Denver Northern, Nearing Pampa, Makes Bid for Freight Business

TARIFFS ARE BEING PRINTED AT THIS TIME

HOGSETT SAYS ROAD'S SERVICE TO BE EXCELLENT

MAY BEGIN ON JUNE 15

DISTANCES TO PLACES ON LINE GIVEN TODAY

With the approach of steel rails to Pampa, the northern terminus of the new Fort Worth & Denver Northern railroad, the officials of the road are looking for business.

L. M. Hogsett, general freight agent who was in the city yesterday, said the line is expected to be open for commercial freight traffic about June 15. Tariffs to become effective at that time are in process of publication, he added. The road will have carload and less-than-carload rates to and from all points.

"We expect to have service between FW&DNV-B-BI railroad points as well as service and open routes over connections which will be as good or better than that now afforded the territory served by this new line," the freight agent asserted.

Freight stations on the new line, with distances from Pampa are: Childress, 111 1/2; Smithdale, 97 1/2; New Loco, 86 1/2; Wellington, 79 1/2; Sannorwood, 64 1/2; Shamrock, 52 1/2; Magic City, 39 1/2; Denworth, 25 1/2; Melinda, 19 1/2; Wesco, 13 1/2; LeFors, 13 1/2; Hico, 3 1/2. The distance to Fort Worth is 330 1/2 miles, and to Dallas is 364 miles.

Steel will be laid into Pampa before the end of this month, in the belief of Denver Northern officials. Steel has reached a point 8 miles southeast of LeFors. A delay of about two days will be necessary so that the bridge across the river can be finished. While the bridge work is being completed, siding will be laid at Denworth.

Mr. Hogsett was accompanied on the tour of inspection just completed by J. D. Farrington, general manager, and E. H. Durston, executive general agent. The party left here this morning, but Mr. Durston will return tomorrow for a short visit in this territory.

I HEARD--

That B. W. Barber Kelly will break forth in the biggest hat ever seen in Pampa during the Frontier Days celebration. Instead of the hat covering a block it will cover an acre. A barber shop will send the hat would also cover a "block."

That ladies may now smoke cigars. Harvester Drug has a ladies' cigar in stock. It is small, thin and mild, and equipped with a holder, which can be later used for cigarettes. Some of the boys have been seen sniffing on the ladies' rights.

Earl Talley, chairman of the barbecue, feed committee for Frontier Days, and his assistants Paul Crossman, Pug Meskimen, and E. J. Pafford, wondering who would peel the onions to go with the barbecue and rolls. Volunteers are being sought.

SHAVEN TO RUN
AUSTIN, May 20 (AP)—C. N. Shaver, appointed the office of state superintendent of public instruction after the death of S. M. N. Marrs, announced today he would be a candidate for an election term at the primaries.

Fred Hobart visited his parents here Wednesday.

Carrier Boys Ask Cooperation Of Their Patrons

Daily NEWS carrier boys—Pampa's little business men—today pointed out that Saturday is their day off.

With the Frontier Days celebration approaching, they need all the funds they can get. Some of them need money for food.

Their customers are urged to have the necessary changes when the boys call for their weekly payments tomorrow.

Indian Battle Will Be Related In Gray County

Your Sunday Pampa Daily NEWS will be of exceptional interest—you will wish extra copies to mail to friends.

Sunday's NEWS will tell all about the Frontier Days celebration, and hundreds of copies will be sent as invitations to persons who would enjoy the event.

Do you know early Panhandle history?

Do you know Gray county's history?

What do you know about old Fort Elliott and Mobeetie?

Do you know about a spectacular Indian battle which was fought in Gray county?

Read Sunday's Daily NEWS and save it for its historical value.

New Mexico politicians are fighting bitterly, which is about the best sign of returning normalcy we have seen lately.

Personally, if we could locate some of these fellows who are supposed to be hoarding so much, we think we could "touch" them for a loan, or at least a subscription. We don't know anybody who is hoarding very much.

Bad Doses

About the Flag
Here is a question for deliberation. Should the American flag be displayed on gala occasions, Frontier Days celebration days, and others not directly related to a governmental function? Veterans of the Carlisle, N. M. Legion post, after discussing a similar question, decided that the flag can be used as a welcome emblem providing it is properly mounted and cared for. No special emblems are necessary in a community, the Legion ruled. If this is wrong, we wish local authorities on the subject would telephone us at once. We'd like to know.

CHICAGO (AP)—Dean W. W. Whitehouse of Albion college believes couples should become acquainted before they marry. To that end he has proposed a "know-your-own-mate" week during which data on health, family background, education, earning ability, sense of humor, taste and temperament should be looked up.

TRIAL FOES IN NEW FEUD

By a strange coincidence, three figures prominent in the "political murder trial" of David Clark, former deputy district attorney at Los Angeles, are involved in a new court tangle. Clark was acquitted of slaying Herbert Spencer and Charlie Crawford. Ed Dudley, an investigator for the prosecutor, gathered evidence against Clark on the murder charge. Now Clark left in the inset below is defense attorney for Frank Clabby (right inset) who is charged with a monkey wrench attack on Dudley. Dudley is seen in the top picture with his pretty wife, who was Billie Rohrbach, also one of the state's witnesses against Clark.

SENATOR LAFOLLETTE ATTACKS OIL TARIFF AS MOVE TOWARD GENERAL LEVY REVISIONS

Senator LaFollette (R., Wis.) resumed the opposition attack as the coalition waited for a chance to vote, confident of a margin of one or two votes for the oil duty and the coal, copper and lumber rates.

"It is obvious now," LaFollette told the Senate, "that if these items remain in the revenue bill hundreds of other tariff amendments will be offered."

ROMANCE OF RAILROADING IS BEING ENACTED

TWO RAILS ARE LAID ON TIES EVERY 30 SECONDS

MEN ARE VERY SKILLFUL

LANDSCAPE TO SOUTH OF PAMPA VERY PLEASING

(By A. F.)

Men and marvelous machines are building the Fort Worth & Denver railroad toward Pampa at the rate of 36 feet per 30 seconds, barring time spent during mishaps and necessary delays.

Last night when the huge crane quit swinging steel rails from a flat car behind it to the ties, LeFors was only eight miles away. Each morning the construction train leaves camp with enough rails to lay two miles of track and the day's work is not done until the rails are laid.

When everything is running smoothly, two rails, each 36 feet long, are laid on the track every 30 seconds, but of course there are delays and mishaps, else the railroad would be built to Pampa in a dozen days.

One of these delays occurred yesterday afternoon when one of the two bolt-tightening machines went "haywire." The operator of the machine, a blonde young man with a lean, flinty face and eyes that did not blink, had lighted a cigaret in the flash of an instant while the machine was being moved from one rail section to the next. (The machines on the railroad never stop until something goes wrong with them.) Just about half of the nuts at the rail juncture had been

DR. CONDRON OF CANYON TO ADDRESS PAMPA HIGH SENIORS AT COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Baylor Professor Is Detained By Illness

Dr. S. H. Condron, head of the government department of the West Texas State Teachers college, will deliver the commencement address to 81 Pampa high school seniors at 8:15 o'clock this evening at the First Baptist church. Supt. R. B. Fisher announced this morning.

Physician's orders will keep Dr. T. D. Brooks of Baylor university who was to deliver the address, in bed at his home in Waco. Relatives of Dr. Brooks telegraphed last night that it would be impossible for him to come to Pampa. He has been ill all this week.

Dr. Condron is well-known throughout the Panhandle. He was dean of Clarendon college, now nonexistent, for many years. He has many friends and acquaintances in Pampa.

Preceding Dr. Condron's address, Mrs. May F. Carr, will play on the piano "Caprice Espagnole," Moskowski, one of the most celebrated compositions by the famous Russian composer. It reflects a warm, romantic mood of a somber Russian in a Spanish manner.

A professional, a march from Verdi's "Rigoletto," will be played by Ernest Kreiger on the violin and Mrs. Carr at the piano.

J. M. Daugherty of Hoover, vice-president of the school board, will award the honors and diplomas. The seniors will wear their caps and gowns. The program will start promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

Couple Injured In Car Accident

The narrow road at the long hill on the Clarendon road claimed two more automobile accident victims yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock when Mr. and Mrs. John Beverly were painfully injured in the car in which they were riding overturned. Both are patients at Worley hospital.

Mrs. Beverly suffered a fractured collar-bone, painful abrasions on the limbs, body and face, and Mrs. Beverly suffered severe bruises on the body and face.

The accident occurred when Mr. Beverly attempted to avoid collision with a truck that was pulling a car out of the ditch near the bridge at the foot of the hill. The Beverly car overturned.

The injured couple was brought to Pampa by J. E. Robbins.

Jesse Goad of Miami was in town this morning.

DEFENSE MOTION DENIED

JUDGE WILSON TO ACT ON ISSUES LATE IN TRIAL

AMARILLO, May 20. (AP)—Federal Judge James C. Wilson today overruled motions for instructed verdicts for nine of the 16 Gray county men on trial here for conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws.

Judge Wilson held that it would be necessary to go into the testimony recorded in the trial since Monday for him to consider instructed verdicts for any of the defendants. He said, in overruling the motions, that he would consider each defendant separately in charging the jury, or when the testimony was completed.

Although no formal ruling had been given, defense and government attorneys were agreed on instructed verdicts for C. E. Pipes, former deputy sheriff, and Arthur H. Cornett, on the grounds that testimony was insufficient to connect them with the conspiracy.

A blanket motion for instructed verdicts for all of the defendants, filed when the government rested late yesterday, was overruled last night.

With these motions out of the way, the defense swore 19 witnesses, and it was indicated that the trial would continue well into next week.

Former Sheriff E. S. Graves of Pampa was the second defense witness called to the stand. He was

AN APPEAL TO PAMPANS

(EDITORIAL)

This is an appeal to the manhood and womanhood of Pampa.

Tickets at special reduced rates (6 for $3) are on sale for the Frontier Days celebration. No donations are asked, but the tickets must be sold to prevent a large financial loss. The issue is squarely before the citizenship.

Many persons have been and are yet working day and night to develop something permanently worthwhile for our home city. Let us set the precedent of avoiding contributions for this event. The solution is easy—just buy a book or two of the tickets.

There will be full value for every ticket. Buy your tickets now for the family and for the friends who will come here for the celebration. You will save substantially by purchasing now and you will be so doing advance funds needed to defray necessary expenses. If you are a merchant, perhaps you can work out a means of passing a saving in tickets on to your customers. At any rate, BUY TICKETS NOW!

Other people of the plains are enthusiastic over the Frontier Days idea. Can we who have launched the project afford to show less interest? Put your answer into real Pampa loyalty by buying your tickets now. Any Junior chamber of commerce or B. C. D. member can supply them, or you can call the B. C. D. or The NEWS to have the books sent out. Won't you do this for Pampa?

COACH MITCHELL LOOKING TO SANDIES FOR BIGGEST RIVALRY IN COMING FOOTBALL SEASON

Coach Odus Mitchell, speaking to a radio audience from an Amarillo station, revealed that he was praying for a "dark horse" year in football and hoping that Harvester park would prove the best breeding ground.

Answering questions connected by Cal Farley, he made the following replies: 1. Our prospects have never been better for a hard-hitting team.

2. We lose from our backfield "only" Captain Ray Christian, Pest Martindale, Joe Kahl, Paul Hill, Red East, Bill Ragsdale, and Morris Enloe.

3. I think the new transfer rule is not fair to boys moving and becoming benefice residents of a new town. We did not need new rules—just the old rules enforced.

4. We are glad to have Berger in Class A football. I think they have a good coach in Noble Atkins, and I hope they tend to decrease the rivalry between the Harvesters and Sandies by making more competition for both teams.

5. Joe Kahl, in spring practice, did wonders with the ball, but he has decided to graduate; so I don't with it. A nervous player gets state quicker. At least it doesn't help to get into that kind of mix-up. I think Chapman (Lubbock) did a good job of holding his team up there.

6. I think the Harvesters will have the most serve test they have ever had this coming year when they meet the Sandies.

7. A team reaches its peak at a certain time and holds it for an uncertain period. It's up to the coach to maintain the morale of his squad.

8. We are just hoping for the best.

PUBLIC FORUM

Editor, The News: Enclosed find stamps for which please run the following: Unnumbered and alone, refined middle-aged Christian woman, good health, wants home.

9. I think a coach can never tell just how his team is going to perform. Sometimes the team with the brightest prospects will have a bad season and a team with no chance to win comes along with a big up-set.

10. I really think Amarillo has the chance of a life time to win not only the District but the state next year.

Sheriff and Mrs. Lon L. Blanscet and daughter, Lola Mae, and Herbert Blanscet returned from Sayre this morning after visiting Mrs. J. D. Blanscet, mother of Sheriff Blanscet and Herbert Blanscet, who is critically ill. Mrs. Herbert Blanscet remained in Sayre to nurse Mrs. Blanscet.

PARENTS, TEACHERS END SUCCESSFUL YEAR'S WORK

Former Pupils Bring Honor to Junior High

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED BY ORGANIZATION

SCHOOL CAFETERIA IS MAIN PROJECT OF GROUP

Installation of officers for the high school Parent-Teacher association yesterday afternoon closed a year which has been very profitable because of service rendered to the school.

The outstanding among the year's accomplishments is the sponsoring of a cafeteria in cooperation with the Junior High school Parent-Teacher association. At this cafeteria students of both schools have secured hot noon meals for a very nominal sum, and needy pupils have been fed without charge. Scholarship has been given special emphasis during the year, and plans have been purchased for the pupils in the National Honor society.

Yesterday's meeting proceeded as follows: Reading of minutes, Mrs. C. P. Buckley, treasurer's report, Mrs. C. Bass Clay, secretary's report, Mrs. Buckley; presentation of cafeteria debt plan; talk on the various things (good citizenship being the most outstanding) which bring about the splendid school system, Bells of the Sea, Joe Kahl; ten of Pampa, Supt. R. B. Fisher; popular selection, Dorothy Dodd and Dorothy Doucetis, accompanied by Jackie Jones; solo, "Into the Dusk," Howard Zimmerman, who took first place in Junior boys' baritone division of the recent music contest.

Mrs. J. L. Lester presided for the installation of the following officers: President, Mrs. Harry Martin; vice-president, Mrs. Fannie May; secretary, Mrs. J. H. Marshall; treasurer, Mrs. E. Bass Clay; historian, Mrs. Frank McNeill.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. McNeill, who served as president during the last year, and it was voted to buy her a past-president's national association pin.

Interest Will be Added to Many Tables as Result of School Here

The stay of Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, who closed The NEWS cooking school in Pampa today, will leave a lasting impression in Pampa homes, and scores of tables will hold new interest as a result of the suggestions given.

Following are the recipes offered yesterday:

Brown Muffins
4 tbsps. Mrs. Tucker's 1-3 cup syrup, 1 egg, 2-3 cup Gray County milk, 2 cups Great West flour, 1 cup bran, 3 teasp. K. C. baking powder, 1 teasp. Morton's salt.

Fill muffin pan half full. Lay slice of melba peach on top of each muffin. Bake in White Star oven 20 to 25 minutes at 425 degrees.

Broiled Liver with Banana Birds
Pour lemon juice over banana; wrap thinly sliced bacon around the banana spirals and fasten with a toothpick.

Cut liver about 3/4 inch thick and trim edges; broil lightly with bananas. Add a bit of Mrs. Tucker's to the juice in the pan, season with Morton's, Tabasco, paprika, and pepper, and pour over the liver.

Seafood Salad
Mix well.
2 cups seafood, 1 cup sliced celery, 4 hard cooked eggs chopped. Serve with Ravigote.

Navigote Dressing
Mash 2 egg yolks, 2 tbsps. salad oil, 2 tsp. Gray County cream, 1 1/2 tbsps. vinegar, 1/2 teasp. Morton's, 1 drop Tabasco.

Mixed Grill
A T-bone steak, four lamb chops, four pork chops, a few frankfurters, and several tomatoes cut in half-moons are placed on the broiler pan. This is placed near the flame until seared on one side. Turn and cook about 10 minutes. The meat should be reduced if medium or well done steak is preferred. Turn again and cook side seared. First, mortonize to taste, remove to platter, and decorate with parsley, beets, potatoes or lemon. Four meat juices over all.

Called "Hell Cat"
PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Not that she gives a bang, but Mrs. Edward M. Biddle has been called a "hell-cat" and has been snubbed by many of her friends, she says, since she returned last month from Alaska. Just the same she's going again in a couple of years.

The society woman made a solitary trek up beyond the arctic circle, became snowbound for weeks and found a lot of material for a book.

It was for leaving her lawyer-husband to take the adventure laud, she declared, that some of her friends have turned their backs on her.

Thomas, and children, Mrs. M. P. Downs who was nurse in the school district, Miss Mabel Davis, county treasurer and Sheriff and Mrs. Lon L. Blansett.

Another noisy and animated feature of the program was the "Strawberry Roan," bucking Ford owned by the Frontier Days advertising outfit. Dressed in rodeo regalia, G. C. Hubbard and Paul Crossman took the roar to Hopkins this morning. A fee of 25c was charged for riding it. A prize was due to be awarded to the winner of the bucking contest. Next week the "roan" will be taken to Amarillo and the boys of Sandler town will be given a chance to ride her.

REMARKABLE RECORD MADE DURING YEAR

The valedictorian, the most useful citizen, and the most popular girl in Tyler high school all are from Pampa!

POPULARITY, SERVICE AND SCHOLARSHIP RECOGNIZED

Explanation is given in the following letter written to Supt. E. B. Fisher by Mrs. D. W. Casfield, formerly of Pampa but now living in Tyler:

"Dear Mr. Fisher: Knowing your interest in your pupils and former pupils, I'm writing you of a trio of your former girls, a rather unique coincidence, we think. The three girls, Christine Manning, Louis Bryson, and Juliette Jane Canfield, were in your Junior high school last year, seventh grade. All moved to Tyler, and this year were in the eighth grade at Roberts high school.

During the first semester in a popularity contest Christine Manning was voted the most popular girl in the school. Recently when the Rotary club made its choice for the boy and girl whom they honored as the most useful citizen in the school, it gave the honor to Louis Bryson for the girl. Then, the honor of being valedictorian of her class has fallen upon Juliette Jane, having an all-A average.

"These girls have many friends in Pampa and we know that you and Mr. Selby will be glad to follow former pupils in any success."

"If you care to give the story to Mrs. Hinkle, it will be all right."

Laketon Supper To Draw Citizens

The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development goodwill committee and local business men will go to Laketon tonight to attend a pie supper. Persons who will not be attending commencement exercises are urged to make the trip to Laketon.

Cars will leave the city hall at 7:30 o'clock. There will be plenty of room for those who do not have cars. Travis Lively, chairman of the committee, will lead the group. He is anxious that a large party go.

Scout Camp Is Being Planned

Preliminary plans for the summer camp for the Adobe Walls council, Boy Scouts, were made at a meeting of the executive board in Panhandle last night. Sam Lanning, chairman of the committee, was instructed to go ahead with plans for the camp and that final action would be taken after a survey to find out how many would attend could be made.

It was suggested that the camp be held at Red River, N. M., where the most successful camp ever held was located last year.

Finance drives were also discussed. Berger and Panhandle drives are under way. Pampa's drive will be some time in June. Those attending from Pampa were A. A. Hyde, president of the council, C. A. Clark, executive, V. Darnell, Dr. C. H. Schultky, and Clifford Solomon.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 20.—Governor William F. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray of Oklahoma, democratic presidential aspirant, arrived in Albany today en route to the apple blossom festival at Hudson, N. C.

As the governor alighted from the train which brought him into the home state of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, leading contender for the democratic presidential nomination he was asked:

"What do you think about Roosevelt, Governor?"

"Well, Roosevelt's a good fellow," Murray replied. "What does he know about what should be done. This thing is going to blow up in the next four years if we don't do something."

BORGER HURLER SINGLES IN NINTH TO WIN OWN GAME

LOCAL TEAM MUFFS CHANCE TO HOLD FOES

BOY PITCHER RELIEVED WHEN SUPPORT CRACKS

Johnnie Meeks, Borger relief hurler, won his own game from the Coltexo-Phillips-LeFors nine at Magnolia park yesterday afternoon when he hit a single in the ninth inning to score Fahrga. The home team had the score and each in the last half of the eighth but went out in order in the ninth to let Borger win 5 to 4.

A couple of bobbles by the home infield in the fourth inning handed the Phillips aggregation the lead on a platter. Jimmie Baldwin pulled the first one when he took a hot grounder, at short and failed to throw home to cut off a run. He held the ball a moment and then threw to first but Jimmie Marshall forgot to put his foot on the bag and everyone was safe.

Clemens, 17-year-old pitcher from the Phillips company in the south Pampa field, started the game and was going strong when his support cracked momentarily and he was relieved in the fifth. Clemens struck out six of Borger's big batsmen in the four innings he worked. Two whiffed the air in the first inning and one in each of the other innings. Only nine men faced the youth in the first three innings and not a ball was hit to the outfield.

Freshour, Dallas Indian, relieved Clemens and pitched winning ball but had tough luck responsible for both scores. He fanned four Bored altogether on a fast ball and a rer batsmen. While Clemens' fast knuckle ball with plenty of hop to it, Freshour used a nice change of pace and side-arm delivery that was deceptive.

Lefty Dillon, Borger oldtimer, went six innings for the "66" outfit before being relieved by Meeks, formerly of the Western association. Dillon sent nine batters to the showers via the strikeout route in the six innings he worked. He struck out the side in the sixth inning when two runs were scored.

Weathered, Magnolia star, was the stick wielder of the day, with three clean singles. He also scored one run. Newsome followed with two hits and one run. Kirkpatrick and Freshour scored the other runs. Freshour's run came as the result of heady base work. He stole second and third and came home on a squeeze play.

Holland, Hart and Nelson each connected for two of Borger's hits. Richardson scored two runs, one being the result of an intentional walk, but a pinch hitter came through with the necessary single. Emory, Lane and Fahrga scored the other Borger runs.

Dillon and Meeks allowed nine hits while Clemens and Freshour allowed 10.

Proceeds of the game went to the Boy Scouts to assist in the summer camp.

Score by innings:

Phillips '66	R. H. E.
Coltexo-Phillips	5 10 3
Batteries: Phillips, Dillon, Meeks, and Bailey, Coltexo-Phillips, Clemens, Freshour and Pulliam. Umpires, Pace and Caddy.	4 9 1

WALBERG HAS LOST ABILITY TO WIN TILTS

FORMER STAR WILL BE SHELVED, UNLESS HE CHANGES

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Connie Mack, able leader of the Athletics, appears to have lost hope that Rube Walberg, the big left-hander who won 20 games for him last year, will recover his winning form and be of any material assistance in the current flag race.

Walberg, one of the big factors in the A's drive to a third straight American league pennant last season, had been a great disappointment. He has started five games, been knocked out of the box the same number of times and is charged with four losses and no wins.

Mack as a result, has about quit starting his former star and has fallen back of Grove, Earnshaw and Mahaffey to carry the burden but, with all his pitching problems, Connie Mack still can smile when he observes the way Jimmy Fox is belting the ball. He came up in the first inning yesterday with the bases loaded and cracked the pellet over the left field stands for his 11th homer and enough runs to beat Boston, 4-2.

Forty-nine thousand fans suffered at Yankee stadium as Washington captured both ends of a double-header, 8-6 and 12-7, and went into a virtual tie with the Yanks for the American league lead. In both games the slugging Senators came from behind with a murderous attack in the late innings. The Chicago Cubs went 12 innings to win from Cincinnati, 4-3, and increase their lead in the national. Riggs Stephenson was the winner's batting hero, his double driving in the tying run and averting defeat in the tenth and his single putting across the winning score in the 12th.

Pittsburgh got to Joe Shaute and Jack Quinn for two runs in the last of the eighth to edge out Brooklyn in their final, 3-1.

J. B. Oswald of Mobetie made a business trip to the city yesterday.

MAGS' GAME IN AMARILLO IS CANCELED BY MANAGER

White Sox Will Meet Sooner Team Instead—Locals To Play LeFors Sunday.

Dirty Waller of the Amarillo White Sox called up Business Manager Rayburn Burke of the Magnolia "Mags" late yesterday and unceremoniously informed him that the White Sox had decided not to play the "Mags" under lights in Amarillo tonight.

He said that the Pampa game had been arranged to take the place of the Texopa-Willow, Okla., team who couldn't make the grade at first, but who later called and said it could play.

The "Mags" will meet the Coltexo-Phillips-LeFors nine in LeFors Sunday afternoon in a return game. The Pampa nine won the first decision here by a one-run margin last month.

The LeFors aggregation has been strengthened since the first encounter and should give the Pampans plenty of trouble.

Casey will probably be in the box for the "Mags." It will be his first appearance in the box this season. His showing in recent workouts has made Manager Rusty Cahill believe that he has found a real ace.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press
Sam West, Senators—Drove in five runs with home run and two singles in second game against Yankees.
Leon Chagnon, Pirates—Pitched two hitless innings as relief hurler and enabled Pirates to beat Dodgers, 3-2.
Riggs Stephenson, Cubs—His single in 12th drove in winning run against Reds.
Jimmy Fox, Athletics—Clouted 11th homer with three on in first to beat Red Sox, 4-2.

BEAUMONT AT TOP OF TEXAS LEAGUE NOW

DEFEATS LONGVIEW IN CLOSE GAME BY 6-5 SCORE

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
At last the Texas league has an undisputed leader in Beaumont. The first place ties that have featured the race for several days disappeared yesterday when Dallas and Houston lost while Beaumont won to step out as master of the pennant parade.
Beaumont defeated Longview, formerly Wichita Falls, 6 to 5. Ervin

Fox was the hero. He socked one to left field for a triple, scoring Easterling, who had walked.
Rabbit Benton's single in the ninth with the bases loaded was the blow that dropped Houston for a 4 to 3 defeat last night against Tyler. All the scoring was reserved for the ninth. George Ciesler, Tyler manager led his boys to victory by hitting a double and three singles. Carey's triple and Gene Rye's home run featured Houston's attempt to win the game in the last of the ninth.
Behind the determined pitching of Fabian Kowalk, San Antonio beat Fort Worth, 4 to 3. Kowalk retired the Cats in the ninth with the bases full to gain victory.
Dallas bumped into a 4 to 1 defeat last night at Galveston. Thor-mahlen, portly Galveston southpaw, held the Steers to four hits. He struck out nine and hit three times out of four trips to the plate, scored two runs and drove in another.
Fred L. Vance of Dallas is here on business this week.
Mrs. George Stevens of LeFors was a Pampa shopper yesterday.

RAILROADING

Sophisticated
The young foreman swore dispassionately for a minute through grim lips and pushed the useless machine off the track. During all that time he did not remove the cigarette from his lower lip where it hung with amazing tenacity, and incidentally out idea of sophistication is to be able to preserve such an expressionless face, swear as dispassionately and hold a cigarette on the lower lip in such a manner.
Men are more interesting than machines, and it seemed to us who are not used to such contraptions, that the men working on the railroad have all the desirable masculine traits one could desire. It was not as if one would see a man in a new Packard and admire the machine more than the man. The composer of the song, "I've Been Working on the Railroad," never saw the kind of men working on the Denver

When they hit at a spike with a 10-pound sledge hammer they hit it. They never miss. They are masters of the machines they operate. Their bare shoulders are brown. Their faces are composed. They are a splendid sight to watch, and the pastoral beauty of the North Fork forms a splendid background for them.
No Negroes
Every workman on that railroad was white—no negroes nor Mexicans, as rumor had it. Some of the men had only one eye, but the one-eyed men could drive spikes as skillfully as the men with two good ones.
Briefly, here is how the road is being built. First, about a mile east of the place where track is being laid is a string of box cars full of cross ties. Men with trucks haul the ties to the road bed and keep about a mile ahead of the rail-laying gang. These truck drivers seemingly never follow the same route. They strike out across the country, traversing "breaks", canyons, rivers, but they always reach their destination. They plow through fences in the manner of an army tank;

we know because Hans Davis, our driver, followed such a truck. One could believe that the railroad says to the truck drivers, "here are the ties, you have a truck, a mile to the west is the place to unload the ties—get there the best way you can." It does not matter that the truck driver will travel 10 miles before he gets there. Everybody working on that railroad is extremely original.
Laying the Rails
Heading the construction gang is the huge crane swinging rails on to the ties. As previously stated, two rails, each 36 feet long, are laid parallel to each other every 30 seconds. Three men in the crane cabin operate the crane. Behind the crane on a flat car is a man with a red flag. He lets the engineer sitting at the throttle of a four-wheel-4 eight cars back know when to push and when to stop. Behind the flagman are the rail cars. Behind the rail cars is another crane that lifts the rails one by one on to a roller from which they are snatched by the first crane.
When the rails are first laid on to the ties, they are bolted together but the nuts are not tightened. A spike is driven in. Behind the rail-laying gang is a crew of workmen who drive in spikes at every ninth tie, but just about one-third of the way. Next is another spike-driving crew that drives in spikes at every tie about one-third of the way.

Then come the bolt-tightening machines and the last crew comprises four men with pneumatic hammers. Each man shoves his pneumatic hammer over the head of the spike that is driven one-third of the way in and in two seconds the head of the spike is down.
Ballasting is Next
In two or three days, a ballasting crew will place rocks and gravel under the ties, raising the rails to the proper level, and when this work is finished the road will be ready for travel—and there is your railroad!
What makes railroad travel desirable or undesirable is the scenery, and the landscape from Pampa to about 15 miles east of LeFors will accommodate passengers on the Denver Northern trains. For miles the road follows a height on the south bank of the river, and the view, beautiful in a classic manner yesterday. The cottonwoods on the river in groups of one, two and three, and the smooth green hills beyond, their rounded tops of the landscape of Ancient Greece one sees on tapestries and on urns.
The grades and cuts on that 25- and 30-mile stretch, high grades and deep cuts, are objects of admiration. It is now predicted that the first passenger train from Pampa south will carry about half of the population.
ALLRED WILL SPEAK
AUSTIN, May 20.—Attorney General James V. Allred planned to deliver an address tonight at the graduating exercises of Yorktown high school. He was scheduled to leave tomorrow to deliver the comment address Tuesday at the Cumberland school of law at Lebanon, Tenn., from which he graduated.

M'Lean To Vote on Gas System as Civic Enterprise

M'LEAN, May 20.—An election has been called by the city council for the second Tuesday in June to determine whether a city-owned gas system shall be installed.
The city obtained a favorable decision from the railroad commission on the rate case, but the gas company immediately filed injunction proceedings, so that no relief has been obtained.
On account of its failure to pay the franchise tax, the gas company may forfeit its right to operate here, city officials state.

You Can't Marry

by Julia Cleft-Addams

SYNOPSIS: "Choose between me and your job," Eddie Townsend tells his wife, George. To keep his employer from discharging her—she has had threatened, should she leave—Eddie has arranged her job. Now that Eddie is sure she must keep up the deception...

Chapter 29

THE MOST SUBTLE ENEMY
She made a grimace at herself in her mirror and then, casually, her attention was caught by the beauty of the room reflected behind her. For a moment she was absorbed in it, delighted, completely satisfied. Everything else was swept from her mind.

That ash-gray furniture, with its touches of ebony, was perfect of its kind. The peacock silk on the low bed gleamed, the lace fall creamily, the door of the huge wardrobe slipped suddenly ajar as though it invited her to see the frocks that Jenny had hung, each on its scented hanger, upon the long, polished baner. With a gasp of pleasure, Georgia rose, flung the cupboard door wide, and ran the clothes up and down the rail, steeping her senses in the color and the touch of them. Finally she chose a tea-gown of her favorite apricot. In the dressing-chest she found the lingerie that matched it, and some where, she remembered, she had doll gold, brocade shoes.

While she bathed and powdered and scented herself, while she brushed her hair until it shone and tended her nails, she looked back at her life and smiled. People said that she had showed courage and initiative and endurance in her job; but the truth was that these things came naturally to her and so she succeeded where others failed. No merit about that. But now she was fighting the most subtle enemy in the world—her love for Eddie—her own deep desire to follow him even to the world's end.

She would win. She was determined to win. She knew what was best for Eddie, she thought; and what would keep their love alive and what would starve it slowly to death.

She gave a final touch to her lips and swung out of her room; at the other end of the little hall, the kitchen door stood open and she saw the remains of a meal. A homely brown teapot, a loaf, and a big cinnamon cake stood on a checked tablecloth.

George glanced in as she passed by and frowned. That expensive servant, engaged by Jenny, ought to be in charge. She had no business to go out at this time, with her work unfinished and a dinner to cook. George's color was rising as she went into the sitting-room.

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 20 (AP) Balked in renewed efforts to induce Rev. H. One was a "known gangster" who was understood to have said in Maryland before the body was found that the baby was dead.

"Practically fair weather" for the Frontier Days celebration next Thursday Friday and Saturday was promised this morning by A. O. (Friday) Brandin, the courthouse weather prophet.

"Friday" did not hesitate two seconds in making the prophecy. "The weather will be practically fair." He said it just like that, sort of emphatic-like. "Friday" said there might be showers between now and then, and there might even be showers during those three days, but if so they will be nothing more or less than "fast-settlers."

RACIAL PREJUDICES SHOWN TO CAUSE NATIONAL HATRED —STUDENT WRITES ON TOPIC

(Editors note: The following essay took second place in Pampa Rotary club's contest on the subject of international relations. Its author is Bessie Stein, high school student.)

Because of the tense feeling at present of people all over the world in connection with that delicate topic, disarmament, there has come into being the widely felt need for some tangible method of promoting understanding, good-will and cooperation in this closely knit world of ours.

Peace is essential to the economic recovery of the world, and it cannot be secured by force or violence. The old maxim, "If you want peace, you must prepare for war," is generally discredited. Any attempt nowadays by one or a group of states to enforce peace by dominating the rest of the world is out of the question. As President Hoover has said, "International confidence cannot be built upon fear—it must be built upon goodwill. The whole history of the world is filled with chapter after chapter of the failure to secure peace through either competitive armament or intimidation."

An almost unsurmountable obstacle in the path of international friendship is the national pretensions of the countries of the world. Formerly geographers divided mankind into five races: white, black, yellow, brown, red. Nowadays few are satisfied with this classification. The dividing lines between these five races are far from distinct. Today the question of race purity has become all over the world a subject of so many political controversies and claims that the significance of the word has caused racial prejudice, exaggerated pride, and national self-glorification. The world is in need of a new way of teaching history which will not give the children of our country merely a chronological list of kings and generals, war and massacres, but a normal picture of the various countries, and a sympathetic understanding of the minds of other peoples. This would result in a broader type of patriotism and in a knowledge that exclusiveness is no longer possible. The question can be profitably investigated only if we approach the subject in a spirit of human brotherhood and sympathy, free from racial, national, or religious prejudice.

The problem of arriving at world peace by understanding and goodwill between the nations has been hitherto the preoccupation of scholars, idealists, and diplomats. It has now passed into the hands of the practical man of affairs.

This fellowship which will extend to all humanity will also quicken our conscience towards the lower classes who always bear the brunt of wars between nations. We must realize, however, that while

Brownbilt Shoes Lighten Fatigue Of Cooking Expert

There are three main reasons why Mrs. Leona Ihrig wears Brownbilt shoes during the Pampa NEWS cooking school. First, Brownbilt shoes are built to support the heel bone which is usually considered not important; second they have a flexible shank, and third they have cushion soles.

Mrs. Ihrig secured her shoes from Joe Lazarus at the Brownbilt store. Mr. Lazarus had the right shoes and Mrs. Ihrig was not delayed in selecting her footwear. Mr. Lazarus also carried Brownbilt shoes for men and Buster Brown shoes for the children.

we exalt world peace, we must not allow ourselves to be swept from our moorings and to be tossed about in a sea of idealism. Peace propaganda alone will not give peace to the world. Nations are not going lightly cast to aside the instruments and methods of the old order until there is evidence that their economic needs will be adequately dealt with by the new order.

If we want to develop real and true international friendship and cooperation, it is necessary to face the facts. We must not be romantic or doctrinaire in this matter. Unless we can strengthen all the elements of good-will existing between nations and strive to create fresh ones, unless we can promote this brotherhood of mankind into the furtherance of service and fellowship, we can hope for nothing more than that which has taken place in the past, wars and open international disruption.

C & C System Furnishes Foods For Big School

Mrs. Leona Ihrig did not hesitate when asked where she wanted to get her groceries and meats for the Pampa NEWS cooking school. She immediately said the C & C System stores. She learned before coming to Pampa that the C & C System had moved into new and larger quarters and had a fully equipped meat department where she could secure anything she wanted on short notice.

"Everything in the store seems so clean and nice that it is a pleasure to shop in the C & C," Mrs. Ihrig says. "Their meats are well cut and fresh and I have had wonderful success with roasts and other meats cooked during the school."

Fresh fruit and vegetables also were supplied the cooking school.

GOING TO GERMANY

AUSTIN, May 20.—Dr. James R. Bailey, professor of organic chemistry at the University of Texas, has been invited to deliver an address at the University of Frankfurt, Frankfurt, Germany, in July. Dr. Bailey will lecture on some phase of petroleum bases, a project on which he is now engaged in research work. He will sail from Baltimore on June 22 and reach Frankfurt in time for his address on July 2. He will return the latter part of August.

Dr. Bailey has been named university research professor for 1932-33. His work will center on various aspects of petroleum bases.

Summer Round-Up Of Children Is Principal Task

By Mrs. R. D. Land
Every organization has some object in view as its ultimate goal. The LeFors Parent-Teacher association has tried to do all the well-fare work possible and do for the school the little things that count for so much. This year the association gave two banquets, one for the football boys and the other for the basketball girls. But the principal goal was to try to help the children who will enter school next year by putting over the summer round-up.

As some of the parents had an erroneous idea of what we were trying to do, not all the children were in the round-up. Fifty-three children were examined, and 14 were found to be normal.

Some few of the children need tonsils removed, and several have teeth which need attention. Two or three need a blood purifier. The school board and teachers, as well as the Parent-Teacher association, hope that the corrections can be made this summer, and it is the purpose of the Parent-Teacher association to endeavor to have the work done as cheaply as possible. By working together we may work wonders, singly, we do little.

GUS MORELAND MUST DEFEND TITLE IN TEXARKANA SOON

Champ Looms as Chief Threat to Anyone Desiring to Annex His Crown.

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, May 20. (AP)—Gus Turner Moreland, Texas amateur golf champion, will be called on to defend his title from May 24 through May 28 at Texarkana at the annual state championship tournament. When Moreland is called at the starting tee, the defending champion will be ready with the same game that won him eight out of nine major Southwestern tournaments last year. He will be there with the game that qualified him for the national amateur with a score of 73-76-149, that made him second low.

It is the consensus that regardless of how large the field is at Texarkana, it will have Moreland to beat. The young Dallas ace is bidding for a place on the United States Walker Cup team and he realizes that winning the state championship for the second consecutive time will be a help.

Moreland, beyond doubt, is the same capable golfer this season that he was last year. He started his 1932 tournament tour by finishing second in the Texas Open against some of the best professionals in the country. Moreland's card of 149-139-288 was only one stroke more than that of Clarence Clark, professional, who won the tournament.

From the Texas Open Moreland went to the annual Houston Country club invitation where he beat Johnny Dawson, crack Chicago amateur, 2 and 1 in the final. Moreland was also medalist in the Houston invitation in a play-off against young Willie McGuire. In the play-off, Moreland shot a 72.

From the Houston invitation, Moreland trekked to the Dallas city championship tournament where he met his first defeat this year. He was eliminated by Dennis Lavender in the semi-finals.

In his campaign this year, Moreland was low amateur and finished second in the Texas Open. He was medalist and winner of the Houston Country club invitation. He lost in the semi-finals of the Dallas City championship.

His next tournament steps will be over the difficult par 73 Texarkana Country club course where he will defend his crown against the Texas Golf Association's best players. He has made several trips to Texarkana to play the course, and has scored low.

Moreland is playing his fourth full year of major tournaments, and here's the Texas amateur

CRITICIZES POLICE

PHILADELPHIA, May 20. (AP)—A charge that "police lawlessness" is contributing cause to present-day crime and radicalism was made before the national conference of social work today by one of the men who helped gather data for the Wickersham commission report.

Ernest J. Hopkins, field investigator for the commission and former worker for the California commission on immigration, assailed unlawful street beatings and shootings by police, unlawful arrests and punishment, deprivations of liberty and third-degree methods in an address on "our lawless police" at the meeting of the social work group studying the problems of the immigrant.

MORTON'S SALT

Football enthusiasts, looking not so enthusiastically, snapped at the 1931 Notre Dame-Northwestern game played in Chicago.

10c a month... less than 2 1/2c a week... is the trifling cost of using Morton's Iodized Salt. So why take chances with unknown brands that may clog salt-glans in damp weather? Made with cube-shaped crystals, which tumble off one another instead of sticking together like the flake crystals of inferior salts, Morton's pours just as freely on rainy days as on dry. Too, it prevents simple goiter, a cause of loss of appetite, lack of vigor and backwardness in studies among children between the ages of 6 and 18.

When examined under a magnifying glass, each tiny crystal of Morton's Salt is found to be a perfect cube.

Tested Recipes Are Offered by Mrs. Ihrig for Cakes and Pies

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, Wednesday afternoon presented the following tested recipes to women who attended The NEWS cooking school at the city auditorium:

Cherry Cake
Blend 2 egg yolks with 2 tbs. sugar, Mrs. Tucker's 2 tbs. with 3 tbs. sugar, 1-2 cup Great West flour, 1-2 cup baking powder, 1-2 tbs. Morton's salt, 3-8 cup alternate with red cherry juice, boil to a thread 1-2 cup syrup. Pour slowly over beaten whites of 2 eggs.

Fold in and out. Pour about half the mixture into a ring mold. Add red cherries, and then the remainder of the batter.

Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour in the ring mold or for 30 minutes in muffin pans. Serve with cherry sauce.

Cherry Sauce
Boil ten minutes 1 cup syrup, 1-3 cup cherry juice, 1-2 cup chopped cherries, 1 tbs. lemon juice, 1 tbs. Mrs. Tucker's.

If sauce is not thick enough add 2 tbs. of Great West flour well mixed with cherry juice or water.

Folger's Coffee Meringue
Melt 24 marshmallows in 1 cup of strong Folger's coffee. When the mixture begins to set, fold in 1-2 pint Gray County whipped cream, 1/2 cup cut marshmallows red and green. Pour into freezing tray and freeze in TruKold for several hours.

Pie Crust
3 cups Great West flour, 1 cup Mrs. Tucker's, 1 tbs. Morton's salt, 1-2 tbs. K. C. Baking Powder.

The water to mix into a ball until dough leaves the side of the pan.

Roll, spread lightly with shortening, fold in thirds and roll again if flaky crust is desired.

Dream Pie

1-4 cup sugar, 1 pkg. orange jello, 1-2 cup boiling water, 3-4 cup orange juice, 1-2 cup sugar, 1 cup orange sections, Gray County whipped cream.

Pour 1-2 cup sugar over the orange sections and let set for 15 minutes. When mixture of jello and orange juice begins to congeal, save out 1-4 cup to add to the Gray County whipped cream.

Spread a thin covering of Gray County whipped cream over the pastry shell, arrange orange sections, and pour over part of the congealed jello. Place in TruKold and let set. Pour on the remainder of the orange juice jello, and cover with Gray County whipped cream. Chill in TruKold until served.

Early Signs of Cancer Described

With rare exceptions, there is no pain in the beginning of any kind of cancer. By the time pain is felt, the cancer is usually far advanced in its development.

One of the most common signs that attract a patient's attention to cancer is an unusual growth, which frequently starts without any apparent cause. A small, painless lump appears in the breast. A mole or wart begins to show signs of change. A little thickening is noticed on the tongue or lip. A bone develops a slight swelling. In this very quiet way the growth of cancer may begin.

Another common sign of cancer is an unusual discharge. The very slight "weeping" of the sore on the face, which does not heal may mean cancer. The persistent discharge from the nose which fails to respond to ordinary treatment may be due to cancer. A slight discharge from the nipple may indicate a beginning cancer of the breast. The appearance of blood in the stools is frequently one of the first signs of cancer of the rectum, although it is unfortunately not an early symptom of that disease. Blood in the urine is frequently due to cancer of the bladder or the kidney, and is generally the first sign of such trouble. Cancer of the female genital organs frequently gives warning at first by an unusual discharge, which later becomes a hemorrhage.

In cancer of the stomach, persistent unexplained indigestion is often the first symptom. Lack of appetite, especially for meats and a peculiar disturbance of taste occur early in the majority of cases.

Unfortunately, some of the deep-seated cancers give no early signs which make their existence known to the patient.

The commoner forms of cancer, however, usually present early signs which can readily be recognized by the average individual.

Taxpayers Will Meet Tomorrow

TEMPLE, May 20. (P)—An all-state meeting of the State Taxpayers' Association of Texas will be held in Temple, Saturday, May 21, at the Municipal Building. The meeting will be called to order by President D. M. Jones of Dallas.

Reports will be made of the work throughout the state by George B. Latham, secretary. The program committee will hold an all-day meeting Friday. Members will prepare a report to come before the convention Saturday relative to selecting and endorsing county and state candidates, with plans for conducting campaigns for the taxpayer candidates and the placing of the taxpayers' platform and questionnaire in each candidate's hands to answer and endorse. The committee will give out information relative to this questionnaire and platform for all candidates for the state legislature to answer and endorse, which will be placed in the hands of candidates in each county through the county association.

Reports for holdover committees will be made at the meeting Saturday, with recommendations. Reports are being received by the secretary daily, relative to counties which will select a full set of county officers to be at the primaries July 3. More than 85 counties have been organized by the association. Headquarters reported. These counties represent a total vote of 750,000 voters.

"The Job Ahead" Is Subject For Lions Session

DALLAS, May 20.—"The Job Ahead" has been selected as the keynote of the Second District (Texas State) Convention of Lions clubs to be held in Dallas June 5-7. Headed by Julian Hyer, president of Lions International, a group of speakers prominent in Lionism will point the way to greater Lionism. A program of entertainment has been provided which will include theatre and bridge parties for the ladies. The Oak Cliff (Dallas) Lions club has issued a challenge for a ball game to be played by its team against an all star team composed of selected players from other clubs in Texas.

The convention will hold its first sessions Monday, June 6, starting with a governor's conference, which will be followed by a morning inspirational meeting at which Hon. Martin Dies, of Orange, will be the principal speaker. At noon Monday and Tuesday there will be group luncheons presided over by the governors of the five Texas districts. Model programs will feature these luncheons, Monday evening, the annual banquet will be held. All sessions will be at the Adolphus hotel.

Unusual interest has been shown in this convention and reservations are being received from Lions in all parts of the State. Several clubs are planning to have every member in attendance. Several contests will be held in which members of clubs will compete for prizes with orations or the accomplishments of their club.

Sam Braswell, chairman of the board of governors of the Texas Lions, announced that the convention this year will be devoted to a careful study of Lionism, with definite plans for extending its service and increasing its prestige. C. J. Crampton, executive secretary of the Dallas chamber of commerce, is general chairman of the committee which has charge of the convention.

Refueling May Be Tried For Flight For Tokyo Award

SEATTLE, May 19. (P)—A plan to refuel in the air after taking off from Boeing Field was considered today by Nathan C. "Nat" Brown, New York flier, if test flights show he will be unable to get his heavily-laden ship off from the ground on a projected Seattle-Tokyo flight.

The first of a series of test flights, with a half-load, will be made during the day, he said, to determine how his huge red monoplane, the "Lone Star," performs. When fully loaded, the tanks will carry more than 1,000 gallons of gasoline.

When given weather reports last night, Brown said he would be ready to leave "any time after Friday."

A prize of $30,000 for the Seattle-Tokyo flight will expire on June 1.

Music Classes Are Formed Here

Mrs. R. D. Land of LeFors is organizing in Pampa classes in violin and piano. Each class will be composed of ten pupils and will be taught in the basement of the First Baptist church.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: JACOB AND ESAU RECONCILED.

Scripture Lesson: Gen. 33:1-11.

Gen. 33:1. And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and into the two handmaids.

2. And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost.

3. And he himself passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4. And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

5. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are these with thee? And he said, The children whom God hath graciously given thy servant.

6. Then the handmaids came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7. And Leah also and her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8. And he said, What meanest thou by all this company which I meet? And he said, To find favor in the sight of my lord.

9. And Esau said, I have enough, my brother: let that which thou hast be thine.

10. And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found favor in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand; forasmuch as I have seen thy face, as one seeth the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11. Take, I pray thee, my gift that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it. Golden Text: Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you.—Eph. 4:32.

Time: Jacob marries Leah and Rachel, B. C. 1777. Jacob's fourteenth year of service, B. C. 1770. Birth of Joseph, B. C. 1752. Jacob and Esau reconciled, B. C. 1747.

Place: Haran in Mesopotamia, Bank of the Jabbok (Peniel). Shechem.

Introduction After the departure of Jacob, Esau seems to have cherished no resentment against Isaac, but rather tried to do that which would please him (Gen. 28:6-9). His story is not recorded in the Scriptures, but when he reappears many years afterwards upon the return of Jacob, which we study this week, we find him a man of wealth and power, having at least four hundred men under his command.

As for Jacob, he went on from Bethel to Haran to remain there for twenty years. In that period he was true to the character revealed in his dealings with Esau, a schemer, cunning and persistent. In Laban he met another of the same type with whom he engaged in a war of wits, the story in Genesis 29:31 reveals with Jacob coming through as the final victor. After twenty years, Jacob contrived to free himself from Laban, and in our lesson he returns toward Canaan and meets his brother Esau.

The Return of Jacob, Gen. 31. It was with difficulty that Jacob left Padanaram (Haran) in peace. He had to slip away. In the fourteen years of service to Laban (for his two daughters, Leah and Rachel), he had proved himself a valuable asset, and when his contract expired was able to make another which by his wit made him a wealthy man. Consequently both Laban and his sons began to eye him with envy, and he saw more trouble ahead. At the same time the call of God for him to return to Canaan rang in his soul, and he must go. After calling his wives and convincing them of the wrong which he and they had suffered at the hands of Laban, he therefore gathered together his belongings (with their help), and in the absence of Laban from home drove his flocks and herds toward the wilderness, concealing his purpose.

Misgash's Covenant.—Gen. 31:48, 49. Three days later, Laban heard, and set out to overtake him, which he did: after seven days, but not before God had warned him in a dream not to do Jacob any harm. It was, therefore, with feelings somewhat softened that he overtook Jacob at Mt. Gilead, and they were reconciled and engaged in what has become the famous Misgash covenant: "The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another." So Jacob went on his way, "and the angels of God met him." (Read Chapter 31.)

Jacob at Mahanaim, Gen. 32. So Jacob and his family went, on their way, first westward and then southward along the east bank of the Jordan, until they came to a place north of the River Jabbok. There—not in a dream, as at Bethel, but objectively—"the angels of God met him." "This is God's host," said the patriarch reverently, and he named the place Mahanaim, or "two camps," "two companies"—his caravan and the host of angels.

As Jacob went on his way thru life, in whatever befell him he recognized spiritual powers, so that the whole world was to him a Mahanaim—a place of meeting with God's host.—Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould.

Jacob Prepares to Meet Esau

Jacob had one great fear before him as he returned to Canaan: What would the wronged Esau do to him? Esau was living in the land of Edom, south of the Dead Sea, and thither Jacob sent messengers announcing that he was returning, that he had prospered, and praying "my lord" that he might find favor in his sight. The messengers returned with news that struck terror into Jacob's guilty heart, the curt news that Esau was coming to meet him, with four hundred men. Jacob feels defenseless and at the mercy of the wild marauders who follow Esau. In his despair he betook himself to prayer.

Pleading God's command—his obedience to which he was returning, and declaring his own unworthiness of the least of all God's many kindnesses; pleading also God's promise of an abundant offspring, the patriarch begged the Lord to save him and his family from the hand of Esau. This prayer is notable for its deep humility. Gen. 32:9-12.

Next Jacob, being a practical man, did what he could to answer his prayer himself. He divided his animals and people into two companies, so that if Esau should fall upon one band, the other might escape. Then he sent ahead of him no fewer than five hundred and fifty animals—goats, sheep, camels, cows, and asses—divided into five droves, one after the other, and instructed the drivers of each drove to present them to Esau as a gift from his "servant Jacob."

Jacob Becomes Israel Jacob had reached the ford of the Jabbok which flows into the Jordan from the east, about forty-three miles south of the Sea of Galilee and twenty-three miles north of the Dead Sea. There, thru the long night hours, Jacob wrestled with a mysterious man, a prayer experience which has given a name to all agonized entreaty of God, which we call "wrestling in prayer."

Jacob wrestled with the Stranger and would not let him go; but at last the angel merely touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh, instantly crippling him so that he could no longer wrestle, but merely hang upon the angel with a fierce grip that would not be resisted, that would not be denied till the longed-for blessing was given.

Then, as the dawn was near, the angel asked the patriarch what his name was—and the shamed-faced answer came, "Jacob," "the Supplanter," a name summing up his great sin. Then came the reward of Jacob's long struggle, his new name, Israel, "He who striveth with God," for he had striven with God and with men and had at last prevailed. Henceforth he was Israel in heaven, and his descendants are called not Jacobites but Israelites, to this day.

Peniel.—The Face of God. Gen. 32:30. Jacob called the place of his wrestling Peniel, which means "The Face of God," because he had there seen God face to face. "Peruere in an alternative form. We are told with lovely significance that "the sun rose upon his as he passed over Peniel," for the Sun of Righteousness had indeed risen upon Jacob's life. With equal significance we are told that "he limped upon his thigh" which had been put out of place by the angel's touch, and that in memory of the event the Jews in memory of the event the Jews thighs of slain beats.

Reconciliation of Jacob and Esau Gen. 33:1-11. The verses printed in our Quarterly tell of the reconciliation of Jacob and Esau, but we have seen in the preceding record how the real secret of the beauty of this reconciliation lies in what went before. Now we know the kind of Jacob who met Esau. The man who came forward to meet the brother whom he had wronged, came bowing himself down in a most deferential and conciliatory way, knowing that the real power of success was with God. He saw all his possessions as God's gift to him. So he came in a spirit of humility and hope. And Esau's heart was melted; he became friendly, the sense of brotherhood swallowing up the sense of wrong; he became reasonable as they talked about their future course (verses 12-16). "Jacob succeeds with his brother because already he has prevailed with God."

Forgiveness and Peace. Such was the happy result when Esau forgave the brother who had so deeply wronged him, even though Jacob did not confess the wrong and in turn asked for forgiveness. "We must remember that it is very frequently possible to effect by forgiveness every object which we propose to effect by resentment—to open the mind of an enemy to a sense of his injustice, to excite his admiration, to conciliate his affection, and to turn his heart."—Sydney Smith. Even in this were not possible, we must forgive our enemies because Christ commands it; and because he gave us on the cross the supreme example of forgiveness.

As to Jacob, in summing up his life, we may recognize his serious faults, yet we may own regarding him that "undoubtedly he aimed for the highest he saw, he EXTORTIONISTS SOUGHT OKLAHOMA CITY, May 20. (AP)—Oklahoma City police were working on clues today which they hoped would lead to the extortionists who thrice have threatened to kidnap the two children of W. E. Rightower, vice-president of the First National bank here.

"ALL-BRAN LIVES UP TO REPUTATION"

Her Constipation Overcome by This Delicious Cereal

If you are troubled with constipation, read Miss Bundy's enthusiastic letter:

"I would like to congratulate the one who discovered ALL-BRAN. It really does live up to its reputation when it is said to 'relieve constipation.'"

"I used to feel poor all the time—just that of lettuce. Within a few days reading an advertisement in a magazine about ALL-BRAN I got a box. It has evermore helped me, and it is not hard at all to eat."—Miss Mary Bundy, Bennettsville, S. C.

Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN brings two things needed to correct common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears the intestines of wastes.

How much safer than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful, ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Boll Weevil Is Tricked In Webb

LAREDO, May 20. (AP)—For the first time in many years a cotton crop, though much blighted as a result of replanting following the series of freezes in March, is growing in Webb county without being molested by boll weevil or the other pests that annually harass cotton crops. No boll weevils or other pests have appeared since the March cold weather.

About March 20, farmers of Webb county began replanting the cotton crop that had perished by a heavy snowfall six days of below freezing weather in succession and two days of killing frosts. This severe cold weather came at a time to catch the boll weevils and other pests at work and destroy them.

Instead of from 7,500 to 8,000 acres in Webb county which were growing before the cold weather only from 5,500 to 6,000 acres were replanted, and with the heavy rains that came in late April, followed by two more heavy rains in May, the crop is in excellent condition. Cotton picking in Webb county is not expected to begin until about July 20, Teodosio Gutierrez, cotton statistician, said.

Schneider Gets Praise of NEWS Cooking Expert

"What a relief to get into such a hotel as the Schneider," Mrs. Leona Ihrig remarked when she arrived here last Sunday night to conduct the Pampa NEWS cooking school. She did not wait until Monday to come to Pampa but arrived early so that she could spend more time at the Schneider.

Mrs. Ihrig not only has her room at the Schneider but also takes her meals in the Schneider hotel dining room which has a reputation all over the country. The dining room serves family style meals and short orders.

Alex Schneider looks after the cooking himself. He has had many years' experience in Switzerland and New York.

Mrs. Chas. A. Weldon will leave Sunday for two-week visit with relatives in Pauls Valley, Okla.

"GODFATHER"

The steaming "burgoo," which is stew southern style, made by James T. Looney, Lexington, Ky. grocer, above, inspired the name for 1932's Derby and Preakness winner. Looney served his savory dish at a charity race meet at the Idle Hour farm of Colonel E. R. Bradley. "You're King of the Burgoo-makers," Colonel Bradley told Looney. "I'm going to name a horse after you who may win the Kentucky Derby." So the colonel named a certain colt Burgoo King and then collected all the gravy.

Proper Eating Is Stressed by Expert

The principles of diet and proper eating, which Mrs. Ihrig presents in her daily lectures, are endorsed by leading physicians and dieticians of the country.

In former years cooking school instructors were content to give new recipes and a few means of making housework easier. Mrs. Ihrig not only gives the manner of preparing food in new attractive and tasty combinations, but also outlines the necessity of including certain elements in the diet, the purpose to which these elements are put, at the foodstuffs which contain the elements.

Mrs. Ihrig is cook, bio-chemist, dietician, and instructor.

Combined with this wealth of knowledge is a pleasant personality which has won for her a host of friends in every city in which she has conducted schools. Her schools are not formal courses of instruction, but a friendly "get-together" in her own kitchen. The privilege of asking a question at any time is granted to every member of the audience.

Mrs. Ihrig has been conducting cooking schools throughout the Panhandle since March 21. From Dalhart to Midland, and from Hereford to Shamrock, the cooks of the Panhandle attest her ability as an instructor and as a cook.

George Muller and M. C. Lane spent yesterday in Mobeetie, Wheeler, and Shamrock buying produce and poultry for Consumers Market.

Thousands of high school pupils participated in the test—and 11-year review of the League of Nations.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

Not so many years ago liver was taboo for small children, but now specialists in diet for children are advising the use of it at least once a week.

Calves' liver has soared in price until it is almost prohibitive for regular use in the average family, but chicken, beef, lamb and pig are considered quite as beneficial and are much cheaper. Of course chicken liver is delicate and tender and is available only in very small amounts. However, it will amply supply the two-year-old member of the family, so save the liver from the Sunday chicken for him rather than chopping it and putting it in the gravy.

Careful preparation of beef and pig livers does much to make them more palatable. Always use liver as soon as it comes from the market if at all possible. At any rate, remove it at once from the paper and keep in the coldest part of the refrigerator until wanted. When ready to cook wipe with a damp cloth and put into a sauce pan. Add boiling water to cover and simmer until tender. It will take about twenty minutes to cook calves' liver and thirty to thirty-five minutes for beef and pig.

When tender let cool in the water in which it was cooked. When cool remove all membrane and cut into parts. The liver is now ready to be made into several dishes suitable for children.

How to Make Liver Paste
A liver paste is advised for the first meals. To make the paste, put the cooked liver through the fine knife of the food chopper or mash with a fork. Season lightly with salt.

The paste can be used at noon in the hearty meal of the day to take the place of grated hard-cooked egg yolk or beef juice, which usually supplies the iron grams for the day. If fed on crisp dry toast, it is slowly eaten by those first tiny teeth.

Children two and one-half years old and of course older, may have the paste combined with grated raw carrot or grated onion and minced lettuce in sandwiches. Tomato juice is excellent to use to moisten the mixture.

Younger children may have the paste added to a vegetable soup or it may be combined with their hot vegetable, which has been mashed or put through a ricer.

Another way to serve it to three-year-olds is to form it in little flat cakes and broil it just as one would broil patties.

Tiny balls made of finely chopped liver can be poached in hot stock and served with a rice vegetable moistened with cream. Remember that liver is lacking in fat and add an extra bit of butter or cream to the vegetable in order to insure a well balanced meal.

As children grow older, liver can be served in any number of ways that are wholesome and appetizing. Cut in slices, brushed over with melted fat and broiled under or over a clear fire, calves' liver is delicious served with a garnish of crisp bacon and cream. It is also excellent served "en brochette"—skewered with alternate slices of bacon.

If liver is pan-broiled it should be cooked over a low fire. Otherwise the edges will be leathery and tough.

Braised with vegetables is another good way to cook liver. The whole liver is used for this and if beef or pig is chosen, it should be parboiled before braising. Skewer or tie into a compact shape and cover the top generously with bacon or sliced salt pork. Place in a casserole with vegetables and bake slowly two or three hours.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Baked rhubarb, cereal, cream, broiled salt mackerel, cornmeal muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Beef broth with liver balls, toast sticks, fresh spinach salad, chocolate roll, milk tea.

DINNER: Baked breaded lamb chops, baked new potatoes, new peas and carrots, new cabbage and pineapple salad, butterscotch pie, milk, coffee.

Raskob Helped To Form Radio Pool - Made Big Profit

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Profits in excess of $3,000,000 from a pool in radio stock in 1929 were ascribed to John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee, and other prominent persons as the Senate Banking committee went ahead here with its investigation of the stock market.

Total profits from a 7-day pool in the radio stock in 1929 were set at $4,244,078 on an investment of $12,683,000.

Among others in the pool were W. F. Kenny, Mrs. M. J. Mehan, Walter P. Chrysler, Charles M. Schwab, Mrs. David Sarnoff, and H. B. Swope.

The names of the pool members and their profits were read to the committee by Wm. A. Gray, committee counsel.

Raskob, Gray said, put up $1,000,000 and made a profit of $221,000. He said Schwab invested $200,000 and made $68,000.

Woman Pleads for Birth Control Bill In Congress

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Speaking as she said, in behalf of 25,000,000 women of child-bearing age, Mrs. Margaret Sanger, a veteran fighter for her cause, has urged congress to approve a birth control bill.

Wearing her favorite blue with a cluster of blue flowers, she appeared before a house committee in behalf of the Hancok bill, the first such measure to come before the house in half a century. It would amend federal laws to permit dissemination of birth control information by licensed medical sources.

The committee room was crowded as Mrs. Sanger said: "Forty-seven states permit physicians to give contraceptive advice, but while they can advise orally, they must 'bootleg' their supplies."

Representative Hancock (D., N. C.), the sponsor, made a strong presentation of the "arguments advanced by its proponents," but said he himself had not studied the matter sufficiently to form a conclusive opinion. He argued for it, however, as an emergency measure.

BEEVES NEEDED FOR BARBECUE

Texas Woman To Study Abroad

AUSTIN, May 20.—Miss Autrey Neil Wiley, who received the degree of doctor of philosophy at the University of Texas in June, 1931, has recently been awarded a fellowship for study abroad by the American Council of Learned Societies, which has its headquarters in Washington, D. C., according to Dr. R. H. Griffith, professor of English, under whose direction Miss Wiley wrote her doctor's dissertation.

The fellowship is designated as a post-doctoral research fellowship in the humanities. It carries a stipend of $2,400 for the year, with additional allowances of $500 for traveling expenses and $50 for having photostats made, totaling $2,950. Miss Wiley will spend most of her year's time at the British Museum, in London, and at the ancient libraries of Oxford and Cambridge. Before leaving for Europe in August, she will spend a portion of June and July in Austin working in the University library, checking up and arranging notes to expedite her studies abroad, and formulating more fully her plans for the year in consultation with Professor Griffith and other members of the English faculty.

Miss Wiley was born at Saint Jo, Texas, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Wiley. She took the degree of bachelor of arts, with honors, at the Texas State College for Women, Denton, in 1922, and the master of arts at Columbus university, New York, in 1924. In summers she studied at the University of Colorado and the University of Chicago. In the summer of 1930 and through the long session of 1930-31, she was a graduate student at the University of Texas, and was at the same time holder of the Margaret E. Maltby fellowship, with a stipend of $1,500, awarded by the American Association of University Women.

Professional Gets 34 on Red Deer

Pat O'Brien, professional from Harlingen Country club, shot a 35 and a 34 over the Red Deer course yesterday afternoon in a strong wind. Harry Nichol, professional from Tampico, Old Mexico, was three strokes behind O'Brien with a par 72.

A rough luck in putting out of a real score for the Irishman who was on the greens for eight birdies and one eagle on the last nine holes. He missed his eagle but made two birdies.

O'Brien has been used to putting on grass greens and couldn't seem to get his bearing on the sand greens.

TABASCO WITHOUT A RIVAL For Over 60 Years

In spite of the cry of a fickle world for something new! There has never been a condiment that has taken the place of TABASCO. Is like Gorham silver... it never grows old. TABASCO is the favorite of every generation. What better recommendation do you ask.

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig Says: "Tabasco is the Last Word in Seasoning."

There is only one TABASCO. Unless the word TABASCO appears on the label of the bottle you purchase, you are not getting TABASCO. TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.
