SAN ANGELO, May 11. (AP)—Two men, whose identity was not immediately established, were blown to bits in the explosion this morning of a truck load of nitroglycerine eight miles north of Monahans, opposite the O'Brien oil field in Ward county.

W. K. Judy of Tulsa, manager of the Osage Torpedo company, and a man named Schofield were reported aboard the truck when it left Wichita Falls yesterday and were believed to have been the victims. Part of a man's hand was the largest portion of either of the bodies recovered that might lead to identification. A huge hole was blown in the paving. No other cars were reported near at the time.

The truck was delivering 500 quarts of nitroglycerine from the Osage torpedo company's plant at Pawhuska, Okla., to the Winkler county magazine of the Western Torpedo company of San Angelo. No theory as to the cause of the blast, had been advanced unless it was caused by the explosive leaking from one of the cans.

One of the occupants of the truck that left Wichita Falls late Tuesday and exploded this morning north of Monahans was E. H. Schofield, about 30, of Pershing, Okla. He was single. The other occupant was W. K. Judy of Tulsa, about 46, married. No reports of the men having been seen after leaving Wichita Falls had been obtained, but little doubt remained that Judy and Schofield were the victims.

TULSA, Okla., May 11. (AP)—Mrs. W. K. Judy of Tulsa was notified today that her husband, manager of the Osage Torpedo company, was one of two men killed instantly this morning in an explosion of a truck load of nitroglycerin near Monahans, Texas.

I HEARD--

"Little Possum" play a piano last night and believe me, if there ever was a musician that could make a piano get up and perform it is that dusky piano player. "Little Possum" entertained at the dinner given last night in the Schneider hotel for Pampa's bowling fraternity.

That a secret organization is being assembled in Pampa and that a "reign of terror" is in prospect for this city. Sheriff Lon L. Blanscet has been notified and is conducting an investigation. Persons having information about the organization asked asked to get in touch with Sheriff Blanscet or Chief of Police J. I. Downs.

Several persons talking skeptically about the "hole-in-one" made Sunday by Marvin Harris when he put a ball in Ivy Duncan's pocket from 75 yards away. Art Swanson wants it known that he was close by and saw the shot.

WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Cloudy, occasional thundershowers in southeast portion tonight and Thursday.

WITNESSES

Testifying before a federal grand jury in Washington, Father Francis J. Hurney, top, and Gustave Griffoni, below, a butler, are reported to have claimed they witnessed the transfer of $100,000 from Mrs. Edward B. McLean, wife of a publisher, to Gaston B. Means. Mrs. McLean caused Means' arrest after he failed to effect the return of the Lindbergh baby.

PAMPA TOPIC OF OUR CITY By O.E.H.

New Fraternity
And now we have a new fraternity of widowers. We speak of the husbands of the dear ladies who are taking up horseback riding. The fad is gaining rapidly in popularity and will, we fear, continue to do so.

"Just Because"
While husband is chasing a little white pill over a pasture denuded of animal inhabitants—except the genus homo golfus—wife will be in another pasture riding Old Dobbin around "just because". We speak with authority, for Mrs. Pampan has this riding habit (also the breeches, vestie—boot ensemble) bad and can talk of little else.

Our Blessing
As a ranch inhabitant for a number of years, the Pampan has an affection for a good horse but little desire to ride him "just for fun". Riding fences, chasing coyotes, roping calves, riding herd—these are activities we associate with pleasant experiences of the past, but to ride a few miles on a level plain with nothing to chase and rope is not, to our way of thinking, as thrilling as walloping a little hard rubber ball. But if these ladies get a kick out of just riding, they have our permission, even our blessing.

SOME ASK REFERENDUM

GENERAL HULEN URGED FOR NATIONAL TRIPPER

By The Associated Press
Most county democratic conventions in Texas yesterday asked their delegates to succeeding conventions to work for Speaker John N. Garner for president "first, last and all the time." However, delegates at several of the meetings approved Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York as second choice.

Liberals will dominate the three largest delegations to the state convention at Houston May 24, those from Harris, Dallas and Bexar counties. The Harris and Bexar county conventions adopted resolutions demanding repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the Dallas county democrats omitted from the list of delegates the name of Thomas B. Love, ultra-dry who led the state revolt against Alfred E. Smith in 1928.

The Galveston and El Paso county conventions also asked a referendum on the prohibition amendment or its repeal and the charge was made that the Travis county convention was in the control of

Campbell Will Face Trial For Firing 3 Times

R. E. Campbell was indicted by the 31st district court grand jury yesterday on a charge of assault with intent to kill in connection with the alleged firing of two shots Monday morning at A. H. Gossett. Both Campbell and Gossett are barbers.

The shooting took place at the front of a barber shop on North Cuyler. Campbell became manager of the shop Monday in a transaction. Both Gossett and Campbell previously worked in the shop. The two had not been on speaking terms in a week it was testified at a preliminary hearing in justice court by Gossett. He said they had quarreled previously.

The grand jury returned an indictment alleging theft. The defendant had not been arrested last night.

Petit juries for both 31st and 114th district courts were dismissed yesterday by Judge W. R. Ewing and Judge E. F. Richey, both of Miami. Both courts will dispose of non-jury business this week.

De Zita Formerly in Foreign Legion

Doctor de Zita, Moroccan astrologist and psycho-analyst who will appear at the Pla-Mor auditorium tomorrow night is none other than Baron William Michael Achilles de Orgier, former captain in the Foreign Legion, and more recently of Hollywood fame.

The astrologist said yesterday that as a member of the Foreign Legion in 1908-1912, he fought in the direction of Beau Geste, Beau Sabreur, Desert Song, Morocco, and Tanton of Spanish Morocco and Tanton of Spanish Morocco.

PRESIDENT

Successor to the late Paul Doumer, martyred President of France is Albert Lebrun, above, president of the senate. The National Assembly, in special session, named Lebrun, who already had become president ad interim after the assassination of Doumer.

JUNIORS' PLAY HAS APPROVAL OF BIG HOUSE

"Panning" From Off-Stage Actors Is Amusing

Laughter of the genuinely mirthful kind was so boisterous that it rattled the panes in the city auditorium where "Forty Miles From Nowhere," three-act farce comedy, was presented before a packed house by the junior class and sponsors of Pampa high school last night.

It was the best high school play I ever saw, and my wife said the same.

Wet Candidates Winning in Ohio

COLUMBUS, O., May 11. (AP)—Anti-prohibition candidates in yesterday's Ohio primary election continued to amass decisive leads over their dry opponents as counting of votes progressed today.

Attorney General Gilbert Bettman, apparently nominated by the republicans for U. S. Senator, was more than 50,000 ahead of his chief opponent, Louis J. Taber, national master of the grange and a dry when more than three-fourths of the ballots were tabulated. In 6,866 precincts of 8,701, Bettman had 203,593, and Taber 150,798.

David S. Ingalls, assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics, who seemingly won the republican gubernatorial nomination, was better than 26,000 ahead of secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, the leading dry candidate. In 7169 precincts Ingalls had 234,192 and Brown 208,045.

Former State Senator George H. Bender, a foe of the anti-saloon league, apparently was certain of one of the two republican nominations for congressman at large. The other choice was undecided.

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT WILL WITHDRAW ALL TROOPS FROM SHANGHAI WITHIN ONE MONTH

Japanese government's desire to conform to world opinion, he said "and prove that Japan had no territorial or other ulterior motives in sending the troops to Shanghai."

The withdrawal will mean a return to conditions as they existed before the outbreak at Shanghai last January which cost thousands of lives, both Chinese and Japanese, and the destruction of millions of dollars worth of property.

WELL KNOWN COWBOYS TO BE HERE ON MAY 26-28

Pampans and visitors to the first annual Frontier Days celebration May 26-28 will see plenty of action from the Mexican steers and the Brahma cattle and calves secured in South Texas by Lon L. Blanscet. Mr. Blanscet and Aurba Bowers arrived in Pampa at 11 o'clock last night after leaving Kennedy county, 295 miles away, at 8 o'clock Monday night.

They secured 26 head of the finest looking Mexican longhorn steers in the country from the Holman ranch near Hebronville, and 25 head of Brahma longhorns, 25 Brahma calves and one purebred Argentine bull from the Armstrong ranch in Kennedy county. Half the Brahmas are white and the other half black. Sheriff Blanscet will keep the white bull here to improve local herds.

The cattle and calves are scheduled to arrive here late this afternoon and the steers tomorrow morning.

Thirty head of bucking horses are en route from Cleo Springs, Okla., and should arrive here Tuesday. The stock will be put on pasture near here until May 26, the opening day of the big celebration and rodeo.

Entries for the rodeo are being received daily from some of the most noted cowboys in the country. Letters have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Kernan, Jasbo Faulkner, Bob Lucas, Tad Lucas, Pat Henry, Hugh Ridley, and others. Jonas de Armond and J. E. Gamble are here already practicing for the big event.

Benjamin Block Of White Deer Dies Last Night

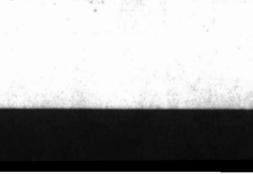

Benjamin F. Block, 50, well-to-do rancher of White Deer, died at his home there this morning at 5:30 o'clock. He owned a ranch and extensive oil holdings near Skellytown. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Church of Christ, White Deer, under the direction of G. C. Malone, funeral director. The Rev. Robert C. Jones of Amarillo will be in charge of the services. Burial will be at White Deer.

Mr. Block had lived in the White Deer community 14 years. He was born in Illinois. His parents were born in Germany.

Mr. Block had been ill for some time. About three weeks ago, he was removed to his home from a Lubbock sanitarium where he was a patient.

Survivors include the following: His widow, five children, B. F. Jr., Billy, Ivan, Kenneth, Vernelle; father, F. J. Block of Wichita Falls, four sisters, Mrs. Earl Johnson, White Deer; Mrs. J. R. McNeill, Wichita Falls; Mrs. Earl Cowden, Wichita Falls, and Mrs. E. J. Hahler, Happy.

IN REIGN OF TERROR

Confronted in her bedroom by a crazed Japanese servant who shouted his intention of murdering her entire household, Mrs. Dora W. V. Boice, above, sportsman of Cherry Valley, N. J., risked her own life and was twice wounded when she gave the alarm. George Petty, upper left, a horse trainer for Mrs. Boice, rushed to her assistance. Two other employes, Larry and John Daly, the latter pictured upper right were threatened by Yanashita, the servant, during the reign of terror. Larry Daly was slain in a struggle with the Japanese, who finally committed suicide.

NEW EXECUTIVE KNOWS
TYPE OF WORK
TO BE DONE

C. L. Stine, for the last year and one half city engineer, was named acting city manager by the commission in session yesterday afternoon. Mr. Stine will take office June 1, replacing E. M. Gwin, who resigned two months ago. Mr. Stine will work with Mr. Gwin until June 1.

The new city manager has been a resident of Pampa for the last five years. He came to Pampa with the Phillips Petroleum company as construction engineer of the gasoline department to erect the first Phillips gasoline plant in the Gray county field. He later became assistant county and city engineer under A. H. Doucette and remained in that position until appointed city engineer.

Mr. Stine received his high school education at St. Petersburg, Fla., and then spent two years at Valparaiso university, Valparaiso, Ind., where he studied engineering and business administration. He has had 20 years experience in public work. Mr. Stine gained experience with the cities of Denver, Detroit, Ohio State highway department, G. F. Young Landscaping company of Florida, El Paso and Southwestern railway, and as assistant engineer in Pinellas county, Fla.

Two Men Killed
As Akron Stops

CAMP KEARNEY, Cal., May 11. (AP)—Two members of the ground crew attempting to moor the Akron were swept into the air by the mooring ropes, lost their grip and fell to their death.

CAMP KEARNEY, Calif., May 11. (AP)—The world's largest airship, U. S. S. Akron, drifted out of a foggy sky for an unscheduled mooring here at 9:40 a. m. (P. S. T.) today, three days out on a transcontinental journey.

The great sky liner battled the elements for a day in Texas and was forced to an emergency landing here, just north of San Diego, instead of completing the projected non-stop cruise to its western base, Sunnyvale, south of San Francisco.

Arrangements were made here to put on 2500 gallons of fuel.

Frazier Staying As Band Master

R. E. (Pop) Frazier was re-elected director of the high school orchestra and band at a meeting of the school board Monday afternoon.

Mr. Frazier was elected to the position in 1931 and assumed his duties last fall.

During the next school term, the director will present his orchestra in a number of concerts.

ROTARY HEARS OF BIG SESSION

One of the most interesting Rotary sessions in recent years was the state meeting, composed of the three Rotary groups of Texas, held last week in Mineral Wells, according to a report given before the local Rotary club today by Marshall Oden.

Mr. Oden and Carl Boston were delegates to the meeting, which was attended also by C. P. Buckler, president of the local club. Mr. Boston gave a short report on the group meetings he attended.

Visitors today were L. L. Stone, Blaine Robinson, Dan McGrew, and Rotarian T. H. Hudspeth.

JAYSEES ARE TO MEET TONIGHT TO TALK OVER PLANS

The program for the first annual Frontier Days celebration May 26-28 and plans for the ticket sale will be completed at a meeting of the Junior chapter of commerce membership at 8 o'clock tonight in the basement of the city hall. A brief program will open the meeting.

Anyone with ideas should be present to present his plans. President Bob Brashears urged every member to be present since there will be work for everyone. The entire membership will have to work to put over the big celebration. Sheriff Lon L. Blanscet, general chairman, will "dole out the work."

blessing. But we "feel" for any he-horse of the range who is put through such tame exercise.

Not So Equipped

But remember this, riding-widowers, when your cook and helpmate leaves for a saunter don't expect her back soon. She probably measures distances by a mind trained to watch the speedometer, but Old Dobbin is not so equipped and he is imperfectly geared when it comes to making a pace comparable to "stepping on the gas." And if the worst comes to the worst, we neglected husbands can organize to give the offenders something to think about while cantering about gazing rapturously at fields of luxuriant green wheat.

Probe a Little

Newspaper carrier boys are not infallible, but complaints sometimes are attributable to sources other than the boys. For example, an Alabama daily urges subscribers to do the following:

1. Consider the wind—it finds the paper interesting, too.
 2. Ask the cook if she has the paper—she may be reading the serial story.
 3. If you have a pup—or your neighbor has one—whistle and see if he has a guilty look in his eyes.
 4. Ask the milkman sometimes if he ever kicked a paper to one side while delivering his product.
 5. Ascertain whether a neighbor has let his subscription expire—and has a child who "just must" read the (your) funnies.
- At any rate, the boys take a lot of blame for what is not their fault. A little praise helps them to render good service.

Got Any Books

Cleaning house this spring? Got any books stuck away and not used?
Remember, the public library needs children's books and adventure fiction tremendously. The patronage of the library is so great that the supply cannot be replenished as rapidly as adventure stories are read. The better class of fiction is desired, of course, and we feel sure you have some books you'll never use but which would make many happy if placed in the library. Many persons have made valuable contributions of books.

Bills Are Paid By Commission

Payment of bills was the chief business transacted by the county commissioners at the regular monthly meeting.
All members of the court were present except John R. White of Laketon, who was unable to attend.

The court granted the Interstate Production company right-of-way and permission to lay a pipeline across the county highway. It was also voted to pay the railroad fare of a tubercular to Sanatorium, Tex., also to provide travelling expenses and necessary clothing.

The county will pay for galvanized corrugated iron pipe to be used by the Colteco corporation in housing gas pipe lines across county roads on the Henry Thut survey, out of the road and bridge fund.

Few Republicans Attend Meeting

Dr. V. E. von Brunow presided at a brief session of Pampa republican late yesterday afternoon.
The meeting lasted about 20 minutes. Five persons were present.
Dr. Brunow, republican county chairman, left immediately after the meeting for Oklahoma City on a business trip. He said he would issue a statement regarding the meeting when he returns tomorrow. The purpose of the meeting was to approve or reject President Hoover for the republican nominations, and to name delegates to the state convention.
Policies concerning the state republican organization were also to be discussed.

Mrs. L. A. Snodgrass of Skellytown was a Pampa shopping visitor yesterday.

Lindbergh Case Changes Scene

NORFOLK, Va., May 11 (AP)—With a new scene of activities off the Rhode Island coast reported for his negotiations, John Hughes Curtis, Norfolk intermediary in the Lindbergh kidnaping case, was still absent today on a secret trip undertaken last week. The Virginian-pilot said today it had been learned that negotiations are now being conducted off Block Island lying east of Long Island.

The reported shift in the activities came after repeated cruises to sea from Norfolk apparently had failed in forming contact. Last week Curtis and Lieutenant George L. Fisher, naval air pilot, left the naval air base here on a secret mission.

On his trip northward, the Virginian-pilot said, Curtis was taken to a point at sea where he went aboard a boat containing representatives of the kidnapers. The paper said Colonel Charles A. Lind-
day later.

MIDCONTINENT OIL FIRMS SHOW PROFITS AT LAST

Improvement Is General But Time For Rejoicing Is Not Yet In Sight

TULSA, Okla., May 11 (AP)—Oil companies operating in the Mid-continent area have marched from the red side of the ledger to the black and are now making a profit, some of them for the first time in twelve to fourteen months.

Only those firms of consequence which do not have headquarters here or whose spokesmen could not be reached are missing from the list of large midcontinent companies that are once more making money, a survey showed.

Companies reporting are: Continental Oil company, of Ponca City; Consolidated Oil Corporation (Prai-re-Sinclair), Barnsdall Oil corporation; Midcontinent Petroleum corporation, Skelly Oil company, Phillips Petroleum company of Bartlesville, and the Indian Territory illuminating Oil company; also of Bartlesville, one of the Cities Service group.

Without exception these companies attributed the improved condition to these factors:

- First: The recent advances in prices of crude oil and refined products.
- Second, the lessons in economy taught by the lean months of the past.

Midcontinent Petroleum corporation reported a like healthy improvement.

E. B. Reiser of Barnsdall said that profits first appeared on his company's books in March.

W. G. Skelly and C. C. Herndon of Skelly Oil said their firm showed a profit in March for the first time in twelve months and that current conditions indicated a profit for May.

Daniel L. Pierce, speaking for Harry F. Sinclair of Consolidated Oil, specifically mentioned the stringent economies practiced by all of the oil companies at this time.

Frank Phillips, president of Phillips Petroleum, joined the chorus, but warned, as did Skelly, Herndon, and Reiser, that the time is not ripe for an orgy of rejoicing.

Wheat Prices Due For Boost

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)— Prospects for higher wheat prices became brighter today with the agriculture department's second report on winter production, placing it at 440,781,000 bushels against 787,465,- 000 for last year.

conditions brought the indicated harvest down to 10,000,000 bushels from the April 1 forecast of 458,000, 000. The May 1 condition was 75.1 per cent of normal.

The prospective total 1932 crop, both winter and spring, now is between 650,000,000 and 700,000,000 bushels. Based on average yields, the spring crop has been estimated at not expected to be borne out as farmers have not followed their intentions to plant.

Such a reduction from the 1932 harvest of 892,000,000 bushels is regarded as one of the brightest spots in the world wheat situation at the present time.

The condition of winter wheat was reported by the department yesterday as being below average in nearly all sections except in the area extending from Illinois east and northeast. The decline in prospects since April 1 was largely due to unfavorable conditions in the great plains region.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. John Glover and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Boyington have returned from Fort Worth, where they went for the awarding of the Fort Worth and Denver depot contract, and from Clarksville, where they visited Mrs. Glover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murphy. They also fished near Clarksville.

C. P. Buckler and Dr. W. Purviance are expected home tonight from El Paso, where they visited Oscar Djal.

Mrs. Lillian Land, LeFors music instructor, visited in The NEWS office yesterday.

Mrs. Florence G. Boller, 25, realized a lifetime ambition in passing the rigid examination of the California state bar and now is one of the few women authorized to practice law in that state. As Miss Florence Gal-entine, she graduated from University of Southern California in 1928 and, after failing once in the bar examination, passed with honor the second time.

DAILY NEWS WINS OVER PHILLIPS IN LATE OUTBURST

FLOKE HOMER IN NINTH WINS BY ONE SCORE

OIL MEN HAVE ONE OF BEST NINES SEEN HERE

A fluke home run by Sturgeon in the ninth inning after two men had been put away, gave The NEWS a 13 to 12 win over the Phillips company nine from the south plant last evening. The newsmen went into the last inning trailing by seven runs, but came through with eight to win the old ball game.

A piece of strategy in the ninth worked and enabled the winning runs to cross the plate. With two men out and one on base, Pond, a pinch hitter, went into the game. He was walked to put the tying run on first base. Sturgeon then came up and drove a ball down the third base line which hit the inside of the bag and then shot into left field, striking the left fielder's foot and bounding into "rough".

Sturgeon, with three runs, led The NEWS' hitters. He scored twice in the ninth inning. Dillman and Hoare followed with two each. Every player on the team crossed the plate with the exception of Johnson. Hol Wagner on third played a great game in the field, starting the two double plays completed and making one of them himself. He touched third on a hot grounder with three men on and then ran down the player between third and home with only one out.

Johnson and Dillman played stellar games in the outfield. They look everything that came their way. Marshall was good on short and hit a home run. Sturgeon caught a great game. Hoare started in the box and pitched six innings of good ball before being relieved by Dillman.

Adams, Phillips pitcher, weakened in the ninth inning after one of the finest pitching performances seen here in some time. The Phillips outfield was impenetrable and only long hits or flukes got past the gardeners. Parker and Mallow were particularly effective. Mallow touched Franklin and Clark each scored two runs. Mallow and Franklin hit homers during the battle.

A return game will be played soon.

Davis Cup Men Working Secretly

NEW ORLEANS, May 11 (AP)—The United States Davis Cup team worked out today behind closed gates as the squad determined to get rid of the kinks for its matches with the Mexican team starting Friday.

Although favored to set aside the Mexicans, considered less formidable than the Canadians who failed to win a match two weeks ago in Washington, no stone is being left unturned in shaping the Americans into top form.

Fite Eugene Dixon, non-playing captain, has put his squad under the care of Mercer Beasley, professional at the New Orleans country club and developer of Ellsworth Vines. Beasley said both Vines and Wilmer Allison who played here a month ago, have shown improvement. He also is pleased with the playing of Frank X. Shields and John Van Ryn who completed the United States team.

Ernesto Lopez, non-playing captain of the Mexicans, let his men open up today with power drives and screaming services. The team, all residents of Mexico City, is headed by Ricardo Tapia, senior medical student at the University of Mexico and tennis champion of Mexico. A fellow student, Angel Boidam, 17, and "baby" of the squad, is on hand for the experience rather than any hope of a victory. Alfonso Uda, second ranking player of Mexico, and Eduardo Mestre Jr., complete the team.

Cage Hopes Are To Play Tonight

Pampa's basketball hopes for next season will be seen in action at the high school gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock tonight. They will oppose the fast ex-Harvester quintet for the first game of the spring training season. An effort is being made to match home and home games with the Amarillo Sanderes.

Coach Odus Mitchell will start Captain Woodward and Miles Marbaugh on the forward line with Hoot Fullington at center and Wayne Kelley and Jess Patton at guard positions. Flash Enloe and Parks Brumley will likely be forwards for the cage with Henry Ayres at center and Albert Lard and Don Salsburg guards.

The Harvester quintet is reported to be one of the fastest that has ever worn the green and gold.

A CLEVER COACH

CYCLONE HALL WILL ARRIVE TODAY FOR HIS BOUT WITH JOE VERNON, LOCAL BOXER

Cyclone Hall is scheduled to arrive here this afternoon for his bout with Joe Vernon, local boy, at the Flamingo auditorium Friday night. The two boys are matched for 10 rounds. Mickey McGuire, better known as Buddy Bishop, arrived yesterday and worked out to the satisfaction of fans yesterday afternoon. Fritz Stanke, his opponent, reached here from Maize, Oklahoma, this morning after a month of hard training.

Jay Ward of Berger and Frankie LeFever of Vernon will hit town tomorrow. Matchmaker C. A. Heath of the Legion has arranged a battle royal between five duster boys to open the card. It will be followed by a four-round preliminary between two unannounced youths.

Vernon is in great shape for his battle with Hall, who is well known in Pampa. Vernon pleased a large crowd here two weeks ago. He has been going strong recently. He holds decisions over Ham Jenkins, Kid Granite, and Speedy Sparks.

Stanke, local bus driver, will meet a young wildcat in McGuire, who is a member of the Will Rogers stable at Claremore. He has met such celebrities as Baby Stribling, Stinger Steele, Lou O'Brien, champion of the Rocky Mountain region, and is fresh from a kayo over Bob Mills of Tulsa.

LeFever is recommended strongly by Cyclone Hall. He will need to be tough to stay in the same ring with Jay Ward, red-thatched marvel from Berger.

STEERS TAKE TOP RUNG BY HALF A GAME

Fort Worth loses fourth straight as Wichita Falls takes game.

The Steers went into first place by half-game margin last night when they eked out a 4 to 3 victory over Shreveport while Fort Worth was dropping their fourth straight game, this time to Wichita Falls, 6 to 3, in 12 innings.

The Steers beat the Sisslermen in the ninth inning. Lefty Willis, young relief hurler for the Sports, threw Powers' bunt so far over first-baseman George Siler's head that Ernie Holman, who had beaten out a roller, came home all the way from first base.

Manager Dick McCabe tried to snap the Panthers' losing streak. He hurled good ball but young Tom Conlan, on the mound for Wichita Falls, was a little better, and the Spudders staged a three-run outburst in the twelfth to knock the Cats off the top.

The best pitching was exhibited at Galveston, where Preacher Thurman started his first game for the home team and shut out San Antonio, 1 to 0. Cy Smith allowed the Buccaneers only two bingles but one of them was coupled with a walk and a sacrifice for the game's only run.

Houston's game with Beaumont was rained out.

CHICAGO CUB ATTACK LOOKS INVINCIBLE AS MOUND STARS AND SLUGGERS WORK EASILY

Baton Rouge has Commanding Lead

By The Associated Press
Baton Rouge strengthened its grip on the lead in the cotton states league yesterday by a victory over Pine Bluff, 3 to 4. The Louisianans have won seven and lost one game. In a tie for second place are Pine Bluff and Vicksburg with five wins and two losses. Monroe, Fort Arthur and El Dorado have been able to win only two of eight games each.

Vicksburg had two big innings in winning from Port Arthur 15 to 9. Missing hits in the fourth and fifth innings, the Mississippians tallied 13 runs. Braly was blasted from the box in the fourth and after one inning, his successor, Elmon, gave way to Jones. Cashion got two triples and Pollett, Brown and Kelly one each.

El Dorado won 4 to 2 from Monroe. Edwin had a bad third inning but otherwise pitched good ball for Monroe. Goodell kept the Monroe batters well in hand throughout.

and for the first time in his life, so far as I know, he got his iron shot over the stream and on the edge of the green—the edge nearest the stream; he just did get over. But he was on the green.

"Old Blinkley was set up to a million. As we walked across the little bridge, I remember he was talking about the green some more lessons and getting down to serious work on the game.

"It wasn't such a tough game, Blinkley said. All a fellow really needed to do was to talk seriously and study it a bit—and always take pains; always pay attention to what he was doing, at the moment he was doing it.

"So he took his putter from the caddy, and walked up to the ball, and studied the line carefully, and took his stance, and addressed the ball, and soled the club in front of the way Bobby Jones does, and then in taking the club back to start the stroke, he just knocked the ball backward into the rivulet."

Will Power
Mr. Rollow paused, for effect. "And, then," Mr. Rollow resumed, Blinkley walked back across the little bridge, and dropped a ball on the "and then, without saying a word, farther side of the rivulet, and took his niblick, and knocked that one into the stream, and dropped it out and knocked it back again.

"I did this seven times. All without saying a word. Then he got it over on the green, pretty close to the flag. He had played 16 strokes. He took three putts, holing out in 19 after having been on the green in one stroke. Then he replaced the putter in the bag, and walked straight to the clubhouse. He has not played golf since."

LON WARNEKE ALLOWS 5 HITS TO GIANTS TUESDAY

By The Associated Press
Associated Press Sports Writer
Teaming along three games in front of their closest pursuers, their great pitching staff mowing down opposing batsmen and their hitters thumping in unison, the Chicago Cubs threaten to make a runaway of the National League race.

When Young Lon Warneke set the New York Giants down yesterday, 9 to 2, the leaders scored their fourth straight victory over eastern clubs and their thirteenth win in sixteen engagements. Unless Rogers Hornsby's team is slowed down soon, it will pile up such an advantage it will be able to coast through to the flag.

The Giants could find Warneke for only five hits yesterday, two of which came after two were out in the ninth and provided their second run. His mates whaled three Cincinnati hurlers for 11 safeties, every man in the line-up getting at least one.

The only other National league bout saw the Phillies break Cincinnati's five-game winning streak, 4 to 0, behind Ray Benge's effective pitching.

Vic Sorrell turned in the day's American league masterpiece when he allowed Boston only two hits in pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 11 to 0 victory.

Lefty Grove was almost as effective as the Athletics blanked Chicago, 9 to 0. The great southpaw allowed six hits but bore down in the pinches.

The wildness of Walter Stewart and "Bump" Hadley, who distributed ten walks, helped the Yankees trounce the St. Louis Browns, 10 to 2. Cleveland was rained out at Washington.

Faculty To Use Best Players In All-Star Tilt

Manager J. A. Meek of the Faculty ball team will start his ace line-up against the All Stars this afternoon. The game will be called at 5:30 o'clock at the Sam Houston school grounds. Patrick will be in the box with Weathered behind the bat.

Harry Kelley will occupy first base and W. O. Workman second. Odus Mitchell will be at the shortstop position with Gene probably at third Moore, Gordon, and Selby will patrol the outer garden. In reserve will be Harry Fox, Smith, O'Keefe, Lester, Fisher, and Manager Meek.

The All Stars will announce their line-up when it is given to the scorekeeper. The teachers have been trying to find out who will be in the lineup for some time, but have not been successful. That they are worried is common knowledge.

This Game of GOLF by O.B. KEELER

Bill Rollow, sports writer for The Nashville Tennessean, was in Atlanta with the Nashville ball club but he was talking about golf, of which game he is some of a hopeless addict. I asked him if Blinkley Horn, his sports editor, was playing much, these days.

Mr. Rollow opened his eyes very wide.

"Blinkley not playing at all," Bill replied. "He's not been playing golf for six years. Hadn't you heard?"

I hadn't heard anything about Blinkley not playing golf. Blinkley was not precisely a national figure, in the game, though a distinctly interesting and original one, and much fun to play with.

Why Blinkley Quit
I asked Mr. Rollow what about it. "Well," said Mr. Rollow, "you remember the sixth hole at the Belle Meade country club—the pretty one-shooter, where you drive from a tee high on a hillside to a green outlined by a pretty little rivulet, or a whether you get on the green or in the rivulet."

"Blinkley was playing this hole

AWARDS TO PAMPA BOWLERS ARE MADE LAST NIGHT AT BANQUET OF TWO LEAGUES

Pampa bowlers of the Commercial and City leagues were guests of M. K. Brown, president of the Pampa Bowling association, and Alex Schneider at a Dutch lunch in the Schneider hotel last night.

Prize winners in the two leagues were awarded their prizes by Mr. Brown presided. Art Swanson is secretary of the association.

H. H. Durston of Fort Worth, guest of Mr. Brown, told interesting stories of bowling in past years and the difference in the sport has hung up today. He declared that Pampa bowlers would take a back seat to nobody. "Little Possum" supplied the musical part of the program.

Fred Fischer, as president of the Baldheaded club, addressed the gathering briefly and appealed for new members. Mr. Brown is secretary-treasurer.

The Blair Motor company received first money in the City league. A nice big check was received by Fred Cullum. The Texas company took second money and the Blair Motor third. The Kiwanis club brought up the rear.

The Schneider Hotel quintet was awarded first place in the Commercial league and Alex Schneider was given the check for his team. Clauson Motor was in second place and Pekke & Landry third. The Country club won the cellar position.

Individual prizes were given to more than 30 members of the various teams. Fred Cullum was the big winner in the City league and Bill Holmes in the Commercial league.

A two-man league was organized to start play soon. Ten teams had entered up to last night. Election of officers for the next year was deferred until the fall meeting in September.

WOMEN'S GOLF MATCHES HARD FOUGHT TILTS

NEWARK, N. J., May 11 (AP)—Lou T. Reichers, who hopes to fly to Pampas in half the time it took Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, will not take off for several days.

Scheduled to hop from here to night, Reichers' plans were changed by the assassination of President Paul Doumer of France. The aviator may carry a wreath for M. Doumer's grave from President Hoover.

WHITE DEER'S TEAM WINNING

The White Deer Bucks continued their winning streak Sunday at Galveston, where they won 7 to 1 over the Fritch Oilers at Fritch. The Bucks outhit the Oilers two to one, but good fielding in the pinches saved the game more than once for the home team.

Coach pitched a great game for the Bucks, allowing only nine scattered hits. Powers and Richardson caught for the Bucks. Curry caught the entire game for Fritch.

The base-stealing of Custer Lowry was the high spot in the game. The five-footed fielder pilfered three bases during the affair. The Bucks used the bats made by "Hootie" Harrah in Arkansas last winter and whenever the ball was hit it went for a ride. The bats are made of hickory.

BUYS OIL INTEREST

SAN ANGELO, May 11 (AP)—Cardinal Oil company of San Angelo has purchased a half interest in and operating control of Phillips Petroleum company's OW block in Northwestern Pecan county, which has two shallow producers, and will lay a 2 or 2 1/2 inch pipe line from the area to Fort Stockton. The consideration was unannounced but a pump station in the pool, a loading rack on the Santa Fe at Fort Stockton and an 11-mile pipe line connecting them will cost around $20,000. This system is expected to be operating in thirty days.

Americans Will Stand Tonight Before Throne

LONDON, May 11. (AP)—Twelve American women will stand for one brief moment before Britain's king and queen tonight and hear the softly spoken words of presentation to royalty.

They will then curtsy in solemn "thank you" for the regal favor and depart, tired, and perhaps wondering a bit, to their hotels.

The moment of glory will be the climax of weeks of excitement and preparation—hours spent at dressmakers, the trip from America, long lessons in court etiquette and hours spent in a queue of limousines in the mall awaiting their turn to enter the palace.

The American women who will meet King George and Queen Mary will be just individuals in a crowd of hundreds of presentees of all nations tonight and tomorrow night, probably no other court in the world, however, matches those held at Buckingham Palace by the British monarchs.

Besides Mrs. David K. E. Bruce, daughter of Ambassador Mellon, tonight's presentees include Miss Mary Elizabeth Beebe of Wallingford, Pa.; Miss Helen Bryan, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Eugene H. Dooman, wife of the first secretary of the American embassy; Mrs. David E. Finley, Washington, D. C.; Miss Ethel Foster, Boston; Miss Estelle Frelinghuysen, daughter of former Senator Joseph Frelinghuysen of New Jersey; Miss Alice Lovering, Boston; Miss Isobel McCreery, San Francisco; Miss Natica Nash, New York; Mrs. C. F. Hand, Park T., Princeton, N. J.; and Mrs. William T. Pigott, Helena, Montana.

Reception Will Be Given on Thursday

The Junior high school Parent-Teacher association will give a reception tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock in the school cafeteria. The event is in honor of the incoming officers of the association and all teachers of the school.

Mrs. Hunkapillar Is Speaker For Senior Twentieth Century Session; Report Is Given by Mrs. Tom Rose

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, an authority on women's club work and a member of Pampa's oldest study group, El Progreso club, was speaker at a meeting of the Senior Twentieth Century club yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. F. M. Culbertson.

The speaker told of the history and accomplishments of the general, state, and district federations and discussed Texas women in the general federation.

"The federation highway headquarters is at Washington, D. C.," said Mrs. Hunkapillar. "There begins a network of highways, with branches leading into the 48 states and Alaska. From each state headquarters a road runs to each district president; from each district president a road runs to every club president; from the club president, a road runs to every individual member. Individual members do nine-tenths of the work. Through the cooperation in local clubs, in city and county councils, in district, state, and general federations, a nation-wide ideal is created, and world betterment will eventually come."

Mrs. Tom E. Rose gave a splendid report on the recent meeting of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs. Paul Kasheke told of the better homes essay contest sponsored by the club. Bessie Stein took first place in the contest.

Mrs. W. A. Bratton was program leader for the afternoon.

Dancer Will Give Program Saturday

AMARILLO, May 11.—Lovers of the best in stage entertainment are looking forward to one of the most artistic events of the season scheduled for next Saturday night at the high school auditorium, when Miss Elsie Little will give a dance concert as benefit for members of the local chapter of P. E. O. Co-artists on the program are Mrs. Jessie Dean Trulove and Robert Townsend of Lubbock. Mrs. A. F. Arnold will serve as accompanist in the dances.

Mr. Townsend is well known in Dallas, Lubbock and other cities, having been one of the specialty dancers in the Theodore Kosloff Russian Ballet.

Miss Little, who is head of the dance department of the Amarillo College of Musical Arts, is offering a wide variety in her numbers. Her dances will represent her accomplishments in a creative way as well as bringing to Amarillo some of the work of the Kosloff, Chalfi, and other studios of California and the East.

Mrs. Trulove will share honors with Miss Little in giving on her part of the program compositions of the masters with the skill and playing which characterize her playing.

Luncheon Is Served at Junior Club

Meeting; Picnic Planned as Final Event of Year—Husbands to Attend

"Trade at home" urged members of the Junior Twentieth Century club in connection with a "wise spending" program directed by Miss Ruth Ann Mitchell yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. F. Dirksen. Women do the greater part of the spending, Miss Mitchell, Mrs. F. M. Perry, and Mrs. Max Mahaffey pointed out, and numerous principals for making wiser use of the privilege were suggested.

The program was given following a covered dish luncheon in the Dirksen home. Each member was required to read a bit of poetry which she had the duty to be performed by the reader in connection with serving the luncheon.

Mrs. Dick Walker, retiring president, gave an impressive farewell talk. Miss Mitchell gave a toast to the past and Mrs. T. R. Martin proposed a toast to the future.

During an early afternoon business session, a picnic to be held the latter part of the month was planned. The outing will be the last social event of the year, and husbands will be special guests. Mrs. Roy Bourland reported on the recent district club convention in Canadian.

Twentieth Century Culture Club Plans Tea For Friday; Will Be Hostess For Two Other Groups

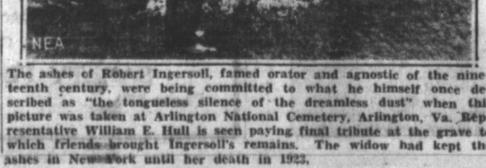

A seated tea which will be given Friday by the Twentieth Century Culture club was planned at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. H. Schulkey. The tea will be held at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Marvin Lewis, with members of the Senior and Junior Twentieth Century clubs as guests.

Mrs. T. F. Morton was leader of an interesting program based on American composers and their music. Mrs. E. M. Conley discussed America's position in music, and Mrs. O. H. Booth spoke on the composers of America.

The leader played a piano selection, La Scintilla (L. N. Gottschalk), and Mrs. J. Powell Wehrung brought a phonograph record, My Old Kentucky Home, to illustrate the work of Afro-American composers.

Dainty refreshments were served at tea time. The club will have only one more meeting this year. It will be held May 25 and the program will be a continuation of the study yesterday.

LAST TRIBUTE TO ORATOR

The ashes of Robert Ingersoll, famed orator and agnostic of the nineteenth century, were being committed to what he himself once described as "the tongueless silence of the dreamless dust" when this picture was taken at Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Va. Representative William E. Hull is seen paying final tribute to the grave to which friends brought Ingersoll's remains. The widow had kept the ashes in New York until her death in 1925.

MISS ADAMS GIVES A FEW TASTY DISHES

Answering the S. O. S. calls made by home-makers who wish to take advantage of the low price of eggs but who have a limited number of recipes from which to choose, Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, has offered a number of suggestions which are both tasty and different.

USES FOR INEXPENSIVE EGGS ARE ASKED BY WOMEN

When prepared by Miss Adams at a meeting of the McLean home demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Bill Bridge, the dishes found immediate popularity.

Following are the recipes: Plain omelet—Separate 1 egg and beat yolk slightly. Add salt, pepper, and 1 tsp. water. Beat white until stiff and dry and fold into it the yolk mixture. Butter frying pan, heat, turn into it the mixture, spread evenly over pan and cook slowly. When well-puffed and delicately browned underneath put on top of grate of oven until the omelet is firm. Run a knife or spatula under to loosen omelet, then fold into hot platter. Before folding, 1 tsp. cooked, chopped meat, cheese, or vegetables may be spread over half of omelet. Vegetable or meat stock or milk may be used in place of water.

Orange Omelet—Make a plain omelet, using orange juice in place of water and omitting pepper. Serve garnished with sections of orange and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Egg in nest—Break egg and separate yolk from white. Beat white until stiff, then add a few grains of salt. File in circular piece of toasted bread, first dipped in boiling salted water. Make depression in center of white and drop in yolk. Bake in moderate oven until delicately browned.

Egg croquets—6 hard-cooked eggs, 1 1/2 c. white sauce used for croquets. Cut eggs in small pieces, mix with sauce, and chill. Mold into desired shape. Roll in crumbs. Fry in deep fat; drain. Serve with creamed peas.

Spanish omelet—Make a plain omelet, using tomato juice instead of water; add pepper and chopped green peppers, and chopped onions. Use 1 tsp. of tomato juice to each egg.

Eggs a la goldenrod—One c. white sauce for creamed dishes, 4 hard-cooked eggs, 4 slices of toast. Chop egg whites fine and add to sauce. Pour white sauce over toast cut in halves lengthwise or in triangles. Over this sprinkle the yellow of the eggs which has been forced through a potato ricer or strainer. Garnish with parsley or toast points.

Scallops eggs—One and one-half c. white sauce for creamed dishes, 6 cold hard-boiled eggs, 1 c. buttered crumbs, 1/2 tsp. salt. Put alternate layer of sliced eggs and white sauce into an oiled baking dish; sprinkle with salt. Cover with crumbs and omelet sauce bubbles.

Baked eggs—Two tsp. soft bread crumbs; 1 tsp. thin cream, 1 egg, salt and pepper to taste. Cover bottom of oiled, individual baking dish with crumbs. Break the egg, slip into crumbs, add salt and pepper, cover with remaining crumbs, add cream, bake in moderate oven until white is set.

Impersonating Indians, 35 pupils of Miss Lynette Franklin, LeFors teacher, entertained a large crowd at a recent meeting of the LeFors Parent-Teacher association.

Wanda Henry and J. D. Hall sang "The Quareel, and Jinky Carruth told of Parson Brown's Sheep. A wrestling match was staged by Carl Ogden and Fine Berlin, first grade pupils of Miss F. L. Mize's room. Miss Ruth Darnell's pupils gave a play depicting a truth for mothers and teachers to observe when dealing with children.

New officers were installed, and the association gave Mrs. G. O. Carruth, retiring president, a Parent-Teacher pin. The pin was presented by Mrs. J. G. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McKinney and son, Charles Bert, of Elk City, Okla., are visiting in Pampa.

WILL BE HONORED SATURDAY

Mrs. Herbert Hoover next Saturday is to receive the honorary degree of letters of humanities at Wooster college in Ohio when the town where her great grandfather was a pioneer celebrates its 125th anniversary. At left is Kaul hall on the Wooster campus.

WOOSTER, Ohio. (AP)—After May 14 Mrs. Herbert Hoover may sign her name, "Lou Henry Hoover, L. H. D."

The honorary degree of "literary humanitarian doctor," or doctor of letters of humanities, is to be conferred by Wooster college upon the nation's first lady as the city of Wooster celebrates its 125th anniversary.

Mrs. Hoover's great-grandfather, William Henry, came to Wooster as a pioneer. The first four streets were named for the founders and one of those thoroughfares is Henry street.

Mrs. Hoover never lived in Wooster, as her father moved to Waterloo, Ia., in 1872, but she has visited the city twice in recent years tracing facts concerning her ancestors.

Pageantry will play an important part in the formalities. Mrs. Hoover herself will review the annual color day parade at Wooster college, sharing honors with Miss Elma Sage of Marion, O., queen of the May.

In a bower-like setting of ivy-clad walls and tree-screened campus this pageant on the 100th anniversary of the birth of Goethe will seek to portray the famous German's theory of the art of poetry.

In the historical pageant by the city in the afternoon, at which Mrs. Hoover will be a guest of honor, there will be an episode depicting the coming to Wooster of William Henry.

Another episode will depict the founding of Wooster college. A cast of nearly 1000 persons is being assembled for the event.

Two Hundred To Attend Meeting Of Club Women

CANYON, May 11.—Two hundred women have already indicated their intention of attending the third annual home demonstration day at the West Texas State Teachers college, May 13.

There are 16 counties in the two districts which will meet at Canyon and with ten of them still to be heard from it seems that the attendance will be larger than last year when 300 women gathered for the one-day course.

Miss Minnie Mae Grubbs, and Miss Mary May Murray will represent the state and federal home demonstration service on the programs of the day. These are being arranged by Miss Marian Northington head of the local college home economics department and members of her department.

Registration of visitors will begin at nine o'clock, and the college plant visited during the time until eleven, when the guests will see a physical education program demonstrating modern methods of achieving health and wholesome recreation.

The college cafeteria will be open to the visitors during the lunch hour. Professor L. F. Sheffy and Miss Darthula Walker, the college band and the college chorus will entertain during the afternoon. "Points of Historic Interest in West Texas" and "Cruising in the Island Seas" will be the subjects of the two addresses.

Girl Scouts and college students will assist in welcoming the visiting women and conducting them through the college plant.

Texas Bar Will Face Arguments At Next Meeting

Because he believes the Texas Bar association is going to face controversial issues squarely at the annual meeting at Mineral Wells, May 19-21, inclusive, Judge W. R. Ewing of the 31st district court, today issued a statement urging attorneys of this judicial district to attend. Judge Ewing said he believes that meeting will be the most interesting the association has ever had.

The attendance of two of the most outstanding lawyers in the U. S., Hon. Martin W. Littleton of New York, and Hon. Guy A. Thompson, president of the American Bar association, has been promised and both will make addresses. Mr. Littleton, a native born Texan, will speak on the subject, "What Price Progress."

Principal issues to be discussed during the business session will include "Law and Corporate Encroachment on the Practice of the Law," "Raising the Standard for Admission to the Practice of the Law," and "The Self-Governing Bar Bill," Judge Ewing said.

Foreshadowing interest which will be taken in the matters to be discussed was the action of the Dallas Bar association and The San Antonio Bar association recommending drastic changes with reference to examination for admission to the practice of law in this state. Judge Ewing said it was expected that the argument in favor of the self-governing bar bill will be led by Harry Lowther of Dallas and the argument against it by W. P. McLean of Fort Worth.

Walter Scott of Fort Worth has been made chairman of a committee to provide a barbecue and entertainment for the second day of the convention.

Personally Judge Ewing favors raising the standard for admission to the practice of the law.

Mr. Littleton, who since his removal to New York has become one of the leading lawyers of the nation, was born in Parker county, not far from Mineral Wells.

Judge Ewing said advance registrations are running far ahead of any similar period in the half-century of the Association.

Rotarians Have Inter-City Session With Canadian

Twenty-two Pampa Rotarians enjoyed an inter-city club meeting in Canadian last night and presented the program of the evening.

Frank Foster, chairman of the inter-city relations committee, was in charge of the program. Mrs. M. J. Allen, president of the Canadian club presided over the meeting.

The address of greetings was given by Lynn Boyd, followed by a talk by Travis Lively on "Rotary Fellowship." Other numbers on the program were Piano solo by Mrs. May Foreman Carr, vocal solo by Malcolm Carr, accompanied by Mrs. Carr; reading, "The Wedding," by Mrs. Carson Loftus; solo by Mrs. Harry Lyman, accompanied by Mrs. Carr.

The address of welcome was by Carl Studer of the Canadian club. Those making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Loftus, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brashears, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Carr, and Mrs. Travis Lively, Bob Campbell, Otto Studer, Mrs. Mae Foreman Carr, Malcolm Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyman, and H. D. Keys. The meeting was held in the W. C. T. U. building.

PENNEY OPENS ANOTHER STORE

The 93rd store of the J. C. Penney company units located in Texas, opened its doors in Galveston this morning, according to H. D. Keys, manager of the local house in this nation-wide organization covering every state in the United States.

The Galveston unit is the 146th to be opened by the organization and will be under the management of V. Mercer, who goes to Galveston from Victoria, Texas.

The selection of Galveston for this new store unit is part of the general plan to bring its store units into the key cities of all states where present day conditions warrant the investment and energy incident to the opening of a large department store, according to the statement of Mr. Keys.

The first store of the J. C. Penney company to open its door in Texas, was located at Abilene and since its inception, the growth of the company in this state has been rapid and substantial.

In spring football practice at Wisconsin the first string line at one time was composed entirely of athletes who had at some time in their careers played backfield positions.

POLITICS at random

BY BYRON PRICE
(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

The democrats have arrived at a stage in their presidential tug-of-war where almost everything from now on depends on the six state delegations who will go to Chicago pledged to favorite sons.

If all, or nearly all, of them stand fast, Governor Roosevelt certainly will be defeated. If a considerable bloc of them stampede to him, he surely will be nominated.

The power of this group has been increased immeasurably by the Roosevelt defeat in Massachusetts and California.

Roosevelt no longer can expect to win without a struggle in the convention itself. He no longer can expect a sufficient number of recruits from the ranks of his major opponents; the battle has grown too bitter for that. The winning votes must come, if they come at all, from the favorite son states.

This means that from now until the roll calls are in progress at Chicago, the delegations from Illinois, Ohio, Missouri, Maryland, Oklahoma and Virginia will come under increasing pressure.

They will be told on the one hand that if they hold out their particular candidate may emerge the winner after the deadlock. They will be told on the other hand that unless they go to Roosevelt quickly, they may miss the bandwagon.

They are between the millstones.

Hew It Stands

Stated mathematically, the situation figures out like this:

Alfred E. Smith generally is conceded somewhere between 100 and 200 delegates. These delegates are almost solidly anti-Roosevelt, first and probably last.

The 44 won by John N. Garner in California were elected after a re-orientation campaign. The possibility that Garner's own state of Texas will switch its 46 to Roosevelt appears much more remote, now that California has joined the Garner movement.

Taking the Smith and Garner vote combined, there are, say, 275 on whom Roosevelt could not safely count at any time. It takes 110 more than this, or 385, to block a nomination.

Can Roosevelt prevent 110- or roughly half-of the 208 favorite son votes from going into solid combination with the Smith and Garner forces against him? That is the whole question.

Roosevelt's Claim

The Roosevelt claim of victory on an early ballot rests today on a supposition that considerably more than half of the 208 favorite son votes will switch without much delay to the Roosevelt column.

These suppositions—which have had no confirmation except from Roosevelt sources—are that Missouri soon will quit James A. Reed and give her entire 36 to Roosevelt; that the Illinois delegation will split away from James Hamilton Lewis and Roosevelt will get at least 30 of the 58; that after about four ballots, 30 or more of the Ohio delegation of 52 will leave George White for Roosevelt; that William H. Murray cannot control his Oklahoma delegation, but will lose most of the 22 to Roosevelt; and that neither Governor Ritchie of Maryland nor former Governor Byrd of Virginia will be disposed to hold out their respective delegations to the point of precipitation a party-rocking deadlock.

Harmony A Factor

However great his handicaps, it must be remembered that several important factors are fighting on the side of Governor Roosevelt.

He has not nationally strong candidate against. The party as a whole is anxious for harmony this year, and dreads a deadlock. And the anti-Roosevelt forces are made up of such diverse elements that a harmonious unity of command on the convention floor will be extremely difficult to achieve.

Candidate For State Office Is Visitor Monday

L. A. Woods of Waco, candidate for state superintendent, was here interviewing local school and business men Monday afternoon.

Mr. Woods is a native Texan, 48 years old, and holds the B. A. and M. A. degree from Baylor university. He taught in country and city schools, and is now serving his third term as county superintendent of McLennan county.

Mr. Woods' platform includes liberal support for both urban and rural schools without discrimination, more practical courses of study with greater emphasis given to essentials, and more economical management of the state department of education.

He was accompanied here by Prof. Frank R. Phillips of Canyon.

Lindbergh Case Is At Standstill

HOPEWELL, N. Y., May 11. (AP)—Two more developments in the investigation of the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby have failed to be of any help in the search.

Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of state police, said today a communication had been received from a resident of Gilmore, Tex., enclosing photographs of a baby. The pictures, sent in the belief they were of the Lindbergh baby, were shown to members of the family who stated they were definitely not photographs of the missing child.

A bottle was washed ashore at Long Branch, N. J., saying the Lindbergh baby might be found at Scotland, Light, about 5 miles off the coast. Police and coast guards searched the lighthouse and questioned the crew.

Hollywood Sights

BY ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—A studio at night is an eerie place, a walled village ceaselessly guarded and apparently unpeopled.

To gain admittance by daylight is simple, to an accredited reporter; by night credentials are worth less unless accompanied by a special pass.

The imposing front entrance is closed; at the rear gate, a barrier, an old watchman presides. Mostly, he sits in his little lighted cubbyhole of an office, by the telephone.

There is a radio broadcasting station, near by, and from it come sounds of dance music interpolated by staccato station announcements.

It Takes A Pass

You might explain, as I did, that you have an appointment with a writer working late inside; you might have the guard telephone the writer, who says let you through. But you still can't get in, without a pass. It's orders, sir, and he's sorry.

All right. We'll wait a while. Our friend will be out soon. The old guard is pleasant. He has been at that gate nine years. Yes, he knows most of the employes by sight. But he'll never forget the time, he didn't recognize the new boss. That was after the merger, when there were so many new faces from the other studio.

The hour strikes. Guards change every hour. The relief man emerges from a little room off the cubbyhole. The other wanders off on his beat. Thirty clocks to punch, he says.

His successor is glum, uncommunicative. A postman wheels up, leaves special delivery letters. Fans start, probably. The broadcasting station signs off.

What's Didn't Know Her

You smoke, tap your foot. The devil take friends who work in studios. At length a car draws up to the gate, seeking exit. In the car are a blond star, whom you recognize and her secretary. "Who are you?" the guard demands.

The blond lady replies, smiling "Ann Harding."

"Oh!" the watchman retreats, fumbling for words.

Well, if he doesn't recognize Ann Harding—

BACK SCHOOL SUPPER BRINGS NEEDED FUNDS

The pie supper held at the Back school house Monday was a financial success. It was reported today. Enough money was raised to assist the club in sending a girl to the Texas A. & M. short course this summer and to help pay expenses of the women's club. Many of the pies sold for over a dollar.

These from Pampa present were Miss Ruby Adams, county home demonstration agent, her guest, Miss Mildred Harrell of Memphis, county agent and Mrs. Ralph R. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Leach.

Thank You, Gene

If you have been seeking an adjective with which to describe "Heavyweight" Champion Max Schmeling, hunt no longer. Gene Tunney spilled the word in an interview the other day. It is "steadfast." That's adequate.

The Robot Pitcher

Somebody in San Francisco has invented a robot pitcher. The suggestion was made to the enterprising Lew Fomsetta, that he try to acquire the automatic finger for his White Sox. Mr. Fomsetta's reply was to the effect that he already had a whole beneficial of robot mountingsmen.

More About Sox

The Sox are hard ones to figure. It seems to be a good ball club on paper. But the boys do everything wrong on the field.

Louis Comiskey is generous and will pay well for meritorious performance. Fomsetta will be a good manager, too, after the newness of his executive position wears off. The trades, without exception, appear to have helped build the club. Maybe the poor showing is due to the fact that most of the players don't know one another's first names yet.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

With the picnic season upon us, the question of "how much" becomes important—how many sandwiches, how big a cake, how much salad, how much lemonade and coffee.

Outdoor appetites are usually above normal, and for service "a la buffet" larger quantities may be needed. But if the cook calculates on the basis of the needs of her own family, she can arrive at a fair conclusion.

The following calculations are estimated for the average occasion but my help in gauging the quantities required for individual needs:

One large cake ten inches in diameter will serve 16 persons.

One loaf of sandwich bread will make 24 sandwiches which have been cut in half.

Two-thirds cup creamed butter will spread both slices of 24 sandwiches.

wiches.

One pint sandwich filling will fill 24 sandwiches.

One quart of salad will serve 10 persons.

One four-pound chicken will yield about three cups of diced meat.

One 2 1/2 pound lobster will yield when boiled enough meat for one quart of salad in combination with other material.

One-half pound of coffee and four quarts of boiling water will make enough of the beverage to serve 15 people.

One and one-half dozen lemons will make lemonade to serve 20 to 25 persons, depending largely on the size and juiciness of the fruit.

One quart of a frozen mixture will serve six to eight persons. When ice cream means the main part of the refreshments a larger serving is needed.

One pound of salted nuts will serve 25 persons.

One pound of cold-boiled ham will serve six to eight persons, and one pound of meat loaf will provide for about the same number.

These suggestions are made with a balanced picnic meal in mind. If baked beans, potato salad, cold-boiled ham, meat loaf, meat sandwiches, cheese sandwiches, pie, cake and cookies are all in evidence with lemonade, ice cream and water, then for the "grand finale," the quantity of each viand should be very small indeed.

ASK REINSTATEMENT

ABILENE, May 11. (AP)—Pleading that their penalty was too severe for the offense, Cisco officials at Eastland last night asked the Oil Belt executive committee to recommend the reinstatement of their high school in the next football race. Cisco was suspended by the state interscholastic league several weeks ago for alleged irregularities in the transfer of quarterback Fred Hightower from Tyler. The district committee took no action last night and will meet in Abilene next Saturday.

Ed Zmotony of Skellytown was visiting in the city yesterday.

SYNOPSIS: When George Townsend leaves on a business trip with her employer, Gracie Matching, her cousin Jenny is left to look after George's new husband, Eddie, who has had a worse breakdown than George. Jenny, in order to keep her job, secretly loves George's friend, Aveney.

Chapter 21

HOLIDAY FROM FLYING
JENNY set her lips and unlocked the door.
There was no scuffling behind it this time—Eddie eagerly faced her; color was in his face and light in his eyes. Except for the bandages, he looked, for this moment, the big, confident, rather dense Eddie—the wonder "bird-man" who had held George's love. Jenny's heart ached for him.

to dinner, she again heard a plane go over the building. But Eddie, immensely amused by her encounter with the ogle, remained blissfully unaware; and she felt more hopeful about him. If he could be kept interested in other things for a while, he would surely recover!

"And so on Wednesday evening, Cinderella goes to the ball," she concluded lightly. "In a silver dress and silver slippers, all given her by her fairy god-mother."
"George?"
"George."
The laughter left his face. He began to rub his knee with his hand, an action she instinctively dreaded. She was just going to say "Don't worry!" when he said it.

"No use my worrying. I s'pose things'll come straight. And, anyway, it's all my fault for playing the fool with that car yesterday. Bit of a miracle you weren't either of you killed. George always said I was no good on the road. By the way—" the rubbing hand clenched as he turned piteous eyes upon Jenny—"you won't tell her, will you?"

"Tell her what, Eddie?" Jenny asked.
"Why, that I get nervous about about other chaps crashing on to me—and about the idea of going up myself."

Jenny set her lips and unlocked the door.

after a gulp of coffee. "I sort of collapsed. My nerves seem a bit upset. I get unable to move, even when I want to... I say, Jen, this coffee is coffee. Got any more?"
"Plenty." She poured it, her heart a little lighter. He refused to believe, apparently, that it was she who had kept George from him; but he was not angry with George, either, for going away without a good-bye. Or—was he angry? He looked unusually thoughtful.
"When George gets back," he said suddenly, "there's no reason why she and I shouldn't have our honeymoon and then settle down somewhere. Is there? After all, she was only going to keep on with this job of hers until I got back from Mexico—and I shan't be going to Mexico now."
"Don't you think," she ventured "that just because you can't go to Mexico, George had better hold on to her job for a time? Then you could keep your money—some of your money," she amended hastily as his frown deepened—"until you're flying again or—doing something else. In the meantime, you could rest and get your nerves back to normal. You need a holiday badly."

"I certainly won't tell her if you don't want me to."
"Thanks. I don't fancy George will have much use for me now you see."
His tone troubled her.
"I think you're wrong. George told me herself that she cares more about you than about her job."
"She hasn't said that since—" he pointed to his bandages.
"She has—she has!" Jenny was triumphant. "She told me just now while she was hurling her things to get her to go away. And she doesn't say such things lightly. Only, you see, Eddie, she's more practical and far-sighted than you or I; she loves you so much that she wants you to be quite free of worries while you're having your holiday. She said that, too. That's why she's determined to hold on to her job until you're flying again or until—" She hesitated for the alternative as she had hesitated before. "Or until you're doing something else. Instead."

He grinned wryly and she knew he wanted to say that there was nothing he could do but fly. But he was not grinning crookedly at her and presently he remarked:
"You're a good kid. I say, Jen, it's funny, but I feel better—steadier—when you're around. Kind of soothing, you are. Wonder if you could pull me round in time?"
Jenny flushed with pleasure. She looked into the big, bandaged, wistful face—and then her own went down upon her outspread arms and she was crying as she had not cried for years.
She felt Eddie hovering above her, concerned and sheepish.
With a great effort Jenny controlled herself and sat up.
"Nobody has ever really needed me before, in all my life. People always seem to be going away—and leaving me gaping after them."

Her voice trembled but she got up bravely. "I should like to try and cure you most awfully. And I believe I could, too!"

A note from Aveney explains to Jenny tomorrow why he broke his engagement with her.

Captain Townsend of Rangers Dead

SAN ANTONIO, May 11 (AP)—Captain Asa Light Townsend, member of the picturesque Texas rangers, died here last night in a room at a hotel.
Death came only a few hours after he and Ranger A. W. Dial had arrived from Wharton and Louise, where they had been working on an extortion case. The cause was believed to have been heart trouble which developed after the captain had spent many hours in the open Saturday and Sunday investigating the case, according to Ranger Dial who said he and his superior officer were bitten by mosquitoes and other insects. He said he believed

PYTHIANS TO ELECT

ADILENE, May 11 (AP)—Election of officers and selection of the 1933 convention city will feature closing sessions of the grand lodge of Texas, Knights of Pythias, and Grand Temple, Pythian Sisters, here today. The election probably will elevate John Lee Smith of Throckmorton from grand vice-chancellor to the chancellorship succeeding Royal G. Phillips of Tyler.
The exposure was indirectly responsible for his chief's death.
Mrs. Marguerite Townsend, a relative of the ranger captain, said she talked to him in the lobby a few minutes before his death. He complained then of feeling ill, she said.
Justice of the Peace Talbert returned a verdict of death from heart disease.

COTTON FIRM, QUIET

NEW ORLEANS, May 11 (AP)—Cotton experienced a firmer but quiet opening today. First trades showed gains of four points, although Liverpool cables were hardly as good as due. The market eased off one to two points after the start but soon rallied again in sympathy with a firmer opening in stocks and, as there was fair trade buying and covering by shorts, July advanced to 5.71, October to 9.92 and December to 6.07, or 8 points above yesterday's close.

WHEAT IS BULLISH

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—Much higher prices on grains early today resulted from the United States government crop report proving more bullish than expected. Initial strength of the New York stock market also was a stimulating factor. Opening 1 1/4 higher, wheat afterward rose further. Corn started at 1/2-3/4 gain and continued to rise.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—Wheat—No. 2 red 57 1/2; No. 3 red 56 1/2; No. 2 mixed 57 1/2.

Oats—No. 2 white 24 1/2; No. 3 white 23-24 1/2.
Wheat closed unsettled, 1/2-1 above yesterday's finish. Corn 3/4 up, oats 1/2 up, advanced and provisions 5 to 20 cents down.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Stocks: Irregular, rails sag on dividend uncertainties. Bonds: Irregular, U. S. governments steady. Curb: steady, oils continue firm. Foreign exchange: steady. German mark rallies. Cotton: Higher, improved trade demand, local covering. Sugar: lower, easier spot market. Coffee: quiet, steady Brazilian market.
CHICAGO: Wheat: firm, reports large export sales, bullish Kansas wheat estimate. Corn: steady, bullish government weather reports, firm foreign markets. Cattle: Irregular. Hogs: steady to weak.

GAS RULE—

tial capacity; that is to say, in any day of twenty-four (24) hours no well shall be permitted to flow or produce more than 25 per cent of the potential capacity thereof. This rule amends and supercedes General Rule 25 of General Rules and Regulations adopted by said Commission in Circular 14, revised May 1, 1931, with respect to the production from wells in said Panhandle District which produce gas only.
RULE 2. The daily volume of gas escaping into the air from wells producing both oil and gas (from the same horizon) shall be determined and reported monthly to the Commission. All residue gas going into the air from casinghead gas plants shall be metered and report of the daily volume of such gas shall be reported monthly to the Commission in such form as the Commission or its deputy supervisor in charge of said district shall prescribe.
RULE 4. Not more than ten thousand (10,000) cubic feet of gas per barrel of oil shall be used in the operation of gas lift.
RULE 5. No new connections of wells to lines supplying gas to casinghead gas plants shall be made without first securing permission to do so from the Deputy Supervisor in charge of said district.

Kansas Woman Of Prominence Is Taken By Death

One of the most prominent women of Western Kansas, Miss Edith Ann Lawson, 41, died at a local hospital at 12:30 o'clock last night. She had been ill several days.

The body will be sent today to Russell county, Kansas, for funeral services and burial. G. C. Malone funeral home has charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moyer, with whom Miss Lawson was visiting when she became ill, will accompany the body to Kansas.

Miss Lawson's mother died in Kansas in January, and she returned with the Moyers, who attended the funeral, to Pampa. She became ill about three weeks after she arrived here.

Miss Lawson was born in Russell county, Kansas, Oct. 3, 1890. She attended the University of Kansas. Later she was active in charitable work, business and politics. She was a well known patron of music and of the legitimate drama in Kansas. In her native county, she was active in welfare work and was noted as a patron of charity. She had traveled widely. Her family was well-known and wealthy.

Miss Lawson had an unusual personality and did unusual things, her friends here said. For a time she was sergeant-at-arms at the Kansas state capital at Topeka. Later she was a road-building contractor. Miss Lawson had no immediate relatives surviving her. Relatives now living include an aunt Miss Ida Hammond, Hanover, N. Y., whom she had not seen since childhood and several cousins now living in Kansas and other states.

CAUTIOUS RALLY

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—A cautious rally in the stock market today was upset by a contrary tendency in the rail shares. Early gains of 1 to 2 points were largely lost and the close found most of the list negligibly changed, with some losses of 1 to 2 points. The late tone was somewhat heavy but the day's turnover was only about 700,000 shares.

AT LA NORA

ROBERT MONTGOMERY

Comedy in the continental manner will be seen at the La Nora Theater today when Robert Montgomery's newest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "But the Flesh Is Weak," begins its run at that playhouse.

same." F. E. Leech declared this morning, and if one were to judge by the applause and laughter of the audience that was almost continuous through the three acts, practically everybody in the house would agree with Mr. Leech.

There was one thing unusual about the play that was commendable among the many praiseworthy features; the play started exactly on time. Prof. Warren Moore announced the curtain would rise at 8:15 p. m. and it did. The intermission between acts and scenes were short, and the play was over by 10:20.

The comedy was informal. The actors not only monopolized the stage but said their lines from the audience. One of the most amusing situations in the play was the dialogue between Edmond Whittenburg as Henry Ryan, amateur play producer, and his wife, Opal Denison, as Mrs. Ryan, who was seated six rows back in the audience.

the wets as A. J. Wirtz, former state senator, was endorsed for national committeeman. A referendum resolution was tabled at Waco and many of the smaller counties' democrats declared against any change in the prohibition law.

Roosevelt forces controlled the El Paso convention. The McClennan county democrats declared for Garner but they asked for the election of Archie Price of Waco, state secretary of the Roosevelt organization, as a delegate to the national convention. The Limestone county convention voted two to one to instruct for Governor Roosevelt as a second choice.

Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier of Corpus Christi was endorsed for reelection as national committeewoman with but few exceptions. Jed Adams of Dallas also received many endorsements for re-election as national committeeman but several conventions instructed for Dan Moody, former governor; W. A. Tarver of Corsicana, state life insurance commissioner, or Wirtz.

Many conventions asked that Gen. John A. Hulen of Fort Worth be named on the delegation to the national meeting. Moody, now living at Austin, will not be on the Travis county delegation. The county convention adopted a resolution barring anyone who did not attend his precinct convention and Moody had failed to attend. He said, however, he would be a delegate from Williamson county, his former home.

A Piece of the Sun

MacMillan, the great Arctic explorer, equipped his ship BOWDOIN with an electric light plant. During the long winter of darkness his ship was frozen into the ice and was visited by the Eskimo people. The fame of the wonders of that ship spread over the whole Arctic region during the next summer, and the following winter the number of curious visitor increased. Finally, from a great distance, came in state the greatest Chief of all.

What do you suppose the Chief and his people wanted to see? The piece of the Sun the "White Man" had captured and put in a bottle—THE ELECTRIC LIGHT BULB, nothing else on the ship interested the Chief. The light bulb fascinated him. Finally he offered MacMillan all his wealth—his wives and his bales of priceless furs—for that bottle that had in it part of the Sun.

We who have daylight winter and summer, and electric light at our disposal night and day, cannot appreciate what A PIECE OF THE SUN meant to the Eskimo chief.

With the coming of winter, light plays a more important part in home, office and factory. Electric light is the steadiest, most dependable light in the world—superior even to sunlight.

If you have a lighting problem, our Lighting Department will be glad to advise you.
