Governor Ross Sterling Offers His Adjutant General to Roosevelt

RANGER CHIEF MAY BECOME MAIN ESCORT

GOVERNOR SEEKS TO REVEAL TEXAS MANHOOD

JOHN GARNER NEEDING NO SUCH GUARD WITH HIM

ABIENE, July 8.—Services of "Bibi" Sterling, adjutant general of the Texas Ranger force, as traveling companion to Franklin D. Roosevelt on his speaking tour over the nation, were tendered to the democratic presidential nominee today by Governor Ross Sterling.

The governor, who spoke last night in Sweetwater and speaks today at Graham and Mineral Wells, stopped briefly in Abilene today to confer with friends, and while here dispatched the following telegram to Governor Roosevelt:

"Texas, whom I hail your nomination and that of Texas John Garner as presaging a new deal for the masses in America, wishes that you be well accompanied on your triumphant tour over the nation. Allow me to tender to you as your personal escort the services of our adjutant general, Bill Sterling, commanding and completely typifying that historic, colorful, and courageous band, the Texas Rangers.

"I promise you that you will find him as capable and attractive as Woodrow Wilson found that other great Ranger and traveling companion, the late Bill McDonald of Texas.

"Hoover" Weeps Over Experiment — And Is Jailed

The judge says, "stand up boy and dry up your tears" and the man who insisted his name was Herbert Hoover stood up, but did not dry up his tears.

He was one of those crying drunks. Officers of the sheriff's department arrested him last night while he was sitting out in the middle of the street, his head between his knees. He was at that stage when he wanted to weep on some one's shoulder, even the officer's shoulders.

The officers almost put him through the third degree in an effort to find out what he was crying about. Maybe he'd lost his best friend and his best friend was right; maybe someone was dead, thought the officers. Finally, he gave them a clue, and between sobs, he said, "What am I going to call it this year, a noble experiment?"

Judge James Todd, Jr., answered him this morning when he pleaded guilty. "Mr. Hoover, you can call it an ignoble experience," but he was referring to the street-sitting and causes.

CENTRALIA, Wash. (A.P.)—Frank Mac Dowell has hired a lawyer to defend his right to wield a razor on his own chin. Mac Dowell was arrested, accused of violating the "whisker ordinance," which requires Centralia men to go unshaven until after the pioneer celebration here Aug. 3 and 4.

SENIOR ROCKEFELLER ASSERTS PROSPERITY ALWAYS FOLLOWS DEPRESSIONS— AND TO REPEAT

New To Us
Old timers are ordinarily familiar with old relics, but we'll venture the assertion that not many of them could read the Tahlequah, Indian Territory, newspaper printed June 18, 1898 and brought to the Pampa by B. G. Harris.

Cheap To Cherokee
The part of the paper to which we refer is printed in Cherokee. The subscription to the paper was $1 a year, or 50 cents to those who read Cherokee. The letters of the Cherokee alphabet appear foreign to the uninitiated, although some of the characters are like our capitals upside down. Mr. Harris said his father spoke and read Cherokee well.

"That Railroad Song"
Chicagans and delegates in general could not understand why the Texans kept singing "that railroad song." The "Eyes of Texas" is commonly misunderstood because of the original tune. Most well known songs of this type are written to old, lively tunes. We suggest the appropriateness, however, of the "railroad song" for the big railroad celebration here July 15.

Official Mission
When Governor Sterling arrives with the Fort Worth trippers on July 15, he will be on an official mission as Texas' chief executive. His coming, therefore, like that of Commissioner C. V. Terrell and Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson, cannot be regarded as entirely political. He should be welcomed as governor and not as a candidate. Of course, everyone knows that part of his Panhandle tour will be devoted to his campaign, but he wishes it known that his trip over the Denver Northern will be to see the new road and congratulate the people it serves. As governor, he should be greeted as a welcome visitor along with the other state officials. His coming lends dignity and appeal to the big occasion.

Claims Worry Sends Poison Thru System

NEW YORK, July 8.—John D. Rockefeller, who has lived through seven major depressions and has reached the conclusion that worry poisons the system, is 93 years old today. He says: "Prosperity has always returned and will again."

At his 8,000-acre estate at Tarrytown today, Mr. Rockefeller assiduously applied himself to the business of living to be 100 and maybe more. He has been at it since he gave up, 21 year ago, control of about seven-eighths of the oil industry of the country.

Hessey Labors on School Building

John B. Hessey, county superintendent, is a laboring man this week. Physically, when a young man living on the south side of the county, he learned about hard labor on farms and ranches, and he keeps it up when necessary.

Now is the time to repair, renovate and get the county school buildings ready for the next school term, and during this week Mr. Hessey is repairing seats, oiling floors, nailing on shingles, filling up holes. Yesterday he helped move the Webb school house to its new location. Tomorrow, he will build a concrete foundation for a pump at the Webb school.

Auditor's Report Is Nearly Ready

The county auditor's quarterly report which is to be submitted by R. C. Wilson to county commissioners at their regular session next week, is expected to be a factor in compiling the budget for next year.

Mr. Wilson's report will show in detail all expenditures of the court for the year, and the condition of the various funds. The general fund was increased by about $10,000 during the last week of June on account of receipt of about $110,000 in taxes under the split payment plan.

Among the matters in which the court will consider next week will be the type of topping for the McLean-Pampa road, and the county's status under the new policy of the state highway department not to require counties to help finance the building of state roads.

CHERBOURG, France, July 8.—Salvage vessel, hovering above the spot where the submarine Prometheus went down yesterday reported air bubbles on the surface this afternoon. They also found the Prometheus' telephone buoy and it was believed there was still a telephone connection with the ship at the bottom.

It is a bad spot, with treacherous currents and an uneven bottom. The prevailing impression ashore was that raising her would be an almost impossible task.

Seats Placed to Serve Crowd at Allred Speech

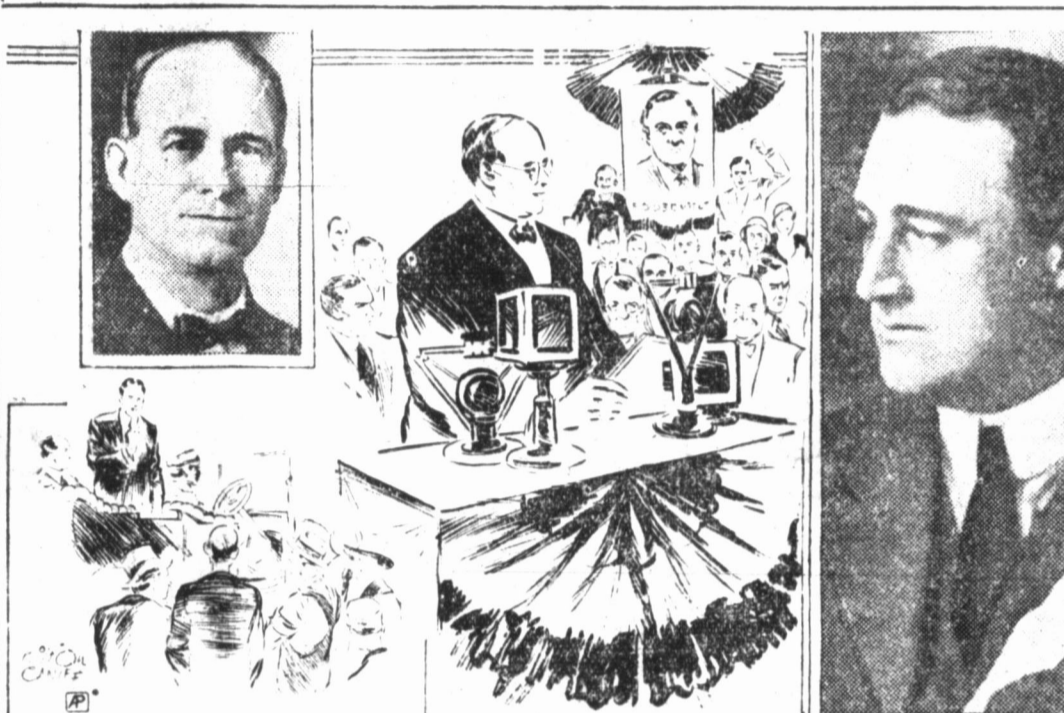

James V. Allred, candidate for re-election as attorney general, will speak in Pampa at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Seats are being erected today on the vacant lot across the street from the courthouse. Mr. Allred will be introduced at 8:30 o'clock by Charles C. Cook, well known Pampa attorney.

The attorney general carries his own loud-speaking outfit and his voice will carry to all parts of the "arena." Mr. Allred will explain his stand on the anti-trust laws and outline his accomplishments since he took office. He will also discuss "yellow sheets" being circulated throughout the state.

SPEAKING OF "REPEAL"—!

JOHN E. MACK SHAPED ROOSEVELT CAREER

Back in 1910 the democrats of Dutchess county, New York, were trying to choose a candidate for the state senate. It was rather a thankless task, since Dutchess had been republican so long the candidacy was more nominal than real.

Among those democrats was John E. Mack, former supreme court justice. He had met a young man named Franklin D. Roosevelt, then just 28 years old, an active lawyer. He liked Roosevelt, and thought it an opportune time to put another Roosevelt name in politics.

Certainly many of the democrats were convinced no one could win that fight; perhaps Mr. Mack felt much the same way. Anyway they nominated Roosevelt.

And, much to their wonderment, he won after a vigorous campaign over the county, the county that contains his home—Hyde Park. Perhaps part of the votes came from his use of an automobile to make campaign trips because an automobile was something to wonder at in those days.

Thenceforward Franklin D. Roosevelt's name stayed in the political spotlight. Always was John E. Mack near to give help in the direction of protegee's career. A few days ago he brought nearer to climax the growth of that career, placing Roosevelt in nomination before the democratic national convention.

Judge Mack did not orate at the convention. His speech was simple and calm. He had seen and helped this man from a state senatorship to the highest gift of the democratic party. He felt he knew Roosevelt, and Roosevelt was duly appreciative.

He wired Judge Mack his thanks, saying, "No matter what the result, you and I always go on together."

AMENDMENT TO USE CONTROL OF LIQUOR BY STATES IS ON SENATE CALENDAR FOR VOTE

Drys Are Confident of Defeat on Ballot

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Without the formality of a record vote, the senate today unanimously consented to place on its calendar for future consideration a constitutional amendment to substitute state liquor control for the 18th amendment.

Senator Barbour (R., N. J.), author of the proposal, said he would press for its consideration before congress adjourns. The dries were confident, however, of a good majority against it.

The action came after lengthy debate on Barbour's motion to discharge the judiciary committee from further consideration of his proposal and to bring it before the senate himself.

Senator Sheppard (D., Texas), asserted that "to claim that national prohibition was adopted without due consideration in wartime, I need but reply that three-fourths of the American people were in their states when prohibition was submitted to them."

NEWS FLASHES AT PRESS TIME

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Speaker Garner and senate democrats reached no agreement at a conference today on the $2,100,000,000 unemployment relief bill. A committee of senate democrats conferred with Garner for almost two hours to work out an agreement on the relief bill, but the speaker insisted that his provision for loans to individuals should stay in the bill in the face of opposition from President Hoover.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A prohibition repeal resolution was taken out of committee and placed on the senate calendar today by unanimous consent. That means the resolution by Senator Barbour (R., N. J.) may be brought before the senate for formal consideration at an early date. Barbour said he would ask for a vote before adjournment.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The stock market gained but momentary comfort from the Franco-German agreement at Lausanne today. An opening bulge was quickly deflated, and while net losses were largely trivial, a handful of stocks closed 1 to 5 points lower. The closing tone was heavy, and transfers approximated 700,000 shares.

AMERICANS MOVE OFF COURSE—LAND IN BOG

MOSCOW, July 8.—James Mattern and Bennett Griffin, American round-the-world fliers, were forced down yesterday near Borisov, 50 miles from Minsk, Russia, reports to the Tass agency said today, when the controls of their plane ceased to work properly.

"They came down in a peat bog, having mistaken the lights of Borisov for Moscow."

Neither of the fliers was seriously hurt, the reports reaching here said, but the plane was wrecked and they abandoned the flight. They apparently escaped with slight bruises and were planning to come on to Moscow by train.

The report said they were forced down about 4 a. m. yesterday morning— eight hours after they left Berlin. In that time they apparently had covered more than half the 950 miles between Berlin and Moscow.

Borisov is considerably south of the most direct air line between the two cities, however, and the opinion here was that they were drawn out of their course by the improperly functioning controls. Minsk is near the Polish-Russian border.

Boy Hurt When Shell Explodes

An eight-year-old boy, Lonnie Gibby Jr., was seriously injured when a 12-gauge shotgun shell exploded in his hands while he and Junior Thomas were playing with it at noon today.

Junior, 7, was also painfully injured. The Gibby boy was taken to Pampa hospital, where an emergency operation was performed. The Thomas boy was treated at a physician's office.

The boys were trying to rip off the shell covering when the shell exploded. Lonnie's hands were badly mangled, his arms and lower limbs were sprinkled with shot, and he had a serious wound over the heart. Hospital attendants said this wound might prove to be critical. The Thomas boy's body was speckled with shot. He is the son of A. L. Thomas and both families live on Malone street.

Mrs. W. H. Davis, manager of the Welfare board who was called after the accident urged parents to keep a sharp look-out for their children's safety during the summer months. She pointed out that in summer more children die as a result of accidents than at any other time of the year.

Communist Wing Of Bonus Marchers Calls off Parade

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A refusal by capitol authorities to permit their entrance into the grounds today caused the communist wing of the bonus marchers army to cancel their march up Pennsylvania avenue.

A committee was selected to draft a "protest" to congress against the refusal. Speakers urged the men to go individually or in small groups to the capitol.

Other speakers attacked the "dictatorship" of Walter W. Waters, the commander-in-chief of the bonus army.

A little later Waters called upon Vice-President Curtis to tell him of the situation in the bonus camp. The vice-president told newspaper men afterward that the veterans' commandant did not discuss the $100,000 appropriation, awaiting the president's approval, for sending the marchers home.

A Huge Saving If the Sterling plan of financing state highways goes through in the next few years, Gray county property tax payers will be saved nearly a million dollars. There is no reason why the state should not do the spending that is necessary to complete paving on highways 33, 152, 86, and 88. And on the other hand, it appears that election of Ma Ferguson would defeat this arrangement by devoting the major portion of the gasoline tax to other purposes.

TIME RESERVED FOR SERIOUS PROCEDURES DURING FESTIVE BANQUET AT BAPTIST CHURCH

DISTRICT GOVERNOR BRASWELL AMONG GUESTS OF HONOR; PIN IS PRESENTED HIS SUCCESSOR, C. H. WALKER

Pampa Lions club officers were installed last night by District Governor Sam Braswell of Clarendon at a ladies' night program attended by about 125 persons at the First Baptist church dining room.

The new officers are: President, John Sturgeon; vice-president, C. H. Walker; secretary-treasurer, Arthur M. Teed; Lion tamer, W. T. Fraser; tall twister, R. A. Thompson; directors, C. H. Schukley, J. O. Gilliam, Olin E. Hinkle.

Mr. Walker, retiring president of the local club, was presented a district governor's jeweled pin by Sherman White in behalf of local, club members. He will take office as district governor after the international convention in Los Angeles this month, which he and Mr. Sturgeon will attend.

W. H. Curry inducted five new members, making a detailed explanation of the history of Lionism and accomplishments of the Pampa club. The new members are Siler Faulkner, George Limerick, R. J. Hagan, Roy R. Wight, and Ben H. Williams.

F. M. Culbertson presided as toastmaster of the colorful occasion. It was typical club banquet, with confetti, horns, balloons, and floral decorations furnished in profusion. The meal was served by women of the Baptist church.

The entertainment included vocal duets by Miss Dorothy Doucette and Miss Virginia Rose, vocal solos by Miss Carol Moore of Kansas, and piano solos by Sid Merion. Mrs. Ramon Wilson was accompanist for Miss Moore, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson. A. G. Post, besides extending greetings from the Kiwanis club which he heads, produced excitement in the course of a short talk on oil well drilling by dropping a bottle of "nitro." Mr. Sturgeon directed club singing.

Governor Braswell announced that this district of Lionism would receive two of the highest honors obtainable at the international convention. The McCamey club, by extending its membership from 23 to 98 this year, won the membership contest and passed the Amarillo and Lubbock clubs. The El Paso club won the attendance contest.

Lion C. A. Long made an address stressing Lionism in humorous fashion. Special guests included Tom Ross, president of the Rotary club, and Mrs. Ross; Mr. and Mrs. Post; J. M. Collins, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Collins; and Miss Clara Lee Shewmaker, president of the Business and Professional Women's club.

Three Rivers in Grip of Flood

SAN ANTONIO, July 8 (AP)—Railroad traffic through Three Rivers, in Live Oak county, was halted last night by flood waters of the Frio river which scattered death and destruction for more than 100 miles down the Frio valley. However, the highway at Three Rivers, which saw the crest of the flood yesterday, is open to automobile travel.

Mayor Henderson Coquet of Three Rivers said water rose to a depth of six inches in the business district last night and started receding slowly. Water late yesterday was five inches deep on most residential streets.

Reports here were that the river was from four to six miles wide at several points near Three Rivers and that more than 5,000 acres of rich farm crops were under water.

PLAID LINEN IS VERY SMART

Gay plaid linen makes the jacket and shirt waist of this new sports costume. The skirt is fashioned of flannel with pleats on either side to lend fullness. Note the military lines. Diana Merwin

THE jacket and shirtwaist of gay plaid linen give the ingenious touch to this summer sports costume. They are smartly combined with a flannel skirt. The ensemble idea which incorporates linen and flannels is an interesting feature.

PAMPA ENTRY COMES HOME FROM EVENT

ERRORS CONTRIBUTE TO DEFEAT AT TOURNAMENT

The Pampa-LeFors-66 ball club came home from the Amarillo tournament yesterday afternoon following a 10 to 4 facing at the hands of the Mobette-Wheeler aggregation. The local pitching staff was insufficient and fielders dropped many balls.

W. B. "Red" Weathered in left field dropped three fly balls in a row after losing them in the sun as they almost reached his waiting glove. Monk Weathered, brother of the red head, started on the mound but lasted only three innings. Only one run was scored off him, but he was in difficulty every minute. Freshour, pitched to death in previous games, followed him but was ineffective, and a six-run spurt in the sixth sent him to the showers. Meek, next in line, held the opposition to one run.

Pampa-LeFors failed to cross the plate until the fifth inning, when Cahill tripled and scored on Story's first hit of the tournament, a double. Three more were added in the sixth when Baldwin walked, was advanced by Marcum's hit when a bad throw missed Baldwin at second. Pulliam hit a double to score Baldwin and Williamson crossed the plate on a wild pitch. Pulliam going to third. Pulliam scored on a fly to center.

Cahill with a triple and single was the only member of the local crew to get more than one hit.

Collins, Wheeler-Mobette second baseman, was given a home run in the fourth when a hit to centerfield took a bad hop and rolled to the score board. Hines and Bolton each collected three hits, one of Bolton's going for a triple and another for a double. Two walks, four hits, and two errors handed the opposition their six runs.

Irby, Mobette-Wheeler left fielder, robbed Pre-Sour of a home run when he went almost to the fence and picked a long fly off the wall with one hand.

George McCullough, the umpire that has kept more teams from entering the tournament than anything else, came in for his share of abuse from players and fans alike. Eddie Pulliam, Pampa-LeFors manager, was almost banished from the game when he objected to McCullough calling a man safe who Pulliam dumped over his shoulder when he charged him. The fans booed and the players razzed.

Pulliam is trying to match a game with the Topoka Jayhawkers to be played here Sunday afternoon.

Dixie's Collegians Open Tennis Meet

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 8 (AP)—Dixie's prize crop of college net stars was thrown together in the semi-final matches of the men's singles in the southern tennis tournament today.

Cliff Sutter, ruler of southern and national intercollegiate tennis competition and captain of the Tulane University tennis team, was matched with Dan Murray, a former captain of the Tulane net squad. Both are from New Orleans.

Oddly, Bryan "Bixy" Grant of Atlanta was paired with Wilmer Hines of Columbia, S. C., his teammate on the University of North Carolina squad. Each of the semi-finalists advanced with little trouble yesterday.

Grant turned in an easy victory over Quinn Connelly of Houston, Texas, who pulled the major upset of the tourney by downing Billy Reese of Atlanta, in a fourth round tussle.

MY LIFE and the OLYMPICS

by PAAVO NURMI

By PAAVO NURMI (Written for the Associated Press.)

MY TRAINING SCHEDULE
Someone has said that running is my life. There is reason for that assertion. With running constantly before my mind's eye I have always arranged other parts of my life, although I ought to have done exactly the opposite in the opinion of others. The magic attraction power of running matches has conquered everything else in me—for that reason I delayed getting married. The impulse for competition continues still to drive me to the track, although I may have left it miles and miles away.

It is nevertheless a mistake to believe that my training is ruthlessly hard, more severe than that of anybody else. That is not the case. Shrubb, Ritola and Purje for instance have trained harder than I have. But in one respect I am ahead of them: In the exactitude and regularity they are left far behind. I certainly run fast in my exercising, although it is heavier than running a longer stretch at a more moderate speed. Considering that must fulfill more than the program I have set myself, I run every day some distance according to my watch. Still I never forget to take care that my running is not injurious. If you do not run and train in an all-around manner, you will soon get sick of all running. That truth you must never forget. In this connection I will give you here the other golden rule: If you do not set a purpose for yourself, you will stagnate or be left behind.

No Simple Formula. There is no standard training method by means of which anyone can become a great runner. Everything depends on the individual, and therefore everyone must devise his own system which is best suited for his particular individuality.

Ladoumègue has asserted that the French "mile-school" is the best in the world. That is pure bosh. France cannot show any three such men on the mile as Finland: Nurmi 4:10.4; Larva, 4:11.0; Purje, 4:11.0. A man may arise in America, who may best Ladoumègue's record. Then of course one will begin to talk of the American "mile-school." What do you think of the matter, you great Jack Ryder, of the Boston A. A.?

I Start at 7 A. M. When I was a boy, and when the "running-fly" stung me, I knew nothing about training, but that it was necessary to run and run and keep on running. It was only in the years 1919-24 that I found out my present training arrangement.

In the summer I start the circle at 7 a. m. I begin by walking some 6 to 10 miles at a fair speed, approximately 11 minutes to the mile. The object of this walking is to get the body loose and supple, but it helps at the same time partly in the actual running. You will see that when you walk such a stretch at my speed, you will not need to run as much as you would, otherwise be obliged to do without the walk. I am pouring with sweat when I get home again, have a thorough good wash, and then start gymnastics. I have prepared a special program: 6 minute series of movements tending to extend and contract the single and double arms, a small snack, generally coffee and bread, and then I go to the sports grounds. There I start with a number of sprints for 70 to 120 yards, and after that with my watch in my hand from 1/4 to the full mile, at full speed. A few minutes' rest, and then I go on the track and take 2 to 3 miles at an easy speed. Then a wash again. Now I am ready to go to my work.

In the years 1924-28 I trained twice a day. When I hurt my knee in 1924 and had to keep in bed for a long time, I was obliged when better to go in for harder training again, so as to be fit for the Olympic games. I therefore trained twice every day. I held out and found the training good for me, so I continued in this way for four years. I have found out later however, that one thorough exercise in the day is quite enough.

And I have stuck to this one time a day since then.

There It Goes!

The next day, Schuble faced Lefty Gomez. In the second inning Heinie put another one over the fence to put Detroit in the lead. Again in

HOOKS and SLIDES

by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Knocking at the Door. Back in 1927, with the Cardinals in the thick of a pennant fight, Tommy Thayer, shortstop, broke his leg. Enter Henry George Schuble, shortstop from the Danville Three-Eye league farm.

Schuble was 19 then, and he had a pretty tough job to fill. His performance was only fair. He hit .257 in 65 games and the only shortstop in the league whose defensive work was worse than Heinie's was Lester Bell. Heinie made 29 great big errors, and some of them cost the Cardinals ball games.

Farewell, Young Feller. It was decided by the astute Cardinal management to peddle young Mr. Schuble. Uncle Frank Navin of the Tigers dug down for $35,000 and Schuble became a Tiger. The next year he was farmed out. The next year he was given a hoe and sent scurrying to the pines again.

All this time Schuble kept getting better, little by little. But he never quite seemed to fulfill the promise of the folks down in Texas, whence he came, that "he might be only a little guy, but he sure can give that old guy a long, long ride." Detroit stuck to him, and this year had to keep him on the bench or pass him up for good. Bucky Harris gave him a job coaching at first base and doing an occasional chore of pinch-running.

Gets His Chance. Still those stories from Texas persisted, about Heinie's hitting ability, despite his 5 feet 9 inches in height. "Sure, he's little," the Texans said of him. "But he'll send that gator on a journey for you, just the same."

Finally Heinie's chance came. Richardson was playing at third for the Tigers and he was not working at the plate. Bucky sent Schuble to the base. Schuble didn't have to be told that it was up to him. This probably was his last chance. Texas was right. Next day Heinie walked up to the plate with a runner on base and rode one over the fence to win the ball game for Detroit.

Then he got in there. Now who's going to get him out?

Also, It's a Long Lane, Etc. There you are, life is like that, also you never can tell. Here's a little guy from Texas the Cardinals got rid of. Twice he was bundled up and expressed back to the farm by Detroit. This year, after being recalled for the last possible time, he was allowed to park on the bench every day and watch the men play ball.

Art Shires, Braves—His homer with two on beat Cardinals.
Pat Malone, Cubs—Blanked Phils with five hits.
Art Scharen, Browns—Clouted Red Sox pitching for double and three singles, drove in two runs and scored two.
Jonathan Stone, Tigers—His third hit drove in two runs and clinched game with Yankees.
Jack Hayes, White Sox—Combed Athletic pitching for home run, two doubles and three singles in double bill.
Jack Russell and Mel Harder, Indians—Pitched steady ball to beat Senators twice.

YANKS SHORN OF MAIN COGS --SLUMPS HIT

LEFTY GOMES IS DOING RAGGED PITCHING LATELY

By GAYLE TALBOT Associated Press Sports Writer

The next fortnight should tell pretty definitely how the land lies in the American league, whether the Yankees are to continue their flight toward the championship or will be challenged by one or more of their rivals.

With Bill Dickey, slugging catcher, on the suspended list and Lefty Gomez pitching ragged ball for the first time this year, the Yanks find themselves shorn of two vital cogs. Too, they appear on the edge of that slump which every team must expect sometime during the season. They dropped their third straight to Detroit yesterday in 10 innings.

The second place put on a rousing finish to capture their opener with the leaders, 8 to 5. They jumped on Gomez, who appeared in a relief role, for three runs in the ninth to knot the score and then routed the Castilian in the tenth with three more.

Washington fell into the second division when Cleveland won, 3 to 2 and 4 to 3. Jack Russell and Mel Harder went the route for the Indians.

The Athletics got an even break with Chicago, losing the first, 13 to 3, when they were held to six hits by the coast rookie, Pete Duglia, and winning the nightcap, 9 to 3, behind Rube Walberg. St. Louis slugged three Boston pitchers for an 8 to 2 decision.

Pittsburgh's winning streak was snapped at six straight and its hold on the National league lead reduced to two and one-half games by the New York Giants, who profited by a pair of errors to win 4 to 3.

Chicago and Boston remained in virtual tie for second place. The Cubs scored easily over the Phillies, 7 to 0, at Pat Malone yielded only five hits, and the Braves put a couple of home runs in the right spots to nose out the Cardinals, 5 to 4.

Earl Sande Will Try Luck Abroad

NEW YORK, July 8 (AP)—Earl Sande, who rode to fame on some of America's greatest thoroughbreds, is packing his kit for an invasion of the French turf.

Finding it difficult to make the weight necessary to keep busy on American tracks, the popular little rider intends to sail for France within a fortnight.

How long he will remain depends on his ability to obtain mounts and win with them. If successful, Sande probably will spend the rest of his riding days showing the French how he became America's premier jockey.

Sande returned to the turf this spring after a year in the movies and radio but he has found it difficult to keep his weight down. He

THERE'S NO RUSH

By JOHNNY FARRELL (As Told To Artie McGovern.)
One of the most harmful and yet most common mistakes made by golfers is the mad rush to get back to the course immediately after eating luncheon.

It is one of the fundamental principles of good health that no strenuous exertion be undertaken while the stomach is filled with food, and yet I have seen golfers time after time, gulp down a hearty luncheon, and then rush out at once to play another round.

If golfers would rest for at least half an hour after luncheon before starting out again, much of the intestinal disturbances, indigestion, etcetera, which beset them, would be easily overcome.

After luncheon, you should relax in a comfortable chair, give yourself at least thirty minutes of complete rest, and you will find that your afternoon round will show marked improvement.

has frequently made 115 pounds but this has entailed much hard exercise and dieting. He figures he can easily make 118 pounds and that weight should get him plenty of mounts in France where there are more weight for age and scale weight events.

In invading Europe, Sande will be following in the footsteps of other great American jockeys, notably Tod Sloan who rode with great success both in France and England.

SCHOOLBOY ROWE TAKES 10TH STRAIGHT VICTORY

By BILL PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

Two of the Texas league's most prominent pitchers received flowery congratulations last night. George Murray, ace right hander for Dallas, received slaps on his back when he cashed in with his thirteenth victory of the season. Murray beat Fort Worth, 8 to 4.

Schoolboy Rowe, the young mound wizard for Beaumont, won his 10th game of the season and in accomplishing the feat, he held Galveston to a pair of hits for a 5 to 0 shutout. As a result of these two excellent mound feats, Beaumont retained a three-game lead over the pennant field, and Dallas remained in second place.

Murray experienced no trouble stopping Fort Worth. His mates struck quickly against Manager Dick McCabe of Fort Worth with four runs in the first two innings. Pickett fared no better and Pat Moulton finished the game for the Panthers. The Steers cracked out ten timely hits.

Rowe had his blinding fast ball breaking off at the plate to hold Galveston safe. The two players who singled were the only ones to reach first off the Beaumont hurler. His excellent control was supported by perfect support afield.

George Hollerson, Tyler pitcher, held his usual jinx over Longview last night. He beat the Cardinals, 6 to 5. The defeat removed the oil city from a tie with Dallas for second place.

Houston scored four unearned runs in the first two innings against San Antonio but it wasn't enough. The Indians stayed behind their guns to eventually drop the Buffaloes, 5 to 4.

STAR CHAMBER SESSION HELD BY TEXAS DELEGATION MAKES AUSTIN POLITICIANS WONDER

AUSTIN, July 8.—Capitol politicians would like to know two things about what occurred in two important Chicago caucuses of the Lone Star state delegation to the democratic national convention.

They are wondering who voted for the outright repeal and immediate modification of the Eighteenth Amendment plank and who voted against that clear-cut declaration.

They are wondering how the personnel lined up on the proposal to quit Garner for Roosevelt in the presidential nominee voting.

These divisions never have been publicly announced by the keeper of the delegation records.

Many expressed disappointment in action of State Senator Walter Woodell of Houston in talking the delegation into the notion of barring newspaper men from the important caucus with reference to going over to Roosevelt.

There were mixed feelings about the switch from Garner to Roosevelt. Many pointed out that Texans had gone to Chicago with the idea fixed in their minds that the success of their candidate depended upon a deadlock of such firmness that a slight switch in the balloting might start a stampede to the popular Texan's banner.

Others rejoiced in the switch, which they called timely and a sane move in the interest of harmony and sure victory this fall.

Others rejoiced in the switch, which they called timely and a sane move in the interest of harmony and sure victory this fall.

Some contended that Texas should have stuck for at least ten ballots, which they declared would not have constituted such a deadlock as to have endangered the democratic ticket's success in November by creation of hard feelings.

Others rejoiced in the switch, which they called timely and a sane move in the interest of harmony and sure victory this fall.

All "good democrats" hereabouts had taken their medicine, however, and were confident Roosevelt and Garner would win.

Franco-German Debt Settlement Finally Reached

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, July 8.—France and Germany have reached a complete agreement on the issues under discussion at the debts and reparations conference, it was officially announced this afternoon.

Under the agreement Germany's final reparations payment is fixed at a nominal three billion gold marks (about $750,000,000). Bonds for that amount will be issued at a price of ninety when Germany's credit permits.

The preamble to the agreement declares that reparations are finally ended and that a new effort in relations among nations is commenced on the basis of reciprocal confidence.

Announcement that an accord had been reached was made while Premier Herriot of France was holding a final conference with Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain in the latter's chamber.

The finishing touches to the text of the accord will be made late today.

The German bond issue will be withheld at least three years, the sinking fund is fixed at one per cent. The bonds will mature in 37 years.

If the bond issue is not floated within 15 years, the whole issue is cancelled.

Chaplin Richest of Screen Stars

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—Three of Hollywood's most famous figures—Charles Chaplin, Mary Pickford, and Douglas Fairbanks, all of whom were pioneers in the film industry—are indicated as the screen colony's three wealthiest individuals in tax assessment rolls published today.

Chaplin, who made his money by making funny antics performed with a cane, derby hat and a pair of baggy trousers, listed taxable stocks and bonds at prices prevailing March 1, of $7,687,570. Cash and solvent credits amounting to $295,000 also were listed by the film comedian.

Second to Chaplin on the tax rolls is Mary Pickford, with stocks worth $2,316,940, interests in foreign trusts amounting to $176,190 and real estate valued at $192,260.

Mary's husband, Douglas Fairbanks, ranks third with stocks worth $1,384,600, interests in foreign trusts of $236,760 and real estate assessed at $75,490, in addition to his home, listed at $70,170.

How much wealth Chaplin, Fairbanks and Miss Pickford have in non-taxable securities was a matter of conjecture.

WHEN CALIFORNIA AND TEXAS TURNED CONVENTION TIDE

Action on Beer Bill Is Urged

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A petition signed by 77 republicans urging immediate action on beer for revenue legislation and addressed to Speaker Garner was expected to be presented to the house today by the republican wet bloc.

"Dear Mr. Speaker: We, the undersigned, hereby respectfully request that the house of representatives have an opportunity, before the adjournment of the present session of congress, to vote on a bill legalizing the manufacture, transportation and sale of beer and providing additional revenue for the United States treasury by taxing such beer.

"We are taking this unusual procedure for the reason that we belong to the minority party of the house, while you and your party are in control of all the parliamentary machinery necessary to bring such a bill before the house.

"Inasmuch as both parties are now on record for a change in the prohibition policy of the United States government, and inasmuch as there is no doubt that regardless of the outcome of the next election, the repeal of the 18th amendment will be submitted to the states of the Union for their respective ratification, there can be no honest justification for delaying an amendment to existing constitutional provisions, thereby reducing the enormous cost of attempted enforcement and also bringing in additional hundreds of millions of dollars revenue to the United States treasury, now so badly depleted.

"All we ask is the opportunity to vote for a beer bill before we adjourn."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

Buttons on coat sleeves have not always been merely a decoration. When fancy uniforms came into being among ancient royal troops it was a king whose name has been forgotten, who devised the scheme of sewing them on the Admiralty Islands, since a dog must die before its teeth are extracted for currency. Fancy designs are carved on the teeth, and holes are bored in the ends so that they may be used as beads.

Policemen Find City Very Quiet

The city police department has made no arrests in two days. There have been the usual few traffic violations, however, but drinking, gambling, fighting, and other forms of law violations, there have been none.

Chief J. I. Downs doesn't know whether to place the cause as lack of funds to purchase liquor, which usually precedes the other, violations, or whether it was the fact that June was the biggest police month of the year.

According to the report handed City Manager C. L. Stine, there were 174 arrests by the department during June. Of that number, 94 were for traffic violations. Of the fines assessed, 54 days were required to work out fines of those who failed to pay cash.

PROBLEMS OF ACTUAL WAR BEING STUDIED AT CAMP AS NATIONAL GUARDS PRACTICE

MINERAL WELLS, July 8.—The sounds of rifle and machine gun fire and the tramp of horses punctuate the stillness around Camp Walters, Mineral Wells, this week as the 56th cavalry brigade, Texas national guard, copes with problems of actual warfare as a part of its annual training program.

The brigade, commanded by Gen. Jacob F. Wolters of Houston, will devote all of this week to field training within a few miles of the camp. The longest march will be 12 miles, and it merely is preparatory to the maneuvers next week when a vast area west and north of Mineral Wells will be covered in a movement against an imaginary enemy.

Plans for the ambitious maneuvers like will have to be changed as a result of heavy rains in the last few days. Unless the swollen Brazos river falls there will be no need to defend two fording places along the stream from the theoretical enemy.

Col. Innis P. Swift, regular army officer from San Antonio and senior instructor at the camp, pointed out that the increased use of airplanes had made it essential for troops to conceal themselves from enemy planes while marching and in camp. As a consequence, equipment for the maneuvers this year has been changed, and marching will be at night unless the area is so heavily wooded that the riders can be seen from imaginary enemy planes.

The three headquarters henceforth will "converse" with one another at their regular weekly drill periods over some 250 miles of air. The units are located at Dallas, Austin, and Houston. The weekly conversations will be possible as a result of the receipt of three new SCR 163 radio sets. The equipment was approved by the War Department six months ago, and the 56th Brigade was the first national guard organization in the United States to receive it. Many of the regular army units have not been equipped with the sets. The old sets had a range of only 60 miles.

Capt. Calvin Burkhead of Fort Worth, regular army officer, is instructing the troops in the operations of the set which has a range of only 300 miles in the day time. At night, the range of the ground wave is only 40 miles. However, there is another night zone from the high angle wave of around 1,000 to 1,200 miles. Between the two zones, there is a blank space in

A spirited contest is being waged for the Galveston cup, awarded each year to the best all-around troop of fifteen comprising the brigade.

Mounted contests are being stressed this year in the athletic program of the 15-day encampment of the 56th cavalry brigade, Texas national guard.

A knowledge of horsemanship is one of the basic requirements for a good cavalryman, and the camp athletic council this year is emphasizing more than ever before these forms of competition which develop the guardsman's ability to handle his mount.

For the first time the points scored in the mounted circus will count in the competition for the cup awarded the best all-around athletic troop. The mounted circus, to be held next Sunday is expected to attract a large crowd of visitors from nearby cities. The circus will include mounted relay races, jumping and other events. A special jumping contest for visiting horsewomen will be conducted.

The familiar figure and side whiskers of Col. Tommy Tompkins, colorful retired regular army cavalry officer, is missing from the encampment and every officer and man here feels a personal loss in his absence. A short time ago, Colonel "Tommy", described by the legion who know him as "a lovable character," suffered a broken leg in a fall at his Fort Worth home.

A spirited contest is being waged for the Galveston cup, awarded each year to the best all-around troop of fifteen comprising the brigade.

Electric Chair for Flies Is Success

Frank Hunt of Davis Electric company, has built an "electric chair" for flies that is causing considerable excitement. He has the contraption placed in the doorway of the Pampa Electric company on West Foster avenue and pedestrians stop to see the damage the little article can accomplish.

An electric rat catcher and an electric screen door are under construction, Mr. Hunt said this morning. A. T. Case is building the door to use at his home. It will have the electric current through small mesh wire with a larger guard wire that will allow the flies to get to the charged wire. The voltage on the door will be stepped up to 500 volts so that burglar trying to take off or cut the screen will get a heavy "jolt".

The fly catcher is about one-foot square and is built over a box. The fly electrode themselves when they touch two of the closely laid wires.

Local Woman Is Disappointed In Juarez Bull Fight

Mrs. M. P. Downs saw a bull fight July 4 at Juarez, Mexico, and didn't like it, but that was because the bulls had no pep, and not because the sight was gory.

The bulls looked like rodeo stock. The matadors were never in any danger of being gored. It was just like taking docile and willing steers to the slaughter pen, she said. Mrs. Downs said it was possible that she would have enjoyed the bull fights if the bulls had been strong, lithe, raised to fight, and eager.

The sight of blood did not worry her. She had made up her mind it wouldn't when W. P. Ferguson of Amarillo told her she would be sick at the sight of the sword thrusts into the necks of the bulls. Mr. and Mrs. Downs and Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson formed a party that visited Juarez on the Fourth.

Twisters Damage Mid-West Towns

CLEVELAND, July 8 (AP)—Tornado winds, lightning and heavy rain-fall, which swept over parts of Ohio and Indiana late yesterday, killed two persons, injured more than 20 others and did heavy damage to property.

A bolt of lightning killed Wallace Hall, 36, of Amherst, O., while he was playing in an open field near that town, and at Cincinnati, John Stover, 7, was killed when lightning struck a tree beneath which he and other children were playing.

About 20 persons suffered injuries at Vernon, Ind., a village of 600, when a tornado wrecked the business district and damaged more than 100 residences.

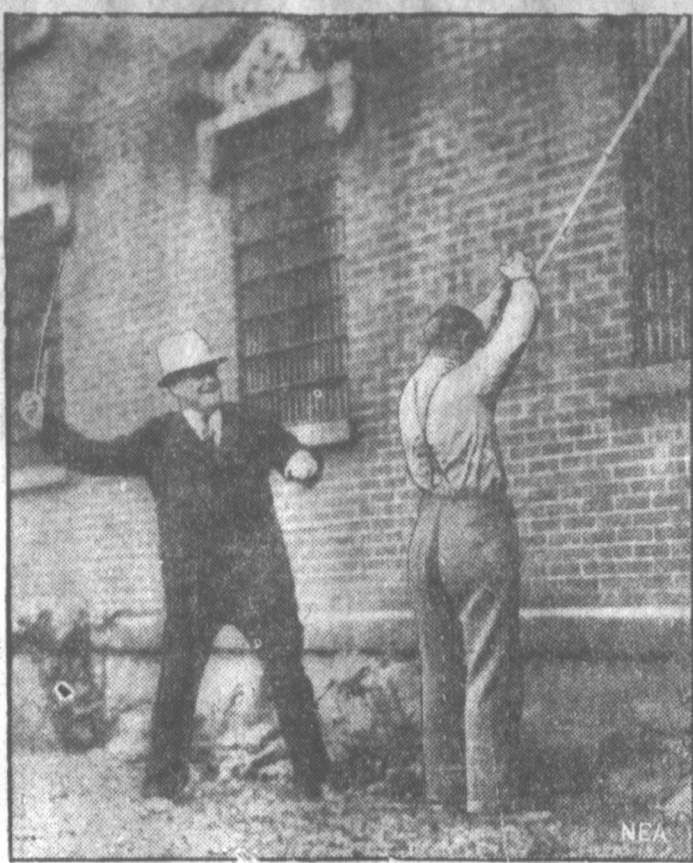

Lightning Kills Eight

BEELIN, July 8 (AP)—A Telegrapher Union dispatch from Warsaw today said eight persons were killed by lightning yesterday at Tuchola, formerly Tuchel and once an American war prisoners' internment camp.

OHIO USES WHIPPING POST

The first whipping post Ohio has seen in 50 years was invoked at Millersburg, O., for the punishment of two men who admitted stealing a refrigerator. Administering the 20 strokes as directed by the sentence of Common Pleas Judge Robert B. Putnam, Sheriff John Stevens is seen above lashing William Wynn, 48, one of the prisoners. Wynn's brother, Jesse, 51, received like punishment a few moments later. When brother Jesse, 51, received like punishment a few moments later. When service. The men made no outcry and neither was marked. They chose the whipping rather than accept a 20-day sentence at hard labor on bread and water after they had served 28 days in jail awaiting arraignment.

Hail Damage Is Rather Extensive

Hail damage following the rain and hail Tuesday afternoon is much greater than formerly estimated, according to farmers north and east of the city, where most of the damage resulted. Many fields that were struck by the hail of a few weeks ago were completely destroyed by the last storm.

Farmers say that they will not place combines in numerous fields.

The damage in the Hoover community and north along the Miami highway was almost 100 per cent, according to reports.

What grain the hail failed to knock down, the heavy wind threshed until the heads still standing are practically empty. Cutting was resumed this morning in most sections surrounding Pampa. The test is somewhat lower than before the hail and rain.

Elevators were paying 29 cents for top grade this morning which was one cent under yesterday.

COTTON QUIET

NEW ORLEANS, July 8 (AP)—Cotton opened rather quiet today despite very unfavorable Liverpool cables and optimistic news as to the results of the Lausanne conference.

First trades here showed gains of 6 to 8 points with October at $9.07 and December at 6.18. As the government estimate of the acreage in cultivation July 1 was due, traders were disposed to hold off for the time-being, and this absence of a demand caused prices to ease 2 to 5 points from the top.

NAVY'S NEW AIR GIANT TURNS UP NOSE

The U. S. navy's mammoth new airship, the U. S. S. Macon, entered the final stages of construction at the Goodyear-Zeppelin dock in Akron, O., when its 75-foot bow was lifted into place with elaborate ceremonies. The larger photo above depicts the scene as Miss Susan Myrick, left, of Macon, Ga., blew a whistle to start cranes hoisting the airship's nose into place.

Liking for Golf Leads to Arrests In Kidnaping Case

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—Two escaped convicts whose penchant for golf led to their recapture are to be questioned about the Lindbergh kidnaping. Thomas Holten and Francis L. Keating, who were captured yesterday in Kansas City after a long watch by federal officers upon golf courses in various sections of the country, are to be asked about their movements around March 1.

vessel Artiglio II which left Brest for Cherbourg immediately.

Survivors of the disaster, none of them much the worse for their adventure, were kept in the sick bay here for observation. They are the heroes of the town, sharing honors with the skipper of the fishing smack which brought them ashore.

Joseph Coasgoen, one of the submarine's men, told his story of the sinking today. "She went down in less than 30 minutes," he said. "Five of us were on the top side, and we went off into the water when the ship went down from under our feet."

"Lieutenant Du Mesnil, the commander, was down below when there was a noise like a shrill hiss. He jumped up a ladder as fast as he could to see what was wrong and got out just as the ship went down."

"He tried to reach the telephone buoy, which was tied to the ship on a 100-yard cord, but things were moving fast and we all swam to a salvage buoy where I hung on for an hour and 15 minutes with four other fellows and the skipper."

"One of the men was pretty lucky. He was down below where you can't smoke and had just come up for a drag on a cigarette. He had no sooner got it lit than the ship went down."

Commander Du Mesnil was quoted having said that perhaps someone by error had started the diving machinery.

All the men who were saved will be required to testify before a board of inquiry which already has begun an investigation.

FLIGHT

plane wrecked and the flight already more than 24 hours behind the record of Post and Gatty, the prospect of beating the latter's time was completely wiped out.

The news that they had landed served to quell the grave fears for their safety which had arisen here.

When the second 24 hours after their take-off from Berlin began last night and approached the 36-hour mark without word today, even those who kept in mind the slowness of communication in some of the areas they might have landed in began to doubt.

The bureau of aviation had considered the possibility of sending out an aerial searching party to try to locate the fliers but it decided it was useless to do so until there was some means of locating more definitely where they might have come down.

Mrs. Mattern Believed. PORT WORTH, July 8 (AP)—Mrs. Jimmie Mattern heard with mingled relief and disappointment this morning that her husband and Bennett Griffin had been forced down in Russia on an attempted round-the-world flight.

"It's a relief to know he's safe," she explained when she was told the fliers had suffered no more than bruises when they were forced to land their plane. She was disappointed, however, that her husband and Griffin had failed to lower the globe-circling record of Post and Gatty.

"Answering" she said in consoling herself, "and that is something." She referred to the record crossing from Harbor Grace, N. F., to Berlin.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 8 (AP)—"I'm proud of them—they made a fine flight anyway," Mrs. Bennett Griffin said this morning when informed her husband and Jimmy Mattern had wrecked their plane near Borisov on their proposed round-the-world flight.

"I never was worried a bit."

ATHLETICS SWAT 'EM PHILADELPHIA, July 8 (AP)—The Athletics by good hitting today took the first game of a double header with the Chicago White Sox, 6 to 4. Jimmy Foxx hit his 30th home run of the season with one man on base.

BREAK EVEN AT NET BERLIN, July 8 (AP)—England and Germany broke even today in the first two matches of their semifinal series in the European zone of avic cup tennis play. Fred Perry defeated Gottfried Von Cramm, 6-2, 6-3, after Daniel Prehn had won from H. W. (Bunny) Austin.

BEFORE PLANE CRASHED

They hoped to be back in a week, did James Mattern and Bennett Griffin, when these pictures were taken at the start of their projected globe-gridding flight. But instead they were forced down in a peat bog in Russia and their plane badly damaged. Neither flier was much hurt.

CONVENTION MEMORIES

CHICAGO, July 8—Convention memories... The fiendish delight which the federal prohibition agents took in drying up this city while both convention were wild for repeal...

They turned the screws hardest on the poor democrats, who were wettest. They raided hundreds of speak-easies in the Loop district just before and during the republican convention, frightening others into temporary closure.

But it wasn't until the democratic convention that they raided the cozy little beer parlor alongside convention headquarters at the Congress hotel and the famous Swedish club, resort of high officials, to which delegates had been given guest cards.

Chicago's capacity for indignation is not very great, but it surpassed itself after the Swedish club raid.

Chicago is used to being a wide open town. Its democrats, now in municipal control, are as wet as its republicans, than whom there is nobody any wetter.

The only theory tending to explain the sudden wholesale raiding is that the federal enforcers, infuriated at the politicians who were committing their parties to policies which would eventually mean abolition of enforcement jobs, struck back viciously, after their fashion...

Not that there wasn't altogether too much liquor in the hotel rooms or enough bootleggers operating from their own suites. There was and there were... Indigestion was rampant.

Delegates accustomed to three square a day had a bad time on the sandwiches available for lunch at the convention hall, although city dwellers inured to such fare survived relatively well. Hours of the convention were such that any idea of regular meals was absurd...

The convention hall hot dogs, on which some of our most distinguished statesmen subsisted from morning until evening, were always cold. Someone called them malamuts... A Texas delegate entered one of the sandwich tents in a yard adjoining the stadium. "How much for cheese sandwiches?" he asked, pulling a half dollar from a change purse. "Fifteen cents," the vendor said. "I'll go hungry first!" shouted the delegate—and stalked angrily away.

ment said he intended to oppose any effort to change the dry laws unless instructed otherwise by the people of his state, and continued: "The liquor traffic is a menace beyond the power of the individual to resist."

"No drunkard could ever make effective use of individual initiative. His children would be handicapped by an alcoholic taint and predisposition toward crime and disease."

"If the saloons had been open in the post-war days—or the Bingham saloons for that is what will come under the Bingham plan—imagination could not picture what the result would have been."

He said savings deposits were increasing now despite economic conditions and continued: "Drunkenness is disappearing. The wrecks and rounders of former days have been turned into useful workers. There are better home conditions; more comforts for mothers and children; a higher plane of living and thinking throughout the republic."

Akers Suffering Result of Crash

C. B. "Bronnie" Akers of Lubbock, formerly manager of the La Nora theater here, is still confined to his bed by injuries suffered in an automobile accident Sunday night. His condition this morning was reported as little improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Akers and daughter, Shirley Ann, are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blair, 624 North Somerville street. Mr. Akers is able to receive visitors, Mrs. Akers said.

Malone funeral home yesterday with the Rev. C. E. Lancaster in charge. Mr. Johnson is an employee of the Great West Mill & Elevator company at Heaton. The family moved to that community three weeks ago. Survivors include the parents, three sisters, Mrs. Florey Williamson, Miss Lora May Johnson, Miss Lola Johnson; three brothers, Andrew, Elmer, and Eldred Johnson. Interment was in Pampa cemetery.

Fire Alarm Is Of No Consequence

The fire department answered the first call of the month to the Pampa Milling company this morning but it was not necessary for them to use either water or chemical. The call was received following an explosion which luckily only slightly burned the hands of an employe. The explosion occurred when the employe was trying to prime a gasoline engine.

Last month the department answered only two calls. There was no loss, according to Chief Clyde Gold.

Curtis Appeals From Sentence

TRENTON, N. J., July 8 (AP)—John H. Curtis, convicted of obstructing search for the Lindbergh baby, was awarded a writ of error by the supreme court today, returnable July 28.

Ryman Herr, of counsel for the Norfolk boat builder, obtained the writ from a court clerk's office. Curtis is scheduled to be sentenced by Judge Adam O. Robbins at the Flemington courthouse Monday.

The writ of error, issued as a matter of course, has the effect of an appeal. Lloyd Fisher, also of counsel for Curtis, said shortly after the boat builder's conviction that there were more than 100 grounds on which the jury's verdict could be appealed.

LIGHT HARVEST TUCUMCARI, N. M., July 8 (AP)—The wheat harvest is now under way in eastern New Mexico with the crop yielding from 6 to 12 bushels per acre.

Grain dealers said the grain is of good quality but protein does not exceed 13 per cent. Half damaged the crop in several sections. Farmers said they will have to harvest haul and market their crops that the price of wheat does not justify the employment of harvest help. The farmers are helping each other with the work.

Right to Explore For Oil Granted

EAGLE PASS, July 8.—Sr. Alberto Sandoval, president and manager of the recently formed Compania Petrolera de Fuente, S. A., has received permission from the Mexican government after two years of waiting, to exploit oil reserves beneath his 1,000-acre estate, three miles southwest of Piedras Negras. The permission also gives his company the power to exploit oil reserves under adjacent territory within a large radius, and to drill on the land himself, or lease his drilling rights to domestic or foreign companies.

Six years ago, while drilling for water on his land, Mr. Sandoval's rig struck oil at a depth of 412 feet. Backed by a slight gas pressure, the oil merely oozed from the pit at the rate of five barrels a day. Mr. Sandoval's water drilling company put down three more wells between 1926 and 1928. In each case oil was struck at 412 feet, but one of the wells was extended to a lower depth and it uncovered two more oil strata. It had a production of ten barrels compared to the five barrel output of the shallower wells.

Lack of official permit to lease his rights, and means to exploit the oil himself prevented Mr. Sandoval from developing the field. In 1928 he applied to the secretary of foreign relations to charter his water company into an oil company by revision of its charter. This was finally done May 10, 1932.

Mr. Sandoval plans to turn his rights over to a Torreon oil company in the near future for putting down a number of wells close to the three water producers on his land. Concerns in California, New York, Houston, Fort Worth, and San Antonio have made drilling offers.

MISSING VETERAN FOUND
AMARILLO, July 8.—The fight for payment of the soldier bonus has resulted in the union with his family of William Earl Brown, 35-year-old disabled veteran, who had been "missing" 12 years.

Brown was located at a veterans hospital in Kansas after filing application for his bonus check. Because he was hopelessly crippled, Brown had not communicated with his family following his discharge, but had gone from one hospital to another in search of health, according to his brother, Sidney Brown of Amarillo. The father, H. M. Brown, of Ardmore, Okla., recently saw his son for the first time in 14 years.

NACOGDOCHES, July 8.—Guy A. Blount of Nacogdoches, grandson of S. W. Blount, one of the signers of the Texas Declaration of Independence, has plans on foot for a great home-coming of the Blount family in San Augustine in the near future.

S. W. Blount lived in San Augustine when he went as a delegate to old Washington and signed the Texas Declaration of Independence and it was there that he died and was buried.

Political Follies of 1932

By RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Writer.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The women at the democratic national convention are always a memory that lingers.

Some of them are fools, like most of the men, but they add vastly to the color, the zest and the attractiveness of what otherwise would resemble little more than an overgrown lodge meeting.

The democrats, perhaps owing to the strong influence of the south where chivalry remains a favorite fetish, or perhaps because they usually are more in need of votes than the republicans, customarily give the gals a bet'w break. They give them more places on the delegations and more conspicuous roles on the platform.

The results of such a policy are not invariably fortunate, but it is a fact denied by nobody that the females to be seen at these democratic meetings are younger, snappier and prettier—including even those in the galleries—than those exhibited by the republicans, the socialists or the communists in convention assembled. No doubt the traditional conservatism of the republican party has something to do with the fact that the estimable ladies of that faith are more likely to tend toward matronly features and dimensions.

No Bathing Suits, But—
Bathing suits are not commonly worn at conventions, but otherwise a promoter seeking to organize a beauty contest could do little better than annex—just to mention a few simple groups—the covey of wives, stenographers and daughters brought along by the Maryland delegation, the Tammany girls from New York, the Virginia belles who came to scream for Harry Byrd, or Alfalfa Bill Murray's kiltie band from Oklahoma City (sometimes called "Bill's Bare-legged Babes" because they were so much better looking than the chorus).

So much for the general bow to democratic femininity in the aggregate. Getting down to individuals, young and older, one found a more picturesque galaxy at the latest convention than at any other since women became a factor in politics. They bore up nobly and even gaily when the men put them through an unprecedented wearing experience—that all-night and early morning session when the Roosevelt managers tried to jam through their candidate on an immediate ballot.

Mr. Woodrow Wilson, who might be described as the heroine of all factions of democracy and dodges all the publicity she can, was one of those who stayed up all night. So was Mrs. Katie Smith, Al's wife, a loyal and devoted consort who took a lot of abuse from snooty women during her husband's gallant fight in 1928. And the Roosevelt girls—Mrs. Jimmy, the governor's daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Curtis Dall, the daughter, both young and lovely.

Those Greenway Boos.
Mrs. Isabella Greenway of Arizona, another of whom any discriminating person would take two good looks, won the distinction of being the first woman to be booed thoroughly. But it was only at the outside by her enthusiastic seconding set, when she made the gallery burn of Roosevelt. She made a splendid speech and finished it without any more booging—a speech on which the governor congratulated her by telephone.

The girls who led the singing during the demonstrations were outstanding hits of the convention. Malvina Passmore, of Texas, waving her two Lone Star flags and singing "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You," swaying with the music, captivated 20,000 or more persons during the Garner show.

The Smith demonstration, an enormous enthusiastic affair, was broken in the middle to allow Rose Zulalian of Massachusetts, who had sung the Star-Spangled Banner as a curtain-raiser, to sing "My Hero," which brought down the house all over again.

Mrs. "Alfalfa Bill."

Mrs. Alfalfa Bill Murray was there, enjoying her first convention, and entranced all the numerous newspaperwomen by giving them frank, good-natured interviews. A man next to me, viewing Mrs. Geo. A. Waters, head of Oklahoma's boys' reformatory, as she seconded for Bill, kept insisting she was a "knockout." Right!

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, of Washington, D. C., staid and socially prominent, old friend of Woodrow Wilson and national committeewoman from the District of Columbia, sat with her lognette on the platform, frequently smoking a cigarette and frequently joining in applause regardless of her preference for Roosevelt.

One man's poison is another man's pumpnickel, but perhaps the most likely beauty contest winner among the national committeewomen was Mrs. Jean Springstead Whittemore, of Puerto Rico, one of the active Roosevelt workers.

Mrs. Bernice Pike, of Ohio, led off for the anti-Roosevelt forces in the Shouse-Walsh fight for the permanent chairmanship with a speech which gave a verbatim report of the negotiations in which Roosevelt was alleged to have given his support to Shouse. She is white-haired, handsome and active in democratic national affairs.

The more you recall these democratic women the more numerous the individual recollections become. The next national convention won't come until 1936. Too bad!

Buffaloes Lack Athletic Lineup

CANYON, July 8.—What athletic affiliations are to be made by West Texas State Teachers college after the old T. I. A. A. conference is dissolved this fall is still a matter of conjecture.

Coach S. D. "Sad Sam" Burton is as silent as ever regarding his plans. D. A. Shirley, registrar at the college and president of the T. I. A. A., said, "This school has two or three things in mind, but not yet definite enough to give to the press."

The local school is left in a more or less stranded position, and there have been many rumors that the Buffaloes may play "outlaw" athletics for the time being.

Considerable importance is attached to the schedule of a football game with Oklahoma City university in October. Rumors would have it that the Buffaloes may "throw in" with the Oklahoma schools for athletic competition. There also is some conjecture that a conference might be organized by West Texas State Teachers, Texas Tech, now a member of the Border conference, New Mexico university, and a group of Western Oklahoma schools.

The T. I. A. A. football games will be played as scheduled. At the close of the season, McMurry college and Abilene, will withdraw to enter the Texas conference. Daniel Baker also is seeking admission to that conference, leaving only the local school, Sul Ross State Teachers college and Texas Arts and Industries. Sul Ross has applied to the Border conference.

"IS THIS SHORTHORN?"
HEREFORD, July 8.—"Is this Shorthorn?" asked a tourist as he stopped at a Hereford filling station.

It required some time for the attendant to figure out the visitor's mixup, then he realized that it was merely an error of cattle breeds. "Oh, yes—Hereford. That's what I meant," the tourist said.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: The Call of Moses.
Scripture Lesson: Exodus 2:10-15; 3:1-12.

Ex. 3:10. Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.
11. And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12. And he said, Certainly I will be with thee, and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou shalt have brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.
13. And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; they will say unto me, What is his name? what shall I do unto them?

14. And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thou shalt say unto the children of Israel: I AM hath sent me unto you.
15. And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

4:10. And Moses said unto the Lord, O Lord, why have I not found favor in thy sight, since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.
11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made the dumb or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind have not I the Lord?

12. Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth and teach thee what thou shalt say.
13. Golden Text: Certainly I will be with thee.—Exodus 3:1.

Introduction.
Great tasks undertaken develop our higher abilities. Moses was no great personality to be tending sheep in Midian. That was an occupation which did little to tax his powers. There was nothing in his work which would have made of him a great orator, organizer and leader. His heavy responsibilities in Egypt and the desert brought out his latent capacity. We have no right to easy jobs in this world. A man who is content with a little job will always be a little man. The best education is always to have on our hands undertakings that are a little too much for us. A wise pastor will lead his young people under responsibilities which appear to them to be beyond their abilities. Any opportunity to be helpful to the call of God to us. General William Booth went into the London slums to help degraded men. David Livingstone went into African jungles with his medical science and sympathetic heart. Charles Dickens wrote the story of the hopeless inmates of debtor prisons. Who can doubt that these men were called of God to the great work they did? When we show kindness we are serving God.

Character of Moses.
To begin with, Moses was humble. He was unaware of his essential greatness, and therefore dignified of his own powers. When the opportunity came to do a thing that would for all time immortalize his name in the earth he shrank from it. A true modesty is almost invariably a trait in every great personality. A shallow personality is likely to feel himself capable of many great enterprises because he thinks himself greater than he is, but the really masterful person is above conceit.

Man of sympathy.
He could not help remembering them that were bound as bound with them. The woes of the Hebrew slaves were his woes also. A weaker man would have clung to his great fortune as the adopted son of Pharaoh's daughter. But Moses could not do, being the kind of man he was. When he saw one of the slaves, being cruelly beaten he could not withhold his hand even though his act exposed him to scorn at the honors and privileges of his position in the king's household. True sympathy means suffering with another. Its opposite is selfishness, and no selfish man was ever yet a man.

Man of Faith.
"By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season." Faith is the ability to make substantial things out of thin air. Moses had in high degree. His faith was in the God of his people, not in the pagan deities of Egypt. All great achievement is the result of faith. What we have and what we are able to see at any one time may not be enough to encourage us to heroic effort, but when we see the substantial reality of what we hope, it calls out our enthusiasm and best efforts. There were many times in the life of Moses when the well might have become discouraged, but ever before him went the pillar and the cloud to symbolize the presence of God, upon whom he depended for the success of the great enterprise. A discouraged man is a weak man. To become hopeless concerning the class we teach, or the church, or the kingdom of heaven, is to show lack of faith in God and to strip us of our power.

Moses' Vast Abilities.
Moses is one of the most colossal human beings in history. As is the way with truly great men, the vast abilities which resided within him were all unsuspected by himself. There are capabilities in many people to whom this lesson will be taught which are unknown to themselves. Paul admonished Timothy to stir up the gift that was in him. Many of us would do well to take that advice to ourselves. When the crisis comes, men often meet it with resources which no one, least

Communists Are Growing Menace

BUENOS AIRES, July 8 (AP)—A possibility of joint action by South American governments to suppress the rising force of communism on the continent was indicated here today.

The ambassador from Peru, where a communist outbreak occurred yesterday, was reported today to have approached the Argentine foreign office with a suggestion for united action and it was presumed Peruvian ambassadors in other South American capitals had taken similar steps.

Martial law was proclaimed in Peru yesterday by President Luis M. Sanchez Cerro, whose government attributed the outbreak to members of the opposition area party as well as communists.

Prohibition Party Plans Campaign

INDIANAPOLIS, July 8 (AP)—Leaders of prohibition party formulated plans today for a national campaign in behalf of its nominees for president and vice-president, plans subject to change if the national dry organizations succeed in persuading Senator William E. Borah or another outstanding figure to become a candidate.

William D. Upshaw of Georgia, who served four terms in the national house of representatives as a democrat, was nominated for the presidency at the prohibition party convention which ended here yesterday. Frank S. Regan of Rockford, Ill., became the vice-presidential nominee.

POTATOES WITHOUT VINES
CLARENDON, July 8 (AP)—T. W. Smith of this city is growing Irish potatoes without vines. Smith learned a few days ago that potatoes were growing from the "eyes" of his plantings, although no plant had appeared above the ground. As many as half a dozen potatoes were growing from one "eye," being attached by small thread-like stems.

HARVEST NEAR END
CHILDRESS, July 8 (AP)—Wheat harvest in Childress county is rapidly drawing near a close and the yield is running from eight to 25 bushels. The wheat section of Childress county is east of this city extending into Hardeman county. The wheat has tested generally good.

BOOST SPANISH MUSIC
MADRID (AP)—Prizes ranging from $250 to $500 for the best specimens of musical folklore discovered by next October, have set village minstrel's agog throughout Spain. The object, says Fernando de los Rios, minister of education, is to stimulate Spanish culture.

unto this day. In Cecil Frances Alexander's lines:
"And had he not high honor—
The hills for a pall;
To lie in state, while angels wait
With stars for tapers tall;
And dark rock-pines, like tossing plumes,
Over his bier to wave,
And God's own hand, in that lonely land,
To lay him in the grave?"

VOLCANOS DIG OIL WELL FOR ARGENTINE VILLAGE

MALAROPUE, Argentina (AP)—The Chilean volcanic eruptions seemingly shook an oil field out of the front yard of this west-Argentine village.
After the people got the volcanic ash out of their eyes, Emilio Mesa noticed a blue blaze over outlying fields and found fire smoldering in a hole.
Out of it he dug what appeared to be tar and further investigations show probable petroleum resources in a section hitherto unexplored for oil.

STORK AVOIDS ENGLAND LONDON (AP)

The stork's visits to England are becoming less frequent. There were 7,451 letters in the first quarter of 1932 than in 1921, the rate of 15.3 a thousand being the lowest on record.

CERMAK VERY ILL CHICAGO, July 8 (AP)

Reassuring pronouncements from official quarters failed today to quell the rising concern of Chicago over the health of Anton Cermak, its mayor.
While he remained under observation at St. Anthony de Padua hospital, the official statements served only to fan speculation over reports his political allies considered his state of health so grave they were thinking of naming an acting successor.

Tearful Gypsy Princess Has Gay Wedding

ASHLAND, O., July 8 (AP)—By the light of flickering camp-fires a gypsy princess with tearful eyes became the bride of a Roman king's son near here Wednesday, while several hundred tribal friends danced, feasted and made merry.

As a flower-trimmed wreath of ribbon streamers and a scarlet veil were pressed on her head to symbolize the union, the 19-year-old bride, Rosa Miller of Chicago, broke into sobs from an unexplained sorrow. Some said perhaps she loved another.

The bridegroom, George Ephrim, 22, had a less conspicuous part in the ceremony and was distinguished only by a large red rose pinned to his white sweater.

Steve Ephrim, the Roman chief and father of George, purchased the bride for his son for $2,000, the gypsies said, thus conforming to tribal custom.

The wedding festivities were started early yesterday as the gypsies in their encampment roasted young pigs and let wine flow freely. Later in the day music and dancing began. It continued intermittently until after midnight, when the bride came forth for the wedding dance and to receive the wedding symbols.

GAS TAX DECLINES

TOPEKA, July 8 (AP)—Steadily dwindling Kansas gasoline tax receipts are biting a big chunk out of funds for construction and maintenance of the state highway system.

Seth G. Wells, state inspector of oils, reported today the June receipts from the three-cent tax were $14,034.92, compared with $826,459.95 in the same month a year ago, representing a $212,425.03 decrease.

One explanation of the shrinkage is the registration of 50,000 fewer motor vehicles than at this date one year ago.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

Plank cookery is always interesting. The effect on serving is decidedly sumptuous although there is no great amount of work involved. In fact, a plank is really a labor-saving device because it saves so many serving dishes and simplifies serving.

Fish is particularly attractive served "planked" during the summer months. Salmon steaks with spinach timbales makes an appetizing picture. Delightful color contrasts can be worked out with other varieties of fish and vegetables with inviting results.

Since recent discoveries have put salmon in an enviable place among fish and spinach has long been regarded with high favor, the food value of the combination is unusually great. The foods are both seasonal during the early summer and are inexpensive and nourishing.

While the use of a plank is not imperative, it is a convenience and tends to keep foods hot. If a plank is not used, the fish can be broiled and served on a platter surrounded with the vegetables. Crisp parsley and lemon wedges add and extra touch of color when the dish is served.

Use care not to over-crowd a plank. The temptation to use a variety of vegetables is apt to befall one, but a too copious arrangement makes serving difficult at the table.

The following recipe is for salmon, but any variety of fish can be used—small boned fresh water and deep-sea fish as well as deep-sea fish cut in steaks and fillets.

Planked Salmon
Two slices salmon, 3 hard cooked eggs, 1 cup white sauce, 1 lemon. Brush both sides of salmon with olive oil and brown evenly on both sides. Place one steak on plank. Sprinkle with lemon juice and cover with a layer of eggs out in slices and moistened with white sauce. Cover with second slice of salmon and sprinkle with lemon juice. Surround with vegetables and put into a hot oven for five or ten minutes to make very hot.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Fresh apricots, cereal, cream, French toast, maple syrup, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Jellied cottage cheese salad, hot buttered rolls, peach cobbler with cream, grape juice.
DINNER: Planked white fish with border of spinach timbales, buttered baby beets and mashed potato, cabbage and celery salad in onion and pepper cups, cherry ice, milk, coffee.
Garnish with sprigs of parsley and wedges of lemon and serve.

Spinach Timbales
Spinach timbales will be good with a planked steak, planked ham and broiled chicken as well as fish.
Two pounds spinach, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, yolks 3 eggs.
Wash spinach through many waters and remove coarse stalks and stems. Cook in water which clings to leaves. Let water cook away as much as possible without burning. Drain and chop very fine. Season with lemon juice, sugar, salt and pepper and add egg yolks well beaten. Turn into buttered individual molds. Place on several thicknesses of paper in a pan of hot water and bake in oven for twenty minutes. Unmold and serve.

Border plank with a piping of mashed potatoes or alternate the timbales with mounds of potato-marbles.
Serve Hollandaise sauce in a separate dish for the timbales.

KILL'S DAUGHTER AND SELF CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 8 (AP)—Harrison Smith, 39, shot and killed his daughter, Estella, 18, as she slept yesterday and then turned the gun on himself, dying instantly. Smith, who had always been extremely devoted to the girl, had objected to her going on a walk with a neighboring couple but she went despite his wishes.

THE SPASTIC COLON

Constipation is a very widespread complaint, and yet many of those who complain of constipation suffer from what is termed dyschezia or rectal retention.

True constipation is due to an atonic colon, that is, a relaxed colon, one that is not stimulated by the presence of waste matter to normal evacuation, while the spastic colon is one under continued tension, largely due to a state of nervousness in the individual.

The normal tone of the colon is not under the control of the volitional portions of the nervous system. On the other hand, it may be influenced by the mind, as in the case of diarrhea associated with fright.

Many cases of spastic colon undoubtedly arise as a result of irritating treatment of a temporary, harmless constipation.

It is thus that a simple constipation may secondarily produce spasms of the colon, just, of course, as spasms of the colon of nervous origin may produce constipation.

Drastic purging of the colon may lead to the development of certain inflammatory reactions in the mucous lining of the large intestine. Experiments have shown that purging increases the liability of absorption of toxins or bacteria from the large bowel.

The symptoms of spastic colon are variable. Not infrequently the complaint is systematic, such as undue fatigue, depression, headache and giddiness. At times the spasticity of the colon gives rise to abdominal pains that may resemble acute appendicitis.

The management of this condition calls for a certain indifference to the bowel function.

Texas Drys Are Pledged to Fight Saloon's Return

DALLAS, July 8 (AP)—The first definite move toward organization of Texas prohibitionists on a statewide basis for the forthcoming elections was made by a group of dry leaders here.

An appeal for Texas democrats to vote for dry candidates in the July 23 primary and to ignore the referendum on prohibition was contained in a statement signed by 45 persons, some of whom were most active in the 1928 state presidential contest.

The statement urged dry democrats to participate in the primary and vote for dry candidates for congressman-at-large, for district congressman, for governor, and for all state and county officers and members of the legislature.

It was issued after a meeting earlier in the week and preliminary to a statewide conference of prohibitionists called for Dallas next Saturday in the republican column four years ago.

"In view of the movement to destroy our prohibition laws, we feel that no dry democrat can afford to stay out of the primaries," the statement read. "Our party must not be surrendered to the domination of the outlawed liquor traffic."

Condemning the referendum ordered by the democratic state executive committee, the dry leaders said "its submission has resulted in widespread protest and confusion among democratic voters."

"We urge that this liquor referendum be ignored by dry democrats," they stated. "It can not have any real significance, or constitute any reliable index to the views of the people."

State government costs have increased 760 per cent since 1911, the California Tax Research Bureau reported to Gov. James Rolph, Jr.
