U.S. Unloads 270 Tons Of Bombs On Edge Of DMZ

Three Predawn Raids Kill 92 North Viets

SAIGON (UPI) - Three flights of B52 Stratoforters unloaded 270 tons of bombs along the southern edge of the demilitarized zone (DMZ) today in a campaign to head off Communist attacks against Allied border bases. The three predawn raids one to two miles below the strip that divides North and South Vietnam were designed to "hit them (the North Vietnamese) before they hit us," a U.S. military spokesman said. It was the first time since the last week in June that the big bombers had gone after North Vietnamese troops so close to the DMZ, indicating the U.S. Command's concern for the safety of its troops along the strip. Intensified fighting on that northern front Monday cost the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese 92 killed, headquarters said, and served notice of a new flurry of Communist activity as field commanders had predicted. South Vietnamese troops who fought the scattered battles in Quang Tri Province, just below the DMZ, listed their losses as light. Headquarters said the lull in Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacks pushed well into its fifth week with small clashes Monday killing a total of 178 Communists across South Vietnam.

Oil Interests Dismayed Over Proposed Cut

By United Press International
As expected, Texas oil interests were dismayed today over a Congressional move to reduce the oil depletion allowance. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes said he was "extremely disappointed." Ben Ramsey, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, said the plan, if adopted, would curtail oil discoveries. Corbin J. Robertson, president of Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, said the move was made in the face of political pressure and would hurt consumers and independent oil producers. Gov. Preston Smith was out of the state and unavailable for comment. The House Ways and Means Committee voted Monday to cut the present 27.5 per cent oil depletion allowance to 20 per cent and eliminate it entirely on overseas drilling by U.S. companies. The oil depletion allowance, under present statutes, allows oil companies to pay no federal income taxes on 27.5 per cent of their gross income from oil and gas production. The theory working behind the law was that production depletes oil reserves. Barnes said he had anticipated a much smaller cut. Barnes said Monday when he learned of the House move. He said he was "extremely disappointed." The lieutenant governor said the cut could hurt state finances. "The oil and gas industry pays 41 per cent of all our state taxes," Barnes said. "A decrease in the depletion allowance will decrease exploration, and this in turn will reduce state revenues." Barnes said. "Texas produces more oil than any other state." "I plan to work with members of the Texas delegation to see if there is some way this cut can be decreased before final action is taken," Barnes said. The prospect of a cut in the depletion allowance means the special session of the Texas Legislature, to convene next week, will be hesitant to tap the petroleum industry for new state taxes needed over the next two years, Barnes said. A cut in the depletion allowance, according to Ramsey, will attacks in the fifth week of their battle lull. U.S. troops summoned all the firepower at their command in two fights outside Saigon Monday—killing seven guerrillas in an ambush 16 miles northwest of the capital and 12 nearly 18 miles to the southwest. American losses in the two brief fights—with U.S. helicopter gunships, artillery, AC47 gunships and divebombers pounding away at the Communist DRAINING THE ARENA - Workers were busy early this morning draining water from the rodeo arena at Recreation Park after heavy rains hit Pampa Monday night. Despite the rain, which caused water to stand in several spots in the arena, officials said the arena would be ready for action when the first session of the Kid Pony Show opened this afternoon.

Moon Explorers Are Looking For A Pinpoint To Make Re-Entry

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Apollo 11's returning moon explorers, looking for a pinpoint in space to make a safe re-entry to earth, did their moon mission so well that the next U.S. lunar landing flight may be delayed. At the Manned Spacecraft Center, engineers and technicians already are studying information piped back by the moon pioneers to see how they can make future missions go even more smoothly. Particularly important was the data that Michael Collins, Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. "Buzz" Aldrin got on the final 30,000 feet of the trip to the moon's surface. The astronauts blasted away from moon orbit early today and began their two-day journey home. Their flight plan was deliberately left free of major events to let them rest after their epic flight and prior to their return Thursday. They went into orbit around the moon Saturday, and landed Eagle, the lunar module, on the surface of the Sea of Tranquility Sunday. "I think probably the areas that we learned the most about were the descent and the lunar activity," said Flight Director Glynn Lunney. Because the space agency is looking at changes to make in succeeding flights, the launch of Apollo 12 carrying Charles Conrad Jr., Richard F. Gordon, and Alan L. Bean, may be postponed from September until November. Apollo 12's 363-foot rocket is

Kid Pony Show, Miniature Rodeo Starts Tonight

Entries closed at 11 a.m. this morning for the annual Top O' Texas Kid Pony Show and Miniature Rodeo, which held its first performance at 2 p.m. today. The second and final performance by youngsters, aged 5 through 15, is scheduled at 7:30 p.m. today at the rodeo grounds in Recreation Park. Tickets for tonight's performance are 25 cents for children and 50 cents for persons 12 and older. A total of 26 events were scheduled for this afternoon's performance and 18 events are on tap for this evening. Youngsters will hold a gold rush, boys' bull riding, girls' pole bending, boys' pole bending and girls' and boys' stake races. A parade, beginning at 4 p.m. Wednesday will signal the kickoff to the 25th annual Top O' Texas Rodeo scheduled Wednesday through Saturday nights. The parade forms west of Coronado Center then will move across Coronado Dr. to Hobart St. The route then goes south on Hobart to West St. south on West to Browning, east on Browning to Cuyler and south on Cuyler to Craven. Holly Gray and Tennie Reynolds are parade chairmen. Tickets for the rodeo are on sale at the Pampa Chamber of Commerce Rodeo Office. Box seats may be purchased for $66 and this is good for each night's performance. Reserved seats cost $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children. General admission tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Nixon To Begin Globetrotting

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Nixon, exuberant about the success of the Apollo 11 moon mission, planned a crowded day before starting out on a seven-nation tour which will take him around the world and back by Aug. 3. The Chief Executive is scheduled to start his trip late tonight after attending the major league All-Star baseball game here. He will spend the night in San Francisco, then continue to Johnston Island, south of Hawaii. From this small island he will proceed by helicopter to the USS Hornet and watch the recovery Thursday of the triumphant Apollo 11 astronauts. "That's good news," Nixon said as astronauts Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. Aldrin lifted off the moon Monday afternoon. He will talk to the astronauts Thursday through a window in their quarantine hut. The president, on this busy day of departure, planned to have breakfast with Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress. During the late morning he planned to talk with 3,000 high school students on the south lawn of the White House, meet with the executive board of the National Governors' Conference, and in the early afternoon receive a traditional gold lifetime pass to all National League ball parks from league President Warren Giles. Late in the afternoon—about 4 p.m. EDT—the President, a baseball fan, planned a reception for the All-Star players, members of the Baseball Hall of Fame and their families. Then he said Mrs. Nixon was expected to attend the game in Robert F. Kennedy Stadium before setting out on their trip. The President would be accompanied through the Manila stage of the trip by Secretary of State William P. Rogers. It was likely Nixon would make a side trip to Vietnam for a visit with American troops—as President Lyndon B. Johnson twice did—but such a movement to a war zone would not be disclosed in advance. Nixon's itinerary will take him around the world in 49 flying hours, but roughly 11 elapsed days. The President planned to meet Monday night with newsmen assigned to the trip but he dropped this idea in favor of a meeting on Guam, late on the evening of July 23. His stop at San Francisco was described by the White House as strictly procedural. He and his wife will spend the night in the St. Francis Hotel.

News In Brief

SAIGON (UPI) - An Australian entertainer, Catherine Anne Barnes, was shot and killed Sunday night during a performance southwest of Da Nang, the U.S. Military Command announced today.
FORT DAVIS, Tex. (UPI) - University of Texas scientists aimed their laser beam and fired toward a reflector placed on the moon by two American astronauts.
AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) - Some pharmacists, unhappy with the Medicaid program, refuse to fill some prescriptions because they felt they were not being properly reimbursed, according to the former commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration.
WASHINGTON (UPI) - World esteem, lost by the United States' involvement in Vietnam, was regained by man's first walk on the moon, according to Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex.
SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI) - Lt. Gen. Sam C. Phillips, Apollo program director, said today the Apollo 12 astronauts will have their moon landing postponed for at least two months.
SAIGON (UPI) - President Nguyen Van Thieu said in a speech released today it would be at least two years before national elections could be set up to include the Viet Cong.
YORK, Pa. (UPI) - Gov. Raymond P. Shafer ordered the Pennsylvania National Guard into York early today to assist state and local police in an attempt to quell racial violence.
WASHINGTON (UPI) - N.R. Danielson, president of the International Economic Policy Association, testified Friday that failure and inadequacy of the Alliance for Progress cannot be blamed on nonperformance by the United States. Danielson told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that "with honorable exceptions" Latin American countries have not enacted the agrarian and tax reform they were supposed to. The committee is holding hearings on the proposed foreign aid budget for this fiscal year.
WASHINGTON (UPI) - Gen. Earle G. Wheeler returned from a quick trip to Vietnam today with the assertion that there still is no way to tell whether a recent battlefield lull represents any sign of Communist de-escalation.

Legislation For Increasing Speed Limits Gets Okay

A city ordinance changing maximum speed limits on six Pampa thoroughfares was approved on first reading by the city commission today. The changes, in practically all instances, provide for increased speeds in ten zones on the six streets. The legislation sets up the following speed limits:
A maximum of 55 miles an hour on N. Hobart from 28th Ave. to 25th Ave.
45 miles an hour on N. Hobart from 25th Ave. to 23rd Ave.
McCullough from Farley to Barrett, McCullough from Clark to Barnes.
40 miles an hour on S. Hobart from Oklahoma to McCullough, Aleock from Rider to Hobart, Wilks-Brown-Frederic from Dwight to Wells.
35 miles an hour on Hobart from 23rd Ave. to Oklahoma, Wilks-Brown-Frederic, from Wells east to Tignor, Duncan from Georgia north to the alley north of 28th Ave. Harvester from Duncan east to the alley east of Venus Dr.
The ordinance will get its second and final reading at the Aug. 12 city council meeting.

Kennedy's Trial Set For Monday

EDGARTOWN, Martha's Vineyard, Mass. (UPI) - A hearing to determine whether Sen. Edward M. Kennedy will have to face prosecution for leaving the scene of an accident in which a young woman was killed has been set for July 28. Court Clerk Thomas A. Teller set the hearing date for next Monday at the request of Edgartown attorney Richard J. McCarron, retained by the senior Massachusetts senator. If probable cause is found and Kennedy, considered a leading presidential candidate in 1972, is arraigned on the charge, he will face a minimum sentence of two months or a maximum of two years if convicted. However, suspended sentences, fines and probationary periods are generally ordered by the court in such cases. McCarron's request for the hearing to determine whether Kennedy should be prosecuted at all followed the formal filing of an application for a motor vehicle complaint against Kennedy by Police Chief Dominick J. Arena.

Negotiators Are In A Serious Deadlock

PARIS (UPI) - A Western diplomat said today there is little hope for progress, at the Vietnam peace talks unless the Communists drop their demand for a "confession of guilt" from the United States. The diplomat, who asked not to be identified, said Allied and Communist negotiators had talked themselves into an almost unbreakable deadlock by bogging down in arguments over who started the war. The problem revolves around one central point, he said. "The North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong want a confession of guilt from the United States. And if they got it, there would be nothing left to negotiate." The diplomat said if the United States admits to Communist accusations that it is guilty of aggression against Vietnam, "it would follow that the United States would have to withdraw unconditionally as the Communists demand." He added that if the United States agreed to withdraw unconditionally, the Communists would say it proved the United States was guilty of aggression and had to withdraw. The Western diplomat said President Nixon's negotiators apparently came to this same conclusion, leading Washington to devise the police of replacement of American troops by South Vietnamese forces to undermine such Communist arguments in advance. "If Washington says its troops are being replaced by Vietnamese government forces instead of being withdrawn unilaterally, neither Hanoi nor the Viet Cong will be able to make much propaganda out of this," he said. The diplomat said Washington was not entirely without fault in creating the deadlock because it avoided discussion of political matters for the first three months of the four-way negotiations and still refuses to concede that Vietnam is one country. "The North Vietnamese Communists have fought almost 25 years for a unified Vietnam," he said.

Spain Has New King Designate

MADRID (UPI) - A tall and tanned prince, not well enough known to be popular with his people, won Gen. Francisco Franco's approval today as Spain's king designate. Prince Juan Carlos of Braganca, 31, father of three, will inherit the throne abandoned by his grandfather 38 years ago when Franco dies or steps down as Spain's chief of state. Franco, 76, summoned the 354-member Cortes (parliament) into a special afternoon session to make official what government sources reported last week—that Juan Carlos would be his successor. Overwhelming Cortes approval was virtually assured for the athletic prince whom Franco has groomed for the job since Juan Carlos was 15 years old. The prince had the military's backing, a necessity. All indicators pointed to a continuation of Franco's policies once the generalissimo steps down, a move not expected in the near future. Until then, Juan Carlos will be called the Prince of Spain. Franco's appointment by-passed the prince's father, Don Juan, the 56-year-old son of Spain's last king, Alfonso XIII. Don Juan has ranked Franco with criticism of his strongman regime. Only recently have Juan Carlos and his wife—Princess Sophie of Greece—began making public appearances to enhance their standing with the Spanish people.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Well, you saw it. Buck Rogers is for real. The dreamers, as usual, lit the way for practical men. The Wright Brothers really started something.

And somehow it seemed just right that a fellow named Armstrong, an all-American boy, should be the first man set foot on the moon. Shades of Jack-Armstrong, the original all-American boy.

Incredible. There was no other way to describe the lengthy broadcast live and direct from the moon Sunday night and early this morning (depending where you live across the nation).

Astronauts Neil Armstrong and Ed Aldrin stepped out on the moon hours ahead of schedule. A lot of fancy special features the networks had planned for prime time were sidetracked.

But for millions of viewers who figured they would have to stay up until the middle of the night—almost dawn in some areas—in order to see the full moon telecast, it was a grand break. They could see it all and still get a night's sleep.

The moon landing was packed with breathtaking moments for televiewers. First, Sunday afternoon; there was the setting down of the spacecraft on the lunar surface. Three was no telecast of this live and direct, but viewers could feel the incomparable thrill of the moment as it was announced.

LITERATURE FOR AMENDMENT — Joe Reed, of Amarillo, regional office director for Texas Welfare Department, and Mrs. David Pilcher, program director for Pampa Republican Women's Club, discuss proposed Constitutional Amendment number five which would raise welfare payments in Texas. Reed explained the amendment and its affects during a Republican Women's Club meeting at Mrs. Bob Sholar's home, 1115 Kiowa Place. Texas voters will decide the amendment's fate at the polls Aug. 5.

Republican Women's Group Reviews Amendments To Raise Welfare Aid

By WANDA MAE HUFF
Daily News Women's Editor

Pampa Republican Women's Club learned Friday how a proposed constitutional amendment will affect the status of Texas welfare programs and named two delegates to the national Republican Women's convention in September.

Mrs. Bob Sholar was named delegate and Mrs. George Cree Jr., alternate delegate to the National Republican Women's Club convention in Washington, D. C., Sept. 25, 26 and 27. Several delegates also plan to attend the state convention in Austin Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

Joe Reed, of Amarillo, regional office director of Texas State Welfare Department, met with club members at Mrs. Sholar's home, 1115 Kiowa Place, and explained effects of Constitutional Amendment No. 5, which raises the annual ceiling on assistance payments from $60 million to $80 million.

"It will immediately make available as of Sept. 1, an additional $15 million per year for the next two years," Reed said.

"It enables the Welfare Department to provide at least the bare minimum of payments to the elderly, blind, disabled and to the children of poverty."

"This built-in appropriation allocated the extra $15 million a year to help adults as well as children. It will raise the Old Age Assistance from $48,200,000 to $50,000,000 a year. It will raise the amount for Aid to Permanently and Totally Disabled from $4,250,000 to $5,500,000 a year and will raise the amount for Aid to Families with Dependent Children from $6,150,000 to $18,100,000 annually.

"About 90 per cent of Texas' welfare expenditures goes to the elderly, disabled and blind. The other 10 per cent goes to the children, those too young to work, but who need help in growing up," he said.

The Welfare Department believes $25 a month should be provided for a child's food and clothing, and this is recognized as only a bare minimum. Yet, as of May 1, only $12.50 a month, 50 per cent of the minimal amount, is available.

If this amendment is defeated, he said, "even the $12.50 a month provided per child for food and clothing will be cut or eliminated completely because the Welfare Department is running out of money," he said.

The basic function of Texas Welfare Department is to see to the survival and protection of the young, the old, and the blind and disabled. Each of the 132,000 dependent children on Texas' welfare rolls receives only 82 cents a day; the 229,000 old age assistance recipients, $58.96 a month; the blind $71.71 and the totally and permanently disabled, $58.96 a month, he said.

The number of dependent children is increasing about 3,000 a month. Other children are being abused, abandoned and neglected by immature, mixed-up parents, but our child protection staff is too slim to offer the counseling they need, he said.

Whether their mothers work, are needed full time in the home, or are too uneducated or handicapped to hold even the lowest paying jobs, these children are here and need food, care, shelter and education, Reed said.

MAINLY ABOUT SKELLYTOWN

SKELLYTOWN (SPL)—Mrs. and Mrs. Adolph Novotny have returned home from a vacation trip to Harrington, Kans., where they visited her brother, E. A. Smith and family, visited a nephew and family at Sebree, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Morris D. Smith, and attended a Smith reunion at Vanant, Mo.

Dewayne Trimble has been discharged from the Army and has accepted a position at the Cabot Machine Shop in Pampa. His wife, the former Patricia Beighle, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Beighle, Skellytown.

Sherry Tice has returned home after a two weeks visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bramlow, Minco, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Farris, Denver, Colo., spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Kate Enoch, and visited other relatives in Amarillo.

Mrs. Kate Enoch has returned home from a trip to Sayre, Okla., where she was a guest in the home of a niece and family, the Rev. Gordon Patterson and two sons Harold and Jim.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woods had as guests in their home last week, his sisters, Mrs. Ruth Welch, Fort Worth, and Mrs. Nettie Clinton, Vologah, Okla. Mr. Woods accompanied his sisters to Colorado Springs, Colo., where they visited a brother, Ira Woods and family.

Mrs. Maybelle Roe has as guests in her home, her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Hogget and son Roger, Phoenix, Ariz., also a son J. B. Roe, his wife and two sons, Fort Worth. Mrs. Roe will accompany her daughter and family to their home for a visit.

Rev. and Mrs. Weldon Thomas, pastor of the Skellytown Community Church, has resigned to accept the position as pastor of a Methodist Church at Fort Smith Ark. They left early Tuesday morning, accompanied by Misses Laura Kay and Marla Payne Snodgrass, who will spend the next four weeks with Rev. and Mrs. Thomas.

Murle Harlan and family, Fort Worth, were called to Skellytown last week by the death of his father, Rob Harlan of the Spring Creek Community.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Beighle and son Wayne, Skellytown and Mrs. Harlan Yates and children; and Frank Henderson of Pampa recently flew two planes to Ekalka Mont, for a sight seeing trip and also visited in the Fred Yates home.

Mrs. Mamie Varnon was surprised with a birthday party recently in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Cody at the Cabot Camp.

"Their problem and ours is that the Texas Constitution places a limit on the amount of money Texas can spend to help its needy citizens—the elderly, blind, the disabled and the children, who through no fault of their own were born as poverty's children.

The question of meeting their needs will be presented to voters Aug. 5 when the legislature proposes constitutional amendment Number Five to raise state welfare payments, he said.

JEANE DIXON

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23

Your birthday Wednesday: Change and expansion are the key words for the coming year. Make as few innovations as you can in order to keep matters organized. Some old habits must be broken. Changes are also indicated in romance. Wednesday's natives impress the opposite sex more than their own. Sudden impulses are often expressed by wanderlust.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Be observant and attentive Wednesday. Any reference to the past may turn out to be a mistake, either with business deals or personal relations. Since you do not have enough help to begin with, avoid fatigue by pacing your efforts—and stay cheerful.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): If you can avoid scattering money, Wednesday is extraordinarily interesting. Your creative activities and your long-range plans for them tend to attract fascinating people. Make the most of it!

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Change and transfer are the keywords for Wednesday. The transition from one way of thinking to another happens suddenly, from within.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): It is time to move forward with new contracts, relocation, change or exchange of property.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): On the job, think where you'd like to be and what you'd like to do; decide if what you are doing now fits in with these goals. Get on with planning, select the right foundation.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Prepare to take advantage of a break or inside information. Somebody thinks very well of you. You have earned an increase in status, so do not hesitate in acceptance.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Your plans continue heavy but constructive. By now others have adopted some of your views and you can relax, to a degree.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Tuesday still has its effects on Wednesday. Take advantage of the disruption of routines, and make a holiday of it. Enjoy a party at night.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Your regular work is no problem Wednesday. Ask for the return of loaned money or property. Seek an active role during the evening rather than a passive one.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Your health care can be improved Wednesday. Consult specialists if you have any doubts. General travel for its own sake, if you can afford it, is highly recommended.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - March 20): Generous relatives sharing their news inspire an interesting idea. Do not assume that they themselves already had the idea; just use it. Young people create some concern, much noise.

Area Residents Feted With Party

SKELLYTOWN (SPL)—Rev. and Mrs. Weldon Thomas were honored recently with a farewell party in the Fellowship Hall of the Skellytown Community Church—by members of the congregation.

The Thomas' are moving to Fort Smith, Ark. where he will be pastor of a Methodist Church. Members of the congregation and friends presented the Thomas' with a gold money tree.

Refreshments of cake and homemade ice cream were served to about 40 guests.

Putting a spatter finish on an antique piece of furniture is as easy as a flick of the wrist, says the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association. It's just one of many effects you can get with antiquing kits simply by varying the way in which you apply the toner. Here's how it's done: Use a stiff bristle brush—an old toothbrush is fine. Dip bristles of brush into paint. "Spring" the bristles with your finger to throw a fine spray of toner over the undercoating. Don't load the brush too heavily with toner. You'll have splatters, not spatters.

Store orange and lemon rinds in a plastic bag and freeze until needed. They are much easier to grate than when fresh.

Business, Professional Women Attend District Nine Luncheon

Business and Professional Women's Club officers from throughout the Panhandle, including five from Pampa, attended a District Nine business luncheon in Amarillo Sunday.

Representing the Pampa B&PW Club were Mrs. Earl Eaton, president; Mrs. M. E. Powers, first vice president; Mrs. Ruby Cunningham, second vice president; Mrs. Pearl Castka, immediate past president; and parliamentarian, and Miss Elsie Gunningham, membership chairman.

Mrs. Ralph Headlee, Perryton, district nine director who presided, spoke on "Tools For Doing the Job" and displayed federation manuals and handbooks containing policies and programs.

Mrs. Joe Cox, Dumas, was elected district nine director to succeed Mrs. Headlee. Mrs. Francis Foster, Amarillo, was elected district representative on the state nominating committee.

Mrs. Cox reported on plans for the district nine conference, which will be held in Dumas in October.

Mrs. Hazel Crawley, Amarillo, the 1970 state convention chairman, discussed parliamentary plans for the Texas Federation of B&PW Clubs' convention, which is slated in Amarillo June 12, 13 and 14.

As Mrs. Headlee presented several Texas Federation of B&PW Club certificates and awards to district clubs, Mrs. Balon accepted a "distinguished service award" for the Pampa club. The citation was for program achievements as a "criteria club" in carrying out the federation's objectives and projects for three consecutive years.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I raised five children, and when the last one got married, I thought at last Dad and I could take it easy. No such luck. In fact, it's worse than ever now. The two married girls bring me their husbands' shirts to do up, and my new daughter-in-law brings me all her laundry.

Dad and I can't go anywhere to fish on weekends because we always have a couple of our six grandchildren with us. This place is getting to be more like a motel with meals and laundry service every day. How can I drop a hint broad enough to get out from under this load?

TIED
DEAR TIED: A "hint"? That's like using a B. B. gun when you need a cannon. Call a summit meeting and sum it up: Tell your children the kitchen is closed, and so is the laundry and free baby sitting service. And do it now, while there is still time to enjoy yourselves or you'll die in the harness.

DEAR ABBY: Within the last year my husband has reached lovingly for me in his sleep, calling me by the names of different girls in his office.

He says he is not responsible for what he does in his sleep. As you can well imagine, this has upset me terribly, and I have not been able to respond to him as a wife should. I love my husband, so I am asking you, Abby, is he, or is he not responsible for what he says in his sleep?

HEARTSICK
DEAR HEARTSICK: He is not. But keep your eye on him while he's awake.

DEAR ABBY: How do you get rid of an ex-wife? My boyfriend and I are planning on getting married soon, after going together for a year.

His ex-wife (they were married 18 years) divorced him three years ago and she never gave him any trouble until she found out he was going with me. Now she keeps sending him articles from newspapers and magazines pertaining to "making a marriage work," saying now she sees her mistakes, and she wants to "try again."

He has told her politely to please let him alone, but these letters and clippings continue to come.

Her "secret weapons" are their children, which she uses for all they're worth. But how can I stop her from bothering my boyfriend? She is driving us nuts.

RIVERSIDE
DEAR RIVERSIDE: If your boyfriend wants to discourage her, his best bet is to ignore her and the clippings. But you stay out of it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BOBBY": Put your best foot forward, but don't try too hard to make an impression because invariably that's the impression you will make.

Ribless Corduroy Becomes Fall's Sportswear Look

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor
NEW YORK (NEA)—A new version of an old favorite, corduroy, has become fall's newest look in sportswear. Uncut corduroy with a ribless, velours-like surface comes in a multitude of styles to appeal to every taste.

Put-togethers are the fashion story from junior petites to better misses' designs. Toppers include cropped bolero vests, long tunic vests, bush-pocketed pant-dresses, blazers, battle jackets — all worn over something — shiny jersey shirts, floral cotton shirts, knit turtleneck sweaters, combined with pants, wide leg pants, straight leg pants, shorts, or paired with scooter skirts, wrap skirts, long skirts.

There are the multitude of do-your-own-thing looks. Go western in a yoked, shearing collared, snap-closed jacket worn with matching low rise jeans. In a South of the Border mood, select an earth brown embroidered ribless corduroy bolero. Toss it on over a wide-sleeved blouse and pair these with a sashed, gouchon pant.

Be a country girl in a far-merette suspended cover-all paired with a red and white flower-strewn blouse. Or be sportive in a safari jumpsuit over a shiny knit Australian bush shirt for the newest layered look.

When evening comes, go glamorous in a black ribless evening blazer suit (it looks like velveteen) worn with a dashing, lavishly laced white ascot blouse.

LITERATURE FOR AMENDMENT — Joe Reed, of Amarillo, regional office director for Texas Welfare Department, and Mrs. David Pilcher, program director for Pampa Republican Women's Club, discuss proposed Constitutional Amendment number five which would raise welfare payments in Texas. Reed explained the amendment and its effects during a Republican Women's Club meeting at Mrs. Bob Sholar's home, 1115 Kiowa Place. Texas voters will decide the amendment's fate at the polls Aug. 5. Republican Women's Group Reviews Amendments To Raise Welfare Aid

By WANDA MAE HUFF
Daily News Women's Editor

Pampa Republican Women's Club learned Friday how a proposed constitutional amendment will affect the status of Texas welfare programs and named two delegates to the national Republican Women's convention in September.

Mrs. Bob Sholar was named delegate and Mrs. George Cree Jr., alternate delegate to the National Republican Women's Club convention in Washington, D. C., Sept. 25, 26 and 27. Several delegates also plan to attend the state convention in Austin Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

Joe Reed, of Amarillo, regional office director of Texas State Welfare Department, met with club members at Mrs. Sholar's home, 1115 Kiowa Place, and explained effects of Constitutional Amendment No. 5, which raises the annual ceiling on assistance payments from $60 million to $80 million.

"It will immediately make available as of Sept. 1, an additional $15 million per year for the next two years," Reed said.

"It enables the Welfare Department to provide at least the bare minimum of payments to the elderly, blind, disabled, and to the children of poverty."

"This built-in appropriation allocated the extra $15 million a year to help adults as well as children. It will raise the Old Age Assistance from $48,200,000 to $50,000,000 a year. It will raise the amount for Aid to Permanently and Totally Disabled from $4,250,000 to $5,500,000 a year and will raise the amount for Aid to Families with Dependent Children from $6,150,000 to $18,100,000 annually.

"About 90 per cent of Texas' welfare expenditures goes to the elderly, disabled and blind. The other 10 per cent goes to the children, those too young to work, but who need help in growing up," he said.

The Welfare Department believes $25 a month should be provided for a child's food and clothing, and this is recognized as only a bare minimum. Yet, as of May 1, only $12.50 a month, 50 per cent of the minimal amount, is available.

If this amendment is defeated, he said, "even the $12.50 a month provided per child for food and clothing will be cut or eliminated completely because the Welfare Department is running out of money," he said.

The basic function of Texas Welfare Department is to see to the survival and protection of the young, the old, and the blind and disabled. Each of the 132,000 dependent children on Texas' welfare rolls receives only 82 cents a day; the 229,000 old age assistance recipients, $58.96 a month; the blind $71.71 and the totally and permanently disabled, $58.96 a month, he said.

The number of dependent children is increasing about 3,000 a month. Other children are being abused, abandoned and neglected by immature, mixed-up parents, but our child protection staff is too slim to offer the counseling they need, he said.

Whether their mothers work, are needed full time in the home, or are too uneducated or handicapped to hold even the lowest paying jobs, these children are here and need food, care, shelter and education, Reed said.

Sherry Tice has returned home after a two weeks visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bramlow, Minco, Okla.

Mrs. Kate Enoch has returned home from a trip to Sayre, Okla., where she was a guest in the home of a niece and family, the Rev. Gordon Patterson and two sons Harold and Jim.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woods had as guests in their home last week, his sisters, Mrs. Ruth Welch, Fort Worth, and Mrs. Nettie Clinton, Vologah, Okla. Mr. Woods accompanied his sisters to Colorado Springs, Colo., where they visited a brother, Ira Woods and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Beighle and son Wayne, Skellytown, and Mrs. Harlan Yates and children, and Frank Henderson of Pampa recently flew two planes to Ekalka Mont., for a sight seeing trip and also visited in the Fred Yates home.

"Their problem and ours is that the Texas Constitution places a limit on the amount of money Texas can spend to help its needy citizens—the elderly, blind, the disabled and the children, who through no fault of their own were born as poverty's children.

The question of meeting their needs will be presented to voters Aug. 5 when the legislature proposes constitutional amendment Number Five to raise state welfare payments," he said.

Your Horoscope

JEANE DIXON

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23

Your birthday Wednesday: Change and expansion are the key words for the coming year. Make as few innovations as you can in order to keep matters organized. Some old habits must be broken. Changes are also indicated in romance. Wednesday's natives impress the opposite sex more than their own. Sudden impulses are often expressed by wanderlust.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Be observant and attentive Wednesday. Any reference to the past may turn out to be a mistake, either with business deals or personal relations. Since you do not have enough help to begin with, avoid fatigue by pacing your efforts—and stay cheerful.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): If you can avoid scattering money, Wednesday is extraordinarily interesting. Your creative activities and your long-range plans for them tend to attract fascinating people. Make the most of it!

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Change and transfer are the keywords for Wednesday. The transition from one way of thinking to another happens suddenly, from within.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): It is time to move forward with new contracts, relocation, change or exchange of property.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): On the job, think where you'd like to be and what you'd like to do; decide if what you are doing now fits in with these goals. Get on with planning, select the right foundation.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Prepare to take advantage of a break or inside information. Somebody thinks very well of you. You have earned an increase in status, so do not hesitate in acceptance.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Your plans continue heavy but constructive. By now others have adopted some of your views and you can relax, to a degree.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Tuesday still has its effects on Wednesday. Take advantage of the disruption of routines, and make a holiday of it. Enjoy a party at night.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Your regular work is no problem Wednesday. Ask for the return of loaned money or property. Seek an action during the evening rather than a passive one.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Your health care can be improved Wednesday. Consult specialists if you have any doubts. General travel for its own sake, if you can afford it, is highly recommended.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Generous relatives sharing their news inspire an interesting idea. Do not assume that they themselves already had the idea; just use it. Young people create some concern, much noise.

Business, Professional Women Attend District Nine Luncheon

Business and Professional Women's Club officers from throughout the Panhandle, including five from Pampa, attended a District Nine business luncheon in Amarillo Sunday.

Representing the Pampa B&PW Club were Mrs. Earl Eaton, president; Mrs. M. E. Powers, first vice president; Mrs. Ruby Cunningham, second vice president; Mrs. Pearl Castka, immediate past president; and parliamentarian, and Miss Elsie Cunningham, membership chairman.

Mrs. Ralph Headlee, Perryton, district nine director who presided, spoke on "Tools For Doing the Job" and displayed federation manuals and handbooks containing policies and programs.

Mrs. Joe Cox, Dumas, was elected district nine director to succeed Mrs. Headlee. Mrs. Francis Foster, Amarillo, was elected district representative on the state nominating committee.

Mrs. Cox reported on plans for the district nine conference, which will be held in Dumas in October.

Mrs. Hazel Crawley, Amarillo, the 1970 state convention chairman, discussed parliamentary plans for the Texas Federation of B&PW Clubs' convention, which is slated in Amarillo June 12, 13 and 14.

As Mrs. Headlee presented several Texas Federation of B&PW Club certificates and awards to district clubs, Mrs. Eaton accepted a "distinguished service award" for the Pampa club. The citation was for program achievements as a "criteria club" in carrying out the federation's objectives and projects for three consecutive years.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I raised five children, and when the last one got married, I thought at last Dad and I could take it easy. No such luck. In fact, it's worse than ever now. The two married girls bring me their husbands' shirts to do up, and my new daughter-in-law brings me all her laundry.

Dad and I can't go anywhere to fish on weekends because we always have a couple of our six grandchildren with us.

This place is getting to be more like a motel with meals and laundry service every day. How can I drop a hint broad enough to get out from under this load?

TIED: DEAR TIED: A "hint" that's like using a B. B. gun when you need a cannon. Call a summit meeting and sum it up: Tell your children the kitchen is closed, and so is the laundry and free baby sitting service. And do it now, while there is still time to enjoy yourselves or you'll die in the harness.

DEAR ABBY: Within the last year my husband has reached lovingly for me in his sleep, calling me by the names of different girls in his office.

He says he is not responsible for what he does in his sleep. As you can well imagine, this has upset me terribly, and I have not been able to respond to him as a wife should.

I love my husband, so I am asking you, Abby, is he, or is he not responsible for what he says in his sleep?

HEARTSICK: DEAR HEARTSICK: He is not. But keep your eye on him while he's awake.

DEAR ABBY: How do you get rid of an ex-wife? My boyfriend and I are planning on getting married soon; after going together for a year.

His ex-wife (they were married 18 years) divorced him three years ago and she never gave him any trouble until she found out he was going with me. Now she keeps sending him articles from newspapers and magazines pertaining to "making a marriage work," saying now she sees her mistakes, and she wants to "try again."

He has told her politely to please let him alone, but these letters and clippings continue to come.

Her "secret weapons" are their children, which she uses for all they're worth. But how can I stop her from bothering my boyfriend? She is driving us nuts.

RIVERSIDE: DEAR RIVERSIDE: If your boyfriend wants to discourage her, his best bet is to ignore her and the clippings. But you stay out of it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BOBBY": Put your best foot forward, but don't try too hard to make an impression because invariably that's the impression you will make.

Ribless Corduroy Becomes Fall's Sportswear Look

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor
NEW YORK (NEA)—A new version of an old favorite, corduroy, has become fall's newest look in sportswear. Uncut corduroy with a ribless, velours-like surface comes in a multitude of styles to appeal to every taste.

Put-togethers are the fashion story from junior petites to better misses' designs.

Toppers include cropped bolero vests, long tunic vests, bush-pocketed pant-dresses, blazers, battle jackets — all worn over something — shiny jersey shirts, floral cotton shirts, knit turtleneck sweaters, combined with pants, wide leg pants, straight leg pants, shorts, or paired with scooter skirts, wrap skirts, long skirts.

There are the multitude of do-your-own thing looks. Go western in a yoked, shearing collared, snap-closed jacket worn with matching low rise jeans. In a South of the Border mood, select an earth brown embroidered ribless corduroy bolero. Toss it on over a wide-sleeved blouse and pair these with a sashed gouchou pant.

Be a country girl in a far-merette suspended cover-all paired with a red and white flower-strewn blouse. Or be sportive in a safari jumpsuit over a shiny knit Australian bush shirt for the newest layered look.

When evening comes, go glamorous in a black ribless evening blazer suit (it looks like velveteen) worn with a dashing, lavishly laced white ascot blouse.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM UPI Foreign News Analyst On April 22, 1915, the Germans successfully launched a cylinder of chlorine gas against French and British troops in the Ypres sector of World War I and thus officiated at the birthing of chemical warfare.

Since severe technical damage has already been done throughout the list, as it is likely that whenever the solid support, it will undergo a period of erratic swings before investors' confidence can be restored. TPO Inc. said. Until market stability indicates a possible bottom, investors and traders are advised to step cautiously, the firm added.

For the majority of stocks this year, lows have now been seen, according to Winslow, Cohn & Stetson. As of the moment, however, no one appears willing to look farther ahead than the end of his nose, the firm said.

It seems probable that the intermediate downturn from the May recovery high has not much more to go, and it is at least possible that it has been completed, Wolfe & Co. said. Whether its final low will also mark the terminus of a 1968-69 major downturn remains to be seen, but it cannot be ruled out, the firm added.

Chances are Fryer and director Michale Sarnie would have made their jobs infinitely less complicated had they selected an actress of modest dimensions. Mia Farrow or Audrey Hepburn, for example. They are confronted by a definite problem in Miss Welch that no one has ever which, to date, has been her greatest asset.

Anti-Poverty Project Under Probe For Possible Prosecution Charges

WASHINGTON—A much publicized Negro anti-poverty project is being closely scrutinized for possible prosecution charges of embezzlement, fraud, payroll padding, kickbacks and other illegalities.

Subject of this searching inquiry by the U.S. attorney here is PRIDE, Inc., a black-operated organization established for the announced purpose of providing employment for Washington's ghetto youth. Since it was hastily launched in the summer of 1967 when tensions were running high and the capital appeared on the verge of racial violence, government agencies have dished out $6.1 million to PRIDE.

Last of these handouts was a $3.8 million contract from the Labor Department in September of last year — just as the hectic election battle was getting underway.

The U.S. attorney's potential prosecutive examination is the latest of a number of investigations of PRIDE. It has been under fire virtually throughout most of its existence.

A special team of government lawyers is making the probe. They have seized PRIDE's books and other records, and have been quietly questioning witnesses for several weeks. There is no indication what progress has been made in this unannounced inquiry, or when action is likely to result.

Last year the General Accounting Office, on express orders of the Senate Appropriations Committee, dug into PRIDE's affairs. The committee instituted this investigation following numerous charges of PRIDE grafting and boondoggling.

In its report, the GAO charged PRIDE with numerous "weaknesses," and other shortcomings, as follows: "The serious weaknesses in PRIDE's system of accounting and internal control allowed for conditions under which many of the irregularities and improprieties that have been alleged could have occurred. Also we cannot conclude that all funds advanced to PRIDE under its first two contracts

DRILLING INCREASED HOUSTON (UPI)— U.S. oil drilling records showing 2,077 rigs active in June recorded increases in development and exploration. Late figures showed 2,515 new wells drilled as compared to 2,388 the month before and 2,340 in June a year ago. June also reflected an upturn in wildcat tests with 577 recorded for the month against 63 last month.

The 15,000 ton converted ocean liner will arrive at Galveston Bay, completing a 13,676 mile cruise for students participating in the university's "summer at sea" program.

Hollywood In Review

By VERNON SCOTT UPI Hollywood Correspondent HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—If you can believe Raquel Welch as a man, you may be in deep trouble.

At any rate, the bosomy actress will play the title role in "Myra Breckinridge," Gore Vidal's novel about the man who undergoes a sex change.

Raquel will play Myra before and after the operation. After, maybe. But before? "Certainly," said the sultry star of "100 Rifles" and "Lady in Cement." She went on to say, "there is a big secret how I will play the male episodes in the picture.

"I've been assured that cinematographic tricks will be used to cover up the fact that I'm a woman."

It would appear a more awesome task than adding the face of Darryl Zanuck to Mt. Rushmore. Zanuck's 20th Century-Fox is filming the epic. In the breathless exuberance of beautiful film queens, Miss Welch said, "I wanted to play this part because I'm like Myra in many ways. I like her sense of humor."

The studio spent months searching for the proper (or improper) star to play Myra. Eight men and Raquel were tested for the dubious distinction of portraying a woman and a man—simultaneously and individually.

Miss Welch was anxious to play the role, agreeing to a screen test, which to the professional actor or actress is the ultimate put-down.

Chances are Fryer and director Michale Sarnie would have made their jobs infinitely less complicated had they selected an actress of modest dimensions. Mia Farrow or Audrey Hepburn, for example.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST WASHINGTON (UPI)—Many consumers are trying to beat the high cost of food this summer by growing their own vegetables at home. This is a very good idea except for one thing. It doesn't work.

A consumer may be able to raise a few vegetables all right. Some of which may even be edible. But speaking from long and bitter experience, I can tell you that a home garden is totally useless as an anti-inflation device.

For more than 25 years I have maintained a small "victory" garden in my back yard. I started it during World War II. Some day I hope world conditions will permit me to abandon it. But as long as the international situation remains like it is, I have no choice but to keep it growing.

Meanwhile, I have become something of an expert on the financial, if not the horticultural, aspect of home gardening. Let us say, for example, that tomatoes are selling for 49 cents apiece at your friendly neighborhood supermarket. So you go out and plant a dozen tomato plants in your back yard.

Theoretically, this will enable you to save $7,200 on tomatoes. But that is not what happens in practice.

In practice, you nurture them. You stake them, water them, weed, dust and fertilize them, making certain to remove the

Stereo Thieves At Work Again

Pampa police received a report from Mike Stevens, 1901 N. Dwight, that this city's car stereo thieves were at work again Friday night. Approximately $2,000 worth of car stereos and tapes have been stolen out of Pampan's cars since February.

Stevens estimated the loss of his automatic radio, tape player and 15 tapes at $205.

TANE Speakers To Speak In Pampa Churches

Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE) representatives will speak in six Pampa Churches next Sunday.

TANE speakers, ministers and laymen of several Christian denominations, speak in some 2,500 churches in Texas each year.

Churches in Pampa to have TANE speakers on Sunday include Calvary Baptist, Fellowship Baptist, Church of God, Church of the Nazarene, Hobart Baptist and Central Baptist.

The organization is dedicated to the prevention of problems that arise from the use of alcohol, narcotics and other dangerous drugs. TANE programs include public school assembly programs, publishing, production of audio visual aids, legislative information service, free film lending library, and an annual school on alcohol and narcotics studies, sponsored jointly by TANE and Baylor University.

TANE's books and film strips, geared to prevent alcohol and drug problems, have been distributed throughout the English-speaking world. Some are being translated into other languages for use in the Far East and South America.

A non-profit, educational organization, TANE is supported financially by Texas churches of 19 denominations.

"The speaker's purpose in visiting a church is not to reach drunks and narcotics addicts, but to report to the church on alcohol and drug problems, what can be done, and what is being done about them," said Rev. Albert F. Tucker, TANE executive director.
