

SMALL LAND BILL IS SUSTAINED

Drive on Reckless Drivers Is Begun by Police

VIOLATORS TO BE FINED AND NOT EXCUSED

IGNORING OF TICKETS TO DRAW DOUBLE PENALTIES

MOTORISTS GOING WILD

NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE RECOGNIZED BY JUDGE

War on traffic violators, and especially on those who ignore summons to city court or police station, has been declared by the police department.

The move was instigated by C. L. Stine, the new city manager. The manager gave orders to police to arrest all violators and to the city police judge to impose fines with no exceptions.

"We are going to stop the menace of wild drivers in Pampa," Mr. Stine declared this morning. "No one is going to escape regardless of his or her position or prominence. Motorists have been running wild here during the last three months but their reign has ended."

Wayne Nicholson, new traffic officer, has been given orders to spare no one, but to give tickets to every motorist who is caught speeding, running stop signs, making wrong turns from alleys or other traffic violations. If the ticket is not presented in city court on the hour set, the violator will be arrested and fined doubly.

During the last two weeks 60 per cent of the violators given tickets failed to appear. Of the 40 per cent that reported, 75 per cent were released with a warning. The warning period is over and it will be fines from now on. The first fine will be from $1 to $3 and doubled for each succeeding violation.

The city manager's orders will be carried out this morning when Chief Downs declared this morning when giving Officer Nicholson his orders.

COST OF GRAND JURY IS $2,000

Cost of the 31st district court grand jury which adjourned last week to the county was $2,000, according to an estimate made by R. C. Wilson, county auditor.

The grand jury was in session 37 days, and examined 260 witnesses, and returned 47 indictments. Each of the 12 grand jurors drew $3 per day for every day he worked. Other expenses including witness fees, mileage, payments to bailiffs, and cost of bringing witnesses before the grand jury.

I HEARD--

City Manager G. L. Stine announced that he was not to be called on to make speeches, as he was going to be busy trying to operate the city's business and that he was leaving all the speech-making to Mayor W. A. "Bill" Bratton, an able orator.

M. K. Brown, telling an English story in his office this morning, C. P. Buckler, Tom Rose, Mel B. Davis, and H. H. Durston of Fort Worth were interested listeners. M. K. can make a fellow laugh whether he wants to or not.

Joe Landry who just returned from Fort Worth and East Texas telling about the weather "down in the sticks." Says Joe, "It was so darned hot that the flies didn't bother to come to the table."

WEATHER

OKLAHOMA: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; probably showers in east portion.

WEST TEXAS: Fair in west, partly cloudy in east portion tonight and Thursday.

—AND A SMILE
PITTSBURGH, June 1. (P)—Louis Tallonara, a confectioner, has a pistol now to protect himself against robbers. He got it from a robber. Last night two men sought to hold up his establishment. He snatched the weapon from one of them. The men fled. Besides having his receipts, Tallonara also obtained six nice bullets for the pistol.

HIGHER TAXES ARE OUTLINED

Postage Hike and Tax On Amusements Added To Income Levy Boost.

WASHINGTON, June 1. (P)—Besides the high income tax rate imposed in the revenue bill as passed by the Senate, following are some of the new levies which may be expected to fall directly on the average individual:

Higher postage, beginning at three cents per letter.

Excise taxes: Five per cent on radios, phonographs, mechanical refrigerators. Ten per cent on cosmetics, jewelry, sporting goods, cameras, fire arms and furs. Three per cent on automobiles, two per cent on accessories. Four cents a gallon on lubricating oil, one cent on gasoline. Two per cent on candy, chewing gum and soft drinks. Miscellaneous: Ten per cent on all admission tickets costing more than 40 cents. Ten to 20 cents on telephone messages over 50 cents. Six per cent on telegrams, ten cents on cablegrams. Two cents on all bank checks. Ten per cent on safety deposit box charges.

Other charges, such as the three per cent on gross receipts of electric utilities, and tariffs on imported oil, coal, copper and lumber, may be passed on indirectly.

The income tax rates are four per cent on the first $4,000; eight per cent above that with a graduated surtax beginning at one per cent above $6,000. Exemptions are $2,500 for married persons, $1,000 for single, in contrast to the present $3,500 and $1,500. The married person exemption is reduced to $2,000 for those making more than $5,000.

The net effect is that a married person with no dependents will pay $100 on the first $3,000; $40 on $4,000 and $100 on $5,000. The exemption for dependents stands as at present at $400 each.

Johnson Verdict On Right-of-Way Given Reversal

R. E. Johnson's $1,850.00 judgment in connection with use of a portion of his property for right-of-way for the Fort Worth & Denver Northern railroad, was reversed and remanded by the Amarillo court of civil appeals today.

Whether the reversal was on the court's allowing Johnson's side opening and closing arguments, or on some more fundamental error was not learned. Johnson was allowed $608 by a commission in condemnation proceedings, but he appealed this judgment to the county court, where the large sum was allowed.

The law firm of Cook, Smith, Teed, Sturgeon, and Wade appealed from the county court's rendering. The suit over what is a fair and proper sum for the right-of-way now goes back to county court. Enhancement of value of abating property by reason of the new line is one disputed point. Johnson's attorneys were Willis, Studer, and Studer.

JUDGMENTS BY DEFAULT

Judgment by default was rendered in the suit of J. E. Murfee, Jr., against J. E. Seitz in county court this week.

Similar judgments were rendered in two other suits: Rock Island Implement company vs. N. W. Shepherd, and Dave Pope vs. F. P. Hayes.

Judge S. D. Stennis appointed a commission including J. W. Graham, J. E. Williams and Edgar B. Stephenson to assess right-of-way damages in the case of the Fort Worth & Denver Northern railway again J. S. Hyatt.

I SAW--

This announcement from Betty Jane Blythe, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blythe: "The big noise in our family right now are two cats who came to stay with us on May 26th, and tip the scales at 10 oz. Mighty proud parent, Mrs. Chubby Katt."

This announcement from Joe Cook, former Pampa boy, who sought his way through the University of Texas: "The regents faculty and senior classes of the University of Texas request... at their commencement exercises June 6, 1932, Gregory gymnasium, Austin, Texas." Joe, editor of the Daily Texan, proved that students can still work their way through college ever during a depression.

FIRST FAMILY OF FRANCE

SIXTY-TWO BOY PATROLMEN RECEIVE CERTIFICATES FOR MAKING SCHOOLS SAFE HERE

No Traffic Mishaps Occurred Last Term

Sixty-two boy patrolmen were awarded certificates at a Kiwanis club meeting in the Schneider hotel last night. The boy patrol movement was sponsored by the club last year. The members acted as traffic officers in school playgrounds, study halls, and in other activities. President A. G. Post presided.

Judge Newton P. Willis, local attorney and chairman of the committee in charge, was the speaker at the evening. Mr. Willis declared that the best success of the club was in its interest in the boy and girl life, and that it was a pleasure to have sponsored the move that meant the abolishment of accidents around schools last year. He declared that not a traffic accident occurred in a school zone since the junior police was organized.

Working with the Kiwanis club in the move were Chief of Police J. L. Downs and Joe Fersky, then traffic officer. The speaker paid a tribute to the police, teachers, clubmen, and the Boy Scouts, for their interest in the work.

"Law enforcement in the United States is slipping at an alarming rate," Mr. Willis declared. "We in Pampa are not better than others, but thanks to the junior police we are being educated. Our accident toll has materially decreased in the past year and I believe the boys were largely responsible."

Mr. Willis said that four of the aims of the Kiwanis club are making schools safe.

Well Organized

One little service for one group arouses another demand and so on until the limit is reached. People do not protest, however, until their ability to pay is weakened. As long as voters have money, they do not mind seeing it spent. . . . Pampa's new city manager takes over the reigns under not at all unfortunate circumstances. Pampa was built in a hurry from a town to a young city, but it was built well under the direction of business men administrations and F. M. Gwin. It is a sound municipal organism. The machinery is well oiled and well housed. The problem now is to manage the civic structure as economically as possible without sacrificing efficiency. The cost of the municipal properties must be paid, and to do this without a strain on the taxpayers plainly calls for economy.

Cost Vs. Taxes

Some other cities not far away have had the tax reductionists for a long time, but without the accompanying virtue of economy. It is not wise to reduce taxes too much when the people are able to pay. This works a real hardship when they are less able. Publicly and privately, the American people have had

LIPSCOMB HAS HEAVY DOCKET

Robbery Of Booker Bank Is To Be Investigated By Grand Jury Soon.

Lipscomb county had the heaviest criminal docket in history when 31st district court opened at Lipscomb Monday.

Judge W. R. Ewing and District Attorney Raymond Alfred left Monday morning to open court at Lipscomb.

Judge Ewing charged the grand jury Monday morning, and the 12 men selected as their first job an investigation of the robbery of the First State bank of Booker. A former assistant county attorney of Potter county and three others are charged in connection with the holdup, robbery, and kidnaping of one of the bank officials.

Another case to be investigated is the daylight holdup of the Higgins bank. Four burglary cases are also on the docket.

District Attorney Alfred is meeting with the grand jury this week, and Judge Ewing is disposing of non-jury cases.

As soon as indictments in the bank robberies are returned, trials of the various defendants will be set.

Million Watch Outsider Crash English Derby

EPSOM DOWNS, Eng., June 1. (P)—The Fifth, an outsider owned by T. Walls, today won the 153rd running of the English derby before a crowd of one million including the king and queen.

Dastur, carrying the silks of Aga Khan, was second and Lord Rosebery's miracle, the second choice, third. Orwell, the favorite, was not in the money.

April the Fifth was quoted at 100 to 6 in the betting. Dastur was 18 to 1 and Miracle 100 to 9. Twenty one ran.

Gray County Affected

Much of the most valuable river bed holdings affected are in the north fork of the Red river for a distance of about seventy-five miles through Gray and Wheeler counties.

The suit was brought by the state to try title to the bed of the river, all of it to have been appropriate to the public school fund. As ground for the recovery, the state alleged

Scouting Shows Rapid Growth in Panhandle Area

The Boy Scout movement in the North Panhandle showed remarkable gains during 1931 as shown in the national report just received.

In January, 1931, there were 19 troops and 19 scoutmasters in the Adobe Walls council. When the year closed, there were 34 registered troops and 34 scoutmasters.

The average gain in the United States was less than four per cent, while that of the Adobe Walls council was nearly 100 per cent.

Starting 1931, there were 372 Boy Scouts in the council and at the close of the year there were 653 Scouts. There were 165 men interested and actively engaged in the work when the year started, and 232 when the year ended.

Statistics show that it costs $780 to keep a delinquent boy in the reform school and that the same sum will develop character and citizenship in 653 boys while they are Boy Scouts.

Committee Will Deal For Right-Of-Way On 152

The committee to assess damages for right-of-way on highway 152 from Pampa to the Wheeler county line will hear protests from land owners at the office of S. L. Anderson in Pampa, June 4, 6, 8, and 11.

Starting 1931, there were 372 Boy Scouts in the council and at the close of the year there were 653 Scouts. There were 165 men interested and actively engaged in the work when the year started, and 232 when the year ended.

DECISION HAS VITAL EFFECT IN GRAY COUNTY

STATUTORY NAVIGABLE STREAMS ARE ABOLISHED

SUPREME COURT SPEAKS

TRIBUNAL SAYS FUNDS FROM SABINE NOT FOR SCHOOLS

AUSTIN, June 1. (P)—The Small bill vesting title to river beds in original owners of lands reavered by them was held unconstitutional and fully sustained by the Texas supreme court today.

The case, in which constitutionality of the Small bill was involved, was styled State of Texas vs. C. W. Bradford et al. There were approximately six hundred defendants, claimants under the bill to valuable oil bearing lands, parts of dry river beds, in West Texas. Aggregate value of some of the property involved had been placed as high as $50,000,000.

The bill, sponsored by Senator Chitt C. Small of Amarillo and passed over the veto of Governor Dan Moody during his administration, validates title to land in the stream beds where the surveys cross streams that are not navigable but which are more than thirty feet wide.

Gray County Affected

Much of the most valuable river bed holdings affected are in the north fork of the Red river for a distance of about seventy-five miles through Gray and Wheeler counties.

The suit was brought by the state to try title to the bed of the river, all of it to have been appropriate to the public school fund. As ground for the recovery, the state alleged

Garbo "TANKS" SHE'LL RETURN TO HER SVEDEN

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., June 1. (P)—The motion picture studio where Greta Garbo has been employed the past several years apparently has concluded the film star really meant business when she said, "I tank I go back to Sweden." The studio has presented her a traveling bag.

Miss Garbo's contract officially ended today, although she made her last appearance before the camera with the completion of the picture "As You Desire Me."

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios had sought to have the Swedish star sign a renewal of her contract. She announced she preferred farm life in her home land to Hollywood.

Her manager announced last Sunday the actress would leave Hollywood within 10 days for Sweden for an "indefinite stay."

DIVORCE GRANTED

A divorce was granted the plaintiff this morning by Judge E. F. Ritchey in 114th district court in the suit of Linnie Farmer vs. William R. Farmer.

YOUR FAVORITE STAR (S)

You'd never guess who this pretty maid is! No, not in a hundred guesses! Looks like a very nice and charming young woman. Actually she's an all-star cast.

In fewer words, this is a composite picture which Hal Hyde, New York Photographer of stage and screen types, chooses to call: "Screen type, 1932-1933."

And here's the answer: She has reddish hair—warm brown shot with mahogany; it's parted in the center, a daring hair fashion, since it calls attention to the nose and mouth. The eyes are soft brown, expressive and a bit thoughtful; eyebrows are abundant and un-plucked; the mouth is full and generous, rather than a lip-rouged cupid's bow. Weight is 113 pounds and average height, five-foot-three.

LARGE GROUP OF MEN TO BE EMPLOYED ON HIGHWAY WORK FROM PAMPA EASTWARD SOON

Grading, Drainage Is To Be Started At Once

Cocke and Braden, contractors, will be ready to start grading and drainage work on highway 33 from Pampa to Miami in about two weeks. L. A. White, state resident engineer, said this morning.

The contractors are perfecting bonds and completing other necessary arrangements to begin the $114,000 project as soon as possible. Under the terms of the contract let by the state highway commission last week, the 14-mile strip from Pampa to the Roberts county line will be graded, drained, and topped with a bituminous surface over a caliche base.

The contractors are expected to employ from 200 to 300 men at one time. They are now completing a caliche-asphalt job on highway 66 in precinct No. 4. Eighty truck drivers were employed in hauling caliche on that project, in addition to other workmen. Marshall is headquarters for the contractors.

All the right-of-way has been purchased and the route is ready for the contractors, Mr. White said.

NEWS FLASHES AT PRESS TIME

PERRYTON, Tex., June 1. (P)—After J. M. Cone was found fatally wounded today in the garage of his home, officers began an intensive search for two of his children, who were reported missing.

Relatives said the children, J. M. Cone Jr., 9, and Vernon Cone, 6, went out with their father last night and failed to return.

Cone died at a hospital from two pistol wounds in the chest. A coroner's verdict of suicide was returned. He was 41 years old and until recently had operated a radiator repair shop here. He sold the business a few weeks ago.

NEW YORK, June 1. (P)—Samuel Seabury at a hearing of the Hefstadler committee today introduced testimony indicating that Mayor James J. Walker had owned bonds of the Reliance Bronze & Iron Works.

Trade Methods Told To Rotary By Two Speakers

Two of the most interesting talks of the year were delivered before the Rotary club today in a vocational service program arranged by Bill Smith. H. D. Keys told of retail trade development and P. O. Sanders explained the work of an abstractor.

Mr. Keys traced the beginnings of trade from the earliest forms of barter, trading one item for another through the first uses of precious metals as means of exchange. He told of the modern methods of conducting retail business and of the training necessary for success. New methods of better serving the public are being developed regularly and the successful merchant is always learning.

Mr. Sanders, in explaining the profession or business of an abstractor, used a miniature abstract showing the many transfers of a certain piece of land and clearing the titles in each case. He also read the lawyer's report of examination, which pointed out several items overlooked by the abstractor.

SMALL BILL--

The river was a statutory navigable stream. Caswell and Reed, two of the defendants, asserted they had an interest in the land under the oil and gas permit sections of the mineral act of 1917.

The decision held that river beds were the property of the state at large and not the school fund, having the effect of placing revenue from river beds to the credit of the state general revenue fund. It previously had been generally believed that revenue from development of the Sabine river, in the East Texas oil field, would accrue to the credit of the permanent school fund.

J. H. Walker, commissioner of the general land office, said after reviewing the court's decision in the Bradford case, it was plain the tribunal had held river beds were the property of the state at large and that under that holding, the general revenue fund would obtain return from the Sabine river leasing.

Sharp Wrote It: J. H. Sharp, member of the commission of appeals, who wrote the opinion, which was adopted by the supreme court proper, said it was the court's decision that river beds belonged to the state at large. He said that was the first time such construction had been placed on the statutes.

The state had contended the bed of the North Fork had never been legally sold or conveyed and was not subject to be sold. The state also contended the Small bill had no application because the suit was pending at the time the bill was passed and that if the act should be held applicable it was unconstitutional.

The supreme court held that the caption and the language and terms of the act provided for the validation of title and that it clearly was the intention to cure pre-existing defects in title to river beds. The opinion denied the state's contention that the Small bill was not retrospective and that its purpose was to validate titles to lands whose surveys have been heretofore made.

The bill had the effect of validating the titles even though a suit was pending for its recovery.

Selby, principal of junior high, spoke highly of the move and the responsibility taken off their shoulders. City Manager C. L. Stine, George W. Briggs, and Ensign J. F. Kirkman also spoke highly of the move and the work done by the junior police.

John Martin, captain of the junior police, responded for the boys, saying that the Kiwanis club could call on them for anything they wanted. He also thanked A. G. "Pete" Post, president of the club, and Chief Downs for their aid and cooperation.

Mrs. B. E. Wade of Groom shopped here yesterday afternoon.

Texas Supreme Court's decision in the famous river bed litigation, Judge S. D. Stennis, attorney for the Bowers interests, the Bradfords, and other defendants in the suit, said he thought it "a most satisfactory decision." The state is expected to ask a rehearing, and there is rumor that a writ of error may be asked of the United States Supreme Court. If the latter step was taken, it would be on the contention that the legislative act was passed after the suit was filed, and therefore was a violation of the "due process" clause of the federal constitution. It is confidently believed, however, that the fight has been won for the landowners.

Four states other than Texas are the destinations of the seniors. They are New Mexico, California, Oklahoma, and Missouri.

"Love, Honor—and Obey" Still Is Good Rule To Be Followed By June Bride Despite Claims of Feminists

It's been out from most marriage vows—that last word of "love, honor, and obey"—but the wise June bride will take an unspoken vow that she will observe that time-honored promise just as surely as if it had been specified by a minister.

The advice is given on this, the first day of the traditional brides' month to all brides of this or any other month.

It is right, we think, that the word should be omitted from a wedding ceremony, for it is something a man should not expect, but, nevertheless, his wife should give freely.

Not that a woman is morally obligated to obey her husband more than a man is to obey his wife, but the woman who wants a happy home will do well to respect the opinions of her husband, thereby helping to bring about congeniality.

To give over to a man in minor, and sometimes even major instances, does not give him a sense of all-importance, as some would have us believe. It does not destroy his respect for his wife. It does not even cause him to consider his wife as clinging vine.

The wise June bride will be neither a clinging vine nor an ardent feminist. She will have opinions, but often she will overlook her own wishes in favor of her husband's. When she does again her points it will be on the basis of logic, not on the basis of whining, nagging, or evident domination.

"Married couples make a mistake in trying to corral every bit of each other's time and personality." They should have mutual aims and companionship of course, but they should also respect each other's individuality and freedom.

First of Summer Brings Thoughts Of Cold, Lucious Dishes; Salads Present Chance For Much Variety

DENTON, June 1.—With the approaching hot days, appetites turn from the hot to the cold, luscious foods. Menus that are not only cold and appetizing but are quickly and easily prepared are more readily accepted during the summer months.

Salads hold the greatest place among the summer menus due to the plentifulness of fruits and salad greens with their refreshing qualities. There are many varieties of salads including meat, eggs, vegetables, fruit, berries and a combination of these.

Salads must be cold, crisp, well blended in flavor and attractive in arrangement. A salad shows the artistic or inventive qualities of a housewife more than any other dish she prepares.

MAKING HARD MATCH EASIER AGAINST WOOD

WOOD'S DEFEAT LEAVES HIM FAGGED FOR DOUBLES

AUTREUIL, France, June 1 (AP)—René LaCoste, who led the "three midgets" of French tennis five years ago when they captured the Davis Cup from America, stands out again this year as a possible candidate for the French Davis cup after three years in retirement.

LaCoste came back this year in the French championships, playing, said, for the fun of it. But to officials of the French tennis federation, who regarded his match with Sidney B. Wood Jr., yesterday as a vital test, his victory appears to be of considerable significance.

LaCoste continued to keep his own counsel after the match but the officials were not only because he won but because he was in such excellent condition after the grueling five-set match.

For the invading Americans, the consequences of LaCoste's triumph were far-reaching. Not only did it give Gregory Mangin as the only surviving American in the men's singles but it cost Wood and Mrs. Helen Willis Moody a possible victory in the Finals of the mixed doubles. They had to go on soon after the big singles match to face the English pair of Betty Nuthall and Fred Perry in the final match. Wood was tired that Mrs. Moody had to carry the burden of the match and the Americans were beaten in straight sets.

PHILLIPS HAS LEAD AT END OF RUN SPREE

Nose Out NEWS Outfi By 32-27 Score in Slugging Exhibition.

Condition told in a playground ball game yesterday afternoon when the Phillips Oilers won a 32 to 27 slugfest from the Pampa NEWS outfit at Sam Houston school. The newsmen scored 16 runs in the second inning and never recovered. The Oilers came back to score eight runs in their half of the third from the winded newsmen.

Hits were plentiful and of length. Dillman of the NEWS hit two homers and Marshall and Moore one each. Whitts of Phillips also connected for two homers with Erness and Herrin following with one each.

Phillips used six members of the LeFors ball team in the game. Newsome, LeFors centerfielder, scored five runs in eight trips to the plate. Herrin scored four and the rest of the sixteen players used enough to run in the rest of the scores.

Dillman was the NEWS' big scorer, with five counters to his credit. Workman followed with four runs. With the exception of Hoare and Johnson, every member of the newsmen nine scored twice in the hectic second inning.

Carter went the distance for the Oilers, while four moundmen saw duty before weak fielding for the newsmen. Dillman started but left in the third under a barrage of hits mixed with errors. Hoare followed him and pitched five innings before being kayoed by running into Freshour, Indian first baseman. Bourland and Wagner finished the game.

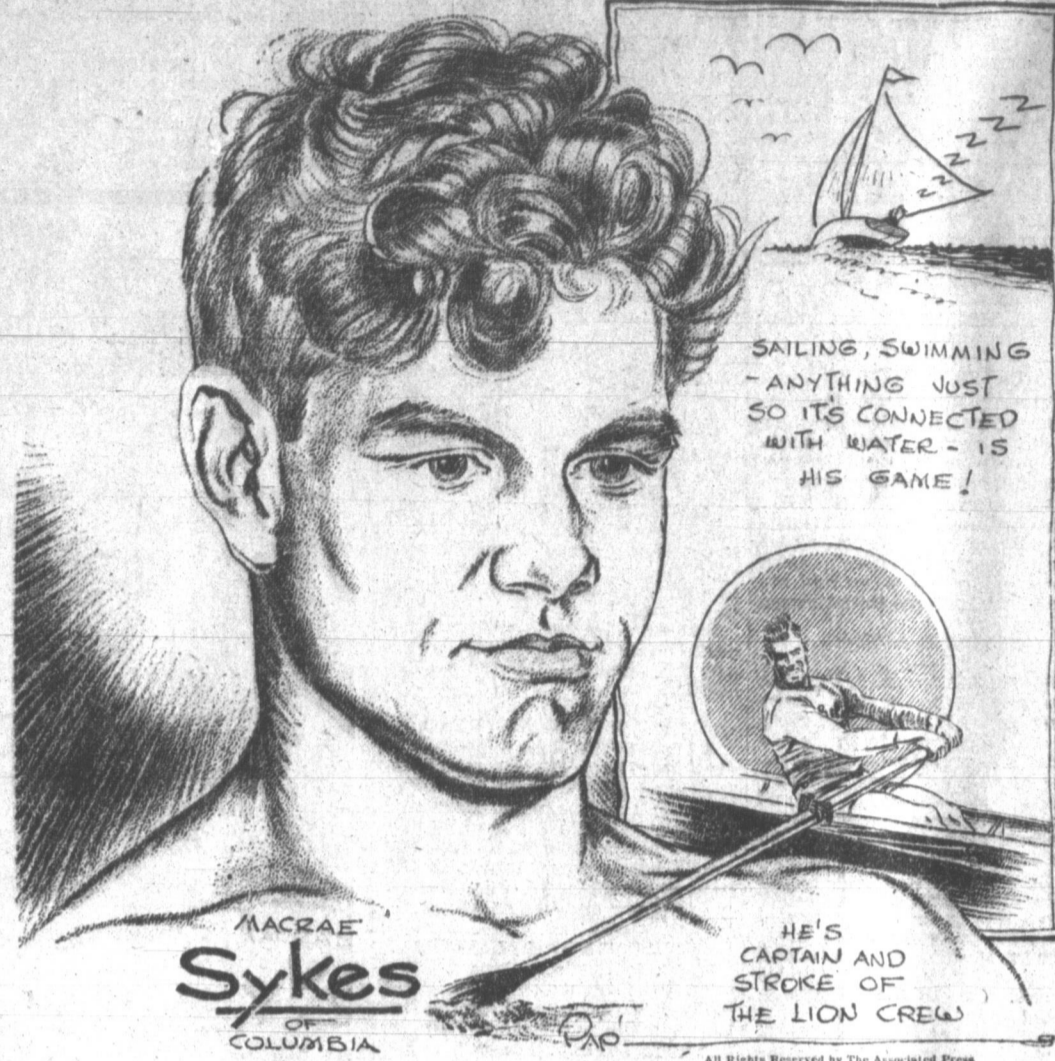

Wagner played the star game for the NEWS. The third baseman took everything that came his way. Bourland also played nice ball on first. Pond was the pick of the fielders.

Newsome and Thomas were the pick of the Phillips infield while Stewart and Whitts were taking everything in the outfield.

The game closed the season for the newsmen.

Jack Dempsey has gone back into the hotel business in Los Angeles, after a very profitable season around the exhibition circuit.

Dempsey's barnstorming no doubt helped convince him he's through so far as serious fighting is concerned.

It likely is all for the best. We like to recall the former champion as he looked on the night he flayed the robust chin of Gene Tunney at Chicago. Bloody as he was and beaten at the finish, Dempsey looked the great warrior again for a few flashes that evening before boxing's greatest spectacle.

Heavyweight Haven

California appears the haven for ex-heavyweight champions, although the last of them, Gene Tunney, remains close to the sidewalks of New York.

Dempsey calls Los Angeles home and he has, for neighbors, Jess Willard and Jim Jeffries, which just about make a quorum for any meeting of one-time heavyweight fistic rulers.

St. Paul has started slowly in the American Association pennant chase, which the Saints won last season, but the club's twirling staff established a record by holding the opposition to one hit in 18 straight innings.

The day after Bryan Harris shut out Kansas City without a hit or a run, Russell Van Atta held the Blues to a single safe blow. It wasn't until two were out in the eighth inning that Pat Collins got a hit off Van Atta. Thus the two pitchers collaborated in pitching 16 2-3 hitless innings.

The Olympic Crew

The conviction that Cornell and Yale will make it difficult for California's varsity eight to gain the Olympic assignment again is unshaken among the Eastern experts by the close and thrilling race between the Blue and the Red on Lake Cayuga.

The probability is that the U. S. A. will have three or four college eights capable of beating the best in the world by the time the try-outs are held in July, but only one combination will have the distinction of rowing at Los Angeles.

The naval battle of the year should take place on Quinsigamond, near Worcester, where the Olympic trials will be fought out.

LUCAS SEEKS MODERN MARK FOR PITCHERS

Wants to Finish More Of His Games Than Any Other Mound Ace.

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Charles (Red) Lucas, star member of Cincinnati's mound staff, apparently is out to set a modern record for complete games pitched in a season and with the full approval of Manager Dan Howley.

Thus far, the popular red-head has started and finished ten contests, with the campaign less than a third gone, and has won seven of them. At that pace, he stands an even chance of equalling or bettering the modern mark of 36 complete games set by Grover Cleveland Alexander back in 1915.

Two hurlers, Wes Ferrell of Cleveland and Bob Grove of the Athletics, turned in 27 full-time jobs last season.

That Col Howley is in sympathy with Lucas' ambition was demonstrated yesterday, when the Reds took a 4 to 1 beating from Pittsburgh and fell back into a tie with the Pirates for third place in the National League.

STEEERS AND CANNIBALS IN EXTRA INNING BATTLES

By The Associated Press

Several thousand Dallas fans were treated to five hours of baseball, ending just before 1 a. m. today, as the Steers and the Cannibals hooked up in a pair of extra-inning night encounters. Honors were even, the junior Brownies scoring two runs in the thirteenth frame to take the first game, 6 to 4, and the Steers winning the second contest in the tenth, 2 to 1.

More than 4,000 persons in the ladies' night crowd were cash customers and more than half of the 10,000 present stayed to the finish. The herd might have done more in the way of entertainment had not their defense cracked behind Jimmy Minge in the thirteenth inning of the opener, kicking in two runs. Ralph Erickson outthrew Fred Vincent in the afterpiece.

By breaking even, the Steers gained a half game on the Houston Buffs, their rivals for second place. The Buffs dropped a contest at Galveston, Beaumont, far ahead of both Dallas and Houston, rested.

The Buccaneers upset the Buffs, 5 to 3. George Darrow, Buc Left-hander, was in continual trouble but the Houstonians seldom nicked him in the pinches. He had enough stuff left to force Parham to ground out in the ninth with the bases loaded. Larry Fox hit a homer to help the Galveston cause.

The Tyler Sports, playing heads-up baseball of late, added to the woes of the Fort Worth Cats by blanking them 4 to 0. Charley Biggs turned in another masterpiece. The Tyler visit to Fort Worth had proved costly, however, as Ray Ater, shortstop just out of the University of Texas, suffered a fractured skull during batting practice last night when a bat slipped from the grasp of Cameron Best. Sport left fielder, and struck Ater.

HEAVY FINES ARE ASSESSED AFTER BATTLE

AND "THE UMP'S" WILL PONDER REBUKE BY PRESIDENT

CLEVELAND, June 1 (AP)—It will cost four members of the Chicago White Sox good money for their affair of fisticuffs with Umpire George Moriarty and the veteran arbiter can nurse a severe reprimand as well as his injuries.

President Will Harridge of the American League, after an investigation of Moriarty's battle with the Sox here Memorial day in which the umpire suffered a broken right fist and Pitcher Milton Gaston was knocked out, last night handed out penalties and censures all around.

Manager Lou Poffo of the Sox was fined $500, Pitcher Gaston was assessed a like sum and suspended 10 days, and Catchers Charley Berry and Frank Grube were penalized $250 and $100, respectively. In addition, Coach Johnny Butler was suspended five days without pay for "use of profane language" toward Moriarty.

Moriarty, who broke his hand on the same before the trouble started, was "severely reprimanded" and said has not been duplicated in the 21 years he has been in baseball, took place after Cleveland defeated Chicago in both games of a double-header.

Southwest Meets Old South With Honors at Stake

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., June 1 (AP)

The old south and the newer southwest clashed in combat for the women's southern association golf championship in the first major engagement of the tournament here today.

Miss Margaret Smith of Birmingham, the Alabama champion, met one of the co-medalists, Miss Amelia Gorceyca of Fort Worth, Tex., in a match which placed together two of the youngsters of the tournament.

The sections east and west of the Mississippi river were represented also in a battle between the other co-medalists, Miss Elizabeth of Vicksburg, Miss. titleholder, and Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas, the Texas champion.

Mrs. Walter Beyer of Tulsa, Okla., was paired with Miss Hilda Urbank of Austin, Texas, when the Oklahoma winner defeated here last week in matching to the trans-Mississippi title.

Miss Margaret Maddox of Atlanta, and Mrs. S. C. Hopkins of Texarkana, met in another east-west match.

Other pairings today in the championship flight included Mrs. F. E. Pharr of Texarkana, and Mrs. Tom Wallace of Sapulpa, Okla., the transmississippi runner-up.

Caddie Fee To Stay 75 Cents

KANSAS CITY, June 1 (AP)

For caddying 18 holes at local golf clubs the fee will be 75 cents, the Kansas City Golfers association has ruled.

Caddies have been on strike, demanding a return of the $1 fee, unemployed men, children of golfers, and the golfers themselves have been toting clubs. To settle the argument, the association called a meeting last night at which both sides were heard.

A half dozen caddies present their case. John Workman, 17, summed it up in these words:

STUPID! Jerry Colburn and Nancy Wentworth, a musical comedy star, are held up by five men on a Long Island road, while Nancy is taking him to a gas station to get fuel for his stalled car. He starts to resist, in spite of the sight of a machine gun, but is stopped by a bullet. The next day he recovers consciousness in a hospital, with a temporary head wound. Minutes, a detective, tells him that Nancy was kidnapped and that two millionaires have also been captured. He makes a connection between the three cases. Nancy Wentworth is employed to a rich man, which provides an additional motive besides her own fame for her abduction, since her fiancé could very large ransom. Jerry, who is an airplane pilot with some experience, counts revenge upon the kidnapers and hopes to rescue Nancy. He leaves the hospital trying to decide upon a plan of action.

Chapter 3

ALLIES FOR REVENGE
JERRY stood at the top of the marble steps and peered about for a taxi cab, hoping vaguely that one of the boys at the field would have come for him.

He glanced at a long black-and-nickel roadster standing at the curb, then stared at it more closely. No, it couldn't be, he decided; Emory Battles was in Boston.

He walked down the steps, crossed the narrow sidewalk and, bending low, peered into the driver's seat. There, his face resting upon arms outstretched over the great slanting wheel, was Emory, noisily asleep. Jerry's pulses leaped. He would rather have seen this lanky, carefree, reckless pal just at that moment than any other man in the United States. He reached in and gave the sleeper a slap on the back. Battles straightened up with a start of surprise. For a moment he blinked, bleary-eyed, at Jerry, then smiled in a wide, contented grin.

He read a statement to the reporters, describing the abductors' letter.

"Hello, kid!" he yawned. "Are you a free man?"

His greeting was as casual as though it had been but a day since he had seen his closest friend, instead of nearly a year.

Tell, rather thin, with high forehead, straight nose and a scholarly mouth, one might have thought Emory a student taking a post-graduate course in philosophy at Harvard instead of a restless, headstrong youth whose passion was adventure and whose besetting vice was wanderlust.

As Jerry sank into the deep cushions, his friend slipped into the traffic and headed the throbbing monster toward New York.

"How did you get here?" demanded the battered pilot. "I thought you'd be sworn on New York for ever and had gone home to get into the good graces of your stiff-necked aunts, uncles and cousins."

"I have and did," declared Emory comfortably. "But when I read about your little to-do out here in the country, I thought I might be missing a bet by staying so far away from the excitement. Besides, the atmosphere of home was beginning to curdle my usually kind disposition."

"So last night I happened to read of your lapse from grace and knew it was time to be easing along."

"I jumped into the car, left Boston a few minutes after midnight and beat the train to the Grand Central by twenty-two minutes."

"Bright and early this morning I went to your flying pad dock and found out where you were confined. Then I popped over to the hospital."

"How are you fixed for money?" inquired Jerry succinctly.

"Fifty with it," confessed his friend promptly. "How much do you want?"

"How much will you spend," countered the other, "to have a lit-

The newspaper men recalled that the conference was being held in the offices of Mr. Macomber's attorney. Last of all arrived Inspector Henry O'R. Mullanphy, of the New York police department.

Two hours later a waspish little man with beribboned nose glasses slipped into the reception room, clapped his hands smartly for silence and read a prepared statement to the attentive reporters.

"I am instructed to issue the following statement:

"Mrs. Frederick Mallory, Mr. Wendell Hamilton and Mrs. Colburn Wentworth have each received in this morning's mail a letter purporting to be from the abductors of the two gentlemen and the lady who are known to have disappeared. With Mrs. Mallory's consent, we have caused her letter to be photostated and will presently supply each of you gentlemen with a copy. While each of the letters varies in details, one of them will, we hope, suffice. Inspector Mullanphy has authorized us to give you the following details as to the physical make-up of the letters themselves.

"They were written upon stationery which may be purchased in any stationery store and are enclosed in envelopes of similar paper. They bear postmarks indicating they were mailed at City Hall station, New York City, at or shortly before 5 p. m. yesterday.

"As you will presently observe, they have been hand-printed with pen and ink, thus making it impossible to trace the author by employing the services of a typewriter expert or an authority upon handwriting. It will be further noted that the missives were written, or dictated, by a person of obvious intelligence.

"In closing, I am instructed to say that a decision has been made to fulfill, in every detail, the demands that have been made. That is all, gentlemen. Those who attended the conference have left the building by another exit, since they do not wish to be interviewed."

The letters are so unusual that readers are impressed by the superior intelligence of the gang. But Jerry and Emory try to out-wit them.

GRAINS STRONGER

CHICAGO, June 1 (AP)—Responsiveness shown by the New York stock market, grain prices tended upward early today. Except for that monthly private crop reports would prove decidedly bullish also was a stimulating factor. Opening at a shade to 1/2 higher, wheat subsequently rose further. Corn started at 1/4 off to 1/2 up and afterward held near the initial range.

COTTON IS ACTIVE

NEW ORLEANS, June 1 (AP)—The Cotton market had a very active opening today. Liverpool was much lower than due owing to the failure there of a large cotton house. First trades here showed losses of 1/2 to 3 points and right after the call, all active months were 5 points below yesterday's close making new low levels for the season with July at 5.21, October at 5.42, and December at 5.51, prices soon rallied sharply, however, due to the Senate passing the tax bill yesterday and a sharp upturn in stocks. Prices advanced 15 to 19 points in a few minutes, July selling up to 5.38, October to 5.57 and December to 5.73.

Near the end of the first hour the market quieted down some and prices eased off 6 to 10 points from the highs on profit-taking and some hedge selling.

DRAFTING OF REQUIRED COUNTY BUDGET IS BEGUN BY STENNIS

Later this summer, county commissioners will adopt a budget on which the county will operate next year.

A law requiring counties to base their expenditures on a budget was passed at the last session of the legislature. It was not applicable this year, but will be next year. The law requires the county judge to prepare a budget along in July or August and place it on file for 30 days before a hearing is held. The date of the hearing will be given wide publicity, and citizens of the county may make inquiries concerning any money that the county expects to spend. Every expense item in the budget may be investigated.

Judge S. D. Stennis is working on the budget now. The commissioners will be required to keep their expenditures within the budget that is adopted. It is expected that amount of the budget will not exceed the county's income. For several years, disbursements in the general fund have been greater than receipts. It is the commissioners' purpose in adopting the budget to keep the general fund expenditures within the income.

Problems dealing with welfare work, public charity and health may be discussed at the budget hearing.

It's as though the tobaccos were "welded" together...

"CROSS-BLENDING" means much more than just mixing tobaccos together. It "welds" together different kinds of the several varieties of tobacco... many types of Bright tobacco, a great many types of Burley tobacco and numerous grades of Turkish tobacco.

THIS "WELDING" TOGETHER—or Cross-Blending—permits every kind of tobacco used in the Chesterfield blend to partake of the best qualities of every other type. Each tobacco is thus made to yield its finest flavors.

CROSS-BLENDING takes all these pleasing flavors and aromas and combines them into one—the Chesterfield taste. And we think you will agree that it is a far better taste... worth all the extra care that Chesterfield takes to get it.

EVERYTHING that money can buy and that science knows about is done to make CHESTERFIELD milder and taste better.

BROMLEY NOT TO SPAN OCEAN—TRAVEL CHEAP

"That let's me out, I can't see trying it for fun," the Texas flier said last night when informed, five minutes after ending a transcontinental air journey, the time limit for completion of a flight for a $29,500 prize offered by Seattle aviation enthusiasts, would not be extended beyond midnight tonight. The prize donors stipulated a start at Seattle and arrival at Tokyo.

But Bromley found some consolation in the low cost of his flight from New York, which started Monday morning and was broken at

MAY TURN BACK

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 1 (AP)—Two hundred hungry veterans, advancing on Washington from New Orleans to urge cash settlements on their service certificates, camped at the fairgrounds here today and considered a suggestion that they turn back homeward. The "bonus marchers" arrived here last night aboard Alabama national guard trucks.

W. M. Bartain of Roxana drove to the city yesterday.

Amarillo, Texas, Monday night by an oil tank leak. His plane uses oil for fuel. "It cost me only $18 for fuel," he said. "I burned about 300 gallons of low grade oil flying a route of nearly 2,700 miles. But I was in hopes they would extend the time of that flight a week or so."
