EASE BURDEN OF PRESIDENT

Presidential campaign come and go, each one seeming a little more weighty and important than the last; meanwhile, the presidency itself remains the most man-killing job America has yet devised, and there is little sign that the nation has reached the point where it is willing to remedy matters.

The sheer responsibility of the job is, in itself, enough of a burden for any man to bear. The president is the leader of the world's most powerful and influential nation. Under the constitution, he shares responsibility with Congress; in actual fact he is expected to lead Congress, to shape policies or Congress to approve as the guiding genius of mighty forces under his control.

But that is only part of his job. Rodney Dutcher pointed out in a recent dispatch from Washington that we have given our president a mass of detail work such as no corporation would dream of giving its chief executive. The president has to sign a whole host of petty papers—50,000 commissions for postmasters in one year, for instance, requisitions for new pencils, wills executed by Indian wards, and so on.

He has to shake hands with every citizen who cares to tramp into the White House. He has to direct the innumerable commissions created by Congress. He has to do a host of "goodwill" stunts like those which the ornamental Prince of Wales handles in England.

Last but not least, he can never forget that he is head of a political party; and he has to devote a good part of the final year of his first term to a campaign for reelection.

It would be fairly simple to lighten these burdens. The great bulk of official papers could be signed by someone else—by the vice president, for instance, who is never over-burdened with duties. The good-will stunts could also be performed by the vice president. The daily stream of handshakes at the White House could be stopped by public opinion.

And, lastly, we could adopt the suggestion, frequently offered, that the president be elected to one six or seven-year term and be limited to that one term.

As things stand the presidency is too great a strain. It is high time that we made it a little lighter.

In his later campaign speeches Hoover was termed the "fighting Quaker." Now, let's see—weren't those old Quakers supposed to take it on the chin and then turn the other cheek?

Along about this time of the year we cold suffers commence to wish some brilliant scientist would discover the influenza germ—and keep it!

Late hours, an English scientist contends, are not good for one. But they're just the thing for two.

The big question of the day now is—what does a straw-vote expert do between elections?

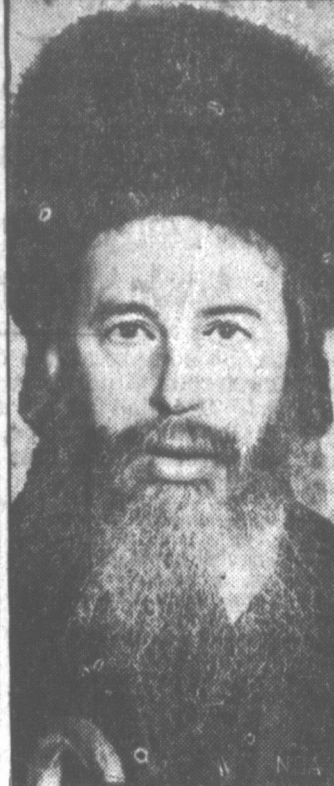

Conditions must be returning to normal, after all. Four persons were killed and an unknown number wounded in the Cuban election day battles.

When the Lindberghs named their new baby "Jon", they fooled some of our very best newspaper proofreaders.

A Kansan was sent to prison for two years for stealing a hound pup. Suppose he had stolen a full-grown dog!

You hear so much talk about the depression that it seems strange that parrot fever is not more common.

COMES TO U. S.

This unusual picture of Grand Rabbi C. J. L. Auerbach, founder of the Shaar Hashomaim in Palestine, was taken when he arrived in Los Angeles to hold Yom Kippur services. In addition to his religious work, he is noted as a lecturer.

Methodist Pastors Meet at Amarillo

AMARILLO, Nov. 10. (AP)—Ministers and delegates were present today for the opening of the annual Northwest Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Bishop Hiram A. Boaz of Houston met yesterday with his cabinet of presiding elders, the Board of Christian Education, trustees of Mc-Murray college, Abilene, and other groups. Pastoral assignments for the new church year were selected yesterday but will not be made public until Sunday night, at the concluding conference session.

Bridge Meeting To Be Held Here Next Wednesday

The organization formed to foster the road project north across the Canadian river will take further steps here next Wednesday at 11 a. m.

Judge Ivy E. Duncan was elected chairman several weeks ago and the board formed at that time will convene here, discuss the problems, then attend the Rotary luncheon. With political questions out of the way, it is hoped that a favorable attitude will be taken by the state highway commission.

Roosevelt Vote Swelling Hourly

By The Associated Press. Their victory swelling with every additional return on Tuesday's tremendous vote, America's new democratic leaders today faced four months of arduous preparation for the responsibility of piloting the government.

A free hand in directing the country was given President-Elect Roosevelt by election of a house three to non-democratic, and a senate controlled by his party, 59 to 36. This smashing victory only emphasized the significance of his never-before attained electoral vote of 472 to 59 for President Hoover.

The popular vote kept mounting toward record figures with 20,193,777 recorded for the winner out of 34,396,020 counted in approximately three-fourths of the country's voting districts.

STOCKS PUSH UP

NEW YORK, Nov. 10. (AP)—The stock market pushed up today more swiftly than it declined in yesterday's quiet, post-election session. Advances in leading issues ranged from 1 to more than 4 points, and the market closed strongly, at the highest levels of the day. It turned over approximately 1,500,000 shares.

WRESTLING LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press. NEW YORK—Rudy Dusek, 213, Omaha, and Gino Garibaldi, 214, Italy, drew 63.00 (bout stopped by eleven o'clock rule); Abe Coleman, 205, Los Angeles, threw Dick Davis-court, 220, San Diego, 28:04.

TORONTO—Gus Sonnenberg, 201, Boston, defeated Jack Washburn, 239, California, two out of three falls (Washburn first, 22:45; Sonnenberg second, 11:30; third, 6:20).

CAMDEN, N. J.—Sander Szabo, Hungary, threw Bruno Gorasini, Italy, 26:37.

HARRISBURG, Pa.—Ral Steele, California, threw Bert Asertiti, Italy, 21:10.

SOUTH PAW WINS

THE ROBERT PETERSON FAIRFA GAIN, Ill., Nov. 10. (AP)—Carl Sailer, a left-handed shucker from Illinois, today broke the world's record in the National Corn Husking championship and apparently became a new champion.

Sailer husked 36,914 bushels in 80 minutes to break the former record of 33,585 set by Homer Williams, also of Illinois, in 1922.

Humble Charged In Three Suits

HENDERSON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Three suits charging over-production of oil were filed against the Humble Oil company and Ed Brockman, trustee, in district court here today by Willis Gresham, assistant attorney general of the state.

The Humble Oil company was charged with overproducing 150 barrels on Nov. 4 from the Dave Ladd No. 1 well in the H. Hobson survey and with overproducing 1,200 barrels from October 10 to November 1 from one of its wells in the George Berry survey.

Brockman was charged with over-production, on October 31, of 75 barrels from a well on a ten-acre tract also in Rusk county.

SAID SCALES

DALLAS, Nov. 10.—Herbert Scales, Dallas clubman, was charged with auto theft today after police-men discovered him pushing an automobile with his own car. Scales told officers he had offered to help a man who had said he could not get his automobile started. That man jumped from the first automobile as the police appeared and had not been apprehended today. The car Scales was pushing belonged to a Dallas man who had parked it in front of the home of a friend.

BACK TO WORK

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 10. (AP)—Hurriedly glancing through piles of telegrams congratulating him on his election to the presidency, Governor Roosevelt took up today the tasks of the chief executive of New York and with his budget officer went to work on the immediate problems of state financing. Mr. Roosevelt motored yesterday from New York where he received returns from the national referendum that designated him the occupant of the White House after next March 4. He drove into Albany last night.

VISITING HERE Miss Ruthelle Bacon, Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Fair, Dallas, were guests today of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rothchild.

RAYMONDVILLE, Nov. 10. (AP)—Glenn Lawrence, the Raymondville high school football team end who was injured two weeks ago in a scrimmage which resulted fatally for his brother, "Blondy" Lawrence, a fullback, shot and killed himself today. "Blondy" died Monday at Harlingen and during funeral services here Tuesday all schools and business houses were closed. His classmates attended in a body.

IL DUCE REMEMBERS

By The Associated Press. TURIN, Italy.—Premier Mussolini has a long memory.

While he was visiting here a priest stepped up to him, and to the astonishment of Il Duce's entourage, said to the premier: "I am cold. Give me a blanket."

A smile broke slowly over Mussolini's face. He grasped the churchman's hand and, to the added perplexity of his attendants, answered: "I was indeed very cold." The priest's words had taken him back 15 years to the time when Corp. Benito Mus. (Lui), badly wounded, found a friend in this same Don Bernardo Chiara. It was Mussolini then who said: "I am cold. Give me a blanket."

"I am very glad to see you again," said the Duce this time to Don Bernardo. "You did bring me the blanket and I did very much need it."

C. A. Roland of Kansas City was a business visitor here yesterday.

"NO BERR" BORAH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Sen. J. C. Borah (R. Idaho), told newspapermen today that in his judgment there would be no change made in the present prohibition situation at the coming short session of congress.

KENTUCKY, TOO

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 10. (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt piled up a plurality of 123,125 votes over President Hoover today on the basis of returns from 2,505 of Kentucky's 4,183 precincts. The totals were: Roosevelt 359,729; Hoover 236,584.

ARMISTICE DAY

Carry On!

Tomorrow we pay homage to those men who fought and bled upon a glorious battlefield. They were men of indomitable will and unswerving purpose and we can well cherish their memory. But let us not forget the idealism for which these men fought—they fought not to win a war but to win everlasting peace.

We must not break faith with them! In remembering and commemorating their stirring deeds let us dedicate ourselves to their ideals and pray that our youth and the youth of other nations shall never again meet upon a battlefield!

Yes, peace hath its victories no less renowned than war. We've learned to be folks again. We've gained a truer value of that type of democracy so bravely striven for by those to whom we do homage today. To their bravery and forbearance we acknowledge our courage and inspiration to "carry-on"—in peace as in war to meet adverse conditions with fortitude and FIGHTING SPIRIT.

We Will Be Closed From 11 A. M. To 4 P. M. Friday

Results Show Control of Colds Plan Is Success

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 10.—More money to spend—and more time in which to enjoy it. That is the unusual promise of a brand new plan of economy. Another unique feature is that folks who follow it don't have to deny their needs. On the contrary, all they give up or cut down on is something they neither want nor need—common colds.

That, in effect, is the promise of the new Vicks' plan for better control-of-colds—developed by the makers of Vicks VapoRub and widely tested in clinics and home use last season. Results of these clinical tests have just been announced.

Over 3,500 people—in schools, colleges and homes—participated in the tests. For comparative results, these people were divided into two equal groups. One group followed the plan—the other group did not.

Those following the plan had less than half as many colds. The colds they did develop lasted only about half as long as the national average duration of colds—as found a few years ago by the U. S. Public Health Service. The savings to this group—in money and loss of time from work—were more than half. The amount of such savings possible is indicated in the fact that these two items of the costs of colds—money and time—amount to over a billion dollars a year for the country as a whole.

Vicks' cold-control plan was introduced last year, along with the nose and throat drops. This new aid in preventing colds—Vicks' formula—developed by Vicks' chemists after years of research—is considered the ideal companion to Vicks VapoRub, the modern, external method of treating colds. Together with a few simple rules of health, these preparations form Vicks' plan for control of colds. The plan is especially designed to provide proper medication, at the proper time, for every type and stage of a cold.

Wife of Stalin Dies in Moscow

MOSCOW, Nov. 10. (AP)—The body of Nadya Allilueva, wife of Joseph Stalin, lay in state today in the lofty hall of the central executive committee building on Red Square opposite the tomb of Lenin and only a block away from the Kremlin where she had lived inconspicuously for thirteen years.

Flowers banked the red coffin and five uniformed comrades who were her classmates at the all-union industrial academy stood as a guard of honor while a military band played intermittently.

Even in her death the public appeared not to know that she was the wife of the powerful figure in all Russia. Only a few people, most of them those who had known her well, filed past the bier.

The newspapers gave her death a quarter of a page, but for all most of Moscow knew she was only another staunch bolshevik who had died.

The funeral will be held tomorrow in Novodevichi monastery, one of the oldest institutions of its kind in Russia, where are buried the first wife of Peter the Great, the wife and daughter of Boris Godunov, and Chekhov, the novelist.

T. L. Allison of Roxana was in Pampa last night.
