Edith Bruns

OUR VALENTINE SWEETHEART

A Century Old--- And Still Going!

by Robert Orozco

Do you ever think about how long you might live? Wondering if you would exceed your one-hundredth birthday!

Edith Bracken, later to be called Mrs. Edith Bruns, once said that "I will live to see my one-hundredth birthday" and on August 4, 1989, she did just that.

Mrs. Bruns, a resident of the Muleshoe Area Healthcare Center for many years, celebrated her one-hundredth birthday last year with her two sons, Les and Don, and daughter Ruth Briscoe. Many other relatives helped in her celebration as well!

Seventeen grandchildren presented their grandmother Mrs. Edith Bruns with one hundred red roses on her special day which just added more beauty to the festivity. Mrs. Bruns received numerous cards and listened attentively as her daughter Ruth read card after card.

Along with the birthday cards already acquired, she also got one from President Bush as well as one from Gov. Bill Clements.

Many local civic groups and organizations also recognized her on that particular day.

Edith (Bracken) Bruns was born on August 4, 1889 in Jamestown, Indiana the fourth child of eight to Isaac and Ann Bracken of Scotch Irish descent.

In the early 1900's, Isaac and Ann Bracken moved their family from Indiana to six miles east of Snyder, Oklahoma on the east side of the Red River where they lived in a half dug-out.

Upon settling in Oklahoma, Isaac Bruns engaged in farming and also ran a threshing machine for other people.

Mr. Bruns produced cotton and did his farming with a horse-drawn plow or with mules maybe.

After Isaac's first good cotton crop, he and his sons built a large two-story cement block house which still stands.

Mr. Bruns would hire other people to do the jobs that he and his sons could not do, like masonry, plumbing and other things.

The roof and top floor are deteriorating now, but the house will always contain the memories that the Bruns' family has of it.

The house had been used by other people until just recently that it became unsuitable for living purposes. At the present time it is being used as a storage place by people who bought it.

As Mrs. Bruns daughter Ruth dwelled upon her mother's early childhood, she quietly brought back to mind the past when her mother told her of the time that she and her aunt, Sarah Kirk haphazardly planted all the beans in the same hole. Of course, when they got home from planting them in the garden, Edith's parents had by then discovered the incident, and they both got in trouble for it.

Mrs. Jessie Knowlton, Mrs. Bruns's childhood friend died just a few years ago. Mrs. Knowlton lived just across the tracks from where Edith's house was located.

As years went by, a young bachelor by the name of Fred Bruns had moved to Kiowa County, Oklahoma from Lexington Missouri. At the time of Fred and Edith's acquaintance, Fred was buying butter and eggs from Edith's Aunt Sarah.

On December 25, 1912 in Snyder, Oklahoma, Edith and Fred Bruns were married in the home where Edith had grown up.

The Bruns' later had four children, Les, Don, Jack and Ruth. Les married the former Ruby Morris and had seven children. They are Morris, Judy, Tony, twins Jane and Jerry, Bruce and Mark. Don married Francis Robertson of the Lariat area and had four children. Their children are Donna Kay, Ronald, Debbie, and Tammie. Jack married Betty Snell of Clovis, New Mexico and their children are Ben, Bill and Jana. Ruth married Kenneth Briscoe of the Lazbuddie area and they had three children, Sandra, Polly and Joe Dan.

With a general meeting of the MulePlex Production Co., Inc., on Friday evening, plans for the summer production of 'Family Fun Nights' is now underway.

This year, the play chosen by director Kerry Moore is The Man Who Came to Dinner, which will have a play cast of 12-20 people.

From last year's production, the actors and actresses have again indicated an interest in the newest production.

Mrs. Prater said Kerry Moore would be conducting a Theatre Workshop on March 15 at the Muleshoe High School auditorium.

The workshop will be from 7-10 p.m., and everyone interested in any aspect of theatre is encouraged to attend.

The workshop is not just for

Emergency Loans Now Accepted By FmHA

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by drought, hail, cool and wet weather and freeze which occurred on various dates between January 1 and October 19, 1989 are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office located in Muleshoe, FmHA County Supervisor Danny C. Glenn said Wednesday.

Bailey County is one of six in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the drought, hail, cool and wet weather and freeze.

Glenn said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Glenn said. "Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until October 1, 1990 but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Glenn added.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U. S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U. S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Muleshoe is open from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Enochs News

by: Mrs. J.D. Bayless

Mr. and Mrs. E.N. McCall and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lytle of Conroe drove to Portales, N.M. last Monday to visit their 95 year old uncle, J.E. Wise.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Ella Mae Harris of Euleus. They were former residents of Enochs, where her husband, Ike, was pastor of the Enochs Baptist Church years ago. We express our sympathy to her family.

Bro. David Graves preached his last sermons at the Baptist Church Sunday, as pastor of the church. There was a lunch at noon Sunday in the fellowship hall of the church for them. They will be moving to Friendship Baptist Church Tuesday, where he will be the pastor of the church. We wish God's blessings on them and their work there.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Snitker of Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn

Snitker of Dimmitt visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Snitker Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Wilma Petree of Lubbock was a visitor at the Baptist Church for Sunday school and church Sunday morning and had lunch at the church and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Key.

Mrs. Bill Key and Mrs. Harvey Blackstone and Mrs. Ellen Bayless attended the Five Area Telephone meeting at Muleshoe Saturday. Mrs. Bayless had a short visit with Mrs. Blanche Aubrey and a niece, Maxine Coffman, from Garden City who was helping Mrs. Clara Coffman move to an apartment in Muleshoe.

We express our sympathy to the family of Mrs. Orva Jean Akin of Lubbock, who has passed away. She was the sister of James Betts who is deceased.

Heart Association Warns Fat Doesn't Always Mean Heavy

If you thought that fat was only the ripples in your thighs or the rolls on your midriff, think again. Although excess weight is unhealthy, there is another kind of fat—and it can kill you.

"Many people think that just because they are thin or don't have a weight problem that they couldn't possibly have an increased level of fat or cholesterol in their bloodstream," says Linda Turner, president of the American Heart Association's Bailey County Chapter. "But it is in everyone's best interest to have their cholesterol levels checked, regardless of their weight."

Cholesterol is a soft, fat-like substance found among the fats in the bloodstream. Your body gets cholesterol in two ways—from your liver and from the foods you eat. The cholesterol we get directly from foods, dietary cholesterol, is the type we can control.

"You can control the amount of cholesterol you consume by knowing more about which foods are high in fat and cholesterol and by modifying your eating habits accordingly," says Mrs. Turner.

Dietary cholesterol is found in foods from animals such as red meat, whole milk dairy products, seafood, chicken, turkey and cornish hen.

Two types of dietary fats also play an important role in determining your cholesterol level: saturated fat, which can raise the level of cholesterol in the blood; and unsaturated fat, which can reduce blood cholesterol.

Saturated fats are found in animal products such as beef, veal, lamb, pork and ham; in butter, cream and whole milk; and in cheeses made from cream and whole milk. Saturated fats are also found in many solid vegetable shortenings, in coconut oil, cocoa butter, palm oil and palm kernel oil.

There are two types of unsaturated fats—polyunsaturated and monounsaturated. Oils from vegetable products such as safflower and sunflower seeds, corn and soybeans are polyunsaturated. Monounsaturated fats are found in olive, canola and peanut oils and certain plants such as avocados.

The American Heart Association recommends that healthy Americans avoid eating too many foods containing saturated fat and cholesterol. Saturated fat intake should be limited to less than ten percent of total daily calories and cholesterol intake to less than 300 milligrams per day. In addition, the AHA recommends substituting polyunsaturated and monounsaturated fat for saturated fat when possible, but remember not to eat too much of any kind of fat. Polyunsaturated fat should be limited to no more than ten percent of total calories.

"Just remember that cholesterol and saturated fat are hardest on your heart and that monounsaturated and polyunsaturated are the easiest," says Mrs. Turner.

For more information, contact your local American Heart Association at 792-6394.

The American Heart Association is the nation's largest voluntary health organization dedicated to the reduction of disability and death from heart and blood vessel diseases, which annually kill almost one million Americans. Last year the AHA spent more than $150 million for research support and public and professional education and community programs.

Seniors Invited Behind Scenes In Washington

A look underneath the Capitol dome is being offered by U.S. Representative Larry Combest (R-Texas) for 19th District senior citizens to see firsthand how the government works. For the third consecutive year, Combest will sponsor the Congressional Senior Citizen Intern Program in Washington, D.C. May 13-19, 1990.

"The intern program offers West Texas seniors a unique opportunity to have direct input into the legislative process and public policy," said Combest. From on-site studies of the U.S. House and Senate, to the current issues and how to participate effectively in this democracy, senior interns meet administration officials, congressional leaders, and diplomatic officials. "I encourage participants to share their insight with their friends and neighbors once they return home from their week long internship," Combest said.

"I find that Washington policy-makers greatly benefit from the congressional intern program," said Combest. "Through the perspective of these men and women, legislators and officials get a clear view that is too often obscured by the political atmosphere in Washington."

Senior citizen interns pay their own round-trip airfare to Washington, D.C. plus the $775 cost of the program which provides six nights lodging, meals, in-town transportation, and a specially designated supplemental insurance policy. Interns may obtain local sponsors to help offset their expenses and program cost.

Residents of the 19th District who are interested and at least 60 years of age and in good health may contact Lisa Elledge of Congressman Larry Combest's staff to apply for the senior intern program. All applications must be received by February 28. Letters should be addressed to Congressman Larry Combest, 1527 Longworth Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515, or the telephone number is (202) 225-4005. Final selections will be announced in March.

Aspiring Writers Can Get Started On Local Basis

Millions are trying. Thousands will succeed. And Texas may be one of the better places in the country to get started—writing, that is.

"Texas has a number of local and regional journals that are really good markets for beginning writers," said Steve Sherwood, a Texas Christian University English instructor. "There are a lot of writers in Texas as a consequence, and they get their starts here."

Sherwood, who has published commercially, jokingly noted that everyone wants to be a writer. "There's this cliché that everyone is writing a screenplay. And who isn't writing a novel?" His studies indicate 20 to 30 million Americans are writing, but only 50,000 are making a living from being published.

Sherwood suggested most writers start with small or local publications. "You have to dream big. But I think you have to think small when it comes to where you're going to get published."

How-to articles on topics well known by the writer may offer the quickest path to publication, Sherwood suggested.

"If you're starting in local newspapers, regional magazines, hobby magazines, anything that has a narrow audience in which you happen to be an expert on the topic—then I think your chances of getting published are much better," he explained.

A Century Old

Edith and Fred moved their family in January of 1929 from Snyder, Oklahoma on hearing about good flat land with lots of water in the Muleshoe area from two salesmen from the Syndicate Land Co. of Farwell. Accompanying the Bruns were their four children, Les, Don, Jack and Ruth. In 1932, Edith had a fifth child, who died at birth.

At one point in time, Ruth's father could not make his payment on his land and offered it back, but the company would not take it. Instead they told him to keep it and just pay the interest that had accrued.

The Bruns settled in the Lazbuddie area sixteen miles south of Friona in a two-room house with a two-room shed building. The house had a large porch in front which they later tore down and built a long front room.

Edith Bruns made a home out of her house. Going through tough times, like all other families were, she did her daily chores in the house as her husband Fred went out into the field.

Fred Bruns later switched from cotton to wheat and grain sorghums which he got 25 cents a bushel.

The farms back then were very diversified compared to what they are today!

Everybody always had a big garden which they had to because they were not able to go to town everyday. People went to town then, one day out of the week, which was Saturday. On that day they would take their cream and eggs and trade them in for something else. The local creamery would buy the cream.

Mrs. Ruth Briscoe remembers her mom buying chickens. Mrs. also said that "my mother was very fond of cabbage, which meant we would eat a lot of sauerkraut."

The Bruns' normally made use of what they had and got by.

In keeping their milk fresh they would put it in glass jars in a wooden trough beside the windmill with the cool water flowing through it, thereby keeping the milk fresh.

At hog killing time, the neighbors would kill a hog and share it with his fellow neighbors who in return would also share when they killed a hog. The same thing was done with beef as it was with the hogs.

Root Beer was the first carbonated drink Mrs. Briscoe had and normally would only have it on special occasions. Mrs. Briscoe remembers it being a special reward that was not given often.

Something special at Christmas was having citrus fruit which you did not have nor was it even found in grocery stores. Also, during the snowy times of the year, fresh vegetables like lettuce and tomatoes were not available. Instead you would have had pickles or pickled fruit.

For means of transportation the Bruns family had a Dodge car which they had used to come to West Texas. It had no radio or power accessories. Their first car had been a hand-cranked Model T Ford. At one time after church, Ruth's father had started the car and forgot about the clutch on the floorboard. He started to take off and it would not. When he finally got it going, the car motor started to rev up thus making it die.

Entertainment for the Bruns' was in the form of church activities, school, going to parties at people's homes which were called 'trade parties.' They also would play games like Post Office, Knocking For Love and Drop the Handkerchief. Dances then were considered wrong and immoral.

In Mrs. Edith Bruns' early life they had no phones, just radios and phonographs. The radios were only turned on for special events, not just because to listen to music. Even if they had listened to music, it wasn't a count down of the biggest hits. The listened to 'Red Wing', 'Red River Valley', and 'Skip To My Lou' which was played at parties.

The parties were few and far between. When they did have a dance, they were held at the Jesko's barn. The dance was for everyone and the whole community was invited.

In the 1930's there was no fluorescent pink. All of the clothes from that time were basically white. Women wore only skirts or dresses, and the pants were just for men. All the clothes were washed by hand in large tubs of water with a washing board. The necklines were higher and the hems were lower. Too much skin shown by a woman was an indication of their virtue.

By the 40s, Fred Bruns had sold their property in Oklahoma and bought eighty acres in Bailey County two miles north of Muleshoe and a home in town. Mr. Bruns always said that "he did not like city life" so they built a home on the eighty acres where he lived up until his death in 1969.

Mrs. Bruns only saw her family, the Brackens, every seven years after they had moved to Montana. By then, her daughter, Ruth, was born.

Fred and Edith Bruns taught their children to behave and to follow the rule: Children should be seen and not heard. Children were taught to always have respect for their elders. Mrs. Bruns set a good example of it, taught her children, and also became a Sunday School teacher.

The church was an important part of the Bruns' life and they went every Sunday. If the weather was bad they would not go. They instead stayed home and had Bible Study. 'Dinner on the grounds' would be held on Sunday afternoons. The families brought enough food for their meal and if any was left over they would trade among themselves.

A hundred years have come and gone for Mrs. Edith Bruns. Fads, music, clothes, and lifestyles have changed. Mrs. Bruns raised a family and lived through some very lean years. Through it all she kept a happy outlook on life and used her 'good sense of humor' to fulfill the prophecy she made to see her one-hundredth birthday. She is a model for us all and we wish her continued good health as she looks for her one-hundred and first birthday.

Mrs. Bruns and her century worth of knowledge and experience only prove a saying that says, "When an older person passes on, it is like a library being lost."

Scholarships Available For Seniors

Seniors graduating this spring from public (such as Muleshoe High School) or private high schools in Texas have until Thursday, March 15, to apply for a $1,500 college scholarship under the Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program administered by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

The Coordinating Board will authorize 390 scholarship awards totalling $585,000 for the 1990-91 school year.

Students who obtain a GED certificate, equivalent to a high school diploma, before March 15th are also eligible to apply.

The federally funded Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program recognizes students who show promise of outstanding academic achievement in college.

Selection is based on high school grade point average, college entrance examination scores and graduating class rank. The $1,500 scholarships are applied toward the first year of college study and are not renewable.

Students interested in this program should contact their high school counselor or local GED centers. Each high school or GED center can submit a maximum of three applications for Byrd scholarships.

Applications must be post-marked by 5 p.m., Thursday, March 15th and sent to: Robert C. Byrd Scholarship Program, Division of Student Services, Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, P. O. Box 12,788, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

In 1989, the Board received more than 1,700 applications and awarded 341 Byrd scholarships.

Jennyslippers College Night Next Week

Muleshoe's Jennyslippers will be sponsoring the third Student/Parents Night on February 12, in the Muleshoe High School cafeteria.

The purpose of the Student/Parents Night is to give information on ways to seek financial assistance for students to attend college. During the meeting, the parents will learn their role in the process.

While the seminar will be directed toward junior and senior students and their parents, the Jennyslippers said other students are welcome and will benefit from the meeting.

Some of the speakers will include Lynda Tinsley of West Texas State University; Dr. Ronny Barnes, Texas Tech University; Shirley Prothro, South Plains College; Leo Hatten, Eastern New Mexico University; Capt. Messer, Texas Tech Army R.O.T.C.; Cathy Wright, Stegall Opportunity Plan and Mattie Hicks, Nursing Instructor at South Plains College.

Another advantage is that adults may receive information on ways they can return to college.

The Jennyslippers said, "Plan now to attend this vital meeting on February 12 at 7 p.m. Let us help you get your foot in the door! Don't wait -- GO FOR IT."

Kiwanis News

 By R.A. Bradley

Good morning to you, Muleshoe. Fourteen Kiwanians, four honorary Kiwanians, eight guests and Sweetheart Amy Montgomery met Friday morning at the Old Corral.

Honorary members present were Lacy Morris, Jon Keith Turner, Robby Clapp and Chad Johnson.

Our guests were Bob Adams, B. F. Thigpen, Gerald Millard, Paul Kasishke and Brady McCoy, all from the South Amarillo Kiwanis Club.

Our local guests were Ryan Clapp, son of Don Clapp, Larry Parker and Cody Turner, son of Keith Turner. Cody, being real young, but had quite an education. He learned how to do the Muleshoe Hand Shake from Robert Montgomery and Gerald Millard showed him how to unscrew his thumb and make it longer.

Cody, be sure and show your mother how!!

Amy, it is always good to have you present. Amy is a very busy young lady. She is reporter for the senior class; treasurer for the SCAC Club; Chamber of Commerce Ambassadorette. She likes to snow ski. Amy hasn't been skiing too much on the slopes here in Muleshoe lately. Amy, you may have to learn to sand skill!

President Jim Lutz called the meeting to order. The honorary members led the club in the pledge to the flag and the invocation was given by R. A. Bradley.

Hugh "Who" Young decided to get up early to see if the "Early Bird gets the Worm" -- and sure enough, he found a worm as a friend. Hugh gave the friendship coin to R. A. Bradley. Hugh thought that this might get his name out of the news, but Hugh, it will not work.

Keith Turner gave a report on the Cub Scout Pine Wood Derby. Jon Keith Turner won first place in his division.

There was quite a Pine Wood Derby last Saturday. It seems that they started weighing in at 12 and some of them were still there around 6:30 p.m.

District races will be this Saturday, 2-10-90 at Levelland.

Robert Montgomery, immediate past president of the Chamber of Commerce gave an interesting report on the CofC for the past year.

Robert reported that Bob Stovall was just elected as president of the CofC. The very sudden death of Bob leaves a vacancy in the CofC as well as many other places here in Muleshoe.

Bob was very active in Muleshoe and will sure be missed by everyone.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Eva Nell and her family.

The Chamber of Commerce was and is still very active in the support of Muleshoe. They set up a steering committee to promote the forming of the Hospital District which was voted in by the fine people of this community.

They worked to organize the July 4th celebration.

If you haven't been in on any of this, there is much, much work and planning to put on a July 4th program.

Robert stated that John Smith came in as a chamber manager to help get the CofC going again. If you haven't been a Chamber president without a manager, you don't know how Robert felt.

Nancy Kidd was then hired as the Chamber manager and is doing a very good job.

Robert commended his board of directors. He said if he could have hand picked a board, it couldn't have been better. Robert stated that Muleshoe was a unique place because of the quality of its people. This writer says AMEN to this.

Thanks, Robert.

MICROWAVE TIPS

Is the microwave good for heating up canned soup? It can do a good job. For a typical can of soup, with water added, the microwave can have it ready in 5 to 7 minutes. Use High setting.

If one is heating a cream soup, however, it's wise not to use High. Milk boils over rapidly. Thus a cream soup will take longer and will be heated on Medium High.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS

CAN LOWER THE PROPERTY TAXES ON YOUR HOME

A homestead Exemption lowers the property taxes on your home by lowering its taxable value. For example, if your home is valued at $50,000 and you receive a $5,000 homestead exemption, your home will be taxed as if it were worth only $45,000.

You qualify for a homestead exemption if you owned your home on January 1 and used it as your primary residence on January 1. It doesn't matter whether your home is a house, a condominium or a mobile home.

Exemptions are available to all homeowners on their school taxes. Additional exemptions are available to homeowners who are disabled or age 65 or over. Other exemptions may be offered to homeowners by school districts, counties, cities, and special districts. All taxing units offer exemptions to disabled veterans.

Apply to your local appraisal district office at the address shown below for all exemptions you may qualify for. Application forms are available at this address.

If you received a homestead exemption on your present home in 1989 you won't need to apply again for 1990 unless the chief appraiser requires you to reapply.

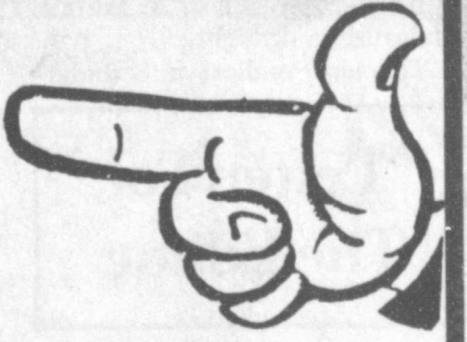

However, if you passed your 65th birthday or became disabled before January 1, file a new application to receive the additional exemptions.

If you haven't received an exemption on your present home, or if you moved to a new home, make a new application for 1990.

The deadline for applications is April 30, 1990. Contact your appraisal district before then if you need more time.

For more information, get a free copy of the pamphlet, Taxpayers' Rights, Remedies, Responsibilities, at your appraisal district office or from the State Property Tax Board in Austin.

A FRIEND IS A GIFT YOU GIVE YOURSELF

Our community buried a friend this week, but this friend will be with us for a very long time. He was such a person that he touched all areas of our community: the hospital district, schools, civic clubs, Industrial Foundation, Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, church, his family, and the list could go on. And, we ask why, a person who was such a vital part of our community? But, we aren't to know the mysteries of God. We can just realize that He is still in command and we do as He allows. We thank Him for sharing Bob Stovall with us these years.

On with the business at hand!
A GRAND TOAST
TO TEXAS

On March 2nd, Texans worldwide will offer a toast to Texas independence. In honor of battles at the Alamo, at San Jacinto, at Goliad, and numerous battles of will and integrity, we propose a toast to the land and the people who have forged the Lone Star State. Long may her banner wave.

At 2 p.m. Central Standard Time, let each native, naturalized, and honorary Texan raise a glass to commemorate the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence at Washington-on-the-Brazos on March 2nd, 154 years ago. Utopia Spring Water Inc. has offered to provide genuine Hill Country water for the event. Texans can call 1-800-594-2027 to request your spring water. If you live outside the state, you can receive your spring water through the mail: Just send your name, address, and $1 for shipping and handling for each bottle requested to Box 429, Utopia 78884, or call 1-800-594-2027 with MasterCard or Visa orders.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Exciting changes will soon be taking place on the campus of West Texas State University in Canyon. On January 26, the State's Higher Educating Coordinating Board voted to approve the merger of West Texas State University with the Texas A&M University System.

Many area residents have attended WTSU and it's time for ALL of us to step into the new decade and unify behind OUR university. West Texas State University has always been a good university. Now we have the opportunity to work together with A&M to develop it into an outstanding university.

The Ex-Students Association of WTSU will have an active role in numerous decisions resulting from the merger. It is the desire of the association to represent the views of it's membership. All ex-students are encouraged to become members of the West Texas State University Ex-Students Association and let their voices be heard.

ies, exciting.

Home to the adventurous of yesterday and today,

With shrines from the past
And space and spirit for the future.

TO TEXAS
EVERLASTING IN THE HEARTS OF YOUR PEOPLE!

The Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture and the Jenny-slippers will have a hospitality stand on the Mule lot to serve all who stop for a glass of water. If you can't make it to the lot, then wherever you are, stop and drink a glass of water to toast Texas at 2 p.m. March 2nd. But try to make it to the Mule lot. Let's have a big turnout for the tourists who will stop.

Meetings have been happening for Mule Day. Lots of ideas and plans are being put together. I think you should mark your calendar for August 11.

On March 29th will be the Chamber's membership meal. Remember what a great meal and time we had at the last one! You don't want to miss this one. All I will tell you is if you miss, you won't be able to talk about how great it was.

Special Olympics will be April 7th. The Chamber is not directly involved with this, but I am and have been for 19 years. And I get very excited working with the mentally handicapped young people. Since Cari Ann has graduated, she can't participate as a school student, so we go independent.

Last year we added Leticia Garcia to our group and we have lots of fun running and jumping (I watch them run and jump) (more fun that way). But when it comes time for those medals, we all run and jump, for joy. And it is a tremendous joy to watch the smiles spread on faces when names are called out for medals and ribbons. Mark your calendar for April 7th and go to Lubbock with us and watch our Special Athletes.

April 14th the King Royal Bros. Circus will be here. Everyone loves a circus. All the animals and popcorn and soft drinks. There will be two shows, one at 5 p.m. and at 7 p.m. The Chamber has two ladies doing the calling for ticket sales and one to deliver tickets and pick up the donations. The Chamber does get a percent of sales, and the two ladies do get paid for their time.

The Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture annual banquet will be on April 26th. It will be at the high school cafeteria and auditorium.

GOING UP...

A building is being erected. It is made of strong materials, steel and concrete. The foundation is firm and deep. The edifice is built to endure.

We need to build our homes to endure. They need a strong foundation. They need to be built on the rock of Christ. Psalm 127:1 reads, Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it. Attend church regularly that your house may be instructed in the ways of the Lord.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
