Texas University Student Is Mysteriously Shot To Death

PAMPA MAN ELECTROCUTED

WAS IN AUTO WITH WOMAN WHEN KILLED

GIRL SAYS MAN SHOT AFTER FLASHING LIGHT

WOMAN ONLY WITNESS

YOUTH WAS NEPHEW OF FAMED HISTORIAN, DR. BARKER

AUSTIN, Sept. 21 (AP)—Texas Rangers and county officers were trying to fix responsibility today for the slaying of Edgar Collin Arledge, Jr., 21, senior student of the University of Texas who was shot to death while seated in an automobile with a young woman.

Arledge whose home was in Crockett, was killed last night by a man who approached the parked automobile, on a road near the city, and fired a bullet into the student's head. The bullet slightly wounded Arledge's companion, Miss Margaret Jean Trull of Palacios, university graduate.

Miss Trull told officers a man approached their automobile and flashed a light in Arledge's face. The youth raised his hand to shade his eyes and the intruder fired. The shot struck Arledge in the left eye. It pierced his head and shattered the windshield of the automobile. Miss Trull's face was sprinkled with glass.

The man disappeared as quietly as he had approached. The girl drove to a hospital but the youth was dead and physicians concluded he was killed instantly.

Arledge came here three years ago from Schreiner Institute at Kerrville. His mother and father survive him. He was a pledge to the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. Officers early today believed they had located the bullet which Arledge was killed. It was found lodged in the side of a house nearby.

The youth was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Arledge of Crockett and the nephew of Dr. Eugene Barker of the university history faculty. Miss Trull was here on a visit.

Parachute Jump Made on Field

A small crowd was at the airport yesterday evening when Eddie Windfield made a spectacular parachute jump at the airport, closing his chute twice during the descent. It was, observers agreed, "the best jump he has made here so far."

The length of the free fall was apparent from the ground and he was directly over the spectators when he closed his chute and opened it again. He made a light landing in one corner of the field. This will be his last jump here for some time.

Ernest Phillips of White Deer was a visitor here yesterday.

the Weather

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; probably local showers in the Panhandle; cooler in the Panhandle Thursday.

—AND A SMILE MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Some like 'em fat and some like 'em lean. Minneapolis likes its cops the latter way and has said to the fat fellows, "Reduce or resign." Now comes Mrs. Bridget Powell with an injunction to prevent the employment of trainers and the rental of a gymnasium to rid the gendarmes of overweight. She contends that there is no reason that taxpayers should be obliged to pay for beauty treatments for its policemen. "It is the privilege of citizens," she set forth, "to regulate the circumference of their own stomachs." The court, in a manner of speaking, is weighing the matter.

LOUISIANA GIRL SWAPS STEERS FOR CLASSES

Driving nine head of Hereford cattle 400 miles to the campus of Louisiana State university at Baton Rouge, La., 17-year-old Elena Percy turned them over to President James M. Smith of the institution in lieu of tuition for her freshman year. Here she is as she demitted to accept the congratulations of President Smith. The cattle, seen in the background, came from her home in West Feliciana parish.

SEASON'S SMARTEST STYLES WILL BE SHOWN IN REVUE AT L'NORA THEATER THIS EVENING

B. & P. W. Club Will Sponsor Annual Event

Garments for all occasions—the very smartest of the season—will be shown in revue this evening about 9:30 o'clock at La Nora theater under the auspices of the Pampa Business and Professional Women's club.

There will be no charge above the regular admission to the theater, and a special picture, Helen Twelvemiles in "Unshamed," has been secured for the occasion. Last-minute details for the revue were being completed this morning. The mannikins, who have rehearsed strenuously during the last few days, busied themselves securing marcel, making their final choice of accessories, and experimenting with various types of make-up. Most of them plan to rest this afternoon in order to be at their best for the revue.

Jurors Return One Indictment

Only incidentals, including a divorce or two, were to be considered by Judge W. R. Ewing in 31st district court today. A jury with uncontested actions claiming attention of court attendants. Next week will mark the opening of civil suits, for which petit jurors will be summoned.

Assisted by District Attorney John Sturgeon and County Attorney Sherman White, the grand jury is hearing many witnesses in its investigations. One indictment was returned yesterday, the defendant being Jimmie Baker, charged with the burglary Sept. 13 of the La Nora confectionery. Baker was arrested in Amarillo and brought here yesterday.

FOOTBALL AND POSSIBLY SHAM BATTLE ON NOV. 11 PROGRAM

An Armistice day celebration which will likely be one of the fullest programs ever held here is being planned by the Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion. Events of the day will include a parade, "wreck" football game between the Lubbock Westerners and Pampa Harvesters, and possibly a sham battle in the evening.

The local post last night changed its meeting time from the first and third Tuesday nights to the second and fourth Tuesdays. The next meeting will be on the coming Tuesday, when there will be a watermelon feast and music for all service men and their families. This event will take the form of a membership rally. It will start at 7 p. m. at the Legion hut.

A very interesting report on the recent American Legion convention was given by J. A. Pearson, prominent local veteran and official.

CITY REJECTS PLAN TO OMIT TAX PAYMENTS

NEW LAW ELIMINATING PENALTIES NOT ADOPTED

MATTER WAS OPTIONAL

WOULD HAVE PROFITED MANY WHO COULD PAY

Commissioners of the city of Pampa yesterday afternoon voted unanimously not to adopt the legislature's plan of omitting delinquent tax penalties and interest for the rest of this year.

The legislature left the matter optional with municipalities. At the beginning of the discussion, Commissioner Earl O'Keefe said that many cities were following the legislature and expressed the belief that Pampa should do likewise. Mayor W. A. Bratton added that he would like to extend some sort of relief, but noted inequalities in the state plan on state, school, and county taxes.

The decisive factor in the decision was the fact that many of those who would profit by the new state plan could have paid their taxes earlier if they had desired. Remission of penalties and interest.

Hangman Haunted By Noose Horrors Commits Suicide

LONDON, Sept. 21 (AP)—The world's most widely-known hangman was dead here today by his own hand, a victim of years of brooding over having sent more offenders to death than any other living man.

He is John Ellis, who during 22 years as public hangman executed more than 200 criminals. His nerves began to fail in 1924. He was found dead his throat slashed and a razor by his side.

On Jan. 9, 1923, he put to death the notorious Mrs. Edith Thompson, who with young Frederick Bywaters was condemned to death for the murder of the woman's husband. She had to be dragged to the scaffold and this was too much for Ellis.

He retired the following year but could not shake off the horrors that haunted him. On Aug. 20, 1924, he spent a sleepless night and was found next day, gravely wounded, with a revolver by his side. He recovered, however, and promised a magistrate he would not commit suicide. But the horror continued.

Among those who died in a noose he supervised was Roger Casement, who was put to death in 1916 after he was convicted of having sought German aid for an armed revolt in Ireland.

Jobless Ticket Head Stranded In New Mexico

TUCUMCARI, N. M., Sept. 21 (AP)—Father James R. Cox of Pittsburgh candidate on the "Jobless ticket" for president, was stranded here today with a party of ten on his national campaign tour.

Father Cox said they had exhausted their funds and were unable to move from here. He said Dr. Victor Tidal of Elk City, Okla., candidate for vice-president on the ticket had promised to send a plane for him here and he will return to Pittsburgh for a conference. Other members of the party will remain here until additional funds have been raised.

INTO MOVIES

She's only 16, but dimpled Phyllis Fraser has crashed the movies. Here you see her perched prettily on a table in the Los Angeles courtroom where her film contract was approved.

Phyllis Fraser, employed by the Boyles Trucking company, was holding to a hook on a steel cable which was being hoisted with a "gin pole" on a truck. The cable, swaying in the air while the truck was being moved over rough ground, struck the high line. It was believed, it was necessary to move the truck again before the risk of touching the body could be taken.

The man's hand, making a firm contact, was not burned, but the powerful current leaped to his forehead, burning it, as he fell forward. The high line carries over 13,000 volts.

Parker is survived by his father, R. W. Parker, of Harp, Kans.; his mother, Mrs. Ada Arnold of Pampa; a sister, Mrs. Carl Lutten of Pampa; and a brother, Virgil, of Los Angeles.

HOOPER WILL SPEAK AT DES MOINES, OCT. 4

Farm Problem To Be Subject of First Address

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—A city in the heart of the farm belt—Des Moines, Iowa—today was chosen for President Hoover's first direct appeal to voters for re-election.

The announcement of President Hoover's first campaign speech was made by Everett Sanders, chairman of the republican national committee, in a formal statement.

CONSERVATIVES IN VICTORY OVER LIBERAL L' FOLLETTES

By The Associated Press. A La Follette was beaten in Wisconsin yesterday for the first time in 40 years as Wisconsin republicans chose Walter J. Kohler, former conservative governor, over Gov. Philip F. La Follette, for their gubernatorial nominee.

La Follette forces apparently suffered another setback in the republican senatorial primary where John B. Chapple, young conservative candidate, was running well ahead of the progressive incumbent, Senator John J. Blaine. He was the first time since 1892 that Wisconsin republicans had turned down a La Follette. In that year, former Senator Robert M. La Follette, father of the present governor, was beaten in one of his first political campaigns.

FREAK MISHAP FATAL TO OIL FIELD WORKER

PARKER KILLED WHEN STEEL CABLE HITS HIGH LINE

WAS ON MOVING TRUCK

FOREHEAD SEARED BY 13,000 VOLTS OF ELECTRICITY

Physicians tried artificial respiration and oxygen in vain this morning in trying to save the life of Jim Parker, 25, who was the victim of an accident on the Phillips Joe Dan lease about 10 miles south of Pampa this morning.

His death, caused by contact with a 13,000-volt electrical charge from the line of the Panhandle Light & Power company, was probably almost instantaneous. He was brought to a local hospital in a Stephenson ambulance after employees on nearby leases removed his body and summoned the ambulance.

Parker, employed by the Boyles Trucking company, was holding to a hook on a steel cable which was being hoisted with a "gin pole" on a truck. The cable, swaying in the air while the truck was being moved over rough ground, struck the high line. It was believed, it was necessary to move the truck again before the risk of touching the body could be taken.

DUNCAN CALLS FOR SESSION OF STOCK HOLDERS

A meeting to form a local unit of an organization, being set up by stockholders of the American Commonwealth Power corporation will be held in Pampa next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, it was announced today by Judge Irv E. Duncan.

It is believed that most of the local stockholders will wish to participate in the movement which is intended to enforce some kind of settlement whereby Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico people will be protected. Sale of stock through misrepresentation is charged, and driving of the Southwestern Public Service companies from this territory through municipal ownership moves is a threat being made.

Judge Duncan represents the G. H. Wallace estate. The meeting will be at the city hall. About 18 Pampa residents own approximately $15,000 Commonwealth stock.

Safety Program Is Given at School

Children of the Sam Houston school, after hearing a Kivans club program at their chapel this morning, pledged themselves to observe the safety rules to be enforced by Junior police.

M. P. Downs, chairman of the program, introduced Judge Newton P. Willis, campaign manager for the movement, and later A. G. Post, president of the Kivans club. About fifteen Kivans were present. Music was provided by Sid Merton's Texan orchestra.

Junior police for the school will be appointed by the school authorities and instructed by members of the civic club. On Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock a similar program by the club will be given at the Woodrow Wilson school.

MAN KIDNAPED

DALLAS, Sept. 21 (AP)—J. A. McDonald, automobile salesman, was back home today after being kidnaped by a man he picked up on the highway late Monday. After forcing McDonald at the point of a pistol to drive beyond Tyler, the man robbed him of $5.50 and escaped.

Waterway Will Be Finished In Another Month

CHICAGO, Sept. 21. (AP)—The Illinois waterway from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico—down which will float a half million tons of freight a month—appeared today to be assured of completion by Nov. 15, six months earlier than expected.

Constructed at a cost of $107,500,000, the waterway's opening awaits only the construction of movable bridges at five points in and near Joliet, Ill. The canal itself will have been completed by the federal government in a month.

The bridges must be constructed by the state of Illinois and upon speed in their work depends the opening date of the waterway which Pere Marquette first visualized 260 years ago.

Water to operate the first section of the waterways is taken from Lake Michigan at Chicago into the sanitary district canal down which barges will travel to Lockport, Ill. From Lockport to Utica, Ill., the route is over the old Illinois waterway and from Utica down the Illinois river to the Mississippi at Grafton.

Fears that the treaty with Canada for the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes waterway might hinder or prevent operation of the Illinois channel have been dispelled, in a measure at least, by Gen. Lytle Brown of the United States army engineers at Washington.

Traffic on the Illinois waterway will be limited to barges requiring no more than nine feet of water.

Ely Announcement May Effect Plains

An obstacle in the way of opening a new road north across the Canadian river, with a bridge to make this possible, looms with the legislature's action in setting aside one cent of the gasoline tax to take over counties' paving bonds.

Chairman W. B. Ely of the state highway commission Tuesday announced that gaps in existing highways would be closed before new construction is attempted.

This development, however, will not halt efforts to convince the state that this particular road is very urgently needed.

Davis Far From Being 'Mussolini Of The Moose'

NEW YORK, Sept. 21. (AP)—Donald F. Stewart, for six years editor of the Moose magazine, testified Tuesday that far from being "Mussolini of the Moose" United States Senator James J. Davis held a "merely honorary" post with the Loyal Order of Moose.

The Pennsylvania senator and former cabinet member is on trial in federal court on indictments charging him with violation of federal lottery laws in connection with activities of the Moose, of which he is director general.

The government, which charges that Davis participated in lotteries allegedly held by the fraternal order and personally profited by them, is seeking to show that he was an actual dictator of all the order's activities.

Today defense counsel asked Stewart, who is the first witness at the trial, which began yesterday, if in fact Davis' position is not "merely honorary."

"I would take it as such," Stewart replied.

The Moose editor also testified that although many articles appeared in the magazine under Davis' name they were not actually written by him but were "ghost written" by Stewart and another man.

He said Davis' name was used on the articles to give them "standing" because "Mr. Davis' name is and always has been an inspiration to any Moose."

LaNora—Sunday

Woman Writer

MOSCOW, Sept. 21. (AP)—Rheka Glyman, a Toronto, Canada, correspondent here for the London Daily Express and newspapers in Canada, was ordered expelled from Soviet Russia Tuesday on a charge of writing false news about the country.

The order followed recent publication by the Daily EXPRESS of a series of articles she wrote after a trip to the timber regions in Northern Russia, purporting to reveal methods employed by the secret police at a prison camp near Krasnoyarsk.

These articles and several others she had written in recent months were quoted at length today in the newspaper Investia, which attacked Glyman in a half-page editorial as a provocateur from the Bourgeois camp.

Miss Glyman, who is 28, is now in Tiflis. She telegraphed a friend here that she had received the order of expulsion last Saturday over the signature of Yagoda, vice-chairman of the OGPU, or secret police. She was directed to leave the country in 24 hours.

She has been in Russia four years, contributing to numerous newspapers and magazines in Canada and England.

Texas Oil Output Shows Big Gain

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 21. (AP)—While production dropped slightly in other major areas, Texas' output soared above 925,000 barrels daily last week to boost the country's daily average 24,970 barrels, from 2,150,157 to 2,175,127 barrels, the Oil and Gas Journal estimates.

Texas production was placed at 927,774, an increase of 35,889 barrels. East Texas increased from 355,862 to 386,215 barrels, and there were increases also in the Panhandle and Gulf coast areas.

Oklahoma production dropped from 394,220 to 387,515 barrels. California decreased its output from 480,500 to 478,000 barrels.

Eastern production was steady at 112,000 barrels. Kansas' output climbed slightly, from 96,550 to 97,485 barrels, and the Rocky mountain area showed a decrease, from 76,800 to 74,976 barrels.

FLIER DELAYED

NAGOYA, Japan, Sept. 21. (AP)—Capt. Wolfgang von Gronau, German aviator who is flying around the world by easy stages, was delayed here today when his plane was slightly damaged while he was attempting to hop off for Kagoshima. The plane struck a buoy, damaging the left wing. It was expected it would be repaired by tomorrow.

Amarillo Men Held For Counterfeiting

AMARILLO, Sept. 21. (AP)—Two employees of the United States helium plant here were held Tuesday on counterfeiting charges.

Harry F. Reed, 23, assistant helium operator since the plant was opened here three years ago, made bond of $2,000 after federal officers said they found molds for making 25-cent pieces in a barn at his residence. Leo M. Pavey, 27, a laborer was charged with possession of counterfeit $10 federal reserve bank of California. He had made no effort to make bond.

Officers said neither of the men had been in trouble before. Both denied the charges against them.

Daughter Born To Dan Moody

ABILENE, Sept. 21. (AP)—A baby daughter, Nancy Paxton Moody, was born at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday in Saint David's hospital, Austin, to former Governor and Mrs. Dan Moody, according to word received here by the child's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Paxton, Sr.

It is the couple's second child. Dan, Jr., having been born in January three years ago.

they gave him sandwiches, milk and a picture book.

In the evening, he said, a woman and another man came in and the woman took him by automobile to a street car, gave the conductor a nickel and asked him to let the boy off near his home. Three telephone operators saw him get off the car, recognized him from his picture in a newspaper and took him home.

The excellent condition of the records kept by Joe Smith, business manager, was noted.

YOU would be astonished too, if you could see this machine that turns out 750 Chesterfields a minute... and every one as near perfect as cigarettes can be made.

But please bear this in mind. It is what happens before the tobacco goes into this machine that matters most. Rolling and packaging are important, but not nearly as important as the selection, blending and treatment of the tobacco.

That's why we keep telling you about the tobaccos used in Chesterfields. They're fine, mild, and pure tobaccos. We tell you about ageing and curing the tobaccos... about blending and cross-blending them... because they are things that count.

Chesterfields are milder. They taste better. Prove it for yourself... Just try a package.

FACULTY GIVEN FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON BY PHILLIPS

STRAIGHT HITS TAKE GAME BY 8 TO 5 SCORE

DRAIN STRIKES OUT 8 ROSE BATTERS FOR NEWSMEN

The Faculty playground ball team in the city first game of the official season yesterday afternoon to the Phillips Petroleum company by an 8 to 5 score. The NEWS won on a well-played 2 to 0 decision from the Rose Building, while the Danziger team won the game by a 5 to 3 score. The Jays were by default from the Kiwanis who failed to place a team in the field.

Games played yesterday finished the first round of play and teams will go into the final series tomorrow afternoon. President E. C. Ross has called a meeting of team managers and league officials for 7:30 o'clock tonight in the chamber of commerce rooms to discuss a split season. When the league was organized it was decided to have a decision on the split season made at the time in the series. Every team manager is urged to be present tonight.

His Beat Faculty
Straight hard hit balls won the game for the Phillips boys over the Faculty. W. C. "Red" Weathered, former Faculty catcher, opened the scoring with a home run. In the next inning Baller came through with another four-ply wallop with one man on base. Both players later added singles to their average.

Fitcher Patrick of the Faculty continued his good work with the willow, getting two hits in three trips to the plate. Patrick is hitting above the .800 average for the season. He pitched good ball but allowed 11 hits. Selby, Gordon, Mitchell and Workman got the other Faculty hits. Hieronymus pitched winning ball for three runs and would have had only three runs against him but for an error in the outfield which allowed two runs to cross the plate.

Harry Kelley, on first for the Faculty, played the luckiest game of the season. On three occasions he struck out a gloved hand, and hot liners and every one stuck in his mit.

Gets Two Triples
Crits, former Phillips player but now hurling for the Rose building, gave the NEWS his fireball hurler. Drain, newsman's fireball hurler was on the job with eight strikeouts and two triples to his credit. The Rose boys threatened in the last of the seventh with two men on base and one out but Drain came through again and struck out the last two men up, for three strikeouts in the inning.

Sturgeon scored both of the NEWS runs on clean hits with the help of Dillman and Pond, who each made a hit behind him in the fifth and seventh innings, respectively. Oiler hits were made by Warren and Caddy. The Rose team made two errors. Only three men faced Drain in each of the second, fourth, fifth, and sixth innings.

Crits pitched good ball for the Rose building with Walker receiving the Caddy was on the receiving end for the newsmen. Crits and Marshall got the only hits made by the Rosemen.

Long Blows
Ray Riley and Harold Miller were the big shots in the Danziger win over the Santa Fe. Both Dorco players hit a home run and double on three trips to the plate with Miller's blow scoring two runs ahead of him. Goppel pitched light ball for the oilmen, allowing only five hits, two going to Burke, Ferris, Kennis, and Goppel with two safe singles got the rest of the Danziger hits. Poe, Shriver and Co-burn got the rest of the Santa Fe's five bingles. There were three strikeouts.

The Santa Fe started off with two runs in the first but Danziger evened things in second and went to the front in the third with six count-ers. Danziger threatened in the seventh when two men got on base but Burke was hit by a batted ball and Husted went out on the same play.

Chicago's Cubs Wear National League Crown

CHICAGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—Chicago's Cubs today were "in" with little in the way of serious business to worry them until a week from today when they oppose the New York Yankees in the opening game of the world series—and they intended to get a little fun out of their baseball.

As soon as Kiki Cuyler smashed one of Steve Sweeton's curves for a triple with the bases loaded in the seventh inning of the first game of yesterday's "crucial" double-header, the veteran regular had earned a rest. They started taking it in the second game, and they don't have to go back to work until they have rested. Neither do they have to rest if they don't want to.

Manager Charlie Grimm almost went right back to work in the second game yesterday, although he had planned to give Marvin Cindat a chance as soon as the National league title was won.

HARVESTER

TEXANS BLANK LOOKOUTS IN OPENING TILT

Wayne Kelley
The Harvesters' educated toe last season belonged to Wayne Kelley and he appears to be much improved this season. Wayne is 19 and a junior. He will be playing his last year of high school football this fall. He is working at both end and full-back and doing most of the punting. His "long suit" is putting the pigskin against the wind. Wayne played end until the last game of the season last year when he went to the backfield. He came here from Shamrock to join his mother Mrs. O. L. Bolk in the fall of 1930.

Wayne played some good football in Shamrock doing duty at tackle, end and in the backfield. He weighs 170 pounds.

BEAUMONT, Sept. 21 (AP)—Beaumont is a fine old name that has stood through the ages, but the people of this metropolitan area are willing to rename the old town.

They probably would vote to call one side of the town Greenberg and the other Herring. They may desire to add other names after the second game of the twelfth annual Dixie series today between Chattanooga and Beaumont, Southern and Texas league pennant winners, but early today it was Greenberg and Herring.

Greenberg who plays first base and hits runs for Beaumont, and Art Herring, who tells about the big white courthous in the middle of the square at Altus, Okla., instead of how he pitches for the Exporters, were the stars of Beaumont's 1 to 0 victory yesterday. Herring limped Chattanooga to five hits, to win from Clyde Barfoot who held Beaumont to four hits. Greenberg hit a knuckle-ball over the left field wall in the seven inning after one was out.

For the second game today, Manager Del Baker wasn't sure whether he would start Izzy Goldstein or Schoolboy Rowe. Both are right-handers. Manager Burt Neihoff last night nominated Alex McCall to hurl the second contest for the Lookouts.

Although the Dixie championship is at stake neither team was tight yesterday. Both played careful and easy in a game that sparked with brilliant fielding. In fact, it was a freak catch by Greenberg that saved Herring's shutout and probably Beaumont's victory.

The Lookouts tried desperately to knot the count, in the eighth, Kingdon, lead-off man, singled. Eppowitz rolled out to Greenberg, Kingdon rolled to second. Taubey took Gill's fly and Kingdon went to third after the catch. Reese then slipped a stinging grounder at Herring who deflected the ball. Newkome at shortstop singled, Eppowitz made an underhand throw while going at top speed. The ball was yards wide of the bag and hit the ground before reaching Greenberg. The huge first baseman reversed himself on the bag, stuck his gloved hand into the dirt and made a sensational backward catch that Manager Del Baker said was the greatest he had seen in his entire baseball career. Kingdon had crossed the plate with the tying run had Greenberg miled.

Failure to hit in the pinches cost Chattanooga. The Lookouts left six men stranded while Beaumont left two.

Absolute Need For Qualifying Soon Is Noted

There are a number of local fighters who will be left out of the County Club open tournament which starts Sunday morning unless they start qualifying. Dr. H. H. Hicks, chairman of the tournament committee, said this morning. Qualifying closes Friday afternoon regardless of the number of entrants.

Up to yesterday afternoon only eight players had qualified. Three played their rounds in the third Sunday and turned in good scores. Those qualifying Monday and yesterday were Jim White, 86; J. W. Brumley, 84; R. G. Allen, 78; Clyde Fatheree, 81; Art Swanson, 89; C. T. Hunkapillar, Ed Vicars and DeLea Vicars qualified Sunday.

Many entrants were qualifying today and tournament officials hope that at least 100 more golfers will finish their preliminary rounds by Friday afternoon.

A valuable prize list for winners and runners-up in each fight has been secured and will be worth playing for. The tournament is open to players from Pampa, White Deer, Kingmill, McLean, Miami and Canadian.

Board For World Series Will Be Best Available

Attention Given To Passing Defense and Candidates For Center.
Hard work and no rest continued at Harvesters park yesterday afternoon as coaches continued to work on team defects that showed up in a hard scrimmage Friday afternoon. After more than an hour of hard work on plays and individual's duties, a hard scrimmage was held. Another scrimmage is in order for this afternoon, only it will be a harder one.

The coaches are using several combinations on the same plays and the winners of positions will be the ones who show up best in all combinations. Booting and passing are exciting in for a large share of the work. A pass defense is also in order each afternoon. The boys looked woefully weak on breaking up passes in the scrimmage Friday.

A center worry is also on the list with other matters that are putting gray hairs in the coaches' heads. Jim Pool is the only perfect man for the job but he can't play center and fullback at the same time. Clovis Green is the next best bet but he is still erratic. Hoot Fullington is learning fast but he needs seasoning. Cammer Howard passes the best ball but he can't cut down his speed and backfield men cannot handle the ball.

The boys are snapping into hard work with a vim not anticipated. They realize that positions on the team are still open. It is expected that the "first string" will be selected by Friday afternoon although many changes might be made before the first game with Clovis high school here Sept. 30.

PHILLIES ARE GOING STRONG

Surprising Ability Shown in Duel With Dodgers For Third Place

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Generally overlooked in the excitement attending the winning of the National league pennant by Chicago has been the surprising fight put up by Burt Shotton's Phillies for a berth in the first division.

Sixth when the curtain went down a year ago, Shotton's slugers have punched their way into fourth place and right now are giving Brooklyn a battle for third. The Dodgers rallied away a little yesterday, increasing their lead to a game and a half by downing the Phillies, 2 to 1 but with four games to go there is a possibility third place will go to the Quaker City crew.

Watson Clark, ace of the Brooklyn staff, chalked up his 19th victory in halting the Philis.

The Giants plastered the Braves, 13 to 3, and St. Louis, with Tex Carlton pitching five-hit ball, beat Cincinnati, 3 to 1.

The Cubs closed the race proper with a 5 to 2 win over Pittsburgh in the first game of a double header. The crestfallen Corsairs took the second, 5 to 0.

Monte Weaver further established himself as one of the year's greatest freshmen pitchers as he set Boston down with four hits and Washington beat the Red Sox, 4 to 1. Cleveland beat St. Louis a couple, 5 to 2 and 11 to 2.

PURDIN VOWS HE WILL SOCK MUELLER IF NECESSARY

Blows to Depend on Doc's Fingering Tonight

Jack Purdin, Florida hurrier, desires that it be made public that he is not making it pull his nerve protracting his headlock and his nerve protracting his headlock in the match at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight, he will use anything that comes near his hand on the opponent.

Purdin has seen the chiropractor in action but has not been in a ring with him and he knows he is expert so he is making it pull that he will use fists, feet or anything else when the famous Mue goes into action with his thumb. Purdin is no weakling and should be able to sock Mueller here and often to keep away from pasting holds that give the Austin man all the advantage.

Mueller lost one of the best matches of the year to Rob H here last week and Purdin lost to Red Michael, just back from San Antonio where he has been boxing, will meet an old foe in the person of Warren Belcher of Amarillo. The two lightaired men have not seen each other in nearly two years but both remember a hard battle in Amarillo where the red was no love lost. Michael has had his best boxing lately. Sandstorms.....

Strong winds, laden with fine sand, will blow grit and dirt into the house through the smallest crevasses. Nothing is more aggravating than to have a sudden sand storm deposit sand and dust all over the furniture, floors and rugs, just after they have been cleaned.

But . . . Here is a method by which homes may easily be cleaned and kept clean. Dust furniture with soft cloth and shake the dust unto the rug. Run the dust mop over the floor and shake it over the rug. This method saves many steps. Last of all run the electric sweeper over the rug. You will be surprised at the ease with which you can keep your home clean with an electric cleaner.

Chapter 21
TRAILING A CLUE

What did F. F. mean? Was she just reading into his words the reputation which filled her thoughts?

It was as much as Nani could do to get next to Robert Leonard without crying the accusation aloud—"You've been trying to kill Jervis!"

George Tetterley was giving her a tabloid version of his last game of golf; to such a mellow mood had she and her likeness to that earlier Nan Forsyth brought him.

Turquoise enough, some delicate sketches adorned her that of all the people around the table he would be the best surprised if she were suddenly to say what was in her mind about Robert Leonard.

Quite definitely George did not like him—oh, quite definitely. Neither did he like Rosamund—much. This surprised Nani. She was young enough to give beauty to many points in the scene.

Rosamund had begun to smoke before she had begun to eat. She ate very little, and she lit one cigarette from another all through the meal. She wore a straight, plain dress of heavy white wash silk. In contrast to Janet Tetterley, whose thin neck was hung with beads like golf balls, Rosamund's throat was bare. Seen through a bluish haze of smoke, she had the air of beauty withdrawn behind its own impalpable veils.

Nan's heart hurt her very much as she looked across the Tetterleys' luncheon table at this beauty of Rosamund's, Jervis' very anger against her was the measure of his love and his loss. Having loved Rosamund, it could not be possible that he should ever love Nan.

They went out into the garden after lunch and had coffee under the shade of two enormous cedars. As they crossed the lawn with the sun pouring down upon them, the party broke up into twos and threes. Nan found herself walking with Ferdinand.

"What did you mean, Mr. Francis?" she said without looking at him.

"I'd rather you'd not call me that," he said.

Nan blushed a little with pleasure, and he threw out his hand in an old gesture. His queer bright eyes twinkled at her.

"Do I like it if we were friends?"

Nan said, "Oh—." It was a little sound with a quiver in it. Her eyes were soft and misty. "Oh, how nice of you!" she said.

They began to walk again. The sunlight dazzled round her. She didn't feel afraid of Rosamund any more. Here was a friend of Jervis who wanted to be friends with her. She found it immensely strengthening. She came back to her first question.

"What did you mean at lunch?"

"Perhaps I didn't mean anything."

"You did—, you told that story on purpose, and you looked at him—Mr. Leonard. What did you mean?"

Ferdinand turned and waved a hand in the direction of a most undeniable view. The trees had been cut away to frame a glimpse of the sea.

"That's rather good—isn't it?" he said.

"Nan hadn't anything at all to say about the view."

"Who was Eisenhalt?" she said.

Ferdinand turned in a leisurely fashion and let a roving glance travel about the lawn. Mrs. Tetterley and Leonard had reached the shade and were already disposed in comfortable chairs. George Tetterley was in the act of joining them. Jervis and Rosamund Carew had taken a wide virgule away from the cedar and were entering upon a shady path overarched by tall rhododendrons. A man had just emerged from the house bearing the coffee-tray.

"Who is Eisenhalt?"

"It certainly seemed safe enough to answer her."

"A fellow I met down there."

"He got a frown, and a clear indignant look."

"What was he?"

"A chemist," said Ferdinand.

"You mean—an experimental chemist?"

"Yes—that was quick of you." She shook her head.

"Why could he make the guerrilla chief do as he liked?"

"Chemists are sometimes useful."

"How was Eisenhalt useful?"

"A handy fellow," said Ferdinand.

"Don't you know?"

"Well yes, I know."

"Are you going to tell me?"

"Well, that's what I don't know."

"Why?" He saw a faint sensitive clouding of those eager eyes. Her lips parted. "You're not going to tell me—"

"Eisenhalt was a genius gone wrong. He looked like any other professor, only more respectable, and he'd a fierce brain. And he'd got an invention that had been extraordinarily useful to that guerrilla chief."

"What was it?" said Nan.

"What'll you do if I tell you?"

"I won't tell anyone."

He began to speak in the sort of voice that barely carries a yard: "About a month before he'd captured me, Pedro Ramirez had brought off a little coup. He was carrying on operations in the Madalena district and harassing the government quite a bit. Then the government turned nasty and sent up some real troops—and that's where he brought off his coup.

"There were three trains, and they left Madalena at three-hour intervals. The first of them ran off

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21. (AP)—The cotton market had a firm and active opening today. Liverpool cables came in four to six penny points better than due and first trades here showed gains of 9 to 12 points. The market continued to improve after the start on good trade demand and owing to a strong opening the stock market. October traded up to 6.98 and December to 7.13, or 17 to 18 points above yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour, the market was still firm and at the highs. There appeared to be less pressure from hedge-selling in the early transactions.

After easing off 5 to 8 points from the initial highs on a rather indifferent weekly weather report, the market turned firm and very active later in the morning on heavy trade buying and a sharp advance in stocks. October traded up to 7.14, December to 7.26 and January to 7.32, or 21 to 22 points up from the earlier lows, and 31 to 33 points above yesterday's close.

Around mid-season the market continued very firm and was only two points under the top.

GRAINS ADVANCE

CHICAGO, Sept. 21. (AP)—Stimulated by jumps in securities, the grain markets today scored a brisk early advance. The fact the Chicago Liverpool wheat price difference was being full maintained despite enormous Canadian marketings also was a bracing factor. Opening 5-8 to 1-1 1/2 up, wheat afterward rose further. Corn started at 1-4 to 3-8 gain and continued to mount.

Wheat closed buoyant at the day's top 2 1/2-2 3/4 above yesterday's finish, corn 3-1/2 up, oats at 3-3/4 advance and provision unchanged to 15 cents higher.

McGanegal Freed In Robbery Trial

FORT WORTH, Sept. 21. (AP)—Barney McGanegal was acquitted yesterday of a robbery charge in connection with the holdup of Jere Green, messenger for the Stockyards National bank, last year.

While the trial was in progress, Green was attacked on a street by two men. W. S. and Curtis Cothran were arrested and charged with assault.

McGanegal was indicted with James Henry Johnston and Andrew Jack Jones, who turned state's evidence. McGanegal offered witnesses who swore to an alibi for him.

Dogs, Cow, Burros Taken To Pound

Seven dogs, a cow and four burros were collected by Pound Keeper G. D. Holmes yesterday, his first day on duty. The dogs were running loose in the downtown section without license tags. They will be kept in the pound three days before being destroyed. The burros were peacefully eating tin cans at the rear of the pound building this morning. Their owner has left the country.

Chief of Police John V. Andrews gave warning last week and started war yesterday on unlicensed dogs and stray animals. He is going to continue the work until the streets are cleared of unwelcome strays.

Police officers received many calls this morning from citizens wanting to know if their dogs had been picked up. Chief Andrews declared that it was fully competent department instead of inserting lost ads in the paper as they knew their dogs were untagged.

Exhibit Prepared In Short Time

With no intention of seeking a high place in the county competition at the Tri-State fair, the managers of the Gray county booth were not surprised yesterday when their exhibit was placed thirteenth.

The exhibit was assembled and placed, in less than a week of actual work, as compared with the months other county agents are known to have spent on their products. Ralph Thomas, Gray county agent, has devoted his time to other projects believed to be of more value.

Randall county won first place for the fifth consecutive time. The order of other counties was as follows: Wheeler, Hemphill, Hartley, Gray county, N. M., Deaf Smith, Ochiltree, Roberts, Collingsworth, Hansford, Harding, N. M., Donley, Gray, Lipscomb, Jones, Sherman, Armstrong, Bailey, and Farmer.

Youthful Peddler Robbed of Money

Declaring that he needed the money, a boy about 14 years old knocked Huston Palmer, 8 years down and took $1.10 from him last night about dark at the side of The NEWS building on North Somerville street. A man who witnessed the hi-jacking grabbed the boy but he broke loose and ran away.

Two hours later a boy who answered the description of the "hi-jacker," and who later admitted he was the culprit, was arrested by Traffic Officer Wayne Nicholson in
