This Is Better
Back home, the Pampan breathes deeply of the plains breezes and thanks his luck that he does not live downstate. Call it hot here if you will, but if you wish to really enjoy this weather just get a first hand comparison with that of Dallas and Fort Worth. And we can't even imagine how hot it must be in Austin, San Antonio, and Brownsville.

And Hot Nights
One reason for Lubbock's success in getting the next state Lions convention was the prospect for cooler weather there next year. To this plainsman, downstate weather makes it seem like he finished a bath and dressed without benefit of towels. Hot nights and big town noises do not make sleep easy and although a few nights can be enjoyed for a change, we'd not relish the thought of permanent heat and humidity. In other words, it is a privilege to live on the dry, cool plains in summer.

Big Man Passes
It was with overpowering regret that this writer learned, while in Dallas, of the passing of Pampa's veteran civic builder, "Uncle Pete" Reid. Very recently Mr. Reid had discussed with the Pampan a planned trip to Canada, his old home. He expected to return in time for the next Oilfield Highway association meeting at Dumas in early fall, for good roads occupied a great amount of his thought and received an astonishing large

MORROWS' MAID TAKES POISON

GIRL WAS TO BE QUESTIONED BY OFFICIALS
SUSPICION RESTED ON HER EARLY IN KIDNAPING
AUTOPSY WILL BE MADE

TRIALS OF MEANS HAS ENMESHED MAN FURTHER
HACKENSACK, N. J., June 10 (P)—Prosecutor George F. Losche announced today that Violet Sharp, a maid at the Morrow home in Englewood who was questioned about the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby, had committed suicide by poison.

Dr. Raphael Gilady, Bergen county physician, announced an autopsy would be performed later in the day. None of the Morrow family could be reached for comment. It was believed that Col. Mrs. Lindbergh and Mrs. Morrow were at home when the body was found.

Guggenheim on Stand
WASHINGTON, June 10 (P)—Testimony that Gaston B. Means initiated negotiations with Colonel M. Robert Guggenheim and promised to return the kidnaped Lindbergh baby was given by Guggenheim today in Means' trial on charges of swindling Mrs. Edward B. McLean of $104,000 in an alleged ransom fraud.

At the 11 o'clock hour Sunday morning the Methodist church will observe Layman's day. Roy Bourland, charge lay leader, will have charge and direct the service. There will be special music by the men and the choir will be composed of men. There will be talks on issues vital to the church by laymen.

Layman's Day Is To Be Observed

I HEARD--
T. D. Hobart having a big laugh over a story that appeared in a Dallas paper telling about a baseball game played between democrat and republican representatives in Washington the other day. The republicans won the game. One of the democratic pitchers was Mr. Hobart's longtime friend, Representative Kleberg of Dallas. The story said in part: "Kleberg replaced Douglas in the ninth but was wilder than a wild Texas steer and merely helped the republicans along."

That the Pampa glider club desired to take its glider to Elk City tomorrow and enter it in the contests. Members wrote Washington for permission to tow the glider behind a plane but Washington has not taken the bother to answer the communication. FARM YOUTH, HEARING CRIES OF MOTHER, SLAYS FATHER AS LATTER CHOKES, BEATS WIFE

Boy, 14 Years Old, Is Awaiting Jury's Report

SEALY, June 10 (P)—Martin Mann, 52-year-old farmer, was beaten to death by his 14-year-old son, Ludwig, at the farm home near Sealy late yesterday. The youth's brother told authorities Ludwig struck his father four times with an iron bar when the father was beating and choking Ludwig's mother. Ludwig was working in a field when he heard his mother's cries and rushed to the house to see her in the grip of his father, officers said they were told. The son grasped an iron bar and struck his father four times, they said. Ludwig took his mother and sister to the home of a brother five miles north of Sealy, where they spent the night. This morning he appeared at the courthouse in Belleville and surrendered. The Austin county grand jury convened immediately and took up his case.

The orders were issued after railroad officials refused further transportation to the "marchers."

WASHINGTON, June 10 (P)—Police moved today to segregate all communists from the bonus marchers army whose treasury was swelled by a contribution of $5,000.

Separation of the communists from more conservative elements in the regular encampments was designed to protect the radicals from possible bodily harm. TYPIST-SLEUTH TRAPS TWO

Joining the Kansas City, Mo., police force, Miss Vera Brown (above), 29, pretty stenographer-detective, was called from her typewriter the days after her appointment to deliver the decoy pay-off package that trapped Walter Ogborn (lower right), who has confessed, police claim, to threatening to kidnap the 3-year-old son of a wealthy Kansas City rug merchant unless $6,000 was paid. Later, with two detective-helpers in her car, she delivered the fake pay-off package that trapped Samuel Yagan (upper right), alleged instigator of the plot to extort $1000 each from two Kansas City women under threat of violence.

WILLIAM A. MARTIN, GASSED AND SHELL-SHOCKED VETERAN OF WAR, SUCCUMBS TO INJURIES

Military Funeral To Be Held Here On Sunday
William A. Martin, 37, died at a Wichita Falls hospital this morning of an illness that resulted from poison gas and shell-shock injuries suffered on the battle fields of France in October, 1918. He was taken to Wichita Falls for medical treatment a week ago.

A military funeral will be held at the First Methodist church, Sunday afternoon under the direction of G. C. Malone, funeral home. The body is being brought back from Wichita Falls today in a Malone funeral coach. Full military honors will be paid the departed soldier at the funeral by the Kerley Crossman post of the American Legion and by members of other posts in this section.

Mr. Martin was one of 17 men out of 240 who came out of a drive drive. Since 1919, eight of the 17 men have died from wounds suffered in the battle. Mr. Martin was a member of the Company G, 142 Infantry of the Thirty-Sixth division. Operations of his company were at St. Etienne, west of the Argonne, in the Alsace sector, in the vicinity of Chamigniel, from Oct. 5 to 13. He was discharged Sept. 18, 1919.

Mr. Martin is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Martin, two sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Bodkins, Mrs. Leona Hagard; three brothers, Bruce and Berton, Pampa, and Charlie, Los Angeles, Calif. He was born in Salina county, Kans., and moved to Pampa with his family in 1908. Mr. Martin was houseman at the Schneider hotel until recently.

A called meeting of the local Legion post to plan funeral arrangements will be held Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Commander C. M. Carlock has asked a full attendance.

HOME LOAN BILL UP
WASHINGTON, June 10 (P)—The house took up President Hoover's home loan bill today amid expectations that it would be rushed to the senate before nightfall. This final item in the economic relief program of the chief executive is designed to give financial support to existing home-financing, thrift, and savings institutions through a system of home loan discount banks. The objective is to save homeowners from threatened foreclosures and make possible much residential construction in underbuilt sections of the country. H. G. 'JUST ANOTHER HOOVER'

SCRIPPS-HOWARD PAPER EDITORIAL HITS ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, June 10. (P)—Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, announced that all Scripps-Howard newspapers were publishing today an editorial entitled "Give Us Smith," in favor of Alfred E. Smith for president. The editorial describes Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt as "Another Hoover," and expressed the opinion that Roosevelt and Hoover "possess in common one dominating trait—faced in a pinch with political consequences, they yield."

NEW YORK, June 10. (P)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt's pre-convention campaign manager has issued what newspapers here interpret as a warning to Tammany Hall that Roosevelt would be nominated on the first ballot at Chicago and would win not less than 345 of the 531 electoral votes at the election. This would give him a safe majority without the 47 votes of New York.

James A. Farley, democratic state chairman who is managing the Roosevelt campaign, predicted last night Roosevelt can win the election on the first ballot at Chicago and would win not less than 345 of the 531 electoral votes at the election. This would give him a safe majority without the 47 votes of New York.

Judge Sartain of Wichita Falls Is To Address Voters

Judge B. D. Sartain of Wichita Falls, candidate for congressman-at-large in place No. 2 will speak here Saturday evening at 8 o'clock on the east side of the city hall. A fiery campaigner, 38 years old, Judge Sartain is expected to have a large audience here. He was for conference county judge of Wichita county, and is a thirty-second degree Mason, member of the Dallas Scottish Rite, Shriner, Legionnaire, and chairman of the board of elders of the Christian church.

He is perhaps best known for his initiating moves for free bridges across the Red river. A delegation of citizens will welcome him to this city.

Payment for Postal Site Being Made

Alfred Crager of Fort Worth, assistant U. S. district attorney, was here today to pay owners for the lots where the new postoffice is to be constructed. Mr. Crager was in conference with White House members company officials this morning. It was learned that the government, after many delays, has at last acquired deeds to the site at the corner of Foster avenue and Ballard street. This phase of the project has been the cause of the delay in letting the contract to erect the building. It was impossible to let a contract until title to the site was obtained. It is expected that bids will be opened in a short time. Architect's plans have been completed and approved.

amount of his time.

Not Mere Booster

"Don't call me a good roads booster," Mr. Reid urged in talking to reporters. "I try to build roads, not just boost for them—I don't like the word." And it was so—the man worked at road building and toiled many hours after most enthusiasts stopped work and just talked.

Planned Monument

Just a few months ago we joined Mr. Reid in erection of a huge flagpole at the site of old Fort Elliott near Mobeetie. He was raising funds to add a large stone monument at the same site. This project should be carried on in his name, for he it was who conceived it and raised more than $200 for the purpose. . . . More recently, we joined Mr. Reid in a trip to Lamar, Colo., where a road convention was presided over by him. Speaking at a Lamar chamber of commerce banquet, this writer stated that one of his reasons for making the out-of-state trip was to do honor to Mr. Reid and to say of him things which should be known to the extremes of the highway association area he headed.

Kept Harmony

There always was unusual harmony in meetings presided over by Mr. Reid. Perhaps it was because of his painstaking fairness, his tolerance, his enthusiasm. Unselfishness was a dominating characteristic. Pampa could never measure his service in dollars and cents—it was too great. Whether as mayor, road builder, or private citizen, you could count on Mr. Reid. His criticisms were constructive, his praise generous.

Opened the Gates

There are thousands of newcomers who do not know enough of Mr. Reid's work to fully appreciate the meaning of it. He taught the gospel of good roads in Oklahoma, Texas, and Colorado, and worked hard when the problem was not to vote bonds, but rather to open the gates and fence the roads so that travelers would not be slowed up.

Prophetic Remark

"Uncle Pete" put Pampa on the map before oil was found. He continued to work no less after the magic growth was attained. He was one of the best known citizens. His only regret, with advancing years, was his inability to move about as well as he formerly did. "But I guess I am nearing the end of my road," he remarked with prophetic vision as we were returning from Lamar. There is profound regret at his passing, but much of triumph to note in his life. How well it would be if all of us, nearing the end of our mortal journey, could look back upon a task so well done as we pass to an immortal reward where the roads are already paved. This writer bows to the inevitable in the passing of a close personal and highly valued friend, and THE NEWS acknowledges with deep appreciation his unbroken, staunch support for this paper. MAY HIS TRIBE INCREASE!

MERGER OF CO-OPERATIVES IS UNDER DISCUSSION IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 10 (AP)—Fusion of southwest grain co-operatives under sales agreements to make easier the handling of millions of bushels of the new grain crop today was reported under way.

Directors of the Farmers National Grain corporation were resuming a closed meeting to consider approval of such agreements between three and perhaps more co-operatives and the Farmers National Kansas City subsidiary, the Hall Baker Grain company.

From yesterday's meeting of the directors came no announcement of what action they had taken but the Chicago TRIBUNE said the sales agreements mentioned by the paper as being involved in the plan were the Kansas co-operative Wheat Marketing association, which was reported to have once marketed the grain of 10,000 Kansas; the Farmer Union Jobbing association and the Equity Union Grain company, of Kansas City.

This Game of GOLF

By O. B. KEELER

As these lines are written the first golf team of women officially representing the United States in a formal international match with a team representing similarly Great Britain has won an impressive victory, 5-2 matches to 3-1, at four some and singles play and now the six team members are moving on to Staunton, where they are now engaging as individuals in the British ladies' championship, which started Monday—the same day and date as the British open.

Our British cousins, it seems, have a great way of scheduling their major golf events coincidentally. I remember with a distinct pang how a lot of us had to slip away from Formby, near Southampton, in 1930 and leaving the British (and American) ladies right in the middle of their championship, journey all night by rail to London and thence, at dawn, by motor toward Sandwich, to cover the Walker Cup match.

A Real Effort
However, that's the way it is. And while this column will appear late for any foolish predictions to be made as to the chances of our girls to win a title an American woman had never captured—up to that time, at any rate—the showing made by our very fine team in the first real international combat surely seems to indicate as determined an effort as ever was offered before.

The clean sweep of the three foursomes—a style of play generally supposed to reveal British golfers at an advantage over Americans—and the great performance of the supposedly weaker members of our team in the singles, indisputably shows that our chances both for this year and for ensuing years no longer depend on one or two super golfer, as when Glenna Collett like Alex Stirling in her own day, was regarded as the only chance of victory.

American Hopes
In 1921, on a windy, rain-swept Scottish course, Alexa was drawn with Miss Cecil Leitch in the first round, and was beaten, largely by her own mistakes. Miss Leitch then occupied the same relation to British women's golf as Miss Wethered, when she best Glenna Collett in that remarkable match in 1929 at St. Andrews.

Glenna was back again in 1930, to beat Miss Enid Wilson, considered to have taken Miss Wethered's place on the ladies' retirement—only to lose by an unaccountable lapse in putting against Miss Diana Fishwick in the final match.

Miss Fishwick visited this country the next year, but showed little to impress the critics with her superiority as British champion. And Miss Wilson, in her place over here last year, was bested by Helen Hicks in the United States championship—as was Glenna also.

Miss Wilson gained a measure of revenge by beating Miss Hicks in the Wentworth matches, and Glenna again went down before Miss Wethered.

Miss Hill's cold and methodical attack seems as likely as any to be successful on British turf.

Mrs. Sadie E. Wigham of Long Beach, Cal., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lee McConnell, and Mr. McConnell.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS SILENT ON BOOZE AS THEY GATHER

CHICAGO, June 10 (AP)—The republican national committee settled down to hear its contesting delegations today in an atmosphere charged with potentialities for a prohibition rumpus later on.

While delegations from Louisiana, Georgia, Mississippi and South Carolina mustered arguments before the national committee, party leaders were keenly alive to the rapid sweep of prohibition developments and openly expressed beliefs of numerous incoming delegates to the party platform should at least carry a resubmission plank.

No definite indication came as to how far the leaders would attempt to go. Postmaster General Brown, one of the closest of the president's political advisers, arrived yesterday but he said he stand the party would take on prohibition was up to the convention, itself, and no one would know what the plank would contain until it came from the resolutions committee.

Mark L. Requa, national committeeman for California, another close friend of Mr. Hoover, declined to discuss prohibition, as did Senator Fess of Ohio, chairman of the national committee.

John White, chairman of the White House denying the president had committed himself to any specific plank.

CONVENTION CLOSING

FORT WORTH, June 10 (AP)—Delegates to the Texas Christian convention were ready to adjourn their four-day annual session today. Next year's meetings also will be in Fort Worth.

The Rev. L. N. D. Wells of Dallas yesterday was elected president for the coming year, succeeding Harry Hines of Wichita Falls, Elmer Lincoln of Texarkana was chosen vice-president and Patrick Henry of Fort Worth re-elected secretary-treasurer.

by Jackson to edge through a 7 to 6 victory. Although they bunched their hits timely, the Judges were handicapped by loose fielding.

Port Arthur packed hits into the last inning to nose out Monroe 3 to 2. The Texans got two in the third to knot the score until they broke the ice in the final frame. Reid outthrew Erwin, allowing Monroe only four hits and striking out 11 batters, while Erwin was walking seven.

CONGRESS MAKING EFFORT TO FINISH BEFORE CONVENTIONS

WASHINGTON, June 10. (AP)—Even though all chance of quitting in time for the republican national convention has gone, congress is crowding things for an early adjournment.

Though little is said about it, the presence of the veterans' army of bonus seekers in the capital is a powerful incentive for closing up shop. The nearest to a consensus today apparently was the opinion that the final gavel bang will come at the end of next week, ample time for the democrats to get their party gathering in Chicago.

The bonus vote in the house is practically certain to take place Monday. A maze of technicalities will surround the effort to force out the Patman bill authorizing the $2,000,000,000 outlay, as the house leaders have made the proposition as difficult as possible. But the general belief is that the bill will be passed and sent to the senate.

SEWER RATE CUT
LOOKNEY, June 10. (AP)—The city council has voted to cut the sewer rate 50 per cent. The reduction is effective as of bills paid July 1. Under the new rate, charges for sewers in residences will be 50 cents a month and in business houses $1.

Mrs. C. V. Fleming of Hoover made a shopping trip to Pampa Thursday.

FACILITIES BETTERED
LITTLEFIELD, June 10. Facilities here for the handling of broom corn this fall will be increased, it was announced at a meeting of the chamber of commerce. W. H. Heinen and P. W. Walker are the principal handlers of corn. Both stated they would increase their facilities. Last year Littlefield shipped out 21 cars of broom corn.

MORTON'S SALT
IODIZED OR PLAIN 10¢ THE PACKAGE

A rainy day view of Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., with the dome of the nation's capital looming up in the background.

From Washington to San Francisco, and from Canada to the Gulf, Morton's Iodized Salt is everywhere the leader. So you wonder, too, for it's the only salt that never cakes or hardens. Made with cube-shaped crystals, which tumble off one another instead of sticking together like the flake crystals of inferior salts, it pours just as freely in damp weather as in dry! This national favorite also protects children against simple goiter, with its loss of appetite, lack of vigor, irritability and backwardness at school.

QUAKE ROCKS MEXICO

At least 400 persons were killed when a severe earthquake spread death and desolation in a wide circle around Mexico City, Mexico. The photo above shows the ruins of a home in Calle Allende. The Mexican government has ordered all agencies in the state of Jalisco to co-operate in relief work for the injured and homeless which may run into the thousands.

when they get to the last week of June. Not only is there to be a last-ditch battle over the candidacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt, but a first-ditch combat of real proportions now is assured over the convention chairmanship, and it is easy to foresee plenty of excitement in between. For the first time, developments of the present week have sent the Roosevelt-anti-Roosevelt split set before the country in all its magnitude. By their decision to oppose Jonett Shouse for permanent chairman, the Roosevelt managers raised an issue which the opposition shows every sign of meeting directly.

There even are reports that they will put up a candidate against the Roosevelt-pledged Senator of Kentucky for important chairman. They may not go that far, but there is no question the Roosevelt move to put Senator Walsh of Montana in the place for which Shouse was slated has been accepted by many on the other side as a definite attempt to read the whole Smith-Raskob-Shouse influence out of the convention picture and that does not set well at all with Mr. Roosevelt's enemies.

The decision to oppose Shouse surprised most politicians. Up to now, the Roosevelt strategy has been almost wholly conciliatory. They gathered in a group about the slightest publicity, a conference of leaders assembled at the governor's home at Hyde Park. Five senators and nine members of the House had been summoned from Washington to meet with the local Roosevelt men. They gathered in a group about the governor and withdrawal from Shouse was only one of the results. Several things yet to be disclosed were decided. A floor manager was picked, but his identity is kept in confidence.

The decisions were militant decisions, presumably based on the assumption that the Roosevelt strength now had risen past a controlling majority of the convention and that the time had come, therefore, to take complete possession of the party machinery.

EL DORADO IS BALL THREAT

By The Associated Press. For the third time this week, El Dorado came up strong last night to turn back Baton Rouge, leader of the Cotton States league. The Arkansas have trimmed the leaders advantage but they still are well out in front of the second place Judges of Pine Bluff.

SEWER RATE CUT. LOCKNEY, June 10. (P)—The city council has voted to cut the sewer rate 50 per cent. The reduction is effective as of bills paid July 1. Under the new rate, charges for sewers in residences will be 50 cents a month and in business houses $1.

Charles Sloan of Houston and Jesse Pfeiffer of San Antonio, and Dolph Muhlhisen of San Antonio and Hal Surface of Kansas City were teamed in the men's singles matches.

In the men's doubles, John Barr and J. B. Adoue, Jr. of Dallas were teamed against Dolph Muhlhisen and Lieut. J. Helms of San Antonio, and Hugh Dunlap of Cleburne and Albert Love of Dallas were paired to take on Weldon Litsey of Fort Worth and Carl Smalley of Yorktown.

Junior singles survivors were Bruce Baxter, Mayo King and Jack Taylor, all of Austin, George Dulling of San Antonio, Carl Smalley of Yorktown and Albert Rollins of Oklahoma.

The boys' singles had been reduced to John Beaty and J. H. Wood of San Antonio, Edgar Weller and Bobby Kamrath of Austin.

Semi-finalists in women's singles were Alva Mae Craig of Fort Worth, Anna Mae Reichert of San Antonio, Katherine Pearson of Houston and Eunice Dean of San Antonio.

The junior doubles field was comprised of George Dulling of San Antonio and Jack Taylor of Austin; Albert Rollins and Albert Upshur of Oklahoma; Edgar Weller and Bobby Kamrath of Austin, and George Ball and Russell Ball of El Paso.

Protests Against Chilean Regime Are Filed by Powers

SANTIAGO, June 10. (P)—Representatives of foreign governments, including the United States, filed their first protests today against the acts of the new socialist regime under provisional President Carlos Davila.

Members of the diplomatic corps submitted individual written objections of the Junta against its order confiscating all foreign currency deposits in Chilean banks and providing for the handing of the foreign depositors in pesos, now valued on foreign exchange schedules at only 6 cents.

FACILITIES BETTERED. LITTLEFIELD, June 10. Facilities here for the handling of broom corn this fall will be increased, it was announced at a meeting of the chamber of commerce. W. H. Heinen and P. W. Walker are the principal handlers of corn. Both stated they would increase their facilities. Last year, Littlefield shipped out 21 cars of broom corn.

cakes are always most acceptable in the picnic basket or hamper, so perhaps a few suggestions and recipes may help you in packing your next picnic luncheon.

Potato salad is a stand-by for picnics and it is very satisfactory, but frequently potato chips are liked and then the salad must be something else that is easy to pack and easy to serve.

Stuffed Tomato Salad. Four medium-sized tomatoes, 4 hard cooked eggs, 4 tablespoons diced celery, 4 tablespoons chopped boiled ham (optional), boiled salad dressing.

Scald and chill tomatoes. Peel and scoop out the seeds. Sprinkle the inside with salt and pepper and turn upside down to drain. Hard cook eggs and chop coarsely. Add celery and ham and enough salad dressing to make quite moist. Fill tomatoes with mixture and put each tomato into a small baking cup. Chill until ready to pack.

A boiled dressing is chosen in place of mayonnaise because the boiled dressing "stands up" better while mayonnaise tends to separate if treated too roughly. Sandwiches of chopped olives and pimentos are good to serve with this salad. Cream cheese combined with finely chopped nuts and lettuce, sandwiches might complete the assortment.

Individual cakes, such as cup cakes and cookies are usually easier to handle at a picnic than one large cake.

Chocolate Cup Cakes. Chocolate cup cakes are sure to be popular. The following rule will make ten or twelve cakes, depending on the size of the cups.

One cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons butter, 1-2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, 5 tablespoons milk, 1 square bitter chocolate.

Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder. Sift three times. Cream butter well and gradually add sugar, beating until the mixture is light.

Melt chocolate over hot water and beat into butter mixture. Beat egg until light with milk and vanilla and add alternately with dry ingredients to first mixture, adding dry ingredients first. Stir to keep smooth. Pour into oiled and floured muffin pans or baking cups and bake fifteen minutes in moderate oven. Cover with boiled icing.

Spice Cup Cakes. Spice cup cakes use sour milk and add nuts and raisins to make them "extra" good. This rule will make one dozen cakes.

One-third cup shortening, 3-4 cup brown sugar, 1-2 cup sour milk, 1 cup flour, 1-2 cup seeded raisins, 1-2 cup chopped nut meats, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Cream shortening and beat in sugar. Mix and sift flour, salt and spices and add nuts and raisins. Mix thoroughly and add to first mixture. Add milk and stir until smooth. Add egg well beaten and stir lightly into mixture. Pour into oiled and floured baking cups and bake fifteen minutes in a moderate oven. These cakes do not need to be frosted.

May "Pass Hat" To Get Fund To Stop Well Fire

JACKSON, Miss June 10. (P)—Officials may have to "pass the hat" to get money to quench a flaming gas well which has taken two lives and seriously burned three other persons.

The owners of the well, Laurice and Wayland Atkinson, were killed yesterday when a spark from a tool set off a fiery blast. Snuffing such a fire is an expensive process, involving importation of experts into the field.

In view of the death of the owners, officials were undecided what to do. They intimated they might take up a collection.

Early today the well looked like a gigantic torch.

VIRGINIA FOR BYRD

RICHMOND Va., June 10. (P)—Virginia's 24 votes at the national democratic convention will be cast for Harry Flood Byrd and his plan for a prohibition referendum will be commended to the national gathering for favorable consideration.

MAGNOLIA MACFAYDEN, BELIEVED GREAT HURLER, HIT HARD

MYSTERY MAN OF YANKS HAS ALL PUZZLED

DETROIT TIGERS GET 11 HITS OFF HIM IN 6 INNINGS

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Danny MacFayden, the man for whom the Yankees made an important outlay of players and money last week, begins to shape up as the prize puzzle of the 1932 campaign.

He won 16 games and lost only 12 last season for the sixth place Boston Red Sox and came to be recognized as one of the game's greatest pitchers. Then he turned right around this year and lost 10 of his first efforts for the Sox. The popular theory was that MacFayden's defeats were chargeable to offensive impotence and fielding weaknesses of his teammates.

But the transaction had an entirely different complexion today. MacFayden made his maiden appearance in a New York uniform yesterday against the Detroit Tigers and lasted only six innings as the Tigers scored a 5 to 4 victory. They pounded him for 11 hits and scored all their runs before he was relieved.

Washington grasped the opportunity to defeat Chicago, 6 to 5, largely on errors by "Red" Kress and Bill Sullivan. Cleveland defeated Philadelphia, 9 to 8, in a slugging match.

George Blacholder of the St. Louis Browns chalked up his seventh victory of the year as the Browns took their third straight from Boston, 2 to 1.

Hack Wilson clubbed Brooklyn to a 5 to 2 triumph over his former competitor, the Chicago Cubs. His home run with the bases loaded and a single drove in all the Dodger runs.

Melvin Ott's two home runs provided the Giants with another victory over Cincinnati, 3 to 2, and Pittsburgh bunched its blows to squeeze out a 4 to 3 decision over Philadelphia.

Magnolia Will Play Skellytown

The Magnolia "Mags" will go to Skellytown Sunday without Weathered, Lister, and Cason. The three members of the nine have left the city and will not be available again this season.

Voss will probably get the call to hurl, replacing Cason who was scheduled for mound duty. Burke will be in reserve.

Ridgeway will replace Weathered at shortstop. The newcomer is a flashy fielder, but has yet to hit like his predecessor. Harry Greve will likely patrol the outer garden in place of Lister, who has moved to Shamrock.

Fredy Bozeman's sprained ankle has responded to treatment and he will be behind the bat for the first time in three weeks. The rest of the team will be composed of old players with Manager Rusty Cahill in charge—if he gets back from his fishing trip.

The "Mags" have a postponed game with the Burlington Railroaders but the date has not been set.

MUCH POWER IN RESERVE IS TEAM'S BOAST

DEFEAT OF LONGVIEW BY BEAUMONT IS NOT EASY

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Manager Del Baker's pennant bound, Beaumont Exporters proved another thing in their favor yesterday. They demonstrated beyond doubt they have batting power to spare. In a slugging duel against Longview, the Exporters clouted 18 hits for a 15 to 12 decision.

Longview wasn't exactly meek. The Cannibals plastered Sullivan and Schulz, Beaumont hurlers, for 18 hits but couldn't overtake Beaumont's seven run rally in the second.

List of Stars To Be Cut Deeply at Coming Tryouts

CHICAGO, June 10 (AP)—A big match of Uncle Sam's track and field material faced the melting down process today in trials for the seventh annual national collegiate athletic association championships tomorrow at Stagg field.

The national title will be immediate prize tomorrow, but even more important to individual stars will be the opportunity of qualifying for the final Olympic trials next month at Palo Alto, Cal. Those finishing among the first three in each event will be eligible to make the last big try for places on the Olympic squad.

ANOTHER VICTORY

CHICAGO, June 10 (AP)—There was a new entry today in the long list of victories won by the government against gangsters and politicians for income tax evasion and it stood for conviction of Christian P. Paschen, city building commissioner, under Mayor Thompson.

FIVE OFFICERS OF CONFERENCE AT ASSEMBLY

EXPECTED ATTENDANCE IS DECREASED BY RAIN

Out-of-town delegates were arriving rapidly at 10 o'clock this morning for the district meeting of the Methodist Missionary society. It was believed, however, that the previously expected crowd of one hundred visitors would be decreased because of the general rain last night.

Five conference officers arrived in the city last evening. Mrs. J. Frank Potts of Abilene, vice-president, Mrs. E. R. Graves of Amarillo, and Mrs. J. G. Merritt of Colorado, secretary, spent the night in the home of Mrs. W. Purviance. Mrs. Joe Shelton, local president, had as her guests last night Mrs. E. A. Metcalf of Slaton, superintendent of children's work, and Mrs. C. A. Bickley of Lubbock, superintendent of young women's circles.

Practically all of the 20 churches in the district were to have some part on today's program. Local contributions were to be a devotional period conducted by the Rev. C. A. Long, pastor of the First Methodist church, a welcome address by Mrs. Shelton, a song by Miss Dorothy Dodd, and a duo by Mrs. May Foreman Carr at the organ, and Mrs. Ramon Wilson, at the piano.

A lovely luncheon was to be served buffet style at noon today by members of the local W. M. S.

LOYAL WOMEN ENTERTAINED

TWO ARE HOSTESSES IN HOME OF MRS. GANTZ

A profusion of roses, larkspurs, and pink mums made decorations for the J. C. Gantz home, 306 N. Somerville, Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Gantz and Miss Josephine Thomas joined in entertaining the Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church.

The gathering was opened with a song, "More About Jesus," followed by prayer by Mrs. F. W. O'Malley. Mrs. C. F. Bastion then presided for a business session, and Mrs. De Lea Vicars gave an interesting discourse based on the gospel of Mark.

The hostesses passed a delicious refreshment plate at the close of the afternoon to Mesdames Bessie Martin, W. G. Kinner, Roy McMillen, C. E. Bell, Art. Blachley, L. A. Estes, C. F. Bastion, J. Fred Curry, W. E. Noblitt, E. B. Smith De Lea Vicars, J. E. Jones, C. L. Thomas, E. R. Sunkle, and F. W. O'Malley.

Old-Time Churn Now Modernized

QUANAH, June 10. (AP)—A variation of the old-fashioned dasher churn is being manufactured here by S. N. Fairless at his blacksmith shop. Instead of the plunger method Mr. Fairless uses a lever to which is attached a stout cord wrapped around the dasher. By working the lever back and forth the dasher is rotated at high speed and butter can be churned in much less time, and with much less effort than by the old method.

Tommy Rogers and Roy Wilmsmeier will leave for Austin tomorrow as delegates from the Pampa fire department.

Fire marshalls will study insurance one day during the convention. Another day will be set aside for demonstrations and study of various fire problems and hazards. Firemen will be particularly interested in the day which will be devoted to drill work. Firemen and fire marshalls from the entire state will be present.

Mrs. Josephine Sparks of LeFors was in Pampa on Thursday.

That's Love

Indian Romeos Showed With Pottery by Girls

COLFAX, N. D. (AP)—It was an old Indian custom—the pastime of maidens showering their swains with crockery as a token of affection.

Edward Milligan, Colfax school superintendent and a student of Indian lore, explains that generations ago the Indian Lothario betook himself to his maiden's wigwam, wrapped his blanket around his head and, seating himself outside, crooned sweet nothings.

If Romeos' attentions were favored, it was the maiden's privilege to shower him with pottery, and the over "took it like a man," as a mark of his love.

Well, that's Milligan's story and he points to large quantities of crockery uncovered in ancient Cheyenne villages in Ransom and Richland counties as conclusive proof that "those Cheyenne boys" were most persistent in their love-making.

Mrs. White Is Club's Hostess

Instead of holding the regular Tuesday meeting, members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club enjoyed a series of games on Wednesday of this week in the home of Mrs. Sherman White. Four tables were in progress.

At the close of the games, sweet peas and nasturtiums were placed on each table, and refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake were served.

Members attending were Mesdames Floyd McConnell, Roger McConnell, Carl Boston, G. L. Craig, S. T. Beauchamp, F. Stalls, P. C. Ledrick, Jim White, Skeet Roberts, and H. P. Elliott. Special guests were Mesdames Joe Tyler, B. C. Fahy, Bert Isbell, Siler Faulkner, Tom Chesser, and Wilson Boyd.

R. de Cordova of Dallas, and Mrs. R. F. de Cordova for a trip of three or four weeks in Arizona and New Mexico. The group will make the tour by automobile.

CITY'S MOWER FOUND—CITIZEN SOLVES PUZZLE

The city lawn mower is back in its old resting place in the city hall today after an enforced absence, and City Manager C. L. Stine didn't have to pay the reward he offered. The mower was returned this morning by W. Mullinax, who read in yesterday's NEWS that the instrument was lost among the missing.

Mr. Mullinax told the city manager that he saw the mower resting against former City Manager F. M. Gwin's house Wednesday night and thought Mr. Gwin had forgotten to put his machine away when he left on a vacation trip, so he put the mower in his garage for safe keeping.

A trusty put the machine up against the house and went for a stroll Wednesday afternoon. When the street foreman went to look for prisoner and mower, both were missing.

GARLAND HOTEL BURNS

GARLAND, June 10 (AP)—Fire swept the Garland hotel early today, causing a loss estimated at more than $10,000. J. A. Watson, owner, and ten guests escaped without injury. Cause of the blaze had not been determined. Fireman from Dallas assisted the local department in bringing the fire under control.

DIGNIFIED TEACHERS TO MAKE WISE-CRACKS TO EARN THEIR LIVING; BIG CROWD EXPECTED

CHICAGO, June 10. (AP)—Geometry teachers doing toe-dances, Staid English instructors singing popular songs, other pedagogues whistling "for their own pay," still others wise-cracking.

That's a cross section of the program of "School Scandals of 1932," which will be staged and enacted tonight by 100 members of the Chicago teachers' federation to raise funds for needy teachers. Salaries are now five months in arrears despite occasional partial pay checks.

The downtown theater on Michigan boulevard where the show is to have a one-night stand has been sold-out and the federation estimated it would clear about $2,500.

CIVIC CULTURE CLUB TO MEET THIS SUMMER

GOVERNMENT STUDY TO BE COMPLETED ON JUNE 21

The Civic Culture club, the only federated study group in Pampa to meet during the summer months, will complete on June 21 a study of government and will be prepared at the next meeting to open a miscellaneous study of music.

Mrs. Irvin Cole, who is well-versed in various phases of music, will be in general charge of the programs. There will be a study of events of historical significance in music, as well as modern music, folk songs, national anthems, short stories for musical selections appropriate for children, modern artists art in the home, and modernistic art. The study will continue until January.

Several entertainments probably will be held during the warm months.

A study of national problems held during the warm months.

A study of national problems held interest at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. B. C. Fahy. Mrs. W. O. Workman was program chairman for the afternoon, and Mrs. Katie Vincent presided during the business session.

Wealthy Woman To Give Free Meals To Two Thousand

HOUSTON, June 10. (AP)—A wealthy Houston woman, who insisted upon remaining anonymous, will provide two meals a day, seven days a week, during the summer vacation to 2,000 public school children here.

The children were provided, throughout the school year, with free meals through the lunchrooms of the public school system, but their prospects would have been bleak for the summer months, due to the cessation of school activities, had it not been for the benefaction of this philanthropist.

The meals will be served in school lunchrooms at strategic points throughout the city.

School Budgets Will Be Drawn

County Superintendent John B. Hessey has started his summer-time job.

This includes compiling complete reports of 5,545 school children in the county under his supervision and sending them to the State Department of Education for statistical purposes. The reports are required by the department. A report of each child containing the health, history, grades, is sent to the department.

After this work is completed, Mr. Hessey will make a check on about 5,000 state-owned books in the county schools. Every book must be accounted for.

Next the county superintendent will draft a budget for next term for every school in the county. These budgets, too, must be sent to Austin. For the first time, all rural schools in the state under the supervision of the county superintendent, will operate on budgets. Every penny spent by any school must be in the budget. The budgets are made by Mr. Hessey and the school boards.

Special Term of Court Planned to Hear Damage Suit

A special session of 114th district court will be held to try the damage suit of Lois Mildred Ayer and her brothers and sisters against D. A. Upham, operating as the McLean Gas company. It was decided yesterday. The special term will begin July 6 and continue until the trial ends.

Attorneys in the case announced yesterday they were not ready for trial. The suit was scheduled to begin at 1:30 o'clock. A special venire of 50 men will be summoned as prospective jurors.

The plaintiff's parents suffered fatal burns when escaping gas in the Ayer house at McLean ignited. The suit is based on the allegation the escaping gas was due to negligence of the gas company. Prominent lawyers in the case include Will R. Saunders and Major E. A. Simson for the plaintiffs and W. M. Lewright of Pampa and Penix and Penix for the defense.

Gambler's Throw by Eustace L. Adams

SYNOPSIS: When a mysterious gang of kidnapers carry off Nancy Wentworth, a musical comedy star, four wealthy men and a gangster, Jerry Calhoun, and his friend, Henry Batten, join forces with a detective in determined pursuit. The unusual letters from the kidnapers, and their demands for money, and their threats of violence, make the pursuit a difficult task. But in an airplane, piloted by Jerry, the three men follow the kidnapers' hydroplane when it collects the board money. They hope it will lead them to the place where the captives are concealed. Unwilling to them, the group of prisoners are held in a lonely house in a place of which they know nothing except its extreme heat. Malloy, one of the abducted business men, is in love with Nancy. Lucio, to leave her alone. The waiting affects everyone's nerves.

Chapter II
HOST OF THE HOUSE PARTY
MALLORY finished his highball at a gulp and went into the hot night.
Williams tossed aside a three-week-old copy of a Chicago paper and followed him. Martin remained in his chair, silent, moody. Hamilton found his game blocked and dealt a new hand. He could hear the girl's clear, vibrant contralto from the porch. The deep, resonant rumble in response would be Lucio's.
The sound of the airplane motor's hum changed to an uneven popping.

"We'll either be damn good friends," Lucio told Ashwood, "or one or the other of us'll get a spade full of dirt in the face before long."
Those who had watched the descending airplane from the porch returned to the room, hoping that with the return of the ship something might occur to break the monotony. Although they were accustomed to frequent short flights when the amphibian departed upon brief shopping expeditions, the last time it had been absent for more than twelve hours, it had returned to add Lucio, Martin and Williams to the trio of bored New Yorkers who had been sole "meats" of the large house. Now it was returning from a three-day trip. Perhaps other victims would join the group.

Nervous, the staccato conversation eddied back and forth.
A strange figure entered the room, that of a tall, thin man who limped painfully with the aid of a very heavy stick. As he stood in a doorway glancing about, Hamilton took him to be an elderly man, sixty or sixty-five years of age, perhaps. Upon a second glance, he noted that the pale, parchment-like features beneath the snow-white hair were those of a man in his early thirties. The eyes were young, vivid blue, and with a directness of gaze that was almost disconcerting. There was a cynical, sophisticated twist to the deep lines at the corners of the mouth, a perpetually inquiring arch to the jutting white eyebrows. The nose was that of a thinker, thin and prominent.

"Good evening, One-shot," said the old-young man as he bowed to the swarthy gangster. "You have no idea how delighted I was to learn that you had joined our delightful little gathering." His deep-set eyes flickered over the others, finally coming to rest upon the girl, who stood beside the center table. "Miss Wentworth, my apologies. It is an unpardonable breach of social etiquette for a host to absent himself while his guests are visiting. I assure you it was unavoidable. There are many harassing details connected with such a large house party."

"Ain't you Linpy Ashwood?" Lucio's voice broke the silence like the clang of a Chinese gong. The stranger hobbled into the light. Hamilton saw that his left leg was a full three inches shorter than the right. His left shoe had an enormously thick sole which enabled the cripple to walk without crutches.

"I am flattered that we need no introductions, you and I," observed Ashwood blandly.
"Where are you going to turn us loose?" the gangster demanded bluntly.
"Don't tell me that you are bored already, Mr. Lucio!" protested the cripple. "If any of my staff have been negligent, I'll give them two weeks' notice immediately."

He turned to the girl solicitously. "I'm sorry that I couldn't invite a chaperone, Miss Wentworth, but I'm sure that the impeccable respectability of your married companions, here, has served equally well."
He beamed at the uneasy men, his eyes resting for a full second upon Malloy. Hamilton wondered how much he knew.
"Where are we here?" inquired the girl flatly.
"Miss Wentworth! Are you not enjoying yourself?"
She decided that if this very strange man did not wish to answer questions, he was well equipped to parry them. She studied him intently. He was obviously a gentleman.

One-shot Lucio rose from his chair and walked across the floor to confront the slender cripple. His robust, vigorous health contrasted oddly with the meager form, lined face and white hair of the other. Their eyes met and clashed.
"I've heard all about you, Linpy," stated the gangster, "and I've been wanting to meet a dude who is supposed to run a racket just for the fun of it. So you're Linpy Ashwood, eh? Well, you got brains and nerve, anyway. I'll hand that much to you. We'll either be damn good friends or one or the other of us'll get a spade full of dirt in the face before long."

"So?" Ashwood turned away and settled himself laboriously in a chair. Then he looked up at the aggressive figure which towered over him. His face bore an expression of faintly amused interest.
"Yeah, that's so. Now we all wanta know what this racket's all about. It's a shake-down, o'course. That's all right, but why are we still here? Wouldn't our people kick in, or what? Did the bulls get hot on you so you had to lam away?"

"Neither one, Lucio," replied Ashwood, patiently. "Your friends and relatives have all paid your current accounts very promptly. I am now the proud and happy possessor of some $600,000 more than I had a short time ago and that pays your board bill in full for another ten days or two weeks. They were most generous, I assure you."

Lucio whistled softly and looked down at the cripple with patent admiration.
"God! You chiseled us right, didn't you? Well, ain't six hundred grand enough? Why are you digging it all outa us? You got enough outa one outfit. Turn us loose and get yourself another flock of suckers."

"That's a logical point of view," admitted Ashwood. "In due course I'll follow your suggestion. But I am not quite ready now."
Ashwood is "not quite ready," he explains tomorrow—because he is planning further unpleasantness for his guests.

Anacostia flats camp to prevent an outbreak of disease. Glassford sought new billets for the groups. These under police care at Anacostia today totaled 6,560.
The office of Captain William G. Scott, ranking metropolitan police officer overseeing the veterans, estimated 10,000 would be in Washington by tomorrow morning.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 10. (AP)—Perched atop the cars of a Baltimore and Ohio freight train, approximately 700 bonus marchers from Texas headed east toward Cincinnati shortly after midnight.
The train on which they were riding was bound for Washington, railroad officials said, and it was considered likely the Lone Star state "army" had finally hopped a ride all the way to the nation's capital, their objective.

WASHINGTON, June 10. (AP)—Irate veterans at the principal encampment of the bonus army last night served fresh notices that they would brook no communistic influence by expelling some 200 avowed reds.
Mostly newcomers of the group kicked out of the squalid makeshift village of veterans was made up mostly of newcomers from Cleveland, Detroit, and New York. They were singled out as the camp commanders questioned the arriving contingents which poured in steadily at the rate of about 100 an hour.
Before possible violence could take place, a detail of police, aided by ex-soldiers, marched the communists half a mile or so to a vacant lot where a strong guard was maintained.
They were to be escorted out of town today.

"Army" Growing
The steady influx had swelled the "army" enormously, greatly adding to alarm over the camp conditions which City Health Officer Dr. William C. Fowler yesterday pronounced frightful.
New supplies, however, arrived to ward off danger of starvation as well as disease. Several tons of food raised by a Hoboken, Italian club were brought in this morning.
Fearing an outbreak of contagious disease among the veterans, district officials spoke of quarantine, redoubled their efforts to have the various states discourage more marches and sought arrangements to distribute the men at old forts and military posts which surround the capital.

The veterans yesterday, through Father James R. Cox, of Pittsburgh, and a committee, left petitions for payment of the bonus with President Hoover, Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Garner.
The house vote on the Patman

bill to pay the bonus will come up Monday.
WOMEN ALONG
CINCINNATI, O., June 10. (AP)—Texas men, women and children came to Cincinnati atop box cars today on their way to Washington to seek payment of the soldiers' bonus.
They arrived from the south by way of Louisville, clinging perilously to the roofs of box cars of a Baltimore and Ohio freight train. They clambered down, still cherry, in the railroad yards here, prepared to rest a while and then seek similar accommodations, if there are none better, on their way to the capital.
The group numbered between 600 and 700.
Most of the "marchers" were men. J. J. Richardson of San Antonio brought his wife and two children, Virginia, 13 and Oliver, 11, along with him, however. Mrs. Mary Arnold of San Antonio traveled with them.
They left San Antonio a week ago.

Murder Charged Against Officials
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 10. (AP)—Two prison camp officials were held here today on first degree murder charges in the death of Charles Mailleferret, 19-year-old prisoner found strangled in a "sweat box."
A coroner's inquest placed responsibility for the death on Captain C. W. Courson, in charge of a road camp near Sunbeam, and S. M. Higginbotham, a guard.
Witnesses testified Mailleferret, whose home was Westfield, N. J., gnawed his way out of a barrel where he had been placed for refusal to work and then was confined in the sweat box, unable to sit or lie down, with his feet in stocks and a chain about his neck.
Officers at the camp said Mailleferret deliberately swung his feet off the ground to hang himself, but County Detective W. H. Gasque said he believed the youth was too fatigued to stand and strangled when he involuntarily sagged on the chain.
An autopsy surgeon said the prisoner's stomach revealed he had not eaten for twelve hours or more. Mailleferret was serving nine years on robbery charges.
Henry Paulsen of White Deer made a business trip to the city on Thursday.

UNCERTAINTY ABOUT OUTCOME OF OIL MEASURE IS EXPECTED

BY WILLIAM VOIGT, Jr.
Associated Press Staff Writer
TULSA, Okla., June 10. (AP)—After waging an unsuccessful fight against a federal gasoline tax, the midcontinent oil area is in confusion over the outcome of the new measure, part of the emergency revenue bill, which becomes effective June 21.

An interpretation from Washington is expected soon, but until it comes there will be uncertainty over the new law.

Prior to its enactment earlier in the week, oil men generally fought any idea of an additional levy on crude oil products, on the contention that state and municipal taxes already effective make motor fuel one of the most highly taxed commodities in use.

Evasion Feared

Now that the battle has proved unavailing, most oil men are worrying over whether the 15 days grace allowed will permit evasion of the tax through loading up storage facilities available.

Since the law, providing a one-cent tax on motor fuel, was signed by President Hoover late Monday, the refiners of the midcontinent have been swamped with orders. The movement is out of proportion to the seasonal demand.

Most of the orders are coming from brokers, jobbers and contract customers, who are under agreement to take a specified amount, between limits, periodically.

By the language of the bill the tax must be paid to the government by the "producer," which is defined as a "refiner, or blender." It is conceded that the producer will in turn collect from the motor car operator.

May Hike Prices

The producer likely will advance the price all along the line between the point that remits to the treasury department and the corner station, effective June 21.

However, there are many jobbers and brokers who do not manufacture gasoline, but who purchase it from the refiner and resell it. These are neither "refiners, compounders or blenders and hence under a strict interpretation would be exempt from payment of the tax.

It is this business man who is ordering motor fuel far beyond custom for the period.

Fear has developed that this section of the industry, by stocking up now with a three or four months supply, will get a one-cent per gallon edge after the law takes effect.

Underselling Likely

The purchaser who stock now may undersell those marketers who fuel the tax or may pocket the additional cent profit per gallon.

Using the argument that extra seasonal demand has caused their product to have a greater value, refiners have increased the price of gasoline in tank car lots. U. S. motor grades advanced a full eighth of a cent per gallon yesterday, and the market continued to strengthen. This failed to check the volume of orders from brokers, jobbers and contract buyers.

U. S. motor gasoline ranged from 4 1-2 cents to 5 1-2 cents per gallon for the low, middle and high grades yesterday. Natural gasoline also showed decided strength.

Operators were uncertain whether kerosene is included in the language of the law, since it provides for a tax on "gasoline, benzol and any other liquid" used as motor fuel. Much kerosene is used in operation of farm motors, tractors and like machinery.

The status of natural gasoline also was in doubt. Most of this volatile fluid is used to blend with other ingredients at refineries, where the tax presumably is to be paid on the bulk of the motor fuel. Yet, strictly speaking, natural gasoline is manufactured in the oil field proper rather than at the refinery and is unfit at that point as a motor fuel except in isolated cases. How the payment of the tax shall be divided equitably between the natural gasoline producer and the refiner has not been determined.

Eyes here were turned expectantly toward Washington, where attorneys for the government and attorneys for oil companies and associations are expected to draft an interpretation of the law without delay.

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina shipped almost a million wild animal hides abroad last year. Most numerous, in order, were pelts of wild llamas, skunks, foxes and otter.

Ulster Grows Temperate

BELFAST (AP)—Drinking in northern Ireland shrank one-half in 10 years, said Hugh M. Pollack, finance minister, announcing that revenue from liquor taxes fell from $13,456,000 in 1922 to $6,171,000 last year.

Trial for Murder Set for June 23

HOUSTON, June 10. (AP)—The trial of R. E. Lee, former state convict guard charged with the murder of Mrs. Beulah McGiboney on April 16, has been re-set for June 23. It originally was set for June 6.

Mrs. McGiboney's husband, Charles McGiboney, was wounded at the time she was slain with shotgun slugs. The shootings occurred in their strawberry patch near here. Lee is charged with assault to murder in the wounding of McGiboney.

HIS HEALTH

IMPROVED 40%

After Use of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

If you are constipated, read this letter which Mr. Murray had attested by Notary Public:

"Two months ago I commenced using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to relieve constipation. I am in better health today than I have been in years, due to the use of your wonderful bran. My bowels move regularly, and my general health has improved 40%." — George A. Murray, 288 1/2 Street, South Boston, Mass.

Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN brings two things needed to correct common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently it clears the intestines of wastes.

How much better to use ALL-BRAN than to abuse your system with pills and drugs—often harmful.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation—in serious cases, with every meal. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal with milk or cream, or in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Veterans Urged To Attend Meet

HOUSTON, June 10. (AP)—C. E. Gilbert, commander of the Texas division of the United Confederate Veterans, has issued an appeal that all Texas camps have representation in the 42nd annual reunion at Richmond, Va., June 21 to 24.

Commander Gilbert announced appointment of the following Texas women to places of honor in the Texas delegations:

Mrs. J. E. Winfree of Houston, matron of honor; Mrs. Young Yates of Fort Worth, chaperon; Mrs. J. Ryan Peel of Houston, sponsor; Mrs. Roy E. Smith of Tyler, Mrs. Neta V. Taylor of Houston and Mrs. F. M. Fenn of Richmond, Tex., maids of honor; Mrs. W. T. Dalton of Dallas, official registered nurse.

The commander's staff is headed by J. E. Winfree of Houston, adjutant and chief. Others are H. G. Wright of Paris, Tex., lieutenant commander; Judge Edgar Scurry of Wichita Falls, judge advocate; Bawd Farrar of Waxahachie, historian; Judge Tom Simmons of Fort Worth, treasurer; Dr. Will Burrum of Clarksville, surgeon; Judge O. C. Crisman of Cleburn, quartermaster; W. A. Cline of Wharton, color sergeant and Bishop A. Frank Smith of Houston, chaplain.

Battleship Crew Is To Be Honored

GALVESTON, June 10. (AP)—Elaborate plans are being made for the welcome and entertainment of the officers, cadets and crew of the United States battleship Wyoming, due here June 17 on a midshipman's training cruise.

With about 450 cadets from the naval academy at Annapolis aboard, the Wyoming's personnel will total about 1,000. It has been announced. The ship will be greeted on her arrival off shore by a flotilla of yachts and launches, while a flight of airplanes from the third attack group at Fort Crockett will circle overhead. A program of entertainment is being mapped out.

Capt. Benjamin Dutton, who commanded the dreadnaught on her visits here in October and February, is still commanding officer.

Blind Justice Flouted

By Paris Court Theft

PARIS (AP)—Justice, being blindfolded, has lost a timepiece.

While a case was being heard in the law courts a man entered with a ladder and took down the wall clock. "It needs fixing," he told the judge, but it hasn't been seen since.

Hardly a day passes without a complaint of depositions by sneak thieves or pickpockets in the courts' building.

License Taxes Held In Escrow

HOUSTON, June 10. (AP)—While a district court's final decision in attack on the validity of the state automobile tax law is awaited here, fees collected in this county continued to pile up.

License taxes held by the tax collector in escrow pending the outcome of the suit have reached about $800,000. A temporary injunction restrained the collector from forwarding the money to the state and still is in effect.

'BACK TO FARM' MOVEMENT AS AID TO UNEMPLOYMENT IS PROPOSED BY J. E. McDONALD

AUSTIN, June 10. (AP)—J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture, is proposing a "back to the farm" movement as a means of relieving unemployment. McDonald would have the movement sponsored by the federal government with the aid of state agencies.

The plan, which has been the subject of considerable discussion in the past few months, is receiving the increasing interest and attention of financiers, lawmakers and industrialists. McDonald said, expressing hope some workable plan could be found to place the movement into effect.

To Avoid Dole
The agricultural commissioner estimated that approximately 7,000,000 were unemployed, many permanently displaced by labor-saving machinery. Unless they are furnished with the means of making a living, the unemployed will be forced into bread lines or perhaps to accept a dole. If returned to farms they at least could earn a livelihood, McDonald said, and with their broader education and knowledge of better social customs derived from residence in metropolitan areas, would be an asset to the rural communities in which they were placed by contributing to the upbuilding of rural life.

Among the proposals offered for carrying out the "back to the farm" movement is one that it be backed by private individuals. Others propose that the state take over the task, while yet others would have the federal government assume the responsibility.

McDonald is of the opinion that private individuals and organizations do not have the capital to sponsor such a program, and that neither a majority of the states in a position to finance the proposal.

Wants Loan Plan
Under McDonald's plan, congress would appropriate a sum of money to be used as a revolving loan fund to be paid back over a period of years in small amounts of low rates of interest.

McDonald would have the "back to the farm" farmers engage in diversified agriculture, produce abundant food and feed crops, improve their farm homes, build up the fertility of the soil and add to the cultural side of rural life.

"This is the psychological time for such a constructive program," McDonald said. "Land is cheap, lumber is cheaper than it has been for many years, transportation facilities are without sufficient business and the laborer needs employment."

"Inasmuch as land and agriculture is the source of our wealth, the benefits of such a movement would inure to all classes, especially to the unemployed who must be given constructive work before this country can again have prosperity."

Park Beautifying Before 1936 Asked

AUSTIN, June 10. (AP)—D. E. Colp, chairman of the Texas state park board, believes sentiment in Texas is favorable to adoption of the constitutional amendment to permit the state to assist financially in the proposed Texas Centennial celebration in 1936. Colp recently returned from a tour of several sections of the state.

Colp stated he would recommend to the highway commission that work on roads leading to state parks be completed as speedily as possible so that visitors to the Centennial, if held, could have easy access to the beauty spots and places of historic interest. The park board plans to have the parks in splendid condition for the celebration.

The park board chairman said he was gratified at the interest being taken in the four major state parks at Caddo Lake, Palo Ouro canyon, Davis Mountain park, and Guadalupe park.

"Wild Bill" Hallahan, left-hander of the St. Louis Cardinals, tied the major league record for wild pitches in one inning with three in a game this spring.

State Operation Of Ferry Asked

GALVESTON, June 10. (AP)—Moves to persuade the state highway commission to take over the operation of the Bolivar-Galveston ferry across the Galveston channel are expected to be instituted soon by the commissioner's court. This action will follow upon the federal government taking over maintenance of the ferry channel, recommendation of which has been made to Congress. Dredging of the waterway has cost the county $15,000 yearly, while initial cost, including installation of docks and dredging, was about $350,000.

The ferry saves almost 60 miles to Port Arthur and the route via Bolivar Peninsula is in extension of the hug-the-coast highway. The ferry is operated on a toll basis by a private company at the present time.

Prohibition Has Strong Place In National Thinking

By The Associated Press
The prohibition question, given prominence for discussion by the recent statement of John D. Rockefeller Jr., that he favored repeal of the eighteenth amendment, continued to occupy a strong position in the public interest as new recruits were added to the anti-prohibition side.

In London John R. Mott, president of the world's alliance of the Y. M. C. A., and head of the international missionary council, told the Associated Press he favored a thoroughgoing reconsideration of prohibition as a policy, provided the reconsideration were in the form of a popular vote in no way related to a political campaign and that the choice be between the present plan and a concrete alternative plan.

In Richmond, Va., Governor John Garland Pollard, delivering the keynote address to the democratic state convention, urged submission of the question to direct vote of the people, as suggested by former Governor Harry Flood Byrd, Virginia's candidate for the democratic presidential nomination.

In both major parties there were indications republicans and democrats alike may write into their platforms a re-submission plank.

Governor Roosevelt of New York, one of the leading candidates for the democratic presidential nomination, said last night he believed the democratic party will clearly indicate in its platform a way to abrogate the eighteenth amendment and reiterated his personal opinion that control of liquor be returned to the states.

William Gibbs McAdoo, another of the country's leading democrats, has suggested a national referendum

Sterling Explains "Cutoff" Stand

AUSTIN, June 10. (P)—Governor R. S. Sterling has wired the Midland chamber of commerce that he had "never gone on record as saying" that the Weatherford cutoff of the bankhead highway should not be built "some time."

Considerable controversy between towns in the community affected has arisen over a proposal of the Texas highway commission to construct a cut-off from the Bankhead highway from Weatherford to Ranger, a distance of 46 miles. It was claimed the new construction would save 14 miles travel from Ft. Worth to points in West Texas.

The Midland chamber telegraphed Governor Sterling that his friends there were "surprised at your attitude on Ranger-Weatherford cutoff."

Fancy French Barrow

LILLE, France (P)—A wheelbarrow de luxe was shown at the Lille fair. It had a pneumatic tire with broad tread, but the chassis was the same old pattern.

"More people favor the road than oppose," the message stated. "No desire to hurt Mineral Wells but we are fighting for self preservation, not asking your support but asking you remain neutral and let highway commission act as it sees fit."

Governor Sterling replied he had "repeatedly said and do so now that I am opposed to the spending of any money either by the county, state or national governments that is not absolutely necessary."

Big Oil Suit To Be Re-Arranged

AUSTIN, June 10. (P)—Attorney General James V. Allred today faced the necessity of rearranging his pleadings in the state's oil anti-trust oyster suit.

Judge J. D. Moore of Travis county district court yesterday sustained an exception of the Continental Oil company, one of the 17 defendants, which complained of exhibits appended to the state's second amended original petition. The exhibits set out certain data based on alleged facts the state proposed to introduce on trial of the cause to substantiate its claim the defendants had conspired to dominate the marketing of gasoline and petroleum products in Texas.

Burney Egly of Fort Worth, attorney for the Continental, told the court that the exhibits were not sued on as a cause of action but were "designed to be used only as evidence in violation of rule 19 governing district courts."

Judge Moore overruled several exceptions to sustained matter of the exhibits, but he said they properly should be incorporated in the body of the petition.

Attorney General James V. Allred said the pleadings would be altered in conformity to the court's holding.

Indications were consideration of exceptions aimed at the state's pleadings would take the rest of this week.

TO BE FLIGHT WING

GALVESTON, June 10. (P)—The third attack group will be converted into a flight wing June 15, according to advices received here from Washington. At the same time, Lieutenant Colonel Horace Hickham will relieve Major Davenport Johnson from command, the Major going to Washington for other duty.

WILL BUILD CUT-OFF

PALO PINTO, June 10. (P)—Preparations went ahead today for building the Bankhead highway cut-off from Weatherford to a point three miles south of Strawn. District Judge Sam Russel yesterday refused to grant an injunction against building the road. The suit was brought by residents of Palo Pinto county road District No. 1, who claimed the cut-off would take traffic away from the present Bankhead highway.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: JUDAH THE TRUE BROTHER.

Scripture Lesson: Genesis 44:18-34

Gen. 44:18. Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh, my Lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant; for thou art even as Pharaoh.

19. My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20. And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loveth him.

21. And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him. The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

22. And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.

23. And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

24. And our father said, Go again, buy us a little food. And we said, We cannot go down: for our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down; for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

25. And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons:

26. And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I have not seen him since.

27. And if ye take this one also from me, and harm befall him, ye will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.

28. Now therefore before I come to thy servant my father, and the lad is not with us, seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life:

29. It will come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants will bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to Sheol.

30. For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, I bring him not unto thee, then shall I bear the blame to my father for ever.

31. Now therefore, let thy servant, I pray thee, abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

32. For how shall I go up to my father, if the lad be not with me? lest I see the evil that shall come to my father.

33. Now therefore, let thy servant, I pray thee, abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34. For how shall I go up to my father, if the lad be not with me? lest I see the evil that shall come to my father.

Golden Text: Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.—Ps. 133:1.

Time: B. C. 1715. Place: Joseph's palace at Zoan, in the Nile delta.

Introduction
In our lesson is a story of beautiful reconciliation between Joseph and his brothers. It is a revelation on the one hand of transformation in the spirits of those who were once so selfish and cruel, and on the other of the persistence of the sweetness and faith of Joseph through a long period of severest strain, in which he knew the lowest depths of adversity and the highest peak of honor. It voices also an interpretation of life as under the providence of God, and which sanctifies all the experiences of those who look to him for guidance.

Cruel Treatment
We recall the attitude of Joseph's brethren toward him in his boyhood. Because of Jacob's love for him they began to be jealous of him, and their jealousy was increased by every expression of Jacob's favor, by Joseph's dreams, and by his guileless truthfulness in reporting their evil conduct. Their envy only waited for an occasion to express itself in violence.

The occasion presented itself one day when Joseph came to them in Dothan, where they were feeding their flocks. There they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him. At Reuben's suggestion they cast him into a pit instead of slaying him at once. And a little later, Judah's suggestion, they sold him to a passing caravan of merchants who were going down into Egypt, thinking to save themselves from actual bloodshed, and at the same time accomplish their purpose and make money out of the transaction. This done they returned to their father, presenting to him Joseph's coat which they had spattered with goat's blood, and leaving him to infer that his favorite son had been slain by wild beasts.

Brothers' Visit to Egypt
After twenty years a mighty famine descended upon the land, and soon the household of Jacob, now indeed a small village, began to be in want. The eldest that there was in Egypt, and accordingly Jacob sent ten of his sons thither to buy. Benjamin, the youngest, son of his beloved Rachel and full brother of lost Joseph, he kept at home. In Egypt they presented themselves before the governor and bowed down before him (in literal fulfillment of Joseph's dream) little dreaming that he was Joseph. When in their protest against his accusation that they were spies, they told of the family of lost Joseph and of Benjamin; he demanded that Benjamin be brought as a proof of their truthfulness. And to give them time to think it over, and himself time to decide, definitely upon a course of action, he cast them into prison.

Judah—A Changed Man
The new part played by Judah in this critical time is a fine example of true repentance, which is inward revolution. It will be remembered that in the conspiracy against Joseph it was his selfish and grasping spirit that suggested the sale of Joseph into slavery. No sooner did he see the approaching caravan than he said, "What profit is it if we slay our brother and conceal his blood? Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites." He said also, "for he is our brother and our flesh," but what a travesty it was upon brotherhood to reject murder and yet consent to slavery!

That was the old Judah. The new Judah manifests the same leadership, but now it is expressive of genuine brotherliness.

Judah's Plea for Benjamin
Martin Luther said he would give anything if he could pray to God as Judah prayed to Joseph. He begins in great humility and confession: "What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants; behold we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found." Gen. 44:16. To that Joseph answered that all were free except Benjamin. Then Judah poured out his soul for Benjamin. He pictures Jacob in his grief and anxiety waiting for his youngest son; he tells of their pleading with the aged man to heed the demand of the Egyptian, and Jacob's reluctance and recital of his loss of Joseph, and his final yielding; he pictures the unbearable sorrow of Jacob if they should return without Benjamin; he finally tells how he himself had become surety for his younger brother, and in beautiful self-sacrifice pleads with Joseph to accept him as a servant in Benjamin's stead. We feel with Strachan as we read it that "Judah's offer to renounce the things which are dearest to the human heart—home and country and liberty—raises him to a place among the heroes of the Bible."

Joseph Forgives His Brothers
Judah's touching pleas, was too much for Joseph, he could no longer restrain his emotions. Hastily bidding every Egyptian leave the hall, that his brothers might be by themselves and that their evil deeds might not become known to the courtiers, with great sobs that could be heard in the neighboring rooms Joseph cried aloud; "I am Joseph." "He spoke in deep emotion; yet the words must have fallen to them like a thunderbolt. 'Joseph!' Had they been dealing all the while with their long lost brother? 'Joseph!' Then they had fallen into a lion's den indeed. 'Joseph!' Could it be? Yes, it must be so; and it would explain a good many things which had sorely puzzled them. Well might they be troubled and terrified. How much this reminds us of another scene, not far from the gate of Damascus, when Jesus arrested Paul with the word, 'I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest.' Pentitent sinner! It is thus thy Saviour speaks to thee.

With words that remind us of Christ's matchless plea on the cross, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do," so this Old Testament exemplar of pardon found an excuse for his would-be murderers: "Be not grieved, nor angry with yourself, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life." With such words he fell on Benjamin's neck, with many tears, and kissed all his brothers, and then sat down for an hour and loving talk with them.

Grace of Forgiveness
"Joseph takes the true point of view, which we are all bound to occupy if we would practice the Christian grace of forgiveness. He looks beyond the mere human hate and envy to the divine purpose. He thinks of the good that has come out of their malice, and anger dies within him. He must have been living near the fountain of all mercy to have had so full a cup of it to offer."—Rev. Alexander MacLaren, D. D. "It is so with the true Joseph, our blessed Lord, in heaven. His appeal to those who have sinned against him is, 'Come near to me, I pray you.'"

"My pardon I freely bestow, Thy wants I will fully supply; I'll guard thee and guide thee below, And soon will remove thee on high."
—John Newton.
("Othello Hymns").

FINE CATTLE SHIPPED
SWEETWATER, June 10. (AP)—Sweetwater and trade area has this year shipped to Los Angeles markets more than 150 carloads of grass-fed and finished cattle. Indications are that some 25,000 to 30,000 head of cattle and sheep will be fed in Sweetwater during the coming feed season. They are bringing top prices.

BEACON STATION IS NEAR COMPLETION
SWEETWATER, June 10. (AP)—All equipment has been installed for the government radio beacon station near the Sweetwater Municipal Airport. The only remaining work on the project, is erection of the four steel antenna towers and construction of the antennas, it was said.

This station is one of the series being installed on the southern trans-continental air route. From it will be broadcast a directional radio beam guiding pilots along the course at night or in bad weather. The next stations are at Fort Worth, on the east, and Wink to the west.

Joseph Dickendorf, of the light-house division of the Department of Commerce, is in charge of installation of the station here.

QUAHAI, June 10. (AP)—General harvesting will begin from June 10 to 15, depending upon the weather, according to wheat men and farmers. Recent cool, cloudy days have been very beneficial to wheat, it is stated, allowing the kernels to fill and straw to ripen and mature.

C. J. Simpson, veteran wheat buyer of this section, who on May 13 predicted over 1,000,000 bushel crop in Hardeman county, is still "standing pat" on that prediction.

"Nothing has happened to make me change my estimate of this territory averaging 20 bushels of wheat to the acre. Of course, this cool cloudy weather is delaying harvest but at the same time it is making wheat," stated Mr. Simpson.

Sweetwater To Be Livestock Center

SWEETWATER, June 10. (AP)—Livestock development in this territory and increase of cattle trade in the Sweetwater section have led to the selection of this city for the livestock department headquarters of the Texas and Pacific railroad, it has been announced.

John M. Simpson, livestock agent for the railroad, has arrived from Dallas, his former headquarters. It is the first office of this nature to be placed in Sweetwater by any railroad.

COST OF PLATES FOR CARS SMALL
AUSTIN, June 10. (AP)—Texas motor vehicle registration plates cost less per pair than for any state in the Union, figures compiled by the state highway department show.

Mississippi pays less than Texas for its motor vehicle registration plates by only one cent a pair. The cost of making the plates in the prisons ranged from 0.67 per pair in South Dakota to 16 cents a pair in Pennsylvania.

Out of 26 states checked, 14 made their own plates, either in the state prisons or other state institutions, and 12 states purchased tags. The cost of making the plates in the prisons ranged from 0.67 per pair in South Dakota to 16 cents a pair in Pennsylvania.

Chiropractic is a Philosophy, a science and art of things natural; a system of adjusting by hand the many articulations of the human body for the elimination of the cause of disease.

Dis-ease is an effect; every effect must have a cause. The cause of disease is a lack of nerve stimulus, transmitted upon the myriads of elements of the body.

I will be glad to explain how Chiropractic is related to you, and prove by a practical demonstration the working of the science as practiced according to the latest methods.
