meaning pivot her as the caller friend and neighbor, Dock in a little two-room house an in his mid-30s.

Much later than the time Mrs. with their granddaughters, I didn't know the location of Channel 4 kerchief between their palms the half-dugout where the family lived. If anyone had grabbed hold of a young woman and jumped and bounced and kicked the way the TV dancers do, they would have been very quietly escorted off the floor! It was my grandmother's boast that she could dance the thirty-two step schottische with a cup of water on her head. And she and a neighbor, Ruth "Widow" Robinson, spent many an evening dancing to the tune of our victrola when they were in their sixties. Come to think of it, looking ahead, that isn't nearly as old as it seemed then!

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The stogle, a long thin cigar, derives its name from the famed Conestoga wagon, The World Almanac says. Originally the stogie was supposed to be up to a foot in length and was made by Conestoga wagon drivers for long trips across the Allegheny Mountains. The crudely rolled tobacco came to be known as conestogies and then just stogies.

We gave up begging Mother to see a doctor and have her hearing checked, thus avoiding the angry denials that we'd so often heard.

When Mother was present, we spoke in normal manner, refusing to shout or repeat what we had said. Consequently she was left out of all the conversations. When she plained, we reminded her in tones that she could hear that we saw no reason to yell or repeat since we believed her when she said there was nothing the matter with her hearing.

After a while Mother decided that perhaps she ought to have her hearing tested to find out if she was deaf. She was. Now Mother wears a hearing aid she no longer has a problem. And neither have we.

Your Horoscope

By Jean Dixon WEDNESDAY, AUG. 6

YOUR BIRTHDAY WED-NESDAY: — Surprises mark the coming year, according to individual qualities. Much progress is made in anything creative. Romance comes and goes. Wednesday's natives often are impulsive, taking unnecessary chances. Publicity sooner or later attends them.

ARIES (March 21-Apr. 19): -Your diligence in checking facts and figures will net you a saving - and lose a petty schemer. Your perspective is important; remember that everything costs more than expected at this time, particularly medical items.

'AURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): -Now is the time to present your suggestions, petitions, requests for increases. Financial arrangements, aided by advice from counselors, can be reviewed Wednesday with good prospects.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): — Your general liveliness leads to meeting people important to you. Make use of the chance to improve your acquaintance. If relatives have placed a mission in your hands, get it done.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): -Home improvement is favored Wednesday. Use your connections for forthright (but orthodox) enterprises. Take the initiative early, stay with EO (July 23-Aug. 22); — Any feeling of being limited by circumstances is temporary. Contemplate plans for the coming three or four years; think in larger terms. Wednesday is late enough to break the habit of taking the easy

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): -Elaborate schedules defeat impromptu Wednesday. No serious time is lost. If you have begun to expect too much, some emotional confusion is normal.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Stay with the conservative, the sure-thing type of venture. If you borrow, do it in the morning. Carry your share of any expenses on trips or entertainment. This is a good time to overcome any annoying habit.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): -The ideas of other people tend to conflict with yours. Wait for the complete story. Start early to do something about health. Get a second medical opinion perhaps.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): - Opportunities promise to come your way, according to how your serenity attracts them. At the same time put forth consistent effort. Celebrate quietly in the eve-

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): - The young will find Wednesday exciting; the young in spirit will find a deeper, more subtle magic. All this is for the here and now. Arrangements for the future are not favored.

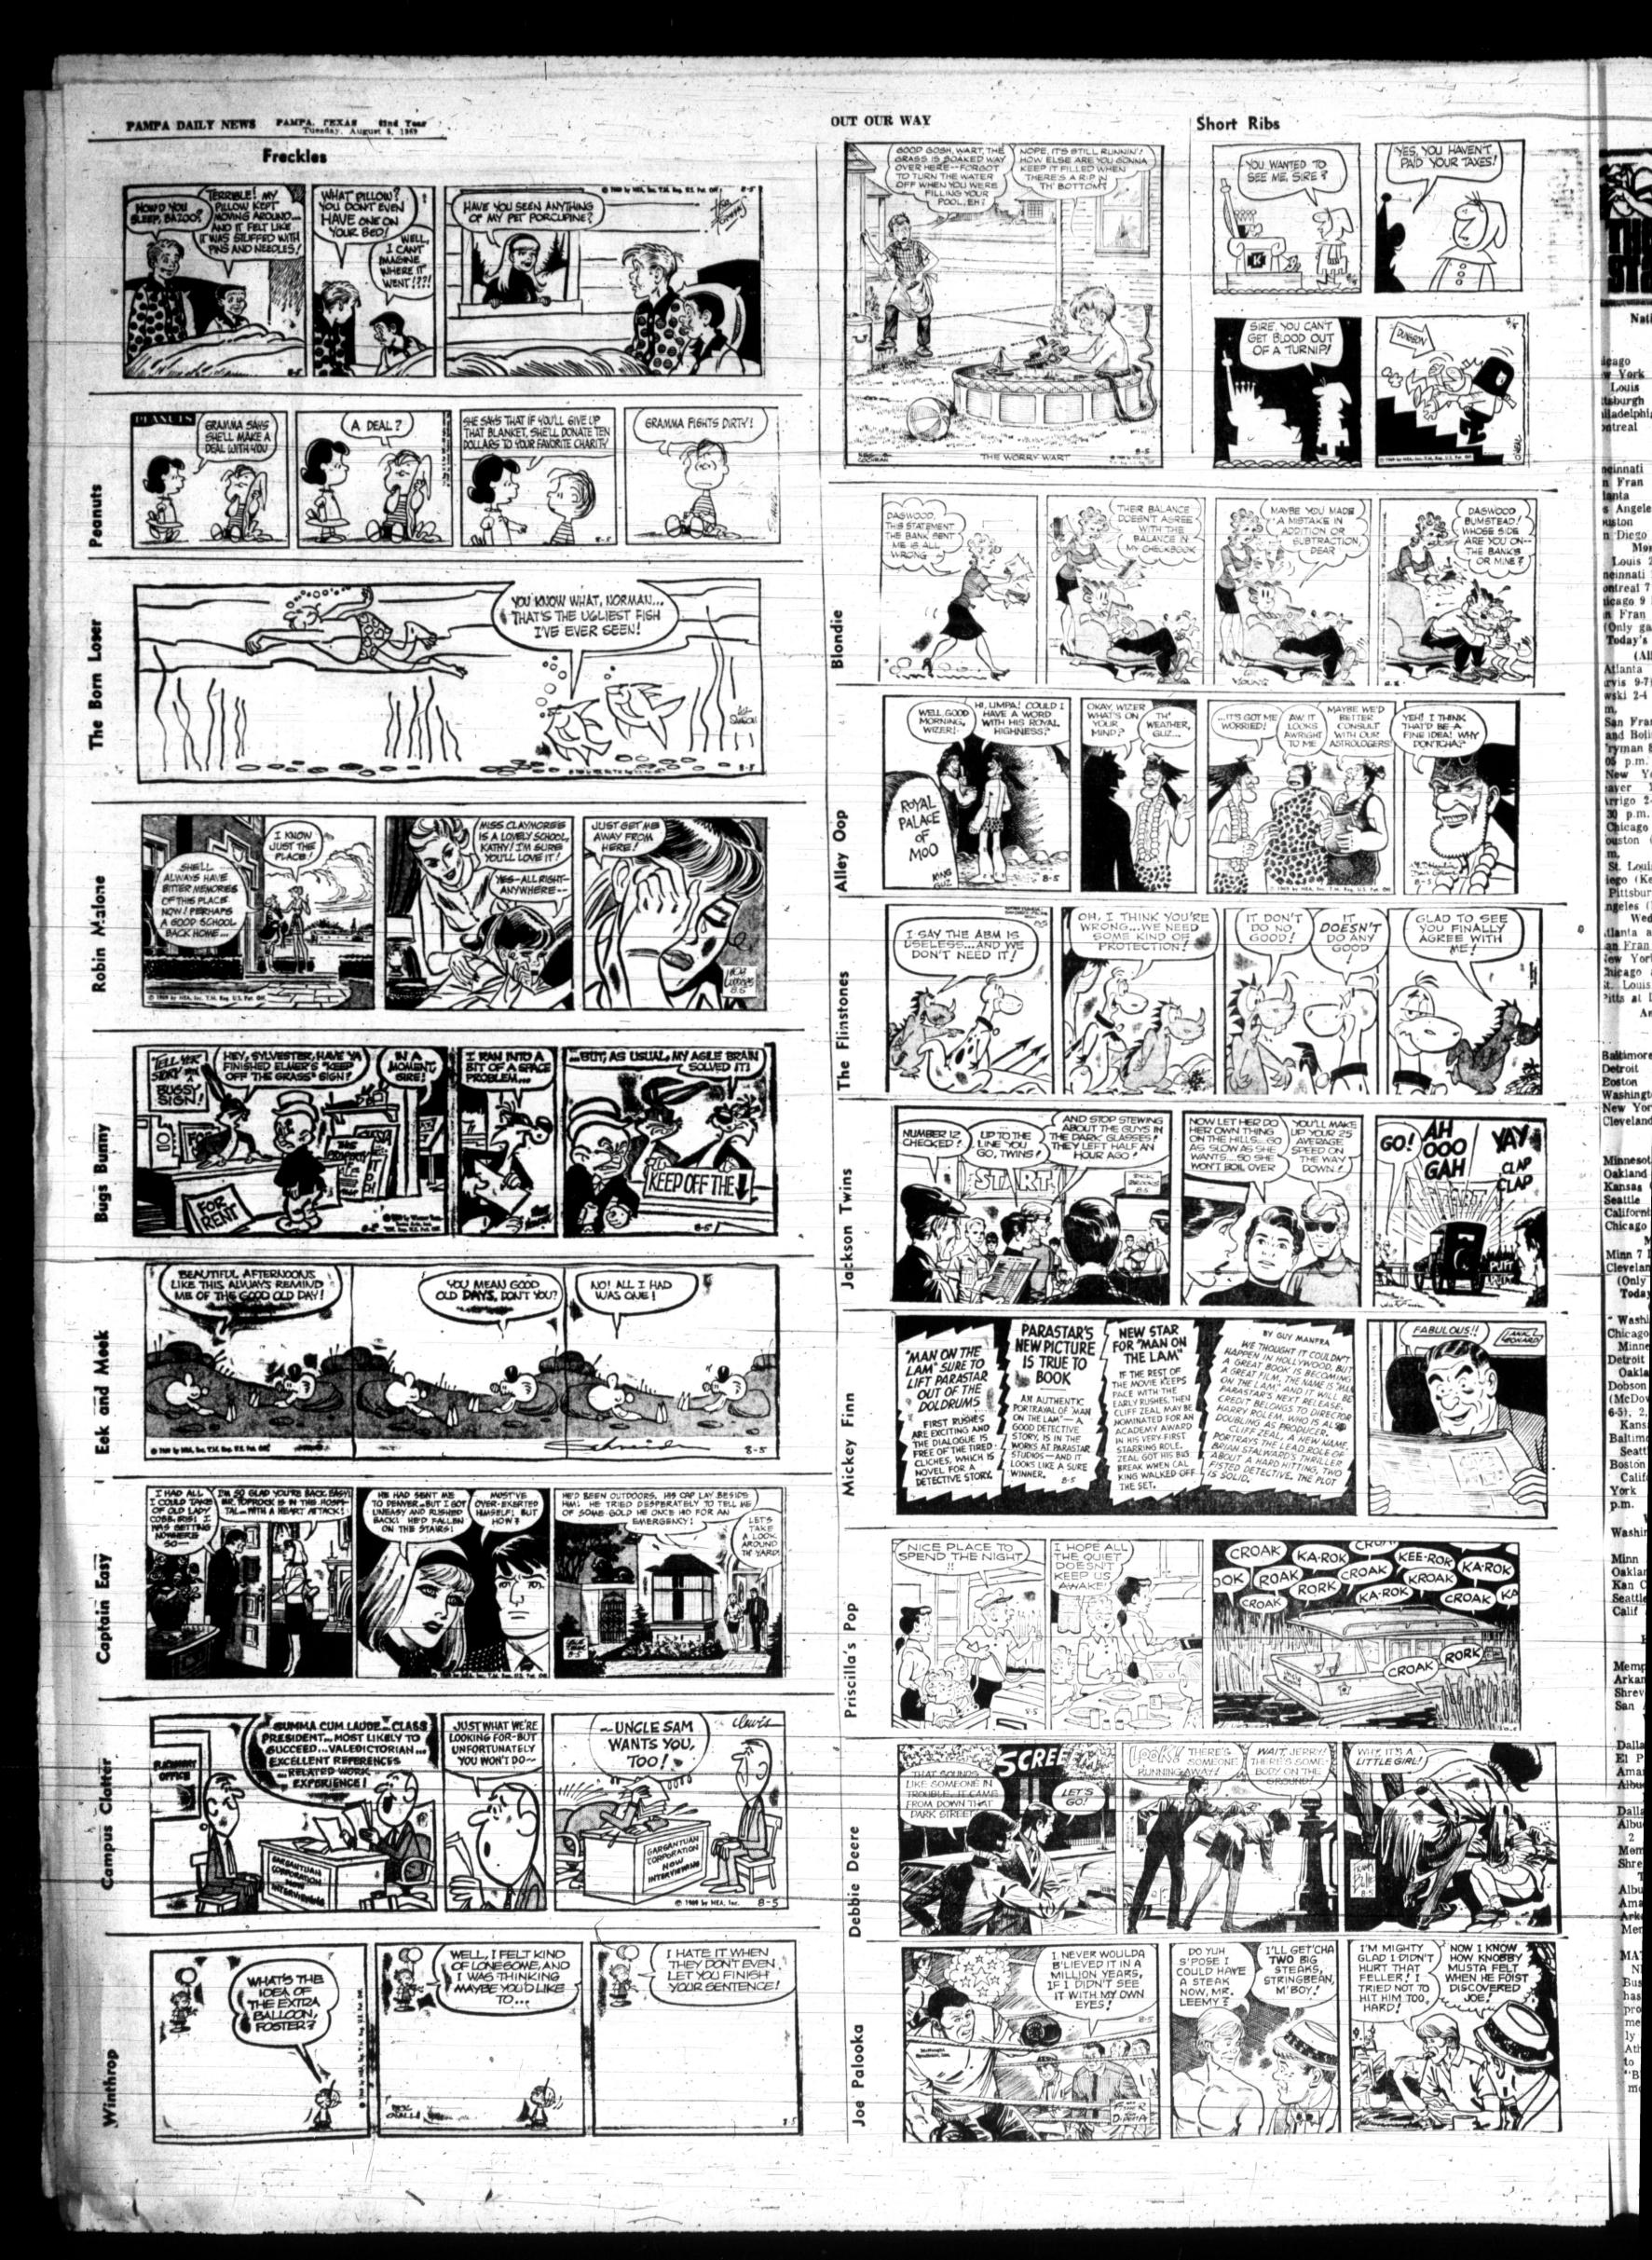

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): - Distant, difficult matters turn out to be amendable, while nearby, normally easy arrangements are troublesome at every turn. Balance near and far.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): -Everybody wants to talk so be a good listener, but refrain from taking action. Take your loved ones with you if you
