Japan Will Deny League Her Explanation

A First Posy
Spring is here. The first flower of the season has told us so. That little member of the daisy family, nestling close to the ground, is blooming in the pastures. It has white petals and a large yellow center. Often it has a tint of lavender. It's an humble little flower, but the first brave enough to risk snows and northers. ... And trees are budding. ... plums are in flower.

Things A-Borning
The sap is rising. So are the kites. Lads' heels are itching for the feel of the soil. There is a restless feeling apparent—nature is coming alive. ... But with restlessness there is a languor. Some call it spring fever. And some work it off digging for worms. Busy, this columnist just writes about it.

Stunting
A lot of people say that wrestling is a fake and no publicity should be given to it. And equally smart folks tell us that the Lenz-Culbertson bridge tournament was in every way educational. Personally, the bridge tournament, with its fake quarrels, and horse-play, seemed very much like a wrestling match. It was a publicity stunt, pure and simple, yet condoned because many people are interested in bridge.

Drawbacks
Democracy in government is probably the best there is for this age, but one cannot escape the fact that representative government has its drawbacks. There is no constancy of policy toward business. Every four years uncertainty develops to an alarming degree. It will be a relief to business when the present congress makes up its mind, passes its measures, and adjourns.

Hard Waiting
Business, which provides the jobs for most of us, knows that the government must exact a larger parcel of taxes to balance the budget. But business cannot adjust its own budgets until it learns what the federal tax gatherers will require. Some businesses are being harmed by the very uncertainty of the levies to be made upon them. ... The house, in particular, has shown a tendency toward stampeding despite the desperate work of veteran John Garner. Such lawmaking orgies every four years, with PI Column—Galley 1 changes in policies each time, tend to disrupt normal business.

NEW YORK (AP)—This plane had an accident before it ever took the air. Mrs. Sadie Warren Davis was christening the ship in which Leon D. F. Paris, negro pilot, plans a flight to Haiti. She hit it with a finger ale bottle. The bottle didn't break and the engine cowling got dented.

NEGRO "BIG SHOT" IS KILLED

BULLET ENDS 'TRIANGLE' AT LOCAL 'FLATS'

LEWIS STEWART SLAIN SUNDAY; ARTHUR JOHNSON HELD

VICTIM HAD PROPERTY

THREE NEGROES TO BE TRIED IN CURRENT COURT TERM

The eternal triangle, this time involving two negro men and a negro woman, resulted in the death of Lewis Stewart, 42, and the arrest of Arthur Johnson. The latter was charged with murder in justice court, where his bond was fixed at $1,000 by James Todd Jr. The grand jury is investigating the slaying today. Johnson waived preliminary hearing. The affair took place last night.

Stewart's death was caused by a pistol bullet which entered on his upper lip and ranged upward lodging in his brain. Death was instantaneous. The shooting took place in front of a local hotel where Stewart was employed as porter. Stewart was the "big shot" of the flats, negro section of the city. He owned considerable property, including houses and lots, and a large automobile. He had lived here six years. Sheriff Lon L. Blansett said that late yesterday, Johnson went to the hotel where Stewart was working to remonstrate with the negro porter concerning a woman. Stewart came out to the car which Johnson was driving. A few words passed before Johnson fired a pistol. Johnson said he shot after Stewart made a movement with his hand to his hip. Johnson also claimed Stewart had been paying attentions to his "woman" and that the latter had repeatedly repulsed them.

Stewart's survivors are his three sisters, Mrs. Mecca Davis, Mrs. Viola Hill of Slaton, and Mrs. Pearl McDaniel of Amarillo. Johnson was the third negro charged with murder here in the last six months. All three are due to be tried during the present term of 31st district court.

Negro Is Sought As Terrorist In Another Shooting

FORT WORTH, March 28 (AP)—An intensive search was under way here today for a negro who has terrorized couples of Fort Worth and vicinity for several months.

Doyle Sinclair, 22, and Miss Opal Whitworth, 23, were the latest victims. Sinclair was shot through the groin late last night and Miss Whitworth, his companion, was slugged and wounded in the leg.

The couple, Miss Whitworth said, was sitting in their automobile in Greenway park when the negro approached. "Don't move or I'll shoot," he ordered. He fired as the startled young man shifted in his seat.

The negro took Sinclair's watch and money, then locked him in the rumble seat. Miss Whitworth was forced to get out of the car. She said the negro knocked her down, then shot her as she started to rise. Police were of the opinion the couple's assailant was the terrorist.

NORFOLK MAN TO SEE LINDY ABOUT KIDNAPING MYSTERY

John H. Curtis Maintains He Has Clue Which Should Produce Results.

John H. Curtis, Norfolk lost manufacturer, today said the Very Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock serving as an intermediary for the return of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby, left Norfolk today for Hopewell, N. J., to hold a personal conference with Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

Curtis said he and Rear Admiral Guy H. Burreage, also serving as intermediaries, had found it necessary to change their plans and remain in Norfolk.

Asked if he believed the trip today would complete the negotiations for the child's return, he said, "I never believe anything until it is completed." He added, however, that today's conference with Colonel Lindbergh would have an important bearing on the plans of the Norfolk citizens.

BOSTON, March 28 (AP)—Declaring she learned from newspapers that she was sought in connection with the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby, Miss Betty Gruener, 37-year-old nurse, reported to police headquarters today and submitted to questioning.

Police said she told vague and conflicting stories and expressed the opinion she knew nothing about the kidnaping. They quoted her as saying she could find the baby "if I had the dough."

Pipes Home Is Damaged in Fire

Fire of undetermined origin damaged the five-room residence of C. E. (Tiny) Pipes at 321 Warren street this morning about 2 o'clock. The blaze started in the front bedroom but was extinguished by the fire department before it spread to other rooms in the house. All the rooms in the house were damaged by smoke. Charlie Pipes, desk sergeant at the police station, who lived at the place, said.

The house belonged to Siler Faulkner. All occupants of the house were visiting in Canyon and did not return to Pampa until 3 o'clock this morning. Chief Clyde Gold said the damage was about $500.

Approximately 4,000,000 pounds of wool will be sheared in Indiana this year.

WITHDRAWAL MAY FOLLOW THIS DECISION

NATION AND CHINA ARE UNDER OBLIGATION TO EXPLAIN

EXPECT OTHER DENIALS

JAPANESE BOMB FORCE OF MANCHURIAN REVOLTERS

TOKYO, March 28 (AP)—The Japanese government has decided to refuse to furnish the League of Nations with the statement of one side of the Japanese controversy called for under article 15 of the league covenant, it was learned on good authority today.

The step was forecast nearly two months ago when China invoked Article 15 at Geneva, shortly after the beginning of hostilities at Shanghai.

The article specifies that nations on both sides of a controversy shall submit statements of their cases, on which the league may then make its decision of responsibility.

The prediction also was made at that time that Japan would resist, even to the extent of withdrawing from the league, if the application of the article were pressed.

Well-informed quarters here today expressed the opinion that the government's decision was the first refusal of Japan to participate in the league's action. It was learned of good authority that it was highly unlikely the Japanese delegation at Geneva would attend the next session of the league assembly.

CHANGCHUN, Manchuria, Mar. 28 (AP)—Japanese military aviators bombed Chinese insurgent concentration north of Nungun today and there. The weather caused Mrs. Hoover to curtail the folk dances on the south lawn but she played hostess inside the mansion to about 150 children of officials.

A Little Theater board meeting will be held at 8 o'clock this evening in the home of Mrs. E. M. Conley.

WAS THIS KIDNAP ROUTE?

Unshaken in his conviction that kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby have communicated with him, the Rev. Harold Dobson Peacock, dean of Christ Episcopal church in Norfolk, Va., shown in lower picture, said that he and two friends are expecting the child to be returned to them. John Hughes Curtis, in top picture, a Norfolk boat manufacturer, and Rear Admiral Guy Burreage are his associates in the negotiations. They believe the kidnapers are in a boat in Chesapeake bay, which could be reached direct by an all-water route by driving only nine miles from the Lindbergh home at Hopewell, N. J.

By driving only nine miles from Hopewell, N. J., kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby could have escaped by water direct to Chesapeake bay, as map above shows. A road leads direct from Hopewell to the Delaware and Raritan canal. Passing through the canal the kidnapers could have continued down the Delaware river past Wilmington to the Chesapeake and Delaware canal, which would carry them across to Chesapeake bay. There it would be easy to hide away among the thousands of islands and conduct negotiations, as is indicated in developments at Norfolk. Norfolk police, the United States coast guard and military authorities, made no move to apprehend the yacht on which the baby was supposed to be, which strengthened opinions that the negotiations included a pledge of immunity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Patrick had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Patrick and family of Conway.

EXCEPTIONS IN LEGAL BATTLE TO BE DECIDED

FIFTEEN OIL CONCERNS ATTACKED STATE LAWS

TWO EXEMPTIONS CITED

MUCH TIME IS TAKEN TO RULE UPON LEGALITY

AUSTIN, March 28. (AP)—Texas' anti-trust laws were held constitutional by Judge J. D. Moore of Travis county district court today, in a ruling rejecting the contention of defendants in the outlier suit against major oil corporations that the statutes invoked against them were invalid.

The court overruled all general demurrers of the defendants, in which the main complaint was directed at constitutionality of the anti-trust laws under which James V. Allred, attorney general, seeks to levy fines aggregating $17,850,000 against 15 oil companies and two petroleum associations.

The state alleged the defendants had formed a conspiracy to control the marketing of gasoline and petroleum products.

Special exceptions now in the case on the main facts pertain under way. Consideration of law points has engaged the court's attention intermittently since the case was called Feb. 2 last.

Defendants claimed that inclusion of an unconstitutional law in the revised penal statutes of 1925 rendered the whole body of anti-trust laws invalid. The law complained of exempted trade labor unions and farm co-operative organizations from provisions of the state anti-trust laws.

NEWS FLASHES AT PRESS TIME

PHILADELPHIA, March 28 (AP)—Dean H. Dobson-Peacock, one of the three Norfolk men seeking to intervene in the Lindbergh kidnaping case, was said to have arrived at the Philadelphia Navy yard at noon today and left immediately for Trenton, N. J. O. Gillham suffered painful hip injuries, and body bruises, and Mrs. Gillham was bruised and cut on the face in an automobile collision late yesterday. The driver of the other car did not stop and his identity had not been definitely established this morning by Sheriff Lon L. Blansett.

Mr. Gillham with members of his family as occupants of the car was driving south on Starkweather street. At the intersection on Browning, the other car collided with the rear wheel of the Gillham machine, swinging it around. It did not overturn. Mr. Gillham was taken to a local hospital for medical treatment and later removed to his home. The Gillham children were not hurt.

Hansford Man Is Dead of Exposure When Found Today
GRUVER, March 28 (AP)—Searching parties today found the body of Sophas Brandzik, 65-year-old Hansford county farmer, who died from exposure Saturday night soon after he had abandoned his stalled truck in Coldwater creek.

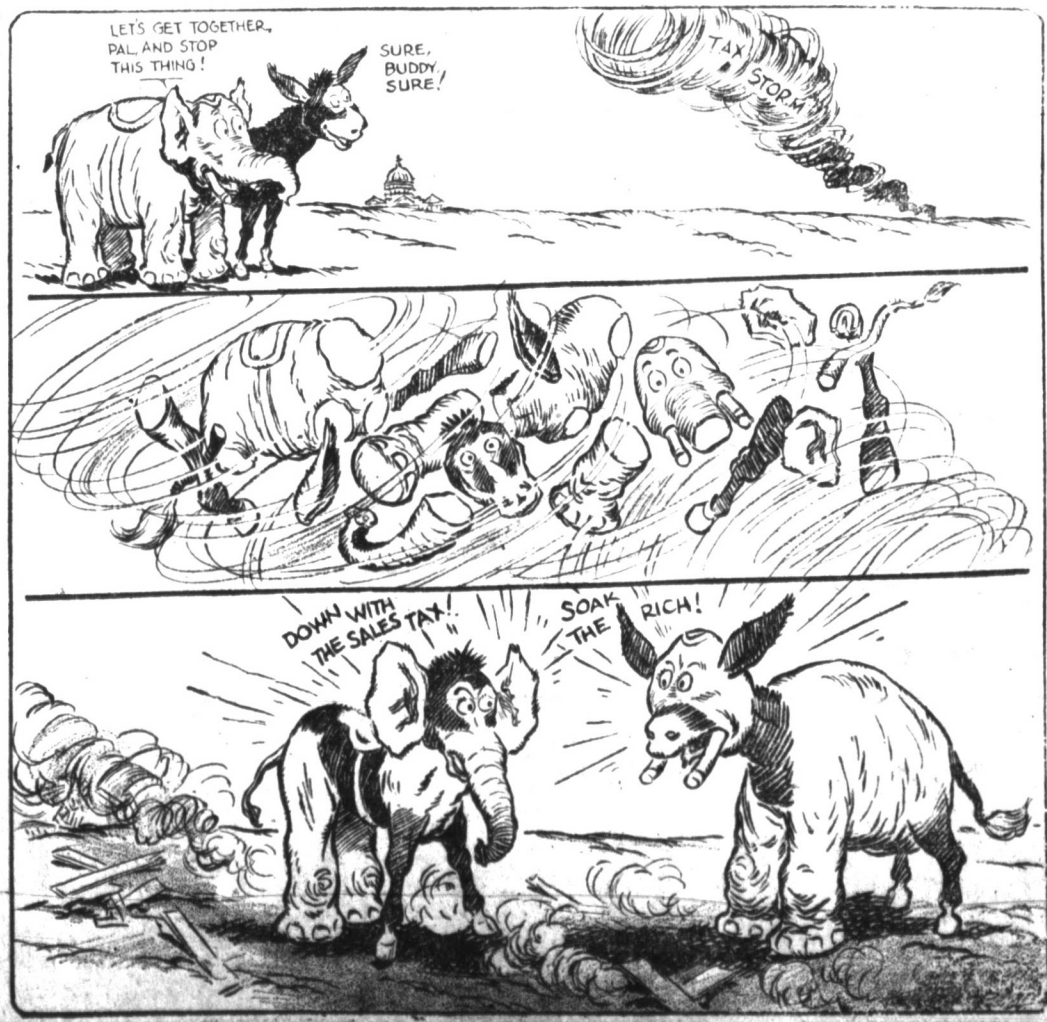

Searchers found the body sprawled face down in a pasture about 3 miles from the truck. Weakened by a recent attack of influenza, Brandzik had collapsed about one mile from shelter, a vacant farm house.

Discovery of the body ended a search that was assuming gigantic proportions. Searching parties organized at Texhoma, Goodwell and Guyman, Okla., and in Hansford county, had been working since Saturday night. They were joined today by pupils of the Gruver school taught by Brandzik's daughter, Miss Helga Brandzik.

Brandzik was caught in a late spring blizzard that swept this section for several hours Saturday night. A terrific north wind and wet snow made travel on foot hazardous.

Brandzik had been a resident of Hansford county 25 years.

Kidnaping Trial in Denver Begins

DENVER, March 28 (AP)—Three men were called to trial here today on charges of kidnaping Benjamin P. Bower, bakery company executive whose release was obtained through a hoax after he had been held captive five days last January.

George Reed, Art Taylor and Joe Pennell were the defendants. Detectives asserted they were members of the gang which was thrown into confusion by publication of an edited version of a note demanding $50,000 ransom from the victim's wife.

Joseph Clinton Riley, who committed suicide when surrounded by a police squad in a rooming house here later, was named as the leader. He was wanted on a murder charge also.

WOMEN OFFICIALS Will Be Opposed

GILLET, Ark., March 28 (AP)—The women who hold all city offices here like "official bossing" so well they are determined to be re-elected April 5.

But the men are in organized revolt. They held a caucus and nominated an anti-petioat ticket. They say the women should be satisfied with "home rule" and allow the men at least the semblance of authority.

So it's up to the voters to decide whether they will be governed by city mothers or city fathers.

Spring Brings Sweaters for Every Taste

SWEATERS are the thing this spring and they're being worn for nearly every occasion. This new "turtle neck" model is shown by Maureen O'Sullivan, actress. The flare of the high neckline and ribbed cuffs takes away the masculine look. A youthful bet is a chic companion for this style sweater.

THERE seems to be a sweater to meet every taste this spring, for there are more varied and color combinations than ever before. Ruth Hall of the films selects a smart cross-front model set off by stripes in several shades of red. It also features puffed sleeves which are seen on many sweaters this season.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sweaters have caught the puffed sleeve infection this spring, and the contagion spreads as a knit blouse or sweater ensemble becomes part of every wardrobe. Not only are sweaters found on golf links and beside the race track, but they are worn also with pajamas on the beaches, and sweater-style jackets with heavy trousers are shown as an improvement upon pajamas for yachting trips. Some sweater sleeves are puffed to the elbow, and then woven tight-fitting to the wrist. Many are short sleeved, with the fullness caught in a close band about six inches below the shoulder.

The ensembles are appropriate for any sport event. A wool skirt in matching color, felt hat or frequently a beret, and a long top coat are worn with the sweater. Knit scarfs, in the same pattern as the sweaters, form popular accessories. A new spring style is the variation of the turtle neck sweater. The usual hard line is relieved by a flare, spreading out from the throat, or by using a turtle neck collar that is set slightly away from the neck collar so that instead of giving a slightly choked effect the top of the sweater is finished with a soft, becoming roll. Stripes are found in still greater numbers, and in new combinations and designs. They run in all directions, horizontal lines being especially favored. An effective sweater is made with two rows of broad stripes running across at the waist and just above the neck, and with the rest of the weave done in a solid neutral color. If a sweater is not of the pull-on variety, it may have a cross-front opening, or slip fastener may close the neckline, fastening a turn-over collar snugly at the throat. High necklines in sweaters are often accompanied by cuffs in matching design, and with the same pattern, often a close ribbed weave, used in a high waist-line finish or a wide hip yoke. Lacy weave patterns are used for an entire sweater, or a ribbed design may be combined with the lacy pattern, to give a firm finish at the wrists and waist.

FORTY-TWO ADDITIONS ARE REPORTED DURING REVIVAL

Forty-two persons united with the First Christian church during the special services which were concluded at the church on Easter day, and it was stated that other were planning to join the church as a result of the services.

Interest was intense at yesterday's services, attended by two full houses. In addition to the sermons by the Rev. F. W. O'Malley, special musical programs were rendered.

In discussing "Life-After-Death" yesterday morning, Rev. O'Malley said:

"Resurrection is a fact, tested and proved by eye witnesses and confirmed by the establishment and perpetuation of Christianity down the centuries.

"The resurrection power is shown by the transformation of the characters and lives of men in all lands which could not have come from a discredited movement and a dead Jesus. It could only have come through the power of a risen, reigning Christ.

"Life after death means more than mere existence, or what other nations call immortality. It means fellowship with Christ, with God the Father, and with the saints of all ages in a joy unspeakable and full of glory."

Using as his text Joel 3:14, Rev. O'Malley spoke on "The Valley of Decision" in the evening. The spiritual victory of any life, he said, "is based on three great facts: (1) The fact of a real, personal God; (2) our own personal relation to God; (3) being thoroughly devoted to God. With these issues properly decided and with strong resolution firm to the end, spiritual victory and eternal life is assured."

GETS THREE DOUBLES

BILOXI, Miss., March 28. (AP)—Some, at least, of the needed punch at the plate is to be found right where it belongs for the Washington Senators this year. HORNBY STILL GOOD

LOS ANGELES, March 28. (AP)—Rogers Hornsby has demonstrated to his young Cub infielders that any time they slip the old man himself can move into action with his big bat. The Rajah played a part of the game against the Missions and the Seals of San Francisco yesterday, and cracked out two doubles and a single. Gabby Hartnett contributed a pair of homers.

SHORTSTOP FOUND

NEW ORLEANS, March 28. (AP)—The one player needed by the Cleveland Indians to make them a permanent possibility this season—a good shortstop—apparently has been found. Eddie Montague's recent play at the hot-spot has been well perfect and he has been hitting satisfactorily also. The Tribe yesterday defeated New Orleans, 7 to 3.

TWO NEW FACES

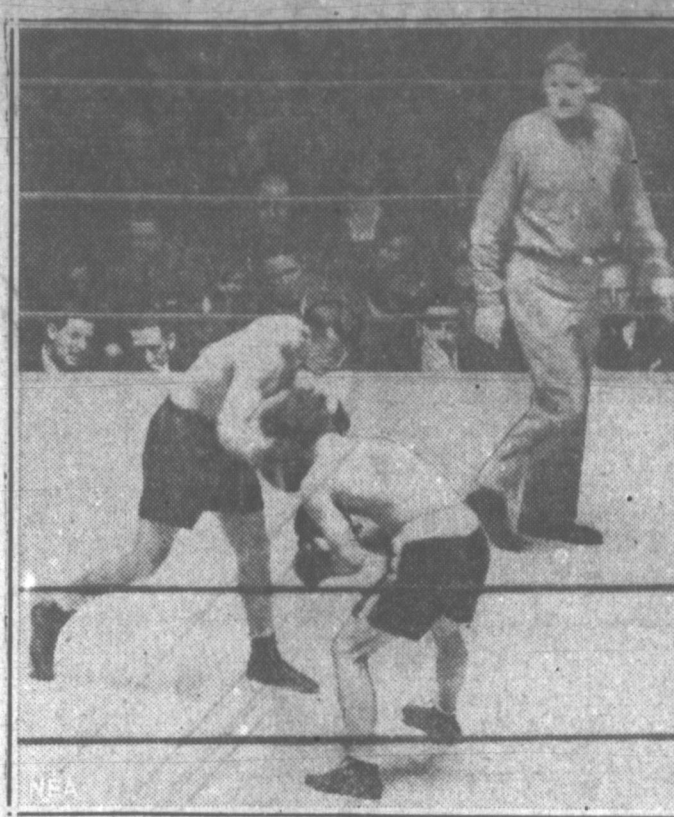

LOS ANGELES, March 28. (AP)—There will be two new faces in the regular lineup of the Detroit Tigers this season if Manager Bucky Harris adheres to the plans he has announced for the season opener next month. Garner Expected to Lend Influence to Bills's Passage

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—Upset by rebuffs of the strong-willed membership, democratic house leaders are calling on Speaker Garner to take a strong hand in putting through the revenue bill in budget-balancing form.

The bitter experience of having their bill revamped drastically, a few days. It will take several days, running into next week, to pass the bill. The Senate is expected to do a lot of amending of its bill turned into a tariff bill. This swelled dissatisfaction of several others the manner in which the bill had been handled.

Representative to the speaker, particularly by acting Chairman Crisp (D., Ga.) of the ways and means committee and Representative Bagan (D., Ark.), head of the sub-committee drafting a substitute for the defeated sales tax plan, have developed that Garner's support for their efforts will be forthcoming, but that his greatest show of influence is to be looked for in the final stages of the measure's consideration.

Garner is represented as expecting the house revolt to die down in a few days. It will take several days, running into next week, to pass the bill. The Senate is expected to do a lot of amending of its bill.

GALVESTON IN GOOD EXHIBIT

Mound Corps Allows Only Three Hits to Columbus Red Wings.

Ballew and Molesworth hit safely twice for four of the eight Galveston safeties. Beckman started on the hill for Columbus and was relieved in the fifth by Klinger.

Dodgers Cheered By Wright's Work

TAMPA, Fla., March 28. (AP)—Little joy in the Brooklyn camp over the results of the spring training exhibition games but the Dodgers always find something cheerful to think about even when they lose.

Yesterday they lost to Cincinnati but found reason for rejoicing in the performance of Glenn Wright. The veteran shortstop, troubled by weak ankles last season, played through the full nine innings and drove in three runs with a double and a single.

PHILLIES COCKY

ATLANTA, Ga., March 28. (AP)—Full of confidence, the Phillies stopped off here today for four games with the Southern Association Crackers on their way home to Philadelphia. The Phils are confident of making the first division of the league this year.

CONNIE MACK DAY

PORT MYERS, Fla., March 28. (AP)—Today is Connie Mack day and the Athletics look for the whole town to turn out for the training camps last game. The Boston Braves are the Athletics' opponents. Afterward the A's start their homeward trek, stopping for games along the way.

own and the bill will not take final shape until it gets into the hands of a conference committee. There Garner is expected to show strength.

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW
Spike Those Malicious Rumors!

Rumors are being circulated, in connection with the coming city election of April 5, by "patriots" whose interest in Pampa affairs exists chiefly just before each election.

One of these tales concerns the selection of the next city manager. The present city manager has resigned and his resignation has been accepted. The undersigned candidates, if elected, will replace him by choosing his successor as soon as audits can be completed and details of the new administration arranged. We have made no promises to anyone concerning any public office. If elected, we will exercise our best judgment to the advantage of Pampa citizens.

The most dangerous enemy to civic well-being is he who would split a city wide open to satisfy his personal vanity and prejudices. Certainly Pampa at the present time, with a good future ahead if the citizenship pulls and works together, cannot afford to risk two years of strife. It would be our intention as public officials to serve every part of the city and every citizen alike, making economies which we think possible, and avoiding every semblance of factionalism.

We are impelled to make this statement because the above-mentioned rumors, by their very nature, tend to disrupt cooperation in other than civic affairs and work to the detriment of Pampa.

We pledge, without reservation, a sensible, economical, business administration and promise further that we will be responsive to the wishes of Pampa citizens as a whole and not to any individual, firm, corporation, division or league.

We ask your vote for the above reasons.

R. EARL O'KEEFE (For Commis. No. 2)

Weeful Washington

Walter Johnson's run of luck continues consistently bad. The former great pitcher faces the prospect of a season with a pitching staff that was all but wrecked to satisfy Clark Griffith's desire for a right-handed hitting outfielder in the person of Carl Reynolds.

Ever since becoming manager of the Senators Johnson has been seeking a 20-game pitcher. And for several years Owner Griffith has been hunting a right-handed hitting outfielder. Griff finally has his outfielder, but in trading off Bump Hadley and Sam Jones he blasted Johnson's pitching plans. Without these two pitchers, the Senators appear to be a second division ball club.

His Flesh Is Heir To

Now Lloyd Brown, the sturdy southpaw flinger, turns up with a trefoil flipper. There is no way of knowing how serious this may be, as X-ray examination failed to disclose any location.

Firpo Marberry, ace of the mound staff, reports stomach trouble and a severe cold which have delayed his rounding into condition—and it usually takes some time for Marberry to bring himself into shape even when he is well.

Sam West tripped and fell while chasing a fly ball in the Biloxi ball park, and had to be put on the shelf with a pair of badly bruised knees. The flu caught up to Roy Spencer, the one-man catching staff, and also won a decision over Reynolds.

Customers Stay Away

"Unusually cold" weather has delayed the conditioning activities of the Senator squad. The chilly breeze also seem to have frozen the turnstiles, as a recent exhibition game at Gulfport drew just $18.70 worth of sustaining clientele.

To fill out his pitching staff, consisting of Crowder, Marberry, Fischer, Burke, Lloyd Brown and Lynn Griffith, Manager Johnson has five recruits to pick from, none of whom could be reaved about.

Chance for Trade

If there is another Mathewson or Rusie in that bunch, it will have to be set down as another example of appearances being most deceiving.

There is still a prospect of a trade, involving Joe Judge and Dave Harris, which would bring another pitcher to the club, but other clubs aren't passing around any good pitchers in exchange for such uncertainties as the ageing Judge and mediocre Harris.

From this point it appears that the Big Train is in for another tough year, even though Owner Griffith has acquired his right-handed hitting outfielder—who hit 290 last season.

INFIELD IS STRONG

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 28. (AP)—The defense of the Red Sox infield is causing no wrinkles in the forehead of Manager "Shono" Collins. He believes his second basemen, Marvin Olson and Walter Rashlell, are as good as any in the league defensively. He says the performances of Hall Rhyme at short and Marty McManus at third base last year stamped them as men of ability.

REDS ARE MOVING

TAMPA, Fla., March 28. (AP)—The problems of packing shirts and hosiery rather than punching out singles and homers troubled the Cincinnati Reds today as they prepared to break camp for the season, tomorrow, starting a road tour that is to deliver them at Redland field for the season's opener against Chicago Cubs, April 12. Yesterday they evened matters with Brooklyn Dodgers through a 7 to 6 victory.

Citizens' Reconstruction Organization

QUESTION: What is the Citizens' Reconstruction Organization?

ANSWER: It is a nationwide group of citizens working for the restoration of confidence and the return of idle money to circulation. The movement was initiated at Washington as one step in the whole process of reconstruction. Other steps include the National Credit Corporation—to strengthen the banking situation; the Reconstruction Finance Corporation—to assist worthy borrowers in the railroad, industrial and banking fields; the Glass-Steagall Act—to liberalize credit and fortify member banks of the Federal Reserve System.

QUESTION: Why is it important to get money out of hiding?

ANSWER: Idle money yields no return to anybody. It is a positive hazard to have it around the house. It increases unemployment. The country is suffering from a lack of credit—a large part of which is due to money withdrawn from circulation. Credit is the lifeblood of business. One dollar hoarded means the withdrawal of five to ten dollars of credit. If all the money at present idle were put to work, it would be evidence of reawakened confidence; it would add to the strength of our banks and enable them to meet the needs of business.

QUESTION: Has this campaign any political aspects?

ANSWER: None whatever. It is absolutely non-partisan. Its members are made up of all political parties, banded together in a common cause—that of putting currency back to work at the earliest possible moment. It is a war on depression, which calls for the same united front that any other national emergency demands.

QUESTION: Just what is the worker expected to do?

ANSWER: His job is educational, first; selling, second. His job is to get money into circulation—whatever channel is used is unimportant. Our strongest argument will be the self-interest of the owner of idle funds; show him that he foregoes a return on his money; he risks his principal through fire, theft, etc.; he hazards his own job—if he has one. If he puts his money back into the bank, if he buys good securities—which are now so plentiful on the market—real estate, or commodities, our purpose is accomplished. The objective is to get money into circulation; the method should be left to the individual.

QUESTION: Why are the Reconstruction Bonds issued?

ANSWER: To provide an interest-bearing security so sound and so marketable that there can be no excuse for any one keeping his money in hiding because of a lack of confidence. The Government can raise all the money it needs in other and simpler ways than through the sale of these small-denomination bonds. These bonds are issued for the sole purpose of providing a medium of investment to those who are unwilling to place their funds in other accepted channels.

QUESTION: What are the features of the Reconstruction Bonds?

ANSWER: They will be dated March 15, 1932, and will run for one year. They will be payable at the holder's option at par any time prior to their maturity by giving 60 days' notice to your bank. They will be available in amounts of $50, $100 and $500. They will bear interest at the rate of 2%—interest being payable September 15, 1932, and March 15, 1933, through presentation of the interest coupons attached to the bonds. They will be the promise to pay of the United States government. Here, then, is an investment whose security is unquestionable, instantly salable, and always worth its purchase price on short notice.

QUESTION: Where and how may the bonds be purchased?

ANSWER: Through any bank. Application may be filed through the members of our group, but payment and delivery can be made only through the banks. Application should designate the bank through which the purchaser wants delivery, and such application will be turned over to the banks concerned.

QUESTION: What is the attitude of the banks toward these bonds?

ANSWER: The American Bankers Association, through its president, has pledged its co-operation in the distribution of the bonds. The rate of interest was purposely made low, so as not to attract money from savings in banks. Moreover, money from the sale of the bonds will remain with the banks through which the purchases are made when they qualify as government depositories. Thus local money will be put to work in the community from which it is drawn out of hiding.

QUESTION: Is this another Liberty Loan campaign?

ANSWER: Decidedly not. We are not seeking volume sales. The campaign is directed solely against hidden money; nothing is to be gained by diverting money that is already on deposit with banks, or employed in any other way. The campaign will succeed if we get money into circulation through any channel. Insofar as these new bonds are concerned, it will succeed only as they attract idle money.

QUESTION: How will the salesman pick his prospects?

ANSWER: There is no method of picking out those who are hoarding money; consequently, there will have to be some general calling. People don't like to be suspected of hoarding, so it is important for the salesman to explain that we are obliged to call generally in order to accomplish our purposes. With every call, whether the prospect is hoarding or not, there is an opportunity for the salesman to do a constructive job by explaining the whole reconstruction program, by telling of the evils of idle money, and by enlisting the support of the individual in the movement. You will find most people eager for something to do, or for a cause to enlist in.

QUESTION: What should be the worker's approach in making his calls?

ANSWER: He should establish his connection with the Citizens' Reconstruction Organization; state its objectives, and point out the menace of idle money. If in the conversation it develops that the prospect has money in hiding, the effort should be to get him to agree to put it at work in some way—the Reconstruction Bonds being just one of the methods available. There should never be any reflection cast on banks or upon securities in general, as a means of selling these bonds.

QUESTION: Suppose your prospect says he prefers some other issue of government bonds?

ANSWER: Tell him to buy them. Our job is done when we induce him to put his money to work.

QUESTION: Will there be any way of buying the Reconstruction Bonds on a partial-payment plan?

ANSWER: No. There has been no provision made for this. The denominations were made small so as to eliminate the necessity for partial payments.

QUESTION: How would you meet the situation of the man who has completely lost confidence; who insists that he doesn't trust anybody and is going to hang on to his money?

ANSWER: Point out to him that these bonds are as good as the money which he is hoarding. If the bonds are no good, neither is his money—for the bonds are equivalent to interest-bearing money. As an asset, they are better than money, because they bear interest. The United States is still the richest and most powerful nation in the world. It always has paid its debts, and it will continue to do so.

QUESTION: When do we start?

ANSWER: The bonds will be officially announced on Monday, March 7, and will be available on March 15 and after. The selling campaign will last only a week, so it is important to get under way on the day of offering.

QUESTION: What kind of backing will we get in the campaign?

ANSWER: A national radio broadcast, with President Hoover, Secretary of the Treasury Mills, Gen. Dawes and Senator Robinson participating, will be held Sunday night, March 6, at 10:15 o'clock, eastern standard time. This will formally inaugurate the campaign. During the week of March 7, a series of newspaper advertisements will be released throughout the country. Both the broadcast and the advertisements will stress the importance of putting money to work, with secondary emphasis on the bonds themselves.

QUESTION: What has the Citizens' Reconstruction Organization accomplished so far, and what reason is there to expect that its further efforts will be successful?

ANSWER: Government figures indicate that since this movement was put under way there has been a definite improvement in sentiment. Hoarding has been greatly reduced and a flow of currency has been turned back into circulation. The realization is gaining weight that positive action must replace a do-nothing policy, and that final responsibility for improvement rests with the individual. This campaign represents the individual's chance to do his share.

Don't give the impression that the reconstruction efforts that we all are making can bring back prosperity in a day or month. It should be pointed out, moreover, with the greatest emphasis, that no amount of reconstruction legislation in Washington will of itself cure the depression. We do know without any question that prosperity cannot return until the people of the country, the average man and woman, regain their confidence and start working for better times.

Our workers should try to carry a ringing message of confidence, not based upon any exaggerated predictions of immediate prosperity, but pointing out, as stated by former President Coolidge in his message to the Reconstruction Organization:

"The people can help do all these things if they want them done. If they will not save themselves no one can save them. The time has come for the people to take charge of their own affairs. They should use their own money for their own benefit by putting it into circulation."

Remember, also, that the job won't be done by preaching confidence for a week. We have all got to get behind this work by building confidence and by staying behind it.

Every patriotic citizen can help the reconstruction movement by putting his money to work, and talking to his friends about this forward effort. Read this questionnaire, and become a salesman for better times.

The above has been agreed upon as the standard form of instructions to all representatives of the Citizens' Reconstruction Organization.

KITTY FREW by JANE ABBOTT

SYNOPSIS: "Call it a bad business," David Frew says of the carriage of his half-brother Gar and Kitty, whom he is to marry. Kitty has run away from Gar because he is too impractical to support her, but she expects him to come and get her. Meanwhile, she is working.

Chapter 23 NEWS OF GAR

"YOU mean—divorce him?" She said it slowly, in a low tone. "Of course. You're young. You'll find a real man, some time—"

She put out her hands as if to push him out of her sight. The blood rushed to her face in a hot flood. "Bright angry tears filled her eyes."

"Don't say that to me, David! Don't! You've spoiled everything. I've thought you were so kind, that you wanted me to be happy, I've felt so grateful. And you can dare stand there and say that! Oh, it is that you don't know what it is to love anyone as I love Gar!" She turned away from him and walked swiftly, a little blindly, toward the door.

He reached it before her. He took her shoulders and gently wheeled her about.

"Forget that I said it, Kitty. I'm a fool! It's that I care a great deal about your being happy. Smith, Kitty," he implored.

"You mean—divorce him?" Kitty said slowly. She smiled up at him, a constrained, reproving little smile.

"You can be so nice when you want to be, David, and then you can be so perfectly horrid!"

It was as near a truce as she would make; he had to accept it. There was no letter for her on the bottom step of the stairs the next night when she came home.

Nor the next. A week passed, days of intolerable waiting, hoping, and then another week when she couldn't hope.

She avoided Dorcas, the little gatherings around Dorcas' fire. She avoided David. David thought her a fool. Well, perhaps she was—

At Stratton's she worked with desperate eagerness, because so working she could crowd her wretchedness out of her mind. Miss Lee had commended her more than once, out of hearing of the others.

It was Miss Lee's policy to give men customers very alert attention when they came into the department. One afternoon, an hour before closing time, a man came around the mahogany partition that divided the sportswear department from the coats and dresses. Kitty was putting blouses in their tissue-paper cases.

"Miss Brandon!" Miss Lee signaled. And Kitty, lifting her head, looked straight into Tubby Wilkins' amazed face.

"Kill!" He used Gar's name for her. "Can I help you?" She said it mechanically, without knowing that she said it. Her knees shook, her fingers clutched the satin of the blouse she was holding.

Tubby was staring, his eyes round. "Say, you are Kitty, aren't you?" He lowered his voice.

"Yes, I am." And then Kitty laughed. She laughed because it was good to see Tubby's friendly plump face, and because he looked so ridiculously unbelieving.

Tubby turned his head to right and left. Then he leaned across the counter. "What's the big idea, Kitty? Are you here incog? Gar said you were in Bridgewater."

"I'm on," Tubby whispered. "Show me anything, Kit. Lord, I've forgotten what I came for—sain! you knocked me flat. Oh, I've got to get a birthday present for my kid sister—a leather coat."

The leather coats were in a far corner. Kitty led him that way. "Is—Is Gar back?" She didn't want to ask Tubby that, to expose her hurt and her heartache but her lips framed the question instantly against her will.

She saw the puzzlement grow in Tubby's face. "Back? Sure, Gar's back. But, Kitty, what's up? You haven't quit him, have you?"

"I'm waiting until Gar can support me." She did not look at Tubby. She was reaching for other coats.

"That's darn funny," Tubby muttered. "Why is it funny? I didn't marry Gar to live on his—mother. Then she wished she had not said it, to Tubby. She bit her lip."

"Now, please, if you want one of these coats, select one or I'll have Miss Lee down on my head."

"That's talking. Give me the pink one—or is it red?"

"But, wait, see here, Kit—" Kitty had moved to go away. She turned a pleading face to him. "Please, Tubby."

MOTHER OF 27 GETS NEW CHANCE FOR PRIZE

Although she had given birth to 27 children in her 22 years of married life and was well in the lead in the strange Toronto, Canada, baby marathon, things looked pretty dark for Mrs. Florence Brown, 42, shown above with 12 of her children. A bill had been introduced in the provincial legislature to set aside the will of the late Charles Vance Miller, eccentric millionaire, in which he had provided $500,000 for the Toronto mother bearing the most children in the ten years following his death. It was proposed to give the money to Toronto University. But amidst cries of "shame" and "disgrace," Colonel W. H. Price, sponsor of the measure, withdrew it during a tumultuous Parliament meeting and now Mrs. Brown seems again well on the path to win a fortune.

TWENTY PERSONS INJURED AT SELMAN CITY, OIL COMMUNITY

HENDERSON, March 28 (AP)—The small, young oil field town of Selman City, seven miles west of Henderson, was struck yesterday by a tornado which injured 20 persons. Six injured required hospital treatment but were later released.

The twister demolished many shacks which the oil field workers used as homes. Twenty-seven derricks, including a steel tower, were leveled. Seven wells ran wild for a time, spraying oil over the countryside, after the derricks had been wrecked.

The tornado cut a path 100 yards wide and about three miles long. About three hundred families lived in the community. Provision was being made for the homeless.

The large frame structure occupied by the Russell mercantile company was one of the first buildings to crumble.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 28 (AP)—Another tornado dipped into Alabama yesterday and added six deaths to the 362 caused by freak spring storms in the south a week ago today.
