

TWO MEN ARE BLOWN TO BITS

OH RATS!—WHO'S 'FRAID OF MICE?

If Miss Shirley Copeland were an old-fashioned girl afraid of rodents, her fur neckpiece wouldn't look so ratty. But her smile proves her fondness for these two pets, which accompanied her to the Eastern Music camp at Lake Messalonskee, Me. In addition to being pretty and playing the viola in the student symphony orchestra, Miss Copeland, of Providence, R. I., is a member of Phil Beta Kappa.

FLOWER SHOW AT CHURCH HAS ALREADY PASSED EXPECTATION OF CROUP—PUBLIC IS INVITED

Refreshments And Music Added Attractions

Dry weather notwithstanding, there were scores of entries this morning in the flower show sponsored by the Presbyterian auxiliary at the church annex and the number was steadily increasing at noon today.

"We did not know there were so many flowers in Pampa," declared Mrs. J. M. McDonald, who is in charge of the publicity for the exhibit.

Who Stayed "In".

Scrutiny of election returns from over the state shows that the professional politicians among the "ins" were the most consistent winners. They seemingly offset the desire for a change by consistent making of acquaintances.

The public is invited to view the entries at any time this afternoon or this evening. Refreshments will be served, and Vern Springer's orchestra will play.

Lock at Tom.

Take Tom Blanton for instance. As a congressman he is quite fittingly called "blatant". He isn't popular among the "thinking" classes and among his colleagues. Yet he has just been re-elected. We asked an Abilene citizen why "Old Tom" seemed to have the jinx on all opponents.

Correction For Precinct 2 Has Been Released

Errors in posted totals for precinct 2 in the sheriff's race were pointed out by election officials of that box late yesterday. Hurried totals were released late Sunday night, but the customary re-check was postponed to Monday afternoon.

"Cultivates" Critics.

Our informant said that Blanton wastes no time in the company of his friends. He continually seeks to learn who are critical of him, and having learned he immediately seeks to gain the favor of that person. His favors he uses to gain friends, not to distribute to friends of long standing. This is in distinct contrast to those office holders who spend their entire time with old acquaintances and do no hand-shaking and back-slapping. Personally, the Pampa prefers that office holders devote their time to their duties and leave his hand and back alone, but many people like to know personally the recipients of their vote. Those office

Amarillo Post Coming Tonight

The John B. Golding post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Amarillo will be in charge of initiation ceremonies when new members will be received into Pampa Post 1637 tonight, Commander O. K. Gaylor said this morning. He is anxious that members be present on time.

I HEARD--

Second Primary Campaigns Taking Form

STERLING WILL LAUNCH DRIVE NEXT MONDAY

MRS. FERGUSON TO BE HEARD FIRST ON AUGUST 6

DEAD MAN IS NOMINEE

RETURNS COMPILED ON 250 OUT OF 254 COUNTIES

AUSTIN, July 27. (AP)—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, who ran first in the democratic primary for governor last Saturday, announced today she would open her run-off campaign at San Marcos Aug. 6.

Governor R. S. Sterling, contending with Mrs. Ferguson for the nomination, planned to start his second primary canvass with a rally at Port Worth next Monday night.

Mrs. Ferguson, in a statement, said results of the voting had awakened in her "a renewed ambition to render service to the people."

"To be honored with such loyalty inspired new hopes and new desires to carry on the struggle for better things for the masses," Mrs. Ferguson said.

AUSTIN, July 27. (AP)—The question of whether a dead person can be declared the nominee of a party if he received the majority of the votes cast has been propounded to the attorney general's department.

The opinion was sought by Penn J. Jackson, county attorney of Johnson county, in the case of A. C. Womack, candidate for nomination.

Good Will Group Makes New Plans

Many ideas were presented at a meeting of the goodwill committee of the Junior chamber of commerce and Board of City Development this morning. Travis Lively, chairman, presided.

A night picnic with some of the rural communities will be one of the first undertakings of the committee. Arrangements for entertainment during Achievement day, set for sometime in September, was also discussed and tentative plans made.

A community luncheon was also one of the ideas presented. The committee with the help of many local citizens has made numerous trips and many friends.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday, probably thunderstorms in extreme west portion. Oklahoma: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; local thunderstorms in east portion this afternoon or tonight.

—AND A SMILE

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Daniel Boone always like to have his trusty gun along when he went out at night. Daniel Boone, Jr., should have followed his great-great grandfather's precaution. The grandson, head of an insurance company, fell foul of a highwayman and was relieved of jewelry and cash. He didn't have a gun.

NEW YORK, July 27. (AP)—The upswing of the stock market was resumed with vigor in the afternoon trading today, coincident with a 2-cent bulge in wheat. Advances ranged from 1 to 3 points in many prominent shares with utilities in the lead. The closing tone was strong. The turnover was about 1,400,000 shares.

WACO, July 27. (AP)—Two boys were dead and seven other members of their family were critically ill today as a result of eating food with which poison was believed to have been mixed accidentally. Earl Norman, 14, and Jack Norman, 9, died last night at the home of their father, D. L. Norman, near Axtell in McLennan county. Mrs. Norman, a baby girl and a 7-year-old boy were so ill that physicians feared they might die. The father and three other children had a chance to recover. An investigation led to the belief that grasshopper poison which had been in a sack on a kitchen shelf near a cornmeal sack had been mixed by mistake in a batch of corn bread prepared for the noon meal yesterday. One of the children, a 12-year-old girl, had mixed the dough.

WILLIS, Montgomery County, July 27. (AP)—The First State bank of Willis was robbed today of $375 by young men.

WASHINGTON, July 27. (AP)—The house army today apparently won an important victory toward retaining their camp on lower Pennsylvania avenue when District of Columbia commissioners and treasury officials failed to agree on means of evicting them.

FORT WORTH, July 27. (AP)—Mrs. Willis, who was shot about 10, was found choked to death in the rear of her grocery store in a residential district here this afternoon.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 27. (AP)—Governor W. H. Murray, chief issue in state senatorial and house of representative races in yesterday's run-off primary election, today saw a majority of his endorsed house candidates defeated for democratic nomination in reported counties where he had expressed his preference.

Money Orders On Stolen Blanks To Get Attention

Pampa merchants have been warned not to cash money orders numbered between 10,601 and 11,000 inclusive, printed for use at Port Sullivan, Texas. The local post-office received word yesterday that forms had been stolen from that postoffice and that 11 of the orders had already been cashed.

Most of the orders were cashed by a young man about 20 years old; weight about 140 pounds; height 5 feet 6 inches; fair complexion, slightly freckled; blue eyes.

The young left Tyler Friday driving a Ford V-8 coach, license No. K40-078. He was armed, Tyler officials reported.

YOUNG COUPLE MISSING

LOS ANGELES, July 27. (AP)—T. H. Eckerson, deputy sheriff, appealed to fellow officers today to begin a search for his daughter, Margaret, 15, and Jack Hardee, 16, Bonham, Texas, saying he believed the couple had eloped.

STATE AGREES TO LEND ROAD BUILDING FUND

DEPARTMENT WRITES THAT NO. 33 NEEDED

BOND MARKET STILL BAD

TEXAS POLICY IS NOT YET MADE KNOWN FOR 'GRAY'

The state highway department will advance funds for grading, drainage and hard-surfacing of Highway 33 from Pampa to the Roberts county line, on account of the condition of the bond market at the present time, according to a letter received recently from the department.

Observing instructions sent by the department, the county has placed in escrow bonds equivalent to the county's share of the cost of improving the road. Some of the cost will be borne by the county at the present time. Right to withdraw the bonds and sell them was reserved.

The department voted to advance the necessary funds to build the road because of the "urgent need" for it now. County commissioners have been informed whether Gray county will benefit from the new policy of the highway commission, which was that Texas counties will no longer be asked to share in the cost of building state roads. It is generally believed here, however, that the bonds will never be taken out of escrow and will be returned to the county, the state paying the entire cost of the road, although commissioners have never received any assurance that this procedure will take place.

The department's letter stated that the commission was aware that the bond market was in such condition now that the county would not be justified in selling Gray county road bonds, and that the state would advance the funds because the road is badly needed.

Grading and drainage of the route is now in progress.

SCHOOL TAXES WILL BE LESS UNDER SLASH

School tax valuations in the Pampa independent school district will be cut approximately 10 per cent this year as compared with last year's figures, according to Siler Faulkner, chairman of the board of equalization which is holding a hearing on property values this week.

The school budget for the 1932-1933 was originally reduced $35,000, and indications are now that further reductions will have to be made. The board of equalization believes that the 10 per cent slash will still leave sufficient funds for the school to operate next year, if strict economy is observed.

Reductions made by property owners are much less than last year; sometimes 50 per cent of last year's valuation. The board found it virtually impossible to make as large a reduction as the taxpayers wanted because such a slash would seriously impair the school system. In order to insure a successful term next year, the board was compelled to raise some valuations higher than those submitted by the property owners.

The valuation of every piece of property in the school district was lowered in order to effect the reduction.

TO GET HONOR

Roosevelt To Start Speech Tour July 30

Democratic Survey To Be Stated Informally

NEW YORK, July 27. (AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt will make his first political talk since he accepted the democratic presidential nomination at Chicago on July 30 at Albany.

Roosevelt headquarters announced today that the governor would speak on that date from 7 to 7:30 p. m., central standard time, the address being broadcast over the WEAF-NBC network.

Although it will be the first political talk since the convention, Roosevelt headquarters said it would be "informal" and was not considered as the formal opening gun of the campaign. The subject will be the democratic program.

North-South Road Discussed On Upper Plains

North plains towns are anxious that a north road from Pampa be built at the earliest possible time, according to letters received by George W. Briggs, manager of the Pampa Board of City Development. The north-south road situation will be discussed at length at the next regular meeting of the directors.

It has been suggested that highway 88 from Clarendon to Pampa be continued north from a point between Pampa and Miami to be selected by the State Highway Commission. A north road from Pampa was designated by the state some time ago when the late F. P. Reid saw the advantage in decreasing distances.

However, at that time money was not available in the Panhandle to build a bridge and hard surface the road so the designation was withdrawn. Pampans are highly in favor of the move.

Reid Elliott of Shamrock and Miss Hazel Parker of Pampa were granted a marriage license in Sayre.

BROTHERS AT ELECTRA LOSE LIVES TODAY

LEWIS AND PAT KENT IN BLAST OF NITRO

SOUND HEARD 26 MILES

ONE IS KILLED, 14 ARE INJURED AT SAN ANTONIO

ELECTRA, July 27. (AP)—Two men were blown to bits today in a terrific explosion which wrecked the dynamite plant of the United States Torpedo company 3 miles east of Electra.

The dead were Lewis Kent, 24, and his brother, Pat Kent, 22, both prominent in Electra civic and fraternal affairs.

An undetermined amount of dynamite and 600 quarts of nitro-solvent exploded, razing the plant and blasting a hole in the ground more than 20 feet deep. Debris was strewn for hundreds of yards.

It was learned that the Kent brothers had left their Electra home about forty minutes before the blast. No one else was within a half-mile of the plant. The nearest buildings are about that distance from the plant site.

A. E. Rapp, office manager of the torpedo company, expressed belief the cause of the explosion never would be known.

The explosion was heard at Wichita Falls and Burkburnett, each close to 26 miles distant. Houses in

Move To Name Road After Reid Being Launched

A resolution to call Oilfield highway 41, when completed between Oklahoma City and Denver, the Pete Reid highway will be presented at the next meeting of the association according to several members.

The late Mr. Reid was president of the association since its organization and it was through his untiring efforts that the short-cut between these two cities was started.

The next divisional meeting will be held in Dumas sometime in October. The annual meeting will be at Pampa during December. At that time a president to succeed Mr. Reid will be elected. Oilfield highway 41 is coming into recognition in three states. Fifty miles of the road in Colorado recently received federal recognition.

Lands On Feet To Escape Injury

S. A. Burns, one of the owners of the Davis Electric company, knows how a cat lands on its paws when dropped. Mr. Burns fell off a 12-foot step ladder while doing some wiring at the new Fort Worth and Denver railroad depot this morning and although he slipped as the ladder went out from under his feet, he landed on the terrace floor on his feet.

He was badly shaken and one ankle slightly hurt, but he was otherwise uninjured by the fall. He was taken to his home, where he said at noon that he felt little the worse from his fall.

HEIRESS SUED

Only last September a whirlwind courtship by Thomas Cartledge, well known in aviation circles, of Miss Jane B. Stetson, above, resulted in an elopement and marriage. But now the daughter of John B. Stetson Jr., millionaire hat manufacturer, is being sued for divorce in Philadelphia.

SUPPORT FOR DUNCAN WILL BE EXTENSIVE

Local Man Pledged Backing In All Counties

Judge Ivy E. Duncan, leading candidate for state representative, is receiving congratulations from all parts of the 122nd district.

He exhibited letters today from many prominent residents of the district. His strength in Wheeler county is expected to be exceptionally strong since incomplete but substantial returns indicate that John Puryear of Collinsworth and Tom H. B. Hill of Shamrock will be his opponent.

In speaking of his race, Judge Duncan asked The NEWS to give this message to citizens of Gray county:

"I wish to express to you my appreciation of the support given me last Saturday in the race for state representative.

"I led the ticket by a comfortable margin, being the only candidate in the race that succeeded in receiving a majority of the votes cast in the county in which he lived.

"There is more work to be done if Gray county is to have her citizen as her representative in the next legislature. I therefore, not only solicit your vote but invite your support in the question that you do some actual work in this behalf preparing for the run-off to be held on August 27th.

"Due to the fact that I did not come out for this office until June 18th, I found that many of you had already pledged your vote to some of the other candidates. I now invite the consideration and support of each and every citizen. I further invite you to investigate my qualifications to properly represent you and your interests on the floor of the legislature, my knowledge of legislative procedure and the legality of the same, my knowledge of governmental costs and the possibility of the reduction thereof, my knowledge of taxes and the distribution thereof, and my knowledge of the conditions of this district and the needs of the people thereof.

"Please, therefore, accept my thanks for your past and future consideration in this behalf."

BEAT CARD HOME

Judge Clifford Braly and son, Tom, beat a postcard from Cristobal Colon in the Panama Canal zone to Pampa. They posted a card to Mayor and Mrs. W. A. Bratton, July 9, and it did not arrive in Pampa until July 23. The Brattons returned July 19.

The Brattons are on vacation in Colorado and the card is being held at the city hall until their return. They expect to be back Sunday.

PAMPA RESIDENTS LEARN THAT NICARAGUA IS RATHER DANGEROUS BECAUSE OF BANDIT SANDINO'S ACTIVITY

Judge Clifford Braly And Son Told of Cruel Deaths Given To Prisoners.

Tom Braly wouldn't like to be an American Marine in Nicaragua. That is, not unless he was so tired of it all and wanted to end everything anyway. Neither would Judge Clifford Braly, his father, want Tom to be a Marine in Nicaragua.

Tom has impressive reasons, too. Five bullet holes in a Marine airplane are five reasons. Tom stuck his fingers through the powder-riddled holes in that ship, and he says they were caused by bullets from Sandino's men the very morning he saw the holes on the east coast of Nicaragua about three weeks ago.

Sandino is the rebel chief who has been and still is fighting and holding out against the Marines for several years. It's safer to fly by plane from Managua on the west coast to the east coast than to go overland. By plane it takes not many minutes. By land it would take a week. If the Marines fly over, Sandino can only shoot at them. If they march by land, he can ambush and harass them.

The morning Tom and Judge Braly were on the east coast, the Marines flew over to act as armed escort for them and other tourists. Sandino's men shot at the flying Marines.

The same week Tom was in Nicaragua, Sandino's rebels killed a Marine. In this manner: First they cut off his fingers, then his hands, next his arms, then the ears, nose, legs. The Marines got his body.

Sandino always kills his prisoners, but he tortures them first. A Marine had rather be shot before falling into Sandino's clutches. Tom doesn't blame them. It's been going on like that for several years.

But American capitalists have banana plantations in Nicaragua. There's where our bananas come from. Tom doesn't like bananas anyway, and he hasn't got any use for capitalists unless something glittering and tangible is involved. He hasn't figured out yet just how many thousands bunches of bananas—in other words how much we have paid in Marines for Nicaragua and her bunches of bananas.

Another "Invasion". And now the women have it—the softball game habit. They have not taken to golf with the zest that men have for the pasture pastime, and we are yet to learn whether Pampa is to have more than one softball team.

Cost of Education. Much is said about the cost of education to the state, cities, and denominations. Why not consider the poor professors for a spell?

Down at Canyon they have figured it up that advanced degrees have cost the faculty of the Teachers college $150,405. A master's degree costs, in money spent and wages lost while studying, $3,751, and a doctor's degree costs about $10,000.

MEN HAVE SESSION. The regular monthly dinner meeting of the men's brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church was followed by a brief business session last night.

Bilbo Well In Litigation Again

The old Bilbo well on the E. Bass Clay land was a bone of contention in 31st district court again yesterday before Judge R. Ewing.

The proceeding was a hearing on a petition for an injunction filed by M. E. Cook, driller, to restrain I. Rudman and others from taking possession of the well until an alleged year's contract was completed.

The last time the well was a problem in the courthouse it passed into receivership. Later, Rudman acquired the lease. Yesterday's testimony intended to show that Rudman made a contract with Cook to take charge of the well, and if Cook made the well produce over 50 barrels of oil daily he was to get one-fourth of all the oil over that amount in addition to a salary.

At the end of the hearing an agreement was reached whereby the litigants would have 5 days in which to "elect" whether they would attempt to clean out the well and produce 15 days to clean out the hole if they did "elect" to do so, and 10 days to test the production, the test to be observed by the railroad commission. Expenses would be paid out of the oil if the well produced more than 50 barrels, and if not the plaintiff would pay all costs, including court and expenses incurred in producing the oil, and the cause would be dismissed.

Denver Would Reduce Rates on Travel By Coach

AUSTIN, July 27 (AP)—The Fort Worth & Denver City railway company and the Wichita Valley railway company have made application with the Texas Railroad Commission for authority to charge one and one-half cent per mile coach fares between certain points on their lines.

Danciger Ruling Filed at Austin

AUSTIN, July 27 (AP)—The Texas railroad commission yesterday ordered the Danciger Oil and Refining company to limit the production of oil in its No. 2 Wright well in Gray county to the allowable fixed Oct. 30.

The commission also ordered that no wells other than the direct offsets nearest to or next in line from the Danciger wells be permitted to equalize production with the Danciger wells. The Danciger company had been involved in litigation with the railroad commission over the state agency's right to promote production and certain wells had been exempted from proration under a court order.

The commission denied all petitions for equalization with the Danciger wells except as outlined with reference to offset wells.

Thomas King, 30, civil service employee, was burned to death when showered with burning nitro cellulose, a large drum of which exploded in the shop where 12 men were working.

Two Badly Hurt: Others most seriously injured were J. B. Morgan and Robert Harterberger, at work in the shop where airplane fuselages and wings were being treated with the nitro cellulose solution in the air intermediate depot at Duncan field.

Lieut. Col. A. G. Fisher, commandant of Duncan field, today began an investigation of the explosion, cause of which was unknown. There was a second explosion following the first, closely and the interior of the building became a mass of flames.

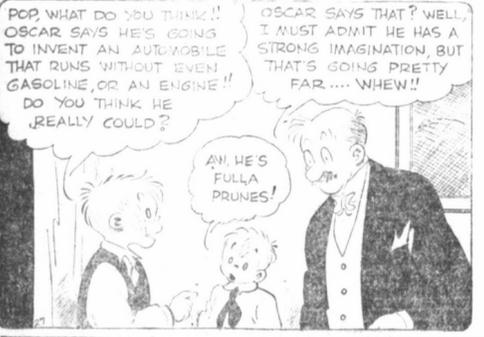

The force of the explosion blew down a small door in the rear of the building and the door at the main entrance, or all might have perished. There were 12 of the 110-gallon drums of the solution in the building.

Seven airplanes, all of which were without motors and wings, were destroyed by the fire.

The fire was confined to the dope house and was prevented from spreading to other buildings because of intervening distances and the activities of the fire fighting companies which responded from Kelly field and Camp Normoy, as well as Duncan field. In the building closest to the fire were 30 planes. There was a total of ninety planes at the field.

TRUHITE WILL TALK: The Rev. D. H. Truhitte, former pastor of both the First Baptist and the Central Baptist churches of Pampa, will be heard over station KGOP, Coffeyville, Kan., Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Fire Rate Credit Will Be Obtained

Discussion of delinquent taxes and the steps necessary to obtain them consumed a large amount of the city commission's time yesterday afternoon.

No definite steps with regard to what will be done relative to the water supply of the Talley addition were taken by the commission, though a hearing was granted to a committee which had collected $196 of the $300 necessary to continue to receive water from the city.

C. L. Stine, city manager, reported a training camp for firemen will be held at College Station Aug. 8, 9, 10, 11 and that a three per cent credit on the key rate will be allowed those cities which have delegates representing the fire departments of their respective cities. Plans were made to send Fire Chief Clyde Gold and one fireman to this meeting to take advantage of this key rate credit.

L. M. Carson of Canadian was shopping in the city Tuesday.

Rainey Declares Hoover Cannot

President Hoover, says the house democratic leader, "can't dodge" responsibility for the new relief law although he has selected a majority of democrats to run the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

That was the way Representative Rainey of Illinois summed up his reaction to the White House announcement that Atlee Pomerene, former democratic senator from Ohio, had been chosen for one of the two remaining places on the corporation's directorate.

The appointment gave democrats four directors while designation of a republican for the last post will bring their number to three.

Rainey said Pomerene was a "man of unquestioned ability" but added: "There isn't any question about responsibility for the existing relief law. The president has had his own way about the kind of relief law we should have. If it fails, the responsibility will be his. He can't dodge it. He should be the Garner relief bill."

President Hoover, who will be the chairman of the $3,800,000 corporation's board which now lines up like this: Democrats—Pomerene, Harvey Couch of Fine Bluff, Arkansas, Jesse Jones of Houston, Texas, and Wilson McCarthy of Salt Lake City; Republicans—Secretary Mills of the treasury and Garner Cowles, Sr., of Des Moines, Iowa. The law specifies the party division must be four and three, so a member of the G. O. P. must be picked for the last vacancy.

PHILADELPHIA NATIONALS SLUG WAY TO REAL THREAT

MANY HOMERS ARE PRODUCED BY FINE TRIO

PIRATES AND GIANTS DIVIDE DOUBLE PROGRAM

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Phillies, starting another extended stand in their own park, may supply the big news the next few weeks in the National league.

This club has found itself and is coming along in a virtual tie for third place today, it promises to be higher when Klein, Hurst, Whitney, and Bartlett get through with visiting pitchers.

A typical assault, which netted eight runs off Owen Carroll's delivery in the first two innings, gave Burt Shotton's sluggers a 10 to 5 victory over Cincinnati in yesterday's opener. Klein, Hurst and Whitney each hit a home run.

The Pirates and Giants, inaugurating a "crucial" series, split a doubleheader. Bill Terry's home helped the Giants take the first, 7 to 3, but the league leaders came back to capture the second, 7 to 2.

Chicago picked up a half-game on Pittsburgh by trimming Boston, 7 to 2. Brooklyn's surprising Dodgers thumped St. Louis, 12 to 6 and 5 to 4.

Two contests survived the rain in the American league, and in one of them the Boston Red Sox turned their newest pitcher, Johnny Welch, loose on Chicago for a 6 to 1 victory.

George Blaeholder's steady pitching, plus his timely single in the second inning, gave St. Louis a 3 to 2 decision over Washington.

Soft Ball Has Wide Interest In Plains Section

Playground ball is coming into its own in the Panhandle if the Phillips Petroleum company has anything to do with bringing the game to these parts.

Sunday afternoon at the Phillips camp south of Pampa two games will be played between two of the fastest Phillips teams from Berger and two leading teams from the Phillips camps in and around Berger.

Pampa camps have organized eight teams but abandoned play for the summer. The first game Sunday afternoon will be called at 2 o'clock. Many Pampa fans will see the games.

Talk of starting the Pampa Playground league again is going the rounds and team managers are looking for material. The Faculty nine, winners of the spring half of the season, will not be able to get together until about Sept. 5. The Faculty will be without the services of W. B. "Red" Weathered, who will be a resident of Hopkins next term.

The NEWS runners up, will have about the same team for the fall season. The Panhandle Insurance and one or two other teams will probably be back, while several new nines are being organized.

Fort Worth Net Star In Victory

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 27. (AP)—Most of the favorites were still in the running today as play began in the quarter-finals of the Virginia state tennis championships.

Jake Hess, Jr., of Fort Worth, defending champion, eliminated Bob Stewart, of Pensacola, Fla., yesterday. His final opponent was Elmer Rudy of Baltimore.

Bryan Grant, of Altanta, victor over Clifton Miller of Richmond yesterday, faced Alex Koles of Baltimore. Henry Holden of Houston, who defeated J. Huntington Hartford, of New York, it pitted against Lenoir Wright of Baltimore.

Teddy Burwell of Charlotte, N. C., who defeated Dick Stevens of New York, in second round play, meets John Bear of Texas, who won his match with Clyde Adams of Austin yesterday.

Story of Revenge Is Told by Youth

SAN JOSE, Calif., July 27. (AP)—A strange story of revenge which led a 20-year-old youth to kill his aunt and attempt to slay his uncle, wealthy Manila importer and exporter, to avenge a wrong done his father was told by San Jose authorities today.

The youth, George Douglas Templeton, Jr., University of California student, authorities said, confessed in Oakland, Calif., where he was arrested early today.

Calm and apparently without regret, he was brought here to be charged with murder for the knifing early yesterday of Mrs. Lillian Babcock.

NEGRO IS DOOMED
HUNTSVILLE, July 27. (AP)—Charles Orogan, Beaumont negro, is under sentence to be electrocuted at the state prison here early tomorrow for attacking a white girl at Beaumont last year.

Borah's Charge Strongly Denied

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 27. (AP)—The promise of a $10,000 donation to charity has been made by Representative Edward H. Crump (D) for proof that his political organization here has traded relief flour for votes.

It was his fourth effort to force Senator Borah to apologize for the accusation, which the Idaho republican made on the basis of letters from residents of Memphis who belong to an organization known as the Royal Order of Americans.

A Red Cross investigator reported the charge was without basis but Senator Borah said he still felt the charges justified.

CHARGE DISMISSED

EAST BERNARD, July 27. (AP)—A charge of distributing obscene literature, filed here against Joe Kopecky of Hallettsville, was dismissed in justice court yesterday on motion of the state.

The charge was filed by F. W. Chudej of Austin. It was alleged that Kopecky, a regent of A. and M. college, had distributed pamphlets containing the confession of William Langhorn, Jr., to killing a girl at LaCrosse in 1927. Langhorn was sentenced to death but the sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, then governor.

GRAVEYARD MYSTERY

JOLIET, Ill., July 27. (AP)—A graveyard singer is playing to a packed cemetery but whether he gets anything for his trouble no one knows.

No one has seen him, but his tenor voice, described as high-pitched and clear, is attracting hundreds of persons to the Potters' field.

Accept Penalty When in Trouble

By JOHNNY FARRELL

(As Told To Artie McGovern)
Naturally, the best way of saving golf strokes is by not making them. Years ago I learned a costly lesson in a tournament in which I could have taken two over par on the last hole and won without difficulty.

I hooked my drive into the woods and might have pitched out to the fairway with the possibility of getting home in the next shot for a sure pare five. However, I took a No. 2 iron and attempted a long shot in a line between two trees.

After the second shot had hit a tree I finished the hole in 11 strokes and lost the tournament.

Most golfers have had similar experiences. When you're in trouble, don't try to perform a miracle. Take the penalty. Use your head as well as your clubs. You'll get more pleasure out of your game and while saving strokes.

Moreland Will Remain Amateur

DALLAS, July 27. (SP)—Gus Moreland is still driving his little, black automobile to and from his work at his cotton job here, in place of the big new one that he recently returned to the Oklahoma tourney officials.

Moreland states that a majority of his friends have told him that he "pulled a bonehead" by returning the car to the tournament manager, and that he should have taken the car and disregarded the decision of the U. S. G. A.

To have kept the car would mean that Moreland had given up his amateur standing as a golfer, which he does not intend to do. "I'm not cheery," states Moreland, "but I think I have a pretty good future as an amateur golfer. If I keep my amateur standing, it means a probable trip or two across the ocean as a member of the future Walker Cup team."

Gus explains further that he can run his small car more cheaply, and that he would "have to go down hill half the time to keep that big one running."

Major Record Is Set by Catcher

CHICAGO, July 27. (AP)—Three hundred and thirty-seven chances without an error.

That is the achievement of Ray Hayworth, peppery young catcher of the Detroit Tigers, whose performance was hailed today as a major league record for backstops.

Henry Edwards, statistician for the American league, stamped Hayworth's work as a record after digging into the dusty batch of figures.

This season to date, Hayworth has participated in 67 games and made 260 putouts and forty assists without a boggle. In the last six games of the 1931 season, he had 34 put outs and three assists for a grand total of 337.

Tennis Entrants Being Narrowed

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 27. (AP)—The Seabright Tennis and Cricket club's guest list for its forty-fifth annual tournament was being depleted rapidly today.

Quarter-finalists in the men's division were Johnny Doeg, who met the Spanish veteran, Manuel Alonso; Gregory Magin, paired against Samuel Gilpin; Sidney B. Wood, Jr., whose opponent was E. W. Fiebleman, and Lester Stoefer, who encountered a fellow Californian, Jack Tidball.

Primary Children Are To Have Party

The primary department of the First Baptist Sunday school will have a party at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the church. The department is for boys and girls, 6 to 8 years of age and is headed by Mrs. Wilson Hatcher as superintendent.

NURMI BALLOT TO BE TAKEN DURING WEEK

GREAT FINN SUFFERING FROM SPRAIN BUT CAN RUN

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

LOS ANGELES, July 27. (AP)—The ballots will have to be counted this week-end, after a debate conducted in at least three separate languages, before it is decided whether Paavo Nurmi makes his farewell Olympic gesture in the classic Marathon, Sunday afternoon, Aug. 7.

If Nurmi is victorious at the international polls, his most difficult barrier may have been cleared, for in spite of a strained Achilles tendon the great Finn is confident he can win the Marathon in record time.

If Paavo's suspension stands, however, the crowning feature of the Olympic track and field program will be a toss-up. The contenders, with or without Nurmi as the case may be, rank somewhat in this order:

Paul de Bruyn of New York, representing Germany.
Tauda, 1928, veteran and two Koreans, Gon and Kin, representing Japan.

A. Toivenen and Willie Kyronen, the Brooklyn baker, representing Finland.
Juan Carlos Zabala and Jose Ribas of Argentina.

Jimmy Henigan, Whitley Michelsen and Hans Oldag, U. S. A.
Between the start and finish of the Marathon in the Olympic stadium, the 400 and 1600-meter relay championships will be decided. Both baton-passing events were sure to furnish the usual thrills, with the United States, defending champion at both distances, opposed by strong teams from Germany, Canada and Great Britain.

Yesterday's STARS

By The Associated Press

Dick Grace, Pirates—His single with two out in the tenth inning defeated the Giants, 7 to 5.

Pinky Whitney, Phils—Drove in four runs with a double and home run to help beat the Reds.

Tony Cuccinello, Dodgers—His five hits brought in four runs in his first game for the Sox, beating Chicago, 6 to 1, and hit a double and two singles.

GRAVEYARD MYSTERY

JOLIET, Ill., July 27. (AP)—A graveyard singer is playing to a packed cemetery but whether he gets anything for his trouble no one knows.

No one has seen him, but his tenor voice, described as high-pitched and clear, is attracting hundreds of persons to the Potters' field.

HOOKS and SLIDES

by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Up and Coming Redskins
The baseball season is more than half gone. The heat is terrible in Goose Creek, Tex. The corn crop in Iowa looks good. And that Cleveland Indians aren't to be counted out of anybody's pennant calculations. Not just yet.

"Sooner or later, somebody is going to crack," is Manager Peck's sage observation. "I don't think it will be our club. We've had our bad streak. From now on we'll be plenty tough."

The Indians won 14 of 17 games against eastern opposition on their last swing into the so-called strong half of the circuit. That's 824 hits. They won every series, four victories in Philadelphia, four in Washington, two in New York and four in Boston.

Porter at the Plate
"How come?" I asked Dick Porter. Mr. Porter, you know, is the twitchy one. He's a great favorite in Cleveland. Not because of his shimmey, exactly. In spite of it. "We just started to play ball," Dick answered.

Was it pitching?
"Our pitching was good," was his reply. "Nearly every one of the starting pitchers finished his game. We didn't need any relief pitchers."

"The boys hit pretty well, didn't they?"
"The whole team hit better than 300," said Porter. "Before we started east, our club average was only 280. Most of us picked up. Burnett, Cissell and Sewell, particularly. We added 19 points to our team average and jumped from third to first in the team standing. We're the best hitting club in the majors when the boys are on."

And how about defensive play, Mr. Porter?
"That improved, too," said Dick. "Cissell and Burnett around second base played great ball. You know for general all-around play, that pair rates as good as any second base combination in the league. They're working hard, and helping us a lot, too. Morgan also improved his play at first. Everybody on the club worked hard. We thought we saw a chance so we got busy."

Individual averages clearly show that improvement. Late in June, Averill was hitting .335, Porter .321, Vosmik .310, Morgan .298, Burnett .284, Cissell .278, Kamm .269 and Sewell .266. Then they cut loose.

At the conclusion of the eastern trip, the averages read: Averill .340, with eight new home runs; Burnett .323; Porter stayed at .321, but added

PICNIC GIVES OPPORTUNITY FOR SOFT BALL PRACTICE

BUSINESS FOLK PLAN TO PLAY IN SKELLYTOWN

FAMILIES ALSO ATTEND OUTING HELD AT L'FORS

Recreation was the purpose of the annual picnic held by the Business and Professional Women's club and families last evening at LeFors, but for the B. & P. W. soft ball team it was more than that. It was a chance to practice for the game to be played with Skellytown women this evening.

"Get in this game! You need the practice," Manager Mabel Gee was heard to exclaim when members of her team showed a preference for resting. She realized that time had been short, hence practice had been little since the team's organization, and that a hard game was scheduled for this evening at 6:30. The women will leave the Rose building for Skellytown at 4 o'clock, and a number of other Pampanas are expected to be present.

Swimming also was enjoyed by a number of the picnicers.

At twilight, an elaborate dinner was spread, and the club served iced watermelon to the crowd. During the lively games which followed, two wrist watches were lost, but the tramping feet failed to damage them and they were returned to their owners.

Members and guests included the following: Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Downs and Mrs. Downs's mother, Mrs. Binford, Mrs. Frank Foster and daughters, "Pinky and Sister," and son Don, Mrs. Helen Turner and daughter, Joyce, Mrs. Lee Vannoy, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Loftus, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pool, Mr. and Mrs. J. ## PEACHES SERVE WORLD'S LARGEST CHERRY PIE

Here's how to make the world's largest cherry pie. 75 bushels of famous Michigan cherries (handpicked), three barrels of flour, 150 pounds of lard, 100 pounds of sugar. Get the world's largest pie pan, bake in the world's largest pie oven, garnish with a bevy of cherry county peaches (for contrast) and serve for the National Cherry Festival at Traverse City, Mich. The 1800-pound pie, baked to this recipe, is shown above. It was 16 feet across and a foot and a half thick. On the platform at the right are Queen Caroline Hazzard of the Cherry Festival, and Mayor William H. McKeighan of Flint, Mich., who presented the pie to Queen Caroline. The ladies-in-waiting helped 200 children serve the pie to festival throngs.

My Beauty Hint

By LORETTA YOUNG
Every woman wants to keep her hair fluffy and beautiful, and here is how I learned to do it.
My hairdresser told me not to wash my hair too frequently as it would take the life out of it. So now I dip my hair in cleaning fluid every other day while I am working. It works fine; keeps it soft and fluffy. I just put my head in the wash bowl and have the cleaner poured over it. It dries in a very short time.

Chatter-Box Club Is Complimented By Mrs. Walter

Bridge was the afternoon's diversion when members of the Chatter-Box club were entertained by Mrs. C. W. Walter.

More Than Seventy-Five Thousand Books Taken From Library In Year

CANYON, July 27—More than 75,000 books pass across the borrowers desk of the library of the West Texas State Teachers college each twelve months, according to the records of the library.

Nine hundred forty-six books are about the usual number for a school day. The figures do not consider all the reference books, such as encyclopedias, dictionaries and similar books which are constantly in use.

There are 19,000 books in the library, aside from the hundreds of publications which are included in the document room, this library being the United States depository for United States government documents in this region.

Miss Tennessee Malone, who has been head librarian since 1911, and who has carefully builded the stocks through the years, says that the library is especially well supplied with certain types of books. For instance, besides the usual Encyclopedia Britannica and the Nelson Looney-leaf encyclopedia, which are expected, there are on the shelves a Jewish encyclopedia, and a Catholic encyclopedia which give students an opportunity to read estimates of lives and events as they are seen from several widely separated viewpoints. This gives young people a chance to develop tolerant judgments, and is especially valuable to students of history and other social sciences.

Library materials are useless unless those who seek them can find them easily, and this library is equipped with excellent indexes. The Readers Guide, which lists all the contents of magazines of general interest, and of some technical journals is supplemented by the Agricultural Index, the Educational Index and the Industrial Arts Index, as well as the New York TIMES Index. With all these and the card catalog at hand, any person who learns to use these volumes can find almost unlimited material on most any subject.

396 Magazines Received
Current thought on almost every conceivable subject is reflected in the magazines which are received regularly. There are three hundred ninety-six of these, and they range from those for boys and girls to the lonesome co-ed who wants to see the Ladies Home Journal which was always on the living room table at home to technical magazines of interest to the physicist and philosopher.

When the magazines have been superceded, they are sent to the bindery and later returned to the shelves with hundreds of others covering the years since the college was established. Bound magazines are more valuable than text books in many instances because they refect the thought and emotion of the time when they appeared. Best Children's Library

From the beginning it has been the intention of the West Texas State Teachers college to build up a library of children's books which would be a delight to the youngsters who receive their training in the demonstration school, and at the same time be the means of preparing prospective teachers and parents to select the best books to place in their schools and homes.

These books are housed in a beautiful small library in the education building and each day are used by many children and adults. Posters and notices and pictures call the attention of young readers to new book finds.

Both the main library and children's library contain several gift collections. In the children's library is the Robert Manning Osgood Memorial collection; a collection of books which belonged to one of Texas foremost Latin scholars was given the library by the family of Professor B. A. Stafford, once head of the classical language department of the school, and nearby are several hundred volumes from the library of the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Younger, leading pioneer citizens of the Panhandle.

Rent Collection Up-to-Date
In order to get books that are the talk of the month, students and faculty maintain a rental collection in the library, buying a few books almost every month and choosing those whose names appear most favorably in the current reviews. To these shelves are added many gift books. The rental fee of four cents a day is considered small by eager students who want to read the latest fiction, poetry or political theory.

The staff of the library is highly trained, and taught to extend the services of the library to the widest possible area. Men looking for special material come to this library, members of women's clubs for many miles from Canyon come here to prepare their papers, and the young teacher in dire need of material seldom writes to Miss Malone in vain.

Like every other department of the West Texas State Teachers college, the library feels a responsibility to Texas youngest region which surrounds it and the staff tries to make it a genuine center of culture for all who can make use of its facilities.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wood and daughter, Fern Audrey, left at noon today for Childress where they were called by the condition of Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. J. S. Ames, who was seriously injured by a fall at her home this morning.

The Faithful Cheat BY RUBY M. AYRES

SYNOPSIS: Sandra Kent has been sure that she could depend upon John Anderson's friendship—and to start with she has usually done so. She has been wondering whether John suspects anything about her secret marriage to Mark Merriman. She never intended to marry Mark, unless he made a large amount of money, and in fact she is herself responsible for his absence since she asked John to give him a position in the company just before Mark asked her to marry him. She would not have married him if she had known that she does not love him as she thought. She lives with her sister Flora, who has married for money as her father advised her to do herself. Sandra thus is dependent upon the money of her brother-in-law Ben.

Chapter 15 A SERIOUS "ROW"

CASS stared at her. "Didn't you know John was getting in today?" he asked blankly. She shook her head. "No—then she laughed. "Why should I know? Anyway . . . I can't go to meet him. I've got an engagement."

It was not the truth, but not for anything in the world would she have allowed him to know it.

John on his way home—almost home—and she knew nothing about it.

There seemed to be a queer little space in her mind, and as she stood, staring at Cass's bewildered face, into that space crept a picture of a girl's face—a pretty face with a saucy provoking smile—Nathalie Symons.

Cass was fumbling with his watch. "Well . . . better be off then—" he mumbled. "Don't want to miss him as if for inspiration. "Give him your love, I suppose?" he queried vaguely.

"Oh yes, give him my love of course," Sandra said lightly. She went down to the door with him and waved him goodbye, but her steps dragged as she mounted the stairs again, and there was a heavy feeling at her heart.

John was home, and he had not let her know.

As a rule, if he had been in Europe, he cabled her when he sailed.

Well, it was no concern of hers, but she would take very good care to be out not only tonight, but all day tomorrow, and unable to see him if he called or rang up.

She went to her own room and shut the door.

There was a photograph of John Anderson on the mantelpiece, and she went across to it and looked at it with curious eyes.

He had gone away three days after Mark sailed.

Mark had not forgotten her she knew; Mark would never forget her, but John . . .

Supposing she had lost his friendship—for ever.

Then she laughed at herself for the thought. How absurd! They had only to meet and everything would be as it had always been.

Still, it was strange he had not told her that he was coming home.

Sandra was going to bed that night when Flora came knocking at her door.

"Can I come in?"

"Oh, yes—"

Sandra said wearily. She was feeling bored and dispirited; she had spent the evening with some dull people in order to be out of the house if John Anderson called, and after all she need not have troubled for he had never called nor rung up.

Of course he had only been in town a few hours; she tried hard to make excuses for him even while she could only remember that the last time he returned from Europe he had come directly to her to find out why she had not met him at the pier.

Apparently this time he was not interested to know the explanation of her absence.

Flora came into the room wrapped in an elaborate lounging robe and smoking a cigarette.

"I've had a row with Ben," she announced briefly.

Sandra said nothing; she knew of what these rows consisted.

They were usually a burst of storming and nagging on Flora's part because she could not immediately get something she wanted, until, in sheer desperation, Ben gave way.

Flora sat down on the side of the bed and looked at her sister.

"No, it's not the usual sort of row," she said, reading Sandra's thoughts. "It's serious this time. In fact . . . I'm going away."

"Alone?" Sandra asked without much interest, and she wondered whose hospitality she herself could ask, seeing that Ben did not care for her to stay in the house when his wife was not there.

"Alone—and for ever," Flora said quietly.

Sandra turned round. "Nonsense," she said sharply.

"It's quite true," Flora laughed. "I'm fed-up, fed-up, fed-up," she said with a fierce note in her voice.

"So fed-up in fact that I lost my temper tonight and told Ben exactly what I thought of him."

"And what do you think of him?" Sandra asked.

She had so often wondered; Flora never discussed her husband though she treated him so casually.

Flora flung her cigarette into the empty grate.

"I think he's a . . . worm," she said.

There was an eloquent silence. "Oh, I know he's kind—" Flora went on with a sort of weary resignation. "But kindness is revolting when it comes from the wrong person. I'd rather have my eyes blacked by a man I cared for, than a diamond necklace from . . . well, from Ben."

Sandra took up a brush and began mechanically to smooth her hair.

"Well—and so—what?" she asked.

Flora shrugged her slim shoulders.

"One word led to another, of course, and in the end the worm turned. He accused me of not caring for him—which is true—and of caring for . . . for someone else . . . which is also true."

"Meaning Jocelyn Farr?" Sandra asked.

"Yes, I've often wondered if you guessed. I care for him all right and he knows it, but it's no use; he's got puritanical ideas—your friend Mark Merriman reminds me of him a little." She broke off to ask for a moment, "Well, what do you think about it?"

"I think it's a mistake to have quarrelled with Ben; if you can't have anything better," Sandra said slowly.

Flora laughed bitterly. "You would! You're a thousand times more worldly than I am. I had those sort of ideas too, once, but not now—" She started up and began pacing the room restlessly.

"I tell you I can't stand it any longer. What do I get out of it? Clothes, and jewelry, and boring dinner parties and masses of boring friends, and nothing better to look forward to—ever! I shall get old and fat, and Ben will get older and fatter, and then some day I shall die—never having known what it means to be happy, or to have done anything worth while. I can't go on with it, Sandra, I simply can't."

"What are you going to do, then?"

"I'm going away. I told Ben so, and then of course he came round and begged and implored—" she gave a little shiver of distaste.

"And where are you going?"

"I don't know. I've got a little money put away—not a great deal, of course, but I've got to get out somewhere—where I can breathe, and belong to myself . . . I suppose you think I'm mad?"

Sandra shook her head. "I think you'll be sorry—if you do this."

"I shan't be any more sorry than I am now. It's like living in a cage to live in this house; a stifling cage. I'm still young, and I've got to be free, that's all I know."

Sandra stared at her sister. She had never believed Flora capable of so much feeling. For some time she had guessed that Flora and Jocelyn Farr liked one another, but then as Flora had just said—Jocelyn had puritanical ideas.

Yes, he was like Mark—Mark who had insisted that she get married.

Flora went on half apologetically.

"The only thing that worries me is—what will you do? You can't stay here with Ben, of course, even if he wanted you to, and he won't, you know that. I'm afraid it means cutting off your allowance—I shan't have any too much money of my own, and generosity was never Ben's long suit, as you know. You've got the little bit mother left, of course, but that won't be much use. What will you do, Sandra?"

Sandra did not answer, but her heart began to beat in a quick, frightened way.

"What could she do?"

Flora tells Sandra what she really thinks of Ben, in the next installment.

COTTON IS EASIER

NEW ORLEANS, July 27 (AP)—Cotton opened slightly easier with very moderate trading today. Cables were a shade better than due, but eased off after the opening of the American rings. First trades here showed losses of two points, and the market continued to ease on lack of buying orders and because of a desire to hold off until after the issue of the weekly weather report, expected to be favorable and therefore bearish.

GRAINS STRONGER

CHICAGO, July 27 (AP)—Responsive to highest wheat prices at Liverpool since early in June, grain values here made fresh upturns today. The rise carried Chicago September wheat contracts to 3 1/2 cents above last week's inside figures, opening 1/2 cent up, inside what futures subsequently reacted somewhat. Corn unchanged to 1/4 higher and afterward sagged.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED

HOUSTON, July 27 (AP)—Twelve indictments charging M. J. Barnett, former employe of the Houston Belt and Terminal railroad, with embezzlement of $3,902 were returned by the county grand jury today.

PIRATES BOOST LEAD

NEW YORK, July 27 (AP)—In a free-hitting contest, in which seven pitchers saw service, the Pittsburgh Pirates increased their lead in the National league to five games, defeating the Giants, 9 to 8 in the first game of today's doubleheader. Vaughan, Piet, Terry and Lindstrom hit home runs.

WILL ROGERS OF OKLAHOMA HAS AMAZING VOTE MARGIN

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 27 (AP)—A billow of ballots today had carried a comparatively unknown country schoolmaster with a magic name—Will Rogers—to the democratic nomination for Oklahoma's new congress-at-large office. Rogers amazed political observers by surging more than 100,000 votes ahead of Mrs. Mabel Bassett, popular state commissioner of charities and a seasoned campaigner, as returns from yesterday's run-off primary were tabulated.

Elmer Thomas, the state's senior United States senator, won democratic renomination. He defeated G. Smith, Oklahoma City lawyer, who had waged a vigorous campaign for the place. Wirr Franklin, Ardmore oil man and generalissimo of the oil tariff movement, had a comfortable lead for the republican nomination to oppose Thomas in the November election, but additional vote counting appeared necessary to establish definitively the outcome of Franklin's contest with James A. (Big Jim) Harris of Wagoner and Tulsa, state republican chief of a few years ago.

J. C. (Jack) Walton, a depositor of the oil tariff movement, and J. Shaw, former state auditor, for the democratic nomination for a seat on the important state corporation commission.

Governor William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray's indorsees were victorious in three state senate races. Wm. Taylor, Sam Carmack, and Louis Fiehl, for whom the governor campaigned personally, won out over anti-Murray candidates in the second, fourth and eighteenth districts, respectively.

Balloting was unusually heavy. The only disorder was at Sallisaw, where ill feeling bred by a local contest flared into gunplay. George Mitchell, Sequoyah county commissioner, was dangerously wounded by Henry Winter, a Sallisaw merchant.

Phrasing And Sending Messages To Monarchs Is Strange Task

WASHINGTON, July 27 (AP)—Probably the easiest of President Hoover's jobs is remembering the birthday or national fest day of every fellow president, king or emperor in the world.

As a matter of fact it's a system—set up just to jog his memory to avoid the breach of international etiquette that would ensue if no telegram of congratulation were dispatched on such a day.

In the state department, a few pages from the president's office, what might be called a "birthday book" is kept in the hands of a ceremonial officer, skilled in the correct phraseology of international felicitation.

It is the job of this officer—Charles Lee Cook—to inform the white house which birthday and independence day is which, and to see that the president's messages don't repeat themselves year after year.

Drafting messages is comparatively easy as almost without exception they are brief. Last Sunday, for instance, "his imperial majesty, Haile Selassie I, emperor of Ethiopia, enjoyed a birthday and the following message was awaiting him when he awoke in Addis Ababa:

Permit me to extend to your majesty on this birthday anniversary cordial congratulations of the government and people of the United States and my own personal greetings. Herbert Hoover."

Sometimes two or three messages are dispatched in a week, and sometimes almost none in a month.

Plots Against Banks Reported All Over Nation

CHICAGO, July 27 (AP)—Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National bank of Chicago, said today he had reports from practically every large city in the nation concerning a plot to wreck banks by circulating unfounded rumors against them.

Informed of an investigation at Pontiac, Mich. into such a plot, said to have been directed by a radical group interested in fomenting a social revolution, Traylor said the same tactics had been used in Chicago.

"There is no doubt," Traylor said, "but that runs on Chicago banks were caused by circulation of rumors by radically interested persons. Anonymous telephone calls were used in attempts to cause panic among depositors of even the largest and strongest banks."

"Reports were received in Chicago from many other cities whereby the same system was used. I am of the belief that the plot against banks was nationwide."

Europe Burying Many Enmities

WASHINGTON, July 27 (AP)—Europe is showing many signs of burying old enmities in the interest of economic reconstruction. Poland's signature of a non-aggression pact with Soviet Russia and negotiations between Roumania and the soviet union toward a similar agreement give hope that hundreds of miles of Russia's eastern boundary may soon cease to be an armed camp.

Poland is withholding ratification of the pact with Soviet Russia until Roumania and the union reach a similar agreement, but she declined to make any promises.

Farley's explanation of these suggestions was that "the solid south and most of the west assuredly are democratic from the outset."

What campaigning Speaker Garner will do, Farley said, remains to be decided after the vice-presidential candidate talks with Roosevelt in the next two weeks. Garner indicated before he went to Texas to fish that he would prefer to use the radio as much as possible but likely would go to California for one speech.

German Aviator To Cross Nation

MONTREAL, July 27 (AP)—Wolf-gang von Gronau, who reached here yesterday after a transatlantic flight from Germany over the arctic route, is going on to Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee and the Pacific coast, he said today.

He indicated he has no idea of attempting a flight around the world over the route which Colonel Lindbergh followed last year, but that his flight and two transatlantic trips which preceded it had no objective but the charting of a speedy service by air from Europe to the Pacific.

"The steamships are so fast now that airplanes can offer little competition between Europe and New York," he said, "but a direct service from Europe to the Pacific coast over the route we have flown should offer many advantages and a great saving of time."

He will stay here until Thursday and then go on to the coast. He expects that the trip will take about two weeks, for he intends to make a complete study of flying conditions along the way.

WILL HAVE STATEMENT

ALBANY, N. Y., July 27 (AP)—Governor Joseph P. Ely of Massachusetts, the last of the Smith leaders to withhold endorsement of Governor Roosevelt, after a two and a half hour conference with the democratic nominee today was asked if he would support Roosevelt. His reply was "I'll tell you all about that in a statement to be issued Monday."

THANK YOU—

To the voters of Precinct 3, who supported my candidacy and voted for me in the primary Saturday I express my sincere appreciation with ill-will toward none.

"Cave of Bones" Is Important Source Of Prehistoric Data

CAVE CITY, Ky., July 27 (AP)—Preliminary examination of a "cave of bones" discovered near here last week by four boys discloses evidence of three cultures of antiquity and that the mammoth and mastodon were contemporary with man.

Prof. William S. Webb, head of the department of archeology of the University of Kentucky, announcing that bones were found imbedded in clay below more than 100 feet of limestone, said "formation of a deposit of any like that takes tens of thousands of years."

German Leader Sounds Defiance

BERLIN, July 27 (AP)—The voice of General Kurt von Schleicher, a veteran of the Kaiser's armies, breaker of wild horses and power behind the throne of the von Papen government, was out in the open in the Reichstag election campaign today, with a note of defiance for the world.

In a radio address last night he served virtual notice on the world powers that unless Germany is granted equality and released from the limitations of the post-war treaties, she will proceed to establish her own security by reorganization of her armed forces.

Security for Germany, he said, could only be attained by the other powers scaling down their armaments to Germany's level, or by reorganizing—not increasing—Germany's own defenses.

Regarding the alternative of reductions of armaments of other powers to Germany's level, he said: "There aren't many who believe that miracle will happen."

HOW'S your HEALTH

Hypertension High blood pressure is known to be definitely associated with such conditions as arteriosclerosis and diseases of the kidneys. But there are certain conditions in which high blood pressure exists, without any apparent organic reason.

Patients suffering from hypertension commonly complain of nervousness, dizziness, fatigue, insomnia, and vasomotor disorders the latter frequently taking the form of flushes, sensations of heat, unwarranted perspiration, and the like.

Frycchoneurotic patients, or, as they are commonly described, patients suffering from nervousness, complain of similar disorders, and the idea naturally suggest itself that possibly the very same type of condition that in one patient produces "nervousness" may in another produce hypertension, or both conditions simultaneously.

The high blood pressure of these sufferers could be lowered by a wide variety of treatments, including suggestion, psychotherapy, a change of environment, removal of emotional disturbances, and the like.

On the other hand, not infrequently the onset of the symptoms of nervousness, dizziness, fatigue, insomnia, etc., could be established as having taken place at a time when the patient was emotionally or otherwise upset.

Blood pressure is essentially under the control of a portion of the nervous system, which is called vegetative.

This portion of the nervous system is not directly affected by volition, by the will, but these patients appear to be excessively susceptible to slight stimuli.

In so far as persistent hypertension not in its commencement due to any organic cause may in time lead to degenerative changes in the circulatory system, an effort should be made to eliminate the responsible stimuli, conditions or circumstances.

Dinner Party Is Given To Honor Finley Barrett

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barrett entertained with a 4-course dinner last evening to honor her son, Finley Barrett, on his 19th birthday. A lovely birthday cake was prepared for the honoree, who also received many gifts.

Dinner was served at 8 o'clock and later in the evening piano music was furnished by Miss Nellie Warren, Miss Flora Dean Finley, and Miss Katherine Barrett, and vocal selections were given by Miss Katherine and Ruth Langston and Katherine Barrett.

Those attending were Miss Nellie Warren, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Finley, Misses Frances and Flora Dean Finley, Warren Finley, Mrs. C. E. Lancaster, Mrs. Katie Liebman, Mr. Boyd, Mrs. C. E. Sigle, Mrs. Izard, Misses Katherine and Ruth Langston, and the Barrett family.

National Banks Study Currency

WASHINGTON, July 27 (AP)—A stream of inquiries from national banks concerning the possibility of their issuing currency with government bonds as security as permitted under the Glass-Steagall amendment to the Federal Reserve act, continued today to flow into the office of the comptroller of the currency.

The act permits national banks to issue the currency by depositing with the treasurer of the United States government, bonds bearing not more than 3 per cent interest and paying a charge of one half per cent a year, together with the expense of turning out the money.

The act, operative for three years, would permit a maximum expansion of $995,000,000 in the nation's currency.

While requests for information from national banks indicated they desired to take advantage of the new law and issue millions of dollars in the new currency, there was a difference of opinion among officials as to whether the act would really bring about an expansion.

Some authorities took the view that any increase in national bank notes would be offset by a decrease in federal reserve notes, maintaining there is now in circulation all the currency for which the country has any need and that any increase in one variety of notes would have to be counterbalanced by a decrease elsewhere. Others disagreed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thom left yesterday to spend a week in New Mexico on a fishing trip.

Apportionment For Schools Cut

AUSTIN, July 27 (AP)—A decrease of $1.50 in the per capita apportionment for scholastics enrolled in Texas free public schools has been authorized.

The state board of education yesterday cut the apportionment from $17.50 per student to $16, based on estimated revenues prepared by the comptroller's department.

Nat. Washer, chairman of the state board, said school officials had been given notice several weeks ago of the probable reduction in the scholastic apportionment and had been notified to make their contracts for the 1932-33 school year in accordance with the anticipated cut.

The state comptroller yesterday estimated the outstanding obligations of the school fund Aug. 31, the end of the current fiscal year, would be $5,515,637.

A reduction of $1.50 in the apportionment would reduce the demand on the school fund by $2,340,000, it was estimated.

The fund has been unable to meet the per capita apportionment allowed for 1931-32, $4.50 of the amount allotted remaining unpaid. School officials said that if this amount was unpaid by the end of the fiscal year it would be carried over into the next year and paid before payments were started on the 1932-33 apportionment.

Buoys at Spot Of Ship Tragedy

KIEL, Germany, July 27 (AP)—A group of buoys signifying tragedy bobbed on the surface of Kiel Bay today over the spot where 69 German naval cadets drowned yesterday when the old three-masted wind-jammer Niobe, used as a training vessel, went down in a squall.

The 69 youths were trapped at their desks in the schoolroom between the decks when the Niobe sank in a twinkling in eleven fathoms of water.

Only six of those below decks saved themselves as the barkentine plunged. Thirty-seven in all were saved, including the captain, his lieutenant, 17 of the crew and 17 cadets. They were rescued by the steamer Therese Russ, which was nearby.

The catastrophe is the third of its kind to overtake the navy. On Nov. 14, 1861, the school ship Amazon sank off Holland and 145 were lost. On Dec. 16, 1900, the Gneisenau was rammed near Malta with a loss of 40 drowned.
