Dining at Maxim's recently Mademoiselle Chanel wore one of her famous head-dresses, a bouquet of five or six gardenias on a veil of black tulle. The veil shaded the eyes and fell down to the shoulders. The dress was white crepe with long sleeves and a slight décolleté, and had a ribbon sash. The "jewels" were a long necklace of white gardenias.

Mrs. Dixon Will Represent Church At Presbyterian

Plans to attend the Presbyterian meeting in Canadian on March 22 and 23 were made by members of the Presbyterian Women's auxiliary at the regular meeting this week in the church annex.

Mrs. W. S. Dixon will be the delegate from the society and a number of others are planning to attend. Year books for the year of 1938-39 were distributed and plans for the year's work were outlined by the program committee. In the business meeting, the women decided to redecorate the kitchen in the church.

The devotional by Mrs. P. C. Ledrick was followed with an interesting program by Mrs. Fred Roberts on "American Indians," describing in particular the work being done by the Presbyterian missions among Navajo Indians in Arizona. Mrs. Roberts stressed the fact that the church gives individual help to the Indians which the government schools are not able to provide.

Hostesses for the afternoon, Mmes. W. S. Dixon and A. D. Ellis served refreshments in the St. Patrick theme to 21 members.

Importance of Mental Hygiene Stated by Teacher

Few of us realize the importance of the first few years in the mental adjustment of the child to life. Mrs. Espar A. Stover of the Woodrow Wilson school stated in discussing mental hygiene. During the first two years of his existence the child gets his feeling of security or insecurity in life. This early mental pattern may be altered some in the future, but it becomes reflex or "second nature" to him.

Parents who allow their children to get this concept from hired servants, or older brothers and sisters, who may take care of them, need not be surprised if their child does not ask for their guidance and opinion in future years.

A mother who allows her social duties to interfere and does not give her child sufficient personal attention and companionship, may reap a harvest for which she is totally unprepared.

The character traits of a child are laid in such deep patterns, by school age, that the primary teacher receives with joy the children from homes where correct training has been given, and can easily tell the child whose character is the product of unfortunate circumstances and environment. Primary children often amaze their elders by their well defined traits of integrity, independence and social development.

Too many can not be said about a satisfactory social development, because a child's future success and happiness in life, his future mental health, depends on his adjustment to society. This alone is an important reason for the nursery schools and kindergartens. Children brought up alone and without contact with other children of their own age may suffer untold agonies when forced into an alien society. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts serve a great need of the child during the scouting age, the adjusting period between childhood and the adult age.

The efforts of children should be met with encouragement, never indifference. A child to whom no one listens may never learn to express himself as he should.

A nurse may take a child out to the park and keep him there. He gets an airing, but the child who is allowed to walk and exercise will develop physically much faster. Of course this would take more attention from the nurse.

It is now commonly agreed that children left orphans do better in small groups, in a family atmosphere rather than in an institution. How much better then, does the child do, who has the loving care and attention of his parents? He will have plenty of time to adjust himself to the cold world when the time arrives, and his added years will help him do this. No one feels more dejected and forlorn than a neglected child.

Many hobbies which have become a lifelong pleasure to many, were started first when children, under the fostering care of interested and helpful parents.

Children should never be forced to learn things above their age level. This age level varies with different children. A child should not be called dumb because he can not do something which he may do very easily a year or so later.

Teachers have found that one of the best ways to get indifferent children to work is to praise the efforts they do put forth. Usually they respond to this appreciation and the teacher is rewarded with their fullest efforts.

Children who are treated with politeness by adults soon show the same consideration for others.

A child should never be humiliated by disciplining him before others. As the child grows older, the punishment should fit the crime, in order for the child to understand its justice. For example, one child who misbehaved at a party, was not allowed to wear a new party dress at the next party attended.

Considerate conduct and good manners on the part of the parents makes these things almost second nature for the children.

Old ideas, old stereotyped patterns concerning the meaning of success, life and the value of time, must make way for the more modern idea that what is good for us must be good for our neighbor too, and instead of competition let us have cooperation. The culture of the future will have complete faith in goodness and the good life.

Entertainer

Virginia McNaughton, personality song and dance pupil of Kathryn Vincent Steele, will appear on the Kiddie Broadcast to be given in Amarillo tomorrow.

Two Students Receive Highly Superior Rating

Two piano students of Mrs. May Foreman Cary won high honors at the Panhandle Music Festival in Amarillo yesterday.

Mickie Jean Casada made the highest average in the nine-year-old division at the festival. Mickie Jean, who is seven years of age, received a highly superior rating for playing the five contest numbers.

A close second for Pampa was made by Carolyn Sue Lipsky, six-year-old, who also was rated highly superior in the nine-year-old division.

All of Mrs. Cary's pupils made a grade of 90 or above and received ratings of excellent and superior.

Numbers played were "Morning" by Gurilit; "A Czerny, number two"; "The Lady With the Balloons," Erb; "Minuet," Bach; and "Sonatina," Hayden.

Other members of the Carr School of Music who took part were Carol Cuberson, Patsy Pierson, Joan Thompson, Armilda Cargill, Helen Marie Alexander, Flora Louise Alexander, Elsie Ruth Graham, Betty Jo Casada, Lola Mae Henderson, and Patsy West.

Those who will compete for honors in the more advanced work today are Margaret Carr, Gene Finkbeiner, Martha Pierson, Betty Ann Cuberson, Ernestine Holmes, Dorothy Lehman, and Cara Mae Lemm.

Holmes' "Chronicle" were one of the sources used by Shakespeare for his plays.

School Blast Aftermath Causes Spiritual Rebirth In New London

By NEA Service
NEW LONDON, March 18—Just a year ago, today, a tremendous gas explosion blasted life out of 276 children and 18 adults in a New London school.

Despite the fact it was one of the most terrible disasters ever to strike an American school, the rest of the country, busy with its own affairs, may have forgotten the horror of the catastrophe.

But what of New London? What has been the result of the disaster in this little East Texas town which stands like an island in a veritable sea of oil and gas derricks? What have been the psychological effects on parents who lost their children, and on pupils who survived the blast?

On the physical side, a pretentious new $300,000 school building is nearing completion. A local committee is making a drive for a towering memorial. Others are waging a fight for highway beautification.

Religious Awakening
But something more important than that is happening. It might be called a spiritual rebirth, and church and Sunday School attendance attests its arrival.

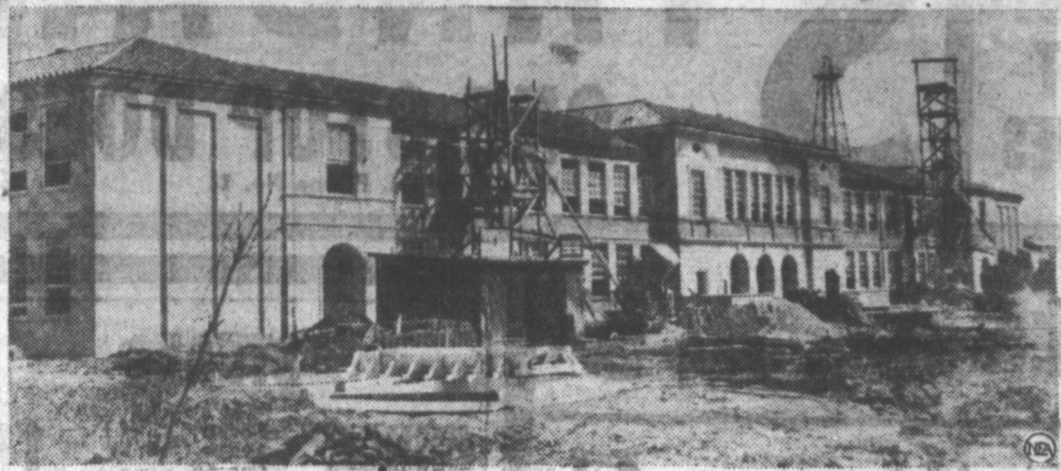

It is as though an entire city, small though it is, has turned to religion to find comfort for the loss of sons and daughters who went to their deaths so early in life, leaving empty chairs behind in hundreds of homes.

The Rev. R. L. Jackson, pastor of the Methodist church, points out that 64 persons attended his Sunday School on the week before the disaster. Now more than 200 attend the services in the Methodist church alone every Sunday.

Part of the credit for this spiritual awakening goes, incidentally, to John Lumpkin. He lost a child in the explosion, and now he virtually takes the responsibility for the regular attendance of every New London church-goer.

Choose Their Own Church
With the help of employees of the oil company he heads, Lumpkin sends a big bus through the district's scattered oil camps every Sunday, picking up passengers and depositing them at the door of the church of their preference. Later he takes them home.

And what of the children? Con-

The partially completed school building at New London, Tex., at eye, is being built to replace the structure which was wrecked by a mysterious gas explosion on March 18, 1937. The new school is as blast-proof as human ingenuity can make it. There are no gas pipes into the building proper, all heating being supplied from a boiler-house many yards away.

cerning the damage to bodies of the survivors there can be no difference of opinion. One hundred and eighty-four were injured. Of these, 137 suffered only minor hurts. Of the more seriously injured, 25 may prove to have suffered permanent disfigurement.

But what happened to the minds of the survivors is another and more controversial matter. The Child Welfare Service, after a survey of all the survivors, reported that the blast caused considerable psychological reaction among the children.

Results of the Disaster
The report showed that 125 were "emotionally involved"; that 75 "face the possibility of requiring the services of a psychiatrist"; that there were instances of boys and girls "going to pieces" emotionally long after the disaster.

C. A. Tate, principal of the school, does not agree, however, that the emotional disturbances as a result of the explosion are as serious as pictured in some quarters.

"The students may refer to the explosion in dating some event," he says, "but they use it in the same sense as they would place a date by saying 'before or after Christmas.'"

There is no neurosis at New London.

"Won't Happen Again"

Regardless of the results of the disaster, those responsible for building the new school are making certain that it won't happen again. The new building, standing near the site of the old, will be heated by gas as before, but there will be no gas meters in it, no gas pipes in the basement. The boiler house stands 200 yards from the main building, and electrical control devices have made it virtually foolproof.

Meanwhile, citizens are going ahead with their plans for the memorial, which will be in the form of a towering arch to be erected through voluntary public subscriptions. It will be dedicated on March 20, 1939, two years after the explosion, and officials are planning to ask President Roosevelt to lead the dedicatory ceremonies.

Play Presented By Members of Women's Council

At the meetings of the Women's Council of First Christian church Wednesday afternoon at the church, a play, "Ba Thane," was presented under the direction of Mrs. Bob Irving.

The cast included Gordon Worth, a missionary in Burma, played by Mrs. R. L. Allison; Mrs. Gordon Worth, wife of the missionary, Mrs. A. L. Burge; Joan, their daughter, Betty Fay Blair; Mr. Ordway, a newspaper reporter, Mrs. Don Blair; Ba Thane, a native boy of Burma, Miss Betty Jean Tiemann; Mr. Fox, an oil well driller, Miss Avis Heskell; Ma May, a native girl, Mrs. Bob Irving.

The story presented was that of a missionary couple striving to educate and convert the natives of Burma. The oil well workers angered the natives so that they endangered the lives of the white people. Through the prayer of the missionaries, peace reigned again. Opening the meeting was a song, "Stepping in the Light," and a prayer by Mrs. D. C. Howard. Mrs. Ora Wagner gave the devotional on worship.

Forty-nine members were present at the meeting.

HOUSE GIVES APPROVAL TO NAVY PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—Tentative approval of a 20 per cent increase in the American fleet gave administration leaders confidence today that the house would pass the billion-dollar naval program by an overwhelming margin.

Before the final roll call on Monday, however, foes of the bill were making a determined effort to strike out the so-called policy section which would commit the navy to a non-aggressive role but assign it to "protect our commerce and citizens abroad."

Instead, the opponents favored a proposal by Rep. Kniffin, Democrat, Ohio, to establish definite "naval frontiers" of the United States, behind which the fleet would be impounded unless attacked. This plan would require the withdrawal of all American warships from Asiatic waters.

Rep. Maverick, Democrat, Texas, called the bill's statement "mere windy rhetoric" but urged its elimination on the ground it would permit "a lieutenant in the navy—or even a petty officer" to get the United States into war.

The fleet increase which the house tentatively authorized would permit construction of 46 new warships, 22 auxiliary vessels and 950 airplanes.

By a 98 to 63 vote, the house refused yesterday to kill a provision for building three new battleships. It also declined to make their construction contingent on the calling of an international disarmament conference.

FOREIGN COTTON TRADE URGED AS NECESSARY

DALLAS, March 18 (AP)—Francis B. Sayre, assistant secretary of state, told Texas cotton men today the most practical way to protect and increase their foreign markets is through the international bargaining of reciprocal trade agreements.

Sayre, addressing the annual convention of the Texas Cotton Association, said "Foreign trade is a matter almost of life and death" for southern farmers and the South as a whole.

"The life of the South is built directly upon foreign markets and foreign purchasing power for American cotton," the state department official said.

"Excessive tariffs strike double injury to our South. They increase the most of many of the things which farmers have to buy.

"But the most deadly injury to southern cotton growers wrought by excessive tariffs is loss of foreign markets by reducing foreign purchasing power and lessening the amount of dollar exchange available abroad for the purchase of American cotton. European nations today need and badly want more American cotton. But they do not possess, and, because of our excessive tariffs, they cannot obtain by the sale of their goods to the United States sufficient dollar exchange to pay for what they want."

WHITNEY EXPELLED BY N. Y. STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, March 18 (AP)—Richard Whitney, bankrupt broker awaiting sentence on two grand larceny charges to which he has pleaded guilty, was expelled from the New York stock exchange today.

The expulsion order, voted by the governing committee last night, was read from the rostrum at the opening of today's trading by Charles R. Gay who succeeded Whitney as president of the exchange.

Two of Whitney's partners, Edwin D. Morgan Jr. and Henry D. Mygatt, were suspended for three years. The government committee absolved them of any knowledge of "the wrongful acts" of Whitney but suspended them under a rule that holds all members responsible for acts of their firm.

Whitney, who guided the exchange through the tempestuous days of 1929 and was president for five terms, was expelled permanently. He has pleaded guilty to indictments charging him with the larceny of securities valued at more than $200,000. Sentence will be pronounced March 28. He faces a possible maximum prison term of 20 years.

MAN WILL FACE TRIAL AFTER 3-STORY LEAP

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 18 (AP)—Peter Burton, 39-year-old Detroit electrician, probably will survive to face trial in a double slaying to which police said he confessed a moment before he plunged three stories.

Burton, closely guarded, lay in emergency hospital today suffering from a compound frontal skull fracture and internal injuries.

Chief of Detectives John J. Whalen said Burton from his hospital pillow told how he attacked and strangled his estranged wife and her landlady, Mrs. Ursula Jakubowski, in a Detroit rooming house last Monday and fled to Buffalo, his former home. Questioned throughout the day by Buffalo and Detroit detectives, Burton had arisen finally from his chair, Detective Sergeant Clarence McGee related, and exclaimed: "All right, I killed both of them. Now can I have a drink of water?" As a detective left to get him a drink, Burton ran to the partly opened window and threw himself out. "I grabbed him by the foot but the shoe came off and down he plunged," said McGee. Queen Victoria once traveled on a train at more than 100 miles an hour, a London engineer revealed in a recent speech. He said the speed was kept secret so the public would not become alarmed.

MAN HELD IN LOSS OF $35,000 CO-OP FUND

BEAUMONT, March 18 (AP)—On suspect was under arrest and another was sought today in connection with the loss of approximately $35,000 by the Cooperative association store of Port Arthur, owned by employees of the Texas Company refinery there. At Fort Worth, C. W. Horan, 47, who made quarterly audits of the store's book, was under arrest on 14 indictments returned here yesterday which charged receiving and concealing stolen property, accomplice to felony embezzlement, and felony embezzlement. B. W. Crawford, cashier and bookkeeper for the store for nine years, was named in 18 indictments charging felony embezzlement. He had not been arrested. County Attorney E. W. Easterling said Crawford was accused of taking the money and Horan with covering up discrepancies in his audits. Judge R. A. Shivers, criminal district court, set the cases for trial April 11.

GAS SEEPAGE THEORY HEARD AT CONVENTION

NEW ORLEANS, March 18.—Members of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists convening here were aware today that study of a gas seepage principal seen in the example of a capped bottle of beer that goes flat may lead to an exploration method outmoding all others for certain soils. The method and its development in two years of experimenting were described by Dr. Eugene Rossare, of Houston, Tex., a world war aviator and chemist. Speaking before the AAPG and the Affiliated Society of Exploration Geophysicists, Dr. Rossare traced the development of methods of search from the curious "creaking" of floating means that began with the discovery of Pennsylvania oil in 1859 through refined methods of recent years which he has used and seen develop.

Girl Scout Horizon Widens

By MARION YOUNG, NEA Service Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK—Grandmother, remembering how wonderfully broad-minded she felt when she let her daughter join the Girl Scouts, must laugh a bit to herself when she looks at daughter's daughter, the Girl Scout of today. Letting one's little girl go about in bloomers, even though they were unquestionably blooming at the knee and theories about outdoor exercise and active sports being good for women did seem pretty revolutionary then. Today, 26 years later, although the fundamental principles of Scouting remain the same, Girl Scouts must seem to Grandmother at least, vastly liberated.

The Girl Scout Mariners in the photo above, who go down to the sea, and sail inland lakes and rivers, become unwitting symbols of their modern freedom as they lounge comfortably about the deck, dressed in shorts, slacks and sweaters whose informality might have shocked their predecessors of 25 years ago.

Every time Mother sees the local troop in camping shorts—minus stockings—she remembers her own uniform that consisted of long blue duck skirt and high-necked blouse, which she had to make herself, and black cotton stockings. She notices their hair—trim and neat and closely cropped, and contrasts it with her own long hair, tied busily and hotly at the back of the neck. Mother, although proud of being a pioneer Girl Scout, feels a little humbled as she contemplates her daughter, who more widely extended knowledge as bestowed by the modern program. For today's Girl Scouts are expert in every conceivable kind of outdoor sport. They know, not the names of three birds and flowers, sufficient knowledge for passing the nature test then, but the names and characteristics of at least thirty birds and thirty flowers.

Magine Club Meets With Mrs. Winsett

HIGGINS, March 18.—Magazine Club met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Winsett Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. C. E. Patton presided in the absence of Mrs. B. C. Hurn, president. Proverbs were given in answer to roll call. The program was especially instructive, according to Mrs. A. D. Shaw, club reporter, when Mrs. Chas. Newcomer read "Women in the News"; Mrs. Patton, "Mrs. Percey Fennelbacher"; and Mrs. E. B. Roberts, "Doctors on the Payroll." As chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Newcomer also read the program arranged for next year's yearbook.

Work of this congregation has certainly been encouraging the past week; four responded to the invitation last Sunday, one week ago and five responded last Sunday. The crowds are growing with every service. The largest attendance this week for the ladies' Bible class in the history of the congregation was reported. We are now conducting four classes on Wednesday evening. We had 57 in the adult class last Wednesday evening. You are urged to attend. Remember that "nothing succeeds like success." The first service of the meeting with Foy Wallace doing the preaching begins April 17. We expect the greatest meeting the Central congregation has ever had. Bible classes meet Sunday 9:45 a. m. Classes for all ages. Do not fail to attend this service together with your children next Sunday. Preaching 10:45 a. m. Communion 11:45 a. m. Radio service 5:00 to 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. HARRIS FOOD STORE NO. 6 MARKS FIRST ANNIVERSARY TODAY

The first anniversary of the opening of Harris Food Store No. 6 at 306 South Cuyler, will be celebrated today and tomorrow at both store 6 and at Harris Food Store No. 3, at 322 West Kingsmill. Store No. 6 was established a year ago, four months after the company built and opened the store on West Kingsmill avenue. The South Cuyler store is the company's newest in Pampa and also the newest store in the 30-year-old grocery firm, which has three stores in Amarillo, one in Borger, and two in Pampa. The company maintains its own bakery and ice cream plant at its headquarters on East 10th street in Amarillo. At the head of the firm is the founder, J. H. Harris, 77, who was active in public affairs until a few years ago. Active management of the concern is by Mr. Harris' two sons, Odell and Willard. Mr. Harris has visited in Pampa several times. As he is a pioneer in this section, he especially enjoys reminiscing with old-timers at his office in Amarillo. Personnel of the Harris Food Stores: Pampa: Store 3, 322 West Kingsmill, Otis Pumphrey, general manager (both stores); Lloyd Benne t manager; A. T. Pumphrey, Bob Crouch, Ed McCormick, Junior Barnett, A. C. Cox Jr., Raymond Schilling, A. J. Taylor, and Lafayette Smith. Store 6, at 306 South Cuyler, Marshall Brooks, manager; J. E. Morrow, Pete Rusell, Eugene Fleming, Leon Harris, Lawrence West, meat department manager, Darrell Dean, and Clifford Bailey.

MORE THAN SIX MILLION PINE TREES SET OUT

JASPER, Mar. 18 (AP)—Twenty-one civilian conservation corps crews from three camps planted 6,600,000 pine seedlings in the second season of reforestation at the Angelina national forest recently completed. Lorenzo Jared, forest ranger, reports. The turpentine camp in the forest was the base of operations and planted the largest number of the trees, 4,118,000, Jared said. The Nancy camp was second with 2,070,000, and the Bannister camp with a crew of about 60 men planted 412,000. Longleaf and slash were the species mostly used but, a little short leaf also was planted. The report shows a total of 3,215,000 longleaf, 3,322,000 slash and 62,000 shortleaf pine seedlings. A total of 10,338,900 pine seedlings were planted here last season by members of the civilian conservation corps, operating from eight camps in East Texas. Approximately 12,000 acres of remote, scattered and diversified tracts were covered. Only 492,000 seedlings including 391,000 longleaf and 101 slash pine, were planted in the Sabine national forest this season, which marked the third year of reforestation work. Weeks ago, she told Lane, for medical attention and there purchased the .22-caliber pistol used in the slayings. The pistol was found under the steps of the house. Sheriff J. B. Sample, summoned by the 16-year-old surviving child, said he found the mother in the woods 400 yards from the house. Sleep while you want ad works.

MOTHER'S REASONS FOR KILLING SIX DOUBTED

CENTER, Mar. 18 (AP)—A mass funeral for six children, slain by their mother, was planned today while a Shelby county grand jury prepared to convene tomorrow for action on six murder complaints against Mrs. Lillie May Curtis, 38. The funeral was planned at West Hamilton near the woman's home in the piney woods section of East Texas, 22 miles south of here. The victims were three boys and three girls, ranging in age from 5 to 15. They were shot to death in bed late Tuesday. Spared among the nine children were a boy who was at his grandfather's home, a married sister, and a 16-year-old son, Travis, who, Mrs. Curtis said, "could take care of himself." She blamed poverty for the act. District Attorney Wardlaw Lane discounted the poverty theory. Mrs. Curtis was under a five-year suspended sentence for slaying her husband, Robert Curtis, 44, in 1935, when at the trial she got more attention than she was accustomed to." Lane said. She went to Houston several

Study Club Meets In Trenfield Home

HIGGINS, March 18.—Mrs. C. Trenfield was hostess to the Tuesday Study club at her home here when Mrs. Wayne Brown was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Walter Berry presided and roll call was answered with items of interest of the State Legislature. Mrs. E. B. Roberts read of "Texas" and a brief period of time was given to current events. Following a short business session refreshments were served to those mentioned and Mesdames C. G. Hughes, Ray Wilson, Hiram Black, J. F. Latimer, Elby Crites, J. R. Wassel, Carl Williams, Peary Garringer and Sam Moreland.

KEEPING THE BODY STRONG. Text: Mark 6:53-56; Judges 13:12-14; Corinthians 3:16, 17; Romans 12:1, 2. By WM. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of Advance. Perhaps one of the most characteristic aspects of our age is concerned with the body and with good health and physical well-being. All sorts of cures and "movements" have arisen in this realm of physical culture and the care of the body. Yet strange to say, there probably never was a time in the life of humanity when there was such a wide scale so much disregard of physical welfare and security, and so widespread indulgence in ways of living and habits that are destructive of the ideal of "a sound mind and a sound body." On the one hand, we see the world's immense concern with war and violence and implements of destruction, a building-up of the bodies of men in the physique with the idea that their strength may be used in violent ways, either for defense or aggression. On the other hand, we see aspects of loose living and indulgence that tend toward the weakening of the body toward the breakdown of good health, both individual and social, and toward a mental corruption that inevitably in time has its physical effects.

It became apparent that the good health, both of the individual and of the people as a whole, depended upon keeping the life of Israel free from contamination with the vicious practices of surrounding peoples and free also from the corrupt and debasing influences from things in their own life. The danger that inhaled in strong drink became quickly apparent, and the Bible in all its pages, both from the early and later life of Israel, is insistent upon the evil that lurks in intoxication. Jesus laid stress on good health. The record of the miracles of healing symbolizes His whole attitude toward life. He came to restore the souls and bodies of men, as He came to teach them right principles and to establish life in ways of good conduct. There is a great deal of true religion in what we might call "wholesome living." This means that one is not going to do or indulge in things that are to his own hurt or to the hurt of his neighbor. The passages from Corinthians and from Romans only enforce very strongly this general conception. If a man has a sense of the sacredness of his own life and a realization that his body, as it is the temple of his soul, may also be the temple of the living God, he cannot lightly or knowingly indulge in habits or follow ways of life that are against the welfare of either body or soul. Pocket Spotlights. Almost anyone who would appreciate one of the new, small spotlights, smartly styled and scientifically designed—the last word in miniature portable illumination. No larger than a vanity case, one of these little flashlights fits in a purse, is handy when you drop your gloves in a dark theater, want to powder your nose in a taxi, and so on. They come in black as well as gold cases, have flat, concave switches which prevent accidental contacts. Jenner made the first inoculation for smallpox in 1796.

"O, GIVE ME A HORSE I CAN RIDE" My love is a rider, wild bronchos he breaks, Though he's promised to quit it, just for my sake, He ties up one foot, the saddle plus on, With a swing and a jump he is mounted and gone. The first time I met him, 'twas early one spring, Riding a broncho, a high-headed thing, He tipped me a wink as he galley did go, For he wished me to look at his bucking broncho. He made me some presents, among them a ring, The return that I made him was a far better thing; 'Twas a young maiden's heart, I'd have you all know, He's won it by riding his bucking broncho. Beware of all young maidens, where'er you reside, Beware of the cowboy who swears on the wide; He'll court you and pet you and leave you and go In the spring up the trail on his bucking broncho. —FROM BUCKING BRONCHO While Admiration Coffee may not pack quite the "wallop" of a bucking bronc, nevertheless there's a quality about it as a pick-up beverage that is wholly satisfying. After work, either physical or mental, it provides a lift that soothes tired muscles and tired minds. Care is taken to roast Admiration to the exact point where its essential oils of caffeine and caoffed serve their purpose best as a mild stimulant. This, plus the known food value of good coffee, makes Admiration the ideal pick-up drink. And of course, Admiration is as delicious to the taste as it is good for you.

LOVE LAUGHS AT THE DOCTOR

BY ELINORE COWAN STONE Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

CHAPTER VIII
 Constance did not know that as she passed, a little vale in her white velvet and glossamer veil, sentimental old ladies wiped their eyes, young girls dreamed, and men looked thoughtful.

Her thoughts, if it were possible to report them coherently, might have run something like this: "I wonder if I ought to walk a little faster. . . . What would Derek think if he knew I was having a wedding all by myself—and a fashionable one, too? . . . But I mustn't think about Derek. . . . The bridesmaids look marvelous in those new garden frocks and bonnets. . . . Derek would have liked a big wedding. . . . I mustn't think about Derek. . . . Now if the pages don't forget to lift my train when I turn. . . . I wonder what Derek is—I must not think about Derek. I promised Miss O'Dare. . . . Think about my telephone bill. . . . Oh, Derek dear, it was to have been just about this time!"

and intimidated few; because, underneath, he was the most harmless and spineless of men. Constance came to suspect that these theatrical outbursts were often deliberately staged and encouraged as a smoke screen to cloud the battle front when some under-cover inter-departmental war—of which there were many—was under way.

TWO FLIERS KILLED IN COLLISION IN MANILA

MANILA, P. I., March 18 (AP)—Two United States Army observation planes locked wings in midair near Fort Stotsenburg today, and crashed, killing two fliers and injuring a third.

A second lieutenant William McBea and Private Nordquist were killed when the planes broke from a formation of five and whirled to the earth.

Second Lieutenant Joseph Nazario, who leaped from his plane with a parachute, was seriously wounded when his body struck a tree in the descent. Sergeant Nelson, Lieut. Nazario's observer, made a successful parachute jump.

The planes took off from Nichols field, Manila in mid-morning on a routine flight.

Both army officers arrived in the Philippines from the United States last month.

The crash was the second here within 24 hours. A Filipino was killed and four army fliers injured yesterday in the crash of an army bomber shortly after leaving Nichols field.

DICKENS CITIZENS IN SEARCH FOR MINERALS

DICKENS, March 18 (AP)—An answer to the old query: "Is there gold in them thar hills?" is being sought by 15 Dickens county prospectors, who recently began a mineral survey of the county as a relief project. Sponsored by the commissioners' court and under the direction of WPA, the project is supervised by G. L. Evans, a Texas university graduate in geology.

Workers on the project will make a survey of all streams in the county which might yield gold, silver or other metals. A thorough search for materials, which can be used in building state and county roads, also will be made, Evans indicated. The project will be operated about three months.

Dickens county was recommended as having mineral possibilities by Dr. E. H. Sellard, director of the Bureau of Economic Geology of the University of Texas.

Rubberless Raincoat
 A new heavyweight material, fashioned in a single-breasted raglan style, is the latest news about men's raincoats. The material is rubberless, but thoroughly shower-proof will remain soft and pliable, and is not harmed by weather conditions or salt water. It comes in green, black or brown and in three lengths.

BROCKELHURST DIES IN ARKANSAS 'HOT SQUAT'

TUCKER FARM, Ark., March 18 (AP)—Lester Brockelhurst, 24, of Galesburg, Ill., who confessed he killed three men after his arrest in New York City, for a minor traffic violation, was electrocuted at the state prison here today.

Brockelhurst was convicted of the hitch-hike slaying last May of Victor A. Gathes, Little Rock landowner. He was arrested in New York a few days after the Gathes killing, together with his sweet-heart, Bernice Felton of Rockford, Ill. He confessed killing Gathes, Albin Theander at Rockford and Jack Griffith at Fort Worth, Tex., during a hitch hiking tour across 18 states.

He was placed in the electric chair shortly after sun-up. "I did not merit the electric chair," said the one-time Sunday school teacher of Galesburg, Ill. Brockelhurst made a 12-minute statement after being strapped in the chair.

At its conclusion, two charges of electricity were applied at 6:37 a. m.

Bad Weather Doesn't Hurt Livestock Sale

HIGGINS, March 18—Despite one of the most disagreeable days of the season, there was a large run of livestock at Higgins Livestock Sale Company Tuesday. A good run of cattle sold at prices higher than last week's sales. An unusually large run of stock pigs sold high. Buyers in this division, it seems want little, light, fat pigs or sows that will farrow in the near future.

Several head of horses were sold including a pair of unbroken six-year-old mares that brought $215. Another pair of three-year-old geldings brought $170.00. Some other horses with not much quality and showing some age are sold at good prices. Considerers in the horse yards were Ben Eason of Woodward, C. G. Hughes, Higgins, W. D. Sperry, Hennessey, Okla., and E. J. Dixon, Dalhart.

In the hog division, about a truck load of small pigs were sold by V. K. Scarth, local trader, and brought from $4.00 to 4.50 per head. G. G. Hughes also sold some light pigs which brought up to 3.75 per head and a heavy sow which brought $7.10 per hundred weight.

Matching Bag and Slippers
 This year you may have flowered evening slippers and a bag to match. The shoes are of flowered gold maline backed with gold kid or colored satins, have stretchable ankle straps and no toes. The bags match perfectly so that a pair of shoes backed in gold would have a bag made in the same design.

Scene of German - Italian Back - Slapping

Fit setting for a love feast, in costume, with music, is Prenner Pass, pictured above, where German and Italian troops are declaring how much they admire each other. Motorized units of German soldiers, surging through Nazified Austria, met Italian soldiers at this spot for the first time, and congratulated each other on their respective leaders, Hitler and Mussolini. The little chalets on the road are, left to right, the Austrian and Italian customs buildings. Dispatches report border conversation full of "admiration," "cordiality," "cordiality."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT JOBLESS COMPENSATION LEVY

QUESTION: Are unemployment compensation benefits a form of relief?

ANSWER: No. Unemployment compensation benefits are wage insurance to be drawn only by those who qualify. Unless an unemployed person has a work record of previous employment, he cannot receive benefits. His benefits are figured according to the length of time he has worked and the amount of salary he has drawn.

QUESTION: How do I know if my employer is "covered" under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act?

ANSWER: When an employer is covered under the act (which makes his employees eligible for unemployment benefits), a placard is usually posted in his office stating his coverage. Roughly, your employer is probably covered if he employs eight people and they are not doing agricultural, domestic or a few other kinds of work. Ask him.

QUESTION: Why do I not receive unemployment benefits of $15.00 a week? When I was working I got $22.50.

ANSWER: Unemployment benefits are reckoned on your past record of length of employment and wages earned. Your benefits will equal one-half of your previous average weekly salary with a maximum of $15.00 and a minimum of $4.50. In your case you should be receiving a weekly check for $11.25, if you are otherwise qualified.

QUESTION: I am sixty-five, but you a total weekly income of $12.00. Besides, the amount to your credit in the unemployment commission will not be reduced so fast and you can be sure of an income for a greater number of weeks. The Employment Service will continue to try to find you a regular job.

QUESTION: I am an employee of the city water and light plant. I am told that if I lose my job, I can draw no unemployment benefits. Is this true?

ANSWER: Yes. According to the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act, services performed in certain labor classes are exempt. If you do agricultural or domestic labor, you are not eligible for unemployment compensation. Certain other classes of labor are also not covered under the Act. If you are now working in a class not covered under the Act, the Unemployment Commission will have no "work record" for you and you will have no basis for drawing unemployment benefits if you become unemployed.

QUESTION: What is meant by "benefits"?

ANSWER: "Benefits" or "compensation" means the check the eligible unemployed man or woman receives weekly from the Unemployment Compensation Commission during unemployment periods. Roughly, this check will equal one-half of the unemployed man's former weekly wage with a maximum payment of $15.

BOND FORFEITS COST ANGELINA COUNTY $60,000

LUFKIN, March 16 (AP)—Court records here show that Angelina county citizens who signed appearance bonds for 80 accused persons in the last five years at one time "owed" the county $60,000 through forfeitures. Records do not show that any of the forfeited bonds were paid, and Homer Garrison, district clerk, said none had been collected since he took office 20 years ago. Other officials said they could not remember a bond being collected. Garrison said several cases were settled when bondsmen paid the expense of bringing defendants back. The records show that 39 out of the 80 cases involving bonds forfeited in the last five years were dismissed and the defendants in 29 others were apprehended and tried. At the district court term ended recently, Judge C. E. Brazil ordered suits filed for collection of bonds ordered forfeited in three cases. Judge Brazil said, however, that in instances where bondsmen or defendant appeared and showed they were not trying to evade trial, it was within the discretion of the district attorney whether forfeiture should be set aside. Court records show the case remaining longest on the active docket involved a criminal action begun in 1921. The defendant skipped bond and was not apprehended. In 1924 the defendant was reported dead and the case dismissed, but there is no record the bond was kept. How many of appearance bonds posted in Gray county for accused persons in the past five years, and how many forfeited bonds were paid, as there is no separate bond record kept. One county official said there were numerous bonds posted in the period 1927-1931, and he doubted if more than two of the ones that had been forfeited in that period had been collected. He expressed his favor toward a cash bond of $25 or $50, in preference to the conventional "paper" bond on property valued at $2,000. Another official believed that forfeited bonds being fewer in number since 1931 was an indication of a more stable citizenship, that persons did not post bonds in haphazard manner as they did in the past.

pot to rest on small blocks of wood or stones so that excess water may drain away from the roots. Keep the soil loose with a small claw tool or fork, but be careful not to injure the roots when loosening the dirt. The ideal way to water plants, of course, is to set them in a tub of water and allow the roots to absorb the moisture through the bottom of the pot. Remove as soon as violent bubbling ceases.
