INSULT ABOUTS SHE WAS POLITICAL VICTIM

Twinkles

Oldtime folk used to talk a great deal about "dog days," when crows didn't act right and were a bit "frisky."

Similarly, gridiron daze is hind the folks of this section would be entirely sane until after Thanksgiving.

We heartily sympathize with the good citizens of Clovis, who have a red hot political campaign and a football game with Lubbock at the same time.

We congratulate the Borland school officials on their fairness in bringing the game to Pampa on November 9 so that the boys may play on a soft turf. Boys are boys, and gridiron fodder.

A survey shows that married men are happier than married women in Dallas. What brutes we men must be.

Musing of the moment: Next week is American Education week. Among others, drastic changes, though slow ones are taking place in education. There is too much knowledge in the world for the curriculum to contain it.

High schools, in particular, are being adjusted to the immediate needs of graduates. More on this later. . . . War in Europe has taken the status of a cowardly dog—all bark and no bite. As long as statesmen talk of war, there isn't apt to be any. Tense rumors are something else.

Brevitorials

DeLEA VICARS is the new president of the First National bank. The choice will meet general public approval. Mr. Vicars' rise in the banking business has been the reward of hard work, honesty, and attention to duty. No other except the late B. F. Finley knew more about the history and workings of the institution. Mr. Vicars is the logical man to carry on the duties of president. We wish him and his Combs-Worley associates and board every success.

SOME LITTLE bug will get you some day! That's an old story but as Bert Curry tells it (and did tell it to the Lions) the menace is more than funny; it is tragic. The life span is more or less determined by the little bugs and you Bugs will get everything some day. Just we are, and to dust we are returned by the bugs. Buildings crumble and decay—bugs and the elements, working together destroy the finest edifice. Bert's point (adv.) was that modern refrigeration and air conditioning will help control the bugs and give you a chance to live longer, or get killed in some other manner.

THE POLICE are warning on speeding. By speeding, we suppose they mean running a great deal faster than the city speed limits. Running above 25 miles an hour in the business section is too fast. Driving above 30 miles in the residential section is too fast. The speed limit is 20 miles an hour all over the city, but the police allow a bit of flexibility. It is possible to drive recklessly at 15 miles an hour and carefully at 30 miles, depending on the number of brain cells that are working. But there are many persons in this city who are driving up to 45 miles an hour—some folks say 60—and they are likely to get into trouble.

OUR OWN personal drive will continue against faulty lights, one light, and no lights on cars. Sometimes we wish everybody had two cars in every garage—one for day, one for night. I have seen a patrol car for night driving. Why can't they paint cars with luminous paint? Excessive speed at night is dangerous. Automobile lights are pretty, but the fact is that they are much behind the rest of the cars in efficiency. We have engines that will drive cars in the dark. Why can't we have lights that give out a beam of light for only 35 miles an hour with difficulty. . . . By this we mean that a car light is really efficient for only about 100 feet ahead, especially when you're dimming to meet approaching cars frequently. And if you don't stop your car within 100 feet, you're driving faster than 35 miles an hour. If your lights are efficient for more than 100 feet, they are shining in the other motorists' eyes and that's worse. . . . Night driving with faulty lights caused 850,000 persons to have or be involved in accidents last year. Of these, 12,230 were killed. The rate of death per accident is .35 per cent higher in hours of darkness.

Rosebud Chamber Disowns Lemens

AUSTIN, Nov. 2 (AP)—Representative Vernon Lemens, advocate of private financing for the Texas Centennial, falls from Rainbow, not Rosebud, Texas. W. E. Hodge is the representative of Falls county. The Rosebud chamber of commerce would like to get that seat. Dale Law of Miami spent the morning here on business.

EIGHTY-NINE MEN TO BEGIN WORK ON ROAD

CONSTRUCTION OF 88 WILL BEGIN HERE TOMORROW

Hard-surfacing of highway 88 from the Hobart street crossing south will be started by relief board labor tomorrow under the direction of Bruce Pratt, assistant resident engineer.

The force will consist of 89 men, working on a budgetary basis set out by the relief office with ten trucks.

The right-of-way for the entire project of 24 miles has been procured, but some fences are to be moved back and the road-bed "lightened" in a few instances. Several days of grading will be necessary before placing of caliche can begin.

The plan is to stop and top the road with a single bituminous coat every two miles. This will be done by the same crew. It is hoped that caliche can be placed on about 7 miles before the relief labor is discontinued.

The same plan is not being used on highway 33 through the city because that road requires the heavier rock asphalt. It is considered a city street.

Lubbock Editor Advances A New Centennial Plan

LUBBOCK, Nov. 2 (AP)—Asserting that business men in every section of Texas, in view of economic conditions and the state of the public treasury, are opposed to looting the taxpayer's pocket for a Centennial bulidiallo, Chas. A. Guy, Lubbock Evening Journal editor today offered a new plan for Centennial observance—a plan which he avers is not only much cheaper but which offers a more lasting return to the state as a whole.

In his editorial column, "The Plainsman," Guy urges that the state legislature abandon the proposal that it vote up to nine millions of tax dollars for "a carnival, a fan dancer and a hot dog concession at Dallas and offer instead, two prizes of $25,000 each for the best, most interesting and most authentic literary works on Texas history and on historical novels most accurately portraying the life—past and present—of our people."

The editor approves, heartily, the comment brings out, of all sorts of Centennial observance through spectacles, pageants and entertainments but declares that such should be paid for by their promoters with no profits, if any, to accrue to them. He points out that Nebraska's golden and diamond jubilee fairs are forgotten while Willa Cather's "Oh, Fencer!" will "forever and a day depict to passing generations the history of that state."

Oldtimers to Be Guest of NEWS And La Nora

Oldtimers of this section of the Panhandle will be admitted free to see the screen showing of "Wagon Wheels" at the La Nora theater tonight and tomorrow through the courtesy of the Pampa Daily News and the theater. All they have to do is call at the NEWS office and register. An oldtimer will be considered anyone who came to this section of the Panhandle prior to 1891. The show is considered one of the best of its kind ever filmed. One of two Pampans who saw the first showing in California are loud in their praise of the picture. The picture will show on Manager Tom Blair's 24th anniversary with the Griffith Amusement company.

I Heard . . .

"Fuzzy" Felner suggesting to Harvester coaches yesterday afternoon that he be put in J. R. Green's place after the big tackle had gotten his signals mixed on a play; and Carl Smith remarking that if a couple of more plays were invented, he would be carrying the ball. The Harvesters are in excellent spirits despite loss of three players through injuries. V. E. Fatheree remarking that he should be operating a hospital instead of a drug store. Four of his employees have undergone operations for appendicitis, three have had pneumonia, and another is threatened with appendicitis.

PURYEAR PEEVED OVER AD; OUR WIRE MAKES HIM MAD; WE'RE GAME, HE'S GLAD

Oct. 29.—At the request (and expense) of the Texas Press association, ardent champion of the Texas Centennial project, the Pampa Daily NEWS, along with a majority of the other Texas dailies, wired the representative and senator of its district. Our wire to John Puryear and Clint C. Small follows: "Pampa territory strongly favors sufficient appropriation for Centennial exposition. Urge that you vote for bills as requested. Centennial commission also for revenue bills to finance main and subsidiary celebrations that may be ordered by commission."

Oct. 30.—After reading the telegram printed above, Representative Puryear sent us the following letter and challenged us to print it—which we are "game" enough to do!

Now, if you are sane I would be glad to see this published in your paper. Of course, I do not expect you to do this but at the proper time I may insert it in a daily which covers the entire territory, just depending on how mean I feel. Yours very truly, JOHN PURYEAR, R.

Nov. 1.—By way of comment, we naturally regret that Mr. Puryear feels that we have "heaped insults" upon him "every since the run-off primary" or that we have been audacious enough to make "any suggestions whatever" to him, our representative, regarding affairs which are of vital interest and concern to this district. We are agreeably surprised however, that Mr. Puryear did commit himself in favor of the Centennial, since the people of this district voted for it.

As to the regular paid advertisement placed by the Panhandle Conservation association requesting the reader to "communicate immediately" with the state representative regarding the gas conservation question, we also regret Mr. Puryear felt slighted since the ad named Eugene Worley, of Shamrock as representative instead of himself—but see little we can do about it since Mr. Worley was duly nominated and elected to that position by the sovereign voters of this district. Perhaps we should further point out that the special session of the legislature, but must await the action of the regular session, and since Mr. Puryear will not attend that session as the 122nd district representative, it was the whim of fate, rather than an error on the part of the ad-writer, that caused Mr. Worley's name to be run as "Representative of the 122nd District."

In accordance with the maxim "Render unto Caesar what is Caesar's" we referred the Centennial question to Mr. Puryear, since before him while he is still this district's official representative. Time and the New Deal changeth all things. We used to think the government worked in behalf of the people; maybe "the people" work in behalf of the government now. Maybe WE'RE wrong. We wonder.

URGENT PLEA IS SOUNDED FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN'S CLOTHES

Pampans interested in welfare work an opportunity now to aid one of the most necessary projects for underprivileged children of the city. Supt. R. B. Fisher says in urging immediate assistance for the school thrift room.

Parents interested in welfare work an opportunity now to aid one of the most necessary projects for underprivileged children of the city. Supt. R. B. Fisher says in urging immediate assistance for the school thrift room.

This room, maintained by the Parent-Teacher council, last year since the closing of school children and enabled them to stay in school. This year it has rendered a similar service, but its supplies are dwindling rapidly and the project will be a failure unless help is given at once. School principals have told Mr. Fisher:

"Boys' clothing is especially needed, but any garments for school children of any age can be used. Shoes and hose are being purchased this year by the Dollar-a-Year Shoe club operated in connection with the thrift room, and supported by contributions solicited by Parent-Teacher welfare workers."

Parents are invited to visit the thrift room, located on the main floor of the city hall and open on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons, to see how it is operated and watch the many children who call on it for school dress.

"Anyone who has heard and talked of welfare work these last few years without making any effort in behalf of the needy, is invited to visit the thrift room, assist with the work there, and then gather up contributions from his home and these of his neighbors for these children to find the real thrill in giving," Mr. Fisher said.

Several merchants here have offered showup goods to the thrift room, and workers there are ready to receive and use these contributions, he added.

HITLER FLAYS FRANCE

BERLIN, Nov. 2 (AP)—Chancellor Hitler, his newspaper denouncing possible occupation of the Saar by France, was reported today that he had taken up the troublesome question at length with leaders of his own troops. Indignation persisted here at France's reported intention to occupy the Saar region if called on by the League of Nations governing commission to do so.

Will Dan of Shamrock was a business visitor here yesterday afternoon. P. M. Gordon of Miami spent the day with friend in Pampa.

Film Stars To Be Queried In Election Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2 (AP)—The Los Angeles county grand jury jumped into California's bitter election campaign today, starting to investigate charges that motion picture studio employes had been threatened with dismissal should they vote for Upton Sinclair, democratic nominee for governor.

Some of the filmdom's greatest stars were marked down by David Sokol, of the law enforcement sub-committee of the county democratic committee, for possible personal appearances before the grand jury.

Katharine Hepburn, Douglas Fairbanks, Clark Gable, and Will Rogers, Sokol said, would be asked to testify in support of his charges that motion picture employes are being intimidated to prevent them from supporting the former socialist.

Sinclair has branded motion picture producers as a " nefarious influence " in politics. He advocated federal supervision of the industry.

While Acting Governor Frank F. Merriam, republican, rested for a final invasion of San Francisco, Sinclair carried on his "end-point city in California" campaign in Los Angeles with an assertion he is a democrat and essentially always has been.

Dern Will Scrap 'Crawling' Tanks

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 2 (AP)—Following a review of the second division, largest single organization in the United States army at Fort Sam Houston today, Secretary of War Dern declared "we must build our army up to a first class army of 165,000 men, with tanks that run 40 miles an hour."

"You see those tanks crawling along about seven miles an hour," he asked. "Well, we've scrap all that. We must have faster equipment to keep abreast of the times."

In regard to European affairs, Secretary Dern declared that he personally believed there would not be a war there but whatever there is "we will stay out of it."

Quickly the senate agreed to request a conference committee to adjust differences with the house on a bill to form the lower Colorado river authority. The vote for a conference was 20 to 5.

Senator Clint Small of Amarillo, who yesterday asked for concurrence in house amendments, agreed to the move without prejudice to his demands for retention of the Dean

Thousand Mine Union Members Stage Battle

Miners Fight For 2 Hours With Stones and Clubs At Pennsylvania Colliery

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 2 (AP)—More than a thousand miners—members of rival union—fought a battle with stones and clubs at dawn today at the number 7 colliery of the Susquehanna Collieries company at Nanticoke.

Scores were cut and bruised, but none seriously hurt in the fight which raged for two hou.

The riot was precipitated by efforts of the newly-formed United anthracite miners of Pennsylvania to close the colliery in protest against the alleged dismissal of several of their members. United Mines Workers of America sought to keep the mine in operation.

The fighting extended from the colliery entrance over an area of several city blocks and from the sides, and tops of culm banks, some of them 50 feet high.

Automobiles were overturned, sticks and stones were hurled and hand to hand fights broke out in a dozen places. Nanticoke police were helpless to stop the battle.

By 8 a. m. Nanticoke was quiet. The crowd dispersed after scores of United anthracite miners were routed. Special guards will patrol the region today, company officials announced.

Japanese Cheer Bambino On His Tokyo Arrival

TOKYO, Nov. 2 (AP)—Diplomats and admirals are arguing over oil and navies, but the Japanese populace found a common ground of agreement today with Americans—baseball and Babe Ruth.

Police reserves were called to handle throngs along the Ginza, Tokyo's Broadway, when a touring team of American league stars, including Ruth, arrived.

As the motors drove slowly to a hotel all other traffic was halted. More than 100,000 persons jammed the street, leaving only a narrow path.

Ruth grinned delightedly as the fans cheered him finding himself a "king" in this country. He shook scores of outstretched hands.

Confetti and streamers thrown from buildings made the occasion resemble a New York welcome. The Stars and Stripes and Japan's rising sun were displayed everywhere.

The Americans, especially Ruth, will draw crowds that will remind him of the Yankee stadium in the great days of his prime.

The big leaguers, under the direction of William Harridge, president of the American League, and Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, are to play four games in Tokyo before a barnstorming tour of other large cities of the empire.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF LOS ANGELES INDICTED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2 (AP)—Indicted with his sister-in-law for perjury, District Attorney Byron Pitts asserted today that "disreputable and malicious forces" seeking his removal from office were back of the charges.

The grand jury countered with the statement its investigation of Pitts' official conduct had just begun.

Indictment of Pitts, once lieutenant governor of California, and Martha Gregory, came six years after Pitts as special prosecutor, obtained a bribery indictment of his predecessor, the late Asa Keyes. Keyes was convicted and imprisoned.

Pitts was accused of concealing a $4,000 bank loan from the 1931 grand jury just so it would appear he received no benefit from his sister's sale of a ranch to a private detective employed by John P. Mills, who was freed by the district attorney of morals charges in the "Hollywood Girl Mart" case.

Nazis Secretly Rearming, Says Famous Briton

WOODFORD BRIDGE, Eng., Nov. 2 (AP)—Winston Churchill says Germany is rearming "secretly, illegally, and rapidly." "A reign of terror exists in Germany in order to keep secret the feverish and terrible preparations they are making," said the former chancellor of the exchequer in an address to his constituents.

"Vice Premier Stanley Baldwin has said our frontiers are in the Rhine." We can be sure that the men now in control in Germany will not reply to that: "Our Targets are the Thames?"

Churchill warned his hearers Germany will have "overaken us before another year has passed" "organized military machines alone." He asserted the reich has "gigantic civil aviation with enormous reserves of pilots and airplanes, many of them faster than our fastest military machines."

City police made 91 arrests in October, according to the monthly report of the department.

Of these, 4 were for vagrancy, 29 intoxication, 3 affray, 4 disturbing the peace, 10 speeding, 5 overtime parking, 8 other traffic, 8 investigation, 2 simple assault, 3 gaming, 3 theft 10 miscellaneous misdemeanors.

Sixteen cases were dismissed. Fines assessed totaled $424.75 and collected $319.75. Prisoners worked 18 days and served an aggregate of 22 days in jail. Two were released to the county.

SAYS HE FLED TO GREECE TO ESCAPE COURT

ADMITS PAYCHECK FOR '30 AND '31 WAS $500,000

By ROBERT M. YODER Associated Press Staff Writer CHICAGO, Nov. 2 (AP)—Thirteen salaries, paid to Samuel Insull by his companies, gave him a pay check of roughly a half million dollars in 1930 and '31, Insull admitted today under cross examination in his mail fraud trial.

Raising his voice to shouting pitch, Insull today told a jury hearing government charges of mail fraud against him that he fled across Europe, in 1932, "to avoid being prosecuted as part of a political campaign, purely!"

With his own story of his European travels, and testimony about his civic activities in Chicago, Insull finished his direct testimony in the mail fraud case.

He was to be turned over to prosecutors for cross examination after a short recess. Insull said he left this country in June, 1932, "to rest and quiet." He learned while in Paris, in October, that he had been indicted, he said, and left Paris for Turin.

"I got some advice from some of my friends that I probably would find it more desirable to go to Greece. "What I was engaged in was trying to avoid coming back to Chicago and being prosecuted as part of a political campaign—purely!"

The 74 year old defendant almost shouted, waving his hand emphatically at the jury.

When he arrived in Greece, he had "somewhere between three and four thousand dollars," Insull told the jury.

Now, he said, he has "no income whatsoever." "Find out any property?" asked Defense Attorney Floyd E. Thompson.

"Not that I am aware of. I would very much like to find some."

"Have you paid me any fees?" Thompson asked.

"No, sir," said Insull. "I haven't paid you a cent. I understand some friends of mine, whose names I don't know, have provided the necessary funds for my defense."

Insull's story of his European trip started with his resignation in June, 1932, as a receiver for the Middle West utility company, after he was told some of his actions as chairman of that company "might come under review in the courts."

Insull told the jury trying him for mail fraud today that when he left the United States in June, 1932 he was "rest and quiet."

He gave this explanation for his two year European stay a few minutes after he had testified that in the crash of his public utility empire he turned over "everything I had" to the creditors of the system.

It included a large amount of insurance. I think a million dollars worth, on which there were claims of about half a million in loans, and the equity in which had been verbally promised long before to my life," he said.

Insull told prosecutors call "flight," and of his pursuit by American authorities across half of Europe.

Police Make 89 October Arrests

Coach Odus Mitchell highjacking it to Clovis early this morning to see if the Westerners will open up today. This corner predicts the New Mexicans will prick the Lubbock bubble pretty-pretty.

This in a Lubbock paper. "The Sandies look like the powerful team Lubbock had in 1931. . . . Harlow is the nearest thing to a Doc Merrill I have seen since then. . . . My punter punts consistently around 45 and 50 yards." Frederick Mumford, Bill Haner, Monroe Owens and Lloyd Hamilton are cutting fancy capers on them today.

PAMPA BOYS ANXIOUS TO SEE WHAT BOYS WILL DO TONIGHT WITHOUT 3 STARS

LOP-SIDED WIN NOT EXPECTED THIS EVENING

PLAINVIEW LIKELY TO PLAY GREAT DEFENSIVELY

Favored to win despite the absence of three regulars, the Pampa Harvesters will meet a fighting Plainview Bulldog football team tonight at 8 o'clock on the turf at Harvester field. Admission will be 50 cents general admission.

Plainview has been the underdog all season but has been coming to the front rapidly in the last few weeks. The boys have shown a determination to fight to the last whistle regardless of the odds. One of the best games of the season is anticipated. Pampa has won all her home games by large scores and those expecting another lopsided victory tonight are doomed to be disappointed, announce the rail birds.

Maybe Nash will start the game at fullback for the Harvesters, replacing Red Fanning, who is out with a badly injured elbow. The injury may keep the red-head out the rest of the season. What ends to start in place of Captain Monroe Owens and Fred Mumford, both out of the lineup with injured backs, is causing Coach Odus Mitchell and Argue Fox much worry.

Nix and Stephenson apparently had the job "in the bag" until Tuesday afternoon when Scott and Walker started in hot pursuit of a starting berth. The two continued to shine Wednesday and yesterday afternoon until now Stephenson and Nix are fighting to hold their new positions on the team.

The rest of the Harvesters team will be ready to start the game. The team offense should click fairly well despite the loss of the regulars. Coaches put the team through every play in the bag Wednesday and yesterday. There should be no excuse for mixed signals.

Plainview this year has another great center in Neal. He is said to be following in the footsteps of Farmer, who dealt the Harvesters much misery for two years with his line blocking. Tallferro, 193-pound carry ball and they carry it in all directions to make the Bulldog offense particularly dangerous. Little Dean is as likely to hit the center of the line as he is to skirt the ends. Miller and Chisolm, half-backs both carry the ball and pass. Fullback Seals also is a versatile player and dangerous when in the open.

Next week the scrapping Berger Bulldogs will come snarling into Pampa, the game having been changed from Berger to Pampa at considerable expense. Local officials were afraid that some of the Berger regulars might be injured on the hard Berger field. The game will be played here on the afternoon of November 9 instead of in Berger the afternoon of November 12.

The probable starting lineup:

|------------|----|-----------|
| Pampa | LE | Lowry |
| Noblett | LG | Dees |
| Smith | LC | Neal |
| Haner | RC | Vaughn |

Pampans Plan To Witness Sandie-Lubbock Battle

Following the changing of the Pampa-Berger football game to be played in Pampa November 9, many Pampa fans planned to see the Amarillo Sandies and the Lubbock Westerners clash at the Tech field in Lubbock, November 12.

The Santa Fe railroad company will furnish a coach or coaches to move out of here on regular train 49, and meet the special out of Amarillo, if as many as 25 fans desire to make the trip. The round-trip fare for that number of fans, or a greater number, would be $4.10.

The Santa Fe would hold the regular train here until 5:30 a. m. to accommodate fans. The return train from Amarillo will be on the regular train leaving Amarillo at 9:30 p. m. and arriving in Pampa at 10:50 p. m.

The special train will leave Amarillo about 9 o'clock and will leave Lubbock about an hour after the game.

Pampans interested in the special are urged to get in touch with C. H. Walker at the Pampa Office Supply company, or George W. Briggs, manager of the Board of City Development.

An effort is being made to secure a block of reserve seat tickets for Pampa fans.

SOLOON URGES NEW HOT OIL LEGISLATION

ICKES SAYS SITUATION IS 'INFINITELY BETTER'

AUSTIN, Nov. 2 (AP)—Emergency legislation to bolster a tottering oil industry was planned by Texas law makers today before echoes of official federal comment that the industry was "infinitely better" had died away.

To prevent what they termed "certain chaos," Texas legislators urged oil leaders to confer with them Saturday in formulation of laws that would halt the sale of illegally produced oil which had been "smuggled out" by payment of statutory penalties.

At Washington Secretary Harold I. Ickes, oil administrator, cheerily commented that "hot oil in East Texas has been dried up" and the oil industry is "infinitely better."

At Austin Representative R. J. Long urged legislative action to place heavier penalties on illegal production to "take the profit out of the business." He warned of impending chaos unless the lawmakers acted quickly.

Secretary Ickes lauded the work of the new federal oil tender board in East Texas, issuing permits for the movement of oil in interstate commerce which held the Texas railroad commission could not prohibit transportation of the illegal crude after the producer had accepted liability and paid fines for violation of conservation laws.

Ebert Hooper, first assistant attorney general, gave his ruling on a case from Gregg county in which the trial judge accepted a plea of guilty to production of oil produced in eight days, assessed a fine of $4,000 and ordered the railroad commission to issue a tender. The "penalties and remedies prescribed by the conservation laws are excessive and no others may be imposed by the railroad commission," Hooper ruled.

In adjudging the defendant guilty of over production and assessing the penalties prescribed by law, the court exhausted the penalties it was authorized to impose, Hooper said.

However, he declared "more severe penalties are necessary and advisable," Hooper commented "the legislature is now in session and they can be imposed."

Such violations could and should be brought to the attention of county and district attorneys for prosecution under felony sections of the conservation laws, he said. Hooper said the attorney general's department was "considering a request from the commission for an immediate appeal from the district court's order."

Rep. Long urged the passage of a bill which would assess a penalty of fifty cents a barrel on crude production in excess of the railroad commission's allowance. He said the penalty in the Gregg county case had been five cents a barrel.

E. N. Stanley, chief of the East Texas division of the commission, attacked the court decision with the remark that "just because a producer pays a fine, I can't see that blesses the product." He warned such practice might "open up the whole thing."

He announced that the flow of hot oil continued to run between 17,000 and 19,000 barrels daily. Of 18 refineries operating, he said only five were operating on legal crude. Forty-five refineries are shut down, Stanley reported.

MERRIAM LEADS SINCLAIR OVER 2-1 FOR CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR IN POLL BY LITERARY DIGEST

Republican Receives Majority In 26 Of 28 Cities

Frank F. Merriam leads Upton Sinclair about 2 1/2 to 1 and leads Raymond L. Haight more than 5 to 1 in the final returns of The Literary Digest's statewide California Poll on Governor, according to returns published in today's issue of the magazine.

Merriam, the Republican candidate to succeed himself, receives 53,000 votes, or 62.31 per cent of the grand total of 144,573 ballots tallied from the entire State.

Merriam is well ahead of all other candidates also in San Francisco, where the city's poll tally gives him 62.59 per cent of the community's vote in the Republican primary.

In Los Angeles, which contains more than a quarter of the State's population and which is said to be the central battle ground of the current campaign, Merriam leads with 60.42 per cent of the city's vote in the poll returns, while Sinclair gets 27.73 per cent and Haight trails with 11.82 per cent.

Has Yale Been Avenged? Or Is It Press Stunt

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 2 (AP)—Handsome Dan been avenged?

Have the boys down New Haven way finally squared accounts with the Harvard undergraduates who kidnaped their mascot, Handsome Dan II, and subjected him to the ignominy of licking the boots of John Harvard?

Perhaps. The editors of the Harvard Lampoon, undergraduate humorous magazine, say that approximately 4,000 copies of a joint issue of the Lampoon and the Finestest Tiger were stolen Wednesday night. The magazines had combined for the first time in history to honor the resumption of foot-rivalry relations between Harvard and Princeton.

Harvard men turned almost immediately to Yale for an explanation. It was pointed out that the news of the theft emanated from New Haven and that Yale men, wrought up over the theft of their mascot some time ago, had gone home to attempt some vengeance act.

There were other Harvard men, however, who doubted that the copies were stolen. "Publicly," they commented, pointing to the announcement that 1,000 copies of the issue provisionally remained for sale at Saturday's game.

Youthful Harvard souls are endeavoring to clear it all up.

Baer To Fight In Des Moines

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Nov. 2 (AP)—Max Baer's first fight since winning the world's heavyweight championship will be a 10-round no-decision affair at Des Moines, Ia., Ancil Hoffman, manager of the champion, said today.

An offer reported to be $25,000 for Baer to meet Johnny Miller in a non-title bout was telegraphed to Hoffman by Dave Fidler, Des Moines promoter. Hoffman said he would accept the offer. The date for the bout has been set tentatively for some time in January.

He nearly killed Sailor Otis Clingman here three years ago, but the sailor later got revenge with two sensational wins. The alligator-man will outweigh Watkins a few pounds.

A semi-final that should grace the headlines of most cards will be presented with Sam George of Corpus Christi, meeting Bull Costello, Spanish half lighter from Mexico City. George has appeared here twice and made great hits with Pampa fans. Costello is said to be a rough and ready grappler, afraid of neither man or beast.

The preliminary has not been signed but it is rumored that Pat Garrison will meet Lobo Brown. Brown challenged Garrison last week after losing to the Pampan three weeks ago.

MUSTANGS TO DEFEAT TEXAS SAYS BARKER

PICKS DARTMOUTH TO BEAT YALE FOR FIRST TIME

BY HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.
NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—Pleading with Old Man Upset to remain on the sidelines for at least one week, football prognosticators went into the well known brown study today.

From this corner, the week's outlook was something like this: Pittsburgh-Notre Dame: Notre Dame is improving fast but Pitt's feat in holding Minnesota's thundering herd to a 13-7 score makes the Panthers look better and better each week. Probably a tight squeak but a vote for Pitt.

Army-Illinois: Two undefeated and united teams collide but the Illini have faced much tougher competition. This fact, coupled with Army's apparent weakness against passing, seems to give Bob Zuppke's Big Ten outfit the edge.

Kentucky-Alabama: Whatever the thermometer reading, Kentucky appears to be in for a warm afternoon. Alabama handily.

Stanford-U. C. L. A.: Stanford to continue its undefeated Pacific Coast conference march. Washington-Oregon State: Ditto Washington.

Harvard-Princeton: On paper, the only question here seems to involve the size of the score. Princeton, easily.

Minnesota-Michigan: Michigan is set to shoot the works but the Goopers look touchdowns better.

Texas-Southern Methodist: Two Southern powers meet here. Southern Methodist appears to have the more versatile offense, inducing a faint-hearted ballot for the Mustangs.

Fordham-Tennessee: St. Mary's and Southern Methodist appear to have deflated the Fordham bubble thoroughly. A nod in Tennessee's direction.

Yale-Dartmouth: Dartmouth never has beaten Yale but there's always a first time. If the Indians don't win this time they'd better check the Yale bowl.

Chicago-Furdie: One, or both, will be eliminated from the Big Ten race after tomorrow's encounter. The Maroons have their strongest team in years but will have to watch Purdue's touchdown twins, Jim Carver and Duane Purvis. On the flip of a coin, Furdie to spring an upset.

Tulane-Mississippi: Another for Tulane. Louisiana State-Mississippi: Likewise for the S. U.

Navy-Washington and Lee: Navy but the future admirals had better be careful.

Michigan State-Marquette: There seems to be no reason to suspect Michigan State's perfect record will crack up here.

Texas A. & M.-Arkansas: The Razorbacks of Arkansas, comfortably.

California-Santa Clara: California's disappointing Bears probably will get no cheer out of this. A ballot for Santa Clara.

Iowa-Indiana: Iowa has suffered three bad Saturdays in a row but this looks like the turning point for the Hawkeyes.

Mustang Mascot Killed By Hit-And-Run Driver

And-Run Driver Killed By Hit-And-Run Driver

DALLAS, Nov. 2 (AP)—"Peruna" is dead.

There was genuine sadness on the campus of Southern Methodist University, for the little freak pony "luck niece" of the school's football team for several years, was struck and killed by a hit-and-run driver last night.

How the wee Sheldahl got out of Canby stadium, where he had been corralled for the night, and got mixed up with traffic on a nearby boulevard was a matter for argument.

"Peruna" was only 28 inches long, and although he had traveled from coast to coast with the team, including the jaunt to New York last week which brought the Mustangs victory over the Fordham Rams, the campus never forgot the disgrace "Peruna" felt when the Texas Aggies sheared his tail last year. Just before he left with the team for the ill-fated invasion against St. Mary's Gaels in San Francisco.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—The stock market pushed up at a brisk rate in the early dealings today, but late profit-taking paired most extreme advances of 1 to 2 or more points and the activity slowed down appreciably. Specialties led the upturn, although other groups displayed an improved tone. The close was firm. Transfer approximated 640,000 shares.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "The demand for wool has slackened its pace but prices have evidently become more stable; at least, for the time being."

"In the west, there has been some further clearance of wool and Texas left-over wools have been reduced to not over a million pounds. Foreign markets are firm to fractionally higher for the week on continued steady buying by England and Japan, chiefly."

"Evidently, there has been more business in piecegoods supplementing government contracts but the reflection of this business has not appeared in the wool market this week."

"Mohair continues slow and prices are hardly more than nominal for the moment."

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations: Secured basis, Texas: Fine 12 months (selected) 73-75; fine short 12 months 70-72; fine 8 months 66-68; fall 58-60.

Mohair: Domestic, good original tag, Texas spring, 45-48 cents; Texas as kid, 55-58.

HILLIARD TO PLAY IN TILT ON SATURDAY

TEXAS STUDENTS WILL BURN MUSTANGS IN EFFIGY

BY BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Make or break games will feature tomorrow's Southwest conference football program. Defeats for Southern Methodist, Baylor, Texas Christian, Texas A. & M., and the University of Texas mean complete elimination from the titular chase since all have suffered a loss in the current conference campaign.

Headed by Coach Ray Morrison, the Southern Methodist Mustangs leave tonight for Austin where Saturday they engage the University of Texas Longhorns. With the exception of Captain Ray Fuqua, who has a broken collar bone, the Mustangs are at full playing strength. Mac Stewart replaces Fuqua, Morrison said with an even break in luck he was confident the Mustangs would win.

The Longhorns' enthusiasm soared high at yesterday's practice when Bohn Hilliard, ace halfback, reported in full football regalia. His injured hip has shown such improvement that Texas supporters are confident he will play at least half of the game. With the exception of a gigantic "faith" rally tonight when the Mustangs will be burned in effigy. Another feature of the rally will be a fireworks display.

Although a bit weak from a recent attack of flu, Bill Couser, star quarterback reported for Texas A. & M. practice yesterday and is sure to play tomorrow against the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. Arkansas, tied with Rice for the conference lead, arrived at Dallas today in time for a light signal drill.

Coach Fred Thomson reported his Packers in excellent physical and mental condition. They will reach College Station tonight.

Baylor university staged a huge pep rally last night, a preliminary to tomorrow's game at Fort Worth against Texas Christian. Baylor's chance for victory is impaired by the absence of Lloyd Russell, star halfback, who is out because of injuries. Most of the Texas Christian regulars are ready for the Bears including George Kline and Darrell Lester who have been injured.

INTEREST RATE OF FIVE PER CENT SET FOR HOME BUILDERS

TO SPEND 15 MILLIONS IN NEXT DECADE

LOANS TO BE INSURED UP TO 80 PER CENT OF VALUE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—President Roosevelt, overruling his housing administrator on interest rates to aid "the great mass of our people," launched today a significant home-building campaign which may aim at a $15,000,000,000 construction boom during the next ten years.

Setting a "basic maximum" interest rate of 5 per cent for the whole nation, the administration announced regulations under which loans for home-building will be insured up to 80 per cent of the appraised value.

James A. Moffett, former Standard Oil executive whom the president drafted to be his housing administrator, thought the interest would be 6 per cent in some sections, but the president disagreed. "I am firm in the conviction," he told Moffett in an open letter, "that every practical attempt at lowering the cost of homes to the great mass of our people is worthy of our best efforts. It is one to make these lower interest rates apply to every part of the country."

Besides the 5 per cent interest, there will be a service charge of 1/2 of one per cent yearly on new homes, as well as an insurance premium of the same amount per year. Besides aiming to encourage new home-building, this second phase of the nation-wide drive under the housing act provides for mutual insurance of mortgages on existing dwellings up to 80 per cent of the appraised value, and for the organization of mortgage loan companies to sell securities based on mortgages.

The first mortgages are expected to be approved by the housing administration within a day or two. Loans will be made by banks and other private agencies, none by the government.

The Roosevelt administration announced no total sum which it hoped would pour out in this new effort to stimulate the "durable goods" industries. But Henry I. Larriman, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, suggested in a speech last night that the housing act could be used to stimulate $15,000,000,000 worth of home-building within a decade.

He stressed particularly the building of suburban or country homes for industrial workers on fairly large plots so they could raise much of their own food and thus become "partly independent of wages." It has been noted that Larriman's ideas in this respect closely resemble those of the Roosevelt administration.

At present the housing act limits the total amount of mortgages on new homes which may be insured to $1,000,000,000 but gives the president power to increase that sum if he deems advisable. Just now the loan insurance is limited to homes in or near urban communities.

While the approved "basic interest" rate for loans for constructing one-family to four-family houses was set at 5 per cent, the maximum basic rate for refinancing existing homes will be 5 1/2.

Mortgages calling for higher basic rates would not be insurable under the government's mutual plan. To the "basic maximum" for refinancing houses already existing must be added one per cent a year for insurance and in case there is a change of lender in the transaction, a service charge of 1/2 of 1 per cent.

"This is the first time in the history of finance," a statement by the housing administration said, "that a uniform basic interest rate has been applied to private capital in the United States."

Insured mortgages may range as high as $16,000 each and may run for periods up to 30 years.

U. S. Must Exert Orient Sea Power To Keep Markets

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—Rear Ad. Yates Stirling, Jr. said today the United States must be capable of exerting her sea power in the Orient in order to maintain equality of markets there.

"We can do this only with an adequate fleet fully manned and securely based in the area of possible conflict, and a large and modern merchant marine fleet capable of carrying the greater part of our foreign trade and acting as auxiliaries to the war fleet in emergencies. There is no other way," he said.

Admiral Stirling, commandant of the Brooklyn navy yard, spoke before the twenty-first national foreign trade convention. "Only a nation strong on the seas can be sure of maintaining a desired neutrality while carrying on its legitimate foreign trade," he said. "Lacking adequate elements of sea power, we must realize that the commerce of the far east is not

GOP GOVERNOR MAY BE NAMED BY OKLAHOMANS

New Mexico Election Will Intrigue Observers

BY MILO M. THOMPSON.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 2 (AP)—Unfamiliar tactics and unusual alliances have made political manipulators and dopesters groggy in the southwestern and Rocky Mountain states this campaign year.

Republicans seek "new deal" support from democrats, democrats, desert their partisans, congressional boundary lines have shifted and old issues wear strange disguises.

There's prohibition, for instance. Both Kansas and Wyoming are considering repeal of prohibition amendments. But campaign talk is not confined to the demon rum. Debaters are arguing the need of liquor tax money, the desirability of withholding a crop of bootleggers from adjacent states, the handicap put on border city merchants who cannot sell what neighboring state competitors are selling.

Kansas at Sea. Forecasters are particularly at sea in Kansas, one of the pioneer prohibition states. Kansas has had no vote on prohibition in 54 years and the 1880 result was 93,382 for a prohibition amendment to 84,304 against. Now there's a new generation of voters to which the name of Carrie Nation, who used axes on saloons as part of a vague tradition. Bear (3.2 per cent) is sold openly. And Kansas has had its share of the sentiment which ordered repeal for the nation. An election should, by all the old rules, be an "ins" versus "outs" test of the Rooseveltian "new deal" but there are strange things to put down.

Look at Soonerland. In normally democratic Oklahoma, for instance, where a republican governor was never elected, a republican nominee appears to be making a close race against a democrat nominee in spite of nominal, national party support and much promising of additional relief, plenty of jobs, subsistence homesteads, new factories.

The democrat is E. W. Marland, Pampa City oil man, but democratic Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, has failed to stump for him. Furthermore, the republican, W. B. Pine of Okmulgee, who talks about "wasteful expenditure of relief money" and critics' farmers opposed to the "new deal" limitations and restrictions, has been given the approval of the head of the American Federation of Labor.

In Kansas there's the spectacle of a republican governor, Alf M. Landau, making capital out of his ascribed cooperation with the "new deal." His normally republican state and led a republican governor notwithstanding the Rooseveltian landslide. His opponent is Omar B. Ketchum, printer-mayor of Topeka, the democratic hope. Nobody knows exactly where the supporters of John R. Brinkley, third man in the two previous elections, will go, what the new deal sentiment is, or how much the prohibition issue will mix things up.

Then there's New Mexico with a senatorial fight to intrigue the students of unusual alliances. Senator Bronson Cutting, the powerful progressive republican incumbent, is out for re-election. He supported Roosevelt two years ago. He cries the "new deal." No less loudly cries Dennis Chavez, seeking elevation from the house to the senate.

Missouri Is Puzzle. Missouri furnishes a good example of another situation disturbing to the prognosticators. In that state, local issues have ballooned to cloud the national ones. Perhaps the feeling that a powerful democratic organization will have its way in the state has led some people to dwell lightly on national issues. But the fact is that the 1932 election just cleaned the republicans out of the county court houses and those who lost jobs and county contracts, together with all their friends, are mightily concerned about such things as rentals and road work.

In Missouri, too, there is the puzzle presented by the new congressional districts. Republicans see hope in this of making some gains

MOST BITTER SENATE CAMPAIGNS ARE THOSE IN WISCONSIN, OHIO

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 (AP)—Harvest days reflect a scene of high political activity on the prairies of the midwest.

Out to garner a second crop of republican votes in the election of Nov. 6, the democratic party has concentrated many of its most expert husbandmen in the mid-country, against the democrats.

There is another problem for the "new dealers" in this plains and upland area. That is what the democrats call apathy. It can be explained in Texas by the fact that a general election there is expected to be a confirmation of the democratic nominations. In other states, however, the republicans insist it is not apathy but a lack of enthusiasm for the "new deal." On this theory they are trying to capitalize it. On the other theory, the democrats are out to get the vote to the polls.

New Senators Due. "New deal" issues are not so confused in Colorado, Wyoming, and Montana. Campaigners there are sticking closely to party lines and both national parties are concerned particularly because Montana and Wyoming, with New Mexico, will elect five United States senators.

Montana has Senator Burton K. Wheeler up to succeed himself and the problem of choosing some one to finish the unexpired term of the late Senator Thomas J. Walsh.

Wyoming has a nip and tuck race between Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney, democrat, and Representative Vincent Carter, republican and "new deal" critic.

In New Mexico, in addition to the Cutting-Chavez fight, there's a race for the remaining two years of the term of Senator Sam Brant who resigned to accept a federal judgeship.

EATON, O. (AP)—It was purely a private affair, that fire at the home of Maurice Kelly. For Kelly is a fire department driver, and the house he occupies is owned by George Shaver, chief of the fire department.

Republican counter efforts to regain historic G. O. P. strongholds, lost in the Roosevelt landslide two years ago, had raised public interest far above the usual "off year" level.

The big question is whether ordinarily lush republican soil, sown to democratic votes in the whirlwind of the presidential election, again will produce a crop.

The republican party has asserted it will not, and that when the balloting is over, the heavy democratic strength in congress from the midwest will show serious inroads. The democrats do not concede defeat anywhere.

Added to the thunder of battles for senate and house posts, an array of side issues has left a hubbub of puzzling conjecture.

In Wisconsin, a third party has emerged from its swaddling clothes to loom large as a possible nucleus for such a movement in the nation.

In North Dakota, a woman, Mrs. Lydia Langer, is the republican nominee for governor. She hopes to succeed her husband, William Langer, removed from office after a felony conviction on the charge that he had solicited political contributions from relief workers. Mrs. Langer has asserted she will carry out the policies of her husband, who struck out boldly for mass relief before Upton Sinclair advanced his California EPIC plan.

Eight middlewestern states will elect senators and a full quota of members of the house of representatives.

Most bitter of the senate fights are those in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Wisconsin, with Senator Robert M. La Follette's term at stake in Wisconsin and the senate futures of republican wheelhorses up for decision in the others.

BUSINESS DRIVEN FROM STATES BY SALES TAX SAY MISSOURIANS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—The sales tax continues to be a topic for hot debate in every state where it has been adopted to increase revenue.

The fees in Missouri and North Carolina, for example, say it is driving business from those states and lessening purchasing power. Its friends point to extensive tax remittances in Iowa and Oklahoma and plan to fight for the continuance of the levy as essential to a well-rounded tax program.

The Missouri tax on one-half of one per cent brings in $5,000,000 annually in new tax money to the state treasury. A tax on retail sales, the law specifically directs that it may not be passed on to the consumer.

Merchants' associations leading the opposition to the tax assert that it was driven through the legislature as a relief measure although its revenue is being diverted to all expenses.

Oklahoma's one per cent retail sales tax is actually a consumers' tax and produces $4,000,000 annually for the state. Of the $2,000,000 goes to reduce the valorem taxes, while the other half is used to help the poorer school districts.

In Iowa the two per cent sales tax was imposed as an emergency measure but it annual revenue of $14,000,000 has proved so effective that the state property tax levy has been eliminated and the legislature will be asked to make the new tax permanent.

The tax paid by the consumer on sales of tangible personal property, sugar, electricity, amusements, etc., to the seller, who in turn pays the state. Of the total $500,000 is used for administration; $3,000,000 for poor relief; $6,000,000 for general state expenses; and the balance is credited back to property taxpayers on a basis of assessed valuation.

In Utah, the sales tax is restricted by law to retail purposes. The two per cent levy produces $2,000,000 annually, an amount equal to one-half the real estate taxes and the same as the gasoline tax, the other principal sources of revenue. The tax is paid by merchants on the basis of periodic reports to the tax commission.

The administration, acknowledging a number of objectionable features, holds that in conjunction with other forms the effect is to distribute the tax burden equitably.

The Washington gross sales tax was enacted as an emergency measure to raise revenue for the common schools. Rates range from three tenths of one per cent to three per cent and are applied on five functions, extractive industry, manufacturing, wholesaling, retailing, and rendering services. Income from the tax is in excess of $6,000,000 a year.

North Carolina's three per cent retail sales tax brings in $6,000,000 a year to the state. It is applied generally with many exemptions because the items are otherwise taxed or are "necessities of life."

Hopkins Charges GOP Command Is Minus Sympathy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—Harry L. Hopkins, relief administrator, accused the republican high command today of a "complete lack of understanding or sympathy for the underprivileged class of America."

Answering statements by Henry P. Fletcher, republican national chairman, that the Roosevelt administration has been plucking politics with relief money, Hopkins said at his press conference: "The clear implication of this campaign being conducted by the former ambassador to what country was that anyway?—is that the republicans are saying they won't take care of the destitute unemployed if they should get back into power."

"Their attack indicates a complete lack of understanding or sympathy for the underprivileged class of America."

"This business of relief funds influencing elections, buying votes, is ridiculous. It is disturbing in only one way—it takes a lot of my time that ought to be spent taking care of the unemployed."

BEAUTIFUL AUTUMN TEA IS GIVEN BY THREE HOSTESSES

MANY GUESTS ATTEND FROM OTHER TOWNS

MES. POOL, ROSE AND BRALY ENTERTAIN YESTERDAY

Almost 200 guests, including many from neighboring towns, called at the home of Mrs. Tom Rose yesterday afternoon when she, with Mrs. Clifford Braly and Mrs. Clara Pool, entertained with an informal tea, with chrysanthemums, snapdragons, and primroses from Pampa gardens decorated the room. The living room was dressed in white and yellow; dining room decorations were a simple and charming arrangement of chrysanthemums, while in the sun room the full gamut of autumn coloring was run in the masses of bloom.

The tea table was laid with sparkling silver. Mrs. T. J. Considine of Amarillo; Mrs. W. E. Ewing of T. Bunkell; and Charles E. Bral, of Pampa, were among the guests who called during the afternoon. Mrs. E. L. Turner of McLean, Mmes. Claude Ledick and Don Conley assisted in serving.

Guests were received by the hostesses, assisted by Mmes. George Walden and H. E. Hicks. Throughout the afternoon music by a five-piece orchestra directed by Roy Wallbraten blended with the guests' conversation.

Included on the guest list were the following women from other cities:

Mmes. Jack Montgomery, Ben Talley, O'Laughlin, Kinney, Cross, and Fitzgerald of Miami; Mmes. Sid O'Keefe, A. A. Callaghan, and Heiman Cleek of Pampa.

Mrs. Cook is the daughter of Mrs. Charles C. Cook of Pampa. This is her first year at the Maryland university, as she attended the Miss Heckaday school at Dallas last year.

THRIFT ROOM BENEFIT DANCE IS ANNOUNCED AT MEETING OF CITY PARENT-TEACHER COUNCIL

Members Volunteer To Aid in Red Cross Drive

A benefit for the school thrift room was announced at the meeting of Pampa Parent-Teacher council yesterday afternoon. It will be a dance, sponsored by the Elks club, at the P. M. Auditorium Monday night.

Mrs. J. H. Hulse, thrift room chairman, announced that the room is in need of clothing and shoes for needy school children. The shoe club has $96 in the treasury, after a number of shoes and hats have been bought, but many more are needed with the coming of really cool weather.

Cooperation in the annual Red Cross membership drive was volunteered by several members after Jim Collins and Olin E. Hinkle spoke, outlining local and national work of that organization and presenting the plan to be followed in enlisting members here this year.

All local presidents promised to assist in the drive, and to secure other members to help.

Report of the recent county Parent-Teacher council meeting was given by Mrs. J. M. Turner, and all unit presidents here made interesting reports of work accomplished.

The council voted to offer a prize of one dollar to the local unit represented by the most mothers at the next meeting of Junior High Parent-Teacher association.

Announcements from units included that of the educational program at Woodrow Wilson school on the evening of November 13, to be followed by an old fashioned box supper, and a change of meeting time for B. M. Baker unit from second Thursdays to second Tuesdays of each month.

The council meeting was preceded by an executive board session. Mrs. Claude Ledick presided at both meetings.

Younger pupils at Woodrow Wilson, those in first, second and third grades, presented the chapel program this afternoon at 1:30.

Stunts Enjoyed At a Halloween Party at Hopkins

Hopkins school building became a "house of horrors" in Halloween when Hopkins Home Demonstration club sponsored a community party attended by about 75 persons. Black cats, ghosts and witches formed the decorations.

An old witch was there with her kettle of fortune and Mrs. C. P. Couts appeared as the wandering member of a Gypsy troupe who read palms.

Ike Davis dressed as a scarecrow, received the costume prize for men, and Mrs. Ott Campbell as a frightful witch, was given the women's prize. The evening's entertainment was a succession of Halloween stunts.

Most entertaining was the "freshman club" initiation, with Robert Brown, principal of Hopkins School No. 1 as the subject. Imitations of various animals was required of him, with the other guests as leaders.

An exciting game was the hunt for money bags. These proved to be filled with pumpkins, which were exchanged for a number of articles. Chester Andrews of the Grandview community won the prize for driving the best bargains and making the most purchases.

PHILHARMONIC CHOIR WILL BE INCLUDED IN CITY CLUB COUNCIL FOR THIS SEASON

HALLOWE'EN IS GAY TIME FOR McLEAN GROUPS

M'LEAN, Nov. 2.—Society this week has been all astr attending the rounds of entertainment that usually precede Halloween. The gymnasium at the grade school has been the scene of three class parties.

Monday evening the room mothers of the freshmen class assisted the hostesses, Misses Lillian Abbot and Clara Dishman, in entertaining members of that class. The affair was truly Halloween in nature and a general good time was had by all attending.

Tuesday evening the sixth grade was royally entertained at the same place by their teacher, Bill Brian and the room mothers, Mrs. R. L. Apping, Mrs. H. W. Finley, and Mrs. Clint Doolin.

Wednesday evening was the seventh grade night. Sixty members of the next year's fresh vied with each other in displaying fancy costumes and in seeing which one could have the best time. Adults supervising this party were Mrs. Jim Beck, sponsor, Mrs. Chas. E. Cooke, Mrs. Evan Sitter, Mrs. W. H. Blevins, Mrs. Vester Smith, Mrs. J. E. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Guill, and Miss Nicholson.

H. S. Class Parties

The junior class, with Miss Aline McCarty as sponsor, enjoyed a cowboy party in the show rooms of the Chevrolet motor company. The young people came dressed as cowboys and girls, and the entertainment was all suggestive of the open range. For refreshments there were boiled cabbage, buns, coffee, and doughnuts passed on broom sticks.

Members of the senior class sponsored a chili supper Monday evening at the home of E. C. department in the high school building, after which they attended the theater to see Joe Brown in "Circus Clown."

Adult chaperoning and helping with the chili supper were Miss Jewell Cousins, class sponsor, and Mrs. T. A. Massey, Mrs. J. E. Lynch, Mrs. D. C. Carpenter, and Mrs. Jim Beck.

On Tuesday evening the same class, with the same sponsors, was hostess to a "49" party in the show rooms of the Chevrolet motor company where, at the conclusion of several hours of interesting play, pumpkin pie and coffee were served.

Maskerade at Home

Miss Pauline Ledbetter entertained a number of her friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. A. Ledbetter, Tuesday evening at a well appointed Halloween party. Those attending came in mask and much guessing was done as to the identity of each before the masks were removed. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Eldon McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Williams, Misses Evelyn Moore, Lois Stockton, Emogene Ayer, Patsy Stockton, Arlis Tuck, Mildred Finley, Frances Wilson, Messrs. Harry McMullen, Clifford, Fete Brawley, Cecil Dyer, Paul Ledbetter, and the hostess.

Perhaps the biggest affair of the week was the social given by the Lions' club which was held Tuesday evening in the parlor of the First Baptist church.

CENTENNIAL

Session-end rules, he pointed out, might trap the bill unless haste was accorded in consideration of it.

First official action on one of the topics was due. Senator Roy Sandford of Belton, administration leader, planned to introduce a bill to authorize sale of $3,500,000 state relief bonds remaining of a $20,000,000 issue.

The governor's request for more relief funds was unheeded in the first 21 days of the session.

The two houses were at odds again over the principle of enforcing on cities and school districts the imposition of penalties and interest on delinquent property taxes.

The senate returned to a conference committee a report previously adopted by the house to release penalties on taxes delinquent last August 1 until next March 1. The restriction would be mandatory on all taxing subdivisions.

It adopted a report on another tax bill, to offer discounts for prompt payments and reduce penalties on tardy ones, as a permanent policy. Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt broke a 3 all tie vote in favor of the report. It would be optional with cities and school districts.

Failure of the senate to give it a two-thirds affirmative majority rendered ineffectual an emergency provision, which would have been mandatory on all subdivisions, to release penalties and interest until next February 1.

In the meantime, the legislature received its first official development toward consideration of a request of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson for additional relief funds. Senator Roy Sandford of Belton, administration leader, introduced a bill to authorize sale of $3,500,000 remaining of a $20,000,000 state relief issue. A similar bill was introduced in the house.

He charged officials of some cities which would be benefited by the Centennial appropriation had actively opposed tax relief bills which his constituents needed and wanted, and therefore he would oppose the motion to facilitate the bill.

Adverse action by the senate on delinquent tax relief bills brought a statement of opposition to a Centennial appropriation from Senator Sandford.

He charged officials of some cities which would be benefited by the Centennial appropriation had actively opposed tax relief bills which his constituents needed and wanted, and therefore he would oppose the motion to facilitate the bill.

Club Rooms Will Be Used For Child Clinic

Membership in the Council of Women's clubs was extended to the Philharmonic choir at the council meeting yesterday. This musical organization, formed last year by members in various city choirs, is headed by John Skelly.

Use of the council club rooms for regular meetings will be a privilege of the choir now. Another use of the club rooms this year will be for the child clinic sponsored by the Twentieth Century Forum. Dates for the clinic are to be announced later.

Decision to secure a hostess for the club rooms, to have charge at all times, was made by the council. Appointment is to be made soon.

Supr. E. E. Fisher of Pampa schools spoke briefly on the meaning and purpose of national education week, to be observed November 5 to 1. The council voted to cooperate with other clubs, schools, and churches in local observance.

Announcement was made by the A. A. U. W. of a Fat-Lean football game to be sponsored on November 16 under the lights at Harvester park, to benefit their scholarship fund.

All clubs in the council were represented at the meeting.

Shocking Party Given For Young Group Wednesday

Shocks of various kinds were administered to guests at the Halloween party given by the First Methodist young people's department Wednesday evening at the home of George Lane.

Masked guests, some in costume, were greeted by spooks and asked to register, but quickly rose from the electricity-connected chair. Then the shocking tale of a dead man was told, with parts of his body passed for inspection.

Ascending to the attic, guests found a witch and had their "palms read," a feat accomplished with red ink. An amateur, LeRoy Johnson, added to the practical jokes. Bobbing for apples and other traditional games were also enjoyed.

The party went to the church basement for charades and an exciting game of "murder." Orange punch and chocolate cookies were served.

Included in the party were Irene Brewer, Evelyn Blecknell, Amanda Smith, Mary Adams and a guest, Ann Swainman, Lois Evans, Marjorie Saums, Jessie Marie Gilbert and a guest, Thelma Seeds, Odessa Winkler, Julia Baker, Mary Parker.

Howard Zimmerman, Norman Carr, David Whittenberg, Verlon Twaddell and guests, Joseph Hodge, Sam Green, Clinton Evans, Travis Lively, John Mitchell, Travis Gee, Lawrence McBee, Bob Surratt, Alan Huggell, Steve Goodwin, Herbert Babbone, Howard Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Westbrook, Mmes. Lance Webb, Harold Wright, Gaston Poole.

Weather Signs Are Believed In By Old Timers

AMARILLO, Nov. 2 (AP)—"Old timers" who take pride in being able to forecast the weather say the "signs" are not running true to form.

Skeptical stockmen and farmers point out that there have been "signs" of rain, plenty of them, but insufficient rainfall to break the drought.

Among the "signs" upon which "old timers" have pinned their faith as weather indicators heretofore are some the forecasters say have never been known to fail.

For instance, if metal plates and dishes "sweat," look out for bad weather.

There are others:

"Fog in the morning brings a sunny day."

"A steady southeast wind will bring rain in 36 hours."

"When a heavy cloud comes up in the southwest and seems to settle back, look out for a storm."

"If stars are dim, there will be rain."

"Strong perfume from flowers indicates rain."

"If the sun goes down behind a cloud Friday, clear weather is due Sunday."

"If a rooster crows while perched on a fence, clouds, if any, will disappear."

"Between the hours of 11 and 2, you can tell what the weather is going to do."

Although these signs and many

HARDSHIPS OF PIONEERING ARE FEATURED IN "WAGON WHEELS"

One of the most stirring epic adventures in the history of the conquest of the West is at La Nora theater for a two-day engagement.

Zane Gray's "Wagon Wheels" was selected by Manager Tom Blair Sr., as the ideal film to celebrate his thirtieth anniversary in the show business. He will be host to a number of oldtimers to see this film, which depicts the hardships of a covered wagon caravan which left Independence, Mo. to Oregon in 1844, when the sturdy pioneers first went out to homestead the new country.

"Wagon Wheels" was taken from Zane Gray's book, "Fighting Caravans." In the cast are Randolph Scott, Gail Patrick, Monte Blue, Raymond Hatton, and Billy Lee.

RUSSIA SENDING LARGE AMOUNTS OF GOLD BEARING ORE TO U. S.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—The Soviet union is sending large quantities of gold-bearing ore to American smelting plants to increase its purchasing power in the United States.

Some 18,000 tons already have been consigned. Many thousand tons more will reach this same plant in the next two or three weeks.

Some 3,000 tons were unloaded last week at the Caribet, N. N., plant of the American Metal company.

The Soviet government will receive an approximate $1,700,000 for the smelted gold.

Last year the Soviets shipped about $13,000,000 in such ore abroad, mainly to Germany and England. It was used for purchases in those countries.

This is the first time such shipments have been made to this country. They are allowed by an order of Secretary Morgenthau of the treasury last January lifting restrictions on the importing and assaying of Soviet gold.

While Russian trade officials refrained from discussing the gold shipments to the United States, it was believed that such an increase of purchasing power anticipates an early settlement of the much-controverted Soviet-American debt question.

REVIVAL OF EXPORT TRADE WILL AID FARM PROBLEM, SAYS ROPER

Others have been pointed out from time to time, farmers are anxious about their wheat and ranchers are wondering whether their water supply will be adequate for winter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper said today that no nation can expect to sell goods unless it buys goods in return.

New Band To Play In City On Saturday

A new orchestra, new in features and new in musical numbers, will play for the regular Saturday night dance at the Pla-Mor auditorium tomorrow night. Art Morrow, coming direct from the Holt Hotel at Wichita Falls where he thrilled crowds for some time, will bring his popular orchestra for the big Saturday night dance.

Featured with the orchestra are Evelyn Lee, famous singer and dancer, recently featured on Broadway and with R. K. O., and Louis Weeks, noted accordion soloist and musical artist. Both entertainers have proved popular where they have been and promise to provide something new for Pampa dancers.

This new orchestra is in line with the plans of the management of the Pla-Mor auditorium to bring new orchestras and new and novel entertainment to the people of Pampa and this territory.

Admission to the dance will be 25 cents with a charge of 5 cents per dance. (Adv.)

New Grid Rules Have Opened Up Game, Says Yost

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 2 (AP)—Changes in the intercollegiate playing code inaugurated this fall have had the desired effect of opening up the game, in the opinion of Fielding H. Yost, Michigan athletic director and member of the national rules committee.

Yost likes the recent suggestion by Fritz Crisler, Princeton coach, that the kicking game might be helped by widening the distance between the goal posts and possibly lowering the cross-bar.

The three important changes in the rules this year, Yost said, "were taking the 5-yard penalty off the second incomplete forward pass, making the first pass thrown into the end zone count only a down instead of a touchback, and reducing the circumference of the ball."

Yost has heard few complaints concerning the new ball. More players can throw it accurately, he said, because long fingers are not required to grip it correctly. He had been curious to see whether it might cause punters trouble by having less bulge to fit the kicking foot but considering the punting this fall "as good as last year or possibly better."
