Pampa Stores To Be Information Bureaus For Fiesta

FDR TO SEND LABOR BODY TO EUROPE

MERCHANTS TO BE HOSTS TO HUGE THROGS

Pampa's brand of hospitality will be extended in copious measure to the thousands of visitors who will come here June 9, 10, and 11, on the occasion of the seventh annual Top O' Texas Fiesta.

To assure informed cooperation, details of the Fiesta program were thoroughly explained at a meeting held this morning in the BCD committee room, attended by fiesta officials, committeemen, and as many representative merchants as were able to leave their stores at the time for the meeting.

Pampa stores will be bureaus of information and will play the parts of hosts to the crowds that throng Pampa during the big three-day celebration.

R. B. Allen, general chairman, R. G. Hughes, W. B. Weathered, chairman of the parade committee, and J. M. Collins, led the discussion in acquainting the merchants with the fiesta program, so that the merchants can in turn acquaint their employees with the plans.

Mr. Weathered emphasized the interest the fiesta was arousing in surrounding towns. He said the committee appreciated this interest, and was grateful for the many bands and floats that have been entered in the parades.

There will be nearly a score of bands in the parade, a dozen of them from out-of-town.

Floats Being Built A dozen floats are being constructed by Pampa's neighboring towns for entry in the parade.

Each float will emphasize the town that enters it. The complete fiesta program in-

'BARBAROUS BOMBINGS' IN SPAIN DENOUNCED

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—The United States government expressed today its "emphatic reprobation" of bombings of civilian populations in China and Spain.

Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles, after a conference with President Roosevelt, issued a stern statement on behalf of the state-department.

The statement said American public opinion "regards such methods as barbarous."

It recalled that in recent days aerial bombings have caused the death of many hundreds of persons in Spain and China.

He mentioned the fact that the United States government had on numerous occasions expressed its disapproval of such action, particularly through statements by Secretary Hull September 28 and March 21.

Welles said today's statement was not taken in conjunction with Great Britain and was not being communicated diplomatically to General Franco or the Japanese government.

PAMPA BEAUTY INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Relatives of Miss Ina Mae Dean left early this afternoon for Oklahoma City where she is confined in a hospital with critical injuries received in an automobile accident Wednesday night.

J. N. Dean, her father, Mrs. L. P. Duval and Miss Della Dean, sisters, and Desmond Dean, brother, left for Oklahoma City upon word that an operation had been performed on Miss Dean and that her condition, although favorable, might become worse.

Miss Dean, who was elected Miss Pampa of 1937, received a fractured skull, severe face lacerations and bruises in the automobile accident. She has been attending business college in Oklahoma City. Her mother has been with her.

The papers are enclosed in a blue cover bearing his name.

Frenchman's Idea of Mussolini

Felks in Paris don't think the chap pictured above is stretching it a bit when he boasts that he can give his face more shapes than any other person can. For instance, when in a conquering mood, he assumes the Mussolini-like profile seen at left. The center one might be handy for frightening little children. And at right, with a simple twist of the lip, he shows how he can look to see whether his pipe needs reloading.

FIESTA GROUPS MEET TODAY

A complete check of plans for the seventh annual Top O' Texas Fiesta will be made when the chairman of the 12 committees, the executive committee members, and representatives of the press and radio meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the ECD office.

Importance of attendance at this meeting has been emphasized in a letter from R. B. Allen, general chairman to the committee chairman.

With less than a week remaining before the fiesta opens, General Chairman Allen wishes to have all details of the fiesta program well-organized by the time the annual celebration begins.

Chairman of the fiesta committees are W. B. Weathered, parade; Joe Gordon, old timers; Sgt. Patterson, rodeo; Claude Motey, publicity; R. S. Dietz, good will trips; Frank Hill, concessions; Tommy Chesser, decorations; Sherman White, noted speakers; R. D. Yowell, exhibits; F. H. Parker, entertainment; Tex DeWeese, special attractions; Alton Hall, tickets.

F. B. Allen, D. L. Parker, Toy Johnson, Otis Humphrey, and C. E. Kennedy compose the executive committee.

WILDCAT PRODUCER ON DAUER LAND SHUT-IN

The Panhandle's latest wildcat oil well, the Northern Natural Gas Company's No. 1 A J. Dauer, in section 237, block B-2, I&GN survey, Carson county, 10 miles southeast of Pampa, was shut in following an 11 hour test yesterday during which it flowed 210 barrels of high gravity oil.

Without storage or pipe line connections, the well will be shut in until the company announces its plans.

First pay was located between 3,000 and 3,085 feet with the second pay in a granite wash formation between 3,100 and 3,106 feet. About a million cubic feet of gas flowed the well.

Several tests have been drilled in the area but none looked as promising as the new well. Most of the others were completed as gas wells.

FIRST BALE OF COTTON AUCTIONED AT CORPUS

CORPUS CHRISTI, June 3 (AP)—The world's first bale of cotton this season went on the auction block today.

The bale, grown at La Grulla in the Rio Grande Valley by Francisco F. Lozano, was offered for sale to the highest bidder shortly before noon.

NEGRO ADMITS SLAYING FOUR WOMEN, GIRL

CHICAGO, June 3 (AP)—A young negro whose hands and clothing were flecked with fresh blood when he was arrested has confessed slaying four women and a young girl, police investigators said today.

Three of the victims were slain in Chicago, two in Los Angeles. All were killed in the same manner—budgeoned with a buck by a dusky night prowler who crept into their sleeping quarters.

Assistant State's Attorney John Boyle and Deputy Chief Detective Walter Storms said the confession was made by Robert Nixon, 18, alias Thomas Crosby.

Boyle and Storms said the confession solved the following slayings: Mrs. Florence Johnson, 34, a city fireman's wife and mother of two small children, slain in her apartment early last Friday morning.

Mrs. Florence Thompson Castle, 24, comely night club hostess, raped and slain June 29, 1936 in the hotel room she shared with her small son, Jimmy.

Miss Anne Kuchta, 19, a student nurse, raped and killed in her room at the Chicago Hospital Aug. 21, 1937.

Mrs. Edna Worden, 42, and her daughter, Arguerite, 12, stripped and fatally beaten in their apartment in Los Angeles April 4, 1937.

Nixon was seized near the Johnson apartment by police responding to a call from Mrs. Johnson's sister, who saw the slayer escape. Earl Hicks, 19, in the Johnson killing and a third negro, Harold Green, 20, in the Worden deaths.

The investigators said Nixon confessed the Kuchta and Worden slayings last night at a police showup before 200 spectators. Green denied Nixon's charge that he was involved in the Worden deaths but police detained him for questioning.

$10,000 DEMANDED BY TEXAN AT BANK WINDOW

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 3 (AP)—A formal charge of first degree robbery was filed today against a six-foot Texan who police said threatened to blow up a crowded downtown bank unless he was given $10,000.

Representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation began questioning the prisoner, booked as Benito Elbe, 32, of Tyler, Texas.

Chief of Detectives John J. Whalen said the man was seized in the lobby of the Liberty Bank of Buffalo after he demanded the money at the cashier's window. Teller Richard H. Dintinger told police the man stepped up to the window and in a low voice said:

"I want $10,000." "What for?" Dintinger said, he passed through the wicket this pending note.

"The lives of many persons are in your hands. This fuse is attached to dynamite. There are three bottles of nitro-glycerine wrapped around it. One false move and I will kill everyone in this place. Hand over the money."

De Elbe insisted later that he asked for only $850.

Whalen said Elbe had two sticks of dynamite and a bottle of unidentified fluid in his pockets.

Burglars break into FOX LUMBER COMPANY

Burglars some time last night broke into the office of the Fox Rig & Lumber Company at 100 South Hobart street but took nothing, according to R. B. Allen, manager.

Entry to the building was gained by tearing the screen from a side window and then prying up the window. The lock on the cash drawer was jimmied but it contained nothing but papers which were not touched.

City officers started an immediate investigation this morning after being notified by the clerk who opened the office.

Police yesterday afternoon arrested seven men on downtown streets and charged them with vagrancy. They were fined $1250 each by Judge W. M. Craven and this morning began working out their fines by giving the jail a thorough house-cleaning.

Local Mixers Unable To Fill Many Orders For 'Hopper Poison'

Full cooperation of the Texas Highway department is being given farmers in the grasshopper war in the Panhandle.

A letter from W. V. Van London, Amarillo, division engineer, addressed to Garnet Reeves, manager of the Pampa Board of City Development states that the department will spread poison on highway right-of-way in cultivated areas first and through the range areas at the same time that adjacent ranches are poisoned.

"We will appreciate information from property owners adjacent to highways in regard to the time they expect to spread poison, in order that we can cooperate with them, and it is requested that property owners contact foremen or resident engineers in the various counties."

"In order to be sure that all rights-of-way are covered and to assist adjacent land owners, we will spread poison to a distance of five feet to 10 feet back of the rights-of-way line," Mr. Van London writes. The work is expected to be completed by June 15.

The Highway Department started spreading poison on the right-of-way in the area south and west of Amarillo on May 29. In Gray county, four department employees have been spreading poison along Highways 152 and 83, east of Pampa, for the past week.

"Mr. Van London's letters were prefaced by the remark that he had been advised 'that many farmers and ranchers are somewhat reluctant to poison grasshoppers on their property because their fields may again be infested by grasshoppers from highway right-of-ways.'"

County Farm Agent Ralph R. Thomas this morning said there were still plenty of unfilled orders at the Pampa mixing station. He did not have an up-to-date total on the amount of poison compounds that has been sold available. The total two days ago was 25,900 pounds, from both the Pampa and McLean stations.

Two carloads of bran will be shipped to Pampa soon to supplement the supply on hand.

Mr. Thomas advised those using the compound not to expect immediate results. "It usually requires from three to six days to kill off the 'hoppers,'" Mr. Thomas said.

"The compound they eat makes them sick and they lose appetite," he said. "It is not until from three to six days later that they die."

FOES OF RELIEF BILL LOSE ANOTHER ROUND

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—The Senate fight over the administration's $3,422,000,000 relief bill went into an extra round today.

Although administration forces had confidently expected a final vote last night, Senators took so much time discussing controversial amendments that leaders left the debate unfinished and recessed shortly after 9 p. m. (CST).

They had just won by two votes—a battle against an amendment by Senator Hatch (D-NM) to restrict political activities of WPA employees. Anti-administration Democrats and Republicans lined up for the proposal, but Democratic leader Barkley of Kentucky rallied 30 votes against it to 37 for.

The amendment would have required dismissal of any WPA administrative worker who used his authority or influence to interfere with a political convention, a primary or a general election.

"If we build up a system in which we can use funds out of the treasury to control the vote of the people," Hatch told the Senate, "then Democracy is dead."

SONS OF LEGION WILL HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

The regular meeting of Kerley-Crossman Post 334 Squadron of the Sons of the American Legion will be held tonight at the Legion hut at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. The organization of a softball team will be discussed. There will be other important business to be taken under consideration.

KILLING OF CATHOLIC PRIEST UNEXPLAINED

CENTRALIA, Mo., June 3 (AP)—The unexplained killing of an elderly Catholic Priest and the beating of his housekeeper in a night invasion of the rectory engaged the full investigative efforts of state and county officers here today.

Father Charles Elneg, 65, was shot as he grappled with one of two assailants who walked into the rectory soon after the priest returned from an evening motor car ride with the housekeeper, Miss Martha Rice, 30.

Miss Rice told Col. Marvin Castill, state highway patrol chief, she believed the slayer was a negro. She said the second man, who she believed was white, slugged her with a blackjack when she attempted to tear off his mask.

"I heard a shot," Miss Rice said hysterically. "The man I was struggling with struck me on the head and ran out the door."

"He (Father Elneg) raised his head and said, 'They got me!' Then he was dead."

NOTE EXPLAINS DEATH OF MOTHER, DAUGHTER

HOPE, Ark., June 3 (AP)—Sheriff James B. Bearden said today that, except for a routine inquest, his investigation into the sudden deaths Wednesday of a young matron and her married daughter of Ozan, ended with the discovery of what he described as a "suicide note" from the mother.

The sheriff said the note was found yesterday by Robert Stinson, Ashdown, brother of Mrs. E. E. Haselman, 37, the mother. Stinson identified the signature on the note as that of his sister, Bearden said.

Bearden said the note read: "It seems that Janet and I are victims of circumstances here and I can't carry on any longer. I am leaving it with you all, and taking Janet with me."

Mrs. Haselman died suddenly shortly before 7 o'clock Wednesday noon. Thirty minutes later her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Robins, 19-year-old expectant mother, died as she prepared to summon medical aid for Mrs. Haselman.

DENIES PROBE DEALS WITH WAGNER ACT

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—President Roosevelt announced today that a special presidential commission would be sent to England this summer to clear up what he considered to be misinformation in this country about the workings of the British trade union act.

This act has sometimes been held up by business interests and others as a model of legislation the United States might wish in order to define the proper activities of unions. Whether Mr. Roosevelt intends to apply the findings of his commission in any positive way was not brought out.

In discussing the purpose of the study with reporters at his press conference he said simply that he would have nothing to do with the Wagner labor relations act. He explained that the purpose would be to end misunderstandings of the law but that what these are he did not say.

Mr. Roosevelt withheld the names of the commission members he had already selected but a letter written by John L. Lewis and released simultaneously with the conference disclosed that the Commission for Industrial Organization had been invited to have representation.

Lewis, the letter disclosed, agreed to participate, but objected strenuously today after he had published reports that one purpose of the study would be to get information to be used in modifying the Wagner labor act.

The British act was written in 1927 after England's labor upheavals of 1926 resulted in a general strike. Labor department experts explained the law has four purposes:

1. To make "sympathetic" strikes and lock-outs illegal although it legalizes other strikes and lock-outs.

2. To restrict mass picketing.

3. To restrict the use of union treasuries for political purposes.

4. To limit strictly the affiliation of civil servants with trade union organizations.

Mr. Roosevelt said he could not say how the membership investigation was incomplete.

TOPPING OF HIGHWAY 152 TO START SOON

Work of topping Highway 152, east of Pampa, is expected to start within the next three weeks. Cocks of Braden of Amarillo have the contract. The work is included in a contract for surfacing 89 miles of Panhandle roads let by the State Highway Department on May 24.

County Judge Sherman White this morning received from A. A. Merdith, Amarillo, district WPA administrator, a memorandum of the project, recently completed, for the laying of two courses of a 10-inch caliche base on the 11.7-mile stretch. Federal expenditures on the project were $46,077.28, sponsor's $56,603. Man-hours totaled 130,000. Width of the road is 24 feet. Surfacing of the road will give Pampa an all-weather connection to the Wheeler County line.

15 GLOVES BOUTS SCHEDULED ON PAMPA-GALVESTON CARD TONIGHT

PAMPA'S BEST WILL BATTLE COAST TEAM

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the Pampa Athletic arena, four bouts east and one south of the pondoffice, amateur boxers of Pampa and Galveston will clash in a dual meet. It will be a battle between the north and south, the two cities being more than 200 miles apart, yet in the same state.

The Pampa Amateur Athletic association is sponsoring the exhibition and is going to great expense to bring the Galveston team to Pampa. Admission, therefore, will be 25 cents, including tax, and 50 cents general admission for adults, 25 cents for children. Reserve seat tickets will be available at the Pampa Daily News and Cretney Drug until 6 o'clock. Several good seats are still available.

Because of the heated rivalry between the two teams at the state Golden Gloves tournament in Ft. Worth, pairing cannot be made until the Galveston team arrives at noon. Both trainers demanded that the boxers be weighed in at 2 o'clock so that there wouldn't be any odds in weights.

Word came from Galveston yesterday afternoon that one or two weight changes could be expected in their lineup. One will be Swede Ekonen who has reduced down to a bantamweight, which will take him out of Jake's class, and put him against Frankie Bills. Louis Foytik has also dropped to the flyweight division.

Each boy is allowed three pounds overweight which might change up the battles from those first announced as opponents.

The Pampa boys are in the best condition of the season according to Trainer Cliff B. Chambers who has been putting them through a stiff siege of training in preparation for the coming of the Galveston boys.

Sullivan, Galveston lightweight who was scheduled to meet Delmar Kock, became ill on the trip and had to be sent back to Galveston. Kock, however, has agreed to meet the Galveston heavyweight. Otherwise the Galveston team will be at full strength.

Members of the Pampa team who will battle Galveston boys or in exhibition bouts to round out 15 fights, will be: Benny Moore, 127; Frankie Bills, 118; Jake Bible, 126; Arvel Hix, 135; Ray Norman, 147; J. P. Matheson, 160; Delmar Koch, 175; Jap Gillis, 180; Ed Guevella, 147; Cassada, 112; Frank Brown, 135; Howard Hendrix, 137; Bob Drake, 148; Henry Brummett, heavyweight; Richard Stephen, 90.

Galveston's team will include: John Santarelli, 112; Louis Foytik, 117; Swede Ekonen, 118; Donald Drake, 126; Alfred Guevella, 147; Jack Huddleston, 147; Jimmie Foytik, 135; Raymond Oest, 160.

Basketball And Track and Field Sweaters Arrive

Harvester basketball and track and field boys eligible to receive sweaters may secure them from Tom Herod at the high school. Coach Odus Mitchell announced today the sweaters arrived yesterday afternoon.

Twelve members of the district championship basketball team and three boys who placed in the regional track and field meet are eligible for sweaters.

The sweaters are white with green and gold letter P. The white sweater designates them as district champions and the lettering the school colors.

The three track and field sweaters will go to Bob Karr, Albert Kemp, and J. W. Graham.

CEBILLO REFUSES TO GIVE UP, SAYS SISTER

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mexico, June 3 (AP)—Senora Hlinda Cebillo de Gonzalez said today her brother, Gen. Saturnino Cebillo, "awaits with courage and fortitude his fate, whatever it might be, but he will not surrender."

Senora Cebillo de Gonzalez said in an interview she had not heard from her brother since May 18 when President Lazaro Cardenas moved troops to San Luis Potosi state to forestall a revolt. Cebillo fled.

She visited President Cardenas recently to request return of her seized properties, she said, but had not discussed terms for her brother's surrender.

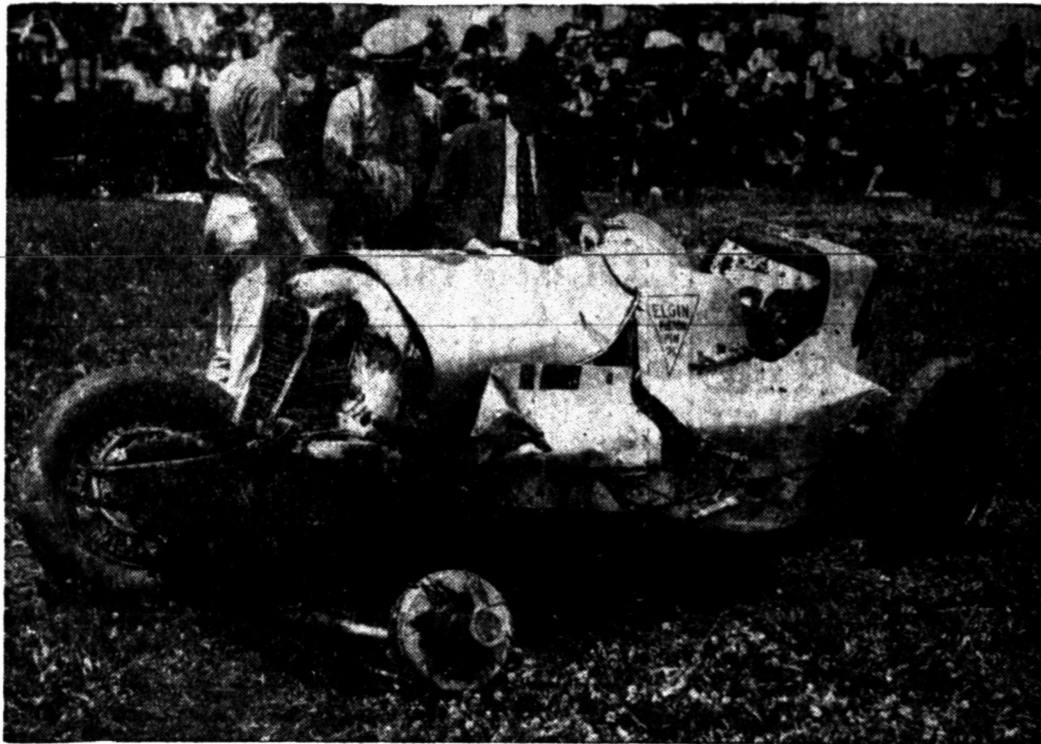

The government, officially announcing the rebellion ended, meanwhile was confronted with new difficulties in the police served by the country's union-operated railways that industry must accept freight rate increases ranging up to 100 per cent or subscribe to a $10,650,000 loan to put the system on a sound basis.

MISSIONS AND TULSANS LOSE

The Texas league leaders were closer than three Scotchmen today. Tulsa and San Antonio allowing the Beaumont Exporters to edge into a half-game of the top when the Shippers broke even in a double-header with Shreveport.

Tulsa took a beating from Fort Worth 6-2 and San Antonio lost to Houston 7-6. Last night's double put Tulsa in front by only eight points over San Antonio with Beaumont but 12 points away from Tulsa and four from San Antonio.

Beaumont bunched four hits together by McConkey's triple to set up the first game over Shreveport 6-5. In the second contest, however, Jimmie Barnes held the Exporters to six hits while his mates chipped out 13 for an 8-2 win. Marvin Garner of Beaumont regained the league batting lead when he got one hit in one time at last in the second game to boost his average to .363.

Ed Greer limped Tulsa to five hits as the Cats whipped the Oilers. Fort Worth pounded on Ivy Sain for sixteen.

Jim Winford carried out his Scotch idea by allowing San Antonio to hit three in the ninth, but the game was the same, the admission price for the night being out to a dime.

Clay Touchstone gave Dallas two more by singles, and the Herd lost to Oklahoma City 3-0. Touchstone had a no-hitter until the seventh. The Indians passed Glantz for eighth.

GOODRICH CAMPAIGNING IN NORTHEAST TEXAS
SHAMROCK, June 3.—Lewis Goodrich, candidate for attorney general of Texas, was traveling over the northeast corner of the state this week taking his claims directly to the voters of that area.

Cities on his itinerary included Fort Worth, Denton, Gainesville, Whitesboro, Sherman, Denton, Bonham, Paris, Clarksville, Texarkana, Mount Pleasant, Sulphur Springs, Commerce, Greenville and McKinney.

Next week he plans to continue his campaign in central West Texas. Goodrich is carrying his campaign directly to the people because he has no powerful or wealthy organization back of him and cannot, therefore, afford radio "time" or an expensive publicity bureau. "Just folks" himself, he enjoys getting out to meet and talk with other Texas folks.

I notice that ole debbil monopoly is being dragged into the race again," Goodrich remarked while at home for a brief rest recently. "My opponents are talking a lot about curbing monopoly, turning out the political racketeers and cleaning up things generally at Austin. They have all been part of the organization which has governed Texas for the past several years. They should know what goes on at the state capital, so maybe there is something that really needs 'cleaning up.' The voters should check up and find out what it is they are talking about."

NEW SOFTBALL LOOP FORMED

Another softball league is being formed to go known as the Pampa Twilight league. E. M. Depp is president, A. L. Patrick, vice president, and Roy Dvsn, secretary.

Four teams have signed to play and the league will be kept open for entries until June 10. Posters must be in the hands of the secretary by June 15, carrying the name, age and date of birth of each boy. Age limit is 20 years or any youth who does not become 21 after September 1.

It is recommended that the age limit range between 16 and 20 years receive a junior league is being discussed.

Teams already entered in the league are Band Boys, Phillips Juniors, LeFors Juniors, Furr Food and possibly the V. F. W. Juniors and Sons of the American Legion.

Other teams desiring admittance to the league should contact one of the officers immediately.

Marshall Keeps Top Place After 16-Inning Game

Tonight's schedule:
Marshall vs. Kilgore.
Palestine at Texarkana.
Jacksonville at Longview.
Tyler at Henderson.

The leaders held the pace in the East Texas League last night but it required ten innings for the top Marshall team to keep its place.

Virgil Tape limited Jacksonville to three hits in a mound duel with Mule Toten. Cal Lowman's single drove in the only score of the game.

Longview stayed in second place, nine points below Marshall, with a 12-4 win over Kilgore, clouting thirteen hits and bunting nine of them for nine runs in the first two innings.

Texas Rangers clung to third place with a 7-4 victory over Henderson principally through the steady pitching of Valle Eves.

Tyler downed Palestine 8-5 though out 16 to 8. The Trojans built up an early lead and when the pals were clicking it was a race against time with the latter winning out.

Riegel Favored To Win Tourney

BEAUMONT, June 2. (AP)—Bobby Riegel of Beaumont, state amateur title and favorite for the championship of Beaumont's first invitational golf tournament, meets F. E. Wolf of Houston in the opening round of match play today.

Riegel qualified with a 72 yesterday, finishing a stroke behind Bob Wolff and Percy Byrly, both of Beaumont, who tied for medalist honors. Thomas shot a 78.

Wolf meets Ike Handy of Houston, who shot a 76, and Byrly had his opponent, Louis Reichmann of Houston, who qualified with a 76.

A field of more than 125 golfers posted trial scores.

Other championship flight pairings:

Danciger Beats Phillips First Time In Two Years

Atlanta's Gift to Golf

Youthful Charley Yates, Atlanta's contribution to the Walker Cup team, smiles his satisfaction in this radiograph from Troon, Scotland, as he holds the trophy emblematic of the British Amateur golf title. Looking on is Cecil Ewing, Irish internationalist, whom he defeated 3 and 2 in the final round. Yates, who thus follows in the footsteps of another Atlantan—Bobby Jones—will compete with the Walker Cup squad against the British at St. Andrews.

JOHNSON WILL MEET KOPECKY MONDAY NIGHT

Promoter Cliff Chambers' wrestling card for Monday night sounds like old times with such names as Joe Kopecky, Blacksmith Pedigo, Gust Johnson and other more recent maulers listed to appear.

What could be more spectacular than a meeting between the returning Gust Johnson, who left a few months ago undefeated champ of the middleweights, and Sir Joseph Kopecky, back home for the second time after an absence of many moons? That will be the main event battle at the Pampa Athletic arena Monday night.

After making a mighty pleasing preliminary appearance last week, Pedigo has been elevated to the semi-final where he meets Andy Tremaine, present king of the class who is now working up to a crack at Johnson. Tremaine look over while Johnson was gone, and was a worthy holder, but now he wants a crack at the elongated Swede.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Soldier Thomas will battle Sterling Davis. The Soldier won a hectic struggle with John Nemanic, who will referee, last week in a main event.

The rough and tough Kopecky will meet a new type grappler in Johnson, unless he has changed. Johnson is the type who wrestles clean and hard and can take all kinds of punishment and then come up with a winning hold. Kopecky is used to seeing his opponents cringe before his unorthodox style.

Pedigo and Tremaine will provide the wrestling match of the evening.

Ecuador Sharpens Defenses for Peru

QUITO, Ecuador, June 3. (AP)—Ecuador's frontier army sharpened its defenses today in the wake of a new incident of violence in the nation's 107-year-old territorial dispute with Peru.

Two Ecuadorian soldiers were reported killed and a lieutenant wounded yesterday in a clash with three Peruvian gunboats, along the River Aguarico in the northeastern portion of a vast jungle claimed by both nations.

The ministry of defense at once ordered troops to refrain from retaliatory aggression, but to "defend themselves with all their characteristic valor."

It was ascertained reliably that Peruvian troops were concentrating at Tumbes, near the frontier and close to the Ecuadorian Pacific coast.

The defense ministry order charged that Peru, once the center of Spanish power in South America, was "trampling on Ecuador in an unjustifiable way."

There was considerable tension here, and the cabinet met three times yesterday. There were unofficial reports the Ecuadorian minister to Peru had been instructed to demand an explanation.

The Danciger softball team last night won its first Industrial league game from the Phillips Petroleum company aggregation in two years, jumping into a first inning lead and holding it for a 6 to 4 victory. In the only other game of the night, Gulf-Cooper of Stillpoint topped the Mack and Paul Barbers from a tie for the City league lead with a 10 to 3 victory.

Aided by only one hit, Danciger scored five runs in the opening inning to win the game. Errors and a walk spelled doom for the oilmen although they scored three runs in the third on one hit and some errors.

Patrick went the distance for the winners with Manager Joe Parkinsson behind the plate. The Dewey Brothers, J. and R. worked for Phillips. The win left Danciger perched on top of the heap.

Stansell kept the Mack and Paul boys helpless at the plate for his teammates got to Phillips for many bingles which coupled with errors. The loss to the barber boys left the Diamond Shop in the league lead.

Games for tonight follow:
6 p. m.—Supply boys vs. Pampa New
8:15 p. m.—Jaycees vs. Gray County Creamery.
9:30 p. m.—King vs. Cities Service.
Night games will be played at recreational park. No admission will be charged.

GULDAHL WILL DEFEND TITLE

DENVER, June 3. (AP)—National Open Champion Ralph Guldahl squinted back over the Cherry Hill Links rolling out to a background of Rockies still streaked with the winter's snow.

"Give me a 286 right now," said the tall slanting-statured professional, "and I wouldn't shoot a strike."

Guldahl, the "rags-to-riches" champion, had trudged back in from his first exploratory round over the course where he will defend his title next week.

He came back with a scorecard showing 78 strokes, seven over par, and a frank respect for the 6,888-yard course some golf analysts have predicted the stars would shoot to ribbons in the first open ever held in the West.

"I can't see that at all," Guldahl said emphatically. "This course is just too much of a test for any great streaks of underpar scoring. It plays short, some of the holes absurdly short, but a 71 out here is real shooting."

"Then you think they won't break your record of 281?" a reporter asked.

"I'd bet money on it," Guldahl said. "A 286 should be good enough to win."

Jimmy Hines, metropolitan open champion, who posted a two-over-par 78 in playing with Guldahl, expressed the belief it would do the trick. Guldahl's record was set at Oakland Hills, Birmingham, Mich., in the 1937 year.

The champion, whose victory last year ended several years of setbacks, said the Cherry Hills greens "on the average, are smaller than at any championship course I've played on."

"But the putting surfaces are grand, the sand with enthusiasm. These are the best greens we've had for the open in many years."

Bob Clark, well known in Pampa and the entire Panhandle, has been selected head coach at Sayre, Okla., high school for the 1938-39 school years.

Last year Clark pulled the Erick, Okla., football and track teams out of the doldrums. The football team had won one game in two years when Clark took it over. Under his leadership the team won four, tied one and lost five games. His track and field team won its first county championship since 1922.

Clark was coach of the Wheeler Mustangs from 1934 to 1937. His football teams improved until the Mustangs won the district championship. His track and field team the same year captured the district title in Pampa.

A well known swimmer, midget and entertainer, Clark is spending the summer as swimming instructor at the Amarillo Country club pool.

His Sayre team faces a tough schedule for the coming season. Teams booked include Central High of Oklahoma City, Guthrie, Ed City, Weatherford, Erick, Thomas, Cordell, and Clinton.

POLICEMAN FATALLY SHOTS VET OFFICER

NEW YORK, June 3. (AP)—In the darkness of a Brooklyn candy store, two policemen fought with a man who was slashing at them with a hunting knife early today.

Cornered, the suspected burglar struggled furiously as Patrolman John Deaver, 37, gun in hand, withheld his fire and closed in—heedless of the flashing blade.

"I'll get him from behind!" shouted Patrolman James D. Fisher, 33. Both officers lunged. The suspect's knife slashed across Deaver's gun hand. The pistol exploded. Deaver heard a groan. He overpowered the man, handcuffed him and truned up the store lights.

On the floor with a bullet hole in his right temple lay Deaver's veteran partner—slain by the involuntary firing of Deaver's revolver. Fisher was to have retired this summer.

This Man, Joe Murray

BY WILLIAM CORCORAN Copyright, 1938, by William Corcoran; NEA Service, Inc.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
JOE MURRAY—like a new place, new job, new girl.
HELEN—fell in love—hard—
TERRY MALLOW—found love—and kept it!

Yesterday, Helen is killed and Joe nearly goes mad. He leaves Sparksburg, becomes a wanderer and writes home to his Albuquerque next.

CHAPTER IV
JOE drifted, alone, and he was indifferent to where he was. Lonesomeness is deep, dark, far from sight, down where the roots of being grow. And when those roots are sundered from the other roots that they have grown together with, they are torn and they bleed and they are slow to heal. Joe Murray could not have told you clearly, but that was what was wrong. When another came close to him and those roots in their darkness were ever so lightly touched, it was a blinding pain that shot clear to the surface where it caused torment and inexplicable behavior. And after that happened, Joe fled. He was happy among strangers, and he was hard and difficult with women. He preferred being happy and hard, so he drifted, always onward.

THEN one day he turned up at home. And with their own peculiar tact the Murrays asked nothing whatever about Helen, and about her he had never a word to say.

He was soon at home among them. He was older, quicker, surer, a little awesomely himself in a house where he once had been merely part of the things always underfoot, but in a day it was much as if he had never gone away. He came and he went casually, and he resumed old acquaintances in the neighborhood, and inside the week he found himself a job in the sheet metal shop of a big manufacturing plant on the South Side of town. It was a place where they made automobile bodies mostly in large volume. He was a first class mechanic on full pay, and Mrs. Murray got after him and saw to it that he opened a savings account to keep aside some of the very good money he was earning in no time.

Joe made no objections. He was indifferent, but not lazy or unfriendly or unappreciative. He had turned out a mighty fine young man, everyone soon thought: pleasant company, good bearing, healthy and sensible and steady enough in his habits for any reasonable young woman.

You see? It was happening already! Even if you were a disinterested party you would, being human, very soon come to the point of thinking that way about any young man so disposed and so situated, and the girls in the neighborhood were neither disinterested nor pretending to be. They lay in waiting for him, idle and very friendly on the surface and fiercely competitive beneath the surface. And they were grievously disappointed, one and all.

It was interesting to see how he took them, accepting their flattery and attentions as if they were nothing out of the ordinary, yet not with overweening complacency or any other manner of conceit. He seemed unaware, no more, no less.

AND then he met Terry Mallow, whose name was more rightly Theresa.

Oh, there was nothing remarkable about that meeting. Lots of other meetings that happened during that year have every right to take on more importance than this one. Only in the end they did not. It is unfortunate for the purposes of telling this story, but the fact was that neither of them glanced twice at each other at the time. Terry came to the house to call for one of Joe's sisters; they were briefly introduced; Joe passed on through the room—that was all.

Joe ran into Terry three or four times before he stopped to look at her very closely. She worked in the lace mill with Irene, Joe's sister, where they both had fine jobs, pleasant and steady and good pay, for girls. Lace is good stuff to work on: pretty and brittle and clean. For no visible reason she took to running up to the Murray home at odd times and without any special urging on Irene's part, coming in with a queer mixture of brash intrusion and apology. With so many children growing up the elder Murrays about twice a year regularly had to put their foot down and limit the trooping of young friends, who without any curb would be landing in on the family before breakfast and swamping the crowded flat till midnight. Terry's visits, though they came at unexpected hours and often lasted uncomfortably long, were hard to feel annoyed over for very long. There was something very disarming about her, even while you wondered what on earth to do with her. She was a little thing, a little kind of round, with no figure to speak of in spite of the fact that she wasn't fat. She was dark brown of hair and type, not pretty exactly but agreeable-looking, though her brown eyes were very large and when she was at her ease and feeling free and vivacious they lighted up and became really beautiful and said for her a great many things that words could not say. She would come in kind of tongue-tied and timid—yet she'd come in!—and she'd hang around a while, and presently settle down in the kitchen with Mrs. Murray, for instance, and proceed to entertain the puzzled old lady for a couple of hours at a time, chattering and talking her bobbing head off and enjoying herself like a child let out of the house.

THAT was how they finally figured it out: she was a child let out after being pent-up long enough to burst.

Joe, after being first annoyed, then resigned, then irritated again and curious, questioned his sister. "What's the idea of the visiting firewoman back in the kitchen every time I go to shave?"

Terry was somewhat irritated herself, but helpless. "I give up. You can have her. I felt sorry for her and brought her home. It's been out of my hands since."

"Don't she go anywhere else? Where's her boy friend?"

"I don't think she has any." He looked at her, frowning. "Why not?"

"Family. They're screwy. No boys need apply. The old man runs them out." He thought it over, but it was beyond him. "Anything wrong with her? She get in any trouble?" Irene told what she knew. There was no trouble. There had been small opportunity. She was the only child. She'd never had any free rein. Terry's family was one of those mysteries in every neighborhood: you couldn't make up your mind whether they were clean unbalanced or unbelievably mean. There were the grandparents, narrow, unsmiling, religious cranks both of them, with all the grim self-satisfaction of the righteous the world over, and there was the middle-aged son, Terry's dad, a pompous dude who had never made an honest living in his life. He gambled, drank, played the races and horsed around in a generally disreputable way, but always with a hollow puffing dignity and a hypocritical and apparently successful hiding of his affairs from his home. At least, he seemed to be getting away with it. No one could figure out how they stood it out; that fine pair of fanatics and that hollow big hypocrite, and the kid Terry left holding the bag.

FOUR KILLED IN HEAD-ON CRASH

STEPHENVILLE, June 3 (AP)—Funeral services were being arranged today for four victims of a head-on collision of a truck and bus ten miles east of here on the Granbury highway yesterday.

Frances Valdez and Fiera Garcia, members of a San Antonio orchestra and entertainment group; W. W. Matthews, San Antonio, driver of the bus, and Herman Lemons, Junction, driver of the truck, were killed and 21 other persons were injured. Officers reported fire consumed both machines shortly after they crashed at a bridge opening. A gas tank explosion followed the collision. Most of the orchestra group got out of their machine in time to save their lives and tumbled all but three bodies from the wreckage. Two of the injured were in a serious condition. Eddie Martinez, director of the orchestra, suffered a fractured skull. Matthews' body was taken to Dawson for burial today. Arrangements for the funeral of Lemons were incomplete, the family not having yet arrived. The bus was en route to Oklahoma City where Martinez' company was to fill a three-day engagement at a country club.

LILY PONS WEDS
NORWALK, Conn., June 3 (AP)—Lily Pons, French opera star, and Andre Kostelanetz, orchestra leader, were married at her Silvermine home here yesterday shortly after getting their wedding license.

WALKING STICK HOBBY KEEPS TEXAN BUSY

WEATHERFORD, June 3 (AP)—S. G. Maddox, retired taxidermy collector, has a hobby of making walking sticks. His collection comprises 69, including 61 of his own workmanship from native Texas woods that retain the bark and a few from stalks of plants.

The woods used include hackberry, box elder, catalpa, pecan, elm, pine, sweetgum, sassafras, post oak, blackjack, box elder, buckeye, walnut, bitter cedar, black haw, prickly ash, mountain cedar, mulberry, hickory, mesquite, sumac, wild cherry, live oak, willow, pin oak, spatted oak and Mexican sunflower.

One can in the collection is covered with beads and was made by Geronimo, the famous Apache Indian chief. Two others, of beautiful workmanship, were made in Mexico, and a third is covered with the skin of a rattlesnake. Certain kinds of prickly stalks make good boxes for cigars. Maddox has three made of Cholla stalks and two of Sotol.

FORD PREDICTS GREATEST ERA OF PROSPERITY DETROIT, June 3 (AP)—In his first statement on public affairs since he returned home from a recent eastern trip that took him to Washington as a White House visitor, Henry Ford said in an interview today that nothing has happened in recent weeks to change his conviction that "we are going to have the greatest era of prosperity and happiness we have ever known."

Ford sat astride a bench in the mess hall of a boys' farm camp, not far from his home in Dearborn, and pointed toward the nearly 300 acres around him, saying that the young farmers, said: "And it will come through a back-to-the-land movement."

Ford reiterated his criticism of "certain financial interests" which, he said, would like to bring about another war. "Somebody once said that 60 families have directed the destinies of the nation," Ford said. "It might well be said that if somebody would focus the spotlight on 25 persons who handle the nation's finances, the world's real war makers would be brought into bold relief."

The motor manufacturer said veterans of the World war would have an increasing part in shaping the future of the nation's affairs, charged once more that some financial interests "seek to control food prices" and declined to discuss for publication his call at the White House.

Ford said there was nothing about his recent visit to Wall Street to see J. P. Morgan that was inconsistent with his opposition to "certain financial interests."

"There is a constructive and a destructive Wall Street," he said. "The House of Morgan represents the constructive. I have known Mr. Morgan many years. He backed and supported Thomas Edison, who was also my good friend."

Ascertaining he was now ready to swing into volume production of his low-cost tractor, Ford explained again his opposition to the philosophy of limited farm production. This, he charged, was inspired by financial interests "to whom profit meant more than human well-being."

"Out of this philosophy of limiting the output of the soil," he said, "come wars, and if these financiers had their own way we'd be in a war now. They want war because they make money out of such conflict—out of the human misery that wars bring."

Officers said Mrs. W. O. Dean of Corpus Christi and Miss Berlys McDonald of Huntsville reported they started to turn off the road toward Houston when the oil truck swerved and struck the back of their automobile. The women said the accident unnerfed them and they drove immediately to Huntsville, not knowing what happened after the accident involving their car.

The officers theorized Fowler, who was driving Dr. Rush back to the penitentiary, was unable to avoid the oil truck after it struck the women's car.

BRIDGE-LUNCH HONORS MISS FERN HUGHEY

Another in the series of pre-nuptial entertainments honoring Miss Fern Hughey, bride-elect of Johnny Hines, was a luncheon given at the Rose Bowl in Amarillo by Mrs. Avon Steed and Miss Mabel Holland on Wednesday.

Following the lunch the group went to the home of Miss Holland where bridge was played during the afternoon. The guests were entertained with singing and music by the hostess. A prize for high score was awarded to Mrs. Paul Carmichael and a gift was presented to the honoree.

Attending the entertainment from Pampa were Mmes. I. B. Hughey, Paul Carmichael; Miss Hughey and Miss Mary Sneed. Mrs. John Crudgington and Mrs. Guy Carlander were Amarillo guests.

Bridge-Luncheon Entertains Club Members-Guests

Mrs. H. C. Berry was hostess to the members and guests of the Wednesday Contract Club who were entertained with luncheon and bridge at the Schneider hotel.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Bert Howell for high score and to Mrs. Roy Rounsavell for second high.

Members playing were Mmes. Robert L. Freeny, H. T. Kelley, Bert Howell, Earl Schelg, and the hostess.

Most Beautiful

Judges picked Miss Joy Howley as the most beautiful girl at the University of Chicago. Little did they know that she is a student at Northwestern University. It seems that Paul Stones, the photographer, mixed his pictures and put Miss Howley with the group from the Chicago school. That, however, does not detract from her beauty. This lively young woman from Denton, Tex., says that she is not interested in going to Hollywood as she thinks there are too many attractive girls there now.

MRS. THOMPSON HAS PARTY FOR BRIDGE GROUP

Mrs. Bob Thompson entertained with five tables of bridge entertaining members and guests of the Triple Four Bridge Club yesterday afternoon.

Spring flowers decorated the entertainment rooms and a spring motif was stressed in the bridge appointments.

Prizes for the afternoon were awarded to Mrs. E. Dowell for traveling; Mrs. Wiley Pearce, high for members; Mrs. Charles Peckack, high for guests; and Mrs. Scott Hall, second high.

An ice course was served to Mmes. Bob Reed, Charles Peckack, J. P. Webb, Joe Gourley of LeFors; Mmes. D. L. Parker, R. M. Klingler, Bob Curry, and J. N. Riggs, Jr., guests of the club.

Members playing were Mmes. H. A. Gilliland, Wiley Pearce, Howard Logan, Alfred Gilliland, Otis Pumphrey, Luke McClellan, Jim White, R. E. Dowe, J. P. Wehrung, Lloyd Bennett, and Scott Hall.

MISS TIEMANN NAMED HONOREE AT BRIDGE-TEA

Complimenting Miss Madge Tiemann, bride-elect of Johnny Zuerker, Mmes. C. L. Thomas, De Lea Vicars, and S. Wynne entertained with a bridge-tea yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Vicars.

Following the games, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Dale Pinson for high score and to Miss Tiemann for guest.

Tea was served at a table attractively laid with a lace cloth over pink satin. Pink tapers in silver candelabra flanked the centerpiece of pink roses in a silver bowl and miniature silver baskets filled with pink mints were given as favors to each guest. Baskets of pink roses were used in the reception rooms and the pink and silver color scheme was repeated in the packages which were presented to the honoree.

Guests for the afternoon were Mmes. Dale Pinson, Bert Stevens, Bill Monahan, Norris Steves, Lloyd Batson, Odell Walker, Ed Burch, W. E. Clark, Jr., Joe Vincent, A. A. Tiemann; Misses Blanch McMillen, Wanda Lee Dunlap, Elizabeth Carpenter, and Betty Jean Tiemann.

Rebekah Lodge Elects Officers Thursday Night

Officers for the new year were elected at the meeting of the Rebekah Lodge in the I. O. O. F. hall last evening. Daphna Baer was named noble grand; Eula Killian, vice grand; and F. H. Poronto, team captain.

Ruth Roberts was in charge of the meeting in which the group voted to have a picture of the degree team made for the paper.

After the meeting, the group visited a local undertaking establishment.

Attending were Mrs. Otis Brinkman of Sunray, a visitor, Don Peoples, Sannie Sullivan, Leona Burrows, Cora Lee Baer, Hazel Goodman, Cora Yeates, Delphi Boozkie, Mabel Fletcher, Alma Forsythe, Eva Howard, Eula Killian, Ruth Davis, Edna Donald, Hattie Day, Cora Bobb, Ruth Morris, Pearl Jones, Beatrice Howard, Pearl Nica, Daisy Eldridge, Lois King, Lola Medford, Hattie Peters, Ellen Kretzmeier, Flo Spoonmore, and Irene Kline.

Messes. and Mmes. J. W. Crist, John Hall, Joe Brown, V. W. Craska, D. C. Gant, and Jess Clay.

Two Groups Fete Mrs. Coffey With Farewell Shower

Complimenting Mrs. D. H. Coffey, who will leave soon to make her home in Amarillo, officers and teachers of the primary department and members of the First Baptist Church entertained with a handkerchief shower in the home of Mrs. E. M. Dean this week.

Games were directed by Mrs. Harry Miner, Jr. and Mrs. C. L. Coonrod.

After the gifts were opened by the honoree, refreshments were served to Mmes. C. L. Coonrod, Ray Beasley, Harry Miner, Jr., Garnet Reeves Park Brown, J. C. Roundtree, R. E. Gatlin, Floyd Yeager, Robert Hodges, Tom Duvall, Ernest Fletcher, W. G. Teeters, V. L. Hobbs, Dan Glanmer, W. R. Hallmark, E. M. Dean, Wilson Hatcher, H. E. Crocker, and Miss Dorothy Nell Dean.

Gifts were sent by Mmes. W. B. Henry, A. L. Prigmore, C. E. Chestnut, Harvey Henry, K. T. Anderson, Joe Foster, R. L. Edmondson, and Miss Doris Janet Salmon.

Winsome Class Plans Work for Summer Months

Plans for summer meetings and methods to be used in contacting members during the month were discussed at the covered dish luncheon given for the members of the Bride's or Winsome Class of the First Baptist Church in the home of Mrs. A. E. Berry, 406 West Kingsmill street, this week.

The president of the class, Mrs. Fred Thompson, urged that all of the members assist in the recreational program by giving pieces of cloth which can be used during the program this summer. Following the meeting a group of the members visited those who were not present.

Attending were Mmes. F. W. Vandenburg, E. L. Parker, A. L. Carter, Ivan Noblitt, Merl Coday, Fred Thompson, Bob Thompson, Ralph Morrison, George Byer, F. K. Riley, and Marvin Lewis. Mrs. C. Gordon Bayless was a special guest.

Mrs. Friauf Leads Lesson at Meeting of Presbyterians

A hymn and a prayer by the president followed the short business session conducted at the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church in the church annex Wednesday afternoon.

The spiritual life session by Mrs. George Friauf preceded the singing of familiar hymns. Grace, as used in the benedictions of the Bible, were discussed.

In presenting the Bible study lesson on "Solomon and the Building of the Temple," Mrs. George Briggs pointed out the symbols in the temple which were prophetic of the coming of Christ.

Mrs. L. C. Neely and Mrs. William Craven were hostesses to the 17 members and one guest, Mrs. Brant.

Edward Lear, whose "Book of Nonsense" was published in 1846, was the most famous composer of limericks.

WINDSORS CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

ANTIBES, France, June 3 (AP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor celebrated their first wedding anniversary today, working together on their first real home.

The ex-ruler of the British empire and the American-born woman for whom he gave up the throne; were so engrossed in getting the Chateau de la Croix ready to live in that they planned no formal celebration.

They scheduled just another day of supervising alterations inside and outside the comfortable chateau, which they have leased for two years.

The day was an extraordinary contrast to their wedding day, when the elaborate ceremony was followed by a sumptuous dinner to the throngs at the Chateau de Candé, near Tours.

The Windsors, who are living at the Grand Hotel while work on their home is being completed, drive their new American coupe a mile and a half each day to the chateau, carrying with them a picnic lunch.

They have been going hatless, she in navy blue and white sport dresses with white flannel coat, and he in, double-breasted grey flannels.

So far as was known, no anniversary gifts were being exchanged. It was expected, however, that Queen Mother Mary would remember her eldest son, perhaps with a telephone call this evening.

The Windsors are seeing only a few old friends here, sticking to the "simple life" of the Riviera.

SOCIAL GIVEN BY CLARA HILL CLASS THURSDAY

Entertaining members and visitors of the Clara Hill Class of the First Methodist Church, a party was given in the home of Mrs. R. O. Pearce with Mrs. H. M. Proper, Clyde Price, and J. A. Purvis as hostesses yesterday afternoon.

The president, Mrs. H. P. Snyder, presided at the business meeting which was opened with the devotion by Mrs. F. W. Shotwell. Reports from the secretary and the reading of the minutes preceded the response by the class to a call from Mrs. L. J. McCarty to sponsor a Scout troop and also for Scout leaders. A prayer by Mrs. Shellabarger, closed the meeting.

Contest games and bingo were played and each member placed a gift to her silent friend on a table. When the gifts were opened their identity was revealed. Guests registered in a book made in the class colors of green and white.

Refreshments of ice cream, angle food cake, grape nuts, and fruit were served to Mmes. Walter Hogue, A. Heflin, Jack Griggs, J. B. Morrow, Glenn Ratcliff, A. B. Ottinger, W. C. McArthur, George Hancock, William Taylor, Don Losler, H. P. Snyder, Joe Bennett, J. O. Marie, Ralph Stine, Donald Joy, C. A. Townsend, O. W. Theisen, F. W. Shotwell, L. J. Guests were Mmes. Dee Campbell, L. A. Baxter; Misses Teresa Campbell and Hazel Pearce.

Girl Scouts of Troop Four Have Meeting in Park

Girl Scouts of troop four met at the city park Wednesday for their regular meeting which was in the form of a picnic. Each girl took her lunch and the group ate in parlors.

Two skits were presented on troop conduct and Juliette Lowe's life and the second class Girl Scouts sang "America The Beautiful" as part of their second class work. The girls were assigned reports which will be given at the next meeting.

The singing of "The Golden Sun" and "Day is Done," by the girls, closed the meeting. Mrs. A. B. Whitten was a guest for the afternoon.

A steak fry entertained members of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority and their guests last evening.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. J. B. Massa, Roy L. Kay, Fred Thompson; Misses Josephine Lane, Lois Hinton, Lois Martin, Lorene Nicholson, Ann Johnson; Messrs. Sam Johnson, Arnold Actikisson of Austin, Pete Kovack, Bill Postma, and Martin Ludemann.

TEXANS' DRIVE FOR BALLOTS SPEEDING UP

AUSTIN, June 3 (AP)—Texas numerous office seekers stepped up their campaigns appreciably this week as voters began to show slightly greater interest in the Democratic primary seven weeks from tomorrow.

The list of aspirants to state and district offices was almost complete with the deadline for filing next Monday. Candidates for county jobs have until June 18 to pay their filing fees.

The big news of the week was the repercussions caused by the filing for governor of Vernest O. Thompson, Dallas garage operator and an "unknown" in state politics. Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson is one of the leading candidates for the chief executive's post and possibly stands to lose ballots due to persons voting for Vernest in the belief they are voting for Ernest.

Commissioner Thompson, Attorney General William McCraw, also a leading candidate for governor, and Governor James V. Allred were among those denouncing the entrance of the Dallas man.

The gubernatorial campaign committee may do something about the situation at its meeting June 13. McCraw said he believed it would be warranted in leaving Vernest O. Thompson off the ballot.

The gubernatorial campaign already had reached the stage that persons were beginning to guess on the vote totals of the various contestants. Candidates whose strength perhaps was the most difficult to gauge were W. Lee O'Daniel, Fort Worth flour mill executive and master of ceremonies on a radio program, and James A. Ferguson of Belton, possessor of a name long a factor in Texas politics.

Friends of O'Daniel assert he has a following throughout the state. For some time he has been getting in considerable campaign talk between hillbilly music selections by his radio performers.

Ferguson, 68-year-old farmer and real estate man, announced he would formally open his speaking campaign at Corsicana one week from tomorrow. With him on all his jaunts will be a black horse to

STRIKE CURES TO BE DISCUSSED AT MEETING

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3 (AP)—San Francisco, which inaugurated platform debates between embattled employers and strikers, begins a new chapter in its turbulent industry history tonight with a public meeting to discuss cures for potential strikes.

The unique mass meeting, suggested by the committee for industrial organization, will be held in the civic auditorium, which can accommodate 12,000 persons.

I will be the average San Franciscan's first opportunity to participate in a discussion of labor problems, which in the past few years have affected the lives of practically everyone in this organized labor stronghold.

After speakers have presented the employers' and unions' viewpoints, the audience will be given the opportunity to ask questions concerning labor issues.

"PAINTED STALLION"

Glorifying Yourself

By ALICIA HART.

Summer weather may make the very idea of hot food pretty unattractive to the average woman, but if she values her appearance as well as her health, she just won't even consider subsisting on chilled dishes and nothing else. She'll have at least one hot dish, or at least a hot beverage, with every meal.

She'll stick to light breakfasts, of course, but she won't substitute iced coffee or chocolate for hot coffee or chocolate. She'll keep on having salads for lunch, too, but she'll have a cup of hot soup before the salad. And her dinner menu certainly will include one piping hot item. She'll admit that eating a fair amount of hot food won't make her mind the heat any more than she already does. She'll know that a prolonged diet of cold dishes eventually dulls the appetite.

Furthermore, especially if she is interested in losing weight or at least in keeping from gaining even a pound, she won't drink quarts and quarts of sweetened cold drinks every day. And she won't force herself to eat when she isn't hungry. Of course if the extreme heat causes her to lose completely all interest in food, she'll see her family doctor. But she won't feel that she has to stuff herself with

Summer Festival Planned at Altar Society Meeting

Final plans for the summer festival of the Holy Souls Church were made at the meeting of the Altar Society in the parochial school auditorium Wednesday afternoon.

This entertainment will be combined with the annual ice cream supper, and the event will be held on the lawn if the weather permits. In case of rain the festival will be conducted in the church.

Mrs. George Bunch is general chairman of the festival. Those in charge of the booths will include Mrs. M. P. Roche, fancy work; Ed. John O'Day, candy; Mrs. Ed. Bissett and Mrs. R. E. McKernan, tickets. A home cooked food booth also will be operated.

Sixteen members of the Altar Society attended the meeting.

food because it happens to be on the table.

Naturally, it's a good idea to plan to have more crisp green salads than heavy, calory-rich dishes during the summer months. And to have more fresh and stewed fruit desserts than rich pastries and the like.

One of the easiest ways to lose a few pounds is to have only fruit, a thin slice of unbuttered toast and a hot beverage for breakfast; clear soup, a large salad, another slice of unbuttered toast and a hot or cold beverage for lunch; only one small serving of everything on the menu for dinner. If you have eaten lightly in the morning and at noon, then you are entitled to a little of everything at dinner time. No second helpings, however. And if you are really determined to weigh less, you'll walk at least one mile a day and do a couple of reducing exercises for ten minutes every morning.

RAYBURN SEES WANING TERM AS FRUITFUL

By DONALD A. YOUNG. WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—A short, stocky, bald Texan who has shepherded the biggest Democratic majority ever in the House of Representatives puffed rapidly on a cigar today and viewed the waning session as satisfactory.

"The boys all have pulled together and we have accomplished something," said Rep. Sam Rayburn, the Democratic floor leader. "We suffered only one major reverse since we came back here in November and that was the sheaving of the reorganization bill."

Against the reorganization defeat, Rayburn placed congressional approval of a new crop control bill, House acceptance of a wage-hour bill after refusing to pass the first draft, and speedy adoption of regular appropriation bills.

"I think most of the boys are ready to go home. I know that I most certainly am."

"Sam," as the House members always speak of him, has been in personal command of the 224 Democrats elected in November, 1936.

"This fellow and then that one comes to me and says he's got to have help getting a certain bill through," he said. "I've got to tell him in most cases that we've got to put him off a while, what with an administration bill ready for the floor and then an appropriation bill or two."

"I try to be honest with them, but with a big gang of men like we have here now, it's pretty hard to keep them all satisfied."

To Rayburn falls the responsibility for determining the order in which legislation is considered. If possible, he maneuvers the headlines bills objectionable to the administration.

When a major measure is ready for a vote, Rayburn and his corps of assistants, called "whips," try to cajole wavering Democrats into line.

"Only twice this year have we wrong when the final vote was taken—that was on the recommitment of the wage-hour and reorganization bills," Rayburn said.

He came to Congress 25 years ago after serving as speaker of the Texas legislature. If precedent is followed and the Democrats continue to control the House, he some day may hold the title of speaker again.

INTER-OCEANIC ROAD BEING MAPPED OUT

MEXICO CITY, June 3 (AP)—Ing. Salvador Toscano of the National Highway Direction soon will leave for Durango whence he will go by someback across the Sierra Madre to Mazatlan, mapping out the route for the final sector of the inter-oceanic highway which will connect Matamoros on the Atlantic with Mazatlan on the Pacific via Monterey, Sattilo, Torreon and Durango.

The road from Matamoros to Monterey is partly paved and passable and the section from Monterey to Sattilo is paved throughout. The highway from Sattilo to Torreon is finished and awaits formal inauguration. From Torreon to Durango there is a temporary road across desert-like country which will be put into condition very soon for regular highway travel. The stretch from Durango to Mazatlan, however, remains to be built and will be the most difficult, but also the most beautiful section of this first inter-oceanic highway for Mexico.

JAPAN WILL RESTORE AMERICANS' PROPERTY

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—Japan agreed today to meet almost all demands for restitution of American property in China and for the right of unhindered return of Americans to their posts there.

The state department, on the basis of telegrams from the American consul general at Shanghai, announced that:

The Japanese restored to the American Southern Baptist Mission yesterday their high school properties in the Chapel district of Shanghai.

The Japanese military authorities have agreed to the return of American missionaries to Nanking and have issued ten passes for this purpose.

Meanwhile Ambassador Grew at Tokyo was informed today by the Japanese foreign office that Japan was sending an "interdepartmental committee to visit the Japanese controlled area in Central China not only to investigate the situation relating to the occupancy of American property but also to formulate means for satisfactory adjustment of the situation."

This announcement, said the state department, concerned the demand for restitution to the American owners of the University of Shanghai and of other American properties.

Hague's Town Still Bounces 'Em

"I am O'Connell," shouted Representative Jerry O'Connell of Montana, as he arrived in Jersey City to fire a few verbal blasts at Mayor Frank Hague before a crowd of 25,000, "and I'm going to speak." And from that point no two versions agree as to what happened—except that O'Connell didn't speak and was escorted out of town by police. He charged he was roughly treated. Jersey City authorities denied this, contending their intervention saved O'Connell from being harmed by the crowd.

PARACHUTES BRING ROCKET BACK TO EARTH IN ROSWELL FLIGHTS

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor ROSWELL, N. M., June 3 (AP)—A new art in parachuting has been developed in the desert near here to bring safely back to earth the great sounding rocket of Professor Robert H. Goddard of Clark University.

This is the world's first practical rocket motor aircraft. Her builder today revealed some of the details of his unique work which has been quietly under way here for several years.

The early rocket ships usually destroyed themselves by falling to the earth after they had ascended a mile or more. This new "ship" comes down gently with a parachute. But before this could be accomplished the rules about parachute strength had to be revised.

The Goddard rocket is 18 feet long, about a foot in diameter, made of aluminum painted black, and capped with a shining conical head. It weighs only 84 pounds after its flaming oxygen-gasoline tail which drives it up is exhausted. At this point the cap opens and two parachutes come out. A small one carries meteorological instruments sent up with the rocket.

The large parachute with a spread of ten feet is for the rocket's descent. A pressure valve releases the parachutes at the proper moment but the rocket ship has developed run up to 700 miles an hour. They make it difficult to operate a light parachute as the rocket slows down.

At first the shroud lines holding the edges of the parachute were silk cords, each able to support 100 pounds. There were ten of these giving 1,000 pounds pulling strength to hold the weight of 84 pounds. The lines had to be strengthened until each would hold 400 pounds, or a total strain of two tons.

Thus equipped, the rocket thereupon broke a one-eighth inch steel cable which was attached to the lines. After this had been remedied, it broke a ring of iron one-half inch thick holding the cable to the rocket. This iron ring was a standard part used for tractors to pull heavy loads.

Flights Frequent Flights are made about once a month in a deserted, saucer-shaped valley about 15 miles from Roswell. Between tests, the rocket spends its time in a shop set up by Dr. Goddard and operated by four assistants close to his residence just outside Roswell.

The first objective is to solve the practical principles of rocket ship flight.

In the present rocket, Dr. Goddard has a reliable motor which can be used repeatedly. He has been able to make experiments that indicate it will be practicable to send rocket ships to heights far exceeding balloons. They will ascend to the interesting regions where meteors burn, and where the sun's radiation exists in forms unknown at the earth's surface.

Dr. Goddard has perfected means of sending scientific instruments up

FOR TO BE INVITED TO AMARILLO THIS SUMMER

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—Plans to invite President Roosevelt to participate this summer in dedicatory ceremonies for the Will Rogers Memorial Highway were disclosed today by Carl Hinton, manager of the Amarillo, Tex., Chamber of Commerce.

A special congressional committee, headed by Representative Jones (D-Tex.), has asked for a conference tomorrow with the president to extend the invitation, Hinton said. Senators Connolly and Sheppard of Texas, Hatch and Chavez of New Mexico, and Lee and Thomas of Oklahoma, all Democrats, also are on the committee.

Hinton said Jones had informally discussed the matter with Mr. Roosevelt and the president had expressed a desire to join in the ceremonies of their coincided with his tentative plans for a cross continent trip next July.

Originally, the Memorial association planned to sponsor motorcades simultaneously leaving the termini of the Highway, Los Angeles and Chicago, and meeting at Amarillo on August 15, the third anniversary of the death of the cowboy humorist. Hinton said that these dates could be changed to suit the president's convenience.

COMMISSIONER ASKS RADIO INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—Commissioner George Payne of the Communications Commission, charging that the commission had been "susceptible to outside pressure," asked the House rules committee today to authorize a congressional investigation of the radio industry.

Some of the lawyers who practice before the commission, Payne said, "have become arrogant and are in the habit of commanding, rather than asking or pleading."

"Their influence and pressure are altogether too great," Payne spoke of "active lobbyists" at the commission headquarters but declined to identify them. He agreed, however, to return a closed meeting of the committee Tuesday to give details of his charges.

Chairman McNinch had said earlier that the commission hoped to start early next month "a thorough-business-like" investigation of the radio industry, including charges of "monopoly."

He told the committee the investigation would inquire into relationships between the big radio chains and their affiliated stations, the degree of control over stations not

OLD SOUTH TO LIVE AGAIN AT TOMATO BALL

JACKSONVILLE, June 3 (AP)—The Old South Lives Again" pageant with a cast of 300 will challenge the coronation and ball of the 1938 national tomato queen for first entertainment honors at the national tomato show and festival here June 6-8.

Choruses from Tyler, Rush and other cities will participate in the pageant performed at Ragsdale baseball park before a setting representing the Rosalie mansion at Natchez, Miss. The tomato queen will be chosen by popular vote from two of Jacksonville's prettiest college girls, Miss Betty Ray of Lon Morris and Miss Dorothy Alexander of Texas State College for Women.

Gov. James V. Allred named Miss Ernestine Melton of Texarkana, University of Texas student, "Miss Texas" to head the score of visiting princesses.

The opening day's events include a tomato cooking and serving demonstration and a junior parade of children from Cherokee and adjoining counties. The second day features will be the theme parade, pageant and coronation.

A special exhibit showing how to protect and save the rich top soil, of first importance in the successful cultivation of tomatoes here, was authorized by the United States Department of Agriculture to be placed on the city hall lawn throughout the show. Fall planting of soil-conserving crops, or strip cropping, will be demonstrated along with terracing, terrace outlet control, contour planting, crop rotation and various fertilizers.

Housewives through the nation will compete for the best recipe using tomatoes in any form. First prize will be $25, second $15 and third $10.

National tomato week originated at Jacksonville five years ago.

BLACKBIRD ESCAPES GIANT CLAM AND CAT

LEOMINSTER, Mass., June 3 (AP)—A blackbird, seized and held captive by a giant clam and threatened by a cat, was alive today only because of the intervention of spectators.

Members of the Santa Maria Del Campo Society were enjoying an afternoon of sport when a clam, intended for a bake, got a toe hold on the bird. The squawking bird, they said, was unable to fly.

The cat was approaching stealthily when boys smashed the clam with a stone.

There were 102 passengers aboard the Mayflower.

STUDENT TALKS TO HIS MOTHER BY SHORT WAVE

LUBBOCK, June 3 (AP)—When this student needs something from home he calls station W5FYZ and talks to his mother.

Ernest D. Brown, sophomore geology student at Texas Technological College, and his mother, Mrs. E. R. Brown of Electra, viewing four year's separation while he attended college, decided to get radio licenses so they could at least talk once a week.

Each Wednesday at 2 p. m., Ernest talks with his mother over short wave for an hour or so, sometimes relaying messages from other Tech students to their parents.

During his work with the short wave radio, Ernest has talked with six persons in Hawaii, one in Australia, one in Venezuela, and many in Canada and Mexico; he also talked with persons in 45 of the 48 states.

As Rebels Desert Comrades

Forsaking rebel chieftan Saturnino Cedillo as 12,000 federal troops swarmed into the Mexican state of San Luis Potosi, armed agrarians are pictured above as they surrendered their rifles to soldiers of President Lazaro Cardenas. Meanwhile, however, other rebels spread the revolt outside of San Luis Potosi and clashed violently with federal troops in a number of cities.

International Sunday School Lesson

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D. Editor of Advance

Daniel stands among those great typical figures of heroic virtue, so many of whom the Jewish people have given to the world.

He is the great example of the man with the courage of his convictions, whose strength of character and firmness of purpose were rooted in self-discipline and temperance. When he had the privileges of the court with all its luxuries and delights, he refused to weaken himself with indulgence in these, or in strong drink, and he asked the prince of the eunuchs, who had charge of these matters, that he might be permitted to decline them.

It is well to note that, instead of being put down as a weakling or a sissy or whatever might have corresponded to this in those days, the prince of the eunuchs respected Daniel's convictions. He had the mistaken notion that high living is conducive to prosperity and health, and he feared for the result if Daniel should appear in worse form and appearance than the youths who had been entrusted to his care.

All Daniel was wanted was the opportunity to prove that temperance, restraint, and self-discipline would produce the right results.

Ten days were sufficient to settle the matter, for the abstemious Daniel and his companions after the 10 day's test showed themselves in far better health than those who had partaken of wine and high foods.

The lesson is one that is being widely neglected today, but it is well enforced by all the facts of life and history. Here and there some man of phenomenal physique seems to thrive in spite of his evil habits, but such a man is the exception and even he is usually overcome in the end. The facts of present-day life and of history, the records of athletes and of endurance, are all on the side of temperance and self-control.

Paul, who was a keen observer, enforced the rule of temperance, from the ancient games and contests. He observed that it was only those who were well trained and disciplined who won the prizes in these ancient games. He drew the conclusion that, if these athletes would undergo strict self-discipline for the sake of an earthly crown, why should they not do the same for the sake of an incorruptible crown?

"Dare to be a Daniel" is still a good watchword for modern youth. We of the older generation sang it:

Dare to be a Daniel,
 Dare to stand alone!
 Dare to have a purpose firm,
 And dare to make it known!
 It is a good counsel for an age that needs independence and character.

 CHICAGO—About all Detective Jack Greer could say when he saw a fat pig playing havoc with his back yard garden was "ho hum."
 "A month ago some one filled my back porch with pigeons," Greer told fellow-policemen. "A week later they dumped a goose and a duck there. Last week it was a billy goat razing the flowers in the back yard. Now it's a pig. Ho, hum."

NEW LIGHT ON GANGSTERS IN ARKANSAS CASE

Although no American city has yet turned wholly sinless and sat down piously to await the wholesale distribution of harps and haloes, it is nevertheless true that we don't hear nearly as much about gangsters and the underworld as we used to hear.

This is partly because the G-men and other law enforcement agencies have done some pretty effective work. Even more, however, it is simply because the gangsters and the underworld have ceased to be news. Gangs and underworlds still exist; but defiant, less cocky, perhaps, but still in business.

So any new light we can get on the way commercialized crime operates is worth getting and worth thinking about. We shan't really win the long war with gangsterism until we understand fully how and why gangsterism exists; and some valuable light on the subject is provided by a recent happening in Arkansas.

There the G-men arrested five men and two women on charges of harboring Alvin Karpis, who once was rated one of the nation's most energetic public enemies, back in 1935. Among those arrested were an ex-chief of police, an ex-detective chief, an ex-detective lieutenant and the former manager of the Hot Springs municipal airport.

All of which is interesting for two reasons. First, because it shows clearly that the big shot criminals do not operate on their own. Their "gangs" are not made up solely of low-browed thugs and coke-sniffing killers; they depend for their existence on the active co-operation of respected people.

Gangsters have to move from place to place. They have to hide out from the law. And they don't slink furtively about like trembling fugitives in a moving picture. They have their friends, their "connections," who take care of them. They are able to live outside the law because supposedly decent folk help them to live that way.

Second, they can't operate without an understanding with the forces of law and order. Pat Roche, the famous Chicago detective, once remarked caustically that a one-armed prohibition agent on a bicycle could have dried up Chicago in a week if he had really tried; and the implications of that remark are true of all gangs at all times and places. Crime flourishes when the police let it flourish—not otherwise.

So these arrests in Arkansas are worth thinking about. Rounding up the people who enable a public enemy to operate is less spectacular work than nabbing the public enemy himself; in the long run, however, it is the most important part of the job of gang-busting.

OBJECT LESSON

Patrolman Carl Lueck of Detroit and any other policemen who are inclined to use the weapons of their office too freely can learn a lot from the behavior of Bede Irwin, a photographer.

During a strike riot, Lueck hit Irwin with a nightstick, knocked his camera to the ground, kicked it across the street, and then struck Irwin again when he protested that he was a photographer—and not one of the pickets the police were battling.

Called on the carpet by the police trial board, Lueck's excuse was that he "got excited"—but Irwin's plea for leniency saved his job.

And that is a fine example of the old-fashioned "returning good for evil" that should be an object lesson for all policemen who get excited too easily.

A policeman has a pretty tough time of it—being a strong arm of the law without being a slugger. But a nightstick hurts a peaceful citizen just as much as it pains the hardest-nosed hoodlum.

Behind the Scenes In Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 3—The National Bituminous Coal Commission enjoying a period of happy obscurity after mulling up its job about as badly as it could, is now proceeding with great care and good resolutions in the hope of redeeming itself.

The commission's job is to set minimum coal prices. It did set a schedule last year but the courts began to decide the job had been sloppily done and the prices had to be canceled.

Now the commission hopes to have a new schedule of prices ready by September. That's a hope rather than a promise. But the new coal prices may be ready by mid-October, about the time the bituminous buying season begins. Last year the board missed the boat, decreasing no prices until December.

A clean, careful job is the commission's aim, partly because of the Supreme Court decision in the Kansas City stockyards case calling for fast procedure by government regulatory or rate-making agencies, supported by the persistent demand of Consumers' Council John

Tex's Topics

Top O' Texas Fiesta goodwillers wound up their advertising tour of the Panhandle yesterday with a sweep through Lefors, McLean, Shamrock, Wheeler and Mobeetie. Some of us made it only to Shamrock to have lunch with some of the townfolk and then hurry back to our stint. . . The others, however, went on—more than 100 strong, to complete Pre-Fiesta tasks. . . There were many in the crowd who had faithfully made all of the goodwill trips. . . To them everybody in Pampa owes expression of appreciation and gratitude for their efforts to make the Fiesta a success. . . Only a few familiar faces were missing from the line-up on the final day. . . Chairman R. S. Dietz, of the Jaycee Fiesta good will committee, expressed thanks on behalf of the organization for his splendid support. . . One can not praise too highly Director A. C. Cox and the members of his unusually talented Junior High school band who accompanied the Jaycee goodwill trippers on each of the three days.

And, so—the time is growing mighty short before the opening of the biggest celebration of the year—Pampa's 1938 Top O' Texas Fiesta. . . In fact, there remain only five more shopping days until Fiesta time—and then, cares will be tossed aside for three days and the people at the Top O' Texas will gather in Pampa for fun, amusement and thrills. . . It's going to be a gala event this year, if ever there was one. . . There'll be plenty of action in Pampa next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. . . We met a lot of old friends in Shamrock yesterday. . . Genial Gene Worley, your state representative at Austin, who was referred to as "Governor" Worley by County Judge Sherman White of Pampa, who was there serving as master of ceremonies and reading from notes written by Editor and Publisher Albert Cooper of the very excellent Shamrock, Texan. . . In fact some of Mr. Cooper's notes were so bad that Rep. Worley had to hand them back for deciphering. . . Among other Shamrock folk who greeted us were Country Boy Bedford Harrison, O. of C. manager, and Wallace Barrett, R. B. Allen's right hand man in Shamrock. . . Both Harrison and Barrett are a bit provoked with me because I introduced Barrett as Harrison and vice versa. . . I never have been able to straighten those two fellows out ever since I met them when they came over to Pampa wearing Irish false-faces to ballyhoo Shamrock's Saint Pat's Day celebration.

Say, do you know that work is going ahead in grandiose style on Gray county new lake? . . . Riding with R. B. Allen, Jim Collins, John Bradley and Ray Barnes, we went around by the lake on our way home from Shamrock. . . We walked way up on a steep bluff right at the dam site and it was all you could do to restrain Collins and Allen from getting out their fishing tackle for a bit of deep-sea fishing. . . It was the first time I had been to the lakeland since I got lost out there with Gray county lake chairman Hub Walker, who, of all persons, should have known his way around. . . But, now there are good roads and it's the easiest thing in the world to find your way back there where giant steel shovels are chomping at the earth and the steel piling under the dam already is in place. . . It won't be too long, now!

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY
A beautiful float, appropriately in keeping with Pampa chief assets—wheat and oil—was arranged for the Fort Worth convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

A new 100-acre golf course, completed by the Pampa Country Club members, was opened for the first playing.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY
Water samples taken daily from the municipal swimming pool showed that it was far above the standard required by the state department of health as to purity.

Mrs. W. H. Davis and Miss Ivan Mayfield spent the day in McLean doing investigation work for the Texas Federal Relief committee.

Carson of the NBCC for public hearings and findings of fact before action. Carson didn't need Supreme Court help, however, as what he demanded was provided for in the bituminous coal act. The commission, in its unregenerate days, just figured it needn't heed the law.

Surprise: There Is No TVA Yardstick
One of the things the TVA investigating committee may find out is that there isn't any rate yardstick in TVA, as it often supposed.

The yardstick appears in municipal power plants after TVA sells electricity to the municipality at the same rate it charges private power companies.

Although TVA produces electricity under conditions different from those of private companies, it sells the juice at from 6 to 7 mills a kilowatt hour. Private power companies often sell to municipalities at such a rate.

But the yardstick has entered the picture when TVA persuaded municipalities receiving TVA power to cut rates to consumers in order to increase sales and make more money.

"People's Friend" and Traveler, Too
Senator Bob Reynolds, running for renomination in North Carolina, was billboarded throughout the state as "The People's Friend." That line was supposed to have gone out of political campaigns in the late nineties. Few Washingtonians were surprised to find that Congressman Frank Hancock, his opponent, centered fire on the charge that Reynolds was a playboy and gad-about.

Circus

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—There was an astonishing moment in a Brooklyn court the other afternoon, packed with drama and realism. A Malay seaman was to testify before a magistrate and tell what he knew of an attempt to smuggle eleven Chinese into the United States.

But when you testify in court in this country you first take the oath. You swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God.

And that's where the color and the melodrama in the mystic Orient comes in. For Malays are Mohammedans and their conception of the deity differs from ours. And so an oath to our God can in no sense be binding to one of the Mohammedan faith.

But New York is prepared for emergencies of this sort. The first thing they did was to send for Dr. Tassilo Adam and his sacred kris.

This kris is a 14-inch dagger, or small sword, and it was presented to him long ago by the Sultan of Java. Dr. Adam always responds when some bewildered Malay arrives on these shores, illegally or otherwise for he knows Malay and a dozen other strange eastern tongues, including Atjek, Batak, Bugi, Dyak, Lampong, Makassar, Nicolair and even Refjang. Dr. Adam lives in Brooklyn now, but for 30 years he was chief ethnologist to the Dutch government in the East Indies.

It all started several weeks ago when a British freighter arrived in America with a group of Chinese on board. The captain was immediately indicted and with him Hassan Bin Ahmed who now is chief government witness.

But to make it legal and binding and to impress properly upon the imagination of the man just how serious was the situation, Bin Ahmed had to be thrice sworn in, twice in the Mohammedan way and once in the orthodox American manner. This was why Dr. Adam was called in. The sight of a sacred kris is enough to bring any Mohammedan to respectful attention. Ahmed knelt or rather squatted in an attitude of prayer. Dr. Adam then touched the sacred kris lightly on his head. Prayers to Mohammed were mumbled. And then the trial was properly opened.

How it will turn out no one knows, but the fact remains that 11 Chinese were illegally concealed in the hold of a ship. They will certainly be returned. The Captain says he didn't know anything about them until they were at sea.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

This one is always writing up many types of people, but he has never mentioned in this space names of people who work on the job with him—and he should know Tex, Ed, Harry, Wayne, Johnnie, Brownie, A. B., Colcher and the others better than anybody else. Now persons who work on newspapers are not supposed to be newsworthy, but all these things to the contrary this one wants to put in a good word for Ray Barnes, the new general manager at the News. He took Jim Lyons' place recently. This paragraph is not meant to flatter the new skipper—nor anybody else as for that matter. This one is probably too blunt to attempt flattery, but if you haven't met Ray Barnes yet, you ought to do it pretty quick. You'll find him as Tex DeWeese who knew him back in Ohio, said, "real folks—just one of the boys." Ray's accent may be definitely Ohio but his personality, being essentially human and friendly is not the result of a locality. In other words, if you like the Texas type of man, the Oklahoma type, the New Mexico type, the Arkansas type, the Missouri type, etc., you'll like Ray Barnes. His personality is not a matter of geography.

It's kinda like Coleman Williams said yesterday, "Well, I see you got a new manager at the News. I saw him grinning and speaking to people, just like any old country boy. Where's he from?" Ray has not moved his family, consisting of wife and two sons, from Bucyrus, but will soon. Ray is a member of the American Legion and Forty and Eight. He saw service on the Western Front during the World War. . . Well, Ray, pardon me for dragging you into this, but I just wanted to let the Pampa people know that the News family is quite enthusiastic about their new boss.

How's Your Health?
By IAGO GALDSTON, M. D.
Man begins life as an aquatic animal in the uterus of its mother the developing embryo is surrounded by a miniature sea of amniotic fluid. It does not breathe through its lungs but get the oxygen it needs from its mother by way of the blood fluid exchanges between its own developing body and that of its mother.

Recent experimental studies have shown that some of the amniotic fluid actually enters the unborn child's lung passages, much as water bathes the gills of a fish. And some psychologists make a good deal of this initial "fish-life" explanations of man's great fondness for the sea.

Psychologists of the behavioristic school believe the newborn infant can go through swimming motions instinctively. Whether these psychological assumptions are valid or not, there is little doubt that man kind is devoted to the sea and finds great pleasure and many health benefits in bathing.

When Xenophon's soldiers, returning from Persia, joyfully shouted, "Thalassa, thalassa!" (the sea, the sea!) they probably anticipated a good sea bath.

Sea water is not an iodine-bearing medium, so sea bathing is done primarily for its pleasure effects.

Edwina Booth, an extra girl who got her big chance in "Trader Horn" and came back with a fever contracted on the African location, never to work again.

Miss Booth would seem to be the only one whose injury actually sprang from picture-making. And yet none knows how many illnesses arise from the strain of the picture life—especially with those people who in the sudden glow of popularity, are worked in one picture after another until, almost ready to drop, they take a vacation.

Hollywood is a strain any way they take it. On top, it keeps them busy worrying how to stay there. Going up, it makes them worry how to get higher. Slipping—that's where the real strain comes in. And that's where some of them take to drink to ease the pain.

facts. Sea water buoys up the body more effectively than fresh water, providing a light feeling.

When the sea is quiet and the water fairly warm, sea bathing may prove relaxing. But usually sea bathing is stimulating. The waves buffet you about and invite muscular activity in swimming or otherwise.

As sea water is commonly fairly cool, it takes heat from the body and metabolism is stimulated. Blood circulation is promoted and the body gets the effects of exercise.

When sea bathing you should bear in mind the hazard of sunburn. You may be severely burned without appreciating it because of the cooling effects of the wind and water.

The Capital Jigsaw

AUSTIN, June 3 (AP)—"Air Mail Week" brought Gov. James V. Allred a flood of letters from virtually every part of the state.

Old folks and young, men and women, seized on the occasion as a happy time to drop the governor a line, and the governor was highly pleased at the attention.

All the persons who wrote him received or will receive an acknowledgment. It will be something they can put in their scrapbooks, perhaps.

Eight-year-old Richard Franklin Marshall of Colorado, writing with pencil in a neat hand and enclosing a small photograph, brought a smile to the governor's face. The governor has three small sons and he knows all about little boys, their likes and dislikes, their aspirations and their disappointments.

"I am a little boy 8 years of age," young Marshall wrote. "I am in the third grade. I like to go to school. I think we live in the best state in the union. I thank you are a good governor for our state."

"I am the only child in our family. I hope to be a big man and work for Uncle Sam some day. I am sending you this by air mail as this is Air Mail Week."

"Your friend," etc.

To which the governor replied: "My Dear Richard:

"I have received a great many air mail letters this week, but none that I enjoyed more than yours."

"I appreciate your compliment and I hope that I shall always merit your confidence and that of my other friends. It was thoughtful of you to write to me, and I am happy to have your letter and picture."

"With all good wishes, I am," etc.

Quite a different type of letter came from a Kirbyville man who said he was a "little insignificant country boy, born over in the woods the year after the Civil War closed."

"Because it was Air Mail Week and the postmaster said we must all write letters to someone," the correspondent said he would write the governor and "Franklin" as headquarters for his "trouble."

"I never saw a railroad train until I was 18," he said, "and never ate any ice cream until I was 22 and thought oranges and apples never ripened until Christmas, as that was the only time I got any when I hung up my socks."

"I was taught to hate Abe Lincoln, the Republican party and a Yankee. I had the itch every time it rained when a boy and hookworms later. We did not have graded schools when I was a boy but I went from McGuffey's 5th reader to Barin's U. S. history. I studied Webster's blue back speller but I have forgotten all but Baker and Shady."

"They will not let me work on the WPA on account of my age. I have too much pride to ask for direct relief and my wife bars me from old age assistance. I am seven years too old. My wealth is far below the limit and my income is nix, but the three direct questions are in my way."

"I have not been able to flicker since the prohibition went into effect during the World's War. I have never been indicted by a grand jury nor had a law suit. I never sued but one man and got judgment and he died. I have had two fights and was whipped both times. But when they ask if your spouse able to support you I have been taking care of me for nearly 40 years and it is a case of where 'the woman is the cause of it all.'

"I was never an office holder but once. I was a J. P. four years and married six couples and held six inquests. All the couples I married separated but none of the inquest victims came to life. They began calling me judge but it mortified me as I knew anyone who acted as a J. P. did not have sense enough to be a judge."

"I never saw any military service but would have gone to the Spanish-American war if it had not been for a little dog. I was young then and unmarried and chocked full of patriotism, but my little dog had nine puppies one night just before I got off to the war and by that time the puppies were old enough for me to leave them. Dewey, Schley and Teddy had whipped the Spanish and I did not go."

out the winner in the present campaign for governor and make him think I tore my shirt off for him and maybe he will put me on his staff. I have never had any title but Uncle Tom. As long as they call me Uncle people will think I am an old man and should my wife quit I would have a hard time trying to get me a 16-year-old. As soon as I can get a new place to board I am going to the same and suit against my wife. She made me dig and carry potatoes yesterday. The letter was signed "Uncle Tom." Reference apparently was to Orville S. Carpenter, former chief of Old Age Pension Organization in Texas and now a member of the Unemployment Compensation Commission.

Sharing the Comforts Of Life . . .

CONSISTENCY, INTELLIGENCE AND HONESTY

In discussing the question of consistency, with a sheltered, inconsistent, irrational educator, the writer made this statement:

"We admire and have respect for a man who is consistent. The sheltered educator inquired if we admired him whether he was intelligently consistent or not."

This led to the remark on the part of the writer that we did not believe a man could be consistent unless he was intelligent. When this is analyzed, there seems to be no person, whom the writer has ever encountered, who was consistent and unintelligent at the same time.

And, of course, it goes without saying that honesty is a requirement of consistency. The honest person immediately will change his position, and reverse his beliefs on what he advocates, the minute he finds that he is inconsistent with the principle that the Universal Rule is the Golden Rule. But a dishonest man will not change his position, no matter how inconsistent he may be to this fundamental starting point of good citizenship.

So when you find a man who is inconsistent, it seems reasonable to conclude that he is not intelligent or honest or the least of his counsel and advice you take the better off you probably will be.

High Taxes

President Roosevelt contends that because the taxes in the United States have not been as high as in other countries that justifies raising them.

Possibly is larger because our taxes have not been as high in the past as in other countries that the people of the United States have had the highest standard of living of all people.

And when he says that the taxes are not so high, he is not giving the facts in some cases. The direct taxes are more discriminatory in the United States than any other civilized country. Of course, the indirect taxes are heavy on the great mass of people and when we add the excises which the mass of people have to make, because of the bad form of taxation, which prevents goods from becoming cheap, probably they are making a bigger sacrifice by this extra cost of goods now in this country than in any other country in the world.

It is strange reasoning that we want to follow the European countries in taxation when their standard of living has been so much lower than our on country.
