Pampans Are To Study Gas Status In Field

Ed Dunigan, Roy White and Buddy Patton, all of Pampa, were named members of a committee of seven to study and investigate the gas situation in the Panhandle field at a meeting of company engineers and interested parties in Amarillo yesterday.

The committee will endeavor to complete its work and be ready to report to the Texas Railroad commission Aug. 10. The study of ratable taking from the Panhandle field will be of chief concern in the survey. An effort is being made to devise some plan whereby the Panhandle gas can be conserved.

More than 100 Panhandle producers attended the meeting.

I HEARD--

That when the ruins of a house in the Merton school area were entered yesterday afternoon, 25 pounds of ice still remained where the ice box was located. Although the ice box, containing 50 pounds of ice, had burned, half the ice still remained. (Mr. Ripley is going to be asked to check that one.)

Sam Penberg, C. P. Buckler, Ben Reno and Brownie Emerson had a race with a mouse this morning and the mouse won. Also that Murray Freundlich had a race with a "hot check artist" yesterday afternoon and also lost.

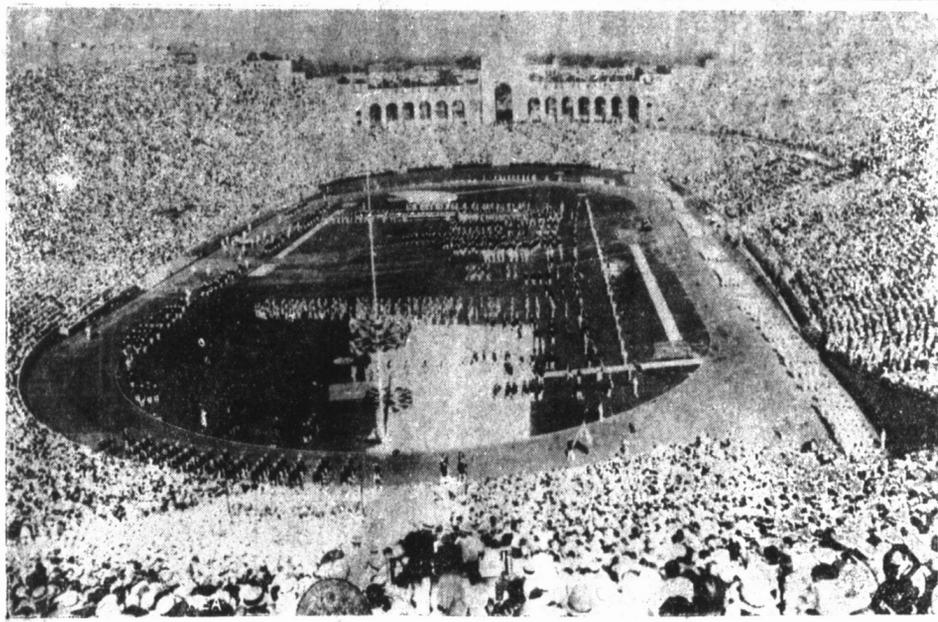

ARKANSAS and OKLAHOMA: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday.

WEST TEXAS: Generally fair to night and Thursday.

—AND A SMILE

When they demanded the valuables of herself and her escort, seated in a parked car, she tucked her diamond ring under the seat cushion. That fooled the holdup men. Then the robbers put Miss Kriochik and her escort out and drove away with the car. That fooled Miss Kriochik.

WHEN GREATEST OLYMPIAD OPENED

Here is the impressive scene at Olympic stadium in Los Angeles Saturday, when over 100,000 spectators filled the stadium and the flower of athletic endeavor in two-score countries appeared in procession, to take the Olympic oath and prepared for their competitions in all fields of sport. The delegations of the various nationalities are shown marching around the stadium and taking their places in the center for the opening ceremonies.

TAX PAYING PLAN PASSES

May Remit Taxes On Installments If Owners Start Soon Enough.

Tax payers who have been notified that the city will take steps to collect delinquent taxes after Aug. 1 may be saved the action by paying as much as 25 per cent of their taxes on or before Sept. 1 and the balance within a reasonable time, according to a plan accepted by the city commission yesterday afternoon.

It was agreed that the amount paid by Sept. 1 would be placed in a trust account and as additional payments were made, they also would be added to the account. When the last payment was made, it would include the penalty and interest. The tax payer would be given a paid receipt when the last payment was made.

The commissioners felt that many citizens could pay their taxes in flat manner and thus save court action.

Tax Collector J. H. Blythe has mailed many delinquent tax notices and is working on the balance of the list. Persons owing delinquent taxes should not wait until they receive a notice to take advantage of the new plan, Mr. Blythe suggested.

Triangle Woman Heard In Trial

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 3 (P)—Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian flier and former aviation partner of Captain W. N. Lancaster, testified at the former British army aviator's murder trial today that Lancaster had contemplated suicide in order that she and Haden Clarke, her fiancé, might receive $1,000 from his insurance policy on their wedding day.

Called as a witness for the prosecution in its efforts to prove Captain Lancaster killed Clarke, a young writer, in a love triangle, the aviatrix said the men quarreled over her affections at dinner the night before Clarke was shot at her home. They settled their differences, however, she said, after Clarke admitted Lancaster's accusation that he had been unfaithful to the former army flier in making love to her.

Her voice broke as she spoke of locking the door to her room upon retiring that night.

"Why did you lock the door?" State Attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne asked.

"Because Haden told me he did not want that—(Lancaster) to come to my room and talk me out of our marriage plans," she responded.

Mrs. Dick Walker has been ill at her home near Pampa, but is much better today.

WATER SUPPLY IN ADDITION IS DISCUSSED

New Roof Will Be Erected Over Tank

City commissioners deferred action on the purchase of a tractor and grader until next week when they met yesterday afternoon. Three bids were opened and studied. City Manager C. L. Stine and Street Superintendent George Latus have been making a study of road machinery during the past three weeks.

The Talley addition water situation was discussed at length with Earl Talley but action was deferred until a later date. The city is now supplying water to the addition. Mr. Talley presented a plan for bettering the system.

The commissioners voted to have a new roof placed over the underground storage tank near the water wells.

Petty Thieves Keep City Police Busy

Petty thieving is still being reported to city police officers who are working over-time trying to cope with the situation now existing.

L. Ekern reported the theft of 150 feet of garden hose and connections to police this morning. The hose was stolen sometime last night.

Other petty thefts were rumored, but had not been reported to the police.

Canadian authorities reported to local officers the theft of five automobile tires and tubes and two truck tires. They asked that a watch be kept for them here.

Governor Is Asked For Troops And Planes To Break Siege

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3 (P)—Governor Harry G. Leslie today ordered Indiana national guard troops into Vigo county where union pickets have besieged sixty non-union miners in the Dixie Bee shaft.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 3 (P)—The siege of the Dixie Bee mine in southern Vigo county was continued today with desultory firing. Sixty non-union workmen hemmed in by a ring of union pickets exchanged bursts of fire at daybreak and then the attackers and defenders settled down to cautious sniping tactics.

The siege began late yesterday.

KANSAS STILL DRYEST STATE

Wet Candidates Snowed Under In Primary Election.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 3 (P)—It's still dry Kansas after yesterday's primary—in which wet candidates sought the favor of voters of the pioneer prohibition state for the first time in two decades.

While prohibition was not the major issue, taking a supporting role to the more lively questions of taxation, economy in government and other matters which affect the pocketbook, it was clearly demonstrated that Kansas voters haven't changed their views on liquor.

Returns today revealed the re-nomination of Senator George McGill and Governor Harry H. Woodring by the democrats.

Ben S. Paulen, Independence banker and former governor, took a 21,000-vote lead early in his race with Joe H. Mercer, for the republican senatorial nomination.

Alfred M. Landon, oil man and fellow townsman of Paulen, outran a field of three for the right to meet Governor Woodring in November.

Senator McGill, Paulen and Landon are listed as drys.

Chauncey B. Little, former representative in congress who seeks repeal of the 18th amendment, was McGill's opponent.

Landon and Woodring will be opposed in the November election by Dr. John R. Brinkley, Milford, Kan., goat gland specialist, who will make the gubernatorial race as an independent. He polled 138,000 "write-in" votes two years ago.

Representatives Harold McQuiggin, republican, third district; Homer Hoch, republican, fourth district, and W. A. Ayres, democrat, fifth district, were renominated without opposition.

ONE KILLED, EIGHT WOUNDED WHILE 3,000 ARMED MINERS DEFY POLICE AND HEM IN SIXTY WORKMEN

One picket has been killed and four wounded. Four defenders of the mine have been wounded. The latter are still at the shaft without medical attention. Pickets last night turned back ambulances sent to bring out the wounded miners.

Meanwhile representatives of the non-union workers were at the state capitol in Indianapolis seeking a conference with Gov. Harry G. Leslie hoping to persuade him national guard troops are needed.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 3 (P)—A union picket line bristling with rifles held prisoners in the Dixie Bee coal mine today 60 workmen, four of them wounded by gunfire yesterday in which one picket was killed and four injured.

National guard troops and airplanes equipped to scatter the attackers by use of gas were requested.

LOCAL TALENT GIVE PROGRAM FOR JAYSEES

Music And Short Talks Fill Evening

The dining room of the Schneider hotel took the form of a stage last night when talented local residents entertained at the regular monthly banquet of the Junior chamber of commerce. The program was arranged by Frank Hill and Harry Hoare.

There were also speakers on the program but they did not make long talks. They spoke on subjects of great interest to the Jaysees. John Sturgeon, local attorney, in discussing "Fellowship" said that it was a subject far over his head but that he believed there had to be fellowship in organizations, businesses and in lives to make them successful. Helping somebody and refraining from criticism were also points in fellowship, Mr. Sturgeon declared.

County Agent Ralph Thomas spoke on 4-H work in Gray county. He answered the question that many have asked in the past—What does 4-H stand for? It stands for head, heart, hand and health. Mr. Thomas said. He said that the work was more among rural communities and the aim was to make the boys better men.

I. A. Freeman congratulated the body on its accomplishments and projects for the future. He suggested that a better business bureau and an educational campaign to encourage people to trade at home be future activities.

WANT ACTIVE SERVICE; SHOUT THEIR PLACE NOT IN HOME

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Aug. 3 (P)—Hundreds of excited Paraguayan women—society belles, debutantes and farm wives—besieged the government today, demanding the right to go to war.

They came by the dozens, hanging on trucks and wagons, crowding out of trains, and rushed for the stadium where recruiting activities looking toward war with Bolivia were centered.

The women demanded active service on the battle front. This the government regarded as impossible in the deep Chaco wilderness where even the mildest non-combatant service is considered too severe for women.

The beleaguered officials tried to suggest service in civilian capacities at home, filling positions vacated by the men. But the women scoffed. If Paraguay goes to war, they shouted, their place would be in the Chaco, not the home.

The general staff announced last night it was responsibly informed that 600 Bolivian troops in southern Chaco had deserted, crossing the Pilcomayo river into Paraguayan territory.

One battalion of specially recruited troops from Concepcion already is under orders to proceed to the Casado sector deep in the heart of the disputed territory.

Eight hundred Uruguayans sent a message offering to serve in the Paraguayan army.

Bolivia Mobilizes
LA PAZ, Bolivia, Aug. 3 (P)—The ministry of war ordered today a mobilization of all classes of youth between 22 and 29 years old, in anticipation of war with Paraguay in the Chaco region.

The order also included all retired officers between 20 and 50.

A high official told The Associated Press Bolivia will inform the league of nations that an immediate settlement of the Chaco dispute must be effected or she will go to war.

This answer, he said, will be made to a note received yesterday from Dr. Matos of Guatemala, president of the league council. The note was sent from league headquarters at Geneva to both countries, reminding them of their obligations as members of the league and asking for a peaceful solution of the Chaco trouble.

Pollard Death Results In Suit For Damages

Mrs. Estella Pollard and son, A. W. Pollard, Jr., a minor, filed suit for $72,500 against the Mid-Gray company and B. W. Salsbury in district court yesterday afternoon. The suit was filed by her attorneys, Hoover and Hoover of Canadian and W. F. Nix of Amarillo.

In her petition, Mrs. Pollard asked for $50,000 for herself and $22,500 for her son. She claimed that her husband, A. W. Pollard, died of injuries suffered in an explosion at the Mid-Gray well Oct. 7, 1930 when he was welding a collar on a pipe. The petition further alleged that the company failed to inform Mr. Pollard that there were explosives in the hole and also accumulated gas.

Feminine Clothes of Bank Robber Found

CHILDRESS, Aug. 3 (P)—A bank robber who was no lady had disappeared today, leaving discarded feminine apparel behind him as a hardly useful clue to his true identity.

Attired in the habiliments of the gentler sex, the man walked into the First State bank at Kirkland yesterday, produced a pistol and took about $1,600 in cash. He fled in an automobile belonging to W. A. Woods, stopping outside the town to let Wood's small son out of the car.

Pursuing officers found the car about six miles from town, where the robber abandoned it when the gasoline gave out. They trailed him across a creek bottom into a maize field and found a mask, a woman's hat, and a dress. They waited for reinforcements and searched the maize field but the man was not in it.

WATERS DISCARDS PLAN TO SET UP CAMP IN MARYLAND

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 3 (P)—The mayor of Johnstown and leaders of the bonus expedition visited the bonus seeking veterans' camp today to tell them they must move on.

Donk Carter, the veterans' chief of staff, told the veterans he has resigned.

It was a sorry gathering of men camped near here, who heard Mayor Eddie McCloskey and their leaders say they no longer can expect shelter on the ground the mayor provided for them after their flight from Washington.

Their commander, Walter W. Waters, was represented by Eddie Atwell, who came here this morning from Washington.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 3 (P)—After conferring with leaders of the bonus expedition forces, Mayor Eddie McCloskey said today he would obtain trucks tomorrow morning to carry the bonus seeking veterans from their camp here.

McCloskey declined to add anything to the statement, but said he would have more to say later.

Neither he nor the veterans' leaders revealed the destination of the bonus seekers after their departure from Johnstown. The veterans' staff officers said earlier that they would establish a camp elsewhere, probably in Pennsylvania.

"Asked to Leave"
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 3 (P)—Donk Carter announced today that the bonus expeditionary force will move from Johnstown as soon as possible, probably to some other Pennsylvania site. Carter is chief of staff of the B. E. F.

The announcement was made after a conference called by Mayor Eddie McCloskey for a "showdown." The mayor previously had announced he would hire commander Walter W. Waters asking him to "clarify his plans for the immediate future of the veterans."

The mayor asked the field staff to tell him whether Commander

Pretty Wife And Husband Charged In Bank Robbery

SAYRE, Okla., Aug. 3 (P)—Harriet L. Wilson of Houston and his attractive brunette wife, Charlie, who together confessed they robbed the Guaranty State Bank of Texola yesterday, faced charges of robbery with firearms today, although they said the big pistol, Charlie trained on employees in the bank was unloaded.

Deputy Sheriff L. S. Gillum said Wilson scooped up $770, of which $740 was recovered when the couple was captured between Shamrock and Wheeler, Tex., by a Texas posse. Taken to Wheeler, they waived extradition and were brought here last night.

Gillum said the couple admitted they abandoned a car they had rented in Wichita Falls and paid a driver, Albert Anderson, $20 to drive them about 20 miles northwest from Texola, where they continued their flight north but were captured before they had gone four miles.

LUDINGTON, Mich., Aug. 3 (P)—The body of 17-year-old Evelyn Sanford, who disappeared last Saturday, was found buried in the basement of a vacant house in the rear of the home of Francis Nash in Free Soil today. Nash was taken into custody for questioning yesterday.

THREE FEDERATED STUDY CLUBS MEET DURING WEEK

TRANSFORMED FOR ACTIVITY OF NEXT YEAR

MRS. A. M. MARTINI IS CHOSEN AS MEMBER THIS MORNING

The next fiscal year for Pampa's federated study clubs will be busy one if the summer gatherings of committees and called meetings of entire clubs are indicative.

At least three of the clubs are meeting this week. The Civic Culture club held a regular meeting yesterday, the Twentieth Century club met this morning, and the Junior Twentieth Century club will meet Friday morning. In addition to these gatherings, many committees are convening. The program has been practically completed for the September breakfast, a joint social event which is the initial and probably the most important function for all federated study clubs, and the year book committees are nearing the completion of their work in preparing programs for the coming year.

NATIONAL HYMNS ARE STUDIED BY GROUP

The only study club which has held regular meetings during the summer is the Civic Culture club, which met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Katie Vincent. The hostess' daughter, Miss Kathryn Vincent, assisted in entertaining.

Roll call was answered with the names of the national hymns and a good program, led by Mrs. W. O. Workman, was on the same subject. The Pampa Girls' quartet, composed of Mrs. Earl Thomason and Misses Dorothy Doucette, Dorothy Dodd, and Hester Ella Lester, furnished vocal selections. They were accompanied by their director, Miss Iva June Willis.

Refreshments were served during a social half-hour to Mesdames E. A. Shackleton, B. C. Fahy, Otto Patton, W. O. Workman, H. H. Isbell, Katie Vincent and one visitor, Miss Ailene Cook.

Mrs. Workman will be hostess at the next meeting and Mrs. F. J. Huddell will be leader.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CULTURE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. A. M. Martini was chosen to complete membership of the Twentieth Century Culture club at a meeting of that organization this morning in the home of Mrs. L. N. McCullough. She was notified of her selection and accepted the invitation to become a member while the meeting was in progress.

Those attending were Mesdames John T. Glover, C. E. Lanester, Ewing Leach, H. D. Lewis, J. Powell Wehrung, R. S. Lawrence, Olin E. Hinkle, and the hostess.

JUNIOR CLUB WILL GATHER NEXT FRIDAY

A meeting of the Junior Twentieth Century club has been called for next Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of the president, Mrs. Dick Walker.

Membership of the club will be completed at that time and other plans for the coming year will be made.

My Beauty Hint

By IRENE DUNNE

I believe the early morning dew and the British fogs are wonderful stimulants and fresheners for the skin.

Since California does not have these morning dews, I have compounded a skin freshener very similar in effect to nature's stimulant, and with a spray like a perfume atomizer I apply this to my neck and face.

The effect is startling. A tonic, vital freshness is awakened in the skin, and a healthy glow and firmness of texture results from the daily use of such a preparation.

Mrs. H. H. Isbell spent last night in Panhandle.

Mrs. Raymond Allred, Mrs. A. B. Gledston, and Mrs. R. S. Lawrence went to Amarillo today.

DOWAGER TURNS EXTRA AS HER FORTUNE VANISHES; MAKES GOOD

By ROBBINS COONS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—After a lifetime of wealth and travel, Suzanne Wood, member of a prominent Chicago family, found her fortune of nearly $1,500,000 swept away in the stock market crash of 1929.

Mrs. Suzanne Wood, of a prominent Chicago family, did not despair when the stock market swept away her $1,500,000 fortune. She turned to extra roles in Hollywood.

Now she is in Hollywood, an "extra" in motion pictures and pursuing her ambition for an acting career.

"I don't consider it beneath my dignity to play extra and small bits in films—no, indeed," she says. "I want to make a success, and to achieve that I'm glad to start at the bottom."

Suzanne Wood, known in Chicago as Mrs. John E. Dean, is the daughter of the late Samuel E. Wood, prominent and wealthy Chicagoan. Her late husband, also wealthy, was a world traveler. With him, until his death and later alone, Suzanne Wood toured the world, visited many foreign countries and took part in social and artistic activities both here and abroad. In 1903 she was presented at the Court of St. James.

As singer and dancer she had appeared in charitable entertainments, but never seriously thought of acting as a profession until returning from Europe, she found her fortune gone. Further saddened by the death in an automobile accident of her brother, Kay Wood, Mrs. Dean came to California.

"One day," she relates, "I hired a car and driver and set out for the beach to rest and relax. Along the way a tire went flat. It was in front of the M-G-M studios. That was when I decided to try pictures."

"While the tire was being repaired I went into the casting office and was told to report for work the next day. I got $7 for it, and I've been working at it ever since."

Miss Wood is seen frequently in ballroom scenes, usually as a society dowager. The rich wardrobe she saved from happier days she uses now before the cameras. But she is philosophical about her losses.

"It isn't fashionable any longer to be rich," she laughs. "I don't know any one who is in these times. Now I want to make a new career for myself as a character actress."

When she isn't playing in pictures, Miss Wood writes. She is the author of several novels.

LITTLE FELLOW EATS BEANS—AND HOW!

He was just a little chap, but he was a very special guest at a Boy Scout outing held at the Leckrich ranch the other evening.

As the story goes, he was very fond of beans, so the older boys thought it no breach of hospitality when they wandered away leaving the youngster by the camp fire where nine cans of pork and beans were being heated.

Then the boys heard a shot—a terrific shot! Was their young guest hurt? They rushed frantically back to the camp fire, and there they had to laugh—a small, bean-covered face grinned at them.

Cans of beans just will explode, but why should a small boy care, so long as he gets the beans?

GUS MORELAND MATCHED WITH BYRON NELSON

FORT WORTH, Aug. 3. (AP)—Gus Moreland was matched against Byron Nelson in the first match of the east-west team battle, feature of the combined Glen Garden and all-southwestern golf tournament, here today.

Qualifying rounds for the tournament proper started this morning but most of the large field decided to wait until tomorrow to play their 18-hole rounds.

Some of the best golf of the tournament is expected in the 16-man east-west team battle. Nelson, captain of the west team, was a slight favorite despite the fact Moreland is recognized as the state's best golfer. Nelson has been shooting his home layout in sub par golf and yesterday scored a 65 to break the amateur record.

MINSTREL HITS TRAIL

Arthur Tracy, "The Street Singer," makes his first appearance tonight before the microphone on the Chesterfield hour. He has been singing since he was six years old and brings a voice of character and exceptional interest to radio listeners.

Immigrant Digs Grave And Then Builds Monument

ANSONIA, Conn., Aug. 3. (AP)—Neketa Radzevich Sutkovoy, who last year dug his own grave, is now putting the finishing touches on a sepulchre and monument built with his own hands.

Sutkovoy, 67, claims friendship with the late Czar Nicholas. He was chief jurist of a province near Kieve, Russia, was considered wealthy and entitled to be addressed as "mister."

A desire to travel brought him to this country.

He was employed in a brass foundry 25 years and retired on a pension about five years ago. Being in poor health, his thoughts turned to the grave and he decided to prepare all his own resting place.

Sutkovoy's wife and two sons are living. One son is in Boston, the other has returned to Russia to be postmaster in the same town where his father once lived.

On retirement, Sutkovoy sent his wife $10,000 and had built for her a two-story brick house. The Soviet government confiscated the money and property, he said.

Contemplating his handiwork today he said, "at least I'll be buried like a millionaire."

CHAMPIONS AT GAMES

American Legion To Elect Today

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 3. (AP)—The American Legion of Texas was ready today to close its annual convention with election of officers and choice of the next meeting place. More than 3,000 veterans were here.

Brigadier General C. B. Howland of Fort Sam Houston was the principal speaker yesterday, strongly criticizing conduct of the bonus marchers at Washington. He termed the disorders there "an incipient communist insurrection" and said the marchers should have stayed at their homes and allowed the Legion to seek congressional action. The general was both booed and cheered during his speech.

YANKS BUY SCHALK
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 3. (AP)—Conditional sale of Roy Schalk, second baseman of the Oklahoma City Western league club, to the New York Yankees was announced today by Secretary E. J. Humphreys of the Indians. The purchase price was not announced. Schalk, whose great ground covering and fast work in double-plays have been the brightest features of the Indians' play this season, will finish the 1932 championship race with the Yankees next spring.

BELIEVE 3 DROWN
NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 3. (AP)—Three members of the crew of the Milton S. Lankford, a small schooner carrying watermelons, were believed today to have been drowned after a collision with the Old Bay liner state of Maryland. Four others of the crew of seven were rescued.

Tunney Popular As Demo Speaker

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—Chairman James A. Farley of the democratic national committee today announced appointment of Robert Jackson of Concord, N. H., secretary of the national committee, as chairman of the speakers' bureau for the presidential campaign of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Jackson then announced the George Combs, formerly a Missouri congressman and now living in New York, would be vice chairman of the bureau.

Jackson said the speaker most in demand at the present time is Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight fight champion, who recently announced he would take the stump for Roosevelt.

It was stated at democratic headquarters that Speaker John N. Garner, democratic candidate for vice president, would take an active part in the campaign, speaking in various parts of the United States, including the east. This was considered an answer to the republican challenge to bring Garner to the stump in New York state.

STERLING AT CLEBURNE
CLEBURNE, Aug. 3. (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling, campaigning for renomination at the second democratic primary this month, will speak here tonight. Last night the governor spoke at Brownwood after making nine daylight addresses on his way to that city.

Love Triangle Is State's Plan In Lancaster Trial

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 3. (AP)—The story of a woman fier's love for two men was relied on heavily today by the prosecution in its attempt to convict Captain W. N. Lancaster, former British army aviator, of the murder of Haden Clarke, young American writer.

State Attorney Hawthorne said he planned to call Mrs. Jessie M. Keith-Miller, Australian aviatrix, as one of his first and principal witnesses.

The trial opened yesterday with selection of a jury, made up of married real estate men, merchants, contractors and salesmen.

Hawthorne's opening argument told of his plan to attempt to show that Lancaster frequently threatened Clarke's life after he learned that the author, who was writing Mrs. Keith-Miller's life story, had become engaged to the aviatrix during Lancaster's absence on a business trip. He once was Lancaster's fiancée.

The state attorney said testimony of state's witnesses would show that Clarke, fatally shot April 21 in the bedroom he and Lancaster occupied in the Keith-Miller home here, was murdered after quarrels between the two men over the woman.

Freeman Favors Keeping Money In Pampa And Texas

I. A. Freeman, local merchant, is a believer in the "buy at home" plan which means the keeping of Pampa money in Pampa and Texas, as money in Texas. Last night at the regular monthly luncheon meeting of the Junior chamber of commerce meeting in the dining room of the Schneider hotel, Mr. Freeman read a statement he picked up somewhere.

The guests seemed to like the idea suggested in the article and applauded loudly.

What Is Wrong With Texas
Nothing's wrong with Texas, except entirely too many of us get up in the morning at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, button a pair of Ohio suspenders to a pair of Chicago pants, put on a pair of Massachusetts shoes, wash in Pittsburgh tin basin, using Cincinnati soap, and a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sit down to a Grand Rapids table, eat pancakes made from Minneapolis flour spread with Vermont maple syrup, and Kansas bacon fried on a St. Louis stove. Buy fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices, and sweetened with Colorado sugar. Put on a hat made in Philadelphia. Hitch a Detroit mule fed on eastern refined gasoline to an Ohio plow and work all day on a Texas farm covered with New England mortgage, send our money to Ohio for tires, wondering why Texas taxes are $2.75 per acre while Ohio

Bid To Economic Parley Accepted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—The United States is willing to join a world economic conference that will ignore debts and specific tariff rates—but it has left open the possibility of debt discussions with individual nations.

An invitation to the economic meeting sponsored by the League of Nations was accepted yesterday. The American note, delivered to the British embassy, was not made public but it outlined reasons for acceptance and said representatives for this country would be named later.

The request to join stipulated that individual tariffs, reparations and debts would not be on the agenda for discussion. It specified that general tariff policy and silver would and that representatives of the participating nations be designated to three committees—one to arrange the conference itself, one on economic and one on financial problems.

farmers pay $100 tax and drive on paved roads, and at night we crawl under a New Jersey blanket to be kept awake by a bull dog, the only home product on the place, wondering all the time where all the money went in this wonderful state of ours. If we all would buy more home products and more of our manufactured goods and more of us do our trading at home, we could keep our money at home and be prosperous.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP)—Right out among the most popular speakers on behalf of the presidential candidacy of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt this summer is apparently going to be James Joseph Tunney.

Hoover's Speech Of Acceptance In First Draft

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—While the first printed proof of President Hoover's speech of acceptance lay on his desk, two of his personal aides conferred at length today with Everett Sanders, chairman of the republican national committee, concerning arrangements for the notification ceremonies Aug. 11.

Walter H. Newton, presidential secretary in charge of political affairs, and Lawrence Richey, another secretary, left the White House together for their conference with Sanders.

As Newton returned to his office he said plans for the elaborate ceremony had been discussed and general arrangements completed.

The first proof of Mr. Hoover's address, which will be the high light of the ceremonies and is expected to sound the keynote of his campaign for re-election, were brought from the government printing office early today, even before Mr. Hoover reached his desk.

The chief executive's usual custom is to revise his major addresses as many as three or four times. Even after the first proofs are returned he usually edits and rewrites parts of the copy in pencil and often a third proof is necessary. Copies of the speech probably will be delivered to the press by the end of this week or early next week.

One part of the notification ceremonies will be a garden party on the south lawn of the executive mansion on the afternoon of Aug. 11. About 300 guests, in addition to members of the notification committee representing every state, are expected.

Manchuria a Vast Lake Due To Rains

HARBIN, Manchuria, Aug. 3 (AP)—Twenty one days of uninterrupted rains have converted north central Manchuria into a vast lake and brought about a national disaster. Tens of thousands of square miles of rich harvest have been destroyed and enormous stocks of grain and soy beans lost. Thousands of farmers and other residents have lost their homes and are flocking to the cities from the terrible inundation.

Harbin is isolated from the rest of the world by rail and mail rivers. It is possible to travel by boat from Harbin to Tsitsihar, a distance of 200 miles, over a route much of which was once land. Considerable loss of human life and livestock has been reported. Several hundred square miles in the Nonni river area are under water and the floods have raised a problem which the new Manchoukuo government has found beyond its capacity to handle.

Oil Problems Will Be Aired In Survey

Although peaches lack some of the valuable minerals found in apples, they have a definite place among the tonic fruits. Use them often while they are in season, but keep in mind the necessity of cooking the fresh fruit if small children are to be allowed to eat it. Children under five years of age find peaches difficult to digest and should not be allowed to eat them in any form.

There are many delicious and economical desserts that older children and adults will enjoy. A delicate tartness is brought out in cooking peaches which makes them peculiarly satisfactory combined with rice and tapioca.

Wash rice well through many waters. Put into a large round-bottomed sauce pan with salt and water, cover pan closely and bring quickly to the boiling point. Boil hard for ten minutes, without lifting the cover. Then simmer slowly for ten minutes and finally let stand in a warm place for ten minutes. Do not lift the cover once during the cooking. Pare peaches and cut in halves. Remove stones and fill cavities with jam.

Peach Snow Balls: Four peaches, 1 cup rice, 3 cups cold water, 1 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons red raspberry jam, or preserves, sugar, butter, 4 squares cheese-cloth.

Turn into a deep cake pan which has been well buttered. Pare and stone peaches and cut in eighths. Press into cake mixture and sprinkle generously with sugar. Dust cinnamon over top and bake forty minutes in a moderate oven. Serve warm with plain cream.

BRITISH FLASH MAKES 'SHOW' OF OLD MARK

HAMPSON GALLOPS 800 METERS TO WIN IN 1:49.8

By ALAN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor.
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3 (AP)—World athletes have not only "turned the corner" but galloped in full cry down the middle of the road on the basis of today's evidence that the greatest Olympic boom in history is now assured.

In only three days, nearly 200,000 spectators have paid to see the assorted thrills of this international sports carnival. Of these, 155,000 have witnessed the track and field events in the Olympic stadium. An additional 105,000 looked at the formal opening ceremonies.

Four years ago it took eight days at Amsterdam to attract 130,000 customers into the main stadium.

With only three of the eight days of track and field competition so far completed, new Olympic records have been set in 11 of 15 events, four of which have not been completed. In the full eight days of activity in 1928, exactly a dozen Olympic records were broken.

World records have been broken and have been kicked around in the stadium for three days with such abandon that it's "news" when some one fails to beat the best on the books. It may be the track, the climate, the competition, or a combination of all three.

Americans no doubt would have liked to have had Ben Eastman in his best event, the 800 meters, when the Olympic finalists toed the mark for yesterday's dramatic final. It is doubtful however, whether the Star and star of his peak could have beaten today's Hampson, the British school teacher who roared down the stretch to a new world record of 1:49.8.

Hampson's marvelous performance, the feature of the third day's track which kept Britain's union jack flying highest in this middle distance classic. They knew beforehand that Hampson was good, but no one had any idea he could make a "show" of Sera Martin's world mark of 1:50.6.

The rest of the record-cracking story points the way today to a pair of dazzling championship battles, to be run off in quick succession, first in the 110-meter high hurdles and then in the 200-meter dash. There were six record races in these two events alone yesterday.

The 200-meter Olympic record of 21.6 seconds, which stood for 28 years, was positively manhandled. Tolan and Metcalfe, the two American negroes expected to fight it out again in the final, ran their quarter-final heats each in 21.5 seconds, for new Olympic marks, but Carlos Lull, Argentine sensation and Arthur Jonathan, the bustling German, came right back to elicit off winning races in 21.4 seconds each.

America's trio of high hurdling aces look ripe for a clean sweep as well as record-smashing final. Two of them cracked the Olympic record of 14.6 seconds in yesterday's semifinals. Jack Keller romped home in 14.5 seconds after which George Saling led his teammate, Percy Beard, in 14.4, also tying the world record.

The American negro's contribution to the rapidly mounting point score of the United States was emphasized again, when Edward Gordon of Iowa won the broad jump title with a leap of 25 feet, 3-1/2 inches. This fell considerably short of the record.

The Olympic track and field team championship, meanwhile, is virtually all over but the shouting. The United States, with eight events concluded, has 81 points. Ireland is next with 20, while Canada has 19, Finland 16, Great Britain 13, Poland and Germany 10 each, Sweden, 8 and Japan 7.

Dallas' Lead Is Only Half Game Over Beaumont

Associated Press Sports Writer
A bare half game was the margin of Dallas' lead over the Texas league pennant marathon today. Before they embarked on their road trip, the Steers had a five-game lead, but today they were only a few points in front of Beaumont, first half winner.

Dallas lost a full game yesterday by losing a 4 to 3 game to Houston while Beaumont went 11-innings to beat Longview, 8 to 7.

The Exporters escaped from a 7 to 7 deadlock in 11-innings when Holley tripled to score Collier from first. Rowe, ace of the Beaumont staff, started, but blew up in the ninth when he allowed Longview to score a pair of runs and tie the score.

As usual, Dallas blew a lead to lose to Houston. The Buffaloes swept from behind with a run in the eighth and another in the ninth to gain victory. McKain, former White Sox pitcher who hurled for Dallas, was touched for 13 hits.

Galveston, with Cromer pitching, beat Fort Worth, 3 to 1. Cromer did not allow a hit until the seventh inning. It was Galveston's sixth victory in the last eight games.

Arthur Shires The Great, Fired Again

BOSTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Arthur (The Great) Shires appeared to be riding the sliceway of baseball today, but whether the belligerent "baby" of the majors would pop into the minors or into the prize ring was a matter for conjecture.

The first sacker, whose colorful penchant for self-praise earned him the sobriquets "what a man" and "The Great", was fired by Manager Bill McKenna of the Boston Braves yesterday but final decision on his immediate future was delayed until today.

Shires got fired when he wrathfully objected to the manager's plan to trade him into the minors whence he came.

Shires has been off his game of late and there has been talk of friction between him and the management.

Cleveland beat to beat San Antonio, 4 to 1. Joe Vance for San Antonio

BASEBALL WORLD ASTONDED AT DISMISSAL OF HORNSBY

President of Chicago Cubs Explanation Unsatisfactory; So Is Rajah's.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Baseball's most famous nomad, Rogers Hornsby, was on his way again today—deposed as manager of the Chicago Cubs.

Announcement of Hornsby's dismissal came last night, with a suddenness so startling as to leave the baseball world aghast—as much aghast as when John McGraw, without warning, quit as manager of the New York Giants last June.

In making his announcement, William L. Veck, president of the club, said, without elaboration: "It was to the best interests of the club that Hornsby retire at this time."

Not only is the Rajah, probably the stormiest figure in modern national league history, all done, as manager of the club—the third to be placed in his charge—but he is no longer a member of the club, having also been released as a player.

Hornsby, manager of the Cubs since the last four days of the 1930 season, when he replaced Joe McCarthy, will be succeeded by Charlie Grimm, first baseman for the club since 1925.

Hornsby's only comment before leaving the club at Philadelphia to make the move and "it's perfectly all right with me."

Almost from the time when he broke in with St. Louis Cardinals in 1915, Hornsby's major league career was a succession of sensational incidents from start to finish. His first major league baseball was inauspicious, but in 1920 he started on a six-year batting rampage that notched him as one of the game's greatest righthanded batsmen.

He became manager of the Cardinals for the 1926 season, and playing at second base, led the club to its first national league title. The world series with the New York Yankees was one of the most thrilling. Hornsby's club won four victories to three.

The baseball world was dumbfounded, when, during the winter after the Cardinals triumph, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for Frankie Frisch and Pitcher Jimmy Ring.

He was next traded to the Boston Braves, and a few weeks after the start of the 1928 campaign opened another mild sensation was created when he replaced Jack Slatery as pilot of the club.

Another peak in his career was reached in the autumn of 1928 when he came to the Cubs in baseball's biggest deal. The late William Wrigley Jr. determined to have a championship club, paid out $125,000 and five players, Freddie MacGregor, Percy Lee Jones, Harry Selby, Bruce Cunningham and Leggett, for Hornsby's services.

Then, just before the final series of the 1930 season, Mr. Wrigley, disappointed at the Cubs failure to win the title, dismissed Joe McCarthy, and appointed Hornsby to the task of leading the Cubs.

President Veck, in charge of the club since the death of Mr. Wrigley, thought the club, today in second place, five games behind Pittsburgh, should be at least closer. Hornsby's release followed a conference and the Rajah again is on his way.

Juniors Trying To Match Miami

Manager C. O. Busby of the Pampa junior ball club is in touch with Miami for a game next Sunday afternoon at Magnolia park.

The Miami Warriors are supposed to have a strong combination and if the game is scheduled, fans are likely to see a fast game. The juniors have been working hard during the past few weeks and have rounded out like veterans.

The pitching of Raymond Acklam has been the high light in previous games. The youngster has been pitching senior brand of ball all season and only tough luck has kept him from winning all his games.

DODGERS ARE CLIMBING TO FIRST DIVISION

BROOKLYN WINS NINE OF THEIR LAST 11 GAMES

By HERBERT BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer
Playing the ball Brooklyn fans expected of them at the start of the season, Max Carey's Dodgers are soaring toward a first division berth in the National league's pennant fight.

Victors in nine of their last 11 games the Dodgers were in fifth place today, only a game and a half behind fourth-place Boston. Their latest triumph—a 4-2 verdict over Chicago—was gained at the expense of the sensational rookie right-hander, Lon Warneke.

The Cubs lost no ground in the pennant chase, however, for the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates accepted their fourth straight defeat at Philadelphia, 11-6, as Chuck Klein cracked his 31st homer of the year.

Beston rallied for one in the ninth of Dizzy Dean to turn back St. Louis, 4-3, while Waite Hoyt scattered 11 hits to give the New York Giants a 3-2 decision over Cincinnati.

In the American league Washington whipped Chicago, 4-1, behind Alvin Crowder's six-hit pitching. Young Bill Chamberlain made his debut for the White Sox and allowed the Senators only five hits but his teammates' errors cost him the game.

Pictures Destroy 'Elbow' Theory

By JOHNNY FARRELL (As Told To Artie McGovern)
Many points in golf instruction have changed considerably during the past few years.

For instance, it used to be felt that no golfer's technique could be perfect if the right elbow was not kept in close to the body during the swing.

We now find, however, from careful study of our star golfers—particularly through the use of motion pictures—that it is impossible to keep the right elbow in such a position without bending the left arm.

Quite naturally we may be guilty of going to the opposite extreme and raising the right elbow too high. This also will ruin a swing.

The point to keep in mind is that the left arm must be straight as it guides the ground, and the left shoulder must be kept down so that it passes right under the chin.

Keep the right elbow in a comfortable position near the body, but make no effort to hold it in a manner which will restrict the straight left arm.

PHILLIPS AND NEWS TO PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

FIRST OF SERIES OF GAMES BEFORE FALL

The NEWS playground ball team will play at Phillips camp in the sixth field Friday night in the first of a series of games in preparation for the fall season. The newhouse will be strengthened by the use of a couple of new players who are expected to add considerable strength to the nine.

A return game will be played here next week. The following week THE NEWS will tackle the newly organized Skellytown nine. Later Berger is expected to prove the competition necessary for the coming season.

Anything but an easy game is anticipated Friday as the Phillips boys have snapped out of a coma recently. Sunday afternoon two of the crack Phillips teams of Berger played the Pampa Phillips aggregation, winning the first game 1 to 0 and the second game 3 to 0. Berger is supposed to have some of the fastest teams in the country.

Only four errors were made in the two games, which is something to talk about in playground ball. Fitchers on both nines were at top form.

The Faithful Cheat

BY RUBY M. AYRES

Chapter 21

A MESSAGE FROM MARK

THERE was nobody she wanted to talk to, Sondra decided, except Anderson and he seemed to be agitated with other people.

It was queer how upside down everything had turned. A short while ago it had bored Sondra because as a matter of course she had always been left to Anderson; it had irritated her because people seemed to take it for granted that she more or less belonged to him, and yet now—when for the first time things were utterly reversed, she was restless and unhappy.

It seemed strange that she should ever feel afraid to approach him.

Flora's car was no longer at her disposal, and she had arrived at the house that evening in an unromantic taxicab which was draughty and smelt of straw.

She felt that she almost hated Anderson as she watched him

"It's all right, yes, please pack my things, I am going away in the morning."

"If you would take me with you, Miss, I would serve you well," Sondra laughed.

"I'm afraid I shan't be able to afford a maid," she said. In the morning she took rooms in an hotel which was far more expensive than she could really afford, and before lunch she drove away from Lomax's house for ever, with nobody to see her off, nobody to regret her going.

She looked back once before the taxi turned out of the big, dignified street. A maid was already pulling down the drawing room blinds—"As if someone had died," Sondra thought with a pang.

At first Sondra found her new freedom amusing. People came to see her—more out of curiosity than genuine friendship, and she received the usual invitations to dine and dance.

Then—quite suddenly things began to change. For a time Sondra clung to the thought that it was an over sensitive imagination that warned her she was being left out of things—loneliness that made her restless and resentful if for a day she was left to herself.

The maid saw Sondra's tear-stained face, and she broke out with real feeling, "Oh, Miss Sondra, I'm so sorry."

Then quite by chance she heard that Beatrice Taylor and her family had left New York for Massachusetts.

She had telephoned Beatrice to enquire why she had not been to see her lately, and was informed by a maid that the entire family was away.

She heard her own voice ask faintly—"They've gone—to Massachusetts?"

"Yes, Miss."

"Thank you."

Sondra turned away from the telephone feeling as if someone had struck her.

There were letters lying on the table which she had not yet troubled to open, and she found herself mechanically sorting them through. There was one with a foreign stamp, and addressed in a strange handwriting; she broke it open without interest, glancing first at the signature—"William Le Roy."

"Dear Miss Kent,

"I am writing a line for Mark Merriman who is laid up with a mild attack of fever. He just wishes me to say that he is getting along famously and hopes to be about again in a few days, but at the moment he is unable to write himself. He also asked me to say that he sends the usual message. Yours sincerely,"

Sondra laid it aside and opened the other envelopes one by one—they were mostly bills, long over due, and there were also a couple of invitations to dull parties, offered by kindly, uninteresting people who felt sorry for her loneliness.

There was also the weekly hotel bill, the amount of which made her catch her breath.

She had certainly entertained friends rather lavishly during the two weeks of her stay, but $300 for one week seemed a colossal sum.

Panic seized Sondra's heart. The money which Ben had given to her was too rapidly diminishing.

News of a death, tomorrow, brings Sondra both shock and a changed attitude.

Stocks Again Rise In Broad Advance

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP)—Prices surged upward again in the New York stock exchange today in one of the broadest and most vigorous advances of the year.

Bears who had regarded yesterday's setback as the beginning of a substantial reaction were sent scurrying to cover during the afternoon trading and prices of leading shares shot up $1 to more than $5 a share.

A number of brokerage houses had been advising their clients to await a setback before buying, so yesterday's reaction merely served to bring in a flood of fresh purchasers. The list started slowly upward under leadership of the rails in the morning, after quiet hesitancy the first half hour, but by afternoon the advance turned into a thorough-going rout of the shorts.

Today and Thursday

If you were a brilliant young actor, and you wanted next to that to be a brilliant young columnist, and then suddenly you got an opportunity to play a role just like you had always wanted to play in real life—you'd be apt to give it all you have, wouldn't you.

That's exactly what Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. does in his latest First National picture, "Love Is A Racket," coming to the La Nora theater today and Thursday.

Doug has the role of a young New York columnist, a Walter Winchell type, who mixes freely with gangland and the people of the stage and screen. He is madly in love with Frances Dee, who plays the role of a showgirl; but the two hundred a week he gets for writing his column isn't enough for Frances' maiden aunt, who thinks in terms of thousands, not hundreds. Ann Dvorak, whose vocation might be anything, is in love with Doug, who can't see her for Dee-ust. Lee Tracy, probably the best characterization of a Park Row newspaper man who ever came off Broadway, is, in his turn, in love with Ann. To further complicate matters, Eddie Shaw, gangland's chief, played by Lysle Talbot, falls for Miss Dee and goes out to get her away from the young columnist.

One complication follows another, with Doug lured down to Atlantic City by Shaw, who then tries to get in his work with the pretty showgirl, and Frances' aunt, fearing the gangster more than anything in the world, going to his penthouse to kill him. How the whole thing comes out, the showgirl running off with a third person, and Doug being cured of his infatuation learning what he had known all along but hadn't been able to practice—that "Love Is A Racket"—forms one of the fastest r-zing comedy dramas of come out of Hollywood in a decade.

Courtney Terrett, well known New York newspaper man and author of "Only Soap Work" has done the screen adaptation of Rian James' novel, and William Wellman, who directed such outstanding hits as "Public Enemy" and "So Big," directed the film. The cast includes such outstanding players, besides the principals named, as Warren Hymer, Andre Laguet, Cecil Cunningham, William Burreas, Terrence Ray, Matt McHugh, Marjorie Peterson, Edward Kane, John Marston, George Ernest and Lillian Worth.

BUSINESS SHOWS GAIN IN JULY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Business, says the commerce department, is looking up.

Thus does it summarize improved bond prices, increases in what a number of important commodities bring, an ending of foreign gold withdrawals and a stop in stock market liquidations.

In July, the department says, these things among others "contributed to an improvement in sentiment," that improvement necessary to a full restoration. The favorable factors were considered especially interesting since they followed further recessions in June.

In the latter month, for instance, factory payrolls were off another 7.8 per cent; exports declined; 296 commodity prices changed.

But in July, after allowances for seasonal changes, several industries showed increased activity. Among these were automobile, textile, cement and tobacco.

The department did not say so, but experts in Washington recalled that the end of previous deflations had been chronicled in similar fashion. Gradual upward movements, beginning in summer months, prefaced continued increases in commodity prices in the winter.

In many instances, past improvement was not noticed until six or seven months after the actual change.

Highway Contracts In 15 Counties Let

AUSTIN, Aug. 3 (AP)—Bids for highway construction in 15 Texas counties were before the Texas highway commission today. Work costing $1,560,652, to be shared by 21 counties, was contracted yesterday.

Forty-seven miles of concrete pavement, 107 miles of grading and drainage structures, ten bridges and 64 miles of bituminous surfacing were authorized by yesterday's contracts.

Missouri Primary Outcome In Doubt

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3 (AP)—The outcome of Missouri's democratic senatorial and republican gubernatorial contests in yesterday's primary election was in doubt today, but Henry W. Kiel, former mayor of St. Louis, and Francis M. Wilson apparently were the republican nominee for senator and democratic choice for governor, respectively.

In the congressional races, where the nominees were chosen at large for the first time, a change necessitated by the state's failure to redistrict when its representatives were reduced by three, all the republican and most of the democratic incumbents were practically assured of nomination.

The closest race was that between Lieut.-Gov. E. H. Winter and secretary of State Charles U. Becker for the republican nomination for governor.

Another close battle was being waged between Col. Bennett G. Clark, son of the late Speaker Champ Clark, and Charles H. Howell, former chairman of the democratic state committee, for the democratic nomination for United States senator.

Glassford Wife Given Divorce

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Divorce from Pelham D. Glassford, superintendent of police of Washington, D. C., has been granted by Judge S. G. Taylor in the district court to Mrs. Cora C. Glassford of Alamo Heights, a San Antonio suburb.

Glassford was leader of the police forces of the capital in the fight against the bonus marchers.

The decree was granted yesterday on grounds of desertion. Mrs. Glassford setting out in her petition that she was abandoned Jan. 1, 1927. They were married at Fort Riley, Kan., on Christmas day, 1907.

The children are all of age, and a satisfactory property settlement had been reached, the petition stated.

The suit was filed in the seventy-third district court March 31, 1932, and a waiver of service filed by Glassford April 15. The case later was transferred to the forty-fifth court.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wood and family will leave tomorrow for a vacation trip to Milwaukee.
