

Damage Mounts as Efforts Fail to Halt Offshore Oil Leak

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI)—Tons of gummy, acidic crude oil transformed 12 miles of white beaches into a strip of black ooze today. Oil company officials admitted it could take two more weeks to stem a leak from an offshore well.

The slick in the Pacific which grew more vast by the hour as thousands of gallons of oil boiled to the surface from fissures on the ocean floor.

While oilworkers struggled around the clock to seal the well beneath Union Oil Co. of California's platform A, six miles offshore, more than 100 inmates from state conservation camps toiled on the beaches to sop up the slimy mess with straw.

The initial effort to stem the flow of oil with oil mud—a chemical compound which hardens like concrete—failed Wednesday and today hampered another attempt would be made today.

If the mud fails to seal the well, the only alternative is a relief shaft now being sunk. The drilling of it will take at least two weeks.

Stiff easterly winds were expected to continue through Friday. Intermittent rain Wednesday and today hampered crews on the beaches who dumped straw on the sand to absorb the oil and then raked it into bags.

Sea gulls, their feathers smeared jet black with oil, flopped on the gummy sand unable to fly. At least 106 of the birds were known to have died of the more than 200 brought to three treatment centers, and hundreds of others went uncounted by state Fish and Game officials.

Following an aerial survey of the slick Wednesday the department said officials had observed "no adverse effects on the marine environment" from the oil.

NATION NOT TO RUN Carlson, Cree File for Posts

By RON CROSS
Pampa Mayor Jim Nation announced today he would not seek re-election but would give his support to the man who filed for the position today.

Milo Carlson, 50, of 2211 Charles, filed for the office of mayor this forenoon in City Secretary Stanley Chittenden's office.

George B. Cree, Jr., 48, of 1912 Charles, also tossed his hat into the political ring when he filed for councilman in Ward I today and the current councilman in that ward, Dr. MacField McDaniel, said he would not seek re-election.

Mayor Nation, who has served four years as mayor, and served one term as a councilman before that, said he would not seek re-election but would give Carlson his wholehearted support.

"I think that we are very fortunate to have a man of Milo Carlson's ability and attitude to run for mayor and I will support him," Nation stated.

"I personally would like to thank the people of Pampa for their cooperation the past four years and I have enjoyed serving them," Mayor Nation said.

Carlson has been a resident of Pampa and the area since 1927. This is his second time to seek an elective office.

He ran for the Pampa school board in the 1950s but was called out of town and was not elected.

Carlson is a gasoline plant and booster station contractor and was recently elected president of the Adobe Walls Council Boy Scouts of America.

"I think Pampa has a very healthy situation and I would like to see it continue and elected I will do my best to see that it does continue," Carlson stated.

Cree, current president of the Chamber of Commerce, and a resident of Pampa since 1930, is making his first venture into politics.

Pueblo Court of Inquiry May Reach Higher Ranks

Nixon To Leave On Five-Nation Tour of Europe

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon announced today he would leave Feb. 23 for a five-nation visit to America's European allies. He said he hoped the visit would help "strengthen and revitalize" the U.S. relations with its NATO partners.

Nixon told his second presidential news conference that he planned to talk with the U.S. negotiating team at the Paris peace talks and also visit Pope Paul VI on the trip.

The visit, his first outside the country since becoming President, will take him to six cities — Brussels, London, Berlin, Bonn, Rome and Paris.

Nixon said in reply to a question that he did not see any possibility at this time that he would meet with Communist negotiators while in Paris. He said he did not rule out such a meeting later if Henry Cabot Lodge, the chief U.S. negotiator, or other U.S. officials thought it wise.

He said he wanted to get from Lodge a complete report on the progress of the negotiations and any recommendations Lodge or his team might have, "with regard to new initiatives" the United States might take in the peace talks.

"I think we've made a good start in Paris, incidentally," Nixon said. "I believe we can now move forward to some substantive achievements."

PRESIDENTIAL PET — The Chief Executive is taken for a walk on the White House grounds by "King Timahoe," the 6-month-old Irish setter given to the President by his staff. Perhaps Nixon's other canines (inset) Vicky, a French poodle, and "Pasha," a Yorkshire terrier, are wondering who will be "top dog."

Bucher's Attorney To Explore 'Top Drawer'

By JACK V. FOX
CORONADO, Calif. (UPI) — The Navy Court of Inquiry into the loss of the USS Pueblo may reach much higher in the military and civilian hierarchy, possibly to former Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, to determine ultimate responsibility, it was disclosed today.

E. Miles Harvey, the civilian attorney for skipper Lloyd M. Bucher, told newsmen he would call other witnesses of higher rank than have appeared if he felt it was necessary to clear Cmdr. Bucher's name.

Harvey specified no particular future witnesses.

It was considered possible, however, that a request for an appearance might be made to Adm. Ulysses S. Grant Sharp, at the time commander in chief Pacific; Adm. Thomas Moorer, chief of naval operations, and even McNamara.

All the witnesses appearing before the board of five admirals have been called by the Navy. Bucher will have his turn at rebuttal later.

He has been warned, although the Navy emphasizes that it is routine, that he is suspected of giving up his ship and men without resistance. But he contends he did not have the means to resist when North Korean gunboats closed around his intelligence ship on Jan. 23, 1968.

On Wednesday officers of his ship went down the line to defend their skipper's action and character.

One young officer said: "I would follow him anywhere."

Another said: "Without Cmdr. Bucher, we never would have made it through 41 months in captivity."

Bucher's engineering officer said he agreed with the commander's decision not to try to scuttle the Pueblo because it would have taken hours.

Appearing before the court Wednesday were three crewmen — Chief Warrant Officer Gene H. Lacy, the engineering officer; Lt. (j.g.) Timothy Harris, supply officer, and Lt. (j.g.) Fredrick C. "Skip" Schumacher, operations officer.

There was not a word of disagreement during the day of testimony with Bucher's decision to surrender his ship.

Tobacco Industry Braces to Fight Ad Ban Proposal

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The tobacco industry braced today for a fight to the death over Federal Communications Commission (FCC) proposal to bar cigarette advertising from radio and television.

The impact—if the ban were to go into effect—was beyond immediate grasp. It raised questions as to what would happen to:

The nation's smokers, who light so many cigarettes that averages cut to 4,195 for every man, woman and child each year.

The nation's health, for which there are government estimates that a third of all deaths of men between 35 and 60 are related to cigarettes.

The tobacco farmers, who raise the nation's No. 4 or 5 cash crop.

The radio-television industry, where tobacco firms spend $312 million a year in advertising.

Many barriers stood between the FCC proposal of Wednesday and the actual banning of cigarette advertising from the air waves. First, Congress, which has a strong contingent of tobacco country congressmen, must let a 1965 law, which (See TOBACCO, Page 3)

HEARINGS END Committee Selecting Schools' Textbooks

By WANDA MAE HUFF
News Staff Writer
Pampa School District's textbook committee and its advisors completed hearings Wednesday with textbook publishing firm representatives and will select new school books by Feb. 24.

"Since Monday we have met with representatives from school book publishing firms to study the content and organization of books they submitted to the Texas Education Agency for adoption," Mrs. Marjorie Gaut, elementary consultant for Pampa schools, said.

The first process in textbook adoption is for TEA to know which books have become obsolete, which adoption contracts have run out. Then all publishing firms in Texas submit books in that subject to TEA for consideration, she stated.

"TEA appoints a state textbook committee which studies all books submitted by publishers," Mrs. Gaut said. "They select five which meet the standards for quality of content and organization and submit this list to local districts. This whole process takes about a year before we consider the TEA choices."

"To keep from having to select new books in all subjects at every adoption period, the subjects are staggered. Usually an adoption contract lasts from four to six years, except for the first and second grade books."

"We get new and different books every year in the first and second grade because these are consumable. Since these are paperback, the children use them to write in like workbooks," she said.

The committee plans to adopt all books submitted by TEA, but will select only one to teach. Even if Pampa schools are not teaching a subject with a book on the list, the committee will adopt it, in case the district decides to teach the subject later, she said.

"After the Pampa committee makes its choice, it will send a list to the TEA. The teachers' additions will arrive here this spring, for teachers to study. Students' books will arrive here late next summer in time to be processed for the Fall (See COMMITTEE, Page 3)

Hilton Continues Fight on County

Pampa contractor Earl Hilton continued his battle with Gray County Commissioners Thursday and said that he had contacted a lawyer in Austin after conferring with the State Attorney General's office.

"We were advised by the attorney general's office that we would have to hire a lawyer and I have talked with one in Austin," Hilton said.

Hilton said the injunction he plans to file against commissioners Joe Clark and Hershel Wilks would be filed in district court.

Gray County Judge Sherman Lenning Jr. said Thursday that he was aware of Hilton's intentions and "that's his prerogative."

"As far as the county is concerned the matter is closed and Panhandle Packing Co. was duly billed and paid the bill for work done by the county," Lenning stated.

The furor arose when Hilton charged the county with using its equipment to do work on private property.

Hilton further became angry when Panhandle Packing Co., where the work was done, was given a bill by the county for $619.

Hilton claimed the bill should have been much larger and said he felt Pampa contractors who did the same kind of work would be run out of business since they could not work that cheap.

US Lists 1,000th Helicopter Loss

SAIGON (UPI)—Ground fire downed the 1,000th U.S. helicopter lost in South Vietnam during the war, military spokesmen said today. An American B52 bomber trying to prevent buildup for a new Communist offensive raided all four regions of the country.

In Saigon, the U.S. command announced American battlefield deaths last week were the greatest in seven weeks. And military spokesmen said Communist forces sustained their heaviest losses in four months.

During the week ending last Saturday, the spokesmen said, 198 Americans died on Vietnam battlefields and another 1,549 were wounded. The losses were the highest since the week ending Dec. 14 when 222 were killed. Communist losses last week were placed at 3,190, the largest number of killed since 3,398 died during the week ending Sept. 28, 1968.

'Extreme Emergency' Declared at Berkeley

By United Press International
At the University of California at Berkeley, where a student strike has resulted in a score of arrests and clashes with police, a state of "extreme emergency" has been declared.

At the University of Chicago, where the administration has chosen to ignore the students occupying its Administration Building for more than a week, "a kind of demoralization" has thinned student protest ranks.

Today, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical College administrators have the opportunity to choose which course of action it will follow. About 200 students have begun an occupation of the predominantly Negro college's Administration Building.

Students at the University of Chicago, Queens College in New York City, Western Illinois University and Wisconsin State University at Oshkosh have scheduled meetings to determine a course of action in dramatizing their complaints.

Getting no reaction from the administration to their sit-in, the University of Chicago students called for a mass meeting today to discuss the possibility of a student strike.

Gov. Ronald Reagan declared the "extreme emergency" on the Berkeley campus, although the campus was relatively quiet Wednesday.

Of the five demands presented at North Carolina A&T by representatives of the 200 protesting students of the 3,900 — mainly Negro — enrollment, four were common complaints about grading and testing. The fifth was a demand the school's Humanities Department be "Black oriented" by September, offering courses in black art, music and poetry.

Lodge, VC Argue Over DMZ Line

PARIS (UPI)—U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said today the United States does "not regard the 17th parallel as a permanent political boundary" marking two Vietnams.

Addressing his remarks to the Communist side in the third session of the Paris peace conference, Lodge was seeking to undermine Communist arguments against restoration of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ), the six-mile-wide buffer zone which runs roughly along the 17th parallel.

Lodge spoke after North Vietnamese delegation leader Xuan Thuy had once again rejected the U.S. proposal that both sides respect the DMZ as a first step towards peace.

Lodge was the third speaker at the peace meeting, held in the French Foreign Ministry's International Conference Center. Today's meeting was the third since the conference officially opened on Jan. 25.

Gonzales Fires New Blast At Networks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, D-Tex., fired the latest blast in his running battle with CBS Wednesday when he introduced a bill to license television networks as a control on their reliability and responsibility.

Gonzales got angry last year when the network aired the program "Hunger in America" that depicted what purported to be the death of a Texas baby from hunger.

Gonzales asked for a retraction but he said CBS responded by rebroadcasting and promoting the show.

Israel Balks At Proposal by U.S.

By United Press International
Israel balked today at a U.S. proposal for Ege Four preliminary talks that would investigate the possibility of a Middle East settlement. A spokesman called once more for a signed peace settlement reached through Israeli-Arab negotiations.

Sirhan Jurors To Be Locked Up After Testimony Starts

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The murder trial of Jordanian immigrant Sirhan B. Sirhan seemed to take on a relaxed atmosphere once the jury was sworn in Wednesday.

Four alternates—two women and two men—tentatively were sitting in the back row of the seated after the regular panel of eight men and four women was sworn in by Superior Court Judge Herbert V. Walker.

Sirhan smiled broadly when he stood up to be introduced to 14 prospective alternate jurors. He grinned at his mother, Mrs. Mary Sirhan, and two brothers, Adel and Munir, who were eighth floor courtroom in the Hall of Justice.

The jury which will decide the fate of the tiny Sirhan was sworn in by Walker minutes after the court convened. The panel will be locked up every night after six alternate jurors are picked and testimony starts.

Chosen as tentative alternates Wednesday were Warren W. Willis, an aircraft maintenance foreman for United Air Lines; Marshall Wolfe, a switchboard operator for the Los Angeles County Department of Water and Power; Mrs. Georgia M. Liddle, the wife of an El Monte, Calif., mail carrier, and Ruth A. Stillman, an insurance adjuster.

Cooper issued a challenge for cause against Willis but it was denied by Walker.

"Do you favor the death penalty for willful, deliberate and premeditated murder?" the defense attorney asked Willis. The prospective alternate replied, "Yes, sir."

Although Cooper's challenge for cause was rejected, he may choose exercise his peremptory challenge.

The seating of tentative alternates continued today.

Nixon Will Scrap Old Political Patronage Picking of Postmasters

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Ever since the days when Ben Franklin ran the Post Office Department, postmasters across the country have sometimes been picked more for whom they knew than what they knew. President Nixon announced Wednesday he will try to change that, by scrapping the old political patronage methods and opening the jobs to competitive examinations.

The plan prompted immediate praise in Congress, but there were some—including Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine—who expressed doubts that politics could ever be eliminated from the postal system.

Under the system that has existed since Franklin's tenure as the republic's first postmaster general, postmasters for all but fourth-class post offices are appointed directly by the postmaster general, the postmasters usually on the recommendation of a member of Congress.

There are about 33,000 postmasters and more than 31,000 rural carriers in the country. About 1,600 new postmasters are named every year.

Under Nixon's system, the top three scorers in open competitive examinations for postmaster and rural carrier jobs would be certified to the Post Office Department and then the postmaster general would decide which of the three get the job.

Postmaster General Winton M. Blount said the new system would go into effect immediately. The first to be hit, apparently, are the 451 postmaster nominations former President Lyndon B. Johnson made just before leaving office. Nixon has pulled those nominations back.

Hobo Questioned After House Fire

A 50-year-old hobo from Illinois was questioned by Pampa police Wednesday night following a fire that destroyed a house at 218 W. Craven.

The fire was discovered by officer Trent Bolin while on routine patrol. Bolin notified the fire department but the blaze had already started to spread before firemen arrived.

Officer Norman Neece remembered seeing the man near the scene and searched box cars near the Santa Fe Depot.

Neece and Bolin found the hobo in one of the cars and questioned him at police headquarters but no charge was filed.

At Tay Ninh, the province capital near the Cambodian border 50 miles northwest of Saigon, informed Allied military sources said today the North Vietnamese have started to build permanent, uncamouflaged base camps in Cambodia for the first time in the war.

Wednesday, American intelligence sources said captured Communist documents contained orders for major attacks during the Tet, or lunar new year holiday, which starts Feb. 17.

In a war communique issued today, military spokesmen said there was only light, scattered action in Vietnam. They said 13 Communist troops were killed in a clash in the Mekong Delta and another 12 Red soldiers died in fighting near the northern coast. There were no American casualties, they said.

Mid-America Will Expand Pipeline Pumping Capacity

Proposed expansion of the LPG Pipe Line System was confirmed today by Robert E. Thomas, Tulsa, Okla., president of Mid-America Pipeline Co. in announcing a $2 billion, two-year program.

The expansion will include enlarging the propane pumping capacity from 84,000 to 132,000 barrels daily in the segment from Skellytown west of Pampa, to Conway, Kan.; and from Conway to Whiting, La., from 52,000 to 85,000 barrels.

Early in 1970, Thomas added, the pumping capacity out of Hobbs, N.M., is to be increased to 105,000 barrels daily from the present 55,000 barrels. From Conway, Kan. to Kearney, Mo., the capacity will be 83,000 barrels compared to the current 53,000 barrels.

The expansion, Thomas noted, provides only for cigarette labelling, expire June 30. Then, the FCC must formally enact its proposal. And along the way at every stage, there was sure to be tremendous controversy.

Chairman Rosel H. Hyde told a news conference the FCC voted 6 to 1 in favor of the proposed restrictions on the ground that smoking causes "an epidemic of death and disabilities."

Hyde cited Health, Education and Welfare Department statistics showing there were 50,000 deaths a year from lung cancer and 25,000 deaths from emphysema and chronic bronchitis, and that a third of all deaths of men between 35 and 60 were related to cigarette smoking.

"In the face of this kind of information, we believe action is called for," Hyde said.

The major tobacco firms, R. J. Reynolds, American, Lorillard and Philip Morris, declined immediate comment.

The tobacco industry was expected to defend itself with a large contingency of tobacco country congressmen on Capitol Hill, and two key lobbyists—former Sen. Earle C. Clement of Kentucky, president of the Tobacco Institute Inc., and former four-term Rep. Horace Kornegay of North Carolina, the institute's vice president.

'Spark' Your Special Sweetheart With This Valentine Pie

A new pie to win Valentine hearts.

NEA Food Editor

Here's a new prize pie aimed to bring the American male to his feet with cheers or to his knees with a declaration this Valentine's Day. It is made from a cream pie mix that requires no baking of crust nor cooking of filling. Basic ingredients come in one box, with graham crumbs for crust and both filling and topping mixes included. Available in chocolate, coconut and imitation banana.

ALMOND BANANA CREAM PIE
1 package (11 oz.) imitation banana cream pie mix

3 tablespoons sugar
1-3 cup softened or melted butter or margarine
2 1/2 cups cold milk
1 medium banana, sliced
2 tablespoons toasted slivered almonds
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 cup cold milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Empty graham crumbs into 9-inch pie pan. Add sugar and butter; mix well. Press firmly over bottom and sides of pan. Chill 15 minutes before filling. Blend pie filling mix with 2 1/2 cups milk in a bowl. Beat with electric mixer at low speed or with rotary beater for 2 minutes, or until thick and creamy. Fold in banana slices, almonds and almond extract. Pour into crust. Chill.

Combine 1/2-cup milk, the vanilla, and topping mix in a deep, narrow-bottom bowl. Whip with electric mixer at high speed or with rotary beater until topping peaks. Continue whipping about 2 minutes longer. Spread over top of pie. Chill. Before serving, garnish with additional banana slices and toasted almonds, if desired.

Fresh pineapple keeps its tart-sweet flavor best at normal refrigerator temperatures of 45-50 degrees. It may be stored whole or cut from its shell and wrapped in transparent plastic or a plastic bag. It keeps longer when the latter method is used. Lemon Sauce
A clear lemon dessert sauce can be made without lumps if 1 tablespoon of cornstarch is first thoroughly mixed with 1/4 cup sugar. The starch particles then will not cling together when 1 cup boiling water is stirred in and the mixture cooked 3 to 4 minutes to thicken. Remove from heat; stir in grated peel of 1 lemon, 3 tablespoons of lemon juice, and 2 tablespoons of butter or margarine. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

Harmonize Pork Sausages In Sweet Potato Blankets

"What's for supper, Mom?" "Little links in blankets, that's what."

Those little links, of course, are pork sausages. The blankets are sweet potatoes or yams, mashed and seasoned, used for covering pairs of the sausage. They have flavor harmony and are quickly made.

Cook the pork sausages in a frying-pan first, explains meat authority, Reba Staggs of the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Then cover each pair of sausages with a blanket of the sweet potatoes and bake to heat.

Sausage With Sweet Potato Blankets
1 pound pork sausage

links
1 can (16 ounces) sweet potatoes or yams
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup commercial bread crumbs

Place sausage links in frying-pan, add 3 tablespoons water, cover tightly and cook 5 minutes. Remove cover and cook slowly until lightly browned. Drain sweet potatoes, mash and season with salt. Place sausage links in pairs in lightly greased roasting pan. Cover each pair with a rounded tablespoonful of mashed potatoes. Mix crumbs over mashed potatoes and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 15 minutes, or until heated through. 4 to 6 servings.

Sweets to the sweet in Valentine petit fours.

Hearts And Flowers Day Requires Dessert Of Small Decorated Cakes

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food Editor

Love with the greatest of ease! That should be the 1969 motto. So make these Valentine petit fours and decorate with hearts and flowers.

The recipe calls for a cake mix with added ingredients. The glaze and frosting are both uncooked and easy to handle. The hearts and flowers are added with decorative frosting available in tubes or cans.

What could be easier and sweeter?

VALENTINE PETIT FOURS

1 (1-lb., 3-oz.) package white cake mix
1 (3 1/2-oz.) package lemon instant pudding mix
3/4 cup water
1/2 cup corn oil
4 eggs
1 recipe Confectioners' Sugar Glaze
Decorative frosting
Stir cake mix and pudding mix together. Stir in water and corn oil, then eggs, one at a time. Beat with medium speed on electric mixer until batter is smooth, two to three minutes. Pour into greased 15 1/2x10x1-inch jelly roll pan. Bake in 350 degrees (moderate) oven until cake springs back when lightly touched, about 30 minutes. Cool five minutes in pan. Cut into 75 (1x2-inch) pieces. Brush or spread sides, then top of cakes with glaze. Dry on rack several hours or overnight, covered with waxed paper. Frost sides of cake with frosting; then frost tops. Let excess frosting drip. Scrape off and reuse: Use decorative frosting tubes and decorate with hearts and tiny flowers.

Confectioner's Sugar Glaze: Mix 1 1/4 pounds (6 cups) confectioners' sugar and 1 cup water. Frosting: Mix 1-3-cup margarine with 1/2-cup light corn syrup. Blend in one cup sifted confectioners' sugar thoroughly. Gradually add about two pounds confectioners' sugar with 2-3-cup water, and 1/4-teaspoon almond extract.

"Gong-Ringer" Buffet Offers Exotic Curry

Here is a buffet meal that rings the gong for easy entertaining with an exotic twist: Piquant Lamb Curry with rice and accompaniments. Actually, you won't need to ring any gongs or bells to call guests to this buffet table. The aroma of gently spiced curry will have them crowding 'round. The lamb is perfectly sauced with a minimum of effort when you start with double-rich, double-thick condensed cream of mushroom soup. Seasonings of salt, pepper, and other enhancing spices are built into the soup. You add thyme and curry powder. (Guests who aren't familiar with curry will appreciate a light touch as we've used in this recipe.) Stir in low-calorie yogurt for a lively, slightly tart flavor that goes well with lamb.

You'll appreciate the buffet service because you can feed more guests than at a sit-down meal. Make it a two-course dinner... main dish and dessert. If you want an appetizer, serve it in the living room before guests go to the buffet. Guests help themselves to rice, top it with Piquant Lamb Curry and their choice of accompaniments, served in separate sauce dishes. They can choose from: crisp chopped apple (toss apple pieces with a little lemon juice so they don't discolor), toasted coconut, spicy chutney, chopped peanuts or cashews. For dessert, offer fresh fruit cups topped with cooling scoops of sherbet... refreshing after curry. Serve small cups of strong coffee. PIQUANT LAMB CURRY

2 pounds lamb cubes (1 1/2 inches), well trimmed
2 tablespoons shortening
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/4 cup yogurt
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sliced onion
1 1/2 teaspoons curry powder
1/2 teaspoon thyme, crushed
3 cups cooked rice
Chopped apple, cashews, raisins, toasted coconut, peanuts, raisins
In large heavy pan, brown lamb in shortening; pour off fat. Add soup, yogurt, water, onion, and seasonings. Cover; cook over low heat 1 1/2 hours or until tender. Stir now and then. Serve over rice. Garnish with remaining ingredients. Makes 6 servings.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bache & Co. notes that the lag between monetary restraint and its actual impact on business explains the apparent stalemate in the market. Business news continues to be mixed, the firm notes, "with a slight rise in December durable goods orders counterbalanced somewhat by a good deal of vitality. While it is difficult to make a case for a sustained upward move it is equally difficult to rationalize a severe sell-off here." The firm recommends selectivity and accumulation of sound fundamental situations, especially during periods of easiness.

Shearson, Hammill & Co. finds present "paradoxical" market action "distinctly unhealthy." The fact that economic opinion is split at the moment "and stock prices in general have no compelling reasons to take off decisively in either direction" has not stifled investors' desire to get performance from their stockholdings, the company adds.

Luncheon Set To Discuss Farm Council

The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce will be host at the Tuesday luncheon of Chamber of Commerce members at First Methodist Church, according to Bill Tidwell, incoming chairman of the chamber's agricultural and livestock committee.

Purpose of the meeting is to determine local interest in forming a Farm and Ranch Council in the area.
John McHaney, extension economist at Texas A&M University, will speak briefly on the topic, "Importance of Agriculture to the Agri-Business Community." A discussion will follow.
Options already suggested in the working of such a program include sponsored tours to feedlots, watershed dam locations, individual farm tours and a possible farm and ranch day for Pampa, Tidwell notes. The goal would be realization of the full potential of agriculture. The luncheon is set for 12 noon at a cost per plate of $1.50.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Unlike most American cities, which have only one major slum, the nation's capital has three blights.

They are the central ghetto, the Washington Senators and the Washington Redskins.

If you are the sporting type, you are probably aware that Vince Lombardi, the famed Green Bay gridironologist, has been hired to direct a Redskin rehabilitation program.

Urbanologists and other experts concerned with the problems of modern cities will be watching this program closely. For it is generally agreed that if Lombardi can rehabilitate the Redskins, anything is possible.

Lombardi Chosen

Lombardi was chosen for the job because of his success in coaching the Green Bay Packers to several professional football championships.

Not all of the fans here, however, are convinced that he is the answer to what is wrong with the Redskins.

"The trouble with the Redskins is not material," said one fan with whom I discussed the matter. "The Redskins have enough good players to be a winning team. Their trouble is a lack of spirit."

"They need someone to inspire them and spur them on during the games. The owners of the team should hire someone who is a big name in the business, who has a lot of experience and who has a record of success."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bache & Co. believes investors should look beyond the present period of adjustment to the more favorable market climate which could be established. Investment policy "should be directed toward better quality issues which reflect the continuity of the basic trends of a strong and growing economy," Bache says, adding that "Purchases should be geared to take advantage of market declines and made on an accumulative basis."

Com-State Division of Spear Staff notes that "it is becoming more apparent ... that the market has not been unduly concerned at recent levels over any unfavorable economic trends that may develop from the anti-inflation drive."

Though it is a little early to judge the full impact of the drive, the firm says, "there is a growing tendency on the part of investors to again look at any slowdown as temporary."

Vanden Broeck, Lieber & Co. says the market since mid-December has been exhibiting "self-conscious hesitation."

Many portfolio managers and private investors, the firm says, feel that speculative potentials have more often been over-exploited than under-exploited, and that "the bulk of quality industrial equities adequately reflect the growth potential of an economy whose trends may shift uncertainly between a peace effort and a military effort."

The Medal of Honor is the highest U.S. military decoration. Jack Dempsey was known as the Manassa Mauler.

Television In Review

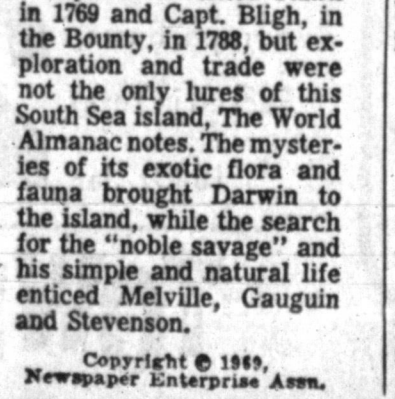

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—It was inevitable that the success of television's "Laugh-In" and Smothers Brothers series would encourage offshoots among new video shows.
 This week, a couple of linear descendants of these very hot series—which, happily, have helped bring bright young persons back to the viewing audience—will arrive on ABC-TV.
 The commercial idea behind the two new series, "Turn-On" and "What's It All About, World?", is that they might do for ABC-TV what "Laugh-In" did for NBC-TV and the Smothers Brothers did for CBS-TV.
 Computer Host
 "Turn-On" which is hosted by a computer, arrives tonight as a half-hour entry under the aegis of George Schaller, who produces "Laugh-In."
 "What's It All About, World?", a satirical contemporary revue which is hosted by actor-singer Dean Jones, arrives Thursday as an hour entry under the aegis of Saul Ilson and Ernest Chambers, the original producers of the Smothers Brothers show.
 The show, done before a live audience, will be geared for topicality. Thursday's debut, for instance, was taped Sunday and has a reference to President Nixon's recent position on the draft.
 The network opposition for "What's It All About, World?" is CBS-TV's movies and NEC-TV's "Ironside" and "Dragnet." The movies will be a combination of reruns and the weaker late-season films, but are still reasonable formidable ratings competition. "Ironside" and "Dragnet" are tough.
 Audience Research
 "I do think about the opposition of course I do," Ilson admits. "With the Smothers Brothers we had a tremendous amount of audience research on opposing shows ('Bonanza' and the Sunday movie).
 For the debut of "What's It All About, World?", Ilson and Chambers are employing similar strategy—using, as guests, Martin Landau and Barbara Bain of "Mission: Impossible."

"VAMPIRE" SENTENCED
 WARSAW (UPI)—A court in Lodz Wednesday sentenced to death Stanislaw Modzelewski, 44, the "Vampire of Galkowek," for slaying seven women. The Polish news agency PAP said Modzelewski was convicted of killing women ranging in age from 17 to 85 in the forests of Galkowek. The Polish press nicknamed him the "Vampire of Galkowek."

ASKS FOR SAMPLE
 HOBART, Tasmania (UPI)—The Tasmania Museum today appealed to Prime Minister John Gorton to ask the United States for a sample of the moon's surface "if U.S. astronauts are successful in making a landing."

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Capt. Cook visited Tahiti in 1769 and Capt. Bligh, in the Bounty, in 1788, but exploration and trade were not the only lures of this South Sea island. The World Almanac notes. The mysteries of its exotic flora and fauna brought Darwin to the island, while the search for the "noble savage" and his simple and natural life enticed Melville, Gauguin and Stevenson.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
 When the Japanese carried out their surprise attack on Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941, their airplanes flew off carriers that had rendezvoused in secret at Etorofu Island, largest of the Kuriles.
 In the summer of 1968, Russian MIG fighters rose from Etorofu to force down an American jetliner carrying American soldiers to Vietnam.
 The GI's reported it appeared to be an important military installation.
 Beyond that, little is known of these bleak and windswept islands which before Russian occupation in 1945 primarily were of importance to fishermen who sought crabs in the icy surrounding waters.
 But, like Okinawa and the Bonin islands in the south, the Japanese regard them as integral parts of Japan and they want them back.
 The islands involved are Habomai, Shikotan, Etorofu and Kunashiri, located just north of Japan's largest northernmost island of Hokkaido.
 The Russians got them by agreement at the Yalta conference and under terms of the San Francisco peace treaty after the end of World War II.
 One basis for the Japanese claim now is that the Russians never signed the San Francisco treaty.
 Aside from the territorial issue, an important factor is the safety of Japanese fishermen who find themselves in Soviet territorial waters almost the instant they leave Hokkaido.
 The Russians have seized more than 1,200 Japanese fishing boats and arrested more than 10,000 fishermen since 1945.
 The United States recognizes Japan's "residual sovereignty" over Okinawa and the other Ryukyu islands and has agreed to their eventual return.
 The Japanese have had no such luck with the Russians.
 Premier Alexei Kosygin has declared the issue of the Kuriles closed and non-negotiable. The Russians even have refused permission to Japanese families to visit graves on the islands.
 Despite the Soviet Union's rigid stand, Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato has declared that Japan cannot consider her independence restored until she has regained sovereignty over Okinawa and the northern islands.

FEELING FINE
 OBAN, Scotland (UPI)—Len Archibald telephoned his wife from his construction job and told her he missed her. Mrs. Archibald informed him, 300 miles away, he sounded tipsy.
 Archibald assured her he had slogged a couple of pints, but was feeling fine and was about to drive to see his parents in Glasgow. Mrs. Archibald hung up, called police in Oban and told them her husband was too drunk to drive.
 Police picked up Archibald a mile out of town and Wednesday a court found him guilty of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $120 and banned from driving for two years.

STILL NO 'S'LEEP
 AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI)—Several weeks ago, police received a complaint from a man who claimed he was unable to sleep because his neighbor's dog barked all night.
 He filed charges and the neighbor got rid of his dog.
 Suddenly late last week, the man again heard barking outside his bedroom window. He told police he looked out and saw the neighbor crawling on hands and knees in his lawn, barking, scratching and howling.
 The man gave up.
 "I'm going to move," he said.

Ben Barnes Named to Head State Easter Seal Campaign

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes has been named chairman of the 1969 Easter Seal Campaign in Texas. Herman W. Baker of Sherman, president of the Texas Easter Seal Society, said Barnes will lead over 20,000 volunteers in the annual appeal for funds.

The 1969 campaign will be conducted March 1 to April 6.

In accepting the Easter Seal chairmanship, Barnes said: "I am honored to take such a prominent role in activities of the Texas Easter Seal Society, a voluntary health agency that has worked to help the handicapped in Texas for 40 years. I invite the volunteer cooperation of all residents of Texas in helping to bring this excellent, vast reaching good work to as many crippled children and adults as possible in 1969."

As Appeal chairman, Lt. Governor Barnes joins with TV Star, Carol Burnett, 1969 National Easter Seal Appeal Chairman, and 223 Easter Seal Appeal chairmen across Texas who are taking part in the largest funds appeal ever staged by the Texas Easter Seal Society.

"The problem of crippling grows larger every year because one baby in every 16 born alive comes into the world with a substantial physical, mental or chemical defect, thus adding annually to the ranks of the handicapped," the Lt. Governor added.

The Texas Easter Seal Society last year provided rehabilitation and other services to over 18,000 crippled children and adults in Texas. These services were rendered regardless of cause of crippling, race, religion, or economic status.

Conrad Hilton Jr. Is Found Dead Of Heart Condition

WEST LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Conrad N. "Nicky" Hilton Jr., the handsome hotel heir whose storybook marriage to Elizabeth Taylor ended quickly in divorce, was found dead from cardiac arrest Wednesday in his home. He was 42.

A family spokesman said Hilton, son of hotel tycoon Conrad Hilton Sr., had recently returned to his plush home in the Holmby Hills section after being hospitalized for a heart condition. The spokesman said the condition had worsened in recent days.

Hilton was found dead in his bedroom, the spokesman said.

The wavy-haired Hilton became the first of Miss Taylor's five husbands when she was 17 and he was 23, in what was considered the Hollywood wedding of the year.

After his divorce from Miss Taylor, Hilton said he would never marry again, but in 1958 he wed Patricia McClintock, heiress to the McClintock oil fortune. The couple has two sons, Conrad N. Hilton III, 9, and Michael-Otis Hilton, 7.

After his second marriage, Hilton settled down and became an active businessman. At the time of his death, he was a director of Trans World Airlines, Hilton International Co., and El Paso National Bank. He also served as president of the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation.

The second Mrs. Hilton sued him for divorce in August, 1967, accusing him of "repeated acts and threats of physical violence." The divorce was never granted, but the couple was separated at the time of his death.

Rosary will be said for Hilton Friday night at St. Paul's Church here, followed the next day by a Requiem Mass.

2 AFS Students Present Program To Altrusa Club

Altrusa Club met for dinner in the Coronado Inn recently for talks by Pampa's American Field Service students.

Mrs. Frank Heare, a member of the international relations committee, introduced Mrs. E. L. Henderson, president of the American Field Service who reported there are 3,000 students from 59 countries as exchange students in the United States.

"The objective is for the students to live as a family member, and not as a guest. They want to learn to understand the differences in our countries," Mrs. Henderson said.

Mrs. Henderson introduced Helen Hill from Springs, South Africa, who is a member of the Henderson family as an exchange student.

Miss Hill said "Springs is a city of 40,000 population and similar to cities in America. The climate is ideal for exotic flowers, climbing vines and lush green country. The main industry is gold mining, some farming and sheep raising."

Mrs. Julian Key introduced her exchange son, Nobuhiro Ichiryu from Kochi City, Japan. He lives in a city of 250,000 population.

Mrs. Malcolm McDaniel discussed the club rummage sale held recently. Proceeds will be used to help a South American girl through school.

Dear Abby

by Abigail Van Buren

FOR FRIDAY, FEB. 7, 1969

YOUR BIRTHDAY Friday: Changing circumstances now begin to bring satisfaction. There is a strong urge toward less involvement. The temptation is to rationalize or to prefer logical explanations at the expense of emotional expression. Friday's natives nearly always have a knack for literary skills or at least, can tell a good story.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Authority poses no problems for you, but your friends may. Patience and forgiveness begin the repair of misplaced confidence.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Speak up for yourself where it counts. Organize your lists and give thought to plans for getting the items wanted. Arrange for new professional health advice. Make it a conservative evening.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Take your mind off other peoples' problems. Focus your own creative efforts along with the week's unfinished business. Open the way for a potentially important weekend.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Reach for the rewards you have earned. Changes in your work are favorable. There should be good news from your relatives, perhaps a wedding in some distant place. Gather your friends and celebrate.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Experiment in being more of yourself — expansive. Take advantage of novel turns of circumstance. Organize some spontaneous fun for the evening.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Formal reports, serious discussions of technicalities are "in" Friday; express yourself fully. Apply for financing, if this is in line with your long-range plan. Do something constructive toward better health.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Accept all remarks at face value. Take advantage of invitations, offers, and commendations. Family and company finances can be discussed and perhaps rearranged to good purpose.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Stick with your point of view and present it tactfully. Check your home for repairs and maintenance needs. Romance thrives if you remain on familiar ground.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): —Make the rounds Friday, let your community know you are there and active. New acquaintances from distant places may point the way to an unusual opportunity.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): —The day moves quickly. Be on your toes, and stick to the orthodox. Conferences tend to produce agreeable results. Have an evening of quiet fun.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): —Intensive study of your position will pay off. Old business ties could be a let-down. New lines of research promise to be the most productive. The changes you make now will be permanent.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): —This is a generally fortunate day which you should be able to float through on normal routines and the exhilaration of just being alive.

DEAR ABBY: My husband was married before and had two children by that marriage. We have been happily married for 5 years. His former wife never remarried. Of course we have to pay child support, which my husband has been doing regularly every month.

Well, if we are just one day late with the check, his ex-wife has his son call us up and ask where the money is. (She hasn't spoken to my husband since the divorce.) What I would like from you is a good stinging answer he could give this kid to get him off our backs. This calling to ask where the check is, is really getting to us.

NO NAME, PLEASE
DEAR NO NAME: The solution is so obvious, I can't understand why you didn't think of it. Get the support check there on time every month, and you'll not be bothered by any calls, and you won't have to have an answer.

DEAR ABBY: I am a soldier who has been in Viet Nam for 6 months. I recently received a letter from my mother telling me that my fiancée, to whom I've been engaged for 9 months, is about 4 or 5 months pregnant, and she's been going around telling everybody that she is carrying my child. I do not deny having had relations with her, but I don't see how this baby could possibly be mine. Should I write her a letter terminating our engagement and asking her to return my ring? I still love her.

NAMELESS IN VIET NAM
DEAR NAMELESS: Since you still "love" her, don't ask for the ring, ask for an explanation. Could be your mother heard wrong, or your fiancée figured wrong.

DEAR ABBY: I have exhausted every last source and am about to lose my mind trying to find the author to a quote. As nearly as I can recall it goes like this: "It is all the same to me if a man comes from Sing Sing or Harvard. We have a man—not his history."

Ten dollars to your favorite charity if you can give me the answer. Thank you. H.H.G.

DEAR H.H.G.: The author is Henry Ford. (My source: "The Great Quotations," compiled by George Seldes.) And please send 10 dollars to your local Mental Health association. You are welcome.

DEAR ABBY: I live about 15 minutes walking distance from school. Every morning, my boyfriend comes by and gives me a ride.

I have a younger sister who goes to my school and my Mom has been taking her. My father says it is silly for my Mom to make a special trip to drive my sister to school—that she should ride with my boyfriend and me. Well I don't particularly enjoy her company, so when this came up, we got into an argument, and my sister said she refused to go where she wasn't wanted. Then my father ordered her. Advice to Skiers Carefree skiing means advance planning. The effects of cold, winter weather can make even the prettiest face look weather-beaten. Before heading for the slopes, cleanse your face thoroughly and apply a skin moisturizer to keep your face from becoming dry.

Graham Couldn't Get Through to His Boss

Vince Lombardi

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
NEW YORK (NEA) — If you think the George Allen-Dan Reeves fissure out in Los Angeles shook up the natives, get a load of the intimate details behind the crackup of the Otto Graham-Edward Bennett Williams entente in Washington, D.C., which led to the hiring of Vince Lombardi.

The way we get it from the usual unimpeachable sources, the dialogue completely broke down between Otto the coach and Edward Bennett the club president. That's unusual enough in itself since both are highly articulate, verbose and ebullient characters who have little difficulty communicating.

But the trouble in the tepee of the Redskins was that they could not get through to each other in the final days of the Graham regime — actually, Otto could not get through to his boss.

“Since the Redskins were notoriously mediocre in the three years of Graham cracking (17 wins, 22 losses, three ties), rumors of his dismissal were as common as afternoon cocktails. But Otto himself could not find out any more than a Senate page boy. He asked Williams two weeks before his dismissal for a vote of confidence. Edward Bennett stalled.

The Redskins had dumped a couple assistant coaches. Otto wanted to fill the vacancies himself. Edward Bennett said, “Let's wait a couple of weeks.”

So Otto went off on a little holiday the other day 95 per cent sure that EBW was going to fill more than just a couple of assistantships. For one thing, manager had been undermined by boss. He had Sonny Jurgensen ready to unload on Atlanta in a big package deal, and Williams thumbed it down. He had Bobby Mitchell going to the Chicago Bears some time ago, and again could not get the final O.K.

A couple deals in the last year were shoved down Graham's unwilling throat — for instance, the acquisition of Gary Behan from the Rams for a first draft choice and the signing of veteran guard John Wooten after Cleveland released him.

The cost of unloading Graham was high. Otto had two years remaining on a $50,000-a-year contract, and a firm option for five more years at $30,000 per. That adds up to a cool quarter of a million dollars, and the Redskins have already raised ticket prices to help balance the budget. No wonder they offered to retain Graham in some kind of “non-coaching capacity.”

The Redskins already have this mixed up financial situation in which the controlling George Marshall interest of 52 per cent is all tied up legally. Jack Kent Cooke owns 25 per cent and apparently put pressure on Williams for a better showing of the club esthetically. So did the C. Leo DeOrsey estate, which owns five per cent, same as Milton King, who is in his camp.

Edward Bennett believes in doing things with a flair. That's why he hired Graham initially. When finally deciding on a successor to Graham, it was a cinch he would not go the traditional route of elevating a bright young assistant from his own or some other NFL organization.

Which brings us to the ubiquitous name in this type of situation — Vincent Thomas Lombardi. For several years, Lombardi has been interested in any type of position in which a piece of the action could be made available to him, simply because in Green Bay he could never share in the ownership of the team. In Washington, the DeOrsey holdings, estimated at five per cent, were offered as an inducement.

Before the Graham firing, Williams had dinner with Lombardi several times. He pooh-poohed the significance of them. Claims he frequently had dinner with Lombardi. Probably spent the evenings talking about the finger twitching of his old client, Frank Costello.

Otto wanted another chance to show he could succeed with the Redskins. Out in Los Angeles, George Allen also wanted another chance — and got it when his players, among them the starting quarterback, publicly went to bat for him. Think Otto could have gotten that kind of endorsement from Sonny Jurgensen?

You can be sure, under the new setup, that if Lombardi ever decides to trade Jurgensen, there would be no interference from the front office, that much of a change has been wrought in Washington.

Hope Classic Bottled Up

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — To hear the so-called experts talk, no one was going to tear up the four courses used in the $100,000 Bob Hope Desert Classic golf tournament, mostly because tough Tamarisk had replaced easy El Dorado.

Vince Free To Build 'Skins Winner

NEW YORK (UPI) — Vince Lombardi looked back on his history-making 10 years with the Green Bay Packers long enough today to say that Bart Starr “deserved most of the accolades” and then acknowledged “I have a winning-type quarterback in Sonny Jurgensen” in his new job with the Washington Redskins.

“I can't say how long it will be before the Redskins are a winning team,” said Lombardi, after learning that Packers' Board of Directors voted unanimously Wednesday night to release him from the five remaining years of his contract so he can become coach, chief executive officer and part owner of the Washington club. “That's something I will have to live with for the next few years.”

Lombardi was sharing in the honored spot on the dais of a Catholic Youth Organization dinner with Archbishop Terence Cooke of New York when he learned the Green Bay Board of Directors had agreed to release him.

“I am happy to get the new opportunity in Washington but sad to leave Green Bay,” he said. “I didn't know what the Green Bay Board of Directors would decide and I was sitting here a little bit concerned.”

Lombardi said he has given “some thought” to his staff of assistants, but “it is too early to make any announcement.”

At the same time he made it plain he would try to forge the Redskins into winners with the same kind of iron discipline and coordination which marked the rise of the Packers.

The decision to release Lombardi from his commitment to the Green Bay club was announced Wednesday night by Packers President Dominic Olejczak after a two-and-a-half-hour meeting of the board of directors.

Five Picked To Grid Hall

CANTON, Ohio (UPI) — Earle “Greasy” Neale, the coach who masterminded the Philadelphia Eagles' rise to two world titles in the late 1940s, heads the list of five former football stars elected today to the pro football Hall of Fame.

Joining Neale, who coached the Eagles for 10 years, are Al “Turk” Edwards, a tackle at Washington; Joe “The Jet” Perry, a fullback and Leo Nomellini, a defensive tackle, who both played with the San Francisco Forty Niners; and Ernie Stautner, a defensive tackle and end with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Neale, who earned his nickname as a flashy end at West Virginia Wesleyan, had an illustrious coaching background before taking over the lowly Eagles in 1941. His 1922 Washington and Jefferson team played in the Rose Bowl and in 1930, a Neale-coached semi-pro team, the Ironton Tanks, won four of five exhibition games against National Football League teams.

'Super Chief' Now Head of AAA League

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — The first time Allie Reynolds pitched batting practice he didn't know he was supposed to let them hit the ball. That's how he got started on a career that led to greatness.

Reynolds, who has returned to an active role in professional baseball after a voluntary 14 year absence, didn't go out for the sport when he entered Oklahoma State University. Instead, he was on a track and football scholarship, and did a bit of pitching for a fraternity baseball team.

“I was watching the Aggies work out one afternoon and Henry Iba was coaching the baseball team then,” Reynolds recalled. “He called me over and said, ‘I hear you're a good pitcher. Want to pitch some batting practice? I'll get a catcher to warm you up.’

“I told him I was ready so Mr. Iba threw me a glove. I didn't know that in batting practice I was supposed to let 'em hit it. So I threw it past three or four guys and Mr. Iba called me over to the sidelines and said, ‘Son, go get yourself a uniform. You're on the baseball team now.’

That stint in batting practice started the part Creek Indian lad on a pitching career — which he chose over professional football because he was offered $1,000 — and he made good. He was a top hand for the Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees for many years, and was the United Press International American League player of the year in 1951.

Since then, Reynolds, 51, has become a successful Oklahoma City businessman, and was once considered a possible Democratic

Rebels Next On PHS List

By RON CROSS

District 4-4A's top two defensive clubs will battle Friday night in Amarillo when P a m p a tries to extend Tascosa's losing streak to two games.

The Rebels had won 13 straight district games prior to Tuesday night's clash in Borger where the Bulldogs pulled out a slim, 54-53 victory.

Tascosa had won eight in a row but missed 17 free throws in the Borger match.

By virtue of the Borger victory Pampa shares District 4-4A's second half leadership with the ‘Dogs, both owning perfect 5-0 records.

Tascosa, the first-half winner with a 9-0 league mark, is now 4-1 in second half play. All the Rebels need to do to win the title outright is tie for the second-half title.

This can be done by Tascosa beating Pampa and its three remaining games and by Pampa or three other teams remaining for Borger to beat the Bulldogs.

The Harvesters have lost only three of 14 district games, one to Tascosa in the first half, 48-

46. In the first meeting Pampa led by one point after one quarter and trailed by one after two periods of play but led again — this time by three points — after three quarters.

But Tascosa came on strong in the final period behind the shooting of 6-3 senior Jim Ryan to win the game.

Ryan, Les Cundiff and Mare Case are all averaging in double figures for the Rebels and Ryan and Case are returning starters from last season.

Case, a 6-0 senior is the team's leading scorer with a 13.7 league mark. He leads Cundiff, a 6-0 junior by a slim margin. Cundiff has totaled 190 points for a 13.5 average and Ryan is averaging 11.7 points per contest.

The Rebels also play Robert Mauldin, a 6-2 senior, 6-1 senior Bob Bridges and 6-2 junior Gary Eogan.

Tascosa has the best defensive average in the district with a 47.7 mark. The Rebels have allowed only 669 points while Pampa has given up 685 points for a 48.9 average per game.

All-Sports Banquet Details Complete

Sports notes from here and the area...

The Pampa High School All-Sports banquet is being handled differently this year.

First it is an All-Sports affair with athletes from (believe it or not) all sports to attend. The banquet, hosted by the Harvester Booster Club, will be held in two sessions.

You Don't Say... By RON CROSS

A meal for athletes, dates and parents of the performers will be held at 6 p.m. in the High School cafeteria.

Beginning at 8 p.m., in the high school auditorium, presentation of the Fighting Harvester award, Hustling Harvester award and introduction of the football and basketball teams, and we assume the baseball, track, golf and tennis teams will be held.

Also in the auditorium all-pro tackle Bob Lilly of the Dallas Cowboys will speak to all who can pay $3 for the meal and presentation or $1.50 for the presentation or Lilly.

Tickets for the March 3 banquet will be on sale Feb. 15.

Master of ceremonies at the banquet is Dr. Harbord Cox, president of the Harvester Booster Club, where football and basketball queens will also be crowned.

Lefors will host its annual high school track meet March 22 with at least 17 schools in attendance competing in two divisions.

The big school division will be Class A and the small school Class B.

McLean, Clarendon, White Deer, Canadian, Sunray, Gruver, Groom, Sanford-Fritch, Vega, Alamo Catholic, Happy, Claude will make up the big school division and Booker, Follet, Lefors, Lazbuddie and Morse are the smaller schools entered.

The 11 team district track meet is scheduled for Lefors also, this one on March 28-29.

We could tell you right now of two area coaches who will resign soon, one is being considered for a top job in New Mexico, but we won't tell you...

The Pampa High School spring sports schedule, with the exception of tennis, has been released.

And, as usual, Pampa will not host a track meet.

But the Pampa ‘hinclands’ will make eight meets, including the district affair, April 12 in Plainview.

The Harvesters runners will open in a meet this month, the 22nd at Plainview, then go to Vernon on March 1, Dumas March 8; Sunray March 15; Perryton March 22; Amarillo Relays March 28-29 and a meet in Borger, April 5.

Ed Lehnick and Bob McAlister coach the tracksters.

Pampa golfers, coached by Buddy Williams, open play Feb. 21-22 in Andrews then go to Snyder before opening district play at Lubbock March 7.

The district golfers will be in Pampa April 4 in the next to last round with the windup scheduled in Amarillo April 11.

Baseball coach Tom Lindsey and assistant James Pullen open this season March 4 in Borger. All Pampa home games will again be played in Optimist Club park and for the first time the Harvesters will be allowed to hold their workouts there.

The baseball schedule is not complete and the Harvesters play Borger twice, Anadarko, Okla. three times and Canyon once before opening district play March 28 against Lubbock in Lubbock. The next day Pampa meets Monterey in Lubbock.
