GERMANS RENEW PERSECUTION OF JEWS; OFFICE AND HOUSE OF VON PAPAN ARE SEARCHED

Twinkles

Rodeo fans who scowled in yesterday's heat tell us that their resolution is "never again." So they told us last year, and the year before.

There's a rift in our household. Skippy, the family pup, shows his dislike of our singing ability by barking. But perhaps such franchise is better than faint praise.

Today's constructive criticism is that Amarillo's new chamber of commerce executive could do no better, in his road building program than to work for re-routing highways 33 and 90 around rather than through that city.

Perhaps we could get along without the brain trust if we didn't have to trust so much in the critics of the brain trust.

Our politics is so lame here in Texas that we have no conception of the meaning of the German "political situation. We set up and elect many straw men, but few opponents.

Brevitorials

Musings of the moment: Absentee voting will begin July 8. The county clerk will tell you how. But the vote is really arranged by the county democratic chairman. This chairman, Siler Faulkner, is also charged by law to gather the election returns now, and to give them to the public. This eased the burden for the newspapers and will tend to speed up the returns from the smaller counties. Texas voters are perplexed about most of the races. Heretofore they've done most of their voting "again" but this year it is necessary to be "for" a slate of candidates.

PRESIDENT Roosevelt continues to be a shrewd politician because he has a keen insight and is a stickler for the truth. Republicans are trying to make the fall campaign issue that of the new deal. By that they mean to say big promises and government as everyone whom the new deal has not satisfied. But who, remembering the boom days of 1928-29, is likely to be wholly satisfied? Mr. Roosevelt has the penetrating logic to make an issue of this: Are you in a better position than you were a year ago? Is your job more secure? Is your outlook better than it was then? That is the issue.

COL. Robert R. McCormick of Chicago's Tribune sends a copy of a lengthy speech. Excerpt: It is a truism that all government is based upon force to compel obedience. The force is great and manifold. In the cities, we see the police; in the counties, there are sheriffs; in the state has its national guard; in the federal government, there are the coast guard, treasury officials, department of justice agents, marshals, the regular army, and the navy. In addition to these, every citizen is a member of the militia and may be called upon to serve in arms to enforce the law. Numerous and powerful as these bodies are, we know they are neither numerous nor powerful enough to maintain peace within our borders, as is demonstrated by the present countrywide reign of criminality. . . . While not strong enough to maintain domestic peace, government from the beginning has been perverted to create tyranny. The history of government has largely been the history of revolt, and generally unsuccessful revolt.

Loan Limits For County Are Hiked

By reason of Gray county's position in the secondary drought relief area, farmers of the county will be able to borrow $400 for summer following, feeding livestock, or purchasing winter seed wheat, instead of $250 as formerly. The counties affected by the new ruling are Armstrong, Concho, Garza, Gray, Hemphill, Karnes, Kerr, Swisher, and Wilson. Loan applications are to be made to I. B. Hughey, agent for the Houston federal farm bank. COMMITTS SUICIDE HOUSTON, July 5 (AP)—W. Hamilton Love, 32, of Houston, died today of a bullet wound in the head received in his hotel room here last night. Justice Campbell R. Overstreet returned a verdict of suicide.

VICE CHANCELLOR TO BE STRIPPED OF POSITION

BY A. D. STAFFERUD.
(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)
BERLIN, July 5 (AP)—Franz von Papan, the burr under the saddle of the Nazi regime, will be stripped of the vice chancellery, the foreign department of the Nazi party indicated today, how he will be permitted to remain in the cabinet as Saar commissioner.

With the puzzling problem of vice chancellery's disposition somewhat clarified, reports indicate that the Nazis have reopened a vigorous anti-Jewish campaign in provincial circles claimed major attention. Along with these reports were rumors Cardinal Michael Faulhaber, archbishop of Munich, was a prisoner.

These reports shared with others less well substantiated of a growing unrest and dissatisfaction outside the capital, pointing to growing dissension and fear.

Vice Chancellor von Papan's office, next to that of Hitler, was stripped of its papers and furnishings from top to bottom, and all his belongings taken to his home, where his secretary said his office henceforth will be.

The Associated Press learned from Frau von Papan that her home, 400, was raided against last night. Rudolph Hess, minister without portfolio in the Nazi cabinet, rather than Hermann Wilhelm Goering, Prussian premier, is now being mentioned in some party circles as a possibility for vice chancellor.

Barrow-Parker Reward Is Given To Six Officers

AUSTIN, July 5 (AP)—Six officers who killed Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker, southwest desperadoes, today received equal shares of a $600 reward offered by L. G. Phares, chief of the Texas highway patrol.

Phares' reward was posted after two of his patrolmen were slain by the bandit pair near Grapevine Easter Sunday. Public contributions swelled the patrol's clamorous apprehension fund to more than $4,000, but $3,100 expenses were deducted. Phares said. The payment was exclusive of $500 offered by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and a small balance remaining of funds contributed by employees of the highway department, which will be paid by the highway commission. Officers sharing in the reward were former Texas Rangers Frank Hamer and B. M. Gault; Dallas Deputy Sheriffs Bob Alcorn and Harry Hinton, and Sheriff Henderson Jordan and Deputy Paul M. Oakley, of Bienville parish, Louisiana. They ambushed the outlaws May 23. Expenses of the two former Rangers, including money paid for information, were $1500, while $1800 was paid for patrolmen in partial reimbursement of expenses for which no legislation appropriation was available. Phares would not divulge the names of those who received pay for information. Hamer and Gault were designated by two contributors to share $200 additional.

Girl Tortured

Chinese torture methods were invoked by Ozark mountain feudists in their attempt to force Miss Effie Jackson, above, Marshall, Ark., stenographer, to reveal whereabouts of one of their foes. The girl said her head was plunged repeatedly into a bucket of water and matches were held to her feet. An appeal for state troops to halt the feud, in which four have died, was made by her employer to Governor Futrell.

THREE WELLS IN OIL FIELD AREA ARE BROUGHT IN

Keller Gusher Makes 45 Barrels an Hour

By GEORGE L. GUTHRIE
Consulting Geologist
Combs-Worley Bldg.

The hot spot celebrated the 4th yesterday by adding three new producers to the area. The Texas company's number 1, Keller in section 48, block 24 came in making 45 barrels an hour.

The Ohio Fuel company's number 1 Derrick in section 52, block 24 Wheeler county also came in yesterday. This is an east offset to Christie and Hickman's No. 2, Derrick which averaged better than 8000 barrels for the first three days. The Ohio well is not drilled in but it looks like a good well.

The Skelly Oil company's No. 2, Derrick in section 53, block 24 has been brought in and is cleaning out preparatory to testing. It looks like over a 300-barrel well. The Mid-Texas No. 2 Hussey in section 70, block 24 quit flowing before the end of its test and is going on the pump. West of town in Gray county the Skelly Oil company's number 14 Vickers in section 127, block 3 IACGN pumped 103 barrels in 7 hours on test. The total depth is 3292, it was shot with 290 quarts from 3198 to 3200. Skelly's No. 15 Vickers has been cleaning out since yesterday, it swabbed 220 barrels in 10 hours.

RELIEF BONDS AND OIL WILL BE SUBJECTS

SEPARATE OIL AND GAS COMMISSION ISSUE MAY COME UP

DALLAS, July 5 (AP)—James E. Ferguson, administration spokesman and former governor, said here today that the Texas legislature will be called into special session about September 10 to enact further oil control legislation and to issue additional relief bonds.

"There is a strong and growing demand for oil legislation that will relieve Texas of the disgraceful and shameful condition now existing in East Texas," the husband of the present governor, Miriam A. Ferguson, said.

Car Accidents Numerous Here—None Badly Hurt

Several car accidents were reported in and near Pampa yesterday but there were no fatalities and no serious injuries. Local hospitals had a quiet day, treating only a few minor hurts.

Mrs. F. E. Townsend received minor injuries when struck by a car at the corner of South Cuyler street and Grayton. She was able to go to her home after treatment. A car was almost demolished a mile south of Pampa but the occupants, whose names have not been learned, received only minor injuries.

MARLAND FAR AHEAD OF ANGLIN IN OKLAHOMA GOVERNOR'S RACE

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 5 (AP)—Congressman E. W. Marland pulled close to a 50,000 lead over Tom Anglin, Governor Murray's choice in the democratic gubernatorial race today on the face of returns from 3,026 of Oklahoma's 3,353 precincts. The unofficial returns gave Marland 136,863 and Anglin 87,615, or a plurality of 49,248 for the eighth district congressman.

pressing Anglin for the runoff position in early returns, seemed definitely out of the picture as Anglin's lead widened with returns from the rural precincts. With reports on hand from 2894 of the 3352 precincts in the state, Marland had 130,855 votes; Anglin 83,902; Walton 70,965; Attorney General J. Berry King 56,268; Gomer Smith, Oklahoma City lawyer, 37,254, and Lieut. Gov. Robert Burns 26,507.

Dog "Lives"

Scientists may scoff to their hearts' content, but Lazarus IV is alive and appears to know what it's all about, as he sits here with his master, Dr. Robert E. Cornish, who brought the animal back from the dead in a sensational California experiment, more than two months ago. The dog's brain is dead, savants declare.

WARNING ISSUED RELIEF CLIENTS IN GRAY COUNTY

Possibly Some Have Refused to Work On Farms

Mrs. Olive A. Davis, administrator of the Gray county relief board, has been notified by the Texas Relief commission there is some complaint from the citizens of Texas that the services of farm laborers, household help and, in some cases, other types of help are difficult to secure. The relief commission thinks it is quite possible that some relief clients have been offered and refused such employment, preferring to remain on the relief rolls.

The Texas Relief commission has asked the county administrator to give proper publicity to the fact that persons physically able to work who are offered employment at the prevailing wage scale in the locality where the work is to be performed and who refuse to accept it without good cause will not be furnished relief.

In order to assist the administration in determining whether a bona fide offer of employment has been made, persons who offer employment to others are requested, when the offer of employment is refused, to furnish the administrator with the name and address of the person offered employment, the nature and nature of employment offered. If the citizens of Gray county will cooperate with the administrator in this manner, any clients who prefer to remain on the relief rolls rather than secure other employment will soon be eliminated.

COUNTY TRYING TO REPOSSESS SCHOOL LANDS

INTEREST ON GAINES LAND NOT PAID IN MANY YEARS

Gray county will seek to repossess a parcel of its former school land in Gaines county if a recommendation of County Attorney Sherman White is adopted. This would be a test.

This step would be taken because no interest is being paid on some of the land sold many years ago. There are several oil companies willing to lease the land, paying as much as $1 bonus and annual rental of 25 cents an acre.

New Directories Of City Contain Oil Field Lists

The 1934 Pampa city directory, published by the Hudspeth Directory Company of El Paso, is being distributed. It is quite a comprehensive volume, recording information about 6,630 citizens of Pampa and vicinity, the names of wives not employed and of children under 18 not being listed. There is an increase of 66 pages over the 1933 edition.

A new feature of this directory is the oil and gas section in which are listed industries of this kind that have headquarters in the adjacent fields, and also many operators who have production nearby. Many of the companies furnished the names of their employees who reside in Pampa or vicinity, thus making it possible to connect a much larger percentage of the oil field workers with their employers. Practically the entire edition was sold by subscription, but a few extra copies were printed and, after all subscribers had been supplied, these will be on sale at the list price at the B. C. D. office and the Pampa Office Supply company.

Many Arrests in County Made in Holiday Period

Justices of the peace here had a busy morning as July 4 celebrators pleaded guilty to charges of intoxication, and in a few instances array. There also were several charged with vagrancy.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5 (AP)—Furious fighting between union pickets and police turned the San Francisco waterfront today in a "zero hour" test of strength upon the outcome of which hangs plans for calling out the national guard. Seven persons were reported shot, eight injured by tear gas and an undetermined number hurt by flying missiles in the first hour and a half of battling.

San Francisco, July 5 (AP)—Rioting broke out again on the waterfront here today when police charged a group of 200 strike pickets and hurled tear gas bombs at the men.

WALL STREET BEATEN

Wall Street fought tooth and nail against federal regulation of the stock markets. The fight was a long one and a bitter one, but Wall Street finally lost it. The stock market bill was passed and the truth-in-securities bill remained essentially unweakened.

So Wall Street tried a new tack. It would see that its "friends" were named to the commission which would enforce the new regulation. The teeth which congress so laboriously put into the measure would be painlessly extracted.

But once more Wall Street has taken a beating. With a Ferdinand Pecora running the commission, the country can rest assured that no teeth are going to be pulled.

BLIND SELFISHNESS

A more complete misunderstanding of the essentials of modern urban life has seldom been seen than that displayed by the New York woman who sued for an injunction to prevent use of a public school playground, adjacent to her home, except at such a time as school actually was in session.

In her bill this lady charged that prolonged use of the playground by children was "a nuisance and a menace to public health."

Someone who knows all about the facts of life ought to take this lady on a little trip some time. She should be shown how children have to play in the streets, when public playgrounds aren't available; and she should be shown the way in which the street breeds crime, degeneracy, and general all-around trouble for the community which forces children to play in it.

Then maybe, she'd see a light, and realize that a constantly used playground is a lifesaver and not a menace.

WATCH COULD TAKE IT

HALE CENTER, July 5 (AP)—Jess Masters has his watch back in his pocket after it was absent for two weeks on a long and hazardous journey. Masters dropped the watch into the bin of a wheat combine June 14. It was found in a carload of wheat at a terminal elevator in Amarillo. Meanwhile, the wheat had been emptied from the combine into a truck, dumped from the truck into an elevator pit, loaded into a car, and then unloaded at Amarillo. It suffered little damage.

Mrs. A. N. Diley and Miss Dorothy Diley returned Tuesday from a six weeks stay in Hot Springs, Ark.

AMERICA OBSERVES ITS 158TH BIRTHDAY IN SANEST MANNER

ONLY TWO DIE AS A RESULT OF FIREWORKS

CELEBRATION IS FATAL TO TOTAL OF 75 PERSONS

By The Associated Press. America celebrated its 158th birthday anniversary in the sanest manner in recent years, with the lowest number of deaths since 1923.

A total of 175 men, women and children gave up their lives on the anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, a drop of ten from last year and only about one-third of the number who perished in 1931.

The sharpest decrease was in the number who died as a result of the use of fireworks. Only two persons perished from the cause, as compared with seven in 1933. A 5-year-old Chinook, Mont., girl was one of the victims. The other was a negro, killed in Minneapolis when a rocket skipped over the ground and struck her in the chest as she stood amid a crowd of celebrators.

Thus the campaign for a "safe and sane" fourth, started in 1907 by James Keeley, then an editor of a Chicago newspaper, appeared to be gaining ground. Hundreds of persons, however, were treated for minor injuries from fireworks. Among them, 2,200 in New York City.

Keeley started his movement as he sat at the bedside of his sick daughter who was disturbed by the barrage of shots that resounded around her room. Thousands of others took up the work, as when America the idea of celebrating the day in less dangerous pastimes.

Drowning was the principal cause of yesterday's fatalities, with a total of 70. Automobiles claimed 69 and for the first time since 1931 were responsible for fewer deaths than the bodies of water to which the holiday crowds flocked for relief from the heat.

Other causes accounted for 34 deaths, including five burned to death in the wreckage of an airplane at St. Ansgar, Iowa; three prisoners crushed to death in the collapse of a grandstand at the Welfare Island penitentiary in New York; the death of a racing driver at York, Pa., and that of a parachute jumper at Streator, Illinois.

Sherman White and John Heesey went to Mexico on business today.

ALEXANDER'S ANGRY DENVER (AP)—Alexander, "head-man" of the city ostrich flock, stood wearily before the city park water trough and tried to see how long he could hold his head under. It was a scorching and painful head and Alexander's one good eye (when it was above water) glared malevolently toward the spectators' walk. All this because someone threw a firecracker into the pen and trusting Alexander picked it up.

SPITE MARRIAGE

By Katherine Hamilton Taylor

SYNOPSIS: The death of Marsha Moore's gay but faithless parents has left her to the "tender" up-braiding of her Aunt Gertrude, "duty" but not kindness. Marsha serves out a hard, bitter sentence for herself, and stresses her path with discarded admirers. Now she has met Bob Powers, an aviator from his job in Mexico, and discovers to her surprise that she does not want to hurt him.

Chapter Five GOFFREY TARLETON MARSHA accepted Bob's flowers, the books he sent (she liked his taste in books), his candles; and she thanked him prettily as she acted the role into which he had cast her, the role of a rarely lovely and kind young woman who could do nothing that was not fine.

At moments the old Marsha had risen from the new surface, she had said one day with him, "Are the Mexican women pretty?" thinking he might confess some entanglement; prove himself as were the rest; make her feel better. But he said only, "They might be if they ever bathed; I mean the peasants we see, working in the wilds."

Then he had gone on to tell her that sometimes for months they saw no women save a few old cronies who did their laundry by heating it to nothing on the stoves at some turbulent river's edge. Her question had not set upon his thin, browned face a trace of consciousness, and she had learned that he could not lie. She did not want to hurt him. She really liked him, and she had never before liked any man save Doctor James; and liking again made her long to hide. "Are you going to guard against making a tragedy for this young man?" Miss Gertrude questioned as she finished her coffee. Marsha did not reply and Miss Gertrude gave it up. "I suppose," she said coldly, "that there is no appealing to you, who think only of self and nothing of the havoc that you wreck. I have fought your serious consideration of Geoffrey Tarleton, but I have come to the decision that such alliance may be entirely suitable. He is equally depraved."

They were Bob's flowers.

"I thank you so much, dear," said Marsha, but without her usual spirit. She was entirely used to her aunt's estimate of her character, but somehow, this day it hurt as it had hurt her when she was still young and really trying to please. Her aunt said the check and they rose; she'd hit up something to do Marsha, something by way of diversion. This was one of the hours when she did not care think out when activity must be the anodyne.

THEY rode silently toward Miss Gertrude's chilly apartment which was so faultlessly furnished with pieces that had been handed down by early-Vermont Moores, of an apartment in which Marsha had never been able to welcome her friends, a place where suspicion throve, and where wrong conjectures were reached too easily, and where a few acid-faced women sewing for the box that was to go to Doctor James' favorite mission, made "a stimulating afternoon."

Jean let them in; the scotch maid who disapproved of everything, save the rigid heaven for which she hoped, and of everyone, save Miss Gertrude. There were flowers, letters, and a cablegram for Miss Marsha, Jean said. Marsha looked at the flowers.

"No Dictators" British Cabinet Warns Mosley

By JOHN EVANS PARIS, July (AP)—France has her own civil "shadow army" trained and drilled, to match the marching hosts of Nazi Germany. Marshal Petain, minister of war, says the French army "fears no one," and he praised the country for its "revival of the military spirit."

War talk, justified or not, has brought comparisons of strength, so Petain recently gave official figures of armed forces. But behind the armies are the big masses of men who could be thrown into a conflict in short order. French Forces Scattered France's army, on paper, is 600,000 men, with two-fifths in the colonies.

Germany, Petain said, has 500,000 men in the reichswehr and the police, "real shock troops, extraordinarily well trained." France's civil force is of two sorts, huge trained reserves in her annual conscript classes, and thoroughly drilled political and patriotic bodies.

She had always admired his honesty and she had always felt that she could get along better with him than with any one else whom she knew. But his message rather annoyed her and she knew it would not have annoyed her a month past. Of course one changed—

She opened Bob Powers' note.

"My dear Marsha," she read, "I have sent you these flowers because I have sent just the same selection to my mother. That should tell you something of how I feel. "I have thought of you every waking second since our drive and I've come to the conclusion that while most men would be more entertaining, none could be more happy with you than I am. "Perhaps that will mean something, I hope so, for it means everything to me. I've been trying to shorten the day by hurrying, it helped a lot to see you those few minutes this morning. You'll never know how beautiful you are and in all the ways that count most, dear. "Then "Yours, Bob."

Her eyes filled. She looked at his flowers to see them blurred. She wasn't beautiful in any way that counted, she was certain. She was beautiful only in ways that made a great deal of trouble for her and for others. Bob Powers had made her aware of the trouble she could make. She murmured a short, sharp "Damn!"; sank back to think. The man she needed was Geoffrey; who understood her; her needs. He never pretended she was even half decent; he said, only, "I'll wander, but I'll come back to you. Delish, we're suited; we belong."

In her way, she loved Geoffrey. She thought longingly of his return. He might not look her up right away; sometimes he did not and she knew him well enough to know that an appeal would make him turn away.

She would not make that appeal, she understood Geoffrey too well to say into his hands that way. Yet she was harassed and troubled, and was on Geoffrey's account. Bob Powers, if she appealed, would come running with a humble longing to serve. She wished she had never met him. ... Bob Powers was "absurdly good," she could use; and it was downright disconcerting to have anyone suppose that you were absurdly good too.

accustomed to arms, numbering about 430,000. These latter organizations are: "Right" Groups Patriotic Youth 80,000 French Solidarity 60,000 Action Francaise 25,000 Croix de Feu 25,000 Miscellaneous 10,000 "Left" Groups Communist "Front" 100,000 Socialists 50,000 In addition there are 90,000 members of sports and athletic societies belonging to the Union of Societies for Physical Education. These societies, all told, have 450,000 members, but only 80,000 of them are said to be trained in handling arms. Germany, says Marshal Petain, can add to her 500,000 army about 600,000 men in a week and "in an extremely short time" have a total of 2,800,000 men in the field.

Conscription Go In Reserve France gives no figures on her reserves. Each year an average of about 250,000 men, trained by their own year's military service, are sent back to civil life. They remain in the reserve until they are 49 so that theoretically there may be called to the colors 7,000,000 men who have been soldiers. Opinions differ as the number who would be found physically fit, but military experts agree in general that France could put in the field quite as many partly trained men as Germany in about the same time. Hitler's 2,800,000 men, they say, might be in better shape for marching, because of the steady drilling they get, but the Frenchmen would have the benefit of their year's military training. GIANTS TAKE DOUBLEHEADER FROM CHICAGO

DETROIT IS TRAILING YANKEES BY ONE GAME

BY ORLO ROBERTSON, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Fourth of July the day on which the experts say you can look at the top of the baseball standings and pick the pennant winners the New York Giants and the New York Yankees led the field. And out of the array of holiday doubleheaders, attended by crowds totaling more than 205,000 came the Giants with the only twin victory scored in the National league and a lead of three games over the Chicago Cubs. The Yankees, although unable to get better than an even break, held a slim one-game margin over the fast traveling Detroit Tigers.

The Giants, who a year ago dropped two games to the Braves and still held a five-game lead, beat Boston 9 to 1 and 15 to 0 before 42,000.

Two good pitching performances marked the splitting of the St. Louis Cardinals-Chicago Cubs double bill. Tex Carleton let the Cubs down with six hits to give the Cards the first game 7 to 2, but Chicago, behind big Jim Weaver's 9-hit pitching, took the nightcap by the same score.

With the Braves losing both games, the Pirates tightened their hold on fourth place by beating the Cincinnati Reds 5 to 1 in the first game only to lose the second 4 to 3 when Paul Derringer kept the Bucs 12 hits well scattered.

The Brooklyn Dodgers pounded out three runs in the ninth inning to defeat the Phillies 8 to 5 in the first but the Phillies slugged hard in the second to even the score, 1 to 2.

In the American league the Red Sox slammed the offerings of their former teammate, Danny MacPadden, for 12 hits and seven runs in the first five innings and then went on to win 8 to 5. The Yanks squared accounts by taking the second 10 to 4 behind the 4-hit pitching of Jimmy DeShong, who turned in his first victory of the year.

The Athletics trimmed the Senators twice for the only double victory in the American league. The first was won by a 10 to 9 score and the second 6 to 3 with the result the league champions dropped into fourth place and the Red Sox took over third position.

Over 19,000 persons saw the Tigers lost the first game to the Indians 8 to 6 and then come back to capture the second 5 to 2.

'Grandfather of All Barracudas' Caught by F. D. R.

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON, ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON

ROOSEVELT, July 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt cruised leisurely along the northern shore of ancient Haiti to a rendezvous today with President Steno Vincent of the island republic.

After a successful Fourth of July fishing on choppy Bahama waters, President Roosevelt was scheduled to receive President Vincent at noon aboard the cruiser Houston.

President Vincent, who went to Washington recently to visit Mr. Roosevelt, planned to board the cruiser off Cap Haitien, beneath the Green Island mountains.

From there President Roosevelt will proceed to Puerto Rico for the first landing of his vacation voyage tomorrow at Mayaguez. He will ride overland to San Juan.

The president had a good haul in his five hours of fishing on the Fourth with his sons, Franklin D. Jr. and John Roosevelt.

"The grandfather of all Barracudas," members of the party said, was pulled out by Mr. Roosevelt, as well as two groupers each of about 20 pounds. The Barracuda weighed 35 pounds.

The official report said young John caught two groupers, Franklin Jr. one and Captain Wilson Brown of the Houston Bon. Galveston, 29.

Newspaper men and secret service men trailing lucklessly in the vicinity saw the president in a blue jersey, white hat and old pants make his haul. Rudolph Forester, White House executive clerk, burned his finger on a line—but caught no fish.

Beaten Mexican Candidate Eludes Guards, Escapes

MONTERREY, Mexico, July 5 (AP)—While government secret service agents kept a close watch over a house here last night, General Antonio I. Villarreal, defeated candidate in Sunday's presidential election, cut a hole in the rear wall and escaped.

The government had charged supporters of Villarreal hatched a revolutionary plot and therefore ordered him kept under guard.

Two of Villarreal's principal supporters, Professors Aurelio Manrique and Antonio Dias Soto y Gam, escaped with him. They took a north-bound train at a nearby station for the United States, it was learned.

Secret service men found the three had flown when they entered the house at 11 p. m. The ministry of the interior at Mexico, D. F., said Manrique and Soto y Gam had recently crossed the border to Laredo, Texas, to confer with Pablo Gonzalez, former general.

Their expedition was made, it was charged, to buy arms for the revolutionary movement. Followers of Villarreal denied he was involved in any plot, although he had protested the election result, charging the victory was "a fraud and a farce." He is a former cabinet minister.

INDIAN RUNNER WINS STARS AND STRIPES HANDICAP RACE

One-Time Broken Down Horse Wins $10,750 Classic for Second Consecutive Year.

BY CHARLES DUNKLEY, Associated Press Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, July 5 (AP)—Two years ago D. A. Woods, a wholesale grocer from Benton, a town of 7,000 in the coal mining region of southern Illinois, purchased Indian Runner, a one-time broken down, crippled horse, for $3,000. Yesterday Indian Runner won the Stars and Stripes handicap and $10,750 at Arlington Park for the second consecutive year, bringing his total winnings to date to $45,000 and ranking him among the top three of the American handicap stars in performance.

The story behind the game 5-year-old son of Dis Done II-Indian Maiden, with a heart as big as a house, reads like a tale from the Arabian Nights. Indian Runner was bred by Hal

Prince Headley, Lexington, Ky., turfman who had his heart set on winning the Kentucky Derby of 1922. The colt failed to stand up under the rigors of training and went to pieces. It seemed that Indian Runner would be nothing more than an ordinary plater at best, so Headley dropped him into a cheap claiming race at Arlington Park that same year.

Owner Woods liked the looks of Indian Runner despite his previous condition, and bought him. He turned him out for a month, nursed him along, then brought him back to the races with the result that he broke the track record at Lincoln Fields in his first start. Since then he has had a monopoly in winning the handicap stakes in the west. In winning the stars and stripes yesterday, Indian Runner came from behind to defeat the lightly weighted Ladysman, the recent conqueror of Equipoise. Besides winning the stars and stripes twice in a row, Indian Runner also won the inaugural handicap at Arlington Park two years in succession.

DALLAS TAKES 3RD STRAIGHT AS CATS WIN

BEAU BELL DELIGHTS TWO SCOUTS FROM NEW YORK

BY FELIX R. MCKNIGHT, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Two major league "ivory hunters" seated in Buffalo stadium at Houston last night caught a very delightful glimpse of what they paid to see—Beau Bell, Galveston's slug-ging young outfielder, decidedly in action.

For the benefit of Scouts Bill Esick of the New York Yankees and Joe Becker of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Bell smacked two home runs and a brace of singles in the twin bill which Houston and Galveston divided. The Bucs took the first game, 6-3, but couldn't touch old Mike Cvegens in the 3-0 win the Burfs put over.

While the moguls of the Dallas club continued to beat the brush for new talent, Charlie Barnabe, a pitcher left in charge, had three straight wins for Dallas after they dropped 18 out of 20 games. A crowd of 5,000, the largest since opening day at Beaumont, saw the Exporters defeat the San Antonio Missions 0 to 10. The youngsters pulled spectacular fielding stunts and beat Caldwell in the second game with but one single, a double by Shelley.

The twin brother battery of Clarence and Claude Jonnard gave Fort Worth a 4-3 win over Oklahoma City in the first game but the tribe came back to win the nightcap, 6-5, before a good holiday crowd which celebrated their return from a long road trip.

Dizzy, persuaded the Cardinals to put a raise in salary into effect this spring, after giving satisfactory evidence of his major league ability. Meanwhile Dizzy signed an agree-

Pampa Golfers In New Mexico Golf Tournament

Grover Austin Jr., Pampa's caddy golfing sensation, went to the second round in the first annual New Mexico and West Texas tournament in Clovis, N. M. Bus Kaufman, owner of the Gray County golf course here, tied for the championship flight along with Austin, but was eliminated in a one-hole play-off.

Austin, Kaufman, Jones, and Posey all turned in 80's, but only two of the four could enter the championship flight. Austin and Jones turned in birdies on the extra hole to eliminate the other two golfers.

The Pampa caddy won the first round of play by defeating Emmitt "Red" Gober of Clovis, former Pampa. He went out of the tournament when he lost to Paul Jones of Clovis, 2 and 1.

Austin was Gober's pet caddy when he resided in Pampa a few years ago. Gober at that time was manager of the Pampa Grays, one of Pampa's greatest baseball teams. He is now living in Clovis.

Rev. O'Hara Is New President Of Notre Dame

SOUTH BEND, Ind., July 5 (AP)—The Rev. John P. O'Hara, C. S. C., today sat in the president's chair at the University of Notre Dame.

Father O'Hara, who entered the university 25 years ago as a student, succeeded the late Rev. Chas. L. O'Donnell who died a month ago after a long illness.

Elected by the provincial council of the congregation of the Holy Cross, Father O'Hara moved up from the post of vice president.

Sport Slants by ALAN J. GOULD

Max Adelbert Baer won't fight again this year, for the obvious reason that there is too much profit for Max and his board of directors to make without running the risk of a disastrous tap on the chin, but Barney Ross can wage two championship fights with considerable advantage to his pocketbook and prestige.

There is not only a brisk demand for Ross to give Jimmy McLarnin a return match for the world's welterweight or 147-pound title, but he can hardly dodge the logical challenge of Tony Canzoneri for another battle with the world's lightweight or 135-pound crown at stake.

These are the only authentic "naturals" now on the fistie horizon and if the new board of directors of Madison Square Garden does not make both matches it is missing the best possible bets in the fistie recovery program for 1934. Of course there might be some competitive bidding for either or both, although it is my understanding that the return Ross-McLarnin match is tentatively set for September, in New York, where the Irishman has his biggest following.

Ross has beaten Canzoneri in both Chicago and New York but on the basis of Tony's technical knock-out victory over Frankie Kluck there would be no difficulty steaming up a third match in either city. They are the best-matched pair of lightweights since the days when Benny Leonard and Lefty Lew Tendler were a rivalling fighting team in 1923 and 1923 before the biggest galleries in the history of the class.

ROADRUNNERS BEAT COLTEXO IN 10 INNINGS

LISTER'S TRIPLE TIES GAME WHEN HE SCORES 3

The Roadrunners continued their victory march yesterday by defeating the Coltexo gasoline team by a score of 12 to 9, but it took ten innings for them to do it.

Ike Lister, former Roadrunner, was the big gun on offense for Coltexo. His triple in the ninth inning with the bases full enabled Coltexo to tie the score and force the game into extra innings. Jake Leggett, another former Roadrunner, contributed two hits, one a home un in the tenth, for Coltexo.

Lefty Carroll started on the mound for the Roadrunners but after retiring the first two batters in the first inning, developed a wild streak and issued four walks which, with a single by Lister sandwiched in between the first two walks, accounted for two runs. He was relieved by Tate, with the bases full. He forced Leggett to pop out to Ward for the third.

Tate finished the game except for the pitching of one ball. Sawyer hit a wicked grounder in the tenth that caught Tate on the foot and forced him to take the loss. Carl Stewart finished the game by making one pitch, on which Cobb popped out to Sain on a foul.

Seltz literally stole a run for the Roadrunners in the first inning when he walked, stole second, and scored when Stewart threw wildly trying to catch him off second. The throw did not go far into the outfield, and when Jimmy Baldwin took his time about retrieving it, Seltz didn't even stop at third and scored standing up.

Stewart's infield hit, Baldwin's sacrifice and Sawyer's drive to left that Brickell muffed gave Coltexo another run in the second. The Roadrunners continued on the short end of a 3 to 1 score until the fifth when Lister's triple took up the hurling duties. Tate greeted him with a single to right. Thomas then proceeded to walk Seltz, Ater, and Brickell, forcing Tate across the plate. Ward filed out to center and Seltz scored after the catch, tying the count. The Roadrunners continued to score one or more runs every inning until the end of the game.

Tate pitched good ball and kept his opponents hits well scattered except after the catch, Lister's triple proved disastrous. However, five double plays by the Roadrunner infield helped him out of several tight situations. Ater, Ward, and Cox pulled three, while Tate, Ater and Cox and McLary, Ater and Cox accounted for the other two.

Ray Ater, who has been giving a neat exhibition of how to play short all season, pulled a play yesterday that bordered on the sensational. A long time ago an old-timer remarked to us "any shortstop can get the good one, but it takes a good shortstop to play the bad hops." Ray was all set for a grounder off Cobb's bat in the fifth inning, but as the ball took the last hop in front of him, it suddenly zoomed up and to Ray's right. He grabbed the ball with his bare hand and started a fast double play. The average shortstop would have let the ball get past him for a base hit.

The Roadrunners continued to lead the parade in the Borger tournament with no defeat. They defeated the Decatur team Tuesday night. The score was 20 to 9 and could have been more one-sided had it been necessary. The Decatur boys were badly outclassed. Pete Siegmund, with a 12 to 4 lead after the fifth inning, simply lobbed the ball up to the plate and let the boys have some fun trying to hit it.

TEXAS HOLIDAY ACCIDENTS ARE FATAL TO TEN

FOUR PERSONS KILLED ON BUS YESTERDAY AT LANCASTER
 By The Associated Press.
 Ten lives were lost in Texas holiday accidents, four dying in a traffic bus accident, five by drowning and another in an automobile wreck.
 Tentative identifications had been established for three of the four victims of the Greyhound bus tragedy near Lancaster. Investigators, working constantly since the big bus tore into the abutment of a bridge near Lancaster Tuesday night, announced the following tentative death list:
 Miss Maxine Ellis, 32, Rocky Ford, Colorado.
 Mrs. Bettie Barton, 62, en route from Kerrville to Durant, Okla.
 Miss Gertrude Peters, who bought a ticket at San Antonio for Chicago.
 An unidentified body, apparently of a young man who boarded the bus at Austin. The bodies were badly charred by flames that swept through the bus after it exploded as it crashed into the steel guard rails of the bridge. A coroner's inquest said the accident occurred when the left front tire blew out, causing the machine to veer into the bridge. Friction or a spark ignited the gasoline tank, causing the explosion, the inquest said.
 The young man who boarded the bus at Austin bought a ticket to New York after the bus reached Waco, company officials said.
 Deep waters took the lives of five Emory Larkin Campbell, 15, drowned in the Trinity river near Kerens, and will be buried today.
 Woodrow Clark, 19, of Kennedy, lost his life at Magnolia Beach near Port Lavaca when a small skiff in which he rowed with two other youths capsized 300 feet off shore. He attempted to swim to land but submerged.
 Three persons drowned at Houston. Edwin Schultz, 11; Jesse Whitfield, 25, and DeWitt Juster, 31, the latter two negroes, drowned in Houston swimming pools.
 W. K. Finley of Aaanahuac, was instantly killed a few miles southwest of Beaumont when his car crashed into a bridge. He had been connected with the Chambers county sheriff's and county clerk's office for the past 26 years. He was a candidate for county and district clerk.

GARRISON TO GRAPPLE BEAR MONDAY NIGHT

CURLY LEWIS TO FACE CHARLIE HEARD IN SEMI-FINAL
 Pat Garrison, Pampa's wild Irishman of the mat game, will probably be in the same predicament as the Fla-Mor auditorium Monday night as the preacher was with the bear, because Pat is going to wrestle a real bear in the semi-final match.
 Marvin "Speedy" Brackman, one of the Pacific Coast's best middleweights, will bring Andy, his trained bear, to Pampa for the big card. He will also be on the program, meeting that wild Irishman, Danny McShain, in the main event. Curly Lewis, former Pampa boy, will appear in the preliminary with Charlie Heard of San Antonio.
 McShain has been on a road trip for several weeks and whether he has been made a gentleman or is still the rough, tough, likeable youngster will be demonstrated Monday. Brackman is new in these parts, at least new during the last two years, and his style of grappling is unknown.
 Brackman is a former Oregon lumber jack and it is a good bet that he has a few nice tricks for the wild McShain. The bear has also taught Brackman some tricks, so it looks bad for the Irish, McShain, and Garrison.
 Andy, the bear, weighs just 375 pounds and is not a bit clumsy. Garrison, 162 pounds, has felt the embrace of the bear before and knows a few of its tricks. Garrison and Andy met in Borger more than two years ago. The bear has lost only one match. That was to Dutch Mantell. He took one look at Mantell's "mug" and left the ring.
 Pampa's own Irishman reported yesterday that he was going to work out with Oscar Dotson and Bob Rodgers, they being the nearest to a bear he can find. His idea is to practice getting behind the opposition, but that won't work against the bear. The animal will just reach behind him and get a headlock.
 Lewis, a preliminary boy when he left here but a top notcher when he returned a couple of weeks ago, will start in where he left off and work to the top. The Pampa boy has been in Wyoming for nearly two years. Heard will be making his first appearance here in several months.
 Tickets are now on sale at Pampa Drug No. 1.

Merchants Hear Senator Small in Mineral Wells
 MINERAL WELLS, July 5.—Confident from the reports of his candidacy he has had from various sections of the state that he will be in the run-off, Senator Silnt Small brought his campaign for governor before a large crowd here Wednesday at the Retail Merchants association's annual Independence day celebration.
 Small, introduced by an old-time friend, W. O. Cross, Mineral Wells attorney, called on his West Texas supporters to swell his majorities above the totals he received four years ago in his race for governor.
 Small last week was welcomed by large holidaying crowds at Amarillo and Lubbock.
 "County chairmen of my campaign in a score of Panhandle counties told me I will carry my home section by a majority greater than I did four years ago when I got seven out of every ten votes cast up there. The South Plains folks turned out strong for me at Lubbock and I am assured of topheavy support up there," Small declared.
 In his speech here Wednesday, Small criticized those who would divert a part of the money going to the highway department to use in other governmental branches.
 "Do you know what the real result would be?" he asked. "It would mean that the $7,500,000 Federal aid for Texas in 1933 and 1936 would not be available because of the highway department being used by the president specifically to provide that all revenues accruing to the highway department must be used for building and maintaining highways. We must not lose such a sum of money for Texas to hind-sight."

Coltexo Plays Amarillo Club In Tournament
 The Pampa Roadrunners will not play in the Borger tournament today but should be scheduled for an afternoon game tomorrow. The Coltexo team, however, will meet the fast Amale Oilers of Amarillo at 8:30 o'clock tonight. The Oilers have two victories over Coltexo in pre-tournament games.
 Pampa's entry in the tournament is the only undefeated team. The Phillips "66" Oilers follow with one loss. Fort Worth and Wichita Falls, late entries, have each won and lost a game.
 In games played yesterday, the Phillips "66" Oilers defeated Wichita Falls 15 to 11 in a late rally. The Phillips Oilers of Amarillo downed Phillips "77" by a 10 to 6 count in the other afternoon fixture. Fort Worth won the night game from Decatur, 20 to 8.
 Mrs. H. Darby is recovering nicely after undergoing an operation Monday at the Pampa hospital.

VON PAPEN IS SCHEDULED TO QUIT POLITICS

HINDENBURG FAVORITE WILL GO ON SICK LEAVE

BERLIN, July 5.—Reports indicating the Nazis have reopened a vigorous anti-Jewish campaign reached Berlin from provincial centers today, along with rumors that Cardinal Michael Faulhaber, archbishop of Munich, is held a prisoner...

Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda, and Adolf Wagner, Bavarian Nazi leader who took the first steps to quell the revolt, had already arrived and were awaiting Chancellor Hitler.

Leaders were expected to seek some means of coping with the crisis created by the widespread revolt in storm troop ranks—a revolt which has apparently reached greater proportions than the government allowed to be generally known.

A conference last night between Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen, broken representative of the "old Germany," and Chancellor Hitler, ambitious standard bearer of the third Reich, was expected to have far-reaching results.

Von Papen, through the intervention of President von Hindenburg, is to remain in the cabinet but will go on sick leave.

What he and Hitler, the latter fresh from an interview with von Hindenburg, talked about was not divulged. But it was generally believed von Papen's possible permanent leave of absence from office shared importance with the troubled internal situation and the death of Hubert von Bose, von Papen's secretary.

The domestic crisis is not the only problem. Foreign governments have expressed concern over "the foreign power" with which the government charged the "traitors" conspired.

The government insisted that death list was "less than 50," although unofficial sources said several hundred had been killed since last Saturday.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, July 5.—Notwithstanding a scarcity of special stimulating news, stock market sentiment showed considerable improvement today and leading issues rallied fractions to 2 or more points...

Table with columns for various stocks and their prices. Includes items like Am Can, Am Rad, Am T&T, etc.

BUTTER CHICAGO, July 5.—Butter, weak; creamery-specials (93 score) 23 1/4; extras (92) 23 1/4; extra firsts (90-91) 22 1/4; firsts (88-89) 21 1/4; seconds (86-87) 20-20 1/2; standards (90 centralized car lots) 23 1/2.

WOOL MARKET SAN ANGELO, July 5.—With only one major and a number of smaller sales recorded in recent days the wool market in Texas continues to coast along with owners of most large accumulations holding for the higher prices they feel are due soon.

The exception was the Schreiner Wool & Mohair company, of Pampa, which sold its 1,200,000-pound accumulation of 8 months, or short, wool at an average of 19 1/2 cents a pound.

Belief of many that the wool market will go higher is based upon the fact that the wool advisory committee of the farm credit administration is holding government mortgaged 12 months wools at prices of 80 to 85 cents a pound, clean basis.

Mrs. Mathis And Mr. Bonds Wed in Church Ceremony

Mrs. Milton Thomas Bonds, son of Mrs. Mary Bond of McKamey, and Mrs. Irene Mathis daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott of Seattle, Washington, were married at the First Methodist church Saturday with the Rev. E. Gaston Foote officiating.

The couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gilcrest.

Mrs. Bonds has been a resident of Pampa for the past seven years. The couple will make their home in Pampa.

Jack Atkins, principal of Panhandle high school, and his brother, Sam Atkins of Denton, visited in Pampa last night.

CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, July 5.—Persistent buying on the part of commission houses proved more than sufficient in the wheat market today to absorb selling that was associated with pressure of newly harvested grain.

GRAIN TABLE Table with columns for High, Low, Close. Includes Wheat, Corn, Soybeans, etc.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 5.—Rep. Tom McKeown, veteran fourth district congressman, forged from second place today into lead-off position on the face of returns from 414 out of 438 precincts from Tuesday's primary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Studer were Canadian visitors over the holiday.

By R. W. BARRY, Associated Press Staff Writer. AUSTIN, July 5.—Edward R. Russell of Ansonia, in a Fourth of July speech at Caddo Lake, struck a new note in the gubernatorial campaign.

Alfred Hils McDonald, Attorney General James V. Allred aimed a shaft at C. C. McDonauld, the incumbent governor's choice for chief executive, when he told a Mount Calm audience...

Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt, speaking to a Mineral Wells picnic audience, said if he were elected governor the poll tax influence to get the poll tax eliminated.

United States Senator Tom Connally presented his record at Liberty and other points, in bidding for reelection. His opponent, Congressman-at-Large Joseph Walden Bailey, addressed a picnic crowd at Austin and made appearances in West, Bryan and Itasca.

Former Governor James E. Ferguson made his first appearance in the campaign last night, speaking at Itasca in the interest of C. C. McDonauld of Wichita Falls, candidate for governor.

Senator Connally wound up his day of campaigning at Port Arthur where he reviewed the accomplishments of the "new deal" and renewed his pledge to support President Roosevelt and his recovery program policies in a night speech.

Witt at Picnic. Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt, speaking to a Mineral Wells picnic audience, said if he were elected governor the poll tax influence to get the poll tax eliminated.

"Charging a citizen for the right to vote never was justified," he said. "There may be some argument for other qualifications of voters, but none for making him pay for the right of franchise."

Also speaking at Mineral Wells, Clint C. Small took occasion to direct severe criticisms of those who would divert to other channels money now being administered by the state highway department.

Judge Ritchey in Talk on Freedom To Rotary Group

Man has developed through his desire for freedom it was brought out in a talk before the Rotary club today by E. F. Ritchey of Miami. The great discoveries, colonizations and inventions were made during a time when people were seeking freedom.

He told of the discovery of America, the settling of people in the new country and the invention and development of transportation and communication as having taken place when man was seeking religious or economic freedom.

Music was furnished by Miss Era Smith and Mrs. Forrest Mockmington in vocal and piano solos. Earl O'Keefe arranged the program.

A meeting of the board of directors was called for 7:30 Monday evening at the office of Jack Cunningham, new president.

Suspension of Two Wrestlers Asked

FORT WORTH, July 5 (AP)—Suspension of two wrestlers and one promoter has been asked by Bob Warren, inspector for the state boxing and wrestling commission, as a result of a disturbance at the Fort Worth Athletic association's show last night.

Warren charged he was attacked, beaten and taken to jail because of his attempts to bring the show within the regulation of the law governing wrestling contests.

Curly Stringer and Jack Hendrick are the wrestlers Warren has recommended for 60-day suspensions. Al May, co-promoter of the association, is the third party.

Stringer, a special officer as well as a wrestler, arrested Warren after the free-for-all fight that broke up the show and had him jailed for a few minutes until a captain of the police department ordered the inspector released.

Attorneys off to Convention of Texas Bar Body

FORT WORTH, July 5 (AP)—Lawyers from every section of Texas and visiting attorneys from several other states were pouring into Fort Worth today as the annual three-day convention of the Texas Bar association began.

President John C. Townes of Houston estimated 1,500 members would attend.

The visiting bar members were welcomed by J. H. Barwise of Fort Worth, and H. C. Pipkin of Amarillo responded. Rev. W. R. White of Fort Worth gave the invocation. The annual message of the association president and a series of discussions by Fred W. Moore of Houston, Claude Pollard of Austin and W. O. Huggins of Houston were highlights on the morning program.

Advisability of a change in the method of selecting judges, crime prevention and the raising of the standards of legal education were principal topics for discussion.

A challenge to the lawyers of the state to exercise leadership "in this troublous time," was issued by Townes in the president's address.

Townes traced the changes in society and government which command the attention of the bar, and stressed the fact that lawyers themselves can lend a useful hand to the solution of present emergencies. Problems of the legal profession itself were reviewed.

"I've often said that men would take a cussing or a cold or a rail off your fence, but would not take good advice. They (the voters) refused my advice."

The apparently magical appeal of the name Will Rogers to Oklahoma voters sent its owner, former Moore schoolmaster and present congressman, far into the lead in the race for congressman-at-large. With him in the runoff apparently will be Henry S. Johnston, like Walton a deposed governor. Not far behind Johnston was E. B. Howard.

Returns from 2,127 precincts out of 3,352 gave Rogers 54,072; Johnston 36,423, and Howard 32,449.

Voting sentiment apparently had crystallized the candidacies of the following aspirants for congress in the eight regular districts.

First district: Wesley Disney, incumbent, clear majority.

Second: Jack Nichols first, with Phil K. Odham likely to be in the runoff, rather than Haden Linebaugh, as had first seemed probable.

Josh Lee Elected.

Third: William Cartwright, incumbent, leading the field; C. C. Williams second.

Fourth: Judge P. L. Gassaway, and Rep. Tom McDeown.

Fifth: Josh Lee, University of Oklahoma professor, apparent nomination by clear majority, with Rep. F. B. Swank third, John Tomberlin second.

Sixth: Rep. Jed Johnson leading.

Seventh: Jim McClintoc and Sam Massingale.

Eighth: J. M. Gentry and Phil Ferguson.

Voters seemed to pay little if any attention to Governor Murray's "slate" of candidates for minor state offices. Some were "in," some out, with the personal popularity of each candidate seemingly of much greater importance than the edict from the capital.

POLITICS at random

By BYRON PRICE (Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

In spite of "new eras," "new days," and "new deals" in politics, the good old game of buncoing the voters goes on forever.

Once more "my fellow citizens" are being invited to step up and watch the little great pease, or take a hand of marked cards. Some of the equipment may be new, but the tricks are the same.

To realize this it only is necessary to examine carefully the June outpouring of political statements which followed the adjournment of congress.

There were exceptions, of course, but in the main these utterances followed the accepted forms of years gone by.

They Don't Believe It

Adjectives are spent like water to inform the public that one party is the heaven-chosen repository of all virtue, and that the other is dishonest, unpatriotic, ignorant, and thoroughly base and depraved.

Of course the politicians do not really believe this at all. One the contrary they fraternize with one another privately, help each other here and there, and sit down together with one fear whatever that their watches will be stolen or their morals contaminated.

Why do they go on thinking that anyone else believes it?

A favorite old refrain heard today from both political camps goes like this:

"Everything the opposition does is done for purely selfish political reasons. Everything we do springs from a wholly charitable desire to serve our country."

The "ins" protest that when they make public speeches they are not talking politics. The "outs" reply they are talking nothing but politics. And vice versa.

The transparency and futility of all this in plain. No one in his right mind thinks that sworn public officials or responsible citizens who criticize them are either so criminal, en masse, as to think only of themselves, or so perfect as to be wholly innocent of political reflections.

Why Hit Politics?

The unexplained mystery is why politicians who have spent a lifetime wooing public favor should go about deriding politics as though it were smallpox, and shouting indignantly that political thoughts never enter their innocent minds.

Political action is the accepted form of popular expression in the United States. The political party, rather than the bayonet or the bomb, is the legal instrument thru which changes in government are wrought. Then why do so many public men speak of politics as if it were something unclean and un-American?

In no other branch of human endeavor do the participants, and the beneficiaries, take so much pains to discredit their own kind and inferentially themselves.

Many observers think it highly questionable whether the old political tricks are anything like as effective as they used to be.

The trend toward independent voting would seem to indicate that fewer Americans are being swayed by prejudice and bombast; that more Americans are voting after sober reflection, based on a realization that no man and no party is wholly good or wholly bad.

The voter is, in the end, the doctor. The old tricks will disappear only when he laughs them off the stage.

BRITISH WILL GET INTEREST

Germany To Make Payment For 6 Months on Dawes And Young Bonds.

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—The United States will demand that Germany give Americans an even break with Britons in the payment of debts.

This became known today as the official reaction to news that the reich has agreed to pay interest for at least six months on Dawes and Young loan bonds held by British subjects.

About $1,500,000,000 of German obligations are held in this country. Authoritative sources said a new note asking equality may be dispatched to the reich. If not note is sent, diplomatic conversations to that end are expected to be pressed.

Britain's threat to seize German commercial funds in England was considered potent. But the United States enjoys a "favorable" balance of trade with Germany. That is, Germans buy more from Americans than Americans buy from Germans.

Any idea that the United States could follow the British way of retaliation therefore died aborning because this country stood a chance of coming off second best in any trade war with Germany.

BERLIN, July 5 (AP)—A high reichsbank official said today in discussing the Anglo-German debt agreement that "the same way is open to other countries through diplomatic channels."

Conclusion of the transfer agreement in London was regarded on the whole here as a signal success for German negotiators. Official quarters pointed out neither wanted a trade war and both were anxious that free mercantile interchange should suffer as little hindrance as possible.

PARIS, July 5 (AP)—German payments to French holders of Dawes and Young bonds on terms similar to those accorded the British are expected by French officials. Authorities intimated that the Anglo-German agreement is considered a model for an accord which the French are negotiating with Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hollenbeck, H. C. Cottrell, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Baxter made a business trip to Fort Worth early this week.

DRASTIC PRICE REDUCTIONS

UP TO $50 BRING

to the record low price of

$465

AND UP, F. O. B. FLINT, MICHIGAN

When Chevrolet announced price reductions several weeks ago, something important happened . . . something of vital concern to every buyer of a low-priced car: Chevrolet stepped into the most favorable price position it has enjoyed in a long time!

Reductions amounting to as much as $50—the most substantial price cuts announced in the low-price field this year—dropped Chevrolet's base price to a new low figure of $465. Just compare this price—compare any Chevrolet price—with those of other cars. Then compare what you get for what you pay! There'll be no question in your mind which car to buy, once you do.

Chevrolet offers patented Knee-Action—and others do not! Chevrolet alone has a Fisher body! And the same thing applies to cable-controlled brakes, Y-K frame, shock-proof steering, and 80-horsepower, valve-in-head, six-cylinder engine. Chevrolet gives you far more features—far finer quality—a far better name for dependability. Yet the price of the Chevrolet Standard is lower than that of any other six or, of course, any eight in the world.
