Twinkles

City and county budgets are being completed. In the Panhandle at least, it is safe to say that "the who runs may read." The county budget is ready for the reading, and a public hearing will be held later.

Now is as good a time as any to start predicting rain. In more normal times, the rain-makers choose this time to start their monkey business. The law of averages is much in their favor.

The Childrens Index recently published a "rain or no pay edition." It didn't rain by the time set hence the paper lost in the slush. Maybe it was one of those "noble gestures."

New Mexico has a stiff gasoline tax and a sales tax to keep a share of tourists' money for the dear old state. Now if it would contrive to keep its wind-blown soil at home we'd raise no complaint.

Women's hands are growing larger, say the glove-makers. And the West Foster grouch adds that maybe it's because the ladies have not found it profitable to squeeze their hands into husbands' shrinking change pockets. "In times like we've been having."

Brevitorials

Musings of the moment: Perhaps this is a good way to start an argument. It is the writer's hope that sex is a relative, not a positive thing. Masculinity is recessive or suppressed in the female and femininity is recessive in the male. The psychological differences can be lessened by environment. It is the writer's hope that women, we read, be submissive, to sacrifice, to slave for an ideal or a loved one. The writer deduces that women are happiest when they are more in subjection to the males than they are now. The best husbands, psychologically, are the savage males for whom the females draw the water, cut the wood, cultivate the crops. Is a woman without sacrifice, without a dominating male, without something to serve, unhappy? We leave the answer to you, our readers.

STRATOSPHERE

fliers could justify their risks by telling us things we do not now know about the rainfall, or lack of it. Despite our advances in science, there is little that we know accurately about the weather. We understand the nature of clouds, thunder, and lightning, but we do not understand the cause of droughts enough to predict them. Droughts are remarkably like economic depressions; they are as sure as sunset but as unpredictable as a balky mule. The Bible leads us to believe that cycles of approximately 7 years are to be expected and preparations made therefor. The men who were the constitution of the United States did not foresee that our vast natural resources would some day fail to prevent suffering. The Bible shows us a remedy, but the cooperation therein described would today be denounced as too radical. Yet we may have to learn, as a society, as well as individuals, that we must lay in store for periods of protracted droughts, and distribute according to need.

THE COUNTRY

has a score or more of desperate criminals at large. Raymond Hamilton and his cronies are presumably in the southwest. George Nelson, John Hamilton, and Homer Van Meter of the Dillinger force top the federal list. Some of us would know Hamilton and Blackie Thompson of the southwest gang on sight. Most of us would know none of the other gangsters if one or more should pay us a call. But there are men in this country who must keep scores of faces in mind. Uncle Sam is building up a formidable force of legally trained officers. They will range across state and county lines which restrict other peace officers. They will be less tempted by bribery. They are necessary cogs in our modern law enforcement machinery.

THESE FEDERAL

men are often forced to work without the aid of city and county officers. They know by experience that most large local departments are full of leaks. Local raids are often "framed" affairs after the "birds" sought have been tipped. Then there is the fact that state laws have been so constructed by criminal lawyers that the criminals defended—and not society—get the breaks. As society grows more complex, local units of government will more and more be ignored in the enforcement of law. A county 30 miles square is a pitifully small area into which to restrict a sheriff, for instance, in his remunerated probe of a bank robbery. We must learn to make our units of government larger and to submerge our local jealousies. It will be a hard lesson but a necessary one. Our governmental units were largely built on the principle of a day's ride by horse-drawn vehicle. On the same principle, our counties of today could be enlarged several times with equal logic.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy, probably thundershowers in southeast portion tonight and Saturday.

EIGHTEEN CARS TUESDAY TO ADVERTISE P. O. OPENING AND BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

NEED MORE CARS FOR MONDAY'S TRIP OVER SECTION

Pampa's advertising caravans of Monday and Tuesday to publicize the postoffice dedication and baseball tournament were taking form slowly today.

Eighteen cars are assured for Tuesday but only ten for Monday. Twenty-five or more will be needed to make a good showing. In addition to cars, many trippers without cars are desired. Merchants are requested to assign one or more representatives to the trip and to notify the E. C. D. Names of trippers and firms they represent will be published in The NEWS and in newspapers of the towns visited.

Among the things to be distributed on the trip will be blotters entitling the holders to a free show at La Nra theater Wednesday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock. Only out-of-town folk will be admitted to see Zasu Pitts and Slim Sumnerville in "Love Birds." A 20-piece band will accompany the trippers.

The postoffice dedication will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Congressman Marvin Jones and Post Inspector F. L. Clamptt of Austin will be the main speakers. Mayor W. A. Bratton will preside.

After the dedication, everyone will be welcomed to a free courtesy baseball game at Road Runner park between the Road Runners and the Coltexe nine. The first Pampa invitation tournament will open on Thursday afternoon. Games will be played each afternoon and evening until the tourney ends.

The trips of Monday and Tuesday will advertise the two entertainment events throughout this territory. Cars will leave the high school campus at 8 a. m. on both days. A trippers' luncheon will be held at 10 a. m. on both days.

48 Arrests For Drunkenness Are Made in Month

Officers of the police department made 107 arrests in July, most of them for intoxication or traffic violations.

There were 48 arrests for drunkenness, 1 for vagrancy, 2 for affray, 6 for disturbing the peace, 9 for speeding, 9 for overtime parking, 15 for other traffic violations, 13 for investigation, 1 for illegal peddling, and 3 for theft.

Nineteen cases were dismissed and 1 sent to higher court. Fines assessed totaled $469.75, of which $430.25 was collected. Prisoners worked 15 days and served an aggregate of 44 days in jail. Meals served prisoners totaled 167.

The city water department pumped 48,079,000 gallons of water in July for a daily average of 1,550,000 gallons.

The park was watered 24 hours daily and the city also consumed much water at the city hall, fire station, boulevards, and municipal plant. Thirteen churches are on a flat rate basis. A few of them noticeably used more water than necessary, most of it running off the lawns and down adjacent curbs.

The cemetery is another place where much water is used.

CLINT SMALL TO VOTE FOR TOM HUNTER

AMARILLO, Aug. 3. (AP)—State Senator Clint Small, of Amarillo, who ran fourth for governor in the democratic primary last Saturday, said today he would vote for Tom Hunter in the second primary, but would take no active part in the campaign.

"So many people are asking the question as to which of the two candidates for governor I shall see in the runoff primary I have decided to answer all of these questions at one time, in a public statement," Small said. The statement continued:

"My campaign for law enforcement was made in good faith and with a sincere desire to improve conditions in business life and also in the social structure. The deplorable conditions that now exist are due to a lack of effort on the part of those now vested with authority. This being true I naturally want a new order of things and will vote for Mr. Hunter for governor."

"I am not attempting to tell any friend of mine how he should vote. The class of people who gave me their support need no help to arrive at the proper conclusion. I shall take no interest in the campaign further than to cast my vote."

Convicts Mum in Escape Inquiry

HUNTSVILLE, Aug. 3. (AP)—Texas prison officials questioned two convicts for two hours today without getting a single additional lead on the sensational escape of Raymond Hamilton and two other condemned men from the death house here on July 22.

Jim Patterson, guard charged in the break, who admitted late last night he had received $500 to tell a convict about a letter hidden in the prison baseball yard, was not questioned today.

"We are going to let him think it over for a day," Lee Simmons, general manager of the system, said. Warden W. W. Ward, said that a tall man wearing a white hat and dark glasses, gave him $500 in $5 and $10 bills to tip the convict off about the letter.

Roosevelt Is Back In 'God's Country'

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 3. (AP)—Bronzed, erect, and happy, President Roosevelt, after an unprecedented presidential tour of American tropic possessions and Hawaii this morning returned to the mainland of his nation.

Jimmie Allred To Open Campaign in Dallas Tomorrow

DALLAS, Aug. 3. (AP)—James V. Allred, attorney general, said today he would open his run-off campaign for election as governor at a state-wide meeting of friends and supporters here tomorrow.

He said he was unable to name the exact hour because the assembly would not start until after the Dallas county democratic convention was over.

Allred arrived early today from Amarillo.

COURT ORDERS ARE IGNORED BY ADJUTANT

ARMY REFUSES CIVIL SHERIFF ACCESS TO BARRACKS

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 3. (AP)—Temporarily quitting the scene of his tense political war with Mayor T. Semmes Walmley in New Orleans, Senator Huey P. Long came to the state capital this morning by automobile, reviewing reports that he planned to call a special session of the legislature to take a hand in his dispute with Walmley.

Senator Long went at once to Gov. O. K. Allen's executive suite.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 3. (AP)—Surrounded by the guns of the mobilized national guard at Jackson Barracks, Adjutant General Raymond H. Fleming today replied to a civil district court order for dismissal of the troops by directing his officers to fortify their positions.

Sentries at the gateway of the barracks refused the civil sheriff access to the command of the state militia when they sought to serve the court order on him, and Fleming, over the telephone, told news-men:

"I shall carry out the governor's orders. I have given my officers orders to fortify their positions." The court order calling for demobilization of the troops, summoned to duty in the bitter factional dispute between the political forces to Senator Huey P. Long and Mayor T. Semmes Walmley of New Orleans, was secured late yesterday by city attorneys.

The civil sheriff and the chief of police were ordered to "stand by" with the court summons last night but were unable similarly to serve the adjutant general.

Meanwhile, national guard officers sent a fresh detachment of 100 men to the barracks. The detachment was ordered to stand by in the barracks and to load additional machine guns at the office, just across a narrow street from city hall, where Mayor Walmley has massed scores of heavily armed police. Advised that the courts had been unable to reach Fleming, Mayor Walmley said:

Several Wells Have Temporary Potentials

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE, Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

With five new locations and five completions reported this week, drilling activity has not increased. There are still 199 wells in active operation, counting the wildcats in the adjoining counties. There are several wells cleaning out on temporary potentials, but no spectacular wells have shown up since last week.

NEWSMEN WIN FIGHT Traffic Lights Are Ready

Stop-and-go signal lights on North Cuyler street will likely be put into operation during the day. Left turns will be permitted on the green. Right turns on the red will be permitted after motorists come to a full stop.

Traffic violators are probably unaware that permanent records are being made of their offenses by the police department. A card index system is being used. When a person "tagged" fails to report to police headquarters, a red tab is attached to his record.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER FOUR SECTIONS ON WILLIS PRICE RANCH

FIRE-FIGHTERS CHECK FLAMES ON THURSDAY

LOSS OF 2,500 ACRES OF GRASS TOTALS $1,000

Fire burned over more than 2,500 acres of grazing land on the Willis Price ranch northwest of Pampa yesterday afternoon. The range, dry from months of rainless weather, burned fiercely and it was not until dark last night that ranchers, ranch hands, and oil field workers got the fire under control.

Although cause of the fire is unknown, it is believed that a match or cigaret dropped by a careless person picking wild plums on the ranch caused the blaze. The fire started along the south edge of the ranch, west of the creek which flows through several ranches in that area, and burned more than three miles of range in a northerly direction. The width of the fire varied from a half mile to 2 miles. At the present lease price of grazing land, the loss will exceed $1,000. There were several hundred head of cattle grazing in the fire area. They stampeded but luckily did not go into any of the numerous ravines in the pasture.

Range land at the present time is about as valuable as water in a desert country.

NAKED CADDIES PICKET SWANKY CHICAGO LINKS

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (AP)—The swanky Exmoor Golf club in Highland park fought off the spread of nudism today.

The nudists, about a score of them, romped over fairways and greens and splashed around in the water hazards, to the consternation of the golfers.

Freckles By The Hundred Seen at Kiwanis Meeting

Today was "freckle-faced boys and girls day" at the Kiwanis club. Guy McTaggart was in charge of the program and introduced Bob Koster who told the children why they had freckles and why they were considered as the typical healthy American children. Judge Newton P. Willis recited a poem entitled "Freckle Faced Boy," a parody on "The Barefoot Boy."

POSTMASTER AT MOBEETIE NAMED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Acting postmasters named today included: Texas: Hereford, Mina Jones; McBeetie, Grady W. Harris; Sena-graves, Milner T. Cain.

Third and final financial reports on campaign expenses of the first primary are now due.

Dolfuss' Killer

With "Hell Rider" as his last words, Otto Planetta, former Austrian army sergeant, shown in the above photo transmitted to this country by radio, died on the gibbet in Vienna, after confessing that he slew Chancellor Dolfuss in the thwarted Nazi putsch.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (AP)—The nudists, about a score of them, romped over fairways and greens and splashed around in the water hazards, to the consternation of the golfers.

Tax Collector's Resignation and Statement Given

T. W. Barnes, tax collector of Gray county, today issued the following statement:

"Due to the fact that the bonding company which is surety upon my official bond as tax collector of Gray county, Texas, has seen fit to give notice of its intention to withdraw as such surety, which action necessitates the closing of the office of county tax collector until such time as I give a new bond, I have tendered my resignation as tax collector to the Commissioners' court and have requested them to immediately appoint my successor.

County Women Are Given Mention in Clothing Contests

First honorable mention in state clothing contests was won by two Gray county home demonstration club women, Mrs. G. P. Bradbury of Bell and Mrs. N. B. Cude of Kings-mille.

MARY O'DARE LEAVES WICHITA FALLS JAIL

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 3. (AP)—Federal agents today left the county jail with Mary O'Dare, former consort of Raymond Hamilton but declined to say where they were going.

Tom Hickman of the State highway patrol said she was taken away only for questioning.

John Davenport, an attorney, still planned to appear in court this afternoon for a hearing on a habeas corpus petition he filed for her release.

Mary O'Dare was arrested here last night and was held incommunicado for federal authorities.

FOOTER RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Foote arrived here today from Colorado, where the Rev. Foote, pastor of the First Methodist church, has been attending the Illinois School of Theology at Denver.

WOMEN ARE BARRED FROM HINDENBURG MEMORIAL CEREMONY

KAISER SENDS MESSAGES BY CROWN PRINCE

FUNERAL TO BE HELD TUESDAY ON SITE OF BATTLE

By GUENTHER BEUKERT (Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press.)

NEUDECK, Germany, Aug. 3.—Germany's former crown prince arrived today at Neudeck, now a nation's shrine, bearing condolences to the Hohenzollerns for the death of their one-time war servant, Paul Von Hindenburg.

Friedrich Wilhelm, once heir to the throne, was, however, but one among thousands of mourners for the old warrior-statesman.

The body of the president lies in state in a huge room of the ancestral estate he loved so well. Fifty candles flicker nearby.

A special guard of honor, at stiff attention, watches.

Messages poured in from throughout the world—from kings and commoners. East Prussian farmers, neighbors of the president sent expressions of their grief along with rulers.

Germany will bid Von Hindenburg farewell Tuesday at Tannenberg. The orator will be Adolf Hitler, who gathered to himself the venerable leader's authority upon his death yesterday.

Special ceremonies will be held Sunday night at the national war memorial at Tannenberg—ceremonies from which women will be barred.

An official announcement said: "In view of the limited space available, invitations to this ceremony will be issued to male participants only."

It was at Tannenberg that Von Hindenburg in 1914 led the German army to a crushing victory over Russia. Germans, who have much to remember Von Hindenburg for, will never forget Tannenberg.

Friedrich Wilhelm arrived by airplane this morning. He is staying at the estate of Von Hindenburg's old cronies, Elard Von Olenberg, amschau. The dead president was a loyal subject of the former emperor and often—after Wilhelm fled Germany—was believed to hold monarchist sympathies.

Arrangements have been made for thousands of mourners expected from Berlin to be conveyed to near-by Hohenstein for lodging on special trains.

The family of the late president last night requested German citizens to refrain from sending floral offerings but, "rather act in the spirit of the deceased and give the money to public charity."

Humble woodchoppers, and other workers on the estate paid their final respects to their master. They filed singly through the room where Von Hindenburg's body lay.

Sobs broke the stillness. A blanket of red roses lay on the bed and a wreath at the foot—sent by east Prussian leaders.

Choruses—both protestant and Catholic—were ordered to sing mourning hymns for one hour every night from 8 until 9 until the day of the funeral. A 14-day period of mourning is being observed by the nation.

War memorial services held last night throughout the Reich on the 20th anniversary of mobilization were generally turned into mourning services for the dead field marshal.

Reichsbishop Ludwig Mueller, preaching in a crowded protestant cathedral in Berlin in the presence of government representatives, said "our thanks to him can be expressed only by labor and fidelity."

Services at Tannenberg will begin at 11 a. m. Tuesday (5 a. m. Eastern Standard Time). The body will be placed in one of the high towers on a corner of the monument.

It will be taken from Neudeck to Tannenberg on a caisson. Hitler and other leaders will follow in motors behind the coffin over the 60-mile road. Soldiers will line the route on either side.

The spot where Von Hindenburg is to be buried is the one where he denounced "the German war guilt lie" in 1927 when dedicating the monument.

Low Cody Goods Sold at Auction

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 3. (AP)—Savvy hunters, men and women seeking practical household goods at bargain prices and hundreds of curious throngs through the house of Low Cody, late film star, as an auctioneer liquidated his estate today.

Sales ranging from a quarter to a few dollars were numerous but the effort of the auctioneer to dispose of the actor's English Norman home at a price of $15,000 or better to satisfy mortgages still lacked success. No bidders appeared.

Last night a group of portraits done by John Becker with a group of famous persons as subjects, were sold at prices which ranged from $2.50 to $12.50.

A picture of the former New York mayor, Jimmy Walker, brought $2.50. Portraits of Clark Gable and the late Fatty Arbuckle were worth $5 apiece to two purchasers. A picture of Gloria Swanson went for $10 and a group of the three Barrymores, Lionel, John and Ethel, brought top price of $12. An auto-graphed picture of Rudy Vallee brought 60 cents.

Two Die and 4 Are Injured in Cannery Crash

AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (AP)—The Travis county relief board today planned to investigate the collapse of a section of a floor of the federal cannery which resulted in the death yesterday of two persons and injury to four others.

Two men, both workers in the cannery, were fatally injured by an avalanche of cans packed with meat which hurtled from the second floor of the cannery to the main floor when beams gave way. Numerous other employees escaped by inches, fleeing from the building when the timbers started cracking.

The dead were: E. D. Daugherty, 34; Cecil Swanzalis, 27.

The injured were Mrs. Lola Pevebeus, director of the canning project, and Clyde Woods, William Baker and Walter Willmon.

A portion of the second floor was used as a store house for the canning plant products. The section of the floor that broke under the strain was loaded with about 8,000 pounds of meat and other products.

Doak Rainey, Travis county engineer, who made a preliminary investigation at the request of relief officials, said he believed supporting beams had been weakened by "dry rot."

Plans for reconstructing the demolished portion of the building were made. Relief officials ordered reinforcements of the floor with additional beams and joists and prohibited use of the space for storage of packed cans.

The building was approximately 40 years old.

Fall Trade to Be on a More Orderly Basis

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—Current indications point to a fall trade not much below that of last year, but on a more orderly basis and "devoid of the extreme fluctuations of that period," says the Dun & Bradstreet weekly business review.

"The maintenance of retail distribution above the comparative level a year ago is one of the most reassuring factors in the present situation," the summary states. "Reports this week showed the largest gains on the Pacific coast where postponed buying of retail needs crowded the stores with shoppers who had been forced to curtail budgets for more than two months on account of the strike."

"In the southwest the industrial and wholesale divisions have been affected seriously by the drought, but retail trade has held up remarkably well, with the gains in sales running steadily around 25 per cent better than at this period a year ago. In the midwest there was a brisk turn for the better in most districts, while in the east, more comfortable summer weather and special promotional events lifted the total of retail sales to the best position achieved in nearly three weeks."

The Illinois Automobile club's director of safety has written to City Manager Stine asking for particulars about how Pampa prevented accidents last year, when this city took second place for cities of its size in a national contest. It is a different matter this year, when five deaths already have resulted from local traffic accidents.

Strangely, the deaths did not occur at the hazardous points in the city. There have been no other accidents reported at the points where fatalities occurred. Speeding and intoxication were blamed in three of the deaths.

"You have kept your confidences," Judge Harlan remarked to the two 23-year-old newspapermen who had reiterated through eleven trials on contempt charges in ten days that they would go to jail daily all summer before they would say who gave them in confidence advance information as to the plan to hang a dummy figure, dressed like Towles in the courthouse yard here July 19.

G. S. Smith Dies at Age of 89 in City

G. S. Smith, 89, died at his home, 217 East Tuke street, Wednesday night following a long illness. The body is at rest at the Stephenson Mortuary pending funeral arrangements.

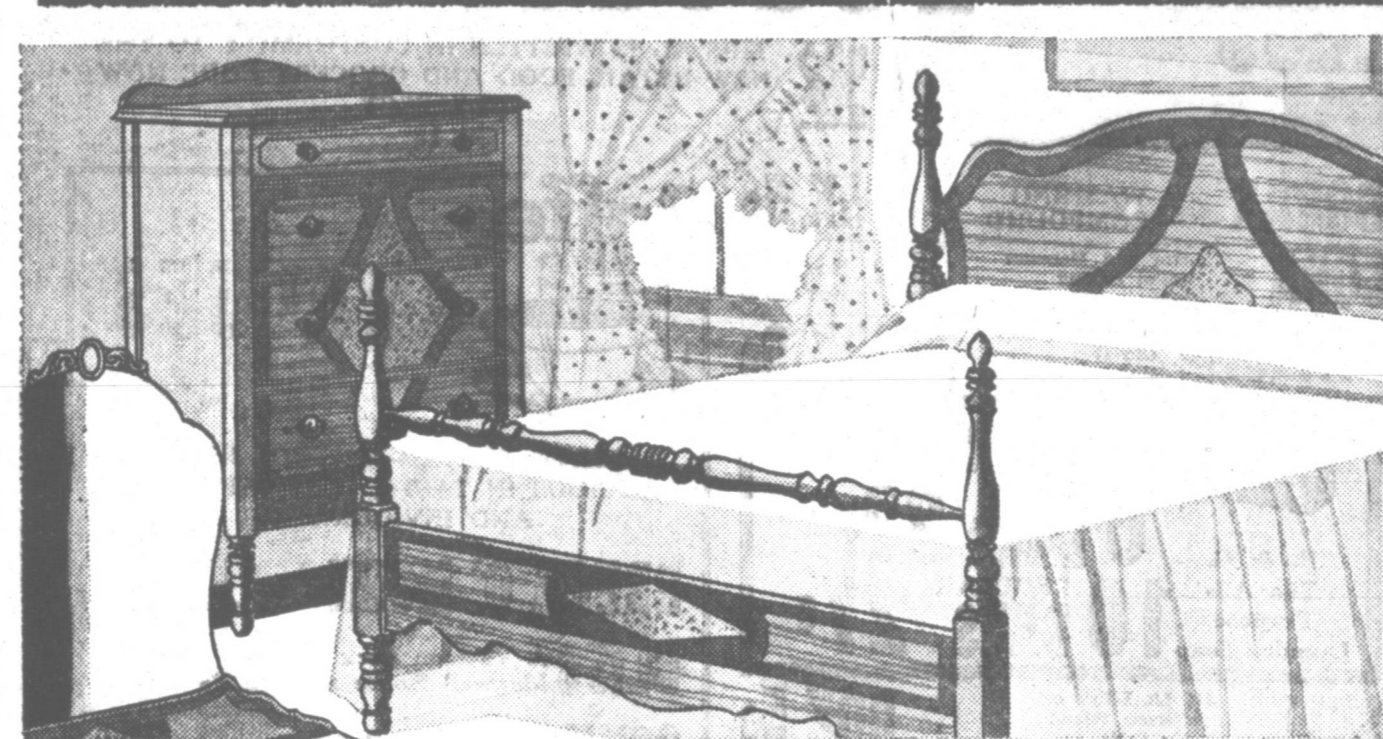

Mrs. Smith, who was 62 years of age, died May 19 and was buried in Fairview cemetery, where Mr. Smith will also be buried upon the arrival of children.

Mr. Smith is survived by two daughters Mrs. A. Rawlings, Ber-iron, and Mrs. Albert Winston, Black Foot, Idaho; seven sons, Sid, and J. W. of Pampa, W. H. of Idaho, R. H., G. W., and Albert, all of Utah, and Andy, Plainview, and one granddaughter, Mrs. R. L. Moley, Pampa.

OILERS LOSE TO GALVESTON IN 12-2 TILT

FORT WORTH DEFEATS HOUSTON 5 TO 3

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jake Atz's skidding Tulsa Oilers prolonged their losing streak Thursday night by losing 12 to 2 to Galveston. Two weeks ago Tulsa loomed as a sure thing for a first division berth and a place in the Shughnessy play-off but today they are struggling to prevent slipping completely out of the pennant picture.

Jack Jakucki, rookie speed baller, blazed his fastest one by Tulsa batters to check them out with eight hits. He registered six strikeouts. Southpaw Frank Barnes' sweeping curve was a "bouncer" for the Buccaneers who clouted it for fourteen hits. Charlie English, with a double and two singles, led Galveston's attack. He batted in two runs and scored one.

Beau Bell, galveston rightfielder and the league's leading hitter, cracked a single and double to lift his batting average to .365.

Husky Rudy York, the reformed catcher who is playing a bang-up rightfield for Fort Worth, lifted home runs No. 24 and 25 over the wall to give Fort Worth a 5 to 3 victory over Houston.

Cotton Phippen refused to respect York's long distance hitting ability and twice threw "fat ones" down the middle and each time the ball sailed over the left field fence for a home run. York mixed a single with his homers to drive across four runs. York now leads Beau Bell in the league's home run race by three circuit wallops.

Rain prevented the playing of other Texas league games.

Oklahoma And Kansas Meet in Quarter-Finals

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 3.—Two visiting golfers brewed their links rivalry today in the quarter-finals of the Broadmoor invitation tourney.

They were Harry Strasburger, Jr., Coffeyville, Kan., who won the tournament in 1927 and was runner-up the next year, and Earl Berryhill, Sapulpa, Okla., who has tried for several years but never had even reached the finals.

Berryhill, tourney medalist, added appreciably to his prestige in the current event by eliminating John Dawson, strong Chicago amateur, yesterday by a 3-and-2 edge. Strasburger rallied to beat Art Huston of Denver, 2 and 1.

Today quarter-final matches today pit Jack Malloy, Tulsa, against Charles Newbold, Wichita, Kan.; Brown Cannon, Denver, against M. L. Massingill, Fort Worth, and Harry Todd, Dallas, against Norris Russell, Denton, Texas.

Malloy beat Alva Adams, Jr., Pueblo, 5 and 4 yesterday. Newbold defeated Art Blomquist, Colorado Springs, 1 up in an extra-hole match. Cannon stopped a fellow townsmen, Ralph Wilkin, 3 and 2. Massingill bested N. C. Morris, who had won the title twice previously, 2 up. Todd subdued Chet Alderton, Colorado Springs, 5 and 4, and Russell easily defeated E. P. Brady, Kansas City, 6 and 5.

Fred Perry to Marry Actress

LONDON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Fred Perry, generally recognized as the world's greatest tennis player, and Mary Lawson, British actress, are to be married after his forthcoming tour of the United States and Australia.

Their engagement was announced last night.

Perry, English holder of a grand slam in tennis titles, and Miss Lawson became friends only a few weeks ago. They became engaged Wednesday night. The Mail said, when she saw him off from the London terminal for exhibition matches at Newcastle.

The tennis star is 25. Miss Lawson, now engaged in film work, is 23.

Miss Lawson doesn't play tennis, but she has been a spectator at his recent triumphs, including his defeat of Frank Shields of New York in the Wimbledon match that kept the Davis cup for England.

Perry sails for New York next Wednesday to defend his American singles crown. He plans to spend some time in Hollywood before leaving on his Australian tour.

Besides holding the American title, Perry is all-English, British hard court and Australian champion.

HUNTERS FACE SHORTAGE IN DUCKS, GEESE

SUPPLY OF DEER AND FISH CURTAILED BY DROUGHT

AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (AP)—Hunters of wild waterfowl in Texas this fall appear to be facing a season of small bags.

All reports reaching the Texas game, fish, and oyster commission from northern breeding grounds are not calculated to raise the hopes for the hunting to the usual heights. The latest report indicated that breeding in the northern watering places was between 25 and 30 per cent of normal. In itself this wouldn't be serious but breeding conditions for the past few years also have been exceptionally poor and production has dropped off to an alarming figure.

Lack of water in the favorite breeding haunts of the birds was given as the main reason for the sharp decline. There also was a severe food shortage.

With the game commission was receiving discouraging reports on the migratory waterfowl situation it also was greatly concerned over the condition of Texas wild life due to the extensive and prolonged drought.

The deer country was badly damaged by a drought last fall that reduced the fawn crop. This summer's drought has kept deer from progressing normally but with substantial rains over a widespread area in the deer country hope was held that deer would be in fairly good condition for fall hunting.

Turkey, quail and other birds that nest on the ground were reported to be in good shape despite the dry weather. There have been plenty of insects on which they feed.

The chief worry of the game commission has been conservation of fish in streams that dried up and became stagnant. Thousands of fish have been transferred to better habitats but as the dry spell continued the commission was unable to find suitable places to which they could be transferred because nearly all the streams in the state fell to abnormally low stage.

Officials were not disheartened about the fish. They pointed out that fish propagate so rapidly that fishing conditions can be restored to normal in a few years under favorable weather conditions. Great benefit also will be derived ultimately from the fish rescue operations because hundreds of gars, one of the great enemies of fish, have been destroyed in addition to numberless suckers and shad.

That the drought has been severe is seen in reports from Kerrville that white herons, which usually inhabit the swamps and lowlands, have moved up to the Guadalupe river. The movement was caused by lack of feed and water in the swamp lands.

'Rabbit' Writes A Letter About 4th Operation

BOSTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—A young old man of 42, Walter J. "Rabbit" Maranville, who signs himself "as ever, faithfully yours," proves his point today long before he gets to the conclusion of a letter just received by Judge Emil Fuchs, president of the Boston Braves.

It's dated "Rochester General hospital" and it says:

"My dear Judge,

"I went to the hospital last Monday afternoon and was operated on at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for the fourth time. I had the plate taken out and the leg put back in a cast. I must let that remain two weeks to give the leg time to heal. It will then be another case of massaging.

"While I went through a great deal, even against your advice, I now feel fine again and would appreciate that you did not want me to go through this thing again and be satisfied instead with remaining on the coaching line, you will be surprised when I come back to the club.

"The young fellows of today will have to be a lot smarter and better to beat me out of my job at second base, the 'old man's job.' If this leg of mine comes through as promised by the doctors, I will be making the young fellows look foolish until I'm fifty.

"Mrs. Maranville joins me in sending our love to Mrs. Fuchs and yourself.

"As ever, faithfully yours,

"RABBIT."

The Rabbit broke his leg in a spring training exhibition with the Yankees in St. Petersburg, Fla., this spring.

LAST GAME IN WEEK WILL BE HERE TONIGHT

BORGER'S PHILLIPS '66' TEAM WILL PLAY PAMPANS

The last regular baseball game to be played here before the opening of the Pampa Invitation Baseball tournament next Thursday will be staged at Road Runner park at 8:30 o'clock tonight when the Phillips '66' Oilers of Borger come here for a game with the Road Runners.

A game will be played Wednesday night at the opening of the tournament, but will be a free affair for visitors to the formal opening of the new Pampa postoffice. At that time the Road Runners and LeFors will clash.

The Borger aggregation will be making its first appearance under Pampa lights before the opening of the Phillips field.

Ethel Bill Hardin or Pete Stegman will be called to the mound to face the "66" heavy artillery. Eddie Sain will do the receiving. Don Benn, who will help Sain with the catching job, will not be here until late this week.

Big Mulrooney or Ellis are likely to get the nod for Borger, with Francis catching. The veteran combination has proved costly to the Road Runners already this season. Several new players will appear in Borger uniform. Gather and McManahan have moved to LeFors. Their successors have not been made public.

CLINGMAN TO FACE M'SHAIN MONDAY NIGHT

Salior Otis Clingman will return to the wrestling wars in Pampa Monday night and it will be a wild reception he will receive. He has been matched to meet Danny McShain, wild Irish mauler, in the main event at Road Runner park.

FAVORITE EXPECTED TO USE PILE-DRIVER TRICK HERE

In case of rain or bad weather, which will cause postponement of the match, tickets purchased in advance will be honored at the next wrestling match to be staged at Road Runner park. It may be that the card would be somewhat different, but the tickets would be good to that affair.

A great semi-final has been arranged to support the main event Monday. It will bring Rod Penton, fighting Canadian, to the mat with Cyclone Mackey, Irish-American who comes from Amarillo. Barber Kelly, local artist, will meet Lobo Brown of Amarillo in the preliminary, which will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Clingman has not been seen here in several months. He has been strong in Amarillo since his return from the east, where he learned a lot of new tricks. One of them is the "pile driver." Clingman gets his man in a type of flying mare and instead of swinging him, he raises him off the mat and then attempts to drive the lead and shoulders through the mat and boards. It is a most unpleasant feeling, victims remark.

Fama wrestling fans know that the baby-faced mauler can take lots of punishment. He will need all his absorbing qualities when he meets this wild McShain, whose chief source of amusement is choking, eye-gouging, kneeling, and other forms of illegitimate torture. It wouldn't surprise fans here if McShain brought a torch to the ring with him to use on his victim's feet, legs, or even head locally, is what Mackey plans to do with Mayhem Rod Penton in the semi-final. The Amarillo grappler has demonstrated that he can take care of himself, but he has yet to meet a mauler of the Penton type. Mackey has named a number of tough maulers and he may name Penton.

The wild Canadian is getting in shape to make Dutch Mantel let him back in the elimination race for a chance at Gus Kallio's crown. Penton has promised both Hill and Clingman that he will get them back in the battle, because all are on the same footing. Penton, who doesn't like McShain, failed to mention his name.

The match between Barber Kelly and Lobo Brown has been arranged to open the match. Kelly has not been on the mat with Brown in more than two years.

Hunter Club to Comb Panhandle For Ballots Soon

AMARILLO, Aug. 3.—The organization of a Panhandle-wide Tom F. Hunter for governor club has been started here this week with Fred Seale as chairman. Plans are being formulated to carry Mr. Hunter's campaign into every county of the Panhandle in the coming run-off election to Hunter's strong support, a chairman and a group of supporters working for Mr. Hunter's election will be set up in every Panhandle county.

Mr. Seale, who was active in the Hunter campaign during the time preceding the first primary, called attention to Hunter's strong showing in this section, in the face of a Panhandle candidate for governor.

"The Hunter organization has not been very active up to the present, because we have felt that with the local favorite in the field that we meet the people of this section the opportunity to vote for their choice in the first primary without too strong a plea for our candidate," Mr. Seale said.

"However, it is with pride that we point to the result in Hunter's home town. The three Wichita Falls candidates for the office of governor voted in the same precinct. Hunter carried that precinct, lead in the city of Wichita Falls and in Wichita county. He lacked only a small number of votes of getting a clear majority over all five opponents in the county. We are especially pleased with the strong showing he made in the Panhandle, and recall to mind the wonderful support accorded him in this section two years ago when he was unknown to people here.

"Mr. Hunter has at heart the best interests of all the people of Texas and we are confident that this fact will be recognized before the end of this run-off campaign."

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Olmsted and children returned yesterday from Rocky Ford, Colo., where Mr. Olmsted, construction engineer in charge of the Pampa postoffice building, made an inspection of the new postoffice in that city. They also visited points of interest in Colorado.

Mrs. Langer to Try Ferguson Act in Dakota

BISMARCK, N. D., Aug. 3 (AP)—Mrs. William Langer, wife of North Dakota's deposed governor, has stepped into her husband's place as a gubernatorial candidate in the fall election.

To the cheers of supporters of her husband, who dramatically stepped aside yesterday and relinquished the republican gubernatorial nomination he won overwhelmingly in the primaries, Mrs. Langer was named by the republican state central committee to make the race against Thomas H. Hoagie, Williston publisher, the democratic candidate.

Mrs. Langer pledged herself to carry out the policies of her husband.

Convicted of conspiracy to solicit political contributions from federal relief workers

Bob Cecil underwent a major operation at Pampa hospital yesterday. His condition was favorable this morning.

BOTH CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR OPPOSED TO PROHIBITION REPEAL

BY R. F. BARRY.

AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (AP)—Wichita Falls may not have termed the home of candidates for governor. Three of the six aspirants for the democratic nomination reside there.

Two of that trio will go into the run-off and number three was third high man in the tabulation of votes. Alford and Hunter will fight it out. McDonald was the runner-up. Strange that the two candidates who are prohibitionists are in the run-off. James E. Ferguson deuces that it is a sign that Texas takes it for granted prohibition deans exist, that one can buy hard liquor anytime, anywhere and that the sellers do not have to pay the state a revenue such as the vendors of 32 beer must remit.

Alford said he was for submission of repeal of state prohibition but that which it was put to the voters he, as an individual, would be opposed to alteration of the existing stringent liquor laws. Hunter had little, if anything, to say about prohibition. Speaking before an anti-prohibition audience during the first campaign someone injected the question. He said he was "a local option prohibitionist."

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson, took defeat of their favorite candidate, C. C. McDonald, good naturedly. They seemed happy when newspaper men visited them and if they were "at outs" with anyone they did not show it.

The woman governor's hat was hung carelessly on a frame containing a photograph of the president of the United States in the executive office. On her desk was a book entitled "Nadlam."

FOOD 'CORNERS' TO BE BANNED BY GOVERNMENT

Artificial Prices To Be Thwarted By A. A. A.

BY STEPHEN J. McDONOUGH. (Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—The government disclosed plans today to thwart wild cat speculation of "corners" in the nation's food in the aftermath of the drought disaster.

Perhaps the most potent weapon is power under the A. A. A. to buy supplies of farm commodities for future use, thereby striking a blow at any attempt to kite prices because of relative scarcity. The foods thus bought by the government could be distributed to the needy, resold through commercial channels or shipped into drought areas where needed.

For the immediate future, officials predict that supplies will be ample and prices relatively low. This is due to heavy marketings, particularly of livestock, which the drought threatened to kill.

Through the winter, though, the normal reaction would be smaller food supplies and higher prices.

The administration will try to level off this variation, guarantee ample supplies for all sections and prevent wild fluctuations in prices. "Security lies somewhere in the way between glut and scarcity," said Victor A. Chigau, acting farm administrator.

An organization is being formed within the administration to determine actual and potential supplies of all food products, availability of imports, normal price ranges, and whether market operators might tie up any large part of these supplies.

When this study is finished a plan of distribution will be drafted. The consumers' council of the A. A. A. headed by Dr. Fred C. Howe, will seek through publicity on prices and accumulation of supplies to prevent consumers from being "pinched" by artificially high prices.

M'KELLAR AND GOVERNOR ARE RENOMINATED

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 3 (AP)—Bullets flew with ballots in Tennessee yesterday. Three men were killed in election quarrels; Governor Hill McAlister and Senator K. D. McKellar were renominated.

LANDSLIDE IN MEMPHIS HELPS M'ALISTER TO VICTORY

The casualty list: John Tallent, 40, fatally wounded in a quarrel at Madisonville.

Beecher Phillips, 17, shot to death in Anderson county. A deputy sheriff was wounded.

Guy Sutherland, shot to death while watching election returns at Pikeville.

A Memphis landslide helped Gov. McAlister to victory. It was the fourth race between him and Pope. Two years ago Pope unsuccessfully contested McAlister's election for the nomination and then ran independently in the general election.

The state's junior U. S. senator, Nathan L. Bachman of Chattanooga, has a neck-and-neck race with Rep. Gordon Browning of Huntingdon for a time, but pulled ahead today as the vote-counting continued.

McKellar, the state's first senator elected by a direct vote of the people, has served continuously since 1917.

Returns from the 9,227 precincts in the democratic primary, as tabulated by the Associated Press, showed:

For governor—1908 precincts: McAlister 155,106; Pope 113,129.

For state long term—1598 precincts: McKellar 147,917; Neal 27,578.

For senate short term—1738 precincts: Bachman 124,370; Browning 92,619.

CONFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

New Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" state on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled "ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a statement which describes the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk"—needed to promote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results.

MARIE DRESSLER LEAVES ABOUT $300,000 TO HER BEST FRIENDS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3 (AP)—The actual value of the estate of Marie Dressler, actress, filed for probate today was not given but was estimated to be at least $300,000.

Mamie Cox, negro maid who was in Miss Dressler's service for a quarter of a century, was bequeathed $35,000 and all the actress' wearing apparel. Jerry Cox, the maid's husband and chauffeur and house man for the screen star, was left $15,000 and her automobiles.

Alan B. Walker, a friend of long standing, who with Mrs. Walker was at the bedside when Miss Dressler died last Saturday in Santa Barbara, was named executor of the estate without bond. The actress requested them to reside in her Beverly Hills home until it is sold, and Cox and his wife are to continue as servants there until the sale, receiving their regular salaries.

As a precaution against imposters who might attempt to claim a share of her estate, and against relatives she did not wish to remember, Miss Dressler state in her will, dated in May, 1934, that she disinherited all persons who might lawfully be determined heirs-in-law, those she named in will excepted.

Mrs. Robert Morris Phillips, New York society woman and intimate friend of the actress, was given a diamond bracelet. Nella Webb, astrologist and advisor of Miss Dressler, was willed $5,000. Ida Sutcliffe, a cousin, was bequeathed $5,000 and May Duryia, an old friend, was left $5,000.

A valuable diamond and pearl brooch was left to Miss Dressler's close companion, Frances Marion, who wrote the script for several of Marie's screen successes. The actress cancelled unpaid notes she held against Starr Anderson and Newell Van Derhoff, her real estate agent.

Miss Dressler ordered the executor to sell all her properties. After the bequests are made, the actress' sister, Bonita Ganthany, residing in England, is to have the remainder of the estate.

GUILD OF YOUNG ACTORS PREPARES TO GIVE FIRST PLAY

WILL PRESENT 'BLACK SHEEP' ON AUGUST 10

COMPANY FORMED OF YOUNGER DRAMA ENTHUSIASTS

A three-act play, the initial effort of a group of young players organized into a summer dramatic company, will be presented at city hall auditorium next Friday, Aug. 10, at 8:15. The play is "The Black Sheep."

It is being directed by Charles Thomas, Pampa youth whose interest in dramatics has extended through high school and college. He was a leader in organizing the company of players, which is known as the Pampa Drama Guild.

Members are young men and women, mostly those of high school age and college age, who are interested in choosing, directing, and presenting plays of a worth while type.

"The Black Sheep," first three-act play of the guild, is the story of a family whose members have gathered to await the death of the old mother. Even while she is dying they quarrel over disposition of her fortune but are chagrined when the will discloses that everything was left to the housemaid with the provision that she attempt to reform the wayward son of the family.

It is a strong drama of human interest, and will be presented by a cast that is working to make the most of every situation, Thomas said.

46-Year Old Debt Paid by Texas Man

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 3. (AP)—Jam's Donohoe, an oil operator of Eatsen, Texas, today paid a 46-year-old debt, amounting to 30 cents, with a $5 check.

Back in 1888, Donohoe, then a red-haired Irish lad, strolled into a confectionery, drank 30 cents worth of "red soda pop" and walked out, flinging a "pay ye later" over his shoulder.

The check came in payment today to H. B. Neman, the clerk on duty at the time. Neman now is a veteran postal employe. He said the letter containing the check was "the greatest surprise he had received in nine years of postal service."

"I had to stop and think for several minutes; then it came back to me," Neman said. "Jimmy Donohoe and I were in the same class so when he kept drinking that pop I couldn't stop him very well."

He recalled that he hadn't heard from Jimmy in more than 45 years. "I'll bet he just got to thinking of old times and remembered that day he charged the pop," Neman concluded.

WILD OIL WELL
PONCA CITY, Okla., Aug. 3. (AP)—The Little Chief oil field, in east Osage county, had a wild well yesterday morning—the Adien No. 5 of the MidContinent Petroleum company. The well, ready for drilling in at a total depth of 2660 feet in the Bartlesville sand, blew the tools out through a pressure head at 6:30 a. m. and began spraying oil and gas over the countryside in a strong wind. Precautions against fire were taken.

The usual summer slump in attendance caused by the extreme heat and vacations has not affected us to any great degree as yet. You are cordially invited to attend any or all these services. You will be welcomed by a warm hand shake that you will not soon forget.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
A thousand years before the Savior came to earth in the form of man, the wise man had written, "He that winneth souls is wise." Nothing in the words of Jesus would change that. Soul winners are still wise for they have a part in saving a few out of a lost world. Sunday morning's message deals with soul winners. Come. Worship with us. 11 a. m. "The Reward of Soul Winners." 8 p. m. "It Takes Two to Make a Contract."

10 a. m. Sunday school. Last Sunday was our best attendance this summer. Let's beat it this Lord's day. Welcome all.

MINISTER ENDS FIRST YEAR IN LOCAL CHURCH

McKenzie Is Asked To Return for Next Year

E. C. McKenzie, minister of the Church of Christ here, completed this week his first year's work with the congregation and has accepted an invitation of the church membership and officers to remain until August 1, 1935.

His first year has seen a marked growth in the church. During the year there have been 152 additions to the membership. A $7,000 building, furnishing adequate Bible school facilities for more than 400 pupils. Increased attendance and interest has been noticeable during the period. All former attendance records in Sunday school and mid-week service have been broken.

Mr. McKenzie has been in the ministry for the past 17 years and has done local work for some of the largest churches of his faith in Texas. He has enjoyed, he says, his year in Pampa and the hospitality of her people.

from a vacation in the mountains of Colorado, will preach at both services. All are welcome to our periods of worship and fellowship.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
401 North Frost Street.
"Love" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 5.
The golden text is: "He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are young" (Isaiah 40:11).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And this commandment have we from our Father, that he who loveth God love his brother also" (1 John 4:21).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "One infinitesimal good unites men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfills the scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself; annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry—whatever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political and religious conditions; sets the sexes; annuls the curse on man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed" (page 340).

Sunday, 11 a. m. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening 8 o'clock. The reading room is open Monday, Wednesday and Saturday from 1 to 4 p. m. and Wednesday evening before and after the services. The public is cordially invited to attend our services and use the reading room.

REVIVAL WILL CONTINUE NEXT WEEK OUTDOORS

FIRST WEEK MARKED BY ENCOURAGING ATTENDANCE

The first week of an outdoor revival in South Pampa will close this evening. Services on the B. M. Baker school campus will continue through next week.

Members of the First Christian church are conducting the services, with preaching by the minister, John S. Mullen. He has announced as his sermon subject Sunday evening, Getting Away From the Dog. The subject Monday will be Gifts of the Spirit and Fruits of the Spirit.

Services begin daily at 8 p. m. Song hours directed by choir leaders of the Christian church precede the sermons.

Attendance in the open air tabernacle has been large all week. All residents of the city are invited.

Bethany Class Is Given Breakfast

Breakfast was served to members of First Baptist Bethany class Wednesday morning, in the weekly business meeting at the home of Mrs. J. F. Reynolds.

Reports of last month's activities were made in the session after breakfast. Offerings given through the class totaled $185.99. Members made 162 visits on class work and 57 visits to the sick, sent 13 trays, 12 bouquets, and made 76 telephone calls. Seven were daily Bible readers. Two went from the class as teachers.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. H. K. Beard, T. B. Solomon, W. E. Towe, T. B. Jamison, L. A. Baxter, King, McLaurine, Wood, O. C. Williams, and the hostess.

Class Meeting Will Be Postponed Week

A meeting of Fidelity class of First Baptist church, announced for this evening, will be postponed to next Friday evening because a number of members are away on vacation, Mrs. C. E. Lancaster, teacher, said this morning.

The business and social session will be conducted on the church lawn next Friday.

Jean Lively to Be Presented in Twilight Recital

A twilight recital at the Presbyterian church Sunday at 5 p. m. will be given by Jean Lively, 11-year-old piano pupil of Mrs. Nina McSkimming. She will be presented by the Pampa Conservatory.

Assisting in the program will be Arlene Saunders, reader; Frances Thompson and Winnie Jean McKenzie, pianists, both of whom will play duets with Jean.

Ushers will be Patricia Lively, Betty Jean Tieman, and Eula Taylor. The program will be open to the public.

Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Lively, and has appeared in many studio and school programs as a pianist.

Club Entertained By Mrs. Cordell

La Femme bridge club was entertained by Mrs. I. P. Cordell Thursday. A color scheme of yellow and green was used.

Mrs. C. S. Alexander scored high and Mrs. Clyde Frye received consolation prize. Iced orangeade and cake were served to them, Mrs. A. E. Marlow, and the hostess.

SINGING CONVENTION Advance announcement of the Gray County Singing convention's next session, on August 12, is made at this week. Singers will meet at the Assembly of God church here. Residents of the entire county are invited.

Why Tell the World You Have Body Odor?

New Way Ends It Instantly Leaves No Medicine-Smell

Famous chemists have discovered the effective answer for body odor—deep-pore cleansing. A new kind of bathing in hard water, made possible by Kirk's Coco Castile soap.

Ordinary soaps, with their thick, sluggish lathers, are being rapidly replaced by this 100% pure vegetable oil soap, made by America's largest soap makers. In this hard water Kirk's Coco Castile breaks instantly into a searching lather that cleans deep into the pores, actually removes stale perspiration beyond reach of ordinary soaps, then rinses out in a flash. Thus body odor is ended in the only effective way—by removing the cause.

Kirk's Coco Castile is delightful to use and stimulating to the skin. Free from offensive M. S. (medicine smell), it ends body odor the odorless way. A big bargain, 50 per cent larger than average toilet soap, it is sold everywhere at the lowest price in history. Be sure to ask for Kirk's Castile by name—at your grocer's.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Elisha Helps the Needy.
Scripture Lesson: 2 Kings 4:1-7, 42-44.

1. Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear Jehovah: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two children to be bondmen.

2. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me; what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thy handmaid hath not anything in the house, save a pot of oil.

3. Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbors, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4. And thou shalt go in, and shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and pour out into all those vessels; and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5. So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons; they brought the vessels to her, and she poured out.

6. And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

7. Then she came, and told the man of God. And he said, Go; sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy sons of the rest.

8. And there came a man from Baalshalah, and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

9. And his servant said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? But he said, Give the people, that they may eat; for thus saith Jehovah, Thy shall eat, and shall leave thereof.

44. So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of Jehovah.

Golden Text: Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me.—Matt. 25:40.

Time: Elisha is ordained a prophet, B. C. 909. The Shunammite's son born, B. C. 812. Elisha and the healing of Naaman, B. C. 897.

Place: Elisha's ministry centered in Samaria, but extended widely over Israel.

Parallel Passage: The events of our lesson are recorded only in 2 Kings.

Introduction
We have already seen in Lesson IV, 1 Kings 19:19-21, how Elisha, the farmer lad, was made a prophet by Elisha, who threw his mantle over the lad's shoulder, and thenceforth Elisha became his lower and servant. When the great prophet was carried to heaven in a whirlwind of fire, Elisha took up his mantle, and from that hour was heir to his power and his influence. But Elisha's disciple and successor was a very different type of man. He was neither so fierce nor so impulsive. He seems gentler and kinder. He impresses us as far more tolerant of human shortcomings, always eager to help and reluctant to denounce people. Instead of dwelling solitary, apart from human kind, he was companionable and loved to be where his fellow-men lived and toiled. Thus the two great prophets complimented one another in marvelous fashion.—Prof. George Dahl, Ph. D.

Elisha a Man of the City
Elisha had been a man of the wilderness, dwelling far from the abodes of men. The free air of the desert had been his vital element; the wild broom of the ways his shade; the awful wilderness of Sinai his chosen retreat in the supreme hour of despondency. Elisha was a man of the city, fond of its streets and crowds. Samaria became his residence for many years. From this center a wide apostolate was carried on, for well nigh fifty years, in every direction. Like Samuel, he seems to have made "circuits" over the whole country, rousing and instructing the people at large. A citizen among citizens, he moved about amidst the people leaning on the staff; his dress was that of ordinary life, nor do we hear of his wearing even the sheepskin mantle of Elisha, which he had inherited. Elisha is noted for the number of his miracles. The wonders recorded of him are a testimony to his gentle and loving nature. He heals the waters of Jericho by casting salt into them from a new cruse, doubtless with invocation of God. He replaces even so slight a loss as that of an axe-head which has fallen through the thickets of the Jordan into the river. While Elisha predicted famine, he foretells plenty.—Cunningham's Guide.

Sons of the Prophets v. 1
"Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets." "Sons of the prophets" is a term that does not mean children of the prophets, but members of the prophetic order. The so-called "schools of the prophets" were not theological seminaries, but were associations of those who already possessed prophetic powers and exercised prophetic functions.

This poor woman went naturally to Elisha for help, as he was the chief of the prophets. "And the creditor is come to take unto him my two children to be bondmen." The poor widow, in order to obtain the bare necessities of life for herself and her children, had been obliged to go farther and farther into debt. The two boys, while she had them, could earn money for her, and they were the only support of the little family.

"What Hast Thou in the House" v. 2
"And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee?" The prophet himself was doubtless poor, and questioned what he could do to relieve poverty. "Tell me; what hast thou in the house?" "A miracle always begins with something. Here it was a condition of poverty. And she said, Thy handmaid hath not anything in the house, save a pot of oil." We are reminded of the widow of Zarephath, who shared with Elisha her "handful of meal in the jar, and a little oil in the cruse" (1 Kings 17:22), and found it increased to last through the rest of the famine. "God can and will do wonderful things with but a small store to work upon, but man must make his contribution to the result."—Rev. Archibald Alexander.

"Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbors, even empty vessels; borrow not a few." "The number of our vessels is the measure of our faith. Remember the outline of William Carey's pioneer missionary sermon: "Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God."
Use Begrets Increase
The moment the woman begins to pour, the oil begins to be multiplied. If she had let it stand it would have remained a single potful. So long as you leave your little gift lying idle God keeps his hands off; when your activity commences, so also does his miracle-working. You write down your cipher and then, but not till then, does he place his integer before it. The buried treasure has not part in his benediction. He does not like to work alone. He will never increase our humble supply of usefulness until we boldly take our stand in the midst of the empty vessels—until we go where men need us and open our eyes to their need.
"There Is Not a Vessel More" v. 6
"And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more." How she wished, then, that she had borrowed more vessels, or that there had been more to borrow! We do not expect enough of God. He bids us to prove him. If he will not open to us the windows of heaven, and pour us out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it (Mal.

CENTENNIAL NEWS ITEMS

Official Pledge Adopted by the Texas Centennial Commission:
"I, _____ do hereby pledge myself to the Texas Centennial in 1936. It is to be my celebration. In its achievement I may find free play to my patriotic love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be."

(The following items were published in the Texas Centennial News, official publication of the publicity committee of the Texas Centennial Commission, Corsicana, Texas, and furnished to Texas newspapers for republication so that the citizenship of Texas may keep informed of Centennial activities over the state.)

HUNTSVILLE IS IN LINE FOR CENTENNIAL MOVE
Huntsville, where is located the tomb of Sam Houston, as well as his old home, was host last week to advisory board members from ten counties in that section.
Officers were named at a meeting held under a pine tree at the edge of the Houston home.
Resolutions strongly favoring the Centennial were adopted and Huntsville is laying plans to beautify the environs of the Houston tomb so that it will be easily accessible to the millions of Texas visitors in 1936.

KAUFMAN COUNTY FALLS INTO CENTENNIAL LINE
Kaufman county is falling in line for the Texas Centennial.
John H. Reagan, grand old man of Texas history, at one time lived in that county.
Now Harry Galbraith, Terrell newspaper editor, proposes that a replica of the old Reagan home be constructed and taken to the central exposition in 1936.
Discussing this plan the Kemp News says:
"While many people do not know that this great man ever lived in the Kaufman County the fact remains that he did live here many years ago just about two miles due east of the town of Kemp. His home place was on the highway in what is known as the Henry Bell pasture and signs of the old homestead can still be found. Doubtless some of the older people of the county remember when Reagan lived there, or at least remember the house so that it could be duplicated."

BATTLE CREEK MASSACRE RESTORATION PLANNED
Hubbard, in Hill County, and Dawson, in Navarro county, are working on a joint plan to restore the ground and scenes of the battle Creek massacre for the Texas Centennial. The plan contemplates securing a CCC camp for a period of probably six months to do the work of beautifying a state park at the scene, and to remodel, as nearly as possible, the historic phases of the Indian massacre at that point. This will prove one of the big items in the plans of Hubbard and Dawson are completed.
It is in line with a similar plan being worked out by Mexia and Groesbeck for the restoration of the Fort Parker and citizens of Shackelford and adjoining counties for the restoration of old Fort Griffin.

REFUGIO IS PLANNING FOR ITS CELEBRATION
Refugio, historic Texas town on the Gulf coast, is in line battling an even thousand for the Texas Centennial. Definite dates for a local Centennial have been set.
A dance and community hall for the celebration to cost $5,000 will be constructed. The Refugio city council has a preliminary budget of $300 for advertising.
The council having in charge the Refugio plans is composed of Joe W. Sneed, chamber of commerce; Dr. J. E. Baur, Rotary club; B. E. McCull, American Legion; A. H. Bailey, fire department; Miss Maudie Mitchell, Historical and Landmark association; Mrs. J. T. Vance, Woman's club, and Mrs. Thelma Heard, Altar society.
Alex Lilliole was named secretary of the council and manager of the Centennial.

HOUSTON STARTS MOVE TO GET CENTENNIAL
A "jury" of 15 in Houston is taking "testimony" to determine the value to Houston of becoming the central exposition city of 1936, and also to determine the amount of cooperation that may be expected of the citizenship in the movement.
Houston is contemplating a bond issue of $3,000,000 or more to finance its cash bid for the Centennial. In 3:10. "And the oil stayed." "You see how exactly the oil matches the capacity and number of the vessels provided. There is not too little, there is not too much. There was nothing over, and there was no lack. God was ready to give, but not to waste his gifts."—Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould. Recall the law of the manna in the wilderness, whereby each man could gather as much as he needed for the day, and twice as much for the Sabbath, but if in his greed he gathered too much, the excess spoiled on his hands. God divided just enough for one's necessities, no more and no less."

Expressed Gratitude for Blessings Received
"Then she came and told the man of God," v. 7. She came with a heart full of thankfulness. She was not one to leave her gratitude unexpressed. How often, when our prayers are answered, we straightway forget them. We should have in our minds a long list of answered prayers, of blessings bestowed, reaching back through the years, and we should often recite them to our Father. The forgetfulness of past mercies leads to distrust for the future.
Count your many blessings, name them one by one, and it will surprise you what the Lord has done.
Count your many blessings, every doubt will fly.
And you will be singing as the days go by.

addition it has tentatively agreed upon a site six blocks from the Rice hotel, the site of the one-time capital of the Republic of Texas.
Clarence R. Wharton, lawyer and historian, is chairman of the committee having the centennial movement in charge, and also head of the "jury" hearing the evidence.
Mr. Wharton announced at the opening session that as an ordinary proposition he did not favor bond issues, but for this particular purpose he very heartily favored it.
To date practically every "witness" called by the "jury" has favored a concerted drive to secure the Centennial. Significant among these was H. M. Lull, executive vice president of the Southern Pacific Lines. "I'm a native of Vermont," Mr. Lull said, "and I have never been accused of throwing my money around foolishly in recent years by federal, state and local governments, but this is one time when I think money would be well spent."
"Here is a project where $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 will be spent, most of it in Texas, to provide jobs for the thousands upon thousands of unfortunate citizens who, we all know, are willing and anxious to work."
"I think it would be a disgrace if the premier city of Texas should throw up its hands in discouragement and fail to take advantage of this opportunity."

DROUGHT KILLS CROPS, CATTLE IN MINNESOTA
Income From Crops This Year To Be Half
MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 3 (AP)—Drought, starvation, and ruin grew today on acres that bred fertile grains and cattle-fattening grasses before drought plagued the land of Minnesota.
A blistering sun which sucked life-giving moisture from the soil and blew winds which ripped newly planted seeds from dry earth have left a path of desolation, a loss in cash of more than $150,000,000 to tillers of the soil.
Minnesota normally earns from 350 to 400 million dollars from grain and hay crops. Dr. Andrew Boss of the University of Minnesota farm school expects the income this year to be about half that.
Forty-four of the 87 counties are in the drought area.
Western Minnesota farmers, whose suffering is the most severe, turned cattle into grain fields two months ago because pasturage was burned up. The meager grain eaten, the cattle turned to leaves on trees to avoid starvation. Many failed.
Death in the slaughter houses or where they stood was the result. The government purchased 184,000 head, paying for them nearly $2,000,000—a drop in the bucket, farm school officials said, compared with the financial emergency confronting thousands of farmers.
Paul Kirby, crop reporter, said the state which the most severe drought this year. Oats which once ran 150 million bushels will be less than 10 million. Spring wheat is cut more than 50 per cent to a prospective harvest of 11,000,000 bushels as of July 1. Hay will have dropped from 4,000,000 tons to 1,748,000.

Fishing Tales Are Heard by Clubmen
Tall tales of fishing prowess were told at Thursday's Lions club session. Tom Darby was program chairman. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mal Dunn and his orchestra.
George Briggs appealed to the Lions to join the advertising campaign to tell neighboring towns about the postoffice dedication and the baseball tournament of next week. There will be transportation for those who do not wish to take their cars, providing it is requested by Saturday noon.
It was announced that, in addition to Congressman Marvin Jones, another federal official—F. L. Clappitt of Austin, will speak Wednesday evening at the dedication. Mr. Clappitt is inspector in charge of this division of the postoffice department.

HINDENBURG'S LINE LAST TO FALL IN WAR

Canadians, British Bore Brunt of Battle
By The Associated Press.
Even as president von Hindenburg was regarded by many conservative Germans as their last bulwark, so was the Hindenburg line the last defense of the German armies in France during the World War.
The death of the venerable statesman and general today was just six days before the sixteenth anniversary of the turning point in the great struggle, the turn which led to the collapse of the Hindenburg line and assured Germany's defeat.
One of the most famous of World War fortifications, the Hindenburg defense was not literally a line.
It was a series of lines, three major systems of trenches with many ramifications. These trenches stretched northward and northwestward from St. Quentin, occupied by the Germans. They blocked the Allies' path to Cambrai and ended near Arras, which was held by the British.
They formed a deadly arc for the Allied forces to invade. Well inside the Germans' farthest line of advance, they had been heavily wired and studded with machine gun nests. The master mind in their preparation had been the Prussian chief of staff, Marshal Paul von Hindenburg.
Canadians Bore Brunt.
But all the Allies went through. Canadians launched the attack on August 26, only two weeks after Hindenburg had seen his advantage vanish. The Dominion soldiers and British Tommies bore the brunt of the battle, although Americans got into it more than a month later. Yankee and French forces were making their major drives further south.

The attack began outside Arras and swept forward irresistibly. By September 1, the British and Canadians then in the line were ready for the assault on the second line, the Drocourt-Queant line.
Again with the Canadians for a spearhead, the Allied troops stormed the German trenches, drove back the invaders. So thoroughly successful were they that on the night of September 2-3 the Germans fell back to their third formidable line, along the Canal du Nord.
Fighting turned southward and the Germans, after days of hard fighting, were driven back to the Hindenburg line all the way to St. Quentin.
On September 27 all was ready for the grand attack. Under Marshal Foch four great offensives were to be launched, including that on the Hindenburg line. If this could be cut, transportation lines would be severed and the German cause on the other fronts hampered.

Rafts, mats and even lifebelts were used to cross the canal in the face of terrific fire. Engineers swung bridges into place behind the shock troops and by the night of September 29 the reserve line had fallen.

NEVER AGAIN
CHICAGO—There was a time when William H. Crow, manager of a private detective agency, would stand up and let some one shoot at him. Those days are gone forever.
To demonstrate a bullet-proof vest, he stood at one end of the speaker's platform at a Rotary club luncheon. From the other end, Julius Frankburg aimed with a pistol.
"Bang," went the weapon. Frankburg's aim was good.
Crow staggered and gasped, "something happened."
"Something had. There was a red welt on his body where the bullet had penetrated the vest.
The injury was not serious, but Crow said "never again."

DROUGHT CAUSES NO FEAR OF FAMINE

The arrival of a searing, crop-burning drought at a time when the United States government is spending millions of dollars to get farmers to reduce their crops is almost enough to make one suspect that the weatherman is trying to play a joke on somebody.

If it is a joke, it is a mean one. Baking heat, blistering sunlight, and a sky which remains pitilessly cloudless for weeks at a time, with never a drop of rain to lay the dust—these are, or can be, the makings of a national calamity, and the farmers of the grain belt can be pardoned if they fail to see anything very funny in the situation.

When a spell of weather like this hits a land where the social organization is primitive, famine results. It was to guard against just such disasters that the ancient agrarian tribes of the American southwest developed such elaborate rites to appease the rain gods; it is to help mitigate the effects of such disasters that the American public is called on every so often to contribute to Chinese famine relief funds.

Yet the United States today, for all the damage that the drought is causing, is in no danger of famine. Cattle are dying for want of water, grain is being burnt brown in the fields, vegetable gardens are being scorched into aridity—but we are not going to have a real food shortage this winter.

If any people go hungry it will be because our economic machine is still out of gear and not because the national granary has been stricken.

For the same factors which led the government to hire the farmers to produce less than usual also operate to soften the blow which the elements have launched at us.

Into the oldest and simplest business in the world—the raising of foodstuffs on the land—we have injected so many complications that the whole picture has changed. Bumper crops no longer mean automatic prosperity for farmers; instead, they tend to glut the markets and flatten the farmer's purse.

On the other hand, natural disasters which cut the production of foodstuffs no longer mean famine and want.

It is because of the intricacy of our whole economic organization that we have to cook up such measures as the AAA. But that very intricacy is the factor that keeps us from going hungry when the age-old causes of famine are abroad in the land.

FORMER TEXAS LEAGUER WINS FROM INDIANS

AUKER ALLOWS BUT 4 HITS IN 3-0 TRIUMPH

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

A glance at the major league record books for the current season reveals one good reason why the Detroit Tigers are up on top of the American league standing despite the undoubted strength of their rivals, the Yankees. The reason is Elden Auker, a big, strong young right hander who came up from Beaumont last year.

The 23-year-old Kansan, who has been taking his place with Fred Marberry, Tommy Bridges and Ed Schemmley Rowe, recorded his ninth victory of the season against four defeats yesterday when he shut out the third-place Indians with four hits to gain a 3 to 0 triumph.

This gave the Tigers "big four" a total of 47 victories out of 62 scored by the team. In contrast to these performances the Yankees have been able to show only three consistent winners. Lefty Gomez, Charley Ruffing and Johnny Murphy.

The Yankees gave Ruffing a chance to take it easy and still win his 12th victory when they hammered Henry Johnson and two successors all over the lot to defeat the Red Sox 12 to 4. Just to make it certain, "Rufus the Red" turned in a five-hit game.

The close resemblance between the National league pitching situation and that in the American was brought out when Roy Parmelee, who has shown only flashes of the form which made one of the Giant's big four last year, suffered his fourth defeat since he returned to the active list following an appendicitis operation. Parmelee and the rest of the Giants were no match at all for Ed Brandt, veteran Boston southpaw, and the Braves won 8 to 0.

The second-place Cubs, who appear to have about the best elbowing equipment in the senior circuit even though Charley Root isn't doing well, gained a full game on the Giants by catching the Cardinals when neither of the Deans nor Tex Carleton was ready to work and whipping them 6 to 2.

The Dodgers and Phillies stirred up a lot of excitement in their struggle for sixth place when Brooklyn look an 8 to 7 decision on Al Lopez's ninth inning homer. The victory gave Brooklyn the desired place in a game.

Both the pitchers and the fielders of the Cincinnati Reds were off form and Pittsburgh had an easy time taking a 13 to 3 decision. The St. Louis Browns came from behind with eight runs in the last three innings to defeat the White Sox 9 to 8 but they failed by two points to capture fifth place from the Senators, who were rained out at Philadelphia.

LYAUTEY ENTOMBED
 Natchez, France, Aug. 3 (AP)—Marshal Louis H. Lyautey, fourth French war marshal to die, was taken on a gun carriage today along narrow, winding streets to a tomb among the 24 Dukes of Lorraine, statesmen and colonizers since 1482. Half a division marched in a mile long procession as church bells tolled in memory of the "Maker of Morocco."

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY.

POLITICS at Random

BY BYRON PRICE, Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington.

That engaging figure, "the chiseler," seems in a fair way to become public problem No. 1 at Washington.

First famous for his accomplishments under NRA, he has found ways of extending his operations in many directions. The chips are scattered far and wide over the recovery scene.

To prosecute or not to prosecute is becoming a more and more acute question as the recovery agencies round into maturity. The administration is caught between two powerful forces of public opinion.

On the one hand, Washington notes a growing impatience among General Johnson lambasts the offenders.

But the snatching appears to take place only when and where public sentiment is aroused, and the most conspicuous of the snatched eagles, at Hartman, Tenn., is returned.

Visitors to Washington bring circumstantial stories of open code evasions in their communities, which they say are known to and unproved by local officials and local sentiment. That's the rub.

Under AAA thousands of cornhog payments have been held up because farmers "made mistakes" on a wholesale scale in certifying their previous yields.

Yet no prosecutions have been reported; not a single charge of fraud has been sworn out. The neighbors of those who "made mistakes" either made the same mistakes themselves or are willing to forgive and forget.

Where Lies the Rub.

"Cracking down" on violators remains the announced policy of NRA. Every day the blue eagles are snatched away. Every other day

City Life Banned For Farm Youth By Nazi Decrees

BY LOUIS F. LOCHNER, BERLIN, Aug. 3 (AP)—Drastic measures which even prevent urban haus-fraus from hiring country maids for housework are being taken by the Nazi government to check the drift of the farm population to the cities.

For Berlin new working permits will be issued hereafter only in rare instances for workers from outside whose wages are likely to be below $1,400 a year. This applies to all categories of labor including servants.

The federal labor office is being imperturbed by Berlin women of the wealthier classes to make an exception for the Pommeranian or Mecklenburg peasant girls whom these women prefer as maids or cooks. The pleas fall on deaf ears, so long as there are unemployed city servants.

RE-TEX

"Brings Back Life To Fabrics"

Summer Resorts Hit.

A ban also has been placed upon the hiring of farmers' daughters by summer resorts as chambermaids, waitresses and barmaids. Summer resorts, especially in Bavaria and the Black Forest, have been in the habit of recruiting their help for their busy season from the surrounding country.

This had a two-fold effect: the farmers complained that at the busiest time of harvesting their daughters were away from home; the girls themselves having mingled with the city hotel guests, often tried to drift to the cities.

Another industry which has been affected is the state-owned railways. Many section or divisional managers found it cheapest or most convenient to hire farm hands from the neighborhood for construction work. This, too, is to stop as jobless city workers are to be employed.

May Force Farm Work.

If these measures do not succeed in arresting the farm-to-city movement, the federal labor office has power to comb the industrial plants for men with farming antecedents, and to send them back to agriculture.

Care will be taken, however, not to raid the skilled trades. Germany is as much in need of really skilled workers as she is of farmers. If, therefore, a country boy is learning to be a watch maker or a carpenter, he need not fear that he will be yanked back to the farm.
