NEGRO VOTE STUDIED BY COMMITTEE

LITIGATION IS NEAR CLIMAX ON QUESTION

FAVORABLE DECISION IN SUPREME COURT EXPECTED

STATE VOTE CANVASSED

REFERENDUM VOTE NOT "STRAW", SAYS HUGGINS

FORT WORTH, Aug. 8. (AP)—The negro vote and prohibition referendum were under discussion by the Texas Democratic executive committee here today.

Only 12 members were present when Chairman W. O. Huggins of Houston opened the meeting but a quorum was in sight as the session progressed.

Huggins immediately brought up questions which did not require a vote, the first of which was the matter of the negro vote. He reviewed the litigation brought in federal district courts of Beaumont, Sherman, Fort Worth, Houston, and San Antonio, seeking to compel the executive committee to permit negroes to vote in Texas Democratic primaries.

He told of the district court injunction obtained in San Antonio which allowed the negro vote in Bexar county. That injunction, Huggins said, later was reversed, certified to the supreme court and is due for a hearing before that body today.

"We are in a fair way to obtain a favorable decision," he said. He also told of another suit now pending in Houston which asks that the state committee be enjoined "not to allow its action forbidding negroes from voting." Huggins asked that the committee arrange for counsel.

Carl Estes of Tyler introduced a resolution praising Huggins for his prompt attention and giving him the power to appoint counsel in the Houston case.

Explaining the result of the prohibition referendum, Huggins declared the total cost was $1,000, that some counties objected to the referendum only because of the expense, and that in a few the referendum was not held.

Huggins expressed disappointment that some of the "old time prohibitionists had referred to the referendum as a "straw vote."

Canvassing of votes in the first primary election was started when Huggins appointed a committee of W. C. Campbell, Palestine; W. R. Montgomery, Edinburg, and Estes.

Executive committee members present were John B. Guinn, Jacksonville; Campbell, Estes, W. H. P. Anderson, Paris; Cecil Murphy, Galveston; Carr P. Collins, Dallas; who was represented by T. W. Davidson, Dallas; H. C. Custard, Cebu; O. L. Kidd, Cameron; R. J. Edwards, Denton; Montgomery and Ed. H. Sterley, Fort Worth; Edward Howard was proxy for Charles I. Bromlett, Longview, was represented by Karl A. Crowley, Fort Worth.

FORESTRY TO BE TALKED TO WEST TEXAS

Federal Men Touring Many Cities On Project

ABILENE, Aug. 8. (AP)—A five-year campaign designed to bring the forest to West Texas got under way today in Abilene when two representatives of the United States forest service had four engagements. They are Herbert N. Wheeler, Washington, and John D. Jones, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The foresters are making a 1,250-mile tour, covering 13 cities and towns, under auspices of the West Texas chamber of commerce, whose beautification committee headed by Houston Hart, San Angelo, has launched a five-year inter-community contest and program in the membership territory. The lectures, to be illustrated with slides, will cover fire protection, nursery stock development, windbreak and roadside planting, timber raising for furniture making, and soil erosion.

The foresters' itinerary: Tuesday at Sweetwater, Wednesday at Big Spring, Thursday at Midland, Saturday at Lubbock, with dates following at Planview, Amarillo, Roswell, El Paso, Carlsbad, Artesia, Alamogordo and Las Cruces, N. M., where the tour will be terminated August 23. Chambers of commerce are cooperating at each point.

LIBBY KEEPS PROMISE AND FACES CHARGE

WILL TRY FOR BAIL ON CHARGE OF KILLING MATE

GIRL IS VEILED IN BLACK

CO-DEFENDANT IS RELEASED ON HEAVY BOND

WENTWORTH, N. C., Aug. 8. (AP)—Libby Holman Reynolds, missing torch singing widow of the late Smith Reynolds, surrendered to North Carolina authorities here at 2:50 p. m. today.

Dressed in black and heavily veiled, Mrs. Reynolds stepped out of a large limousine in front of the postoffice and surrendered to Sheriff L. M. Sheffield of Rockingham county.

The car, which approached Wentworth from the direction of Reidsville, carried an Ohio state tag and a Cincinnati city license.

The widow will seek her release on bail. She is under indictment in the fatal shooting of her young millionaire husband, Smith Reynolds, here a month ago.

Ab Walker, indicted jointly with Mrs. Reynolds was released Saturday under $25,000 bond.

Solicitor Higgins did not oppose bail for Walker, giving rise to the impression here that he would not seriously contest the petition of Mrs. Reynolds.

Higgins, however, has refused to commit himself and said Saturday his course in the Walker case must not be taken as an indication of his probable attitude toward Libby's plea.

As the former torch singer stepped out of the machine, she went into a small hotel near the courthouse where a room already had been reserved.

She was accompanied by William Graves, one of her attorneys and her father, Alfred Holman, Cincinnati attorney.

A few minutes later Benet Polikoff, another of her attorneys, and Sheriff Sheffield went into the hotel.

Polikoff returned a moment later and announced the warrant had been served.

Wheat Goes Up Two Cents Here

The price of wheat here jumped two cents a bushel this morning to send the top price to 35 cents a bushel, the highest of the year. Some grain was being received at local elevators, but farmers appeared to be holding out for higher prices which they believe will come soon.

Much grain in storage is top quality. Farmers sold their poorer wheat and kept the best. The yield this year was light because of drought and hail.

Owner Hunted For Beer Equipment

City police officers are in possession of 35 bottles of home brew, 50 empty bottles, a capping machine, funnel, and large crock, but they don't know anything about the owner. The forbidden beverage and paraphernalia was discovered in an empty house in East Pampa last night.

The house has been vacant for some time, the officers learned. Two citizens were arrested on charges of drunkenness last night. Both entered pleas of guilty before Judge J. H. Blythe this morning and were fined the usual amount.

SURRENDERS

Technically a fugitive after being indicted in the suspected murder of her playboy husband, Smith Reynolds, heir to tobacco millions, Libby Holman Reynolds, Broadway torch singer, promised through her attorneys to surrender at 3 o'clock today for arraignment.

WEEPS WHILE TELLING ABOUT LOVE AFFAIRS

MEMORY OF CLARKE IS NOT PLEASING TO WOMAN

FOND OF CO-DEFENDANT

VICTIM OF SHOOTING IS DESCRIBED AS VIOLENT

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 8. (AP)—Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller testified at the murder trial of Captain W. N. Lancaster today that she had become "completely disillusioned" and no longer loved Lancaster nor the memory of Maden Clarke, her writer-fiancee whom Lancaster is accused of slaying.

She said she is still very fond of Lancaster, to whom she was once engaged, but that she has not loved him for two years.

"You have not said you would die for Captain Lancaster?" State Attorney M. Vernon Hawthorne asked her.

"Would you lie for him?" "No," she hurled back.

"Weren't you a traitor to him, if you have not loved him for two years, when you wrote him constantly of your love while he was on his western trip to get all the money he could for you?"

"You don't understand our situation," she answered.

The Australian aviatrix was recalled to the stand today after having testified last week as a court witness.

The state charges Lancaster killed Clarke, a writer, after the latter had replaced him in Mrs. Keith-Miller's affections.

Mrs. Keith-Miller wept on the stand as she attempted to show Hawthorne how she could be very fond of Lancaster and still not be in love with him.

Mrs. Keith-Miller testified Maden Clarke had a violent temper and frequently was in high rage at his mother and at Peggy Brown, a girl he brought to the house on several occasions.

The Australian aviatrix wept on the stand as she told of losing her love for the memory of Clarke "after I found out since his death that he lied to me about many things," she said.

"His physical condition was incorrectly attributed to me," she stated. "I didn't object for I was passionately in love with him."

Benefit Dance For Boy Announced

A benefit dance for Frank Johnson, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Johnson, who was seriously injured three weeks ago when caught in the cogs of a tractor being used by his father and himself in cutting barley on land adjoining the Borger road, will be given between 9 and 12 o'clock tomorrow night at McFadden's barn dance hall on the Borger road. Mr. McKenzie is donating the use of his building and several local musicians have offered their services. Admission will be 50 cents.

The injured boy is in the Pampa hospital, where he was taken immediately after the accident.

W. F. Scott of Dallas is here on business today.

AUDACIOUS TIRE THIEVES IN RAID AT MAYOR'S FIRM, WHERE BRICKS REPLACE CASINGS

Battery Is Removed On E. Kingsmill Avenue

Tire thieves are still active in Pampa, as Mayor W. A. Bratton of the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber company can verify. When Mr. Bratton arrived at the lumber yard this morning he found the company Chevrolet truck perched on four piles of bricks and the tires, tubes, and rims missing.

A further inspection showed the less of the seat and the radiator cap. The truck jack had been used to raise the wheels and then bricks from a nearby pile were used to keep the truck up while the other tires were being removed. The tires were rolled a short distance, then carried to the south fence and thrown over into Craven street, where a car or truck had been parked.

Two of the tires removed were Goodyears and the others Generals. During the night a battery was removed from a car parked on East Kingsmill avenue.

Pay Is Topped In Danciger's Well

Pay in the Danciger Oil & Refining company's No. 3 J. E. Williams in the south half of the northwest quarter of section 7, block 1, A. C. H. & B. survey, was topped yesterday at 2,660 feet. This morning the test was flowing 20 barrels an hour natural.

When completed, the new producer should be good for several hundred barrels daily. The Danciger test is an offset to the Texas company's No. 10 Williams in the same section which is making more than 800 barrels daily.

Pay in the Danciger well is coming from the granite well formation. Approximately 4,500,000 cubic feet of gas is flowing the well. Total depth is 2,680 feet.

Harry Denton of Wichita Falls is transacting business here today.

W. F. Scott of Dallas is here on business today.

BALE PRICES SOAR $5.00 AFTER REPORT APPEARS

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 8. (AP)—Cotton prices on the local exchange soared fully $5 a bale over Saturday's close, today when the government's report indicating a yield of 11,396,000 bales proved about a million bales under expectations.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8. (AP)—The stock market surged violently higher between successive waves of profit-taking today, but on the whole, retained only about half of the extreme gains of 2 to 8 points in the leaders, in the first 5,000,000 share day in more than a year. The closing tone was steady.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8. (AP)—With a buoyancy comparable to the prosperity-mad days of 1929, the stock market started upward in tumultuous trading on the New York Stock Exchange today. Sweeping aside profit-taking and forcing the badly-bitten bears into still tighter traps, the market exultantly stamped its way through all opposition.

By early afternoon hundreds of leading shares were showing net gains of $2 to $8. Saturday's boisterous two hours, it appeared, had only been a primer for this wild market; certainly the fact that prices had appreciated 60 per cent from their June lows and therefore might normally be facing a technical reaction proved no deterrent. A setback appeared after the strong opening, but it was only a lull in the storm.

Rails roared ahead while the voltage behind utilities jumped in a manner that brought to mind their painful days three years ago when they were favorites of the big bull market.

Commodities boomed, especially cotton. That staple soared $1.25 a bale at the opening response to reports of important banking assistance for eliminating troublesome surpluses, but it soared spectacularly higher after publication of the government's crop estimate forecast.

Parris Is Out For Submission

AUSTIN, Aug. 8. (AP)—Pink Parrish of Lubbock, in the democratic run-off primary for congressman-at-large, place 1, said today if elected he would vote for submission of the question of repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

"While I have always voted the prohibition ticket, in my judgment, the democracy of Texas has spoken, and, by their ballots, have shown that they desire to have submitted to them, the question of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States; and, if I am elected to congress, I shall obey the instructions of my party and its platform and vote for submission," Parrish said.

COMING BACK ON THE SEA?

The welcome that New York harbor gave the new liner Manhattan when that ship made its first appearance there recently is the sort of thing that sends one's memory roving back through the years.

Here was a great new liner, the product of American shipyards—the largest merchant ship, incidentally, ever built in the United States—sailing in for its salute. New York paid the ship high honors, as was only natural; and how could one help remembering the old days when it was taken as a matter of course for American ship builders to lead the world, when this nation was truly a maritime nation and glorified in the skill of the men who built and sailed its vessels?

Perhaps construction of the Manhattan signalizes the beginning of a new era in American shipbuilding, a revival of the old days of greatness. It is hardly probable, though. The world already has more ships than it can use. The American ship-owner still operates under a great handicap in competing with his foreign rivals.

But it used to be different. The eastern shipyards had vast forests almost at their back doors, they had skilled workmen, they had clever designers. The clipper ship, evolving from designs that originated in Baltimore, was carried to the peak of its perfection in the United States, and American ships were known all over the world for their speed and seaworthiness.

But that all happened a long time ago. The Civil War was a tragic interruption for American shipbuilders; later on there was legislation to protect the seaman, and it put the American shipper at a disadvantage; but chiefly there was a vast continent to be developed, and the energies of the nation turned to that channel and let foreign ships carry most of the seaborne commerce.

The continent is pretty well developed, now, and since the war there has been a new interest in the sea. In America once more to win back the place she held in the clipper-ship era? It is hardly likely. And yet, looking at this smart new liner, the Manhattan, one would like to think so.

Law of Averages.

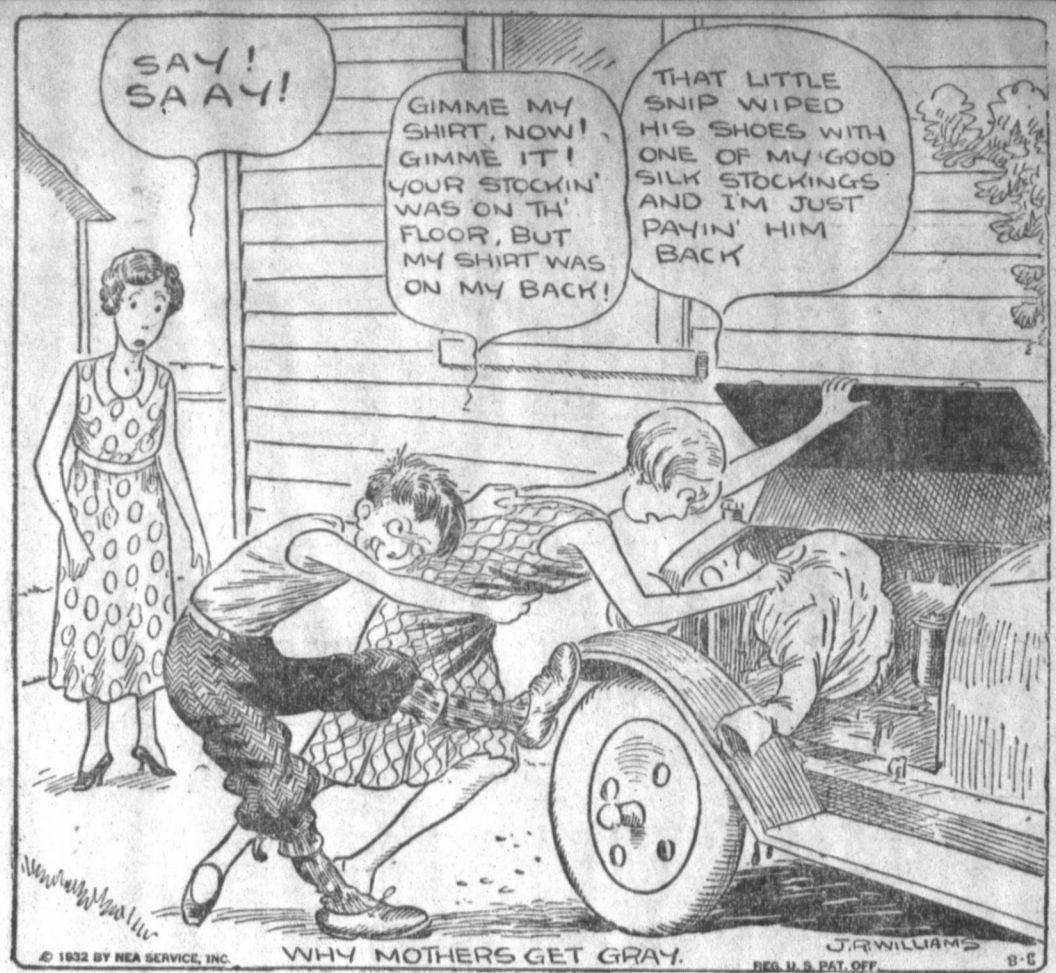

The most bullish factor in present conditions, is, to our way of thinking, the well known law of averages. Fortified with the law of supply and demand, this dependable old statute of human affairs can be depended upon to remain consistent. Dammed up demand, frozen by fear, can be warmed by optimism. Optimism just naturally develops out of pessimism, for when times get very bad any change is apt to be for the better. . . . It has been apparent all along that if Mr. Hoover didn't do anything concrete the law of suspended demand would eventually start operating.

SWAPPING FARM PRODUCE FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES WILL BE AID TO "WHITE COLLARED"

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 8 (AP)—The "white-collared" man is coming in for help. Some 50,000 of them have been organized under a vast creative self-help plan in which barter money is to replace United States currency as a medium of exchange. Seeking to aid those unemployed who have not yet asked for direct relief and who are trying to avoid charity if possible, Dr. George Meeklenburg, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church here, has launched an enterprise known as the organized unemployed, to be operated and directed by the idle themselves for their own benefit. "This is the first effort to reach the particular class of unemployed," said Dr. Meeklenburg today. "While there are some 40 agencies operating here, none has given any attention to the middle class unemployed 'white collar worker' and professional man to whom direct relief would be a most undesirable last resort."

Negro Will Be Hoover's Guest

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—All members of the Hoover notification committee, including Charles Isaacs of Natchez, Miss., a negro, have been invited to a buffet luncheon at the White House next Thursday. The luncheon has been planned as a prelude to ceremonies Thursday night at which President Hoover formally will be notified of his re-nomination by the republican national convention.

Bus Lines Protest Rail Rate Change

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 (AP)—Competing bus lines protested in a hearing today before the Texas railroad commission the granting of a petition of the Fort Worth and Denver City and Wichita Valley railroads to reduce passenger fares to one and one-half cents between certain points. The proposed reduced fares would apply between Byers and Abilene, Spur and intermediate points, between Childress and Lubbock, Dimmitt, Silvertown and intermediate points, and between Childress and Pampa and intermediate points. Bus representatives told the commission if the petition is granted the buses will meet the new rates.

MARRIAGE VOWS ARE TAKEN BY LOCAL COUPLE SUNDAY

MISS CULLUM MR. ATCHISON ARE MARRIED

DOUBLE RING SERVICE IS READ BY REV. C. A. LONG

Two families well-known throughout West Texas were united when Miss Elizabeth Cullum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Cullum of Pampa, and L. N. Atchison of Pampa, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Atchison of Breckenridge, were married yesterday morning.

The double ring ceremony was read in the home of the bride's parents, 911 East Francis, with the Rev. C. A. Long, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. It was held following a wedding breakfast, and was attended only by a few close friends.

Following the marriage vows, Mrs. Philip Wolfe sang "I Love You Truly" (Bond), the accompaniment being played by the bride's mother.

Miss Cullum and her father entered side by side and met the groom and the minister at an archway delicately adorned with southern smilax and Shasta daisies. White wedding bells with streaming white ribbon hung from the top of the archway, and in the center bell was a cluster of orange blossoms which the bride's mother had used on her own wedding veil. Some of the orange blossoms also were included in the bridal bouquet of sunburst roses.

Miss Cullum was clad in all-white. Her 2-piece sports suit was of frost crepe, and her picture hat was of felt.

As the vows were spoken Mrs. Wolfe played "Traumerie" (Schumann).

The couple left after the ceremony for Denver, Colorado Springs, and other points of scenic interest in Colorado and Wyoming. The bride, as she departed, was wearing a navy blue traveling dress with all accessories to match.

Following the 2-week honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Atchison will be at their home, 414 N. Gray.

The bride is a graduate of Woodrow Wilson high school, Dallas, has lived in various cities of the Panhandle, and has been in Pampa since last November. She is an accomplished pianist.

Mr. Atchison, an employe of the Cabot company, has lived here for four years. He is formerly of Breckenridge, is a graduate of the Atlanta high school, and is a former student of Simmons university, Atlanta, and North Texas State Teachers college, Denton.

SUMMER WEDDINGS DEMAND SIMPLE DISHES

Here is an attractive refreshment table for the late summer wedding. Cut first by the bride, it then is served to the members of the bridal party.

My Beauty Hint

By MARGUERITE CHURCHILL
The question I am asked most frequently is, "Do you wash your face with soap and water?" I answer "No."

I use a good cleansing cream, and much skin food, as the western climate is drying to the skin. I remove the shiny appearance with a skin tonic, and I frequently rub my face with ice. But as to soap and water, never.

I think a thorough cleaning of the skin at night, with cream, and then a tonic, followed by a skin food, is the correct thing.

Yard or Porch Can Be Used To Great Advantage

By MRS. ALEXANDER R. GEORGE
The summer as a season for weddings has an advantage over other times of the year because of the variety of suitable settings for the ceremony.

If an attractive garden is available it is an ideal spot, since the flowers and foliage provide an excellent background. Refreshments can be served at small tables in the yard or on the porch.

The colors used for the decorations and foods are those carried out in the costumes of the bridal attendants.

The wedding cake is the center of interest on the refreshment table. It sometimes contains such favors as a ring, thimble or coin.

Hot weather makes simple refreshments best, but they should be dainty and refreshing.

Wedding Refreshments
Frozen Fruit Salad
Nut Bread Sandwiches
Peach Ice Cream
Bride's Cake
Fruit Punch

Punch can be served with the refreshments or it can be placed in a bowl located in a convenient place in the house or on the porch.

Frozen Fruit Salad, Serving 12
1 cup whipped cream, 1 cup mayonnaise, 2 cups diced pineapple, 2 cups diced peaches, 2 cups diced cherries, 1-2 cup red cherries, 1-2 cup almonds.

Mix cream and mayonnaise. Add rest of ingredients. Pour into a tray in mechanical refrigerator and in 4 hours salad will be frozen. Cut into squares and serve on lettuce and top with more mayonnaise.

This salad can be frozen by pouring into a mold, covering with several thicknesses of waxed paper and a lid and packing 4 hours in 4 parts of chopped ice to one part of coarse salt.

Bride's Cake
1 cup butter, 2 cups sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 teaspoon lemon extract, 1-2 teaspoon almond extract, 3 cups pastry flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 5 egg whites, beaten.

Cream the butter and sugar. Add milk, extracts, flour, baking powder and salt. Beat 3 minutes. Fold in beaten egg whites. Pour into 2 layer cake pans fitted with waxed papers. Bake 25 minutes in moderately slow oven. Cool and frost.

Nut Bread (2 loaves)
3 cups Graham flour, 3 cups flour, 1-1/2 cups sugar, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 3 teaspoons soda, 1-1/2 teaspoons salt, 2 eggs, 3 1-2 cups sour milk, 2 cups nuts, broken, 3 table-spoons fat, melted.

Mix ingredients and pour into 2 greased loaf pans fitted with waxed papers. Let rise 15 minutes and bake 1 hour in slow oven.

Peach Ice Cream, Serving 12
1-1/2 quarts this cream, 4 teaspoons vanilla, 2 cups sugar, 4 cups crushed peaches.

Mix cream, sugar and vanilla. Let stand for 5 minutes. Stir several times. Pour into a sterilized freezer and turn crank until freezing begins. Add peaches and freeze until stiff. Remove dasher and let cream "ripen" 2 hours or longer.

Fruit Punch (For 12)
2 cups sugar, 2 cups water, 2 cups orange juice, 2 cups grape juice, 1 cup lemon juice, 8 cups iced water, 4 cups iced tea.

Boll sugar and water 4 minutes. Cool. Add rest of ingredients. Chill. Serve in glasses half filled with chopped ice. Candied cherries, lemon and orange slices can be frozen in the ice cubes used for this punch if one has a mechanical refrigerator.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the lesson-sermon was "Spirit" in all Church of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, August 7.

I Corinthians 12:13 furnished the golden text. "By one spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit."

Included with the passages read from the Bible was the following from Galatians 5:17: "The flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh."

The service also included the following citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy (pp. 356, 319): "Jesus knew, 'It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing.' Throughout the infinite cycles of eternal existence, Spirit and matter neither concur in man nor in the universe."

THEY'RE Milder - THEY TASTE BETTER

One Smoker tells ANOTHER

WHEREVER you buy CHESTERFIELDS on land or on sea, you get them just as fresh as if you came by our factory door—have one if you will. I think you will find that they are milder—that they taste better.

I have noticed that CHESTERFIELDS are made right—not hard and soft; no flabby cigarettes—each one well-filled. They are the right size to smoke cool and comfortable.

ZABALA RUNS 26 MILES FOR NEW RECORD

SPEEDY AMERICANS IN STILL MORE FEATS

By ALAN GOULD.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8. (AP)—To the swarthy black-haired son of the Argentine, Juan Carlos Zabala, winner of the classic Olympic marathon with a record-breaking performance, and to the sweeping triumphs of America's fast-stepping, high-flying boys and girls, go the chief honors of the Olympic track and field championships today.

While the forces of the United States were crowning their team triumphs yesterday with amazing flashes of relay speed, adding four new world records to the dizzy whirl in the Olympic stadium, Zabala was plodding the city streets, wearing down his rivals with machine-like strides that carried him strongly to the finish in the new Olympic record time of 2 hours, 31 minutes, 38 seconds for the route of 26 miles, 385 yards.

There is many an Olympic battle still to be fought along a rapidly-widening front, but it will be a long time before the thrills, the astounding records and the arguments and the official "boners" of the track and field championships are forgotten.

There has never been a combined athletic show for men and women like it. They thought much of the "kick" was extracted when the peerless Paavo Nurmi was banished from the games, two days before they started. But performances from the outset not only were so startling as to make about 400,000 spectators forget all about the great Finn but sufficiently as well to knock the last of Nurmi's Olympic marks from the record lists.

Nurmi sat in the stands while his native Finland's stars were being handed their biggest setbacks in Olympic competition since the war, watching a Pole, Buscinski, take away the 10,000 meter honors, seeing "Jarring Jim" Busch, an American, surpass Finland's favored all-around stars in a world record deathly performance and an Italian, Beccali, put Finland's champion and the rest of the world's milers to rout in the classic 1,500.

The United States celebrated its comeback on home soil and the fastest of all Olympic tracks by romping off with 11 of the 23 men's championships, in addition to five of the six women's title events, for the best all-around Olympic showing the U. S. A. has known in 20 years. The Americans won the men's team championship with the aggregate of 218 points, to Finland's second-place 72. The margin was even wider in the division, where American girls rolled up 78 1/2 points to 16 1/2 for Germany, in second place.

Most Records Fall.
All told, Olympic records were wiped out completely in 25 of the 29 events for men and women. The only events that escaped the record-smashing process were the hammer throw, broad jump, and high jump, besides the 50,000 meter walk, a new event, for which the time must stand at least as a new Olympic standard. World records were surpassed in 13 events, including all six of the women's contests, and all equalled in three others.

Duplicates Time.
Eddie Tolan, the dusky little double sprint king, and Bill Carr, world's greatest quarter-miler, led the United States swiftly back to an enjoyment of running prestige not experienced since the 1912 Olympics.

Duplicates Time.
Carr, whose 400-meter triumph over Ben Eastman in the world record time of 46.2 seconds was one of the great achievements of the week, contributed to the final whirl yesterday. With a running start on the anchor leg of the 1,600-meter relay, he duplicated his record time to help the Americans beat Great Britain, best of five rivals, and lower their own world record to 3 minutes, 8.2 seconds.

Babe Didrikson, the remarkable girl athlete, failed to achieve her goal of three individual championships and as many world records when she was defeated in the high jump finals by her teammate, Jean Whaley of Philadelphia.

Miss Whaley cleared the new world record height of 5 feet, 5 inches yesterday to win. Miss Didrikson, in second place at 5.5, also, was well over the former world mark but lost her chance to win when her final jump to stay on equal terms with the Philadelphia girl was ruled out as a technical "dive," in violation of the rules.

Earl Averill, Indians—Solved Senator pitching for home run, two triples, double and single in double-header.

Babe Ruth, Yankees—Clouted 31st homer triple and two singles in first game against Browns.

Lon Warneke, Cubs—Gave Giants only five hits and won 17th victory.

HOOKS and SLIDES by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Some Grimm Facts.
With a name like that, it may strike you as odd that Charley Grimm, the new manager of the Cubs, is a comedian. But that he is an almost exactly opposite type to Hornsby the dour plucker who was relieved of the Cub job.

One of Grimm's sure-fire acts is an imitation of an old-fashioned German saloon keeper trying to shoos the merry villagers out of the joint at a late hour. Grimm speaks German fluently, having spent the early years of his life in the midst of a St. Louis German colony. He knows the German folk songs, too, and sings them as he plays what is reputed to be a $400 banjo.

Charley also is a magician of parts. He has several thousand dollars invested in trick paraphernalia. One of his stunts is to pour water into a silk hat and pour out wine.

Laughed Way to Chicago.
He doesn't take life serious, it's too mysterious, to borrow some words of a song. If he had taken life that way, he might still be playing for the Pirates. But Dreyfuss' club was in the thick of a pennant fight in 1924, and Grimm made the mistake of his laughing. Barney liked his ball players to have important money. Charley was waived to the Cubs along with Maranville and Cooper.

He got along wonderfully with Joe McCarthy. Joe didn't care whether a ball player grinned or frowned, so long as the net result of his playing was serious.

Grimm in fact, gets along with everybody. In that way, his stewardship with the Cubs should be strikingly different from Hornsby's.

All Those Things.
Besides playing the banjo, "Butch," as some of his man ball fans, can coax pleasant sounds from harmonica, trombone, mandolin, guitar piano drums and xylophone. And probably a dulcimer, if he had one. He was brought up to become a butcher. But once I heard him use the word "spasmoidically" correctly. Meat butchering didn't appeal to him, so he took up refreshment butchering in the St. Louis ball park. He used to go out early with the players and practice. One day Connie Mack saw him and offered him a job.

"That was 18 years ago," Grimm told me the other day. "and I'll never forget by first big league batting experience. In about a dozen games I couldn't even hit 100."

The A's sent him to Durham, but the Carolina association blew. The Cardinals sent him to Milwaukee.

Turkey-Bean Play Continues Today

Three postponed matches in the Red Deer "bean and turkey" tournament are scheduled for this afternoon to finish play and decide the winning team. The dinner has been postponed until Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the dining room of the Schneider hotel.

When entrants enter the dining room they will be placed with Captain Tom Perkins' team on one side and Captain Skeet Stewart's team on the other side of the table. Then the beans will be brought in and given to the losing team which will be the first indication of which side won the tournament.

The winners will give the losers the "bean laugh" then eat turkey. Both captains are still confident that they won the tournament. Stewart defeated Perkins, which gave the captain of the Reds a big advantage. He said the morale of his team went high after this win. Perkins declared that some member of the Blues had to lose and he took it upon himself to be the loser.

Many close matches were played yesterday.

Stronger Outfit To Play Phillips

A strengthened Pampa line-up will meet the Berger Phillips "66" team at Magnolia park Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a charity game sponsored by the Pampa Lions club. Admission will be only 50 cents.

The local "66" nine lost a 14 to 9 game in Berger yesterday afternoon but the game was scheduled so late that a regular line up could not be secured. Manager Eller said after the game that he would have a real nine gathered to meet the Berger outfit when they come here.

Meeks and Whaley saw service in the box for the locals with Bozeman behind the bat. Haddock went the route for Berger with Francis relieving.

Pampa fans are looking forward to seeing Ernie Koy, Richerson, Colvard, Ellis, Dillon, and other stars in action as Berger took third money in the Denver tournament.

Cheating Years?

There is some dispute about his age. Charley says 1899 was the year of his birth, which would have made him only 16 years old when he first reported to the A's, and 33 years old on August 26 this year. But then maybe Mr. Mack was only robbing the cradle. If you remember, about that time, Mack was trying everything else, after wrecking his beautiful ball club.

Not only is Charley a musician and magician. He is a painter. Legends of his artistry are confusing. Joe McCarthy says Grimm once painted a picture of a sun-rise and the players thought it was Coach Jimmy Burke. Grimm says he painted a picture of Jimmy Burke and the players mistake it for a sunrise scene.

Charley also can paint a barn, however, and in his home near St. Louis he has lathes and a drill press with which he manufactures modernistic furniture. He is a good hand at decorating and interiors and says himself that he knows "the trends and influences in art furniture."

COUNTRY CLUB GOLFERS IN CLOSE WIN OVER CHILDRESS

Pampa country club golfers had a close call in defeating Childress here yesterday afternoon, but nosed out the opposition 8 to 7. Five of the games were won on the 18th hole with Childress taking three by a one-count.

Scores in most instances were close, although a few run-away games were played. Pampa also won in Childress earlier in the season. The loss yesterday put Childress in the cellar in the Cap Rock league.

No match has been scheduled for next Sunday. It is likely that the members will shoot for record.

Yesterday's results:
White, Pampa, defeated Sanders, 2 up; Donovan, Pampa, lost to Blanton, 2 down; Hicks, Pampa, lost to Fryor 1 down; Lane, Pampa, lost to Hasler, 1 down; Austin, Pampa, lost to Mulkey, 1 down; Talley, Pampa, lost to Jones, 2 down; Ferris, Pampa, defeated Johnson, 5 up; Graham, Pampa, defeated Brashears, 1 up; Brumley, Pampa, won from Jackson, 1 up; Harris, Pampa, defeated Reed, 7 up; Fatheree, Pampa, won from Preston 2 up; Boyd, Pampa, lost to Scott, 7 down; Swinson, Pampa, defeated Miller, 4 up; Perkins, Pampa, defeated McConnell 5 up; Sowder, Pampa lost to Clutta, 2 down.

YANKS COAST WHILE RIVALS BATTLE HARD

BUT NATIONAL RACE STAYS TIGHTLY FOUGHT

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees continue to coast far out in front of the rest of the American league pack, but there are prospects of another bitter stretch due in the National.

Where the Yankees lead by eight and one-half games with no signs of a slump, the National league race has tightened up to a point where only five games separate the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates and the fifth place Brooklyn Dodgers.

Pittsburgh, in the midst of its worst slump of the season, dropped a double-hill to Boston yesterday, 2-1 and 7-6. The Corsairs now have dropped nine games in a row. Ed Brandt outpitched Swetonic and French in the opener. The second game was decided in the ninth when the winning run came across on an error by Floyd Vaughan.

Chicago, holding second place, picked up a full game on the leader by dividing two games with the Giants. Lon Warneke, sensational Cub rookie, stopped the Giants with five hits in the opener and won, 8-2. Waite Hoyt scattered eight hits as the Giants won the nightcap, 8-1.

Brooklyn and Cincinnati also split two games, the Dodgers taking the first, 6-1, the Reds the second, 9-5.

Cleveland, surprise contender for the American league championship, whipped Washington twice and moved into second place. The Indians received excellent pitching from Willis Huddin and Jack Russell and timely batting to win 7-4 and 6-2.

The Athletics got an even break with Chicago as Ted Lyons outpitched Lefty Grove in the opener, 3-1. Tony Freitas, Athletic rookie, held the White Sox to three hits to win the second game, 1-0.

The Yankees, meanwhile, battered out 29 hits against St. Louis Brown pitching and won two games, 11-5 and 9-4.

Johnny Stone's homer with one on gave Detroit a 3-1 verdict over Boston.

Sixty-seven fliers will take part in an international reliability air tour to start August 21 from Berlin.

Use Small Bag On Home Course

By JOHNNY FARRELL
(As Told To Artie McGovern.)

In our consideration of golf let us not overlook that important fixture—the caddy. I was reared in his school of hard knocks and consequently have his viewpoint as well as that of the player.

Primarily the boy is hired to carry the golfer's bag. But this is not his only responsibility. He is expected to be a bloodhound in locating lost balls. He is likely to be blamed for in poor shots for a thousand and one reasons.

Frequently you see a frail youngster toting a heavy leather bag with some 20 golf sticks, a generous supply of balls, a sweater or a wind-breaker, and perhaps a golf umbrella.

Keep your heavy bag for traveling. At my club we use canvas bags that are light and inexpensive.

Blame yourself for your bungled shots—not your caddy—he isn't playing them. Not five per cent of all golfers would play without caddies, and in view of their importance they should be given consideration that is their due.

THE COMMERCIAL USE OF TEXAS HIGHWAYS IS A PRIVILEGE, NOT A RIGHT

● The highways of Texas are the property of its citizens. They constitute a system of nearly 200,000 miles of road of which 20,000 miles are designated as State highways and the remainder are county roads. All types of road are represented in this system, less than 5% have so-called "permanent" surface.

The total cost of these highways is unknown but it amounts to many hundred million dollars. From 1917 to 1930, inclusive, counties and road districts of the State issued $243,592,834 in bonds for the construction and improvement of roads and bridges. In the two-year period ending August 31, 1930, the State Highway Commission expended $89,032,825, of which $22,488,426 was for maintenance of the State highways.

In view of these tremendous costs the preservation of our highways from rapid wear and destruction is a matter of very vital interest to their owners, viz., the public. It is especially important that they be made to outlast the life of the bonds, which run from 20 to 30 years.

The use of the public highways for commercial purposes is not a right but a privilege which may be withheld or granted subject to such restrictions, regulations and charges as the Legislature may see fit to impose. Such regulations are intended to promote safety, preserve the highways and safeguard the interests of the public.

Texas Railroads, which pay the entire cost of construction and maintenance of their own roadbeds and, in addition, make substantial contributions to the cost of Texas highways, are thoroughly regulated with respect to their services, rates, methods and practices. There is no good reason why commercial users of the highways, built and maintained at the expense of the public, should not likewise be regulated to such extent as the public interest requires and pay such charges as will represent proper compensation for the privileges granted them.

● The statutes governing highway transportation as enacted by the Forty-second Legislature represent the wishes of the citizens of this State and express their desire to give equal rights to all and special privileges to none. These statutes should be given a fair trial and their value ascertained. Unless this is done, a chaotic condition in transportation as a whole will surely ensue.

This Banker Frames Depression So He Can Study Absurdities

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)—A prominent banker—a student of charts, trends and indices—has captured the depression, framed and photographed it, and hung it on the walls of his office as a "historical lesson in the depreciation of values."

Kidnaped Banker Safe In Hospital

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 8 (AP)—John B. Colegrove, Taylorville, Ill., banker who was kidnaped, beaten, and thrown bound and gagged into a weed patch, was safe in a hospital here today.

Colegrove, president of a defunct bank, lay in the weed patch near here from late Friday night until early yesterday morning when he managed to loosen the ropes with which he was tied. He wandered into Springfield in a dazed condition, made his way to the home of a friend and collapsed on the lawn. Meanwhile, Christian county officials, where the kidnaping took place, were questioning two suspects, one of them a depositor in Colegrove's bank who lost $6,000 when it closed. Colegrove, suffering from exposure and the effects of the beating, was too weak to attempt their identification.

Major General John A. Hulen is PALACIOS, Aug. 8 (AP)—Seven thousand officers and men of the Thirty-Sixth Division, Texas National Guard, began a two weeks' training program at Camp Hulen today. There are four regiments of infantry, two of artillery, one of engineers and an air service squadron. Major General John A. Hulen is in command. Farm wastes total about 280,000-000 tons annually.

GIRL KILLS SELF
FREDERICKSBURG, Aug. 8 (AP)—Florine Young, 18, killed herself with a rifle yesterday at the ranch home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young. Coroner A. W. Petnecky returned a verdict of suicide. Water power derived from lakes and rivers in southern Scotland will be harnessed in five hydraulic generating stations to a project for supplying light and power to a wide area.

WILL START FLIGHT
NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)—Robert Buck, 18-year-old aviator who holds numerous junior flying records, announced today that weather conditions were at last favorable and he would take off on his proposed solo flight to Mexico City at 11 o'clock, eastern standard time, tonight. Unfavorable weather has caused daily postponement during the past week. Mushroom growers in southeastern Pennsylvania are cooperating in the crop marketing.

"Go out and buy me one share of stock in each of 24 corporations whose issues are listed on the New York Stock Exchange and are quoted under $10 a share," he directed. "Don't try to select these shares on the basis of earnings, book values or current assets. Just pick out the ones that have been most active in the past two or three years."

The secretary had no trouble picking up the two dozen shares. The total expense was exactly $96. In 1929, at their "highs," the 24 common shares would have cost $2,596. The shares were pasted together in a large canvas frame. The "picture no artist can paint" was then photographed and prints mailed to the financier's close friends. "These photographs will be historical some time," he wrote, "because they will prove the point I have been trying to make; that pessimism can get out of bounds; that the economic life of this country is not extinct and that confidence in the progress of trade and industry is bound to return."

At Saturday's closing prices the "examples of depreciation" showed a total market value of $169, or a profit of $73 on the transaction.

HOW'S your HEALTH

Edited by the New York Dr. Lago Goldston Academy of Medicine

APPENDICITIS IN CHILDREN
The death rate from appendicitis in children has been reported as higher than among adults. Undoubtedly a substantial part of the mortality rate is due to the fact that children are not as clear in reporting their complaints as adults are and to the fact that gastric disturbances and inflammations of the appendix in the fairly young are treated by parents as if they were nothing more than colicky pains. Whenever a child complains of abdominal pains and of difficult or painful urination, one should suspect the possibility of appendicitis. The pains complained of frequently are of a colicky nature, but the observing parent will find that usually there is associated with colic a rise of the pulse rate. The child, if closely observed, does not behave as if it had merely a stomach ache. Fever may or may not be present and if absent should not be construed as a reassuring sign.

Above all, castor oil or any other form of cathartic should not be given to a child complaining of abdominal pains. The administration of castor oil may cause an inflamed appendix to rupture and to discharge its contents into the peritoneal cavity. "One should remember that the child's resistance to infection usually is weaker than that of the adult and, even at the risk of making an unimportant, if not even vain, call upon the doctor, colicky abdominal pains should lead one to think of the possible existence of appendicitis. It is a well established fact that we have in the United States an unfavorable and mounting death rate from appendicitis. The public can help to remedy this condition by being on the alert. Prompt medical and surgical treatment is essential in inflammatory involvements of the appendix.

Bolivian Plane Is Shot Down

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Aug. 8 (AP)—Prospects for peace in the dispute between Paraguay and Bolivia over the Gran Chaco appeared more remote today after the shooting down of a Bolivian airplane over the Paraguay air lines on the frontier. The plane was shot down as it reconnoitered the Paraguayan forts, 20 miles east of Fort Chanar in the middle of the swamps of Estereo Patino. The two Bolivian aviators were captured. As a result of the incident, the Associated Press was informed Paraguay was preparing to send a new note to the United States.

Britain Is Milder In Trade Measures

OTTAWA, Aug. 8 (AP)—A prospect that the imperial conference would limit itself to bilateral agreements between the dominions and leave the rest of the agenda for the coming world economic conference at which the United States will sit appeared as the conference began its third and perhaps final week today. The general belief was that Great Britain would do something to open her doors wider to the products of the dominions, but in doing so she would be inclined to confine herself to measures looking to an international revival of trade rather than to purely empire benefit. It was recalled that the Prince of Wales, on the eve of the opening of the conference, referred especially to the undesirability of damaging the empire's world trade.

The Faithful Cheat

BY RUBY M. AYRES

SYNOPSIS: When John Anderson sees Sondra Kent to marry him, she is afraid to tell him she is married to Mark Merriman. She becomes so nervous that she marries him. She has fallen ill while looking for work. Since her sister Flora left her husband Ben, Sondra has been homeless.

Chapter 25 "I WAS AFRAID"

SONDRA shook her head. There was a great fear in her heart, driving out all other emotion; she was asking herself in terror, "What is the matter with me? . . . It's been three months since Mark went away—and now—oh, I can't really love John—oh, how can I?"

She felt John's hand on hers again.

"When will you marry me, Sondra?" he asked.

She shook her head—

"I can't . . . you don't understand."

There was a little silence.

"What is it if I don't understand, Sondra?" Anderson asked.

She hid her face in her hands, and there was a long silence, then she felt John's hands on her wrists, gently drawing them down.

"What . . . don't I . . . understand, Sondra?" he asked again, and she saw that his face was white. She closed her eyes, whimpering your friend—always your friend, and . . . you mustn't be afraid of me any more. 'Sondra, stop crying.'"

She checked her sobbing with an effort.

"I'm so . . . s-sorry . . . so ashamed . . . I thought you didn't care for me any more . . . I thought—because of that money . . . her voice broke again. "I'll try and pay it back some day, John."

The ghost of a smile curved his lips.

"Do you think that worries me?"

"No, but . . ." she turned her face away, tearing at her handkerchief. "I've only got about a thousand dollars in the world. I've been trying to get work . . . but it's so difficult . . . almost impossible . . . nobody wants me. I told you I had plenty of money . . . well, I haven't. . . Ben gave me twenty-five hundred dollars, and I've spent most of it already," she laughed pitifully. "It's queer how life can change in a little while . . . isn't it? . . . I seem to have lost all my friends. . . ."

"You'll never lose me."

She gave him a grateful smile.

"Cass said that . . . Cass?" her voice broke again.

"Does . . . Merriman know?" Anderson asked.

John's grasp on her wrists tightened till they were numb. Sondra said slowly, "I am married—already."

like a child. "Let me go . . . let me go . . . you hurt me . . ."

But his grasp on her wrists tightened till they were numb and bruised, and he bent down, above her, trying to force her to look at him.

"What is it I don't understand, Sondra?" he asked.

"You frighten me . . . you're unkind. . . ."

"Answer me—"

She turned her head slowly, as if against her will he compelled her, till their eyes met, and held one another in a long gaze.

Then Sondra said slowly, almost stupidly.

"I am married . . . already . . ."

She saw his lips move, but it was some seconds before he jerked out two words. "To—Merriman?"

"Yes."

He moved away from her, stood at the window looking out into the street. His hands clenched behind his back, not moving till she spoke his name with a sob. "John."

He turned then and came back to her.

The man she had glimpsed a moment ago had gone; his face was quiet and composed as she had always known it, his voice steady when he spoke.

"I'm sorry . . . of course if I had known . . ."

She broke into passionate sobbing.

"I was afraid to tell you . . . afraid."

"Have I ever given you cause to be afraid of me, Sondra?"

But she only sobbed again, "I was afraid—afraid."

A flash of pain crossed his face, but he said nothing and Sondra went on—"It was my fault. . . . Mark wasn't to blame—oh, I don't know why I did it. . . . I think I was mad."

He moved his hand as if to touch hers, but checked the impulse.

"Do you . . . love him, Sondra?"

"She caught her breath—"

"I . . . thought I did—" she whispered, sobbing.

He stood looking at her with suffering eyes, then, almost with an effort it seemed, he took her hand again.

"Don't cry like that, my dear . . . you'll make yourself ill, I'm still

"Know?"

"Your position."

"No, I never told him. He thought I had . . . plenty of money. Not that it would have made any difference—he really loves me."

"I am sure he does, my dear."

Her lips trembled. "John . . . if we could only have things over again—" she broke out.

His grasp of her hand tightened a little.

"You mustn't say that—there is lots of happiness to come for you. Why, you've hardly begun your life yet."

She went on, unheeding him.

"I've so often wanted to tell you—but you said . . . if Mark had been married, you wouldn't have given him the job. . . ."

"Did I? That was very selfish of me." He looked away from her. "You must let me try and make amends, Sondra."

"What do you mean?"

"Don't you think I can help you—and him?"

"I don't want you to. . . . I couldn't bear it . . . oh, please don't make me more unhappy than I am."

She began to sob again.

Anderson paced away from her and came back restlessly. "What are you going to do, Sondra? . . . you can't stay here."

"I must—it's quite . . . safe. . . ."

"And when your money has all gone?" he asked.

She looked up at him.

"I thought . . . I suppose . . . I must go on to Mark," she said half in a whisper.

"Do you want to go, Sondra?" Her eyes told.

"I suppose other women go," she said.

And you would hate it—even more than other women do," he answered. "But there won't be any need for that, Sondra."

She looked startled.

"No need? What do you mean?"

"I mean that Merriman has been so ill the doctor suggests sending him home as soon as he can stand the voyage."

Sondra's dismay at the news involves her in an angry scene with John, tomorrow.

First trades showed gains of 7 to 8 points. The market continued to advance after the start with heavy trading stimulated by the strong opening of stocks and a generally better feeling prevailing. October advanced to 6.34 and December to 6.33, or 18 to 21 points above Saturday's close. Near the end of the first hour the market was firm and at the highest.

Blackwell Boy Is Killed at Well

LONGVIEW, Aug. 8. (AP)—Ted Morris, 22, of Blackwell, Okla., was killed and Eugene Fitzwater, 19, of Gladewater, was burned seriously yesterday in an oil fire at the M. C. Sells Petroleum company's test well in the Sabine river bottoms. Investigators were told the well caught fire while oil was being withdrawn illegally.

Two men for whom Morris and Fitzwater were purported to be working were held in jail at Gladewater for investigation. Fitzwater was quoted as saying he and Morris had been sent to the test by their employers to fill a tank truck.

The oil was being run from the test into steel drums and then picked up with a pump. The truck's engine provided power. The exhaust from the engine was believed to have set fire to the oil in the drums. The blaze spread to the test.

The burning test was extinguished when the Halliburton company succeeded in connecting a water line to the tubing and forcing water down it under high pressure.

Officers were searching for a third man, who was believed to have followed the truck to the well. That man was supposed to have removed Morris and Fitzwater from the flames and then driven away.

ONE-BOY CRIME WAVE HALTED AS GIRL PURCHASES PISTOL OF WOULD-BE ROBBER

CHICAGO, Aug. 8. (AP)—Miss Peggy Holmes knows what to do with a one-boy crime wave.

Her idea is that if you can buy up the culprit's weapon you'll put an end to his career, temporarily at least.

She tried it out last night and it worked to perfection, except that the weapon she bought wasn't worth what she paid for it.

"I'm a robber," said a big-eyed boy when he walked up to the ticket agent's cage of a rapid transit line, where Miss Holmes is employed as cashier. As he spoke he shoved what appeared to be a pistol through the window of the cage.

"What did you say?" asked Miss Holmes.

"I said I was a robber," replied the youth.

"I can't give you this money, Buddy," she said. "There's $40 here, but it belongs to the company. And anyway robbery's no way to get money. I'll make you a proposition. I'll buy that gun you're pointing at me."

"Okay," was the answer. They quibbled a bit over the price, but the boy finally agreed to take a dollar. Miss Holmes handed over $1 from her personal funds. The youthful robber gave her the weapon and disappeared on a rapid transit train. Then Miss Holmes looked at the gun.

It was a toy water pistol.

Pastor In Jail As Wife's Death Is Investigated

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 8. (AP)—A 52-year-old pastor kept lonely vigil in jail here today while the death of his first wife, allegedly by poison, came in for the scrutiny of a county grand jury.

The Rev. S. A. Berrie remained "held for investigation," although his 19-year-old bride of a few months, formerly a Sunday school teacher in his tabernacle, was free. Her release was ordered by County Attorney Phil K. Oldham, who said he believed she was the "victim of circumstances." She had nothing to say today.

Officers said no one had called to visit the minister. There have been no services since July at his Bethel tabernacle, from which he was ousted and quickly reinstated a week after his second marriage.

Prominent in the investigation were bits of impassioned verse, which County Attorney Oldham said Berrie admitted he wrote to his present wife before the first Mrs. Berrie died March 21.

This fort, which lies across a little lake in the forest from the Bolivian fort Mariscal Santa Cruz Nuevo, was first taken by the Bolivians June 15 and was recaptured a month later by the Paraguayans.

Roosevelt Hears Of Farm Relief

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 8. (AP)—A dozen experts in co-operative marketing of farm products today told Governor Roosevelt, the democratic presidential nominee, what they believed could be done to improve the condition of the farmer.

The co-operative group included men who have managed and directed co-operative buying and selling organizations in cotton, dairy products, and produce.

Roosevelt discussed the farm question last week with the president and the Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation. In one or more speeches in the middle-west, during a swing through the grain states to the Pacific coast in late September Roosevelt will make his bid for the republican nomination and outline how he believes the farm problem should be handled.

United States Senator Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio told Roosevelt today at a breakfast conference he believed the democrats would easily win the state famous for the number of republican sons it has sent to the presidency. Bulkley, who was a classmate of Roosevelt at Harvard, outlined plans for receiving the governor at Columbus on Thursday.

Henderson Hearing Under Way Again

The Texas Railroad commission will resume hearing tomorrow of the application of F. C. Henderson, Inc., for permission to burn Hutchinson county gas for other than light and fuel purposes. The hearing was opened last month, but postponed until additional data could be gathered.

Henderson Inc., desires to use gas from wells in the Sanford area for the manufacture of casinghead gasoline. The company plant has shut down for several months by order of the commission which claimed that gas was being wasted. The order was sustained in court.

J. M. McDonald, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division of the commission, is in Austin to attend the hearing.

At the same time the findings of representative engineers of companies operating in the Panhandle regarding gas conservation by utilization will be presented to the commission.

Chairman Farley Outlines Campaign

NEW YORK, Aug. 8. (AP)—Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley today went into the first session of a series of conferences he is conducting this week with state chairmen and other party leaders from all over the country, as national headquarters for the Roosevelt-Garner campaign were formally opened in the Biltmore hotel today.

Farley met with 21 democratic leaders today. They were mostly from the west and northwest. Tomorrow he will talk with a group of southwesterners. He has summoned the state chairmen, or some other representatives of every state to New York this week.

John S. Cohen of Atlanta, Ga., vice chairman of the democratic national committee, was present at the first conference today. Others who attended the sessions included: J. C. Adams, national committee man from Texas, and W. J. Barker, state chairman, New Mexico.

As the headquarters opened today desks had been set up for eight regional leaders who will form an advisory board in the conduct of the campaign. It has been announced that there will be a representative of these eight districts at headquarters at all times during the campaign. The leaders will be replaced from time to time, each one spending a period of about a month in New York.

Bullington Urged As G. O. P. Nominee

DALLAS, Aug. 8. (AP)—A movement favoring nomination of Orville Bullington as the republican candidate for governor was gaining strength today as members of the party gathered for the state convention opening here tomorrow.

John F. Grant, Houston lumberman, has been working for the republican gubernatorial nomination for several months unopposed. Most of the party leaders, including National Committeeman R. H. Cressler, have been supporting him.

However, the situation which has developed in the democratic gubernatorial race has produced a sentiment for a stronger candidate than Grant this year. While Grant is rated as an excellent man, widely known in South Texas, there are many members of the party who say his connections over the entire state are not sufficient to make him the strongest nominee the party could enter.

Bullington, a Wichita Falls attorney, was regarded by his supporters as the best man the party could nominate. He is a native Texan and prominent through his political activities but also as a former head of the ex-students' association of the state university and as an attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Carden of Strong City, Okla., are visiting friends here for a few days.

Equipote, Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney's great four-year-old, was considered a "chill" as a yearling.
