LEGALITY ISSUE BEING
BACKED BY TEXAS
W. C. T. U.

DALLAS, April 9 (AP)—Thomas B. Love of Dallas, veteran dry leader, today lost the first round in a fight to overthrow the "loyalty" pledge prescribed by the state democratic executive committee for participants in the Texas precinct and county presidential caucations.

District Judge Robert Allen denied Love's petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the committee to permit qualified voters to participate in such conventions without signing the pledge. Love promptly filed notice of appeal to the court of civil appeals, fifth judicial district.

Judge Allen, in dismissing the suit, held that in the absence of a statute covering the points raised, the committee was within its legal rights in exacting the pledge, which reads:

"I hereby pledge myself to support the nominees of the democratic party for president and vice-president of the United States by voting for the democratic electors of the state of Texas."

Love claimed the pledge was not authorized by law and was unconstitutional. He brought the suit at the request of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Texas.

Shamrock Man Is Out for District Attorney Now

Lewis M. Goodrich, resident of Shamrock since 1906, has authorized THE NEWS to announce his candidacy for district attorney, subject to the democratic primary in July.

Mr. Goodrich, city attorney of Shamrock for four years, said that he would make an active campaign in Gray county and would attempt to see as many of the voters as possible.

"In making the announcement as a candidate for district attorney I believe that I fully realize the seriousness of the duties to be placed upon me, if elected. I also believe that I know what the duties of a district attorney are and that I am qualified to perform those duties in a manner that will meet with the approval, not only of the voters in this district, but of the officers, court, and juries.

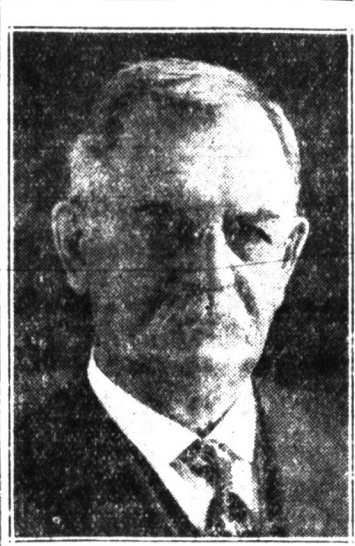

"It is my firm conviction that the time has come in our country when the enforcement officers of our land need to be men of conviction and with courage enough to carry out that conviction whether popular to do so or not. The most of the citizens or Shamrock and Wheeler county know me, and have known of my life among them, from the time I entered the primary grades in Shamrock public schools to this time, and I therefore submit you this knowledge of my life for the answer to whether those who know me believe that I will perform the duties of the office of the best of my ability or not and want to respectfully make this as my only reference.

"I think that you need me as your district attorney, and if elected I assure you that I will be on the job and trying to the best of my ability to represent the State in all criminal cases and will give the grand jury and court my entire interest and my earnest efforts."

HOBART HEADS SOCIETY AGAIN

Many Pampa Folk Attend
the Historical Banquet in Canyon on Friday.

T. D. Hobart, Pampa man whose name is synonymous with efficient administration of activities relating to frontier life, Friday was again persuaded to head the Panhandle-Plains Historical society at Canyon.

Mr. Hobart has been affiliated with the organization since its founding, and has headed it off and on for about four years. The other officers, H. E. Hoover of Canadian, vice president; Dr. J. A. Hill, second vice-president; Prof. L. F. Sheffey, secretary and Prof. W. L. Vaughn, treasurer, also were re-elected. New directors, Judge A. J. Pires of Childress, Mr. Hobart, W. T. Coble of Amarillo, and J. D. Hamlin of Farwell, were named to serve with hold-over directors, who are Dr. Hill, Mr. Hoover, Horace Russell of Amarillo, and W. H. Patrick of Clarendon.

The society will undertake to complete the $25,000 public subscription needed to match the state's similar appropriation for the museum. A department of scientific research was created with Floyd Studer of Amarillo as director. Landowners were called upon to make sure the society receives duplicates of all relics and specimens taken from this section.

The largely-attended banquet program Friday evening included speeches by Senator Clint Small, Amarillo; John A. Lomax, Austin; and Mrs. Tom Currie, Amarillo.

Among the local people at the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. Hobart, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Finley and son, Warren, Rev. A. A. Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. I. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fatheree, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tignor, and Dr. and Mrs. W. Purviance.

BAKER SCHOOL CAFETERIA TO BENEFIT FROM "ADAM AND EVA" PLAY BY LOCAL LITTLE THEATER

One of the city's most deserving causes—Baker school cafeteria project—will benefit from the Little Theater's play, "Adam and Eva," April 19.

Principal J. A. Meek of Baker school is selling tickets for the performance, with considerable success, and tickets also are being sold at De Luxe cleaners. The price is 50 cents for reserved seats in the city auditorium.

EXCESS FEES PAID BY GRAY COUNTY FOLK

TAX COLLECTOR GIVES BACK $4,245 IN REPORT

ASSESSOR ALSO REMITS

MAXIMUMS ARE NOW REACHED HERE BY SEVERAL

Excess fees for 1931 were paid to Gray county by the tax collector, tax assessor, county clerk, and county attorney, reports for these officers show.

The largest amount given back to the county in excess fees was $4,245.50, and came from Tax Collector T. W. Barnes' office. Amounts paid back to the county by other officers were as follows: County Attorney Sherman White $1,977; County Clerk Charlie Thru, $324.02; Tax Assessor F. E. Leech, $1,273.11. Other offices maintained by fees reported no excess fees.

The net income from fees of many of the officials cannot be calculated until uncollected fees are in hand. Those officials who are under but near their maximums will retain enough to make up their maximums, if they receive that much in collections, while those already above their fees allowed by law will turn all monies collected to the county.

The reports show that Justice of the Peace James Todd Jr. received $1,329.20 in fees collected. Justice W. K. Baxter $1,125.35, and Justice C. E. Howe, $70.35. Constable J. R. Walls collected $81.30.

Sheriff Lon Blanscet, balancing his books, found a profit of $2,058.07, but of this $551.43 was outstanding and not all can be collected.

Utility Sales of Appliances Being Probed By State

Recent asserted sales of electrical appliances and refrigerators by the Panhandle Power & Light company of Borger were investigated here and in nearby communities yesterday by H. D. Bishop, assistant attorney general.

Mr. Bishop who came to Pampa to assist the grand jury in investigating graving of certain roads in precinct No. 2, said that he was instructed by Attorney General James V. Allred, also to probe into the sale of electrical appliances in this section.

The investigation was made in connection with a suit recently filed at San Antonio to restrain a utility company there from selling electrical appliances.

Mr. Bishop said he did not know whether Mr. Allred contemplated filing a suit against the Borger company. Mr. Bishop spent yesterday in collecting information and testimony to present to the attorney general. The San Antonio case was termed as Mr. Allred's "pet suit," and it is known that the attorney general is especially interested in the outcome. The case is now on appeal in the court of civil appeals.

McCoy Elected Mayor

WHITE DEER, April 9.—Bob McCoy has been elected mayor of White Deer in a close election, getting 124 votes to 107 for A. J. Dauer. Aldermen elected were C. C. Enochis Lee Powers, J. W. Everly, and J. C. Jackson.

WHITE DEER, April 9.—Carson county school trustees have decided against division of the White Deer independent school district. The plan was advanced by residents of Skellytown. Cost to taxpayers of maintaining separate systems was stressed.

BAD WEATHER EXPECTED TO DISAPPEAR AT ONCE

Disagreeable weather for April—or any other month—visited the Pampa territory yesterday, bringing some rain, mist, and a few flakes of snow.

Driving was hazardous, resulting in minor accidents. The weather forecasters promised moderation today, however, and a fair Monday and warmer.

Reader Interest Makes The NEWS Very Valuable

The measure of a newspaper's service, whether to reader or advertiser, is READER INTEREST.

With reader interest, the newspaper is eagerly read daily and there is a degree of expectancy which highly serves the advertiser. That same interest, moreover, creates a dignity which the careful advertiser values. Without it, the advertising medium takes the class of the circular.

Reader interest in modern Pampa means TIMELINESS. What of the Lindbergh case? What of congress? What of that fire alarm? Reader interest means APPEAL for every member of the family. That appeal must be based on such things as features, comics, cartoons, news pictures, markets, local, state, and national news.

The Pampa Daily NEWS has an unusually high degree of READER INTEREST. Readers really WANT this newspaper for its timely, interesting news, features and advertisements. That interest means RESULTS.

PAMPA GROUP AT CARNIVAL

Grandview People Grateful
For Help Extended By Local Delegation.

Principal B. F. Bulis of the Grandview school yesterday asked THE NEWS to express the sincere appreciation of his community for the visit of a large group of Pampa folk to the Grandview carnival Friday evening.

The carnival took in $132.66, most of which was net profit to be used in buying chairs for the school auditorium. Joe Looper and Mr. Bull directed the event.

Travis Lively, who headed the Pampa group, introduced all of his townsmen present. The Pampa high school orchestra directed by Pop Frazier pleased the audience with a number of selections. I. A. Freeman, Pampa merchant, was applauded for his clever impersonations, barnyard specialties.

In the most popular girl contest, Miss Cleo Brown, a teacher, was first and Miss Laura Prater was second.

Among those who had charge of concessions were: Hamburger, Mrs. Joe Looper and Mrs. Bela Lomax; ice cream, Mrs. Joe Babcock, Mrs. Guy Andis, and Mrs. J. S. Tidwell; cake and coffee, Mrs. H. G. Coyle; Mrs. S. C. Jones, and Mrs. Roe Davis; candy, Miss Ruby Lee Jones; fish pond, Mrs. Roy Ritter; mad house, Miss Ruby Lee Speed; doll rack, Miss Cleo Brown; fortune teller, Miss Leah Anderson, Miss Lorene Byers and Miss Francis Tidwell had miscellaneous duties.

Many cakes, pies and cookies baked.

C. E. Pipes Will Be Candidate for Sheriff of County

Announcement of his candidacy for sheriff of Gray county, subject to the action of the democratic primary, has been authorized by C. E. (Tiny) Pipes. His statement follows:

"I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of sheriff of Gray county, Texas.

"In the event of my election I pledge myself to fairly and impartially, without fear or favor, enforce the law of the land and in doing so to use Gray county citizens, with no former political affiliations whatsoever, as my deputies, it being my belief that Gray county citizens should be employed in the enforcement of the law of this county. I further pledge myself to cooperate in every way with the law enforcement agencies of our government and to do so in an economical and sane manner.

"It is my belief that my years of experience as a peace officer and my knowledge of conditions in this county peculiarly fit me for the office for which I offer myself as a candidate and I will appreciate the support of all the voters of this county who believe in an impartial enforcement of the law, with justice for every one."

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP)—Alfred E. Smith has spurred his campaign workers onward with a statement that his receptive candidacy for the presidential nomination is bona fide and not a stalking effort, but advocates of Franklin D. Roosevelt continue to see encouraging signs in past and future events.

Flushed with new victories in Wisconsin and New York over Smith and further encouraged by the advice of Governor Albert C. SMALLEST BABY TITLE DISPUTED

No sooner had the one-pound son of Mr. and Mrs. William St. John of Kansas City apparently clinched the flyweight championship of the world than Mr. Carl Kaut, also of Kansas City, rose to challenge his rights. The tiny infant, only 14 inches long, with three-inch long arms, is fed by an eye-dropper and apparently is getting along all right. Top picture shows the father and Mrs. St. John's sister, Miss Margaret Hamway, looking at incubator in which the one-pound baby lives. Below is Mrs. Kaut and her son, James Irwin Kaut, who weighed only three-quarters of a pound at birth. She thinks he was the smallest baby on record to survive.

STAGE COACH DAYS ARE TO BE REVIVED TRUE TO TYPE

Great Enthusiasm Shown
By Old-Timers in Frontier
Days Celebration.

Pampa will go back to the days of the buckboard, stage coach, chuck wagon, and spurs May 26, 27, 28 for the first annual Frontier Days celebration to be staged under the auspices of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce. Costumes emblematic of the early days of the Panhandle will be worn during the celebration.

Lon L. Blanscet, general chairman of the celebration, and his committee have started securing robes and equipment and making arrangements for the big event. Oldtimers who roamed the Panhandle plains prior to 1900 are being invited as fast as their names are received. They will be dined and feted royally.

The equipment is being assembled and stored in a vacant warehouse until the big days arrive. An old stage coach has been secured from a rancher at Dumas. It will be brought to Pampa soon. The Hay Hook ranch will supply a chuck wagon. Two prairie schooners are being shipped in from Oklahoma City. Ox teams and buffalo also have been secured.

Rodeo at Park
Harvester Park has been secured for the big rodeo. There will be

AMAZED AT THE OUTCOME

NORFOLK, Va., April 9. (AP)—Two of three Norfolk negotiators for the return of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby, tonight issued a statement re-asserting faith in the parties with whom they've been dealing, and said their efforts had no relation to a ransom already paid by Col. Lindbergh. John Hughes Curtis and the Very Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock described Col. Lindbergh's announcement that he had paid $50,000, but that a promise to return his son had not been carried out, as "regrettable as it was amazing to us."

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has paid a ransom of $50,000 for his kidnaped son, but the baby has not been returned.

This was disclosed tonight in a statement issued through the New Jersey state police.

The ransom was paid, the statement of the kidnapers, properly opportunity to keep their agreement to notify him as to the exact whereabouts of the baby, but the baby was not found at the point designated.

"Several days were permitted to elapse to give the kidnapers every opportunity to keep their agreement. It was not intended to use the number on the species (currency) in which the ransom was paid, but inasmuch as the kidnapers have failed to keep their agreement and have not communicated since the ransom was paid it is felt that the remaining possible means must be utilized to accomplish the return of the baby and to this end the cooperation of the federal government was requested in tracing the bills used."

"It had been known earlier in the day that a circular giving details of the currency had been distributed to banks through the country by the treasury with a request for telegraphic notification if any of the bills were seen."

Highly Recalled
The date of the circular, Wednesday, April 6, coincides with reliable information that the payment of ransom was effected Monday on an airplane flight which Colonel Lindbergh and Col. Henry Breckenridge, his attorney, made in the neighborhood of the island of Martha's

"I AM A HOARDED DOLLAR"
I am part of that one billion, three hundred millions of hoarded money about which President Hoover has been speaking.

"My owner has put me away in a dark safe deposit box. I am not doing a thing. Having always been accustomed to an active life, this enforced idleness is really killing me. I'm as good as dead."

"Formerly I was circulating around helping to make the wheels of industry turn. I gladdened the heart of many a merchant. Every Saturday night some family was happier and better because I came into their midst."

"I formerly traveled all over the country, in and out of stores, helping to build homes and factories, paying freight bills, buying crops from farmers, constructing roads and bridges and power plants. I have helped mine coal, run steel mills, buy automobiles and enabled people to travel."

"One of the ways I was employed again and again was to buy life insurance premiums, and I was never happier than when used to protect some family or to provide for some one's old age through a life insurance or annuity policy. I have been in every life insurance office in the country, but was never permitted to stay there long. In a day or two I'd be invited to some party, or some high grade corporate or government security, or used to help some widow."

"I wish my present owner would put me back in circulation right now. I can assure him that there is no safer or more useful place for idle dollars like me than with a great life insurance company. Then I would again see the sunshine and get out of this deadly dungeon where I'm not a bit of good to anyone."

La Nora Offers "Broken Lullaby" By Paramount

Carrying on a tradition for emotional dramas which reached a new high in "An American Tragedy," Paramount presents a sincere, heart touching tale in "Broken Lullaby," which opens at the LaNora theater today.

A perfect admixture of every element that makes for sure fire entertainment, "Broken Lullaby" never once gives evidence of an overabundance of any of them. The story is imaginative—but not too imaginative; the acting does not strain itself into a tortured effort for the beholder; the tempo is swift, but not racing; the situations are not so starkly real as to be commonplace.

"Broken Lullaby" brings a number of messages, and one of them can be chosen by any member of the audience to conform to his mood. To some it is an indictment of warfare as a barbarism that must be rooted out by mankind. To others it is a glamorous love-story. To still others it is a shadow-projection of the inner workings of a remorseful man's soul. And there are many more facets, each of them fascinating for the edification of those who behold this romantic-dramatic gem.

The story has to do with the events in the lives of three principal characters in a German town several years after the World War. There is a very brief prologue in which Philip Holmes, a French soldier, engages in a hand-to-hand conflict with a German soldier and kills him. Examining some papers on the body, Holmes reads a letter which the dead man had written to his sweetheart but had not yet mailed. Holmes thus finds out the name of the bereft girl.

After this short glimpse of the war, the picture occupies itself with the events that take place several years afterward.

Vigoro Grows Humus in the Soil Humus, sometimes called organic matter, holds moisture, permits circulation of air, and helps provide an ideal home for the plant. Spreading manure or other organic material on the surface of the lawn is not applying the remedy where it is needed. Vigoro grows humus in the soil where it belongs. A part of the deep, extensive root system, produced by feeding the lawn regularly with Vigoro, decays each year as new growth takes place, leaving the dead roots—the finest kind of humus—in the soil.

PROGRAM PLANS FOR DISTRICT CONVENTION ARE COMPLETE

Shop in Pampa with Mrs. Pampan

Be it Dutch pear cake, ham and eggs, or just plain corn beef and cabbage, it goes without saying that men are really interested in dollars and the things that dollars buy.

When shopping, ask your husband's opinion occasionally—his good taste might surprise you.

Spring Danced Her Little Slippers Out

"Spring is here, and those joyous springtime shoes are pouring in at BROWNbilt's."

That's what one friend's husband said in his parting goodbye as he left the house.

"No, but that is just what my husband want me to do. He says that Mr. Lazarus can fit me so that my feet will feel comfortable and he has such a complete line of shades and colors."

"Then as I saw the happy look on my friend's face at the dance I could not resist saying, 'Did you buy the shoes?'"

"As I paused at the door of the next house I could hear voices. My friend's husband was telling his wife that their daughter, a high school student, needed some new dresses and a hat."

"Why don't you go to MURFEE'S, INC., and get her some of those $9.95 dresses that the girls like so much to wear?" he asked.

"If a girl feels comfortable and satisfied in her clothes, it will make a world of difference in her grades. Be sure to see those new frocks at Murfee's."

"My dear, your hose are beautiful!"

"I could not help this complimentary outburst and my friend did not seem in any way surprised."

"Sure," she said, "my husband brought these for my birthday because he knows that I am very choicy in the kind of hose I wear. It makes a great deal of difference in the comfort of my feet if I have hose that are full fashioned and I certainly do like them exactly the right color to harmonize with my other wearing apparel."

"I have not seen any exactly like these before," I said; "will you please tell me where your husband found them?"

"He got them at DOAK'S DEPARTMENT STORE and every pair is guaranteed."

"And what did he pay for them?" A woman just WILL ask that question.

"Only $1.00," she replied sweetly, "you would usually pay double that for hose that looks as nice as these, don't you think?"

"That is where I'm going to buy my new hat too. They have some beauties and have you seen those new dresses that have just arrived?"

Flowers From Hubby

I arrived a little late at my next destination and saw my friend dressed in a lovely Sunday night frock.

"To a party?" I asked, and she replied, "Not exactly, but my husband comes home about this time and he likes to see me looking nice."

"Then in came the husband carrying a cute little box tied with ribbon. He walked over to his wife and she rose to greet him. Just a little corsage," he said. "Got it at EMILY'S FLOWER SHOP on my way home."

"You know Emily's Flower Shop has flowers for all occasions—wedding bouquets, corsages, funeral designs, and pot plants—and at prices that every husband can afford for his wife."

"Are you weeping, my dear?" I said this rather softly when I arrived at the next destination.

"I've just been looking at my horrid complexion," she replied. "It seems that the lines are growing deeper and deeper, and I am altogether disgusted with myself."

"Perhaps it is the wind," I had just suggested when her husband entered the room and took from his pocket a little booklet.

"Look over this home method of DuBARRY treatments," he said, "and see if you can't find just the thing you want."

We started looking together and there was all about DuBARRY beauty in bath, beauty in health, treatment of blackheads, dry skin, oily skin, enlarged pores, treatment of the hands, and just everything that one could wish for.

"Surely, we can get all of these at the FATHEREE DRUG" and as I was coming right back to town I took her in my car and we stopped at FATHEREE DRUG and each got the special things we needed.

Home again, I found my own husband seated in his easy chair and reading every line of the newspaper—and all. "I don't think men are such bad shoppers," I said as I told him my experiences of the afternoon, and I knew I was right when he said:

MARRIAGE? NOT FOR RERI

Reri, the South Sea Island girl who attained stardom on screen and stage, has become Americanized. She speaks excellent English, loathes the subway and likes taxicab rides. But her career comes before marriage, she says.

NEW YORK (AP)—Reri will have no part of matrimony, and she says so emphatically in a jumble of mixed French and Tahitian words.

When this exotic movie actress and dancer came here from her native islands in the South Seas a year ago she thought American men "of charming excellence" and thought it possible she might choose one as a mate.

"I want to be a star in the theater for many years," she said, as she began a nation-wide stage tour. "Then I will go back to Tahiti and raise pineapples. I don't know about falling in love. My work is more important to me now."

When Reri first arrived in New York she wore a grass skirt, and a halo of flowers in her hair. She could speak no English, and heartily disapproved of the modern custom of sleeping in beds. She preferred to curl up on a rug.

Today she speaks excellent English and wears only the latest Paris styles. She continues to wear a white love flower over one ear, retaining this custom from her early life in Tahiti.

Reri loathes the subway, but likes to ride in taxicabs. Her quick wit and natural charm have made her a favorite at parties where literary and theatrical celebrities gather.

Our studies are in the Book of Judges and today our subject will be "A Strong Weak People." Throughout this book this truth and just the reverse, "A weak strong people" will be our study.

A finer fellowship and a better interest is manifest in this work from week to week. The weak are strong and the strong are weak according to their relationship to God. These days call for men of strength. We believe that each man will receive strength who comes and studies these lessons.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON.—Amusing or deplorable as the fact may be, it appears that the elements in the democratic party which most hate Tammany Hall may have to depend on Tammany to put over their candidate at the Chicago convention.

It is possible that Governor Roosevelt of New York can win a nomination without the 94 votes of New York state, which will be in the pocket of John F. Curry, he boss of Tammany. And it is possible that those 94 delegates will never be in the Roosevelt column.

But at this moment the indication is that the 94 delegates, although they will go to Chicago un-instructed, will be found in the Roosevelt on the first ballot. And, if they are found in the Roosevelt column on the first ballot, they probably will make all the difference in the world. At a time when every politician is wondering how many more or less than a majority Roosevelt can summon on the first two or three ballots, a solid, controlled block of 94 becomes of enormous importance!

Curry May Decide It
The Roosevelt forces may or may not need it for the big push, but it is interestingly hard to see how the die-hard Roosevelt opponents can possibly stop the governor without it.

The delegation will definitely be dominated by Curry, in a combination with bosses adjacent to the Tammany territory and in certain counties upstate. Curry's domination means that he can make it vote unanimously under the unit rule, which he has promised to do.

The purest fauets of information say that Curry now figures on supporting Roosevelt. But, acting the part of a wise boss, he leaves himself free to act in accordance with possible developments by seeing to it that the delegates go un-instructed.

Strength in West and South
The most bizarre feature of the situation is that the vast bulk of the Roosevelt strength is in the west and south, sections which have abhorred and fought Tammany for many decades, and that the backbone of the Roosevelt opposition is among powerful bosses of the east, with whom Tammany would normally be expected to be found allied.

West graft-ridden eastern Tammany apparently is to run in harness with the dry. Progressive westerners and the dry conservative southerners on the band wagon of the wet, comparatively progressive eastern Roosevelt — probably over the bodies of the wet, reactionary eastern politicians. That's about as close as one can come to expressing it.

Fashion Note from S. M. U. Campus

If you really want to know what the boys are wearing this spring, the picture above should give a good insight on the fashion trends. Look at these big husky males sleekly attired to show their voluptuous forms in feminine raiment. Who are they? Just Southern Methodist University seniors at Dallas cutting up at the annual April 1 "Pikers' Day." And don't you feel just like a bug when Mrs. Astorbilt in the center stares at you through that thingumabob?

He's No Pal of Al's
Curry is no bosom friend of Al Smith and certainly is no party to any plan Al may have for being nominated this year. Nobody's fool, Curry sees neither the wisdom nor the necessity of going for Smith when everyone knows Smith will not be nominated.

Nor does Curry as yet see any nourishment in joining the other bosses who want to block Roosevelt.

Roosevelt is not unpopular with the Tammany leaders. Some of them, at least, prefer him as governor to Smith. Al has great strength among the organization's rank and file and can cause trouble in any city or state election if he tries, but his only chance to line up the New York delegation to the convention was by a strong, open effort which he did not make.

Record Book Is Declared Good

Mrs. N. P. Maddux, Mrs. S. O. Garner, and Miss Violet Durrett, members of Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association, were among the Pampans at the district Parent-Teacher convention in Panhandle Friday. It was on that day it was announced that the association's publicity record book, having a grade of 97, would be sent to the state convention. It was one of the two best books of the district, the other being from Baker school, Pampa.

Mrs. M. K. Griffith, secretary, and members of the publicity committee prepared the record book. Mrs. Maddux made an interesting report at the convention, and the school also displayed a health chart.

Phifer Estlack and James Smith of Clarendon were in Pampa Saturday.

He fired a Tammany sheriff, but has refused, on what he and his followers consider good grounds, to remove certain good officials. Al though he has refused to grab a flaming sword and undertake to "clean up" Tammany, he has thus far handled the situation created by the Seabury investigation, without alienating Tammany or his own Tammany hating supporters.

George Briggs, C. H. Walker, and John B. Hessey made a business trip to Clarendon Saturday.

Baker Book Is To Be Sent to State Meeting

Several honors went to the Baker Parent-Teacher association of Pampa at the district meeting held in Plainview Thursday and Friday. The association's publicity record book contained the largest number of clippings (40) in the district, and the book received a grade of 97, and the one from Horace Mann being judged the best in the district. Both books will be sent to the state meeting.

The association, with 112 members, was ranked third in membership, and its report was judged second best.

As a surprise to Mrs. Lard, president, the second grade mothers club presented her a life membership.

CATS WILL PLAY DEFENSIVE GAME AS USUAL WITH PITCHING AND FIELDING HUSTLE STRONG

BY FLEM MALL
Sports Editor, Evening Star Telegram
Written exclusively for The Associated Press

PORT WORTH, April 8 (AP)—In their corner waiting for the bell that'll send them into the 154-round five months battle, the Fort Worth Cats are prepared to fight along the same line they have followed for years and years. They'll play a defensive game. Good pitching will be their forte. Efficient fielding and hustle will be things Manager Dick McCabe will work to achieve. When the records are written next fall the Cats again may be the champion one-run club of the league.

It appears to be the eternal fate of Fort Worth teams to play a flimsy game. Even back in the days when Clarence Kraft was crashing home runs the Cats were essentially a defensive team—that was when they gained the title as "the world's greatest one-run team."

From time to time the team comes up with some good hits but never has it been blessed with batting strength enough to overpower opposition. Always the pitching has been the strong point. Instead of playing for the one big inning—the game of slugging aggregations—the Cats play for one run at a time with the hope of securing out a narrow margin victory.

From the time he was appointed manager last fall, McCabe has tried to acquire batting punch for his team but on the eve of the season's start he isn't sure he has succeeded. Bill Steinecke is the only new player who promises to give more power. What he will add will very probably be lost at first base where young Alex Hooks has replaced old Ed Brown. Hooks, however, will give far better protection around the initial canvas out-pit. There is a possibility that Tex Jensen, veteran outfielder from the Southern Association, will put more kick into the offense but it is uncertain to say the least. McCabe's hope is that some of last year's players will have better seasons at the plate. Eddie Moore, Blundy Baker, Charley Engle and Dutch Krauss are all capable of hitting 50 points more than in '31. They have shown much promise this spring and if they can escape the injuries and illnesses which handicapped them last year they'll increase the team's run-making ability to a point where the pitchers won't have to carry all the load.

Manager McCabe, Lil Stinner and Dick Whitworth will again be the mainstays of the pitching staff. Although all of the star right-handers are more than 35 years old (Whitworth is pushing 40) they have shown no sign of losing any of their effectiveness.

Supporting them will be at least one other seasoned hurler—probably George Grant, a right-hander who was with Pittsburgh and Buffalo last year.

The six-man staff will be completed by two non-class men. Har White, Bill Terry and Clarence Pickrel are the three leading candidates. All of them are right-handers. White and Terry just broke into professional circles last year but had successful seasons in small league. Terry was with the Cats part of last season and finished up in the Western with Wichita, where he won five straight games while losing one.

The catching will be taken care of by Krauss and another yet to be selected. If no one else is secured Steinecke will be the man, but if a non-class receiver is secured to help Krauss, Steinecke will be shifted to right field.

The infield will be composed of Hooks at first, Jimmy Dalrymple at second, Charley Engle at short, and Elmont Baker at third. It will be a sweet defensive unit and may hit fairly well. Baker hit for better than .400 in all exhibition games.

Two non-class men will hold the utility jobs. Paul Grobb, a left-handed pitcher who can also play both first and the outfield, will be one of them. Johnny Wingfield, skilled in second, short and third defense, will be the other.

TWO GAMES TO BE MONDAY

Lions and Postal Clerks to Delay Encounter Until Friday Evening.

Only two games will be played in the Pampa Playground ball league tomorrow afternoon. The scheduled meeting between the Postoffice and the Lions club has been postponed until Friday afternoon in order that the roaring gentlemen may attend a convention in Lubbock tomorrow.

The Panhandle Insurance and the Pampa NEWS will meet on the Sam Houston diamond, North Frost street. Both teams have one win and one loss to their credit and the game should be close.

The Kiwanis club will meet the league leading Faculty on Woodrow Wilson diamond, East Browning street.

Games scheduled for Wednesday afternoon follow:
Pampa NEWS vs. Lions club at Baker school.

Kiwanis club vs. Panhandle Insurance at Woodrow Wilson school.

Postoffice vs. Faculty at Sam Houston school.

Every man entering the tournament will have an equal chance to win. Even though the poorest player in the city is matched with the best he will have an equal chance because the best player will have to spot the poorest player the number of strokes separating them in their qualifying round. Each match will be over 18 holes.

The course is in excellent condition.

Basketball To Be Speeded Up

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—In an effort to speed up the game, the national basketball rules committee today adopted the recommendation of the coaches requiring the offensive team to advance the ball past the center of the court within 10 seconds after obtaining possession of the ball.

The committee also adopted a rule providing that player, standing in the foul line or free throw circle must pass the ball within three seconds. This was aimed at the elimination of the so-called blocking pivot.

FIRST SHUTOUT

WICHITA FALLS, April 9 (AP)—Tom Conlan and Marvin Ferrell fashioned the Spudders' first shutout of the 1932 season when they limited the Des Moines Demons to three hits here today and the Spudders won the opener of a two-game series, 3 to 0. Conlan allowed three hits in seven innings and Ferrell finished up without yielding a hit.

PANTHERS TAKE OPENER

DALLAS, April 9 (AP)—The Fort Worth Panthers took the first game of a two-game exhibition series from the Dallas Steers, here today. Steinecke's home run in the opening inning put the Panthers in front, and Manager Dick McCabe pitched great ball to hold the lead. The Dallas tally was made in the third inning. The final game will be played tomorrow at Fort Worth.

TULSA IS DEFEATED

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 9 (AP)—Oklahoma City defeated Tulsa 9-6 today in a renewal of their traditional Western league rivalry. "Whitey" Walker, Pacific coast shortstop with the Indians, tripled in the second with the bases loaded. The teams meet again tomorrow.

GALVESTON WINS

SHREVEPORT, April 9 (AP)—Galveston jumped on Southpaws Bolton and Willis to hammer out a 9-2 victory over the Shreveport Sports here today in the first of a two-game series. Gene Rye led the Buccaneers' attack. Hamilton got a homer for Shreveport.

INDIANS WIN ONE

TOLEDO, O., April 9 (AP)—The Toledo Mudhens dropped the first of a two-game series today to the second squad of the Cleveland Indians 7-4. Joe Vosmik, regular Indian left fielder, returned to the line-up for the first time since he hurt his back a week ago, and got four singles out of five times at bat.

WILDCATS WIN MEET

ABILENE, April 9 (AP)—Abilene Christian college today held its first home track meet in two years, and the weather man chose the occasion to favor Abilene with its worst sandstorm since 1930. The howling gale shut out the anticipated star performances in many events, but did not prevent the Wildcats from scoring a victory, with 81 points as compared with 73 for Texas Christian university, and 11 for Daniel Baker college.

BASEBALL TO OPEN BIGGEST SHOW OF ALL

GALA START WILL BE MADE ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—Featuring the fanfare and pageantry for which it has long been famous, major league baseball's big show sounds the overture next week for a prospective upturn in the big business of American sport.

The prospects are for an auspicious as well as gala getaway. The nation's chief executive, Herbert Hoover, will make the first official gesture by throwing out the ball for the prelude, to be played by Boston and Washington clubs at the capitol on Monday afternoon. Tuesday, all sixteen major league clubs will swing into action. Upwards of 250,000 fans are expected to witness the nine opening games listed for the two days. This would compare favorably with the record turnout of 249,000 for the eight inaugural contests of 1931.

Large crowds are expected to see Brooklyn's coming out party against the Boston Braves, the New York Yankees challenge the Athletics in Philadelphia, while many watch the St. Louis Cardinals, world champions, make their first home stand against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Washington and Boston, after entertaining the presidential party, journey to the hub for another ceremonial affair Tuesday. The other American league engagements Tuesday are: Cleveland at Detroit, St. Louis at Chicago; National league, Philadelphia at New York, Chicago at Cincinnati.

The majority of teams have been radically overhauled, especially in the national league. Brooklyn and Cincinnati will present lineups altered from top to bottom. The Yankees, the Cubs, the Braves and the White Sox likewise have achieved radical shakeups, all calculated to improve their chances of going somewhere and entertaining the customers.

Tulane Defeats Texas Netmen

AUSTIN, April 9 (AP)—Tulane University's tennis team handed the University of Texas netters a lopsided defeat here today. Texas won one singles match and one doubles match.

Singles scores:
Bobby of Texas defeated Ed Sutter, 6-2, 6-1; Cliff Sutter, Tulane, defeated Karl Kamrath, 6-3, 6-1; Eastman of Tulane, defeated Peden, 6-2, 7-5; Hume of Tulane defeated Williams, 6-3, 7-5.

Doubles:
Cliff and Ed Sutter defeated Kamrath and Williams, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Buxby and Key of Texas defeated Doyle and Hume, 4-6, 6-0, 6-3.

Miss Coleman in Opening Net Win

Miss Mable Coleman, singles tennis star of Pampa High school, won her opening match in the Amarillo high school invitation tennis tournament yesterday morning. The Pampa girl took her match in straight sets 6-1, 6-0, from the Plainview entry.

Miss Louise Walstad and Miss Eura Rose, Pampa doubles entry, were tied with the Amarillo doubles team, one game each, when play was called off because of rain. John Schofield and Evans lost in doubles to Amarillo early in the morning.

Robert Brown and Thomas Kitchens, Pampa's rating doubles team, and John Schofield, singles, did not get to play because of the storm.

If the weather is favorable today the tournament will be continued.

FORCES IN RUN

PHILADELPHIA, April 9 (AP)—Pitcher Jimmy Doherty of the Athletics yanked George Davis of the Phillies in the ninth inning with the bases loaded and the score tied, and gave the Phils the final game of the city series, 3-2. The A's won only one game out of the series five.

SURPRISING GOLF WIN

PINEHURST, N. C., April 9 (AP)—Playing a calm, methodical game that totally belied his lack of tournament experience, Milton Pierpont Warner, Pine Orchard, Conn., gave John B. Myerson, Copperstown, N. Y., an 8 and 3 lacing this afternoon to capture the 32nd annual north and south amateur golf tournament here.

Stanford Star Batters World 88-Yard Record

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., April 9 (AP)—Ben Eastman, Stanford's newly risen track star, bettered the world's record for the 880-yard run here today with a time of 1:51.3, or three-tenths of a second faster than the mark established in England in 1926 by Dr. Otto Pelzer of Germany. A. A. U. officials timed Eastman.

Running in a triangular meet among Stanford, the San Francisco Olympic club and San Francisco University, Eastman had the pole position and made a perfect start. He was clocked at 24 seconds flat for the first 220 yards and at 53.3 seconds at the quarter mile.

The four A. A. U. officials who timed the race said the wind ranged between 2.7 and 2.9 per hour and generally was against the runners.

SNYDER HIGH FIRST IN TECH RELAY EVENTS

M'CLINTON SPEEDS TO CARRY TEAM TO VICTORY

LUBBOCK, April 9 (AP)—Snyder high school's great McClinton led his team to victory today in the second running of the annual Texas Tech relay.

McClinton was personally responsible for 14½ of the 25 points made by the Tigers, who nosed out the Amarillo high school Sandies by three points to win the AVA-LANCHE-JOURNAL'S trophy for team honors, and the star was easily the high point man of the meet.

An unusually strong sand-storm stole the spotlight and held all records, with the exception of two, far below the marks established a year ago. A new record was set for the shuttle relay by Snyder because the event was omitted from last year's curriculum, and McClinton of Snyder navigated the century dash in 9.8 seconds with a strong wind to his back. The 1931 time was 9.9.

The dismal weather held an expected field of 50 teams down to 37, fifteen of which placed in the ten events.

BRAVES DEFEAT SOX

BOSTON, April 9 (AP)—Five pitchers twirled in mid-season from today when the Boston Braves opened the annual inter-city series with a 2-1 victory over the Red Sox.

PIRATES IN VICTORY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 9 (AP)—French and Kremer held Memphis to four hits today and the Pittsburgh Pirates won, 3-2.

KITTY FREW

by JANE ABBOTT

SYNOPSIS: "David is in love with Kitty Frew as told by the author. But Kitty has thought David, her husband's brother-in-law, a loyal friend. She needs her friends for her husband Gar borrows money from his mother instead of saving it, and is attracted by Margie Crosby."

Chapter 34 SUSPICION

KITTY shrank as though the other had struck her. She made a little quick sound of protest. Her face flamed and paled and flamed again.

"It isn't so!" she answered faintly.

Dorcas had quieted. She put her hand on Kitty's shoulder. "I was a beast to say that. You didn't know, of course, David wouldn't let you know by any word or sign. You must forgive my telling you. I've messed things up, I'm afraid. I lost hold of myself— You made me angry, you seemed so stupid. You see, Kitty, I happen to care a great deal about David's happiness."

Kitty stirred only enough to draw herself away from Dorcas' hand. But Dorcas went on, unnoticed, "I used to think that David would love me, some day, the way a man must love me if I marry him. But after I saw him with you I knew, I'm not jealous—those are things one can't help. But I feel very sorry for poor old David."

Kitty felt tears on her cheeks, and put up her hands to wipe them away. Her hands shut tight over her eyes.

"You are just imagining it, Dorcas— she whispered. It wasn't so, it couldn't be so."

"Oh, no. We've talked it out, David and I."

Kitty got up quickly, moving a little blindly. "I must go." She would not look at Dorcas. She put on her coat, jammed her soft hat down on her head. "I wish you hadn't told me," she cried hotly, youthfully.

"I wish I hadn't told you, David will never forgive me. Or you, perhaps." She followed Kitty to the door, and at the door she put out a hand and resolutely detained her.

"Kitty, you must know what David's doing now. They refused that other manuscript he sent to them, but they want him to write another. He's gone down to his place to start it. He's all enthusiasm over it. You wouldn't know him, Kitty. He's found himself."

"Poor old David," Dorcas had said. Later, thinking of this, Kitty thought later. Kitty struggled to another sympathy for David in her own heart. She did not think any more, "It isn't so." Somehow, she knew now, that it was so. The memory of countless moments with David, expressions she had caught on his face, words he had not said, his concern and consideration came back to her with a new understanding.

He'd finished his book to prove himself to her. He was working desperately on another one.

And she couldn't share it with him! Dorcas had made that impossible. "I'll never forgive her," Kitty thought, indignantly. She had no compassion for Dorcas, who had admitted so frankly that she cared for David. "She's spoiled everything between David and me."

That Margery Crosby was going ahead in April became an established fact. Every one talked of it; Margie talked of it.

"Mother and I are going to travel during the summer, and then I'm going to stay in Paris."

"Stay, Margie? For the winter?" "The rest of my life, perhaps." She said that, whenever she had a chance, always a little sadly, suggesting that she was seeking exile for some mysterious reason.

And she'd rather he'd said he had been with Margie! She did not answer him.

A round of informal parties in Marge's honor began. Every night Gar and Kitty joined the others to dance somewhere.

"We'll need to go to Bridgewater to read," Kitty said to Gar, laughing. "Why, I've lost ten pounds, I believe."

She was thinner; her bright color had gone. But Gar had not noticed. The bridesmaid's dress had come from Felicia's. She put it on for Gar to see it.

"Isn't it lovely?" And Gar said briefly that it was all right, he guessed. He'd scowled as if irritated by something.

Fear grew sharper in Kitty's heart, a nameless fear, for she would not give it any name. She had a sensation of fighting with empty hands, blindly. She was inexpressibly lonely; she realized sharply that after all these months in Winton she had no real friends!

She would not go to Dorcas, now. Carol, wrapped in her own troubles, was no comfort. She could not talk to David—and most of all she wanted to talk to David. She allowed herself a little angry resentment that David had been so stupid. He hadn't had any right to fall in love with her!

"Everything's so useless," she cried aloud one evening when she was dressing to go out with Gar. And the sound of the words frightened her. It was so.

"Go back to Bridgewater, call it a mistake." The words leaped out at her. What if she did?

And then Gar came in, hurrying. "I'm sorry I'm so late, Kitty. Ready? I won't take me a minute to bathe."

She clung to him. "Why, what's the matter, sweet? You're trembling."

"I guess I'm just horribly tired, Gar." That was it, of course. Her lips pressed Gar's, she felt humble, shaken.

"Do you want to go to-night? Sure you're up to it, Kitty? Gar was all concern.

She was ready to tell him that she'd rather not go; she'd thought swiftly of an evening, alone with Gar—

"Isobel will understand. I'll tell her you're bushed."

"Oh, I'll go, I'm all right, Gar." And then that nagging suspicion that maybe Gar'd rather go without her.

Paul Somerset was always one of every party. More often than not he escorted Marge. Kitty knew that the others laughed at his devotion, commented on the indifference Marge showed him. And Gar, to Kitty, talked scathingly of him. After Isobel's party, talking it over, Gar said: "That big bouncer, Somerset—I'd like to punch his face in for him."

"But why does Marge bother with him?" Gar did not answer her. She saw him scowl. She changed the subject quickly.

El Coyote Rides In Rex Thriller

El Coyote—mysterious rider of the night—swings in and out of the plot of "The Gay Caballero" with all the daring of the romantic knights of history, yet the scene of the Arizona and the time is the present day.

Who is El Coyote? This is the question on the tip of every character in the picture opening today at the Rex Theater.

The mystery of El Coyote's identity remains unsolved throughout the telling of the story, although suspicion points at one time or another to practically every male member of the powerful cast. These include O'Brien and Victor McLaglen, who are featured; C. Henry Gordon, Weldon Helburn and Willard Robertson.

Conchita Montenegro and Linda Watkins, both of whom were named Fox Debutante Stars at the start of the current season, have the feminine leads, Conchita as a fiery daughter of Spain and Miss Watkins as an American.

Higher Prices on Farm Products Are Guaranteed

Osborne Bros., local John Deere dealers, advise that they have received authorization from John Deere Plow company to put into effect immediately an order that guarantees a higher scale of prices on varying quantities of corn, wheat, and cotton, in the purchase of John Deere tractors, combines, windrows and threshers.

Many farmers, according to Osborne Bros., are in need of new machines in order to produce their crops economically. They are hesitating about buying new equipment because of the fear that prevailing low prices of farm products will continue.

To meet this situation, John Deere through its local dealers, offers guaranteed prices. If the price of corn, wheat or cotton does not reach the guaranteed price at the time payment becomes due on notes and maturing this fall, farmers buying machines included in the offer, will receive a credit to make up the difference.

Osborne Bros., are in position to explain in detail the workings of this offer and invite farmers interested to see them at their earliest convenience, in order that they may take advantage of this plan now so that their production costs can be kept down to the minimum this year.

Longtime Resident Much Interested in Frontier Occasion
Interest in the Frontier Days celebration to be held here May 26-28 was expressed by Mrs. E. J. Gething, 36-year resident of the county, who was here Friday.
Mrs. Gething said she probably would attend the celebration. She is known to old-timers throughout this section. The Gethings came from England to the ranch where Mrs. Gething lives now 36 years ago and never left it. Mr. Gething has been dead a number of years. For 24 years after they began operation of the ranch, they lived in a half-dugout. The Gething ranch is noted as one of the best-improved in this vicinity.

LIVESTOCK STEADY

KANSAS CITY, April 9. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—The market on killing classes of cattle this week had a fair degree of stability. Weighty steers held the spotlight in the early trade. On late sessions the outlet for light steers and yearlings widened materially. Good to choice heifers and mixed yearlings sold to good advantage. Country demand for steers and feeders continued slow. Receipts at eleven markets totaled around 149,000 as compared with 143,494 last week and 17,596 the corresponding period a year ago.

In the sheep market trade was dragging. Closing prices on fat lambs are steady to 25 lower with a week ago. Some weakness also developed on aged stock. The supply approximating 355,000 was 38,500 heavier than last week and slightly under a year ago.

Lighter weights of hogs, 250 lbs. down are steady to 15 lower for the week while strong weight butchers took a decline of 15-25. Chicago had a late top of 4.45. Total offerings were around 371,000 against 355,433 last week and 397,553 a year ago.

LINDBERGH--

Vineyard, Mass. The pair carried a suitcase suitable for holding currency, and a blanket. As the statement pointed out "several days" elapsed between the payment and the action by the government.

Tonight's statement lent itself to two theories; one, that the ransom had been paid to the real kidnapers and they "double crossed" the colonel, became fearful of completing negotiations or for some unknown reason decided not to complete the transaction.

The other was that clever criminals had succeeded in forging a satisfactory identification of themselves as the kidnapers and seized upon the opportunity to extort $50,000.

Immunity Pledged

In consideration of these theories it was recalled, however, that Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh have publicly pledged themselves not to try to injure those returning the baby. The dispatch of the money circular by the office of Walter O. Woods, treasurer of the United States, became known this morning, but the news was withheld by press associations on the ground that if published it might be injurious to the search for the child.

SHOWBOAT MINSTRELS TO BE PREMIER ATTRACTION SOON AT LA NORA; COMEDIANS FEATURED

The first big vaudeville show presented in a local theater in two years will be presented Friday and Saturday of this week by the La Nora theater.

The Showboat Minstrels, one of the largest musical shows on the road this season, will feature Jimmie Allard, singing comedian; Billie Doss, blackface comedian; Mac and Long, dancers; Jack and Trey Reynolds, comedians, singers, and dancers; and Bob Morphet, featured master of ceremonies.

The Minstrels will have a special orchestra, which has been with the show in some of the largest cities of the southwest. The company will come from the Publix theaters of Texas and New Mexico. Jimmie Allard and Billy Doss, the featured comedians, need no introduction in this section, having played here before. The picture program in connection with the show will be "The Unexpected Father," with Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts, a rollicking comedy.

Other vaudeville shows will be brought to Pampa if the public desires them.
