 27. (AP)—Underworld shotguns were turned last night on Alfonso Sirica, 31-year-old attorney, who defended James Fernando in the Jackie Thompson kidnaping case and who appeared a few days ago as counsel for the estate of an Italian cafe owner shot to death on February 19.

Forty slugs were poured into Sirica's automobile, and a dozen or more tore away the lower part of his face. He was taken to receiving hospital in a dying condition while detectives sought a motive for the shooting.

BELIEVE MORON TO HAVE SLAIN KANSAS WOMAN

ANTHONY, Kans., Feb. 27. (AP)—A moron was sought today for the brutal murder, without apparent motive, of Mrs. Ber Turner, 55, at her home here.

The body was found, lying in a front room, by her husband when he returned from his work as foreman at a slate plant last night. The head had been crushed with splintered end of a farm implement, one bullet had passed through her forehead and entered her heart and another had entered her stomach. The house had not been robbed.

Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, President of Seventh District Federation, Gives Short Address at Tea in Her Honor

Mrs. J. T. Whitmore of Snyder, president of the Seventh district of Texas Federation of Women's clubs, who was in Pampa Tuesday to consult with local chairmen upon plans for the forthcoming district convention in this city, was the honored guest of the Council of Clubs at a tea in Mrs. Ivy E. Duncan's home, 1115 Christine street, on which occasion all members of the eight organizations comprising the Council were invited to meet her.

Addressing the fifty or more women assembled in her honor, in an inspirational talk that was the principal program attraction of the day, Mrs. Whitmore spoke on the subject, "The Ideal Club Woman."

Upon the individual club woman—her motive, her zeal, and her energy—depends the success of every club, Mrs. Whitmore believes, and by her powers of reciprocity, of loyalty, and of fellowship may be judged her worth as a club unit.

The ideal club woman, as she is portrayed by this president of Texas' largest federated body, is a person of knowledge wider than that of the mere printed page, an individual prompted by a sincere desire for usefulness and community service, a dreamer bringing her dreams to practical accomplishment. Very definitely she is not the woman who cripples her own personality and the efficiency of the club by her exaggerated sensitiveness to imagined slights; equally, she is not the club woman who welcomes every opportunity to absent herself from meetings. She is, in short, the member who realizes that a very large measure of the club's efficiency rests upon her proficiency as a unit.

Mrs. Whitmore urged that the consideration of several points upon which she hoped to see stress during her two-year administration. Among them she mentioned, first, brevity in papers and business discussions. Next, she asked that every club woman inform herself upon parliamentary law, both for her own ease of mind and for the sake of club dignity. Lastly, and most important of all, she said, was the desire to see every club woman cultivate the charms of sunshine and cheerfulness in her personality.

Preceding the honoree's address, a brief program was given under the direction of Mrs. H. H. Hicks, who introduced the entertainers and the district president, Mrs. C. S. Wortman sang two beautiful solos, "The Brownies," and "The Little Tree." Miss Madeline Tarpley led the accompaniment for both, and as a solo, played a selection from MacDowell. Mrs. Raymond Harrah read "Bathing the Baby." Following the address, Mrs. Ray Chambers, violinist, played "Berceuse" and an encore, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Thomas Fannell.

Presidents or representatives of the several clubs stood in the receiving line with Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Whitmore. They were: Mrs. H. H. Hicks, program director; Mrs. W. A. Bratton, Twentieth Century; Mrs. James Todd, El Progresso; Mrs. Thomas Clayton, Wardside; Mrs. Tom Eller, Coterie; Mrs. Arthur Swanson, Junior Twentieth Century; Mrs. Wm. T. Fraser, A. A. U. W.; and Mrs. Grace Higgins, Business and Professional Women.

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*
By refraining from over-indulgence
Men who would keep that trim, proper form, women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

Rash Romance by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

BEGIN HERE TODAY JUDITH CAMERON, New York typist, marries ARTHUR KNIGHT, executive of the publishing house in which she is employed... "Sandy's getting fond of you, Junior," she said.

ANDY CRAIG, whom Knight has helped through college, takes a position with the publishing firm... "There's something—I mean I want to—I want to tell you something before I go back to school."

Gradually since the tense strain of anxiety had lifted in the Knight household its members resumed their usual habits... "O. K. with me," he said.

Judith's face was radiant. She longed to show by word or act how much she loved him... "It's O. K. with me, too," she said.

It had been agreed that Junior should depart Sunday morning so that he might be on hand for classes Monday... Saturday evening Judith came down stairs to find Arthur Junior lying on the rug before the fireplace with Sandy in his arms.

The dog looked up, welcoming his mistress; he did not stir. Judith sat down. "Sandy's getting fond of you, Junior," she said.

Again the terrier sought attention from Junior. He was neglected. Quite without introduction the boy suddenly turned toward Judith and said huskily: "There's something—I mean I want to—I want to tell you something before I go back to school."

Judith's face was radiant. She longed to show by word or act how much she loved him... "It's O. K. with me, too," she said.

"That's all right," he told her. "I really wasn't trying to be mean before. Seeing how bad you felt about Father being sick and all you've done for him sort of made me see things differently. I guess."

Judith smiled at him happily. She did not spoil the moment by prolonging it. "Why don't you go up and say good-night to your father now?" she suggested. "I'm sure Miss Owens will be willing to break a rule since this is your last night at home."

"Think so? Well, guess I'll try it. Can I take Sandy up?" "Tactfully Judith discouraged this last notion. When the boy returned downstairs, having bade his father good night, the living room was empty... "Yes," he said in a slow voice.

At 10 o'clock next morning, after cordial farewells had been exchanged Arthur Junior departed for the railway station. Bert went with him, driving the large car. Andy Craig came for Tony later in the day.

He greeted her cheerfully. "Miss Mallory," said Judith impulsively, "it's a gorgeous day outside. Why don't you go out for a couple of hours? I'm sure I can get anything Arthur wants."

PIPELINES—

 with the speaker for a house recess which would allow the hearing to continue late today.
 Opponents of the tax who represented producers and consumers of gas, both domestic and industrial, were heard, but a number still remained, including a large delegation from the Panhandle.
 Announcement that 49 members of the legislature had signed a resolution calling for sine die adjournment on Saturday made committee members anxious to pass out the bill before that date, and its opponents equally as anxious that it be carried over until next week in hope that the legislators would have all gone home by that time.
 The fact that a hearing on the proposed tobacco tax was scheduled for tonight presented continuation of the tax hearing until then.
 Under the utility act, natural gas taxes paid to the state amounted to $128,409.23 in 1928, with the estimated yield for 1929 fixed at $90,000, according to Rep Phil Sanders of Nacogdoches, author of one of the bills.
 J. C. Strong, county judge of Panola county, said the Sanders tax would force gas producers in this county to close down their wells, thereby depriving them of approximately $1,000,000 per year. He said many Texas counties are "broke" and his county would be broke also without the ad valorem taxes from the gas wells.
 John K. Harris, finance commissioner of the city of Dallas, declared any tax would be passed on the consumer in the form of increased rates, and added the two-cent provision of the Sanders tax would add $150,000 annually to the domestic gas bill of Dallas, with an automatic raise in rates, under franchise provisions, within two years.

 General Jacob Wolters of Houston, representing the Texas company, declared the total revenue of that organization from natural gas in 1929, at an average price of 2.6 cents per thousand cubic feet was $830,805.37. Its net profit, he said, was $475,349. He declared from these figures, that the Sanders bill would have taxed his company during that year $701,448.88. "Which would have absorbed all profit."
 The Sanders bill would place a graduated tax running from one fourth of one cent per thousand cubic feet up to two cents, the increase being for every additional thousand cubic feet, on all gas produced at the well.
 The Mauritz-Tillotson bill would place a straight tax of one fourth of a cent per thousand cubic feet, to be paid as a sales tax by the first buyer, with the producer collecting it. Three per cent would be allowed for evaporation.

 Sanders stated the annual value of the three hundred billion cubic feet of natural gas produced in Texas at the average price of 3.4 cents per thousand cubic feet was $10,267,000. He estimated his bill would yield from this amount a revenue of $3,000,000 per year.
 He went on to point out that while the value of the Texas output was the figures named, the casinghead gasoline and the carbon black which it yielded, plus the amount used for domestic and commercial purposes, raised its final sale value to $82,470,564 per year.
 The Chatanika branch of the Alaska railroad is being operated all winter. Previously, service was suspended during the stormiest months.
