YANKS NOSE OUT CUBS 3-1 IN OPENER

GERMANS SEEK PAYMENT FOR 'INJUSTICES'

Dictator To Demand Twice As Much Land

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
BERLIN, Oct. 5. (AP)—German claims for "reparations for injustices inflicted by the Czechs on the Sudeten since 1918" loomed today as a formidable obstacle to completion of a peaceful settlement of Germany's quarrel with Czechoslovakia.

The Munich agreement of the four big powers, compelling Czechoslovakia to cede the Sudetenland to Germany, represented a complete failure of the foreign policy with which Benes had been closely associated since the founding of the state 20 years ago.

The pressure of Britain and France to compel Benes and his government to accept submission to the terms of Adolf Hitler proved a tremendous blow.

Informed persons felt that Benes' departure from office—and possibly from the country—might remove the current acute situation and make collaboration with Germany possible.

Benes had been the target for bitter attacks by Hitler and other German leaders and for a scathing campaign of denunciation in the German press.

Jap Ambassador To U. S. Still Ailing

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (AP)—Hiroshi Satto, whom Japan recalled today from his post as ambassador to the United States, had been trying four months to regain his health and at the same time continue his work.

It was a case of sacrificing one or the other, associates said, and the foreign office in Tokyo decided it must be his work.

Satto left Washington in June for Hot Springs, Va., where he hoped he might regain his strength quickly. Instead, he had to remain at the resort until the end of September and since his return to Washington has been seeing a doctor every day.

CUBS SCORE IN 3RD--FOES IN 2ND AND 6TH

Americans' Fielding Features First Battle

WRIGLEY FIELD, CHICAGO, Oct. 5. (AP)—Turning on their famed batting power for 12 hits against Bill Lee and Jack Russell, the world champion New York Yankees defeated the Chicago Cubs, 3 to 1, in the opening game of the world series here today before 44,000 disappointed fans.

Lee, backboner of the Chicago hurling staff, was combed for 11 hits by the Manhattan sluggers before he retired for a pinch-hitter in the 8th. Red Ruffing held the Cubs to nine hits, including a triple by Manager Gabby Hartnett, and was never in serious danger.

Ruffing and Jos Dimaggio alone of the Yankee line-up failed to get in on the clubbing. Bill Dickey, tall catcher, was the biggest explosion with four singles. He scored what proved the winning run in the second inning and drove across Tommy Henrich with the final run of the game in the sixth.

Following is the play by play detail of the game:

FIRST INNING. YANKS—Crossett worked the count to three and two and then struck out.

Boles sent a bouncer off first base and Collins threw to Lee to put him out.

CUBS—Hack fouled several times, then singled sharply to left center. Hack then was out stealing. Dickey to Crossett. Crossett threw out Herman. Demaree fanned.

No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

SECOND INNING. YANKS—Hack took DJ Maguire's grounder near third base and threw him out.

Gehrig walked on four pitches. Dickey slashed into right field and when Cavarretta tried to catch Gehrig with a throw to third Dickey went to second, Gehrig making third easily.

Herman fumbled Selkirk's easy bouncer, Gehrig scoring. Dickey went to third and the batter reaching first.

Gordon's hard roller went through Hack and into left field for a single scoring Dickey and sending Selkirk to second.

Ruffing grounded to Jorges who threw to Herman forcing Gordon, and Herman's throw to Collins required Ruffing for a double play.

Two runs, two hits, one error, one left.

CUBS—Gehrig took Cavarretta's grounder back of first base and stepped on the bag to retire him. Gordon caught Reynold's high fly.

Hartnett fouled to Dickey. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

THIRD INNING. YANKS—Crossett filed to Reynolds in center.

Boles sent a long fly to Demaree. Henrich singled over first, Collins taking the ball several yards back of the bag but having no chance to make a play. Henrich was caught stealing. Hartnett to Herman.

No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

CUBS—Collins singled. Jorges fanned.

Study Course Group Has Initial Meeting Tuesday Morning

The first meeting of the year Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the school cafeteria.

The subject for discussion was "Mental Health and the Smooth Pumping Home" with Mrs. Fred Roberts.

In opening the discussion Mrs. Roberts stated: "We have only to know families in many walks of life to see that the peace and happiness of young children depend far more upon the tranquility of their relations with their parents, brothers, and sisters and of their parents with each other, than upon such external circumstances as housing, play equipment, education of parents and expert feeding. How one creates one's home and rears one's children depends upon one's philosophy of life. What the mother is makes the home."

The members expressed themselves freely on such subjects as stability, orderliness, team work, budgeting of energy and time, as necessary factors for a smooth-running home.

Food From Gray County Clubs On Exhibit At Dallas

Peaches, beans, and beets from Gray county gardens are on exhibit at the Gray county exhibit at the Texas fair in Dallas. Prepared by the Gray County Home Demonstration club, 20 one-quart glass containers were expressed last week to Dallas, where it was received Monday.

The food was from the gardens of Mrs. Gus Davis and Mrs. Frank Knight, both members of the Bluebonnet club, and Mrs. C. A. Myatt of the East Side club. There were five items the county had been requested to furnish for the exhibit: peaches, beans, beets, berries and plums.

Due to the scarcity of berries and plums, only the first three foods were put in the containers sent to the State Fair. A freeze early this year killed off a large part of the county's fruit crop.

Cousins To Cabbage Best At This Time

Many of the most popular members of the cabbage family, cauliflower, green or sprouting broccoli, Brussels sprouts, and Chinese cabbage are at their best and cheapest getting about this time of the year.

Members of the mustard family are among the best of vegetable foods, for they add valuable minerals and vitamins to the diet. None of these vegetables, except Brussels sprouts, adds more than 100 calories per pound as purchased. And "sprouts" add only 200 calories.

Although some forms of the cabbage have more vitamin C than others, all rate as excellent sources of that vitamin which must be supplied daily because it cannot be stored in the body. All the green cabbage cousins are rich in vitamin A and calcium and iron. The greener the leafy vegetables the more vitamin A, calcium and iron it is likely to contain.

The leaves of broccoli are one of the very richest vegetable sources of vitamin A. The flowers are excellent and even the stems of broccoli have more of this vitamin than most vegetables. Kale and the greener forms of Chinese cabbage also furnish much A, a vitamin which is often low in the diet of families that try to economize on food.

"WHY IS THE UNITED STATES SO RICH?" The question as to why wages are so high in the United States and the country so rich is usually answered by the great mass of people, "because we have so many natural resources."

A liner from Europe docked at a large Atlantic port the other day and was immediately boarded by American reporters. Anxious for comments on the current European scene, the reporters buttonholed all the passengers they could stop.

The House is not expected to vote on it until tomorrow. Simon said French approval of the Munich agreement was reflected in the very great majority vote of approval which Premier Daladier received in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

Only history can decide hereafter whether the things done at Munich were a prelude to better times or whether prognostications of increasing evil were proved to be justified, said Simon.

"No one can pronounce on that now, but the government is bound to ask for approval of the course it has taken."

The debate, which already has gone through two days of spirited government defense, and bitter opposition on the Munich accord, was not expected to reach a vote until afternoon.

Adjournment of this extraordinary session is scheduled for 4 p. m. tomorrow and the votes, first on an opposition amendment to the government's motion of confidence and then on the government motion itself, should come shortly before that hour.

Appraisal Services Offered. E. S. Pritchard and W. T. Macy, of the firm of Pritchard and Abbott, Fort Worth, valuation engineers, presented a proposition to the commission that the firm be employed to appraise Pampa real estate, buildings, and utilities for both the city and the Pampa Independent School district.

Mr. Pritchard said the firm had made tax valuation appraisals in Hutchinson and Carson counties and that he had done some work in Amarillo, that his firm had been in existence 15 years and was doing work in 50 Texas counties.

Mr. Pritchard said he would accept payment in city warrants, but the city commission was not inclined to favor this plan.

In the discussion, it was mentioned that the city's present indebtedness was $222,000, and the amount of delinquent taxes $65,000.

Other business transacted by the commission included the accepting of the bid of the Western Metal Manufacturing Company of Houston, for an Armand corrugated iron culvert, 70 feet long, 48 inches in diameter, to be installed on North Russell street at a point north of the Pampa Independent school district garage.

The Houston firm's bid was $4,881. Willborn Brothers Company of Amarillo was the only other bidder.

Russia Says France Has Lost Allies

MOSCOW, Oct. 5 (AP)—A prediction of sharp revival of communist international activity, especially in France, was made today by some foreign observers following a cooling of Soviet-French relations.

The semi-official newspaper Le Journal de Moscou, (GC) often the mirror of foreign office news, said emphatically that, as a result of the four-power Munich agreement, France had lost all her European allies but England and Germany.

"Who can rely on England?" "Isolation is the price France will pay for Munich, whose she received not even a scrap of paper, but only an oral promise from Adolf Hitler," the paper asserted.

It added: "After the capitulation of Munich (where France, Italy and Great Britain reached an accord Sept. 30 granting Chancellor Hitler Sudeten German areas of Czechoslovakia, a French ally), who will believe again the word of France? Who will remain her ally?"

"Rumania or Yugoslavia (with Czechoslovakia, French allies in the Little Entente) will not hesitate any longer to swing over to the side of German Fascism."

The Journal did not state specifically that Moscow intended to cancel the French-Soviet pact of May, 1935, but asked: "What is it worth now that France has torn up its treaty of alliance with Czechoslovakia?"

and a knee injury, Gilmes was released from the hospital. He said the accident must have happened about 1:20 o'clock as he was en route to work. He said he remembered nothing until picked up by the men about 5:30 o'clock.

Although police searched the area near where the accident occurred, they found no trace of the hitchhiker.

Mr. Gilmes told the attending physician that he didn't know whether he had been struck on the head or whether he fell asleep.

The officers said the car, a Packard sedan, had left the pavement after crossing a cattle guard about three miles north of LePore. They followed tire tracks to the center of the borrow pit where they ended.

There were no marks on the five-foot bank the fence along the top of the bank was still standing top of the bank was several yards beyond the fence by a field. Later the officers noticed that a fence post had been splintered.

In reconstructing the accident, the officers said they believed the car had jumped from the center of the borrow pit across the bank and fence. The car was almost demolished yet not a tire was deflated.

Weeds, however, were noticed sticking from between the tires and rims.

General admission tickets to the Pampa Harvesters-Lawton Wolverines football game Friday night at 8 o'clock at Harvester Field are now on sale at downtown drug stores.

General admission to the game will be 50 cents.

It will be one of the few times in many years that a top out of state team has been brought to Pampa at the low admission price.

Lawton is considered one of the strongest teams in Oklahoma. The Wolverines' record this year is three wins and no losses with one win over Classen of Oklahoma City, the team that defeated the Amarillo Sables last Friday.

Several good reserve seats for the rest of the season are still available at the office of Roy McMillen in the city hall. The reserve seat decals for the four remaining home games may be purchased for 75 cents. Only a few are left, however.

O'DANIEL UNWORRIED. AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—W. Lee O'Daniel's campaigning is over, at least for the time being. He has three opponents in the general election, a Republican, a Socialist and a Communist, but doesn't intend to do anything about it.

Here for a water conservation meeting, he was asked if he planned any campaign before the November election. He laughed. "My campaign's over," he said.

The officers said the car, a Packard sedan, had left the pavement after crossing a cattle guard about three miles north of LePore. They followed tire tracks to the center of the borrow pit where they ended.

There were no marks on the five-foot bank the fence along the top of the bank was still standing top of the bank was several yards beyond the fence by a field. Later the officers noticed that a fence post had been splintered.

In reconstructing the accident, the officers said they believed the car had jumped from the center of the borrow pit across the bank and fence. The car was almost demolished yet not a tire was deflated.

Weeds, however, were noticed sticking from between the tires and rims.

Mr. Gilmes told the attending physician that he didn't know whether he had been struck on the head or whether he fell asleep.

and a knee injury, Gilmes was released from the hospital. He said the accident must have happened about 1:20 o'clock as he was en route to work. He said he remembered nothing until picked up by the men about 5:30 o'clock.

Although police searched the area near where the accident occurred, they found no trace of the hitchhiker.

HEAVIER HARVESTER LINE PLANNED FOR LAWTON GAME

GIDDENS AND CANDLER MAY BE STARTERS

Tommy Solomon, 185-pound center, probably will play left end for the Pampa Harvesters against the Lawton Wolverines here Friday night. The announcement was made by Coach Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejean after the Harvesters had scrimmaged the Guerrillas yesterday afternoon.

With Solomon taken from center, that assignment will be in the hands of E. C. Giddens, who will play defensive tackle allowing Glen Nichols to back up the line as defensive guard, and Welby Parish to become line backer. Replacing the ineligible Bill Stiles at right guard will be Wayne Giddens, 153, although he is being pushed back by L. C. Bailey, 143, and Carroll Montgomery, 170, a former tackle.

Solomon looked promising in yesterday's workout and scrimmage. It will take him a little time to learn the end duties but his play yesterday showed that he has the ability to become an end if he works hard and faithfully.

The line changes will give the Harvester forward wall more weight. In fact, the line will be heavier than any since the 1935 aggregation. The average with Solomon and Andis, ends; Hessay and Nichols, tackles; Parish and Giddens, guards; Candler, center, will be 174½ pounds.

A midsize backfield, averaging an even 150 pounds, will work behind the line. Heavyweights in the backfield will be Bob Karr, 160, with Graham, 146; Kemp, 146, and Dunaway, 146, rounding out the ball totting department.

Dunaway reported for practice yesterday with an ankle injury and was kept on the sidelines. A. C. Miller and Grover Heiskell were used in his place during practice and the scrimmage with the Guerrillas.

Little hope on the Lawton Wolverines has been received. The team is undefeated in three starts and is the eleven that defeated Classen that defeated Amarillo.

T. C. U. HAS SIX LETTER ENDS FOR 1938

Coach Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian ought to get the job well done at ends. He is better fortified with lettermen for the wing positions than at any other spot. These six "T" wearers are all hot contenders for the first-string call, and all of them are likely to see considerable action before the season ends. Hensch, Jordan, Snow and Williams are all seniors; Horner and Looney are juniors.

PHILLIES GET MERRILL MAY FROM NEWARK

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 (AP)—The "New Deal" that Philadelphia's fabled Phillies hope to swing under their new manager, Dr. James T. (Doc) Prothro, was off to a fine start today with the acquisition of Merrill May, Newark third baseman and generally regarded as the "prize" of the big league draft meeting.

May has been one of the standouts of the "wonder team" of Newark Bears that has moved down the rest of the International league for the past two seasons. Since the Cubs bought Jimmy Gleason from the Bears some weeks ago, May has been the most talked of player, from a big league standpoint, in the International loop.

And the Phillies, notably President Gerry Nugent, stepped right up and picked him first crack out of the box at the annual draft meeting last night. May batted a neat .333 with the Bears during the regular 1938 season, and is still in the process of playing the Little World Series against Kansas City.

Along with May were drafted from the minors by 10 of the 16 big league clubs. Only the pennant winners—the Cubs and New York Yankees—the Boston Bees, New York Giants, Cincinnati Reds, and Cleveland Indians "passed" on every deal at the meeting.

Two well-liked veterans of the big league were brought back when the Washington Senators selected galleon Charley Gelbert, ex-St. Louis Cardinal infielder, from Toledo, and the Philadelphia Athletics picked Roy (Tarzan) Parmelee, former New York Giants, Cubs, and St. Louis Cardinals pitcher, from Minneapolis.

Parmelee was one of five picked by Connie Mack for the A's. The others were Pitcher Bill Beckman, who won 20 games for Atlanta; Bill Appert, former winner for Sacramento of the Pacific Coast league; Joe Gantenbein, Toronto third-sacker, and Bill Magli, infielder and outfielder from Baltimore.

Others selected were: By Philadelphia—Lagrange Scott, Indianapolis outfielder; by Chicago—By Brooklyn—Hugh Casey, Memphis pitcher, and Russ Evans, Jersey City hurler.

By St. Louis Cardinals—Jimmy Outlaw, Syracuse third baseman.

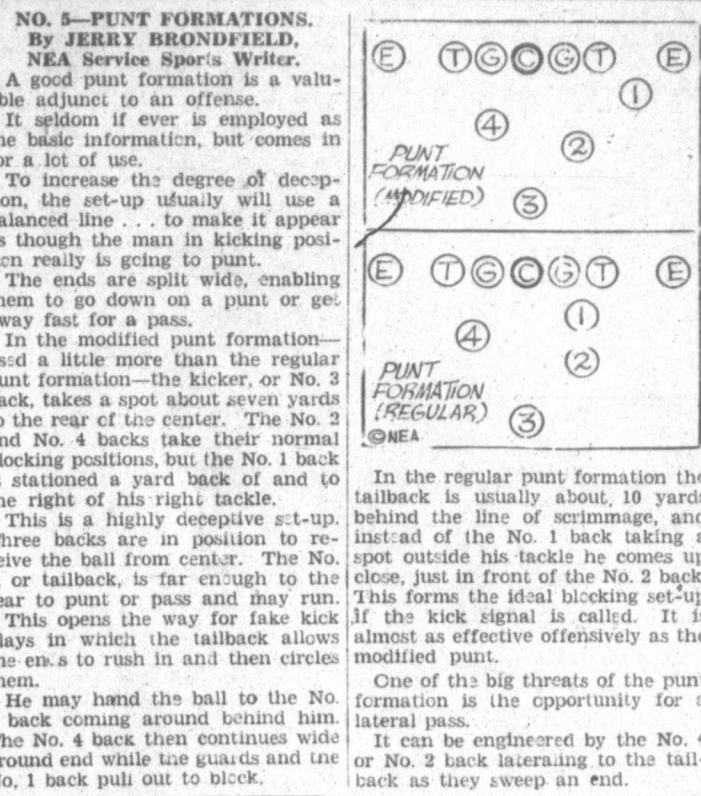

By Pittsburgh—Fern Bell, Louisville outfielder, and Jack Juelich, Rochester third-baseman.

By St. Louis Browns—Hal Spindell, St. Louis pitcher.

By Chicago White Sox—Art Herring, St. Paul pitcher.

By Detroit Tigers—James Lynn, Columbus pitcher.

How To See Football

To increase the degree of deception, the set-up usually will use a balanced line... to make it appear as though the man in kicking position really is going to punt.

The ends are split wide, enabling them to go down on a punt or get away fast for a pass.

In the modified punt formation—used a little more than the regular punt formation—the kicker, or No. 3, takes a spot about seven yards to the rear of his center. The No. 2 and No. 4 backs take their normal blocking positions, but the No. 1 back is stationed a yard back of and to the right of his right tackle.

This is a highly deceptive set-up. Three backs are in position to receive the ball from center. The No. 3, or tailback, is far enough to the rear to punt or pass and may run.

This opens the way for fake kick plays in which the tailback allows the ends to rush in and then circles them.

He may hand the ball to the No. 4 back coming around behind him. The No. 4 back then continues wide around end while the guards and the No. 1 back pull out to block.

HANER FORCED FROM LINEUP OF RICE OWLS

(By The Associated Press)

Two Southwest Conference football squads were on the way today and another leaves tonight for inter-sectional games that place them in the national limelight.

The Texas Christian University Horned Frogs, who meet Temple University at Philadelphia Friday night, departed yesterday and the Texas Aggies, who play the Sugar Bowl champions, Santa Clara, at San Francisco Saturday, left last night.

The Southern Methodist University Mustangs hop a train this evening bound for Chicago and their clash with Marquette Friday night.

Meanwhile the Baylor University Bears and Arkansas University Razorbacks dug in with a vim for their conference struggle at Fayetteville Saturday in which a new stadium will be dedicated.

Return to form of two players who had been on the injured list heartened Arkansas but Ralph Atwood, backfield letterman, was still ailing and will be unable to play.

Baylor showed up well at stopping Arkansas' ground attack as demonstrated by the freshmen and Bill Patterson was never better at churning passes. Durham Byrnes, veteran back nursed injuries.

The University of Texas Longhorns worked on defense against Oklahoma University plays which they will try to stop at Dallas Saturday. Indications were that Sophomore Nelson Puetz, Jr., would break into the line-up as a backfielder.

Injuries plagued the Rice Owls with Bill Haner and Andy Nobles, guards, being forced from the line-up. The Owls play Louisiana State at Baton Rouge Saturday.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BREITZ

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—Attention, 54, Louis Brouder, hundred of fans in Southern Illinois, are signing petitions asking that you give old Babe Ruth a whirl at managing the team next season.

All-America timber: Sid Luckman, Columbia, and Capt. Pete Powell, Navy, end... The latter, a book, seem to him as a great and he's tough meat on the defense, too... Helen Jacobs, the tennis star, is house-hunting in historic Virginia, but hasn't been able to find just what she wants yet... Tony Lazzeri, who knows every Yankee like a book, won't do his Cubs any harm in that bench today, believe you us.

Lou Nova, the coast heavyweight who upset Gunnar Barlund as well as every critic in town, will be brought back as soon as possible... Already he has agreed to fight Tommy Farr, Max Baer or Bob Pastor on December 16, and may be eased in before that... This is going away week for the Southwest Conference... Mileage of its six football teams will total around 6,000 miles... Only one conference club will play in Texas and it will do its stuff away from home... Join a Southwest Conference team and see the country... Tony Galento, booked in Philly Nov. 14, begins training in two more weeks.

It's really an Oregon team at the U. of Oregon this year... Nine of the 11 starters are natives... Well, guess you can say for us that Mr. Whizzer White was all they said he was... Mike Jacobs leaves for California Saturday to lock over prospects for a spring shot at Joe Louis... Pity poor Col. Rupert with all his millions, his brewery and his Fifth Avenue building... He has one ball club going into the World Series today and two more fighting it out for the "Little World Series"...

As for the Cannel, he's laid up with the gout and won't see a game... Ouch!

Fan Camps Week To Be First In Line

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 (AP)—The bleachers are the hardest of all baseball fans and the peer of them all at the moment is Arthur "Happy" Flesch of Milwaukee.

He made plans to attend the world series at Wrigley field while a lot of people were looking over the seating arrangements at Forbes field, home of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

At dawn today on the first day of the Cubs-Yankees argument the 31-year-old Flesch was first in line for a $1.10 bleacher ticket. No one challenged his right to the place. A fellow who camps in front of a ticket booth for seven days and nights is entitled to some consideration.

It was old stuff for Flesch. He's been the No. 1 waiter at the last

CHANGES IN KEY POSITIONS BRING QUICK GRID COMEBACKS

By DREW MIDDLETON

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—They come back quicker in football; a half-back declared eligible, a key lineman from last fall's frosh, the sudden maturity of a handful of players: Any of these can turn a mediocre team into a good one in a year's time.

Currently, Columbia, Michigan, Kentucky, Princeton, Brown and Southern California are hitting the comeback trail after sorry seasons in 1937.

Columbia, loked five times last year, is a grade A exhibit. The attack had added force and balance, mostly because of Art Radwalski, an end last year, has been shifted to the wing back position.

He is no Grange but he gives the Lions balance. Running on reverses to the short side, he balances Sid Luckman's strong side charges. Columbia should field one of the East's best offenses against Army Saturday.

Although Purdue and Wisconsin are bidding for glory in the Big Ten, Michigan is the outstanding comeback in that rugged sector. The "punt, pass and prayer" boys won four and lost four last year, fired Harry Kipke and hired Fritz Crisler, who had doctored Princeton's lagging fortunes.

Apparently he also has the medicine for Michigan. The Wolverines knocked over Michigan State, a tough customer in any league, and they should make it two straight against Chicago, Saturday.

Iowa, Wisconsin and Missouri are three world series played at Wrigley field.

The Milwaukeean ranks himself as a top flight club fan but apparently doesn't let sentiment run away with his judgment.

"I hope the Cubs win," said Felsch, reclining on an army cot, "but I think the Yanks will take 'em."

Yessir---That's a Lot of Mouth

Patsy, a cocker spaniel, turns a wary eye on the cavernous jaws of a 42-pound muskie and no doubt considers herself very lucky that the huge fish is beyond doing her any harm. The prize catch was landed by her master, Harry W. Mould of Buffalo, who brought in the 57½-inch beauty on an 18-pound test line in Lake Chautauqua, N. Y.

KOPECKY AND 'BUTCHER BOY' IN MAT FINAL

Sir Joseph Kopecky, the Taylor Texas colt'n picker, has been aimed for another main event at the Pampa athletic arena next Monday night. His opponent will be the Louisiana butcher boy, Jack Hagen. Kopecky will have a real test, when he meets Hagen.

He really turned on the steam Monday when he defeated the terrible Shiek MarAllah. Joe had to use all his mat tricks, and showed he still had plenty on the ball, in spite of the fact that he has been knocking some of the best boys in the game over, for about 20 years.

Jack Hagen was anxious to sign for the match, as he knows a win over Kopecky will put him up as one of the best wrestlers in the Panhandle. Hagen lives up to his name of "The Butcher Boy." This moniker was given him by a New York Times sports writer a few years ago and has stuck with him ever since. He met a tough man in Gust Johnson last Monday, but he got none the worst of it in battling him to a draw.

For the semi-final entertainment, Walter Stratton will be in there against the very likeable Swede, Gust Johnson. Stratton holds three world and seven U. S. championships in weight lifting. He won the Olympic meets in the middleweight class. He returned after a successful tour of the East, where he has met some of the top-notchers.

A preliminary will be announced later. Reservations can be obtained at the Cretney Drug. The opening bout will start promptly at 8 o'clock throughout the season.

Grimm Will Pass Up World Series

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 (AP)—Charley Grimm, deposed as manager of the Chicago Cubs late in July, is passing up the 1938 World Series opener.

The former Cub leader, now a radio sports announcer, said on his arrival from St. Louis yesterday he didn't plan to watch the Cubs and Yankees.

"I just can't enjoy any game where I don't have anything to do," he said.

Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis barred Grimm from broadcasting the series on the ground he might be partial to his former mates.

Grimm declared he was "not sore" because the Cubs failed to vote him a share of the series spoils.

"Frankly," he said, "I never expected to be cut in. They won that pennant for Gabby Hartnett and I had nothing to do with it. I don't believe an ex-manager is entitled to any dough."

Reapers To Play White Deer 2nd String Thursday

With the Reapers and Sophomores both without games in the Panhandle Junior High league this week, coaches are trying to match exhibition games. The Guerrillas will go to Stinnet for a game Friday afternoon.

Coach Oscar Hinger of the Reapers this morning scheduled a game with the White Deer second string for Thursday night and Coach Jack Davis of the Sophomores is trying to match the Panhandle second string for Friday afternoon.

The Guerrillas will be under direction of Coach Bruce Barton when they invade Stinnet, home of the tough club according to reports.

While the Guerrillas scrimmaged the Harvesters on one end of the field yesterday, the Reapers and Sophomores battled on about even terms in another scrimmage on the other end. Both lineups have been revamped after losses last week and play was much improved. Coaches expect to announce their new line-up after a workout today.

Long Lived The King... But It Was a Hard Life

All Europe marveled at the pomp and splendor of Louis Fourteenth. Yet, in all his 77 years, the French King had no refrigerator, fans or telephone... no radio or movies... no inflated tires on his gaudy coach.

We live better... far beyond the dreams of our pioneers... in a land of peace, coddled by science and invention... strengthened by the knowledge that this land of ours will always offer ample rewards to those with faith in the foundations laid down by our forefathers... faith in our national destiny... faith in themselves.

CAST OF CHARACTERS MYRNA DOMBEY—heroin. Wife of the sensational swing band leader...

Yesterday: Myrna disappears immediately after Dombey is shot and Tait realizes who must be found or the police will suspect her.

CHAPTER III

REACHING the entrance of the Golden Bowl, Bob Tait found the big doors closed tight. A persistent knocking conjured up the red face of Detective Officer Michael Dunphy.

"Hello, Mike," Tait greeted him. "How's chances to get in?" "In it? You're the first one that's been wanting to get in. The rest have been wanting to get out."

The great Bowl was empty now save a comparatively small knot of people down near the orchestra platform. Tait recognized the back of Detective Officer Dannie Feeley, the most persistent of the force from down at headquarters.

"Where're all the rest of the mob, Mike?" "Don't worry," said Michael Dunphy. "Dannie has watched that. They're upstairs, the women in one room and the men in another, and they're being frisked for suspicious belongings."

The worst of it is, about 50 or 75 got out of here right after it happened." The detective sighed wearily. "We don't know where they went—'an' we don't know, furthermore, who they are. A fine kettle of fish."

"Well," Tait answered good-humoredly, "there's nothing like getting in a lot of probable suspects if you're going to commit a murder."

"Yeah, I saw a movie once where a murder was committed at a football game." "That was worse than this, anyhow."

"WAS it now?" denied Mike Dunphy. "Say, that was pie compared with this! At least guys at football games talk sense. I can't understand a word those band players say. That little guy there with the clarinet. The detective raised his voice to mimic the clarinet player."

"If never saw the loamest feelin' better," this little guy tells Dannie. "He was in the groove tonight. He was sending it out of the agony pipe like nobody's business. That's the way they talk!"

Tait laughed. "That's the language of swing music, Mike. Know what they call the dancers?" "No, I do not."

"Jitterbugs—and whackies. Sometimes they call them ickies." Michael Dunphy's blue eyes widened. "Well, I hope the saints preserve us! Where they talk like that, anything could happen! Jitterbugs is right!"

"Don't let it get you down," Tait advised. "Remember you lived through the jazz age."

"Not only that, I lved through it way back to when they were Turkey Trotting. But I wasn't no jitterbug." Dunphy looked over at his cohort, questioning the band. "Funny thing, the dame he married just before it happened—she skipped out. That looks mighty queer."

Tait pretended not to hear. He sauntered toward the group, began listening to the questions that Dannie Feeley was harking out. The boys in the band seemed obviously broken. If their expressions and voices could be depended upon, they had worshiped Ludden Dombey. And Bob Tait had reason to believe that this was a fact.

"All right," said Feeley, then. "You boys can go on home now. But I'll be wanting you. Don't forget that."

Tait heard the smooth, well-modulated voice of Harris Rogers. "I'll be glad to stay, Officer Feeley. As manager of the band and Mr. Dombey's personal affairs I can probably answer any questions the boys could."

"That's enough for now," Feeley said. "The question I want answered right now is why Dombey's brand-new wife isn't here."

TAIT saw Rogers smiling toward him. "Perhaps Bob Tait can answer that one. I believe I saw them together just after it happened."

Feeley whirled. "Hello, Bob. Is that a fact? Did you see Mrs. Dombey?"

"Yes, I was at the table with her and her friend—and Rogers here."

"What happened to her afterward?" Feeley wanted to know. "I took her to the ladies' lounge. She was pretty well hit, naturally. Then I asked her friend, Anne Lester, to look after her. I imagine they went on to the apartment they shared."

Feeley studied Tait a moment. He seemed annoyed, and attempting to hide that annoyance. "You know the address?"

Tait gave it to him, and Feeley yelled toward the doleful Mike Dunphy. "Did you hear that, Mike? Get up there and see if the two women are there. If they are, just hang around until I come along later."

"You bet, Dannie." Dunphy disappeared into the hallway. As casually as his trembling fingers would permit, Bob Tait lit a cigaret. "I'll drift along, Dannie. If you need me for anything, I'll be around."

Feeley looked scornful. "If I need you, I'll be in a bad fix, Mr. Tait." But there was the hint of a lilt in Feeley's voice. He had always liked Bob Tait, and they had naturally encountered each other often.

"Good night, Rogers." The manager of The Swingsters nodded. "So long, Tait. Thanks for taking care of Mrs. Dombey."

The remark nettled Tait. He wondered, a little angrily, if Harris Rogers felt that his job of managing The Swingsters went on to managing Lud Dombey's widow. He didn't care for the proprietary air Rogers had shown; and, above all, he didn't like the way Rogers had set Feeley on him.

BUT there was little time to think about that now. The moment Tait was out of sight of Feeley and Rogers he took to his heels in earnest. A half minute later he was at the curb, his hand on the handle of a taxi door.

"Claremont Apartments," he ordered. "And I'm in a real rush."

He hoped that Mike Dunphy was still at the cigar stand, choosing a favorite smoke before starting for the Claremont Apartments. And if Mike ran true to form, that was where he was.

He hoped something else, too—and fervently. It was that he'd find Myrna at the apartment. There'd be plenty to explain to Feeley if she hadn't shown up there. And if she was there Tait wanted to talk to her—talk to her before Dunphy and Feeley arrived to badger her into saying things she didn't mean.

"I suppose I'm nuts," he told himself. "I ought to keep out of this."

But he knew that he wasn't going to keep out of it. (To Be Continued)

New Zephyr Train Will Serve Texas

PORT WORTH, Oct. 5.—The ninth member of the Burlington Railroad Zephyr fleet of streamlined trains was announced today by the passenger traffic department of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway company.

Now under construction by the Edward C. Budd Manufacturing company in Chicago, the new train, when completed, will go into the Kansas City-St. Louis service, supplanting the present Ozark State Zephyr but carrying the same name. The new train will join the San Houston and will team in daily round-trip service, Dallas-Fort Worth and Houston.

Fluorescent illumination, a new type of indirect lighting, will be used on the new Zephyr for the first time. It was recently developed by the General Electric company.

The new four-car unit, 333 feet long, will have electro-motive coporation power equipment, a 1,000 power General Motors Diesel engine with 12 cylinders, of 8 1-2 inch bore and 10-inch stroke, and each car in the new train will be lighted, air-conditioned and heated by a self-contained unit located on that car.

WELLES URGES PACT TO STOP AIR-BOMBINGS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The state department watched today for reaction from abroad to Undersecretary Sumner Welles' declaration that arms limitation and world economic reconstruction are needed for international stability.

In a broadcast address, Welles said last night these were "the great underlying needs of today, the solution of which becomes daily more necessary."

Together with arms limitation and reduction, Welles said, there should be "a world wide agreement to cease for all time attacks on civilian populations by air-bombing and by gas."

The undersecretary of state gave a hint whether this government was considering taking the initiative in calling conferences on these subjects.

He said, however, that "today, perhaps more than at any time during the past two decades, there is presented the opportunity for the establishment by the nations of the world of a new world order based upon justice and upon law."

He added that peace could come only from observance of the pledged word, from non-intervention in the internal affairs of other countries, from the settlement of disputes and revision of treaties by peaceful negotiation, and from respect for the just rights of others.

Welles, who spoke on the Washington Evening Star radio forum, also gave the story of President Roosevelt's appeals for peace during the German-Czechoslovakian crisis.

He disclosed: 1—The President's direct appeal to Premier Mussolini to use his good offices with Chancellor Hitler was communicated in substance to the Italian government two hours before Mussolini telephoned Hitler asking him to continue negotiations.

2—"Information of unquestioned authenticity" had been received by this government that two o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, Sept. 28, had been fixed for the entrance of the German armies into Czechoslovakia.

3—The administration was convinced that war in Europe was imminent.

Berlin Looks For Prosperity Upsurge

BERLIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Hopes are high among Berlin political and economic theorists that the world may look forward to an upsurge of prosperity, now that the war scare has dwindled.

They argue that the Munich four-power accord on peace restored confidence among European nations.

Germany will profit from the industries and raw materials received by absorption of Czechoslovak Sudetenland, one informed economic spokesman acknowledged today.

The nation already has begun plans to link the newly acquired industries with the German four-year plan for economic independence.

Other nations, too, can benefit, the Germans say. They believe the way is open to settlement of questions on colonies, world monies and international indebtedness.

Sharks Abundant Off Texas Coast

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Due to an abundance of sharks in the Gulf waters off the Texas coast, the State Planning Board has been investigating the possibilities of the "shark industry."

Board officials said today they had found a ready market for shark liver oil, shark skins and teeth and other parts of the feared salt water denizen.

E. A. Wood, board director, said a California biochemical laboratory was interested in the possibility of large scale production of shark liver oil for medicinal purposes while several Eastern concerns said they were on the market for skins to convert into leather.

The investigation was undertaken at the instance of Rep. Howard Harzog of Port Lavaca.

Charged With Stealing Rare Stamps

Marked money taken from the till of her stamp-dealer employer led to the arrest of Mrs. Anna Krunda Gruelich and her husband, Francis, both shown above in court, and to the discovery of a system of wholesale theft of rare stamps, police say. Employed for thirteen years by Captain G. W. Nowell-Ustieck, millionaire New York stamp dealer, Mrs. Gruelich allegedly stole stamps from her employer to give to her husband who operated a number of stamp shops under different names. The couple were found in possession of $100,000 worth of stolen stamps.

AFL EXPECTED TO TURN DOWN FOR APPEAL

HOUSTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—American Federation of Labor leaders, well informed sources said today, may reply indirectly to President Roosevelt's appeal for labor peace by disapproving a resolution calling on the 58th annual convention to order reopening of the unity conference with John L. Lewis' CIO.

The resolution, submitted by delegates from the Hotel and Restaurant Employees International Alliance, demanded that the CIO peace negotiations broken off last December be renewed immediately.

It also asked the A. F. of L. recognize the policy of industrial unionism advocated by CIO Chairman Lewis for mass production industries.

Any possibility that the resolutions committee might approve the resolution was virtually exploded yesterday by William Green, the federation's president.

"Overtures for a peace conference should and ought to come from the CIO," Green told newspapermen. "There is no immediate prospect for peace and nothing for us to do but wait."

Green's comment was prompted by a message of good wishes to the convention from Mr. Roosevelt in which he expressed the hope the door to peace would be left open and warned of the reaction which might injure all workers if the labor war went on.

Questioned at a press conference about the possibility the White House letter had opened the way for Mr. Roosevelt to become an influential mediator in the CIO-A. F. of L. quarrel, Green replied that he did not interpret it that way.

"I don't consider the suggestion by the President as indicating a disposition on his part to interfere," Green said. "But if the President would submit a definite proposal I would place it before the executive council at once."

Green expressed the opinion that the council's reaction to any such proposal would be "favorable" because it would come from the nation's chief executive.

The A. F. of L. leader, however, failed to exhibit any enthusiasm for mediation of the three year old controversy. He said he doubted the questions involved were susceptible by Boston Red Sox—Wayman Kerkseick, Little Rock pitcher.

BUY SURPLUS MILK, BUTTER

Expanding its efforts to relieve the dairy products market of surplus supplies, the government will buy 10 million more pounds of butter and 67 cars of dry skim milk.

Since June 16, about 70 million pounds of butter, which represents more than a third of current storage stocks, have been purchased in an endeavor to stabilize marketing conditions.

The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation will spend $119,282 for 2,861,340 pounds of dry skim milk which will be distributed among people on relief.

CORN CONTROVERSY

AAA officials, who said they spoke unofficially, replied today to assertions made by the Corn Belt Liberty League that "allotments made under the new farm act force the breaking up of fields, thus increasing the cost of tilling land, causing extravagance and inefficiency."

In an emphatic statement released exclusively through the Farm News Exchange the officials, speaking without having consulted Secretary Wallace or Administrator Wallace, said that in most cases the allotments do not encourage splitting fields.

The AAA officials said: "The acreage allotments in the vast majority of cases represent a better balanced system of farming than a system that would result in a higher percentage of land in soil-depleting crops."

"In most cases the allotments do not even encourage splitting fields," they added.

COTTON QUOTAS

Assurance that the marketing quota provisions of the Federal Farm Act will not interfere with normal movement of cotton to market has been given planters by the AAA.

POULTRY AND EGGS

The outlook for poultry and eggs, according to the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics, is for chicken prices to continue at low levels relative to last year and for egg prices to increase in relation to 1937.

The feed-egg price ratio is expected to continue favorable, due to the prospective large supplies of feed grains and the advancing price of eggs.

REJECT POTATO PROGRAM

Although a majority of potato growers voting in a referendum in 15 states favored a federal potato marketing program, the vote fell short of the two-thirds margin necessary for its adoption.

More than 85 per cent of the 17,000 producers cast favorable votes, but this number was 1.5 per cent under the required majority.

In nine of the 15 states, the percentage of favorable votes was more than two-thirds, while in six states the program received less than a two-thirds affirmative.

1939 CORN ACREAGE

If this year's corn crop turns out as forecast in August, acreage allotments next year will be about the same as they were for 1938, H. R. Tolley, Agricultural Adjustment Administrator says.

Details of the 1939 planting program will not be announced until after the October crop report, he says.

America Likely To Miss Czech Trade

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The commerce department said today Czechoslovakia was one of the few major customers of the United States to buy more American merchandise in August than in the same month last year.

The republic, whose purchasing power may be affected seriously by the transfer of its highly industrialized Sudetenland to Germany, bought $1,223,000 worth of goods in this country in August, compared with $1,070,000 in the same month last year.

The Netherlands and Russia were other major customers to increase purchases.

Sales from Czechoslovakia to the United States slackened in August to $2,853,000, compared with $3,767,000 in August 1937.

Chinese Junk Docks Near Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5 (AP)—There were times, Dr. E. Allen Peterson admitted today, when he and his crew wished they had never started their 85-day crossing of the Pacific in a frail Chinese junk.

Refreshed after the first night in nearly three months spent in a bed which remained horizontal, instead of "bobbing around like a cork," the 37-year-old osteopath who turned sea captain recalled experiences of his voyage from the Orient to Southern California—much of it spent battling whales and fog.

In fact he said, like a true native son, he was off the coast of California before he struck really good weather.

Dr. Peterson, with his bride, Tane, California-born Japanese, consummated a long ambition when he brought the 36-foot junk Hummel-Hummel into San Pedro yesterday with two Russian youths, Nick Permannoff and Victor Ermoloff, as crewmen.

Fog was their biggest problem, the doctor said, for after two sunny days out of Yokohama, they went through a month of murky gloom, seeing neither sun nor stars.

'Psychopeds' Don't Go Home And Beat Up On Their Wives

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 (AP)—These world series was being peace to the "psychopeds."

This may sound like a paradox—what with ultra-rapid baseball fans blowing off emotional steam by crushing derbies, throwing scorecards and cushions and calling umpires anything from "robbers" to "dirty bums"—but it's true, nonetheless, Dr. Robert N. McMurry, psychologist, said today.

"A 'psychoped,' said Dr. McMurry by way of definition, is a person who has never entirely outgrown his capacity for adolescent enthusiasms and rivalries, a person who lets his emotions run away with him—in his domestic and political life as well as in the sphere of sports.

Dr. McMurry's reasoning was something like this: A man who gives vent of his emotions at a ball game isn't likely to go home and beat up his wife or commit any other crime because his mental "explosion" at the ball park has acted as an emotional safety valve.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Policeman Martin Harrington waved at the driver of the big limousine not to make a right turn at busy State and Randolph Streets.

The rush-hour traffic din smothered the cop's shouting, and Boston leaned out. "I can't hear you."

"I was saying," the policeman bellowed, "that you can't make a right turn here."

"And now I'm saying, you stopped your car on my left foot. It hurts. Drive on."
