RELIEF SESSION CALLED BY 'MA'

Mystery Man

Release of John S. Labatt, wealthy Ontario brewer, spurred a hunt for kidnapers who held him prisoner three days, but left unexplained the role played by the swarthy "mystery man" who, accompanied by police, repeatedly visited the Toronto hotel room of the kidnap victim's brother while effort was being made to contact the abductors. Here is the mysterious visitor as an alert cameraman caught him in the hotel corridor.

AL CAPONE IS ON HIS WAY TO 'FRISCO PRISON

Public Enemy Being Transferred With Great Secrecy

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Al Capone, America's public enemy No. 1 long before the world had ever heard of John Dillinger, is on his way to a new prison home.

He is being transferred, with great secrecy, from Atlanta pen-

J. C. P. in the Pond Creek (Okla.) Herald—I think there ought to be a law against bringing sacks and boxes of kittens and cats to town and dumping them. Some one dumped a family of kittens and their relatives near the softball diamond recently and they scattered immediately to nearby homes.

THE PANHANDLER in Panhandle Herald—We don't know what all this talk is nationalization of silver is about. We have heard about the gold standard and those wanting to put silver on a par; also about those wanting to print more greenbacks. So far as The Herald is concerned, all money looks alike. Whether you have gold, silver, or bills, they will be accepted at face value for advertising and subscriptions. Don't let all this squabble at Washington over money bother you; just offer to spend some with us—any kind accepted.

AL WEST in Roswell Dispatch—With over $100,000 received in the county for payment of cattle purchased by the government, with another $100,000 in wages paid to workers on relief projects since May 1, with alfalfa selling at a record price, and a "full-quota" cotton crop in prospect, Chaves county and her communities of Roswell, Hagerman, Dexter and others should throw back their shoulders in true pride in their home county.

PAMPANS CAN WIN TOURNEY WITH VICTORY

GATE TO OPEN EARLY; GREAT THROUG IS EXPECTED

Whether a local team will win Pampa's first invitation baseball tournament or whether the rival Phillips 66 aggregation of Berger cars take the contest and prolong play into Wednesday night will be decided this evening at 8:45 o'clock. To allow time for handling the huge crowd, the gates of Road Runner park will open an hour earlier.

If the Road Runners win tonight, they will take the championship and $1,000 prize money with but a single defeat on their record. If Phillips 66 wins, the teams will be tied with two losses each and the deciding game will be delayed Wednesday because of the scheduled all-night boxing program at the park Tuesday night.

New Completions Over Week-End Reported Here

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE, Consulting Geologist, Combs-Walker Bldg.

There were several completions and new locations over the week-end. This field is about the only one in the mid-continent area that has not been affected by the drought. Oklahoma, Kansas, Wichita Falls, and West Texas are reported as practically shut down because of the lack of water.

In Wheeler county the Ohio Fuel Oil company's No. 2 D'Spain in section 52, block 24, H&GN, is testing. It made 2,600 barrels the first day, however, on the third day there was a considerable drop in the production. Bell Oil and Gas company's No. 4 D'Spain in section 52, block 24, H&GN, was bottomed at 2,480 with the pay from 2,418-30. It averaged 439 barrels on test.

Skelly Oil company No. 31, West Schaffer in section 87, block 4, I&GN, Carson county, averaged 60 barrels a day pumping for 5 days. Badger Oil company No. 7 Lewis in section 8, block 25, Hutchinson county, completed its test for an average of 393 barrels.

Two locations were filed for Wheeler county. Christie & Hickman located No. 1 Walker 330 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the east line of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 44, block 24.

Pendleton & Vaughan located No. 1 Simms in the center of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 60, block 17.

Four Shot When Man Runs Amuck

HOUSTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Four persons were hurt, one critically, when David Wilson, father of two children, ran amuck in a store at Main and Prairie and fired wildly into a crowd of shoppers and store employees here today.

Wilson told police he has been in tuberculosis hospitals in San Antonio and Houston for some time. He was separated from his wife and had not seen her for quite a while, he said, until he met her on the street today.

They talk about their two children and, during the conversation, quarreled. Wilson claimed not to remember having fired any shots. Spectators took the pistol from him.

Speaker Henry T. Rainey Dies Of Pneumonia

Wife Had Premonition of His Death All Day; May Succeed Her Husband.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Henry T. Rainey, picturesque speaker of the house of representatives, is dead.

Apparently on the road to recovery from an attack of bronchial pneumonia, he suddenly developed angina pectoris last night and died at 7:50 p. m. as three physicians, hastily summoned, stood by, unable to aid him. Today would have been his seventy-fourth birthday.

The speaker's unexpected passing brought expressions of deep sorrow from political leaders in all parts of the nation—from President Roosevelt on down.

The president called him "a humanitarian whose fine patriotism thought first of what he conceived to be the well being and interests of the common man."

His predecessor as speaker, Vice President John N. Garner, was "shocked speechless."

From Senator William T. Dietrich (D., Ill.), a close friend of the speaker, came the suggestion that the widow, for years her husband's secretary, might become the democratic party's choice for the house seat held by Mr. Rainey since 1903 except for the term following the Harding landslide of 1920.

While physicians at De Paul hospital, where the speaker died, believed he was on the road to recovery, Mrs. Rainey had a premonition of her husband's death.

Mrs. Rainey spent the day with her husband, leaving late in the day for their home in Carrollton, Ill.

"I knew my husband could not live long when I saw him," she said. "We chatted together, had breakfast and dinner together. He appeared to be in good spirits at all times, and was so happy that I brought him some jam, which he liked so well. But something told me that he would not last much longer."

The body will be cremated, in accordance with a wish Mrs. Rainey said her husband had often expressed. Funeral arrangements probably will be completed today when Senator Dietrich goes to Carrollton to confer with Mrs. Rainey.

Stocky, with flowing white hair and an ever-present flowing bow tie, Mr. Rainey was a soft-spoken leader who could crack the whip when the occasion demanded. Dean of the house, having served longer than any other living member, the veteran liberal became speaker March 4, 1933, when John Garner of Texas became vice president and presiding officer of the

Public Hearing On City School Budget Is Today

A public hearing on the budget for the Pampa Independent school district was to be held at 2 p. m. this afternoon at the office of Joe Smith, business manager, in the courthouse.

Following this session, the Athletic association was to convene with erection of lights at Harvester park as a proposal.

Plans for the school year are rapidly nearing completion. A catalogue of courses and regulations will be issued soon. The enrollment is expected to be larger than ever. Congestion at the central campus will be relieved, in part, by moving more than 300 low sixth grade pupils to the ward schools.

Junior high school this year will include the high sixth grade, seventh grade, and low eighth grade, and a re-classification plan will make possible promotion by subjects as well as years.

Shoots Sisters

A cheerful, alert-minded farm lad who turned killer without motive, slaying one sister and seriously wounding another, Fred Schneider, 12, is shown above as he was held at Wausau, Wis., while authorities pondered what charge to bring against him. Returning from hunting, he turned his rifle on Marie, 11, shooting her in the side, then slew Louise, 16, with a bullet in the forehead.

ALLRED RALLY WILL BE HELD HERE TONIGHT

Motorcades Coming From Nearby Towns

Leaders of the forces in the Panhandle supporting Attorney General James V. Allred for governor concentrated today on bringing Gray county into the Allred column. The county in the first primary gave the attorney general one of the smallest percentages of county votes he received in the Panhandle.

Allred forces from nearby towns will converge upon Pampa tonight for a rally at which Whit Davidson, former lieutenant governor, is scheduled to be chief speaker.

Delegations from Panhandle, Amarillo, Clarendon and other towns will be present. An Amarillo delegation will be led by Judge S. A. L. Morgan and Gene Howe, editor of the Amarillo Globe-News. Sheriff McCormick and the Panhandle high school band of 25 pieces, directed by C. W. Beene, will head a motorcade of approximately 100 cars from Panhandle.

Otto Studer, in charge of local arrangements, announced that the band would arrive at 7 o'clock and would give a concert in the vacant

SPECIAL TERM WILL CONVENE ON AUGUST 27

GOVERNOR ASKS MORE RELIEF BONDS BE ISSUED

AUSTIN, Aug. 20 (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today issued a call to the Texas legislature to convene in special session at noon August 27 to provide for issuance of additional state bonds for relief.

Relief was the only topic mentioned by the governor in her call. She reserved the customary right, however, to submit such additional subjects as she deemed necessary. The call was issued in conformity with a promise some time ago to convene the legislature immediately after the August 25 primary election.

The legislature will be asked to issue $9,500,000 in relief bonds, the unaided portion of an issue of $20,000,000 authorized last year at a special election.

A group of city and county officials is co-operating with the Texas relief commission officials in preparing recommendations for presentation to the legislature.

It was likely an investigation of the relief commission would be undertaken before action on a bill to issue more bonds. The commission has been widely split on several issues, particularly on selection of a state relief director.

The governor will be asked to submit, it was indicated questions of water conservation, particularly the proposal to establish a public authority to develop the Colorado river watershed and complete a $5,000,000 dam in the Colorado near Burnet. A PWA loan has been obtained for the project.

Further extension of the law remitting penalties and interest on delinquent taxes is another topic the governor may be asked to submit. Texas courts have entered varying decisions on validity of the current law and it now is pending in the state supreme court for adjudication. The present law provides for payment of back taxes in installments but its benefits are denied those who failed to make their first payment by June 30, 1934.

Boy Scouts who would like to have a beneficial outing may accompany the Pampa Harvesters to the Sacramento mountains in New Mexico, it was announced today. However, those interested, and who have the necessary $25, must call Coach Odus Mitchell tonight.

Some of the Scouts disappointed in that the regular camp was abandoned, asked if they could accompany the football squad. Ben Guill, camp director, will be in charge of the Scouts.

Coaches Mitchell and Fox will leave early tomorrow morning—about 4 a. m.—for the camp near Weed, N. M. About 30 boys will accompany them.

Hitler Had Great Fall, Says Paper

LONDON, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Daily Express, commenting editorially today on the German plebiscite, said: "Humpty-Dumpty sat on the wall; Humpty-Dumpty had a great fall."

"Hitler's vote slumps continue," said the Express, "although he is still master of the majority of his countrymen. The June massacres are not forgotten by more than 4,000,000 of them. Not all the hero whitewashing of Joseph Goebbels (minister of propaganda) can put Hitler back on the eminence he fell from at that time."

More Power to Huey Long

Shouting orders to his henchmen, Senator Huey P. Long is shown here as he forced his followers in a tumultuous session of the Louisiana House of Representatives to jam through 27 measures which the minority branded as "spite legislation" against New Orleans and Long's bitter enemy, Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley.

Among measures forced through were those placing election machinery under control of appointees of Long's ally, Gov. Oscar E. Allen, creating a secret police force with Allen as its head, and making the governor immune to court interference in the use of state militia. Long is virtually a military dictator.

McCLELLAN CREEK'S NEW BRIDGE DUE TO BE FINISHED THIS WEEK; CALICHE IS ON ROAD TO LEFORS

Connecting Road May Not Be Passable For Few Days

Gray county's new bridge across McClellan creek will be completed this week if there are no unexpected delays.

The connecting road will likely be opened to the approaches, but it may not be passable for heavy vehicles for a few more days because of the deep sand involved. The Austin Bridge company has made fast time since starting work on the long, low span.

The bridge will serve the "hot spot" of western Wheeler and eastern Gray county in drilling movements and traffic to Belco, Keller, and Magic City.

Caliche has been placed on the Pampa-McLean road as far as Lefors, where work is going on in the city limits. The barriers have not been removed but considerable traffic is going over the caliche. The road crews will soon be working toward each other beyond Lefors and from the McLean sector.

Attempts are being made to expedite the federal 70-30 loan so that the caliche can be topped with asphalt before cold weather.

Rooms Needed For Teachers

Desirable living quarters for women teachers are to be in increasing demand as the instructors return to their posts early next month.

Miss Ruth Siddons, one of the earliest arrivals, said today that she had learned that many of those boarding house proprietors who formerly kept girls have filled their rooms with men during the summer. The rooms will not be available to teachers.

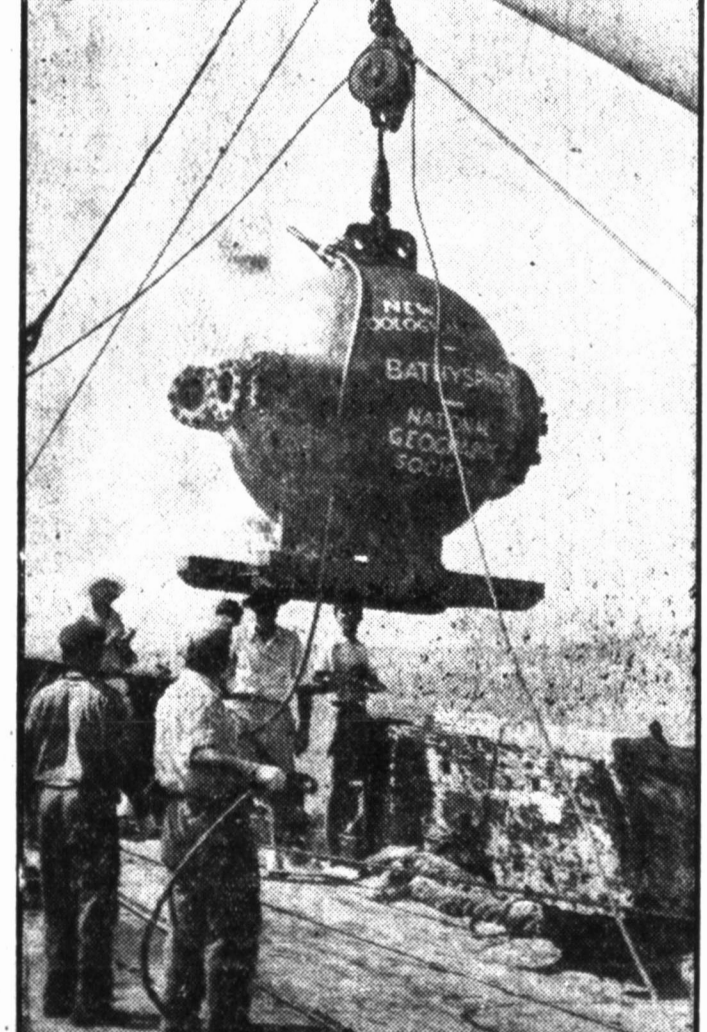

Most of those persons who have telephoned Miss Claudine Pope, secretary to the superintendent, have specified that they wished men boarders. However, the men of the school system have obtained houses or rooms almost without exception. Miss Pope keeps a list of persons who telephone her about keeping teachers. This list is for the convenience of teachers and the school does not express a preference.

Merely Grins

"Please don't try to trick me into saying anything," was Douglas Fairbanks' plea when interviewers attempted to discuss his domestic difficulties with Mary Pickford, following his arrival in New York from London. His grin and "nothing to say" were the only answers to the riddle.

In a Sphere all Their Own

All that goes up must come down—and Dr. William Beebe and Otis Barton took advantage of that fact to set a new diving record, their great steel bathysphere taking them down 3025 feet of Bermuda. Here the start of the descent is pictured—the sphere is being raised from the deck of their barge preparatory to being lowered.

Bridge Falls; 20 Injured

Picnickers Hurlled 20 Feet Into Stony Bed of River As Bridge Cable Snaps.

GLASGOW, Ky., Aug. 20 (AP)—Broken bones and bruises were being nursed today by a score of picnickers who were hurled 20 feet into the stony bed of Little Barren river when a suspension foot bridge over the stream susped yesterday during an annual celebration at Sulphur Wells, a spa 10 miles from here.

Six of those injured were considered in a serious condition, although their hurts were not believed critical. The others suffered minor injuries. Early reports from distracted relatives and friends of the picnickers to the effect that four persons had been killed proved unfounded.

Those most seriously injured were Nellie Starks, 4, broken collar bone; Judith Harlow, 17, internal injuries; Hubert Honny, 24; Laverne Jessie, 16, a man named Wilcoxon, and a girl whose name was not obtained. Most of the others injured suffered bruises and lacerations.

Reports were that a group of young people were swinging on the bridge when a cable fastening it to the shore posts gave way.

CAMPAIGN LACKING IN DIGNITY

Since Tom Hunter, months ago, called James V. Allred the "little boy in the big pants", the gubernatorial campaign has been alternately humorous and undignified, but never educational.

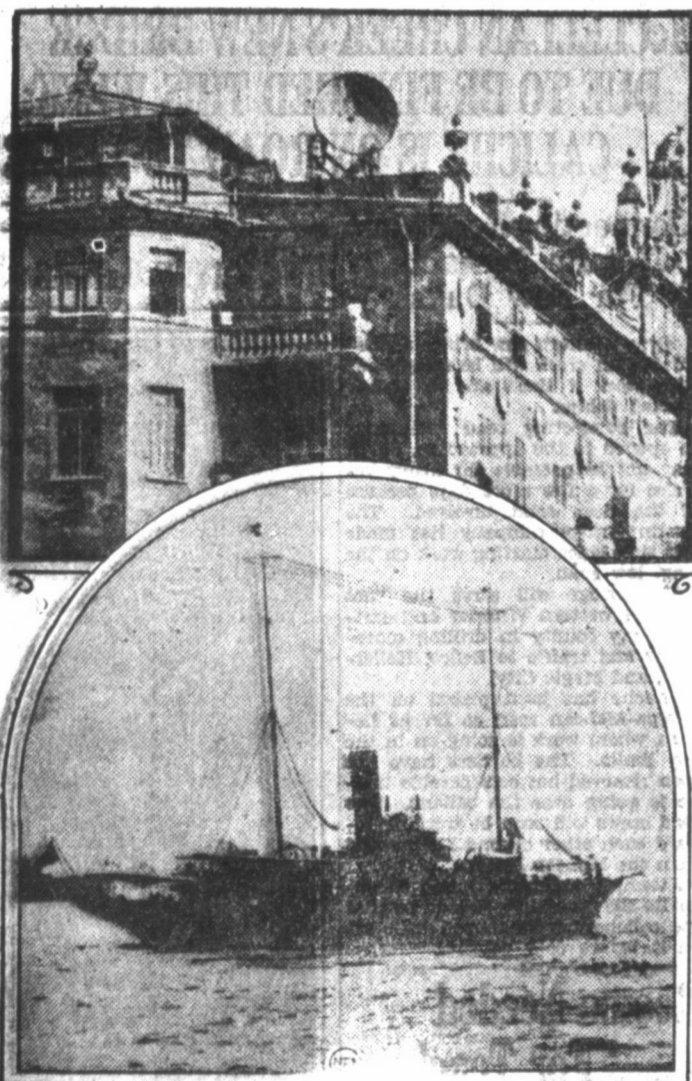

What Hunter is said to have started has grown into a mud-slinging campaign enlivened with little true wit. It seems singular that men living as neighbors could not have more "on" each other, granting that half the generalities they have uttered are true. The absence of truly startling charges is perhaps a good sign.

It is not a parallel instance to compare Texas with Louisiana. But the picture of Louisiana people being brow-beaten by dictatorial politicians is one that should point Texas in the opposite direction. The people of this state are not politically wise if they permit a campaign such as the current one to impress them as able and convincing. Half-truths are more misleading than lies because they are harder to detect.

We quote the Greenville Banner: Relative quietness of the primary gubernatorial campaign raised hopes that the run-off campaign would be conducted on a similar high plane. The product, however, of the elimination has been anything but edifying with both survivors tossing verbal mud with all the vigor of a Texas sheriff's election. Platforms have been abandoned, apparently, and each contestant is running on his opponent's demerits. The Banner delves into the parlance of the street and emerges with the question: 'Does that make sense?'

Suppose Allred is elected because Hunter is for a "blended" tax? Does that make him better equipped to serve the people of Texas? Suppose Hunter is elected because Allred failed to bring his oil suits to a successful termination. Is Hunter, then, any the better qualified to occupy the governor's mansion? Neither contestant is conducting a campaign in keeping with the solemnity of the duties one of them will be called upon to attack. The tenor of the present campaign is going to make it difficult for the successful contender to render the gubernatorial post the dignity it should boast.

Marconi Guides Ship From Land

There was no shipper at the wheel when the trim yacht Elettra plowed her way accurately through the waters, as shown below, off Santa Margherita Ligure, Italy. The navigator, Guglielmo Marconi, was on land, making his trim craft obey his every whim by micro-radio waves flashed from his hotel, on the roof of which may be seen the circular sending apparatus. This feat is held Marconi's most notable achievement since he invented the wireless telegraph.

OUT OUR WAY By WILLIAMS

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY.

TAOS, N. M.—Neighbor, smell that campfire? Boy, it feels just as good as it smells. I told you not to look for a letter from me, for I sure would not write if I did not catch any fish. That gallon thermos jug is full of mountain trout and in the spring keeping cold, ready to cook when I want them, so here I am trying to write you with a pine log for a writing table. I am not in Taos, but camped up in the mountain valley and I don't know when or where I will mail this, but I hope you get it in time to drive on up here. The first day I was here, I drove into Taos and went thru the gardens at the homes of leading artists. The drought had done some damage to them, but they still looked good to me. The garden man went out early with his spray. He said they had to fight a red louse, which sapped the plants. I had hoped to see the delphiniums in bloom, but the gardener had cut all but one plant down and covered the crowns with wood ashes, trying to keep off insects so they might have another crop of blooms in September. You cannot see these gardens from the front streets, for there is a high adobe wall and solid gate of native pine at each front. All tourists are welcome, though, to visit the flower gardens and studios. The rear border of one garden was all of choke cherry trees, hanging full of bright bunches nearly as large as grapes. I plan to climb the nearest mountain peak tomorrow and get a full view of the valley, which is one of nature's prettiest gardens—wild flowers everywhere and wonderful evergreen trees. Artists from every state in the union come to visit and paint this valley. Can you wonder that this old farmer would drive several hundred miles to camp here for a few days? Wait a minute. Here comes a mountain shower. Let me get under this big blue spruce tree. The spring is about a dozen steps from my camp fire. I dug two basins, one for water to drink and the lower one for washing my face, dishes, and socks. In the spring branch, I fixed the rocks under some big trees so I could set my jars of food on them—nature's automatic refrigerator. But every pen and jar must be covered to keep the squirrels and chipmunks from sampling everything you have to eat. Yesterday I had early breakfast and caught my grasshoppers and went up the river to fish all day.

Yes sir, I am not ashamed to say I used hoppers for bait, for all the sports are using them too now. I had good luck, after I learned to fish from the grassy side of the river where I could jerk the trout out and sit on him before he flopped off my line, then I put him in my flour sack creel, which I tied to my galls and then went on for another. I took no lunch, so I was pretty hungry when I got in at sundown and tired too. After a big supper, I was thinking about that camp cot when I heard a sweet tenor voice singing "Throw Another Log on the Fire," and then other voices joined in. I yelled "Fine!" and clapped my hands big. They called me to come over to their camp. I found children and grown-ups seated on big logs around a big crackling, blazing camp fire. We sang old time songs till the children began to yawn and then nod, and then I came back to my camp whistling "The Farmer's in the Dell." If my luck holds out, I may write you again. Yours, The Pampa Irish Farmer.

VACATIONS BRING CHANGE OF PASTORS TO PULPITS HERE

TWO CHURCHES HEAR VISITORS SPEAK SUNDAY

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE PART IN EVENING SERVICES

Visitors spoke at two Pampa churches yesterday, while resident ministers were absent on vacation. Emmanuel Dabbs, pastor of First Christian church at Bristol, Okla., and vacation visitor here, replaced John S. Mullen at the Christian church. Dr. Atticus Webb of Dallas preached at First Baptist church.

The general summer slump in Sunday school attendance failed to affect the Church of Christ, where 176 were present for Bible classes and large crowds greeted the pastor, E. C. McKenzie, on his return from a two-weeks revival at Big Sandy. Five additions to the church were reported.

Dr. Webb, president of the Texas Anti-Saloon league and long-time temperance leader, spoke at the morning service at First Baptist church. The Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor, is visiting in Lampasas.

The evening service was conducted by the training school. It included a special reading by Mrs. T. F. Morton and a song by Wanda Lee Dunlap and George Stephens. Sunday school attendance totaled 878 and training service attendance 89.

Young people also had an important part in the evening service at First Methodist church. They presented a one-act play, The Color Line, preceding the sermon. Henry Jordan, a lay speaker, was heard at McCullough Memorial Methodist church.

Other churches had regular services with local ministers preaching. The Presbyterian church reported 115 in Sunday school. First Methodist 423, McCullough church 69, Central Baptist church 98.

CIVIC PROGRAM OF BPW DRAWN BY COMMITTEE

First Session of Club Group Is Held

An organization meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club public relations committee was conducted Saturday evening, when preliminary plans for the year were laid.

Mrs. Alex Schneider, a member of the committee, entertained the other members, Meses. Frances Sturgeon and L. O. Wirsching, at a dinner at the Schneider hotel. The business meeting followed on a cool veranda.

Mrs. Sturgeon, chairman, was in charge of the session and presented a suggested program for discussion. The entire evening was spent in study of civic problems to which the committee and club plan to lend cooperation and support.

The main project of the year will be selected and announced at a second committee meeting to be called by the chairman in the near future.

Pampans Will Be Among Graduates Of Summer Term

CANYON, Aug. 20.—June is not the month of commencements for everybody. One hundred and eleven men and women will be graduated from the West Texas State Teachers college on August 23 at the end of the twenty-fourth annual summer session.

Of those whose bachelor's degrees will be conferred upon them by President J. A. Hill, practically all are experienced teachers who already have positions for the coming school year. Most of them have attended college in the summer several years. They come from points as widely separated as Canyon and Houston, Sweetwater, Texas, and Tucumcari, New Mexico.

Members of the class include Dorothy Elaine, Clark, Alfred Duncan, Lillian Mullinax, Jimma Searcy, and Evelyn Blackburn Stout of Pampa; Winston Savage of Canyon, who teaches in Woodrow Wilson school at Pampa; Maurice W. Crites of LeFors; Virginia Heaton and Ruby Williams of Skellytown; Fern Landers, McLean.

senate. He presided over the last two sessions of the house, one called specially by President Roosevelt on taking office.

Although of pleasant personality, he was at times bitter in debate and during his early career was known as "poison-tongued" because of his caustic remarks in committees and on the floor of the house.

With the passing of the years, he became more considerate of his political foes, but he was severe in his criticism of Andrew W. Mellon, and later of Ogden L. Mills, republicans, during the tenure of each as secretary of the treasury.

A native of Carrollton, Ill., where he was born August 20, 1860, he attended Amherst college, Massachusetts, and the Union College of Law, Chicago, and returned to Carrollton to practice law. Always around Carrollton, however, he was known as a farmer, owning 320 acres.

He started his congressional service in 1903 and thereafter kept the twentieth Illinois district in the democratic column except in the sixth-seventh congress, when he was a victim of the Harding landslide.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Aug. 20. (AP)—Stocks were virtually trendless today in the dull five-hour session in about 12 years. Transfers approximated only 240,000 shares. While some of the steel issues sagged, small fractional gains and losses were the rule in the colorless proceedings. The close was moderately irregular.

Hunter Hits at Allred Record In Oil Suits

By The Associated Press
Governatorial candidates carried their bitter political feud into south Texas today as they started the last week of their big drives for votes. Tom Hunter concentrated on a night speech at San Antonio, while his opponent, James V. Allred, appeared at Orange and Fort Arthur during the day and went to Beaumont for a night talk.

The two survivors of the July 28 democratic primary continued to bear down mercilessly in their criticisms of each other's political policies and personal records.

Speaking at La Grange yesterday, Hunter came forth with a new criticism of Allred. He attacked the attorney general's handling of his suit against 17 oil companies and two petroleum associations, seeking $17,000,000 in penalties for anti-trust law violations.

Hunter termed the suit Allred's "celebrated $17,000,000 fiasco suit" and brought up the question of whether the attorney general filed it for political purposes or in good faith.

Allred, meanwhile, came to Beaumont with the optimistic prediction he would defeat Hunter in the run-off primary Saturday by 100,000 to 150,000 votes.

"The people have analyzed Mr. Hunter's platform, particularly his tax program and have become convinced of its weakness and utter impracticability," Allred said.

"My headquarters has been flooded with letters from persons who voted for Hunter in the first primary but who now understand what my opponent's platform means. They not only are going to vote for me but they are working for me."

Allred Begins 'Victory Week'

ORANGE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Attorney General James V. Allred today began what he termed "victory week" in his campaign for governor.

He told an audience in Stark park that reports received by him in the last few days left no doubt that he would lead by a wide margin in the second primary 5 days hence.

The speaker said that people are disgusted with the type of campaign being made by Tom Hunter and realize that Hunter's tax program means lifting much of the burden from corporate interests and placing it on the man of modest means.

Byron Simmons, who supported C. C. McDonald in the first primary, presided. Dave Nelson, a political leader here, said that Lutzer Stark, regarded as having wide political influence in this county, was for Allred. Lutzer Stark is a Ferguson appointee to the board of regents of the University of Texas.

This county has followed James E. Ferguson in past elections and Ferguson is opposing Allred. Due to a local alignment, however, Allred forces are confident of carrying the city by a substantial majority and believe they will have a lead in the county.

Convicts Elude Trap in Clovis

CLOVIS, N. M., Aug. 20 (AP)—Virgil Stalcup and Clarence Brown, Texas convicts who escaped jail at Dickens, Texas, Saturday, dashed through two police traps here yesterday and dropped from sight.

Notified that the men were headed toward Clovis in a stolen car after they had robbed a filling station at Bovina, Texas, of $20, a police trap was planned on the highway east of the city. However, before the men could get stationed the bandit car dashed by the outposts and had gained such speed as it entered town that other officers took no chance at firing into it.

Subsequently Sheriff Charlie Dunlap at Fort Sumner, N. M., blocked the highway with a stop sign 8 miles east of Fort Sumner. In the confusion of cars which stopped in obedience to the sign, the bandit car dashed through a second trap and disappeared west on highway 60.

In the Road Runner races. Lee Daney, new Indian hurler who injured an arm slightly to mar his work, has recovered and will be ready to relieve Hardin if necessary. He could probably go an entire game, but it was thought best to keep him in reserve. All Road Runner mound men are ready.

"Hardin will be in there the whole game," predicted one of the Road Runner family this morning. "We'll be hustling every minute and our boys will give him such a commanding lead that he'll never be in danger."

Base is the logical starter for the Berger and Ellis combined artillery fire Friday night to beat the Road Runners, 9 to 8. When the Berger men start hitting, they are very hard to stop. Tonight's contest, moved from 8:30 to 8:45 on account of the Allred political rally here tonight, is likely to be one of these "wild affairs" for which the two teams are noted.

Both squads will be guests of the Eagle Buffet at 5:30 for the promised chicken dinner. Just before the game tonight, some couple will be given a prize for being the fastest and attending the most games. The following additional prizes will be awarded as soon as the tournament statistician has completed his work:

First home run—$5 meal ticket from Court House Cafe (already won by Sugar of Canadian).

Player showing best sportsmanship—$5 worth of cleaning and pressing from De Luxe Cleaners.

Player batting in most runs—10 gallons of Road Runner gas by B. and B. Lubricating company.

Most sensational play of tournament—$5 of gag and change of oil, M. A. Graham, wholesale agent for Texas company.

Catcher throwing out most players—Tie and collar pin by Diamond Shop.

Player making most errors—Pair Florsheim shoes by Kees & Thomas.

Player with best batting average—$5 wine set by City Drug.

Best infielder—$5 fountain pen by Fatheree Drug.

Best catcher—$5 fountain pen by Pampa Drug No. 2.

Player stealing most bases—$3 cleaning and pressing by Voss Cleaners.

Best outfielder—3 suits cleaned and pressed by No-D-Lay Cleaners.

FOOD CODE AUTHORITY PROMISES TO STOP FOOD PRICE ADVANCES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Food merchants promised today to help the government halt the growing spread between the prices the farmer gets and the consumer pays.

The drought's effect on the cost of living has aroused several United States agencies. Officials indicated that prices the housewife pays were rising even more rapidly than the prices paid producers.

The national food and grocery distributors code authority pledged its support to the agriculture department's fight against profiteering and speculation. The code authority speaks for 6,000 food wholesalers and jobbers and 350,000 retailers.

The treasury and agriculture departments were drawing regulations today to put into effect President Roosevelt's move to get feed for livestock. The president has signed a proclamation lifting import duties on feed, which will come mostly from Canada.

Turning to another aspect of the farm situation, statistics showed today that southern farmers participating in the government's cotton pool and loan program stand to profit $17,500,000 for each rise of one cent in the price of cotton.

They will receive in the final settlement the difference between the 10 cents per pound advanced them by the government and the market price which was 13.06 cents Saturday, less a small carrying charge.

About 1,000,000 bales are held in storage under commodity credit corporation loans of 10 cents per pound. In this case farmers will receive the difference between loan value and market price less carrying charges.

Two Princesses Are Guarded in Glamis Castle
LONDON, Aug. 20. (AP)—Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose of Great Britain's "ruling house" were being guarded by sources close to King George.

Carl Bowles Lyons, brother of the Earl of Strathmore, said no special precautions are being taken to guard the granddaughters of the king and that an outbreak of scarlet fever was the reason the girls had not been out on shopping trips. They are staying at Glamis Castle, in the highlands of Scotland.

The Sunday Express said the princesses and their parents, the Duke and Duchess of York, were being guarded as though "every casual visitor in the vicinity of the castle were a potential gangster."

Arapahoes Make 'Rain Medicine,' Scorn Cheyenne

GEARY, Okla., Aug. 20 (AP)—Stiffing at the rain-making of the Cheyennes, the Arapaho Indians—450 of them—set out today to mix their own medicine.

The annual sun dance ceremony started last night at the Indian camp on the North Canadian river. It will be climaxed beginning Wednesday by an arduous, 3-day dance. "Cheyenne get little rain," said Charlie Loneman, a brave. "Arapaho make flood."

He referred to the light shower that climaxed the rare "animal dance" of the Cheyenne a week ago.

Aged chiefs entered a ceremonial pipe last night for a 3-day preparation of the five stalwart young braves who will dance on Sunday Wednesday until Saturday evening without food or water.

Tom toms were stilled, for the camp must be quiet until the braves, their naked bodies painted with the sun, moon, and stars, begin the dance in a big arbor of green boughs.

PHILLIPS AS NO TROUBLE IN DEFEATING HUBER 8-5 TO ENTER FINALS

CARBON TEAM STAGES 3-RUN RALLY IN 9TH

$1,000 PRIZE WILL BE AT STAKE THIS EVENING

Two major teams battled in the semi-finals of the Pampa Invitation baseball tournament Sunday afternoon for the right to meet the Road Runners in the finals at 8:30 o'clock tonight. Phillips 66 sluggers punched out an 8-to-5 victory which was featured by a 3-run rally in the last of the ninth inning by Huber Carbon.

Phillips scored three runs in the first inning and added one run in each of the fourth, sixth, and seventh innings, and a pair in their last time up. Huber pushed across one counter in the first inning but went scoreless thereafter until the 8th, when another was made. They worked up a fine show of spirit which netted 3 runs in the ninth but Phillips choked them off short of the danger point.

Neither team was at its best. Dick, sensational slugger and first baseman for Phillips, missed his transportation at Berger, arrived late, and was not used. He was replaced by C. Christian, who fielded well but added materially to Pitcher Blair's strikeout record. Huber, minus her regular catcher because of an injury had to move Collins from the outfield to receive Blair's slants.

It was a rather listless game, with Phillips 66 players inclined to day-dream about tonight's crucial contest with the Road Runners—a game they must win to enter the tournament. The $1,000 prize will be at stake tonight.

Parquhar, third baseman for Phillips, took hitting honors yesterday with 3 out of 5, one 2-bagger, but shared equally with Jackson, center fielder, who collected three singles. Blair of Huber, with 8 strikeouts, was the more impressive hurler despite use of a substitute catcher, but the hits off him were bunched and combined with errors. Every Huberite except Cobb and Christian got collected off Haddock, and Holland got 2 but they were scattered. Blair was wild at times, walking 7 men and making 2 wild pitches.

Phillips 66 will be back tonight in fighting trim. With the big money at stake every play is expected to be tense and interesting. The gates of the park will open at 7:30, an hour before the game, to allow time for handling the huge crowd expected.

MISSIONS ARE LEADING BUGS THREE GAMES

GALVESTON LOSES TWO IN ROW TO DALLAS; ERRORS COSTLY

The way of baseball is uncertain. Two days ago Galveston and San Antonio were in a deadlock for the Texas league leadership. With both teams bearing down and with their pitchers going good, little did fans anticipate that today the Missions would be three full games in front. That is the exact margin by virtue of San Antonio's three straight triumphs over Fort Worth and Galveston's three consecutive losses to Dallas.

It may be premature to write finish to the career of America's most colorful polo internationalist, Tommy Hitchcock, but there is strong reason for suspecting that the second head injury he has suffered within a year will limit his future big league activities, if it has not actually ended them.

WANING POWER OF HITLER SEEN IN GERMANY'S PLEBISCITE

FOUR MILLION VOTE AGAINST 'DER FUEHRER'

DEFINITE OPPOSITION HAS INCREASED RECENTLY

BY ELMER W. PETERSON, Associated Press Foreign Staff. BERLIN, Aug. 20 (AP)—Germany has given Adolf Hitler a thirty-eight million vote "ja."

In Sunday's one-man election, called to let the people say by ballot if they approved Chancellor Hitler's action in naming himself, upon the death of President von Hindenburg, as president too, the vote was:

"Yes"—38,362,760; "no"—4,294,654; "invalid"—872,296.

Some see in these preliminary official figures a waning in enthusiasm for Hitler, pointing out that yesterday's "no" votes were more than twice the number cast in last November's plebiscite. Attention is also called to the sharp decline in the volume of Nazi party votes as compared with the November voting.

In the November plebiscite there were 43,453,000 "ja" votes, and in the November re-ehstg election the Nazi vote was 39,655,24.

With but few exceptions, the 35 major voting districts produced in yesterday's election fewer "ja" votes than were cast in November. Some see this as a failure of the German voters to respond to the appeals of Nazi orators the past few days that a large affirmative vote be cast so the world might know the nation is solidly behind "mein Fuehrer"—President-Chancellor Hitler.

Regardless of how the balloting may be interpreted abroad, the results have been accepted by Nazis as full evidence of their strength.

Today has been set aside as a "day of victory" with Nazi flags unfurled throughout the Reich in celebration of the new conquest.

CENTENNIAL NEWS ITEMS

Official Pledge Adopted by the Texas Centennial Commission:

"I will think—talk—write—do my best to give to my country the best of my love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be."

The following items were published in the Texas Centennial News, official publication of the public committee of the Texas Centennial Commission, Corsicana, Texas, and furnished to Texas newspapers for publication so that the citizenship of Texas may keep informed of Centennial activities over the state.

The Retail Merchants association in Houston, acting officially, has endorsed the plan of a Houston committee to bring the central celebration of the Texas Centennial of 1936 to that city.

Enthusiasm by this evidence of interest upon the part of the leading merchants of the city, the committee having the campaign in charge there is preparing to submit to Houston citizens its definite proposal immediately which after being ratified will be given the Texas Centennial Commission for action on September 1.

"That appears to us to be a very definite sign that the substantial, far-seeing, progressive people of this city agree with us that the Centennial would be a great thing for us," Clarence R. Wharton, head of the committee, said.

"It encourages us to believe that the campaign to be staged for signatures on a city-wide petition will be successful."

Beginning on Monday of this week hundreds of copies of petitions pledging support of the signers to the Houston Centennial proposal were placed in circulation and are meeting with an enthusiastic response. Patriotic organizations, industrial firms and civic clubs are circulating the petitions.

Leaders of the Houston movement assert that the winning of the Centennial celebration would mean a building program of $25,000,000 for Houston, and they forecast that the event would bring a minimum of $100,000,000 in new money to that city. They also pointed out that many buildings erected to house various aspects of the celebration would remain as permanent structures. Landscaping plans for the site which Houston is to offer also are being worked out.

Confidence is expressed by the Houston committee that the celebration will reimburse both the State and Houston for all expenditures, and it is expected the city's proposal will be in definite form within a short time.

A whirlwind campaign is in progress with 1200 working. The objective of the campaign is to secure the names of 30,000 citizens of Houston to a petition calling for a bond election to finance the staging of the celebration in that city. The election will not actually be called until after September 1 when Houston determines whether or not the bid it will offer to the commission in Austin has been accepted.

The campaign is being waged along the lines of a community chest drive with volunteer workers from patriotic and other organizations, business and industrial establishments. The workers have been spurred on by an editorial in the Houston Chronicle, of which Jesse H. Jones, president of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, is publisher saying that the time for action in Houston has come.

According to preliminary plans, the Centennial will be located on Buffalo Bayou, between the Civic Center and Shepherd Drive. The city already has a tract of 156 acres. Two hundred acres are needed for the exposition. No trouble in getting the extra 44 acres is anticipated.

The bayou tract will be landscaped and beautified, according to plans. It ultimately will be transformed into a beautiful park with lagoons, flower gardens, walks, fountains, waterfalls, and other attractions. Thus the money voted for the centennial will not be for a temporary project, since the park will become one of the city's permanent improvements.

Belief that the Centennial will bring in enough revenue to retire the bond issue and reimburse the state for money contributed toward the project was expressed by Mr. Flaxman.

The victory came after a day of quiet, orderly voting, unmarred by disturbance.

The results of the voting showed a distinct loss of Hitler support in certain provinces and major voting districts and the failure of Hitlerism to exceed past election results is expected in political circles to influence the Nazi program.

PARIS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Results of the plebiscite in Germany were seen in official quarters today as a blow to Chancellor Hitler's prestige. Despite the huge numerical victory, the fact that there were more than 4,000,000 Germans who voted against der fuehrer was seen as an indication that definite opposition against Hitler had increased since the last plebiscite in Germany.

COTTON MOVES NORTH WAYNE, Neb.—Ralph Jacque's experiment has proved to him that should Nebraska summers become as dry and hot as this one has been, this section of the country would be a good one in which to grow cotton. He has about 40 healthy cotton plants in his back yard, thriving from seed he brought back from Shreveport, La., last spring. The plants are about 6 feet high and are in blossom.

MOVIE STARS DENY PAYING CASH TO REDS

DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS SEEKING DRASTIC INJUNCTION

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 20 (AP)—Four Hollywood film stars vigorously denied radical leanings today while District Attorney Neil McAllister pushed preparations for a drastic injunction making communistic expressions or financial contributions punishable without trial.

One of the screen favorites may be specifically named in the injunction petition. He is James Cagney, who protested he is "100 per cent American" and has no sympathy for the communist party, and has made no financial contributions to it.

Three Mexican movie stars—Lupe Velez, Ramon Novarro and Dolores Del Rio—were as vigorous in their denials of communistic leanings when their names were drawn into radical investigations here.

They were involved only because their names were found written on a slip of paper in the apartment of Caroline Decker, secretary of the Cannery and agricultural workers' union, a communist subsidiary. She is a defendant in a current agrangency trial in the state capital of 24 asserted communists and is one of 17 indicted for criminal syndicalism.

McAllister said that within a week or ten days he would file a petition for a statewide injunction making contributions to or advocacy of any subversive policy contempt of court and punishable by imprisonment without a jury trial.

"I have in no way," said Novarro, "aided either financially or otherwise any communistic organization or any other political organization."

"No," laughed the fiery Lupe. "I don't even know what the blazes a communist is."

"Too silly for words," protested Miss Del Rio. "I know where all my money goes except what I pay for taxes."

By The Associated Press.

Democrat and republican leaders alike expressed sorrow today at the death of Speaker Henry T. Rainey, of whom President Roosevelt said that he "kept the spirit of youth."

"I shall always think of him," the president messaged from the yacht Sequoia on the Potomac, "as a humanitarian whose fine patriotism, though first of all what he conceived to be the well being and the interests of the common man."

Vice President Garner, who was Rainey's predecessor in the speaker's chair, was so deeply shocked that he was unable to comment immediately.

"We are deeply grieved at the passing of Mr. Rainey," Mrs. Garner said at their home at Uvalde, Texas, last night. "Mr. Garner was shocked at the news and is unable to talk now."

Other comment: Representative Byrns of Tennessee, majority leader: "I had understood he was improved, and the news of his death was a great shock to me."

Representative Snell of New York, minority leader: "He had the love and respect of all his colleagues in the house. He was a high type of man in every respect."

Postmaster General Farley: "He was speaker of the house during probably the most momentous time in our country's history and made a record that will be remembered for generations to come."

Representative Bankhead (D., Ala.) chairman of the powerful rules committee: "His death will mean a great loss to the country and to the administration."

Bruce A. Campbell, chairman of the Illinois democratic state committee: "The manner in which he handled the affairs of the house during the past session and during the most critical period of this nation's history will immortalize the name of Mr. Rainey as a parliamentarian."

Senator Adams (D., Colo.): "He was a wonderfully fine character and had the respect not only of the members of the house but also of the senate and the administration."

Rep. Thomason (D., Texas): "He was a benevolent and big hearted man, and his interest and friendship proved of great help to the younger members of congress."

Killing of Mrs. Debolt Depicted By Arthur Wilson

EL PASO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Prosecutors today moved a case against Arthur C. Wilson, 30-year-old Cleveland steel chemist and confessed slayer of Mrs. Irene Debolt, wealthy Cleveland widow, whose nude body was found on a desert near Van Horn, Texas, last November.

Brought back here from Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, where he fled after the slaying, there was a possibility that Wilson would be tried in Fort Worth, Wilson's statement to officers, detailing the slaying, said he killed Mrs. Debolt at Fort Worth and then drove hundreds of miles across the state to Van Horn, where he left the body.

Herbert Wade, assistant district attorney of Tarrant county, said immediate steps would be taken to determine if his county had proper jurisdiction in the case. He said steps would be taken to take Wilson back to Fort Worth if the jurisdiction could be established, but that otherwise, Tarrant county authorities would aid in the prosecution in any other county.

Wilson, when interviewed by an El Paso Times reporter in the presence of officers, told of how he killed Mrs. Debolt after a long series of petty quarrels. He said Mrs. Debolt struck him at Fort Worth and he seized an iron and hit her four or five times. Wilson said he tied a cord around her neck, put her body in a trunk back of the car and took it to Van Horn, where he left it on the desert.

LOOT COMES HOME HOLLISTER, Calif.—The case of Clarence Swain, charged with horse stealing, has a boomerang angle.

Swain had gone a few miles from the ranch of William Canfield, where he allegedly stole the horse, when the animal balked, wheeled around and ran away, right back to the starting place.

Acting Sheriff Samuel P. Hubler, summoned by Canfield's wife, was on hand to make the arrest.
