

BANKERS WILL CONVENE IN CITY

Speaker Garner Replies Hotly to Criticism of Secretary Wilbur WALL STREET TRADER ADMITS SHORT TRADING DEPRESSES

Building Is Costly

Building a modern city is a costly proposition. The state of Texas, through its cities, counties, and state bodies, has amassed a bonded debt approximately $112 for every man, woman, and child within its boundaries. This is rather high, considering how many residents we have who may not be expected to contribute much toward their pro rata $112. But the hundreds of millions of dollars which will be paid in interest will add hugely to the burden.

Can't Wait

A city cannot wait until it can pay cash for water and sewer systems, or even street paving. It must borrow, and borrowing is expensive. How expensive it is may be seen in recent figures. Pampa, with bonds outstanding in the neighborhood of a million dollars, has many municipal bedfellows which have spent much more than that, and over a longer period of time. Here are some facts:

For cities, Houston takes the lead with a total of $36,830,000, while Dallas comes second with $34,764,000. Ft. Worth is given as third with $22,183,000 and San Antonio fourth with $17,900,000. All figures are for the year ending June 30, 1931.

Some of the other cities include: Abilene, $4,196,000; Amarillo, $5,260,000; Waco, $7,500,000; Austin, $6,275,000; Beaumont, $9,000,000; Corpus Christi, $5,671,000; El Paso, $8,125,000; Galveston, $8,813,000; Port Arthur, $3,869,000; San Angelo, $2,649,000; Brownwood, $895,000; Sherman, $1,204,000; Sweetwater, $1,822,000; Sweetwater, $1,822,000; Wichita Falls, $3,556,000.

For counties, Dallas is the highest, credited in the report with a debt of $21,382,000, while Harris is second with $19,207,000. Tarrant's bonded debt is cited as $7,630,000, while Bexar's is $4,998,000. Some of the others are: Galveston, $3,152,000; Brazoria, $3,204,000; Eastland, $3,257,000; El Paso, $5,745,000; Ellis, $4,309,000; Nueces, $4,952,000; Navarro, $3,757,000; McLennan, $3,106,000; Maverick, $4,984,000; Kaufman, $3,810,000; Grayson, $3,289,000.

—AND A SMILE
CLARKSBURG, W. Va. (P)—Urchins need no longer fear an attack from the rear (or the front either) as they squirm through the hole in the fence to see the Clarksburg baseball team play. "Official holes" just big enough to admit "Skinny" and "Midge" free, have been ordered cut in the fence by the club management.

BUT TESTIFIES THAT RAIDING NOT POSSIBLE

M. C. BRUSH PLEASURES COMMITTEE BY ADMISSION 'MAY BE SHOT' FOR IT

COUZENS IN DEMANDS FOR MORE THORO PROBE

WASHINGTON, April 22 (P)—A veteran Wall Street trader, Matthew C. Brush, testified to the senate banking committee today that under certain conditions short selling could depress the stock market but he denied there had been bear raids in recent months.

Committee members leaned forward over the long table to hear every word, as the gray-haired operator gave an inside story of playing the market and told of being as much as 125,000 shares on both sides of the market at various times.

Brush said short sales could depress the market by creating a supply in excess of demand and drew a laugh when he added he expected to "get shot" when he returned to New York for that admission.

After the hearing, senators expressed themselves as pleased by the attitude taken by Brush. Senator Brookhart (R., Iowa), one of the severest critics of Wall street, shook hands with the witness.

The committee division over the inquiry and the manner of conducting it flared openly, however. Senator Couzens took William A. Gray, the counsel, to task for his manner of examination—contending he did not dig deeply enough into the situation.

Bear raiding, Brush said, does not exist on the exchange now because restrictions placed on short selling.

Question, he said "I don't think my short account has any more effect on the condition of the country than a rabbit."

Brush did not reveal his present short holdings.

Riding Academy Opens Tomorrow

Pampans can start now to brush up on their riding for the big Frontier Days celebration May 26, 27, and 28 by visiting the riding academy opening tomorrow morning on the old E. G. Barrett farm half a mile south and a quarter mile east of Pampa off the Clarendon road. The academy will be in charge of Herbert Blansett and Rufe Jordan.

The two local men have ten of the best horses in this section of the country. They also have various types of saddles. The charge will be 75 cents for the first hour and 50 cents for each additional hour. The men will also give riding lessons.

The horses will be stabled in the big red barn on the ranch. A 40-acre pasture is available for riding practice. Rides can be taken over country roads without crossing highways.

I HEARD--

Two men talking in Six's place this morning. One of the men declared, "This rain sure did help my wheat, how about yours?" The other man remarked that he didn't know whether it would do his any good. The first man inquired how much wheat the second man had and the reply was, "I have a stack if Six ever gets it out here."

That Roy Bourland of the B. & B. Lubricating company was buying barrel bungs from some boys yesterday and while counting them out thought they looked familiar. When he checked up he found that the boys had gone into the basement of the plant, taken the bungs out of the barrels, and Roy was buying his own bungs back again.

C. H. Walker in Talk At Session in Hereford

Election of the Rev. A. A. Hyde, minister of the local Presbyterian church, as moderator of the Amarillo Presbytery marked the close of a two-day session at Hereford yesterday.

The full session will be held in Amarillo. Rev. Hyde was accompanied here by C. H. Walker, who made an address during the meeting.

The Rev. Thos. A. Stamp of Dallas will take the White Deer church soon, and also will preach regularly for the LeFors congregation.

"Bad Boys" Are Given Ultimatum

Sheriff Lon L. Blansett delivered an ultimatum this morning to a group of small boys who have been raiding kitchens and eating and drinking shops.

Said the high sheriff, "If you're not in school next Monday morning, you're going to jail." Mothers of the "bad boys" were advised of the warning at the sheriff's office. Five or six mothers accompanied by their sons were invited guests in the sheriff's office.

Yesterday officers caught up with the boys. First thing the sheriff discovered was that the youngsters had not been attending school. The next thing discovered was part of the lot.

COOPERATION OF CABINET IS CITED AS NEED

FAILURE OF PRESIDENT TO INITIATE PLAN IS SHOWN DELAY VERY EXPENSIVE

INTERIOR SUPPLY BILL IS SLASHED TEN PER CENT

WASHINGTON, April 22 (P)—Speaker Garner today made public a letter to Secretary Wilbur saying that if President Hoover had directed him and other cabinet members last October to reduce government expenses ten per cent they could have been cut more than $400,000,000 for the coming fiscal year.

The Texan's letter to the interior department head was in answer to one received from Mr. Wilbur yesterday attacking the ten per cent cut made by congress on the supply bill for his branch.

"Expenses of this government can be reduced and should be reduced $500,000,000 a year less than the amount appropriated for 1932," Garner said. "In order to do so without injuring the government's activities, I must have the hearty cooperation of the president and his cabinet."

"Mr. Secretary, if the president had directed you and other cabinet members last October to reduce expenditures of the government a least ten per cent, you could and would have done so, or tendered your resignations, and the government would have reduced expenditures more than $500,000,000 in the coming fiscal year."

EXPLOSIVE IN CELLS SPEEDS NERVE ACTION

PHILADELPHIA, April 22 (P)—If daughter drops the plate of breakfast bacon and eggs because it is hot, don't scold.

Her fingers may have loosened with her knowledge, opened by a fast-acting youthful nerve reflex before she felt the burn.

Pictures of nerves in action explaining this and other failings sometimes charged against "personality" were shown before famous scientists attending the meetings here of the American philosophical society.

The start of a new line of investigating the cause of old age was reported from the Carnegie institute of Washington.

Dr. George W. Crile of Cleveland offered preliminary proof that the body contains an explosive, a chemical resembling nitro-glycerine. Its fast detonations, occurring in every cell, he said may account for much in emotion and high-speed mentality.

SOVIET "RADICALS" EXECUTED FOR PLOT

Strangely branded as "radicals" in a nation which other countries consider to be radical, two would-be assassins of a member of the German embassy in Moscow, Russia, are pictured here at the trial which resulted in their conviction and execution. Stern (1) and Vassilyev (2) are seen in the prisoners' box in the custody of stern-visaged guards, and before them is a radio microphone that carried the courtroom testimony over the air. Their lawyer is seated in the foreground.

COLGATE, Okla., April 22 (P)—The latest trail laid by Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd, elusive Oklahoma bad man, and his pal, George Birdwell, was lost in south central Oklahoma today. Two bank robbers, believed to be Floyd and Birdwell, apparently had eluded another spectacular man hunt, with radio and airplanes used by the hunters.

WACO, April 22 (P)—Ray Oswald, ex-soldier, slashed his wife's throat with a pocket knife and then tried to take his own life in the same manner today Buddy Swanner, 14, son of the woman by another marriage, beat his step-father away from Mrs. Oswald with a broomstick. Physicians said Oswald and his wife probably would recover from their wounds.

BATON ROUGE, La., April 22 (P)—Her excellency, pretty 25-year-old Miss Alice Lee Grosjean, secretary of state and former private secretary to Governor Huey P. Long, will be at the head of the state government of Louisiana for ten days, beginning tonight.

Miss Grosjean will become governor as Alvin E. King, governor-designate, crosses the state line en route to attend the national conference of governors at Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Fred Newsom and Mrs. Gertrude Bagwell, both of LeFors, were discharged as patients from Worley hospital today.

Snake's Neck (If There Is Such a Thing) Is Broken

BROWNSVILLE, April 22 (P)—The curiosity of some railway express employes to see what was in a box may cost the Railway Express Agency, Inc. $424.46 if a jury in county court here looks at the matter in that light.

Damages in that amount are being asked from the express company by W. A. (Snake) King of Brownsville for an Indian python which died here a short time ago.

The giant snake escaped from its box in Chicago and created considerable excitement. A railway employe finally got it back into the box.

PROBABLE USE OF FUNDS BY UTILITY COMPANY MENTIONED IN BORGER RECALL TESTIMONY

BORGER, April 22 (P)—Testimony heard completion this afternoon in the state's plea for a writ of mandamus to compel Borger's city commission to call a recall election for Mayor John R. Miller and members of the commission. The matter was heard in district court at Stinnett.

A number of law points remained to be decided. The decision of District Judge E. J. Pickens was not expected immediately.

City commissioners Henry Knight, H. M. Bowers and A. C. Keith testified today. Knight said he considered it probable that money of a Panhandle utility company might be used indirectly to influence voters in the event the election were called.

County Is Shown To Be Healthful --Kind to Stork

Gray county is kind to the stork and a source of pessimism to Death, according to a report of the birth and deaths in the county from 1928 to 1931, inclusive, received today by James Todd, Jr., justice of the peace from the bureau of vital statistics, state department of health.

Call him the Grim Reaper. Canker-in-the-Leaf, or what you will, but last year he claimed the lives of 168 persons, compared to 461 infants ushered in by the stork.

In 1930 there were 201 deaths in the county and 449 births. Reports of other years were as follows: 1928, birth, 297, deaths, 139; 1929, births, 327, death, 174. The population of the county was set at 22,090.

That Gray county's Panhandle climate is more healthful than that of East Texas counties is revealed in a comparison of the vital statistics of Gray and Brazos counties, which has a population slightly less than this county's. Last year Brazos had 317 deaths and 484 births. Potter county had 421 deaths last year, 1,059 births, and a population of 46,080.

EDITOR IS ALARMED

WASHINGTON, April 22 (P)—John B. Chamble, managing editor of the Ashland, Wisconsin, Daily Press, today termed his state the "front line trenches" in the fight against radicalism in an address before the D. A. R. continental congress. Chamble said Governor Philip LaFollette and the president of the Wisconsin state university, Glenn Frank, were members of an organization "closely affiliated with the communist movement."

OKLAHOMA CELEBRATES FAMOUS "RUN" WHICH OPENED STATE TO FRENZIED WHITE DEVELOPMENT

Eager Horde Burst Over Line on April 22 of 1889—Guthrie Recalls How Town Was Capital

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 22 (P)—Oklahoma celebrated the forty-third anniversary of the picturesque race for homesteads which opened Oklahoma territory to white settlement.

At noon April 22, 1889, the crack of cavalrymen's rifles signaled "run" to a waiting, restless horde of boomers along the Kansas line. And the famous dash for homes in the new land was on!

On horseback, afoot and in prairie schooners, light wagons, buggies and trains, the homeseekers—men, women and children raced to stake claims.

The cities that were born then passed today to commemorate the event.

"Pawnee Bill" Major Gordon W. Little, who led a group of boomers into the territory, headed a parade at Guthrie, the state's first capital.

At Oklahoma City a historical pageant will be given tonight in which several hundred college students from over the state will participate.

Hiding Behind Bonds

Tax-free government bonds, as fool-proof as the world knows, are popular among the conservative rich folk. Make business hazardous by means of government interference and high taxes, and what do you do? You drive money, that would otherwise be used in providing jobs and building factories, into government bonds. Lacking these tax sources, the government runs up deficits and issues more bonds, raises taxes, and completes the vicious circle. But municipal and county bonds, during a depression, suffer depreciation. Selling Gray county paving bonds at par is virtually an impossible task, unless Brown-Crummer should, to protect investment in previous Gray county bonds, put up par or near par reluctantly.

It Comes To This

Signs of the times: A New Mexico doctor recently inserted this ad in a Fort Sumner paper:
"Final notice—I am getting tired and disgusted at having to charge the baby cases. If you have not got the money to pay for them when they come, for God's sake and humanity's sake stop getting them."

Cheer Up

Cheering words in the Higgins NEWS:
"Trouble comes to all of us, regardless of our station in life. Rich folks, poor folks; high folks, low folks; good folks, bad folks; noted folks and folks who are unknown to name and fame—all meet on a common level so far as trouble is concerned. Lindbergh, with wealth, fame, and all things seemingly in his favor, now knows what sorrow is and what despair means. Life offers little in the way of comfort to this young father who is looking for his baby son. So trouble comes to all of us. No one may expect to be exempt. But a brave heart never falters and an unconquered spirit is never daunted."

Good-Bye Sand!

The Higgins paper also talks happily about the concrete of highway 33 from Glazier joining Main street, then being continued to the Oklahoma line. And it will be a happy day when Glazier and Canadian are similarly connected. As a lad, the Pampan spent many a weary hour struggling with heavy sand on Hemphill county roads. It seems almost unbelievable that the Canadian river valley and its sand shall offer no obstacles to travelers in the future.

Malcolm Carr, Pampa high school's entry, placed third in the preliminaries of the National Oratorical contest at Amarillo yesterday. The winner of Malcolm's group was William Ordway, who won first in the finals over preliminary winners from Quanah and El Paso. Three groups competed in the preliminaries, and first place winners of each group vied for first honors in the finals last night. Judges of the orators in Malcolm's group were two Amarillo women and Miss Alice Myers of Quanah, who trained J. H. Kelly of Quanah, third-place winner in the finals. Kelly won first in another group.

Malcolm delivered his oration in a creditable manner, and won high praise from the audience and President B. E. Masters of Amarillo college, who presided at the group contest. The orations were judged by a low-point system, and Malcolm was only two points behind Ordway. This year two of the judges were from Amarillo, two from Canyon and one from Lubbock.

Deep Test Hits Showing of Gas

Gray county's deep test struck a slight showing of gas yesterday afternoon when the bit broke through a hard formation into a lime-sand formation at 3,725 feet. The test is the Brown et al's No. 1 Duncan in section 93, block 3, a half-mile north of Pampa.
The test has been drilling intermittently for the last year. No showing was encountered where upper pay was expected and it was decided to drill deeper in an attempt to locate the Wilcox sand.
Drillers were optimistic yesterday. The test is more than two miles from nearest production. It is the contention of some geologists that there is an oil trend north of the city.

Big Bond Issue Urged Instead of Bonus Payment

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Representative Fish (R., N. Y.), an opponent of full payment of the bonus, turned upon the house ways and means committee today and charged it with a lack of "nerve and leadership" for not bringing out legislation to meet the economic crisis.
He urged a billion dollar bond issue for a 2-year program to keep the people employed.
Fish was one of several house veterans of the world war who opposed payment of the two billion dollars outstanding on the bonus certificates, contending issuance of that amount of new currency under the Patman bill would force the country off the gold standard.

Mother Should Rear Children, Declares Artist

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Alma Gluck, former metropolitan opera singer and the wife of Eren Moran, violinist, today criticized mothers who hire people to bring their children up.

"A woman doesn't have to be a psychologist to be a good mother, she merely has to give some of herself to her children," said Miss Gluck, who is one of the speakers on the national child health program, sponsored by the American Child Health association.

This slender Rumanian, who had entranced audiences in various parts of the world, has had time to raise three children and manage several homes. She is a grandmother too.

Maria Virginia, 1 1/2, and Eren Jr., 13, both love music, but they have to be "policed" by their mother before they will practice. Mrs. Marcia Davennort, the elder daughter, is mother of a seven-year-old girl, and an author.

"I felt like a coward after Marcia was born," the singer said. "I was on tour then and had to leave her to be raised by friends in Philadelphia."

Mothers are to blame when children lack ambition, she believes.

RIO LACKS SCHOOL ROOM

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 22. (AP)—Fifty thousand children in this city of 2,000,000 are without school facilities, and newspapers are insisting that authorities remedy the situation.

WILL COMPEL THESE TOTS TO GO TO SCHOOL

VINELAND, N. J., April 22 (AP)—The state of New Jersey is going to court in an effort to compel four flaxen-haired children who live in a barn behind a high board fence of rainbow hues to attend public school.

Under penalty of fine or imprisonment, it will ask their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Smart, to prove to a Cumberland county judge their contention that they can educate the children better than public school teachers.

When the Smarts refused to send their children to school, the state board of education arranged for the Landis township board to give them an oral examination of their ability as teachers, and indicated that if they could pass the examination the compulsory education law would not be invoked against them.

The Smarts failed to attend the hearing, set for last night. Instead they notified the officials to go ahead and "act" and the authorities announced they would.

Smart has appealed to President Hoover and Governor A. Harry Moore to uphold him in his "constitutional rights."

Arch Chester of Miami attended to personal interests in Pampa yesterday.

LeFors Doucette, Texas Tech student, spent between-term holidays visiting in Pampa.

VOWS HURRIED BY INJURY OF NEAR RELATIVE

REV. F. W. O'MALLEY OFFICIATES AT SERVICE

News of the severe injury of the groom's father hastened the marriage of Miss Ruby Harkins and Lee Vannoy, who were wed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. O'Malley last evening at 8:45 o'clock.

The couple left immediately for Collinsville, where the elder Mr. Vannoy had fallen from a building, breaking several ribs and injuring his head, and probably his spine.

It was formerly planned that the wedding should be read Saturday evening in the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. E. P. Hollingshead, with several friends in attendance.

MRS. LEE VANNOY

The Rev. F. W. O'Malley, minister of the First Christian church, officiated for the ceremony. Others attending were Mrs. O'Malley and little granddaughter, Patsy Jean O'Malley, Miss Juanita Thompson, Edward Speirs, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Lettiss, and Miss Jean Knox.

The haste of the occasion made it impossible for Miss Harkins to wear her previously selected bridal frock.

There's Something in a Name—Story Told of How Lovely Mary Wallace Roses Became Well Known

BY J. HORACE McFARLAND President, The American Rose Society

An interesting story has, I think, not before been related as to how one extremely important hardy climbing rose got going.

The late Dr. W. Van Fleet was working for the department of agriculture. His new roses, much the most important grown by any man in America for their purpose, could not be sold by the department. The good doctor could not send these roses out under number to some of his friends for trial. I got from him, for example, one rose which was labeled WC-124 and another which was called WC-1.

One day I visited at Bell Station, between Baltimore and Washington, where the government experiment station is. Dr. Van Fleet showed me a row of WC-124. It was a glorious mass of a warm living pink in vast profusion on strong growing plants, which he assured me were designedly planted in poor soil. That was one of the reasons why the American Rose society managed to put through a contract with the department of agriculture which should make these new roses available on equal terms and with fair and honest descriptions to the rose world.

It seems that Dr. Van Fleet had sent a plant or two of this WC-124 to the Portland Rose Test Garden in Oregon, and it pleased everybody there. Because at that time Henry Wallace, of Iowa, was secretary of agriculture, the able local administrator, who was a mighty good politician, by the way, called the rose the name Mary Wallace. He happened to know that the Secretary had a daughter of that name. But this didn't get the rose out into commerce, because not always do the government mills grind rapidly, even if they do grind mercifully.

One day at the end of May I went to Bell Station and found what we now know as Mary Wallace again in magnificent bloom. I brought away a great armful of the rose blooms. They were kept over night in a refrigerator and the next day a superb bouquet of it was taken to the Secretary of agriculture, and Mr. Wallace informed that he was making acquaintance with his daughter's namesake, to get which into trade we were waiting. He didn't have to act, because the very moment the department chief learned what had happened he moved, and the contract with the American Rose society was completed.

But no propagating mechanism has been provided. A well-known Texas wholesale nurseryman, whose home is not far from Scottsville, also saw that rose at Bell Station and liked it. He took away a few shoots of it and by his vigorous and ingenious methods propagated quite a considerable number of plants. Proud of what he had done he sent me several of these plants, and that gave point to the arrangement to which he promptly and cheerfully yielded, by which Mary Wallace was sent out on absolutely equal terms, with a guaranteed description to all nurserymen who were interested. The American Rose society made a small profit, which was immediately devoted to the study of rose diseases. Now Mary Wallace has covered the continent with its rich pink beauty, and is at the moment one of the half-dozen best hardy climbing roses. I hope Texas has plenty of it, because Texas was most assuredly the most effective foster mother to the rose.

Sleepy Little Town of Rio Grande Fast Awakening as Oil Is Found

RIO GRANDE CITY, April 22. (AP)—This sleepy little border town, one of the last strongholds of the "siesta hour" and other old Spanish customs, is now faced with the prospect of going the way of so many other Texas and Oklahoma towns where oil has been hit.

For Rio Grande City now has an oil boom.

While there is a rush of activity in one section of the city throughout the day, including the siesta hour from 1 to 2 p. m., the rest of the city still remains unaffected and holds to its custom of centuries standing.

The little town with its large percentage of people of Mexican extraction, who speak the Spanish language, is witnessing a steady flow of Americans with the coming of the oil boom.

The boom started when Wood-Goedrich No. 1 struck the oil sand at 1,480 feet and the black gold went spouting up close to the top of the derrick.

The crowd started for Rio Grande City in a mad rush, the oil men being followed by the real estate men, lease men, hotel builders, and others until now there is a first rate boom on in the town.

Just what will be the outcome is still unknown, as the field remains to show its production. However, scores of other tests are going down all over Starr county, and there is a rush to get leases, and to start drilling.

Starr county has been quietly developing a shallow oil and gas field for the past year or more. This field is eight miles directly north of Rio Grande City, and is known as Los Olmos Field. In this field there are a dozen or more oil wells which will produce from 25 to 30 barrels as pumps. There are as many gas wells, which are now supplying Rio Grande City with gas. These wells all came in at 500 feet or less.

But little excitement was created until the Wood-Goedrich deep test struck the oil sand and loomed as a gusher producing from 200 to 500 barrels a day. Then the excitement started.

Rio Grande City is one of the historic towns on the border. Next to it is Fort Ringold, old border post, but the scene of many battles between bandits and soldiers.

The old house where General Robert E. Lee lived while he was a young officer at Fort Ringold still stands. The buildings at the army post are reminiscent in their architecture of another era in the history of America.

The buildings in the city are mainly adobe and brick, and are typically Mexican and Spanish. The old courthouse is one of the few in Texas where records appear

"Are You Listening?" a dramatic romance, based on J. P. McEvoy's magazine story of radio broadcasting, will be the attraction starting today at the LaNora theater.

The story, laid behind the scenes of a national broadcasting station gives William Haines his first dramatic role in which he abandons his more familiar comedy tricks for a compelling delineation as a radio exploiter whose happiness crashes about his ears as the result of an unfortunate marriage.

The plot revolves about a three-fold romance and depicts the various careers of three small-town sisters who come to New York to win fame and fortune. All of them end up in radio work and it is the inside slant on their broadcasting activities combined with the depiction of what goes on in their private lives which gives the picture its dramatic structure. Humorous interludes in the broadcasting station, a jazz party in a New York penthouse apartment and other frolicsome details lend comedy relief to the serious narrative which underlies the drama.

The story includes what is believed to be one of the most exciting "chases" yet depicted on the screen. It is in this sequence that Haines, accused of the murder of his wife, attempts to make his getaway by automobile, but is subsequently tricked into revealing his whereabouts to the ruthless editor of a tabloid newspaper who makes an ingenious use of radio in catching his prey.

Besides Haines, the large cast of featured players includes Madge Evans, who recently scored in "Lovers Courageous," Anita Page, Karen Morley, Neil Hamilton, Wallace Ford, Jean Hersholt and Joan Marsh. The production was directed by Harry Beaumont of "Our Blushing Brides" fame.

"WEAPON" LONG-LIVED

ERICK, Okla., April 22. (AP)—Mrs. J. W. Richardson of this city owns a rolling pin that has been in use 88 years.

In both Spanish and English. All that is old and typically Spanish in the city is resisting the change coming with the boom, but to little effect. In a short time Rio Grande City will probably resemble some East Texas oil town and another remnant of the old frontier will be gone.

PLANS CONTINUED

RIO GRANDE CITY, April 22. (AP)—Negotiations continue here for the building of one or more pipelines to take oil from the Starr county fields to the railroad, where it will be loaded on tank cars.

LANQUET PLANNED

CHILLICOTHE, April 22. (AP)—The annual banquet of the Chillicothe chamber of commerce will be held April 28 and plans are now in the hands of the various committees named for that purpose.

STOCKS SHOW LOSSES

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—The stock market fell back abruptly in light trading today. Yesterday's upturn was cancelled, as leaders lost about 1 to 5 points, but the day was one of the duller of the year, with a turnover of less than a million shares. The closing tone was weak.

COTTON OPENS STEADY

NEW ORLEANS, April 22 (AP)—The cotton market today had a steady opening. Liverpool cables were much better than due but sterling was easier. First trades showed gains of 2 to 3 points with July at 6.32. The market soon turned easier on some liquidation due to an easier opening in stocks and prospects for more rain in the West. May dropped to 6.12, July to 6.30 and October to 6.52, or 3 points down from the opening high and unchanged to one point down compared with yesterday's close. Toward the end of the first hour the market was somewhat steadier and showed a tendency to rally slightly.

GRAINS WEAKEN

CHICAGO, April 22 (AP)—Reflecting bearish action of securities, grain values dropped early today. Prospects of showers in domestic winter wheat territory gave additional advantage to the selling side. Opening 1/4-3/4 lower, wheat continued to sag. Corn started at 1/4-1/2 decline to 1/4 advance and subsequently receded all around.

RELATIONS BETWEEN CANADA AND UNITED STATES TALKED AT KIWANIS CLUB LUNCHEON

Several Attend School's Closing

One of the most interesting and instructive programs of the year was arranged by Jim Collins for the Kiwanis club today. The Rush-Bornet treaty between the United States and Canada was signed 115 years ago this week and the program was held in observance of the signing.

County Superintendent John B. Hessey and a number of Pampans are attending school closing exercises at Eldridge today. Children and patrons of the school enjoyed a picnic lunch at noon, and a picnic in the forenoon and afternoon.

Among those from Pampa who attended were County Treasurer Mabel Davis, Sheriff Lon L. Blansett, County Attorney Sherman White, Judge S. D. Stennis, Mrs. Louise Miller Dunn, district clerk, and County Clerk Charlie Thut.

Sixteen Students Given Suspension

COLUMBIA, Mo., April 22 (AP)—Sixteen students at the University of Missouri were suspended indefinitely here today for their part in the kidnaping last month of the St. Pat's queen and the subsequent fight between engineering and law students in which three were shot and wounded.

The name of Burns Frederick of Union Star, law student who has confessed shooting the three law students when they attempted to haze him for his part in the kidnaping of Miss Mary Butterfield of Kansas City, the St. Pat's queen, was not included in the list, as he withdrew from the university last week. The committee ruled, however, that he may not be re-admitted without its consent.

Harvard Students Stage Bad Riot

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 22 (AP)—A riot of Harvard undergraduates, characterized by police as one of the worst or recent years, was brought to a halt early today after eight students and four Cambridge residents had been arrested and two police officers injured.

Scores of students invaded Radcliffe college, a women's institution; an automobile was overturned, the Battle Square station of the Cambridge department was stormed as hundreds of undergraduates attempted to rescue comrades who had been taken into custody. Bonfires were built in Harvard square.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: ABRAM'S GENEROSITY TO LOT

Scripture Lesson: Genesis 13:5-15.

5. And Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6. And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7. And there was a strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelt then in the land.

8. And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdsmen and thy herdsmen; for we are brethren.

9. Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: If thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou take the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10. And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of the Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere, before Jehovah destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of Jehovah, like the land of Egypt, as thou goest unto Zoar.

11. So Lot chose him all the plain of the Jordan; and Lot journeyed east; and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12. Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain, and moved his tent as far as Sodom.

13. Now the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners against Jehovah exceedingly.

14. And Jehovah said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward and southward and eastward and westward:

15. For all the land which thou seeest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed forever.

Golden Text: In honor preferring one another.—Rom. 12:10.

Time: Abram in Egypt, (Beecher), B. C. 1927. Lot's separation from Abram, B. C. 1924.

Place: Bethel, Sodom, and Hebron.

INTRODUCTION

Abram has been in Canaan about a year. When he came he located first at Shechem; and here at the oak of Moreh he erected an altar, and there he called his servants around him and had public worship and instruction. Then he journeyed to the hill region between Bethel and Ai, and there he erected another altar. From this place he journeyed to the mountains of the southern part of Palestine. The dry poorly-watered country to which he had gone was, and is the present day, subject of famines due to prolonged droughts. Such a famine came, and Abram with a large company went to Egypt, the land of the refugees from famine in Palestine.

Just before he entered Egypt he told Sarai, his wife, to tell all of the inquiring people that she was his sister Sarai was a beautiful woman, and Abram was afraid if they knew that she was his wife they would kill him so as to have his beautiful wife. True to his expectation, Pharaoh took Sarai into his household. But God revealed the facts to this monarch, and he returned Sarai to her husband and appointed an escort to show Abram and all his host the way out of the country. Abram made his way back to Bethel, the place where his altar was.

Back to the Altar

Abram had wandered off. His trip to Egypt had resulted in his lying, and perhaps otherwise slipping from God. He had become rich in cattle, silver, gold. There is always a danger signal which needs to be displayed when accumulation takes a large amount of this world's goods. It may choke the spiritual life. Or it may be a blessing to the world.

When Abram made his way back to the place where he had been holding sweet fellowship with God, he was getting back on the right track. Confession and forgiveness and a fresh start are always tonics to the soul. This Abram experienced. How often in life we wander from God. We go off into sins of commission or omission, and need to go back to Bethel. God is there; for forgiveness is there; new joy is there (1 John 1:9).

We Are Brethren

"And there was a strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle." "Prob- ably about the water, compare verse 10; the quarrels of Isaac's herdsmen with the men of Gerar about the wells, Gen. 26:15 ff.; and the way in which the shepherds drove the daughters of the priest of Midian from the wells, Ex. 2:17. Wells are still a common subject of contention among Arab tribes."

"And Abram said unto Lot." The leader of the expedition, and the older, spoke first in the matter, as was right. "Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee." Quarrels between kinsmen are especially deplorable and are likely to be more long continued and bitter than other quarrels. "For we are brethren." "Alas! while we talk of the dim visions of the patriarchal age, how few there are now, in the sunlight of the gospel, who are Abram's equals in magnanimity, generosity, and piety—who for Jehovah's sake, and for the sake of brotherhood, will suffer any earthly loss to avoid strife!"—Isaac Errett.

Members of the same family, neighbors, members of the same church—these certainly are brethren, and disputes among them are peculiarly shameful.

The Canaanite and the Perizzite—Abram and Lot were near of kin, uncle and nephew. The Canaanite and the Perizzite were then in the land—rank heathen. And Abram had come to introduce the worship of Jehovah in this heathen land. It was not good for servants of Jehovah thus to be at strife with each other and heathen neighbors looking on.

What would the Canaanite and the Perizzite think of God's people acting like heathen? Public opinion is not the highest motive for good conduct, but it does have some influence on the conduct of people. The world regards Christianity in the lives of those who profess it. The man on the street does not read what Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John say about Jesus. If he does, it makes little or no impression. But when he sees a really good specimen of Christianity walking around every day, that is different. And when he sees men and women who profess to be Christians acting like unregenerate sinners, he judges Christianity accordingly.

Lot's Disastrous Choice

"So Lot chose him all the plain of the Jordan; and Lot journeyed east." "Taking no warning by the dangers, bodily and spiritual, which had beset them in Egypt, Lot feared not the proximity of the wealthy and luxurious inhabitants of Sodom and Gomorrah." "And Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain, and moved his tent as far as Sodom." "Lot's history teaches what comes of setting the world first, and God's kingdom second. For one thing, the association with it is sure to get closer. Lot began with choosing the plain; then he crept a little nearer, and pitched his tent toward Sodom; next time we hear of him, he is living in the city, and mixed up inextricably with the people. The first false step leads on to connections unforeseen, from which the man would have shrunk in horror, if he had been told that he would make them. Once on the incline, time and gravity will settle how far down we go. This narrative affords a plain instance of the great truth that the sure way to lose the world as well as our own souls, is to make the world our first object."—Alexander MacLaren.

Abram Dwelt in Land of Canaan

Lot was gone. It must have been a heart-breaking occasion to the old man, now about seventy six years of age. It is a pathetic sort of picture—Abram left in the hills on his old age. It is rough and rocky up there in the mountains. A few small spots afford good grazing. Not much opportunity for the accumulation of wealth up there. There was no social life up there for him. It was a strange land. But he was where God told him to be, and that is always the right place. It was where God could talk to him, and where he did talk to him time and again. He had been in the low country; his trip to Egypt had been disastrous. Now he is staying where God placed him.

Hebron Becomes Abraham's Home

Abram chose as his home Hebron the famous city of Judah, twenty miles south of Jerusalem and about 20 miles north of Beersheba. It is a city on the healthful highlands, about three thousand feet above the sea, as distinguished from the unhealthy cities of the low-lying plain. Hebron is one of the most ancient cities of the world. "This consecrated place became the first point whence the promise of the possession of the land was realized. Here did the patriarchal family dwell longest, and most willingly, and here did they bury their dead."

DAY OF MONTH GOVERNS MADRID PARKING RULES

MADRID, April 22. (P)—Automobile drivers here must keep the day of the month in mind to avoid fines of $5 for illegal parking.

On even numbered days cars must be parked on one-way streets on the side of even house numbers; on uneven dates they go to the odd-numbered side.

The rule resulted from protests by shopkeepers who noted that auto- lists usually favored the even-numbered side.

in the cave of Machpelah."—Franz Delitzsch. Especially did Abram select a spot marked by the oaks of Mamre, Mamre being the name of a local chieftain allied with Abraham. At Hebron, then, Abram built the third of his altars in Canaan, and so consecrated the place to Jehovah; but no altar blessed Lot's choice of Sodom.

SPECIAL LESSONS

1. Abram never stopped anywhere in Canaan but immediately he erected an altar. There is no mention of Lot being in the neighborhood when prayer meeting met.

2. Abram was considerate and generous; Lot was the personification of selfishness.

3. Abram's first consideration was to do the will of God; Lot's first thought was to amass wealth.

4. Abram sinned, but he got up with his face toward God; the longer Lot lived, the more he plunged into sin.

5. He pitched his tent toward Sodom, and soon landed there.

6. Abram held himself true to God and ended his life honored and loved, the founder of the Hebrew race, Father of the Faithful through all generations; Lot lost his property in the destructive fire of Sodom, closed his days in a cave on the mountainside, the drunken, incestuous father of the Moabites and the Ammonites (19:30-38). He forgot God when he pitched his tent toward Sodom.

Bull Fighting in Matamoros Will Be Reminiscent of Earlier Days

BROWNSVILLE, April 22. (P)—After a lapse of ten years big time bull fighting is to be brought back to the ancient city of Matamoros, just across the Rio Grande from Brownsville.

Formation of the Santa Cruz Amusement company, with J. A. Shore, veteran race track driver and sports promoter, as its head was announced here.

This company is now engaged in improving the dog track in Matamoros, turning it into a bull fight arena. It will have state, city, and federal permits for bull fights and will start holding the fights during the present summer.

Bull fighting came to an end in Matamoros about ten years ago, when the fourth bull ring burned to the ground in a period of about five years.

Matamoros once vied with Mexico City and Monterrey in presenting the best bull fighters of Mexico in the ring, drawing its crowds largely from the American side of the Rio Grande.

Such famous matadors as Rodolfo Gaona, who came out of retirement to enter the bull ring for Colonel Lindbergh, Juan Silveti and others appeared in the old Matamoros ring. Sidney Franklin, famous American bull fighter, fought in the ring there before he achieved fame.

Prosecution to Use Alienists in Honolulu Trial

HONOLULU, April 22. (P)—Seeking evidence to combat the insanity defense of Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, the prosecution dug deeper into the field of medicine today while the accused navy officer and three others charged with lynching Joseph Kahahawai rested from the ordeal of their trial.

With court adjourned until tomorrow at the request of Prosecutor John C. Kelley, two alienists imported by him from California made observations on which to base their testimony.

They are Dr. Joseph Catton of San Francisco, whose testimony recently helped to convict Winnie Ruth Judd of the murder of two women in Phoenix, and Dr. Paul Bowers of Los Angeles.

Memories of the dramatic appearance on the witness stand of Mrs. Thalia Massie, wife of the accused officer and victim of a criminal attack to which Kahahawai allegedly confessed just before he was fatally shot with a pistol in the hands of Massie, were commented on by Clarence Darrow, aged chief of defense counsel.

"I never saw anything like it," Darrow said. "I've been in some pretty good court scenes, but nothing like that one. I was pretty limp when it was all over. I couldn't sleep when I went to bed that night."

& C System Will Open In Bigger Building

S. C. and Milton Clayman will open the C & C System Grocery and Market tomorrow in the large building formerly occupied by Kraft's Meat.

Remodeling and redecorating was completed today. The large market in the rear has two storage boxes, three counters, and two refrigerators for eggs and dairy products. All the equipment is cooled by electric refrigeration.

Sam Clayman came here from Oklahoma City and bought the grocery and market operated by M. Heflin July 30, 1926. It was located in the old frame building which stood where the Gordon-Denebeim structure was erected. His son, Milton, came to Pampa from Detroit in 1927 to join his father in business. The business occupied a room in the new building from June, 1930, until now.

"We have outgrown two locations," says Mr. Clayman, "so we are moving into these large quarters and hope to keep growing with Pampa." Many demonstrations will be held at the new store tomorrow.

TOURISTS AIDED

LAREDO, April 22. (P)—American tourists entering Mexico through the port of Laredo are now being provided with tourist permits, letters of introduction, road maps and logs and other information free of any cost by the tourist bureau of the Laredo chamber of commerce.

Annual May Fete Plans Are Made

STEPHENVILLE, April 22. (P)—The annual May Fete will climax the celebration of Parents' Day at John Tarleton Agricultural college May 1 and 2.

The colonial idea will be carried out in the festival, with the queen's attendants dressed in modified colonial costumes, taking the most important part in the dances. The program will be presented on the campus Monday evening, May 2.

POLES OUTNUMBER FRENCH

CAEN, France, April 22. (P)—Twenty years ago the little Norman village of Noizny had never seen a foreigner. Now the aliens, chiefly Polish farm hands, outnumber the French by 1,911 to 789.

KING AT ENGINE THROTTLE ON VISIT TO 'IN-LAWS'

SAN ROSSORE, Italy, April 22. (P)—King Boris of Bulgaria drove his own train when he came here to spend a few days with the Italian royal family.

He took over the throttle at the invitation of the engineer and handled the locomotive for 25 miles.

The king and the engineer were old acquaintances, the latter having driven Boris' train in October, 1930, when the monarch came to Italy to see Princess Giovanni.

World War Deficit Towers Over Present One But Our Uncle Sam Now Faces Even Bigger Problem

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The United States, which erased the stupendous World War deficit with a figurative snap of the finger almost as the last rifle cracked now finds itself harassed and burdened by an impending deficit less than half the size.

This deficit, however, comes in the face of depression's inroads on tax revenues, and it is the first great peace-time deficiency.

President Hoover has estimated that at the present rate of revenue this government will have a deficit of approximately $4,500,000,000 at the end of the 1933 fiscal year—accumulated in 1930-31, 1931-32 and 1932-33. Congressional plans for tax increases would erase or cut this deficit considerably.

Treasury records of receipts and expenditures since 1791 show that the present estimate of $4,500,000,000 has been surpassed only by deficits of $9,611,482,739 in 1918 and $14,297,760,281 in 1919.

It exceeds the Civil War deficit by $3,500,000,000 and towers out of sight of the next highest peace-time deficit—$89,423,387 in 1909.

From present indications it is going to be the hardest deficit in history to meet.

A prosperous and victorious nation resented little congress' imposition of the highest taxes it had ever known to balance the budget within three years of the world war's termination.

Patriotism was rampant. The deficit was expected. Americans looked upon the tax burden as one of their own making. They had grown accustomed to luxury taxes, war taxes, excess profits taxes and an income tax basis which touched almost every wage earner.

The revenue from customs began mounting again as Europe turned from war to work, and the United States enjoyed an extremely favorable balance of international trade.

Liquor taxes were bringing in millions in revenue—$483,000,000 in 1919 compared with $11,000,000 last year—and the personal income and corporation taxes netted $5,400,000,000 in 1923 compared with $1,800,000,000 in 1931 and an estimated $1,000,000,000 for 1932 unless the rates are advanced.

Now, after 14 years of peace and 12 years with a comfortable surplus in the treasury, congress suddenly is faced with the necessity of boosting taxes again.

This time it cannot impose a war profits tax of 80 per cent or many other taxes justified by armed strife.

It is on what earning power is left that budget balancing depends. Current tax bills propose to bring incomes hitherto considered too small to tax into assessment and to step up the rate of taxation in the higher brackets which have failed to pay customary revenue because of declining business.

There is an effort to place corporation, inheritance, estate and gift taxes and surtaxes higher than the war basis. The cry of "soak the rich" is raised against the current revenue measure because of these proposals.

The tax bill still has a long road to travel, but it generally will parallel in many instances the war-revenue bills.

There are fewer sources now than then, and the per capita circulation of money is lower. It will take a drastic bill to produce results.

FRUIT CROP SAFE

ODESSA, April 22. (AP)—So far as can be ascertained the fruit crop of the Big Bend country is practically safe. Some anxiety was felt during the past month on account of the low temperature but there was not sufficient frost to damage the fruit. Farmers believe that there might be some danger to be apprehended from hail later on. Apples in the Fort Davis section are reported to be in splendid condition and a normal crop is expected.

VITAMIN B IN BRAN, RESEARCH REVEALS

Also Has "Bulk" to Further Assist Elimination, and Iron for Blood

One of the functions of Vitamin B is to help tone the intestinal tract, and promote elimination. Now, laboratory experiments show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains this valuable vitamin.

In addition, ALL-BRAN brings a plentiful supply of "bulk"—which provides the "ballast" needed to exercise the intestines.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Inside the body, it is different from the way you see it in the package. It absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, milder, more palatable.

Another healthful element brought by ALL-BRAN is iron. Tests show this cereal has twice as much usable iron as the same weight of beef liver.

Check common constipation with its frequent headaches, loss of appetite and energy—by eating this delicious cereal. How much pleasanter than taking pills and drugs—so often habit-forming.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

THIS BOULDER HARDER TO MOVE.

Deficits created in other years have not given Uncle Sam as perplexing a problem as the peace-time deficiency he now faces. The business decline is largely responsible.

UNCLE SAM MOVED THE HUGE WORLD WAR DEFICIT SHOULDER QUITE EASILY AIDED BY WAR PROFITS. NOW, BECAUSE OF THE BUSINESS DECLINE, IT IS HARDER TO MOVE A STONE LESS THAN HALF AS LARGE.

STICKS BY DEMAND

STAMFORD, April 22. (AP)—Advised that the federal department of agriculture has refused to lift its requirement of a second lien on crop production loans protecting unpaid balance of 1931 loans, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce today announced it had modified its original protest and was asking only that waivers by junior lien holders on the 1931 balances be done away with, so that farmers applying for loans may meet the requirement as to second mortgage.

State Schools To Plan Economies

AUSTIN, April 22. (AP)—The state board of education and presidents, deans and registrars of state-supported universities and colleges plan to meet in Dallas April 28, 29 and 30 to consider an economy program for the institutions.

The board voted yesterday to hold the meeting in Dallas, originally planned for Fort Worth this week end but postponed on account of the death of S. M. N. Marrs, state superintendent of public instruction.

H. F. Alves, director of information and research for the state department of education, has been gathering data to be considered in proposed eliminations of certain courses and duplications of efforts in the institutions in an effort to reduce expenses.

COMMUNISTS IN RIOT

NEW YORK, April 22. (AP)—Disorder broke out this afternoon at a demonstration for unemployed relief at city hall when a group of several hundred communists broke through police lines. Police instantly charged the crowds and black-jacks and batons were swung repeatedly on the heads of demonstrators.

SOVIET TRADE UNION MEMBERS PLEDGE TO DEFEND COUNTRY

MOSCOW, April 22. (AP)—The 17,000,000 members of the Soviet trades unions stood pledged today to defend their country, if need be, as news dispatches from the Far East told of new charges that Russian "White Guards" were active against the Soviets.

The ninth all-union congress of the trades unions made the pledge for its members last night and, sending greetings to the Red army and to Klementi E. Voroshiloff, war and navy commissar, called for increased watchfulness, especially in the Far East, against the menace of a Bourgeois invasion.

It also obligated itself to extend military preparedness to the proletariat and the peasants, with a view to greatly enlarging the already comprehensive "patronage" of the red army.

A dispatch to the Tass News agency from Peking said reports were received there from Harbin, Manchuria, that the police uncovered a store of arms, bombs and ammunition in a Chinese restaurant frequented by Russian "White Guards".

Another dispatch said a "White Guard" mob, made up of former employees of the Chinese Eastern Railway, surrounded the Soviet offices

PROGRESS IN ECONOMY

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—Progress was made today by the house economy committee toward formulating a federal retrenchment bill while criticism of a proposed cut in government salaries was voiced in the senate.

The house committee struck from President Hoover's retrenchment program the proposal to suspend operation of ship lines by the shipping board Jan. 1, 1933.

It also tentatively decided against suspending federal contributions to vocational education during 1933 but agreed to propose a plan for that action thereafter.

The University of Texas track team took 10 firsts in 16 events of a triangular meet with Southern Methodist and Baylor.

of the railroad April 18 and 20 members of the mob entered the building.

The incident occurred, it said, after Manchurian authorities had assured Russian officials there would be no more such disturbances.
