JOE BURKETT TO APPEAL TO HIGHER COURT

SAN ANTONIANS ARE RESTRAINED FROM PROCEEDING

AUSTIN, Sept. 28 (AP)—W. W. Heath, secretary of state, today certified James V. Allred as democratic nominee for governor in the general election in November.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 28 (AP)—All further efforts in the trial court to keep James V. Allred, democratic nominee, off the general election ballot, because of alleged excessive campaign expenditures, were ordered stopped today by the fourth court of civil appeals.

The appellate court granted Allred an injunction restraining three San Antonians who originally brought the suit and Joe Burkett, their attorney, from proceeding any further in District Judge McCroby's court.

The fourth court almost a week ago dissolved a temporary order granted by District Judge McCroby which prevented party officials and the secretary of state from certifying the name of Allred as the democratic nominee.

Joe Burkett said he would appeal from the fourth court's ruling immediately to the Texas supreme court. He also said he would file his motion soon for a rehearing of the fourth court's first ruling dissolving the temporary injunction granted by District Judge McCroby. This motion will be filed with the fourth court.

Since the dissolution of the order, Burkett had continued, however, in the preparation for a trial of the suit, filing interrogatories in the trial court and seeking to have Allred answer interrogatories of an ex parte deposition covering campaign expenditures in behalf of his candidacy.

Today Allred's attorneys went to the fourth court and asked an injunction to stop Burkett.

Butterfly Chase Frustrated, Man Attempts Suicide

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 28 (AP)—John Leydench Bauer, whose death because he couldn't chase butterflies, but neither could he die.

The 21-year-old Millvale, Pa., youth said yesterday that he had taken a home-brewed poison because he could not finance an expedition to Brazil, where he had hoped to collect butterflies for a Pittsburgh museum.

Bauer's face was sheet-white and he smoked constantly, but he apparently enjoyed the sensation of being alive. His condition was much improved and physicians believed they would pull him through. "I should die," he said, "unless all the books on toxicology are wrong."

But Baker failed to reckon with a heavy meal he ate after taking the poison. The meal, doctors believed, counteracted the usually deadly effects of the poison.

Bauer promised police he would make no more attempts at suicide. He is the son of Mrs. Maria Baker, he said, and was born in Pennsylvania. The family moved to Albuquerque, N. M., when John's father became ill. Young Bauer was graduated from Albuquerque high school three years ago. Then the family, on the death of his father, moved to San Diego, Calif.

Two years ago, Bauer, his mother and two brothers returned to Millvale, Pa.

Cattle Buying To Be Resumed

Cattle buying has been resumed in Gray county under a limitation of 500 head.

But more than 4,000 head are registered as for sale in the office of County Agent Ralph Thomas. Cattlemen and Congressman Marvin Jones are seeking an extension of the buying limit, citing that cattlemen are just now getting in a position to deliver the stock. Moreover, it is regarded as unfair for many of those who registered originally to be able to sell their stock under the federal plan.

The veterinarian sent here by the government has been ordered to his home in Nebraska by October 1.

Mrs. Harold Holcomb of Panhandle shopped in the city yesterday.

I SAW--
In the Spearman Reporter that Lindbergh's first words when he saw Mrs. William J. Whitson last Monday morning were, "Lady, may I park my plane in your back yard?" She recognized him.

—Bob O'Connell—
A bunch of gridiron statisticians (a usual bunch) ganged about a soda fountain, who were predicting the result of tonight's game, and their predictions were all pessimistic. But a lone Harvester who was listening on the fringe of the crowd looked defiant and determined as he left.

Child Slain

The body of Lillian Gallaher, 11-year-old Detroit school girl, above, was found stuffed in a trunk in the apartment that had been occupied by a drummer in Detroit, six blocks from her home which she left on Sept. 20 to sell tickets for a church benefit. The drummer and his woman companion are being sought by police.

BILL ENSINGER OF KANSAS CITY SPEAKS AT API Wire Line Uses Are Shown in 150 Scenes

The first full meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute was held in the city hall auditorium last night with more than 200 members attending. President C. E. McGrew presided and after opening remarks turned the meeting over to Chris B. Martin, manager of the Jarecki Manufacturing company here, who was program chairman.

Mr. Martin presented Bill Ensinger of Kansas City, vice president and general manager of the Union Wire Rope corporation, who gave an illustrated lecture on the manufacture and uses and abuses of wire line in the oilfield. Mr. Ensinger showed 150 scenes, with descriptions, of the manufacture of wire line from the beginning to the present day.

Scenes of making wire line from the first stage to its completion in the factory of the Union Wire Rope Corporation were shown, and then Mr. Ensinger suggested ways and means of lengthening the life of wire line. The speaker then presented everyone present with a letter opener made out of cold drawn wire line. He also showed a set of knives and forks made out of a sand wire line with the center removed.

Hal Gruber, sales manager of the Union Wire Rope corporation out of Tulsa, Okla., and Walter B. Gray, executive officer with the Jarecki Manufacturing company of Tulsa, were also introduced to make brief talks.

Musical entertainment was presented by Harry Kelley of the Pampa high school who introduced a girls' trio and two harmonica players.

Members and guests were presented by Shamrock, Magic City, Borger, Amarillo, and the local field.

BANDITS TAKE $4,000
BOSTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Five men, armed with a machine gun, held up three employees of the Boston Elevated railway at the Dudley Street terminal this morning and escaped with more than $4,000. The elevated employees, Walter McLeod, John J. McGowan, and Albert McLean, told police that one of the robbers leveled a machine gun at them menacingly as the others seized pistols they carried.

into the district attorney's office. A visit by Assistant Attorney General Joseph Lanigan, of New Jersey, to the district attorney's office, gave rise to belief that it might have to do with the preparation of final steps to extradite the prisoner to New Jersey, the state in which the Lindbergh baby was kidnapped and killed.

Poley announced Lanigan's presence in the Bronx, but declined to discuss the purpose of his visit. Before he announced that Lanigan was in the Bronx, Poley said that New Jersey had made no move seeking removal of Hauptmann to that state.

STEALS SPOON AND FASHIONS KEEN DAGGER

WEAPON IS FOUND IN HAUPTMANN CELL IN JAIL

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP)—Sheriff John J. Stanley today disclosed that Bruno Richard Hauptmann had stolen a table spoon in the jail, broke it into four sections, sharpened one and had hidden all four pieces in the jail.

Hanley said that the bowl part of the spoon had been sharpened to a razor edge by rubbing it against the steel frame of the cot in his cell in the county jail.

The parts were found in the toilet bowl in his cell, and a fourth piece had been hidden in the drain of the wash basin in the cell. The sheriff said the pieces appeared to be too small to be used as a key, but he was inclined to believe the sharpened piece might have been used as a weapon if it had been further sharpened into a knife.

"This morning at 7:45, 15 minutes before breakfast," Hanley said, "as is the usual custom, Hauptmann and the other prisoners were given a bowl and spoon.

"After breakfast Hauptmann's spoon was missing. The jailer asked him for it and Hauptmann said he didn't know anything about the spoon.

"He immediately was taken out of his cell, searched and stripped, his cell was inspected minutely and no evidence of the spoon was discovered. The jailer looked in the washbowl and toilet."

While Hauptmann would not say what he thought Hauptmann intended to make of the pieces of the spoon, he did state that the bowl might have been curved into a hook.

"He is now eating on paper dishes," Hanley said, "and he will use paper spoons so long as we have them."

District Attorney Samuel J. Foley was with Hanley when he made the announcement. Foley, in reply to an inquiry, said he had not decided whether he would have a psychiatrist examine Hauptmann, a move that the defense attorney has announced he intends to make.

WOOD MATCHES.
TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 28 (AP)—Arthur Koehler, wood technologist, arriving today for further examination of the ladder on which Charles A. Lindbergh Jr. was carried from his nursery to his death, said the "unquestionable source" of some of the lumber used was the National Lumber and Mill Work company in the Bronx, where Bruno Richard Hauptmann once worked.

Koehler, employed by the United States Forest Products laboratory, forest service, at Madison, Wis., and a recognized federal authority on wood identification, refused to disclose how he had determined the lumber came from the Bronx company, saying that would be evidence in the case.

"After many months of diligent search through circuitous routes," a prepared statement said, "Mr. Koehler in cooperation with detectives of the New York police, located the National Lumber and Mill Work company in the Bronx, as the unquestionable source of some of the lumber in the ladder."

State police previously had revealed that the wood contained peculiar saw marks, and investigation established the lumber had been milled by a California company. The names of this company's customers among them the Bronx firm, was obtained. How the lumber was obtained from the firm was not disclosed.

Alleged Slayer of Seymour Banker Is Given 12 Years Imprisonment by Jury.

SEYMOUR, Sept. 28 (AP)—A district court jury today convicted Miss Ruby Britain, 40, for the slaying of Horace E. Nichols, Seymour business man, and affixed her sentence at 12 years in the penitentiary.

The foreman of the jury reported that the panel had agreed on the verdict about 11 p. m. last night but the decision was not reported to the court until shortly after 9 a. m. today.

Miss Britain received the verdict calmly as she sat, almost alone in the court room. The usual crowds which had attended the trial this week were absent.

Judge I. O. Newton promptly overruled a motion for a new trial made by J. A. P. Dickson and S. A. L. Morgan, defense attorneys. Counsel excepted and gave notice of appeal to the court of criminal appeals at Austin.

Miss Britain then was released after making an appeal bond of $10,000.

Two versions of the slaying which occurred on a country lane near here several weeks ago, were given the jury by attorneys in closing arguments. The defense painted Nichols as "a debaucher of women" and contended Miss Britain fired in self defense when she believed her life was endangered.

The state told the jury that the slaying was without justification and had been planned.

Nichols, sitting in his parked automobile with Mrs. Willie Mae Couch, was killed by bullets fired from a passing car. Miss Britain said she fired when Nichols made a move for his gun. She testified Nichols "meant much to her."

Nichols' widow and mother, as well as the defendant, sobbed during arguments.

BOARD MEMBERS
Write They Will Attend Banquet

The Pre-Centennial banquet to be given at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Oct. 9 at the First Methodist church promises to be the largest gathering of Centennial Advisory Board members held in the state this year. It will be the first opportunity of all Advisory Board members in the 31st Senatorial district to meet and discuss plans for observance of the Centennial in the Panhandle and particularly in their own communities.

Although the invitations were received only Wednesday of this week numerous favorable replies have already been read by President Clarence Kennedy of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Thos. T. Waggoner of the Claude News wrote that at least three and probably a half dozen would attend from Armstrong county. Dick Carr of Higgins will attend, also Mrs. Charles Burnette, secretary of the Roberts County Advisory Board who wrote that "we wish to join in any Panhandle-wide project or celebration as we feel a greater interest can be obtained in that manner."

Dr. P. N. Reynolds of Wheeler accepted the invitation.

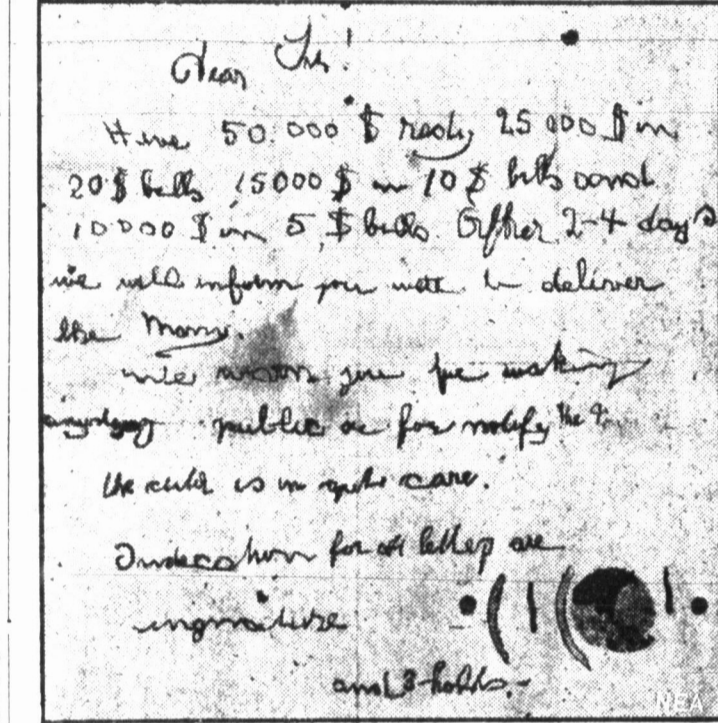

TO LUBBOCK FAIR
AMARILLO, Sept. 28 (AP)—Fifty Amarilloans, including the American Legion Auxiliary drum corps, left here this morning to attend the Panhandle-South Plains fair at Lubbock. The delegation is returning a compliment of the South Plains city, which last week sent a large delegation to the Tri-State Fair here.

MATTRESS BURNS
In Johnson Hotel
A cigaret is believed to have caused a fire in the Johnson hotel on West Foster avenue at 7:30 o'clock this morning. A mattress and bed clothing were burned before the fire was extinguished. A guest, in whose room the fire started, received burns on his leg.

The fire department answered the call and had considerable trouble getting into the room because of smoke caused by the use of a fire extinguisher. Firemen finally got into the room and extinguished the burning mattress with water from the booster tank.

RUBY BRITAIN IS CONVICTED

That Original Kidnap Note

The kidnapers of young Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., left a note behind when they abducted the baby from his crib at Hopewell, N. J., in 1932. Now for the first time authorities permit the reproduction of the note with its curious interlocking identification symbol. The three black dots in the symbol are holes that experts say were made by a carpenter's file. The note reads:

Dear Sir: Have 50000 redy 25000 in 205 bills 15000 in 105 and 1000 in 58 bills. After 2-4 days we will inform you where to deliver the money. We warn you for making anything public or for notify the police. The child is in rute care. Identification for our letters are signature (symbol).

President Says Relief Burden Must Be Local

Up to Local Communities to Provide Greater Part of Relief to Needy Class.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—"Confidence that a unified attack 'for a little while longer' would master 'old Man Depression' was expressed today by President Roosevelt in addressing the 1934 conference of the mobilization for human needs.

To the assembled leaders of the group at the White House, the president emphasized that it was up to local communities to carry the primary burden of relief. He called it the privilege rather than the duty of the individual American to bear a share in relief.

"It is that personal appeal, that personal service, which has carried us through these trying years," he said.

"A unity of effort for a little while longer will, I am confident, bring national success to our nationally unified efforts to bring old man depression to the point where we can finally master and destroy him."

Mr. Roosevelt said there had been some inefficiency in the emergency efforts to alleviate distress but that he looked forward to greater efficiency.

He told the conference, which is headed by Newton D. Baker of Ohio, that it was its duty to see to it:

"First of all, that destitution is relieved, and, secondly, that no individual and no family shall be entitled to public assistance if that individual or that family does not deserve it."

The fire department answered the call and had considerable trouble getting into the room because of smoke caused by the use of a fire extinguisher. Firemen finally got into the room and extinguished the burning mattress with water from the booster tank.

Judge Orders Recount In Grandview Box

NINETY-NINE TESTIFY THEY BACKED KIRBY

PRIMARY COUNT GAVE KIRBY ONLY 88 VOTES IN BOX

The ballot box used in the Grandview precinct in the first Democratic primary, July 28, was opened under district court order at 2:34 o'clock this afternoon and a recount begun in the contested nomination of Commissioner H. G. McCleskey. The contestant is Thomas O. Kirby, unsuccessful candidate for the office.

Names of 99 persons who claim to have voted for Thos. O. Kirby for commissioner at the Grandview polls in the first democratic primary July 28 had been given Judge W. R. Ewing at the noon recess today in Mr. Kirby's contest of Commissioner H. G. McCleskey's renomination.

Some of the voters were admittedly ineligible to vote, it was brought out in their own testimony, and attorneys differed on the legality of other votes. The evidence was necessary to support the contestant's claim that he received more than 88 votes officially given him in the Grandview box. Mr. Kirby, the last witness-voter, testified that he voted for himself.

Siler Paulkner, county democratic chairman, testified that the returns certified to him by the judges of the election showed 88 votes for Kirby and 10 for McCleskey in the Grandview box. The total vote, counting the Hopkins box in the same precinct, was 145 for McCleskey and 132 for Kirby. On the basis of these figures, Mr. Paulkner certified the nomination of Mr. McCleskey.

The margin of election was only 13 votes, a change of 7 votes in favor of Kirby would reverse the result, since it would subtract 7 from McCleskey at the same time.

Archbishop of San Antonio Is Honored by Pius

VATICAN CITY, Sept. 28 (AP)—Pope Pius today expressed commiseration for "stricken Mexico" whose religious situation, he said, was getting worse instead of better.

He received Monsignor Arthur J. Drossaerts, archbishop of San Antonio, Texas, in a private audience and said he was confirmed from his own information a report by Monsignor Drossaerts that persecutions of many kinds were going on continually in Mexico.

Monsignor Drossaerts, following the audience, said that there was also political danger in the situation and said he would spread of bolshevism in Mexico.

Pope Pius told the Texas archbishop that he deeply sympathized with the apostolic delegate, Monsignor Leopoldo Ruiz, exiled from Mexico and now living in San Antonio and he asked Monsignor Drossaerts to convey to him his special blessing.

The pope surprised Monsignor Drossaerts by saying he had received a communication from the Mexican bishop telling the pontiff of all the work Monsignor Drossaerts had done for Mexico and Mexicans of whom there are 250,000 in his diocese. In recognition of this work, the pope made Monsignor Drossaerts an assistant to the pontifical throne and conferred on him the title of Roman count.

Monsignor Drossaerts will leave Rome Sunday for Antwerp, from where he will sail for the United States.

England's yachting millionaire has gone home in a huff, but we doubt that he will much change the average Britisher's opinion of us.

The Italians nearly courtmartialled a boxing commissioner who agreed with American officials that Mr. Carnera got a fair deal in his rounds with the Baer.

Pampa has helped to sell Texas on a $50,000,000 centennial. It will be either that or a dub—there is no safe half-way method of celebrating our glorious past.

College enrolments are up again. More, bigger, and better brain trusters in the making—we hope.

Will Rogers has been done in oil, but the artist didn't even straighten his hair.

Brevitorials

Musings of the moment: Being brave in the presence of a tornado seems more foolish than brave when the freak doings of the twisters are observed. Dave Turcott of the O'Loughlin ranch east of here brought T. D. Roberts, evidence of the work of one of the recent small tornadoes. Large chunks of hard, dry earth were sucked from the soil and deposited a considerable distance away. Cracking of the soil in the dry weather made the report that the same storm killed several head of cattle.

Whether the Blue Eagle flies to the right or to the left is a matter of much concern now. Liberalism vs. conservatism is a national issue. Party lines are split. In normal times the problem might not exist, and if it did the answer would be much easier for most of us. Jim Ferguson, citing that the six millions voted for relief was not enough, hints that another special session of the legislature is likely. Yet Jim is the fellow who has long said, in his Forum, "We're Again High Taxes." It is hard to be conservative in the prevention of human misery.

Yet there is a group in this county which believes that suffering is inevitable and that it will be ruinous to try to prevent all of it. "There is no escape from nature's laws," shouted a conservative speaker at an eastern convention. Man's laws and man's greed however, are more at fault than nature's laws. "Reduce taxes! Cut Appropriations! Stop Issuing Bonds! Save Every Possible Penny!" If he can go in to a home wrecked by unemployment and sickness and still say that, he will take rank with one of the odious drugstore Indians.

Yet everyone knows that the national debt of $1,600 per family (4 persons) is too much and will have to be cut down as soon as conditions will permit.

Scarlet fever still continues to be a menace to children. Cases are slight, but they may infect others who may become seriously ill. It is treacherous and unrelenting, and the only good thing about it is that if one can avoid it until grown, the chances of never getting it are excellent.

Scarlet fever is spread by the transfer of the bacteria in the discharge of nose and throat, ears, or abscesses of persons ill with the disease and those who are carriers of the infection. The handling of articles soiled by the patient may cause the disease.

Children under ten years of age are usually susceptible to scarlet fever. Children becoming suddenly ill with fever, sore throat, vomiting and showing a fine red rash, should have medical attention and be immediately quarantined to prevent the spread of this disease. The appearance of scarlet fever in the home should be immediately followed by a rigid quarantine for at least three weeks. The public should be warned against exposing young children to those exhibiting acute catarrhal symptoms of any kind. Take no chances—be on the safe side.

"The use of potent scarlet fever antitoxin is of value in shortening the course of the disease. The antitoxin should be administered within three days of the onset. Scarlet fever antitoxin lessens the complications, such as heart and kidney diseases, discharging ears and infected sinuses that often occur after scarlet fever. Scarlet fever can be prevented by first giving the Dick test to all children and the administration of scarlet fever toxin to all children that are susceptible."

FEDERATED CLUB WOMEN ENTERTAIN FOR STATE PRESIDENT

MRS. TAYLOR'S TALK OUTLINES AIMS OF CLUB

WOMEN FROM NEARBY TOWNS PRESENT LAST NIGHT

Projects of immediate interest to federated club women of the state were outlined by Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, at a reception marking her first official visit to Pampa yesterday.

Members of the eight federated clubs here, and about 40 women from clubs at LeFors, Miami, Canadian, and other nearby towns were present at the city hall club rooms to greet Mrs. Taylor and the seventh district dignitaries who accompanied her. Mrs. W. P. Arviest of Lamesa, district president, and Mrs. Ardelle George of Dawn, district music chairman.

Speaking informally, Mrs. Taylor impressed the women with her gracious personality and direct address.

Urges Centennial.

She emphasized participation of club women in the Texas Centennial, asking whole-hearted cooperation with the central celebration at Dallas and other observances. She urged club women to write their legislators and ask passage of a centennial appropriation bill.

Another petition to legislators she advocated was letters against an education amendment pending in Texas, which would limit taxation for schools and would, Mrs. Taylor believes, seriously handicap schools of the state.

Mrs. Taylor invited Pampa women to the state federation convention in Austin Nov. 12 to 16, when Bruce Barton nationally known editorial writer and Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, prominent club worker, will be among the speakers.

Club House Ready.

The state club headquarters will be furnished in time for this meeting, Mrs. Taylor said. The budget for this building is balanced for this year, and furnishings are being placed now, she reported. Each district is furnishing a bed room, and Miss Margaret Buckler was appointed local chairman to raise Pampa's share of the furnishings. A tournament is to be sponsored for that purpose here.

Mrs. Arviest introduced Mrs. Taylor, after speaking briefly of district club activities. She stressed especially her goal of a new federated club in each town during her administration. Pampa lists already reached that goal with federation last spring of the Junior Civic Culture club.

Mrs. George presented to the Pampa Triple Trio the silver cup which they won permanently last spring by winning for the third time the district choral contest. Mrs. Douglas responded for the trio.

Miss Hermine Steyer played two violin numbers, accompanied by Mrs. May Foreman Carr. Mrs. J. M. Dodson led the singing of Texas, Our Texas, with Mrs. Tom Rose at the piano. Miss Madeline Turley played as the guests arrived.

Club Leaders Receive.

Presidents of the federated clubs here, Mrs. Charles Thut, of El Progresso, Mrs. R. B. Fisher of Twentieth Century, Mrs. Marvin Lewis of Twentieth Century Culture, Mrs. P. W. Downland of Twentieth Century Forum, Mrs. John V. Andrews of Arno Art, Mrs. Roy Tinsley of Child Study, Mrs. E. A. Shackleton of Civic Culture and Miss Roberta Montgomery of Junior Civic Culture, were in the receiving line with the visitors and the following district committee heads who live here:

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapiller, chairman of fine arts; Mrs. Rose, chairman of international relations; Mrs. Dorsette, chairman of American music; Mrs. Dick Walker, chairman of motion pictures; Mrs. W. R. Ewing, chairman of community services.

Flowers in gay colors decorated the room. Ice cream and cake were served in a yellow and white color scheme after the program, by girls of Junior Civic Culture club.

Mrs. Thut was chairman of the committee on arrangements, which included presidents of all the eight clubs, each in charge of one phase of arrangements.

Chapmans Have Party for Club

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chapman entertained the Ace of Clubs with three tables of bridge Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served before the games, in which Mrs. R. L. Allison scored high for women and Donie Wilson for men.

Players were Messrs. and Meses A. W. Smith, Jack Hymnith, B. F. Fenc, Wilson, and Allison. Mr. and Mrs. Hymnith will be next hosts to the club, on Oct. 9.

STUDENTS LIKE TEACHERS

BERKELEY, Cal. (AP)—Eighty per cent of the pupils of 66 rural and city schools replied to a questionnaire to the effect they liked best teachers they regarded as the most efficient. One-half of the per cent answered they liked the most efficient teachers "least."

An increase of more than 100 per cent in the number of automobile fatalities is explained by Coroner R. E. Williams of San Bernardino, Cal., as due in part to the increased carbon monoxide gas attributable to aging cars.

Self-Help Button-Down-Front

Easy-to-Make Dress for Little Schoolgirls

By ELLEN WORTH

Don't you think this is a cunning dress for little school-age daughter? It won't catch on her nose or muss her hair up (so it needs no combing) getting it on and off. She doesn't need any aid from mother, either, to slip into it.

A gay cotton tweed made the original in yellow and brown. It tucks so perfectly. The collar and cuffs are matching shade yellow linen.

Delightful suggestion too is navy blue wool crepe, accented with dainty lingerie effect in the collar and cuffs carried out in crisp white organdie, edged with val lace. Or with a navy dress, still another smart trim is to make the collar, cuffs and pockets of plaided taffeta.

Style No. 756 is designed for sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10 years.

Size 8 requires 2 1/2 yards of 35-inch material with 3/4 yard of 35-inch contrasting.

The Other Hauptmans

"If couldn't have been a kidnapping, he loves little Manfred," Mrs. Anna Hauptmann asserted in defense of her husband who is held in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping. Mother and baby are shown above in their home in Bronx Borough, New York City. Mrs. Hauptmann offers an alibi for her husband for the night of the kidnaping.

Short Course Demonstration and Lecture Are Recreated for Club

"Away we go for an imaginary trip to the state short course," said Miss Fae Davis, leader of Hopkins Home Demonstration club program when Mrs. Ralph Manly was hostess Thursday.

Miss Davis gave an interesting account of her trip this summer to the short course, the many lectures and demonstrations she saw and a brief description of the buildings and sights at A. & M. college.

An outstanding lecture, Miss Davis said, was by Lexie Dean Robertson, poet laureate of Texas, on the subject, The Poet Looks at Home Making. Miss Davis described the poems read, and mentioned especially "Heart's Desire" as a favorite of most club women because of its subject—apple pie as the way to a man's heart. Hopkins club women plan to look up other poems by Mrs. Robertson since they have learned to appreciate her with a better knowledge of her sources of inspiration.

A short course demonstration requested for the club was on picture selection. Miss Davis used a number of pictures to emphasize the following points:

Pictures should reflect the individuality of the owner. Before buying pictures, study the home, learn the interests of each member of the family, and choose pictures to reflect personalities.

Living room pictures should be of general interest, such as scenery, and show the personality of the entire family. For the dining room choose pleasant, happy subject such as music, sports, or still-life fruit pictures.

The bedroom is a place to reflect individuality. A woman's bedroom may have femininity and color in its pictures. Flowers, landscapes, and cheerful figures are good. The boy's room may reflect his hobby in pictures of boats, animals, or sports. Such masterpieces as "Shepherd Boy" and "The Horn Tatt" are likable hangings should be used. The bottom of a picture should be at eye level, not more than five feet from the floor.

Refreshments of date pudding with whipped cream, and coffee were served after the talk to Meses S. S. Fleming, Ott Campbell, R. I. Davis, C. P. Couts, G. Pinnell, Earnest Vandenburg, Miss Davis, and the hostess.

The next meeting, with Mrs. Campbell on Oct. 9, will have Miss Ruby Adams, county home demonstration agent, as leader.

Scouts and New Leader to Picnic

A new leader, Mrs. R. A. Selby, met with Girl Scouts of troop five Tuesday afternoon at the high school cafeteria. She is replacing Mrs. C. C. Wilson.

The troop hour was spent in needlework and hearing an interesting talk by Miss Opal Cox on troop projects. A picnic was planned for the next meeting. The girls will meet in the cafeteria and hike to the picnic grounds. If the weather is not fair a meeting will be held in the cafeteria.

All girls of the troop and girls interested in becoming Scouts are invited to come. Those attending Tuesday were Betty Lou Batten, Lorraine Thomas, Dorothy Ann Dille, Jackie Hurst, Mattie Brown, Wilma Willis, and the captain, Mrs. Selby.

Merten P-TA to Give Style Show

The latest in styles, as modeled by men for women, is promised when Merten Parent-Teacher association presents its woman's style show Tuesday evening at the school building.

This comedy fashion revue will be given by 35 men under direction of PTA leaders. Admission charges will be 10 and 20 cents, and proceeds will replenish the association treasury at the start of a school year.

PTA BOARD TO MEET

Executive board members and chairman of Junior High Parent-Teacher association are urged to be present Monday at a meeting called by Mrs. Joe Berry, vice president who is acting as president. The meeting will be at 3 p. m. in the principal's office.

Twenty-four women represented the Methodist Missionary Society here at a zone meeting at Mottetle yesterday. They met at First Methodist church yesterday morning and drove to the neighboring town together.

Mrs. J. J. Mickle, on leave of absence from her duties as a mission teacher in Kobe, Japan, was the speaker. She was unusually interesting in her discussion of Japanese life and schools, the Pampa visitors said. Mrs. Mickle is visiting relatives in Amarillo during her furlough.

One of the interesting talks was made by "Grandma" Rogers of Heald, who at the age of 92 has spent 80 years in the Methodist church and whose recollections of early days proved of interest.

ROOSEVELT

the mechanism of exchange have become disordered, nationalistic aspirations have rejected ancient mutual dependencies, and international fears have broken down confidence in the ability even of civilized states to observe and maintain order in the world.

"Over a period of years things have been deranged and the consequence has been unprecedented unemployment, widespread want, and with the gradual exhaustion of the accumulations which prudence had made against a rainy day, there has come the necessity of public intervention and relief.

"To this need the federal government has responded generously. "Meantime, any extended system of federal relief, however necessary, is attended by dangers. Under your direction, the efforts of the federal government in this behalf have avoided many of these dangers, by insisting upon local administration and cooperation, but it is our eager hope, as we know it is yours, that soon the entire burden of relief may be returned to local shoulders."

Asserting that the agencies composing the mobilization sought to preserve the integrity of the home, Baker said "it is as a part of the national forces of reconstruction and rebuilding that we venture to hope that this winter will see us past the edge of crisis."

"By doing our full duty this winter," he continued, "we may well hope to face, in the years that are to follow, more normal conditions. With our great griefs behind us,

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Sept. 28. (AP) - With a disposition shown to go slow pending a wind-up of September contracts, wheat values today averaged lower.

Uncertainty as to the contents of President Roosevelt's speech Sunday night was also a restraining factor, and tended to keep prices changes within narrow limits. Tomorrow will witness the end of trading in September deliveries of all grain.

Wheat closed easy, at the same as yesterday's finish to 3/4 cent lower. Dec. new 1.03 3/4, corn 3/4 off to 1/4 up, Dec. new 78 3/4, oats at 1/4. Dec. 5-10 lower, later trade is mostly 25 lower; top 6.50; good and choice 140-150 lbs. 4.00-6.50; pack-tray 140-150 lbs. 4.50-5.85; feeder and stocker pigs, good and choice 70-130 lbs. 2.50-3.50.

WOOL MARKET
BOSTON, Sept. 28. (AP) - The commercial bulletin will say tomorrow: "The settlement of the strike has not been reflected in any increase in the demand for wool goods. Some mills have elected to remain closed for another fortnight, in view of the slow market for goods. Business in wool consequently has been very dull.

There has been some further movement of wool from southwestern points at the lower level of rates which have prevailed for some weeks.

"Foreign markets are rather irregular in prices and the trend of values abroad is not too clear.

"Mohair is slow and hardly changed.

The bulletin will publish the following quotations:
Scoured basis:
Texas:
Fine 12 months (selected) 73-75; fine short 12 months 70-72; fine 8 months 66-68; fall 58-60.

BANDIT READY TO MEET HIS GOD, HE SAYS

STANTON CHATS WITH GUARDS AND KEEPS CALM, STEADY

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 28. (AP) - The State of Texas stood avenged today for the death of one of its peace officers - Ed (Perchmouth) Stanton paying with his life in the electric chair to square for the 1933 slaying of Sheriff J. C. Moseley of Tulsa.

Calm and repentant, Stanton walked to the death chamber. He whispered to the warden, W. W. Ward, before seating himself in the death chair:

"Warden, I'm ready to meet my God."

Guards came to his cell as the execution hour arrived.

"Boys, I've been wrong all my life-but I'm right now. Let's go."

Stanton shunned support on the walk to the death chamber. He walked steadily to the chair, seated himself and mumbled:

Shortly before his execution, Stanton chatted with guards and deplored the fact that he would not be able to show his ability as a broncho buster in the prison rodeo scheduled for Oct. 7.

"I wish I could ride in that rodeo. I'd hoped to be in it, but I guess I'll never ride again."

"I can and I think I can. Can't nobody say I went out hating anyone-even my enemies, cause I don't."

Stanton's long crime career centered mostly in West Texas. He once was incarcerated in the state prison here and spent most of his later years in various jails. He was the leader of a sensational break from the Lubbock jail last June 24.

Efforts to have his sentence commuted were made, but Governor William A. Ferguson refused to interfere. Mrs. Stanton's widow and other Texas and New Mexico officers protested strongly against commutation of the sentence.

HAS KNIFE
Kocher was able to determine the wood came from the Bronx yard and not some others has not been explained.

The chisel found near the Lindbergh home the night of the kidnapping and tools found in Hauptmann's garage were to be brought to Trenton. A workshop for Kocher is to be established at the state police barracks at Wilburta, five miles from here, where he will attempt to learn whether the tools were used in making the ladder.

"It is entirely possible," Kocher said, "that if any tool had a defect it would show up in the wood. We can distinguish these markings from the grain of the wood. That is where a knowledge of wood comes in handy."

Kocher said he would also try to determine whether there are any wood shavings or particles of glass on the chisel that compare with similar fragments at Hauptmann's home and garage. Microscopes will be used in these tests.

He said he had worked on the Lindbergh case "off and on" for a year and a half.

Germans Crowd Street to See U. S. Detective

KAMENZ, Germany, Sept. 28. (AP) - Detective Arthur Johnson of the New York police department today entered and searched the home of Frau Hauptmann, mother of the suspect in the Lindbergh case, in the aged woman's absence.

Guarded by a solid wall of local police and accompanied by plain clothesmen from Berlin and Dresden, Johnson had the small apartment opened by a locksmith, according to police, and entered to search for clues that might lead to further evidence concerning Bruno Richard Hauptmann, held in New York.

Frau Hauptmann was visiting another son in Dresden.

A throng of curious citizens filled the narrow street (Nautzenerstrasse) to get a glimpse of the "famous detective."

The crowd of Kamenz citizens, who for several days have been following him, in the case of their former townsmen, grew so large that 20 or more burly gendarmes had to be called to hold back the onlookers and keep a small lane open for traffic.

Beauty Salon Is Moved to Hotel

Mrs. Zula Brown has moved her beauty salon to the Hotel Adams building, next door to the Postal Telegraph company office, where she will have more room for additional equipment just purchased.

The new office is away from the zone of two-hour parking but still in the business district.

In the new quarters, the permanent wave room is separated by a partition. There is a roomy waiting room and booths for facials, manicures and other types of work.

Five experienced operators will be available at all times.

Mrs. Brown now has three permanent wave machines, four dryers, and a new Arapo Steamer, facial chair, electric manicure and electric tweezers. She also has a complete line of Theo Bender cosmetics.

LIBERAL RICHBERG, FOE OF JOHNSON, WILL HEAD NRA BOARD

FDR ASSAILS WALL STREET 'GOSSIPERS'

ATTACKS THOSE WHO ENCOURAGE FEAR OR PANIC

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—The Roosevelt administration, in a swift quickening of tempo, has started the autumn attack on recovery problems with several major moves.

Paramount among them is the president's action in placing control of NRA policy in the hands of aides generally regarded as among the more liberal leaders in the government.

With the president back in the White House after summer days, significant events crowded thick and fast. Among them were these: 1. Donald R. Richberg, whose difference of opinion with Hugh S. Johnson attracted wide attention, emerged today as the top man in the industrial recovery drive. To a reorganized industrial emergency committee of six, which Richberg heads, President Roosevelt last night gave the task of laying down policies for a revamped NRA.

2. One-man rule of NRA, from which Administrator Johnson has resigned, passed definitely out of the picture when Mr. Roosevelt selected a board consisting of two industrialists, two labor experts and a college professor to administer the Blue Eagle unit under direction from the White House.

3. President Roosevelt struck at "gossip mongers" who would "create fear and encourage panic." In a radio speech last night, he cited a "Wall Street" rumor, which he branded as "wholly untrue," that Secretaries Wallace, Perkins and Morgenthau, with Rexford G. Tugwell, undersecretary of agriculture, were to retire immediately.

4. The federal reserve board—in setting a sliding scale of between 25 and 45 per cent for stock market margins and establishing somewhat flexible rules for handling accounts—was believed to be aiming at a moderate course that would not unsettle the market.

5. New moves to increase the flow of credit were under way. The RFC decided to buy preferred stock and capital notes of trust companies specializing in mortgage loans, and to encourage the creation of new trust companies that would put money out in mortgages. The need for more speed in handling applications for industrial loans was outlined by Secretary Morgenthau to chairmen of the industrial advisory committees of the 12 federal reserve banks.

6. To critics of "government in business," Secretary Wallace made answer. In the current Collier's Weekly, he cited three possible choices: Communism, fascism, or a government that is "a partner with business, labor, agriculture and consumers."

Besides Richberg, the board that will form NRA policy will include Secretary Ickes, Secretary Perkins, Farm Administrator Chester Davis and Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins. The chairman of the NRA administrative board to be chosen by that group later, also will serve with the Richberg committee.

Cecil Smith Beats Club Single-Handed

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 28 (AP)—Almost single-handed, Cecil Smith, top-goal Texas, has guided the Greentree four into the second round of the National Open Polo championship.

Smith scored nine goals as Greentree eliminated the Acken Knights, 10-1, in the first round yesterday and qualified to meet Templeton in the semi-final Sunday. Riding with Smith were N. E. Tubert, Jr., Gerald Balding and Bobby Strawbridge.

Eastcott, made up of C. V. Whitnax, Stephen Sanford and the two Hoppings, Earle N. and Earle A. S., nosed out Aknusti, 10-9 in the other first round encounter and will play the defending champion, Aurora, tomorrow.

Four new ships soon to be commissioned by a Japanese shipping company will have specially constructed steel silk rooms, with spaces between beams packed with cork dust and having a capacity of 2,500 bales of silk each.

Women Prefer This Laxative

Needing laxatives more often, women prefer delicate Fennel-mint, the original laxative. It has been found to be effective by chewing, more uniformly into the system, than giving a more natural and complete action than any other laxative. Delicious Fennel-mint contains a laxative ingredient regularly prescribed by physicians. It contains no rubber or wax, no stomach or diet. Delay is dangerous. Laxative get back on schedule and stay there. Chew non-habit forming Fennel-mint for constipation.

QUANAH'S LONGEST TEAM IN YEARS WILL BATTLE HARVESTERS TONIGHT

INDIANS HAVE BEATEN SAYRE THIS SEASON

MOST OF PAMPA CLUB TO BE USED IN GAME

WHAT—Opening football game of the 1934 season.
 WHEN—Tonight at 8 o'clock.
 WHERE—Harvester field.
 BETWEEN—Pampa Harvesters and Quanah Indians.
 ADMISSION—50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students, general admission.

Probable Starting Lineups

Pampa	Pos.	Quanah
Owens (C)	LE	Tate
Nichlet	LT (C) Mendenhall
Smith	LG	Hollis
Haner	LG	Taylor
Farks	RG	Folsom
Green	RT	Bentley
Mumford	RE	Franz
Hamilton	QB	A. Edmondson
Mackie	RB	Whited
Dumway	LH	C. Edmondson
Fanning	FB	Slaton

Night football, following in the footsteps of night baseball, will be ushered in tonight at 8 o'clock when the Pampa Harvesters meet the Quanah Indians at Harvester field. It will be the second game for each team but the first home contest for the Harvesters.

The new lighting system was completed Tuesday and adjusted the next two nights until there is not a dark spot on the field. The contract for installation was given to the Rex Electric company. Standard equipment has been installed throughout and the field should be one of the best in the southwest. Thirty-two reflectors, each with a 1500 watt bulb, have been placed at the top of 52-foot poles. Most poles for football lighting are 40 feet above the field.

The Indians are reported to have the strongest team in several years. Defensively, the Indians are supposed to be one of the strongest eleven in this section. A good offense was presented last week in Sayre where the Indians won 13 to 6. At the same time the Harvesters were losing to the Capitol Hill Indians in Oklahoma City, 18 to 0.

One or two changes may be made in the Harvesters starting lineup tonight, but most of the squad is expected to be used during the game. Bill Haner, the running back for the home city game, will probably start at center but will not be able to go the distance. If Noblett is sent to center, Mackie will probably be sent to tackle for a trial.

Coaches have been paying much attention to blocking and tackling during the week and the Harvesters are expected to put up a much smoother performance than they exhibited in Oklahoma City.

The Harvesters will have a slight weight advantage if coaches start Mackie and Fanning in the backfield. The average, according to probable starting lineups, will give the Harvesters an average of 164 pounds and the Indians an average of 160 pounds.

The Indians were expected to arrive here in time to take a light signal practice on the turf at Harvester field this afternoon. The coaches, Stallworth and Sakeld, well known names in Texas football circles of other years, wanted their boys to get the "feel" of the new turf on Harvester field.

Wrestling Next Week To Be Held Tuesday Evening

Wrestling in Pampa has been changed to Tuesday night and in future matches several new faces will appear on the Pampa mat. Next Tuesday night, however, two top-notchers who have been here before will meet in the main event when Cyclone Mackey, Amarillo, meets Ernie Arthur of Montreal, Canada.

The two welterweights who were scheduled to meet to weeks ago but Mackey was recovering from an eye injury and the match was postponed. The grapplers are old rivals, having met twice before with each taking a match. Mackey made many additional friends in Pampa Monday night when he threw Charlie Carr in the main event.

Arthur, although looking anything but a fast, scientific or rough matier, is one of the best in his class. He has wrestled from coast to coast and has met the best in his class. The fiery French-Canadian often steps out of his class to meet the good boys of the ring game. Mr. Mackey is due to have a busy evening with the foreigner.

Dorcy Detton, one of the favorites of Pampa wrestling fans, will return to the local mat when he meets Eddie O'Shea of Fort Worth in the semi-final. Detton, when he appeared here before, was a green youngster with plenty of promise. Now the Mormon is a top-notch in the middleweight ranks. He has been in the east for some time and has learned a lot about the wrestling game. Detton is reported to be faster than ever and can take care of himself against all comers.

PANTHERS TO OPEN SEASON ON SATURDAY

Six Members of Big Ten to Make Season Debut—Close Battles Expected.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP)—The sport deck will need to be cleared of all extraneous matter this week for the football season will descend upon the public with full force. The Friday-Saturday slate, of course, is dominated by warm-up contests for most major schools, but the competitive element has not been entirely overlooked.

In the East, the Pitt Panthers, annually one of the country's leading outfits, open against Washington & Jefferson, a rugged foe; Pop Warner's Temple Owls meet an inter-sectional foe, Virginia Poly; Duke plays West Virginia, and Buckeye takes Davis & Elkins. The service schools, Army and Navy, play Washburn and William & Mary, respectively.

The Southeastern conference schedule will get under way with the meeting of Vanderbilt and Mississippi State, while the Duke-Virginia military clash will mark opening hostilities in the Southern conference. Tests of the relative strength of these two groups will come in the Georgia Tech-Clemson and Kentucky-Washington & Lee struggles. A dozen other schools, thought to be one of the other, will play tune-up opponents of greater or lesser strength.

Six members of the "Big Ten" conference will make their season debuts, with Northwestern drawing Marquette as a first-game opponent. Indiana opens against Ohio University, The Rocky Mountain conference will furnish the opposition for Nebraska and Kansas of the Big Six and Drake of the Missouri Valley. Nebraska plays Wyoming while Kansas is meeting Colorado University. Drake meets the Utah Indians.

The victor over Loyola of New Orleans, faces a much stronger Southern rival, Louisiana State, at Houston in the feature game of the Southwest schedule. Games between Oregon and U. C. L. A., Washington and Idaho, and Washington State and Montana, will inaugurate the Pacific Coast conference campaign. Oregon state and Stanford face strong non-conference foes, San Francisco and Santa Clara, respectively. Southern California and California have booked lesser opposition.

Denver will start after its second Rocky Mountain conference victory in a tussle with the Utah Aggies. Colorado Teachers and Colorado College and Colorado Mines, are other conference parlies.

Joe Cronin Weds Clark Griffith's Adopted Daughter

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Joe Cronin, youthful manager of the Washington American league baseball club, and Miss Mildred June Robertson, adopted daughter of the club president, Clark Griffith, were married this morning at St. Matthew's Catholic church.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. T. J. Murray of Braintree, Conn., a friend of Cronin's. Arthur Crowley was best man and Miss Thelma Mae Griffith was maid of honor.

The church was filled with well-wishers and members of the Washington ball club.

The Cronins left immediately for New York, where they will remain several days before sailing for Cronin's home in San Francisco.

LOUISIANA'S DUE TO BEAT RICE ELEVEN

PRACTICE GAMES WILL DOMINATE PLAYING ON TOMORROW

BY HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP)—Football here again and so are the "guessers," good and indifferent, who seek to predict the all but unpredictable.

A half hundred games already are 1934 football history but tonight and tomorrow afternoon marks the first engagements for a majority of this country's big-time teams.

Practice games dominate this opening schedule but there are enough first-class contests involving apparently evenly-matched eleven to add zest to the weekly guessing contest.

Ever a seat in the office easy chair, the outstanding games seem to line up this way:

Pitt-Washington and Jefferson—Ancient rivals these but Pitt has clung to its position as one of the nation's major football powers while W. & J. has lost much ground in recent years. This looks like No. 1 or Pitt.

Northwestern-Marquette—Marquette unquestionably will make Northwestern work hard for this one but Northwestern is favored.

Rice-Louisiana State—Rice has just finished humbling Loyola of New Orleans but Louisiana State is a southern horse of a different and stronger color and looms the winner.

Duquesne-West Virginia—The Dukes have lost their great coach, Elmer Layden, but they have plenty of man-power and they do well under flood-lights. Duquesne seems to have a slight edge in this Friday night engagement.

Oregon-U. C. L. A.—U. C. L. A. showed little scoring power in its opening double-header last week and appears due for a whipping.

Nebraska-Wyoming—The Cow-boys, unless all portents fall, are traveling all the way from Laramie to Lincoln just for the ride. Nebraska looks much too tough.

Indiana-Idaho—Indiana should win but the visitors from Athens, O., are not to be trifled with.

Temple-Virginia Poly—If Pop Warner's Temple Owls can get used to playing in the daylight, they should win this one.

Bucknell-Davis and Elkins—Another Friday night encounter; with Bucknell apparently in the driver's seat.

Mississippi State-Vanderbilt—Mississippi State held the Commodore to a 7-7 draw last year. This is 1934.

Kansas-Colorado University—Probably close action here but Kansas is the indicated choice.

Drake-Utah—Another Rocky Mountain conference outfit invading the mid-west with a better-than-average chance of winning.

Georgia Tech-Clemson—Clemson showed little last week to worry the Engineers.

Kentucky-Washington and Lee—Chet Wynne is Kentucky's new coach and he has grasped it well enough yet to hold the heavy and experienced Generals in checks.

Auburn-Oglethorpe—Auburn took it on the chin from Birmingham Southern last week but this timid vote of confidence in the Plainsmen is inspired by improved work in practice.

Stanford-Santa Clara—Stanford is the choice here but by no top-heavy score.

Washington-Montana—Several votes for Washington State.

Washington-Idaho—Ditto Washington.

Ogden State-San Francisco—The boys from up north should emerge with the bacon in this one but it may be close.

Army-Washburn—The Cadets were hit hard by graduation but not hard enough to lose this one.

Navy-William and Mary—Under

BY WINNING ONE GAME CARDS COULD TIE GIANTS FOR LEAD

Are Dodgers Still in the League? Giants Surely Will Find Out Soon.

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Cardinals had an opportunity today they had been looking forward to ever since they began their National league pennant drive—by winning one game they could tie the Giants for the lead and make it an even race through the last two days of the season.

A hard team 8 to 5 triumph over the last-place Cincinnati Reds yesterday left the Cards only a half game behind the league leaders, who were idle. Today the Giants still were inactive while the Reds sought a second victory over the Reds that would put them on equal footing with the Cards.

After that triumph there would remain for St. Louis the matter of beating the Reds twice more to assure at least a tie for the flag while the Giants encounter two games against the Brooklyn Dodgers who still are looking for a reprieve to Bill Terry's now-famous question, "are the Dodgers still in the league?"

The Cards were in imminent danger of blowing themselves right out of the struggle at one stage of yesterday's contest after the opening nervousness of Gordon Slade had handed them five runs in the first inning. Bill Walker, the club's leading southpaw, wobbled around until the Reds nearly tied the score. After Walker was removed, Dazy Vance was touched up a bit in the sixth and Red rallies were stopped only after the count had reached 5-4.

The removal of relief hurler Tony Freitas changed the aspect of the game for the Cards got to St. Johnson for a couple of runs and went going away.

The only other National league struggle turned in favor of the Braves pounded the Phillies for a 7 to 2 victory and the Pirates dropped a 4 to 2 decision to the Cubs. That gave Boston a 14-game margin over Pittsburgh with three games to go.

The only American league game saw the champion Tigers go thru the motions of playing their final contest with the tail-end White Sox and take an 11 to 0 drubbing.

the leadership of a new coach, Tom Hamilton, Navy expects to get over its early game jinx.

Dartmouth-Norwich—Earl Blaik didn't shift his base from West Point to Hanover, N. H., to lose to Norwich.

Cornell-St. Lawrence—Gl Dobie is as gloomy as ever at Cornell but this is a tune-up for the big red.

North Carolina-Wake Forest—No puchover here but North Carolina should start Carl Snavelly's coaching regime off on a bright foot.

North Carolina State-Davidson—Fank Anderson's first North Carolina State team should win comfortably.

Minnesota-North Dakota State—Minnesota here unveils what may be a Big Ten conference champion.

Tulane-Chattanooga—Tulane the natural choice over one of the best of the south's smaller college teams.

Illinois-Bradley—A warm-up for the Illini.

Iowa-South Dakota—Likewise for Iowa.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP)—President John Hoyer of the National league yesterday announced that he will carry the two teams back to New York where the second game will be played Wednesday, starting as soon as possible. The third contest, if necessary, also will be played at the Polo Grounds Thursday.

President Hoyer announced that he would also request Commissioner Landis for a day or two of rest before starting the world series in Detroit either Friday or Saturday, October 5 or 6. The receipts of the play-off series would be split between the two contending clubs.

PIRATES WILL BATTLE DUMAS ON SATURDAY

VETERAN ELEVEN WILL MEET YOUNGSTERS OF LEFORS

LeFors and Dumas will clash under the lights at Shaw field in LeFors tomorrow night. The game is expected to be one of the outstanding games of the season.

Dumas will present a big, veteran eleven while LeFors will field a "left, green team. Speed and depthfulness is expected to cope with Dumas' experience and size.

The kick-off will be at 8 o'clock with Bob Vaughn of Panhandle blowing the whistle. The other officials have not been named. Additional bleachers seats have been installed to handle an expected record crowd.

The probable starting lineups follow:

LeFors	Pos.	Dumas

Godwin (C)	LT	Dunn
Mantus	LG	Glou
Moore	RG	Stanley
G. Mathis	RO	Brintley
E. Mathis	RT	Harris

FROGS BATTLE TEACHER TEAM ON SATURDAY

NO STARTLING UPSETS ARE EXPECTED IN SOUTHWEST

BY BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Southwest conference gridiron warriors will taper off in the last days in preparation for conference games when the seven top teams will swing for a victory against non-conference opponents.

Topping the program will be the Oklahoma State and Rice football teams at Houston, Louisiana State and Baylor at Austin, and Texas Tech and TCU at El Paso. These teams are among the best twelve teams in the country, whipped Rice last year, 6 to 0.

Rice emerged from last week's victory over Loyola of New Orleans in splendid physical condition and a week of hard practice has put the Cards in the mood for their struggle against Louisiana.

Other non-conference games loom as set-ups for conference teams. The University of Arkansas went through signal practice yesterday in preparation for tomorrow's battle against the College of Clark at Fayetteville. Arkansas won last year, 40 to 0.

At College State the A. A. M. Aggies polished their defense for the invasion of the Texas A. and I. Javelinas. Intermittent showers failed to stop the Aggies. They whipped the Javelinas last year, 17 to 0.

Yesterday's Texas Christian practice was an indication that the Frogs will fill the air with passes when they battle the North Texas Teachers at Fort Worth. Coach Meyer had his T. C. U. aggression throwing passes to all corners of the gridiron. The Teachers have never defeated the Frogs. T. C. U. won last year, 13 to 0.

Coach Morley Jennings moved Red Weathers back to his old tackle position yesterday as he polished his team for their game against the St. Edwards' Saints at Waco. Jennings is highly pleased with the condition of his Baylor Bears and is confident they will smother the Saints. Baylor won last season's game, 20 to 6.

For some unknown reason, Coach Ray Morrison sounded a warning to his Southern Methodist Mustangs as they drilled for their meet against Austin college at Dallas. In spite of Morrison's warning, the Mustangs continue as overwhelming favorites.

The University of Texas Longhorns will jump through a workout against the Texas Freshmen.

Three Games To Be Played if Giants and Cardinals Tie

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP)—President John Hoyer of the National league yesterday announced that he will carry the two teams back to New York where the second game will be played Wednesday, starting as soon as possible. The third contest, if necessary, also will be played at the Polo Grounds Thursday.

President Hoyer announced that he would also request Commissioner Landis for a day or two of rest before starting the world series in Detroit either Friday or Saturday, October 5 or 6. The receipts of the play-off series would be split between the two contending clubs.

BUFFALOES TO PLAY OKLAHOMA TEAM SATURDAY

Bulldogs Didn't Lose Single Game in Last Season

CANYON, Sept. 28—After a stunning, unexpected defeat the West Texas Buffaloes have settled down with a grim determination that it do or die this week against the Southwestern Bulldogs of Weatherford, Okla.

In scrimmage play before the Buff-Tiger game, the Buffaloes were blocking in mid-season form. One of the largest opening crowds in years attended the first game with the expectation of seeing the Buffaloes initiate a successful season.

For some reason the Buffs, although they were fighting just could not get to clicking and suffered a defeat which sounded a knell for many hopes. In scrimmages this week the Buffaloes again seem to have every thing that a good ball club needs, and in addition to that a knowledge that they are meeting a stronger team than the one they lost to, where before they were over-confident of winning from the Tigers.

Evidently the only changes which Coach Baggett plans to make in his starting lineup is one which places Bill Allen and Gene Lovelace as two of the largest and high-ranking in the four guards will probably see about the same amount of service in the game.

In the team of Coach Rankin Williams the Buffs are utilizing one of the best teams on their schedule. Last year the Southwestern Bulldogs did not lose a single contest to win their second consecutive Oklahoma State Collegiate championship unchallenged.

This year Coach Williams and his assistant, HackMcManus, have built the largest and high-ranking team in the south, 13 to 0.

This means that the Buffs have their work cut out for them if they wish to reestablish themselves. A victory over the Bulldogs will overshadow the first defeat of the season. One thing sure is that fans will be watching with strapping eyes, hoping for its very victory.

Although failing to lift the crown of glory, the Buffs have a great moral victory. He stayed longer with the champion than any other middle weight in the world. Clingman had the advantage in weight, had the best system of wrestling recently introduced in Illinois used.

Kallo showed much underhand grappling during the match. He had Clingman bleeding from a blow to the mouth and jaw and used his elbow frequently.

 NEW YORK (AP)—Calvin Aronson explained to Magistrate Greenstein his version of how his car happened to be in front of a fire hydrant—another motorist had pushed it there.

"What do you sell?" inquired the judge.

A suspended sentence was the outcome with a warning not to try sleazemanship on the court.

KALLO HOLDS HIS TITLE IN MAT STRUGGLE

CHAMPION WINS FAULT IN TWO HOURS AND TEN MINUTES

Gus Kallo, middleweight champion of the world, and also champion rope crawler, retained his title tonight in Amarillo when he won after two hours and 15 minutes of grappling with Otis Clingman, youthful contender. The two grapplers went two hours without either gaining the advantage.

The two gladiators were allowed to rest 10 minutes and then resumed the match. Clingman, at the end of 16 minutes, attempted to pile driver on the champion but it was turned into a freak smother and Kallo was given the fall. The decision was anything but popular with a crowd of opinion holders who felt Clingman's shoulders were not of the mat and that many times during the previous two hours, Kallo's shoulders touched the mat long when Clingman was counting out.

Kallo made himself unpopular by crawling to the ropes and remaining there for full count periods. The champion applied his famous self-strangle hold time after time but the former Pampa broke the hold every time, although taking terrible punishment. Clingman was never able to get his arms around Kallo's neck, and he was forced to the ropes.

Clingman went through the ropes twice when he missed Sonnenberg. Once he nearly landed in the octrebra pit and the other time he landed in a fan's mid-section. Kallo took the

GENE WORLEY'S FIRST PROMISE COMES TO PASS

Allred and Connally Ride in Ancient Flivver

The first campaign promise of Eugene Worley, of Shamrock, 25-year-old University of Texas law student who is the democratic nominee for state representative in the 122nd legislative district, has been fulfilled.

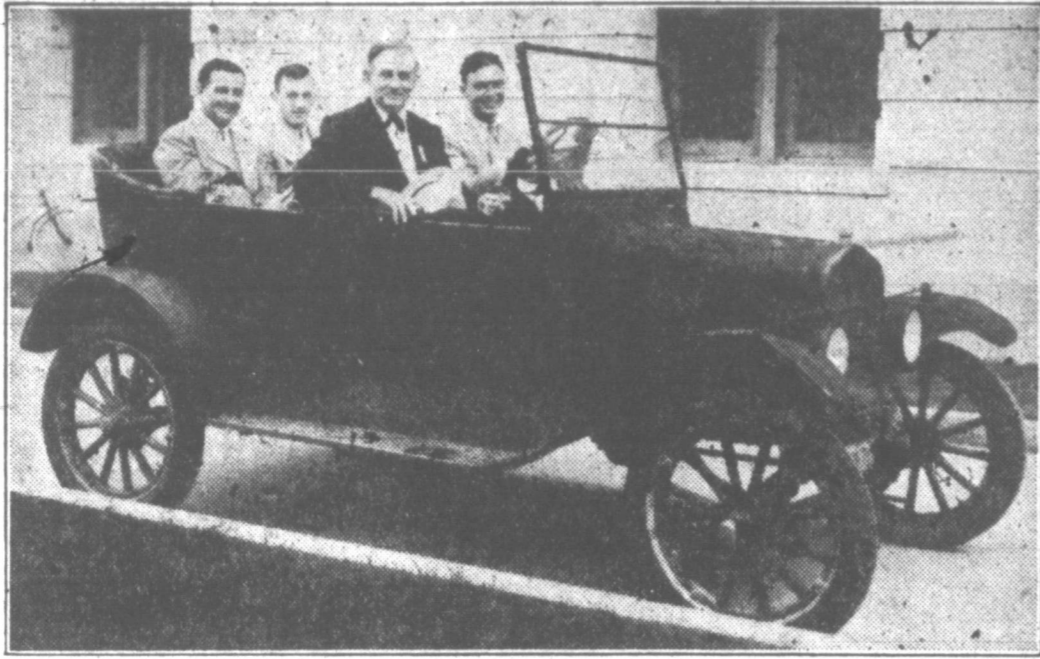

"I elected I'm going to take the next Governor of Texas for a ride in my $25 car and tell him we folks up in the Panhandle want to get along with him," said the young campaigner to the voters of Gray, Wheeler, Collingsworth, and Donley counties.

Meeting James V. Allred, democratic nominee, at the recent democratic state convention in Galveston, Worley saw no reason why he should wait on the formality of a November election. He invited "Jimmie" for a ride in his "flivver" and he accepted. He then spied U. S. Senator Tom Connally and the latter's son, Ben Connally. He just "threw them in" for good measure. And riding they all went.

It was no wonder "Governor Jimmie" and "Senator Tom" smiled so broadly as they climbed into the car. The happy campaigner of the Panhandle had brought new upholstery for the back-seat—shiny new black oil-cloth, just for this occasion. Also he had spent something like a dollar getting his motor tuned up, to avoid mishaps on the ride such as he had experienced for two months past while driving around looking up the voters of his district.

The "flivver" of Worley's has been a familiar sight since he left the law school of Texas University last June, and asked the voters to elect him their next representative. Cramped for funds, the young man had to forego car repairs and parts as much as possible, and it was not an unusual happening after he had ended a political talk to see two or three men who had been in the audience bent over the sputtering motor, trying to eliminate a knock or two.

'Gene Takes Governor And Senator for a Ride

"The people of the Panhandle are going to get along with the next Governor of Texas in a big way," commented Eugene Worley of Shamrock, democratic nominee for state representative in the 122nd legislative district comprising Gray, Wheeler, Collingsworth, and Donley counties. The 25-year-old legislative nominee, pictured at the wheel of his $25 campaign car, is shown here with United States Senator Tom Connally beside him, and James V. Allred, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, and Ben Connally, son of the senator, in the back seat. The picture was taken at the recent Democratic state convention in Galveston.

Two weeks after he entered the race the whirlwind campaigning law student was conceded an even chance to be the second man in the July primary in his three-cornered race. Two weeks more and he was given a fair chance to be the high man. A month later and the official tabulations gave him a margin of more than a 1,000 votes over his nearest opponent. He swelled this to 2,000 in the August run-off.

Worley ran on a conservative platform, promising to work for lower and more equitable taxation. He expressed the hope to change the method of administering state school aid from a basis of scholastic examination to "noses in the school room," believing the present practice works to the advantage of East and South Texas districts where the negro and Mexican population is high and against West Texas counties where the percentage of white population is higher.

Classing of cotton by the state as a means of letting the grower know what grade and staple he produces so he can get bonuses when he is entitled to them, and a more equitable and forward-looking policy of handling oil and gas wastage, were also stressed in his talks.

Upon graduation from the University of Texas, Worley will be awarded B. A. and LL. B. degrees. He has worked his way through school, having been employed on The Daily Texan and having served as a committee clerk during the 43rd legislative and is now occupying the position of advertising manager of The Cactus, University yearbook. Worley attended Texas A. & M. before going to the University.

LaNora Shows Blazing Liner On Screen Today

The terrific holocaust which destroyed the S. S. Morro Castle with a loss of nearly two hundred lives is seen in the current issues of the Pampa Daily NEWS - Universal Newsreel which has Graham McNamee as its talking reporter at LaNora theater.

Hundreds of Coast Guards, seamen and fishermen struggle against an angry sea to rescue the trapped vacationists while many perish in a floating tomb. The burning liner is plainly seen at close range from the Universal Newsreel camera plume. Rescuers struggle up the beaches with the suffering victims over whom first aid squads work for hours. The stories of heroic efforts made by survivors to save themselves are an impressive feature of the current reel.

The smoking hulk which broke from her convoy and went aground on the beach at Asbury Park, N. J., endangering homes and public buildings along the shore, is a grim reminder of the tragedy and draws hundreds of thousands to see it. Other important events seen in the reel include clashes between striking textile workers and guards at Stylesville, R. I.; views of the pounding surf as a storm sweeps the Pacific Coast near Newport and Long Beach, Cal.; the impressive rites which ushered in the Jewish New Year in New York City; and the thrills of a spectacular rodeo at Ellensburg, Wash.

"Reality" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 30. Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect" (Matthew 5:48). The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When we learn in Science how to be perfect even as our Father in heaven is perfect, thought is turned into new and healthy channels, towards the contemplation of things immortal and away from materiality to the principle of the universe, including harmonious man" (page 276).

EARLY FAME MAY BE A HANDICAP

For the highlight which it casts on modern intercollegiate football, the case of Pat O'Dea is unique. Pat O'Dea, you will remember, is the former University of Wisconsin football star who found that it was impossible to get out of the shadow of his college greatness. He starred way back in the days of the flying wedge and the padded pants, but his fame always kept pace with him. Wherever he went and whatever he did, he was always Pat O'Dea, the former football star—nothing more and nothing less. As he himself says: "It was merely the man who had once kicked a football. No matter what I wanted to talk about or get one, I always wound up in football or other athletics, simply had no time left for business."

So Pat O'Dea finally had to change his name, shuffle off his old identity, and become a new person in a new role, before he could live the normal life that the normal man wants to lead.

He kept this anonymity for 15 years. People believed that Football Star O'Dea was dead; it was even reported that he was the Unknown Soldier! A great deal has been said about "over-emphasis" in college football, and a lot of it is pure hot air. But the O'Dea case does emphasize the very great wrong which football can do to a young man.

It hands him his life wrong-end to. The summit comes right at the beginning. Everything afterward must go downhill. And a young man going out to make his way in the world could not start under a greater handicap.

This doesn't apply, of course, to the stars who plunge into professional football and stay there until they get old and fat. They are living proof that something is screwy with our higher education, to be sure, but the handicap of premature fame isn't apt to bother them much.

The chap who wants to be something more than a machine for throwing forward passes or dodging tackles is put at a disadvantage. For such a man the handicap must be tremendous. We have no right to foster a game which twists a young man's whole life out of shape.

The fame that attaches itself to an All-America half-back is a load he no longer ought to be compelled to carry through life.

STATES MAY LEAD WAY TO GOOD GOVERNMENT

A good many years ago, when the French economist de Tocqueville came over to see what sort of country the American people were making for themselves, he reported that the best thing about it was the fact that the states could serve as laboratories for experiments in government, which the nation as a whole was not yet ready to try.

Growing centralization of authority, coupled with an increasing standardization of manners and customs, has kept the states from doing very much of this laboratory work of late years. Now, however, it looks as if we were about ready to give it a try.

Ducking one's head to avoid stray bricks, one can begin by mentioning the possibility of Upton Sinclair's election in California. Whatever fears his complicated scheme for handling unemployment may arouse, it is at least pretty obvious that it is far better to have a new and possibly impractical stunt like that tested within the confines of one state throughout the nation as a whole.

Then here is Oklahoma, where E. W. Marland—once an oil king, now a progressive experimenter—expects to become governor in January and to try out a vast $100,000,000 subsistence homestead project, with an auxiliary program for the use of many small manufacturing plants to relieve urban unemployment.

Programs like these, of Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Marland, may rank with the most wildly impractical ideas that the human race ever conceived. That, at this moment, is not the point. The point is that our unemployment situation is rapidly becoming one of those progressively developing puzzles like the unbalanced budget which plagued Louis XVI of France. Louis, you may recall, fiddled around with this puzzle until it got out of hand, and he went up under Dr. Guillotine's knife.

Since this problem is becoming so great, a number of people are clamoring for a new method of approach to its solution. Such clamor inevitably leads to experimentation. And we are extremely fortunate that our political set-up permits us to experiment by states—to experiment, that is, on a small scale, without involving the nation as a whole.

The ability of the individual states to try out new methods of government may yet prove our salvation in this crisis.

OUT OUR WAY By WILLIAMS

Capital Chatter

By CHARLES S. SIMONS
AUSTIN, Sept. 28 (AP)—The Texas legislature finally has given recognition to the sad state of affairs existing in the criminal statutes and procedure in trial and appellate courts and has initiated a movement to rectify the condition. A special committee has been appointed by the house to study the criminal code and procedure under it with a view to coordinating the statutes, eliminating inconsistent provisions and speeding trial in criminal cases. The committee was instructed to inquire carefully into the appellate court phase to reduce the number of convictions reversed on technicalities. Sponsors of the resolution proposing the committee said it was a sad commentary that decisions often were reversed for little or no reason simply because of a technical fault that in itself was of slight consequence. They believe the ends of justice would be as fully served by plugging up the loopholes and allowing convictions to set in the higher courts unless a substantial error had been committed that otherwise might have resulted in a different verdict. The committee plans to confer with district and appellate judges to arrive at a code of procedure that will adequately protect defendants, at the same time, not interfere with the orderly processes of justice. A serious question with respect to a constitutional amendment to be voted on at the November general election has bobbed up. It concerns the amendment, widely advocated, to permit the legislature to classify property tax purposes and repeal the present constitutional provision that taxes must be equal and uniform. The question has been raised, that this amendment, inadvertently, would repeal the constitutional provision exempting $5,000 of the assessed valuation of homesteads from state taxes. A group of lawyers is briefing the knotty problem. The amendment has been favorably recommended by James V. Allred, democratic nominee for governor, and by taxation authorities as a means whereby much of the burden on real estate can be shifted to notes, stocks, bonds and other forms of property.

YOUNG NAMED DISTRICT MANAGER OF COMMERCE BUREAU IN DALLAS

Nominee

Notice of the permanent appointment of Harold M. Young as District Manager of the Dallas office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, United States Department of Commerce, has just been received in Dallas. Mr. Young was made Acting District Manager last December and has had full official charge of the Dallas Office since that time. The permanent appointment as District Manager is effective immediately. The permanent appointment of Mr. Young to the Dallas office is in line with the policy of the department to select, insofar as possible, for important field positions in this country men who are fully acquainted with the territory which they will serve. Mr. Young participated in the opening of the Dallas office and has been connected with it since September, 1929, except for a five-month period during the latter part of 1933 when he served as office manager for the Dallas office of the National Recovery Administration. This policy of the Bureau is further supported by the belief that the effectiveness of the service since 1917, attended George Washington University in Washington, D. C., specializing in economics and international relations, and received his degree from the School of Government and Commerce. He held the position of Commercial Agent in the Chicago, Illinois, office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce for about a year. He has been active in the promotion and utilization of extensive governmental and certain non-governmental data of value to business. He has addressed many trade groups on varied subjects and has been associated with import and export trade activities of the Gulf South-west for several years. Mr. Young has just returned from Kansas City where he visited the district office which formerly included Northern Oklahoma in its territory. This part of the Kansas City territory has been assigned to the Dallas office. A visit was also made to several of the Northern Oklahoma cities following a conference with the Kansas City district office. The Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, through its staff of technical and commodity specialists in Washington, its Commercial Attachés and Trade Commissioners in foreign countries, and with the cooperation of the Consular representatives of the Department of State, is in a particularly favorable position to assist American business men in the solution of their problems. Persons in North Texas and Oklahoma, the territory served by the Dallas office, needing information regarding conditions in foreign countries, and seeking data to assist them in their domestic commercial problems should communicate with Mr. Young, at the district office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Chamber of Commerce Building, Dallas. The result of price protection in the book business, under the book-sellers' code, has been a gain in business for smaller retailers, but a loss in total sales to publishers, a prominent wholesaler says.

CHINESE-LIKE CHEWING GUM
NANKING, China (AP)—China consumes more than $600,000 worth of American chewing gum a year, according to statistics of the ministry of industries. The demand, which is frequently largely by the youth of China, has led to the chief outlet for the American-made product.

NEW ENGLAND STATES KEEP A CHECK ON DRIVERS AND CARS IN ORDER TO STOP ROAD ACCIDENTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—In New England where year-round tourist traffic creates a serious problem, a three-fold program has been inaugurated to make roads safe for travelers.

This plan envisions education of the driver, elimination of faulty vehicles and scientific road construction. Educational campaigns have been stressed in Connecticut where weekly appeals are issued direct to motor vehicle operators. New Hampshire has inaugurated a follow-up campaign where motorists are stopped and warned even in cases where violations do not warrant arrests.

Business men's organizations and safety councils in Rhode Island are promoting same driving by erecting signs urging the protection of children and giving lectures in which maps showing scenes of various accidents are used.

All New England states require drivers' licenses. Many of them are using faulty vehicles as reasons for refusing to issue licenses and for suspending licenses.

In New Hampshire licenses are refused until brake and lights conform to state standards. Maine's requires all registered motor vehicles to be inspected twice a year. Inspections are made at official stations for a fee of fifty cents. Vermont is checking the general condition of all cars and paying particular attention to driver discovered driving after drinking intoxicants. Connecticut requires all garages to make detailed reports of accidents in which a car brought to them for repairs is figured.

Massachusetts and New Hampshire have taken the lead in scientific construction of roads. In Massachusetts engineers are laying out new roads in such a manner as to eliminate traffic hazards by careful grading and well planned inter-sections.

FARMERS KILL STORKS BUDAPEST (AP)—Storks, usually welcomed by peasants, are being killed by farmers in the NagyKoros district because they have been eating young poultry. The drying up of swamps and swamps caused a shortage of the usual stork diet, young frogs and snakes.

TIGER ISLAND

By GOUVERNEUR MORRIS

SYNOPSIS: Harvey Bowers and Ivy Green are castaways on a volcanic island near Borneo, a refuge they have reached on a raft after being left to drown aboard the sinking Boldero by Wong Bo, its rascally captain. Bowers and Ivy have released the cargo of wild animals they were taking to Singapore. At least one tiger has found its way to their island, because they could not light a fire in time, the castaways have been forced to watch a gunboat slip past them, helpless to call it.

Chapter 27
EXPLORATION

The escaped menagerie during the night gave no further evidence of life. Ivy and Bowers were so tired that a patch of dry sand still warm from the heat of the sun seemed as soft and comforting as a feather-bed.

They woke at dawn refreshed and full of optimism. They had before them a whole day in which to build a shelter and establish themselves. Bowers even hoped to find a dry cave, some old volcanic blowhole near water.

And in this even his hopes were justified. There were dozens of caves. In places the volcanic rock was honeycombed, but one cave was shallow, another damp, and the ceiling of the third was too low.

But that first morning they stayed there on the point on which they had landed, and gave the whole of their worldly goods, including the matches, a good drying in the sun. With a line and one of the hooks which he had found in the chart-room Bowers had a go at fishing, wading waist-deep in the lagoon and using for bait the animals he had fracted from certain brightly striped and speckled littoral shells.

There were plenty of fish to be seen, and he might have fished better with a fish-spear, for his baits did not prove alluring and he caught nothing.

He had fished for an hour or more when a call from Ivy drew his eyes shoreward, and when he saw that Ivy was obscured from view by curling wisps of blue smoke, he knew that she had managed to strike a match and start a fire.

He waded ashore with great foaming strides and in a mood of exultation. Fire spelled all the difference between health and comfort and between sickness and misery, and he had had the rest that all the matches might have been irretrievably spoiled by dampness.

It was a pity that they had not thought to bring pots and pans, but they hadn't, and emptied cans, and the cleaner halves of coconuts would have to serve.

While coffee was making, Bowers marked down a group of banana trees, made his way to them through a dense, almost shoulder-high undergrowth of sun-cured watergrass and presently returned in triumph with ripe golden fruit for breakfast.

After breakfast they went house-hunting, but first there was a little argument as to the quality of the coffee which Ivy had brewed, she protesting that it would have been much better if had been made with real water instead of coconut water, and Bowers maintaining the contrary.

They returned first to the river where they had drunk and bathed, and after repeating these pleasures and sitting about and chattering until they were dry, began to explore without any special theory or system.

Between shoulders, the little valley in which they found themselves was no more than a quarter of a mile in the widest space. They wished to find a location which would provide the following particulars: proximity to water, security from wind and rain, and a view at all times of the lagoon and the open sea beyond.

The shoulders of the valley where the rocks showed black and bare gave promise of caves. But the jungle and the undergrowth of wa-

13 CCC Camps To Be Sent to New Location

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 28 (AP)—Movement of thirteen civilian conservation corps companies to new locations in the Texas district during October and November has been announced from district headquarters at Fort Sam Houston.

Six of these companies will be brought from other states for the winter and seven already in the state will be moved to new locations.

Within the state, the company at Cleburne will be moved to Hillsboro and the one at Dublin will go to Brenham about October 15. Between October 1 and 15 the company at Stephenville will be moved to a new location at Mother Neff, near McGregor; the one at Lake Abilene will be moved to Brownwood; and one at Austin will go to Groveton.

The company at Meridian is scheduled to move to Huntsville between November 1 and 15 and the company at Denison in the Oklahoma district will be moved to Caddo Lake October 15.

Three companies will be moved from Colorado and three from Oklahoma into the Texas district. Colorado companies will go to Cleveland, Jasper and Crockett, the movements being scheduled for October 1, October 15 and November 15, respectively.

On October 15 two Oklahoma companies will be moved to Lindale and Zavalla and on November 1 another company will go to a point near Willis in Walker county.

Body of Patriot Removed to State Cemetery in 1931

BUCKHOLTS, Sept. 28 (AP)—The body of Benjamin F. Bryant, a captain under General Sam Houston in Texas' war of independence, lies in the state cemetery at Austin but it rested in Bryant Station cemetery near Buckholts from his death in 1837 until 1931. Only a small country school house located near the north bank of the Little river four miles southwest of this community survives as a reminder that the soldier-patriot was a resident of Milam county.

According to records Captain Bryant settled in this region soon after Texas' independence was recognized by Mexico. Because of his forceful character, General Houston, president of Texas, appointed him agent or ambassador to the Lapan and Tonkawa Indians to keep peace on the frontier.

A letter from President Houston to Bryant dated March 23, 1837, now in the possession of Mrs. J. T. Kemp of Cameron, indicated that the chief executive had placed Bryant among the red men.

"They are to listen to your talks," the president wrote, "and to walk in the path which you point out to them. When I wish to see them here I will write to you and you communicate to them my desires. You will permit no person to trade with the Indians and go amongst them without leave from you. Should you give leave to any you will report same to the government by the first opportunity."

After remaining three quarters of a century in an obscure country grave yard the body of the pioneer soldier with that of his wife, who died 16 years after her husband, was removed to the state cemetery at the suggestion of L. W. Kemp, then state historian.

PAMPA'S ESTIMATED POPULATION IN 1933 WAS 12,100—INCREASE SINCE THEN IS BELIEVED HIGH

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Texas has an estimated population of 6,073,000, as of July 1, according to the Bureau of Census. The total is a gain of 248,285 over the official enumeration of 1930. The estimated population of continental United States is given as 126,425,000, a gain of 3,649,954 since 1930.

The Texas increase, compared with 1930 is about half of that of the State of New York. Texas has been above the 6,000,000 mark beginning with the estimate for 1933, and compared with that year the estimated figure for 1934 show the State gained 50,000 in that period.

Texas has doubled its population since 1900 when the official enumeration gave it slightly in excess of 3,000,000. It gained more than 800,000 during the next ten years, about the same between 1910 and 1920, and 1,160,000 between 1920 and 1930. Population estimates are figured on a basis of increase or decrease during the preceding decade with allowances for unusual conditions. The basis has proven a fairly accurate index pointing to the subsequent official enumeration.

The Bureau also has prepared estimates of population for all places of 10,000 or more as of July 1, 1933, for general information, but has not brought the figures up to the same date in 1934. However, upon request of any community the population estimate will be worked out.

The Dallas population as of July 1, 1933, was 278,000, a gain of 17,525 over 1930. Dallas holds its rank of second among Texas cities in point of population, being exceeded only by Houston, which was shown to have an estimated population of 317,900, or a gain of 25,548 over the 1930 census. The estimated population of San Antonio was 243,500, a gain of 11,958 and Fort Worth 169,250, a gain of 5,573. The estimated population of other Texas cities, compared with the 1930 of enumeration follow:

Spurs Jingle Toward Congress

Judge P. L. Gassaway looks as if he were ready for a rodeo, but he's aiming at a higher prize—election to Congress from the Fourth Oklahoma district—and voters there count on him to spur on some excitement if he arrives. The judge is an expert roper and rider, as well as a politician.

Family Affairs Aired in Joiner Divisions Suit

DALLAS, Sept. 28 (AP)—Mrs. Lydia A. Joiner's court suit for a division of the old holdings of C. M. (Dad) Joiner, resolved itself today into a hearing on family affairs.

John L. Joiner, 51-year-old son of Joiner, who received a $100,000 settlement for his share in helping his father discover the East Texas oil field, told the jury he was sorry his father hadn't fought the settlement in court because he believed he would have obtained more money from him.

A defense attorney sought to show that the elder Joiner had given his son the money but "you were" in such condition that your father was unwilling "to increase the suit."

"That's the reason he gave," John Joiner replied.

"But, he didn't fight the case in court when you sued him?"

"No, I wish he had, because I would have got more."

John Joiner testified he knew nothing of his mother's plan to sue her father until he went to Ardmore after a hearing that his father had been divorced and had remarried.

Defense attorneys had sought to show that members of the defendant's family may have influenced Mrs. Lydia Joiner to file the suit.

The plaintiff seeks half the estate of the defendant, claiming that her husband had her sign an agreement in August, 1933, before his divorce, the terms of which she did not understand. The agreement gave her $500 monthly for life and a quit claim deed to the Joiner home in Ardmore.

BRITISH ENTRY MISSED AT IRISH HORSE SHOW

DUBLIN, Irish Free State (AP)—Organizers of the Dublin horse show express regret that no military entries were received from Great Britain.

The flags of the competing nations from overseas—France, Switzerland, Sweden, Holland, Belgium and Germany—were flown in their honor, but no Union Jack was displayed.

"We would gladly fly the Union Jack," said Edward Bohane, director of the show. "Each year we invite British cavalry entries, but for some reason the war office now refuses on the ground that maneuvers preclude British officers taking part."

BOY OF BURNING DECK HALLOWED BY FRANCE

PARIS (AP)—The boy who stood on the burning deck has a ship named for him in the French navy.

The boy about whom the poem was written was Giacomo Jocatte Casabianca. The burning deck on which he disappeared beneath the sea was part of the French warship Orient, sunk during the Battle of the Nile, and of which his father was captain.

Now the Ministry of Marine has named a new submarine "Casabianca."

International Sunday School Lesson BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: God In Hebrew History.

Scripture Lesson: Heb. 11:32-40.

32. And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah; of David, also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:

33. Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34. Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, turned waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35. Women received their dead raised to life again; and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36. And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

37. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword; they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38. (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise;

40. God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

ANNE BOLEY'S COTTAGE HOUSES FOR LABORERS

CHELMSFORD, England (AP)—The only home ever owned by Anne Boleyn, one of the wives of the oft-maligned Henry VIII, has been purchased by Henry Ford.
