HUGE OIL THEFT PROBE STARTED

Democratic Party Ruling Barring Negro Votes Is Voided by Courts

PARTY GROUP IS HELD LIABLE FOR DAMAGES

LEGISLATIVE ACT, NOT PARTY AUTHORITY, IS ISSUE

FULL REVIEW NOT GIVEN

DIVIDED TRIBUNAL WILL AVOID MEMBERSHIP QUESTION

WASHINGTON, May 2. (AP)—The Texas election law which a negro voter claimed denied him the right to vote in a Democratic primary was set aside today by the Supreme court.

The court, in an opinion by Justice Cardozo, declined to pass on whether political parties in the various states had the right to prescribe the qualifications of their members and determine who should be permitted to vote at party primaries. The opinion pointed out, however, that the action by the Texas Democratic executive committee was based on authority given in an act of the Legislature.

It ruled that judges of elections acting under instructions from their state executive committee to exclude negroes from voting at primary elections were liable to suits for damages by negroes prevented from voting.

Justice Cardozo emphasized that the ruling of the Democratic executive committee was based on the act of the legislature and not by action of the Democratic party organization.

He said this made a mere committee, and not the Democratic party, authority under the act for the exclusion of negroes and any act which attempted to impose that authority must be held invalid.

The test of the validity of the act, he said, was whether the Democratic state executive committee

Dramatics for Rural People to Be Demonstrated

A dramatic institute to be conducted this week at Amarillo by the U. S. department of agriculture will be attended by a delegation from Gray county. Miss Ruby M. Adams, home demonstration agent, announced this morning.

The counties of Carson, Gray, Hemphill, Wheeler, and Potter will be represented. The four day school will open Tuesday and continue through Friday. The first session will be at 10 o'clock Tuesday in the Amarillo high school gymnasium and armory. At that time the hours of the various sessions on succeeding days will be announced and the meeting places of the various groups designated. Miss Adams said she will attend Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Adams said the dramatic institute will be held for the purpose of teaching community leaders fundamentals of play production for rural communities. The institute is not to be confused with the recreation school held last winter in Amarillo, Miss Adams said. Judge Stuart Knapp of Washington, directors of the recreation bureau will deliver the main address at the opening of the institute Tuesday. These from Gray county who will attend the institute will include Mrs. Ollin Puckett, Mrs. B. T. Hargis and Mrs. C. B. Henry from the Merzen club; Mrs. E. F. Bulla, Mrs. Roy Ritter and Miss Ruby Lee Jones from the Grandview club.

WEATHER

OKLAHOMA: Partly cloudy, warmer in east portion tonight; Tuesday partly cloudy.

TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. Moderate to fresh southeast winds on the coast.

—AND A SMILE PHILADELPHIA (AP)—It would have been cheaper to let the 25-cent piece stay under the bed. When it rolled out of sight, Alphonse Wienowski lit a match to look for it. The apartment was burned and four people injured.

Spring this year has brought forth an unusual amount of unseasonable occurrences, in addition to the weather.

In The Spring

One of these has been the unusually large amount of spring football practice and ballyhoo. Harassed teachers, trying to make up for the boys' lack of study in the first semester, have been confronted with another time-consuming grind both in colleges and high school.

No Alibies

Football is very popular, but it cannot survive continual over-emphasis. If we are to have football spring and fall, the thrill of the autumn games will be impaired. The team which wins next fall will be eulogized for learning a lot of fundamentals in the spring. But the team which poorly covorts next fall—it will have no alibis and the coach will be considered, with some justification—as a poor teacher.

Regrettable

We have heard even a number of dyed-in-the-wool gridiron fans say they regretted to see football headlines at this time of the year. They resent having the sport thrown at them out of season, with headlines about prospects, night games, and new rules. This is the baseball and track season—why can't we be allowed to concentrate on these two sports, with some tennis and golf thrown in, without having to consider football out of season? The over-emphasis upon the sport is not doing any good, nor, in the long run, will prolonged practice be of any material advantage to any team. We think Inter-scholastic League authorities ought to put a limit on spring training. There is such a thing as study, and a need thereof.

Want Manager

Abilene citizens, depression-goaded into noticing needless duplications in their city government, will probably vote soon on whether a new charter, founding the city manager plan, will be drafted. They have had one of the most expensive police and detective departments in Texas, if we may believe comparative figures. With three church schools, Abilene should not have much of a law-enforcing problem, yet the expense statistics appear otherwise. Abilene is removing duplications with virtually no impairment of service, according to permanent citizens.

The Pork Barrel

Politics in a city government call for paying of the fiddler. Pre-election promises are usually paid by the taxpayers, and not by the successful office-seekers. This system builds up standing armies of employees. Cutting down of a payroll is difficult when it is built upon political favoritism. He who seeks votes by means of the pork barrel cannot be too economical with the pork. This is reason enough why the city manager plan, effectively administered on a merit basis for employees, should be more economical. But when a city manager and his commission

BACK FROM DEATH CELL

With a new lease on life, won for him by Clarence Darrow by a brilliant argument before the supreme court of Illinois, Russell McWilliams, 17-year-old slayer of a Rockford, Ill., street car conductor, has been released from the death cell in Joliet prison and is shown the day he returned to his old cell in the Rockford jail. The supreme court ordered a new trial. Now McWilliams awaits the return of Darrow from Honolulu to aid him in his new fight for life. The conductor was shot during a holdup.

HARVESTER PARK ARENA IS BEING ERECTED SO CROWDS WILL HAVE PERFECT VIEWS

Inside Fence Placed Around Grid Field

Workmen are fast getting Harvester park into shape for the rodeo in connection with the first annual Frontier Days celebration May 26-28. The chutes have been completed and are the handiest ever seen here. They were installed under the supervision of Lon L. Blanscet and Herbert Blanscet.

An "inside fence" is being erected inside the playing field and around the dugouts so that the football fence will not be damaged during the rodeo performances.

Stock pens also are being constructed. All the stock will be handled on the north end of the field and chutes also are at the north end. There will not be a seat in the park from which spectators will not be able to see the performances.

Two performances will be put on daily during the rodeo. Mr. Blanscet, Herbert Blanscet and Siler Hopkins will be in charge of the rodeo part of the big celebration.

Lions Minstrel Is Staged at McLean

Pampa Lions presented their minstrel show and revue in McLean Saturday evening under the auspices of the club in that city. The proceeds will be used by the McLean club in beautifying the city park. The lower floor of the high school auditorium was filled for the performance.

Changes in the program included a song and dance number by Miss Eura Rose and C. A. Rogers and a vocal solo by Emmitt Smith.

I SAW--

Paul Crossman in Bill Jackson's 40-gallon (it must have been 40) hat, the biggest rodeo hat in the country. Paul also had on chaps, spurs, boots and one of those he-man checkered shirts.

Mrs. Maggie Hopkins talking to Charlie Thut this morning. Charlie said he had known her nearly ever since he was born.

F. C. (Farris) Oden of the Panhandle Insurance company set 'em up to everybody that was in the Harvester drug this morning. No particular reason for doing it, no new baby, or anything like that.

Al Capone Denied Review

PRISON WILL TAKE GUNMAN IN FEW DAYS

ELEVEN-YEAR TERM IS AWAITING COCKY GANGSTER

EVASDED INCOME TAXES

FINE OF $50,000 ALSO WAS IMPOSED BY VERDICT

WASHINGTON, May 2. (AP)—Al Capone today was denied a review by the Supreme court of his conviction for evading income taxes.

The ruling meant that America's most notorious gangster had lost his last legal chance of escaping his 11-year sentence.

"Scarface Al" is now in jail in Chicago. Confined there since his sentence by Judge James H. Wilkinson, he probably will be sent to a Federal prison in a few days.

As is customary, the court did not give its reason for refusing to open the case. It previously had refused to interfere with sentence imposed on Ralph Capone, Al's brother, and other members of the Capone gang convicted for failure to pay income taxes.

Capone was indicted June 5, 1931, on charges of evading his 1925, 1926 and 1927 Federal income taxes.

In addition to his 11-year sentence, he was fined $50,000. The penalties were confirmed by the seventh circuit court of appeals Feb. 27, 1932 and on March 23, 1932, he was denied a rehearing.

In his plea for a review, Capone argued that the indictment against him was defective because it was worded in general terms which did not give him sufficient information to prepare his defense.

His lawyers also raised a number of other technical points. The government in reply argued that the indictment was good and that the conviction should stand.

COMEDY TO BE LEGION FEATURE FOR MEETING

All ex-service men and members of the Legion are invited to attend. Some of the best numbers of the show will be given here, W. C. de Cordova said.

TWENTY-THREE GLIDER HOPS ARE MADE SUNDAY—CLUB FOR BIRDMEN IS BEING FORMED

Three-Minute Flight Reaches Height of 225 Feet

Hundreds of Pampa citizens were thrilled yesterday when they visited the local air port. Pampa's first and only glider made 23 successful flights during the day. The glider was made and piloted by C. F. Jones.

Besides Mr. Jones, Frank Shaw and Lefty Purinton took the glider aloft successfully. A glider club is being organized here with ten members as the goal.

The glider used yesterday weighed 151 pounds. On one flight during the day it gained an altitude of 225 feet and stayed aloft three minutes. It was towed by a car on each flight.

Mr. Jones made the glider here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Jones.

FORTY PERSONS ARE EXPECTED TO BE SEIZED

PROMINENT MEN NOW LIKELY TO BE INVOLVED

SUSPECT STATE STAFF

COMMISSION TO TAKE HAND IN EAST TEXAS

LONGVIEW, May 2. (AP)—Col. L. S. Davidson, in charge of troops aiding in purging the East Texas oil field, said today between 25 and 40 more arrests would be made in connection with alleged oil thefts in this area. He inferred that prominent men would be involved.

LONGVIEW, May 2. (AP)—District Judge W. C. Hurst today charged the Gregg county grand jury to spare neither time nor expense in the oil theft investigation and take action.

"If you find that men of position and influence, whether they operate as independents or for large companies or corporations, have allowed greed and avarice to take from our oil field that which does not belong to them."

In his pointed charge to the grand jury, Judge Hurst implied that he would strive to unearth all of the ramifications of the alleged million barrel oil theft scandal which threatens to disrupt the gigantic East Texas oil field.

Preliminary disclosures have resulted in the arrest of a dozen of officials and others connected with the field's operation. Six other men accused of oil thefts were sought by officers.

Big Hats Will Be Plentiful at Banquet Here

Pampans will come out in big hats tonight at the Junior chamber of commerce "Big Hat" banquet in the Schneider hotel dining room at 7:45 o'clock.

The Jaycees and Board of City Development are sponsoring Pampa's first annual Frontier Days Celebration May 26-28. Pampans will hear all about the big affair tonight when committee chairman make their reports.

More than 100 tickets had been sold at noon, according to Frank Hill. Members of the junior organization are urged to attend regardless of whether they have paid their dues. Each member is urged to take a friend. Ladies are invited, and will be given work to do during the celebration.

Sheriff Lon L. Blanscet, chairman in charge, will make a report on accomplishments and "give orders" for future work. President Bob Brashears will preside.

L. R. Bruner has prepared an interesting program which will include music, stances, monologues, and other features.

I HEARD--

That Sam Fenberg takes the cake when it comes to playing golf. Yesterday in the tournament at the Country club, Sam shot a 51, his usual score, on the first nine holes. He started out the second nine with pars on holes 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14. (Dr. R. A. Webb and Don Donovan have verified the tale) and then proceeded to take an eight on 15 and an 11 on 16. Clubs started to fly and two met sudden death. Sam is thinking about giving up the pastime.

Ben Reno inquiring where a tire rack for his horse could be located. Ben was strolling down the street with a big hat on his head and a string in his hand. That reminds us that we had better get some hitching racks for Old Dobbin before the big celebration.

B. S. Via telling a fish story this morning and it was good. B. S. is an ardent fisherman. In fact he is such a fanatic on the subject that he is building a casting "course" on his front yard. He will leave the latter part of this month on a three-month trip.

AND WHAT DID THE GOVERNOR SAY?

It seems there was plenty of that old-fashioned "southern hospitality" for which Dixie is justly famed when Governor George White of Ohio, often mentioned as a possible Democratic presidential nominee, attended the Beaux Arts ball given in connection with the governors' convention at Richmond, Va. Here is Governor White, in a happy mood, between two charming Richmond matrons—Mrs. Wichter Dudley, Jr., left, and Mrs. John T. Lewis, right—who seem to be bent on making his visit a pleasant one.

PAMPA TONES OF OUR CITY

place political expediency ahead of economy, the plan is no better than that of the politics-ridden municipal system. Voters should insist on business-like city managers who will not pad pay-rolls as a means of building favor.

A Responsibility But business and business men, having demanded and received governmental economies, must become leaders in starting upgrade toward normalcy. Cutting governmental payrolls leaves more money in private hands, where new jobs must be based. Discharged federal, state, and local employes must live. There must be an improvement in merchandising to enable them to find new positions. In this regard, may we quote the Saturday Evening POST?

Price Cutting One of the surest ways to prevent a return of confidence in this country is constantly to harp upon, exaggerate and overemphasize the element of price cutting in the retail field. Confidence is by no means wholly bound up with questions of banking, government finance, taxation and gold holdings. If the public loses faith in established merchandise values and in the retail-price structure, injury is inflicted just as though banks were closing and governments failing to balance their budgets. Everyone knows the effects of predatory and destructive operations in retail-price cutting; the evils of excessive underselling, of selling below manufacturers' cost, must be patent to every shopper.

Mr. J. R. Sprague in an article in The Saturday Evening POST pointed out conclusively that price-cutting sprees carry losses all the way back to laborers as well as farmers, so that in the end

OUT OUR WAY By WILLIAMS

CABOT CO. OUTFIELDER IS VICTIM OF ACCIDENT SUNDAY

Fractures Leg While Team Is Defeating Powerful Home Labor Nine. The Cabot Co. ball team from the Kingsmill plant slipped one over the Pampa Home Labor boys yesterday afternoon and won a ball game 12 to 7. The carbon ball nine used Acoc, a speedball artist from Amarillo, in the box and he had the Home Labor boys hitting the ozone repeatedly.

The game was marred by a serious accident in the eighth inning when C. R. Fowler, Cabot co. outfielder, suffered a broken leg while running to second base. He was rushed to Worley Hospital in a G. C. Malone ambulance and it was feared his right leg was broken in two places. Acoc made 13 Pampa batsmen hit the air during the nine innings. Acklam, Pampa hurler, had 4 strikeouts to his credit. The Cabot boys had their big inning in the seventh when the ran across 6 counters. The Home Labor team sent five across in the last inning.

Lassiter of the carbon black team scored three runs. Caddy and Carbon added two each. Burgeron and Maples each scored two for the Pampa aggregation. The Home Labor outfield of Harvety, Mullin and Gwin played great ball. Ragsdale and Carbon were infield stars. White, Kelly and Flemming were good defensively for the carbon team. A large crowd attended the game. The Pampa Home Labor team will hold open house and a rally at the labor temple at 7:30 o'clock tonight. The public is invited.

Scouts Honored in Church Service

Boy Scouts of America were honored at a service in the First Methodist church last night with Troop 99 of the church as leaders in the service. The Rev. C. A. Long, pastor, announced that it was an honor to turn over the service to such an organization.

Phillip Wolfe, chairman of the troop committee, presided. He called on Scouts from the troops to explain the work of the different ranks. Scoutmasters J. D. Sackett and Clarence Coffin told of the benefit derived from scouting. Supt. R. B. Fisher made the chief address of the program. He lauded the Boy Scout movement. He said that scouting gave to the boy something that he would never get in school—practical experience.

"In school the boy learns from persons and books but they do not get down to things," Supt. Fisher declared. "I can walk into a classroom any time and pick out a Boy Scout by questioning the pupils. The Scout has a closer touch in things. We teach biology, science and chemistry in our schools but the Boy Scout goes out and gets close to nature for his studies."

Judge Wolfe spoke on the boy of today being the man of tomorrow. He commended churches and clubs sponsoring Boy Scout troops.

Former Sheriff Graves Is Here

Friends of Ernest S. Graves, sheriff of Gray county from 1921 until 1931, were renewing their acquaintance with him yesterday and today when he visited in Pampa, while en route to attend U. S. district court in Amarillo.

The former sheriff left this morning to attend the opening. He will visit in Pampa tonight and tomorrow. Mr. Graves now lives near Cleburne, where he is operating his own farm. He said "crocs are looking good."

It was expected this morning that Judge Wilson of the U. S. District court would today fix the trial date of a liquor conspiracy case involving former police officers of Gray county and a number of former citizens.

Non-Jury Suits Will Be Heard

The 114th district court jury was discharged this morning until Thursday. Non-jury suits will be heard by Judge E. F. Ritchey until then.

The first week of the court opened last Monday. Mr. Ritchey was selected by the bar to serve as judge in the absence of Judge Clifford Braly, who is at Mineral Wells recuperating from an illness.

"HAPPY KITCHEN" IS THEME OF DAILY NEWS SCHOOL TO BE HELD FREE FOR WOMEN

"Modern housewives don't want to come out of the kitchen, as so many alarmists declare," says Mrs. Leona Rusk Irlig, noted home economist, "they simply want to learn simpler, more efficient ways of doing things." They want to learn how to have a Happy Kitchen, with less work and more fun.

Mrs. Irlig comes to Pampa on May 17-20 to entertain local housewives in three afternoon sessions of her famed cooking schools. "I think it's just as easy to have a 'Happy Kitchen' as a tiresome kitchen," Mrs. Irlig tells her cooking school audience, "and for that reason the motif of the cooking school will be just that—'The Happy Kitchen'."

Old fashioned drudgery has no place in this day and age, according to the noted home economist—either in business or in the home. "Home-making simply hasn't kept up with the rest of modern living," she believes. "Given proper tools, good recipes, and a little time," Mrs. Irlig declares, "any woman can cook a meal fit for a king."

From her experience in conducting scores of cooking schools, before thousands of women, Mrs. Irlig concludes that the modern housewife is most interested in little touches that add charm to little dishes, in the "beef-steak-and-gravy" courses, in party cookery, and in such specific problems as "Why Cakes Crack" and "Why Meringues Fall." She sends word that such points as these are just what she will stress in THE NEWS FREE COOKING SCHOOL.

"We'll try to make the whole program just a simple, practical, everyday cross-section of the kitchen, and I hope the women there will enjoy it half as much as I do," Mrs. Irlig writes. She'll be here May 17-20.

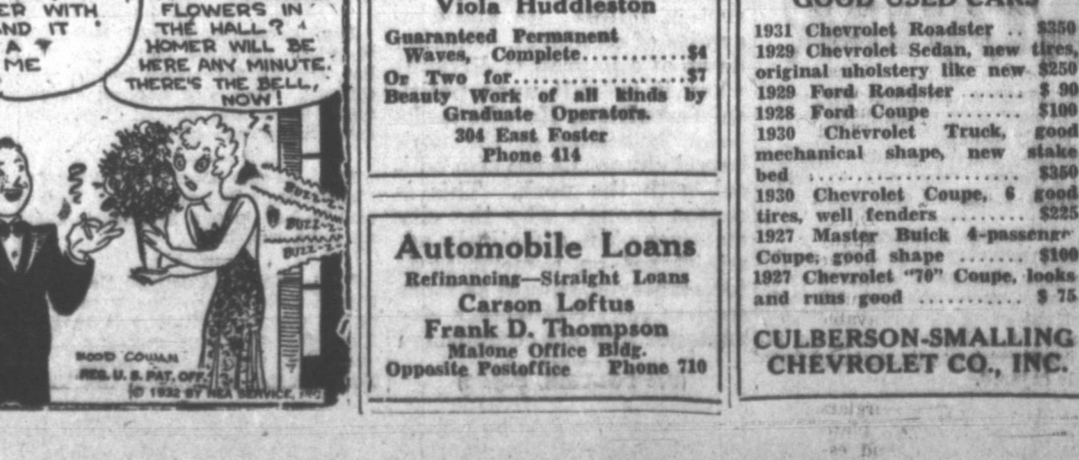

John Oldham of LeFors made a business trip to the city Saturday. Mrs. Earl J. New of Roxana was shopping in Pampa Saturday afternoon. Milo Bird of LeFors made a brief business visit in the city Saturday.

You Can't Marry

by Julia Cleff-Adams

It was not to be put out of her stride by Eddie's mishap! Her marriage and her job—she would have both; she would fight for both till she dropped...

There was a sound at the outer door and the bell rang.

She was still humming as she went to open it. Probably it was the superintendent, Gill. She hoped it was, she had decided to take him into her confidence. She would have to make a diversion worth his while, of course, but it would pay in the end.

She opened the door and faced a man whom she did not immediately recognize. Then he spoke and she remembered. He was the doctor who had given first aid to Eddie and accompanied him and Jenny to the hospital.

"Mrs. Townsend?" he asked.

George caught her breath and a dozen evasions went whirling through her brain. But she voiced none of them—yet. She stood aside and gestured him into the sitting-room. She felt quite cool, quite steady. Find out what he wants, whispered part of her brain, and then handle him boldly. So old Gratton Matching had taught her to handle men.

She took a long look at him while she gave him a chair and offered a cocktail. Vaguely, she did not like his face. When he smiled it was attractive but in response there was something mean about it; the eyes were too closely set, the lips too thin.

"You asked for 'Mrs. Townsend,'" she remarked pleasantly. "I hope it was Eddie himself who told you that there was such a person? Because that would mean that he's well enough to sit up and brag about having got married!"

The doctor echoed her laugh but she noticed and resented the way his glance took stock of her.

"No, to be quite honest, Townsend hasn't given any information. But, you see, it's all over town that he had only just got married when he hit that bus—and that his newly wedded wife was sitting in the back! And tonight's Record gave some details—your name and so on."

George laughed. It was a quite spontaneous laugh, in a sense, because there really was something laughable in the way fate was striking the song of triumph from her lips. Then she realized that none could be sure which of the two girls in the car had been the bride! And so long as people weren't sure—

"I suppose someone from the City Hall gossiped," she said and was proud of the indifference in her voice.

"Probably. But what I really came about, Mrs. Townsend, was to have a chat about your husband. About his health. I'm afraid he's going to be a bit of an invalid for a while."

George lit a cigarette. She leaned rather heavily against the back of a chair—the deep leather chair that she had bought for Eddie. She watched her spiral of smoke as it curled up to the ceiling.

"Please go on," she requested.

"What is the matter with poor old Eddie, beyond his cuts and bruises?"

"A good deal. First of all, according to Dalling—the hospital doctor—Townsend's nerves are in a pretty bad way."

"How do you mean—nerves? I never thought he had any!"

"That's a mistake commonly made about men of Townsend's temperament. They themselves will tell you that they've no nerves, when what they really mean is that they've no imagination. So long as they're all right, they always will be all right, they think. They feel sure of themselves. Once they've crashed, their whole nervous system is affected."

"But Eddie never has crashed."

"He crashed this morning. In that car."

George sat down on the arm of the leather chair. A very slippery chair; it required an effort not to sink right down into it.

"As soon as he'd recovered consciousness and been patched up a bit, he said he must get back to his wife's apartment. The nurses couldn't keep him against his will, of course, so they got a taxi and put him in it. He—well, to get to the bare bones of it, Mrs. Townsend, his nerve has completely gone. Only temporarily, I don't doubt, but just for a bit he'll have to have a holiday from flying."

"What—what happened?"

(Copyright, Julia Cleff-Adams)

Chapter 13
MRS. TOWNSEND?

"Will that be all, miss?"

"Yes," said George briskly. "That will be all and thank you very much, Mrs. Hale, for putting in such a magnificent day's work, here's a week's money and a reference—you see I've said that I only part with you because I need someone who can come for the whole day and cook me a late dinner."

"Thank you, miss. I'm sure I quite understand," Mrs. Hale folded up the reference and put it with the money into her worn purse. Her button-brown eyes roved towards the little room that had been a mere "glory-hole" and was now brave with washed paint, stained floor and furniture taken from George's room.

"It's wonderful what a difference some kinds of changes makes to a place," said Mrs. Hale; and with a little smile she pattered out of the tiny hall.

George flushed, shrugged, buttoned up the curtain material and went into her own room. There had been "some kinds of changes" here, too. The disputed velvet curtains had been sewn and hung by Jenny after all, and at top speed; there was a whole new suite of furniture, fashioned from an ash-gray wood with a lovely, swirling grain in it and inlaid with ebony.

On the bed were piled boxes and boxes and boxes. Just arrived, all of a silvery striped cardboard; all tied with faded-colored strings; all stamped "Parfite."

Her trousseau. George had not yet dared tell Jenny about it. Only last night they had agreed that she needed nothing but a new hat for her wedding. This morning, on her way to City Hall she had torn into Parfite's to see about it—and perhaps just a bag to go with it—and by all evil chances madame had shown her an ensemble from a caped outfit. "Made for Ginevra Moule's first season but her mother has died and only the white tulle dresses can be used. I'm taking everything else off her hands. Your measurements exactly, Miss Revell; your coloring, your initial on the finger! And I would make it of a tulle reduction."

It was not, in the end, a reduction worth mentioning; and madame would have liked a rather larger check on account. But, thank Heaven, the salary would cover it all in the end!—that exceptional salary for that exceptional job.

She went, humming, into the living room. She had had the sense to leave the room much as it always was; a cheerful, chintzy middle. On a table now was the sewing-machine Jenny had borrowed from the janitor's niece; the telephone stood amidst a litter of scissors, curtain-rings and tape. Poor little Jenny, how exhausted she had looked when she had finally crept off an hour ago to the hotel. Better ring up, presently, and see if she were all right. It would have been kinder, perhaps, to keep her here for the night; but this was one of the many occasions in her life when George definitely wanted to be alone.

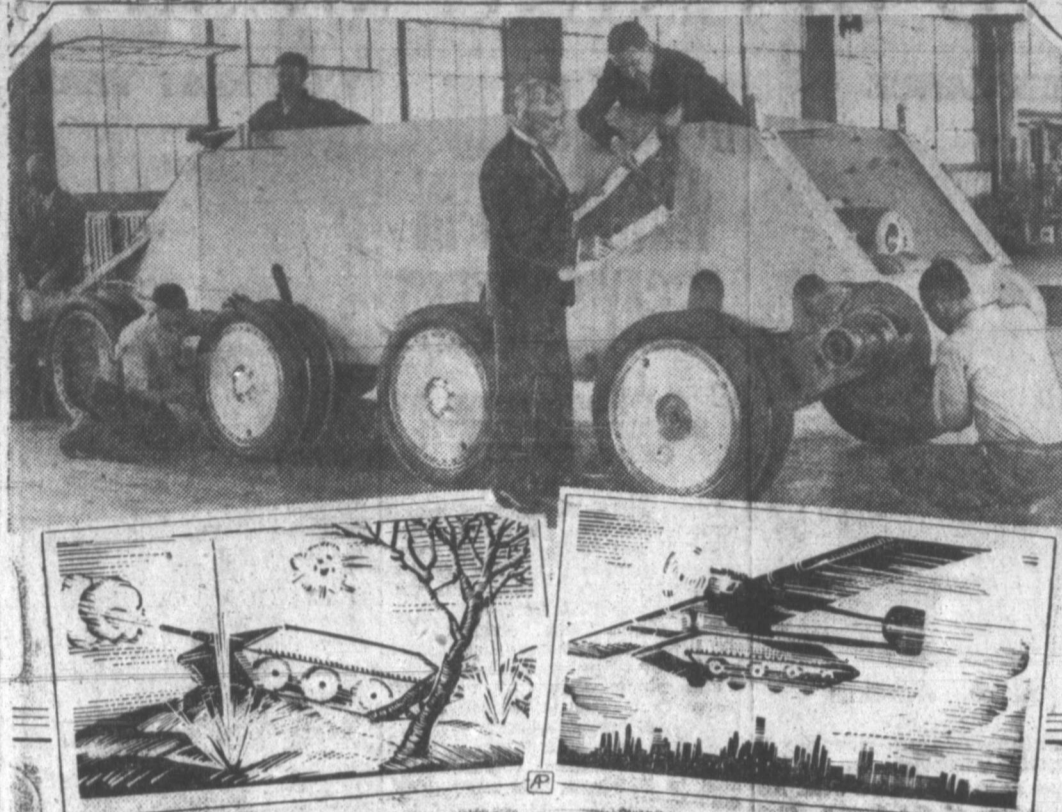

She laughed aloud and stretched her arms above her head, glorying in her 28 years. A wonderful age! At 28 one was so clear-sighted, so capable, so keen. One was so strong! Last night, long after Jenny slept, she had sat planning and arranging; and this morning, before Jenny was awake, she had made a start on the work to be done by Mrs. Hale. Then off to do her hot-foot shopping—money poured recklessly out so that she might have the best and have it packed and delivered immediately!

Heavens, what she had spent!

And after all that royal spending had come the wedding—and the incident. She put a hand to her temple—the bruise hurt, but only when she touched it; and her headache had positively disappeared!

The full tide of life swept up in her veins and flooded into her triumphant heart. How right she had

LAND, AIR, WATER—IT'S ALL THE SAME

An armored tank that its inventor says will speed 110 miles an hour on the road, travel 70 miles an hour on rough ground and be carried through the air by a plane is being built by J. Walter Christie at Linden, N. J. Christie, shown standing beside the tank looking over the plans, says a foreign nation has offered him $650,000 for the machine. Sketches show how it will travel and be carried by a plane which picks it up with claws as an eagle would grasp its prey.

Parents Urged to Cooperate in Summer Round-up

All parents having children who attend public schools here for the first time next year are urged by those in charge of the summer round-up to take the children to the Methodist church for physical examinations during this week.

Notices have been sent to many parents, but not all could be individually notified. All children, however, whether or not their parents have received notices, are asked to have the examinations. The service is free of charge and there is no obligation placed on parents to have defects corrected. It is simply to inform parents of any defects that may exist. To have all children free from remedial defects is the aim.

The hours are from 9:30 to 12 a. m. and from 2 to 5:30 p. m. Those who can are asked to go early.

The days set for the various school districts are printed in the calendar on the woman's page.

Itch Powder Used on Nudist Cult

NELSON, B. C., May 2 (AP)—British Columbia police used itch powder and short lengths of garden hose as weapons yesterday when they encountered 200 nudists on parade at Thrums, 16 miles from Nelson. Authorities arrested 117 men and women.

The nudists, many of whom were nude, fought back savagely. They turned several streams of water on the officers.

The police sprang clear of the water and sprayed the powder on the exposed bodies of the men and women, finally herding them into an orchard where they were held until trucks arrived to bring them here.

The prisoners consisted of 33 women and 84 men. They will be arraigned during the week. Persons guilty of parading in the nude are liable to three years' imprisonment.

Atom Split by Young Scientists

LONDON, May 2 (AP)—Two young scientists of Cambridge university were hailed today as having achieved a goal physicists have sought to reach for years. They have broken the atom.

In announcing details of what he called "A discovery of great scientific importance," Lord Rutherford, noted scientist, said Drs. J. D. Cockcroft and E. T. S. Walton accomplished the feat after several years of work with apparatus erected under his supervision.

Dr. Cockcroft said he and his colleagues bombarded hydrogen atoms with a voltage of 120,000 and that under the bombardment the hydrogen atoms began to break up into helium, a still rarer gas. The helium atoms, he said, came out of the bombardment with energies of 100 to 160 times those of the particles fired into them.

Only Three Die in May Disorders

By The Associated Press.

Three persons were dead today, scores were in hospitals and hundreds of heads bore marks of May day celebrations throughout the world. The disorders were less serious than in other years, however, and the observance was ranked as one of the most peaceful since the World War.

Most large cities saw parades of Socialists, Communists and workers' groups yesterday. The largest of all was a day-long march at Moscow of two million men and women, soldiers and civilians, past the tomb of Lenin in Red Square.

One man was killed near Madrid, during a clash and two others met death in the coal strike area of Sosnowiec, Poland.

Helene Madison Is Still Supreme

LOS ANGELES, May 2 (AP)—There was a new national women's indoor A. A. U. swimming team champion today, but the same sturdy, unaffected Helene Madison was in possession of highest individual honors with three titles for the meet.

The Los Angeles athletic club wrested the crown from the New York women's swimming association yesterday with 40 points while the strong-hearted Seattle girl won the 50-yard free style honors with ridiculous ease.

Miss Madison's third victory of the championships, coupled with her brilliant work at Anchor on the Washington A. C. 400-yard relay team, netted her club 20 of the 30 points which gave it a tie for second place with the New York club.

LIQUOR CASE IS STARTED TODAY

Selection of a jury to try George (Hos) Johnson on a charge of sale of intoxicating liquor was started in 31st district court this morning.

A jury last week failed to agree on a verdict in a trial in which Johnson was charged with selling intoxicating liquor to two McLean girls. Johnson lives at McLean.

John Sturgeon, a member of the firm of Cook, Smith, Teed, Sturgeon and Wade, was appointed district attorney for this week by Judge W. E. Ewing. Raymond Allred, district attorney, is unable to perform the duties of his office on account of a neck injury suffered last fall in a highway accident.

Johnson's attorneys are Marion Reynolds of Shamrock and Claude Williams of McLean.

Mr. Sturgeon was prosecutor last week in Johnson's trial. He also represented the state in the trial of Mike Maladin.

GUARD HER

Mrs. Massie Will Testify at Trial

HONOLULU, May 2 (AP)—With a definite promise Mrs. Thalia Massie will testify against the remaining four men accused of brutally assaulting her, prosecuting officials today were to lay final plans for retrial of the case.

Representatives of the attorney general and the public prosecutor were expected to determine a date for trial—probably within two weeks. They also were to decide whether prosecutor John C. Kelley, who obtained manslaughter conviction last Friday of Mrs. Massie's husband, mother and two sailors for lynching the young woman's fifth alleged attacker, will handle the territory's case.

The four accused of assaulting Mrs. Massie last September are Horace Ida, Japanese; Henry Chang, Chinese; David Takai, Japanese; and Ben Ahakulo, Hawaiian. Their first trial last November ended with the jury deadlocked.

Old Experiment in Communism Is to Be Abandoned by Iowa Colony

HOMESTEAD, Ia., May 2 (AP)—A 90-year-old venture in communism gave way today to the capitalist system as the Amanak society became a stock corporation operating under Iowa laws.

For almost a century in the United States, and for that long previously in Germany, members of the society have shared alike from the gains of their co-operative work. All verdicts, whether farming, tending teams in the woolen mills or directing the society, received the same share of food, clothing, other necessities and such luxuries as sale of surplus goods provided.

Family lived in individual homes but cooking was done in community kitchens and the meals were served at common centers in the four villages which form the community. Being a deeply religious organization moving pictures were not shown in the towns, young ladies did not use cosmetics and until a few years ago motor vehicles were a rarity.

Beginning today, however, and during a one-year transitional period all members of the society will receive ten cents an hour for work done, each family will have a home and garden rent free, and goods will be sold at the colony stores at cost plus handling charges.

WON LAST YEAR

Miss Leona Leedom, above, won the title of "Miss West Texas." She was 12 local contestants last year in a beauty pageant staged at the La Nora. She was given a free to Lake Wichita, where she competed with fifty West Texas girls, before a crowd of ten thousand for the title of "Miss West Texas." She was given the title by ten judges and was entered in the International Beauty Pageant at Galveston. "Miss North Plains" will be selected at the La Nora Theater Thursday and Friday night—and will be entered in the "Queen of the West" contest at Roswell, N. M.

Costly Walk-out
Janet, I know, lost $50,000 in salary by walking out on "Lillom." Even to a star that's a lot of money, and Janet likes the things money buys.

On her return from Honolulu she played in "The Man Who Came Back," in which she played a sweet girl who turned narcotic addict. She knows she wasn't very convincing in the part, but believes it did her no harm. For then came "Daddy-Long-Legs," a typical Gaylor role, and the contrast made it the more welcome. "Merely Mary it."

Small wonder they "agreed" with Janet, at that. She's the ace box-office attraction on the Fox lot, and that isn't forgetting Will Rogers, either.)

Local girls who will compete for the title of "Miss North Plains" are: "Miss Aladdin Beauty Shop," Eura Rose; "Miss Vanity Beauty Shop," Mildred Harrison; "Miss Permanent Wave Shop," Marjorie Butler; "Miss Quality Cleaners," Ester Cook; "Miss V-J Ford," Lola Hill; "Miss Advocate," Mildred Haggard; "Miss Richard's Drug," Alice Phillips; "Miss Fred's Studio," Dorothy Barnes; "Miss Coca Cola," Myrtle Seals; "Miss Court-House Cafe," Dolly Warren. Five out-of-town judges will select six of the most charming to compete with out of town contestants on Friday night. The winner will be given a free trip to the "Queen of West" pageant to be staged at Roswell, N. M.

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—There is a lot of courage and fighting spirit in the tiny, stary-eyed and red-headed miss called Janet Gaylor.

You might not suspect that little Janet, with her sweet voice, can speak with authority and all-gory have her way. But twice in the past two years she has done it.

When she didn't want to play in "Lillom," she walked out.

And went to Honolulu. When she came back she got what she wanted. Recently she turned down "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" as a vehicle, insisting on "The First Year" instead. She got it.

Underneath that disarming sweetness Janet has a good sound head. She says:

"I didn't object to 'Rebecca' because it was so much the type of picture I've been doing. I really don't mind being typed as the character the fans know. I think it's silly to talk about my wanting to be a 'new Janet Gaylor,' because I know I can't. I know I can't be a Garbo or a Shearer, ever.

Sincere
"May part in 'The First Year' isn't heavy or dramatic, but it has some depth to it. That's what I want. I think all I really have is sincerity. That's what has carried me through in the change from silents to talkies. My voice has been criticized, brutally sometimes, and I think I've gotten by only because I am sincere.

"I couldn't be sincere in 'Rebecca,' and besides it is a part for a comedienne, which I'm not. That's why I objected to playing it. But we didn't fight about it. We just talked it over, and they agreed with me."

MAGNOLIA'S ERRORS GIVE TEXACO STARS GAME SUNDAY

VISITORS ARE MUCH OUTHIT BUT TRIUMPH

LOCALS SEVEN RUNS IN LEAD AT THIRD INNING

The Magnolia "Mags" made the mistake of letting up in the third inning when they had the Texaco stars of Amarillo down seven runs. They counted an error in their stride when the Stars showed a reversal of form and the visitors won 14 to 8 yesterday afternoon on Magnolia diamond.

Burke's support suddenly cracked about the fourth inning and he naturally went up in the air. The "Mags" committed no less than eight errors during the game.

Weathered, Bozeman and Thorne were the chief offenders. The boys showed lack of practice; the weather having limited them to two workouts last week. Sullivan committed the Texaco boys only two errors.

Warren, Weathered, and Lister were the hickory Wielders of the day with three blows each to their credit. Lister crossed the plate three times and Weathered twice. The Mags outhit the Stars 16 to 12, but the errors marked the difference in the score.

Lister hit for three bases in the first inning to score three runs. Warren and Shriver hit doubles. The Stars hit six doubles, two going to Harris and Bradford, and one to Buchanan. Burke had six strikeouts to his credit while the three Amarillo hurlers were whiffing two.

Robinson started the game for the Stars but lasted only three innings when he was relieved by the slugging Hardwick. Basset finished the game but allowed three runs.

Warren, "Mag" centerfielder, had a great day in the garden. He accepted five chances without an error. Lister and Shriver were also on the job and the Magnolia infield clicked the score would have been different.

Buchanan, Stars second baseman, was the cause of many Pampa players never reaching first base. He roamed far and wide to gobble up six hot grounders without a bobble. Bradford at third also did some nice fielding. Kyle did some nice fielding in the garden.

Next Sunday afternoon the Magnolia will go to LeFors where they will play a return game to decide the title on May 11 to 10 decision from LeFors in the game here. LeFors has a strong team and a promising young pitcher in Clemens, if he is not ruined by a curve-ball catch. He was "curved" to decide the game early in the game. The pitcher had a blinding fast ball plenty of curves but his control is a little off yet.

Score by innings yesterday:
 Magnolia: 502 000 200 - 9 16 8
 Stars: 000 340 312 - 14 12 2
 Batteries: Magnolia, Burke and Bozeman; Stars, Robinson, Harrison, Basset and Barron; Umpires, Buckingham and Bradley.

This Game of GOLF

The funniest thing I ever saw on a golf course happened in the semi-finals of the recent North and South championship for women at Piquette, in the match between Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City and Miss Margaret Maddox of Atlanta. It was at the fourth green and concerned a Scotty whose name I never did ascertain.

It started out to be a very tough match for the eastern champion. She lost the first hole to a very big advantage; in the second, lost the third when the Atlanta girl got home in two great wood shots, and was confronted with a six-foot putt at the fourth green for a half, her opponent being dead for a par 4.

The Scotty had been roaming around in the gallery, paying a lot of attention to everything except the match.

As Mrs. Hill, playing with great care, knelt on the green to study the line of her very important putt, however, the Scotty's attention was suddenly aroused.

Lady in Distress

First, he trotted over to Mrs. Hill and peered up anxiously into her face. She didn't notice him; she was then gazing intently at the hole, from which the flag had been removed.

The Scotty followed the line of her vision promptly. From that point on, his mental processes were traced with amazing clarity.

He looked at the hole. This lady (he evidently reflected) was worried about something in that hole. Perhaps she was afraid of it. He, the gallant Scotty, would just see about it.

He trotted up to the hole boldly, but ready for instant action, if necessary. Arriving, he carefully planted one front paw on each side of the hole. Then he peered intently into it. The he stuck his nose down into it as far as his head would go - right up to the ears.

Then he pulled his head up smartly, and gazed around at the palpitating gallery. His expression was perfectly plain:

"Why," he said, "there's nothing in it - not a thing."

And then he lay down on the hole and hollered across it twice. Then he got up, shook the sand from his coat, and trotted off the green, beaming. He had done his duty. He had showed the timorous lady there was nothing to be afraid of - he, the brave Scotty!

Tension Spans

The gallery roared. Mrs. Hill threw back her head and laughed. She loves Scotties anyway; brought one back from Edinburgh, once named Glenna - a Scotty pup.

And the incident appeared to relax the tension. She lined up the putt again, swiftly and holed it!

The Scotty, apparently satisfied that his duties in this match had been discharged, trotted away and was seen no more.

Mrs. Hill lost the next hole to a biddle 3 and took three putts to go 3 down at the "Cathedral." Then she rallied, made no more mistakes; kept the pressure on firmly, and won 2, up at the last green.

I suspect she still likes Scotties, a lot.

Blair Bowlers In First Place At League Finish

The Blair Motor company's bowling team in the City Bowling league took first place when the league schedule was completed Friday night. The Texas company took second honors, one game behind the motor men. The Supply Boys were in third place with the Kiwanis club in the cellar.

The league winners won 47 games and lost 34. C. L. Stine rolled high game of the season with 244 pins. One pin behind Stine came Fred Cullum. Fowler was third high man with 239 pins.

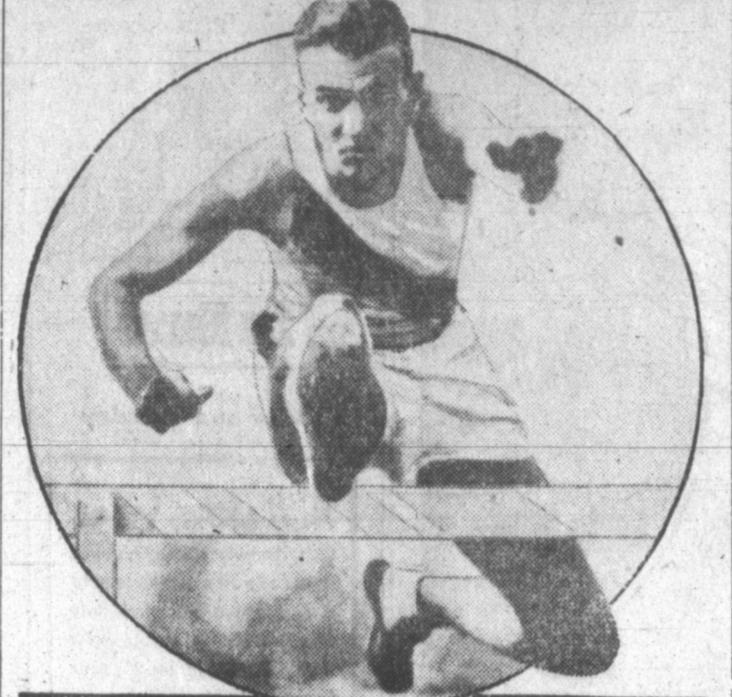

The Supply Boys rolled the high single game with 216 pins. Blair Motor followed with a game of 892 pins. Fred Cullum took the prize for high three game with a total of 901 pins, one pin ahead of F. A. Peek. Bill Lang followed with 597 pins. The Supply Boys rolled high three games with a total of 2,662 pins.

Fred Cullum rolled 66 games for an average of 167 2/3 pins to lead the league. T. P. Morton and C. L. Stine followed with an average of 164 pins. F. A. Peek was next with an average of 163 pins.

The league standing:

OLYMPIC HOPES

Lee Sentman, probably the greatest hurdler the Western Conference has known, surely must be counted an outstanding candidate for the United States Olympic team. The former University of Illinois star is the present holder of the Big Ten record of 14.4 seconds for the 120-yard high hurdles made in 1931, a mark that equals the world record. Sentman gained an interscholastic reputation at Decatur, Ill., his home. At Illinois he was a consistent performer in both hurdles events. While he has negotiated the low barriers under 24 seconds, it is unlikely that he will attempt the 400 meter low hurdles in the Olympic trials. The high sticks are his specialties.

FORT WORTH'S FIRST PLACE HOLD IS FIRM

FOURTEEN WINS OUT OF 18 STARTS CATS' RECORD

By BILL PARKER
 Associated Press Sports Editor

It begins to look as if some team is going to have to see T. N. T. to jump Fort Worth out of first place in the Texas league pennant chase. The Cats but refuse to lose to make the race closer.

Yesterday at Fort Worth, Manager Dick McCabe sent George Grant to the mound after the Cats' seventh consecutive victory. He got it with a 5 to 2 decision over Galveston. It was Fort Worth's fourteenth win in 19 starts. Grant was touched for seven hits but they were not bunched enough to worry him.

The Houston Buffaloes lowered their horns and hooked the Dallas Steers, 8 to 0, to retain second place. A young right-hander announced as Heusser took a six-hit game for Houston. It was four innings before Dallas got a hit. Houston drove Ralph Erickson to the showers with nine hits and seven runs in five and one-third innings.

Wichita Falls climbed into a tie with Fort Worth in a 13-inning set, 4 to 3. Tom Conlan, prize Rookie Wichita Falls hurler, and Cy Smith, San Antonio veteran, engaged in one of the best mound duels of the season.

George Siler's Shreveport Sports, way down in the Texas league cellar, broke their long losing streak by beating Beaumont, 3 to 2. Shreveport played brilliant defensive ball behind the excellent pitching of Biggs who allowed eleven hits but was never in serious trouble. The Sports collected only five hits but made each one count.

Hooks and Slides

By WILLIAM BRAUCHER
 The Tennis Picture

There is probably not a little hypocrisy in a situation which makes it possible for an athlete to live off the fruits of his genius on the tournament field and go under the name of amateur.

But even that sad state of affairs is not undermining the structure of our civilization, as the zealous would have us believe. For every tennis player who pokes the ball to the entertainment of the paying spectator, there are 50,000 widowers of the racket whose backhands are charitably obscured from the public gaze.

Hot Polloi Play, Too

That is part of the picture of tennis today in the United States, clearly etched by O. D. Ellis, writing in the recent expiring issue of Tennis, the official publication of the U. S. L. T. A. Ellis goes on:

"One of the popular delusions is that tennis is the sport of the country's landed gentry. . . . the average American tennis club is by no means the establishment voluptuous. . . . for every blood who owns a tennis racket, there are at least 5,000 bookkeepers, refrigerator salesmen and bank clerks who ply the art after working hours."

The Park Player

Ellis gives an interesting picture of the public parks players. Here are a few excerpts:

"Strictly speaking, organized tennis in this country concerns itself only with members of tennis clubs. The player is a member of a club, the club pays dues to the sectional association, and sectional associations make up the U. S. L. T. A."

"The golf which separates the lad who bats tennis balls in the public pasture and the young man who belongs to a club, be it ever so humble, is as wide as the broad Atlantic. . . . but, instead of worrying about his backhand, and complaining because the lines of the court are not visible, the park player enjoys himself."

Very Well Mixed Doubles

"Mixed doubles, anathema to the club player and so, is the park player's delight. The quartet almost invariably consists of a pretty girl, a dashing young blade who once saw Borotra, a homely fat girl who is the pretty girl's friend, and the freak."

"Sometimes the freak is a man, sometimes a woman. If a man, he is the fiancée of the pretty girl."

Horned Frogs to Face Rice and Baylor This Week to Triumph

DALLAS, May 2 (AP)—The Southwestern Conference is in for a busy week of baseball. Six games are scheduled and at least four of them will be important battles.

The Texas Christian Frogs remained in front last week by virtue of a 5 to 2 victory over Texas A. & M. at Fort Worth. However, the Frogs haven't won any pennant yet for they must battle Baylor Wednesday at Fort Worth and Rice Saturday.

The Texas Christian Frogs remained in front last week by virtue of a 5 to 2 victory over Texas A. & M. at Fort Worth. However, the Frogs haven't won any pennant yet for they must battle Baylor Wednesday at Fort Worth and Rice Saturday.

Baylor suffered a severe setback Saturday by dropping a doubleheader to Texas, but the Bears are sure to have enough comeback spirit to give the Frogs a tough baseball session.

The other important series will be Friday and Saturday at College Station between Texas and Texas A. & M. The Aggies are almost out of the race but Texas is only a few points behind the Frogs with 8 victories and 3 defeats. The Longhorns pulled a mild surprise by beating Baylor a doubleheader Saturday, 6 to 3 and 3 to 2.

HALLAHAN HAS STOPPED CUBS GREAT STREAK

WILD ONE WALKS TEN BUT ALLOWS 3 SINGLES

By HERBERT W. BARKER
 Associated Press Sports Writer

An altered lineup and a typical pitching performance by Wild Bill Hallahan has given the world champion St. Louis Cardinals their first victory in four games and snapped the Chicago Cubs' winning streak at seven in a row.

Gabby Street, slightly annoyed by an outfit that had won only five games out of its first 15, benched first baseman Jim Bottomley yesterday, shifted Jimmy Collins to that post and inserted Ray Blades into the outfield.

The lineup stopped the Cubs without trouble 7 to 1, but the credit perhaps rests chiefly on Hallahan's shoulder. The "wild one" passed ten men but allowed only three singles. Four double plays stopped the Cubs every time Hallahan's generosity put them in a threatening position.

The Cubs' defeat automatically sent the idle Boston Braves into first place. In the only other National League game, Cincinnati came from behind to down Pittsburgh, 7-5 after the Pirates had gained a 5-0 lead.

Washington gained the American League lead by beating the New York Yankees, 4, as Lloyd Brown outpitched Charley Fultin. Brown witnessed the finish of the game from the clubhouse. Marberry going in with one out in the ninth after the Yankees had put two men on base.

Wes Ferrell won his fifth game in a row as Cleveland pounded out an 11-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox. The much-traveled right hander, Irving Hadley, made his first start for the St. Louis Browns, struck out 11 men and beat Detroit, 4-3.

Chicago Negro Is Real Runner

CHICAGO, May 2 (AP)—Ralph Metcalfe, 21-year-old negro from Chicago, promises to be the sprinting sensation of the 1932 Olympic games.

That was a prediction today of John Nicholson, Notre Dame track coach, after watching Metcalfe, the flying ebony of the cinder path, dig his powerful legs into the turf at the Drake relays Saturday, to tie the world's record of 9.5 in winning the 100-yard dash with two yards to spare.

The Chicago youth, running his first year of collegiate competition for Marquette university, is an amazing sprinter. It used to be that he had trouble in getting off with a terrific burst of speed, but he seems to have overcome that and gets away now like a shot.

He is just 21, 5 feet 11 inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds.

CHICAGO May 2 (AP)—King Levinisky heard rumblings from Reno, Nev., today that he would be offered $50,000 for a ten-round battle with Jack Dempsey there July 4.

The offer will come from the gambler, said "Leaping Lena" Levy, manager of her big brother fighter, the Kingfish.

"And, Oh, he is such a fine gambler," quoted Leaping Lena, "but he certainly is a big name now."

COTTON IRREGULAR

NEW ORLEANS, May 2 (AP)—The cotton market today had an active but irregular opening. First trades showed losses of three points to advances of three points. Liverpool came in much better than due but the market here ignored the cables. After the start prices rallied on covering by shorts and some little trade buying, July trading at 5.65, October at 5.87 and December at 5.99, or 3 to 6 points above Saturday's close. NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—A further trickle of special liquidation kept the stock market on the decline today but selling showed signs of drying up in the late trading and there were numerous recoveries of from fractions to a point or so, after leaders had registered losses of 1 to 5 points. The closing tone was heavy. The turnover was less than a million shares.

Real Vaquero Is Riled by Taunts of City Cowboy

This Pampian, a prominent and enthusiastic Jaycee but a man totally unfamiliar with a real vaquero and their ways, saw him in the rear of a grocery store as he was taking a short cut down the alley.

The Pampian should have been warned when he saw that the man was eating canned peaches out of a can, with crackers, but the Pampian saw only the person's 10-gallon hat, his boots, checkered shirt, hairy chaps, wrist gauntlets, red handkerchief, etc.

"What a get-up!" roared the Pampian, slapping the back of the man's leather vest. "Where'd you get it? I reckon you'll be wearing that air outfit to the banquet Monday night, stranger." (Aping the drawl of Gary Cooper).

"Hey," growled the cowboy, "what the hell's in it? What do you think I am? One of them them chamber of commerce cowboys? In a cow-hand from out on Chicken Creek, and gettin' before I bulldog you. I want to finish this can of cling peaches and I don't want to turn my stumppick by bloodying your funny face!"

Magnolia Tests With New Cars

DALLAS, May 2—To determine by actual test the performance of its fuels and lubricants in the new passenger cars for 1932, the Magnolia Petroleum company has embarked upon what is probably the most extensive motor vehicle test ever undertaken in the Southwest. J. M. Marnan, chief engineer of the Magnolia technical department, announced with the departure of Magnolia test fleet from Dallas for a preliminary 3,500 mile circle tour of the Southwest.

"Every since the first automobile was brought to the Southwest early in the present century, Magnolia has worked in close harmony with the automotive industry and kept pace with every advance in automotive design by manufacturing fuels and lubricants which are refined and blended with an exactness which assures maximum performance and economy," Mr. Marnan said. "By such rigid tests under actual driving conditions we obtain data which is used by our engineers and chemists in producing lubricants and fuels especially designed to meet every requirement of present-day automotive transportation."

The most recent additions to Magnolia's test fleet are new 1932 Chevrolet and Plymouth sedans, and a new Ford V-8 will be added to these as soon as available. The new test cars are piloted by W. T. Ashcraft and John A. Mowlett, lubrication engineers of the Magnolia technical staff, who will take readings on the scientific instruments with which the cars are equipped and compile a complete record of the tour with graphs showing the performance of the test cars under various driving conditions.

On the preliminary test tour the new fleet will visit many of the larger cities and towns in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and New Mexico and contact dealers in cars of the makes represented, Magnolia service stations and dealers everywhere. Lubrication engineers on the tour will be available for consultation with automotive lubricating stations in cities where stops are made.

Scientific testing instruments designed to show with absolute accuracy the performance of the cars and the fuel and lubricants used, are installed in each of the test cars.

On the dash of each test car is found a tachometer which shows engine speed in revolutions per minute, four oil temperature gauges giving readings of oil temperatures in the crank case, at the oil pump outlet, in the transmission and in the differential, a special 100-mile precision speedometer and odometer and an automatic service recorder which makes a permanent daily record of the time the car is in operation and indicates all stops and mileage readings.

The itinerary of the test tour includes the following cities and intermediate points in the order named: Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Austin, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Houston, Beaumont, Lake Charles, Shreveport, Texarkana, Little Rock, Fort Smith, Muskogee, Tulsa, Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Clinton, Amarillo, Tucumcari, Albuquerque, Socorro, Las Cruces, El Paso, Pecos, Midland, Big Spring, Sweetwater, Abilene, Albany, Breckenridge, Graham, Olin, Archer City, Wichita Falls, Crows, Gainesville, Denison, Sherman, McKinney and Dallas.

OIL THEFTS--

"Favored Spot"

"In these days when poverty stalks the face of the earth and suffering is rampant in its remotest corners, it has developed that we are in a favored spot," Judge Harris declared. "The richest oil field in the world is at our door."

"We have welcomed investors whether they be people able to buy only small royalties, or those able to develop large acreages. Many of our own people, after struggling for years to make a living, find themselves with a competence for life if the same is properly conserved."

"Others with life savings have become the owners of mineral interests that must be given protection by our laws. If reports are true there exists in this country a condition that will take much of your time, wisdom and patience. Where children cry for bread, justice may be tempered with mercy, but if you find that men of position and influence have allowed greed and avarice to take from our oil field that which does not belong to them, spare neither time nor expense in bringing the culprits to justice."

Those already arrested were E. M. Daniels of Henderson, deputy supervisor of the commission; Paxton Gray of Gladwater, former deputy supervisor; M. C. Tolbert of Gladwater, railway agent; J. T. Harris of Center, oil operator; L. M. Harris of Center, operator; John Whitener of Gladwater, oil field worker; Tom Tarrington of Lubbock, worker; Ralph Durrett of Jacksonville, loading rack employe; Fred McDonald of Cloud, Okla., pipeline worker; Harold Dyers of Dallas, pipeline worker; R. W. Porter of Dallas, oil operator; and Bill Taylor, pipeline worker. Most of them were taken into custody Saturday night.

Bond of $750 was set on each charge. Gray, Daniels and L. M. Harris made bond yesterday and last night.

Col. L. S. Davidson, commander of the military forces on duty in the East Texas field, said as much as two years had been cut from the life of some wells in the Gladwater area by overproduction and oil thefts. Many offset wells were damaged almost as badly.

Pressure Lost

Some of the over-produced wells lost between 15 and 40 pounds pressure in the past five months, he said. This was equal to a year's production under the allowable. The average pressure reduction under the allowable is about four pounds a month.

Club Girls Buy Materials Here

The Grandview 4-H club girls spent all day Friday in Pampa selecting materials and patterns for dresses the girls will enter in the county 4-H club dress-making contest in June. Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, accompanied the girls on a shopping tour at three local stores.

Other 4-H club girls will make similar shopping tours in Pampa in the near future. Miss Adams said. Clerks in all the stores visited were courteous and accommodating, Miss Adams said. They gave appreciated assistance in helping the girls choose the color, design and material.

Girls in the shopping group were Wilhelmina Johnson, Evelyn Johnson, Zoah Lee Jones, Jo Iva Clements, Catherine McCormick. They were chaperoned by Mrs. D. D. McCormick and Mrs. Edna Williams.

Fire Record of City Is Better

The first fire in May resulted in no damage. A call was received from 211 North Gillespie street yesterday when a small out building was on fire.

The department received only nine calls during April and the total loss was estimated at $120. There were no false alarms. Only one fire during April was an inhabited residence. There were no fires in the business district, excepting the smoking motor at the White House grocery.

Fire Chief Clyde Gold has nothing but praise for the merchants and citizens of Pampa. They are taking an interest in fire prevention that has not been manifest in the past, according to the fire chief. If they keep up the good work, Pampa will get back some of her lost rating, the chief declared.

MANY GOLFERS OPEN TOURNEY

Fifty-six Pampa golfers played the first round in the Country club open tournament yesterday. The entrants will play 18 holes during the week and 18 holes next Sunday and the winner will be declared.

Each player's score for the 54 holes will be tabulated and his handicap score will be declared winner. Four valuable prizes will be given the four low scores. Individual prizes will go to players making the longest drive, most birdies in one round, and other shots.

Ben Farris turned in the lowest score yesterday afternoon when he shot a 76. Dr. R. A. Webb followed with a 78. W. F. Delmator and Tommy White shot 80 each and Dr. H. H. Hicks turned in an 83. To Frank Southalter went the top score of the day. He turned in a 122.

Play during the week may be turned into two nine-hole games but the entire 18 holes must be played. A golfer will not be allowed to shoot his 18 holes over the same nine.

Money Ready to Pay to Kidnaper

JOLIET, Ill., May 2 (AP)—The kidnaped 22-year-old Gustav Miller has not returned home yet although $50,000 ransom was reported ready for his abductors and an intensive private search was carried on today by his wealthy father.

An uncomproed telephone call traced to the haunts of the notorious "42" gang of Chicago turned the search in that direction yesterday but nothing was known of the identity of the caller, as he hung up before a connection was made with the home of the father, Ax Miller, a wholesale grocer.

The family's attorney, W. D. Heise, planned to leave for New York today but declined to divulge the purpose. Nor would he report on any success he might have had in a hurried trip to Aurora, Ill. Friday after the elder Miller was informed by telephone where his son's car would be found.

The young man disappeared Thursday night. His father has refused co-operation of the police but it was reported he had sought assistance of Chicago's famous "Secret Six." The police said they would not take part in a search until requested but declared they have learned four men in an automobile bearing Ohio license plates were the abductors.
