LEAHY IN PAMPA

Resident Engineer and Family Will Be Located in City During Construction of 113-Mile Line.

I. J. Leahy, resident engineer for the Fort Worth & Denver railway company, arrived here yesterday and began preparations to complete plans and specifications for the road in Pampa and the first 10 miles east of the city. Mr. Leahy will move his family here immediately.

A party of Denver engineers has already established headquarters at LeFors.

Mel Davis, general chairman of the railroad committee, announced this morning that acquiring of right-of-way from LeFors east to the Wheeler county line will begin this week. Ralph Ogden and E. A. Vance of LeFors will have charge of negotiations. They will submit their reports to Chas. C. Cook and H. H. Durston, general executive agent of the Denver, for final approval. This step of right-of-way from LeFors east will be the first to be acquired.

Mr. Davis expects Mr. Durston to be in Pampa next week. Of the $50,000 pledged to the right-of-way fund, about $6,000 has been collected. Those who have not taken up their pledges are requested to see O. P. Purkiser at the White Deer Land building. Much stress has been placed upon collections in the last two weeks as the committee members have been working to boost the pledged fund.

Tabulation of 25 bids for grading and bridge structures on the line was expected to be completed today. R. C. Gowdy said the contracts would be awarded immediately. Amount of the bids, separately or collectively, will not be made public. Contractors are scheduled to begin work Aug. 18. Mr. Gowdy said that about 700 men in a number of crews will work at several points along the line to speed completion in time for hauling the 1932 crops.

Wheat Donations to Board Reach 449 Bushels Today

The board hopes to receive enough wheat to last through the coming winter without drawing any money from the board's funds.

WAY IS OPENED FOR MORE INVESTIGATION OF CANNON

Justice Cox Holds That State Committee Should Have Right to Probe.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—The way was cleared for further investigation of Bishop James Cannon Jr.'s political activities today when Justice Cox in the District of Columbia Supreme Court dismissed Bishop Cannon's petition to restrain the senate campaign fund committee from further inquiry into the 1928 Virginia campaign.

Elisha Hanson, attorney for the senate committee's investigation, had moved to dismiss. In sustaining his motion, Justice Cox said the senate committee should have a wide latitude in inquiries which might determine the need for further legislation.

Jury Names Creighton and Thomas as Men Who Made January Raid

CANYON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Indictments charging robbery with firearms in connection with the looting of the First National bank of this city last January 10, have been returned against Jim Thomas and Jimmie Creighton.

Creighton is in prison at Jefferson City, Mo., under sentence of death for the slaying of a youth at Webb City. He was scheduled to die August 22, but his case has been appealed. Thomas is serving 25 years in the Nebraska penitentiary at Lincoln for his part in the robbery of a bank at Hastings, Neb., shortly after the Canyon bank was robbed.

Officers of the local sheriff's department, led by Warren Belcher, then chief deputy, supplied the first clues which indicated that Thomas and Creighton were implicated in the robbery. Deputy Belcher worked several days in Amarillo, Borger, and Canyon investigating the case. His theory that Thomas and Creighton were connected with the hold-up was at first rejected by Potter and Randall county officers. He amassed more evidence and presented it to the officers, but by that time both men were out of the county.

Son Of Oklahoma's First Governor Is Victim Of Suicide

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 12 (AP)—C. J. Haskell, 35, son of Oklahoma's first governor, shot and killed himself in his suite in a fashionable downtown hotel here early today. Justice of the Peace E. W. Stappenberg returned a verdict of suicide after holding an inquest and taking a statement from the dead man's wife.

Shortly after their return from an automobile ride with friends, Haskell obtained a pistol from a dresser drawer and walked into the bathroom of the suite, complaining of recent business reverses, his wife told the justice.

After hearing a shot fired, Mrs. Haskell rushed into the bath room to find her husband on the floor, a bullet in his heart, she testified.

Haskell was a son of ex-Governor C. N. Haskell of Oklahoma, who before being elected the Sooner state's first chief executive, helped W. H. Murray, present governor, frame the state's constitution.

Baylor Trustees Unable To Agree On New Prexy

Date Will Be Set Late Today for Another Session on Important Task.

WACO, Aug. 12 (AP)—Trustees of Baylor university failed again today to agree upon a successor to the late Dr. S. P. Brooks as president of the institution. When the board recessed at 1 p. m., it announced it would decide late today upon a date for a future meeting to consider the election of a president.

A brief announcement by the board said Dr. W. S. Allen, dean of the university, would continue as acting president. He had been serving in that capacity for some months, during the illness of Dr. Brooks, and when the board met June 27, it formally designated him as acting president. That meeting also failed in agreement upon a candidate for the presidency and a decision was postponed until today.

Commissioner John R. White is offering $25 reward for the arrest and conviction of a thief who stole his car from his farm near Lakeston.

The machine, a 1930 Ford coupe, cost him approximately 2,000 bushels of wheat, he said, and the more he thinks of that angle of it the sadder he gets. So he is willing to give 125 bushels of wheat to catch the thief. The car bore license number EI-6693. It had three new fenders and a small hole in the right side of the windshield.

Cuban Rebels Active

GROUPS ARE MOBILIZED IN THIS NATION

Destruction of Cuban Civic and National Resources Is Started; Both Sides Claim Victories.

HAVANA IS TENSE

Loyalist Troops Fight Off An Attempt to Blast Water Supply; Menocal Musters Insurgents.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12 (AP)—The Evening Public Ledger said today it was informed by Prudencio P. Trueba, Cuban architect, detained at the Gloucester immigration station, that revolutionary "juntas" have been holding meetings in the United States planning the overthrow of the Cuban government.

Trueba is one of several Cubans arrested at Atlantic City last week. Two others are being held with him on charges of overstaying their leave in this country.

Trueba intimated, the Ledger said, that hundreds of revolutionists have been secretly mobilized throughout this country and are awaiting instructions.

HAVANA, Aug. 12 (AP)—The revolutionary movement swung back toward Havana today as the insurgents turned their efforts to the destruction of natural resources.

The police said a group of rebels had attempted to blow up the water reservoir at Regla, just across the bay from the Capital, but were surprised and driven off by loyalist soldiers.

Tried to Fire Oil
Another band was said to have tried to fire the storage tank of the Shell Oil company in the suburb of Yucayo but fled under the hail of police bullets.

Government offices, confirmed dispatches from Pinar Del Rio province saying 14 rebels were killed and 14 wounded in sharp engagements last night with army forces.

In the Los Palacios section, it was said, a detachment, under Captain Rodolfo Chipi surprised rebels and slew four among them. General Francisco Peraza, 83-year-old veteran of three former revolutions, the Peraza family in Havana, however, denied he had been killed.

At Arremisa, near the town of Candelaria, three infantry units, supported by machine guns met revolutionaries headed by Celestino Balzan, former governor of Havana province, and killed nine and wounded 18, the interior department announced.

Army headquarters said one rebel was killed and one injured in skirmishing near Cienfuegos in Oriente province. Another exchange of fire, without casualties, was reported near Crances in Santa Clara.

Burn City Buildings
The rebels reported that a band of 300 supporters had invaded the city of Santa Clara Monday night, killed 30 federals, and taken 25 prisoners before retiring under fire. They also took over Vuelitas and burned the municipal and other buildings.

Reports filtering in from the interior said both sides had been victorious in clashes in a half dozen localities. Government troops were said to have taken 14 prisoners in skirmishes at Ranchuelo, Vinas and Sancti Spiritus. They captured six rebels at Arabas but suffered three wounded.

Insurgents cut telephone and telegraph lines at Guines, it was said, and carried off two prisoners. They captured the little town of Sierra Mema and began gathering part of their troops there. They were deploying their forces in several other districts according to reports.

Menocal Is Safe
Former President Menocal, reputed brains of the uprising, was still sought by the government and reports persisted that he had landed either in Oriente province or on the north coast, intending to marshal his forces for a decisive onslaught.

Oppositionist headquarters reported that four of the government's airplane pilots had gone over to the revolution and that seven others were under arrest because of their sympathies.

Havana itself was quiet but tense and awaiting news of progress of the revolt. Oriente province likewise was calm but soldiers were held in barracks. General Alberto Herrera, army chief of staff, said the situation was under control.

PRISONERS IN HUNGER RIOT

Stinnett and Berger Forces Finally Quell Anger of Desperate Men.

STINNETT, Aug. 12 (AP)—Thirteen prisoners who declared a hunger strike and rioted here last night in protest against county jail discipline were subdued today by the combined efforts of Stinnett and Berger police.

Pandemonium broke out in the jail when the prisoners smashed dishes and flooded the third and fourth floors of the courthouse with water. The water ran for more than an hour due to the fact that Jailer Jack Givens, who had the only keys to the cell block, was in Borger.

The hunger strike was begun yesterday morning in protest against officers removing papers and saw blades from the cells. Several attempts had been made recently to saw out of the jail and officers discovered the blades just in time to prevent another attempted delivery.

Dynamite Seized Near Dam Camp

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Aug. 12 (AP)—States Marshal Jake Fulmer today had in his possession a case of dynamite and a supply of caps, taken yesterday from a motorcar about to enter the government reservation in which is located Boulder City, base of operations for Hoover dam.

Although Fulmer and his aides seized the explosive to thwart any possible violence growing out of a shutdown of dam work because of the contractors refusal to accede to wage and working conditions demands of workmen, the men from whom the dynamite was taken said they planned to use it only in prospecting.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Aug. 12 (AP)—The American flier Parker Cramer and his radio operator, Oliver Paquette, missing since Sunday on a hop from the Shetland islands to Copenhagen, were practically given up for lost today but the search will continue for two days.

The Danish survey ship Island Falk, aided by two seaplanes, was extending its efforts over the whole of the western coast of Jutland in the hope the airman had come down in an isolated spot. Danish, Norwegian and British vessels combed the waters between the Skaw and the southern coast of Norway yesterday without avail.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 12 (AP)—Local backers of Pilot Parker D. Cramer, unreported for three days on a flight from the Shetland islands to Copenhagen, said today that whatever the outcome of his pioneering flight "we are proceeding

BOTH FACTIONS AGREE ON MEASURE WHICH CONTAINS ADMINISTRATION DETAILS

Proration of Production by Pools and Stiff Court Procedure for Those Attacking It Are Said By Senator Walter Woodward to Be Contained in Legislation Framed in Free Conference.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 12 (AP)—Assessing there is "such a thing as the state taking charge of pipeline economics," Governor W. H. Murray said today that if oil companies put into effect a boycott against Oklahoma oil "they'll catch more trouble than they ever caught in their lives."

They have started propaganda to scare me," Murray said. "I know they can't get all the oil they need out of the East Texas field. A New York trade journal gave that away. "Talk about boycott — I want to tell the big fellows right now that if they commence a boycott here, they'll catch more trouble than they ever caught in their lives. They'll find out they must uphold public policy."

Murray alleged those opposing him were attempting to work up sentiment to the point where he would abandon his office.

"I'm not through with what I'll do to them if they keep on," he said. "They thought I was bluffing when I said I would issue an executive order to close the oil fields."

"Oil companies attorneys will say that I can't take charge of the pipelines but there are several things that I don't want to do unless I have to. When I start I'll burn my bridges behind me."

Charles West, representative of the governor, who conferred with Governor Ross Sterling of Texas on oil conditions there, reported to Governor Murray that Sterling "at heart is with us."

West told the governor that it was his opinion if the people of Texas wanted the oil fields closed by martial law, Governor Sterling would order it.

Two oil bills died in the house, one on an adverse vote and another when the house refused to suspend the rules to permit consideration of senate bills on second reading on the last day of the session.

The bill killed would have strengthened the right of adjoining property owners to enjoin "unscientific and wasteful" development of leases and would have made it easier to obtain injunctions preventing drilling and drainage of under-ground pools permitted by any person financially interested in a lease to file an injunction suit, whether licensee, royalty owner or owner of the fee title to the land and was designed to eliminate waste and to prevent substantial injury to property values.

Kill Partner Plan
The bill that fell under the rules would have authorized formation of partnerships to build pipelines. It was hailed as a relief to the small independent who did not have enough money to construct his own lines and would have permitted him to join others in the line construction.

AUSTIN, Aug. 12 (AP)—A weary conference committee of the Texas legislature, trying to work out an agreement on a custom bill, recessed at 11:30 a. m. today until 2 p. m. with the announcement:

"We have reached a practical agreement."

Senator Tom Pollard, leader in the anti-administration group, said the bill's outline had been drawn and that the committee, when it resumed session, would "go over it and sign it."

Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman, representing the administration views on the committee, was not quite so optimistic.

"We have got together on the bill, but of course you never know you have a bill until it is signed. I think we will wind up this afternoon," said Woodward.

As had been expected since yesterday morning, when the committee began its job, nobody would say for publication what the bill contained. It had been learned, however, the views of Governor Ross Sterling had prevailed at least to the extent that proration of production, by pool, and strict bonding procedure for operators had been included.

The governor had threatened to declare martial law in the vast East Texas oil fields if the legislature failed to take steps necessary in his opinion.

AUSTIN, Minn. (AP)—The machine age also has its technique for bull fighting. When Robert Graves' bull broke loose Graves sent for Constable A. E. Jarvis with some idea of having the animal shot. Instead of drawing his gun, the constable mounted a truck and charged the bull for two hours, finally toppling it into a water trough. The bull quit.

Brothers Held As Killers of 4 Young Persons

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Aug. 12. (AP)—Armed with new clues provided by an autopsy, officers of two counties today pressed their inquiry into the murder of two young couples whose bodies were found early yesterday in a blazing automobile on a country road. At the same time two suspects, brothers living near the scene of the crime, were held.
The autopsy strengthened the belief of Sheriff Jacob B. Andres of Waukena county and other investigators that the party met death in a desperate resistance to an attack which had as its motive either robbery or an assault on the girls. Associates with Sheriff Andres in the inquiry were state police and officers of Wayne county (Detroit) since the crime was committed on a road which separates the two counties.

University of Michigan pathologists who examined the badly charred bodies, reported that Harry Lore, 16, of Ypsilanti, one of the victims, had been shot to death. The other three, Thomas Wheatley, 17, a farm youth of the neighborhood; Vivian Gold, 15, and Anna May Harrison, of Cleveland, they found, were beaten to death or into insensibility before the bodies were placed in Lore's car, their clothing saturated with gasoline and the automobile set afire.

Lore and Miss Gold were cousins, and the two girls had been visiting in the Lore home. The couples were last seen alive about 8 p. m. Monday in Ypsilanti, a few miles from the place where the bodies were found nine hours later by a farmer who was aroused by the fire.
The suspects in custody are Paul Keenic, 40, and Lawrence Keenic, 38, who live in a shack on wheels. They were arrested when officers saw them washing clothing and scraping hickory clubs. Stains on the clubs and on garments found in the shack were ordered examined. A preliminary report said that there was blood on one of the clubs, but it was not determined whether it was human blood. Both brothers denied connection with the crime.

America Second In Gas Imports

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. (AP)—The United States is still the world's gasoline trade leader.
However, other countries are making inroads as indicated by commerce department reports today showing American exports of 63,195,331 barrels in 1930. This was only 49 per cent of the world trade as against 72 per cent in 1924.
A study of the 10-year period showed the Netherlands East Indies to rank second as a gasoline exporter. In 1930 its share of the total international trade reached 13 per cent as against 0.5 per cent in 1921. Russia, Persia, and Rumania also showed marked gains in exports during recent years.
The United Kingdom is the largest importer of gasoline, the United States second. Virtually all of the United States imports come from the Netherlands East Indies.

RELIEF PLANS MORE VARIED

Administration Leaders and Foes Disagree on Methods of Helping Farmers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. (AP)—The distress of the agricultural industry has revived old and brought new farm relief proposals to the attention of official Washington.

Bumper crops, existing surpluses, low prices, lack of demand and markets, scarcity of credit, mortgages, and unpaid bills, drought, and grasshoppers have increased the farmer's problem.

With congress convening in December and a presidential election next year, the situation grows more complex as debate revolving around the farm board, stimulates discussions on the equalization fee and the export debenture plans and price freezing propositions.

The American Farm Bureau federation yesterday termed present farm legislation inadequate and reaffirmed its faith in the equalization fee. In contrast, the national grange is again advocating the export debenture. Representatives of both national known farm organizations have said adoption of these plans will be urged in the next congress.

Senator Nye, republican, North Dakota, wants the government to engage in a program of price fixing for two or three years, and has recommended a debt holiday for farmers. Somewhat the same thought is held by Rep. Wright Patman, democrat, Texas, who urged President Hoover to call a special session to set a minimum price on principal agricultural commodities and crude oil.

Patman believes the minimum on cotton should be 20 cents a pound; wheat $1 a bushel; corn $1 a bushel, and oil $1 or more a barrel.

At present the index of farm prices is at its lowest point since the agriculture department began keeping charts. Southwestern farmers were aroused when the farm board refused to withhold stabilization wheat from domestic markets and now southern cotton planters oppose any possible sale of the board's stabilization cotton to Germany.

President Hoover is on record against the export debenture but has not stated his views on the equalization fee. Calvin Coolidge, however, twice vetoed a bill containing latter provision.

Calling attention to Cramer's "well-known resourcefulness," Thompson said it was difficult to believe that after he had successfully survived the longest and most difficult section of the survey route, he and Paquette should have encountered trouble on the final and easiest leg. Thompson added that, "their present difficulties should not reflect upon their achievement but only demonstrate the importance of establishing service and meteorological bases at 500-mile intervals along the route as planned."

Industries Face Many Changes—Jobs Are Altered

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. (AP)—The phase of the unemployment situation that is causing President Hoover more than any other is that comes under the label of "permanent."

The business depression has demonstrated to industry that many employes and types of activities heretofore considered absolutely necessary can be eliminated without impairment of efficiency. In some cases, the reduction of overhead and labor expense has increased efficiency.

To add to the problem the president's special committee on unemployment has found, most of those in this category, who have been laid off, are high type employes doing special work. They are therefore difficult for employment agencies to place.

A revival of business, government experts note, will result in an immediate pickup in employment in most industries. Other industries, however, are expected to remain at their present low level indefinitely. They are industries that have suffered a gradual business decline because substitutes for their basic products have captured the buying public's fancy. Permanent unemployment undoubtedly will come from such sources.

Heretofore after depressions new new industries have sprung up to absorb labor and raw material surpluses. The development of the radio and airplane industries, the president hopes will, with other new businesses, go far toward relieving trade and commerce. Among new businesses he expects those developing new types of heating plants which also can be used in the summer for regulating the humidity and high temperatures by producing cold air to help.

ATHLETICS' "SUBSTITUTES" ARE SHOWING MUCH ABILITY

CONNIE MACK WILL REBUILD HIS MACHINE

Crippled Outfit Goes Right On Winning Despite Line-up Changes.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

Every so often during the fanning bees this season, the word has gone out that Connie Mack is about ready to break up his current baseball machine and start building a new team of Athletics for the purpose of winning future pennants. He did it once, and those who believe the present Philadelphia team is nearing the end of the championship road are willing to believe that Mack will repeat that startling experiment.

But the Athletics lineup for the past three weeks indicates that Mack will not have such a long, hard pull in rebuilding his team if he does decide to make important changes before next year. For about three weeks the A's have been theoretically crippled. Joe Boley and Jimmy Dykes have been out of action most of the time and a third infield regular, Max Bishop, has missed a good many games. Added to that, Mule Haas was hurt, putting a serious kink in the outfield. In that three weeks, however, the Athletics have won 15 games and lost seven, proving that Mack has some substitutes who can go along winning games in the accepted athletic manner. Dibs Williams and Eric McNair have served well in the infield and Jimmy Fox has been able to move over to third when it was required while Roger Cramer is showing up well in the outfield.

The trio of "substitutes" was in behind Lefty Grove yesterday and helped produce an 8 to 1 victory over the Detroit Tigers in the first game of the new western tour.

Fred "Firpo" Marberry, second ranking pitcher of the American league, kept Washington in its customary place behind the Athletics by shutting out the Chicago White Sox, 3-0. Marberry allowed only three singles.

Danny MacFayden of the Boston Red Sox came out ahead in yesterday's other major league game, getting a 4 to 3 decision over the St. Louis Browns.

New York and Cleveland in the American league and all three games on the National league schedule were rained out.

Tammany Leader Called To Stand

NEW YORK, Aug. 12. (AP)—John F. Curry, leader of Tammany Hall, is to be a witness at a public hearing before the state legislative committee investigating the New York City government.

Mr. Curry will be asked by Samuel Seabury, counsel for the committee, to explain a telephone call made from his New York apartment three weeks ago to Lake Placid, N. Y., where appellate division justice Henry L. Sherman has a summer home. On the day after the telephone call, Justice Sherman signed a stay of execution for William F. Doyle, veterinarian, who had been sentenced to serve 30 days in jail for refusing to tell the committee with whom he split fees for appearances before the city board of standards and appeals in regard to enforcement of building regulations.

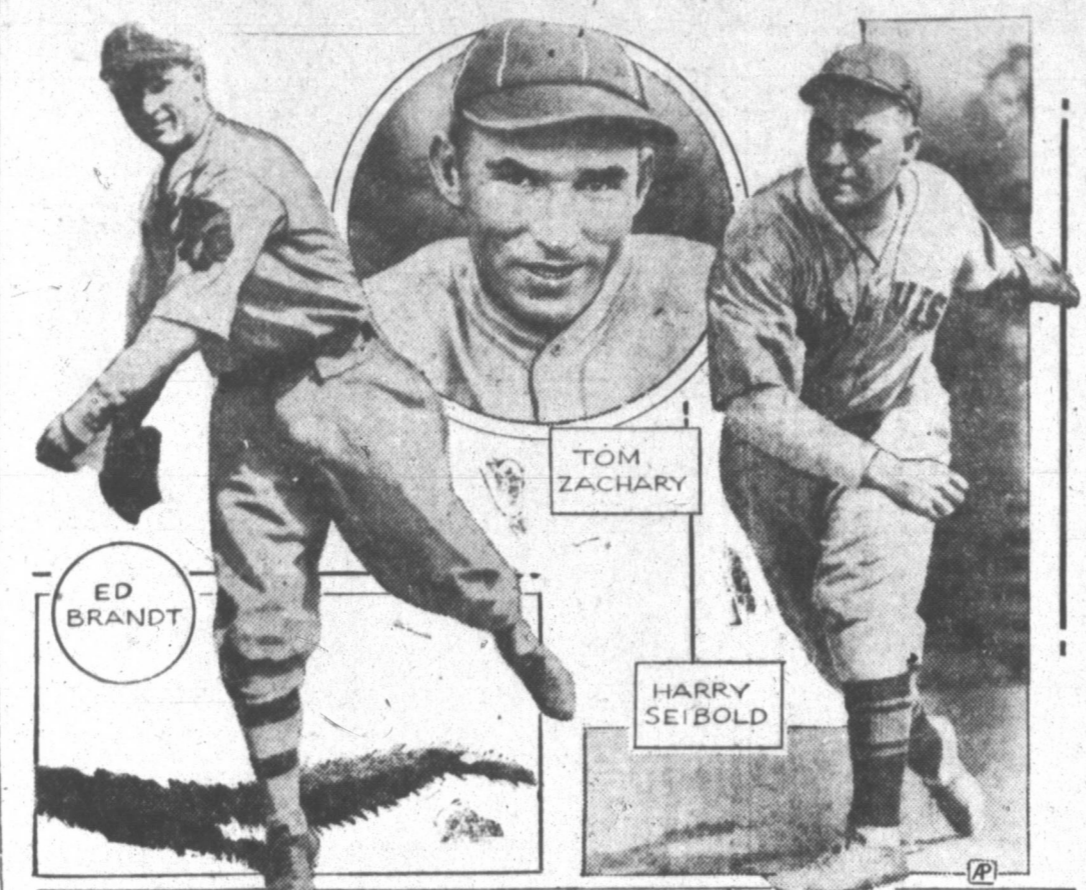

The court of appeals Monday upheld the sentence imposed on Doyle and yesterday he started court proceedings to compel Seabury to give him a chance to purge himself of contempt. Seabury desires to question Curry before he again examines Doyle.

IDaho GRID TEAM DEMANDS QUARTERBACKS IN QUANTITY

MOSCOW, Idaho, Aug. 12. (AP)—Six candidates for quarterback will be available at Idaho at the start of the football campaign. Coach Leo Calland's system calls for quarterbacks in plenty.

Calland demands a versatile quarter, one who can kick, pass, and run. An Idaho quarter carries the ball just about four times as much as the average quarter, which requires manpower.

FEAST OR FAMINE FATE OF BRAVES THIS SEASON AS CLUB PACES LEAGUE IN SHUTOUT CONTESTS

Members of the Boston Braves pitching staff shown above have turned in six shutout victories already this year. Three went to Harry "Socks" Seibold, right-hander, two to Tom Zachary, veteran southpaw, and one to Big Ed Brandt, also a left-hander.

Associated Press Sports Writer.
 NEW YORK. (AP)—Evidence more concrete than statements of the various moguls is on hand to show that the National league's version of the 1931 baseball is bringing a return of the old-fashioned pitching duels.

Bill McKechnie's hustling Boston Braves are exhibit A. A short time ago the Braves had engaged in no fewer than 18 games in which either their war paint was daubed with white-wash or their hurlers tommynawked the foes without permitting a score. Eight of the shutouts went to the Braves, and ten against.

At that stage in the race a total of 44 shutout games had been registered in the National league, with the Boston club just a few games short of being a party to half of them.

The league figure practically doubled the number of shutouts which pitchers in the circuit had turned at the same time last year, which indicates as clearly as the decline in hitting of such eminent sluggers as Frankie Frisch, Paul Waner and Bill Terry that there is more on that ball coming up to the plate this year.

In the matter of pinching the opponent runs down to zero, Harry "Socks" Seibold, veteran right-hander, paced the staff. "Socks" had three shutouts, one each plastered against the powerful New York Giants and champion St. Louis Cardinals. His other was at the expense of Philadelphia's collection of free swingers.

Next in line was Tom Zachary, southpaw formerly with Washington and the New York Yankees, who annually flabbergasts the experts who set him down as "washed up." Zach had blanked both the Brooklyn Robins and the Pittsburgh Pirates. Each game was won 4-0.

Three other shutout victories were divided among as many members of the staff. Big Ed Brandt, left-handed his way to a 2-0 victory over the Giants; Bruce Cunningham, right-hander, trimmed Cincinnati by the same score, and Ben Cantwell, also a right-hander, got the nod in a close 1-0 game with the

Indian Baseball Team Will Have Tents Pitched in Native Style

The Indian team coming to Pampa Thursday for a game with the Pampa Oilers at Gulf diamond south of the city are in charge of two notables, Yellowhorse, formerly with the Pittsburgh Pirates, and John Levi, former All-American fullback with the Haskell Indians.

The Indians are traveling native style, and will pitch their tents on a vacant lot at 230 East T. street. The ball game will start at 3:30 o'clock, following a war dance by the Redskins at 3. They will wear typical regalia. A modern Indian dance will be another feature.

Batteries for the Oilers will be either Lefty Dillon of Phillips-Borg-er, or L. E. Ellis, or perhaps Mitch Bowers of Pawhuska, with Cady behind the bat.

Joan Bennett Must Learn To Walk As Result Of Injury

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Aug. 12. (AP) Joan Bennett, screen actress, must learn to walk again.

The screen player, now a hospital patient as the result of being thrown from a horse during the filming of a motion picture two weeks ago, is suffering from a fractured hip and spine injury. Her physician said the latter injury will make it necessary for her to learn how to walk again, but that she will suffer no permanent disability.

Miss Bennett, a sister of Constance and Barbara Bennett of the films, probably will be in the hospital for at least eight more weeks.

McCABE NEAR HIS MARK OF 20 VICTORIES

Fort Worth Hurler Beats Dallas 1 to 0; His Ninth-tenth Victory.

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Pitching one-hit baseball, Dick McCabe of Fort Worth turned in his 19th victory of the season last night by defeating Dallas 1 to 0. With last night's triumph, McCabe gives promise of being another Texas league pitcher to win 20 games this year. "Dizzy" Dean and George Washington Payne, both of Houston, have won 22 and 20, respectively, and Tex Carleton of the same club now has 19. McCabe pitched a superb ball game, but not much superior to the one turned in by Grady Adkins of the Steers, who pitched Fort Worth to seven hits and runs less until the winning run in the last of the seventh. Kelly, utility infielder, spoiled McCabe's bid for a no-run and no-hit game with Dallas' only hit. Only 39 batters faced McCabe. He fanned four and walked one.

Shortstop Scharein of Wichita Falls had a bad night against Shreveport. His three errors in a row in the fourth inning gave Shreveport four runs and a 5 to 2 verdict. Three of Shreveport's five runs were the result of errors. Lefty Erickson turned in his 11th victory this year for Shreveport.

At Houston it was the same old song for the Buffaloes who won their 11th straight game by beating Galveston 1 to 0, 11 innings. Pistol Pete Fawcett pitched 10 of the 11 innings and not a Buccaneer reached second base. He went out in the last of the 10th inning for a pinch hitter. Tex Carleton finished the game and received credit for the victory, giving him his 19th this season.

The San Antonio Indians were presented with a 6 to 5 decision over Beaumont when Hollerson and Lorbeer, Beaumont battery, engaged in a wild throwing exhibition. With the score tied, Hollerson and Lorbeer made wild throws that allowed the Indians to take the lead. The Tribe was leading 5 to 2 when Beaumont got to Chief Moore for four hits and three runs in the eighth to tie, then came the wild throw in San Antonio's half of the eighth.

Polo's Growth in England Rapid

LONDON, Aug. 12. (AP)—Polo, rounding out its sixty-second year in England, has become one of the most popular of British sports.

Introduced by the Tenth Hussars from India in 1869, the game has come to draw thousands to the three principal clubs—Hurlingham, Ranelagh, and Roehampton—on the days when match play is in progress.

Those attending are principally members of British society sets, but decision of the clubs during the past few seasons to admit the general public under form of combination invitation and ticket selling has increased attendance many fold. Some Americans come over year after year to play at the British clubs, notable among them being Laddie Sanford, who enters his team, the "Hurricanes," in match play, usually with considerable success, before returning across the Atlantic for the later American season.

The members of the international squads sent to America from time to time lead the parade of players here, among them Captain "Pat" Roark, Adrian Roark, Gerald Bolding, and Eric Tyrrell-Martin. Former King Alfonso of Spain and former King Manuel of Portugal are often on the sidelines and sometimes take mallets and maul the willow root ball around a bit. Hurlingham is enjoying its fifty-fourth season at polo, Ranelagh its forty-ninth, and Roehampton its twenty-sixth.

Harness Races To Be Held Today

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 12. (AP)—Weather permitting, six of the country's fastest three-year-old trotters will face the starter this afternoon in the $60,000 Hambletonian stake.

The stake, richest of all American harness horse events, calls for competition in three one-mile heats. The first heat was scheduled for 1 p. m. (C.S.T.).

The outstanding favorite was W. H. Cane's Nedda Guy, 2:03 3/4.

HUGE CROWD TO WITNESS SERIES TILT

Win for Houston Would Cinch Title of First Half of Season.

HOUSTON, Aug. 12. (AP)—Houston and Beaumont, who tied for the first half Texas league pennant, will engage in their fourth game of the play-off series here tonight. Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, who has won 22 and lost 6 for Houston this season, will be on the mound for the Buffaloes. Whitlow John Wyatt, who has 5 victories and 1 defeat since joining Beaumont several weeks ago, will twirl for the Exporters. A crowd of 18,000 was expected to see the crucial game.

In the first three games of the series, Houston won the first, tied the second and won the third. If Houston triumphs tonight, it will give the Buffaloes three out of five games and the first half pennant. Should they fall, the fifth game of the series will be played tomorrow.

Houston is far in front in the second-half race.

Dr. Cutten, elected late yesterday at the council's national conference here, succeeds Francis S. Harmon, editor of the Hattiesburg, Miss., American.

Resolutions were adopted at the closing session urging all associations of the Y. M. C. A. to give full participation to all races and nationalities, and calling for observance of the liquor laws.

THE GREATEST VALUE EVER BUILT INTO A FORD CAR

The Beautiful Ford Tudor Sedan

(F. O. B. Detroit, plus freight and delivery. Bumpers and spare tire extra at low cost.)

WHEN you buy a Ford car today, you buy what is unquestionably the greatest value in the history of the Ford Motor Company. Never before has so much beauty, comfort, safety and performance been offered at such a low price.

The low price of the Ford is something to think about because it means an immediate saving of many dollars — always an important consideration. But far more significant than price alone is what you get for that price. When high quality is combined with low price, you may justly take pride in having found a most satisfactory purchase.

See the Ford — ride in it — learn something about the value that is built into every part. The more you know about it, the more certain you will be that it is the car for you. It is literally true that when you "get the facts you will get a Ford."

Lindberghs Are Eager to Continue On Long Flight

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 12. (AP)—Facing the most hazardous part of their 7,000-mile flight to the Orient, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his wife today prepared for a 1,987-mile hop across the foggy waters of the Bering sea.

The flying couple brought their pontooned monoplane down at Safety bay, 21 miles east of here, at 3:40 p. m. CST, yesterday after a 100-mile flight from Shishmaref, of Kotzebue sound, where they were forced down by fog late Monday night on their Point Barrow-Nome hop.

Colonel Lindbergh said he expected to remain in Nome today and tonight, and that, weather permitting, he would continue to Karasinsk, Siberia, tomorrow morning.

Extensive plans for entertaining the couple were made here after they had a long sleep.

Having Good Time

"We are enjoying ourselves immensely," was the frequently repeated reply of Lindbergh and his diminutive wife to their many admirers.

Before retiring last night, Lindbergh told his hosts, Grant R. Jackson, the banker, and his wife, that they must be on their way by Thursday.

The waters of the Bering sea were too rough for a safe landing at Nome yesterday and a radio message had been sent to Mrs. Lindbergh that the Nome river was a safe landing place.

While throngs on the ground and automobiles headed for the river, the plane circled several times and then sped to the east. A photographer's plane, already in the air, followed him and was the first to reach his landing place.

Meanwhile, a reception committee, made up of a group of business men, got into automobiles and raced away along the highway to the bay. In a short time, the flying pair moored their plane and came ashore, with the "official" reception held on the sandy beach.

Welcomed by Squaw

First taken to a roadhouse there, a full-blooded Indian squaw, Jenny Dalquist, greeted the couple.

The building was the one in which the first radio in Alaska was set by Marconi in 1901, but there is no radio there now.

Over the telephone to Nome, Lindbergh talked to newspapermen who called for him.

"We are feeling fine," he said, "and wish you folks all the regards in the world."

Within a short time, the reception committee started for Nome by motorcar with the famous flier and his wife.

During the day, the weather had cleared, after the storm of last week and the fog of last night, and the Lindberghs and their hosts, laughing and waving their hands, the two rode through the streets

Anne Will Have Few Frills in Orient

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. (AP)—In the same small silken cap, Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh will appear for all her fashionable calls in oriental cities this summer.

To keep a very-light wardrobe in repair she has been allotted but one spool of thread, one needle.

So goes the chat among those who know the Lindberghs. The rule of trimming down to absolute essentials is said to have been laid by that expert organizer of the over-seas air trip, Colonel Lindbergh himself.

The lead carried must be useful, he knows, for the route he has selected is more than 7,000 miles long, and some of it may call for all engine and plane can deliver.

To the air wardrobe he applies his title of "Slim." Even the small silken cap may have been a concession to woman ways.

He often appears bareheaded for his calls on dignitaries.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh will thus establish a costume record unique among young couples going goodwilling about the world.

Through Prince and Princess Takamatsu of Japan, east graciously greeted west with the most elaborate of Parisian wardrobes.

The princess wore a different hat, a different gown every time she appeared. The hats were filmy picture things, gossamer frames for a face pretty and smiling.

Through Anne Lindbergh, west will greet east with a smile just as winning and warming — and the saucy little cap above the smile will be of silk, the material of which ever has been particular pride of the Orient.

AP—Anne Lindbergh, co-pilot of her husband's flight to the Orient, will wear the same silken cap on her calls there.

A seven-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Scheif at Pampa hospital this morning.

LEGISLATURE

view to curb over-production and waste there.

The committee had the administration house bill and the substitute senate bill before it. The first contained the proration and bonding features; the latter contained neither. No official source would claim for the administration a victory in the conference but Senator Woodward was authority for the statement the proration and bonding administration features had been admitted to the bill.

Rest Mark Time

As the committee, shut up in its little room, went forward with its seemingly interminable barter and dicker and discussion, the rest of the legislature was, in effect, marking time. The house remained rather regularly in session, passing on routine matters, but the senate, save for the fact that it came to order now and then to pass a resolution or the like, was up with its routine work and frankly wished for the report of the committee.

The committee worked all day yesterday and until nearly midnight last night. It returned this morning and resumed its labors.

The executive department, meanwhile, sawed its own wood, the governor allowing his martial law intimation to stand as it was.

The customary felicitations of a last legislative day relieved frayed nerves to some extent and subjects that a week ago would have brought forth a thunderstorm of debate were received with what amounted to a yawn.

AUSTIN, Aug. 12. (AP)—The senate state affairs committee today killed a house bill to levy a graduated tax on oil producers.

Senator Artie Parr of Benavides gave notice of a minority report. This was the last day of the session, however, and any fight which Parr might make was accorded little chance of success.

The tax would have been one-cent a barrel on wells of five barrels daily or less, increasing to six cents on producers of more than 1,000 barrels.

The present tax is 2 per cent of the value of the oil. Governor Ross Sterling recommended that it be made two cents a barrel but his advice was not heeded.

The committee shortly afterward reported favorably the house bill proposing a ten-cent per pound tax on clean gasoline. The tax, however, had little or no chance, due to the late hour.

AUSTIN, Aug. 12. (AP)—Charges against J. B. Price of Bastrop, judge of the 21st district court, will be read in the house of representatives at 4 p. m. today. Both sides have announced ready for trial.

Speaker Fred Minor announced no witnesses would be called today and that the actual trial would not be started before tomorrow morning.

Judge Price is charged with negligence and incompetency in official actions. The charges preferred against him by a legislative committee allege he approved claims of sheriffs of his district for unlawful and exorbitant fees and mileage. The charges do not involve moral turpitude and Judge Price is accused only of negligence and incompetency.

He will be defended by Judge R. L. Batts, chairman of the board of regents of the University of Texas, Paul Page Sr., former state senator, and a battery of legal talent. House prosecutors will be Representatives Harry N. Graves of Georgetown and Alfred Petsch of Fredericksburg.

Charges were filed in the house against Judge Price as the result of disclosures made by the senate committee investigating fee claims of sheriffs and county and district officials.

UNION LEADER, and Theodore T. Ellis, of Worcester, Mass., manufacturer and former publisher of the Worcester TELEGRAM-GAZETTE.

CAPTAIN'S WIFE HURT

GALVESTON, Aug. 12. (AP)—An explosion of a gasoline stove aboard the yacht Tawmie, at the Galveston dock today, critically burned Mrs. Charles Quic, wife of the captain. The yacht, which is operated by a group of Oklahoma City men, was not damaged by the blast.

before going to the Jackson home. On arriving there a lane was made to the door but Eskimo tots and white children alike broke through to surround the pair, seeking to touch them.

While enthusiastic throngs waited outside, the two retired to take baths and prepare for an Alaskan supper.

Rested and refreshed, they reappeared later and dined with the reception committee.

HERE ARE PROBLEMS FOR YOU

Governmental structures based upon the needs of a frontier day are not surprisingly inadequate in this day of complex problems of every description.

Legislators of a few decades ago did little more than debate over the railroads, the liquor evil, and cattle rustling. There were brilliant minds in those days, but the state was young and its problems were relatively scarce.

Similarly have national issues multiplied in gravity and number with the passing of time. The National Economic League, says the Tulsa TRIBUNE, recently sent out a questionnaire to learn what the American people were thinking about. The answers are called "Paramount Problems for 1931." How many solutions have you for those problems, which we list herewith?

- Prohibition.
- Administration of Justice.
- Lawlessness, disrespect for law.
- Unemployment, Economic stabilization.
- Law enforcement.
- Crime.
- World court.
- Taxation.
- World Peace.
- Efficient democratic government.
- Agriculture, farm relief.
- Political corruption.
- Tariff.
- Reconsideration of war debts.
- Government in business.
- International economic relations.
- Foreign trade policy.
- Reduction of armaments.
- Socialism, communism.
- League of Nations.
- Conservation of natural resources.
- Law revision, federal and state.
- Revision of anti-trust laws.
- Education.
- Centralization of money and power.
- Child welfare.
- Co-operation vs. competition.
- Moral and ethical standards.
- State rights.
- Individual liberty.
- Election laws.
- Old-Age pensions and insurance.
- Immigration.
- Russia.
- Motor traffic regulation.
- Consolidation and mergers.
- Citizenship.
- Labor and capital relations.
- Social and economic readjustment.
- Public utilities.
- Railroads.
- Stabilization of the value of money.
- Thrift, extravagance.
- Finance, currency, credit.
- Group banking.
- National defense.
- Penology, prison reform.
- Freedom of speech and press.
- Speculation in stocks.
- Public health.
- Marriage and Divorce.
- Eugenics.
- Industrialism and agriculture.
- Government policies.

In reading this list, note the large number of problems which are essentially of this century—questions which result from sensational expansion, invention, and progress of science, business, and social relations. So complex a civilization obviously cannot be adequately controlled by the machinery of another period. More and more has it become apparent that state legislatures need nearly full time to keep up with their lawmaking and law-killing. How to make this constant attention to state affairs possible without exorbitant expense and without taking government too far from the will of the people is a problem transcending most of the other ones. The legislator's task is no easy one.

FUTILITY OF FORCE

Men will probably be talking about the lessons taught by the world war for a good many years. But Newton D. Baker the other day expressed the matter in his convocation address at the Williamstown Institute of Politics about as well as any one ever will.

"The first great revelation of the world war," said Mr. Baker, "was that the strongest nation, under modern convictions, dies like a bee, when it uses its sting. The second great revelation of the world war was undoubtedly the universality of the disaster."

And the second point Mr. Baker amplified as follows: "The song of the victor, as he contemplated his victim sitting in the ashes of desolation, died in his throat when he remembered the cost of his victory. . . . There were too many widows' weeds mingled with the torch bearers in the victory parade, too many 'mutilies' seeking limited re-admission to factories and workshops, particularly there was too much dislocation in the processes of international industry and finance to permit any nation to feel itself safe from an overwhelming share in the common disaster."

Intelligent men have been saying precisely these things ever since the armistice. Except that he has put it much more forcefully, Mr. Baker has said nothing new. But the amazing thing is that we seem to be unable to shape our policies in accordance with these very evident truths.

Every one admits that war is about as costly to the victor as the vanquished—but every nation keeps right on preparing for future wars. Fleets, armies and air forces continue to grow; admirals and generals continue to talk about "security"; congresses and parliaments continue to insist on "adequate defense"—and these mocking truths continue to be ignored.

Our big task today is to understand that the old use of force in international affairs simply doesn't work any longer. When we once make ourselves realize, with Mr. Baker that "the strongest nation dies, like the bee, when it uses its 'sting,' disarmament schemes can be expected to go forward rapidly—Wichita Falls Record-News.

Federal Judge Raps Prorations As it is Enforced

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 12. (AP)—Federal Judge Franklin E. Kennamer, in his dissenting opinion as one of the three judges presiding in the Champlin Refining case, has held that the Oklahoma legislature exceeded its authority in passing the prorations laws, termed the statute a price-fixing measure, and contended it violates the fourteenth amendment of the federal constitution.

The oil regulation tactics of Governor Murray and the state corporation commission were assailed by Judge Kennamer in his opinion, which was filed yesterday. He held that the "consuming public is entitled to purchase oil on markets free from control of monopoly and where fair competition prevails." He defended the state's rights to prevent waste, but added the state exceeded its authority when "under the pretense of preventing waste, it attempts to regulate market demands."

Rum Runner Is Robbed of Load

DALLAS, Aug. 12. (AP)—A rum runner told police today of being robbed of a $5,000 truck load of fancy liquors by hijackers as he drove into Dallas from New Orleans last night.

He was found wandering in a field south of Dallas in a dazed condition. His head was badly beaten and his clothes torn to shreds. The hijackers halted him and his partner on the outskirts of Dallas, beat them with pistols and chased them into a field. Residents of the neighborhood heard the disturbance and called police.

Co-Op Executives Hit By Legislator In House Today

AUSTIN, Aug. 12. (AP)—Charges of misfeasance, malfeasance, deceit, deception and incompetency against Lynn Stokes, president, and Harry Williams, secretary-treasurer and general manager of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association were made before the house of representatives today by Representative Lawrence Westbrook of Waco. In a prepared statement read to the house Westbrook also charged Williams, cotton member of the federal farm board, with failure to carry out the provisions of the agricultural marketing act.

"He (Carl Williams) has pursued a policy of deceit and subterfuge in carrying out the duties of his high office, leaving the affairs of the cooperatives in the hands of the gang of agricultural racketeers who got him his job, and he ought to be impeached and removed. He undoubtedly will be when congress meets in December," the statement charged.

They've Fulfilled "Contract"

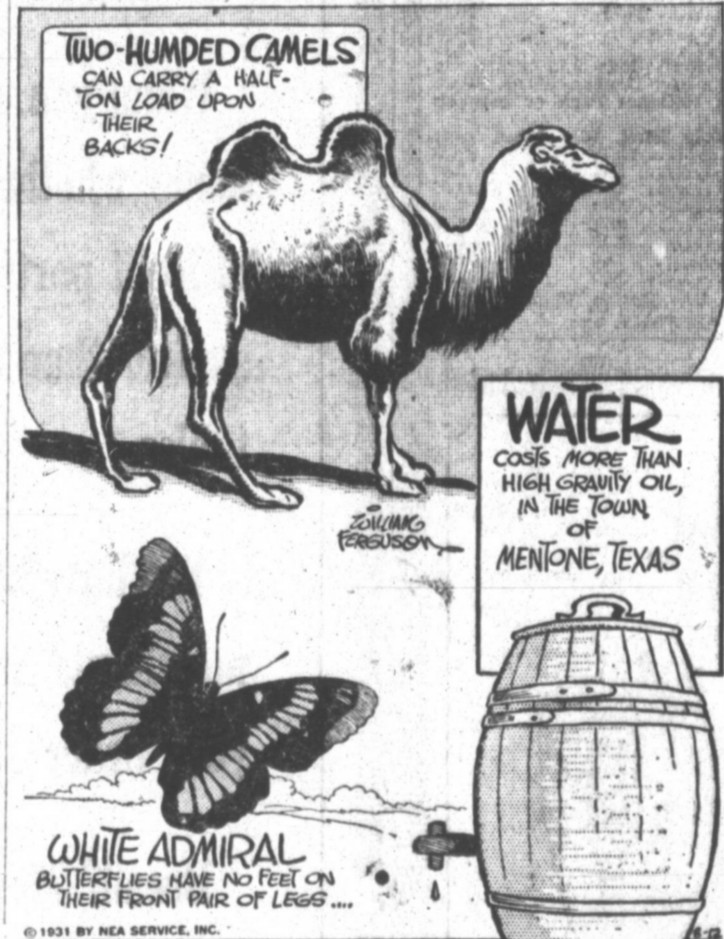

Remember that "contract marriage" of two years ago, when William Kenneth Moyer and Ethel Oen signed an agreement that they would be free to divorce each other unless a male child were born to them? Well, here's the Moyer family today, well and happy at their Souderton, Pa., home, with Billy Jr.—born a year ago—enjoying a sunbath. Moyer is earning his livelihood by digging ditches in daytime and writing at night.

A Day in Court

The ball was coming back over the net from Betty Nuthall's racket and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody—her back turned to the camera—was getting set for the return volley when this action picture was taken during a Wightman Cup doubles match at Forest Hills, Long Island. Mrs. Moody and Mrs. L. A. Harper lost the match, 4-6, 5-7, 6-3, to Miss Nuthall and Mrs. Eileen Wittingsall of England.

MOON of DELIGHT by Margaret Bell Houston

SYNOPSIS: Juanita Basara is not engaged to a Spaniard, as the marquisa has told Madame Fauche and Nelly Belaise. But Nelly is surprised when her grandson, Kirk, tells her that he is to marry Juanita, whom they know as Senorita Flores—guest in Nelly's Biloxi home. It is no coincidence that she has taken place in the New Orleans homes where the marquisa and Juanita have visited, but the girl knows nothing of the marquisa's complicity. Nevertheless, Juanita has a confession to make to Kirk. He is awaiting her in the library when Adrian Fauche, another admirer, tells him she is engaged to a nobleman. Adrian's presence prevents her keeping the appointment, and as they start for Adrian's party, Kirk senses that she is glad of it.

Murray's Promise To Release Dollar Crude Discussed

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 12 (AP)—An indirect promise of Governor Murray that he would permit any oil company in Oklahoma to open its wells "if they would get the $1 a barrel for oil" had operators talking today.

"If Champlin will give $1 a barrel for oil they can open up alone," the governor said. He had been advised the Champlin Refining company had purchased East Texas crude in the face of the Oklahoma executive's order shutting down wells under martial law.

The effect of a compromise with one company, some operators said, might be regarded as devastating to the shutdown program. Others indicated they would protest opening of Champlin wells in the Oklahoma city field as the company, according to Otto Bradford, proration field umpire, is overproducing 436,101 barrels a day.

Champlin officials had not commented on the Murray statement. Cushing Gasoline and Refining company has offered $1 a barrel for crude from properties of the Blackwell Oil and Gas company and the Texas Crude Refining company. The companies are affiliated and the governor was told that purchase of oil at the $1 price in some instances would amount to little more than "higher prices on the books."

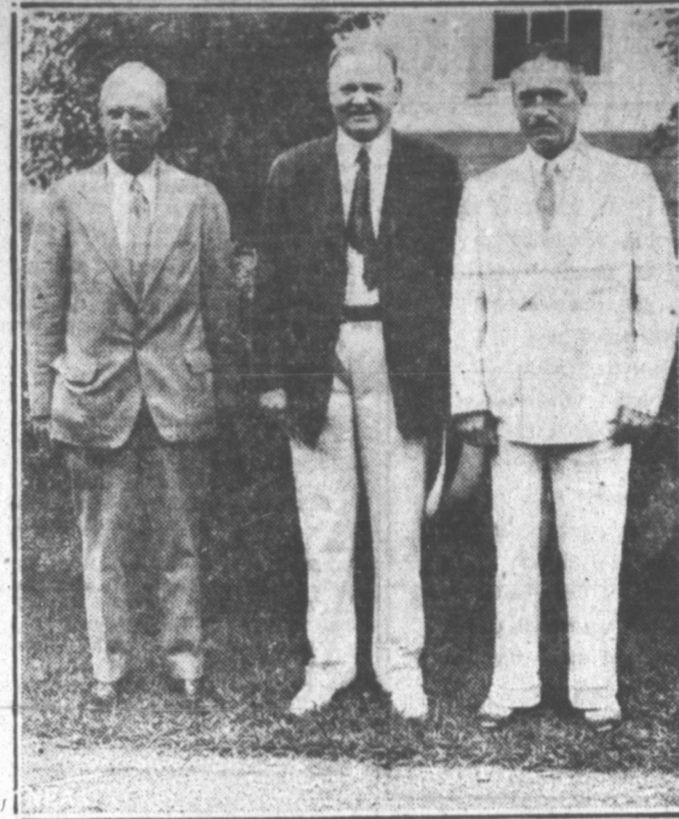

At the request of Oklahoma referees, the southwest freight bureau at St. Louis has petitioned the interstate commerce commission for a reduced rate on petroleum from East Texas to this state. An emergency is claimed. The proposed rate is 16-1/2 cents for 100 pounds or 51-1/4 cents per barrel. This compares with the Frisco, Texas and Pacific rate of 24 cents per 100 pounds from Oklahoma City and the Cotton Belt-Frisco 18-cent rate from Tyler to Tulsa.

MANY INJURED LORAIN, O., Aug. 11 (AP)—A number of persons were reported injured and numerous summer cottages demolished when a heavy windstorm of near tornado force struck Sheffield Lake village, five miles east of here on Lake Erie, tonight. Two persons were brought to a Lorain hospital, but several ambulances were unable to get through high water caused by a near cloudburst which accompanied the wind.

EDUCATOR RESIGNS FORT WORTH, Aug. 11 (AP)—After 16 years as superintendent of the public schools here, M. H. Moore resigned today.

The veteran educator, in a letter to the school board, requested a leave of absence for the next school year and asked that when a successor is chosen, the letter be regarded as his resignation. Deputy Superintendent W. M. Green was advanced to the position of acting superintendent.

BROWNS LIKELY TO SIGN SON OF FORMER PITCHER

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12 (AP)—Jim Fowell, 19-year-old son of "Bollermaker Jack" Fowell, before long may be half of a Brownie battery, just like his dad.

Jack was a pitcher, however, while Jim works behind the plate. The youngster got his chance when Catcher Rick Ferrell's injury left the Browns short of backstops. During the team's eastern trip Jim warmed up Brownie pitchers and found such favor with Manager Ell Killefer, who used to be a catcher himself, that he probably will be signed and sent to a minor league club for development.

GREAT LAKES BOAT TRAVEL REMAINS IN BRISK STATE

CHICAGO, Aug. 12 (AP)—If there is a depression, Great Lakes boat lines aren't aware of it—at least not at their Chicago ports.

Passenger vessels plying the lake routes are carrying larger numbers of passengers than ever, reports show. Between 5,000 and 10,000 persons depart daily from Chicago for other ports on the Great Lakes, while "moonlight cruises" on excursion boats and evening spins in speed-boat taxis are more popular than ever.

Boat officials attribute the increase in business to the attractiveness of "rail and water" combination tours.

PETROLEUM STATISTICS OF EXPERT ARE ENCOURAGING

Decline in Exports Furnish Only Disturbing Factor Seen by U. S. Refiners.

BY BENNETT WOLFE
Associated Press Staff Writer
TULSA, Okla., Aug. 12. (AP)—The petroleum industry was offered a morsel of comfort today in a survey of gasoline statistics for the first half of the year.

"It appears that the petroleum industry has been one of the most fortunate of the basic industries in the United States," said Clarel B. Moses, economist for the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, in a review of the six months period.

"Domestic trade in the industry's principal product not only has held its own with the consumption record of last year but has actually enjoyed an increase of 2.26 per cent. Domestic demand for gasoline from refineries totaled 190,866,000 barrels for the first six months as compared with a demand of 186,639,000 barrels for the same period in 1930, an increase of 4,227,000 barrels."

A slump in gasoline exports has been a disturbing factor, however, and has more than offset the improvement in the domestic trade, resulting in a lessened total demand, Moses pointed out.

Exports Decline

"While the American motoring public has increased its demand for gasoline," he said, "the American export trade in the product has suffered such severe losses as to cause a decrease in the total gasoline demand."

"Serious economic troubles in foreign countries, coupled with the replacement of American gasoline by motor fuel from other than American sources, have caused a decrease in the export trade in the product totaling 10,411,000 barrels, or 31.63 per cent, during the first half of the year. Exports of gasoline totaled 22,504,000 barrels as compared with 32,915,000 barrels during the first six months of 1930.

"The total demand for gasoline at American refineries was 213,370,000 barrels as compared with 219,554,000 barrels for the first six months of 1930, a decrease of 6,184,000 barrels, or 2.82 per cent."

Refiners have attempted to meet the decline in total gasoline demand by curtailing their operations, Moses reported.

His review of the six months said:

Runs Are Reduced

"Anticipating and realizing the import of the situation, American refiners have operated in a cautious and conservative manner. Runs of crude oil to stills were reduced 39,322,000 barrels, or 8.23 per cent, as compared with last year, and totaled 438,335,000 barrels, an average of 3,421,740 barrels per day.

"Gasoline production totaled 208,861,000 barrels, a decrease below last year of 9,502,000 barrels, or 4.35 per cent.

"Straight-run gasoline provided 51.15 per cent of the total production, while cracked gasoline provided 40.09 per cent of the total and natural gasoline 8.76 per cent.

"The total percentage of gasoline recovery was 47.65 as compared with a recovery of 45.72 per cent for the first six months of 1930. Straight-run recovery was 24.37 per cent as compared with 25.66 per cent in 1930, thereby requiring 4,103 barrels of crude oil to be run to stills to provide one barrel of straight-run gasoline."

Births In Poor Families Are Cause Of City Problem

"The rich get richer and the poor get children—ain't we got fun?" So runs the parody on the song, but how true it is the records of the Welfare Board show. Since the Board became active last winter, there have been 16 births in destitute families which were being supported by the Board.

The welfare organization paid for drugs and first-aid equipment used in the confinement cases. In most instances, local physicians donated their services. However, several doctors refused to take any of the cases without remuneration. Board officials have been called out at all hours of the night to help in these cases. Last night, several physicians were called to assist at a home in South Pampa before one could be secured who would volunteer his services.

Families in each of 16 cases have been destitute, and were without funds to prepare for the birth of the children.

The Board did not expect physicians and nurses to give their services free, but medical attention was necessary, it was said. Doctors who refused to assist can not be blamed, as it all depends on their professional attitude, a Board official said. Such situations are unfortunate but that does not keep them from existing, it was pointed out.

Humble Oil and Refining company's No. 1 Hughey, section 154, block 3, was drilling at 2,242 feet this morning. It is located in the Sullivan area southwest of Pampa. The well is a forced offset.

Gas is due to be encountered around 2,600-2,700 feet, and oil around 3,000 feet. The well has been drilling about three weeks.

MYSTERY IS EXPLAINED

TEMPLE, Aug. 12. (AP)—Anxiety over the whereabouts of Mrs. W. A. Messer and her son, who were missing last night, was relieved at daybreak when searching parties found them at an isolated Bell county ranch.

They had started in an automobile for the ranch of Tom Messer, her brother-in-law, but lost their way and were forced to spend the night in the Back country. Mrs. Messer is the wife of the Bell county attorney.

Markets

GRAINS STRONGER

CHICAGO, Aug. 12. (AP)—Grain prices averaged higher early today, influenced by assertions that corn was down to a fuel basis and worth less than coal. A trade authority said old crop reserves of corn were near exhaustion and that stocks of competitive seeds such as oats and barley were unusually small.

Opening 3-4 cents off to 3-4 up, corn afterward showed gains all around. Wheat started uncharged to 3-8 cents lower and subsequently scored a general advance.

LIVERPOOL IS LOW

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 12. (AP)—The cotton market had an easier opening today owing to very disappointing Liverpool cables, that market being influenced by weakness in Egypt. First trades showed losses of 7 to 9 points, and the market continued to rule easier after the start, owing to better weather in the cotton belt. October traded down to 6.80 and December to 7.01, or 9 points on both months below yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market was quiet but a shade steadier.

Wheat was selling for 23 cents per bushel this morning in Pampa—when it sold at all. The recent rise in the price has encouraged the belief that more advances are in store for the many farmers who are holding their grain in this area.

Negro Is Thankful To Escape Mob

DALLAS, Aug. 12. (AP)—James Williams, 27-year-old negro, who was lodged in the Dallas county jail following the slaying of Joe S. West, 77, at the latter's home near Royse City yesterday, was thankful today he was safe from any possible action arranged Hunt county citizens might take.

"I was broke and went into the house to borrow a little money," he said. "I got scared when Mr. West woke up and pulled the trigger without realizing what I was doing." Williams formerly was employed by West.

He said he entered the house and was going through the pockets of West's trousers when West awoke. He shot him and then threatened Mrs. West, but fled when she called for help. He was captured while working in a Royse City yard.

Wheat Information Bureau Proposed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. (AP)—A proposal for American participation in an international wheat information service is before the state department for approval.

The plan was evolved at the recent London meeting of exporting nations convened by Canadian High Commissioner Ferguson in an effort to relieve the troubles of the world's wheat farmer. Its purpose is to supplement existing information service on supply and demand in the hope that an adjustment between the two can be effected.

Nils A. Olsen, chief of the agriculture department's economics bureau, returned to his office this week after serving as one of the two American delegates to the conference. Samuel R. McKelvie, former member of the farm board, was the other.

Olsen remained in London for a meeting of a conference committee in July which drafted the proposal for the information service. This was the only concrete result of the discussions participated in by representatives from Russia, Argentina, Australia, and Canada, among others. Efforts to determine upon an export quota plan for the next year as a means of stabilizing wheat prices or to recognize the need for acreage reduction in strong results. At the request of the Rev. Ray N. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church, the group sang "We'll Understand It Better Bye and Bye." This song was written by a negro preacher of Philadelphia, pastor of the largest church for negro people in the world.

H. C. Hayden, pastor of the local Baptist church, sang a solo, "Nothing Between."

Among other songs particularly enjoyed by the audience were "Walking Down the Streets of Jerusalem" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot."

A free-will offering was taken for the Macedonia Baptist church.

Negro Singers In Pleasing Concert

Two hundred "white folks" could hardly restrain tapping their feet at 25 spiritual and jubilee singers, most of them being members of the Macedonia Baptist church, entertained last evening in the Methodist church auditorium.

Climaxing the event, the director, S. A. Hayden, representing an old man, tottered through the left entrance of the church and led the group in singing "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen." A cane, a heavy sack over the shoulder, and
