TWINKLES

Football is in reality the adults' sport, played by the youngsters for the oldsters. And now the boys and girls will take up basketball, with the prospect of having it more to themselves.

Perhaps some day Pampa sports fans will "discover" basketball. It is a pretty good game well played, and a dull one when the five-man defense is working to perfection. Only a few years ago we stood on an outdoor, windblown court and watched the Harvesters shiver through cage contests.

Our young ladies, whose pent-up enthusiasm during the grid season has been something terrific, will not have a chance to tear into the opposition themselves. Don't forget that they too uphold the glory of Pampa high.

The doctors Mayo declare that most able men suffer from intestinal or stomach ulcers. And events of recent years seem to prove that all the worry by able men was hardly worth it.

Prohibition Agent Robbins may have really tried to forget the past—a lot of republican hangers-on are doing it now, but Robbins was the better prophet.

Possibility of selling Gray county paving bonds for hard-surfacing of interior county roads, is distinguished from state designated highways, is rather remote at this time. This being the case, the road-beds already graded and drained must inevitably undergo wear. It will be necessary, and it is already advisable, to give the same kind of maintenance to them that they received before the grading contracts were let. There are rough spots which need attention, according to motorists who use the roads frequently.

To those who may think the federal relief funds are not being used in the best way possible, we advise patience. There are no guiding precedents. Giving of work-relief by the government is so near the dole that Americans are unaccustomed to spending such funds. It is hoped that the nation will never come closer to the dole than it has now drifted. By requiring labor for the money which is spent into this and other communities, the government is enabling workers to keep their self-respect. There is no reason for feeling that this money, earned with honest toil, is any different from that earned by other government workers and employees.

Texas Baptists, meeting at Abilene, showed tolerance and a bit of impatience at the same time in expelling by rising vote, and without a formal hearing a preacher who was deemed out of harmony with the denominational procedure. The only doctrinal point involved, to judge by press dispatches, was raised by Sam Morris, whose last name rhymes with that of another "independent" Baptist, his friend. The things of which Morris was intolerant, in the sense of being critical, apparently worried the rank and file not at all. The main thing, which worried Morris, was Morris himself, and he was not long within the fold.

We do not question the right to oust Morris. The Baptist convention, like other church bodies, makes

I HEARD--

That Mark Heath, out at the Red Deer golf course, played Nero yesterday afternoon, only Mark read instead of fiddling while his clubhouse was threatened by fire. Mark was in the clubhouse, with his feet up in his favorite position, when Mrs. Heath arrived at the club house from the seventh hole, where she saw a grass fire eating its way to the clubhouse. With the assistance of caddies and golfers, the building was saved.

That Bonnie Rose got lost while chasing deer in Cuberson county and let his horse have its head to get home. Other members of the party used much ammunition directing the lost Bonnie. Up and down were the only directions Bonnie knew in that country, it was said.

NAZI CHIEF IS GRANTED PLEA BY PRESIDENT

HITLER'S ACCEPTANCE NOW BELIEVED IMPROBABLE

CONDITIONS ATTACHED

MAJORITY REICH MUST BACK FASCIST CABINET

BERLIN, Nov. 21. (AP)—Adolf Hitler, who has been campaigning nine years to head the German government, finally received a mandate to form a cabinet today.

But President von Hindenburg attached to the request certain political conditions which some observers thought would make Hitler's acceptance improbable.

The president insisted that the Hitler cabinet be backed by "a majority or almost a majority" of the Reichstag. Hitler retired to confer with his advisers, promising to answer before the end of the day.

One of his closest associates said this afternoon that "it is obviously impossible for Hitler, who has spent his whole political life in a bitter fight against parliamentary haggling to try to resurrect a system which already is dead. It is most likely that he will tell the president that he is still ready to head an authoritarian cabinet, but his reply will be so conciliatory as to leave open all doors to negotiations."

Ellis' Friends Says Minister Is Living by Grace

DALHART, Nov. 21. (AP)—Folks familiar with his deadly rifle practice will say when C. A. Ellis missed the object of his aim at any distance the cause is too obscure for speculation. But when he misses at a few hundred feet they consider it an act of God. When he misses 'em, they stay shot!

Ellis lives at Texline, in the uttermost reaches of the northwest Panhandle, where distances deceive but train the eye of the rifleman.

Hunting late in the evening with T. P. Dudley, Ellis sighted crouched behind a pile of brush what he believed was the outline of a coyote. Dudley fired first and missed. When Ellis shot, the form jumped, and instantly transformed into the figure of a man who started running towards the hunters.

Dudley said, afterwards that coyotes Ellis shoots at invariably leap upward as a dying gesture, and that he was sure the man had been mortally wounded.

The man was an unattached minister who had been preaching at Texline, and had walked into the sand hills southwest of town for solitude and prayer. Dressed in brown and kneeling, he had been easily mistaken in the falling light for a coyote.

Ellis' bullet had torn a little flesh from the man's left heel after creasing the flesh of his left hip.

There was only a few hundred feet from the hunter. Either bad visibility or the other reason explains his escape from harm. It's a matter of view point.

Championship Game Seats On Sale Here

Tickets are on sale at the court-house office of Joe Smith for the Lubbock-Amarillo football game at Amarillo on Thursday.

There are 190 tickets available at $1 each, and the first to ask for them will be served. The seats are on the east side of Butler Field.

GARNER EXPRESSES VIEWS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21. (AP)—John Nance Garner, vice-president-elect and speaker of the house, was here between trains today long enough to be shaved, to express unqualified opposition to European debt cancellation or modification and to express hope for passage of a beer bill and legislation looking toward prohibition repeal at the coming short session of congress.

OIL HEIRESS ON HONEYMOON

Bound for a tropical honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. James Goodwin Hall (above), married recently in New York. They sailed for Havana and may take an aerial cruise in the Caribbean area. He is a well known pilot and she is the former Anne Vallant Barnett, daughter of the late Burke Barnett of Texas, who left the bulk of his $15,000,000 oil fortune to her.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER 500 ACRES GRASS LAND AND DAMAGES TWO GOLF COURSES NEAR CITY EDGE

A grass fire which presumably started when golfers playing on the Country club course dropped lighted matches in a dry creek bed yesterday afternoon was not under control until after it had swept over an area estimated at more than 500 acres. The fire spread west and north from the golf course, sweeping everything in front of it.

Only one or two holes in the Country club course were damaged, but the first spread as far west as the Red Deer course where the driving course and part of No. 1 hole suffered. The clubhouse was in danger for some time, but Mark Heath, owner and manager, with the help of caddies and some golfers, changed the course of the blaze in time.

Hundreds of cattle grazing in the pasture between the two golf courses were driven ahead of the burning grass. The fire finally died out in a creek bottom where it was out of the wind.

The golfers apparently did not know that the fire had started and before other players got to the spot, the fire had gained such headway that it was beyond control.

A. G. Thiem of Wichita, Kansas, is in the city this week.

Red Deer Clubhouse In Danger For Short Time

Violent death took a toll of 13 lives in Texas over the week-end. Four persons were killed as a result of automobile accidents, three allegedly were murdered, two persons took their own lives, two others were killed in an airplane accident, one was injured fatally in a hunting accident and other was burned to death.

PARIS, Nov. 21. (AP)—Premier Edouard Herriot and a large official party arrived in Paris safe and sound today despite an apparent attempt to blow up their special train in Brittany during the night. The railroad track was blown up at Ingrandes, 15 miles from Nantes early yesterday just before the special train reached the spot, and in time for section men to flag down the train.

FOUR KILLERS END GANGSTER'S PLANS TO EXPOSE UNDERWORLD

By RAYMOND CROWLEY.
NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—That red hot book that Francis Anthony Fabrizio was writing to "expose the underworld's four hundred" will never be finished now.

Fabrizio, a gangster turned author was just getting full literary steam up last night. Surrounded by a scattered baite of notes, giving names and dates, he was chewing his tongue and painfully spelling out a letter to a publisher preparatory to tackling the preface of his expose.

Around him in his Brooklyn flat was seated an admiring group of relatives—mother, father, brother and sister. At his elbow was a lawyer, helping with suggestions.

"Society has its four hundred," Fabrizio began, "and the underworld too has its four hundred."

"I know who the underworld's four hundred are—that they are doing and what they intend to do. I intend to write a book exposing the whole system."

"Sometime ago a prominent brewer said the brewers were getting up a fund of $5,000,000 so they could control the breweries. But do you know that the underworld has raised a fund of $27,000,000 to keep control?"

"I know certain things . . ."

Fabrizio's head, bent far over his work, snapped up. A look of terror glazed his eyes. There had been a knock at the door.

Into the suddenly silent room four ugly-looking men strode.

"We are detectives," they said, pointing at Fabrizio. "We want you."

"What do you want me for?" moaned Fabrizio as their fingers closed on his collar. "I ain't done nuthin'."

They dragged him, weakly resisting, out into the hall. There as his mother and sister screamed, they drew guns and fired four bullets into his body, killing him. Then, they strolled out, joined two look-outs posted outside and drove away.

FEDERAL LAW RECOMMENDED BY COMMITTEE

PROPOSE ADOPTION BY EVERY STATE IN UNION

MODIFICATION IS URGED

THREE PER CENT OF PAYROLL WOULD BE PAID

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 21. (AP)—In an epochal step the American Federation of Labor's executive committee today submitted a plan of compulsory unemployment insurance, proposing it be adopted by every state, paid for by employers, and administered by a state commission.

The benefits would not be denied to those out of work because of a trade dispute, or if non-membership in a labor union was a condition of employment.

Recognizing that conditions vary in different states, the plan recommends enactment of a federal law to supplement state legislation.

The insurance plan was contained in the report of the executive council to the federation's 52nd annual convention.

The benefits would not be denied to those out of work because of a trade dispute, or if non-membership in a labor union was a condition of employment.

Relief Agency Starts 33 to Work for City

Thirty-three unemployed men with families were given work this morning by use of the government relief money received last week. The city directed 26 of the men in cleaning up the streets, working on the park, and clearing vacant lots. Four men were given work at the football field by the school board, removing reserve boxes. The other three men were hired by trucking contractors.

The men will work for three days, then another group will be given jobs. All will be paid Saturday in cash. Because of Thanksgiving coming on the first day of work for the second group of men, Charlie Mullen, in charge of employment, may put the men to work Wednesday and lay them off for the holiday. The second group, with smaller families, will get two days work.

The basement of the city hall was crowded with men this morning, but only those most in need and with large families were given the jobs. The relief money was set aside for the purpose of giving work to the needy and destitute. The money is for use in the north half of Gray county. C. H. Walker heads the committee in charge.

Todd Will Speak At Merten School

Justice James Todd Jr. will speak at the Merten school Wednesday evening in a program which will stress Thanksgiving.

His message will be on the Thanksgiving theme, and the school's numbers will have a like significance. The program will open at 7 p. m.

THIRTY MEN ATTEND BOY SCOUT LEADERSHIP TRAINING SCHOOL

Thirty adult leaders attended the second session of the Boy Scout leadership training school conducted at the high school gymnasium Saturday night. The men were divided into three groups with F. E. Smith, T. M. Gilliam, John Shannon, and Harry Kelley in charge of them.

Each group prepared a program outline and John Shannon's were selected to conduct the program for the evening. It was a fourfold idea outlining action, inspiration, instruction, and games. The action was through a game which caused the men to act and think and was classed as co-ordination. Inspiration was through songs and a reading, "The Scoutmaster" by R. C. Wilson. Volley ball was used for recreation. Odus Mitchell, high school coach, gave an interesting talk on "The value of games in teaching."

The coach said that games helped in a school organization as well as in group organization, and brought order out of chaos. He told of the individual's striving for leadership which develops him both mentally and physically, and of how Scout games were the "play-way" to success.

Scoutmaster Thomas Cox spoke on the new ideas in programs and how they could be put into effect. C. A. Clark was master of ceremonies.

Several clubs which had previously promised to have representatives at the meetings were absent Saturday night. Two more lessons will be conducted and all "students" are urged to be present. Men were at the Saturday night session from Pampa, LeFors, Hopkins, and Kingsmill.

'PLAIN PEOPLE GET BREAK'

Of the plain people, by the plain people, and for the plain people—that's John O'Malley, Milwaukee street sweeper who has been elected state assemblyman. Here he is with his shovel, which he's not going to abandon entirely, for he plans to go back to his street work during assembly recesses.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 21. (AP)—From pavements to politics, from the curb to the capitol—that's the story of John O'Malley's whirlwind rise.

O'Malley, Milwaukee's street cleaner, was picked up by the democratic hurricane and set down in the state capitol, representing his district in the assembly, lower house of the Wisconsin legislature.

"And the plain people," says O'Malley, as he caresses his callouses, "will get a break."

John does not intend to give up the job he has held for six years in the department of street sanitation, fourth ward. Between sessions of the legislature he will resume his corduroy pants and leather coat, which are the uniform of Milwaukee street sweepers, and polish his pavements.

"I am proud of my work. I do it well," he says. "I work hard, I am thorough."

"In this year's election," says Assemblyman O'Malley, "plain people have elected plain people to represent them. Their representatives no longer will be bureaucrats who feel themselves superior to their constituents. As one of the plain people I will represent only their interests."

O'Malley was born in county Mayo, Ireland, 58 years ago, and has lived here since 1901. He made two unsuccessful campaigns for a place in the assembly before this year's democratic uprising carried him to victory.

NEW EVIDENCE IS CLAIMED IN McWRIGHT SUIT

Alex Smith Case Due To Go To Trial Tuesday

Prospective jurors reporting for duty in the tenth week of 31st district court today were excused until 9 a. m. tomorrow. Absentees, most of whom live here, were being notified to report at 1:30 p. m. today.

This is civil week, with many cases set for hearings but much uncertainty existing about the possibility of going to trial with many of them. The damage suit of Alex Smith against Gray county, alleging that his farm was damaged by road grading operations which affected drainage, is set for trial tomorrow. The jury failed to agree in a previous trial of the suit.

A night session was in sight in the damage suit of Lemuel McWright against the Panhandle & Santa Fe railroad. The plaintiff's attorneys today sought to amend their original petition on the claim that they had found new evidence tending to support their claim that the crossing accident in which McWright was injured was due to

Demonstration Work for Year To Be Planned

Miss Ruby M. Adams, home demonstration agent, and Ralph Thomas, county agent, will go to Spur Sunday to attend a 3-day meeting of county agents and home demonstration agents of districts 1 and 2, and officials of A. & M. college.

Annual reports will be begun and plans for next year will be made.

COMMISSION NOT TO MEET

The city commission will not meet tonight because of other engagements which require the presence of several members.

Recruiting Office Open to Applicants

Applications will be taken at the United States recruiting office at Amarillo for service in the army, according to Sgt. Robert E. Forsythe, officer in charge.

Original enlistments and reenlistments have been resumed for infantry and field artillery services at Fort Sill, Okla. Applicants must be between 18 and 35 years of age, single, and must have two good references. Only specially qualified men will be accepted from these rules.

BRITTEN SAYS BILL WILL NOT BE GIVEN VETO

REPRESENTATIVE TALKS WITH PRESIDENT ON MODIFICATION

WET 'QUITE SATISFIED'

PLAN WOULD PROVIDE AGAINST RETURN OF SALOON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Representative Britten (R., Ill.) after a conference with President Hoover at which he said possible beer legislation was discussed, told newspaper men he was "quite satisfied Mr. Hoover would not veto a beer bill."

Long an advocate of modification of the Volstead act, he said he had devoted his entire conference with the chief executive to discussion of this subject.

After spending about ten minutes in the president's office, Britten spoke with newspapermen on leaving for the capitol. He refrained from making any statement upon Mr. Hoover's direct reaction to the views he had expressed to him.

Britten said he was "ready to go ahead with a beer bill that would provide against return of the saloon, and would protest states wishing to remain dry, but would provide for others 2.75 per cent beer by weight."

Communications will be sent today to Representatives Beck (R., Pa.) and Laguardia (R., N.Y.), leader and secretary respectively of the republican wet bloc in the house, Britten said, asking them to arrange a meeting of this bloc prior to the convening of congress on December 5.

Britten said he had told Mr. Hoover he was confident that the bill he had in mind, providing a tax of 3 or 4 cents a pint on beer would bring in $35,000,000 a month right from the start."

He maintained this would allow the retailing of beer at 10 cents a bottle.

"I am quite confident," he said, "that New Year's eve will be celebrated with real beer rather than poor wine. If the democrats will live up to their platform for 'immediate' modification, a bill could be brought up on the second day of congress and under a special rule limiting debate on the bill to 20 minutes, could be passed through the house by December 10."

Thirteen Arrested During Week-End

City officers made 10 arrests over the week-end. Most of the offenders paid fines and were released, but the remainder were in the city jail this morning. The officers arrested a man and confiscated three half-gallon jars of whiskey. He was turned over to the county this morning and released on $500 bond in Justice W. S. Baxter's court.

Other arrests included four men charged with drunkenness, one for disturbing the peace, one for vagrancy and three for traffic violations. No burglaries or robberies were reported over the week-end.

Two men arraigned in Justice James Todd Jr.'s court were charged with affray. Another was held for intoxication.

Invalid Burns to Death at Borger

BORGER, Nov. 21. (AP)—Clarence Harrison, 35, invalid son of the Rev. M. S. Harrison, retired Christian minister, was burned to death when fire destroyed the family's two-room home here this morning.

Mr. Harrison, who, with his wife, was burned slightly, attributed the fire to a ley gas pipe.

WEST TEXAS: Fair warmer in the Panhandle tonight; Tuesday fair, warmer.

PHILADELPHIA—That was no dream William Maxwell had last night—that was a nightmare. Dreaming of falling, he awoke just in time to save himself from falling out a bedroom window after crashing through the pane. Weak from loss of blood, he was treated at a hospital for severe cuts about the legs and arms.

MANY CHAMP GAMES TO END GRID SEASON

THANKSGIVING AND SATURDAY WILL SEE FINIS WRITTEN

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—The thundering football herd sweeps down the homestretch this week with an exceptional double-barreled program that virtually writes finis to the 1932 campaign.

Once Thanksgiving day's contests and those of the following Saturday are written into the records only a few scattering important games will remain to be played before uniforms are packed away for another season.

But this week's salvo from football's big guns will be an impressive one—a fine array of important struggles headed by such pairings as Army-Notre Dame, Brown-Colgate, Pitt-Stanford, Alabama-Vanderbilt, Tennessee-Kentucky, Georgia-Georgia Tech, Penn-Cornell, and Texas Christian-Southern Methodist.

Coming up to one of the final mileposts, here's how the situation shapes up in the country's major conferences:

East—Brown and Colgate, only unbeaten teams in the section, battle at Providence with probable recognition as eastern champion awaiting the winner. Penn and Cornell, New York University and Carnegie Tech, West Virginia and Washington & Jefferson are other leading Thanksgiving day rivals. On Saturday, Army will meet Notre Dame at the Yankee stadium here. Pitt, undefeated but twice tied, will face Stanford, and Boston College and Holy Cross will go together in their annual meeting.

South—With Auburn, heir-apparent to the conference throne idle until its closing game with South Carolina Dec. 3, interest will center on the Thanksgiving day games between Alabama and Vanderbilt and Tennessee and Kentucky, and on the Georgia-Georgia Tech duel at Atlanta Saturday. Other conference contests will involve Mississippi and Mississippi State, Virginia and North Carolina, North Carolina State and South Carolina, Virginia Military and Virginia Polytechnic Thursday, and Duke and Washington & Lee, and Tulane and Louisiana State Saturday. Louisiana State can close an unbeaten conference season by trimming Tulane.

Southwest—Texas Christian should clinch the championship in Saturday's game with Southern Methodist. Rice and Baylor play the same day while Texas and Texas A. & M. will collide Thanksgiving day when Arkansas tackles Centenary's undefeated and untied array which already holds decisions over Southwest conferences foes.

Pacific Coast—Southern California should hurdle its final conference foe, Washington, but the University of California at Los Angeles may run into trouble with Washington State. Oregon plays St. Mary's Gaels in the only other leading game, all three of which will be played Thursday.

Big Six—Nebraska, which clinched the title by beating Oklahoma last week, closes its conference season Thursday against Missouri. Oklahoma will play George Washington at Washington the same day.

Untied this year, Northwestern university had beaten Notre Dame only one—2 to 0 in 1902—and had played scoreless ties with the Irish in 1903 and 1930.

Stanley Schino, hard-hitting outfielder for Tulsa in the Western league has been turned over to Kansas City of the American association.

Virginia has not used the same starting backfield in any football game this season.

EIGHT TEAMS STILL UNTIED

Christians Lead Undeclared Clubs in Scoring With 275 Points.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Sixteen of the nation's hundreds of college football teams still could boast undefeated records today but only eight has escaped one or more ties. Casualties during the past week were comparatively light as only three schools—Temple, DePaul and Waynesburg—were eliminated from the unbeaten list.

Texas Christian leads the undefeated group in scoring with 275 points with Auburn just 20 points behind. Colgate ranks third with 243 points and shares with St. John's of Minnesota the honor of having a perfect defensive record.

The list of undefeated teams as compiled by the Associated Press follows:

Team	W.	T.	P.	P.	P.A.
Auburn	0	0	255	34	0
Colgate	8	0	243	0	0
Centenary	8	0	183	26	0
Jeff. Univ. (Texas)	8	0	179	42	0
Michigan	8	0	123	13	0
Vaughan (Ind.)	7	0	182	21	0
Southern Calif.	7	0	144	7	0
Brown	7	0	81	21	0
Texas Christian	9	1	275	23	0
Tennessee	7	1	180	23	0
Susquehanna (Pa.)	7	1	164	40	0
Western (Mich.)	6	1	151	24	0
St. John's (Minn.)	6	1	109	0	0

Many Golfers Play Here on Yesterday

Many Pampa golfers took advantage of the sun and warm wind yesterday to make up for lost time. Both the Red Deer and Country Club courses were dotted with foursomes throughout the day and many good scores were recorded.

Several local enthusiasts plan to keep up their game during the winter in an effort to avoid the regular spring and early summer slump. The older enthusiasts claim that a winter lay-off stiffens them until well into the summer.

The Red Deer course still has a rubber match to play with the Berger club.

Sooner Aggies Are Conference Champs

DES MOINES, Nov. 21 (AP)—The champion Oklahoma Aggies will carry the prestige of the Missouri Valley football circuit into the southwest this week as the season comes to a close.

Crowned undisputed champions by their 27 to 0 victory over Grinnell last Friday night, the Cowboys will play the University of Arizona at Tucson on Thanksgiving and on Saturday will tangle with the Texas School of Mines at El Paso.

FROGS EXPECT TO WIN TITLE ON SATURDAY

S. M. U. MUSTANGS ARE LAST OPPONENTS FOR T. C. U.

By BILL PARKER.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
The Texas Christian University Frogs are knocking at the Southwest conference championship door. They are expected to gain entrance to the football throne room Saturday at Dallas when they play their final 1932 conference game against the Southern Methodist university Mustangs, 1931 champions, but completely out of the race this year.

Boasting an undefeated straight season records of nine wins and a non-conference game against Louisiana State, proud of their five conference victories, the Frogs have just one more task to accomplish before being crowned champions—that of beating Southern Methodist.

The Mustangs have one conference win, three non-conference victories and their record. Write your own ticket on the Frogs final championship chance.

The conference fade-out occurs this week. The final march starts Thursday at Austin with the annual Turkey day battle between the invading Texas A. & M. Aggies and the University of Texas Longhorns. There will be one other game Thursday. The University of Arkansas goes to Shreveport to play a non-conference game against the undefeated and untied Centenary Gentlemen. Arkansas is expected to lose.

Beside the Texas Christian and Southern Methodist game Saturday, there will be a conference set-to between the Baylor Bears of Waco and the Rice Owls of Houston at Houston. Both clubs are definitely out of the race, but the game is expected to be good. Baylor whipped Southern Methodist, 19 to 0, Saturday at Waco. Rice was drubbed, 16 to 6, by the mighty charging Texas Christian machine.

All roads will lead to Austin Thursday. This traditional University of Texas and Texas A. & M. battle is always ranked as the game of games in this section whether these two teams are in the championship race or not. Texas is still in the race. A victory for the Longhorns and a defeat for Texas Christian and the race in a dead-heat. Mention such a thing to the wisecracks, they will smile and tell you that Texas is favored to defeat the Frogs even though they play a non-conference game against the Mustangs.

With the final three conference games scheduled this week, it is the consensus that Texas Christian will finish first, the University of Texas Longhorns second and Rice Institute third.

CLAIMS ARIZONA METEOR WIPED OUT ANCIENT CLIFF-DWELLERS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21 (AP)—A theory that an early American civilization—the Arizona cliff dwellers—was wiped out by collision of the earth with the so-called Arizona meteor, or comet, was advanced today by Ernest V. Sutton, South Pasadena, Calif., student of Indian culture at the southwest.

Some 400,000,000 tons of stratified rock were displaced by the collision, which created an oval-shaped crater with walls 130 feet higher than the surrounding plain. These walls slope down 600 feet on the inside to a 40-acre floor.

Sutton suggested that in the twinkling of an eye, this crash destroyed the most populous and most cultivated settlement of what now is the United States.

Scientists believe the great meteor or comet cut diagonally across North America from the northwest at about 40 miles a second, the nucleus plunging slantwise some 2-500 feet into the surface of Arizona, while the meteorites, cosmic dust and gases wrought havoc all around.

"With my own eyes," said Sutton, "I have seen mummified human beings sitting upright inside ruined buildings, as if something had suddenly sucked the life out of them."

"In a tumble-down cliff house, near the great Beehive dwelling known as Yucca House, there were three aged adults and a child. The adults sat with their backs to the wall—the child lay on the floor. I believe the cataclysm occurred during the day time, when hunters were on the ranges and all the younger women were in the fields."

Scientific analysis now indicates the catastrophe took place in the latter part of the 13th century, just about 200 years before Columbus sighted America.

The main mass of the celestial remains has been uncovered at a cost of a million dollars in three years extending over many years. It is more than 400 feet in diameter. Time of the cataclysm is estimated from studies of Dr. A. E. Douglass, director of the Steward Observatory, University of Arizona, to have been within a short time after 1278.

Douglass has found that tree-rings in timbers used in the cliff dwellers' homes indicate that all buildings ceased at that period and were not renewed for many years, and then only by a new race.

"Gloomy Glenn" Thistlethwaite, former Wisconsin coach, developed a team at Carroll college in this, his first year, which came from the east and second in the state conference, losing to the champion Ripon eleven by one touchdown.

Oliver Sill Ahead in Scoring Race

The Southwest conference scoring race still has Richard "Red" Oliver, Texas Christian university halfback, as its leader. Bohn Hilliard, University of Texas halfback, is second, and Ernest Koy, University of Texas fullback, is third.

Oliver clicked with a touchdown against Rice Institute last Saturday to give him a new total of 12 touchdowns for 72 points.

The conference scoring race:
Oliver, T. C. U., 72; Hilliard, Texas, 57; Koy, Texas, 51; Stafford, Texas, 38; Brannon, Texas, 37; Wallace, Rice, 37; Spearman, T. C. U., 36; Domingue, A. & M., 34; Dennis, T. C. U., 28; Thrasher, Rice, 24; Biddle, Arkansas, 24.

Eight of the 17 candidates for the basketball squad at University of Idaho are veterans who have won their athletic letters on the court.

AUBURN PLAINSMEN NEARING CHAMPIONSHIP

Undeclared and untied in its first nine engagements, Auburn can clinch the southern title by hurdling South Carolina on Dec. 3. Hitchcock and Phipps are offensive aces of the team team Coach Wynne has put together in his third year at the Alabama school.

Travis Due to Be Terror for Cotton Picker

A Californian by the name of Ted Travis will invade Pampa Wednesday night in an effort to stem the victorious march of Joe Kopecky to a light heavyweight championship battle with Hugh Nichols. Sailor Otis Clingman, local boy, stepped out of his class to beat Kopecky two weeks ago, but it didn't have any effect on his hope for a big match.

Travis comes to Pampa with the recommendation of Dutch Mantell, who has seen him in action. The old Dutchman says Travis is all man and can give and take even with the great Kopecky. The encounter at the Pla-Mor auditorium Wednesday night will be Travis' first appearance before a Panhandle wrestling audience.

The one and only Sir Joseph Kopecky of Taylor, cotton picker de luxe and rough and tumble wrestler, writes THE NEWS that he is mad clean through to think that a Pampa wrestler could beat him and that any time he comes to Pampa in the future he would shoot the works regardless of the opposition.

The semi-final has not been arranged, but promoters are in touch with Tex Thrower, Berger ice-man, to see if he is able to meet Red Michael in a finish go. Thrower was confined to his bed last week. An effort is being made to get an opponent for Rob Roy.

Tickets went on sale at the City Drug Store this morning.

In two years of football under the coaching of Mike Pecarovich, covering 12 games against many of the strongest Coast Conference teams and St. Mary's, Gonzaga at Spokane has never failed to score at least one touchdown.

Three "big" college football games which may be transplanted to Soldier field, Chicago, in 1933 as part of the Century of Progress exposition are Stanford, Northwestern, Southern California-Notre Dame, and Dartmouth-Chicago.

A new record of more than 1,200 applications to the Missouri game department of fish for stocking purposes was made during the 1932 season.

Tom Hupke, Alabama's stocky guard, won third place when in East Chicago high school in the national intercollegiate wrestling finals.

For two successive seasons an amateur cricket league has played a regular schedule in St. Louis.

It is about time the fans were selecting their All Star Curbsone team for 1932. Many veterans from last year were back for this season, but a few were missing. Anyone with a team in mind can mail or deliver it to THE NEWS office and the All Star team will be selected soon.

Also, how many Harvesters should be on the District I All Star team? The team will be selected next month by coaches and sports writers in the district. Pampa was well represented last year and had one player on the All Star team.

A fan writes in that he thinks a Round Robin football tournament between the wards schools should be held. An excellent idea. He further explains that each ward school would enter a team to be coached by the members of the Harvester team. Two games could be played each week for two or three weeks and then the championship of the ward schools. Sounds great. And think of the advantages it would give the coaches.

Members of the Commerce, Okla., high school football squad did nightly "chores" for Dick Logan farm youth, who broke his ankle in a game.

A survey at Kansas City showed "hand" baseball and football games had returned to corner lots once occupied by miniature golf courses.

BOYS BEGIN CAGE SEASON

Harvesters Will Hold Initial Basketball Practice This Afternoon.

Bulletin boards at the high school carried in large letters the orders for every boy intending to try out for a place on the Harvester basketball squad to be on hand at the gymnasium this afternoon for the first practice of the season. The football season was officially closed Saturday, when the Harvesters defeated the Quannah Indians 6 to 0.

An entire letterman squad will be eligible to report for practice this afternoon and several substitutes from last year will also be ready. Morris Enloe, captain last season, will be the only missing regular. His understudy last year, Robert "Midgett" Woodward, and captain of the team this season, will be on hand to fill his place.

Other regulars back will be Miles Marbungh, Hoot Fullingim, Wayne Kelley, and Jess Patton. Of the reserves, Billy Kelley, Dick Sullins, Jim Poole, Schmidt, Faulkner, and maybe one or two more will be ready for duty. They should make the veterans step to hold their positions this season.

Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox will be in charge of the squad.

Meanwhile Auburn in the Southern conference, and Texas chalk up victories that leave these titles secure. Auburn spotted Georgia Tech in the 1932 season, 14-7, and Texas Christian whipped Rice, 16-6.

In the East, where a terrific storm stalled virtually every team's attack, the Yale Bulldogs uncovered a remarkable offensive in the season over West Virginia Wesleyan, Columbia and Holy Cross hot favorites both, had to be content with scoreless ties against Syracuse and Manhattan respectively as the sloppy game ruined the effectiveness of running and passing attacks. Villanova handed Temple's Owls their first defeat, 7-0.

Fordham, conqueror of St. Mary's Gaels two weeks ago, whipped another far western aggregation, Oregon State, 8-6, by virtue of a safety in the fourth quarter. Navy put up a magnificent defense against Notre Dame at Cleveland, but bowed 12-0. Marquette defeated Washington and Jefferson 5-0.

Michigan's tight battle with Minnesota was the high spot of the Big Six's closing program marked also by victories for Purdue in the runner-up; Ohio State, Northwestern and Wisconsin. Purdue swamped Indiana, 25-7. Wisconsin beat Chicago, 18-7. Ohio State nosed out Illinois, 3-0, and Northwestern won from Detroit, 7-0, in their annual duel.

Oakland and Stanford, bitter Pacific Coast conference rivals, battled to a scoreless draw as the University of California at Los Angeles, hoping to qualify for the conference title with Southern California, buried Montana, 32-0.

Only Auburn, of the leaders, was in action in the Southern conference. Georgia Tech beat Florida and Maryland turned back Washington and Lee by 6-0 counts, and Duke won from North Carolina, 7-0. Tulane swept aside Sewanee 26-0.

GRINS FROM THE GRID

By O. W. "RED" SEVERENCE
(Written For The Associated Press)

What happens in the huddle out on the gridiron as tense, excited players stick their heads together before a crucial play rarely becomes known to the outside world.

But one good story that took place in a huddle comes from the lips of Andy Kerr, head coach at Colgate.

In the 1931 Colgate-Syracuse game, with Coach Kerr's team leading 14-0, Syracuse started a drive that ended in a touchdown and changed the score to 14-7.

Rallying behind Johnny Lister, hard-driving fullback, Colgate carried the ball straight down the field on line plays without using a single forward pass and scored a third touchdown to ward off the Syracuse threat and make victory a certainty.

A moment later Colgate had the ball on the Syracuse 26-yard line and Bob Samuel, aggressive sophomore quarterback, again called Lister's signal as Colgate went into their huddle.

"Say listen," the tired fullback complained, "I'm worn out. I've carried the ball three out of four plays all afternoon. Give it to someone else now."

Quick as a flash Samuel snapped back, "I'm running this team. I called your signal and you'll carry the ball."

The huddle broke up and the weary Lister, stung by the remark, plunged through to Syracuse's 3-yard line for his longest gain of the day.

But the crowd saw only a tired fullback on the winning team making a desperate effort to score for no apparent reason whatever.

The Wisconsin-Minnesota football series is the oldest in the midwest, the Badgers and Gophers having met annually since 1890 with the exception of one year, 1906.

THREE TITLE WON SATURDAY BY FAVORIT.

CROWN IN SOUTHE LOOP CLINCHED BY AUBURN

By The Associated Press.
Fighting the elements as well as hard rivals for the much coveted favorites smashed through Saturday to victories that decided a conference championships and but clinched two others.

Michigan's Wolverines, shared the big ten crown with Purdue and Northwestern a year in advance gained clear title to the 1932 championship with a 3 to 0 triumph over Minnesota as the climax to an undefeated and untied season. Utah crushing the Colorado Aggies, 16-0, won the Rocky Mountain conference title for the fifth successive year. Nebraska made sure of a Big Six title by whipping Oklahoma 5-0.

Meanwhile Auburn in the Southern conference, and Texas chalk up victories that leave these titles secure. Auburn spotted Georgia Tech in the 1932 season, 14-7, and Texas Christian whipped Rice, 16-6.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE TO BE CHIEF CHURCH EVENT

LETINGS ARE ANNOUNCED FOR LOCAL CLASSES

BUILDERS HEAR TALK BY JOSEPH R. LAZARUS

Featuring church activities of the coming week will be the union Thanksgiving service Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Central Baptist church.

The Rev. C. A. Long of the First Methodist church will be the speaker, and L. W. Hardcastle will be in charge of the music.

The Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church will meet at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening in the home of Miss Claudine Haynes, 510 N. Somerville.

The Rev. C. E. Lancaster of the First Baptist church will deliver a Thanksgiving sermon in Methodist church at 11 o'clock.

The sermon will be a feature of an all-day community meeting.

Brotherly love was emphasized in a talk by Joseph R. Lazarus, acting pastor of the B'Nai Israel temple, when he addressed 45 persons at a meeting of the Builders class, First Christian church, Sunday morning.

Mr. Lazarus expressed regret because of the prejudice between Jews and Gentiles, stating that all had the same Father and all should love one another as brothers and sisters. He read from the Hebrew Bible, translating the passages.

The Friendship class of the First Methodist church will entertain the Brotherhood class with a Thanksgiving party tomorrow evening in the church basement.

A Thanksgiving basket will be prepared by the Fidelity class, First Methodist church, at a meeting at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening at the church.

The Methodist Board of Stewards will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church office.

Berean class members, First Christian church, will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

Central Baptist W. M. S. will meet Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. O. Gillham.

The Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the church. Supper will be served at that time.

Winsome class officers will have luncheon at the First Baptist church Friday.

Christmas activities will be planned at the First Baptist church tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock when a meeting is held by departmental superintendents and the presidents, teachers, and secretaries of all organized classes of the young people's and adult departments.

First Baptist choir members will begin work on their Christmas music at a meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

The Rev. C. E. Lancaster, who is just returned after attending the Baptist State convention in Miami, stated that the crowd was united group, and that real state-ship was shown on the part of those who attended. He said also that progress was shown in every phase of the denominational work.

Regarding the spelling of Sam Mordecai, he upheld the convention, declaring the action was necessary for the smooth progress of the huge crowd.

The Fidelity Macons class of the First Baptist church will have its regular monthly business and social meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church basement. The Lockett group, of which Mrs. Fritz Weachter is captain, will be the hostess group. Members, members in service, and associate and prospective members are urged to attend. A nursery will be provided for the children.

Opal Whitsell Has Party for Friends

Opal Whitsell entertained in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Whitsell on the Combs-Worley lease Friday evening.

Games were played and refreshments were served to the following: Alta Baker, Evelyn Atkinson, Alma Baker, Oleta Sanders, Marie Sanders, Alden Pullum, Bernice Sanders, Johnnie Mae Campbell, Evelyn Nash, Francis Nash, Marguerite Hildreth, Elva Smith, Rosa Lee Dudley, Jean Hildreth, Velda Richards, Dorothy Whitsell, Mrs. Nash, Winifred Wood, Holman Bagwell, Max Brown, Shansel Hall, Clyde Sargent, C. E. Hall, Bob Brown, Floyd Madhis, Lee Freeman, Alvis Smith, Raymond and Ezea McPherson, Lester McKenzie, Mayse Nash, Edward Pullum, Charlie Welton, Bobbie Carr, Leon Miller, Richard Montgomery, Malcolm Albertson, Uebel Whitsell, and the hostess.

ELISABETH MORROW AND FIANCE

Miss Elisabeth Morrow and her fiance, Aubrey Niel Morgan, were photographed together for the first time when, as shown here, they walked down the gangplank of a liner at Plymouth, England. They recently announced engagement of the sister of Mrs. Charles Lindbergh to Morgan, a businessman and sportsman of Wales, was the result of a romance begun during the naval conference of 1930, when Miss Morrow accompanied her father, the late Senator Dwight Morrow to London.

TASTES CHANGE IN 300 YEARS BUT NOT ON THANKSGIVING DAY

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE

HANKSGIVINGS COME and Thanksgivings go, but the traditional Thanksgiving dinner still holds on. Despite the many changes in food preferences since that original feast of the Pilgrims more than 300 years ago, the same dishes are set before the modern American family on this holiday.

However, the time is past when the festival meal is a trial to the housewife in the matter of cost or labor involved.

While turkey remains the first choice as the "piece de resistance," chicken, other fowls or meats are satisfactory substitutes. Simplicity of menu will enable the housewife or hostess to enjoy the day with family and guests.

The usual cocktail and salad courses can be omitted since such relishes as celery, olives, cranberry sauce and pickles are usually included in the menu.

In true colonial fashion, pie should be the dessert, but a pudding or frozen dessert may be served. Following is an appetizing menu with recipes:

Plymouth Thanksgiving Dinner

Roast Turkey Chestnut Stuffing
Mashed Potatoes
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Asparagus Swiss
Pickles Spiced Cranberry Jelly
Celery
Hot Rolls Butter
Pumpkin Pie Coffee
Raisins Assorted Nuts

Chestnut Stuffing

1 pound chestnuts, 3 cups bread crumbed, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley.

Cover nuts with water. Cook slowly 15 minutes. With knife, make slits in sides of nuts. Remove meat and press through a sieve or potato ricer. Add to rest of ingredients and lightly stuff bowl.

Asparagus Swiss, Serving 6

4 tablespoons butter, 6 tablespoons flour, 3 cups milk, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1-2 cup cheese, cut fine, 2 hard cooked eggs, diced, 2 tablespoons chopped pimientos, 2 tablespoons chopped celery, 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion, 2 cups cooked asparagus 2-3 cup crumbs, 3 tablespoons butter, melted.

Melt 4 tablespoons of butter and add flour. Mix well and add milk and cook until creamy sauce forms. Add seasonings, cheese and egg. Mix and add asparagus and pour into buttered baking dish. Cover with crumbs which have been mixed with melted butter. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Serve in dish in which cooked.

Candied Sweet Potatoes

10 medium sized sweet potatoes, peeled, 1 cup dark brown sugar, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper.

Mix ingredients and pour into shallow pan. Bake 50 minutes in moderate oven. Turn potatoes frequently to allow even cooking and browning.

Spiced Cranberry Jelly

6 cups berries, 3 cups water, 4 whole cloves, 1 tablespoon broken cinnamon bark, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 3 cups sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Mix berries, water, spices and salt. Cover and cook slowly 10 minutes. Strain and add sugar. Boil 4 minutes. Pour into molds and chill until stiff.

Colonial Pumpkin Pie

2 unbaked pie crusts, 3 cups cooked mashed pumpkin, 1-2 cups sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon mace, 1 teaspoon ginger, 4 eggs, beaten, 1-2 cup cream, 2 1-2 cups milk.

Mix pumpkins, sugar, salt, spices, eggs, cream and milk. Pour into unbaked crusts. Bake 10 minutes in moderate oven. Lower fire and bake 45 minutes in slow oven. Have crusts deep so that thick pie will result when it is baked.

MRS. FATHEREE SPEAKS

Mrs. V. E. Fatheree was speaker at an open house meeting sponsored by the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association members, Friday evening. She made an instructive talk on the book project in the school.

Good Magazines Requested by Junior High

READING LIST MOST DESIRED GIVEN TODAY

TEACHERS EMPHASIZE FORMATION OF GOOD READING HABIT

There are many Junior high school pupils who do not have the advantage of good reading material. It was said by instructors this morning in requesting that Pampans contribute back numbers of their magazines to the school.

Those wishing to assist in furnishing reading matter may leave the magazines at the school or may telephone the school and they will be called for.

Following are the magazines particularly desired:

Good Housekeeping, American, Boy's Life, American Boy, Delinquent, Child Life, Junior Home, National Geographic, Ladies Home Journal, Popular Mechanics, Science and Invention, Saturday Evening Post, Time, Literary Digest, Current History, Hollands, Etude, Woman's World, House Beautiful, daily papers, Girl's Life, St. Nicholas, Nature, Forest and Life, Bird Lore, Camera Craft, Every Girl's, Girl's Companion, Hygeia, Junior Mechanics and Model Airplane, Junior Christian World, Junior Red Cross News, Outdoor Life, Radio News, The Pathfinder, Popular Aviation and Aeronautics, Open Road for Boys, American Childhood, Home Geographic Monthly.

SEEKS TITLE

The first national amateur women's pocket billiard tournament to be staged by the National Billiard Association of America will take place in New York, Nov. 23 and 24. It will bring together Mrs. Gertrude B. McEvoy, New York champion, and Georgia Veatch, Chicago title holder. The match will be for 200 point, in four blocks of 50 points each. Veatch, a Chicago school teacher, is shown above.

GOOD READING IS EMPHASIZED BY PRINCIPAL

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL INSTRUCTORS AND PARENTS MEET

Principal R. A. Selby was principal speaker at a meeting of the Junior high school Parent-Teacher association Friday afternoon.

The meeting was opened with two songs, America the Beautiful and Battle Hymn of the Republic, led by Miss Helen Martin, with Mrs. Arthur M. Teed at the piano.

Mrs. E. Bass Clay presided during the business session and it was announced that Miss Juanita McAllister's room had the most mothers present.

Following the principal's address, the meeting was closed with a reading, Betty at the Ball game; by Miss Ruby Scalf.

Mr. Selby used as his subject means of guiding children in acquiring better reading habits. He said in part:

"Reading is fundamental and the true foundation of school courses as well as a most important avenue of pleasure and information. The home should provide a wholesome reading atmosphere before the child starts to school as well as during his school life. Since many homes are unable to provide a stimulating reading environment, the school must enrich the opportunities, furnishing good textbooks and basic books, a rich variety of interesting and accurate reference books, interesting novels based upon or closely related to facts of life, and a general collection of books, bulletins, newspapers, and magazines. Permanent interest in reading is the result of careful planning and guidance which continues throughout the school life of the child."

PRINCESS

Indian students at the University of Oklahoma know their beauties. They selected pretty Ned Thomas as princess for their annual all-night pow-wow preceding the university home-coming. She's a one-eighth Cherokee and her home is in Webber Falls, Okla.

NEW OFFICERS SELECTED FOR SINGING GROUP

MR. BAZE TO SUCCEED A. L. PATRICK AS PRESIDENT

M. L. H. Baze of Hopkins yesterday was elected president of the Gray County-Plateau singing convention when a well-attended meeting was held in the Hopkins community house. He will succeed A. L. Patrick of Pampa.

C. E. Ward was named vice-president and Mr. Goodwin of Hopkins was the choice for secretary.

The singing of sacred songs was led by R. B. Fisher, M. L. H. Baze, C. E. Ward, E. D. Zimmerman, L. C. Vinkler, and A. L. Patrick. A quartet composed of Mr. Zimmerman and his son, Howard, Mr. Ward, and Mr. Patrick, sang several numbers, and an impromptu quartet composed of Mr. Goodwin, Mr. Walters, Mr. Fisher, and Howard Zimmerman, sang Jesus Savior Pilot Me, dedicating the number to Judge and Mrs. W. R. Ewing, who were in attendance.

Frank Babcock of Groom is a Pampa visitor today.

BUSINESS CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN BOSSES TONIGHT

About sixty persons, including a large number of Pampa "bosses," will attend a banquet given by the Business and Professional Women's club this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Schneider hotel.

Mrs. Jack Dunn will be toastmistress, and the following program will be given:

Welcome address, Miss Clara Lee Sheemaker; response, L. L. Sone; reading, Miss Kathryn Vincent; dances, Joyce Smith; Thanksgiving address, Judge W. R. Ewing.

Mrs. M. P. Downs will introduce the club members, each of whom will introduce her guest.

Council of County Clubs Will Meet

The Gray County council of home demonstration clubs will meet to discuss the yearbook at 2 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster. At that time the yearbook program committee, which met Saturday, will make a report.

John Pafford o. Amarillo spent the week-end with his mother here.

Many Pampans Go To Bible School Sunday Morning

Sunday school attendance increased at practically all local churches yesterday, the weather being ideal. Each of the following figures represents an increase over the preceding Sunday: First Baptist, 904; Central Baptist, 179; Presbyterian, 147; Christian, 352; Church of Christ, 154.

The Presbyterian increase was 38, and the First Baptist, 22. There were 146 in the First Baptist training service and 79 in the Central Baptist training service, these figures also being larger than last week.

Treble Clef Club Has Gathering to Rehearse Cantata

"In Bethlehem," the cantata to be presented Dec. 16, was rehearsed by the Treble Clef club at a meeting Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Mrs. W. A. Bratton led the rehearsal and Mrs. J. F. Curtis was at the piano.

The following women attended: Mesdames Philip Wolfe, Raymond W. Harrah, W. A. Bratton, J. F. Curtis, Joe Foster, H. C. Price, Carl Sturgeon, Frank Smith, Harry Lyman, A. N. Dilley, Jr., A. C. Dodd, Sam Irwin, J. J. Long, L. O. Wirsching, A. W. Mann, M. W. Jones, Misses Loma Groom, Dorothy Dodd, Josephine Thomas, and Helen Martin.

COMING EVENTS

MONDAY.
O. E. S. party will be held at 8 o'clock in the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell.

Friendship class, First Methodist church, will give a Thanksgiving party at 7:30 o'clock at the church, with members of the Brotherhood class as special guests.

Twentieth Century Culture club will meet at 9 o'clock in the home of Mrs. T. F. Morton.

RECENT BRIDE COMPLIMENTED FRIDAY EVENING

Mrs. Roy Kretzmeier and Mrs. Carl Baer joined in giving a miscellaneous shower Friday evening for Mrs. Wesley Lewis, who, until her recent marriage, was Miss La Vera Wilson. The event was held in Mrs. Kretzmeier's home.

Many lovely gifts were given, and bridge and other games were enjoyed.

At the close of the evening, sandwiches, cocoa, and cake were served. Those attending were Mesdames Lewis, Mary Hudgel, Frieda Baer, Lillian Yoder, Della Kite, and Marye Fisher; Misses Isabelle Baer, Bonnie Patton, Dorothy Meers, Grace Kite, Wilma Twentier, and Edna Zmotony. Later in the evening the group was joined by Roy Kretzmeier, Carl Baer, Waldo Fisher, Wesley Lewis, Nola Kite, Frank Hudgel, Allen Hudgel, David Hudgel, and Edward Schroeder.

Bo-Knot Members Meet for Initial Session at School

The first general meeting of the Bo-Knot club was held Thursday morning in the central cafeteria. This is a club for girls of Junior high school age sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club.

The following program was given: Reading, Ruby Scalf; vocal solo, Wanda Edger; "Why I'm glad to be in the Bo-Knot club again," Edythe Shearer, Elisabeth Wood, Betty Jane Blythe, and Elaine Chout; piano solo, Janice Purviance.

"Why I'd like to be a Bo-Knot member if I were a girl," R. A. Selby. Mr. Selby emphasized the fact that to be a well-liked girl it was necessary to be an "all-around" girl.

After the program a business session was held and the following officers were elected: President, Janice Purviance; vice-president, Elisabeth Mullinax; secretary, Hazel Bath; reporter, Rose La Neil Williams.

Another meeting will be held Thursday, Dec. 1, with the Business and Professional Women's club in charge.

Meat Canning to Be Demonstrated During This Week

Meat canning demonstrations presented by Ralph Thomas and Miss Ruby Adams will continue during this week.

This afternoon a beef canning demonstration and covered dish luncheon were to be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thornhill of Noelette, with members of the Kingsmill home demonstration club in attendance.

On Wednesday a pork demonstration is to be held in the M. C. Doss home of the Ball community, and on Friday a beef and pork demonstration will be held in McLean.

HOOKS and SLIDES

by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

It's a Hard Life, Girls!
Sports writers have been given rather the worst of it recently by two former football stars—Barry Wood of Harvard and Gaius Shaver of the University of Southern California—who have taken pen in hand to point to injustices wreaked upon college players by the reporters.

Both players paint the sports writer as a person, between the devil and the deep blue sea.

On the Spot.
Wood, in his book, "What Price Football," pictures the sports reporter catering to the public taste, a taste developed largely by the dear old school's enterprising athletic association. He writes of the player's reaction to sports page feature stories as either disgust or swell-headedness.

And Shaver, in a story called "Football Ballyhoo," in a recent issue of Collier's blames the sports writer for both criticizing and praising players. Shaver depicts our football warrior as "just a kid trying to get along with as few mistakes as possible," and urges that "if he loses, don't take it to seriously."

On the other hand, Shaver deplores adulation which easily may become an unhappy handicap to the player "when he is graduated and has to buck the more important game."

Take Your Choice!
And Wood says that "since football, by its very nature, can be regarded by the players only as a team game, the ballyhoo article featuring one star becomes to them a mere joke. Seldom does a player take such an article seriously."

The life of a sports writer really is an awful life to live, girls! It's just a fate worse than death, that's what it is.

If sports writers demand a guy's head—as Shaver asserts the newspapers demanded Reigel's head for running the wrong way in the California-Georgia Tech game in 1929—they are cruel to "just a kid who is trying to get along with as few mistakes as possible." If they praise a guy for excellent playing, they are making a fat-headed snob out of a lad!

They Just Don't Like Us.
Not only that, but it seems we are inaccurate, folks, so you mustn't believe all you read in the papers. Wood writes that "most college players resent the numerous inaccurate statements made by sports writers, which because of the credulity of thousands of newspaper readers, become actual facts to the general public."

And that, it seems to me, is the most unkindest cut of all. Not only are sports writers catering to an over-emphasized public taste, and making saps out of players by either adulation or criticism, but they are poor workmen as well.

Don't become a sports writer, Oscar, it's a sinful life!

We Win That One!
Shaver, decries the sinister results of praise as exemplified during the 1930 season of the Trojans. It seems the newspapers of southern California hailed the Trojans as a wonder team "long before we had demonstrated that we were even a good team."

"We accepted the prophecy of the sports writers that we would have a ridiculously easy time of it beating Washington State," writes Shaver. "We lost, 7 to 6."

Shaver points out that the players learned enough from that defeat to go on and beat Stanford, 41 to 12, and California, 70 to 0. "Again, alas," Gaius continues, "we began taking the newspapers seriously and to believe that we were unbeatable—the 'wonder team.' Would we beat Notre Dame? Of course we would."

"We went" into the game feeling a little sorry for the lads from South Bend. . . Notre Dame ruined us, 27 to 0—the worst defeat a Jones-coached Southern California team ever got."

Oh, Gus! We're awfully sorry!

Mrs. Roosevelt To Make Talk On 'Forgotten Women'

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—The wife of the man who made a speech about "The Forgotten Man" is going to make a speech herself a week from tonight—about some "Forgotten Women."

They were all working then, in factories and laundries and printing shops. Some of them haven't jobs any more. It is about these and thousands of other women in their plight that "plain, ordinary Mrs. Roosevelt" is going to make a speech next Monday night.

It isn't going to be a political speech. It is going to be an appeal for money—money to carry on the work of the Women's Trade Union league of New York, of which of the women she will be talking about are members.

For nearly a decade Mrs. Roosevelt has been a member of the finance committee of the league. She and Mrs. Thomas W. Lamont raised the money to pay off the mortgage on the league's clubhouse (at 247 Lexington avenue). Mrs. Lamont herself, paying the last $7,000.

Kiwanis Cafeteria Fund Is Increased

The Kiwanis club cafeteria fund was increased Friday night when the Kiwanis No. 1 and No. 2 bowling teams entered in the City Bowling league rolled a three series game, the losers paying double and the winners the regular price with Joe Landry, owner and manager of the Pampa Bowling alleys, donating the alleys for the occasion.

A ladies' team will bowl a team of Harvesters for the cafeteria fund early next month.

Atlanta wrestling fans enjoyed a free show when an old state law requiring the promoter to pay $300 tax per show in addition to city and federal taxes was unenforced.

its rules as needs arise. . . . So does the democratic party. There is a sort of parallel in the efforts of the party and of a denomination to enforce discipline. The denomination needs discipline to maintain its dignity, keep its collections coming, and maintain the good reputation of its schools. Were dissenters to be sheltered at random, internal dissension would be serious. So does the democratic party seek to protect its nominees and foster their candidates. . . . but suppose the party needs reforming—the people themselves are its members and the real choosers of its nominees. Likewise the churches through the rank and file must effect the reforms—not a few rabid dissenters. Perhaps those who are ousted do some good, perform a task which needs doing. And maybe the bolters also do a service. But neither bolters nor reformers are welcomed in the inner councils of any organization seeking to maintain its discipline, its reputation, its influence. And as we have so often reiterated, in a democracy the people exert the real power and should shoulder a large share of responsibility for what is by some factions deplored.

A PATH TO PARADISE

by Coningsby DAWSON

SYNOPSIS: Bearing the news that his beautiful wife Clive returns to the luxurious apartment his wife Santa insists on paying for and a meal of delicacies served on a table decorated with orchids. The anomaly enrages him yet when Santa says she will move the moment he is in a position to provide a more suitable apartment, Clive realizes he is helpless.

Chapter 22

A BOX FROM DICKY

SHE'D out-generated him. He would gain nothing by reminding Santa that the money he'd spent in keeping up with her would have gone a long way toward purchasing such a home.

"What part?" Clive asked.

"To clear out of here and act as if we were broke would be bad business. If you're to get on your feet, you must have a prosperous background."

"There's something in that," he acknowledged. "But a prosperous background, especially when it's bluff, doesn't cut as much ice as you fancy. We simply must cut down."

She shook her head obstinately.

"Not so that people will notice. I can't face up to it. Besides, it isn't necessary. I have plenty for both of us. I'm not thinking of my self."

Clive began to conceal his troubles.

Suddenly flinging herself at him, she burst into weeping.

"Don't let's squabble," she sobbed. "You mean so much to me. I'm so proud of you."

Recognizing that the cause of her tears was still obscure, "Tell me," he coaxed.

"After my first failure, I couldn't bear that anyone should think less of you."

He felt tender and helpless.

"But they will think less of me, if I live on the fat of the land and let you pay the big end."

She patted upright on his knee. A bright solution had struck her.

"We won't tell them—not even Daddy and Mummy. No one shall know but our two selves."

"But I'll know, Santa."

"Stop treating me as a stranger," she dug her face into his shoulder. "I'm yours, everything that I am—my love, my body. What does patri money matter?"

"A whole lot, when you haven't any."

She turned. Her lips pressed his. Lately her arms enfolded him.

"Such a little boy! Feel safe?" Her acromancy triumphed.

Santa's secret fear, having suffered one divorce, was that she might be incapable of retaining any man's affections. To her Clive's misfortune was a heaven-sent chance to bind him to her by lavish kindness. She planned to hide him in the fortress of her tenderness.

Day after day when he returned from a fruitless search, she would make light of his frustration.

"You have me, darling."

"That's true. But I feel as though I'd cheated."

"Don't say that, Clive. It's not true."

"I know it isn't. But a fellow can't help being anxious."

Little by little he began to conceal his troubles. He was unwilling to diminish himself in her eyes. Instead of recounting the many doors that had been closed against him, he spoke vaguely of offers he was considering. He found her belief that she compensated him for every failure mildly irritating.

It was when he was absent from

Meet THE NEW PRESIDENT!

ALBANY (AP)—To President-Elect Franklin D. Roosevelt his physical condition was a situation to be met and nothing more.

He seldom refers now to a handicap in his walking, the result of an infantile paralysis attack he suffered some ten years ago. When he does, he speaks in a detached way. Only once during the campaign did he directly refer to it. That was at Seattle when he stopped to talk with crippled children at a hospital.

Sitting in his automobile and looking down on the invalids on cots and in wheel chairs clustered around him he said: "I too have known what it is not to be able to walk."

While campaigning, Mr. Roosevelt was greeted at Worcester, Mass., by 8-year-old Kathryn T. Murphy. He already knew Kathryn, because she had suffered from infantile paralysis and Mr. Roosevelt had written her a letter of commendation when she later offered her blood to other patients.

"Hello, Kathryn, how are you?" came the greeting from Mr. Roosevelt. "Keep up your courage. You are going to get well."

The President-elect then told Kathryn that he and the mayor of Worcester would arrange to send her to a hospital Mr. Roosevelt had founded in Warm Springs, Ga. So Kathryn is looking eagerly forward to restored health.

President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt has shown a fighting spirit in overcoming a physical handicap that resulted from infantile paralysis, and he has inspired others so afflicted. He is shown with Kathryn T. Murphy, Worcester, Mass., girl who greeted him on his campaign and whom he told of plans to send her to a hospital at Warm Springs, Ga.

Hunters Return With 32 Ducks

Dr. Stephen E. Smith and his office nurse, Miss Mozell Gary, drove to Mobette yesterday morning, where they were joined by Miss Gary's brother, Jesse Gary, and Treton Cowan on a duck hunting expedition east of Mobette.

Only three members of the party participated in the hunt but they were successful in shooting 30 mallards and two teal in a short time. Ducks were plentiful and 19 were killed at one time. The ducks were the fattest seen here this season.

No rain in this section has caused the ducks to pass over and go where they can find water.

Jaysces To Make Christmas Plans

Street lighting for Christmas and the proposed second annual Santa day project will be discussed when new directors of the Junior chamber of commerce meet at the city hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The old directors will meet with the new so that the discussion they include the advice of the veteran directors. Officers for the coming fiscal year will be elected by the new board.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (AP)—Downward in grain prices early today accompanied fresh setbacks in British exchange and some renewal of talk about further liquidation of Chicago December wheat contracts. It was emphasized that in about a year the British pound sterling equivalent in United States money had dropped from $4.86 to $3.29.

Open unchanged to 1/4 lower, Chicago wheat future underwent a general sag afterward. Corn started unchanged to 1/4 off and subsequently held near the initial limits.

Wheat closed unsettled, 3/4 under Saturday's finish, corn unchanged to 1/4 off, and provisions down to a shade advance.

Pampa Huntsmen Get Three Bucks

Dr. W. Purviance, Dr. A. Cole, and O. L. Boyington were each successful in getting their buck while on a hunting trip in Cuberson county south of Carlisbad. Dr. A. R. Sawyer, Bonnie Rose, and John T. Glover had chances but missed.

The two local physicians got 8-point bucks each, while Mr. Boyington's was a 4-point. They were killed at about 250 yards. Mr. Boyington got his quota two hours after going into camp.

The party returned to Pampa late Saturday night stiff and sore from riding horseback, a sport in which they had not indulged in several years. John and Dr. Sawyer caught a buck on horseback but it outran them, according to other members of the party.

Lytton Report Findings Denied By Jap Envoy

GENEVA, Nov. 21 (AP)—Denying Japan's course in Manchuria at the heart of the league of nations council, Yusuke Matsumoto today repudiated the findings of the Lytton commission and pleaded for the patience of the western world until his country can prove its policy of peace in the Far East.

His address was similar in all respects to the official "observations" published yesterday as Japan's answer to the Lytton commission's report, but he finished with a conciliatory appeal which is not to be found in previous Japanese utterances upon the conflict with China.

He cited the American punitive expedition of 1916 in Mexico as a fair precedent for Japan's attack on "legitimate self-defense" upon Mukden in September, 1931.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21 (AP)—Cotton had an easier opening today. Liverpool cables came in somewhat lower than due owing to uncertainty over the war debt situation. First trades here showed no change to three points down, and the market continued easy after the start on the rather large ginnings reported for the last period, amounting to 1,287,211 bales, which was considerably larger than expected.

The market ruled steady nearly all morning with prices keeping with the earlier range, except for March, which eased off to $6.17 in the early part of the morning, showing a loss of nine points from Saturday's close.

Later the market rallied moderately on short covering, regaining three points of the morning losses, with December at $6.04 and March at $6.20. At these levels, prices were six points under the previous close.

The market appeared to be under the influence of the ginnings report and the European economic situation.

Doctors Give Creosote For Dangerous Coughs

For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on. Creosolium with creosote and other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops all coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creosolium is powerful in the treatment of all colds and coughs no matter how long standing, yet it is a completely harmless and pleasant easy to take. Your own druggist guaranteed Creosolium by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosolium as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on.
